 wickedness,
 and the iniquity of our fathers;
 for we have sinned against you.
<sup>21</sup> Do not abhor us, for your name’s sake.
 Do not disgrace the throne of your glory.
 Remember, and don’t break your covenant with us.
<sup>22</sup> Are there any among the vanities of the nations that can cause rain?
 Or can the sky give showers?
 Aren’t you he, Yahweh our God?
 Therefore we will wait for you;
 for you have made all these things.

15

<sup>1</sup> Then Yahweh said to me, “Though Moses and Samuel stood before me, yet my mind would not be toward this people. Cast them out of my sight, and let them go out! <sup>2</sup>
 It shall happen, when they tell you, ‘Where shall we go out?’ Then you shall tell them, ‘Yahweh says:
 “Such as are for death, to death; and such as are for the sword, to the sword;
 and such as are for the famine, to the famine;
 and such as are for captivity, to captivity.”’
<sup>3</sup> “I will appoint over them four kinds,” says Yahweh: “the sword to kill, and the dogs to tear, and the birds of the sky, and the animals of the earth, to devour and to destroy. <sup>4</sup> I will cause them to be tossed back and forth among all the kingdoms of the earth, because of Manasseh, the son of Hezekiah, king of Judah, for that which he did in Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup> For who will have pity on you, Jerusalem?
or who will bemoan you?
or who will turn aside to ask of your welfare?

<sup>6</sup> You have rejected me," says Yahweh.
"You have gone backward:
therefore have I stretched out my hand against you,
and destroyed you;
I am weary with repenting.

<sup>7</sup> I have winnowed them with a fan in the gates of the land;
I have bereaved them of children.
I have destroyed my people.
They didn't return from their ways.

I have brought on them against the mother of the young men a destroyer at noonday.
I have caused anguish and terrors to fall on her suddenly.

<sup>9</sup> She who has borne seven languishes;
she has given up the spirit.
Her sun has gone down while it was yet day.
She has been disappointed and confounded:
and their residue will I deliver to the sword before their enemies," says Yahweh.

<sup>10</sup> Woe is me, my mother, that you have borne me a man of strife and a man of contention to the whole earth!

I have not lent, neither have men lent to me;
yet everyone of them curses me.

"Most certainly I will strengthen you for good.

Most certainly I will cause the enemy to make supplication to you in the time of evil and in the time of affliction.

even iron from the north, and brass?

<sup>13</sup> Your substance and your treasures will I give for a plunder without price,
and that for all your sins,
even in all your borders.

<sup>14</sup> I will make them to pass with your enemies into a land which you don't know;
for a fire is kindled in my anger, which shall burn on you."

remember me, and visit me,
and avenge me of my persecutors.
You are patient, so don't take me away.
Know that for your sake I have suffered reproach.

<sup>16</sup> Your words were found,
and I ate them.
Your words were to me a joy and the rejoicing of my heart, for I am called by your name, Yahweh, God of Armies.

<sup>17</sup> I didn't sit in the assembly of those who make merry, nor rejoiced;
I sat alone because of your hand;
for you have filled me with indignation.

<sup>18</sup> Why is my pain perpetual,

and my wound incurable,
 which refuses to be healed?
 Will you indeed be to me as a deceitful brook,
 like waters that fail?
<sup>19</sup> Therefore Yahweh says,
 "If you return, then I will bring you again,
 that you may stand before me;
 and if you take out the precious from the vile,
 you shall be as my mouth.
 They shall return to you,
 but you shall not return to them.
<sup>20</sup> I will make you to this people a fortified bronze wall;
 and they shall fight against you, but they shall not prevail against you;
 for I am with you to save you and to deliver you," says Yahweh.
<sup>21</sup> "I will deliver you out of the hand of the wicked, and I will redeem you out of the hand of the terrible."

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh's word came also to me, saying, <sup>2</sup> "You shall not take a wife, neither shall you have sons or daughters, in this place." <sup>3</sup> For Yahweh says concerning the sons and concerning the daughters who are born in this place, and concerning their mothers who bore them, and concerning their fathers who became their father in this land: <sup>4</sup> "They shall die grievous deaths:
 they shall not be lamented, neither shall they be buried; they shall be as dung on the surface of the ground; and they shall be consumed by the sword, and by famine; and their dead bodies shall be food for the birds of the sky, and for the animals of the earth."

<sup>5</sup> For Yahweh says, "Don't enter into the house of mourning, neither go to lament, neither bemoan them; for I have taken away my peace from this people," says Yahweh, "even loving kindness and tender mercies. <sup>6</sup> Both great and small shall die in this land; they shall not be buried, neither shall men lament for them, nor cut themselves, nor make themselves bald for them; <sup>7</sup> neither shall men break bread for them in mourning, to comfort them for the dead; neither shall men give them the cup of consolation to drink for their father or for their mother.

<sup>8</sup> "You shall not go into the house of feasting to sit with them, to eat and to drink." <sup>9</sup> For Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel says: "Behold, I will cause to cease out of this place, before your eyes and in your days, the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride. <sup>10</sup> It shall happen, when you shall show this people all these words, and they ask you,
 'Why has Yahweh pronounced all this great evil against us?' or 'What is our iniquity? or 'What is our sin that we have committed against Yahweh our God?' <sup>11</sup> Then you shall tell them, 'Because your fathers have forsaken me,' says Yahweh,
 'and have walked after other gods, and have served them, and have worshiped them, and have forsaken me, and have not kept my law; <sup>12</sup> and you have done evil more than your fathers; for, behold, you walk every one after the stubbornness of his evil heart, so that you don't listen to me. <sup>13</sup> Therefore will I cast you out of this land into the land that you have not known, neither you nor your fathers; and there you shall serve other gods day and night; for I will show you no favor.'

<sup>14</sup> "Therefore behold, the days come," says Yahweh, "that it shall no more be said, 'As Yahweh lives, who brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt;'

<sup>15</sup> but, 'As Yahweh lives, who brought up the children of Israel from the land of the north, and from all the countries where he had driven them.' I will bring them again into their land that I gave to their fathers.

<sup>16</sup> "Behold, I will send for many fishermen," says Yahweh, "and they shall fish them up; and afterward I will send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain, and from every hill, and out of the clefts of the rocks. <sup>17</sup> For my eyes are on all their ways; they are not hidden from my face, neither is their iniquity concealed from my eyes. <sup>18</sup> First I will recompense their iniquity and their sin double, because they have polluted my land with the carcasses of their detestable things, and have filled my inheritance with their abominations."

and my refuge in the day of affliction, to you shall the nations come from the ends of the earth, and shall say,
"Our fathers have inherited nothing but lies, vanity and things in which there is no profit.

this once will I cause them to know my hand and my might; and they shall know that my name is Yahweh."

and with the point of a diamond.
It is engraved on the tablet of their heart, and on the horns of your altars.

<sup>2</sup> Even their children remember their altars and their Asherah poles by the green trees on the high hills.

I will give your substance and all your treasures for a plunder, and your high places, because of sin, throughout all your borders.

<sup>4</sup> You, even of yourself, shall discontinue from your heritage that I gave you.
I will cause you to serve your enemies in the land which you don't know, for you have kindled a fire in my anger which shall burn forever."

"Cursed is the man who trusts in man,
and makes flesh his arm,
and whose heart departs from Yahweh.

<sup>6</sup> For he shall be like a bush in the desert, and shall not see when good comes,
but shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness,
a salt land and not inhabited.

- 7 “Blessed is the man who trusts in Yahweh,
and whose confidence is in Yahweh.
- 8 For he shall be as a tree planted by the waters, who spreads out its roots by the river,
and shall not fear when heat comes,
but its leaf shall be green;
and shall not be careful in the year of drought, neither shall cease from yielding fruit.
- 9 The heart is deceitful above all things, and it is exceedingly corrupt.
Who can know it?
- 10 “I, Yahweh, search the mind,
I try the heart,
even to give every man according to his ways, according to the fruit of his doings.”
- 11 As the partridge that sits on eggs which she has not laid, so is he who gets riches, and not by right;
in the middle of his days they shall leave
him,
and at his end he shall be a fool.
- 12 A glorious throne, set on high from the beginning,
is the place of our sanctuary.
- 13 Yahweh, the hope of Israel, all who forsake you shall be disappointed.
Those who depart from me shall be written in the earth, because they have forsaken Yahweh,
the spring of living waters.
- 14 Heal me, O Yahweh, and I shall be healed;
save me, and I shall be saved:
for you are my praise.
- 15 Behold, they tell me, “Where is Yahweh’s word?
Let it be fulfilled now.”
- 16 As for me, I have not hurried from being a shepherd after you; neither have I desired the woeful day; you know.
That which came out of my lips was before your face.
- 17 Don’t be a terror to me:
you are my refuge in the day of evil.
- 18 Let them be disappointed who persecute me,
but let not me be disappointed;
let them be dismayed,
but don’t let me be dismayed;
bring on them the day of evil, and destroy them with double destruction.
- 19 Thus said Yahweh to me: “Go, and stand in the gate of the children of the people, through which the kings of Judah come in, and by which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem; <sup>20</sup> and tell them, ‘Hear Yahweh’s word, you kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, that enter in by these gates: <sup>21</sup> Yahweh says, “Be careful, and bear no burden on the Sabbath day, nor bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem; <sup>22</sup> neither carry a burden out of your houses on the Sabbath day, neither do any work: but make the Sabbath day holy, as I commanded your fathers. <sup>23</sup> But they didn’t listen, neither turn their ear, but made their neck stiff, that they might not hear, and might not receive instruction. <sup>24</sup> It shall happen, if you diligently listen to me," says Yahweh, "to bring in no burden through the gates of this city on the Sabbath day, but to make the Sabbath day holy, to do no work therein; <sup>25</sup> then shall there enter in by the gates of this city kings and princes sitting on David's throne, riding in chariots and on horses, they, and their princes, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and this city shall remain forever. <sup>26</sup> They shall come from the cities of Judah, and from the places around Jerusalem, and from the land of Benjamin, and from the lowland, and from the hill country, and from the South, bringing burnt offerings, and sacrifices, and meal offerings, and frankincense, and bringing sacrifices of thanksgiving, to Yahweh's house. <sup>27</sup> But if you will not listen to me to make the Sabbath day holy, and not to bear a burden and enter in at the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day; then I will kindle a fire in its gates, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem, and it shall not be quenched."'''

<sup>1</sup> The word which came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, saying, <sup>2</sup> "Arise, and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause you to hear my words."

<sup>3</sup> Then I went down to the potter's house, and behold, he was making a work on the wheels. <sup>4</sup> When the vessel that he made of the clay was marred in the hand of the potter, he made it again another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it.

in my hand, house of Israel. <sup>7</sup> At what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to pluck up and to break down and to destroy it; <sup>8</sup> if that nation, concerning which I have spoken, turn from their evil, I will repent of the evil that I thought to do to them. <sup>9</sup> At what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to build and to plant it; <sup>10</sup> if they do that which is evil in my sight, that they not obey my voice, then I will repent of the good, with which I said I would benefit them.

<sup>11</sup> "Now therefore, speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, 'Yahweh says: "Behold, I frame evil against you, and devise a device against you. Everyone return from his evil way now, and amend your ways and your doings."' <sup>12</sup> But they say, 'It is in vain; for we will walk after our own devices, and we will do everyone after the stubbornness of his evil heart.'"

"Ask now among the nations, who has heard such things.

The virgin of Israel has done a very horrible thing.

the rock of the field?

Shall the cold waters that flow down from afar be dried up?

<sup>15</sup> For my people have forgotten me.

They have burned incense to false gods.

They have been made to stumble in their ways,

in the ancient paths, to walk in byways, in a way not built up;

<sup>16</sup> to make their land an astonishment, and a perpetual hissing.

 Everyone who passes thereby shall be astonished,
 and shake his head.
<sup>17</sup> I will scatter them as with an east wind before the enemy.
 I will show them the back, and not the face,
 in the day of their calamity.

<sup>18</sup> Then they said, "Come, and let us devise devices against Jeremiah; for the law shall not perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet. Come, and let us strike him with the tongue, and let us not give heed to any of his words."

 and listen to the voice of those who contend with me.

 For they have dug a pit for my soul.
 Remember how I stood before you to speak good for them, to turn away your wrath from them.

<sup>21</sup> Therefore deliver up their children to the famine, and give them over to the power of the sword.

Let their wives become childless, and widows;
 and let their men be slain of death, and their young men struck by the sword in battle.

<sup>22</sup> Let a cry be heard from their houses, when you shall bring a troop suddenly on them;
 for they have dug a pit to take me,
 and hidden snares for my feet.

<sup>23</sup> Yet, Yahweh, you know all their counsel against me to kill me.

Don't forgive their iniquity, neither blot out their sin from your sight;
 but let them be overthrown before you.
 Deal you with them in the time of your anger.

 potter's earthen bottle, and take some of the elders of the people, and of the elders of the priests; <sup>2</sup> and go out to the valley of the son of Hinnom, which is by the entry of the gate Harsith, and proclaim there the words that I shall tell you; <sup>3</sup> and say, 'Hear Yahweh's word, kings of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem: Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel says, "Behold, I will bring evil on this place, which whoever hears, his ears shall tingle. <sup>4</sup> Because they have forsaken me, and have estranged this place, and have burned incense in it to other gods, that they didn't know, they and their fathers and the kings of Judah; and have filled this place with the blood of innocents, <sup>5</sup> and have built the high places of Baal, to burn their sons in the fire for burnt offerings to Baal; which I didn't command, nor spoke it, neither came it into my mind: <sup>6</sup> therefore, behold, the days come," says Yahweh, "that this place shall no more be called Topheth, nor The valley of the son of Hinnom, but The valley of Slaughter.

<sup>7</sup> "I will make void the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem in this place; and I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hand of those who seek their life: and their dead bodies will I give to be food for the birds of the sky, and for the animals of the earth. <sup>8</sup> I will make this city an astonishment, and a hissing; everyone who passes thereby shall be astonished and hiss because of all its plagues. <sup>9</sup> I will cause them to eat the flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters; and they shall eat everyone the flesh of his friend, in the siege and in the distress, with which their enemies, and those who seek their life, shall distress them.”

<sup>10</sup> “Then you shall break the bottle in the sight of the men who go with you, <sup>11</sup> and shall tell them, ‘Yahweh of Armies says: “Even so will I break this people and this city, as one breaks a potter’s vessel, that can’t be made whole again; and they shall bury in Topheth, until there is no place to bury. <sup>12</sup> Thus will I do to this place,” says Yahweh, “and to its inhabitants, even making this city as Topheth: <sup>13</sup> and the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses of the kings of Judah, which are defiled, shall be as the place of Topheth, even all the houses on whose roofs they have burned incense to all the army of the sky, and have poured out drink offerings to other gods.””

<sup>14</sup> Then Jeremiah came from Topheth, where Yahweh had sent him to prophesy; and he stood in the court of Yahweh’s house, and said to all the people: <sup>15</sup> “Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel says, ‘Behold, I will bring on this city and on all its towns all the evil that I have pronounced against it; because they have made their neck stiff, that they may not hear my words.””

things. <sup>2</sup> Then Pashhur struck Jeremiah the prophet, and put him in the stocks that were in the upper gate of Benjamin, which was in Yahweh’s house. <sup>3</sup> On the next day, Pashhur released Jeremiah out of the stocks. Then Jeremiah said to him, “Yahweh has not called your name Pashhur, but Magormissabib. <sup>4</sup> For Yahweh says, ‘Behold, I will make you a terror to yourself, and to all your friends; and they shall fall by the sword of their enemies, and your eyes shall see it; and I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall carry them captive to Babylon, and shall kill them with the sword. <sup>5</sup> Moreover I will give all the riches of this city, and all its gains, and all the precious things of it, yes, all the treasures of the kings of Judah will I give into the hand of their enemies; and they shall make them captives, and take them, and carry them to Babylon. <sup>6</sup> You, Pashhur, and all who dwell in your house shall go into captivity; and you shall come to Babylon, and there you shall die, and there you shall be buried, you, and all your friends, to whom you have prophesied falsely.”

<sup>7</sup> Yahweh, you have persuaded me, and I was persuaded;
you are stronger than I, and have prevailed.

I have become a laughing-stock all day.
Every one mocks me.

<sup>8</sup> For as often as I speak, I cry out;
I cry, Violence and destruction! because Yahweh’s word has been made a reproach to me,
and a derision, all day.

<sup>9</sup> If I say, I will not make mention of
him,
nor speak any more in his name, then there is in my heart as it were a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I am weary with holding it in,

 and I can't.

<sup>10</sup> For I have heard the defaming of many,
 "Terror on every side!
 Denounce, and we will denounce
 him!"

say all my familiar friends, those who watch for my fall.
 "Perhaps he will be persuaded, and we shall prevail against him, and we shall take our revenge on
 him."

<sup>11</sup> But Yahweh is with me as an awesome mighty one.
 Therefore my persecutors shall stumble,
 and they shall not prevail.
 They shall be utterly disappointed, because they have not dealt wisely, even with an everlasting dishonor which shall never be forgotten.

<sup>12</sup> But, Yahweh of Armies, who tests the righteous,
 who sees the heart and the mind,
 let me see your vengeance on them;
 for to you have I revealed my

 praise Yahweh;
 for he has delivered the soul of the needy from the hand of evildoers.

<sup>14</sup> Cursed is the day in which I was born.
 Don't let the day in which my mother bore me be blessed.

<sup>15</sup> Cursed is the man who brought news to my father, saying,
 "A boy is born to you," making him very glad.

<sup>16</sup> Let that man be as the cities which Yahweh overthrew, and didn't repent.
 Let him hear a cry in the morning,
 and shouting at noontime;
<sup>17</sup> because he didn't kill me from the womb;
 and so my mother would have been my grave,
 and her womb always great.

<sup>18</sup> Why did I come out of the womb to see labor and sorrow, that my days should be consumed with shame?

 Yahweh, when king Zedekiah sent to him Pashhur the son of Malchijah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, saying, <sup>2</sup> "Please inquire of Yahweh for us;
 for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon makes war against us. Perhaps Yahweh will deal with us according to all his wondrous works, that he may withdraw from us."

<sup>3</sup> Then Jeremiah said to them, "Tell Zedekiah: <sup>4</sup> 'Yahweh, the God of Israel says, "Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, with which you fight against the king of Babylon, and against the Chaldeans who besiege you, without the walls; and I will gather them into the middle of this city. <sup>5</sup> I myself will fight against you with an outstretched hand and with a strong arm, even in anger, and in wrath, and in great indignation. <sup>6</sup> I will strike the inhabitants of this city, both man and animal. They will die of a great pestilence. <sup>7</sup> Afterward," says Yahweh, "I will deliver Zedekiah king of Judah, and his servants, and the people, even those who are left in this city from the pestilence, from the sword, and from the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their life. He will strike them with the edge of the sword. He will not spare them, neither have pity, nor have mercy."

<sup>8</sup> "To this people you shall say, 'Yahweh says: "Behold, I set before you the way of life and the way of death. <sup>9</sup> He who remains in this city will die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence; but he who goes out, and passes over to the Chaldeans who besiege you, he shall live, and he will escape with his life. <sup>10</sup> For I have set my face on this city for evil, and not for good," says Yahweh. "It will be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire."

'Execute justice in the morning, and deliver him who is robbed out of the hand of the oppressor, lest my wrath go out like fire, and burn so that no one can quench
it,
because of the evil of your doings.

<sup>13</sup> Behold, I am against you, O inhabitant of the valley, and of the rock of the plain,' says
Yahweh.

'You that say, "Who would come down against us?"

or "Who would enter into our homes?"

<sup>14</sup> I will punish you according to the fruit of your doings, says
Yahweh;
and I will kindle a fire in her forest, and it shall devour all that is around

<sup>1</sup> Thus said Yahweh: "Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and speak there this word, <sup>2</sup> 'Hear Yahweh's word, king of Judah, who sits on David's throne, you, and your servants, and your people who enter in by these gates. <sup>3</sup> Yahweh says: "Execute justice and righteousness, and deliver him who is robbed out of the hand of the oppressor. Do no wrong. Do no violence, to the foreigner, the fatherless, nor the widow; neither shed innocent blood in this place. <sup>4</sup> For if you do this thing indeed, then shall there enter in by the gates of this house kings sitting on David's throne, riding in chariots and on horses, he, and his servants, and his people. <sup>5</sup> But if you will not hear these words, I swear by myself," says Yahweh, "that this house shall become a desolation."'"

"You are Gilead to me,
the head of Lebanon.
Yet surely I will make you a wilderness, cities which are not inhabited.

<sup>7</sup> I will prepare destroyers against you,
everyone with his weapons, and they will cut down your choice cedars, and cast them into the fire.

<sup>8</sup> “Many nations will pass by this city, and they will each ask his neighbor, ‘Why has Yahweh done this to this great city?’ <sup>9</sup> Then they shall answer, ‘Because they abandoned the covenant of Yahweh their God, and worshiped other gods, and served them.’”

<sup>10</sup> Don’t weep for the dead, neither bemoan him;
but weep bitterly for him who goes away;
for he shall return no more,
nor see his native country.

<sup>11</sup> For Yahweh says touching Shallum the son of Josiah, king of Judah, who reigned instead of Josiah his father, and who went out of this place: “He shall not return there any more. <sup>12</sup> But in the place where they have led him captive, there shall he die, and he shall see this land no more.”

and his rooms by injustice;
who uses his neighbor’s service without wages,
and doesn’t give him his hire;

<sup>14</sup> who says, ‘I will build me a wide house and spacious rooms,’ and cuts out windows for himself; and it is ceiling with cedar,
and painted with vermilion.

<sup>15</sup> “Shall you reign, because you strive to excel in cedar?
Didn’t your father eat and drink, and do justice and righteousness?
Then it was well with him.

then it was well.
Wasn’t this to know me?”
says Yahweh.

<sup>17</sup> But your eyes and your heart are not but for your covetousness, and for shedding innocent blood, for oppression, and for doing violence.”

“They shall not lament for him, saying, ‘Ah my brother!’ or, ‘Ah sister!’

They shall not lament for him, saying ‘Ah lord!’ or, ‘Ah his glory!’

<sup>19</sup> He shall be buried with the burial of a donkey, drawn and cast out beyond the gates of Jerusalem.”

and lift up your voice in Bashan, and cry from Abarim;
for all your lovers are destroyed.

<sup>21</sup> I spoke to you in your prosperity;
but you said, ‘I will not listen.’
This has been your way from your youth, that you didn’t obey my voice.

<sup>22</sup> The wind shall feed all your shepherds, and your lovers shall go into captivity.

Surely then you will be ashamed and confounded for all your wickedness.

who makes your nest in the cedars, how greatly to be pitied you will be when pangs come on you,
the pain as of a woman in travail!

<sup>24</sup> “As I live,” says Yahweh, “though Coniah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah were the signet on my right hand, yet would I pluck you from there; <sup>25</sup> and I would give you into the hand of those who seek your life, and into the hand of them of whom you are afraid, even into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of the Chaldeans. <sup>26</sup> I will cast you out with your mother who bore you, into another country, where you were not born; and there you will die. <sup>27</sup> But to the land to which their soul longs to return, there shall they not return.”

Is he a vessel in which no one delights?

Why are they cast out, he and his offspring,<sup>g</sup> and cast into a land which they don't know?

for no more shall a man of his offspring<sup>h</sup> prosper, sitting on David's throne, and ruling in Judah.”

23

<sup>1</sup> “Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture!” says Yahweh. <sup>2</sup> Therefore Yahweh, the God of Israel, says against the shepherds who feed my people: “You have scattered my flock, and driven them away, and have not visited them; behold, I will visit on you the evil of your doings,” says Yahweh. <sup>3</sup> “I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the countries where I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds; and they shall be fruitful and multiply. <sup>4</sup> I will set up shepherds over them, who shall feed them; and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall any be lacking,” says Yahweh.

<sup>5</sup> “Behold, the days come,” says Yahweh, “that I will raise to David a righteous Branch, and he shall reign as king and deal wisely, and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land.

Yahweh our righteousness.

<sup>7</sup> “Therefore behold, the days come,” says Yahweh, “that they shall no more say, ‘As Yahweh lives, who brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt;’ <sup>8</sup> but, ‘As Yahweh lives, who brought up and who led the offspring<sup>i</sup> of the house of Israel out of the north country, and from all the countries where I had driven them.’ Then they will dwell in their own land.”

All my bones shake.

I am like a drunken man, and like a man whom wine has overcome, because of Yahweh, and because of his holy words.

<sup>10</sup> For the land is full of adulterers; for because of the curse the land mourns.

- The pastures of the wilderness are dried up.
 Their course is evil,
 and their might is not right;
<sup>11</sup> for both prophet and priest are profane;
 yes, in my house have I found their wickedness," says Yahweh.
- <sup>12</sup> Therefore their way shall be to them as slippery places in the darkness.
 They shall be driven on,
 and fall therein;
 for I will bring evil on them,
 even the year of their visitation," says Yahweh.
- <sup>13</sup> "I have seen folly in the prophets of Samaria.
 They prophesied by Baal,
 and caused my people Israel to err.
- <sup>14</sup> In the prophets of Jerusalem also I have seen a horrible thing:
 they commit adultery,
 and walk in lies.
 They strengthen the hands of evildoers,
 so that no one returns from his wickedness.
 They have all become to me as Sodom, and its inhabitants as Gomorrah."
- <sup>15</sup> Therefore Yahweh of Armies says concerning the prophets:
 "Behold, I will feed them with wormwood, and make them drink the water of gall;
 for from the prophets of Jerusalem ungodliness has gone out into all the land."
- <sup>16</sup> Yahweh of Armies says,
 "Don't listen to the words of the prophets who prophesy to you.
 They teach you vanity.
 They speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of Yahweh.
- <sup>17</sup> They say continually to those who despise me,
 'Yahweh has said, "You shall have peace;"' and to everyone who walks in the stubbornness of his own heart they say,
 'No evil shall come on you.'
- <sup>18</sup> For who has stood in the council of Yahweh, that he should perceive and hear his word?
 Who has listened to my word, and heard it?
- <sup>19</sup> Behold, Yahweh's storm, his wrath, has gone out.
 Yes, a whirling storm.
 It shall burst on the head of the wicked.
- <sup>20</sup> Yahweh's anger shall not return, until he has executed, and until he has performed the intents of his heart.
 In the latter days, you will understand it perfectly.
- <sup>21</sup> I didn't send these prophets, yet they ran.
 I didn't speak to them, yet they prophesied.
- <sup>22</sup> But if they had stood in my council, then they would have caused my people to hear my words, and would have turned them from their evil way,

and from the evil of their doings.

<sup>23</sup> “Am I a God at hand,” says Yahweh,

places
so that I can’t see him?” says
Yahweh.
“Don’t I fill heaven and earth?”
says Yahweh.

<sup>25</sup> “I have heard what the prophets have said, who prophesy lies in my name, saying, ‘I had a dream! I had a dream!’ <sup>26</sup> How long shall this be in the heart of the prophets who prophesy lies, even the prophets of the deceit of their own heart? <sup>27</sup>
They intend to cause my people to forget my name by their dreams which they each tell his neighbor, as their fathers forgot my name because of Baal. <sup>28</sup> The prophet who has a dream, let him tell a dream; and he who has my word, let him speak my word faithfully. What is the straw to the wheat?”
says Yahweh. <sup>29</sup> “Isn’t my word like fire?”
says Yahweh; “and like a hammer that breaks the rock in pieces?”

<sup>30</sup> “Therefore behold, I am against the prophets,” says Yahweh, “who each steal my words from his neighbor. <sup>31</sup> Behold, I am against the prophets,” says Yahweh, “who use their tongues, and say, ‘He says.’”
<sup>32</sup> Behold, I am against those who prophesy lying dreams,” says Yahweh, “who tell them, and cause my people to err by their lies, and by their vain boasting; yet I didn’t send them, nor command them; neither do they profit this people at all,” says Yahweh.

<sup>33</sup> “When this people, or the prophet, or a priest, shall ask you, saying, ‘What is the message from Yahweh?’ Then you shall tell them, “‘What message? I will cast you off,” says Yahweh.’ <sup>34</sup> As for the prophet, and the priest, and the people, who say,

‘The message from Yahweh,’ I will even punish that man and his household. <sup>35</sup> You shall say everyone to his neighbor, and everyone to his brother, ‘What has Yahweh answered?’ and, ‘What has Yahweh spoken?’ <sup>36</sup> You shall mention the message from Yahweh no more: for every man’s own word has become his message; for you have perverted the words of the living God, of Yahweh of Armies, our God. <sup>37</sup> You shall say to the prophet, ‘What has Yahweh answered you?’ and, ‘What has Yahweh spoken?’ <sup>38</sup> Although you say, ‘The message from Yahweh;’ therefore Yahweh says: ‘Because you say this word, “The message from Yahweh,” and I have sent to you, telling you not to say, “The message from Yahweh;” <sup>39</sup> therefore, behold, I will utterly forget you, and I will cast you off, and the city that I gave to you and to your fathers, away from my presence. <sup>40</sup> I will bring an everlasting reproach on you, and a perpetual shame, which shall not be forgotten.””

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh showed me, and behold, two baskets of figs set before Yahweh’s temple, after that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, and the princes of Judah, with the craftsmen and smiths, from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon. <sup>2</sup> One basket had very good figs, like the figs that are first-ripe;
and the other basket had very bad figs, which could not be eaten, they were so bad.

I said, “Figs. The good figs are very good, and the bad are very bad, so bad that can’t be eaten.”

<sup>4</sup> Yahweh’s word came to me, saying, <sup>5</sup> “Yahweh, the God of Israel says: ‘Like these good figs, so will I regard the captives of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans, for good. <sup>6</sup> For I will set my eyes on them for good, and I will bring them again to this land. I will build them, and not pull them down. I will plant them, and not pluck them up. <sup>7</sup> I will give them a heart to know me, that I am Yahweh: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God; for they shall return to me with their whole heart.

<sup>8</sup> “‘As the bad figs, which can’t be eaten, they are so bad,’ surely Yahweh says, ‘So I will give up Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his princes, and the remnant of Jerusalem, who remain in this land, and those who dwell in the land of Egypt. <sup>9</sup> I will even give them up to be tossed back and forth among all the kingdoms of the earth for evil; to be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt and a curse, in all places where I shall drive them. <sup>10</sup> I will send the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, among them, until they be consumed from off the land that I gave to them and to their fathers.’”

people of Judah, and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying: <sup>3</sup> From the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, even to this day, these twenty-three years, Yahweh’s word has come to me, and I have spoken to you, rising up early and speaking; but you have not listened.

<sup>4</sup> Yahweh has sent to you all his servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them (but you have not listened, nor inclined your ear to hear) <sup>5</sup> saying, “Return now everyone from his evil way, and from the evil of your doings, and dwell in the land that Yahweh has given to you and to your fathers, from of old and even forever more. <sup>6</sup> Don’t go after other gods to serve them or worship them, and don’t provoke me to anger with the work of your hands; and I will do you no harm.”

<sup>8</sup> Therefore Yahweh of Armies says: “Because you have not heard my words, <sup>9</sup> behold, I will send and take all the families of the north,” says Yahweh, “and I will send to Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will bring them against this land, and against its inhabitants, and against all these nations around. I will utterly destroy them, and make them an astonishment, and a hissing, and perpetual desolations. <sup>10</sup> Moreover I will take from them the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the sound of the millstones, and the light of the lamp. <sup>11</sup> This whole land shall be a desolation, and an astonishment; and these

<sup>12</sup> “It shall happen, when seventy years are accomplished, that I will punish the king of Babylon, and that nation,” says Yahweh, “for their iniquity, and the land of the Chaldeans; and I will make it desolate forever. <sup>13</sup> I will bring on that land all my words which I have pronounced against it, even all that is written in this book, which Jeremiah has prophesied against all the nations. <sup>14</sup> For many nations and great kings shall make bondservants of them, even of them; and I will recompense them according to their deeds, and according to the work of their hands.”

<sup>15</sup> For Yahweh, the God of Israel, says to me: “take this cup of the wine of wrath at my hand, and cause all the nations, to whom I send you, to drink it. <sup>16</sup> They shall drink, and reel back and forth, and be mad, because of the sword that I will send among them.”

have the corners of their beard cut off; <sup>24</sup> and all the kings of Arabia, and all the kings of the mixed people who dwell in the wilderness; <sup>25</sup> and all the kings of Zimri, and all the kings of Elam, and all the kings of the Medes; <sup>26</sup> and all the kings of the north, far and near, one with another; and all the kingdoms of the world, which are on the surface of the earth: and the king of Sheshach shall drink after them.

<sup>27</sup> “You shall tell them, ‘Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel says: “Drink, and be drunk, vomit, fall, and rise no more, because of the sword which I will send among you.”’ <sup>28</sup> It shall be, if they refuse to take the cup at your hand to drink, then you shall tell them, ‘Yahweh of Armies says: “You shall surely drink. <sup>29</sup> For, behold, I begin to work evil at the city which is called by my name; and should you be utterly unpunished? You shall not be unpunished; for I will call for a sword on all the inhabitants of the earth, says Yahweh of Armies.”’

“Yahweh will roar from on high, and utter his voice from his holy habitation;
he will mightily roar against his fold.

He will give a shout, as those who tread grapes, against all the inhabitants of the earth.

<sup>31</sup> A noise shall come even to the end of the earth;
for Yahweh has a controversy with the nations;
he will enter into judgment with all flesh:

as for the wicked, he will give them to the sword,” says
Yahweh.”

<sup>32</sup> Yahweh of Armies says, “Behold, evil shall go out from nation to nation, and a great storm shall be raised up from the uttermost parts of

from one end of the earth even to the other end of the earth: they shall not be lamented, neither gathered, nor buried; they shall be dung on the surface of the ground.

and wallow in dust, you leader of the flock;
for the days of your slaughter and of your dispersions are fully come,
and you shall fall like a goodly vessel.

<sup>35</sup> The shepherds shall have no way to flee, nor the leader of the flock to

and the wailing of the leader of the flock, for Yahweh lays waste their

<sup>37</sup> The peaceable folds are brought to silence
because of the fierce anger of Yahweh.

<sup>38</sup> He has left his covert, as the lion; for their land has become an astonishment because of the fierceness of the oppression, and because of his fierce anger.

Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came from Yahweh: <sup>2</sup> “Yahweh says: ‘Stand in the court of Yahweh’s house, and speak to all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in Yahweh’s house, all the words that I command you to speak to them. Don’t omit a word. <sup>3</sup> It may be they will listen, and turn every man from his evil way; that I may relent from the evil which I intend to do to them because of the evil of their doings.’ <sup>4</sup> You shall tell them, “Yahweh says: ‘If you will not listen to me, to walk in my law, which I have set before you, <sup>5</sup> to listen to the words of my servants the prophets, whom I send to you, even rising up early and sending them, but you have not listened; <sup>6</sup> then I will make this house like Shiloh, and will make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth.’””

<sup>7</sup> The priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in Yahweh’s house. <sup>8</sup> When Jeremiah had finished speaking all that Yahweh had commanded him to speak to all the people, the priests and the prophets and all the people seized him, saying, “You shall surely die! <sup>9</sup> Why have you prophesied in Yahweh’s name, saying, ‘This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate, without inhabitant?’”
All the people were crowded around Jeremiah in Yahweh’s house.

<sup>10</sup> When the princes of Judah heard these things, they came up from the king’s house to Yahweh’s house; and they sat in the entry of the new gate of Yahweh’s house. <sup>11</sup> Then spoke the priests and the prophets to the princes and to all the people, saying,

“This man is worthy of death; for he has prophesied against this city, as you have heard with your ears.”

<sup>12</sup> Then Jeremiah spoke to all the princes and to all the people, saying, “Yahweh sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that you have heard. <sup>13</sup> Now therefore amend your ways and your doings, and obey Yahweh your God’s voice; and Yahweh will relent from the evil that he has pronounced against you.

<sup>14</sup> But as for me, behold, I am in your hand. Do with me what is good and right in your eyes. <sup>15</sup> Only know for certain that, if you put me to death, you will bring innocent blood on yourselves, and on this city, and on its inhabitants; for in truth Yahweh has sent me to you to speak all these words in your ears.”

<sup>16</sup> Then the princes and all the people said to the priests and to the prophets: “This man is not worthy of death; for he has spoken to us in the name of Yahweh our God.”

<sup>17</sup> Then certain of the elders of the land rose up, and spoke to all the assembly of the people, saying, <sup>18</sup> “Micah the Morashtite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah; and he spoke to all the people of Judah, saying, ‘Yahweh of Armies says:

“‘Zion will be plowed as a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of a forest.’

<sup>19</sup> Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah put him to death? Didn’t he fear Yahweh, and entreat the favor of Yahweh, and Yahweh relented of the disaster which he had pronounced against them? We would commit great evil against our own souls that way!”

<sup>20</sup> There was also a man who prophesied in Yahweh’s name, Uriah the son of Shemaiah of Kiriath Jearim; and he prophesied against this city and against this land according to all the words of Jeremiah.

<sup>21</sup> When Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men, and all the princes, heard his words, the king sought to put him to death; but when Uriah heard it, he was afraid, and fled, and went into Egypt: <sup>22</sup> and Jehoiakim the king sent men into Egypt, Elnathan the son of Achbor, and certain men with him, into Egypt; <sup>23</sup> and they fetched Uriah out of Egypt, and brought him to Jehoiakim the king, who killed him with the sword, and cast his dead body into the graves of the common people.

27

great power and by my outstretched arm; and I give it to whom it seems right to me. <sup>6</sup> Now have I given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant; and I have also given the animals of the field to him to serve him. <sup>7</sup> All the nations will serve him, and his son, and his son's son, until the time of his own land comes. Then many nations and great kings will make him their bondservant.

<sup>8</sup> "It will happen that the nation and the kingdom which will not serve the same Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and that will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation will I punish," says Yahweh, "with the sword, and with the famine, and with the pestilence, until I have consumed them by his hand. <sup>9</sup> But as for you, don't you listen to your prophets, nor to your diviners, nor to your dreams, nor to your soothsayers, nor to your sorcerers, who speak to you, saying, "You shall not serve the king of Babylon;" <sup>10</sup> for they prophesy a lie to you, to remove you far from your land, and that I should drive you out, and you should perish. <sup>11</sup> But the nation that shall bring their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him, that nation will I let remain in their own land," says Yahweh; "and they shall till it, and dwell therein.""

<sup>12</sup> I spoke to Zedekiah king of Judah according to all these words, saying, "Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live. <sup>13</sup> Why will you die, you and your people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, as Yahweh has spoken concerning the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon? <sup>14</sup> Don't listen to the words of the prophets who speak to you, saying, 'You shall not serve the king of Babylon;' for they prophesy a lie to you. <sup>15</sup> For I have not sent them," says Yahweh, "but they prophesy falsely in my name; that I may drive you out, and that you may perish, you, and the prophets who prophesy to you."

<sup>16</sup> Also I spoke to the priests and to all this people, saying, Yahweh says, "Don't listen to the words of your prophets who prophesy to you, saying, 'Behold, the vessels of Yahweh's house shall now shortly be brought again from Babylon;' for they prophesy a lie to you. <sup>17</sup> Don't listen to them. Serve the king of Babylon, and live. Why should this city become a desolation? <sup>18</sup> But if they are prophets, and if Yahweh's word is with them, let them now make intercession to Yahweh of Armies, that the vessels which are left in Yahweh's house, and in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem, don't go to Babylon. <sup>19</sup> For Yahweh of Armies says concerning the pillars, and concerning the sea, and concerning the bases, and concerning the residue of the vessels that are left in this city, <sup>20</sup> which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon didn't take, when he carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, from Jerusalem to Babylon, and all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem; <sup>21</sup> yes, Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says concerning the vessels that are left in Yahweh's house, and in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem: <sup>22</sup> 'They shall be carried to Babylon, and there shall they be, until the day that I visit them,' says Yahweh; 'then I will bring them up, and restore them to this place.'"

28

<sup>5</sup> Then the prophet Jeremiah said to the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests, and in the presence of all the people who stood in Yahweh's house, <sup>6</sup> even the prophet Jeremiah said, "Amen! May Yahweh do so. May Yahweh perform your words which you have prophesied, to bring again the vessels of Yahweh's house, and all them of the captivity, from Babylon to this place. <sup>7</sup> Nevertheless listen now to this word that I speak in your ears, and in the ears of all the people: <sup>8</sup> The prophets who have been before me and before you of old prophesied against many countries, and against great kingdoms, of war, and of evil, and of pestilence. <sup>9</sup> The prophet who prophesies of peace, when the word of the prophet shall happen, then shall the prophet be known, that Yahweh has truly sent him."

<sup>12</sup> Then Yahweh's word came to Jeremiah, after that Hananiah the prophet had broken the bar from off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, saying, <sup>13</sup> "Go, and tell Hananiah, saying, 'Yahweh says, "You have broken the bars of wood, but you have made in their place bars of iron." <sup>14</sup> For Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel says, "I have put a yoke of iron on the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and they will serve him. I have also given him the animals of the field.'"

<sup>15</sup> Then the prophet Jeremiah said to Hananiah the prophet, "Listen, Hananiah! Yahweh has not sent you, but you make this people trust in a lie. <sup>16</sup> Therefore Yahweh says, 'Behold, I will send you away from off the surface of the earth. This year you will die, because you have spoken rebellion against Yahweh.'"

<sup>1</sup> Now these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem to the residue of the elders of the captivity, and to the priests, to the prophets, and to all the people, whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon, <sup>2</sup> (after that Jecooniah the king, the queen mother, the eunuchs, the princes of Judah and Jerusalem, the craftsmen, and the smiths, had departed from Jerusalem), <sup>3</sup> by the hand of Elasah the son of Shaphan, and Gemariah the son of Hilkiah, (whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent to Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon), saying,

peace, and not of evil, to give you hope and a future. <sup>12</sup> You shall call on me, and you shall go and pray to me, and I will listen to you. <sup>13</sup> You shall seek me, and find me, when you shall search for me with all your heart. <sup>14</sup> I will be found by you,” says Yahweh, “and I will turn again your captivity, and I will gather you from all the nations, and from all the places where I have driven you, says Yahweh; and I will bring you again to the place from where I caused you to be carried away captive.”

<sup>20</sup> Hear therefore Yahweh's word, all you of the captivity, whom I have sent away from Jerusalem to Babylon. <sup>21</sup> Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says concerning Ahab the son of Kolaiah, and concerning Zedekiah the son of Maaseiah, who prophesy a lie to you in my name: "Behold, I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and he shall kill them before your eyes. <sup>22</sup> A curse shall be taken up about them by all the captives of Judah who are in Babylon, saying, 'Yahweh make you like Zedekiah and like Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire;' <sup>23</sup> because they have done foolish things in Israel, and have committed adultery with their neighbors' wives, and have spoken words in my name falsely, which I didn't command them. I am he who knows, and am witness," says Yahweh.

you, <sup>28</sup> because he has sent to us in Babylon, saying, The captivity is long: build houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat their fruit?'"

<sup>29</sup> Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the ears of Jeremiah the prophet. <sup>30</sup> Then Yahweh's word came to Jeremiah, saying, <sup>31</sup> "Send to all them of the captivity, saying, 'Yahweh says concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite: "Because Shemaiah has prophesied to you, and I didn't send him, and he has caused you to trust in a lie;" <sup>32</sup> therefore Yahweh says, "Behold, I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite, and his offspring. He shall not have a man to dwell among this people, neither shall he see the good that I will do to my people," says Yahweh, "because he has spoken rebellion against Yahweh."'"

30

<sup>1</sup> The word that came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, saying, <sup>2</sup> Thus speaks Yahweh, the God of Israel, saying, Write all the words that I have spoken to you in a book. <sup>3</sup> For, behold, the days come, says Yahweh, that I will turn again the captivity of my people Israel and Judah, says Yahweh; and I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it. <sup>4</sup> These are the words that Yahweh spoke concerning Israel and concerning Judah. <sup>5</sup> For Yahweh says: We have heard a voice of trembling, of fear, and not of peace. <sup>6</sup> Ask now, and see whether a man does travail with child: why do I see every man with his hands on his waist, as a woman in travail, and all faces are turned into paleness? <sup>7</sup> Alas! for that day is great, so that none is like it: it is even the time of

Jacob's trouble; but he shall be saved out of it. <sup>8</sup> It shall come to pass in that day, says Yahweh of Armies, that I will break his yoke from off your neck, and will burst your bonds; and strangers shall no more make him their bondservant; <sup>9</sup> but they shall serve Yahweh their God, and David their king, whom I will raise up to them. <sup>10</sup> Therefore don't you be afraid, O Jacob my servant, says Yahweh; neither be dismayed, Israel: for, behold, I will save you from afar, and your offspring<sup>k</sup> from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be quiet and at ease, and no one shall make him afraid. <sup>11</sup> For I am with you, says Yahweh, to save you: for I will make a full end of all the nations where I have scattered you, but I will not make a full end of you; but I will correct you in measure, and will in no way leave you unpunished. <sup>12</sup> For Yahweh says, Your hurt is incurable, and your wound grievous. <sup>13</sup> There is no one to plead your cause, that you may be bound up: you have no healing medicines. <sup>14</sup> All your lovers have forgotten you; they don't seek you: for I have wounded you with the wound of an enemy, with the chastisement of a cruel one, for the greatness of your iniquity, because your sins were increased. <sup>15</sup> Why do you cry for your hurt? Your pain is incurable: for the greatness of your iniquity, because your sins were increased, I have done these things to you. <sup>16</sup> Therefore all those who devour you shall be devoured; and all your adversaries, everyone of them, shall go into captivity; and those who plunder you shall be plunder, and all who prey on you will I give for a prey. <sup>17</sup> For I will restore health to you, and I will heal you of your wounds, says Yahweh; because they have called you an outcast, saying, It is Zion, whom no man seeks after. <sup>18</sup> Yahweh says: Behold, I will turn again the captivity of Jacob's tents, and have compassion on his dwelling places; and the city shall be built on its own hill, and the palace shall be inhabited in its own way. <sup>19</sup> Out of them shall proceed thanksgiving and the voice of those who make merry: and I will multiply them, and they shall not be few; I will also glorify them, and they shall not be small. <sup>20</sup> Their children also shall be as before, and their congregation shall be established before me; and I will punish all who oppress them. <sup>21</sup> Their prince shall be of themselves, and their ruler shall proceed from among them; and I will cause him to draw near, and he shall approach to me: for who is he who has had boldness to approach to me? says Yahweh. <sup>22</sup> You shall be my people, and I will be your God. <sup>23</sup> Behold, Yahweh's storm, his wrath, has gone out, a sweeping storm: it shall burst on the head of the wicked. <sup>24</sup> The fierce anger of Yahweh will not return, until he has executed, and until he has performed the intentions of his heart. In the latter days you will understand it.

31

drawn you. <sup>4</sup> Again will I build you, and you shall be built, O virgin of Israel: again you shall be adorned with your tambourines, and shall go out in the dances of those who make merry. <sup>5</sup> Again you shall plant vineyards on the mountains of Samaria; the planters shall plant, and shall enjoy its fruit. <sup>6</sup> For there shall be a day, that the watchmen on the hills of Ephraim shall cry, Arise, and let us go up to Zion to Yahweh our God. <sup>7</sup> For Yahweh says, Sing with gladness for Jacob, and shout for the chief of the nations: publish, praise, and say, Yahweh, save your people, the remnant of Israel. <sup>8</sup> Behold, I will bring them from the north country, and gather them from the uttermost parts of the earth, along with the blind and the lame, the woman with child and her who travails with child together: a great company shall they return here. <sup>9</sup> They shall come with weeping; and with petitions will I lead them: I will cause them to walk by rivers of waters, in a straight way in which they shall not stumble; for I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my firstborn. <sup>10</sup> Hear Yahweh's word, you nations, and declare it in the islands afar off; and say, He who scattered Israel will gather him, and keep him, as a shepherd does his flock. <sup>11</sup> For Yahweh has ransomed Jacob, and redeemed him from the hand of him who was stronger than he. <sup>12</sup> They shall come and sing in the height of Zion, and shall flow to the goodness of Yahweh, to the grain, and to the new wine, and to the oil, and to the young of the flock and of the herd: and their soul shall be as a watered garden; and they shall not sorrow any more at all. <sup>13</sup> Then shall the virgin rejoice in the dance, and the young men and the old together; for I will turn their mourning into joy, and will comfort them, and make them rejoice from their sorrow. <sup>14</sup> I will satiate the soul of the priests with fatness, and my people shall be satisfied with my goodness, says Yahweh. <sup>15</sup> Yahweh says: A voice is heard in Ramah, lamentation, and bitter weeping, Rachel weeping for her children; she refuses to be comforted for her children, because they are no more. <sup>16</sup> Yahweh says: Refrain your voice from weeping, and your eyes from tears; for your work shall be rewarded, says Yahweh; and they shall come again from the land of the enemy. <sup>17</sup> There is hope for your latter end, says Yahweh; and your children shall come again to their own border. <sup>18</sup> I have surely heard Ephraim bemoaning himself thus, You have chastised me, and I was chastised, as an untrained calf: turn me, and I shall be turned; for you are Yahweh my God. <sup>19</sup> Surely after that I was turned, I repented; and after that I was instructed, I struck on my thigh: I was ashamed, yes, even confounded, because I bore the reproach of my youth. <sup>20</sup> Is Ephraim my dear son? is he a darling child? for as often as I speak against him, I do earnestly remember him still: therefore my heart yearns for him; I will surely have mercy on him, says Yahweh. <sup>21</sup> Set up road signs, make guideposts; set your heart toward the highway, even the way by which you went: turn again, virgin of Israel, turn again to these your cities. <sup>22</sup> How long will you go here and there, you backsliding daughter? for Yahweh has created a new thing in the earth: a woman shall encompass a man. <sup>23</sup> Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Yet again shall they use this speech in the land of Judah and in its cities, when I shall bring again their captivity: Yahweh bless you, habitation of righteousness, mountain of holiness. <sup>24</sup> Judah and all its cities shall dwell therein together, the farmers, and those who go about with flocks. <sup>25</sup> For I have satiated the weary soul, and every sorrowful soul have I replenished. <sup>26</sup> On this I awakened, and saw; and my sleep was sweet to me. <sup>27</sup> Behold, the days come, says Yahweh, that I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man, and with the seed of animal. <sup>28</sup> It shall happen that, like as I have watched over them to pluck up and to break down and to overthrow and to destroy and to afflict, so will I watch over them to build and to plant, says Yahweh. <sup>29</sup> In those days they shall say no more, The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge. <sup>30</sup> But everyone shall die for his own iniquity: every man who eats the sour grapes, his teeth shall be set on edge. <sup>31</sup> Behold, the days come, says Yahweh, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah: <sup>32</sup> not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; which my covenant they broke, although I was a husband to them, says Yahweh. <sup>33</sup> But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says Yahweh: I will put my law in their inward parts, and in their heart will I write it; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people: <sup>34</sup> and they shall teach no more every man his neighbor, and every man his brother, saying, Know Yahweh; for they shall all know me, from their least to their greatest, says Yahweh: for I will forgive their iniquity, and their sin will I remember no more. <sup>35</sup> Yahweh, who gives the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, who stirs up the sea, so that its waves roar; Yahweh of Armies is his name, says: <sup>36</sup> If these ordinances depart from before me, says Yahweh, then the offspring<sup>l</sup> of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before me forever. <sup>37</sup> Yahweh says: If heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, then I will also cast off all the offspring<sup>m</sup> of Israel for all that they have done, says Yahweh. <sup>38</sup> Behold, the days come, says Yahweh, that the city shall be built to Yahweh from the tower of Hananel to the gate of the corner. <sup>39</sup> The measuring line shall go out further straight onward to the hill Gareb, and shall turn about to Goah. <sup>40</sup> The whole valley of the dead bodies and of the ashes, and all the fields to the brook Kidron, to the corner of the horse gate toward the east, shall be holy to Yahweh; it shall not be plucked up, nor thrown down any more forever.

32

Yahweh says, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it; <sup>4</sup> and Zedekiah king of Judah shall not escape out of the hand of the Chaldeans, but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes shall see his eyes; <sup>5</sup> and he shall bring Zedekiah to Babylon, and he shall be there until I visit him, says Yahweh: though you fight with the Chaldeans, you shall not prosper? <sup>6</sup> Jeremiah said, Yahweh's word came to me, saying, <sup>7</sup> Behold, Hanamel the son of Shallum your uncle shall come to you, saying, Buy my field that is in Anathoth; for the right of redemption is yours to buy it. <sup>8</sup> So Hanamel my uncle's son came to me in the court of the guard according to Yahweh's word, and said to me, Please buy my field that is in Anathoth, which is in the land of Benjamin; for the right of inheritance is yours, and the redemption is yours; buy it for yourself. Then I knew that this was Yahweh's word. <sup>9</sup> I bought the field that was in Anathoth of Hanamel my uncle's son, and weighed him the money, even seventeen shekels<sup>n</sup> of silver. <sup>10</sup> I subscribed the deed, and sealed it, and called witnesses, and weighed him the money in the balances. <sup>11</sup> So I took the deed of the purchase, both that which was sealed, containing the terms and conditions, and that which was open; <sup>12</sup> and I delivered the deed of the purchase to Baruch the son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, in the presence of Hanamel my uncle's son, and in the presence of the witnesses who subscribed the deed of the purchase, before all the Jews who sat in the court of the guard. <sup>13</sup> I commanded Baruch before them, saying, <sup>14</sup> Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel says: Take these deeds, this deed of the purchase which is sealed, and this deed which is open, and put them in an earthen vessel; that they may continue many days. <sup>15</sup> For Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel says: Houses and fields and vineyards shall yet again be bought in this land. <sup>16</sup> Now after I had delivered the deed of the purchase to Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed to Yahweh, saying, <sup>17</sup> Ah Lord Yahweh! Behold, you have made the heavens and the earth by your great power and by your outstretched arm; there is nothing too hard for you, <sup>18</sup> who show loving kindness to thousands, and recompense the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them; the great, the mighty God, Yahweh of Armies is his name; <sup>19</sup> great in counsel, and mighty in work; whose eyes are open to all the ways of the sons of men, to give everyone according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings: <sup>20</sup> who performed signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, even to this day, both in Israel and among other men; and made yourself a name, as it is today; <sup>21</sup> and brought your people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs, and with wonders, and with a strong hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with great terror; <sup>22</sup> and gave them this land, which you swore to their fathers to give them, a land flowing with milk and honey; <sup>23</sup> and they came in, and possessed it, but they didn't obey your voice, neither walked in your law; they have done nothing of all that you commanded them to do: therefore you have caused all this evil to come upon them. <sup>24</sup> Behold, the mounds, they have come to the city to take it; and the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans who fight against it, because of the sword, and of the famine, and of the pestilence; and what you have spoken has happened; and behold, you see it. <sup>25</sup> You have said to me, Lord Yahweh, Buy the field for money, and call witnesses; whereas the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans. <sup>26</sup> Then Yahweh's word came to Jeremiah, saying, <sup>27</sup> Behold, I am Yahweh, the God of all flesh: is there anything too hard for me? <sup>28</sup> Therefore Yahweh says: Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, and into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he shall take it: <sup>29</sup> and the Chaldeans, who fight against this city, shall come and set this city on fire, and burn it, with the houses, on whose roofs they have offered incense to Baal, and poured out drink offerings to other gods, to provoke me to anger. <sup>30</sup> For the children of Israel and the children of Judah have done only that which was evil in my sight from their youth; for the children of Israel have only provoked me to anger with the work of their hands, says Yahweh. <sup>31</sup> For this city has been to me a provocation of my anger and of my wrath from the day that they built it even to this day; that I should remove it from before my face, <sup>32</sup> because of all the evil of the children of Israel and of the children of Judah, which they have done to provoke me to anger, they, their kings, their princes, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. <sup>33</sup> They have turned to me the back, and not the face: and though I taught them, rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not listened to receive instruction. <sup>34</sup> But they set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to defile it. <sup>35</sup> They built the high places of Baal, which are in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through fire to Molech; which I didn't command them, neither did it come into my mind, that they should do this abomination, to cause Judah to sin. <sup>36</sup> Now therefore Yahweh, the God of Israel, says concerning this city, about which you say, It is given into the hand of the king of Babylon by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence: <sup>37</sup> Behold, I will gather them out of all the countries, where I have driven them in my anger, and in my wrath, and in great indignation; and I will bring them again to this place, and I will cause them to dwell safely: <sup>38</sup> and they shall be my people, and I will be their God: <sup>39</sup> and I will give them one heart and one way, that they may fear me forever, for their good, and of their children after them: <sup>40</sup> and I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from following them, to do them good; and I will put my fear in their hearts, that they may not depart from me. <sup>41</sup> Yes, I will rejoice over them to do them good, and I will plant them in this land assuredly with my whole heart and with my whole soul. <sup>42</sup> For Yahweh says: Like as I have brought all this great evil on this people, so will I bring on them all the good that I have promised them. <sup>43</sup> Fields shall be bought in this land, about which you say, It is desolate, without man or animal; it is given into the hand of the Chaldeans. <sup>44</sup> Men shall buy fields for money, and subscribe the deeds, and seal them, and call witnesses, in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, and in the cities of the hill country, and in the cities of the lowland, and in the cities of the South: for I will cause their captivity to return, says Yahweh.

33

them, and shall fear and tremble for all the good and for all the peace that I procure to it. <sup>10</sup> Yahweh says: Yet again there shall be heard in this place, about which you say, It is waste, without man and without animal, even in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, that are desolate, without man and without inhabitant and without animal, <sup>11</sup> the voice of joy and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the voice of those who say, Give thanks to Yahweh of Armies, for Yahweh is good, for his loving kindness endures forever; who bring thanksgiving into Yahweh's house. For I will cause the captivity of the land to return as at the first, says Yahweh.

Israel; <sup>18</sup> neither shall the priests the Levites want a man before me to offer burnt offerings, and to burn meal offerings, and to do sacrifice continually. <sup>19</sup> Yahweh's word came to Jeremiah, saying, <sup>20</sup> Yahweh says: If you can break my covenant of the day, and my covenant of the night, so that there shall not be day and night in their season; <sup>21</sup> then may also my covenant be broken with David my servant, that he shall not have a son to reign on his throne; and with the Levites the priests, my ministers. <sup>22</sup> As the army of the sky can't be numbered, neither the sand of the sea measured; so I will multiply the offspring<sup>o</sup> of David my servant, and the Levites who minister to me. <sup>23</sup> Yahweh's word came to Jeremiah, saying, <sup>24</sup> Don't consider what this people has spoken, saying, The two families which Yahweh chose, he has cast them off? thus do they despise my people, that they should be no more a nation before them. <sup>25</sup> Yahweh says: If my covenant of day and night fails, if I have not appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth; <sup>26</sup> then I will also cast away the offspring<sup>p</sup> of Jacob, and of David my servant, so that I will not take of his offspring<sup>q</sup> to be rulers over the offspring<sup>r</sup> of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: for I will cause their captivity to return, and will have mercy on them.

<sup>1</sup> The word which came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and all his army, and all the kingdoms of the earth that were under his dominion, and all the peoples, were fighting against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of it, saying: <sup>2</sup> Yahweh, the God of Israel, says, Go, and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah, and tell him, Yahweh says, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire: <sup>3</sup> and you shall not escape out of his hand, but shall surely be taken, and delivered into his hand; and your eyes shall see the eyes of the king of Babylon, and he shall speak with you mouth to mouth, and you shall go to Babylon. <sup>4</sup> Yet hear Yahweh's word, O Zedekiah king of Judah: Yahweh says concerning you, You shall not die by the sword; <sup>5</sup> you shall die in peace; and with the burnings of your fathers, the former kings who were before you, so shall they make a burning for you; and they shall lament you, saying, Ah Lord! for I have spoken the word, says Yahweh. <sup>6</sup> Then Jeremiah the prophet spoke all these words to Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem, <sup>7</sup> when the king of Babylon's army was fighting against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of Judah that were left, against Lachish and against Azekah; for these alone remained of the cities of Judah as fortified cities. <sup>8</sup> The word that came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, after that the king Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people who were at Jerusalem, to proclaim liberty to them; <sup>9</sup> that every man should let his male servant, and every man his female servant, who is a Hebrew or a Hebrewess, go free; that no one should make bondservants of them, of a Jew his brother. <sup>10</sup> All the princes and all the people obeyed, who had entered into the covenant, that everyone should let his male servant, and everyone his female servant, go free, that no one should make bondservants of them any more; they obeyed, and let them go: <sup>11</sup> but afterwards they turned, and caused the servants and the handmaids, whom they had let go free, to return, and brought them into subjection for servants and for handmaids. <sup>12</sup> Therefore Yahweh's word came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, saying, <sup>13</sup> Yahweh, the God of Israel, says: I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage, saying, <sup>14</sup> At the end of seven years you shall let go every man his brother who is a Hebrew, who has been sold to you, and has served you six years, you shall let him go free from you: but your fathers didn't listen to me, neither inclined their ear. <sup>15</sup> You had now turned, and had done that which is right in my eyes, in proclaiming liberty every man to his neighbor; and you had made a covenant before me in the house which is called by my name: <sup>16</sup> but you turned and profaned my name, and caused every man his servant, and every man his handmaid, whom you had let go free at their pleasure, to return; and you brought them into subjection, to be to you for servants and for handmaids. <sup>17</sup> Therefore Yahweh says: you have not listened to me, to proclaim liberty, every man to his brother, and every man to his neighbor: behold, I proclaim to you a liberty, says Yahweh, to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine; and I will make you to be tossed back and forth among all the kingdoms of the earth. <sup>18</sup> I will give the men who have transgressed my covenant, who have not performed the words of the covenant which they made before me, when they cut the calf in two and passed between its parts; <sup>19</sup> the princes of Judah, and the princes of Jerusalem, the eunuchs, and the priests, and all the people of the land, who passed between the parts of the calf; <sup>20</sup> I will even give them into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their life; and their dead bodies shall be for food to the birds of the sky, and to the animals of the earth. <sup>21</sup> Zedekiah king of Judah and his princes will I give into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their life, and into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, who have gone away from you. <sup>22</sup> Behold, I will command, says Yahweh, and cause them to return to this city; and they shall fight against it, and take it, and burn it with fire: and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation, without inhabitant.

wine, neither you, nor your sons, forever: <sup>7</sup> neither shall you build house, nor sow seed, nor plant vineyard, nor have any; but all your days you shall dwell in tents; that you may live many days in the land in which you live. <sup>8</sup> We have obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father, in all that he commanded us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, or our daughters; <sup>9</sup> nor to build houses for us to dwell in; neither have we vineyard, nor field, nor seed: <sup>10</sup> but we have lived in tents, and have obeyed, and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us. <sup>11</sup> But when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, we said, "Come, and let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans, and for fear of the army of the Syrians; so we will dwell at Jerusalem." <sup>12</sup> Then Yahweh's word came to Jeremiah, saying, <sup>13</sup> Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Go, and tell the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, Will you not receive instruction to listen to my words? says Yahweh. <sup>14</sup> The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, that he commanded his sons, not to drink wine, are performed; and to this day they drink none, for they obey their father's commandment: but I have spoken to you, rising up early and speaking; and you have not listened to me. <sup>15</sup> I have sent also to you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, Return now every man from his evil way, and amend your doings, and don't go after other gods to serve them, and you shall dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers: but you have not inclined your ear, nor listened to me. <sup>16</sup> Because the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have performed the commandment of their father which he commanded them, but this people has not listened to me; <sup>17</sup> therefore Yahweh, the God of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Behold, I will bring on Judah and on all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the evil that I have pronounced against them; because I have spoken to them, but they have not heard; and I have called to them, but they have not answered. <sup>18</sup> Jeremiah said to the house of the Rechabites, Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Because you have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your father, and kept all his precepts, and done according to all that he commanded you; <sup>19</sup> therefore Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Jonadab the son of Rechab shall not want a man to stand before me forever.

you go, and read in the scroll, which you have written from my mouth, Yahweh's words in the ears of the people in Yahweh's house on the fast day; and also you shall read them in the ears of all Judah who come out of their cities. <sup>7</sup> It may be they will present their supplication before Yahweh, and will return everyone from his evil way; for great is the anger and the wrath that Yahweh has pronounced against this people. <sup>8</sup> Baruch the son of Neriah did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading in the book Yahweh's words in Yahweh's house. <sup>9</sup> Now in the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, in the ninth month, all the people in Jerusalem, and all the people who came from the cities of Judah to Jerusalem, proclaimed a fast before Yahweh. <sup>10</sup> Then Baruch read the words of Jeremiah from the book in Yahweh's house, in the room of Gemariah the son of Shaphan, the scribe, in the upper court, at the entry of the new gate of Yahweh's house, in the ears of all the people. <sup>11</sup> When Micaiah the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, had heard out of the book all Yahweh's words, <sup>12</sup> he went down into the king's house, into the scribe's room: and behold, all the princes were sitting there, Elishama the scribe, and Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, and Elnathan the son of Achbor, and Gemariah the son of Shaphan, and Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the princes. <sup>13</sup> Then Micaiah declared to them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the book in the ears of the people. <sup>14</sup> Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, to Baruch, saying, Take in your hand the scroll in which you have read in the ears of the people, and come. So Baruch the son of Neriah took the scroll in his hand, and came to them. <sup>15</sup> They said to him, Sit down now, and read it in our ears. So Baruch read it in their ears. <sup>16</sup> Now when they had heard all the words, they turned in fear one toward another, and said to Baruch, "We will surely tell the king of all these words." <sup>17</sup> They asked Baruch, saying, Tell us now, How did you write all these words at his mouth? <sup>18</sup> Then Baruch answered them, He pronounced all these words to me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink in the book. <sup>19</sup> Then the princes said to Baruch, Go, hide, you and Jeremiah; and let no man know where you are. <sup>20</sup> They went in to the king into the court; but they had laid up the scroll in the room of Elishama the scribe; and they told all the words in the ears of the king. <sup>21</sup> So the king sent Jehudi to get the scroll; and he took it out of the room of Elishama the scribe. Jehudi read it in the ears of the king, and in the ears of all the princes who stood beside the king. <sup>22</sup> Now the king was sitting in the winter house in the ninth month: and there was a fire in the brazier burning before him. <sup>23</sup> When Jehudi had read three or four leaves, the king cut it with the penknife, and cast it into the fire that was in the brazier, until all the scroll was consumed in the fire that was in the brazier. <sup>24</sup> They were not afraid, nor tore their garments, neither the king, nor any of his servants who heard all these words. <sup>25</sup> Moreover Elnathan and Delaiah and Gemariah had made intercession to the king that he would not burn the scroll; but he would not hear them. <sup>26</sup> The king commanded Jerahmeel the king's son, and Seraiah the son of Azriel, and Shelemiah the son of Abdeel, to take Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet; but Yahweh hid them. <sup>27</sup> Then Yahweh's word came to Jeremiah, after that the king had burned the scroll, and the words which Baruch wrote at the mouth of Jeremiah, saying, <sup>28</sup> Take again another scroll, and write in it all the former words that were in the first scroll, which Jehoiakim the king of Judah has burned. <sup>29</sup> Concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah you shall say, Yahweh says: You have burned this scroll, saying, Why have you written therein, saying, The king of Babylon shall certainly come and destroy this land, and shall cause to cease from there man and animal? <sup>30</sup> Therefore Yahweh says concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah: He will have no one to sit on David's throne; and his dead body shall be cast out in the day to the heat, and in the night to the frost. <sup>31</sup> I will punish him and his offspring<sup>s</sup> and his servants for their iniquity; and I will bring on them, and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and on the men of Judah, all the evil that I have pronounced against them, but they didn't listen. <sup>32</sup> Then took Jeremiah another scroll, and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah, who wrote therein from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the book which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire; and many similar words were added to them.

Babylon made king in the land of Judah. <sup>2</sup> But neither he, nor his servants, nor the people of the land, listened to Yahweh's words, which he spoke by the prophet Jeremiah. <sup>3</sup> Zedekiah the king sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, Pray now to Yahweh our God for us. <sup>4</sup> Now Jeremiah came in and went out among the people; for they had not put him into prison. <sup>5</sup> Pharaoh's army had come out of Egypt; and when the Chaldeans who were besieging Jerusalem heard news of them, they broke up from Jerusalem. <sup>6</sup> Then came Yahweh's word to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, <sup>7</sup> Yahweh, the God of Israel, says, You shall tell the king of Judah, who sent you to me to inquire of me: Behold, Pharaoh's army, which has come out to help you, shall return to Egypt into their own land. <sup>8</sup> The Chaldeans shall come again, and fight against this city; and they shall take it, and burn it with fire. <sup>9</sup> Yahweh says, Don't deceive yourselves, saying, The Chaldeans shall surely depart from us; for they shall not depart. <sup>10</sup> For though you had struck the whole army of the Chaldeans who fight against you, and there remained but wounded men among them, yes would they rise up every man in his tent, and burn this city with fire. <sup>11</sup> When the army of the Chaldeans had broken up from Jerusalem for fear of Pharaoh's army, <sup>12</sup> then Jeremiah went out of Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin, to receive his portion there, in the middle of the people. <sup>13</sup> When he was in the gate of Benjamin, a captain of the guard was there, whose name was Irijah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of

Hananiah; and he laid hold on Jeremiah the prophet, saying, You are falling away to the Chaldeans. <sup>14</sup> Then Jeremiah said, It is false; I am not falling away to the Chaldeans. But he didn't listen to him; so Irijah laid hold on Jeremiah, and brought him to the princes. <sup>15</sup> The princes were angry with Jeremiah, and struck him, and put him in prison in the house of Jonathan the scribe; for they had made that the prison. <sup>16</sup> When Jeremiah had come into the dungeon house, and into the cells, and Jeremiah had remained there many days; <sup>17</sup> Then Zedekiah the king sent, and fetched him: and the king asked him secretly in his house, and said, Is there any word from Yahweh? Jeremiah said, There is. He said also, You shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon. <sup>18</sup> Moreover Jeremiah said to king Zedekiah, Wherein have I sinned against you, or against your servants, or against this people, that you have put me in prison? <sup>19</sup> Where now are your prophets who prophesied to you, saying, The king of Babylon shall not come against you, nor against this land? <sup>20</sup> Now please hear, my lord the king: please let my supplication be presented before you, that you not cause me to return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there. <sup>21</sup> Then Zedekiah the king commanded, and they committed Jeremiah into the court of the guard; and they gave him daily a loaf of bread out of the bakers' street, until all the bread in the city was spent. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the guard.

Malchijah, heard the words that Jeremiah spoke to all the people, saying, <sup>2</sup> Yahweh says, He who remains in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence; but he who goes out to the Chaldeans shall live, and his life shall be to him for a prey, and he shall live. <sup>3</sup> Yahweh says, This city shall surely be given into the hand of the army of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it. <sup>4</sup> Then the princes said to the king, "Please let this man be put to death; because he weakens the hands of the men of war who remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words to them: for this man doesn't seek the welfare of this people, but the hurt." <sup>5</sup> Zedekiah the king said, Behold, he is in your hand; for the king is not he who can do anything against you. <sup>6</sup> Then took they Jeremiah, and cast him into the dungeon of Malchijah the king's son, that was in the court of the guard: and they let down Jeremiah with cords. In the dungeon there was no water, but mire; and Jeremiah sank in the mire. <sup>7</sup> Now when Ebedmelech the Ethiopian, a eunuch, who was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon (the king then sitting in the gate of Benjamin), <sup>8</sup> Ebedmelech went out of the king's house, and spoke to the king, saying, <sup>9</sup> My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon; and he is likely to die in the place where he is, because of the famine; for there is no more bread in the city. <sup>10</sup> Then the king commanded Ebedmelech the Ethiopian, saying, Take from here thirty men with you, and take up Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon, before he dies. <sup>11</sup> So Ebedmelech took the men with him, and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took there rags and worn-out garments, and let them down by cords into the dungeon to Jeremiah. <sup>12</sup> Ebedmelech the Ethiopian said to Jeremiah, Put now these rags and worn-out garments under your armpits under the cords. Jeremiah did so. <sup>13</sup> So they drew up Jeremiah with the cords, and took him up out of the dungeon: and Jeremiah remained in the court of the guard. <sup>14</sup> Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took Jeremiah the prophet to him into the third entry that is in Yahweh's house: and the king said to Jeremiah, I will ask you something. Hide nothing from me. <sup>15</sup> Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, If I declare it to you, will you not surely put me to death? and if I give you counsel, you will not listen to me. <sup>16</sup> So Zedekiah the king swore secretly to Jeremiah, saying, As Yahweh lives, who made us this soul, I will not put you to death, neither will I give you into the hand of these men who seek your life. <sup>17</sup> Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, Yahweh, the God of Armies, the God of Israel, says: If you will go out to the king of Babylon's princes, then your soul shall live, and this city shall not be burned with fire; and you shall live, and your house. <sup>18</sup> But if you will not go out to the king of Babylon's princes, then shall this city be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, and they shall burn it with fire, and you shall not escape out of their hand. <sup>19</sup> Zedekiah the king said to Jeremiah, I am afraid of the Jews who are fallen away to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they mock me. <sup>20</sup> But Jeremiah said, They shall not deliver you. Obey, I beg you, Yahweh's voice, in that which I speak to you: so it shall be well with you, and your soul shall live. <sup>21</sup> But if you refuse to go out, this is the word that Yahweh has shown me: <sup>22</sup> behold, all the women who are left in the king of Judah's house shall be brought out to the king of Babylon's princes, and those women shall say, Your familiar friends have set you on, and have prevailed over you. Your feet are sunk in the mire, they have turned away back. <sup>23</sup> They shall bring out all your wives and your children to the Chaldeans; and you shall not escape out of their hand, but shall be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon: and you shall cause this city to be burned with fire. <sup>24</sup> Then Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, Let no man know of these words, and you shall not die. <sup>25</sup> But if the princes hear that I have talked with you, and they come to you, and tell you, Declare to us now what you have said to the king; don't hide it from us, and we will not put you to death; also what the king said to you: <sup>26</sup> then you shall tell them, I presented my supplication before the king, that he would not cause me to return to Jonathan's house, to die there. <sup>27</sup> Then came all the princes to Jeremiah, and asked him; and he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So they left off speaking with him; for the matter was not perceived. <sup>28</sup> So Jeremiah stayed in the court of the guard until the day that Jerusalem was taken.

Jerusalem, and besieged it; <sup>2</sup> in the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, the ninth day of the month, a breach was made in the city), <sup>3</sup> all the princes of the king of Babylon came in, and sat in the middle gate, Nergal Sharezer, Samgarnebo, Sarsechim, Rabsaris, Nergal Sharezer, Rabmag, with all the rest of the princes of the king of Babylon. <sup>4</sup> When Zedekiah the king of Judah and all the men of war saw them, then they fled, and went out of the city by night, by the way of the king's garden, through the gate between the two walls; and he went out toward the Arabah. <sup>5</sup> But the army of the Chaldeans pursued them, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho: and when they had taken him, they brought him up to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath; and he gave judgment on him. <sup>6</sup> Then the king of Babylon killed the sons of Zedekiah in Riblah before his eyes: also the king of Babylon killed all the nobles of Judah. <sup>7</sup> Moreover he put out Zedekiah's eyes, and bound him in fetters, to carry him to Babylon. <sup>8</sup> The Chaldeans burned the king's house, and the houses of the people, with fire, and broke down the walls of Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup> Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive into Babylon the residue of the people who remained in the city, the deserters also who fell away to him, and the residue of the people who remained. <sup>10</sup> But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left of the poor of the people, who had nothing, in the land of Judah, and gave them vineyards and fields at the same time. <sup>11</sup> Now Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon commanded Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard concerning

Jeremiah, saying, <sup>12</sup> Take him, and look well to him, and do him no harm; but do to him even as he shall tell you. <sup>13</sup> So Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard sent, and Nebushazban, Rabsaris, and Nergal Sharezer, Rabmag, and all the chief officers of the king of Babylon; <sup>14</sup> they sent, and took Jeremiah out of the court of the guard, and committed him to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, that he should carry him home: so he lived among the people. <sup>15</sup> Now Yahweh's word came to Jeremiah, while he was shut up in the court of the guard, saying, <sup>16</sup> Go, and speak to Ebedmelech the Ethiopian, saying, Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Behold, I will bring my words on this city for evil, and not for good; and they shall be accomplished before you in that day. <sup>17</sup> But I will deliver you in that day, says Yahweh; and you shall not be given into the hand of the men of whom you are afraid. <sup>18</sup> For I will surely save you, and you shall not fall by the sword, but your life shall be for a prey to you; because you have put your trust in me, says Yahweh.

40

come on you. <sup>4</sup> Now, behold, I release you today from the chains which are on your hand. If it seems good to you to come with me into Babylon, come, and I will take care of you; but if it seems bad to you to come with me into Babylon, don't: behold, all the land is before you; where it seems good and right to you to go, there go. <sup>5</sup> Now while he had not yet gone back, Go back then, he said, to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has made governor over the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the people; or go wherever it seems right to you to go. So the captain of the guard gave him food and a present, and let him go. <sup>6</sup> Then went Jeremiah to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah, and lived with him among the people who were left in the land. <sup>7</sup> Now when all the captains of the forces who were in the fields, even they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed to him men, and women, and children, and of the poorest of the land, of those who were not carried away captive to Babylon; <sup>8</sup> then they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, and the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah the son of the Maacathite, they and their men. <sup>9</sup> Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan swore to them and to their men, saying, Don't be afraid to serve the Chaldeans: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you. <sup>10</sup> As for me, behold, I will dwell at Mizpah, to stand before the Chaldeans who shall come to us: but you, gather wine and summer fruits and oil, and put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that you have taken. <sup>11</sup> Likewise when all the Jews who were in Moab, and among the children of Ammon, and in Edom, and who were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had set over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan; <sup>12</sup> then all the Jews returned out of all places where they were driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah, to Mizpah, and gathered wine and summer fruits very much. <sup>13</sup> Moreover Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were in the fields, came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, <sup>14</sup> and said to him, Do you know that Baalis the king of the children of Ammon has sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah to take your life? But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam didn't believe them. <sup>15</sup> Then Johanan the son of Kareah spoke to Gedaliah in Mizpah secretly, saying, Please let me go, and I will kill Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no man shall know it: why should he take your life, that all the Jews who are gathered to you should be scattered, and the remnant of Judah perish? <sup>16</sup> But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said to Johanan the son of Kareah, You shall not do this thing; for you speak falsely of Ishmael.

Mizpah; and there they ate bread together in Mizpah. <sup>2</sup> Then arose Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and the ten men who were with him, and struck Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan with the sword, and killed him, whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land. <sup>3</sup> Ishmael also killed all the Jews who were with him, with Gedaliah, at Mizpah, and the Chaldeans who were found there, the men of war. <sup>4</sup> The second day after he had killed Gedaliah, and no man knew it, <sup>5</sup> men came from Shechem, from Shiloh, and from Samaria, even eighty men, having their beards shaved and their clothes torn, and having cut themselves, with meal offerings and frankincense in their hand, to bring them to Yahweh's house. <sup>6</sup> Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went out from Mizpah to meet them, weeping all along as he went: and as he met them, he said to them, "Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam." <sup>7</sup> It was so, when they came into the middle of the city, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah killed them, and cast them into the middle of the pit, he, and the men who were with him. <sup>8</sup> But ten men were found among those who said to Ishmael, Don't kill us; for we have stores hidden in the field, of wheat, and of barley, and of oil, and of honey. So he stopped, and didn't kill them among their brothers. <sup>9</sup> Now the pit in which Ishmael cast all the dead bodies of the men whom he had killed, by the side of Gedaliah (the same was who which Asa the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel), Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with those who were killed. <sup>10</sup> Then Ishmael carried away captive all the residue of the people who were in Mizpah, even the king's daughters, and all the people who remained in Mizpah, whom Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam; Ishmael the son of Nethaniah carried them away captive, and departed to go over to the children of Ammon. <sup>11</sup> But when Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done, <sup>12</sup> then they took all the men, and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and found him by the great waters that are in Gibeon. <sup>13</sup> Now when all the people who were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, then they were glad. <sup>14</sup> So all the people who Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah turned about and came back, and went to Johanan the son of Kareah. <sup>15</sup> But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men, and went to the children of Ammon. <sup>16</sup> Then took Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, all the remnant of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, from Mizpah, after that he had killed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the men of war, and the women, and the children, and the eunuchs, whom he had brought back from Gibeon: <sup>17</sup> and they departed, and lived in Geruth Chimham, which is by Bethlehem, to go to enter into Egypt, <sup>18</sup> because of the Chaldeans; for they were afraid of them, because Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had killed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon made governor over the land.

<sup>1</sup> Then all the captains of the forces, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and Jezaniah the son of Hoshaiiah, and all the people from the least even to the greatest, came near, <sup>2</sup> and said to Jeremiah the prophet, Please let our supplication be presented before you, and pray for us to Yahweh your God, even for all this remnant; for we are left but a few of many, as your eyes do see us: <sup>3</sup> that Yahweh your God may show us the way in which we should walk, and the thing that we should do. <sup>4</sup> Then Jeremiah the prophet said to them, I have heard you; behold, I will pray to Yahweh your God according to your words; and it shall happen that whatever thing Yahweh shall answer you, I will declare it to you; I will keep nothing back from you. <sup>5</sup> Then they said to Jeremiah, Yahweh be a true and faithful witness among us, if we don't do according to all the word with which Yahweh your God shall send you to us. <sup>6</sup> Whether it is good, or whether it is bad, we will obey the voice of Yahweh our God, to whom we send you; that it may be well with us, when we obey the voice of Yahweh our God. <sup>7</sup> After ten days, Yahweh's word came to Jeremiah. <sup>8</sup> Then called he Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, and all the people from the least even to the greatest, <sup>9</sup> and said to them, Yahweh, the God of Israel, to whom you sent me to present your supplication before him, says: <sup>10</sup> If you will still live in this land, then I will build you, and not pull you down, and I will plant you, and not pluck you up; for I grieve over the distress that I have brought on you. <sup>11</sup> Don't be afraid of the king of

Babylon, of whom you are afraid; don't be afraid of him, says Yahweh: for I am with you to save you, and to deliver you from his hand. <sup>12</sup> I will grant you mercy, that he may have mercy on you, and cause you to return to your own land. <sup>13</sup> But if you say, We will not dwell in this land; so that you don't obey Yahweh your God's voice, <sup>14</sup> saying, No; but we will go into the land of Egypt, where we shall see no war, nor hear the sound of the trumpet, nor have hunger of bread; and there will we dwell: <sup>15</sup> now therefore hear Yahweh's word, O remnant of Judah: Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says, If you indeed set your faces to enter into Egypt, and go to live there; <sup>16</sup> then it shall happen, that the sword, which you fear, shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt; and the famine, about which you are afraid, shall follow close behind you there in Egypt; and there you shall die. <sup>17</sup> So shall it be with all the men who set their faces to go into Egypt to live there: they shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence; and none of them shall remain or escape from the evil that I will bring on them. <sup>18</sup> For Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says: As my anger and my wrath has been poured out on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so shall my wrath be poured out on you, when you shall enter into Egypt; and you shall be an object of horror, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach; and you shall see this place no more. <sup>19</sup> Yahweh has spoken concerning you, remnant of Judah, Don't you go into Egypt: know certainly that I have testified to you today. <sup>20</sup> For you have dealt deceitfully against your own souls; for you sent me to Yahweh your God, saying, Pray for us to Yahweh our God;

and according to all that Yahweh our God shall say, so declare to us, and we will do it: <sup>21</sup> and I have declared it to you today; but you have not obeyed Yahweh your God's voice in anything for which he has sent me to you. <sup>22</sup> Now therefore know certainly that you shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, in the place where you desire to go to live there.

43

<sup>1</sup> When Jeremiah had finished speaking to all the people all the words of Yahweh their God, with which Yahweh their God had sent him to them, even all these words, <sup>2</sup> then spoke Azariah the son of Hoshaiiah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud men, saying to Jeremiah, You speak falsely: Yahweh our God has not sent you to say, You shall not go into Egypt to live there; <sup>3</sup> but Baruch the son of Neriah sets you on against us, to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they may put us to death, and carry us away captive to Babylon. <sup>4</sup> So Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, and all the people, didn't obey Yahweh's voice, to dwell in the land of Judah. <sup>5</sup> But Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, took all the remnant of Judah, who were returned from all the nations where they had been driven, to live in the land of Judah; <sup>6</sup> the men, and the women, and the children, and the king's daughters, and every person who Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan; and Jeremiah the prophet, and Baruch the son of Neriah; <sup>7</sup> and they came into the land of Egypt; for they didn't obey Yahweh's voice: and they came to Tahpanhes. <sup>8</sup> Then Yahweh's word came to Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying, <sup>9</sup> Take great stones in your hand, and hide them in mortar in the brick work, which is at the entry of Pharaoh's house in Tahpanhes, in the sight of the men of Judah; <sup>10</sup> and tell them, Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Behold, I will send and take Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will set his throne on these stones that I have hidden; and he shall spread his royal pavilion over them. <sup>11</sup> He shall come, and shall strike the land of Egypt; such as are for death shall be put to death, and such as are for captivity to captivity, and such as are for the sword to the sword. <sup>12</sup> I will kindle a fire in the houses of the gods of Egypt; and he shall burn them, and carry them away captive: and he shall array himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd puts on his garment; and he shall go out from there in peace. <sup>13</sup> He shall also break the pillars of Beth Shemesh, that is in the land of Egypt; and the houses of the gods of Egypt shall he burn with fire.

44

<sup>1</sup> The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews who lived in the land of Egypt, who lived at Migdol, and at Tahpanhes, and at Memphis, and in the country of Pathros, saying, <sup>2</sup> Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says: You have seen all the evil that I have brought on Jerusalem, and on all the cities of Judah; and behold, today they are a desolation, and no man dwells therein, <sup>3</sup> because of their wickedness which they have committed to provoke me to anger, in that they went to burn incense, to serve other gods, that they didn't know, neither they, nor you, nor your fathers. <sup>4</sup> However I sent to you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, Oh, don't do this abominable thing that I hate. <sup>5</sup> But they didn't listen, nor inclined their ear to turn from their wickedness, to burn no incense to other gods. <sup>6</sup> Therefore my wrath and my anger was poured out, and was kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are wasted and desolate, as it is today. <sup>7</sup> Therefore now Yahweh, the God of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Why do you commit great evil against your own souls, to cut off from yourselves man and woman, infant and nursing child out of the middle of Judah, to leave yourselves no one remaining; <sup>8</sup> in that you provoke me to anger with the works of your hands, burning incense to other gods in the land of Egypt, where you have gone to live; that you may be cut off, and that you may be a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth? <sup>9</sup> Have you forgotten the wickedness of your fathers, and the wickedness of the kings of Judah, and the wickedness of their wives, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives which they committed in the land of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem? <sup>10</sup> They are not humbled even to this day, neither have they feared, nor walked in my law, nor in my statutes, that I set before you and before your fathers. <sup>11</sup> Therefore Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Behold, I will set my face against you for evil, even to cut off all Judah. <sup>12</sup> I will take the remnant of Judah, that have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to live there, and they shall all be consumed; in the land of Egypt shall they fall; they shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine; they shall die, from the least even to the greatest, by the sword and by the famine; and they shall be an object of horror, an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach.

<sup>13</sup> For I will punish those who dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence; <sup>14</sup> so that none of the remnant of Judah, who have gone into the land of Egypt to live there, shall escape or be left, to return into the land of Judah, to which they have a desire to return to dwell there: for no one shall return save such as shall escape. <sup>15</sup> Then all the men who knew that their wives burned incense to other gods, and all the women who stood by, a great assembly, even all the people who lived in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying, <sup>16</sup> As for the word that you have spoken to us in Yahweh's name, we will not listen to you.

<sup>17</sup> But we will certainly perform every word that has gone out of our mouth, to burn incense to the queen of the sky, and to pour out drink offerings to her, as we have done, we and our fathers, our kings and our princes, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem; for then had we plenty of food, and were well, and saw no evil. <sup>18</sup> But since we left off burning incense to the queen of the sky, and pouring out drink offerings to her, we have wanted all things, and have been consumed by the sword and by the famine. <sup>19</sup> When we burned incense to the queen of the sky, and poured out drink offerings to her, did we make her cakes to worship her, and pour out drink offerings to her, without our husbands? <sup>20</sup> Then Jeremiah said to all the people, to the men, and to the women, even to all the people who had given him an answer, saying, <sup>21</sup> The incense that you burned in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, you and your fathers, your kings and your princes, and the people of the land, didn't Yahweh remember them, and didn't it come into his mind? <sup>22</sup> so that Yahweh could no longer bear, because of the evil of your doings, and because of the abominations which you have committed; therefore your land has become a desolation, and an astonishment, and a curse, without inhabitant, as it is today. <sup>23</sup> Because you have burned incense, and because you have sinned against Yahweh, and have not obeyed Yahweh's voice, nor walked in his law, nor in his statutes, nor in his testimonies; therefore this evil has happened to you, as it is today. <sup>24</sup> Moreover Jeremiah said to all the people, and to all the women, Hear Yahweh's word, all Judah who are in the land of Egypt: <sup>25</sup> Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says, You and your wives have both spoken with your mouths, and with your hands have fulfilled it, saying, We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of the sky, and to pour out drink offerings to her: establish then your vows, and perform your vows. <sup>26</sup> Therefore hear Yahweh's word, all Judah who dwell in the land of Egypt: Behold, I have sworn by my great name, says Yahweh, that my name shall no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, As the Lord Yahweh lives. <sup>27</sup> Behold, I watch over them for evil, and not for good; and all the men of Judah who are in the land of Egypt shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine, until they are all gone. <sup>28</sup> Those who escape the sword shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah, few in number; and all the remnant of Judah, who have gone into the land of Egypt to live there, shall know whose word shall stand, mine, or theirs. <sup>29</sup> This shall be the sign to you, says Yahweh, that I will punish you in this place, that you may know that my words shall surely stand against you for evil: <sup>30</sup> Yahweh says, Behold, I will give Pharaoh Hophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies, and into the hand of those who seek his life; as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, who was his enemy, and sought his life.

45

<sup>1</sup> The message that Jeremiah the prophet spoke to Baruch the son of Neriah, when he wrote these words in a book at the mouth of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, saying, <sup>2</sup> Yahweh, the God of Israel, says to you, Baruch: <sup>3</sup> You said, Woe is me now! for Yahweh has added sorrow to my pain; I am weary with my groaning, and I find no rest. <sup>4</sup> You shall tell him, Yahweh says: Behold, that which I have built will I break down, and that which I have planted I will pluck up; and this in the whole land. <sup>5</sup> Do you seek great things for yourself? Don't seek them; for, behold, I will bring evil on all flesh, says Yahweh; but your life will I give to you for a prey in all places where you go.

nations. <sup>2</sup> Of Egypt: concerning the army of Pharaoh Necho king of Egypt, which was by the river Euphrates in Carchemish, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon struck in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah. <sup>3</sup> Prepare the buckler and shield, and draw near to battle! <sup>4</sup> Harness the horses, and get up, you horsemen, and stand up with your helmets; furbish the spears, put on the coats of mail. <sup>5</sup> Why have I seen it? they are dismayed and are turned backward; and their mighty ones are beaten down, and have fled apace, and don't look back: terror is on every side, says Yahweh. <sup>6</sup> Don't let the swift flee away, nor the mighty man escape; in the north by the river Euphrates have they stumbled and fallen. <sup>7</sup> Who is this who rises up like the Nile, whose waters toss themselves like the rivers? <sup>8</sup> Egypt rises up like the Nile, and his waters toss themselves like the rivers: and he says, I will rise up, I will cover the earth; I will destroy cities and its inhabitants. <sup>9</sup> Go up, you horses; and rage, you chariots; and let the mighty men go out: Cush and Put, who handle the shield; and the Ludim, who handle and bend the bow. <sup>10</sup> For that day is of the Lord, Yahweh of Armies, a day of vengeance, that he may avenge him of his adversaries: and the sword shall devour and be satiate, and shall drink its fill of their blood; for the Lord, Yahweh of Armies, has a sacrifice in the north country by the river Euphrates. <sup>11</sup> Go up into Gilead, and take balm, virgin daughter of Egypt: in vain do you use many medicines; there is no healing for you. <sup>12</sup> The nations have heard of your shame, and the earth is full of your cry; for the mighty man has stumbled against the mighty, they are fallen both of them together. <sup>13</sup> The word that Yahweh spoke to Jeremiah the prophet, how that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon should come and strike the land of Egypt. <sup>14</sup> Declare in Egypt, and publish in Migdol, and publish in Memphis and in Tahpanhes: say, Stand up, and prepare; for the sword has devoured around you. <sup>15</sup> Why are your strong ones swept away? they didn't stand, because Yahweh pushed them. <sup>16</sup> He made many to stumble, yes, they fell one on another: and they said, Arise, and let us go again to our own people, and to the land of our birth, from the oppressing sword. <sup>17</sup> They cried there, Pharaoh king of Egypt is but a noise; he has let the appointed time pass by. <sup>18</sup> As I live, says the King, whose name is Yahweh of Armies, surely like Tabor among the mountains, and like Carmel by the sea, so shall he come. <sup>19</sup> You daughter who dwells in Egypt, furnish yourself to go into captivity; for Memphis shall become a desolation, and shall be burned up, without inhabitant. <sup>20</sup> Egypt is a very beautiful heifer; but destruction out of the north has come, it has come. <sup>21</sup> Also her hired men in the middle of her are like calves of the stall; for they also are turned back, they are fled away together, they didn't stand: for the day of their calamity has come on them, the time of their visitation. <sup>22</sup> The sound of it shall go like the serpent; for they shall march with an army, and come against her with axes, as wood cutters. <sup>23</sup> They shall cut down her forest, says Yahweh, though it can't be searched; because they are more than the locusts, and are innumerable. <sup>24</sup> The daughter of Egypt shall be disappointed;

she shall be delivered into the hand of the people of the north. <sup>25</sup> Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Behold, I will punish Amon of No, and Pharaoh, and Egypt, with her gods, and her kings; even Pharaoh, and those who trust in him: <sup>26</sup> and I will deliver them into the hand of those who seek their lives, and into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of his servants; and afterwards it shall be inhabited, as in the days of old, says Yahweh. <sup>27</sup> But don't you be afraid, Jacob my servant, neither be dismayed, Israel: for, behold, I will save you from afar, and your offspring<sup>u</sup> from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be quiet and at ease, and no one shall make him afraid. <sup>28</sup> Don't you be afraid, O Jacob my servant, says Yahweh; for I am with you: for I will make a full end of all the nations where I have driven you; but I will not make a full end of you, but I will correct you in measure, and will in no way leave you unpunished.

that comes to destroy all the Philistines, to cut off from Tyre and Sidon every helper who remains: for Yahweh will destroy the Philistines, the remnant of the isle of Caphtor. <sup>5</sup> Baldness has come on Gaza; Ashkelon is brought to nothing, the remnant of their valley: how long will you cut yourself? <sup>6</sup> You sword of Yahweh, how long will it be before you be quiet? Put up yourself into your scabbard; rest, and be still. <sup>7</sup> How can you be quiet, since Yahweh has given you a command? Against Ashkelon, and against the seashore, there has he appointed it.

48

<sup>1</sup> Of Moab. Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Woe to Nebo! for it is laid waste; Kiriathaim is disappointed, it is taken; Misgab is put to shame and broken down. <sup>2</sup> The praise of Moab is no more; in Heshbon they have devised evil against her: Come, and let us cut her off from being a nation. You also, Madmen, shall be brought to silence: the sword shall pursue you. <sup>3</sup> The sound of a cry from Horonaim, desolation and great destruction! <sup>4</sup> Moab is destroyed; her little ones have caused a cry to be heard. <sup>5</sup> For by the ascent of Luhith with continual weeping shall they go up; for at the descent of Horonaim they have heard the distress of the cry of destruction. <sup>6</sup> Flee, save your lives, and be like the heath in the wilderness. <sup>7</sup> For, because you have trusted in your works and in your treasures, you also shall be taken: and Chemosh shall go out into captivity, his priests and his princes together. <sup>8</sup> The destroyer shall come on every city, and no city shall escape; the valley also shall perish, and the

plain shall be destroyed; as Yahweh has spoken. <sup>9</sup> Give wings to Moab, that she may fly and get her away: and her cities shall become a desolation, without any to dwell therein. <sup>10</sup> Cursed is he who does the work of Yahweh negligently; and cursed is he who keeps back his sword from blood. <sup>11</sup> Moab has been at ease from his youth, and he has settled on his lees, and has not been emptied from vessel to vessel, neither has he gone into captivity: therefore his taste remains in him, and his scent is not changed. <sup>12</sup> Therefore behold, the days come, says Yahweh, that I will send to him those who pour off, and they shall pour him off; and they shall empty his vessels, and break their bottles in pieces. <sup>13</sup> Moab shall be ashamed of Chemosh, as the house of Israel was ashamed of Bethel their confidence. <sup>14</sup> How do you say, We are mighty men, and valiant men for the war? <sup>15</sup> Moab is laid waste, and they are gone up into his cities, and his chosen young men are gone down to the slaughter, says the King, whose name is Yahweh of Armies. <sup>16</sup> The calamity of Moab is near to come, and his affliction hurries fast. <sup>17</sup> All you who are around him, bemoan him, and all you who know his name; say, How is the strong staff broken, the beautiful rod! <sup>18</sup> You daughter who dwells in Dibon, come down from your glory, and sit in thirst; for the destroyer of Moab has come up against you, he has destroyed your strongholds. <sup>19</sup> Inhabitant of Aroer, stand by the way, and watch: ask him who flees, and her who escapes; say, What has been done? <sup>20</sup> Moab is disappointed; for it is broken down: wail and cry; tell it by the Arnon, that Moab is laid waste. <sup>21</sup> Judgment has come on the plain country, on Holon, and on Jahzah, and on Mephaath, <sup>22</sup> and on Dibon, and on Nebo, and on Beth Diblathaim, <sup>23</sup> and on Kiriathaim, and on Beth Gamul, and on Beth Meon, <sup>24</sup> and on Kerioth, and on Bozrah, and on all the cities of the land of Moab, far or near. <sup>25</sup> The horn of Moab is cut off, and his arm is broken, says Yahweh. <sup>26</sup> Make him drunken; for he magnified himself against Yahweh: and Moab shall wallow in his vomit, and he also shall be in derision. <sup>27</sup> For wasn't Israel a derision to you? was he found among thieves? for as often as you speak of him, you shake your head. <sup>28</sup> You inhabitants of Moab, leave the cities, and dwell in the rock; and be like the dove that makes her nest over the mouth of the abyss. <sup>29</sup> We have heard of the pride of Moab. He is very proud; his loftiness, and his pride, and his arrogance, and the haughtiness of his heart. <sup>30</sup> I know his wrath, says Yahweh, that it is nothing; his boastings have worked nothing. <sup>31</sup> Therefore will I wail for Moab; yes, I will cry out for all Moab: for the men of Kir Heres shall they mourn. <sup>32</sup> With more than the weeping of Jazer will I weep for you, vine of Sibmah: your branches passed over the sea, they reached even to the sea of Jazer: on your summer fruits and on your vintage the destroyer is fallen. <sup>33</sup> Gladness and joy is taken away from the fruitful field and from the land of Moab; and I have caused wine to cease from the wine presses: no one shall tread with shouting; the shouting shall be no shouting. <sup>34</sup> From the cry of Heshbon even to Elealeh, even to Jahaz have they uttered their voice, from Zoar even to Horonaim, to Eglath Shelishiyah: for the waters of Nimrim also shall become desolate. <sup>35</sup> Moreover I will cause to cease in Moab, says Yahweh, him who offers in the high place, and him who burns incense to his gods. <sup>36</sup> Therefore my heart sounds for Moab like pipes, and my heart sounds like pipes for the men of Kir Heres: therefore the abundance that he has gotten is perished. <sup>37</sup> For every head is bald, and every beard clipped: on all the hands are cuttings, and on the waist sackcloth. <sup>38</sup> On all the housetops of Moab and in its streets there is lamentation every where; for I have broken Moab like a vessel in which no one delights, says Yahweh. <sup>39</sup> How it is broken down! How they wail! How Moab has turned the back with shame! So shall Moab become a derision and a terror to all who are around him. <sup>40</sup> For Yahweh says: Behold, he shall fly as an eagle, and shall spread out his wings against Moab. <sup>41</sup> Kerioth is taken, and the strongholds are seized, and the heart of the mighty men of Moab at that day shall be as the heart of a woman in her pangs. <sup>42</sup> Moab shall be destroyed from being a people, because he has magnified himself against Yahweh. <sup>43</sup> Fear, and the pit, and the snare, are on you, inhabitant of Moab, says Yahweh. <sup>44</sup> He who flees from the fear shall fall into the pit; and he who gets up out of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for I will bring on him, even on Moab, the year of their visitation, says Yahweh. <sup>45</sup> Those who fled stand without strength under the shadow of Heshbon; for a fire is gone out of Heshbon, and a flame from the middle of Sihon, and has devoured the corner of Moab, and the crown of the head of the tumultuous ones.

49

<sup>1</sup> Of the children of Ammon. Yahweh says: Has Israel no sons? has he no heir? why then does Malcam possess Gad, and his people dwell in its cities? <sup>2</sup> Therefore behold, the days come, says Yahweh, that I will cause an alarm of war to be heard against Rabbah of the children of Ammon; and it shall become a desolate heap, and her daughters shall be burned with fire: then shall Israel possess those who possessed him, says Yahweh. <sup>3</sup> Wail, Heshbon, for Ai is laid waste; cry, you daughters of Rabbah, clothe yourself in sackcloth: lament, and run back and forth among the fences; for Malcam shall go into captivity, his priests and his princes together. <sup>4</sup> Why do you glory in the valleys, your flowing valley, backsliding daughter? who trusted in her treasures, saying, Who shall come to me? <sup>5</sup> Behold, I will bring a fear on you, says the Lord, Yahweh of Armies, from all who are around you; and you shall be driven out every man right out, and there shall be no one to gather together the fugitives. <sup>6</sup> But afterward I will bring back the captivity of the children of Ammon, says Yahweh. <sup>7</sup> Of Edom. Yahweh of Armies says: Is wisdom no more in Teman? is counsel perished from the prudent? is their wisdom vanished? <sup>8</sup> Flee, turn back, dwell in the depths, inhabitants of Dedan; for I will bring the calamity of Esau on him, the time that I shall visit him. <sup>9</sup> If grape gatherers came to you, would they not leave some gleaning grapes? if thieves by night, wouldn't they destroy until they had enough? <sup>10</sup> But I have made Esau bare, I have uncovered his secret places, and he shall not be able to hide himself: his offspring<sup>v</sup> is destroyed, and his brothers, and his neighbors; and he is no more. <sup>11</sup> Leave your fatherless children, I will preserve them alive; and let your widows trust in me. <sup>12</sup> For Yahweh says: Behold, they to whom it didn't pertain to drink of the cup shall certainly drink; and are you he who shall altogether go unpunished? You shall not go unpunished, but you shall surely drink. <sup>13</sup> For I have sworn by myself, says Yahweh, that Bozrah shall become an astonishment, a reproach, a waste, and a curse; and all its cities shall be perpetual wastes. <sup>14</sup> I have heard news from Yahweh, and an ambassador is sent among the nations, saying, Gather yourselves together, and come against her, and rise up to the battle. <sup>15</sup> For, behold, I have made you small among the nations, and despised among men. <sup>16</sup> As for your terror, the pride of your heart has deceived you, O you who dwell in the clefts of the rock, who hold the height of the hill: though you should make your nest as high as the eagle, I will bring you down from there, says Yahweh. <sup>17</sup> Edom shall become an astonishment: everyone who passes by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss at all its plagues. <sup>18</sup> As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbor cities of it, says Yahweh, no man shall dwell there, neither shall any son of man live therein. <sup>19</sup> Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the pride of the Jordan against the strong habitation: for I will suddenly make them run away from it; and whoever is chosen, him will I appoint over it: for who is like me? and who will appoint me a time? and who is the shepherd who will stand before me? <sup>20</sup> Therefore hear the counsel of Yahweh, that he has taken against Edom; and his purposes, that he has purposed against the inhabitants of Teman: Surely they shall drag them away, the little ones of the flock; surely he shall make their habitation desolate over them. <sup>21</sup> The earth trembles at the noise of their fall; there is a cry, the noise which is heard in the Red Sea. <sup>22</sup> Behold, he shall come up and fly as the eagle, and spread out his wings against Bozrah: and the heart of the mighty men of Edom at that day shall be as the heart of a woman in her pangs. <sup>23</sup> Of Damascus. Hamath is confounded, and Arpad; for they have heard evil news, they are melted away: there is sorrow on the sea; it can't be quiet. <sup>24</sup> Damascus has grown feeble, she turns herself to flee, and trembling has seized on her: anguish and sorrows have taken hold of her, as of a woman in travail. <sup>25</sup> How is the city of praise not forsaken, the city of my joy? <sup>26</sup> Therefore her young men shall fall in her streets, and all the men of war shall be brought to silence in that day, says Yahweh of Armies. <sup>27</sup> I will kindle a fire in the wall of Damascus, and it shall devour the palaces of Ben Hadad. <sup>28</sup> Of Kedar, and of the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon struck. Yahweh says: Arise, go up to Kedar, and destroy the children of the east. <sup>29</sup> Their tents and their flocks shall they take; they shall carry away for themselves their curtains, and all their vessels, and their camels; and they shall cry to them, Terror on every side! <sup>30</sup> Flee, wander far off, dwell in the depths, you inhabitants of Hazor, says Yahweh; for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has taken counsel against you, and has conceived a purpose against you. <sup>31</sup> Arise, go up to a nation that is at ease, that dwells without care, says Yahweh; that have neither gates nor bars, that dwell alone. <sup>32</sup> Their camels shall be a booty, and the multitude of their livestock a plunder: and I will scatter to all winds those who have the corners of their beards cut off; and I will bring their calamity from every side of them, says Yahweh. <sup>33</sup> Hazor shall be a dwelling place of jackals, a desolation forever: no man shall dwell there, neither shall any son of man live therein. <sup>34</sup> Yahweh's word that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning Elam, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, saying, <sup>35</sup> Yahweh of Armies says: Behold, I will break the bow of Elam, the chief of their might. <sup>36</sup> On Elam will I bring the four winds from the four quarters of the sky, and will scatter them toward all those winds; and there shall be no nation where the outcasts of Elam shall not come. <sup>37</sup> I will cause Elam to be dismayed before their enemies, and before those who seek their life; and I will bring evil on them, even my fierce anger, says Yahweh; and I will send the sword after them, until I have consumed them; <sup>38</sup> and I will set my throne in Elam, and will destroy from there king and princes, says Yahweh. <sup>39</sup> But it shall happen in the latter days, that I will bring back the captivity of Elam, says Yahweh.

taken: their arrows shall be as of an expert mighty man; no one shall return in vain. <sup>10</sup> Chaldea shall be a prey: all who prey on her shall be satisfied, says Yahweh. <sup>11</sup> Because you are glad, because you rejoice, O you who plunder my heritage, because you are wanton as a heifer that treads out the grain, and neigh as strong horses; <sup>12</sup> your mother shall be utterly disappointed; she who bore you shall be confounded: behold, she shall be the least of the nations, a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert. <sup>13</sup> Because of Yahweh's wrath she shall not be inhabited, but she shall be wholly desolate: everyone who goes by Babylon shall be astonished, and hiss at all her plagues. <sup>14</sup> Set yourselves in array against Babylon all around, all you who bend the bow; shoot at her, spare no arrows: for she has sinned against Yahweh. <sup>15</sup> Shout against her all around: she has submitted herself; her bulwarks are fallen, her walls are thrown down; for it is the vengeance of Yahweh: take vengeance on her; as she has done, do to her. <sup>16</sup> Cut off the sower from Babylon, and him who handles the sickle in the time of harvest: for fear of the oppressing sword they shall turn everyone to his people, and they shall flee everyone to his own land. <sup>17</sup> Israel is a hunted sheep; the lions have driven him away: first, the king of Assyria devoured him; and now at last Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has broken his bones. <sup>18</sup> Therefore Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land, as I have punished the king of Assyria. <sup>19</sup> I will bring Israel again to his pasture, and he shall feed on Carmel and Bashan, and his soul shall be satisfied on the hills of Ephraim and in Gilead. <sup>20</sup> In those days, and in that time, says Yahweh, the iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and there shall be no one; and the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found: for I will pardon them whom I leave as a remnant. <sup>21</sup> Go up against the land of Merathaim, even against it, and against the inhabitants of Pekod: kill and utterly destroy after them, says Yahweh, and do according to all that I have commanded you. <sup>22</sup> A sound of battle is in the land, and of great destruction. <sup>23</sup> How is the hammer of the whole earth cut apart and broken! how is Babylon become a desolation among the nations! <sup>24</sup> I have laid a snare for you, and you are also taken, Babylon, and you weren't aware: you are found, and also caught, because you have striven against Yahweh. <sup>25</sup> Yahweh has opened his armory, and has brought out the weapons of his indignation; for the Lord, Yahweh of Armies, has a work to do in the land of the Chaldeans. <sup>26</sup> Come against her from the utmost border; open her storehouses; cast her up as heaps, and destroy her utterly; let nothing of her be left. <sup>27</sup> Kill all her bulls; let them go down to the slaughter: woe to them! for their day has come, the time of their visitation. <sup>28</sup> The voice of those who flee and escape out of the land of Babylon, to declare in Zion the vengeance of Yahweh our God, the vengeance of his temple. <sup>29</sup> Call together the archers against Babylon, all those who bend the bow; encamp against her all around; let none of it escape: recompense her according to her work; according to all that she has done, do to her; for she has been proud against Yahweh, against the Holy One of Israel. <sup>30</sup>

Therefore her young men will fall in her streets, and all her men of war will be brought to silence in that day, says Yahweh. <sup>31</sup> Behold, I am against you, you proud one, says the Lord, Yahweh of Armies; for your day has come, the time that I will visit you. <sup>32</sup> The proud one shall stumble and fall, and no one shall raise him up; and I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it shall devour all who are around him. <sup>33</sup> Yahweh of Armies says: The children of Israel and the children of Judah are oppressed together; and all who took them captive hold them fast; they refuse to let them go. <sup>34</sup> Their Redeemer is strong; Yahweh of Armies is his name: he will thoroughly plead their cause, that he may give rest to the earth, and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon. <sup>35</sup> A sword is on the Chaldeans, says Yahweh, and on the inhabitants of Babylon, and on her princes, and on her wise men. <sup>36</sup> A sword is on the boasters, and they shall become fools; a sword is on her mighty men, and they shall be dismayed. <sup>37</sup> A sword is on their horses, and on their chariots, and on all the mixed people who are in the middle of her; and they shall become as women: a sword is on her treasures, and they shall be robbed. <sup>38</sup> A drought is on her waters, and they shall be dried up; for it is a land of engraved images, and they are mad over idols. <sup>39</sup> Therefore the wild animals of the desert with the wolves shall dwell there, and the ostriches shall dwell therein: and it shall be no more inhabited forever; neither shall it be lived in from generation to generation. <sup>40</sup> As when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbor cities of it, says Yahweh, so shall no man dwell there, neither shall any son of man live therein. <sup>41</sup> Behold, a people comes from the north; and a great nation and many kings shall be stirred up from the uttermost parts of the earth. <sup>42</sup> They lay hold on bow and spear; they are cruel, and have no mercy; their voice roars like the sea; and they ride on horses, everyone set in array, as a man to the battle, against you, daughter of Babylon. <sup>43</sup> The king of Babylon has heard the news of them, and his hands wax feeble: anguish has taken hold of him, pains as of a woman in labor. <sup>44</sup> Behold, the enemy shall come up like a lion from the pride of the Jordan against the strong habitation: for I will suddenly make them run away from it; and whoever is chosen, him will I appoint over it: for who is like me? and who will appoint me a time? and who is the shepherd who can stand before me? <sup>45</sup> Therefore hear the counsel of Yahweh, that he has taken against Babylon; and his purposes, that he has purposed against the land of the Chaldeans: Surely they shall drag them away, even the little ones of the flock; surely he shall make their habitation desolate over them. <sup>46</sup> At the noise of the taking of Babylon the earth trembles, and the cry is heard among the nations.

of mail: and don't spare her young men; utterly destroy all her army. <sup>4</sup> They shall fall down slain in the land of the Chaldeans, and thrust through in her streets. <sup>5</sup> For Israel is not forsaken, nor Judah, of his God, of Yahweh of Armies; though their land is full of guilt against the Holy One of Israel. <sup>6</sup> Flee out of the middle of Babylon, and save every man his life; don't be cut off in her iniquity: for it is the time of Yahweh's vengeance; he will render to her a recompense. <sup>7</sup> Babylon has been a golden cup in Yahweh's hand, who made all the earth drunken: the nations have drunk of her wine; therefore the nations are mad. <sup>8</sup> Babylon is suddenly fallen and destroyed: wail for her; take balm for her pain, if so be she may be healed. <sup>9</sup> We would have healed Babylon, but she is not healed: forsake her, and let us go everyone into his own country; for her judgment reaches to heaven, and is lifted up even to the skies. <sup>10</sup> Yahweh has produced our righteousness: come, and let us declare in Zion the work of Yahweh our God. <sup>11</sup> Make sharp the arrows; hold firm the shields: Yahweh has stirred up the spirit of the kings of the Medes; because his purpose is against Babylon, to destroy it: for it is the vengeance of Yahweh, the vengeance of his temple. <sup>12</sup> Set up a standard against the walls of Babylon, make the watch strong, set the watchmen, prepare the ambushes; for Yahweh has both purposed and done that which he spoke concerning the inhabitants of Babylon. <sup>13</sup> You who dwell on many waters, abundant in treasures, your end has come, the measure of your covetousness. <sup>14</sup> Yahweh of Armies has sworn by himself, saying,

Surely I will fill you with men, as with the canker worm; and they shall lift up a shout against you. <sup>15</sup> He has made the earth by his power, he has established the world by his wisdom, and by his understanding has he stretched out the heavens: <sup>16</sup> when he utters his voice, there is a tumult of waters in the heavens, and he causes the vapors to ascend from the ends of the earth; he makes lightning for the rain, and brings the wind out of his treasuries. <sup>17</sup> Every man has become brutish without knowledge. Every goldsmith is disappointed by his image; for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them. <sup>18</sup> They are vanity, a work of delusion: in the time of their visitation they shall perish. <sup>19</sup> The portion of Jacob is not like these; for he is the former of all things; and is the tribe of his inheritance: Yahweh of Armies is his name. <sup>20</sup> You are my battle ax and weapons of war: and with you will I break in pieces the nations; and with you will I destroy kingdoms; <sup>21</sup> and with you will I break in pieces the horse and his rider; <sup>22</sup> and with you will I break in pieces the chariot and him who rides therein; and with you will I break in pieces man and woman; and with you will I break in pieces the old man and the youth; and with you will I break in pieces the young man and the virgin; <sup>23</sup> and with you will I break in pieces the shepherd and his flock; and with you will I break in pieces the farmer and his yoke; and with you will I break in pieces governors and deputies. <sup>24</sup> I will render to Babylon and to all the inhabitants of Chaldea all their evil that they have done in Zion in your sight, says Yahweh. <sup>25</sup> Behold, I am against you, destroying mountain, says Yahweh, which destroys all the earth; and I will stretch out my hand on you, and roll you down from the rocks, and will make you a burned mountain. <sup>26</sup> They shall not take of you a stone for a corner, nor a stone for foundations; but you shall be desolate for ever, says Yahweh. <sup>27</sup> Set up a standard in the land, blow the trumpet among the nations, prepare the nations against her, call together against her the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz: appoint a marshal against her; cause the horses to come up as the rough canker worm. <sup>28</sup> Prepare against her the nations, the kings of the Medes, its governors, and all its deputies, and all the land of their dominion. <sup>29</sup> The land trembles and is in pain; for the purposes of Yahweh against Babylon do stand, to make the land of Babylon a desolation, without inhabitant. <sup>30</sup> The mighty men of Babylon have forborne to fight, they remain in their strongholds; their might has failed; they are become as women: her dwelling places are set on fire; her bars are broken. <sup>31</sup> One runner will run to meet another, and one messenger to meet another, to show the king of Babylon that his city is taken on every quarter: <sup>32</sup> and the passages are seized, and the reeds they have burned with fire, and the men of war are frightened. <sup>33</sup> For Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel says: The daughter of Babylon is like a threshing floor at the time when it is trodden; yet a little while, and the time of harvest shall come for her. <sup>34</sup> Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon has devoured me, he has crushed me, he has made me an empty vessel, he has, like a monster, swallowed me up, he has filled his maw with my delicacies; he has cast me out. <sup>35</sup> The violence done to me and to my flesh be on Babylon, shall the inhabitant of Zion say; and, My blood be on the inhabitants of Chaldea, shall Jerusalem say. <sup>36</sup> Therefore Yahweh says: Behold, I will plead your cause, and take vengeance for you; and I will dry up her sea, and make her fountain dry. <sup>37</sup> Babylon shall become heaps, a dwelling place for jackals, an astonishment, and a hissing, without inhabitant. <sup>38</sup> They shall roar together like young lions; they shall growl as lions' cubs. <sup>39</sup> When they are heated, I will make their feast, and I will make them drunken, that they may rejoice, and sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, says Yahweh. <sup>40</sup> I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with male goats. <sup>41</sup> How is Sheshach taken! and the praise of the whole earth seized! how is Babylon become a desolation among the nations! <sup>42</sup> The sea has come up on Babylon; she is covered with the multitude of its waves. <sup>43</sup> Her cities are become a desolation, a dry land, and a desert, a land in which no man dwells, neither does any son of man pass thereby. <sup>44</sup> I will execute judgment on Bel in Babylon, and I will bring out of his mouth that which he has swallowed up; and the nations shall not flow any more to him: yes, the wall of Babylon shall fall. <sup>45</sup> My people, go away from the middle of her, and save yourselves every man from the fierce anger of Yahweh. <sup>46</sup> Don't let your heart faint, neither fear for the news that shall be heard in the land; for news shall come one year, and after that in another year shall come news, and violence in the land, ruler against ruler. <sup>47</sup> Therefore behold, the days come, that I will execute judgment on the engraved images of Babylon; and her whole land shall be confounded; and all her slain shall fall in the middle of her. <sup>48</sup> Then the heavens and the earth, and all that is therein, shall sing for joy over Babylon; for the destroyers shall come to her from the north, says Yahweh. <sup>49</sup> As Babylon has caused the slain of Israel to fall, so at Babylon shall fall the slain of all the land. <sup>50</sup> You who have escaped the sword, go, don't stand still; remember Yahweh from afar, and let Jerusalem come into your mind. <sup>51</sup> We are confounded, because we have heard reproach; confusion has covered our faces: for strangers have come into the sanctuaries of Yahweh's house. <sup>52</sup> Therefore behold, the days come, says Yahweh, that I will execute judgment on her engraved images; and through all her land the wounded shall groan. <sup>53</sup> Though Babylon should mount up to the sky, and though she should fortify the height of her strength, yet from me shall destroyers come to her, says Yahweh. <sup>54</sup> The sound of a cry from Babylon, and of great destruction from the land of the Chaldeans! <sup>55</sup> For Yahweh lays Babylon waste, and destroys out of her the great voice; and their waves roar like many waters; the noise of their voice is uttered: <sup>56</sup> for the destroyer has come on her, even on Babylon, and her mighty men are taken, their bows are broken in pieces; for Yahweh is a God of recompenses, he will surely requite. <sup>57</sup> I will make drunk her princes and her wise men, her governors and her deputies, and her mighty men; and they shall sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake up, says the King, whose name is Yahweh of Armies. <sup>58</sup> Yahweh of Armies says: The wide walls of Babylon shall be utterly overthrown, and her high gates shall be burned with fire; and the peoples shall labor for vanity, and the nations for the fire; and they shall be weary. <sup>59</sup> The word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah the son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, when he went with Zedekiah the king of Judah to Babylon in the fourth year of his reign. Now Seraiah was chief quartermaster. <sup>60</sup> Jeremiah wrote in a book all the evil that should come on Babylon, even all these words that are written concerning Babylon. <sup>61</sup> Jeremiah said to Seraiah, When you come to Babylon, then see that you read all these words, <sup>62</sup> and say, Yahweh, you have spoken concerning this place, to cut it off, that no one shall dwell therein, neither man nor animal, but that it shall be desolate forever. <sup>63</sup> It shall be, when you have finished reading this book, that you shall bind a stone to it, and cast it into the middle of the Euphrates: <sup>64</sup> and you shall say, Thus shall Babylon sink, and shall not rise again because of the evil that I will bring on her; and they shall be weary. Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

<sup>1</sup> Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. <sup>2</sup> He did that which was evil in Yahweh's sight, according to all that Jehoiakim had done. <sup>3</sup> For through Yahweh's anger this happened in Jerusalem and Judah, until he had cast them out from his presence. Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon. <sup>4</sup> In the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the

tenth day of the month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and encamped against it; and they built forts against it round about.<sup>5</sup> So the city was besieged to the eleventh year of king Zedekiah.<sup>6</sup> In the fourth month, in the ninth day of the month, the famine was severe in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land.<sup>7</sup> Then a breach was made in the city, and all the men of war fled, and went out of the city by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden; (now the Chaldeans were against the city all around;) and they went toward the Arabah.<sup>8</sup> But the army of the Chaldeans pursued the king, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from him.<sup>9</sup> Then they took the king, and carried him up to the king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath; and he gave judgment on him.<sup>10</sup> The king of Babylon killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes: he killed also all the princes of Judah in Riblah.<sup>11</sup> He put out the eyes of Zedekiah; and the king of Babylon bound him in fetters, and carried him to Babylon, and put him in prison until the day of his death.<sup>12</sup> Now in the fifth month, in the tenth day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of king Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, came Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, who stood before the king of Babylon, into Jerusalem:<sup>13</sup> and he burned Yahweh's house, and the king's house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, even every great house, he burned with fire.<sup>14</sup> All the army of the Chaldeans, who were with the captain of the guard, broke down all the walls of Jerusalem all around.<sup>15</sup> Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the poorest of the people, and the residue of the people who were left in the city, and those who fell away, who fell to the king of Babylon, and the residue of the multitude.<sup>16</sup> But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left of the poorest of the land to be vineyard keepers and farmers.<sup>17</sup> The Chaldeans broke the pillars of brass that were in Yahweh's house, and the bases and the bronze sea that were in Yahweh's house in pieces, and carried all of their brass to Babylon.<sup>18</sup> They also took away the pots, the shovels, the snuffers, the basins, the spoons, and all the vessels of brass with which they ministered.<sup>19</sup> The captain of the guard took away the cups, the fire pans, the basins, the pots, the lamp stands, the spoons, and the bowls; that which was of gold, in gold, and that which was of silver, in silver.<sup>20</sup> They took the two pillars, the one sea, and the twelve bronze bulls that were under the bases, which king Solomon had made for Yahweh's house. The brass of all these vessels was without weight.<sup>21</sup> As for the pillars, the height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits;<sup>w</sup> and a line of twelve cubits encircled it; and its thickness was four fingers. It was hollow.<sup>22</sup> A capital of brass was on it; and the height of the one capital was five cubits,<sup>x</sup> with network and pomegranates on the capital all around, all of brass: and the second pillar also had like these, and pomegranates.<sup>23</sup> There were ninety-six pomegranates on the sides; all the pomegranates were one hundred on the network all around. <sup>24</sup> The captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the threshold: <sup>25</sup> and out of the city he took an officer who was set over the men of war; and seven men of those who saw the king's face, who were found in the city; and the scribe of the captain of the army, who mustered the people of the land; and sixty men of the people of the land, who were found in the middle of the city. <sup>26</sup> Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah. <sup>27</sup> The king of Babylon struck them, and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was carried away captive out of his land. <sup>28</sup> This is the people whom Nebuchadnezzar carried away captive: in the seventh year three thousand twenty-three Jews; <sup>29</sup> in the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar he carried away captive from Jerusalem eight hundred thirty-two persons; <sup>30</sup> in the twenty-third year of Nebuchadnezzar Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the Jews seven hundred forty-five persons: all the persons were four thousand and six hundred. <sup>31</sup> In the thirty-seventh year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, in the twenty-fifth day of the month, Evilmerodach king of Babylon, in the first year of his reign, lifted up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah, and released him from prison; <sup>32</sup> and he spoke kindly to him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings who were with him in Babylon, <sup>33</sup> and changed his prison garments. Jehoiachin ate bread before him continually all the days of his life: <sup>34</sup> and for his allowance, there was a continual allowance given him by the king of Babylon, every day a portion until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

<sup>x</sup> a cubit is the length from the tip of the middle finger to the elbow on a man's arm, or about 18 inches or 46 centimeters.

<sup>1</sup> AND these are the words of the book, which Baruch the son of Nerias, the son of Maaseas, the son of Sedekias, the son of Asadias, the son of Helkias, wrote in Babylon, <sup>2</sup> in the fifth year, and in the seventh day of the month, what time as the Chaldeans took Jerusalem, and burned it with fire. <sup>3</sup> And Baruch did read the words of this book in the hearing of Jechonias the son of Joakim king of Judah, and in the hearing of all the people that came to hear the book, <sup>4</sup> and in the hearing of the mighty men, and of the kings' sons, and in the hearing of the elders, and in the hearing of all the people, from the least to the greatest, even of all them that lived at Babylon by the river Sud. <sup>5</sup> And they wept, and fasted, <sup>a</sup> and prayed before the Lord; <sup>6</sup> they made also a collection of money according to every man's power: <sup>7</sup> and they sent it to Jerusalem to Joakim the high priest, the son of Helkias, the son of Salom, and to the priests, and to all the people which were found with him at Jerusalem, <sup>8</sup> at the same time when he took the vessels of the house of the Lord, that had been carried out of the temple, to return them into the land of Judah, the tenth day of the month Sivan, namely, silver vessels, which Sedekias the son of Josias king of Judah had made, <sup>9</sup> after that Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon had carried away Jechonias, and the princes, and the captives, and the mighty men, and the people of the land, from Jerusalem, and brought them to Babylon. <sup>10</sup> And they said, Behold, we have sent you money; buy you therefore with the money burnt offerings, and sin offerings, and incense, and prepare an oblation, and offer upon the altar of the Lord our God; <sup>11</sup> and pray for the life of Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon, and for the life of Baltasar his son, that their days may be <sup>b</sup> as the days of heaven above the earth: <sup>12</sup> and the Lord will give us strength, and lighten our eyes, and we shall live under the shadow of Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon, and under the shadow of Baltasar his son, and we shall serve them many days, and find favor in their sight. <sup>13</sup> Pray for us also to the Lord our God, for we have sinned against the Lord our God; and to this day the wrath of the Lord and his indignation is not turned from us. <sup>14</sup> And youⓂ shall read this book which we have sent to you, to make confession in the house of the Lord, upon the day of the feast and on the days of the solemn assembly.

<sup>15</sup> And youⓂ shall say, To the Lord our God belongs righteousness, but to us confusion of face, as at this day, to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, <sup>16</sup> and to our kings, and to our princes, and to our priests, and to our prophets, and to our fathers: <sup>17</sup> for that we have sinned before the Lord, <sup>18</sup> and disobeyed him, and have not hearkened to the voice of the Lord our God, to walk in the commandments of the Lord that he has set before us: <sup>19</sup> since the day that the Lord brought our fathers out of the land of Egypt, to this present day, we have been disobedient to the Lord our God, and we have dealt unadvisedly in not hearkening to his voice.<sup>20</sup> Wherefore the plagues came to us, and the curse, which the Lord commanded Moses his servant to pronounce in the day that he brought our fathers out of the land of Egypt, to give us a land that flows with milk and honey, as at this day.<sup>21</sup> Nevertheless we hearkened not to the voice of the Lord our God, according to all the words of the prophets, whom he sent to us:<sup>22</sup> but we walked every man in the imagination of his own wicked heart, to serve strange gods, and to do that which is evil in the sight of the Lord our God.

turning every one from the thoughts of his wicked heart.<sup>9</sup> Therefore has the Lord kept watch over the plagues, and the Lord has brought them upon us; for the Lord is righteous in all his works which he has commanded us.<sup>10</sup> Yet we have not hearkened to his voice, to walk in the commandments of the Lord that he has set before us.

<sup>11</sup> And now, O Lord, you God of Israel, that have brought your people out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and with signs, and with wonders, and with great power, and with a high arm, and have gotten yourself a name, as at this day:<sup>12</sup> O Lord our God, we have sinned, we have done ungodly, we have dealt unrighteously in all your ordinances.<sup>13</sup> Let your wrath turn from us: for we are but a few left among the heathen, where you have scattered us.<sup>14</sup> Hear our prayer, O Lord, and our petition, and deliver us for your own sake, and give us favor in the sight of them which have led us away captive:<sup>15</sup> that all the earth may know that you are the Lord our God, because Israel and his posterity is called by your name.<sup>16</sup> O Lord, look down from your holy house, and consider us: incline your ear, O Lord, and hear:<sup>17</sup> open your eyes, and behold: for the dead are in <sup>d</sup> the grave, whose breath is taken from their bodies, will give to the Lord neither glory nor righteousness:<sup>18</sup> but the soul that is greatly vexed, which goes stooping and feeble, and the eyes that fail, and the hungry soul, will give you glory and righteousness, O Lord.<sup>19</sup> For we do not present our supplication before you, O Lord our God, for the righteousness of our fathers, and of our kings.<sup>20</sup> For you have sent your wrath and your indignation upon us, as you have spoken by your servants the prophets, saying,<sup>21</sup> Thus says the Lord, Bow your shoulders to serve the king of Babylon, and remain in the land that I gave to your fathers.<sup>22</sup> But if you<sup>g</sup> will not hear the voice of the Lord, to serve the king of Babylon,<sup>23</sup> I will cause to cease out of the cities of Judah, and from without Jerusalem, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride: and the whole land shall be desolate without inhabitant.<sup>24</sup> But we would not hearken to your voice, to serve the king of Babylon: therefore have you made good your words that you spoke by your servants the prophets, namely, that the bones of our kings, and the bones of our fathers, should be taken out of their places.<sup>25</sup> And, behold, they are cast out to the heat by day, and to the frost by night, and they died in great miseries by famine, by sword, and by<sup>e</sup> pestilence.<sup>26</sup> And the house which is called by your name have you laid waste, as at this day, for the wickedness of the house of Israel and the house of Judah.<sup>27</sup> Yet, O Lord our God, you have dealt with us after all your kindness, and according to all that great mercy of your,<sup>28</sup> as you spoke by your servant Moses in the day when you did command him to write your law before the children of Israel, saying,<sup>29</sup> If you<sup>g</sup> will not hear my voice, surely this very great multitude shall be turned into a small number among the nations, where I will scatter them.<sup>30</sup> For I know that they will not hear me, because it is a stiff-necked people: but in the land of their captivity they shall lay it to heart,<sup>31</sup> And shall know that I am the Lord their God: and I will give them a heart, and ears to hear:<sup>32</sup> and they shall praise me in the land of their captivity, and think upon my name,<sup>33</sup> and shall return from their stiff neck, and from their wicked deeds: for they shall remember the way of their fathers, which sinned before the Lord.<sup>34</sup> And I will bring them again into the land which I sware to their fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, and they shall be lords of it: and I will increase them, and they shall not be diminished.<sup>35</sup> And I will make an everlasting covenant with them to be their God, and they shall be my people: and I will no more remove my people of Israel out of the land that I have given them.

<sup>1</sup> O Lord Almighty, you God of Israel, the soul in anguish, the troubled spirit, cries to you.<sup>2</sup> Hear, O Lord, and have mercy; for you are a merciful God: yes, have mercy upon us, because we have sinned before you.<sup>3</sup> For you sit as king for ever, and we perish evermore.<sup>4</sup> O Lord Almighty, you God of Israel, hear now the prayer of<sup>f</sup> the dead Israelites, and of the children of them which were sinners before you, that hearkened not to the voice of you their God: for the which cause these plagues clave to us.<sup>5</sup> Remember not the iniquities of our fathers: but remember your power and your name now at this time.<sup>6</sup> For you are the Lord our God, and you, O Lord, will we praise.<sup>7</sup> For for this cause you have put your fear in our hearts,<sup>g</sup> to the intent that we should call upon your name: and we will praise you in our captivity, for we have <sup>h</sup> called to mind all the iniquity of our fathers, that sinned before you. <sup>8</sup> Behold, we are yet this day in our captivity, where you have scattered us, for a reproach and a curse, and to be subject to penalty, according to all the iniquities of our fathers, which departed from the Lord our God.

<sup>9</sup> Hear, O Israel, the commandments of life: give ear to understand wisdom. <sup>10</sup> How is it, O Israel, that you are in your enemies' land, that you have become old in a strange country, that you are defiled with the dead, <sup>11</sup> that you are counted with them that go down into <sup>i</sup> the grave? <sup>12</sup> You have forsaken the fountain of wisdom. <sup>13</sup> For if you had walked in the way of God, you should have dwelled in peace for ever. <sup>14</sup> Learn where is <sup>j</sup> wisdom, where is strength, where is understanding; that you may know also where is length of days, and life, where is the light of the eyes, and peace. <sup>15</sup> Who has found out her place? and who has come into her treasuries? <sup>16</sup> Where are the princes of the heathen, and such as ruled the beasts that are upon the earth; <sup>17</sup> they that had their pastime with the fowls of the air, and they that hoarded up silver and gold, wherein men trust; and of whose getting there is no end? <sup>18</sup> For they that <sup>k</sup> wrought in silver, and were so careful, and whose works are past finding out, <sup>19</sup> they are vanished and gone down to <sup>l</sup> the grave, and others are come up in their steads. <sup>20</sup> Younger men have seen the light, and lived upon the earth: but the way of knowledge have they not known, <sup>21</sup> neither understood they the paths thereof: neither have their children laid hold of it: they are far off from <sup>m</sup> their way. <sup>22</sup> It has not been heard of in Canaan, neither has it been seen in Teman. <sup>23</sup> The sons also of Agar that seek understanding, which are in the land, the merchants of Merran and Teman, and the authors of fables, and the searchers out of understanding; none of these have known the way of wisdom, or remembered her paths. <sup>24</sup> O Israel, how great is the house of God! and how large is the place of his possession! <sup>25</sup> great, and has none end; high, and unmeasurable. <sup>26</sup> There were the giants born that were famous of old, great of stature, and expert in war. <sup>27</sup> These did not God choose, neither gave he the way of knowledge to them: <sup>28</sup> so they perished, because they had no <sup>n</sup> wisdom, they perished through their own foolishness. <sup>29</sup> Who has gone up into heaven, and taken her, and brought her down from the clouds? <sup>30</sup> Who has gone over the sea, and found her, and will bring her for choice gold? <sup>31</sup> There is none that knows her way, nor any that comprehendeth her path. <sup>32</sup> But he that knows all things knows her, he found her out with his understanding: he that prepared the earth for evermore has filled it with four-footed beasts: <sup>33</sup> He that sends forth the light, and it goes; he called it, and it obeyed him with fear: <sup>34</sup> and the stars shined in their watches, and were glad: when he called them, they said, Here we be; they shined with gladness to him that made them. <sup>35</sup> This is our God, and there shall none other be accounted of in comparison of him. <sup>36</sup> He has found out all the way of knowledge, and has given it to Jacob his servant, and to Israel that is beloved of him. <sup>37</sup> Afterward did she appear upon earth, and was conversant with men.

<sup>1</sup> This is the book of the commandments of God, and the law that endures for ever: all they that hold it fast are appointed to life; but such as leave it shall die. <sup>2</sup> Turn you, O Jacob, and take hold of it: walk towards her shining in the presence of the light thereof. <sup>3</sup> Give not your glory to another, nor the things that are profitable to you to a strange nation. <sup>4</sup> O Israel, happy are we: for the things that are pleasing to God are made known to us. <sup>5</sup> Be of good cheer, my people, the memorial of Israel. <sup>6</sup> You<sup>63</sup> were sold to the nations, but not for destruction: because you<sup>63</sup> moved God to wrath, you<sup>63</sup> were delivered to your adversaries. <sup>7</sup> For you<sup>63</sup> provoked him that made you by sacrificing to demons, and not to God. <sup>8</sup> You<sup>63</sup> forgot the everlasting God, that brought you up; you<sup>63</sup> grieved also Jerusalem, that nursed you. <sup>9</sup> For she saw the wrath that is come upon you from God, and said, Hearken, you<sup>63</sup> women that dwell about Sion: for God has brought upon me great mourning; <sup>10</sup> for I have seen the captivity of my sons and daughters, which the Everlasting has brought upon them. <sup>11</sup> For with joy did I nourish them; but sent them away with weeping and mourning. <sup>12</sup> Let no man rejoice over me, a widow, and forsaken of many: for the sins of my children am I left desolate; because they turned aside from the law of God, <sup>13</sup> and had no regard to his statutes, neither walked they in the ways of God's commandments, nor trod in the paths of discipline in his righteousness. <sup>14</sup> Let them that dwell about Sion come, and remember you<sup>63</sup> the captivity of my sons and daughters, which the Everlasting has brought upon them. <sup>15</sup> For he has brought a nation upon them from far, a shameless nation, and of a strange language, <sup>o</sup> who neither revered old man, nor pitied child. <sup>16</sup> And they have carried away the dear beloved sons of the widow, and left her that was alone desolate of her daughters. <sup>17</sup> But I, what can I help you? <sup>18</sup> For he that brought these plagues upon you will deliver you from the hand of your enemies. <sup>19</sup> Go your way, O my children, go your way: for I am left desolate. <sup>20</sup> I have put off the garment of peace, and put upon me the sackcloth of my petition: I will cry to the Everlasting as long as I live. <sup>21</sup> Be of good cheer, O my children, cry to God, and he shall deliver you from the power and hand of the enemies. <sup>22</sup> For I have trusted in the Everlasting, that he will save you; and joy is come to me from the Holy One, because of the mercy which shall soon come to you <sup>p</sup> from the Everlasting your Saviour. <sup>23</sup> For I sent you out with mourning and weeping: but God will give you to me again with joy and gladness for ever. <sup>24</sup> For like as now they that dwell about Sion have seen your captivity: so shall they see shortly your salvation from <sup>q</sup> our God, which shall come upon you with great glory, and brightness of the Everlasting. <sup>25</sup> My children, suffer patiently the wrath that is come upon you from God: for your enemy has persecuted you; but shortly you shall see his destruction, and shall tread upon their necks. <sup>26</sup> My delicate ones have gone rough ways; they were taken away as a flock carried off by the enemies. <sup>27</sup> Be of good cheer, O my children, and cry to God: for you shall be remembered of him that has brought these things upon you. <sup>28</sup> For as it was your mind to go astray from God: so, return and seek him ten times more. <sup>29</sup> For he that brought these plagues upon you shall bring you everlasting joy again with your salvation. <sup>30</sup> Be of good cheer, O Jerusalem: for he that called you by name will comfort you. <sup>31</sup> Miserable are they that afflicted you, and rejoiced at your fall. <sup>32</sup> Miserable are the cities which your children served: miserable is she that received your sons. <sup>33</sup> For as she rejoiced at your fall, and was glad of your ruin: so shall she be grieved for her own desolation. <sup>34</sup> And I will take away her exultation in her great multitude, and her boasting shall be turned into mourning. <sup>35</sup> For fire shall come upon her from the Everlasting, long to endure; and she shall be inhabited of <sup>r</sup> devils for a great time.

5

<sup>1</sup> Put off, O Jerusalem, the garment of your mourning and affliction, and put on the comeliness of the glory that comes from God for ever. <sup>2</sup> Cast about you the robe of the righteousness which comes from God; set a diadem on your head of the glory of the Everlasting. <sup>3</sup> For God will show your brightness to every region under heaven. <sup>4</sup> For your name shall be called of God for ever The peace of righteousness, and The glory of godliness. <sup>5</sup> Arise, O Jerusalem, and stand upon the height, and look about you toward the east, and behold your children gathered from the going down of the sun to the rising thereof at the word of the Holy One, rejoicing that God has remembered them. <sup>6</sup> For they went from you on foot, being led away of their enemies: but God brings them in to you borne on high with glory, <sup>s</sup> as on a royal throne. <sup>7</sup> For God has appointed that every high mountain, and the everlasting hills, should be made low, and the valleys filled up, to make plain the ground, that Israel may go safely in the glory of God. <sup>8</sup> Moreover the woods and every sweet smelling tree have overshadowed Israel by the commandment of God. <sup>9</sup> For God shall lead Israel with joy in the light of his glory with the mercy and righteousness that comes from him.

Lamentations

<sup>1</sup> How the city sits solitary, that was full of people!

She has become as a widow, who was great among the nations!

She who was a princess among the provinces has become tributary!

<sup>2</sup> She weeps bitterly in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks;
among all her lovers she has no one to comfort her:

All her friends have dealt treacherously with her; they are become her enemies.

<sup>3</sup> Judah is gone into captivity because of affliction, and because of great servitude;
she dwells among the nations, she finds no rest:
all her persecutors overtook her within the straits.

<sup>4</sup> The ways of Zion do mourn, because no one come to the solemn assembly;
all her gates are desolate, her priests do sigh:
her virgins are afflicted, and she herself is in bitterness.

her enemies prosper;
for Yahweh<sup>a</sup> has afflicted her for the multitude of her transgressions:

her young children are gone into captivity before the adversary.

<sup>6</sup> From the daughter of Zion all her majesty is departed:
her princes are become like deer that find no pasture, they are gone without strength before the pursuer.

<sup>7</sup> Jerusalem remembers in the days of her affliction and of her miseries all her pleasant things that were from the days of old:

when her people fell into the hand of the adversary, and no one helped her,

The adversaries saw her, they mocked at her desolations.

<sup>8</sup> Jerusalem has grievously sinned; therefore she has become as an unclean thing;

all who honored her despise her, because they have seen her nakedness:

yes, she sighs, and turns backward.

<sup>9</sup> Her filthiness was in her skirts; she didn't remember her latter end;

therefore is she come down wonderfully; she has no comforter:

see, Yahweh, my affliction; for the enemy has magnified himself.

on all her pleasant things: for she has seen that the nations are entered into her sanctuary, concerning whom you commanded that they should not enter into your assembly.

<sup>11</sup> All her people sigh, they seek bread; they have given their pleasant things for food to refresh the soul:
look, Yahweh, and see; for I am become abject.

<sup>12</sup> Is it nothing to you, all you who pass by?
Look, and see if there is any sorrow like my sorrow, which is brought on me,
With which Yahweh has afflicted me in the day of his fierce anger.

<sup>13</sup> From on high has he sent fire into my bones, and it prevails against them;
He has spread a net for my feet, he has turned me back:
He has made me desolate and faint all the day.

<sup>14</sup> The yoke of my transgressions is bound by his hand;
They are knit together, they have come up on my neck; he has made my strength to fail:
The Lord<sup>b</sup> has delivered me into their hands, against whom I am not able to stand.

<sup>15</sup> The Lord has set at nothing all my mighty men within me;
He has called a solemn assembly against me to crush my young men:
The Lord has trodden as in a wine press
the virgin daughter of Judah.

<sup>16</sup> For these things I weep; my eye, my eye runs down with water; Because the comforter who should refresh my soul is far from me:

My children are desolate, because the enemy has prevailed.

<sup>17</sup> Zion spreads out her hands; there is no one to comfort her;
Yahweh has commanded concerning Jacob, that those who are around him should be his adversaries:

Jerusalem is among them as an unclean thing.

rebelled against his commandment:

Please hear all you peoples, and see my sorrow:

My virgins and my young men are gone into captivity.

<sup>19</sup> I called for my lovers, but they deceived me:

My priests and my elders gave up the spirit in the city,

While they sought them food to refresh their souls.

<sup>20</sup> See, Yahweh; for I am in distress; my heart is troubled;

My heart is turned within me; for I have grievously rebelled:

Abroad the sword bereaves, at home
there is as death.

<sup>21</sup> They have heard that I sigh; there is no one to comfort me;

All my enemies have heard of my trouble; they are glad that you have done it:

You will bring the day that you have proclaimed, and they shall be like me.

<sup>22</sup> Let all their wickedness come before
you;

Do to them, as you have done to me for all my transgressions:

For my sighs are many, and my heart is faint.

of Zion with a cloud in his anger!

He has cast down from heaven to the earth the beauty of Israel, And hasn't remembered his footstool in the day of his anger.

habitations of Jacob, and has not pitied:

He has thrown down in his wrath the strongholds of the daughter of Judah;

He has brought them down to the ground; he has profaned the kingdom and its princes.

<sup>3</sup> He has cut off in fierce anger all the horn of Israel;
He has drawn back his right hand from before the enemy:

He has burned up Jacob like a flaming fire, which devours all around.

<sup>4</sup> He has bent his bow like an enemy, he has stood with his right hand
as an adversary,

Has killed all that were pleasant to the eye:

In the tent of the daughter of Zion he has poured out his wrath like fire.

<sup>5</sup> The Lord has become as an enemy, he has swallowed up Israel;

He has swallowed up all her palaces, he has destroyed his strongholds;

He has multiplied in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation.

<sup>6</sup> He has violently taken away his tabernacle, as if it were of a garden; he has destroyed his place of assembly:

Yahweh has caused solemn assembly and Sabbath to be forgotten in Zion,

Has despised in the indignation of his anger the king and the priest.

<sup>7</sup> The Lord has cast off his altar, he has abhorred his sanctuary;

He has given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces:

They have made a noise in Yahweh's house, as in the day of a solemn assembly.

<sup>8</sup> Yahweh has purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion;
He has stretched out the line, he has not withdrawn his hand from destroying;

He has made the rampart and wall to lament; they languish together.

<sup>9</sup> Her gates are sunk into the ground; he has destroyed and broken her bars:

Her king and her princes are among the nations where the law is not;

Yes, her prophets find no vision from Yahweh.

<sup>10</sup> The elders of the daughter of Zion sit on the ground, they keep silence;
They have cast up dust on their heads;
they have clothed themselves with sackcloth:
The virgins of Jerusalem hang down their heads to the ground.
<sup>11</sup> My eyes do fail with tears, my heart is troubled;
My liver is poured on the earth, because of the destruction of the daughter of my people, Because the young children and the infants swoon in the streets of the city.
<sup>12</sup> They tell their mothers, Where is grain and wine?
When they swoon as the wounded in the streets of the city,
When their soul is poured out into their mothers' bosom.
<sup>13</sup> What shall I testify to you? what shall I liken to you, daughter of Jerusalem?
What shall I compare to you, that I may comfort you, virgin daughter of Zion?
For your breach is great like the sea:
who can heal you?
<sup>14</sup> Your prophets have seen for you false and foolish visions;
They have not uncovered your iniquity, to bring back your captivity, but have seen for you false revelations and causes of banishment.
<sup>15</sup> All that pass by clap their hands at you.
They hiss and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying,

Is this the city that men called The perfection of beauty, The joy of the whole earth?
<sup>16</sup> All your enemies have opened their mouth wide against you;
They hiss and gnash the teeth; they say,
We have swallowed her up;
Certainly this is the day that we looked for; we have found, we have seen it.
<sup>17</sup> Yahweh has done that which he purposed; he has fulfilled his word that he commanded in the days of old;
He has thrown down, and has not pitied:
He has caused the enemy to rejoice over you; he has exalted the horn of your adversaries.
<sup>18</sup> Their heart cried to the Lord:
wall of the daughter of Zion, let tears run down like a river day and night;
Give yourself no respite; don't let the apple of your eye cease.
<sup>19</sup> Arise, cry out in the night, at the beginning of the watches; Pour out your heart like water before the face of the Lord:
Lift up your hands toward him for the life of your young children, that faint for hunger at the head of every street.
<sup>20</sup> Look, Yahweh, and see to whom you have done thus!
Shall the women eat their fruit, the children that are dandled in the hands?
Shall the priest and the prophet be killed in the sanctuary of the Lord?

21 The youth and the old man lie on the ground in the streets;
My virgins and my young men are fallen by the sword:
You have killed them in the day of your anger; you have slaughtered, and not pitied.

22 You have called, as in the day of a solemn assembly, my terrors on every side;
There was no one that escaped or remained in the day of Yahweh's anger:
Those that I have dandled and brought up has my enemy consumed.

3

1 I am the man that has seen affliction by the rod of his wrath.

2 He has led me and caused me to walk in darkness, and not in light.

3 Surely against me he turns his hand again and again all the day.

4 My flesh and my skin has he made old;
he has broken my bones.

5 He has built against me, and surrounded me with gall and travail.

6 He has made me to dwell in dark places, as those that have been long dead.

7 He has walled me about, that I can't go out; he has made my chain heavy.

8 Yes, when I cry, and call for help, he shuts out my prayer.

9 He has walled up my ways with cut stone; he has made my paths crooked.

10 He is to me as a bear lying in wait, as a lion in secret places.

11 He has turned aside my ways, and pulled me in pieces; he has made me desolate.

12 He has bent his bow, and set me as a mark for the arrow.

13 He has caused the shafts of his quiver to enter into my kidneys.

14 I am become a derision to all my people, and their song all the day.

15 He has filled me with bitterness, he has sated me with wormwood.

16 He has also broken my teeth with gravel stones; he has covered me with ashes.

17 You have removed my soul far off from peace; I forgot prosperity.

18 I said, My strength is perished, and my expectation from Yahweh.

19 Remember my affliction and my misery, the wormwood and the gall.

20 My soul still remembers them, and is bowed down within me.

21 This I recall to my mind; therefore have I hope.

22 It is because of Yahweh's loving kindnesses that we are not consumed, because his compassion doesn't fail.

23 They are new every morning; great is your faithfulness.

24 Yahweh is my portion, says my soul;
therefore will I hope in him.

- 25 Yahweh is good to those who wait for him, to the soul that seeks him.
- 26 It is good that a man should hope and quietly wait for the salvation of Yahweh.
- 27 It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth.
- 28 Let him sit alone and keep silence, because he has laid it on him.
- 29 Let him put his mouth in the dust, if so be there may be hope.
- 30 Let him give his cheek to him who strikes him; let him be filled full with reproach.
- 31 For the Lord will not cast off forever.
- 32 For though he cause grief, yet he will have compassion according to the multitude of his loving kindnesses.
- 33 For he does not afflict willingly, nor grieve the children of men.
- 34 To crush under foot all the prisoners of the earth,
- 35 To turn aside the right of a man before the face of the Most High,
- 36 To subvert a man in his cause, the Lord doesn't approve.
- 37 Who is he who says, and it comes to pass, when the Lord doesn't command it?
- 38 Doesn't evil and good come out of the mouth of the Most High?
- 39 Why does a living man complain, a man for the punishment of his sins?
- 40 Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to Yahweh.
- 41 Let us lift up our heart with our hands to God<sup>c</sup> in the heavens.
- 42 We have transgressed and have rebelled; you have not pardoned.
- 43 You have covered with anger and pursued us; you have killed, you have not pitied.
- 44 You have covered yourself with a cloud, so that no prayer can pass through.
- 45 You have made us an off-scouring and refuse in the middle of the peoples.
- 46 All our enemies have opened their mouth wide against us.
- 47 Fear and the pit have come on us, devastation and destruction.
- 48 My eye runs down with streams of water, for the destruction of the daughter of my people.
- 49 My eye pours down, and doesn't cease, without any intermission,
- 50 Until Yahweh looks down, and sees from heaven.
- 51 My eye affects my soul, because of all the daughters of my city.
- 52 They have chased me relentlessly like a bird, those who are my enemies without cause.
- 53 They have cut off my life in the dungeon, and have cast a stone on me.
- 54 Waters flowed over my head; I said, I am cut off.
- 55 I called on your name, Yahweh, out of the lowest dungeon.

- <sup>56</sup> You heard my voice; don't hide your ear at my breathing, at my cry.
- <sup>57</sup> You came near in the day that I called on you; you said, Don't be afraid.
- <sup>58</sup> Lord, you have pleaded the causes of my soul; you have redeemed my life.
- <sup>59</sup> Yahweh, you have seen my wrong. Judge my cause.
- <sup>60</sup> You have seen all their vengeance and all their devices against me.
- <sup>61</sup> You have heard their reproach, Yahweh, and all their devices against me,
- <sup>62</sup> The lips of those that rose up against me, and their device against me all the day.
- <sup>63</sup> You see their sitting down, and their rising up; I am their song.
- <sup>64</sup> You will render to them a recompense, Yahweh, according to the work of their hands.
- <sup>65</sup> You will give them hardness of heart, your curse to them.
- <sup>66</sup> You will pursue them in anger, and destroy them from under the heavens of Yahweh.

4

- <sup>1</sup> How the gold has become dim! The most pure gold has changed!
The stones of the sanctuary are poured out at the head of every street.
- <sup>2</sup> The precious sons of Zion, comparable to fine gold,

- How are they esteemed as earthen pitchers, the work of the hands of the potter!
- <sup>3</sup> Even the jackals draw out the breast, they nurse their young ones:
The daughter of my people has become cruel, like the ostriches in the wilderness.
- <sup>4</sup> The tongue of the nursing child clings to the roof of his mouth for thirst:
The young children ask bread, and no man breaks it to them.
- <sup>5</sup> Those who fed delicately are desolate in the streets:
Those who were brought up in scarlet embrace dunghills.
- <sup>6</sup> For the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the sin of Sodom,
That was overthrown as in a moment, and no hands were laid on her.
- <sup>7</sup> Her nobles were purer than snow, they were whiter than milk;
They were more ruddy in body than rubies, their polishing was as of sapphire.
- <sup>8</sup> Their appearance is blacker than a coal; they are not known in the streets:
Their skin clings to their bones; it is withered, it has become like a stick.
- <sup>9</sup> Those who are killed with the sword are better than those who are killed with hunger;
For these pine away, stricken through, for want of the fruits of the field.

 boiled their own children;
 They were their food in the destruction of the daughter of my people.
<sup>11</sup> Yahweh has accomplished his wrath, he has poured out his fierce anger;
 He has kindled a fire in Zion, which has devoured its foundations.
<sup>12</sup> The kings of the earth didn't believe, neither all the inhabitants of the world,
 That the adversary and the enemy would enter into the gates of Jerusalem.
<sup>13</sup> It is because of the sins of her prophets, and the iniquities of her priests,
 That have shed the blood of the just in the middle of her.
<sup>14</sup> They wander as blind men in the streets, they are polluted with blood,
 So that men can't touch their garments.
<sup>15</sup> Depart! they cried to them, Unclean!
 depart, depart, don't touch!
 When they fled away and wandered,
 men said among the nations,
 They shall not live here any more.
<sup>16</sup> Yahweh's anger has scattered them;
 he will no more regard them:
 They didn't respect the persons of the priests, they didn't favor the elders.
<sup>17</sup> Our eyes still fail, looking in vain for our help:
 In our watching we have watched for a nation that could not save.
<sup>18</sup> They hunt our steps, so that we can't go in our streets:

Our end is near, our days are fulfilled;
 for our end has come.
<sup>19</sup> Our pursuers were swifter than the eagles of the sky:
 They chased us on the mountains, they laid wait for us in the wilderness.
<sup>20</sup> The breath of our nostrils, the anointed of Yahweh, was taken in their pits;
 Of whom we said, Under his shadow we shall live among the nations.
<sup>21</sup> Rejoice and be glad, daughter of Edom, that dwell in the land of Uz:
 The cup shall pass through to you also;
 you shall be drunken, and shall make yourself naked.
<sup>22</sup> The punishment of your iniquity is accomplished, daughter of Zion; he will no more carry you away into captivity:
 He will visit your iniquity, daughter of Edom; he will uncover your sins.

5

<sup>1</sup> Remember, Yahweh, what has come on us:
 Look, and see our reproach.
<sup>2</sup> Our inheritance is turned to strangers,
 Our houses to aliens.
<sup>3</sup> We are orphans and fatherless;
 Our mothers are as widows.
<sup>4</sup> We have drunken our water for money;
 Our wood is sold to us.
<sup>5</sup> Our pursuers are on our necks:
 We are weary, and have no rest.
<sup>6</sup> We have given the hand to the Egyptians,

To the Assyrians, to be satisfied with bread.

We have borne their iniquities.

<sup>8</sup> Servants rule over us:
There is no one to deliver us out of their hand.

<sup>9</sup> We get our bread at the peril of our lives,
Because of the sword of the wilderness.

Because of the burning heat of famine.

The virgins in the cities of Judah.

The faces of elders were not honored.

The children stumbled under the wood.

The young men from their music.

Our dance is turned into mourning.

Woe to us! for we have sinned.

<sup>17</sup> For this our heart is faint;
For these things our eyes are dim;

desolate:
The foxes walk on it.

Your throne is from generation to generation.

And forsake us so long time?

<sup>21</sup> Turn us to yourself, Yahweh, and we shall be turned.
Renew our days as of old.

<sup>22</sup> But you have utterly rejected us;
You are very angry against us.

LETTER OF JEREMIAH

6

<sup>1</sup> A copy of an epistle, which Jeremy sent to them which were to be led captives into Babylon by the king of the Babylonians, to certify them, as it was commanded him of God.

deck them as men with garments, even the gods of silver, and gods of gold, and of wood. <sup>12</sup> Yet can't these gods save themselves from rust and moths, though they be covered with purple raiment. <sup>13</sup> They wipe their faces because of the dust of the temple, which is thick upon them. <sup>14</sup> And he that can't put to death one that offends against him holds a sceptre, as though he were judge of a country. <sup>15</sup> He has also a dagger in his right hand, and an axe: but can't deliver himself from war and robbers. <sup>16</sup> Whereby they are known not to be gods: therefore fear them not. <sup>17</sup> For like as a vessel that a man uses is nothing worth when it is broken; even so it is with their gods: when they be set up in the temples their eyes be full of dust through the feet of them that come in. <sup>18</sup> And as the courts are made sure on every side upon him that offends the king, as being committed to suffer death; even so the priests make fast their temples with doors, with locks, and bars, lest they be carried off by robbers. <sup>19</sup> They light them candles, yes, more than for themselves, whereof they can't see one. <sup>20</sup> They are as one of the beams of the temple; and men say their hearts are eaten out, when things creeping out of the earth devour both them and their raiment: they feel it not <sup>21</sup> when their faces are blacked through the smoke that comes out of the temple: <sup>22</sup> upon their bodies and heads alight bats, swallows, and birds; and in like manner the cats also. <sup>23</sup> Whereby you<sup>23</sup> may know that they are no gods: therefore fear them not. <sup>24</sup> Notwithstanding the gold

wherewith they are beset to make them beautiful, except one wipe off the rust, they will not shine: for not even when they were molten did they feel it. <sup>25</sup> Things wherein there is no breath are bought at any cost. <sup>26</sup> Having no feet, they are borne upon shoulders, whereby they declare to men that they be nothing worth. <sup>27</sup> They also that serve them are ashamed: for if they fall to the ground at any time, they can't rise up again of themselves: neither, if they be set awry, can they make themselves straight: but the offerings are set before them, as if they were dead men. <sup>28</sup> And the things that are sacrificed to them, their priests sell and spend; and in like manner their wives also lay up part thereof in salt; but to the poor and to the impotent will they give nothing thereof. <sup>29</sup> The menstruous woman and the woman in childbed touch their sacrifices: knowing therefore by these things that they are no gods, fear them not. <sup>30</sup> For how can they be called gods? because women set meat before the gods of silver, gold, and wood. <sup>31</sup> And in their temples the priests <sup>c</sup> sit on seats, having their clothes tore, and their heads and beards shaven, and nothing upon their heads. <sup>32</sup> They roar and cry before their gods, as men do at the feast when one is dead. <sup>33</sup> The priests also take off garments from them, and clothe their wives and children withal. <sup>34</sup> Whether it be evil that one does to them, or good, they are not able to recompense it: they can neither set up a king, nor put him down. <sup>35</sup> In like manner, they can neither give riches nor money: though a man make a vow to them, and keep it not, they will never exact it. <sup>36</sup> They can save no man from death, neither deliver the weak from the mighty. <sup>37</sup>

They can't restore a blind man to his sight, nor deliver any that is in distress. <sup>38</sup> They can show no mercy to the widow, nor do good to the fatherless. <sup>39</sup> They are like the stones that be hewn out of the mountain, these gods of wood, and that are overlaid with gold and with silver: they that minister to them shall be confounded. <sup>40</sup> How should a man then think or say that they are gods, when even the Chaldeans themselves dishonor them? <sup>41</sup> Who if they shall see one dumb that can't speak, they bring him, and entreat him to call upon Bel, as though he were able to understand. <sup>42</sup> Yet they can't perceive this themselves, and forsake them: for they have no understanding. <sup>43</sup> The women also with cords about them sit in the ways, burning bran for incense: but if any of them, drawn by some that passes by, lie with him, she reproaches her fellow, that she was not thought as worthy as herself, nor her cord broken. <sup>44</sup> Whatsoever is done among them is false: how should a man then think or say that they are gods? <sup>45</sup> They are fashioned by carpenters and goldsmiths: they can be nothing else than the workmen will have them to be. <sup>46</sup> And they themselves that fashioned them can never continue long; how then should the things that are fashioned by them? <sup>47</sup> For they have left lies and reproaches to them that come after. <sup>48</sup> For when there comes any war or plague upon them, the priests consult with themselves, where they may be hidden with them. <sup>49</sup> How then can't men understand that they be no gods, which can neither save themselves from war, nor from plague? <sup>50</sup> For seeing they be but of wood, and overlaid with gold and with silver, it shall be known hereafter that they are false: <sup>51</sup> and it shall be manifest to all nations and kings that they are no gods, but the works of men's hands, and that there is no work of God in them. <sup>52</sup> Who then may not know that they are no gods? <sup>53</sup> For neither can they set up a king in a land, nor give rain to men. <sup>54</sup> Neither can they judge their own cause, nor <sup>d</sup> redress a wrong, being unable: for they are as crows between heaven and earth. <sup>55</sup> For even when fire falls upon the house of gods of wood, or overlaid with gold or with silver, their priests will flee away, and escape, but they themselves shall be burned asunder like beams. <sup>56</sup> Moreover they can't withstand any king or enemies: how should a man then allow or think that they be gods? <sup>57</sup> Neither are those gods of wood, and overlaid with silver or with gold, able to escape either from thieves or robbers. <sup>58</sup> Whose gold, and silver, and garments wherewith they are clothed, they that are strong will take from them, and go away withal: neither shall they be able to help themselves. <sup>59</sup> Therefore it is better to be a king that shows his manhood, or else a vessel in a house profitable for that whereof the owner shall have need, than such false gods; or even a door in a house, to keep the things safe that be therein, than such false gods; or a pillar of wood in a palace, than such false gods. <sup>60</sup> For sun, and moon, and stars, being bright and sent to do their offices, are obedient. <sup>61</sup> Likewise also the lightning when it glittereth is fair to see; and after the same manner the wind also blows in every country. <sup>62</sup> And when God commands the clouds to go over the whole world, they do as they are bidden. <sup>63</sup> And the fire sent from above to consume mountains and woods does as it is commanded: but these are to be likened to them neither in show nor power. <sup>64</sup> Wherefore a man should neither think nor say that they are gods, seeing they are able neither to judge causes, nor to do good to men. <sup>65</sup> Knowing therefore that they are no gods, fear them not. <sup>66</sup> For they can neither curse nor bless kings: <sup>67</sup> neither can they show signs in the heavens among the nations, nor shine as the sun, nor give light as the moon. <sup>68</sup> The beasts are better than they: for they can get under a covert, and help themselves. <sup>69</sup> In no wise then is it manifest to us that they are gods: therefore fear them not. <sup>70</sup> For as a scarecrow in a garden of cucumbers that keeps nothing, so are their gods of wood, and overlaid with gold and with silver. <sup>71</sup> Likewise also their gods of wood, and overlaid with gold and with silver, are like to a white thorn in an orchard, that every bird sits upon; as also to a dead body, that is cast forth into the dark. <sup>72</sup> And you <sup>73</sup> shall know them to be no gods by the <sup>e</sup> bright purple that rots upon them: And they themselves afterward shall be consumed, and shall be a reproach in the country. <sup>73</sup> Better therefore is the just man that has none idols: for he shall be far from reproach.

PRAYER OF MANASSES

KING OF JUDAH,

WHEN HE WAS HELD CAPTIVE IN BABYLON

<sup>1</sup> O LORD Almighty, that are in heaven, you God of our fathers, of Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and of their righteous seed; <sup>2</sup> who have made heaven and earth, with all the <sup>a</sup> ornament thereof; <sup>3</sup> who have bound the sea by the word of your commandment; who have shut up the deep, and sealed it by your terrible and glorious name; <sup>4</sup> whom all things fear, yes, tremble before your power; <sup>5</sup> for the majesty of your glory can't be borne, and the anger of your threatening toward sinners is importable: <sup>6</sup> your merciful promise is unmeasurable and unsearchable; <sup>7</sup> for you are the Lord Most High, of great compassion, longsuffering and abundant in mercy, and repent <sup>b</sup> of bringing evils upon men. <sup>8</sup> <sup>c</sup>You, O Lord, according to your great goodness have promised repentance and forgiveness to them that have sinned against you: and of your infinite mercies have appointed repentance to sinners, that they may be saved. You therefore, O Lord, that are the God of the just, have not appointed repentance to the just, to Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, which have not sinned against you; but you have appointed repentance to me that am a sinner: <sup>9</sup> for I have sinned above the number of the sands of the sea. My transgressions are multiplied, <sup>d</sup> O Lord: my transgressions are multiplied, and I am not worthy to behold and see the height of heaven for the multitude of mine iniquities. <sup>10</sup> I am bowed down with many iron bands, that I can't lift up mine head <sup>e</sup>by reason of my sins, neither have I any respite: for I have provoked your wrath, and done that which is evil before you: <sup>f</sup>I did not your will, neither kept I your commandments: I have set up abominations, and have multiplied <sup>g</sup>detestable things. <sup>11</sup> Now therefore I bow the knee of mine heart, beseeching you of grace. <sup>12</sup> I have sinned, O Lord, I have sinned, and I acknowledge mine iniquities: <sup>13</sup> but, I humbly beseech you, forgive me, O Lord, forgive me, and destroy me not with mine iniquities. Be not angry with me for ever, by reserving evil for me; neither condemn me into the lower parts of the earth. For you, <sup>h</sup> O Lord, are the God of them that repent; <sup>14</sup> and in me you will show all your goodness: for you will save me, that am unworthy, according to your great mercy. <sup>15</sup> And I will praise the for ever all the days of my life: for all the host of heaven does sing your praise,

Ezekiel

1

<sup>1</sup> Now in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, in the fifth of the month, as I was among the captives by the river Chebar, the heavens were opened, and I saw visions of God.<sup>a</sup> <sup>2</sup> In the fifth of the month, which was the fifth year of king Jehoiachin's captivity, <sup>3</sup> Yahweh's<sup>b</sup> word came expressly to Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the river Chebar; and Yahweh's hand was there on him. <sup>4</sup> I looked, and behold,<sup>c</sup> a stormy wind came out of the north, a great cloud, with flashing lightning, and a brightness around it, and out of the middle of it as it were glowing metal, out of the middle of the fire. <sup>5</sup> Out of its center came the likeness of four living creatures. This was their appearance: they had the likeness of a man. <sup>6</sup> Everyone had four faces, and each one of them had four wings. <sup>7</sup> Their feet were straight feet; and the sole of their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot; and they sparkled like burnished brass. <sup>8</sup> They had the hands of a man under their wings on their four sides; and the four of them had their faces and their wings thus: <sup>9</sup> their wings were joined to one another; they didn't turn when they went; each one went straight forward. <sup>10</sup> As for the likeness of their faces, they had the face of a man; and the four of them had the face of a lion on the right side; and the four of them had the face of an ox on the left side; the four of them also had the face of an eagle. <sup>11</sup> Such were their faces. Their wings were spread out above. Two wings of each one touched another, and two covered their bodies. <sup>12</sup> Each one went straight forward: where the spirit was to go, they went; they didn't turn when they went. <sup>13</sup> As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, like the appearance of torches: the fire went up and down among the living creatures; and the fire was bright, and lightning went out of the fire. <sup>14</sup> The living creatures ran and returned as the appearance of a flash of lightning. <sup>15</sup> Now as I saw the living creatures, behold, one wheel on the earth beside the living creatures, for each of the four faces of it. <sup>16</sup> The appearance of the wheels and their work was like a beryl: and the four of them had one likeness; and their appearance and their work was as it were a wheel within a wheel. <sup>17</sup> When they went, they went in their four directions: they didn't turn when they went. <sup>18</sup> As for their rims, they were high and dreadful; and the four of them had their rims full of eyes all around. <sup>19</sup> When the living creatures went, the wheels went beside them; and when the living creatures were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up. <sup>20</sup> Wherever the spirit was to go, they went; there was the spirit to go: and the wheels were lifted up beside them; for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels. <sup>21</sup> When those went, these went; and when those stood, these stood; and when those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up beside them: for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels. <sup>22</sup> Over the head of the living creature there was the likeness of an expanse, like the awesome crystal to look on, stretched out over their heads above. <sup>23</sup> Under the expanse were their wings straight, the one toward the other: each one had two which covered on this side, and every one had two which covered on that side, their bodies. <sup>24</sup> When they went, I heard the noise of their wings like the noise of great waters, like the voice of the Almighty, a noise of tumult like the noise of an army: when they stood, they let down their wings. <sup>25</sup> There was a voice above the expanse that was over their heads: when they stood, they let down their wings. <sup>26</sup> Above the expanse that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, as the appearance of a sapphire<sup>d</sup> stone; and on the likeness of the throne was a likeness as the appearance of a man on it above. <sup>27</sup> I saw as it were glowing metal, as the appearance of fire within it all around, from the appearance of his waist and upward; and from the appearance of his waist and downward I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and there was brightness around him. <sup>28</sup> As the appearance of the rainbow that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness all around. This was the appearance of the likeness of Yahweh's glory. When I saw it, I fell on my face, and I heard a voice of one that spoke.

<sup>1</sup> He said to me, Son of man, stand on your feet, and I will speak with you. <sup>2</sup> The Spirit entered into me when he spoke to me, and set me on my feet; and I heard him who spoke to me. <sup>3</sup> He said to me, Son of man, I send you to the children of Israel, to a nation of rebels who have rebelled against me. They and their fathers have transgressed against me even to this very day. <sup>4</sup> The children are impudent and stiff-hearted: I am sending you to them; and you shall tell them, Thus says the Lord<sup>e</sup> Yahweh. <sup>5</sup> They, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear, (for they are a rebellious house), yet shall know that there has been a prophet among them. <sup>6</sup> You, son of man, don't be afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though briars and thorns are with you, and you do dwell among scorpions: don't be afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they are a rebellious house. <sup>7</sup> You shall speak my words to them, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear; for they are most rebellious. <sup>8</sup> But you, son of man, hear what I tell you; don't be rebellious like that rebellious house: open your mouth, and eat that which I give you. <sup>9</sup> When I looked, behold, a hand was stretched out to me; and, behold, a scroll of a book was therein; <sup>10</sup> He spread it before me: and it was written within and without; and there were written therein lamentations, and mourning, and woe.

speak to the house of Israel. <sup>2</sup> So I opened my mouth, and he caused me to eat the scroll. <sup>3</sup> He said to me, Son of man, cause your belly to eat, and fill your bowels with this scroll that I give you. Then I ate it; and it was as sweet as honey in my mouth. <sup>4</sup> He said to me, Son of man, go to the house of Israel, and speak my words to them. <sup>5</sup> For you are not sent to a people of a strange speech and of a hard language, but to the house of Israel; <sup>6</sup> not to many peoples of a strange speech and of a hard language, whose words you can not understand. Surely, if I sent you to them, they would listen to you. <sup>7</sup> But the house of Israel will not listen to you; for they will not listen to me: for all the house of Israel are obstinate<sup>f</sup> and hard-hearted. <sup>8</sup> Behold, I have made your face hard against their faces, and your forehead hard against their foreheads. <sup>9</sup> As an adamant harder than flint have I made your forehead: don't be afraid of them, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they are a rebellious house. <sup>10</sup> Moreover he said to me, Son of man, all my words that I shall speak to you receive in your heart, and hear with your ears. <sup>11</sup> Go to them of the captivity, to the children of your people, and speak to them, and tell them, Thus says the Lord Yahweh; whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear. <sup>12</sup> Then the Spirit lifted me up, and I heard behind me the voice of a great rushing, saying, Blessed be Yahweh's glory from his place. <sup>13</sup> I heard the noise of the wings of the living creatures as they touched one another, and the noise of the wheels beside them, even the noise of a great rushing. <sup>14</sup> So the Spirit lifted me up, and took me away; and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit; and Yahweh's hand was strong on me. <sup>15</sup> Then I came to them of the captivity at Tel Aviv, that lived by the river Chebar, and to where they lived; and I sat there overwhelmed among them seven days. <sup>16</sup> At the end of seven days, Yahweh's word came to me, saying, <sup>17</sup> Son of man, I have made you a watchman to the house of Israel: therefore hear the word from my mouth, and give them warning from me. <sup>18</sup> When I tell the wicked, You shall surely die; and you give him no warning, nor speak to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at your hand. <sup>19</sup> Yet if you warn the wicked, and he doesn't turn from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity; but you have delivered your soul. <sup>20</sup> Again, when a righteous man does turn from his righteousness, and commit iniquity, and I lay a stumbling block before him, he shall die: because you have not given him warning, he shall die in his sin, and his righteous deeds which he has done shall not be remembered; but his blood will I require at your hand. <sup>21</sup> Nevertheless if you warn the righteous man, that the righteous not sin, and he does not sin, he shall surely live, because he took warning; and you have delivered your soul. <sup>22</sup> Yahweh's hand was there on me; and he said to me, Arise, go out into the plain, and I will there talk with you. <sup>23</sup> Then I arose, and went out into the plain: and behold, Yahweh's glory stood there, as the glory which I saw by the river Chebar; and I fell on my face. <sup>24</sup> Then the Spirit entered into me, and set me on my feet; and he spoke with me, and said to me, Go, shut yourself inside your house. <sup>25</sup> But you, son of man, behold, they shall lay bands on you, and shall bind you with them, and you shall not go out among them: <sup>26</sup> and I will make your tongue stick to the roof of your mouth, that you shall be mute, and shall not be to them a reprover; for they are a rebellious house. <sup>27</sup> But when I speak with you, I will open your mouth, and you shall tell them, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: He who hears, let him hear; and he who forbears, let him forbear: for they are a rebellious house.

set your face toward the siege of Jerusalem, with your arm uncovered; and you shall prophesy against it. <sup>8</sup> Behold, I lay bands on you, and you shall not turn you from one side to the other, until you have accomplished the days of your siege. <sup>9</sup> Take for yourself also wheat, and barley, and beans, and lentils, and millet, and spelt, and put them in one vessel, and make bread of it; according to the number of the days that you shall lie on your side, even three hundred ninety days, you shall eat of it. <sup>10</sup> Your food which you shall eat shall be by weight, twenty shekels<sup>g</sup> a day: from time to time you shall eat it. <sup>11</sup> You shall drink water by measure, the sixth part of a hin: from time to time you shall drink. <sup>12</sup> You shall eat it as barley cakes, and you shall bake it in their sight with dung that comes out of man. <sup>13</sup> Yahweh said, Even thus shall the children of Israel eat their bread unclean, among the nations where I will drive them. <sup>14</sup> Then I said, Ah Lord Yahweh! behold, my soul has not been polluted; for from my youth up even until now have I not eaten of that which dies of itself, or is torn of animals; neither came there abominable flesh into my mouth. <sup>15</sup> Then he said to me, Behold, I have given you cow's dung for man's dung, and you shall prepare your bread on it. <sup>16</sup> Moreover he said to me, Son of man, behold, I will break the staff of bread in Jerusalem: and they shall eat bread by weight, and with fearfulness; and they shall drink water by measure, and in dismay: <sup>17</sup> that they may want bread and water, and be dismayed one with another, and pine away in their iniquity.

within you, and the sons shall eat their fathers; and I will execute judgments on you; and the whole remnant of you will I scatter to all the winds. <sup>11</sup> Therefore as I live, says the Lord Yahweh, surely, because you have defiled my sanctuary with all your detestable things, and with all your abominations, therefore will I also diminish you; neither shall my eye spare, and I also will have no pity. <sup>12</sup> A third part of you shall die with the pestilence, and with famine shall they be consumed within you; and a third part shall fall by the sword around you; and a third part I will scatter to all the winds, and will draw out a sword after them. <sup>13</sup> Thus shall my anger be accomplished, and I will cause my wrath toward them to rest, and I shall be comforted; and they shall know that I, Yahweh, have spoken in my zeal, when I have accomplished my wrath on them. <sup>14</sup> Moreover I will make you a desolation and a reproach among the nations that are around you, in the sight of all that pass by. <sup>15</sup> So it shall be a reproach and a taunt, an instruction and an astonishment, to the nations that are around you, when I shall execute judgments on you in anger and in wrath, and in wrathful rebukes; (I, Yahweh, have spoken it;) <sup>16</sup> when I shall send on them the evil arrows of famine, that are for destruction, which I will send to destroy you: and I will increase the famine on you, and will break your staff of bread; <sup>17</sup> and I will send on you famine and evil animals, and they shall bereave you; and pestilence and blood shall pass through you; and I will bring the sword on you: I, Yahweh, have spoken it.

stamp with your foot, and say, Alas! because of all the evil abominations of the house of Israel; for they shall fall by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence. <sup>12</sup> He who is far off shall die of the pestilence; and he who is near shall fall by the sword; and he who remains and is besieged shall die by the famine: thus will I accomplish my wrath on them. <sup>13</sup> You shall know that I am Yahweh, when their slain men shall be among their idols around their altars, on every high hill, on all the tops of the mountains, and under every green tree, and under every thick oak, the places where they offered pleasant aroma to all their idols. <sup>14</sup> I will stretch out my hand on them, and make the land desolate and waste, from the wilderness toward Diblah, throughout all their habitations: and they shall know that I am Yahweh.

<sup>1</sup> Moreover Yahweh's word came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup> You, son of man, thus says the Lord Yahweh to the land of Israel, An end: the end has come on the four corners of the land. <sup>3</sup> Now is the end on you, and I will send my anger on you, and will judge you according to your ways; and I will bring on you all your abominations. <sup>4</sup> My eye shall not spare you, neither will I have pity; but I will bring your ways on you, and your abominations shall be among you: and you shall know that I am Yahweh. <sup>5</sup> Thus says the Lord Yahweh: An evil, an only evil; behold, it comes. <sup>6</sup> An end has come, the end has come; it awakes against you; behold, it comes. <sup>7</sup> Your doom has come to you, inhabitant of the land: the time has come, the day is near, a day of tumult, and not of joyful shouting, on the mountains. <sup>8</sup>

Now will I shortly pour out my wrath on you, and accomplish my anger against you, and will judge you according to your ways; and I will bring on you all your abominations. <sup>9</sup> My eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: I will bring on you according to your ways; and your abominations shall be among you; and you shall know that I, Yahweh, do strike. <sup>10</sup> Behold, the day, behold, it comes: your doom has gone out; the rod has blossomed, pride has budded. <sup>11</sup> Violence has risen up into a rod of wickedness. None of them shall remain, nor of their multitude, nor of their wealth. There shall be nothing of value among them. <sup>12</sup> The time has come, the day draws near: don't let the buyer rejoice, nor the seller mourn; for wrath is on all its multitude. <sup>13</sup> For the seller shall not return to that which is sold, although they be yet alive: for the vision is touching the whole multitude of it, none shall return; neither shall any strengthen himself in the iniquity of his life. <sup>14</sup> They have blown the trumpet, and have made all ready; but no one goes to the battle; for my wrath is on all its multitude. <sup>15</sup> The sword is outside, and the pestilence and the famine within: he who is in the field shall die with the sword: and he who is in the city, famine and pestilence shall devour him. <sup>16</sup> But those of those who escape shall escape, and shall be on the mountains like doves of the valleys, all of them moaning, every one in his iniquity. <sup>17</sup> All hands shall be feeble, and all knees shall be weak as water. <sup>18</sup> They shall also clothe themselves with sackcloth, and horror shall cover them; and shame shall be on all faces, and baldness on all their heads. <sup>19</sup> They shall cast their silver in the streets, and their gold shall be as an unclean thing; their silver and their gold shall not be able to deliver them in the day of Yahweh's wrath: they shall not satisfy their souls, neither fill their bowels; because it has been the stumbling block of their iniquity. <sup>20</sup> As for the beauty of his ornament, he set it in majesty; but they made the images of their abominations and their detestable things therein: therefore have I made it to them as an unclean thing. <sup>21</sup> I will give it into the hands of the strangers for a prey, and to the wicked of the earth for a plunder; and they shall profane it. <sup>22</sup> My face will I turn also from them, and they shall profane my secret place; and robbers shall enter into it, and profane it. <sup>23</sup> Make the chain; for the land is full of bloody crimes, and the city is full of violence. <sup>24</sup> Therefore I will bring the worst of the nations, and they shall possess their houses: I will also make the pride of the strong to cease; and their holy places shall be profaned. <sup>25</sup> Destruction comes; and they shall seek peace, and there shall be none. <sup>26</sup> Mischief shall come on mischief, and rumor shall be on rumor; and they shall seek a vision of the prophet; but the law shall perish from the priest, and counsel from the elders. <sup>27</sup> The king shall mourn, and the prince shall be clothed with desolation, and the hands of the people of the land shall be troubled: I will do to them after their way, and according to their own judgments will I judge them; and they shall know that I am Yahweh.

<sup>1</sup> In the sixth year, in the sixth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I sat in my house, and the elders of Judah sat before me, the Lord Yahweh's hand fell there on me. <sup>2</sup> Then I saw, and behold, a likeness as the appearance of fire; from the appearance of his waist and downward, fire; and from his waist and upward, as the appearance of brightness, as it were glowing metal. <sup>3</sup> He stretched out the form of a hand, and took me by a lock of my head; and the Spirit lifted me up between earth and the sky, and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the gate of the inner court that looks toward the north; where there was the seat of the image of jealousy, which provokes to jealousy. <sup>4</sup> Behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the appearance that I saw in the plain. <sup>5</sup> Then he said to me, Son of man, lift up your eyes now the way toward the north. So I lifted up my eyes the way toward the north, and see, northward of the gate of the altar this image of jealousy in the entry. <sup>6</sup> He said to me, Son of man, do you see what they do? even the great abominations that the house of Israel do commit here, that I should go far off from my sanctuary? But you shall again see yet other great abominations. <sup>7</sup> He brought me to the door of the court; and when I looked, behold, a hole in the wall. <sup>8</sup> Then he said to me, Son of man, dig now in the wall: and when I had dug in the wall, behold, a door. <sup>9</sup> He said to me, Go in, and see the wicked abominations that they do here. <sup>10</sup> So I went in and saw; and see, every form of creeping things, and abominable animals, and all the idols of the house of Israel, portrayed around on the wall. <sup>11</sup> There stood before them seventy men of the elders of the house of Israel; and in the middle of them Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan stood, every man with his censer in his hand; and the smell of the cloud of incense went up. <sup>12</sup> Then he said to me, Son of man, have you seen what the elders of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in his rooms of imagery? for they say, Yahweh doesn't see us; Yahweh has forsaken the land. <sup>13</sup> He said also to me, You shall again see yet other great abominations which they do. <sup>14</sup> Then he brought me to the door of the gate of Yahweh's house which was toward the north; and see, there sat the women weeping for Tammuz. <sup>15</sup> Then he said to me, Have you seen this, son of man? You shall again see yet greater abominations than these. <sup>16</sup> He brought me into the inner court of Yahweh's house; and see, at the door of Yahweh's temple, between the porch and the altar, were about twenty-five men, with their backs toward Yahweh's temple, and their faces toward the east; and they were worshiping the sun toward the east. <sup>17</sup> Then he said to me, Have you seen this, son of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit here? for they have filled the land with violence, and have turned again to provoke me to anger: and behold, they put the branch to their nose. <sup>18</sup> Therefore will I also deal in wrath; my eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity; and though they cry in my ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them.

every man with his slaughter weapon in his hand; and one man in the middle of them clothed in linen, with a writer's inkhorn by his side. They went in, and stood beside the bronze altar. <sup>3</sup> The glory of the God of Israel was gone up from the cherub, whereupon it was, to the threshold of the house: and he called to the man clothed in linen, who had the writer's inkhorn by his side. <sup>4</sup> Yahweh said to him, Go through the middle of the city, through the middle of Jerusalem, and set a mark on the foreheads of the men that sigh and that cry over all the abominations that are done within it. <sup>5</sup> To the others he said in my hearing, Go through the city after him, and strike: don't let your eye spare, neither have pity; <sup>6</sup> kill utterly the old man, the young man and the virgin, and little children and women; but don't come near any man on whom is the mark: and begin at my sanctuary. Then they began at the old men that were before the house. <sup>7</sup> He said to them, "Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain. Go out!"

They went out, and struck in the city. <sup>8</sup> While they were killing, and I was left, I fell on my face, and cried, and said, "Ah Lord Yahweh! will you destroy all the residue of Israel in your pouring out of your wrath on Jerusalem?"

<sup>9</sup> Then he said to me, "The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceedingly great, and the land is full of blood, and the city full of perversion: for they say, 'Yahweh has forsaken the land, and Yahweh doesn't see.' <sup>10</sup> As for me also, my eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity, but I will bring their way on their head."

10

<sup>1</sup> Then I looked, and see, in the expanse that was over the head of the cherubim there appeared above them as it were a sapphire<sup>h</sup> stone, as the appearance of the likeness of a throne. <sup>2</sup> He spoke to the man clothed in linen, and said, Go in between the whirling wheels, even under the cherub, and fill both your hands with coals of fire from between the cherubim, and scatter them over the city. He went in as I watched. <sup>3</sup> Now the cherubim stood on the right side of the house, when the man went in; and the cloud filled the inner court. <sup>4</sup> Yahweh's glory mounted up from the cherub, and stood over the threshold of the house; and the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of Yahweh's glory. <sup>5</sup> The sound of the wings of the cherubim was heard even to the outer court, as the voice of God Almighty when he speaks. <sup>6</sup> It came to pass, when he commanded the man clothed in linen, saying, Take fire from between the whirling wheels, from between the cherubim, that he went in, and stood beside a wheel. <sup>7</sup> The cherub stretched out his hand from between the cherubim to the fire that was between the cherubim, and took of it, and put it into the hands of him who was clothed in linen, who took it and went out. <sup>8</sup> There appeared in the cherubim the form of a man's hand under their wings. <sup>9</sup> I looked, and behold, four wheels beside the cherubim, one wheel beside one cherub,

and another wheel beside another cherub; and the appearance of the wheels was like a beryl stone. <sup>10</sup> As for their appearance, the four of them had one likeness, like a wheel within a wheel. <sup>11</sup> When they went, they went in their four directions: they didn't turn as they went, but to the place where the head looked they followed it; they didn't turn as they went. <sup>12</sup> Their whole body, and their backs, and their hands, and their wings, and the wheels, were full of eyes all around, even the wheels that the four of them had. <sup>13</sup> As for the wheels, they were called in my hearing, the whirling wheels. <sup>14</sup> Every one had four faces: the first face was the face of the cherub, and the second face was the face of a man, and the third face the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle. <sup>15</sup> The cherubim mounted up: this is the living creature that I saw by the river Chebar. <sup>16</sup> When the cherubim went, the wheels went beside them; and when the cherubim lifted up their wings to mount up from the earth, the wheels also didn't turn from beside them. <sup>17</sup> When they stood, these stood; and when they mounted up, these mounted up with them: for the spirit of the living creature was in them. <sup>18</sup> Yahweh's glory went out from over the threshold of the house, and stood over the cherubim. <sup>19</sup> The cherubim lifted up their wings, and mounted up from the earth in my sight when they went out, and the wheels beside them: and they stood at the door of the east gate of Yahweh's house; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above. <sup>20</sup> This is the living creature that I saw under the God of Israel by the river Chebar; and I knew that they were cherubim. <sup>21</sup> Every one had four faces, and every one four wings; and the likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings. <sup>22</sup> As for the likeness of their faces, they were the faces which I saw by the river Chebar, their appearances and themselves; they went every one straight forward.

<sup>1</sup> Moreover the Spirit lifted me up, and brought me to the east gate of Yahweh's house, which looks eastward: and see, at the door of the gate twenty-five men; and I saw among them Jaazaniah the son of Azzur, and Pelatiah the son of Benaiah, princes of the people. <sup>2</sup> He said to me, Son of man, these are the men who devise iniquity, and who give wicked counsel in this city; <sup>3</sup> who say, The time is not near to build houses: this is the cauldron, and we are the meat. <sup>4</sup> Therefore prophesy against them, prophesy, son of man. <sup>5</sup> Yahweh's Spirit fell on me, and he said to me, Speak, Yahweh says: Thus you have said, house of Israel; for I know the things that come into your mind. <sup>6</sup> You have multiplied your slain in this city, and you have filled its streets with the slain. <sup>7</sup> Therefore thus says the Lord Yahweh: Your slain whom you have laid in the middle of it, they are the meat, and this is the cauldron; but you shall be brought out of the middle of it. <sup>8</sup> You have feared the sword; and I will bring the sword on you, says the Lord Yahweh. <sup>9</sup> I will bring you out of the middle of it, and deliver you into the hands of strangers, and will execute judgments among you. <sup>10</sup> You shall fall by the sword; I will judge you in the border of Israel; and you shall know that I am Yahweh. <sup>11</sup> This shall not be your cauldron, neither shall you be the meat in the middle of it; I will judge you in the border of Israel; <sup>12</sup> and you shall know that I am Yahweh: for you have not walked in my statutes, neither have you executed my ordinances, but have done after the ordinances of the nations that are around you. <sup>13</sup> When I prophesied, Pelatiah the son of Benaiah died. Then fell I down on my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said, "Ah Lord Yahweh! will you make a full end of the remnant of Israel?"

<sup>14</sup> Yahweh's word came to me, saying, <sup>15</sup> "Son of man, your brothers, even your brothers, the men of your relatives, and all the house of Israel, all of them, to whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, 'Go far away from Yahweh. This land has been given to us for a possession.'" <sup>16</sup> Therefore say, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: Whereas I have removed them far off among the nations, and whereas I have scattered them among the countries, yet will I be to them a sanctuary for a little while in the countries where they have come. <sup>17</sup> Therefore say, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: I will gather you from the peoples, and assemble you out of the countries where you have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel. <sup>18</sup> They shall come there, and they shall take away all the detestable things of it and all its abominations from there. <sup>19</sup> I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within you; and I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them a heart of flesh; <sup>20</sup> that they may walk in my statutes, and keep my ordinances, and do them: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God. <sup>21</sup> But as for them whose heart walks after the heart of their detestable things and their abominations, I will bring their way on their own heads, says the Lord Yahweh. <sup>22</sup> Then the cherubim lifted up their wings, and the wheels were beside them; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above. <sup>23</sup> Yahweh's glory went up from the middle of the city, and stood on the mountain which is on the east side of the city. <sup>24</sup> The Spirit lifted me up, and brought me in the vision by the Spirit of God into Chaldea, to them of the captivity. So the vision that I had seen went up from me. <sup>25</sup> Then I spoke to them of the captivity all the things that Yahweh had shown me.

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh's word also came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup> Son of man, you dwell in the middle of the rebellious house, who have eyes to see, and don't see, who have ears to hear, and don't hear; for they are a rebellious house. <sup>3</sup> Therefore, you son of man, prepare your stuff for moving, and move by day in their sight; and you shall move from your place to another place in their sight: it may be they will consider, though they are a rebellious house. <sup>4</sup> You shall bring out your stuff by day in their sight, as stuff for moving; and you shall go out yourself at evening in their sight, as when men go out into exile. <sup>5</sup> Dig through the wall in their sight, and carry your stuff out that way. <sup>6</sup> In their sight you shall bear it on your shoulder, and carry it out in the dark; you shall cover your face, so that you don't see the land: for I have set you for a sign to the house of Israel. <sup>7</sup> I did so as I was commanded: I brought out my stuff by day, as stuff for removing, and in the evening I dug through the wall with my hand; I brought it out in the dark, and bore

it on my shoulder in their sight. <sup>8</sup> In the morning, Yahweh's word came to me, saying, <sup>9</sup> Son of man, has not the house of Israel, the rebellious house, said to you, What are you doing? <sup>10</sup> Say to them, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: This burden concerns the prince in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel among whom they are. <sup>11</sup> Say, I am your sign: like as I have done, so shall it be done to them; they shall go into exile, into captivity. <sup>12</sup> The prince who is among them shall bear on his shoulder in the dark, and shall go out: they shall dig through the wall to carry out thereby: he shall cover his face, because he shall not see the land with his eyes. <sup>13</sup> My net also will I spread on him, and he shall be taken in my snare; and I will bring him to Babylon to the land of the Chaldeans; yet shall he not see it, though he shall die there. <sup>14</sup> I will scatter toward every wind all who are around him to help him, and all his bands; and I will draw out the sword after them. <sup>15</sup> They shall know that I am Yahweh, when I shall disperse them among the nations, and scatter them through the countries. <sup>16</sup> But I will leave a few men of them from the sword, from the famine, and from the pestilence; that they may declare all their abominations among the nations where they come; and they shall know that I am Yahweh. <sup>17</sup> Moreover Yahweh's word came to me, saying, <sup>18</sup> Son of man, eat your bread with quaking, and drink your water with trembling and with fearfulness; <sup>19</sup> and tell the people of the land, Thus says the Lord Yahweh concerning the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the land of Israel: They shall eat their bread with fearfulness, and drink their water in dismay, that her land may be desolate, and all that is therein, because of the violence of all those who dwell therein. <sup>20</sup> The cities that are inhabited shall be laid waste, and the land shall be a desolation; and you shall know that I am Yahweh. <sup>21</sup> Yahweh's word came to me, saying, <sup>22</sup> Son of man, what is this proverb that you have in the land of Israel, saying, The days are prolonged, and every vision fails? <sup>23</sup> Tell them therefore, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: I will make this proverb to cease, and they shall no more use it as a proverb in Israel; but tell them, The days are at hand, and the fulfillment of every vision. <sup>24</sup> For there shall be no more any false vision nor flattering divination within the house of Israel. <sup>25</sup> For I am Yahweh; I will speak, and the word that I speak will be performed. It will be no more deferred: for in your days, rebellious house, will I speak the word, and will perform it, says the Lord Yahweh. <sup>26</sup> Again Yahweh's word came to me, saying, <sup>27</sup> Son of man, behold, they of the house of Israel say, The vision that he sees is for many day to come, and he prophesies of times that are far off. <sup>28</sup> Therefore tell them, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: None of my words shall be deferred any more, but the word which I shall speak shall be performed, says the Lord Yahweh.

nothing! <sup>4</sup> Israel, your prophets have been like foxes in the waste places. <sup>5</sup> You have not gone up into the gaps, neither built up the wall for the house of Israel, to stand in the battle in the day of Yahweh. <sup>6</sup> They have seen falsehood and lying divination, who say, Yahweh says; but Yahweh has not sent them: and they have made men to hope that the word would be confirmed. <sup>7</sup> Haven't you seen a false vision, and haven't you spoken a lying divination, in that you say, Yahweh says; but I have not spoken? <sup>8</sup> Therefore thus says the Lord Yahweh: Because you have spoken falsehood, and seen lies, therefore, behold, I am against you, says the Lord Yahweh. <sup>9</sup> My hand shall be against the prophets who see false visions, and who divine lies: they shall not be in the council of my people, neither shall they be written in the writing of the house of Israel, neither shall they enter into the land of Israel; and you shall know that I am the Lord Yahweh. <sup>10</sup> Because, even because they have seduced my people, saying, Peace; and there is no peace; and when one builds up a wall, behold, they plaster it with whitewash: <sup>11</sup> tell those who plaster it with whitewash, that it shall fall: there shall be an overflowing shower; and you, great hailstones, shall fall; and a stormy wind shall tear it. <sup>12</sup> Behold, when the wall has fallen, shall it not be said to you, Where is the plaster with which you have plastered it? <sup>13</sup> Therefore thus says the Lord Yahweh: I will even tear it with a stormy wind in my wrath; and there shall be an overflowing shower in my anger, and great hailstones in wrath to consume it. <sup>14</sup> So will I break down the wall that you have plastered with whitewash, and bring it down to the ground, so that its foundation shall be uncovered; and it shall fall, and you shall be consumed in the middle of it: and you shall know that I am Yahweh. <sup>15</sup> Thus will I accomplish my wrath on the wall, and on those who have plastered it with whitewash; and I will tell you, The wall is no more, neither those who plastered it; <sup>16</sup> to wit, the prophets of Israel who prophesy concerning Jerusalem, and who see visions of peace for her, and there is no peace, says the Lord Yahweh. <sup>17</sup> You, son of man, set your face against the daughters of your people, who prophesy out of their own heart; and prophesy against them, <sup>18</sup> and say, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: Woe to the women who sew pillows on all elbows, and make kerchiefs for the head of persons of every stature to hunt souls! Will you hunt the souls of my people, and save souls alive for yourselves? <sup>19</sup> You have profaned me among my people for handfuls of barley and for pieces of bread, to kill the souls who should not die, and to save the souls alive who should not live, by your lying to my people who listen to lies. <sup>20</sup> Therefore thus says the Lord Yahweh: Behold, I am against your pillows, with which you there hunt the souls to make them fly, and I will tear them from your arms; and I will let the souls go, even the souls whom you hunt to make them fly. <sup>21</sup> Your kerchiefs also will I tear, and deliver my people out of your hand, and they shall be no more in your hand to be hunted; and you shall know that I am Yahweh. <sup>22</sup> Because with lies you have grieved the heart of the righteous, whom I have not made sad; and strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, and be saved alive: <sup>23</sup> Therefore you shall no more see false visions, nor practice divination. I will deliver my people out of your hand; and you shall know that I am Yahweh.

that prophet, and I will stretch out my hand on him, and will destroy him from among my people Israel. <sup>10</sup> They shall bear their iniquity: the iniquity of the prophet shall be even as the iniquity of him who seeks him; <sup>11</sup> that the house of Israel may go no more astray from me, neither defile themselves any more with all their transgressions; but that they may be my people, and I may be their God, says the Lord Yahweh. <sup>12</sup> Yahweh's word came to me, saying, <sup>13</sup> Son of man, when a land sins against me by committing a trespass, and I stretch out my hand on it, and break the staff of its bread, and send famine on it, and cut off from it man and animal; <sup>14</sup> though these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, they should deliver but their own souls by their righteousness, says the Lord Yahweh. <sup>15</sup> If I cause evil animals to pass through the land, and they ravage it, and it is made desolate, so that no man may pass through because of the animals; <sup>16</sup> though these three men were in it, as I live, says the Lord Yahweh, they should deliver neither sons nor daughters; they only should be delivered, but the land should be desolate. <sup>17</sup> Or if I bring a sword on that land, and say, Sword, go through the land; so that I cut off from it man and animal; <sup>18</sup> though these three men were in it, as I live, says the Lord Yahweh, they should deliver neither sons nor daughters, but they only should be delivered themselves. <sup>19</sup> Or if I send a pestilence into that land, and pour out my wrath on it in blood, to cut off from it man and animal; <sup>20</sup> though Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, as I live, says the Lord Yahweh, they should deliver neither son nor daughter; they should but deliver their own souls by their righteousness. <sup>21</sup> For thus says the Lord Yahweh: How much more when I send my four severe judgments on Jerusalem, the sword, and the famine, and the evil animals, and the pestilence, to cut off from it man and animal! <sup>22</sup> Yet, behold, therein shall be left a remnant that shall be carried out, both sons and daughters: behold, they shall come out to you, and you shall see their way and their doings; and you shall be comforted concerning the evil that I have brought on Jerusalem, even concerning all that I have brought on it. <sup>23</sup> They shall comfort you, when you see their way and their doings; and you shall know that I have not done without cause all that I have done in it, says the Lord Yahweh.

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh's word came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup> Son of man, what is the vine tree more than any tree, the vine-branch which is among the trees of the forest? <sup>3</sup> Will wood be taken of it to make anything? Will men take a pin of it to hang any vessel on it? <sup>4</sup> Behold, it is cast into the fire for fuel; the fire has devoured both its ends, and the middle of it is burned: is it profitable for any work? <sup>5</sup> Behold, when it was whole, it was meet for no work: how much less, when the fire has devoured it, and it is burned, shall it yet be meet for any work! <sup>6</sup> Therefore thus says the Lord Yahweh: As the vine tree among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so will I give the inhabitants of Jerusalem. <sup>7</sup> I will set my face against them; they shall go out from the fire, but the fire shall devour them; and you shall know that I am Yahweh, when I set my face against them. <sup>8</sup>

I will make the land desolate, because they have committed a trespass, says the Lord Yahweh.

16

sealskin, and I dressed you about with fine linen, and covered you with silk. <sup>11</sup> I decked you with ornaments, and I put bracelets on your hands, and a chain on your neck. <sup>12</sup> I put a ring on your nose, and earrings in your ears, and a beautiful crown on your head. <sup>13</sup> Thus you were decked with gold and silver; and your clothing was of fine linen, and silk, and embroidered work; you ate fine flour, and honey, and oil; and you were exceeding beautiful, and you prospered to royal estate. <sup>14</sup> Your renown went out among the nations for your beauty; for it was perfect, through my majesty which I had put on you, says the Lord Yahweh. <sup>15</sup> But you trusted in your beauty, and played the prostitute because of your renown, and poured out your prostitution on everyone who passed by; his it was. <sup>16</sup> You took of your garments, and made for yourselves high places decked with various colors, and played the prostitute on them. This shall not come, neither shall it be. <sup>17</sup> You also took your beautiful jewels of my gold and of my silver, which I had given you, and made for yourself images of men, and played the prostitute with them; <sup>18</sup> and you took your embroidered garments, and covered them, and set my oil and my incense before them. <sup>19</sup> My bread also which I gave you, fine flour, and oil, and honey, with which I fed you, you even set it before them for a pleasant aroma; and so it was, says the Lord Yahweh. <sup>20</sup> Moreover you have taken your sons and your daughters, whom you have borne to me, and you have sacrificed these to them to be devoured. Was your prostitution a small matter, <sup>21</sup> that you have slain my children, and delivered them up, in causing them to pass through the fire to them? <sup>22</sup> In all your abominations and your prostitution you have not remembered the days of your youth, when you were naked and bare, and were wallowing in your blood. <sup>23</sup> It has happened after all your wickedness, (woe, woe to you! says the Lord Yahweh), <sup>24</sup> that you have built for yourselves a vaulted place, and have made yourselves a lofty place in every street. <sup>25</sup> You have built your lofty place at the head of every way, and have made your beauty an abomination, and have opened your feet to everyone who passed by, and multiplied your prostitution. <sup>26</sup> You have also committed sexual immorality with the Egyptians, your neighbors, great of flesh; and have multiplied your prostitution, to provoke me to anger. <sup>27</sup> See therefore, I have stretched out my hand over you, and have diminished your portion, and delivered you to the will of those who hate you, the daughters of the Philistines, who are ashamed of your lewd way. <sup>28</sup> You have played the prostitute also with the Assyrians, because you were insatiable; yes, you have played the prostitute with them, and yet you weren't satisfied. <sup>29</sup> You have moreover multiplied your prostitution to the land of merchants, to Chaldea; and yet you weren't satisfied with this. <sup>30</sup> How weak is your heart, says the Lord Yahweh, since you do all these things, the work of an impudent prostitute; <sup>31</sup> in that you build your vaulted place at the head of every way, and make your lofty place in every street, and have not been as a prostitute, in that you scorn pay. <sup>32</sup> A wife who commits adultery! who takes strangers instead of her husband! <sup>33</sup> They give gifts to all prostitutes; but you give your gifts to all your lovers, and bribe them, that they may come to you on every side for your prostitution. <sup>34</sup> You are different from other women in your prostitution, in that no one follows you to play the prostitute; and whereas you give hire, and no hire is given to you, therefore you are different. <sup>35</sup> Therefore, prostitute, hear Yahweh's word: <sup>36</sup> Thus says the Lord Yahweh, Because your filthiness was poured out, and your nakedness uncovered through your prostitution with your lovers; and because of all the idols of your abominations, and for the blood of your children, that you gave to them; <sup>37</sup> therefore see, I will gather all your lovers, with whom you have taken pleasure, and all those who you have loved, with all those who you have hated; I will even gather them against you on every side, and will uncover your nakedness to them, that they may see all your nakedness. <sup>38</sup> I will judge you, as women who break wedlock and shed blood are judged; and I will bring on you the blood of wrath and jealousy. <sup>39</sup> I will also give you into their hand, and they shall throw down your vaulted place, and break down your lofty places; and they shall strip you of your clothes, and take your beautiful jewels; and they shall leave you naked and bare. <sup>40</sup> They shall also bring up a company against you, and they shall stone you with stones, and thrust you through with their swords. <sup>41</sup> They shall burn your houses with fire, and execute judgments on you in the sight of many women; and I will cause you to cease from playing the prostitute, and you shall also give no hire any more. <sup>42</sup> So will I cause my wrath toward you to rest, and my jealousy shall depart from you, and I will be quiet, and will be no more angry. <sup>43</sup> Because you have not remembered the days of your youth, but have raged against me in all these things; therefore, behold, I also will bring your way on your head, says the Lord Yahweh: and you shall not commit this lewdness with all your abominations. <sup>44</sup> Behold, everyone who uses proverbs shall use this proverb against you, saying, As is the mother, so is her daughter. <sup>45</sup> You are the daughter of your mother, who loathes her husband and her children; and you are the sister of your sisters, who loathed their husbands and their children: your mother was a Hittite, and your father an Amorite. <sup>46</sup> Your elder sister is Samaria, who dwells at your left hand, she and her daughters; and your younger sister, who dwells at your right hand, is Sodom and her daughters. <sup>47</sup> Yet you have not walked in their ways, nor done after their abominations; but, soon you were more corrupt than they in all your ways. <sup>48</sup> As I live, says the Lord Yahweh, Sodom your sister has not done, she nor her daughters, as you have done, you and your daughters. <sup>49</sup> Behold, this was the iniquity of your sister Sodom: pride, fullness of bread, and prosperous ease was in her and in her daughters; neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy. <sup>50</sup> They were haughty, and committed abomination before me: therefore I took them away when I saw it. <sup>51</sup> Neither has Samaria committed half of your sins; but you have multiplied your abominations more than they, and have justified your sisters by all your abominations which you have done. <sup>52</sup> You also, bear you your own shame, in that you have given judgment for your sisters; through your sins that you have committed more abominable than they, they are more righteous that you: yes, be also confounded, and bear your shame, in that you have justified your sisters. <sup>53</sup> I will turn again their captivity, the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Samaria and her daughters, and the captivity of your captives among them; <sup>54</sup> that you may bear your own shame, and may be ashamed because of all that you have done, in that you are a comfort to them. <sup>55</sup> Your sisters, Sodom and her daughters, shall return to their former estate; and Samaria and her daughters shall return to their former estate; and you and your daughters shall return to your former estate. <sup>56</sup> For your sister Sodom was not mentioned by your mouth in the day of your pride, <sup>57</sup> before your wickedness was uncovered, as at the time of the reproach of the daughters of Syria, and of all who are around her, the daughters of the Philistines, who do despise to you all around. <sup>58</sup> You have borne your lewdness and your abominations, says Yahweh. <sup>59</sup> For thus says the Lord Yahweh: I will also deal with you as you have done, who have despised the oath in breaking the covenant. <sup>60</sup> Nevertheless I will remember my covenant with you in the days of your youth, and I will establish to you an everlasting covenant. <sup>61</sup> Then you shall remember your ways, and be ashamed, when you shall receive your sisters, your elder sisters and your younger; and I will give them to you for daughters, but not by your covenant. <sup>62</sup> I will establish my covenant with you; and you shall know that I am Yahweh; <sup>63</sup> that you may remember, and be confounded, and never open your mouth any more, because of your shame, when I have forgiven you all that you have done, says the Lord Yahweh.

17

know what these things mean? tell them, Behold, the king of Babylon came to Jerusalem, and took its king, and its princes, and brought them to him to Babylon: <sup>13</sup> and he took of the royal offspring,<sup>i</sup> and made a covenant with him; he also brought him under an oath, and took away the mighty of the land; <sup>14</sup> that the kingdom might be base, that it might not lift itself up, but that by keeping his covenant it might stand. <sup>15</sup> But he rebelled against him in sending his ambassadors into Egypt, that they might give him horses and many people. Shall he prosper? shall he escape who does such things? shall he break the covenant, and yet escape? <sup>16</sup> As I live, says the Lord Yahweh, surely in the place where the king dwells who made him king, whose oath he despised, and whose covenant he broke, even with him in the middle of Babylon he shall die. <sup>17</sup> Neither shall Pharaoh with his mighty army and great company help him in the war, when they cast up mounds and build forts, to cut off many persons. <sup>18</sup> For he has despised the oath by breaking the covenant; and behold, he had given his hand, and yet has done all these things; he shall not escape. <sup>19</sup> Therefore thus says the Lord Yahweh: As I live, surely my oath that he has despised, and my covenant that he has broken, I will even bring it on his own head. <sup>20</sup> I will spread my net on him, and he shall be taken in my snare, and I will bring him to Babylon, and will enter into judgment with him there for his trespass that he has trespassed against me. <sup>21</sup> All his fugitives in all his bands shall fall by the sword, and those who remain shall be scattered toward every wind: and you shall know that I,

Yahweh, have spoken it. <sup>22</sup> Thus says the Lord Yahweh: I will also take of the lofty top of the cedar, and will set it; I will crop off from the topmost of its young twigs a tender one, and I will plant it on a high and lofty mountain: <sup>23</sup> in the mountain of the height of Israel will I plant it; and it shall produce boughs, and bear fruit, and be a goodly cedar: and under it shall dwell all birds of every wing; in the shade of its branches shall they dwell. <sup>24</sup> All the trees of the field shall know that I, Yahweh, have brought down the high tree, have exalted the low tree, have dried up the green tree, and have made the dry tree to flourish; I, Yahweh, have spoken and have done it.

18

withdrawn his hand from iniquity, has executed true justice between man and man, <sup>9</sup> has walked in my statutes, and has kept my ordinances, to deal truly; he is just, he shall surely live, says the Lord Yahweh. <sup>10</sup> If he fathers a son who is a robber who sheds blood, and who does any one of these things, <sup>11</sup> or who does not do any of those things, but even has eaten on the mountains, and defiled his neighbor's wife, <sup>12</sup> has wronged the poor and needy, has taken by robbery, has not restored the pledge, and has lifted up his eyes to the idols, has committed abomination, <sup>13</sup> has lent on interest, and has taken increase; shall he then live? he shall not live: he has done all these abominations; he shall surely die; his blood shall be on him. <sup>14</sup> Now, behold, if he fathers a son, who sees all his father's sins, which he has done, and fears, and does not such like; <sup>15</sup> who has not eaten on the mountains, neither has lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, has not defiled his neighbor's wife, <sup>16</sup> neither has wronged any, has not taken anything to pledge, neither has taken by robbery, but has given his bread to the hungry, and has covered the naked with a garment; <sup>17</sup> who has withdrawn his hand from the poor, who has not received interest nor increase, has executed my ordinances, has walked in my statutes; he shall not die for the iniquity of his father, he shall surely live. <sup>18</sup> As for his father, because he cruelly oppressed, robbed his brother, and did that which is not good among his people, behold, he shall die in his iniquity. <sup>19</sup> Yet you say, Why doesn't the son bear the iniquity of the father? When the son has done that which is lawful and right, and has kept all my statutes, and has done them, he shall surely live. <sup>20</sup> The soul who sins, he shall die: the son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son; the righteousness of the righteous shall be on him, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be on him. <sup>21</sup> But if the wicked turn from all his sins that he has committed, and keep all my statutes, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall surely live, he shall not die. <sup>22</sup> None of his transgressions that he has committed shall be remembered against him: in his righteousness that he has done he shall live. <sup>23</sup> Have I any pleasure in the death of the wicked? says the Lord Yahweh; and not rather that he should return from his way, and live? <sup>24</sup> But when the righteous turns away from his righteousness, and commits iniquity, and does according to all the abominations that the wicked man does, shall he live? None of his righteous deeds that he has done shall be remembered: in his trespass that he has trespassed, and in his sin that he has sinned, in them shall he die. <sup>25</sup> Yet you say, The way of the Lord is not equal. Hear now, house of Israel: Is my way not equal? Aren't your ways unequal? <sup>26</sup> When the righteous man turns away from his righteousness, and commits iniquity, and dies therein; in his iniquity that he has done shall he die. <sup>27</sup> Again, when the wicked man turns away from his wickedness that he has committed, and does that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul alive. <sup>28</sup> Because he considers, and turns away from all his transgressions that he has committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die. <sup>29</sup> Yet the house of Israel says, "The way of the Lord is not fair." House of Israel, aren't my ways fair? Aren't your ways unfair? <sup>30</sup> Therefore I will judge you, house of Israel, everyone according to his ways, says the Lord Yahweh. Return, and turn yourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity shall not be your ruin. <sup>31</sup> Cast away from you all your transgressions, in which you have transgressed; and make yourself a new heart and a new spirit: for why will you die, house of Israel? <sup>32</sup> For I have no pleasure in the death of him who dies, says the Lord Yahweh: therefore turn yourselves, and live.

Babylon; they brought him into strongholds, that his voice should no more be heard on the mountains of Israel. <sup>10</sup> Your mother was like a vine, in your blood, planted by the waters: it was fruitful and full of branches by reason of many waters. <sup>11</sup> It had strong rods for the scepters of those who bore rule, and their stature was exalted among the thick boughs, and they were seen in their height with the multitude of their branches. <sup>12</sup> But it was plucked up in fury, it was cast down to the ground, and the east wind dried up its fruit: its strong rods were broken off and withered; the fire consumed them. <sup>13</sup> Now it is planted in the wilderness, in a dry and thirsty land. <sup>14</sup> Fire is gone out of the rods of its branches, it has devoured its fruit, so that there is in it no strong rod to be a scepter to rule. This is a lamentation, and shall be for a lamentation.

20

<sup>1</sup> In the seventh year, in the fifth month, the tenth day of the month, some of the elders of Israel came to inquire of Yahweh, and sat before me. <sup>2</sup> Yahweh's word came to me, saying, <sup>3</sup> Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel, and tell them, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: Is it to inquire of me that you have come? As I live, says the Lord Yahweh, I will not be inquired of by you. <sup>4</sup> Will you judge them, son of man, will you judge them? Cause them to know the abominations of their fathers; <sup>5</sup> and tell them, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: In the day when I chose Israel, and swore to the offspring<sup>j</sup> of the house of Jacob, and made myself known to them in the land of Egypt, when I swore to them, saying, I am

Yahweh your God; <sup>6</sup> in that day I swore to them, to bring them out of the land of Egypt into a land that I had searched out for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands. <sup>7</sup> I said to them, Cast away every man the abominations of his eyes, and don't defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt; I am Yahweh your God. <sup>8</sup> But they rebelled against me, and would not listen to me; they each didn't throw away the abominations of their eyes, neither did they forsake the idols of Egypt. Then I said I would pour out my wrath on them, to accomplish my anger against them in the middle of the land of Egypt. <sup>9</sup> But I worked for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, among which they were, in whose sight I made myself known to them, in bringing them out of the land of Egypt. <sup>10</sup> So I caused them to go out of the land of Egypt, and brought them into the wilderness. <sup>11</sup> I gave them my statutes, and showed them my ordinances, which if a man does, he shall live in them. <sup>12</sup> Moreover also I gave them my Sabbaths, to be a sign between me and them, that they might know that I am Yahweh who sanctifies them. <sup>13</sup> But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness: they didn't walk in my statutes, and they rejected my ordinances, which if a man keep, he shall live in them; and my Sabbaths they greatly profaned. Then I said I would pour out my wrath on them in the wilderness, to consume them. <sup>14</sup> But I worked for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, in whose sight I brought them out. <sup>15</sup> Moreover also I swore to them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands; <sup>16</sup> because they rejected my ordinances, and didn't walk in my statutes, and profaned my Sabbaths: for their heart went after their idols. <sup>17</sup> Nevertheless my eye spared them, and I didn't destroy them, neither did I make a full end of them in the wilderness. <sup>18</sup> I said to their children in the wilderness, Don't walk in the statutes of your fathers, neither observe their ordinances, nor defile yourselves with their idols. <sup>19</sup> I am Yahweh your God: walk in my statutes, and keep my ordinances, and do them; <sup>20</sup> and make my Sabbaths holy; and they shall be a sign between me and you, that you may know that I am Yahweh your God. <sup>21</sup> But the children rebelled against me; they didn't walk in my statutes, neither kept my ordinances to do them, which if a man do, he shall live in them; they profaned my Sabbaths. Then I said I would pour out my wrath on them, to accomplish my anger against them in the wilderness. <sup>22</sup> Nevertheless I withdrew my hand, and worked for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, in whose sight I brought them out. <sup>23</sup> Moreover I swore to them in the wilderness, that I would scatter them among the nations, and disperse them through the countries; <sup>24</sup> because they had not executed my ordinances, but had rejected my statutes, and had profaned my Sabbaths, and their eyes were after their fathers' idols. <sup>25</sup> Moreover also I gave them statutes that were not good, and ordinances in which they should not live; <sup>26</sup> and I polluted them in their own gifts, in that they caused all that opens the womb to pass through the fire, that I might make them desolate, to the end that they might know that I am Yahweh. <sup>27</sup> Therefore, son of man, speak to the house of Israel, and tell them, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: In this moreover have your fathers blasphemed me, in that they have committed a trespass against me. <sup>28</sup> For when I had brought them into the land, which I swore to give to them, then they saw every high hill, and every thick tree, and they offered there their sacrifices, and there they presented the provocation of their offering; there also they made their pleasant aroma, and they poured out there their drink offerings. <sup>29</sup> Then I said to them, What does the high place where you go mean? So its name is called Bamah to this day. <sup>30</sup> Therefore tell the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: Do you pollute yourselves in the way of your fathers? and do you play the prostitute after their abominations? <sup>31</sup> and when you offer your gifts, when you make your sons to pass through the fire, do you pollute yourselves with all your idols to this day? and shall I be inquired of by you, house of Israel? As I live, says the Lord Yahweh, I will not be inquired of by you; <sup>32</sup> and that which comes into your mind shall not be at all, in that you say, We will be as the nations, as the families of the countries, to serve wood and stone. <sup>33</sup> As I live, says the Lord Yahweh, surely with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with wrath poured out, will I be king over you: <sup>34</sup> and I will bring you out from the peoples, and will gather you out of the countries in which you are scattered, with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with wrath poured out; <sup>35</sup> and I will bring you into the wilderness of the peoples, and there will I enter into judgment with you face to face. <sup>36</sup> Like as I entered into judgment with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so will I enter into judgment with you, says the Lord Yahweh. <sup>37</sup> I will cause you to pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant; <sup>38</sup> and I will purge out from among you the rebels, and those who disobey against me; I will bring them out of the land where they live, but they shall not enter into the land of Israel: and you shall know that I am Yahweh. <sup>39</sup> As for you, house of Israel, thus says the Lord Yahweh: Go, serve everyone his idols, and hereafter also, if you will not listen to me; but my holy name you shall no more profane with your gifts, and with your idols. <sup>40</sup> For in my holy mountain, in the mountain of the height of Israel, says the Lord Yahweh, there shall all the house of Israel, all of them, serve me in the land: there will I accept them, and there will I require your offerings, and the first fruits of your offerings, with all your holy things. <sup>41</sup> As a pleasant aroma will I accept you, when I bring you out from the peoples, and gather you out of the countries in which you have been scattered; and I will be sanctified in you in the sight of the nations. <sup>42</sup> You shall know that I am Yahweh, when I shall bring you into the land of Israel, into the country which I swore to give to your fathers. <sup>43</sup> There you shall remember your ways, and all your doings, in which you have polluted yourselves; and you shall loathe yourselves in your own sight for all your evils that you have committed. <sup>44</sup> You shall know that I am Yahweh, when I have dealt with you for my name's sake, not according to your evil ways, nor according to your corrupt doings, you house of Israel, says the Lord Yahweh. <sup>45</sup> Yahweh's word came to me, saying, <sup>46</sup> Son of man, set your face toward the south, and preach toward the south, and prophesy against the forest of the field in the South; <sup>47</sup> and tell the forest of the South, Hear Yahweh's word: Thus says the Lord Yahweh, Behold, I will kindle a fire in you, and it shall devour every green tree in you, and every dry tree: the flaming flame shall not be quenched, and all faces from the south to the north shall be burned thereby. <sup>48</sup> All flesh shall see that I, Yahweh, have kindled it; it shall not be quenched. <sup>49</sup> Then I said, Ah Lord Yahweh! they say of me, Isn't he a speaker of parables?

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh's word came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup> Son of man, set your face toward Jerusalem, and preach toward the sanctuaries, and prophesy against the land of Israel; <sup>3</sup> and tell the land of Israel, Yahweh says: Behold, I am against you, and will draw my sword out of its sheath, and will cut off from you the righteous and the wicked. <sup>4</sup> Seeing then that I will cut off from you the righteous and the wicked, therefore shall my sword go out of its sheath against all flesh from the south to the north: <sup>5</sup> and all flesh shall know that I, Yahweh, have drawn my sword out of its sheath; it shall not return any more. <sup>6</sup> Sigh therefore, you son of man; with the breaking of your thighs and with bitterness you will sigh before their eyes. <sup>7</sup> It shall be, when they tell you, Why do you sigh? that you shall say, Because of the news, for it comes; and every heart shall melt, and all hands shall be feeble, and every spirit shall faint, and all knees shall be weak as water: behold, it comes, and it shall be done, says the Lord Yahweh. <sup>8</sup> Yahweh's word came to me, saying, <sup>9</sup> Son of man, prophesy, and say, Yahweh says: Say, A sword, a sword, it is sharpened, and also furbished; <sup>10</sup> it is sharpened that it may make a slaughter; it is furbished that it may be as lightning: shall we then make mirth? the rod of my son, it condemns every tree. <sup>11</sup> It is given to be furbished, that it may be handled: the sword, it is sharpened, yes, it is furbished, to give it into the hand of the killer. <sup>12</sup> Cry and wail, son of man; for it is on my people, it is on all the princes of Israel: they are delivered over to the sword with my people; strike therefore on your thigh. <sup>13</sup> For there is a trial; and what if even the rod that condemns shall be no more? says the Lord Yahweh. <sup>14</sup> You therefore, son of man, prophesy, and strike your hands together; and let the sword be doubled the third time, the sword of the deadly wounded: it is the sword of the great one who is deadly wounded, which enters into their rooms. <sup>15</sup> I have set the threatening sword against all their gates, that their heart may melt, and their stumblings be multiplied: ah! it is made as lightning, it is pointed for slaughter. <sup>16</sup> Gather yourselves together, go to the right, set yourselves in array, go to the left, wherever your face is set. <sup>17</sup> I will also strike my hands together, and I will cause my wrath to rest: I, Yahweh, have spoken it. <sup>18</sup> Yahweh's word came to me again, saying, <sup>19</sup> Also, you son of man, appoint two ways, that the sword of the king of Babylon may come; they both shall come out of one land: and mark out a place, mark it out at the head of the way to the city.<sup>20</sup> You shall appoint a way for the sword to come to Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and to Judah in Jerusalem the fortified.<sup>21</sup> For the king of Babylon stood at the parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to use divination: he shook the arrows back and forth, he consulted the teraphim,<sup>k</sup> he looked in the liver.<sup>22</sup> In his right hand was the lot for Jerusalem, to set battering rams, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to set battering rams against the gates, to cast up mounds, to build forts.<sup>23</sup> It shall be to them as a false divination in their sight, who have sworn oaths to them; but he brings iniquity to memory, that they may be taken.<sup>24</sup> Therefore thus says the Lord Yahweh: Because you have made your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are uncovered, so that in all your doings your sins appear; because you have come to memory, you shall be taken with the hand.<sup>25</sup> You, deadly wounded wicked one, the prince of Israel, whose day has come, in the time of the iniquity of the end,<sup>26</sup> thus says the Lord Yahweh: Remove the turban, and take off the crown; this will not be as it was; exalt that which is low, and abase that which is high.<sup>27</sup> I will overturn, overturn, overturn it: this also shall be no more, until he come whose right it is; and I will give it.<sup>28</sup> You, son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus says the Lord Yahweh concerning the children of Ammon, and concerning their reproach; and say, A sword, a sword is drawn, for the slaughter it is furbished, to cause it to devour, that it may be as lightning;<sup>29</sup> while they see for you false visions, while they divine lies to you, to lay you on the necks of the wicked who are deadly wounded, whose day has come in the time of the iniquity of the end.<sup>30</sup> Cause it to return into its sheath. In the place where you were created, in the land of your birth, will I judge you.<sup>31</sup> I will pour out my indignation on you; I will blow on you with the fire of my wrath; and I will deliver you into the hand of brutish men, skillful to destroy.<sup>32</sup> You shall be for fuel to the fire; your blood shall be in the middle of the land; you shall be remembered no more: for I, Yahweh, have spoken it.

22

<sup>1</sup> Moreover Yahweh's word came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup> You, son of man, will you judge, will you judge the bloody city? then cause her to know all her abominations. <sup>3</sup> You shall say, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: A city that sheds blood within herself, that her time may come, and that makes idols against herself to defile her! <sup>4</sup> You have become guilty in your blood that you have shed, and are defiled in your idols which you have made; and you have caused your days to draw near, and have come even to your years: therefore have I made you a reproach to the nations, and a mocking to all the countries. <sup>5</sup> Those who are near, and those who are far from you, shall mock you, you infamous one, full of tumult. <sup>6</sup> Behold, the princes of Israel, everyone according to his power, have been in you to shed blood. <sup>7</sup> In you have they set light by father and mother; among you they have dealt by oppression with the foreigner; in you they have wronged the fatherless and the widow. <sup>8</sup> You have despised my holy things, and have profaned my Sabbaths. <sup>9</sup> Slanderous men have been in you to shed blood; and in you they have eaten on the mountains: they have committed lewdness among you. <sup>10</sup> In you have they uncovered their fathers' nakedness; in you have they humbled her who was unclean in her impurity. <sup>11</sup> One has committed abomination with his neighbor's wife; and another has lewdly defiled his daughter-in-law; and another in you has humbled his sister, his father's daughter. <sup>12</sup> In you have they taken bribes to shed blood; you have taken interest and increase, and you have greedily gained of your neighbors by oppression, and have forgotten me, says the Lord Yahweh. <sup>13</sup> Behold, therefore, I have struck my hand at your dishonest gain which you have made, and at your blood which has been within you. <sup>14</sup> Can your heart endure, or can your hands be strong, in the days that I shall deal with you? I, Yahweh, have spoken it, and will do it. <sup>15</sup> I will scatter you among the nations, and disperse you through the countries; and I will consume your filthiness out of you. <sup>16</sup> You shall be profaned in yourself, in the sight of the nations; and you shall know that I am Yahweh. <sup>17</sup> Yahweh's word came to me, saying, <sup>18</sup> Son of man, the house of Israel has become dross to me: all of them are brass and tin and iron and lead, in the middle of the furnace; they are the dross of silver. <sup>19</sup> Therefore thus says the Lord Yahweh: Because you have all become dross, therefore, behold, I will gather you into the middle of Jerusalem. <sup>20</sup> As they gather silver and brass and iron and lead and tin into the middle of the furnace, to blow the fire on it, to melt it; so will I gather you in my anger and in my wrath, and I will lay you there, and melt you. <sup>21</sup> Yes, I will gather you, and blow on you with the fire of my wrath, and you shall be melted in the middle of it. <sup>22</sup> As silver is melted in the middle of the furnace, so you will be melted in the middle of it; and you will know that I, Yahweh, have poured out my wrath on you. <sup>23</sup> Yahweh's word came to me, saying, <sup>24</sup> Son of man, tell her, You are a land that is not cleansed, nor rained on in the day of indignation. <sup>25</sup> There is a conspiracy of her prophets within it, like a roaring lion ravening the prey: they have devoured souls; they take treasure and precious things; they have made her widows many within it. <sup>26</sup> Her priests have done violence to my law, and have profaned my holy things: they have made no distinction between the holy and the common, neither have they caused men to discern between the unclean and the clean, and have hidden their eyes from my Sabbaths, and I am profaned among them. <sup>27</sup> Her princes within it are like wolves ravening the prey, to shed blood, and to destroy souls, that they may get dishonest gain. <sup>28</sup> Her prophets have plastered for them with whitewash, seeing false visions, and divining lies to them, saying, Thus says the Lord Yahweh, when Yahweh has not spoken. <sup>29</sup> The people of the land have used oppression, and exercised robbery; yes, they have troubled the poor and needy, and have oppressed the foreigner wrongfully. <sup>30</sup> I sought for a man among them, who should build up the wall, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it; but I found no one. <sup>31</sup> Therefore have I poured out my indignation on them; I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath: their own way have I brought on their heads, says the Lord Yahweh.

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh's word came again to me, saying, <sup>2</sup> Son of man, there were two women, the daughters of one mother: <sup>3</sup> and they played the prostitute in Egypt; they played the prostitute in their youth; there were their breasts pressed, and there was handled the bosom of their virginity. <sup>4</sup> Their names were Oholah the elder, and Oholibah her sister: and they became mine, and they bore sons and daughters. As for their names, Samaria is Oholah, and Jerusalem Oholibah. <sup>5</sup> Oholah played the prostitute when she was mine; and she doted on her lovers, on the Assyrians her neighbors, <sup>6</sup> who were clothed with blue, governors and rulers, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding on horses. <sup>7</sup> She gave herself as a prostitute to them, the choicest men of Assyria all of them; and on whoever she doted, with all their idols she defiled herself. <sup>8</sup> Neither has she left her prostitution since leaving Egypt; for in her youth they lay with her, and they handled the bosom of her virginity; and they poured out their prostitution on her. <sup>9</sup> Therefore I delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the Assyrians, on whom she doted. <sup>10</sup> These uncovered her nakedness; they took her sons and her daughters; and her they killed with the sword: and she became a byword among women; for they executed judgments on her. <sup>11</sup> Her sister Oholibah saw this, yet was she more corrupt in her doting than she, and in her prostitution which were more than the prostitution of her sister. <sup>12</sup> She doted on the Assyrians, governors and rulers, her neighbors, clothed most gorgeously, horsemen riding on horses, all of them desirable young men. <sup>13</sup> I saw that she was defiled; they both took one way. <sup>14</sup> She increased her prostitution; for she saw men portrayed on the wall, the images of the Chaldeans portrayed with vermilion, <sup>15</sup> dressed with girdles on their waists, with flowing turbans on their heads, all of them princes to look on, after the likeness of the Babylonians in Chaldea, the land of their birth. <sup>16</sup> As soon as she saw them she doted on them, and sent messengers to them into Chaldea. <sup>17</sup> The Babylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their prostitution, and she was polluted with them, and her soul was alienated from them. <sup>18</sup> So she uncovered her prostitution, and uncovered her nakedness: then my soul was alienated from her, like as my soul was alienated from her sister. <sup>19</sup> Yet she multiplied her prostitution, remembering the days of her youth, in which she had played the prostitute in the land of Egypt. <sup>20</sup> She doted on their paramours, whose flesh is as the flesh of donkeys, and whose issue is like the issue of horses. <sup>21</sup> Thus you called to memory the lewdness of your youth, in the handling of your bosom by the Egyptians for the breasts of your youth. <sup>22</sup> Therefore, Oholibah, thus says the Lord Yahweh: Behold, I will raise up your lovers against you, from whom your soul is alienated, and I will bring them against you on every side: <sup>23</sup> the Babylonians and all the Chaldeans, Pekod, Shoa, Koa, and all the Assyrians with them; desirable young men, governors and rulers all of them, princes and men of renown, all of them riding on horses. <sup>24</sup> They shall come against you with weapons, chariots, and wagons, and with a company of peoples; they shall set themselves against you with buckler and shield and helmet all around; and I will commit the judgment to them, and they shall judge you according to their judgments. <sup>25</sup> I will set my jealousy against you, and they shall deal with you in fury; they shall take away your nose and your ears; and your residue shall fall by the sword: they shall take your sons and your daughters; and your residue shall be devoured by the fire. <sup>26</sup> They shall also strip you of your clothes, and take away your beautiful jewels. <sup>27</sup> Thus will I make your lewdness to cease from you, and your prostitution from the land of Egypt; so that you shall not lift up your eyes to them, nor remember Egypt any more. <sup>28</sup> For thus says the Lord Yahweh: Behold, I will deliver you into the hand of them whom you hate, into the hand of them from whom your soul is alienated; <sup>29</sup> and they shall deal with you in hatred, and shall take away all your labor, and shall leave you naked and bare; and the nakedness of your prostitution shall be uncovered, both your lewdness and your prostitution. <sup>30</sup> These things shall be done to you, because you have played the prostitute after the nations, and because you are polluted with their idols. <sup>31</sup> You have walked in the way of your sister; therefore will I give her cup into your hand. <sup>32</sup> Thus says the Lord Yahweh: You will drink of your sister's cup, which is deep and large; you will be ridiculed and held in derision; it contains much. <sup>33</sup> You shall be filled with drunkenness and sorrow, with the cup of astonishment and desolation, with the cup of your sister Samaria. <sup>34</sup> You shall even drink it and drain it out, and you shall gnaw the broken pieces of it, and shall tear your breasts; for I have spoken it, says the Lord Yahweh. <sup>35</sup> Therefore thus says the Lord Yahweh: Because you have forgotten me, and cast me behind your back, therefore you also bear your lewdness and your prostitution. <sup>36</sup> Yahweh said moreover to me: Son of man, will you judge Oholah and Oholibah? then declare to them their abominations. <sup>37</sup> For they have committed adultery, and blood is in their hands; and with their idols have they committed adultery; and they have also caused their sons, whom they bore to me, to pass through the fire to them to be devoured. <sup>38</sup> Moreover this they have done to me: they have defiled my sanctuary in the same day, and have profaned my Sabbaths. <sup>39</sup> For when they had slain their children to their idols, then they came the same day into my sanctuary to profane it; and behold, thus have they done in the middle of my house. <sup>40</sup> Furthermore you have sent for men who come from far, to whom a messenger was sent, and behold, they came; for whom you did wash yourself, paint your eyes, and decorate yourself with ornaments, <sup>41</sup> and sit on a stately bed, with a table prepared before it, whereupon you set my incense and my oil. <sup>42</sup> The voice of a multitude being at ease was with her: and with men of the common sort were brought drunkards from the wilderness; and they put bracelets on their hands, and beautiful crowns on their heads. <sup>43</sup> Then I said of her who was old in adulteries, Now they will play the prostitute with her, and she with them. <sup>44</sup>

They went in to her, as they go in to a prostitute: so went they in to Oholah and to Oholibah, the lewd women. <sup>45</sup> Righteous men, they shall judge them with the judgment of adulteresses, and with the judgment of women who shed blood; because they are adulteresses, and blood is in their hands. <sup>46</sup> For thus says the Lord Yahweh: I will bring up a company against them, and will give them to be tossed back and forth and robbed. <sup>47</sup> The company shall stone them with stones, and dispatch them with their swords; they shall kill their sons and their daughters, and burn up their houses with fire. <sup>48</sup> Thus will I cause lewdness to cease out of the land, that all women may be taught not to do after your lewdness. <sup>49</sup> They shall recompense your lewdness on you, and you shall bear the sins of your idols; and you shall know that I am the Lord Yahweh.

out of it! take out of it piece after piece; No lot is fallen on it. <sup>7</sup> For her blood is in the middle of her; she set it on the bare rock; she didn't pour it on the ground, to cover it with dust. <sup>8</sup> That it may cause wrath to come up to take vengeance, I have set her blood on the bare rock, that it should not be covered. <sup>9</sup> Therefore thus says the Lord Yahweh: Woe to the bloody city! I also will make the pile great. <sup>10</sup> Heap on the wood, make the fire hot, boil well the flesh, and make thick the broth, and let the bones be burned. <sup>11</sup> Then set it empty on its coals, that it may be hot, and its brass may burn, and that its filthiness may be molten in it, that its rust may be consumed. <sup>12</sup> She is weary with toil; yet her great rust, rust by fire, doesn't leave her. <sup>13</sup> In your filthiness is lewdness: because I have cleansed you and you weren't cleansed, you shall not be cleansed from your filthiness any more, until I have caused my wrath toward you to rest. <sup>14</sup> I, Yahweh, have spoken it: it shall happen, and I will do it: I will not go back, neither will I spare, neither will I repent; according to your ways, and according to your doings, shall they judge you, says the Lord Yahweh. <sup>15</sup> Also Yahweh's word came to me, saying, <sup>16</sup> Son of man, behold, I will take away from you the desire of your eyes with a stroke: yet you shall neither mourn nor weep, neither shall your tears run down. <sup>17</sup> Sigh, but not aloud, make no mourning for the dead; bind your headdress on you, and put your shoes on your feet, and don't cover your lips, and don't eat men's bread. <sup>18</sup> So I spoke to the people in the morning; and at evening my wife died; and I did in the morning as I was commanded. <sup>19</sup> The people said to me,

Won't you tell us what these things are to us, that you do so? <sup>20</sup> Then I said to them, Yahweh's word came to me, saying, <sup>21</sup> Speak to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: Behold, I will profane my sanctuary, the pride of your power, the desire of your eyes, and that which your soul pities; and your sons and your daughters whom you have left behind shall fall by the sword. <sup>22</sup> You shall do as I have done: you shall not cover your lips, nor eat the bread of men. <sup>23</sup> Your tires shall be on your heads, and your shoes on your feet: you shall not mourn nor weep; but you shall pine away in your iniquities, and moan one toward another. <sup>24</sup> Thus Ezekiel shall be a sign to you; according to all that he has done, you will do. When this comes, then you will know that I am the Lord Yahweh. <sup>25</sup> You, son of man, shall it not be in the day when I take from them their strength, the joy of their glory, the desire of their eyes, and that whereupon they set their heart, their sons and their daughters, <sup>26</sup> that in that day he who escapes shall come to you, to cause you to hear it with your ears? <sup>27</sup> In that day your mouth will be opened to him who has escaped, and you shall speak, and be no more mute: so you will be a sign to them; and they shall know that I am Yahweh.

when it was made desolate; and against the house of Judah, when they went into captivity: <sup>4</sup> therefore, behold, I will deliver you to the children of the east for a possession, and they shall set their encampments in you, and make their dwellings in you; they shall eat your fruit, and they shall drink your milk. <sup>5</sup> I will make Rabbah a stable for camels, and the children of Ammon a resting place for flocks: and you shall know that I am Yahweh. <sup>6</sup> For thus says the Lord Yahweh: Because you have clapped your hands, and stamped with the feet, and rejoiced with all the despite of your soul against the land of Israel; <sup>7</sup> therefore, behold, I have stretched out my hand on you, and will deliver you for a plunder to the nations; and I will cut you off from the peoples, and I will cause you to perish out of the countries: I will destroy you; and you shall know that I am Yahweh. <sup>8</sup> Thus says the Lord Yahweh: Because Moab and Seir say, Behold, the house of Judah is like all the nations; <sup>9</sup> therefore, behold, I will open the side of Moab from the cities, from his cities which are on his frontiers, the glory of the country, Beth Jeshimoth, Baal Meon, and Kiriathaim, <sup>10</sup> to the children of the east, to go against the children of Ammon; and I will give them for a possession, that the children of Ammon may not be remembered among the nations. <sup>11</sup> and I will execute judgments on Moab; and they shall know that I am Yahweh. <sup>12</sup> Thus says the Lord Yahweh: Because Edom has dealt against the house of Judah by taking vengeance, and has greatly offended, and revenged himself on them; <sup>13</sup> therefore thus says the Lord Yahweh, I will stretch out my hand on Edom, and will cut off man and animal from it; and I will make it desolate from Teman; even to Dedan shall they fall by the sword. <sup>14</sup> I will lay my vengeance on Edom by the hand of my people Israel; and they shall do in Edom according to my anger and according to my wrath; and they shall know my vengeance, says the Lord Yahweh. <sup>15</sup> Thus says the Lord Yahweh: Because the Philistines have dealt by revenge, and have taken vengeance with despite of soul to destroy with perpetual hostility; <sup>16</sup> therefore thus says the Lord Yahweh, Behold, I will stretch out my hand on the Philistines, and I will cut off the Cherethites, and destroy the remnant of the sea coast. <sup>17</sup> I will execute great vengeance on them with wrathful rebukes; and they shall know that I am Yahweh, when I shall lay my vengeance on them.

<sup>1</sup> In the eleventh year, in the first of the month, Yahweh's word came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup> Son of man, because Tyre has said against Jerusalem, Aha, she is broken: the gate of the peoples; she is turned to me; I shall be replenished, now that she is laid waste: <sup>3</sup> therefore thus says the Lord Yahweh, Behold, I am against you, Tyre, and will cause many nations to come up against you, as the sea causes its waves to come up. <sup>4</sup> They shall destroy the walls of Tyre, and break down her towers: I will also scrape her dust from her, and make her a bare rock. <sup>5</sup> She shall be a place for the spreading of nets in the middle of the sea; for I have spoken it, says the Lord Yahweh; and she shall become a plunder to the nations. <sup>6</sup> Her daughters who are in the field shall be slain with the sword: and they shall know that I am Yahweh. <sup>7</sup> For thus says the Lord Yahweh: Behold, I will bring on Tyre Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, king of kings, from the north, with horses, and with chariots, and with horsemen, and a company, and many people. <sup>8</sup> He shall kill your daughters in the field with the sword; and he shall make forts against you, and cast up a mound against you, and raise up the buckler against you. <sup>9</sup> He shall set his battering engines against your walls, and with his axes he shall break down your towers. <sup>10</sup> By reason of the abundance of his horses their dust shall cover you: your walls shall shake at the noise of the horsemen, and of the wagons, and of the chariots, when he shall enter into your gates, as men enter into a city in which is made a breach. <sup>11</sup> With the hoofs of his horses shall he tread down all your streets; he shall kill your people with the sword; and the pillars of your strength shall go down to the ground. <sup>12</sup> They shall make a plunder of your riches, and make a prey of your merchandise; and they shall break down your walls, and destroy your pleasant houses; and they shall lay your stones and your timber and your dust in the middle of the waters. <sup>13</sup> I will cause the noise of your songs to cease; and the sound of your harps shall be no more heard. <sup>14</sup> I will make you a bare rock; you shall be a place for the spreading of nets; you shall be built no more: for I Yahweh have spoken it, says the Lord Yahweh. <sup>15</sup> Thus says the Lord Yahweh to Tyre: shall not the islands shake at the sound of your fall, when the wounded groan, when the slaughter is made within you? <sup>16</sup> Then all the princes of the sea shall come down from their thrones, and lay aside their robes, and strip off their embroidered garments: they shall clothe themselves with trembling; they shall sit on the ground, and shall tremble every moment, and be astonished at you. <sup>17</sup> They shall take up a lamentation over you, and tell you, How you are destroyed, who were inhabited by seafaring men, the renowned city, who was strong in the sea, she and her inhabitants, who caused their terror to be on all who lived there! <sup>18</sup> Now shall the islands tremble in the day of your fall; yes, the islands that are in the sea shall be dismayed at your departure. <sup>19</sup> For thus says the Lord Yahweh: When I shall make you a desolate city, like the cities that are not inhabited; when I shall bring up the deep on you, and the great waters shall cover you; <sup>20</sup> then I will bring you down with those who descend into the pit, to the people of old time, and will make you to dwell in the lower parts of the earth, in the places that are desolate of old, with those who go down to the pit, that you be not inhabited; and I will set glory in the land of the living: <sup>21</sup> I will make you a terror, and you shall no more have any being; though you are sought for, yet you will never be found again, says the Lord Yahweh.

27

from Lebanon to make a mast for you. <sup>6</sup> Of the oaks of Bashan have they made your oars; they have made your benches of ivory inlaid in boxwood, from the islands of Kittim. <sup>7</sup> Of fine linen with embroidered work from Egypt was your sail, that it might be to you for a banner; blue and purple from the islands of Elishah was your awning. <sup>8</sup> The inhabitants of Sidon and Arvad were your rowers: your wise men, Tyre, were in you, they were your pilots. <sup>9</sup> The old men of Gebal and the wise men of it were in you your repairers of ship seams: all the ships of the sea with their mariners were in you to deal in your merchandise. <sup>10</sup> Persia and Lud and Put were in your army, your men of war: they hanged the shield and helmet in you; they showed your beauty. <sup>11</sup> The men of Arvad with your army were on your walls all around, and valorous men were in your towers; they hanged their shields on your walls all around; they have perfected your beauty. <sup>12</sup> Tarshish was your merchant by reason of the multitude of all kinds of riches; with silver, iron, tin, and lead, they traded for your wares. <sup>13</sup> Javan, Tubal, and Meshech, they were your traffickers; they traded the persons of men and vessels of brass for your merchandise. <sup>14</sup> They of the house of Togarmah traded for your wares with horses and war horses and mules. <sup>15</sup> The men of Dedan were your traffickers; many islands were the market of your hand: they brought you in exchange horns of ivory and ebony. <sup>16</sup> Syria was your merchant by reason of the multitude of your handiworks: they traded for your wares with emeralds, purple, and embroidered work, and fine linen, and coral, and rubies.

<sup>17</sup> Judah, and the land of Israel, they were your traffickers: they traded for your merchandise wheat of Minnith, and confections, and honey, and oil, and balm. <sup>18</sup> Damascus was your merchant for the multitude of your handiworks, by reason of the multitude of all kinds of riches, with the wine of Helbon, and white wool. <sup>19</sup> Vedan and Javan traded with yarn for your wares: bright iron, cassia, and calamus, were among your merchandise. <sup>20</sup> Dedan was your trafficker in precious cloths for riding. <sup>21</sup> Arabia, and all the princes of Kedar, they were the merchants of your hand; in lambs, and rams, and goats, in these were they your merchants. <sup>22</sup> The traffickers of Sheba and Raamah, they were your traffickers; they traded for your wares with the chief of all spices, and with all precious stones, and gold. <sup>23</sup> Haran and Canneh and Eden, the traffickers of Sheba, Asshur and Chilmad, were your traffickers. <sup>24</sup> These were your traffickers in choice wares, in wrappings of blue and embroidered work, and in chests of rich clothing, bound with cords and made of cedar, among your merchandise. <sup>25</sup> The ships of Tarshish were your caravans for your merchandise: and you were replenished, and made very glorious in the heart of the seas. <sup>26</sup> Your rowers have brought you into great waters: the east wind has broken you in the heart of the seas. <sup>27</sup> Your riches, and your wares, your merchandise, your mariners, and your pilots, your repairers of ship seams, and the dealers in your merchandise, and all your men of war, who are in you, with all your company which is among you, shall fall into the heart of the seas in the day of your ruin. <sup>28</sup> At the sound of the cry of your pilots the suburbs shall shake. <sup>29</sup> All who handled the oar, the mariners, and all the pilots of the sea, shall come down from their ships; they shall stand on the land, <sup>30</sup> and shall cause their voice to be heard over you, and shall cry bitterly, and shall cast up dust on their heads, they shall wallow themselves in the ashes: <sup>31</sup> and they shall make themselves bald for you, and clothe them with sackcloth, and they shall weep for you in bitterness of soul with bitter mourning. <sup>32</sup> In their wailing they shall take up a lamentation for you, and lament over you, saying, Who is there like Tyre, like her who is brought to silence in the middle of the sea? <sup>33</sup> When your wares went out of the seas, you filled many peoples; you enriched the kings of the earth with the multitude of your riches and of your merchandise. <sup>34</sup> In the time that you were broken by the seas in the depths of the waters, your merchandise and all your company fell within you. <sup>35</sup> All the inhabitants of the islands are astonished at you, and their kings are horribly afraid; they are troubled in their face. <sup>36</sup> The merchants among the peoples hiss at you; you are become a terror, and you shall nevermore have any being.

28

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh's word came again to me, saying, <sup>2</sup> Son of man, tell the prince of Tyre, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: Because your heart is lifted up, and you have said, I am a god, I sit in the seat of God, in the middle of the seas; yet you are man, and not God, though you set your heart as the heart of God— <sup>3</sup> behold, you are wiser than Daniel; there is no secret that is hidden from you; <sup>4</sup> by your wisdom and by your understanding you have gotten yourself riches, and have gotten gold and silver into your treasures; <sup>5</sup> by your great wisdom and by your traffic you have increased your riches, and your heart is lifted up because of your riches— <sup>6</sup> therefore thus says the Lord Yahweh: Because you have set your heart as the heart of God, <sup>7</sup> therefore, behold, I will bring strangers on you, the terrible of the nations; and they shall draw their swords against the beauty of your wisdom, and they shall defile your brightness. <sup>8</sup> They shall bring you down to the pit; and you shall die the death of those who are slain, in the heart of the seas. <sup>9</sup> Will you yet say before him who kills you, I am God? but you are man, and not God, in the hand of him who wounds you. <sup>10</sup> You shall die the death of the uncircumcised by the hand of strangers: for I have spoken it, says the Lord Yahweh. <sup>11</sup> Moreover Yahweh's word came to me, saying, <sup>12</sup> Son of man, take up a lamentation over the king of Tyre, and tell him, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: You seal up the sum, full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty. <sup>13</sup> You were in Eden, the garden of God; every precious stone adorned you: ruby, topaz, emerald, chrysolite, onyx, jasper, sapphire,<sup>1</sup> turquoise, and beryl. Gold work of tambourines and of pipes was in you. In the day that you were created they were prepared. <sup>14</sup> You were the anointed cherub who covers: and I set you, so that you were on the holy mountain of God; you have walked up and down in the middle of the stones of fire. <sup>15</sup> You were perfect in your ways from the day that you were created, until unrighteousness was found in

you. <sup>16</sup> By the abundance of your traffic they filled your insides with violence, and you have sinned: therefore I have cast you as profane out of the mountain of God; and I have destroyed you, covering cherub, from the middle of the stones of fire. <sup>17</sup> Your heart was lifted up because of your beauty; you have corrupted your wisdom by reason of your brightness: I have cast you to the ground; I have laid you before kings, that they may see you. <sup>18</sup> By the multitude of your iniquities, in the unrighteousness of your traffic, you have profaned your sanctuaries; therefore have I brought out a fire from the middle of you; it has devoured you, and I have turned you to ashes on the earth in the sight of all those who see you. <sup>19</sup> All those who know you among the peoples shall be astonished at you: you have become a terror, and you shall nevermore have any being. <sup>20</sup> Yahweh's word came to me, saying, <sup>21</sup> Son of man, set your face toward Sidon, and prophesy against it, <sup>22</sup> and say, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: Behold, I am against you, Sidon; and I will be glorified among you; and they shall know that I am Yahweh, when I shall have executed judgments in her, and shall be sanctified in her. <sup>23</sup> For I will send pestilence into her, and blood into her streets; and the wounded shall fall within her, with the sword on her on every side; and they shall know that I am Yahweh. <sup>24</sup> There shall be no more a pricking brier to the house of Israel, nor a hurting thorn of any that are around them, that scorned them; and they shall know that I am the Lord Yahweh. <sup>25</sup> Thus says the Lord Yahweh: When I shall have gathered the house of Israel from the peoples among whom they are scattered, and shall be sanctified in them in the sight of the nations, then shall they dwell in their own land which I gave to my servant Jacob. <sup>26</sup> They shall dwell securely therein; yes, they shall build houses, and plant vineyards, and shall dwell securely, when I have executed judgments on all those who do them despite all around them; and they shall know that I am Yahweh their God.

sword on you, and will cut off man and animal from you. <sup>9</sup> The land of Egypt shall be a desolation and a waste; and they shall know that I am Yahweh. Because he has said, 'The river is mine, and I have made it;' <sup>10</sup> therefore, behold, I am against you, and against your rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt an utter waste and desolation, from the tower of Seveveh even to the border of Ethiopia. <sup>11</sup> No foot of man shall pass through it, nor foot of animal shall pass through it, neither shall it be inhabited forty years. <sup>12</sup> I will make the land of Egypt a desolation in the middle of the countries that are desolate; and her cities among the cities that are laid waste shall be a desolation forty years; and I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries." <sup>13</sup> For thus says the Lord Yahweh: "At the end of forty years will I gather the Egyptians from the peoples where they were scattered; <sup>14</sup> and I will bring back the captivity of Egypt, and will cause them to return into the land of Pathros, into the land of their birth; and they shall be there a base kingdom. <sup>15</sup> It shall be the base of the kingdoms; neither shall it any more lift itself up above the nations: and I will diminish them, that they shall no more rule over the nations. <sup>16</sup> It shall be no more the confidence of the house of Israel, bringing iniquity to memory, when they turn to look after them: and they shall know that I am the Lord Yahweh."'" <sup>17</sup> It came to pass in the seven and twentieth year, in the first month, in the first day of the month, Yahweh's word came to me, saying, <sup>18</sup> Son of man, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon caused his army to serve a great service against Tyre: every head was made bald, and every shoulder was worn; yet had he no wages, nor his army, from Tyre, for the service that he had served against it. <sup>19</sup> Therefore thus says the Lord Yahweh: Behold, I will give the land of Egypt to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and he shall carry off her multitude, and take her plunder, and take her prey; and it shall be the wages for his army. <sup>20</sup> I have given him the land of Egypt as his recompense for which he served, because they worked for me, says the Lord Yahweh. <sup>21</sup> In that day will I cause a horn to sprout for the house of Israel, and I will give you the opening of the mouth among them; and they shall know that I am Yahweh.

set a fire in Egypt, and all her helpers are destroyed. <sup>9</sup> In that day shall messengers go out from before me in ships to make the careless Ethiopians afraid; and there shall be anguish on them, as in the day of Egypt; for, behold, it comes. <sup>10</sup> Thus says the Lord Yahweh: I will also make the multitude of Egypt to cease, by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. <sup>11</sup> He and his people with him, the terrible of the nations, shall be brought in to destroy the land; and they shall draw their swords against Egypt, and fill the land with the slain. <sup>12</sup> I will make the rivers dry, and will sell the land into the hand of evil men; and I will make the land desolate, and all that is therein, by the hand of strangers: I, Yahweh, have spoken it. <sup>13</sup> Thus says the Lord Yahweh: I will also destroy the idols, and I will cause the images to cease from Memphis; and there shall be no more a prince from the land of Egypt: and I will put a fear in the land of Egypt. <sup>14</sup> I will make Pathros desolate, and will set a fire in Zoan, and will execute judgments on No. <sup>15</sup> I will pour my wrath on Sin, the stronghold of Egypt; and I will cut off the multitude of No. <sup>16</sup> I will set a fire in Egypt: Sin shall be in great anguish, and No shall be broken up; and Memphis shall have adversaries in the daytime. <sup>17</sup> The young men of Aven and of Pibeseth shall fall by the sword; and they shall go into captivity. <sup>18</sup> At Tehaphnehes also the day shall withdraw itself, when I shall break there the yokes of Egypt, and the pride of her power shall cease in her: as for her, a cloud shall cover her, and her daughters shall go into captivity. <sup>19</sup> Thus will I execute judgments on Egypt; and they shall know that I am

Yahweh. <sup>20</sup> In the eleventh year, in the first month, in the seventh day of the month, Yahweh's word came to me, saying, <sup>21</sup> Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and behold, it has not been bound up, to apply medicines, to put a bandage to bind it, that it be strong to hold the sword. <sup>22</sup> Therefore thus says the Lord Yahweh: Behold, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and will break his arms, the strong arm, and that which was broken; and I will cause the sword to fall out of his hand. <sup>23</sup> I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries. <sup>24</sup> I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and put my sword in his hand: but I will break the arms of Pharaoh, and he shall groan before him with the groaning of a mortally wounded man. <sup>25</sup> I will hold up the arms of the king of Babylon; and the arms of Pharaoh shall fall down; and they shall know that I am Yahweh, when I shall put my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall stretch it out on the land of Egypt. <sup>26</sup> I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and disperse them through the countries; and they shall know that I am Yahweh.

31

made it to grow: its rivers ran all around its plantation; and it sent out its channels to all the trees of the field. <sup>5</sup> Therefore its stature was exalted above all the trees of the field; and its boughs were multiplied, and its branches became long by reason of many waters, when it spread them out. <sup>6</sup> All the birds of the sky made their nests in its boughs; and under its branches all the animals of the field gave birth to their young; and all great nations lived under its shadow. <sup>7</sup> Thus was it beautiful in its greatness, in the length of its branches; for its root was by many waters. <sup>8</sup> The cedars in the garden of God could not hide it; the cypress trees were not like its boughs, and the plane trees were not as its branches; nor was any tree in the garden of God like it in its beauty. <sup>9</sup> I made it beautiful by the multitude of its branches, so that all the trees of Eden, that were in the garden of God, envied it. <sup>10</sup> Therefore thus said the Lord Yahweh: Because you are exalted in stature, and he has set his top among the thick boughs, and his heart is lifted up in his height; <sup>11</sup> I will even deliver him into the hand of the mighty one of the nations; he shall surely deal with him; I have driven him out for his wickedness. <sup>12</sup> Strangers, the terrible of the nations, have cut him off, and have left him: on the mountains and in all the valleys his branches are fallen, and his boughs are broken by all the watercourses of the land; and all the peoples of the earth are gone down from his shadow, and have left him. <sup>13</sup> On his ruin all the birds of the sky shall dwell, and all the animals of the field shall be on his branches; <sup>14</sup> to the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves in their stature, neither set their top among the thick boughs, nor that their mighty ones stand up on their height, even all who drink water: for they are all delivered to death, to the lower parts of the earth, among the children of men, with those who go down to the pit. <sup>15</sup> Thus says the Lord Yahweh: In the day when he went down to Sheol<sup>m</sup> I caused a mourning: I covered the deep for him, and I restrained its rivers; and the great waters were stayed; and I caused Lebanon to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted for him. <sup>16</sup> I made the nations to shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him down to Sheol<sup>n</sup> with those who descend into the pit; and all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, were comforted in the lower parts of the earth. <sup>17</sup> They also went down into Sheol with him to those who are slain by the sword; yes, those who were his arm, who lived under his shadow in the middle of the nations. <sup>18</sup> To whom are you thus like in glory and in greatness among the trees of Eden? yet you will be brought down with the trees of Eden to the lower parts of the earth: you shall lie in the middle of the uncircumcised, with those who are slain by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his multitude, says the Lord Yahweh.

32

waters with your feet, and fouled their rivers. <sup>3</sup> Thus says the Lord Yahweh: I will spread out my net on you with a company of many peoples; and they shall bring you up in my net. <sup>4</sup> I will leave you on the land, I will cast you out on the open field, and will cause all the birds of the sky to settle on you, and I will satisfy the animals of the whole earth with you. <sup>5</sup> I will lay your flesh on the mountains, and fill the valleys with your height. <sup>6</sup> I will also water with your blood the land in which you swim, even to the mountains; and the watercourses shall be full of you. <sup>7</sup> When I shall extinguish you, I will cover the heavens, and make its stars dark; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give its light. <sup>8</sup> All the bright lights of the sky will I make dark over you, and set darkness on your land, says the Lord Yahweh. <sup>9</sup> I will also trouble the hearts of many peoples, when I shall bring your destruction among the nations, into the countries which you have not known. <sup>10</sup> Yes, I will make many peoples amazed at you, and their kings shall be horribly afraid for you, when I shall brandish my sword before them; and they shall tremble at every moment, every man for his own life, in the day of your fall. <sup>11</sup> For thus says the Lord Yahweh: The sword of the king of Babylon shall come on you. <sup>12</sup> By the swords of the mighty will I cause your multitude to fall; the terrible of the nations are they all: and they shall bring to nothing the pride of Egypt, and all its multitude shall be destroyed. <sup>13</sup> I will destroy also all its animals from beside many waters; neither shall the foot of man trouble them any more, nor the hoofs of animals trouble them. <sup>14</sup> Then will I make their waters clear, and cause their rivers to run like oil, says the Lord Yahweh. <sup>15</sup> When I shall make the land of Egypt desolate and waste, a land destitute of that of which it was full, when I shall strike all those who dwell therein, then shall they know that I am Yahweh. <sup>16</sup> This is the lamentation with which they shall lament; the daughters of the nations shall lament therewith; over Egypt, and over all her multitude, shall they lament therewith, says the Lord Yahweh. <sup>17</sup> Also in the twelfth year, in the fifteenth day of the month, Yahweh's word came to me, saying, <sup>18</sup> Son of man, wail for the multitude of Egypt, and cast them down, even her, and the daughters of the famous nations, to the lower parts of the earth, with those who go down into the pit. <sup>19</sup> Whom do you pass in beauty? Go down, and be laid with the uncircumcised. <sup>20</sup> They shall fall among those who are slain by the sword: she is delivered to the sword; draw her away and all her multitudes. <sup>21</sup> The strong among the mighty shall speak to him out of the middle of Sheol <sup>o</sup> with those who help him: they are gone down, they lie still, even the uncircumcised, slain by the sword. <sup>22</sup> Asshur is there and all her company; her graves are all around her; all of them slain, fallen by the sword; <sup>23</sup> whose graves are set in the uttermost parts of the pit, and her company is around her grave; all of them slain, fallen by the sword, who caused terror in the land of the living. <sup>24</sup> There is Elam and all her multitude around her grave; all of them slain, fallen by the sword, who are gone down uncircumcised into the lower parts of the earth, who caused their terror in the land of the living, and have borne their shame with those who go down to the pit. <sup>25</sup> They have set her a bed among the slain with all her multitude; her graves are around her; all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword; for their terror was caused in the land of the living, and they have borne their shame with those who go down to the pit: he is put among those who are slain. <sup>26</sup> There is Meshech, Tubal, and all their multitude; their graves are around them; all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword; for they caused their terror in the land of the living. <sup>27</sup> They shall not lie with the mighty who are fallen of the uncircumcised, who have gone down to Sheol with their weapons of war, and have laid their swords under their heads, and their iniquities are on their bones; for they were the terror of the mighty in the land of the living. <sup>28</sup> But you shall be broken among the uncircumcised, and shall lie with those who are slain by the sword. <sup>29</sup> There is Edom, her kings and all her princes, who in their might are laid with those who are slain by the sword: they shall lie with the uncircumcised, and with those who go down to the pit. <sup>30</sup> There are the princes of the north, all of them, and all the Sidonians, who are gone down with the slain; in the terror which they caused by their might they are put to shame; and they lie uncircumcised with those who are slain by the sword, and bear their shame with those who go down to the pit. <sup>31</sup> Pharaoh shall see them, and shall be comforted over all his multitude, even Pharaoh and all his army, slain by the sword, says the Lord Yahweh. <sup>32</sup> For I have put his terror in the land of the living; and he shall be laid among the uncircumcised, with those who are slain by the sword, even Pharaoh and all his multitude, says the Lord Yahweh.

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh's word came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup> Son of man, speak to the children of your people, and tell them, When I bring the sword on a land, and the people of the land take a man from among them, and set him for their watchman; <sup>3</sup> if, when he sees the sword come on the land, he blow the trumpet, and warn the people; <sup>4</sup> then whoever hears the sound of the trumpet, and doesn't take warning, if the sword come, and take him away, his blood shall be on his own head. <sup>5</sup> He heard the sound of the trumpet, and didn't take warning; his blood shall be on him; whereas if he had taken warning, he would have delivered his soul. <sup>6</sup> But if the watchman sees the sword come, and doesn't blow the trumpet, and the people aren't warned, and the sword comes, and take any person from among them; he is taken away in his iniquity, but his blood will I require at the watchman's hand. <sup>7</sup> So you, son of man, I have set you a watchman to the house of Israel; therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me. <sup>8</sup> When I tell the wicked, O wicked man, you shall surely die, and you don't speak to warn the wicked from his way; that wicked man shall die in his iniquity, but his blood will I require at your hand. <sup>9</sup> Nevertheless, if you warn the wicked of his way to turn from it, and he doesn't turn from his way; he shall die in his iniquity, but you have delivered your soul. <sup>10</sup> You, son of man, tell the house of Israel: Thus you speak, saying, Our transgressions and our sins are on us, and we pine away in them; how then can we live? <sup>11</sup> Tell them, As I live, says the Lord Yahweh, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn, turn from your evil ways; for why will you die, house of Israel? <sup>12</sup> You, son of man, tell the children of your people, The righteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his disobedience; and as for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not fall thereby in the day that he turns from his wickedness; neither shall he who is righteous be able to live thereby in the day that he sins. <sup>13</sup> When I tell the righteous, that he shall surely live; if he trust to his righteousness, and commit iniquity, none of his righteous deeds shall be remembered; but in his iniquity that he has committed, therein shall he die. <sup>14</sup> Again, when I say to the wicked, You shall surely die; if he turn from his sin, and do that which is lawful and right; <sup>15</sup> if the wicked restore the pledge, give again that which he had taken by robbery, walk in the statutes of life, committing no iniquity; he shall surely live, he shall not die. <sup>16</sup> None of his sins that he has committed shall be remembered against him: he has done that which is lawful and right; he shall surely live. <sup>17</sup> Yet the children of your people say, The way of the Lord is not equal: but as for them, their way is not equal. <sup>18</sup> When the righteous turns from his righteousness, and commits iniquity, he shall even die therein. <sup>19</sup> When the wicked turns from his wickedness, and does that which is lawful and right, he shall live thereby. <sup>20</sup> Yet you say, The way of the Lord is not equal. House of Israel, I will judge every one of you after his ways. <sup>21</sup> In the twelfth year of our captivity, in the tenth month, in the fifth day of the month, one who had escaped out of Jerusalem came to me, saying, The city has been struck. <sup>22</sup> Now Yahweh's hand had been on me in the evening, before he who was escaped came; and he had opened my mouth, until he came to me in the morning; and my mouth was opened, and I was no more mute. <sup>23</sup> Yahweh's word came to me, saying, <sup>24</sup> Son of man, they who inhabit those waste places in the land of Israel speak, saying, Abraham was one, and he inherited the land: but we are many; the land is given us for inheritance. <sup>25</sup> Therefore tell them, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: You eat with the blood, and lift up your eyes to your idols, and shed blood: and shall you possess the land? <sup>26</sup> You stand on your sword, you work abomination, and every one of you defiles his neighbor's wife: and shall you possess the land? <sup>27</sup> You shall tell them, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: As I live, surely those who are in the waste places shall fall by the sword; and him who is in the open field will I give to the animals to be devoured; and those who are in the strongholds and in the caves shall die of the pestilence. <sup>28</sup> I will make the land a desolation and an astonishment; and the pride of her power shall cease; and the mountains of Israel shall be desolate, so that no one shall pass through. <sup>29</sup> Then shall they know that I am Yahweh, when I have made the land a desolation and an astonishment, because of all their abominations which they have committed. <sup>30</sup> As for you, son of man, the children of your people talk of you by the walls and in the doors of the houses, and speak to one another, everyone to his brother, saying, Please come and hear what is the word that comes out from Yahweh. <sup>31</sup> They come to you as the people come, and they sit before you as my people, and they hear your words, but don't do them; for with their mouth they show much love, but their heart goes after their gain. <sup>32</sup> Behold, you are to them as a very lovely song of one who has a pleasant voice, and can play well on an instrument; for they hear your words, but they don't do them. <sup>33</sup> When this comes to pass, (behold, it comes), then shall they know that a prophet has been among them.

word: <sup>8</sup> As I live, says the Lord Yahweh, surely because my sheep became a prey, and my sheep became food to all the animals of the field, because there was no shepherd, neither did my shepherds search for my sheep, but the shepherds fed themselves, and didn't feed my sheep; <sup>9</sup> therefore, you shepherds, hear Yahweh's word: <sup>10</sup> Thus says the Lord Yahweh: Behold, I am against the shepherds; and I will require my sheep at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the sheep; neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more; and I will deliver my sheep from their mouth, that they may not be food for them. <sup>11</sup> For thus says the Lord Yahweh: Behold, I myself, even I, will search for my sheep, and will seek them out. <sup>12</sup> As a shepherd seeks out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered abroad, so will I seek out my sheep; and I will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day. <sup>13</sup> I will bring them out from the peoples, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them into their own land; and I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, by the watercourses, and in all the inhabited places of the country. <sup>14</sup> I will feed them with good pasture; and on the mountains of the height of Israel shall their fold be: there shall they lie down in a good fold; and on fat pasture shall they feed on the mountains of Israel. <sup>15</sup> I myself will be the shepherd of my sheep, and I will cause them to lie down, says the Lord Yahweh. <sup>16</sup> I will seek that which was lost, and will bring back that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick: but the fat and the strong I will destroy; I will feed them in justice. <sup>17</sup> As for you, O my flock, thus says the Lord Yahweh: Behold, I judge between sheep and sheep, the rams and the male goats. <sup>18</sup> Does it seem a small thing to you to have fed on the good pasture, but you must tread down with your feet the residue of your pasture? and to have drunk of the clear waters, but you must foul the residue with your feet? <sup>19</sup> As for my sheep, they eat that which you have trodden with your feet, and they drink that which you have fouled with your feet. <sup>20</sup> Therefore thus says the Lord Yahweh to them: Behold, I, even I, will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep. <sup>21</sup> Because you thrust with side and with shoulder, and push all the diseased with your horns, until you have scattered them abroad; <sup>22</sup> therefore will I save my flock, and they shall no more be a prey; and I will judge between sheep and sheep. <sup>23</sup> I will set up one shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, even my servant David; he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd. <sup>24</sup> I, Yahweh, will be their God, and my servant David prince among them; I, Yahweh, have spoken it. <sup>25</sup> I will make with them a covenant of peace, and will cause evil animals to cease out of the land; and they shall dwell securely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods. <sup>26</sup> I will make them and the places around my hill a blessing; and I will cause the shower to come down in its season; there shall be showers of blessing. <sup>27</sup> The tree of the field shall yield its fruit, and the earth shall yield its increase, and they shall be secure in their land; and they shall know that I am Yahweh, when I have broken the bars of their yoke, and have delivered them out of the hand of those who made slaves of them.

<sup>28</sup> They shall no more be a prey to the nations, neither shall the animals of the earth devour them; but they shall dwell securely, and no one shall make them afraid. <sup>29</sup> I will raise up to them a plantation for renown, and they shall be no more consumed with famine in the land, neither bear the shame of the nations any more. <sup>30</sup> They shall know that I, Yahweh, their God am with them, and that they, the house of Israel, are my people, says the Lord Yahweh. <sup>31</sup> You my sheep, the sheep of my pasture, are men, and I am your God, says the Lord Yahweh.

35

valleys and in all your watercourses shall they fall who are slain with the sword. <sup>9</sup> I will make you a perpetual desolation, and your cities shall not be inhabited; and you shall know that I am Yahweh. <sup>10</sup> Because you have said, These two nations and these two countries shall be mine, and we will possess it; whereas Yahweh was there: <sup>11</sup> therefore, as I live, says the Lord Yahweh, I will do according to your anger, and according to your envy which you have shown out of your hatred against them; and I will make myself known among them, when I shall judge you. <sup>12</sup> You shall know that I, Yahweh, have heard all your insults which you have spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, They are laid desolate, they have been given us to devour. <sup>13</sup> You have magnified yourselves against me with your mouth, and have multiplied your words against me: I have heard it. <sup>14</sup> Thus says the Lord Yahweh: When the whole earth rejoices, I will make you desolate. <sup>15</sup> As you rejoiced over the inheritance of the house of Israel, because it was desolate, so will I do to you: you shall be desolate, Mount Seir, and all Edom, even all of it; and they shall know that I am Yahweh.

36

possession to the residue of the nations, and you are taken up in the lips of talkers, and the evil report of the people; <sup>4</sup> therefore, you mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord Yahweh: Thus says the Lord Yahweh to the mountains and to the hills, to the watercourses and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes and to the cities that are forsaken, which are become a prey and derision to the residue of the nations that are all around; <sup>5</sup> therefore thus says the Lord Yahweh: Surely in the fire of my jealousy have I spoken against the residue of the nations, and against all Edom, that have appointed my land to themselves for a possession with the joy of all their heart, with despite of soul, to cast it out for a prey. <sup>6</sup> Therefore prophesy concerning the land of Israel, and tell the mountains and to the hills, to the watercourses and to the valleys, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: Behold, I have spoken in my jealousy and in my wrath, because you have borne the shame of the nations: <sup>7</sup> therefore thus says the Lord Yahweh: I have sworn, Surely the nations that are around you, they shall bear their shame. <sup>8</sup> But you, mountains of Israel, you shall shoot out your branches, and yield your fruit to my people Israel; for they are at hand to come. <sup>9</sup> For, behold, I am for you, and I will turn into you, and you shall be tilled and sown; <sup>10</sup> and I will multiply men on you, all the house of Israel, even all of it; and the cities shall be inhabited, and the waste places shall be built; <sup>11</sup> and I will multiply on you man and animal; and they shall increase and be fruitful; and I will cause you to be inhabited after your former estate, and you will do better than at your beginnings: and you shall know that I am Yahweh. <sup>12</sup> Yes, I will cause men to walk on you, even my people Israel; and they shall possess you, and you shall be their inheritance, and you shall no more henceforth bereave them of children. <sup>13</sup> Thus says the Lord Yahweh: Because they say to you, You are a devourer of men, and have been a bereaver of your nation; <sup>14</sup> therefore you shall devour men no more, neither bereave your nation any more, says the Lord Yahweh; <sup>15</sup> neither will I let you hear any more the shame of the nations, neither shall you bear the reproach of the peoples any more, neither shall you cause your nation to stumble any more, says the Lord Yahweh. <sup>16</sup> Moreover Yahweh's word came to me, saying, <sup>17</sup> Son of man, when the house of Israel lived in their own land, they defiled it by their way and by their doings: their way before me was as the uncleanness of a woman in her impurity. <sup>18</sup> Therefore I poured out my wrath on them for the blood which they had poured out on the land, and because they had defiled it with their idols; <sup>19</sup> and I scattered them among the nations, and they were dispersed through the countries: according to their way and according to their doings I judged them. <sup>20</sup> When they came to the nations, where they went, they profaned my holy name; in that men said of them, These are the people of Yahweh, and are gone out of his land. <sup>21</sup> But I had respect for my holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the nations, where they went. <sup>22</sup> Therefore tell the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: I don't do this for your sake, house of Israel, but for my holy name, which you have profaned among the nations, where you went. <sup>23</sup> I will sanctify

my great name, which has been profaned among the nations, which you have profaned among them; and the nations shall know that I am Yahweh, says the Lord Yahweh, when I shall be sanctified in you before their eyes. <sup>24</sup> For I will take you from among the nations, and gather you out of all the countries, and will bring you into your own land. <sup>25</sup> I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you shall be clean: from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you. <sup>26</sup> I will also give you a new heart, and I will put a new spirit within you; and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you a heart of flesh. <sup>27</sup> I will put my Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and you shall keep my ordinances, and do them. <sup>28</sup> You shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; and you shall be my people, and I will be your God. <sup>29</sup> I will save you from all your uncleanness: and I will call for the grain, and will multiply it, and lay no famine on you. <sup>30</sup> I will multiply the fruit of the tree, and the increase of the field, that you may receive no more the reproach of famine among the nations. <sup>31</sup> Then you shall remember your evil ways, and your doings that were not good; and you shall loathe yourselves in your own sight for your iniquities and for your abominations. <sup>32</sup> Nor for your sake do I this, says the Lord Yahweh, be it known to you: be ashamed and confounded for your ways, house of Israel. <sup>33</sup> Thus says the Lord Yahweh: In the day that I cleanse you from all your iniquities, I will cause the cities to be inhabited, and the waste places shall be built. <sup>34</sup> The land that was desolate shall be tilled, whereas it was a desolation in the sight of all who passed by. <sup>35</sup> They shall say, This land that was desolate has become like the garden of Eden; and the waste and desolate and ruined cities are fortified and inhabited. <sup>36</sup> Then the nations that are left around you shall know that I, Yahweh, have built the ruined places, and planted that which was desolate: I, Yahweh, have spoken it, and I will do it. <sup>37</sup> Thus says the Lord Yahweh: For this, moreover, will I be inquired of by the house of Israel, to do it for them: I will increase them with men like a flock. <sup>38</sup> As the flock for sacrifice, as the flock of Jerusalem in her appointed feasts, so shall the waste cities be filled with flocks of men; and they shall know that I am Yahweh.

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh's hand was on me, and he brought me out in Yahweh's Spirit, and set me down in the middle of the valley; and it was full of bones. <sup>2</sup> He caused me to pass by them all around: and behold, there were very many in the open valley; and behold, they were very dry. <sup>3</sup> He said to me, Son of man, can these bones live? I answered, Lord Yahweh, you know. <sup>4</sup> Again he said to me, Prophesy over these bones, and tell them, you dry bones, hear Yahweh's word. <sup>5</sup> Thus says the Lord Yahweh to these bones: Behold, I will cause breath to enter into you, and you shall live. <sup>6</sup> I will lay sinews on you, and will bring up flesh on you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and you shall live; and you shall know that I am Yahweh. <sup>7</sup> So I prophesied as I was commanded: and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold, an earthquake; and the bones came together, bone to its bone. <sup>8</sup> I saw, and, behold, there were sinews on them, and flesh came up, and skin covered them above; but there was no breath in them. <sup>9</sup> Then he said to me, Prophecy to the wind, prophecy, son of man, and tell the wind, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: Come from the four winds, breath, and breathe on these slain, that they may live. <sup>10</sup> So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up on their feet, an exceedingly great army. <sup>11</sup> Then he said to me, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: behold, they say, Our bones are dried up, and our hope is lost; we are clean cut off. <sup>12</sup> Therefore prophecy, and tell them, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: Behold, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, my people; and I will bring you into the land of Israel. <sup>13</sup> You shall know that I am Yahweh, when I have opened your graves, and caused you to come up out of your graves, my people. <sup>14</sup> I will put my Spirit in you, and you shall live, and I will place you in your own land: and you shall know that I, Yahweh, have spoken it and performed it, says Yahweh. <sup>15</sup> Yahweh's word came again to me, saying, <sup>16</sup> You, son of man, take one stick, and write on it, For Judah, and for the children of Israel his companions: then take another stick, and write on it, For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim, and for all the house of Israel his companions: <sup>17</sup> and join them for you to one another into one stick, that they may become one in your hand. <sup>18</sup> When the children of your people shall speak to you, saying, Will you not show us what you mean by these? <sup>19</sup> tell them, Thus says the

Lord Yahweh: Behold, I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel his companions; and I will put them with it, with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick, and they shall be one in my hand. <sup>20</sup> The sticks whereon you write shall be in your hand before their eyes. <sup>21</sup> Say to them, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: Behold, I will take the children of Israel from among the nations, where they are gone, and will gather them on every side, and bring them into their own land: <sup>22</sup> and I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel; and one king shall be king to them all; and they shall be no more two nations, neither shall they be divided into two kingdoms any more at all; <sup>23</sup> neither shall they defile themselves any more with their idols, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions; but I will save them out of all their dwelling places, in which they have sinned, and will cleanse them: so shall they be my people, and I will be their God. <sup>24</sup> My servant David shall be king over them; and they all shall have one shepherd: they shall also walk in my ordinances, and observe my statutes, and do them. <sup>25</sup> They shall dwell in the land that I have given to Jacob my servant, in which your fathers lived; and they shall dwell therein, they, and their children, and their children's children, forever: and David my servant shall be their prince for ever. <sup>26</sup> Moreover I will make a covenant of peace with them; it shall be an everlasting covenant with them; and I will place them, and multiply them, and will set my sanctuary among them forever more. <sup>27</sup> My tent also shall be with them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

the land of unwalled villages; I will go to those who are at rest, who dwell securely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having neither bars nor gates; <sup>12</sup> to take the plunder and to take the prey; to turn your hand against the waste places that are inhabited, and against the people who are gathered out of the nations, who have gotten livestock and goods, who dwell in the middle of the earth. <sup>13</sup> Sheba, and Dedan, and the merchants of Tarshish, with all the young lions of it, shall tell you, Have you come to take the plunder? have you assembled your company to take the prey? to carry away silver and gold, to take away livestock and goods, to take great plunder? <sup>14</sup> Therefore, son of man, prophesy, and tell Gog, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: In that day when my people Israel dwells securely, shall you not know it? <sup>15</sup> You shall come from your place out of the uttermost parts of the north, you, and many peoples with you, all of them riding on horses, a great company and a mighty army; <sup>16</sup> and you shall come up against my people Israel, as a cloud to cover the land: it shall happen in the latter days, that I will bring you against my land, that the nations may know me, when I shall be sanctified in you, Gog, before their eyes. <sup>17</sup> Thus says the Lord Yahweh: Are you he of whom I spoke in old time by my servants the prophets of Israel, who prophesied in those days for years that I would bring you against them? <sup>18</sup> It shall happen in that day, when Gog shall come against the land of Israel, says the Lord Yahweh, that my wrath shall come up into my nostrils. <sup>19</sup> For in my jealousy and in the fire of my wrath have I spoken, Surely in that day there shall be a great shaking in the land of Israel; <sup>20</sup>

so that the fish of the sea, and the birds of the sky, and the animals of the field, and all creeping things who creep on the earth, and all the men who are on the surface of the earth, shall shake at my presence, and the mountains shall be thrown down, and the steep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground. <sup>21</sup> I will call for a sword against him to all my mountains, says the Lord Yahweh: every man's sword shall be against his brother. <sup>22</sup> With pestilence and with blood will I enter into judgment with him; and I will rain on him, and on his hordes, and on the many peoples who are with him, an overflowing shower, and great hailstones, fire, and sulfur. <sup>23</sup> I will magnify myself, and sanctify myself, and I will make myself known in the eyes of many nations; and they shall know that I am Yahweh.

<sup>1</sup> You, son of man, prophesy against Gog, and say, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: Behold, I am against you, Gog, prince of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal: <sup>2</sup> and I will turn you around, and will lead you on, and will cause you to come up from the uttermost parts of the north; and I will bring you on the mountains of Israel; <sup>3</sup> and I will strike your bow out of your left hand, and will cause your arrows to fall out of your right hand. <sup>4</sup> You shall fall on the mountains of Israel, you, and all your hordes, and the peoples who are with you: I will give you to the ravenous birds of every sort, and to the animals of the field to be devoured. <sup>5</sup> You shall fall on the open field; for I have spoken it, says the Lord Yahweh. <sup>6</sup> I will send a fire on Magog, and on those who dwell securely in the islands; and they shall know that I am Yahweh. <sup>7</sup> My holy name will I make known among my people Israel; neither will I allow my holy name to be profaned any more: and the nations shall know that I am Yahweh, the Holy One in Israel. <sup>8</sup> Behold, it comes, and it shall be done, says the Lord Yahweh; this is the day about which I have spoken. <sup>9</sup> Those who dwell in the cities of Israel shall go out, and shall make fires of the weapons and burn them, both the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the war clubs, and the spears, and they shall make fires of them seven years; <sup>10</sup> so that they shall take no wood out of the field, neither cut down any out of the forests; for they shall make fires of the weapons; and they shall plunder those who plundered them, and rob those who robbed them, says the Lord Yahweh. <sup>11</sup> It shall happen in that day, that I will give to Gog a place for burial in Israel, the valley of those who pass through on the east of the sea; and it shall stop those who pass through: and there shall they bury Gog and all his multitude; and they shall call it The valley of Hamon Gog. <sup>12</sup> Seven months shall the house of Israel be burying them, that they may cleanse the land. <sup>13</sup> Yes, all the people of the land shall bury them; and it shall be to them a renown in the day that I shall be glorified, says the Lord Yahweh. <sup>14</sup> They shall set apart men of continual employment, who shall pass through the land, and, with those who pass through, those who bury those who remain on the surface of the land, to cleanse it: after the end of seven months shall they search. <sup>15</sup> Those who pass through the land shall pass through; and when any sees a man's bone, then shall he set up a sign by it, until the undertakers have buried it in the valley of Hamon Gog. <sup>16</sup> Hamonah shall also be the name of a city. Thus shall they cleanse the land. <sup>17</sup> You, son of man, thus says the Lord Yahweh: Speak to the birds of every sort, and to every animal of the field, Assemble yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to my sacrifice that I do sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice on the mountains of Israel, that you may eat flesh and drink blood. <sup>18</sup> You shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams, of lambs, and of goats, of bulls, all of them fatlings of Bashan. <sup>19</sup> You shall eat fat until you be full, and drink blood until you are drunk, of my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you. <sup>20</sup> You shall be filled at my table with horses and chariots, with mighty men, and with all men of war, says the Lord Yahweh. <sup>21</sup> I will set my glory among the nations; and all the nations shall see my judgment that I have executed, and my hand that I have laid on them. <sup>22</sup> So the house of Israel shall know that I am Yahweh their God, from that day and forward. <sup>23</sup> The nations shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity; because they trespassed against me, and I hid my face from them: so I gave them into the hand of their adversaries, and they fell all of them by the sword. <sup>24</sup> According to their uncleanness and according to their transgressions did I do to them; and I hid my face from them. <sup>25</sup> Therefore thus says the Lord Yahweh: Now will I bring back the captivity of Jacob, and have mercy on the whole house of Israel; and I will be jealous for my holy name. <sup>26</sup> They shall bear their shame, and all their trespasses by which they have trespassed against me, when they shall dwell securely in their land, and no one shall make them afraid; <sup>27</sup> when I have brought them back from the peoples, and gathered them out of their enemies' lands, and am sanctified in them in the sight of many nations. <sup>28</sup> They shall know that I am Yahweh their God, in that I caused them to go into captivity among the nations, and have gathered them to their own land; and I will leave none of them any more there; <sup>29</sup> neither will I hide my face any more from them; for I have poured out my Spirit on the house of Israel, says the Lord Yahweh.

<sup>1</sup> In the twenty-fifth year of our captivity, in the beginning of the year, in the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after that the city was struck, in the same day, Yahweh's hand was on me, and he brought me there. <sup>2</sup> In the visions of God brought he me into the land of Israel, and set me down on a very high mountain, whereon was as it were the frame of a city on the south. <sup>3</sup> He brought me there; and, behold, there was a man, whose appearance was like the appearance of brass, with a line of flax in his hand, and a measuring reed; and he stood in the gate. <sup>4</sup> The man said to me, Son of man, see with your eyes, and hear with your ears, and set your heart on all that I shall show you; for, to the intent that I may show them to you, you are brought here: declare all that you see to the house of Israel. <sup>5</sup> Behold, a wall on the outside of the house all around, and in the man's hand a measuring reed six cubits<sup>P</sup> long, of a cubit and a hand width each: so he measured the thickness of the building,

one reed; and the height, one reed. <sup>6</sup> Then came he to the gate which looks toward the east, and went up its steps: and he measured the threshold of the gate, one reed wide; and the other threshold, one reed wide. <sup>7</sup> Every lodge was one reed long, and one reed wide; and between the lodges was five cubits; and the threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate toward the house was one reed. <sup>8</sup> He measured also the porch of the gate toward the house, one reed. <sup>9</sup> Then measured he the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and its posts, two cubits; and the porch of the gate was toward the house. <sup>10</sup> The lodges of the gate eastward were three on this side, and three on that side; they three were of one measure: and the posts had one measure on this side and on that side. <sup>11</sup> He measured the width of the opening of the gate, ten cubits; and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits; <sup>12</sup> and a border before the lodges, one cubit on this side, and a border, one cubit on that side; and the lodges, six cubits on this side, and six cubits on that side. <sup>13</sup> He measured the gate from the roof of the one lodge to the roof of the other, a width of twenty-five cubits; door against door. <sup>14</sup> He made also posts, sixty cubits; and the court reached to the posts, around the gate. <sup>15</sup> From the forefront of the gate at the entrance to the forefront of the inner porch of the gate were fifty cubits. <sup>16</sup> There were closed windows to the lodges, and to their posts within the gate all around, and likewise to the arches; and windows were around inward; and on each post were palm trees. <sup>17</sup> Then brought he me into the outer court; and behold, there were rooms and a

pavement, made for the court all around: thirty rooms were on the pavement. <sup>18</sup> The pavement was by the side of the gates, answerable to the length of the gates, even the lower pavement. <sup>19</sup> Then he measured the width from the forefront of the lower gate to the forefront of the inner court outside, one hundred cubits, both on the east and on the north. <sup>20</sup> The gate of the outer court whose prospect is toward the north, he measured its length and its width. <sup>21</sup> The lodges of it were three on this side and three on that side; and its posts and its arches were after the measure of the first gate: its length was fifty cubits, and the width twenty-five cubits. <sup>22</sup> The windows of it, and its arches, and the palm trees of it, were after the measure of the gate whose prospect is toward the east; and they went up to it by seven steps; and its arches were before them. <sup>23</sup> There was a gate to the inner court facing the other gate, on the north and on the east; and he measured from gate to gate one hundred cubits. <sup>24</sup> He led me toward the south; and behold, a gate toward the south: and he measured its posts and its arches according to these measurements. <sup>25</sup> There were windows in it and in its arches all around, like those windows: the length was fifty cubits, and the width twenty-five cubits. <sup>26</sup> There were seven steps to go up to it, and its arches were before them; and it had palm trees, one on this side, and another on that side, on its posts. <sup>27</sup> There was a gate to the inner court toward the south: and he measured from gate to gate toward the south a hundred cubits. <sup>28</sup> Then he brought me to the inner court by the south gate: and he measured the south gate according to these measurements; <sup>29</sup> and its lodges, and its posts, and its arches, according to these measurements: and there were windows in it and in its arches all around; it was fifty cubits long, and twenty-five cubits wide. <sup>30</sup> There were arches all around, twenty-five cubits long, and five cubits wide. <sup>31</sup> The arches of it were toward the outer court; and palm trees were on its posts: and the ascent to it had eight steps. <sup>32</sup> He brought me into the inner court toward the east: and he measured the gate according to these measurements; <sup>33</sup> and its lodges, and its posts, and its arches, according to these measurements: and there were windows therein and in its arches all around; it was fifty cubits long, and twenty-five cubits wide. <sup>34</sup> The arches of it were toward the outer court; and palm trees were on its posts, on this side, and on that side: and the ascent to it had eight steps. <sup>35</sup> He brought me to the north gate: and he measured it according to these measurements; <sup>36</sup> its lodges, its posts, and its arches: and there were windows therein all around; the length was fifty cubits, and the width twenty-five cubits. <sup>37</sup> The posts of it were toward the outer court; and palm trees were on its posts, on this side, and on that side: and the ascent to it had eight steps. <sup>38</sup> A room with its door was by the posts at the gates; there they washed the burnt offering. <sup>39</sup> In the porch of the gate were two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, on which to kill the burnt offering, the sin offering, and the trespass offering. <sup>40</sup> On the one side outside, as one goes up to the entry of the gate toward the north, were two tables; and on the other side, which belonged to the porch of the gate, were two tables. <sup>41</sup> Four tables were on this side, and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate; eight tables, whereupon they killed the sacrifices. <sup>42</sup> There were four tables for the burnt offering, of cut stone, a cubit and a half long, and a cubit and a half wide, and one cubit high; whereupon they laid the instruments with which they killed the burnt offering and the sacrifice. <sup>43</sup> The hooks, a hand width long, were fastened within all around: and on the tables was the flesh of the offering. <sup>44</sup> Outside of the inner gate were rooms for the singers in the inner court, which was at the side of the north gate; and their prospect was toward the south; one at the side of the east gate having the prospect toward the north. <sup>45</sup> He said to me, This room, whose prospect is toward the south, is for the priests, the keepers of the duty of the house; <sup>46</sup> and the room whose prospect is toward the north is for the priests, the keepers of the duty of the altar: these are the sons of Zadok, who from among the sons of Levi come near to Yahweh to minister to him. <sup>47</sup> He measured the court, one hundred cubits long, and a hundred cubits wide, square; and the altar was before the house. <sup>48</sup> Then he brought me to the porch of the house, and measured each post of the porch, five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side: and the width of the gate was three cubits on this side, and three cubits on that side. <sup>49</sup> The length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the width eleven cubits; even by the steps by which they went up to it: and there were pillars by the posts, one on this side, and another on that side.

<sup>1</sup> He brought me to the temple, and measured the posts, six cubits wide on the one side, and six cubits wide on the other side, which was the width of the tent. <sup>2</sup> The width of the entrance was ten cubits;<sup>9</sup> and the sides of the entrance were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side: and he measured its length, forty cubits, and the width, twenty cubits. <sup>3</sup> Then went he inward, and measured each post of the entrance, two cubits; and the entrance, six cubits; and the width of the entrance, seven cubits. <sup>4</sup> He measured its length, twenty cubits, and the width, twenty cubits, before the temple: and he said to me, This is the most holy place. <sup>5</sup> Then he measured the wall of the house, six cubits; and the width of every side room, four cubits, all around the house on every side. <sup>6</sup> The side rooms were in three stories, one over another, and thirty in order; and they entered into the wall which belonged to the house for the side rooms all around, that they might be supported, and not penetrate the wall of the house. <sup>7</sup> The side rooms were wider on the higher levels, because the walls were narrower at the higher levels. Therefore the width of the house increased upward; and so one went up from the lowest level to the highest through the middle level. <sup>8</sup> I saw also that the house had a raised base all around: the foundations of the side rooms were a full reed of six great cubits. <sup>9</sup> The thickness of the wall, which was for the side rooms, on the outside, was five cubits: and that which was left was the place of the side rooms that belonged to the house. <sup>10</sup> Between the rooms was a width of twenty cubits around the house on every side. <sup>11</sup> The doors of the side rooms were toward an open area that was left, one door toward the north, and another door toward the south. The width of the open area was five cubits all around. <sup>12</sup> The building that was before the separate place at the side toward the west was seventy cubits wide; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick all around, and its length ninety cubits. <sup>13</sup> So he measured the house, one hundred cubits long; and the separate place, and the building, with its walls, one hundred cubits long; <sup>14</sup> also the width of the face of the house, and of the separate place toward the east, one hundred cubits. <sup>15</sup> He measured the length of the building before the separate place which was at its back, and its galleries on the one side and on the other side, one hundred cubits; and the inner temple, and the porches of the court; <sup>16</sup> the thresholds, and the closed windows, and the galleries around on their three stories, over against the threshold, with wood ceilings all around, and from the ground up to the windows, (now the windows were covered), <sup>17</sup> to the space above the door, even to the inner house, and outside, and by all the wall all around inside and outside, by measure. <sup>18</sup> It was made with cherubim and palm trees; and a palm tree was between cherub and cherub, and every cherub had two faces; <sup>19</sup> so that there was the face of a man toward the palm tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm tree on the other side. It was made like this through all the house all around: <sup>20</sup> from the ground to above the door were cherubim and palm trees made: thus was the wall of the temple. <sup>21</sup> As for the temple, the door posts were squared; and as for the face of the sanctuary, its appearance was as the appearance of the temple. <sup>22</sup> The altar was of wood, three cubits high, and its length two cubits; and its corners, and its length, and its walls, were of wood: and he said to me, This is the table that is before Yahweh. <sup>23</sup> The temple and the sanctuary had two doors. <sup>24</sup> The doors had two leaves each, two turning leaves: two for the one door, and two leaves for the other. <sup>25</sup> There were made on them, on the doors of the temple, cherubim and palm trees, like as were made on the walls; and there was a threshold of wood on the face of the porch outside. <sup>26</sup> There were closed windows and palm trees on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of the porch: thus were the side rooms of the house, and the thresholds.

in the building. <sup>6</sup> For they were in three stories, and they didn't have pillars as the pillars of the courts: therefore the uppermost was set back more than the lowest and the middle from the ground. <sup>7</sup> The wall that was outside by the side of the rooms, toward the outer court before the rooms, its length was fifty cubits. <sup>8</sup> For the length of the rooms that were in the outer court was fifty cubits: and behold, before the temple were one hundred cubits. <sup>9</sup> From under these rooms was the entry on the east side, as one goes into them from the outer court. <sup>10</sup> In the thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, before the separate place, and before the building, there were rooms. <sup>11</sup> The way before them was like the appearance of the rooms which were toward the north; according to their length so was their width: and all their exits were both according to their fashions, and according to their doors. <sup>12</sup> According to the doors of the rooms that were toward the south was a door at the head of the way, even the way directly before the wall toward the east, as one enters into them. <sup>13</sup> Then he said to me, The north rooms and the south rooms, which are before the separate place, they are the holy rooms, where the priests who are near to Yahweh shall eat the most holy things: there shall they lay the most holy things, and the meal offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering; for the place is holy. <sup>14</sup> When the priests enter in, then shall they not go out of the holy place into the outer court, but there they shall lay their garments in which they minister; for they are holy: and they shall put on other garments, and shall approach to that which is for the people. <sup>15</sup> Now when he had finished measuring the inner house, he brought me out by the way of the gate whose prospect is toward the east, and measured it all around. <sup>16</sup> He measured on the east side with the measuring reed five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed all around. <sup>17</sup> He measured on the north side five hundred reeds with the measuring reed all around. <sup>18</sup> He measured on the south side five hundred reeds with the measuring reed. <sup>19</sup> He turned about to the west side, and measured five hundred reeds with the measuring reed. <sup>20</sup> He measured it on the four sides: it had a wall around it, the length five hundred, and the width five hundred, to make a separation between that which was holy and that which was common.

43

Son of man, this is the place of my throne, and the place of the soles of my feet, where I will dwell among the children of Israel forever. The house of Israel shall no more defile my holy name, neither they, nor their kings, by their prostitution, and by the dead bodies of their kings in their high places; <sup>8</sup> in their setting of their threshold by my threshold, and their door post beside my door post, and there was a wall between me and them; and they have defiled my holy name by their abominations which they have committed: therefore I have consumed them in my anger. <sup>9</sup> Now let them put away their prostitution, and the dead bodies of their kings, far from me; and I will dwell among them forever. <sup>10</sup> You, son of man, show the house to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities; and let them measure the pattern. <sup>11</sup> If they be ashamed of all that they have done, make known to them the form of the house, and its fashion, and its exits, and its entrances, and all its forms, and all its ordinances, and all its forms, and all its laws; and write it in their sight; that they may keep the whole form of it, and all its ordinances, and do them. <sup>12</sup> This is the law of the house: on the top of the mountain the whole limit around it shall be most holy. Behold, this is the law of the house. <sup>13</sup> These are the measurements of the altar by cubits (the cubit<sup>s</sup> is a cubit and a hand width): the bottom shall be a cubit, and the width a cubit, and its border around its edge a span;<sup>t</sup> and this shall be the base of the altar. <sup>14</sup> From the bottom on the ground to the lower ledge shall be two cubits, and the width one cubit; and from the lesser ledge to the greater ledge shall be four cubits, and the width a cubit. <sup>15</sup> The upper altar shall be four cubits; and from the altar hearth and upward there shall be four horns. <sup>16</sup> The altar hearth shall be twelve cubits long by twelve wide, square in its four sides. <sup>17</sup> The ledge shall be fourteen cubits long by fourteen wide in its four sides; and the border about it shall be half a cubit; and its bottom shall be a cubit around; and its steps shall look toward the east. <sup>18</sup> He said to me, Son of man, thus says the Lord Yahweh: These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they shall make it, to offer burnt offerings on it, and to sprinkle blood on it. <sup>19</sup> You shall give to the priests the Levites who are of the offspring<sup>u</sup> of Zadok, who are near to me, to minister to me, says the Lord Yahweh, a young bull for a sin offering. <sup>20</sup> You shall take of its blood, and put it on the four horns of it, and on the four corners of the ledge, and on the border all around: thus you shall cleanse it and make atonement for it. <sup>21</sup> You shall also take the bull of the sin offering, and it shall be burned in the appointed place of the house, outside of the sanctuary. <sup>22</sup> On the second day you shall offer a male goat without defect for a sin offering; and they shall cleanse the altar, as they cleansed it with the bull. <sup>23</sup> When you have finished cleansing it, you shall offer a young bull without defect, and a ram out of the flock without defect. <sup>24</sup> You shall bring them near to Yahweh, and the priests shall cast salt on them, and they shall offer them up for a burnt offering to Yahweh. <sup>25</sup> Seven days you shall prepare every day a goat for a sin offering: they shall also prepare a young bull, and a ram out of the flock, without defect. <sup>26</sup> Seven days shall they make atonement for the altar and purify it; so shall they consecrate it. <sup>27</sup> When they have accomplished the days, it shall be that on the eighth day, and forward, the priests shall make your burnt offerings on the altar, and your peace offerings; and I will accept you, says the Lord Yahweh.

44

<sup>1</sup> Then he brought me back by the way of the outer gate of the sanctuary, which looks toward the east; and it was shut. <sup>2</sup> Yahweh said to me, This gate shall be shut; it shall not be opened, neither shall any man enter in by it; for Yahweh, the God of Israel, has entered in by it; therefore it shall be shut. <sup>3</sup> As for the prince, he shall sit therein as prince to eat bread before Yahweh; he shall enter by the way of the porch of the gate, and shall go out by the way of the same. <sup>4</sup> Then he brought me by the way of the north gate before the house; and I looked, and behold, Yahweh's glory filled Yahweh's house: and I fell on my face. <sup>5</sup> Yahweh said to me, Son of man, mark well, and see with your eyes, and hear with your ears all that I tell you concerning all the ordinances of Yahweh's house, and all its laws; and mark well the entrance of the house, with every exit of the sanctuary. <sup>6</sup> You shall tell the rebellious, even to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: you house of Israel, let it suffice you of all your abominations, <sup>7</sup> in that you have brought in foreigners, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my sanctuary, to profane it, even my house, when you offer my bread, the fat and the blood, and they have broken my covenant, to add to all your abominations. <sup>8</sup> You have not performed the duty of my holy things; but you have set performers of my duty in my sanctuary for yourselves. <sup>9</sup> Thus says the Lord Yahweh, No foreigner, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into my sanctuary, of any foreigners who are among the children of Israel. <sup>10</sup> But the Levites who went far from me, when Israel went astray, who went astray from me after their idols, they shall bear their iniquity. <sup>11</sup> Yet they shall be ministers in my sanctuary, having oversight at the gates of the house, and ministering in the house: they shall kill the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister to them. <sup>12</sup> Because they ministered to them before their idols, and became a stumbling block of iniquity to the house of Israel; therefore have I lifted up my hand against them, says the Lord Yahweh, and they shall bear their iniquity. <sup>13</sup> They shall not come near to me, to execute the office of priest to me, nor to come near to any of my holy things, to the things that are most holy; but they shall bear their shame, and their abominations which they have committed. <sup>14</sup> Yet will I make them performers of the duty of the house, for all its service, and for all that shall be done therein. <sup>15</sup> But the priests the Levites, the sons of Zadok, who performed the duty of my sanctuary when the children of Israel went astray from me, they shall come near to me to minister to me; and they shall stand before me to offer to me the fat and the blood, says the Lord Yahweh: <sup>16</sup> they shall enter into my sanctuary, and they shall come near to my table, to minister to me, and they shall keep my instruction. <sup>17</sup> It shall be that, when they enter in at the gates of the inner court, they shall be clothed with linen garments; and no wool shall come on them, while they minister in the gates of the inner court, and within. <sup>18</sup> They shall have linen tires on their heads, and shall have linen breeches on their waists; they shall not clothe themselves with anything that makes them sweat. <sup>19</sup> When they go out into the outer court, even into the outer court to the people, they shall put off their garments in which they minister, and lay them in the holy rooms; and they shall put on other garments, that they not sanctify the people with their garments. <sup>20</sup> Neither shall they shave their heads, nor allow their locks to grow long; they shall only cut off the hair of their heads. <sup>21</sup> Neither shall any of the priests drink wine, when they enter into the inner court. <sup>22</sup> Neither shall they take for their wives a widow, nor her who is put away; but they shall take virgins of the offspring<sup>v</sup> of the house of Israel, or a widow who is the widow of a priest. <sup>23</sup> They shall teach my people the difference between the holy and the common, and cause them to discern between the unclean and the clean. <sup>24</sup> In a controversy they shall stand to judge; according to my ordinances shall they judge it: and they shall keep my laws and my statutes in all my appointed feasts; and they shall make my Sabbaths holy. <sup>25</sup> They shall go in to no dead person to defile themselves; but for father, or for mother, or for son, or for daughter, for brother, or for sister who has had no husband, they may defile themselves. <sup>26</sup>

After he is cleansed, they shall reckon to him seven days. <sup>27</sup> In the day that he goes into the sanctuary, into the inner court, to minister in the sanctuary, he shall offer his sin offering, says the Lord Yahweh. <sup>28</sup> They shall have an inheritance: I am their inheritance; and you shall give them no possession in Israel; I am their possession. <sup>29</sup> They shall eat the meal offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering; and every devoted thing in Israel shall be theirs. <sup>30</sup> The first of all the first fruits of every thing, and every offering of everything, of all your offerings, shall be for the priest: you shall also give to the priests the first of your dough, to cause a blessing to rest on your house. <sup>31</sup> The priests shall not eat of anything that dies of itself, or is torn, whether it is bird or animal.

45

<sup>1</sup> Moreover, when you shall divide by lot the land for inheritance, you shall offer an offering to Yahweh, a holy portion of the land; the length shall be the length of twenty-five thousand reeds, and the width shall be ten thousand: it shall be holy in all its border all around. <sup>2</sup> Of this there shall be a five hundred by five hundred square for the holy place; and fifty cubits<sup>w</sup> for its suburbs all around. <sup>3</sup> Of this measure you shall measure a length of twenty-five thousand, and a width of ten thousand: and in it shall be the sanctuary, which is most holy. <sup>4</sup> It is a holy portion of the land; it shall be for the priests, the ministers of the sanctuary, who come near to minister to Yahweh; and it shall be a place for their houses, and a holy place for the sanctuary. <sup>5</sup>

Twenty-five thousand in length, and ten thousand in width, shall be to the Levites, the ministers of the house, for a possession to themselves, for twenty rooms. <sup>6</sup> You shall appoint the possession of the city five thousand wide, and twenty-five thousand long, side by side with the offering of the holy portion: it shall be for the whole house of Israel. <sup>7</sup> What is for the prince shall be on the one side and on the other side of the holy offering and of the possession of the city, in front of the holy offering and in front of the possession of the city, on the west side westward, and on the east side eastward; and in length answerable to one of the portions, from the west border to the east border. <sup>8</sup> In the land it shall be to him for a possession in Israel: and my princes shall no more oppress my people; but they shall give the land to the house of Israel according to their tribes. <sup>9</sup> Thus says the Lord Yahweh: Let it suffice you, princes of Israel: remove violence and plunder, and execute justice and righteousness; dispossessing my people, says the Lord Yahweh. <sup>10</sup> You shall have just balances, and a just ephah,<sup>x</sup> and a just bath. <sup>11</sup> The ephah and the bath shall be of one measure, that the bath may contain one tenth of a homer,<sup>y</sup> and the ephah one tenth of a homer: its measure shall be after the homer. <sup>12</sup> The shekel<sup>z</sup> shall be twenty gerahs.<sup>a</sup> Twenty shekels plus twenty-five shekels plus fifteen shekels shall be your mina.<sup>b</sup> <sup>13</sup> This is the offering that you shall offer: the sixth part of an ephah from a homer of wheat; and you shall give the sixth part of an ephah from a homer of barley; <sup>14</sup> and the set portion of oil, of the bath of oil, one tenth of a bath out of the cor, which is ten baths, even a homer; (for ten baths are a homer;)<sup>c</sup> <sup>15</sup> and one lamb of the flock, out of two hundred, from the well-watered pastures of Israel—for a meal offering, and for a burnt offering, and for peace offerings, to make atonement for them, says the Lord Yahweh. <sup>16</sup> All the people of the land shall give to this offering for the prince in Israel. <sup>17</sup> It shall be the prince's part to give the burnt offerings, and the meal offerings, and the drink offerings, in the feasts, and on the new moons, and on the Sabbaths, in all the appointed feasts of the house of Israel: he shall prepare the sin offering, and the meal offering, and the burnt offering, and the peace offerings, to make atonement for the house of Israel. <sup>18</sup> Thus says the Lord Yahweh: In the first month, in the first day of the month, you shall take a young bull without defect; and you shall cleanse the sanctuary. <sup>19</sup> The priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering, and put it on the door posts of the house, and on the four corners of the ledge of the altar, and on the posts of the gate of the inner court. <sup>20</sup> So you shall do on the seventh day of the month for everyone who errs, and for him who is simple: so you shall make atonement for the house. <sup>21</sup> In the first month, in the fourteenth day of the month, you shall have the Passover, a feast of seven days; unleavened bread shall be eaten. <sup>22</sup> On that day shall the prince prepare for himself and for all the people of the land a bull for a sin offering. <sup>23</sup> The seven days of the feast he shall prepare a burnt offering to Yahweh, seven bulls and seven rams without defect daily the seven days; and a male goat daily for a sin offering. <sup>24</sup> He shall prepare a meal offering, an ephah<sup>d</sup> for a bull, and an ephah for a ram, and a hin of oil to an ephah. <sup>25</sup> In the seventh month, in the fifteenth day of the month, in the feast, shall he do the like the seven days; according to the sin offering, according to the burnt offering, and according to the meal offering, and according to the oil.

lambs according as he is able, and a hin of oil to an ephah. <sup>8</sup> When the prince shall enter, he shall go in by the way of the porch of the gate, and he shall go out by its way. <sup>9</sup> But when the people of the land shall come before Yahweh in the appointed feasts, he who enters by the way of the north gate to worship shall go out by the way of the south gate; and he who enters by the way of the south gate shall go out by the way of the north gate: he shall not return by the way of the gate by which he came in, but shall go out straight before him. <sup>10</sup> The prince, when they go in, shall go in with of them; and when they go out, he shall go out. <sup>11</sup> In the feasts and in the solemnities the meal offering shall be an ephah <sup>f</sup> for a bull, and an ephah for a ram, and for the lambs as he is able to give, and a hin of oil to an ephah. <sup>12</sup> When the prince shall prepare a freewill offering, a burnt offering or peace offerings as a freewill offering to Yahweh, one shall open for him the gate that looks toward the east; and he shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, as he does on the Sabbath day: then he shall go out; and after his going out one shall shut the gate. <sup>13</sup> You shall prepare a lamb a year old without defect for a burnt offering to Yahweh daily: morning by morning you shall prepare it. <sup>14</sup> You shall prepare a meal offering with it morning by morning, the sixth part of an ephah,<sup>g</sup> and the third part of a hin of oil, to moisten the fine flour; a meal offering to Yahweh continually by a perpetual ordinance. <sup>15</sup> Thus shall they prepare the lamb, and the meal offering, and the oil, morning by morning, for a continual burnt offering. <sup>16</sup> Thus says the Lord Yahweh: If the prince give a gift to any of his sons, it is his inheritance, it shall belong to his sons; it is their possession by inheritance. <sup>17</sup> But if he give of his inheritance a gift to one of his servants, it shall be his to the year of liberty; then it shall return to the prince; but as for his inheritance, it shall be for his sons. <sup>18</sup> Moreover the prince shall not take of the people's inheritance, to thrust them out of their possession; he shall give inheritance to his sons out of his own possession, that my people not be scattered every man from his possession. <sup>19</sup> Then he brought me through the entry, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy rooms for the priests, which looked toward the north: and behold, there was a place on the hinder part westward. <sup>20</sup> He said to me, This is the place where the priests shall boil the trespass offering and the sin offering, and where they shall bake the meal offering; that they not bring them out into the outer court, to sanctify the people. <sup>21</sup> Then he brought me out into the outer court, and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; and behold, in every corner of the court there was a court. <sup>22</sup> In the four corners of the court there were courts enclosed, forty cubits<sup>h</sup> long and thirty wide: these four in the corners were of one measure. <sup>23</sup> There was a wall around in them, around the four, and boiling places were made under the walls all around. <sup>24</sup> Then he said to me, These are the boiling houses, where the ministers of the house shall boil the sacrifice of the people.

<sup>1</sup> He brought me back to the door of the house; and behold, waters issued out from under the threshold of the house eastward; (for the forefront of the house was toward the east;) and the waters came down from under, from the right side of the house, on the south of the altar. <sup>2</sup> Then he brought me out by the way of the gate northward, and led me round by the way outside to the outer gate, by the way of the gate that looks toward the east; and behold, there ran out waters on the right side. <sup>3</sup> When the man went out eastward with the line in his hand, he measured one thousand cubits,<sup>i</sup> and he caused me to pass through the waters, waters that were to the ankles. <sup>4</sup> Again he measured one thousand, and caused me to pass through the waters, waters that were to the knees. Again he measured one thousand, and caused me to pass through waters that were to the waist. <sup>5</sup> Afterward he measured one thousand; and it was a river that I could not pass through; for the waters were risen, waters to swim in, a river that could not be passed through. <sup>6</sup> He said to me, Son of man, have you seen? Then he brought me, and caused me to return to the bank of the river. <sup>7</sup> Now when I had returned, behold, on the bank of the river were very many trees on the one side and on the other. <sup>8</sup> Then he said to me, These waters flow out toward the eastern region, and will go down into the Arabah; and they will go toward the sea; and flow into the sea which will be made to flow out; and the waters will be healed. <sup>9</sup> It shall happen, that every living creature which swarms, in every place where the rivers come, shall live; and there shall be a very great multitude of fish; for these waters have come there, and the waters of the sea shall be healed, and everything shall live wherever the river comes. <sup>10</sup> It shall happen, that fishermen shall stand by it: from En Gedi even to En Eglaim shall be a place for the spreading of nets; their fish shall be after their kinds, as the fish of the great sea, exceeding many. <sup>11</sup> But the miry places of it, and its marshes, shall not be healed; they shall be given up to salt. <sup>12</sup> By the river on its bank, on this side and on that side, shall grow every tree for food, whose leaf shall not wither, neither shall its fruit fail: it shall produce new fruit every month, because its waters issue out of the sanctuary; and its fruit shall be for food, and its leaf for healing. <sup>13</sup> Thus says the Lord Yahweh: This shall be the border, by which you shall divide the land for inheritance according to the twelve tribes of Israel: Joseph shall have two portions. <sup>14</sup> You shall inherit it, one as well as another; for I swore to give it to your fathers: and this land shall fall to you for inheritance. <sup>15</sup> This shall be the border of the land: On the north side, from the great sea, by the way of Hethlon, to the entrance of Zedad; <sup>16</sup> Hamath, Berothah, Sibram, which is between the border of Damascus and the border of Hamath; Hazer Hatticon, which is by the border of Hauran. <sup>17</sup> The border from the sea, shall be Hazar Enon at the border of Damascus; and on the north northward is the border of Hamath. This is the north side. <sup>18</sup> The east side, between Hauran and Damascus and Gilead, and the land of Israel, shall be the Jordan; from the north border to the east sea you shall measure. This is the east side.<sup>19</sup> The south side southward shall be from Tamar as far as the waters of Meriboth Kadesh, to the brook, to the great sea. This is the south side southward.<sup>20</sup> The west side shall be the great sea, from the south border as far as over against the entrance of Hamath. This is the west side.<sup>21</sup> So you shall divide this land to you according to the tribes of Israel.<sup>22</sup> It shall happen, that you shall divide it by lot for an inheritance to you and to the aliens who live among you, who shall father children among you; and they shall be to you as the native-born among the children of Israel; they shall have inheritance with you among the tribes of Israel.<sup>23</sup> It shall happen, that in what tribe the stranger lives, there you shall give him his inheritance, says the Lord Yahweh.

to the west side, shall be the offering which you shall offer, twenty-five thousand reeds in width, and in length as one of the portions, from the east side to the west side: and the sanctuary shall be in the middle of it.<sup>9</sup> The offering that you shall offer to Yahweh shall be twenty-five thousand reeds in length, and ten thousand in width.<sup>10</sup> For these, even for the priests, shall be the holy offering: toward the north twenty-five thousand in length, and toward the west ten thousand in width, and toward the east ten thousand in width, and toward the south twenty-five thousand in length: and the sanctuary of Yahweh shall be in the middle of it.<sup>11</sup> It shall be for the priests who are sanctified of the sons of Zadok, who have kept my instruction, who didn't go astray when the children of Israel went astray, as the Levites went astray.<sup>12</sup> It shall be to them an offering from the offering of the land, a thing most holy, by the border of the Levites.<sup>13</sup> Answerable to the border of the priests, the Levites shall have twenty-five thousand in length, and ten thousand in width: all the length shall be twenty-five thousand, and the width ten thousand.<sup>14</sup> They shall sell none of it, nor exchange it, nor shall the first fruits of the land be alienated; for it is holy to Yahweh.<sup>15</sup> The five thousand that are left in the width, in front of the twenty-five thousand, shall be for common use, for the city, for dwelling and for suburbs; and the city shall be in the middle of it.<sup>16</sup> These shall be its measurements: the north side four thousand and five hundred, and the south side four thousand and five hundred, and on the east side four thousand and five hundred, and the west side four thousand and five hundred.<sup>17</sup> The city shall have suburbs:

toward the north two hundred fifty, and toward the south two hundred fifty, and toward the east two hundred fifty, and toward the west two hundred fifty. <sup>18</sup> The remainder in the length, answerable to the holy offering, shall be ten thousand eastward, and ten thousand westward; and it shall be answerable to the holy offering; and its increase shall be for food to those who labor in the city. <sup>19</sup> Those who labor in the city, out of all the tribes of Israel, shall cultivate it. <sup>20</sup> All the offering shall be a square of twenty-five thousand by twenty-five thousand: you shall offer it as a holy offering, with the possession of the city. <sup>21</sup> The remainder shall be for the prince, on the one side and on the other of the holy offering and of the possession of the city; in front of the twenty-five thousand of the offering toward the east border, and westward in front of the twenty-five thousand toward the west border, answerable to the portions, it shall be for the prince: and the holy offering and the sanctuary of the house shall be in the middle of it. <sup>22</sup> Moreover from the possession of the Levites, and from the possession of the city, being in the middle of that which is the prince's, between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin, it shall be for the prince. <sup>23</sup> As for the rest of the tribes: from the east side to the west side, Benjamin, one portion. <sup>24</sup> By the border of Benjamin, from the east side to the west side, Simeon, one portion.

1

therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself. <sup>9</sup> Now God made Daniel to find kindness and compassion in the sight of the prince of the eunuchs. <sup>10</sup> The prince of the eunuchs said to Daniel, I fear my lord the king, who has appointed your food and your drink: for why should he see your faces worse looking than the youths who are of your own age? so would you endanger my head with the king. <sup>11</sup> Then Daniel said to the steward whom the prince of the eunuchs had appointed over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: <sup>12</sup> Test your servants, I beg you, ten days; and let them give us vegetables to eat, and water to drink. <sup>13</sup> Then let our faces be looked on before you, and the face of the youths who eat of the king's dainties; and as you see, deal with your servants. <sup>14</sup> So he listened to them in this matter, and proved them ten days. <sup>15</sup> At the end of ten days their faces appeared fairer, and they were fatter in flesh, than all the youths who ate of the king's dainties. <sup>16</sup> So the steward took away their dainties, and the wine that they should drink, and gave them pulse. <sup>17</sup> Now as for these four youths, God gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom: and Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams. <sup>18</sup> At the end of the days which the king had appointed for bringing them in, the prince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar. <sup>19</sup> The king talked with them; and among them all was found no one like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: therefore stood they before the king. <sup>20</sup> In every matter of wisdom and understanding, concerning which the king inquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and enchanters who were in all his realm. <sup>21</sup> Daniel continued even to the first year of king Cyrus.

have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, until the time be changed: therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that you can show me its interpretation. <sup>10</sup> The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, There is not a man on the earth who can show the king's matter, because no king, lord, or ruler, has asked such a thing of any magician, or enchanter, or Chaldean. <sup>11</sup> It is a rare thing that the king requires, and there is no other who can show it before the king, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh. <sup>12</sup> For this cause the king was angry and very furious, and commanded to destroy all the wise men of Babylon. <sup>13</sup> So the decree went out, and the wise men were to be slain; and they sought Daniel and his companions to be slain. <sup>14</sup> Then Daniel returned answer with counsel and prudence to Arioch the captain of the king's guard, who was gone out to kill the wise men of Babylon; <sup>15</sup> he answered Arioch the king's captain, Why is the decree so urgent from the king? Then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel. <sup>16</sup> Daniel went in, and desired of the king that he would appoint him a time, and he would show the king the interpretation. <sup>17</sup> Then Daniel went to his house, and made the thing known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions: <sup>18</sup> that they would desire mercies of the God of heaven concerning this secret; that Daniel and his companions should not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon. <sup>19</sup> Then was the secret revealed to Daniel in a vision of the night. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven. <sup>20</sup> Daniel answered, Blessed be the name of God forever and ever; for wisdom and might are his. <sup>21</sup> He changes the times and the seasons; he removes kings, and sets up kings; he gives wisdom to the wise, and knowledge to those who have understanding; <sup>22</sup> he reveals the deep and secret things; he knows what is in the darkness, and the light dwells with him. <sup>23</sup> I thank you, and praise you, you God of my fathers, who have given me wisdom and might, and have now made known to me what we desired of you; for you have made known to us the king's matter. <sup>24</sup> Therefore Daniel went in to Arioch, whom the king had appointed to destroy the wise men of Babylon; he went and said thus to him: Don't destroy the wise men of Babylon; bring me in before the king, and I will show to the king the interpretation. <sup>25</sup> Then Arioch brought in Daniel before the king in haste, and said thus to him, I have found a man of the children of the captivity of Judah, who will make known to the king the interpretation. <sup>26</sup> The king answered Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, Are you able to make known to me the dream which I have seen, and its interpretation? <sup>27</sup> Daniel answered before the king, and said, The secret which the king has demanded can neither wise men, enchanters, magicians, nor soothsayers, show to the king; <sup>28</sup> but there is a God in heaven who reveals secrets, and he has made known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days. Your dream, and the visions of your head on your bed, are these: <sup>29</sup> as for you, O king, your thoughts came on your bed, what should happen hereafter; and he who reveals secrets has made known to you what shall happen. <sup>30</sup> But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living, but to the intent that the interpretation may be made known to the king, and that you may know the thoughts of your heart. <sup>31</sup> You, O king, saw, and behold,<sup>d</sup> a great image. This image, which was mighty, and whose brightness was excellent, stood before you; and its aspect was awesome. <sup>32</sup> As for this image, its head was of fine gold, its breast and its arms of silver, its belly and its thighs of brass, <sup>33</sup> its legs of iron, its feet part of iron, and part of clay. <sup>34</sup> You saw until a stone was cut out without hands, which struck the image on its feet that were of iron and clay, and broke them in pieces. <sup>35</sup> Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken in pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshing floors; and the wind carried them away, so that no place was found for them: and the stone that struck the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth. <sup>36</sup> This is the dream; and we will tell its interpretation before the king. <sup>37</sup> You, O king, are king of kings, to whom the God of heaven has given the kingdom, the power, and the strength, and the glory; <sup>38</sup> and wherever the children of men dwell, the animals of the field and the birds of the sky has he given into your hand, and has made you to rule over them all: you are the head of gold. <sup>39</sup> After you shall arise another kingdom inferior to you; and another third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth. <sup>40</sup> The fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron, because iron breaks in pieces and subdues all things; and as iron that crushes all these, shall it break in pieces and crush. <sup>41</sup>

Whereas you saw the feet and toes, part of potters' clay, and part of iron, it shall be a divided kingdom; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, because you saw the iron mixed with miry clay. <sup>42</sup> As the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly broken. <sup>43</sup> Whereas you saw the iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men; but they shall not cling to one another, even as iron does not mingle with clay. <sup>44</sup> In the days of those kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom which shall never be destroyed, nor shall its sovereignty be left to another people; but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand forever. <sup>45</sup> Because you saw that a stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it broke in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God has made known to the king what shall happen hereafter: and the dream is certain, and its interpretation sure. <sup>46</sup> Then the king Nebuchadnezzar fell on his face, and worshiped Daniel, and commanded that they should offer an offering and sweet odors to him. <sup>47</sup> The king answered to Daniel, and said, Of a truth your God is the God of gods, and the Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, since you have been able to reveal this secret. <sup>48</sup> Then the king made Daniel great, and gave him many great gifts, and made him to rule over the whole province of Babylon, and to be chief governor over all the wise men of Babylon. <sup>49</sup> Daniel requested of the king, and he appointed Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, over the affairs of the province of Babylon: but Daniel was in the gate of the king.

came near, and brought accusation against the Jews. <sup>9</sup> They answered Nebuchadnezzar the king, O king, live for ever. <sup>10</sup> You, O king, have made a decree, that every man that shall hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipe, and all kinds of music, shall fall down and worship the golden image; <sup>11</sup> and whoever doesn't fall down and worship shall be cast into the middle of a burning fiery furnace. <sup>12</sup> There are certain Jews whom you have appointed over the affairs of the province of Babylon: Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego; these men, O king, have not respected you. They don't serve your gods, nor worship the golden image which you have set up. <sup>13</sup> Then Nebuchadnezzar in rage and fury commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. Then they brought these men before the king. <sup>14</sup> Nebuchadnezzar answered them, Is it on purpose, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, that you don't serve my god, nor worship the golden image which I have set up? <sup>15</sup> Now if you are ready whenever you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipe, and all kinds of music to fall down and worship the image which I have made, good: but if you don't worship, you shall be cast the same hour into the middle of a burning fiery furnace; and who is that god that shall deliver you out of my hands? <sup>16</sup> Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego answered the king, Nebuchadnezzar, we have no need to answer you in this matter. <sup>17</sup> If it happens, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace; and he will deliver us out of your hand, O king. <sup>18</sup> But if not, let it be known to you, O king, that we will not serve your gods, nor worship the golden image which you have set up. <sup>19</sup> Then was Nebuchadnezzar full of fury, and the form of his appearance was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. He spoke, and commanded that they should heat the furnace seven times more than it was usually heated. <sup>20</sup> He commanded certain mighty men who were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace. <sup>21</sup> Then these men were bound in their pants, their tunics, and their mantles, and their other clothes, and were cast into the middle of the burning fiery furnace. <sup>22</sup> Therefore because the king's commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the flame of the fire killed those men who took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. <sup>23</sup> These three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, fell down bound into the middle of the burning fiery furnace. <sup>24</sup> Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astonished, and rose up in haste: he spoke and said to his counselors, Didn't we cast three men bound into the middle of the fire? They answered the king, True, O king. <sup>25</sup> He answered, Look, I see four men loose, walking in the middle of the fire, and they are unharmed; and the aspect of the fourth is like a son of the gods. <sup>26</sup> Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the mouth of the burning fiery furnace: he spoke and said, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, you servants of the Most High God, come out, and come here. Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego came out of the middle of the fire. <sup>27</sup> The satraps, the deputies, and the governors, and the king's counselors, being gathered together, saw these men, that the fire had no power on their bodies, nor was the hair of their head singed, neither were their pants changed, nor had the smell of fire passed on them. <sup>28</sup> Nebuchadnezzar spoke and said, Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who has sent his angel, and delivered his servants who trusted in him, and have changed the king's word, and have yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any god, except their own God. <sup>29</sup> Therefore I make a decree, that every people, nation, and language, which speak anything evil against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dunghill; because there is no other god who is able to deliver after this sort. <sup>30</sup> Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego in the province of Babylon.

them; but they did not make known to me its interpretation. <sup>8</sup> But at the last Daniel came in before me, whose name was Belteshazzar, according to the name of my god, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods: and I told the dream before him, saying, <sup>9</sup> Belteshazzar, master of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you, and no secret troubles you, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and its interpretation. <sup>10</sup> Thus were the visions of my head on my bed: I saw, and behold, a tree in the middle of the earth; and its height was great. <sup>11</sup> The tree grew, and was strong, and its height reached to the sky, and its sight to the end of all the earth. <sup>12</sup> The leaves of it were beautiful, and its fruit much, and in it was food for all: the animals of the field had shadow under it, and the birds of the sky lived in its branches, and all flesh was fed from it. <sup>13</sup> I saw in the visions of my head on my bed, and behold, a watcher and a holy one came down from the sky. <sup>14</sup> He cried aloud, and said thus, Cut down the tree, and cut off its branches, shake off its leaves, and scatter its fruit: let the animals get away from under it, and the fowls from its branches. <sup>15</sup> Nevertheless leave the stump of its roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of the sky: and let his portion be with the animals in the grass of the earth: <sup>16</sup> let his heart be changed from man's, and let an animal's heart be given to him; and let seven times pass over him. <sup>17</sup> The sentence is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones; to the intent that the living may know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever he will, and sets up over it the lowest of men.<sup>18</sup> This dream I, king Nebuchadnezzar, have seen; and you, Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation, because all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known to me the interpretation; but you are able; for the spirit of the holy gods is in you.<sup>19</sup> Then Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, was stricken mute for a while, and his thoughts troubled him. The king answered, Belteshazzar, don't let the dream, or the interpretation, trouble you. Belteshazzar answered, My lord, the dream be to those who hate you, and its interpretation to your adversaries.<sup>20</sup> The tree that you saw, which grew, and was strong, whose height reached to the sky, and its sight to all the earth;<sup>21</sup> whose leaves were beautiful, and its fruit much, and in it was food for all; under which the animals of the field lived, and on whose branches the birds of the sky had their habitation:<sup>22</sup> it is you, O king, that are grown and become strong; for your greatness is grown, and reaches to the sky, and your dominion to the end of the earth.<sup>23</sup> Whereas the king saw a watcher and a holy one coming down from the sky, and saying, Cut down the tree, and destroy it; nevertheless leave the stump of its roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field, and let it be wet with the dew of the sky: and let his portion be with the animals of the field, until seven times pass over him;<sup>24</sup> this is the interpretation, O king, and it is the decree of the Most High, which has come on my lord the king:<sup>25</sup> that you shall be driven from men, and your dwelling shall be with the animals of the field, and you shall be made to eat grass as oxen, and shall be wet with the dew of the sky, and seven times shall pass over you; until you know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever he will.<sup>26</sup> Whereas they commanded to leave the stump of the roots of the tree; your kingdom shall be sure to you, after that you shall have known that the heavens do rule.<sup>27</sup> Therefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable to you, and break off your sins by righteousness, and your iniquities by showing mercy to the poor; if there may be a lengthening of your tranquility.<sup>28</sup> All this came on the king Nebuchadnezzar.<sup>29</sup> At the end of twelve months he was walking in the royal palace of Babylon.<sup>30</sup> The king spoke and said, Is not this great Babylon, which I have built for the royal dwelling place, by the might of my power and for the glory of my majesty?<sup>31</sup> While the word was in the king's mouth, a voice came from the sky, saying, "O king Nebuchadnezzar, to you it is spoken: The kingdom has departed from you.<sup>32</sup> You shall be driven from men; and your dwelling shall be with the animals of the field. You shall be made to eat grass as oxen. Seven times shall pass over you, until you know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever he will."<sup>33</sup> This was fulfilled the same hour on Nebuchadnezzar. He was driven from men, and ate grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of the sky, until his hair had grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws.<sup>34</sup> At the end of the days I, Nebuchadnezzar, lifted up my eyes to heaven, and my understanding returned to me, and I blessed the Most High, and I praised and honored him who lives forever; for his dominion is an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom from generation to generation. <sup>35</sup> All the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing; and he does according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth; and no one can stay his hand, or ask him, What are you doing? <sup>36</sup> At the same time my understanding returned to me; and for the glory of my kingdom, my majesty and brightness returned to me; and my counselors and my lords sought to me; and I was established in my kingdom, and excellent greatness was added to me. <sup>37</sup> Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise and extol and honor the King of heaven; for all his works are truth, and his ways justice; and those who walk in pride he is able to abase.

wrote. <sup>6</sup> Then the king's face was changed in him, and his thoughts troubled him; and the joints of his thighs were loosened, and his knees struck one against another. <sup>7</sup> The king cried aloud to bring in the enchanters, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers. The king spoke and said to the wise men of Babylon, Whoever shall read this writing, and show me its interpretation, shall be clothed with purple, and have a chain of gold about his neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom. <sup>8</sup> Then came in all the king's wise men; but they could not read the writing, nor make known to the king the interpretation. <sup>9</sup> Then was king Belshazzar greatly troubled, and his face was changed in him, and his lords were perplexed. <sup>10</sup> The queen by reason of the words of the king and his lords came into the banquet house: the queen spoke and said, O king, live forever; don't let your thoughts trouble you, nor let your face be changed. <sup>11</sup> There is a man in your kingdom, in whom is the spirit of the holy gods; and in the days of your father light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, were found in him; and the king Nebuchadnezzar your father, the king, your father, made him master of the magicians, enchanters, Chaldeans, and soothsayers; <sup>12</sup> because an excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, interpreting of dreams, and showing of dark sentences, and dissolving of doubts, were found in the same Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar. Now let Daniel be called, and he will show the interpretation. <sup>13</sup> Then was Daniel brought in before the king. The king spoke and said to Daniel, Are you that Daniel, who are of the children of the captivity of Judah, whom the king my father brought out of Judah? <sup>14</sup> I have heard of you, that the spirit of the gods is in you, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom are found in you. <sup>15</sup> Now the wise men, the enchanters, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known to me its interpretation; but they could not show the interpretation of the thing. <sup>16</sup> But I have heard of you, that you can give interpretations, and dissolve doubts; now if you can read the writing, and make known to me its interpretation, you shall be clothed with purple, and have a chain of gold about your neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom. <sup>17</sup> Then Daniel answered before the king, Let your gifts be to yourself, and give your rewards to another; nevertheless I will read the writing to the king, and make known to him the interpretation. <sup>18</sup> You, king, the Most High God gave Nebuchadnezzar your father the kingdom, and greatness, and glory, and majesty: <sup>19</sup> and because of the greatness that he gave him, all the peoples, nations, and languages trembled and feared before him: whom he would he killed, and whom he would he kept alive; and whom he would he raised up, and whom he would he put down. <sup>20</sup> But when his heart was lifted up, and his spirit was hardened so that he dealt proudly, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him: <sup>21</sup> and he was driven from the sons of men, and his heart was made like the animals', and his dwelling was with the wild donkeys; he was fed with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of the sky; until he knew that the Most High God rules in the kingdom of men, and that he sets up over it whomever he will. <sup>22</sup>

You, his son, Belshazzar, have not humbled your heart, though you knew all this, <sup>23</sup> but have lifted up yourself against the Lord of heaven; and they have brought the vessels of his house before you, and you and your lords, your wives and your concubines, have drunk wine from them; and you have praised the gods of silver and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, which don't see, nor hear, nor know; and the God in whose hand your breath is, and whose are all your ways, you have not glorified. <sup>24</sup> Then was the part of the hand sent from before him, and this writing was inscribed. <sup>25</sup> This is the writing that was inscribed: MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN. <sup>26</sup> This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE; God has numbered your kingdom, and brought it to an end; <sup>27</sup> TEKEL; you are weighed in the balances, and are found wanting. <sup>28</sup> PERES; your kingdom is divided, and given to the Medes and Persians. <sup>29</sup> Then commanded Belshazzar, and they clothed Daniel with purple, and put a chain of gold about his neck, and made proclamation concerning him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom. <sup>30</sup> In that night Belshazzar the Chaldean King was slain. <sup>31</sup> Darius the Mede received the kingdom, being about sixty-two years old.

the satraps, because an excellent spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him over the whole realm. <sup>4</sup> Then the presidents and the satraps sought to find occasion against Daniel as touching the kingdom; but they could find no occasion nor fault, because he was faithful, neither was there any error or fault found in him. <sup>5</sup> Then these men said, We shall not find any occasion against this Daniel, except we find it against him concerning the law of his God. <sup>6</sup> Then these presidents and satraps assembled together to the king, and said thus to him, King Darius, live forever. <sup>7</sup> All the presidents of the kingdom, the deputies and the satraps, the counselors and the governors, have consulted together to establish a royal statute, and to make a strong decree, that whoever shall ask a petition of any god or man for thirty days, except of you, O king, he shall be cast into the den of lions. <sup>8</sup> Now, O king, establish the decree, and sign the writing, that it not be changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which doesn't alter. <sup>9</sup> Therefore king Darius signed the writing and the decree. <sup>10</sup> When Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house (now his windows were open in his room toward Jerusalem) and he kneeled on his knees three times a day, and prayed, and gave thanks before his God, as he did before. <sup>11</sup> Then these men assembled together, and found Daniel making petition and supplication before his God. <sup>12</sup> Then they came near, and spoke before the king concerning the king's decree: Haven't you signed an decree, that every man who shall make petition to any god or man within thirty days, except to you, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions? The king answered, The thing is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which doesn't alter. <sup>13</sup> Then answered they and said before the king, That Daniel, who is of the children of the captivity of Judah, doesn't respect you, O king, nor the decree that you have signed, but makes his petition three times a day. <sup>14</sup> Then the king, when he heard these words, was very displeased, and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him; and he labored until the going down of the sun to rescue him. <sup>15</sup> Then these men assembled together to the king, and said to the king, Know, O king, that it is a law of the Medes and Persians, that no decree nor statute which the king establishes may be changed. <sup>16</sup> Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and cast him into the den of lions. The king spoke and said to Daniel, Your God whom you serve continually, he will deliver you. <sup>17</sup> A stone was brought, and laid on the mouth of the den; and the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords; that nothing might be changed concerning Daniel. <sup>18</sup> Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night fasting; neither were instruments of music brought before him: and his sleep fled from him. <sup>19</sup> Then the king arose very early in the morning, and went in haste to the den of lions. <sup>20</sup> When he came near to the den to Daniel, he cried with a lamentable voice; the king spoke and said to Daniel, Daniel, servant of the living God, is your God, whom you serve continually, able to deliver you from the lions? <sup>21</sup> Then Daniel said to the king, O king, live forever. <sup>22</sup> My God has sent his angel, and has shut the lions' mouths, and they have not hurt me; because as before him innocence was found in me; and also before you, O king, have I done no hurt. <sup>23</sup> Then was the king exceeding glad, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no kind of harm was found on him, because he had trusted in his God. <sup>24</sup> The king commanded, and they brought those men who had accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions, them, their children, and their wives; and the lions mauled them, and broke all their bones in pieces, before they came to the bottom of the den. <sup>25</sup> Then king Darius wrote to all the peoples, nations, and languages, who dwell in all the earth: Peace be multiplied to you. <sup>26</sup> I make a decree, that in all the dominion of my kingdom men tremble and fear before the God of Daniel; for he is the living God, and steadfast forever, His kingdom that which shall not be destroyed; and his dominion shall be even to the end. <sup>27</sup> He delivers and rescues, and he works signs and wonders in heaven and in earth, who has delivered Daniel from the power of the lions. <sup>28</sup> So this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius, and in the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

earth, and made to stand on two feet as a man; and a man's heart was given to it. <sup>5</sup> Behold, another animal, a second, like a bear; and it was raised up on one side, and three ribs were in its mouth between its teeth: and they said thus to it, Arise, devour much flesh. <sup>6</sup> After this I saw, and behold, another, like a leopard, which had on its back four wings of a bird; the animal had also four heads; and dominion was given to it. <sup>7</sup> After this I saw in the night visions, and, behold, a fourth animal, awesome and powerful, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth; it devoured and broke in pieces, and stamped the residue with its feet: and it was diverse from all the animals that were before it; and it had ten horns. <sup>8</sup> I considered the horns, and behold, there came up among them another horn, a little one, before which three of the first horns were plucked up by the roots: and behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of a man, and a mouth speaking great things. <sup>9</sup> I saw until thrones were placed, and one who was ancient of days sat: his clothing was white as snow, and the hair of his head like pure wool; his throne was fiery flames, and its wheels burning fire. <sup>10</sup> A fiery stream issued and came out from before him: thousands of thousands ministered to him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: the judgment was set, and the books were opened. <sup>11</sup> I saw at that time because of the voice of the great words which the horn spoke; I saw even until the animal was slain, and its body destroyed, and it was given to be burned with fire. <sup>12</sup> As for the rest of the animals, their dominion was taken away: yet their lives were prolonged for a season and a time. <sup>13</sup> I saw in the night visions, and behold, there came with the clouds of the sky one like a son of man, and he came even to the ancient of days, and they brought him near before him. <sup>14</sup> There was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all the peoples, nations, and languages should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed. <sup>15</sup> As for me, Daniel, my spirit was grieved within my body, and the visions of my head troubled me. <sup>16</sup> I came near to one of those who stood by, and asked him the truth concerning all this. So he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things. <sup>17</sup> These great animals, which are four, are four kings, who shall arise out of the earth. <sup>18</sup> But the saints of the Most High shall receive the kingdom, and possess the kingdom forever, even forever and ever. <sup>19</sup> Then I desired to know the truth concerning the fourth animal, which was diverse from all of them, exceedingly terrible, whose teeth were of iron, and its nails of brass; which devoured, broke in pieces, and stamped the residue with its feet; <sup>20</sup> and concerning the ten horns that were on its head, and the other horn which came up, and before which three fell, even that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spoke great things, whose look was more stout than its fellows. <sup>21</sup> I saw, and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them; <sup>22</sup> until the ancient of days came, and judgment was given to the saints of the Most High, and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom. <sup>23</sup> Thus he said, The fourth animal shall be a fourth kingdom on earth, which shall be diverse from all the kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces. <sup>24</sup> As for the ten horns, out of this kingdom shall ten kings arise: and another shall arise after them; and he shall be diverse from the former, and he shall put down three kings. <sup>25</sup> He shall speak words against the Most High, and shall wear out the saints of the Most High; and he shall think to change the times and the law; and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and half a time. <sup>26</sup> But the judgment shall be set, and they shall take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy it to the end. <sup>27</sup> The kingdom and the dominion, and the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole sky, shall be given to the people of the saints of the Most High: his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him. <sup>28</sup> Here is the end of the matter. As for me, Daniel, my thoughts much troubled me, and my face was changed in me: but I kept the matter in my heart.

<sup>1</sup> In the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar a vision appeared to me, even to me, Daniel, after that which appeared to me at the first. <sup>2</sup> I saw in the vision; now it was so, that when I saw, I was in the citadel of Susa, which is in the province of Elam; and I saw in the vision, and I was by the river Ulai. <sup>3</sup> Then I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and behold, there stood before the river a ram which had two horns: and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last. <sup>4</sup> I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward; and no animals could stand before him, neither was there any who could deliver out of his hand; but he did according to his will, and magnified himself. <sup>5</sup> As I was considering, behold, a male goat came from the west over the surface of the whole earth, and didn't touch the ground: and the goat had a notable horn between his eyes. <sup>6</sup> He came to the ram that had the two horns, which I saw standing before the river, and ran on him in the fury of his power. <sup>7</sup> I saw him come close to the ram, and he was moved with anger against him, and struck the ram, and broke his two horns; and there was no power in the ram to stand before him; but he cast him down to the ground, and trampled on him; and there was no one who could deliver the ram out of his hand. <sup>8</sup> The male goat magnified himself exceedingly: and when he was strong, the great horn was broken; and instead of it there came up four notable horns toward the four winds of the sky. <sup>9</sup> Out of one of them came out a little horn, which grew exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the glorious land. <sup>10</sup> It grew great, even to the army of the sky; and some of the army and of the stars it cast down to the ground, and trampled on them. <sup>11</sup> Yes, it magnified itself, even to the prince of the army; and it took away from him the continual burnt offering, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down. <sup>12</sup> The army was given over to it together with the continual burnt offering through disobedience; and it cast down truth to the ground, and it did its pleasure and prospered. <sup>13</sup> Then I heard a holy one speaking; and another holy one said to that certain one who spoke, How long shall be the vision about the continual burnt offering, and the disobedience that makes desolate, to give both the sanctuary and the army to be trodden under foot? <sup>14</sup> He said to me, To two thousand and three hundred evenings and mornings; then shall the sanctuary be cleansed. <sup>15</sup> When I, even I Daniel, had seen the vision, I sought to understand it; and behold, there stood before me as the appearance of a man. <sup>16</sup> I heard a man's voice between the banks of the Ulai, which called, and said, Gabriel, make this man to understand the vision. <sup>17</sup> So he came near where I stood; and when he came, I was frightened, and fell on my face: but he said to me, Understand, son of man; for the vision belongs to the time of the end. <sup>18</sup> Now as he was speaking with me, I fell into a deep sleep with my face toward the ground; but he touched me, and set me upright. <sup>19</sup> He said, Behold, I will make you know what shall be in the latter time of the indignation; for it belongs to the appointed time of the end. <sup>20</sup> The ram which you saw, that had the two horns, they are the kings of Media and Persia. <sup>21</sup> The rough male goat is the king of Greece: and the great horn that is between his eyes is the first king. <sup>22</sup> As for that which was broken, in the place where four stood up, four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but not with his power. <sup>23</sup> In the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors have come to the full, a king of fierce face, and understanding dark sentences, shall stand up. <sup>24</sup> His power shall be mighty, but not by his own power; and he shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper in what he does; and he shall destroy the mighty ones and the holy people. <sup>25</sup> Through his policy he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall magnify himself in his heart, and he shall destroy many in their security. He shall also stand up against the prince of princes; but he shall be broken without hand. <sup>26</sup> The vision of the evenings and mornings which has been told is true: but seal up the vision; for it belongs to many days to come. <sup>27</sup> I, Daniel, fainted, and was sick certain days; then I rose up, and did the king's business: and I wondered at the vision, but no one understood it.

countries where you have driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against you. <sup>8</sup> Lord, to us belongs confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against you. <sup>9</sup> To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgiveness; for we have rebelled against him; <sup>10</sup> neither have we obeyed Yahweh our God's voice, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets. <sup>11</sup> Yes, all Israel have transgressed your law, turning aside, that they should not obey your voice: therefore the curse and the oath written in the law of Moses the servant of God has been poured out on us; for we have sinned against him. <sup>12</sup> He has confirmed his words, which he spoke against us, and against our judges who judged us, by bringing on us a great evil; for under the whole sky, such has not been done as has been done to Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup> As it is written in the law of Moses, all this evil has come on us: yet have we not entreated the favor of Yahweh our God, that we should turn from our iniquities, and have discernment in your truth. <sup>14</sup> Therefore has Yahweh watched over the evil, and brought it on us; for Yahweh our God is righteous in all his works which he does, and we have not obeyed his voice. <sup>15</sup> Now, Lord our God, who has brought your people out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and have gotten yourself renown, as it is today; we have sinned, we have done wickedly. <sup>16</sup> Lord, according to all your righteousness, let your anger and please let your wrath be turned away from your city Jerusalem, your holy mountain; because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem

and your people have become a reproach to all who are around us. <sup>17</sup> Now therefore, our God, listen to the prayer of your servant, and to his petitions, and cause your face to shine on your sanctuary that is desolate, for the Lord's sake. <sup>18</sup> My God, turn your ear, and hear; open your eyes, and see our desolations, and the city which is called by your name: for we do not present our petitions before you for our righteousness, but for your great mercies' sake. <sup>19</sup> Lord, hear; Lord, forgive; Lord, listen and do; don't defer, for your own sake, my God, because your city and your people are called by your name. <sup>20</sup> While I was speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before Yahweh my God for the holy mountain of my God; <sup>21</sup> yes, while I was speaking in prayer, the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly swiftly, touched me about the time of the evening offering. <sup>22</sup> He instructed me, and talked with me, and said, Daniel, I have now come to give you wisdom and understanding. <sup>23</sup> At the beginning of your petitions the commandment went out, and I have come to tell you; for you are greatly beloved: therefore consider the matter, and understand the vision. <sup>24</sup> Seventy weeks are decreed on your people and on your holy city, to finish disobedience, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most holy. <sup>25</sup> Know therefore and discern, that from the going out of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem to the Anointed One,<sup>h</sup> the prince, shall be seven weeks, and sixty-two weeks: it shall be built again, with street and moat, even in troubled times. <sup>26</sup> After the sixty-two weeks the Anointed One<sup>i</sup> shall be cut off, and shall have nothing: and the people of the prince who shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and its end shall be with a flood, and even to the end shall be war; desolations are determined. <sup>27</sup> He shall make a firm covenant with many for one week: and in the middle of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the offering to cease; and on the wing of abominations shall come one who makes desolate; and even to the full end, and that determined, shall wrath be poured out on the desolate.

<sup>1</sup> In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia a thing was revealed to Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar; and the thing was true, even a great warfare: and he understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision. <sup>2</sup> In those days I, Daniel, was mourning three whole weeks. <sup>3</sup> I ate no pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine into my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, until three whole weeks were fulfilled. <sup>4</sup> In the four and twentieth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, which is Hiddekel, <sup>5</sup> I lifted up my eyes, and looked, and behold, a man clothed in linen, whose thighs were adorned with pure gold of Uphaz: <sup>6</sup> his body also was like the beryl, and his face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as flaming torches, and his arms and his feet like burnished brass, and the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude. <sup>7</sup> I, Daniel, alone saw the vision; for the men who were with me didn't see the vision; but a great quaking fell on them, and they fled to hide themselves. <sup>8</sup> So I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and there remained no strength in me; for my comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and I retained no strength. <sup>9</sup> Yet heard I the voice of his words; and when I heard the voice of his words, then was I fallen into a deep sleep on my face, with my face toward the ground. <sup>10</sup> Behold, a hand touched me, which set me on my knees and on the palms of my hands. <sup>11</sup> He said to me, Daniel, you man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak to you, and stand upright; for am I now sent to you. When he had spoken this word to me, I stood trembling. <sup>12</sup> Then he said to me, Don't be afraid, Daniel; for from the first day that you set your heart to understand, and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard: and I have come for your words' sake. <sup>13</sup> But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me twenty-one days; but, behold, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me: and I remained there with the kings of Persia. <sup>14</sup> Now I have come to make you understand what shall happen to your people in the latter days; for the vision is yet for many days: <sup>15</sup> and when he had spoken to me according to these words, I set my face toward the ground, and was mute. <sup>16</sup> Behold, one in the likeness of the sons of men touched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spoke and said to him who stood before me, my lord, by reason of the vision my sorrows are turned on me, and I retain no strength. <sup>17</sup> For how can the servant of this my lord talk with this my lord? for as for me, immediately there remained no strength in me, neither was there breath left in me. <sup>18</sup> Then there touched me again one like the appearance of a man, and he strengthened me. <sup>19</sup> He said, "Greatly beloved man, don't be afraid: peace be to you, be strong, yes, be strong."

When he spoke to me, I was strengthened, and said, "Let my lord speak; for you have strengthened me."

<sup>20</sup> Then he said, "Do you know why I have come to you? Now I will return to fight with the prince of Persia. When I go out, behold, the prince of Greece shall come. <sup>21</sup> But I will tell you that which is inscribed in the writing of truth: and there is no one who holds with me against these, but Michael your prince."

11

<sup>1</sup> "As for me, in the first year of Darius the Mede, I stood up to confirm and strengthen him. <sup>2</sup> Now will I show you the truth. Behold, there shall stand up yet three kings in Persia; and the fourth shall be far richer than they all: and when he has grown strong through his riches, he shall stir up all against the realm of Greece. <sup>3</sup> A mighty king shall stand up, who shall rule with great dominion, and do according to his will. <sup>4</sup> When he shall stand up, his kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided toward the four winds of the sky, but not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion with which he ruled; for his kingdom shall be plucked up, even for others besides these. <sup>5</sup> The king of the south shall be strong, and one of his princes; and he shall be strong above him, and have dominion; his dominion shall be a great dominion. <sup>6</sup> At the end of years they shall join themselves together; and the daughter of the king of the south shall come to the king of the north to make an agreement: but she shall not retain the strength of her arm; neither shall he stand, nor his arm; but she shall be given up, and those who brought her, and he who became the father of her, and he who strengthened her in those times. <sup>7</sup> But out of a shoot from her roots shall one stand up in his place, who shall come to the army, and shall enter into the fortress of the king of the north, and shall deal against them, and shall prevail. <sup>8</sup> Also their gods, with their molten images, and with their goodly vessels of silver and of gold, shall he carry captive into Egypt; and he shall refrain some years from the king of the north. <sup>9</sup> He shall come into the realm of the king of the south, but he shall return into his own land. <sup>10</sup> His sons shall war, and shall assemble a multitude of great forces, which shall come on, and overflow, and pass through; and they shall return and war, even to his fortress. <sup>11</sup> The king of the south shall be moved with anger, and shall come out and fight with him, even with the king of the north; and he shall send out a great multitude, and the multitude shall be given into his hand. <sup>12</sup> The multitude shall be lifted up, and his heart shall be exalted; and he shall cast down tens of thousands, but he shall not prevail. <sup>13</sup> The king of the north shall return, and shall send out a multitude greater than the former; and he shall come on at the end of the times, even of years, with a great army and with much substance. <sup>14</sup> In those times there shall many stand up against the king of the south: also the children of the violent among your people shall lift themselves up to establish the vision; but they shall fall. <sup>15</sup> So the king of the north shall come, and cast up a mound, and take a well-fortified city: and the forces of the south shall not stand, neither his chosen people, neither shall there be any strength to stand. <sup>16</sup> But he who comes against him shall do according to his own will, and no one shall stand before him; and he shall stand in the glorious land, and in his hand shall be destruction. <sup>17</sup> He shall set his face to come with the strength of his whole kingdom, and with him equitable conditions; and he shall perform them: and he shall give him the daughter of women, to corrupt her; but she shall not stand, neither be for him. <sup>18</sup> After this shall he turn his face to the islands, and shall take many: but a prince shall cause the reproach offered by him to cease; yes, moreover, he shall cause his reproach to turn on him. <sup>19</sup> Then he shall turn his face toward the fortresses of his own land; but he shall stumble and fall, and shall not be found. <sup>20</sup> Then shall stand up in his place one who shall cause a tax collector to pass through the kingdom to maintain its glory; but within few days he shall be destroyed, neither in anger, nor in battle. <sup>21</sup> In his place shall stand up a contemptible person, to whom they had not given the honor of the kingdom: but he shall come in time of security, and shall obtain the kingdom by flatteries. <sup>22</sup> The overwhelming forces shall be overwhelmed from before him, and shall be broken; yes, also the prince of the covenant. <sup>23</sup> After the treaty made with him he shall work deceitfully; for he shall come up, and shall become strong, with a small people. <sup>24</sup> In time of security shall he come even on the fattest places of the province; and he shall do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers; he shall scatter among them prey, and plunder, and substance: yes, he shall devise his devices against the strongholds, even for a time. <sup>25</sup> He shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south shall war in battle with an exceeding great and mighty army; but he shall not stand; for they shall devise devices against him. <sup>26</sup> Yes, they who eat of his dainties shall destroy him, and his army shall overflow; and many shall fall down slain. <sup>27</sup> As for both these kings, their hearts shall be to do mischief, and they shall speak lies at one table: but it shall not prosper; for yet the end shall be at the time appointed. <sup>28</sup> Then he will return into his land with great substance; and his heart will be against the holy covenant; and he will take action, and return to his own land. <sup>29</sup> At the time appointed he shall return, and come into the south; but it shall not be in the latter time as it was in the former. <sup>30</sup> For ships of Kittim shall come against him; therefore he shall be grieved, and shall return, and have indignation against the holy covenant, and shall take action: he shall even return, and have regard to those who forsake the holy covenant. <sup>31</sup> Forces shall stand on his part, and they shall profane the sanctuary, even the fortress, and shall take away the continual burnt offering, and they shall set up the abomination that makes desolate. <sup>32</sup> Such as do wickedly against the covenant shall he pervert by flatteries; but the people who know their God shall be strong, and take action. <sup>33</sup> Those who are wise among the people shall instruct many; yet they shall fall by the sword and by flame, by captivity and by plunder, many days. <sup>34</sup> Now when they shall fall, they shall be helped with a little help; but many shall join themselves to them with flatteries. <sup>35</sup> Some of those who are wise shall fall, to refine them, and to purify, and to make them white, even to the time of the end; because it is yet for the time appointed. <sup>36</sup> The king shall do according to his will; and he shall exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvelous things against the God of gods; and he shall prosper until the indignation be accomplished; for that which is determined shall be done. <sup>37</sup> Neither shall he regard the gods of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god; for he shall magnify himself above all. <sup>38</sup> But in his place shall he honor the god of fortresses; and a god whom his fathers didn't know shall he honor with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and pleasant things. <sup>39</sup> He shall deal with the strongest fortresses by the help of a foreign god: whoever acknowledges him he will increase with glory; and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for a price. <sup>40</sup> At the time of the end shall the king of the south contend with him; and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass through. <sup>41</sup> He shall enter also into the glorious land, and many countries shall be overthrown; but these shall be delivered out of his hand: Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon. <sup>42</sup> He shall stretch out his hand also on the countries; and the land of Egypt shall not escape. <sup>43</sup> But he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt; and the Libyans and the Ethiopians shall be at his steps. <sup>44</sup> But news out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him; and he shall go out with great fury to destroy and utterly to sweep away many. <sup>45</sup> He shall plant the tents of his palace between the sea and the glorious holy mountain; yet he shall come to his end, and no one shall help him.

<sup>5</sup> Then I, Daniel, looked, and behold, two others stood, one on the river bank on this side, and the other on the river bank on that side. <sup>6</sup> One said to the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, How long shall it be to the end of these wonders? <sup>7</sup> I heard the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand to heaven, and swore by him who lives forever that it shall be for a time, times, and a half; and when they have finished breaking in pieces the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished. <sup>8</sup> I heard, but I didn't understand: then I said, my lord, what shall be the issue of these things? <sup>9</sup> He said, Go your way, Daniel; for the words are shut up and sealed until the time of the end. <sup>10</sup> Many shall purify themselves, and make themselves white, and be refined; but the wicked shall do wickedly; and none of the wicked shall understand; but those who are wise shall understand. <sup>11</sup> From the time that the continual burnt offering shall be taken away, and the abomination that makes desolate set up, there shall be one thousand two hundred ninety days. <sup>12</sup> Blessed is he who waits, and comes to the one thousand three hundred thirty-five days. <sup>13</sup> But go you your way until the end; for you shall rest, and shall stand in your lot, at the end of the days.

THE SONG OF THE ### THREE HOLY CHILDREN,

Which follows in the third Chapter of DANIEL after this place, —fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. — Verse 23. That which follows is not in the Hebrew, to wit, And they walked — to these words, Then Nebuchadnezzar — Verse 24.

servants, and them that worship you. <sup>11</sup> Deliver us not up utterly, for your name's sake, neither disannul you your covenant: <sup>12</sup> and cause not your mercy to depart from us, for the sake of Abraham that is beloved of you, and for the sake of Isaac your servant, and Israel your holy one; <sup>13</sup> to whom you did promise, that you would multiply their seed as the stars of heaven, and as the sand that is upon the sea shore. <sup>14</sup> For we, O Lord, are become less than any nation, and be kept under this day in all the world because of our sins. <sup>15</sup> Neither is there at this time prince, or prophet, or leader, or burned offering, or sacrifice, or oblation, or incense, or place to offer before you, and to find mercy. <sup>16</sup> Nevertheless in a contrite heart and a humble spirit let us be accepted; <sup>17</sup> like as in the burnt offerings of rams and bullocks, and like as in ten thousands of fat lambs; so let our sacrifice be in your sight this day, and grant that we may wholly go after you, for they shall not be ashamed that put their trust in you. <sup>18</sup> And now we follow you with all our heart, we fear you, and seek your face. Put us not to shame: but deal with us after your kindness, and according to the multitude of your mercy. <sup>20</sup> Deliver us also according to your marvelous works, and give glory to your name, O Lord: and let all them that do your servants hurt be confounded; <sup>21</sup> and let them be ashamed of all their <sup>b</sup> power and might, and let their strength be broken; <sup>22</sup> and let them know that you are the Lord, the only God, and glorious over the whole world.

Bel and the Dragon

it with your own signet; <sup>12</sup> and when you come in the morning, if you find not that Bel has eaten up all, we will suffer death: or else Daniel, that speaks falsely against us. <sup>13</sup> And they little regarded it: for under the table they had made a privy entrance, whereby they entered in continually, and consumed those things. <sup>14</sup> And it came to pass, when they were gone forth, the king set the meat before Bel. Now Daniel had commanded his servants to bring ashes, and they strewed all the temple with them in the presence of the king alone: then they went out, and shut the door, and sealed it with the king's signet, and so departed. <sup>15</sup> Now in the night came the priests with their wives and children, as they were wont to do, and did eat and drink up all. <sup>16</sup> In the morning betime the king arose, and Daniel with him. <sup>17</sup> And the king said, Daniel, are the seals whole? And he said, Yes, O king, they be whole. <sup>18</sup> And as soon as he had opened the door, the king looked upon the table, and cried with a loud voice, Great are you, O Bel, and with you is no deceit at all. <sup>19</sup> Then laughed Daniel, and held the king that he should not go in, and said, Behold now the pavement, and mark well whose footsteps are these. <sup>20</sup> And the king said, I see the footsteps of men, women, and children. And then the king was angry, <sup>21</sup> and took the priests with their wives and children, who showed him the privy doors, where they came in, and consumed such things as were upon the table. <sup>22</sup> Therefore the king killed them, and delivered Bel into Daniel's power, who overthrew him and his temple.

<sup>23</sup> And in that same place there was a great <sup>a</sup> dragon, which they of Babylon worshipped. <sup>24</sup> And the king said to Daniel, Wilt you also say that this is of brass? behold, he lives, and eats and drinks; you can not say that he is no living god: therefore worship him. <sup>25</sup> Then said Daniel, I will worship the Lord my God: for he is a living God. <sup>26</sup> But give me leave, O king, and I shall kill this dragon without sword or staff. The king said, I give you leave. <sup>27</sup> Then Daniel took pitch, and fat, and hair, and did seethe them together, and made lumps thereof: this he put in the dragon's mouth, so the dragon did eat and burst in sunder: and Daniel said, Behold, these are the gods you<sup>33</sup> worship. <sup>28</sup> When they of Babylon heard that, they took great indignation, and conspired against the king, saying, The king is become a Jew, and he has pulled down Bel, and slain the dragon, and put the priests to the sword. <sup>29</sup> So they came to the king, and said, Deliver us Daniel, or else we will destroy you and your house. <sup>30</sup> Now when the king saw that they pressed him sore, being constrained, the king delivered Daniel to them: <sup>31</sup> who cast him into the lion's den: where he was six days. <sup>32</sup> And in the den there were seven lions, and they had given them every day two carcasses, and two sheep: which then were not given to them, to the intent they might devour Daniel.

<sup>33</sup> Now there was in Jewry the prophet <sup>b</sup> Habakkuk, who had made pottage, and had broken bread into a bowl, and was going into the field, for to bring it to the reapers. <sup>34</sup> But the angel of the Lord said to Habakkuk, Go carry the dinner that you have into Babylon to Daniel, in the lions' den. <sup>35</sup> And Habakkuk said, Lord, I never saw Babylon; neither do I know where the den is. <sup>36</sup> Then the angel of the Lord took him by the crown, and lifted him up by the hair of his head, and with the blast of his breath set him in Babylon over the den. <sup>37</sup> And Habakkuk cried, saying, O Daniel, Daniel, take the dinner which God has sent you. <sup>38</sup> And Daniel said, You have remembered me, O God: neither have you forsaken them that love you. <sup>39</sup> So Daniel arose, and did eat: and the angel of God set Habakkuk in his own place again immediately. <sup>40</sup> Upon the seventh day the king came to bewail Daniel: and when he came to the den, he looked in, and, behold, Daniel was sitting. <sup>41</sup> Then cried the king with a loud voice, saying, Great are you, O Lord, you God of Daniel, and there is none other beside you. <sup>42</sup> And he drew him out, and cast those that were the cause of his destruction into the den: and they were devoured in a moment before his face.

THE # HISTORY OF SUSANNA

Set apart from the beginning of DANIEL, because it is not in the Hebrew, as neither the Narration of Bel and the Dragon.

see her. <sup>13</sup> And the one said to the other, Let us now go home: for it is dinner time. <sup>14</sup> So when they were gone out, they parted the one from the other, and turning back again they came to the same place; and after that they had asked one another the cause, they acknowledged their lust: and then appointed they a time both together, when they might find her alone. <sup>15</sup> And it fell out, as they watched a fit day, she went in as aforetime with two maids only, and she was desirous to wash herself in the garden: for it was hot. <sup>16</sup> And there was nobody there save the two elders, that had hid themselves, and watched her. <sup>17</sup> Then she said to her maids, Bring me oil and washing balls, and shut the garden doors, that I may wash me. <sup>18</sup> And they did as she bade them, and shut the garden doors, and went out themselves at the side doors to fetch the things that she had commanded them: and they saw not the elders, because they were hid. <sup>19</sup> Now when the maids were gone forth, the two elders rose up, and ran to her, saying, <sup>20</sup> Behold, the garden doors are shut, that no man can see us, and we are in love with you; therefore consent to us, and lie with us. <sup>21</sup> If you will not, we will bear witness against you, that a young man was with you: and therefore you did send away your maids from you. <sup>22</sup> Then Susanna sighed, and said, I am straitened on every side: for if I do this thing, it is death to me: and if I do it not, I can't escape your hands. <sup>23</sup> It is better for me to fall into your hands, and not do it, than to sin in the sight of the Lord. <sup>24</sup> With that Susanna cried with a loud voice: and the two elders cried out against her. <sup>25</sup> Then ran the one, and opened the garden doors. <sup>26</sup> So when the servants of the house heard the cry in the garden, they rushed in at the side door, to see what had befallen her. <sup>27</sup> But when the elders had told their tale, the servants were greatly ashamed: for there was never such a report made of Susanna. <sup>28</sup> And it came to pass on the morrow, when the people assembled to her husband Joakim, the two elders came full of their wicked intent against Susanna to put her to death; <sup>29</sup> and said before the people, Send for Susanna, the daughter of Helkias, Joakim's wife. So they sent; <sup>30</sup> and she came with her father and mother, her children, and all her kindred. <sup>31</sup> Now Susanna was a very delicate woman, and beauteous to behold. <sup>32</sup> And these wicked men commanded her to be unveiled, (for she was veiled) that they might be filled with her beauty. <sup>33</sup> Therefore her friends and all that saw her wept. <sup>34</sup> Then the two elders stood up in the midst of the people, and laid their hands upon her head. <sup>35</sup> And she weeping looked up toward heaven: for her heart trusted in the Lord. <sup>36</sup> And the elders said, As we walked in the garden alone, this woman came in with two maids, and shut the garden doors, and sent the maids away. <sup>37</sup> Then a young man, who there was hid, came to her, and lay with her. <sup>38</sup> And we, being in a corner of the garden, saw this wickedness, and ran to them. <sup>39</sup> And when we saw them together, the man we could not hold: for he was stronger than we, and opened the doors, and leaped out. <sup>40</sup> But having taken this woman, we asked who the young man was, but she would not tell us: these things do we testify. <sup>41</sup> Then the assembly believed them, as those that were elders of the people and judges: so they condemned her to death. <sup>42</sup> Then Susanna cried out with a loud voice, and said, O everlasting God, that know the secrets, that know all things before they be: <sup>43</sup> you know that they have borne false witness against me, and, behold, I must die; whereas I never did such things as these men have maliciously invented against me. <sup>44</sup> And the Lord heard her voice. <sup>45</sup> Therefore when she was led away to be put to death, God raised up the holy spirit of a young youth, whose name was Daniel: <sup>46</sup> and he cried with a loud voice, I am clear from the blood of this woman. <sup>47</sup> Then all the people turned them toward him, and said, What mean these words that you have spoken? <sup>48</sup> So he standing in the midst of them said, Are you <sup>43</sup> such fools, you <sup>43</sup> sons of Israel, that without examination or knowledge of the truth you <sup>43</sup> have condemned a daughter of Israel? <sup>49</sup> Return again to the place of judgement: for these have borne false witness against her. <sup>50</sup> Wherefore all the people turned again in haste, and the elders said to him, Come, sit down among us, and show it us, seeing God has given you the honor of an elder. <sup>51</sup> Then said Daniel to them, Put them asunder one far from another, and I will examine them. <sup>52</sup> So when they were put asunder one from another, he called one of them, and said to him, O you that have become old in wickedness, now are your sins come home to you which you have committed aforetime, <sup>53</sup> in pronouncing unjust judgement, and condemning the innocent, and letting the guilty go free; albeit the Lord says, The innocent and righteous shall you not kill. <sup>54</sup> Now then, if you saw her, tell me, Under what tree saw you them companying together? Who answered, Under a mastick tree. <sup>55</sup> And Daniel said, Right well have you lied against your own head; for even now the angel of God has received the sentence of God and shall cut you in two. <sup>56</sup> So he put him aside, and commanded to bring the other, and said to him, O you seed of Canaan, and not of Judah, beauty has deceived you, and lust has perverted your heart. <sup>57</sup> Thus have you dealt with the daughters of Israel, and they for fear companied with you: but the daughter of Judah would not abide your wickedness. <sup>58</sup> Now therefore tell me, Under what tree did you take them companying together? Who answered, Under a holm tree. <sup>59</sup> Then said Daniel to him, Right well have you also lied against your own head: for the angel of God waits with the sword to cut you in two, that he may destroy you. <sup>60</sup> With that all the assembly cried out with a loud voice, and blessed God, who saves them that hope in him. <sup>61</sup> And they arose against the two elders, for Daniel had convicted them of false witness out of their own mouth: <sup>62</sup> and according to the law of Moses they did to them in such sort as they maliciously intended to do to their neighbor: and they put them to death, and the innocent blood was saved the same day. <sup>63</sup> Therefore Helkias and his wife praised God for their daughter Susanna, with Joakim her husband, and all the kindred, because there was no dishonesty found in her. <sup>64</sup> And from that day forth was Daniel had in great reputation in the sight of the people.

The Good News According to

1

<sup>1</sup> The book of the genealogy of Jesus Christ,<sup>a</sup> the son of David, the son of Abraham. <sup>2</sup> Abraham became the father of Isaac. Isaac became the father of Jacob. Jacob became the father of Judah and his brothers. <sup>3</sup> Judah became the father of Perez and Zerah by Tamar. Perez became the father of Hezron. Hezron became the father of Ram. <sup>4</sup> Ram became the father of Amminadab. Amminadab became the father of Nahshon. Nahshon became the father of Salmon. <sup>5</sup> Salmon became the father of Boaz by Rahab. Boaz became the father of Obed by Ruth. Obed became the father of Jesse. <sup>6</sup> Jesse became the father of King David. David became the father of Solomon by her who had been Uriah's wife. <sup>7</sup> Solomon became the father of Rehoboam. Rehoboam became the father of Abijah. Abijah became the father of Asa. <sup>8</sup> Asa became the father of Jehoshaphat. Jehoshaphat became the father of Joram. Joram became the father of Uzziah. <sup>9</sup> Uzziah became the father of Jotham. Jotham became the father of Ahaz. Ahaz became the father of Hezekiah. <sup>10</sup> Hezekiah became the father of Manasseh. Manasseh became the father of Amon. Amon became the father of Josiah. <sup>11</sup> Josiah became the father of Jechoniah and his brothers, at the time of the exile to Babylon. <sup>12</sup> After the exile to Babylon, Jechoniah became the father of Shealtiel. Shealtiel became the father of Zerubbabel. <sup>13</sup> Zerubbabel became the father of Abiud. Abiud became the father of Eliakim. Eliakim became the father of Azor. <sup>14</sup> Azor became the father of Zadok. Zadok became the father of Achim. Achim became the father of Eliud. <sup>15</sup> Eliud became the father of Eleazar. Eleazar became the father of Matthan. Matthan became the father of Jacob. <sup>16</sup> Jacob became the father of Joseph, the husband of Mary, from whom was born Jesus,<sup>b</sup> who is called Christ. <sup>17</sup> So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations; from David to the exile to Babylon fourteen generations; and from the carrying away to Babylon to the Christ, fourteen generations.

<sup>22</sup> Now all this has happened, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying,

and shall give birth to a son.
They shall call his name Immanuel”; which is, being interpreted, “God with us.”<sup>1</sup>

<sup>24</sup> Joseph arose from his sleep, and did as the angel of the Lord commanded him, and took his wife to himself; <sup>25</sup> and didn’t know her sexually until she had given birth to her firstborn son. He named him Jesus.

2

are in no way least among the princes of Judah:
for out of you shall come a governor, who shall shepherd my people, Israel.’”<sup>1</sup>

<sup>7</sup> Then Herod secretly called the wise men, and learned from them exactly what time the star appeared. <sup>8</sup> He sent them to Bethlehem, and said, “Go and search diligently for the young child. When you have found him, bring me word, so that I also may come and worship him.”

<sup>10</sup> When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceedingly great joy. <sup>11</sup> They came into the house and saw the young child with Mary, his mother, and they fell down and worshiped him. Opening their treasures, they offered to him gifts: gold, frankincense, and myrrh. <sup>12</sup> Being warned in a dream that they shouldn’t return to Herod, they went back to their own country another way.

<sup>13</sup> Now when they had departed, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream, saying, “Arise and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and stay there until I tell you, for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him.”

<sup>14</sup> He arose and took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt, <sup>15</sup> and was there until the death of Herod; that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, “Out of Egypt I called my son.”<sup>2</sup>

<sup>16</sup> Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked by the wise men, was exceedingly angry, and sent out, and killed all the male children who were in Bethlehem and in all the surrounding countryside, from two years old and under, according to the exact time which he had learned from the wise men. <sup>17</sup> Then that which was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled, saying,

lamentation, weeping and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children;
she wouldn't be comforted, because they are no more."<sup>3</sup>

<sup>19</sup> But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, saying, <sup>20</sup> "Arise and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel, for those who sought the young child's life are dead."

3

"The voice of one crying in the wilderness,
make ready the way of the Lord.
Make his paths straight."<sup>1</sup>

Jordan went out to him. <sup>6</sup> They were baptized<sup>e</sup> by him in the Jordan, confessing their sins. <sup>7</sup> But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming for his baptism,<sup>f</sup> he said to them, "You offspring of vipers, who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? <sup>8</sup> Therefore produce fruit worthy of repentance! <sup>9</sup> Don't think to yourselves, 'We have Abraham for our father,' for I tell you that God is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones.

<sup>10</sup> "Even now the ax lies at the root of the trees. Therefore every tree that doesn't produce good fruit is cut down, and cast into the fire. <sup>11</sup> I indeed baptize<sup>g</sup> you in water for repentance, but he who comes after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to carry. He will baptize you in the Holy Spirit.<sup>h</sup> <sup>12</sup> His winnowing fork is in his hand, and he will thoroughly cleanse his threshing floor. He will gather his wheat into the barn, but the chaff he will burn up with unquenchable fire."

<sup>13</sup> Then Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan<sup>i</sup> to John, to be baptized by him. <sup>14</sup> But John would have hindered him, saying, "I need to be baptized by you, and you come to me?"

<sup>15</sup> But Jesus, answering, said to him, "Allow it now, for this is the fitting way for us to fulfill all righteousness." Then he allowed him. <sup>16</sup> Jesus, when he was baptized, went up directly from the water: and behold, the heavens were opened to him. He saw the Spirit of God descending as a dove, and coming on him. <sup>17</sup> Behold, a voice out of the heavens said, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased.”

<sup>1</sup> Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. <sup>2</sup> When he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was hungry afterward. <sup>3</sup> The tempter came and said to him, “If you are the Son of God, command that these stones become bread.”

<sup>4</sup> But he answered, “It is written, ‘Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds out of the mouth of God.’”<sup>1</sup>

<sup>5</sup> Then the devil took him into the holy city. He set him on the pinnacle of the temple, <sup>6</sup> and said to him, “If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down, for it is written, ‘He will put his angels in charge of you.’ and,

so that you don’t dash your foot against a stone.’”<sup>2</sup>

<sup>7</sup> Jesus said to him, “Again, it is written, ‘You shall not test the Lord, your God.’”<sup>3</sup>

<sup>8</sup> Again, the devil took him to an exceedingly high mountain, and showed him all the kingdoms of the world, and their glory. <sup>9</sup> He said to him, “I will give you all of these things, if you will fall down and worship me.”

<sup>10</sup> Then Jesus said to him, “Get behind me,<sup>j</sup> Satan! For it is written, ‘You shall worship the Lord your God, and you shall serve him only.’”<sup>4</sup>

Jesus heard that John was delivered up, he withdrew into Galilee. <sup>13</sup> Leaving Nazareth, he came and lived in Capernaum, which is by the sea, in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali, <sup>14</sup> that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying,

toward the sea, beyond the Jordan,
Galilee of the Gentiles,

<sup>16</sup> the people who sat in darkness saw a great light, to those who sat in the region and shadow of death, to them light has dawned.”<sup>5</sup>

<sup>18</sup> Walking by the sea of Galilee, he<sup>k</sup> saw two brothers: Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew, his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen. <sup>19</sup> He said to them, “Come after me, and I will make you fishers for men.”

<sup>23</sup> Jesus went about in all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the Good News of the Kingdom, and healing every disease and every sickness among the people. <sup>24</sup> The report about him went out into all Syria. They brought to him all who were sick, afflicted with various diseases and torments, possessed with demons, epileptics, and paralytics; and he healed them. <sup>25</sup> Great multitudes from Galilee, Decapolis, Jerusalem, Judea and from beyond the Jordan followed him.

for theirs is the Kingdom of

for they shall be comforted.<sup>2</sup>

<sup>5</sup> Blessed are the gentle, for they shall inherit the earth.<sup>13</sup>

<sup>6</sup> Blessed are those who hunger and thirst after righteousness, for they shall be filled.

<sup>7</sup> Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy.

<sup>8</sup> Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.

<sup>9</sup> Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called children of God.

<sup>10</sup> Blessed are those who have been persecuted for righteousness’
sake,
for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven.

<sup>11</sup> “Blessed are you when people reproach you, persecute you, and say all kinds of evil against you falsely, for my sake. <sup>12</sup> Rejoice, and be exceedingly glad, for great is your reward in heaven. For that is how they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

<sup>13</sup> “You are the salt of the earth, but if the salt has lost its flavor, with what will it be salted? It is then good for nothing, but to be cast out and trodden under the feet of men.

<sup>17</sup> “Don’t think that I came to destroy the law or the prophets. I didn’t come to destroy, but to fulfill. <sup>18</sup> For most certainly, I tell you, until heaven and earth pass away, not even one smallest letter<sup>m</sup> or one tiny pen stroke<sup>n</sup> shall in any way pass away from the law, until all things are accomplished. <sup>19</sup> Whoever, therefore, shall break one of these least commandments, and teach others to do so, shall be called least in the Kingdom of Heaven; but whoever shall do and teach them shall be called great in the Kingdom of Heaven. <sup>20</sup> For I tell you that unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, there is no way you will enter into the Kingdom of Heaven.

<sup>21</sup> “You have heard that it was said to the ancient ones, ‘You shall not murder;’<sup>4</sup> and ‘Whoever murders will be in danger of the judgment.’ <sup>22</sup> But I tell you, that everyone who is angry with his brother without a cause <sup>o</sup> will be in danger of the judgment; and whoever says to his brother, ‘Raca!’<sup>p</sup> will be in danger of the council; and whoever says, ‘You fool!’ will be in danger of the fire of Gehenna.<sup>q</sup>

<sup>23</sup> “If therefore you are offering your gift at the altar, and there remember that your brother has anything against you,<sup>24</sup> leave your gift there before the altar, and go your way. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift.<sup>25</sup> Agree with your adversary quickly, while you are with him on the way; lest perhaps the prosecutor deliver you to the judge, and the judge deliver you to the officer, and you be cast into prison.<sup>26</sup> Most certainly I tell you, you shall by no means get out of there, until you have paid the last penny.<sup>r</sup>

and whoever marries her when she is put away commits adultery.

<sup>33</sup> “Again you have heard that it was said to them of old time, ‘You shall not make false vows, but shall perform to the Lord your vows,’<sup>34</sup> but I tell you, don’t swear at all: neither by heaven, for it is the throne of God;<sup>35</sup> nor by the earth, for it is the footstool of his feet; nor by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King.<sup>36</sup> Neither shall you swear by your head, for you can’t make one hair white or black.<sup>37</sup> But let your ‘Yes’ be ‘Yes’ and your ‘No’ be ‘No.’ Whatever is more than these is of the evil one.

<sup>43</sup> “You have heard that it was said, ‘You shall love your neighbor<sup>v</sup> and hate your enemy.’<sup>w</sup><sup>44</sup> But I tell you, love your enemies, bless those who curse you, do good to those who hate you, and pray for those who mistreat you and persecute you,<sup>45</sup> that you may be children of your Father who is in heaven. For he makes his sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the just and the unjust.<sup>46</sup> For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Don't even the tax collectors do the same? <sup>47</sup> If you only greet your friends, what more do you do than others? Don't even the tax collectors<sup>x</sup> do the same? <sup>48</sup> Therefore you shall be perfect, just as your Father in heaven is perfect.

<sup>5</sup> "When you pray, you shall not be as the hypocrites, for they love to stand and pray in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen by men. Most certainly, I tell you, they have received their reward. <sup>6</sup> But you, when you pray, enter into your inner room, and having shut your door, pray to your Father who is in secret, and your Father who sees in secret will reward you openly. <sup>7</sup> In praying, don't use vain repetitions, as the Gentiles do; for they think that they will be heard for their much speaking. <sup>8</sup> Therefore don't be like them, for your Father knows what things you need, before you ask him. <sup>9</sup> Pray like this: 'Our Father in heaven, may your name be kept holy. <sup>10</sup> Let your Kingdom come. Let your will be done, as in heaven, so on earth. <sup>11</sup> Give us today our daily bread. <sup>12</sup> Forgive us our debts, as we also forgive our debtors. <sup>13</sup> Bring us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one. For yours is the Kingdom, the power, and the glory forever. Amen.<sup>y</sup>'

<sup>14</sup> "For if you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. <sup>15</sup> But if you don't forgive men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

<sup>22</sup> "The lamp of the body is the eye. If therefore your eye is sound, your whole body will be full of light. <sup>23</sup> But if your eye is evil, your whole body will be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in you is darkness, how great is the darkness!

<sup>24</sup> "No one can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other; or else he will be devoted to one and despise the other. You can't serve both God and Mammon. <sup>25</sup> Therefore I tell you, don't be anxious for your life: what you will eat, or what you will drink; nor yet for your body, what you will wear. Isn't life more than food, and the body more than clothing? <sup>26</sup> See the birds of the sky, that they don't sow, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns. Your heavenly Father feeds them. Aren't you of much more value than they?

<sup>31</sup> "Therefore don't be anxious, saying, 'What will we eat?', 'What will we drink?' or, 'With what will we be clothed?' <sup>32</sup> For the Gentiles seek after all these things; for your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. <sup>33</sup> But seek first God's Kingdom, and his righteousness; and all these things will be given to you as well. <sup>34</sup> Therefore don't be anxious for tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for itself. Each day's own evil is sufficient.

7

<sup>1</sup> "Don't judge, so that you won't be judged. <sup>2</sup> For with whatever judgment you judge, you will be judged; and with whatever measure you measure, it will be measured to you. <sup>3</sup> Why do you see the speck that is in your brother's eye, but don't consider the beam that is in your own eye? <sup>4</sup> Or how will you tell your brother, 'Let me remove the speck from your eye;' and behold, the beam is in your own eye? <sup>5</sup> You hypocrite! First remove the beam out of your own eye, and then you can see clearly to remove the speck out of your brother's eye.

<sup>7</sup> "Ask, and it will be given you. Seek, and you will find. Knock, and it will be opened for you. <sup>8</sup> For everyone who asks receives. He who seeks finds. To him who knocks it will be opened. <sup>9</sup> Or who is there among you, who, if his son asks him for bread, will give him a stone? <sup>10</sup> Or if he asks for a fish, who will give him a serpent? <sup>11</sup> If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask him! <sup>12</sup> Therefore whatever you desire for men to do to you, you shall also do to them; for this is the law and the prophets.

<sup>13</sup> "Enter in by the narrow gate; for wide is the gate and broad is the way that leads to destruction, and many are those who enter in by it. <sup>14</sup> How<sup>a</sup> narrow is the gate, and restricted is the way that leads to life! Few are those who find it.

the corrupt tree produces evil fruit. <sup>18</sup> A good tree can't produce evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree produce good fruit. <sup>19</sup> Every tree that doesn't grow good fruit is cut down, and thrown into the fire. <sup>20</sup> Therefore by their fruits you will know them. <sup>21</sup> Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter into the Kingdom of Heaven; but he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. <sup>22</sup> Many will tell me in that day, 'Lord, Lord, didn't we prophesy in your name, in your name cast out demons, and in your name do many mighty works?' <sup>23</sup> Then I will tell them, 'I never knew you. Depart from me, you who work iniquity.'

8

him, saying, "Lord, if you want to, you can make me clean."

<sup>3</sup> Jesus stretched out his hand, and touched him, saying, "I want to. Be made clean." Immediately his leprosy was cleansed. <sup>4</sup> Jesus said to him, "See that you tell nobody, but go, show yourself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, as a testimony to them."

<sup>7</sup> Jesus said to him, "I will come and heal him."

<sup>8</sup> The centurion answered, "Lord, I'm not worthy for you to come under my roof. Just say the word, and my servant will be healed. <sup>9</sup> For I am also a man under authority, having under myself soldiers. I tell this one, 'Go,' and he goes; and tell another, 'Come,' and he comes; and tell my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it."

<sup>10</sup> When Jesus heard it, he marveled, and said to those who followed, "Most certainly I tell you, I haven't found so great a faith, not even in Israel. <sup>11</sup> I tell you that many will come from the east and the west, and will sit down with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the Kingdom of Heaven, <sup>12</sup> but the children of the Kingdom will be thrown out into the outer darkness. There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth." <sup>13</sup> Jesus said to the centurion, "Go your way. Let it be done for you as you have believed." His servant was healed in that hour.

<sup>23</sup> When he got into a boat, his disciples followed him. <sup>24</sup> Behold, a violent storm came up on the sea, so much that the boat was covered with the waves, but he was asleep. <sup>25</sup> They came to him, and woke him up, saying, “Save us, Lord! We are dying!”

<sup>26</sup> He said to them, “Why are you fearful, O you of little faith?” Then he got up, rebuked the wind and the sea, and there was a great calm.

<sup>28</sup> When he came to the other side, into the country of the Gergesenes, <sup>c</sup> two people possessed by demons met him there, coming out of the tombs, exceedingly fierce, so that nobody could pass that way. <sup>29</sup> Behold, they cried out, saying, “What do we have to do with you, Jesus, Son of God? Have you come here to torment us before the time?” <sup>30</sup> Now there was a herd of many pigs feeding far away from them. <sup>31</sup> The demons begged him, saying, “If you cast us out, permit us to go away into the herd of pigs.”

They came out, and went into the herd of pigs: and behold, the whole herd of pigs rushed down the cliff into the sea, and died in the water. <sup>33</sup> Those who fed them fled, and went away into the city, and told everything, including what happened to those who were possessed with demons. <sup>34</sup> Behold, all the city came out to meet Jesus. When they saw him, they begged that he would depart from their borders.

9

<sup>4</sup> Jesus, knowing their thoughts, said, “Why do you think evil in your hearts? <sup>5</sup> For which is easier, to say, ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or to say, ‘Get up, and walk?’ <sup>6</sup> But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins...” (then he said to the paralytic), “Get up, and take up your mat, and go to your house.”

<sup>9</sup> As Jesus passed by from there, he saw a man called Matthew sitting at the tax collection office. He said to him, “Follow me.” He got up and followed him. <sup>10</sup> As he sat in the house, behold, many tax collectors and sinners came and sat down with Jesus and his disciples. <sup>11</sup> When the Pharisees saw it, they said to his disciples, “Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?”

<sup>12</sup> When Jesus heard it, he said to them, “Those who are healthy have no need for a physician, but those who are sick do. <sup>13</sup> But you go and learn what this means: ‘I desire mercy, and not sacrifice,’<sup>1</sup> for I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.”<sup>d</sup>

<sup>15</sup> Jesus said to them, “Can the friends of the bridegroom mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast. <sup>16</sup> No one puts a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment; for the patch would tear away from the garment, and a worse hole is made. <sup>17</sup> Neither do people put new wine into old wine skins, or else the skins would burst, and the wine be spilled, and the skins ruined. No, they put new wine into fresh wine skins, and both are preserved.”

<sup>18</sup> While he told these things to them, behold, a ruler came and worshiped him, saying, “My daughter has just died, but come and lay your hand on her, and she will live.”

<sup>19</sup> Jesus got up and followed him, as did his disciples. <sup>20</sup> Behold, a woman who had an issue of blood for twelve years came behind him, and touched the fringe<sup>e</sup> of his garment; <sup>21</sup> for she said within herself, “If I just touch his garment, I will be made well.”

<sup>22</sup> But Jesus, turning around and seeing her, said, “Daughter, cheer up! Your faith has made you well.” And the woman was made well from that hour.

<sup>23</sup> When Jesus came into the ruler’s house, and saw the flute players, and the crowd in noisy disorder, <sup>24</sup> he said to them, “Make room, because the girl isn’t dead, but sleeping.”

They were ridiculing him. <sup>25</sup> But when the crowd was put out, he entered in, took her by the hand, and the girl arose. <sup>26</sup> The report of this went out into all that land. <sup>27</sup> As Jesus passed by from there, two blind men followed him, calling out and saying, “Have mercy on us, son of David!”

<sup>28</sup> When he had come into the house, the blind men came to him. Jesus said to them, “Do you believe that I am able to do this?”

They told him, “Yes, Lord.”

<sup>29</sup> Then he touched their eyes, saying, “According to your faith be it done to you.”

<sup>30</sup> Their eyes were opened. Jesus strictly commanded them, saying, “See that no one knows about this.” <sup>31</sup> But they went out and spread abroad his fame in all that land.

<sup>32</sup> As they went out, behold, a mute man who was demon possessed was brought to him. <sup>33</sup> When the demon was cast out, the mute man spoke. The multitudes marveled, saying, “Nothing like this has ever been seen in Israel!”

<sup>35</sup> Jesus went about all the cities and the villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the Good News of the Kingdom, and healing every disease and every sickness among the people. <sup>36</sup> But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion for them, because they were harassed<sup>f</sup> and scattered, like sheep without a shepherd. <sup>37</sup> Then he said to his disciples, “The harvest indeed is plentiful, but the laborers are few. <sup>38</sup> Pray therefore that the Lord of the harvest will send out laborers into his harvest.”

10

cleanse the lepers,<sup>h</sup> and cast out demons. Freely you received, so freely give. <sup>9</sup>

Don’t take any gold, silver, or brass in your money belts. <sup>10</sup> Take no bag for your journey, neither two coats, nor shoes, nor staff: for the laborer is worthy of his food.

<sup>11</sup> Into whatever city or village you enter, find out who in it is worthy; and stay there until you go on. <sup>12</sup> As you enter into the household, greet it. <sup>13</sup> If the household is worthy, let your peace come on it, but if it isn’t worthy, let your peace return to you.

<sup>14</sup> Whoever doesn’t receive you, nor hear your words, as you go out of that house or that city, shake off the dust from your feet.

<sup>15</sup> Most certainly I tell you, it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment than for that city.

<sup>16</sup> “Behold, I send you out as sheep among wolves. Therefore be wise as serpents, and harmless as doves. <sup>17</sup> But beware of men: for they will deliver you up to councils, and in their synagogues they will scourge you. <sup>18</sup> Yes, and you will be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony to them and to the nations. <sup>19</sup> But when they deliver you up, don’t be anxious how or what you will say, for it will be given you in that hour what you will say. <sup>20</sup> For it is not you who speak, but the Spirit of your Father who speaks in you.

<sup>21</sup> “Brother will deliver up brother to death, and the father his child. Children will rise up against parents, and cause them to be put to death. <sup>22</sup> You will be hated by all men for my name’s sake, but he who endures to the end will be saved. <sup>23</sup> But when they persecute you in this city, flee into the next, for most certainly I tell you, you will not have gone through the cities of Israel, until the Son of Man has come.

<sup>34</sup> “Don’t think that I came to send peace on the earth. I didn’t come to send peace, but a sword. <sup>35</sup> For I came to set a man at odds against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law. <sup>36</sup> A man’s foes will be those of his own household.<sup>1</sup> <sup>37</sup> He who loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; and he who loves son or daughter more than me isn’t worthy of me.

<sup>38</sup> He who doesn’t take his cross and follow after me, isn’t worthy of me. <sup>39</sup> He who seeks his life will lose it; and he who loses his life for my sake will find it. <sup>40</sup> He who receives you receives me, and he who receives me receives him who sent me. <sup>41</sup> He who receives a prophet in the name of a prophet will receive a prophet’s reward. He who receives a righteous man in the name of a righteous man will receive a righteous man’s reward. <sup>42</sup> Whoever gives one of these little ones just a cup of cold water to drink in the name of a disciple, most certainly I tell you he will in no way lose his reward.”

what did you go out to see? A man in soft clothing? Behold, those who wear soft clothing are in kings' houses. <sup>9</sup> But why did you go out? To see a prophet? Yes, I tell you, and much more than a prophet. <sup>10</sup> For this is he, of whom it is written, 'Behold, I send my messenger before your face, who will prepare your way before you.'<sup>3</sup> <sup>11</sup> Most certainly I tell you, among those who are born of women there has not arisen anyone greater than John the Baptizer; yet he who is least in the Kingdom of Heaven is greater than he. <sup>12</sup> From the days of John the Baptizer until now, the Kingdom of Heaven suffers violence, and the violent take it by force.<sup>1</sup> <sup>13</sup> For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John. <sup>14</sup> If you are willing to receive it, this is Elijah, who is to come. <sup>15</sup> He who has ears to hear, let him hear.

<sup>20</sup> Then he began to denounce the cities in which most of his mighty works had been done, because they didn't repent. <sup>21</sup> "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon which were done in you, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. <sup>22</sup> But I tell you, it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon on the day of judgment than for you. <sup>23</sup> You, Capernaum, who are exalted to heaven, you will go down to Hades. <sup>n</sup> For if the mighty works had been done in Sodom which were done in you, it would have remained until today. <sup>24</sup> But I tell you that it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom, on the day of judgment, than for you."

<sup>25</sup> At that time, Jesus answered, "I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that you hid these things from the wise and understanding, and revealed them to infants. <sup>26</sup> Yes, Father, for so it was well-pleasing in your sight. <sup>27</sup> All things have been delivered to me by my Father. No one knows the Son, except the Father; neither does anyone know the Father, except the Son, and he to whom the Son desires to reveal him.

<sup>28</sup> "Come to me, all you who labor and are heavily burdened, and I will give you rest. <sup>29</sup> Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart; and you will find rest for your souls. <sup>30</sup> For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light."

<sup>1</sup> At that time, Jesus went on the Sabbath day through the grain fields. His disciples were hungry and began to pluck heads of grain and to eat. <sup>2</sup> But the Pharisees, when they saw it, said to him, "Behold, your disciples do what is not lawful to do on the Sabbath."

<sup>3</sup> But he said to them, “Haven’t you read what David did, when he was hungry, and those who were with him; <sup>4</sup> how he entered into God’s house, and ate the show bread, which was not lawful for him to eat, neither for those who were with him, but only for the priests?<sup>1</sup> <sup>5</sup> Or have you not read in the law, that on the Sabbath day, the priests in the temple profane the Sabbath, and are guiltless? <sup>6</sup> But I tell you that one greater than the temple is here. <sup>7</sup> But if you had known what this means, ‘I desire mercy, and not sacrifice,’<sup>2</sup> you would not have condemned the guiltless. <sup>8</sup> For the Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath.”

<sup>9</sup> He departed there, and went into their synagogue. <sup>10</sup> And behold there was a man with a withered hand. They asked him, “Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath day?” that they might accuse him.

<sup>11</sup> He said to them, “What man is there among you, who has one sheep, and if this one falls into a pit on the Sabbath day, won’t he grab on to it, and lift it out? <sup>12</sup> Of how much more value then is a man than a sheep! Therefore it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath day.” <sup>13</sup> Then he told the man, “Stretch out your hand.” He stretched it out; and it was restored whole, just like the other. <sup>14</sup> But the Pharisees went out, and conspired against him, how they might destroy him. <sup>15</sup> Jesus, perceiving that, withdrew from there. Great multitudes followed him; and he healed them all, <sup>16</sup> and commanded them that they should not make him known: <sup>17</sup> that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying,

my beloved in whom my soul is well pleased:

I will put my Spirit on him.

He will proclaim justice to the nations.

<sup>19</sup> He will not strive, nor shout;
neither will anyone hear his voice in the streets.

He won’t quench a smoking flax, until he leads justice to victory.

<sup>22</sup> Then one possessed by a demon, blind and mute, was brought to him and he healed him, so that the blind and mute man both spoke and saw. <sup>23</sup> All the multitudes were amazed, and said, “Can this be the son of David?” <sup>24</sup> But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, “This man does not cast out demons, except by Beelzebul, the prince of the demons.”

<sup>39</sup> But he answered them, “An evil and adulterous generation seeks after a sign, but no sign will be given to it but the sign of Jonah the prophet. <sup>40</sup> For as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the whale, so will the Son of Man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. <sup>41</sup> The men of Nineveh will stand up in the judgment with this generation, and will condemn it, for they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and behold, someone greater than Jonah is here. <sup>42</sup> The queen of the south will rise up in the judgment with this generation, and will condemn it, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, someone greater than Solomon is here.

<sup>43</sup> When an unclean spirit has gone out of a man, he passes through waterless places, seeking rest, and doesn’t find it. <sup>44</sup> Then he says, ‘I will return into my house from which I came out,’ and when he has come back, he finds it empty, swept, and put in order. <sup>45</sup> Then he goes, and takes with himself seven other spirits more evil than he is, and they enter in and dwell there. The last state of that man becomes worse than the first. Even so will it be also to this evil generation.”

<sup>48</sup> But he answered him who spoke to him, “Who is my mother? Who are my brothers?” <sup>49</sup> He stretched out his hand towards his disciples, and said, “Behold, my mother and my brothers! <sup>50</sup> For whoever does the will of my Father who is in heaven, he is my brother, and sister, and mother.”

by the roadside, and the birds came and devoured them. <sup>5</sup> Others fell on rocky ground, where they didn't have much soil, and immediately they sprang up, because they had no depth of earth. <sup>6</sup> When the sun had risen, they were scorched. Because they had no root, they withered away. <sup>7</sup> Others fell among thorns. The thorns grew up and choked them. <sup>8</sup> Others fell on good soil, and yielded fruit: some one hundred times as much, some sixty, and some thirty. <sup>9</sup> He who has ears to hear, let him hear."

<sup>11</sup> He answered them, "To you it is given to know the mysteries of the Kingdom of Heaven, but it is not given to them. <sup>12</sup> For whoever has, to him will be given, and he will have abundance, but whoever doesn't have, from him will be taken away even that which he has. <sup>13</sup> Therefore I speak to them in parables, because seeing they don't see, and hearing, they don't hear, neither do they understand. <sup>14</sup> In them the prophecy of Isaiah is fulfilled, which says,

'By hearing you will hear,
and will in no way understand;
Seeing you will see,
and will in no way perceive:

<sup>15</sup> for this people's heart has grown callous,
their ears are dull of hearing,
they have closed their eyes;
or else perhaps they might perceive with their eyes,
hear with their ears,
understand with their heart,
and would turn again;

and I would heal them.'<sup>1</sup>

<sup>16</sup> "But blessed are your eyes, for they see; and your ears, for they hear. <sup>17</sup> For most certainly I tell you that many prophets and righteous men desired to see the things which you see, and didn't see them; and to hear the things which you hear, and didn't hear them.

<sup>18</sup> "Hear, then, the parable of the farmer. <sup>19</sup> When anyone hears the word of the Kingdom, and doesn't understand it, the evil one comes, and snatches away that which has been sown in his heart. This is what was sown by the roadside. <sup>20</sup> What was sown on the rocky places, this is he who hears the word, and immediately with joy receives it; <sup>21</sup> yet he has no root in himself, but endures for a while. When oppression or persecution arises because of the word, immediately he stumbles. <sup>22</sup> What was sown among the thorns, this is he who hears the word, but the cares of this age and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, and he becomes unfruitful. <sup>23</sup> What was sown on the good ground, this is he who hears the word, and understands it, who most certainly bears fruit, and produces, some one hundred times as much, some sixty, and some thirty."

your field? Where did these darnel weeds come from?’

“The servants asked him, ‘Do you want us to go and gather them up?’

<sup>29</sup> “But he said, ‘No, lest perhaps while you gather up the darnel weeds, you root up the wheat with them. <sup>30</sup> Let both grow together until the harvest, and in the harvest time I will tell the reapers, “First, gather up the darnel weeds, and bind them in bundles to burn them; but gather the wheat into my barn.”’”

<sup>31</sup> He set another parable before them, saying, “The Kingdom of Heaven is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field; <sup>32</sup> which indeed is smaller than all seeds. But when it is grown, it is greater than the herbs, and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in its branches.”

<sup>34</sup> Jesus spoke all these things in parables to the multitudes; and without a parable, he didn’t speak to them, <sup>35</sup> that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophet, saying,

“I will open my mouth in parables;
I will utter things hidden from the foundation of the world.”<sup>2</sup>

<sup>36</sup> Then Jesus sent the multitudes away, and went into the house. His disciples came to him, saying, “Explain to us the parable of the darnel weeds of the field.”

<sup>44</sup> “Again, the Kingdom of Heaven is like a treasure hidden in the field, which a man found, and hid. In his joy, he goes and sells all that he has, and buys that field.

<sup>47</sup> “Again, the Kingdom of Heaven is like a dragnet, that was cast into the sea, and gathered some fish of every kind, <sup>48</sup> which, when it was filled, they drew up on the beach. They sat down, and gathered the good into containers, but the bad they threw away. <sup>49</sup> So will it be in the end of the world. The angels will come and separate the wicked from among the righteous, <sup>50</sup> and will cast them into the furnace of fire. There will be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth.”<sup>51</sup> Jesus said to them, “Have you understood all these things?”

They answered him, “Yes, Lord.”

<sup>53</sup> When Jesus had finished these parables, he departed from there. <sup>54</sup> Coming into his own country, he taught them in their synagogue, so that they were astonished, and said, “Where did this man get this wisdom, and these mighty works? <sup>55</sup> Isn’t this the carpenter’s son? Isn’t his mother called Mary, and his brothers, James, Joses, Simon, and Judas?<sup>r</sup> <sup>56</sup> Aren’t all of his sisters with us? Where then did this man get all of these things?” <sup>57</sup> They were offended by him.

But Jesus said to them, “A prophet is not without honor, except in his own country, and in his own house.”<sup>58</sup> He didn’t do many mighty works there because of their unbelief.

him as a prophet. <sup>6</sup> But when Herod’s birthday came, the daughter of Herodias danced among them and pleased Herod. <sup>7</sup> Whereupon he promised with an oath to give her whatever she should ask. <sup>8</sup> She, being prompted by her mother, said, “Give me here on a platter the head of John the Baptizer.”

<sup>14</sup> Jesus went out, and he saw a great multitude. He had compassion on them, and healed their sick. <sup>15</sup> When evening had come, his disciples came to him, saying, “This place is deserted, and the hour is already late. Send the multitudes away, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves food.”

<sup>18</sup> He said, “Bring them here to me.” <sup>19</sup> He commanded the multitudes to sit down on the grass; and he took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he blessed, broke and gave the loaves to the disciples, and the disciples gave to the multitudes. <sup>20</sup> They all ate, and were filled. They took up twelve baskets full of that which remained left over from the broken pieces. <sup>21</sup> Those who ate were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

<sup>22</sup> Immediately Jesus made the disciples get into the boat, and to go ahead of him to the other side, while he sent the multitudes away. <sup>23</sup> After he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into the mountain by himself to pray. When evening had come, he was there alone. <sup>24</sup> But the boat was now in the middle of the sea, distressed by the waves, for the wind was contrary. <sup>25</sup> In the fourth watch of the night,<sup>s</sup> Jesus came to them, walking on the sea.<sup>1</sup> <sup>26</sup> When the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, "It's a ghost!" and they cried out for fear. <sup>27</sup> But immediately Jesus spoke to them, saying, "Cheer up! It is I! † Don't be afraid."

<sup>28</sup> Peter answered him and said, "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the waters."

Peter stepped down from the boat, and walked on the waters to come to Jesus. <sup>30</sup> But when he saw that the wind was strong, he was afraid, and beginning to sink, he cried out, saying, "Lord, save me!"

<sup>31</sup> Immediately Jesus stretched out his hand, took hold of him, and said to him, "You of little faith, why did you doubt?" <sup>32</sup> When they got up into the boat, the wind ceased. <sup>33</sup> Those who were in the boat came and worshiped him, saying, "You are truly the Son of God!"

<sup>34</sup> When they had crossed over, they came to the land of Gennesaret. <sup>35</sup> When the people of that place recognized him, they sent into all that surrounding region, and brought to him all who were sick; <sup>36</sup> and they begged him that they might just touch the fringe<sup>u</sup> of his garment. As many as touched it were made whole.

<sup>3</sup> He answered them, "Why do you also disobey the commandment of God because of your tradition? <sup>4</sup> For God commanded, 'Honor your father and your mother,'<sup>1</sup> and, 'He who speaks evil of father or mother, let him be put to death.'<sup>2</sup> <sup>5</sup> But you say, 'Whoever may tell his father or his mother, "Whatever help you might otherwise have gotten from me is a gift devoted to God," <sup>6</sup> he shall not honor his father or mother.' You have made the commandment of God void because of your tradition. <sup>7</sup> You hypocrites! Well did Isaiah prophesy of you, saying,

and honor me with their lips;
but their heart is far from me.

<sup>9</sup> And in vain do they worship me, teaching as doctrine rules made by men.'"<sup>3</sup>

which enters into the mouth doesn't defile the man; but that which proceeds out of the mouth, this defiles the man."

<sup>12</sup> Then the disciples came, and said to him, "Do you know that the Pharisees were offended, when they heard this saying?"

<sup>13</sup> But he answered, "Every plant which my heavenly Father didn't plant will be uprooted. <sup>14</sup> Leave them alone. They are blind guides of the blind. If the blind guide the blind, both will fall into a pit."

<sup>21</sup> Jesus went out from there, and withdrew into the region of Tyre and Sidon. <sup>22</sup> Behold, a Canaanite woman came out from those borders, and cried, saying, "Have mercy on me, Lord, you son of David! My daughter is severely possessed by a demon!"

His disciples came and begged him, saying, "Send her away; for she cries after us."

<sup>24</sup> But he answered, "I wasn't sent to anyone but the lost sheep of the house of Israel."

<sup>28</sup> Then Jesus answered her, "Woman, great is your faith! Be it done to you even as you desire." And her daughter was healed from that hour.

<sup>29</sup> Jesus departed there, and came near to the sea of Galilee; and he went up into the mountain, and sat there. <sup>30</sup> Great multitudes came to him, having with them the lame, blind, mute, maimed, and many others, and they put them down at his feet. He healed them, <sup>31</sup> so that the multitude wondered when they saw the mute speaking, the injured healed, the lame walking, and the blind seeing—and they glorified the God of Israel.

<sup>32</sup> Jesus summoned his disciples and said, "I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days and have nothing to eat. I don't want to send them away fasting, or they might faint on the way."

<sup>33</sup> The disciples said to him, "Where should we get so many loaves in a deserted place as to satisfy so great a multitude?"

<sup>34</sup> Jesus said to them, "How many loaves do you have?"

They said, "Seven, and a few small fish."

<sup>35</sup> He commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground; <sup>36</sup> and he took the seven loaves and the fish. He gave thanks and broke them, and gave to the disciples, and the disciples to the multitudes. <sup>37</sup> They all ate, and were filled. They took up seven baskets full of the broken pieces that were left over. <sup>38</sup> Those who ate were four thousand men, besides women and children. <sup>39</sup> Then he sent away the multitudes, got into the boat, and came into the borders of Magdala.

He left them, and departed. <sup>5</sup> The disciples came to the other side and had forgotten to take bread. <sup>6</sup> Jesus said to them, “Take heed and beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees.”

<sup>8</sup> Jesus, perceiving it, said, “Why do you reason among yourselves, you of little faith, ‘because you have brought no bread?’ <sup>9</sup> Don’t you yet perceive, neither remember the five loaves for the five thousand, and how many baskets you took up? <sup>10</sup> Nor the seven loaves for the four thousand, and how many baskets you took up? <sup>11</sup> How is it that you don’t perceive that I didn’t speak to you concerning bread? But beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees.”

<sup>12</sup> Then they understood that he didn’t tell them to beware of the yeast of bread, but of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees. <sup>13</sup> Now when Jesus came into the parts of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, “Who do men say that I, the Son of Man, am?”

<sup>17</sup> Jesus answered him, “Blessed are you, Simon Bar Jonah, for flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father who is in heaven. <sup>18</sup> I also tell you that you are Peter,<sup>v</sup> and on this rock<sup>w</sup> I will build my assembly, and the gates of Hades<sup>x</sup> will not prevail against it. <sup>19</sup> I will give to you the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will have been bound in heaven; and whatever you release on earth will have been released in heaven.” <sup>20</sup> Then he commanded the disciples that they should tell no one that he was Jesus the Christ. <sup>21</sup> From that time, Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things from the elders, chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and the third day be raised up.

<sup>22</sup> Peter took him aside, and began to rebuke him, saying, “Far be it from you, Lord! This will never be done to you.”

<sup>23</sup> But he turned, and said to Peter, “Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to me, for you are not setting your mind on the things of God, but on the things of men.” <sup>24</sup> Then Jesus said to his disciples, “If anyone desires to come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.” <sup>25</sup> For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, and whoever will lose his life for my sake will find it. <sup>26</sup> For what will it profit a man, if he gains the whole world, and forfeits his life? Or what will a man give in exchange for his life? <sup>27</sup> For the Son of Man will come in the glory of his Father with his angels, and then he will render to everyone according to his deeds. <sup>28</sup> Most certainly I tell you, there are some standing here who will in no way taste of death, until they see the Son of Man coming in his Kingdom.”

17

<sup>4</sup> Peter answered, and said to Jesus, “Lord, it is good for us to be here. If you want, let’s make three tents here: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.”

<sup>5</sup> While he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them. Behold, a voice came out of the cloud, saying, “This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. Listen to him.”

<sup>11</sup> Jesus answered them, “Elijah indeed comes first, and will restore all things,” <sup>12</sup> but I tell you that Elijah has come already, and they didn’t recognize him, but did to him whatever they wanted to. Even so the Son of Man will also suffer by them.” <sup>13</sup> Then the disciples understood that he spoke to them of John the Baptizer.

<sup>14</sup> When they came to the multitude, a man came to him, kneeling down to him, and saying, <sup>15</sup> “Lord, have mercy on my son, for he is epileptic, and suffers grievously; for he often falls into the fire, and often into the water. <sup>16</sup> So I brought him to your disciples, and they could not cure him.”

<sup>17</sup> Jesus answered, “Faithless and perverse generation! How long will I be with you? How long will I bear with you? Bring him here to me.” <sup>18</sup> Jesus rebuked him, the demon went out of him, and the boy was cured from that hour.

<sup>19</sup> Then the disciples came to Jesus privately, and said, “Why weren’t we able to cast it out?”

<sup>20</sup> He said to them, “Because of your unbelief. For most certainly I tell you, if you have faith as a grain of mustard seed, you will tell this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you. <sup>21</sup> But this kind doesn’t go out except by prayer and fasting.” <sup>y</sup>

<sup>22</sup> While they were staying in Galilee, Jesus said to them, “The Son of Man is about to be delivered up into the hands of men, <sup>23</sup> and they will kill him, and the third day he will be raised up.”

They were exceedingly sorry. <sup>24</sup> When they had come to Capernaum, those who collected the didrachma coins<sup>z</sup> came to Peter, and said, “Doesn’t your teacher pay the didrachma?” <sup>25</sup> He said, “Yes.”

When he came into the house, Jesus anticipated him, saying, “What do you think, Simon? From whom do the kings of the earth receive toll or tribute? From their children, or from strangers?”

Jesus said to him, “Therefore the children are exempt. <sup>27</sup> But, lest we cause them to stumble, go to the sea, cast a hook, and take up the first fish that comes up. When you have opened its mouth, you will find a stater coin.<sup>a</sup> Take that, and give it to them for me and you.”

18

<sup>2</sup> Jesus called a little child to himself, and set him in the middle of them, <sup>3</sup> and said, “Most certainly I tell you, unless you turn, and become as little children, you will in no way enter into the Kingdom of Heaven.

<sup>7</sup> “Woe to the world because of occasions of stumbling! For it must be that the occasions come, but woe to that person through whom the occasion comes! <sup>8</sup> If your hand or your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off, and cast it from you. It is better for you to enter into life maimed or crippled, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into the eternal fire. <sup>9</sup> If your eye causes you to stumble, pluck it out, and cast it from you. It is better for you to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into the Gehenna<sup>b</sup> of fire. <sup>10</sup> See that you don’t despise one of these little ones, for I tell you that in heaven their angels always see the face of my Father who is in heaven. <sup>11</sup> For the Son of Man came to save that which was lost.

<sup>12</sup> “What do you think? If a man has one hundred sheep, and one of them goes astray, doesn’t he leave the ninety-nine, go to the mountains, and seek that which has gone astray? <sup>13</sup> If he finds it, most certainly I tell you, he rejoices over it more than over the ninety-nine which have not

<sup>15</sup> “If your brother sins against you, go, show him his fault between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have gained back your brother. <sup>16</sup> But if he doesn’t listen, take one or two more with you, that at the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.<sup>1</sup> <sup>17</sup> If he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the assembly. If he refuses to hear the assembly also, let him be to you as a Gentile or a tax collector. <sup>18</sup> Most certainly I tell you, whatever things you bind on earth will have been bound in heaven, and whatever things you release on earth will have been released in heaven. <sup>19</sup> Again, assuredly I tell you, that if two of you will agree on earth concerning anything that they will ask, it will be done for them by my Father who is in heaven. <sup>20</sup> For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there I am in the middle of them.”

<sup>21</sup> Then Peter came and said to him, “Lord, how often shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? Until seven times?”

<sup>22</sup> Jesus said to him, “I don’t tell you until seven times, but, until seventy times seven. <sup>23</sup> Therefore the Kingdom of Heaven is like a certain king, who wanted to reconcile accounts with his servants. <sup>24</sup> When he had begun to reconcile, one was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents.<sup>c</sup> <sup>25</sup> But because he couldn’t pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, with his wife, his children, and all that he had, and payment to be made. <sup>26</sup> The servant therefore fell down and knelt before him, saying, ‘Lord, have patience with me, and I will repay you all!’ <sup>27</sup> The lord of that servant, being moved with compassion, released him, and forgave him the debt.

<sup>29</sup> “So his fellow servant fell down at his feet and begged him, saying, ‘Have patience with me, and I will repay you!’ <sup>30</sup> He would not, but went and cast him into prison, until he should pay back that which was due. <sup>31</sup> So when his fellow servants saw what was done, they were exceedingly sorry, and came and told to their lord all that was done. <sup>32</sup> Then his lord called him in, and said to him, ‘You wicked servant! I forgave you all that debt, because you begged me. <sup>33</sup> Shouldn’t you also have had mercy on your fellow servant, even as I had mercy on you?’ <sup>34</sup> His lord was angry, and delivered him to the tormentors, until he should pay all that was due to him. <sup>35</sup> So my heavenly Father will also do to you, if you don’t each forgive your brother from your hearts for his misdeeds.”

<sup>4</sup> He answered, "Haven't you read that he who made them from the beginning made them male and female,<sup>1 5</sup> and said, 'For this cause a man shall leave his father and mother, and shall join to his wife; and the two shall become one flesh?'<sup>2 6</sup> So that they are no more two, but one flesh. What therefore God has joined together, don't let man tear apart."

<sup>7</sup> They asked him, "Why then did Moses command us to give her a bill of divorce, and divorce her?"

<sup>8</sup> He said to them, "Moses, because of the hardness of your hearts, allowed you to divorce your wives, but from the beginning it has not been so. <sup>9</sup> I tell you that whoever divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality, and marries another, commits adultery; and he who marries her when she is divorced commits adultery."

<sup>11</sup> But he said to them, "Not all men can receive this saying, but those to whom it is given. <sup>12</sup> For there are eunuchs who were born that way from their mother's womb, and there are eunuchs who were made eunuchs by men; and there are eunuchs who made themselves eunuchs for the Kingdom of Heaven's sake. He who is able to receive it, let him receive it."

<sup>13</sup> Then little children were brought to him, that he should lay his hands on them and pray; and the disciples rebuked them. <sup>14</sup> But Jesus said, "Allow the little children, and don't forbid them to come to me; for the Kingdom of Heaven belongs to ones like these." <sup>15</sup> He laid his hands on them, and departed from there.

<sup>16</sup> Behold, one came to him and said, "Good teacher, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life?"

<sup>17</sup> He said to him, "Why do you call me good?<sup>e</sup> No one is good but one, that is, God. But if you want to enter into life, keep the commandments."

<sup>18</sup> He said to him, "Which ones?"

Jesus said, "'You shall not murder.' 'You shall not commit adultery.' 'You shall not steal.' 'You shall not offer false testimony.' <sup>19</sup> 'Honor your father and your mother.'<sup>3</sup> And, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.'"<sup>4</sup>

<sup>20</sup> The young man said to him, "All these things I have observed from my youth. What do I still lack?"

<sup>21</sup> Jesus said to him, "If you want to be perfect, go, sell what you have, and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me." <sup>22</sup> But when the young man heard the saying, he went away sad, for he was one who had great possessions. <sup>23</sup> Jesus said to his disciples, "Most certainly I say to you, a rich man will enter into the Kingdom of Heaven with difficulty. <sup>24</sup> Again I tell you, it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into God's Kingdom."

<sup>28</sup> Jesus said to them, “Most certainly I tell you that you who have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of Man will sit on the throne of his glory, you also will sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. <sup>29</sup> Everyone who has left houses, or brothers, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name’s sake, will receive one hundred times, and will inherit eternal life. <sup>30</sup> But many will be last who are first; and first who are last.

“He said to them, ‘You also go into the vineyard, and you will receive whatever is right.’ <sup>8</sup> When evening had come, the lord of the vineyard said to his manager, ‘Call the laborers and pay them their wages, beginning from the last to the first.’

<sup>17</sup> As Jesus was going up to Jerusalem, he took the twelve disciples aside, and on the way he said to them, <sup>18</sup> “Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be delivered to the chief priests and scribes, and they will condemn him to death, <sup>19</sup> and will hand him over to the Gentiles to mock, to scourge, and to crucify; and the third day he will be raised up.”

She said to him, “Command that these, my two sons, may sit, one on your right hand, and one on your left hand, in your Kingdom.”

<sup>22</sup> But Jesus answered, “You don’t know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I am about to drink, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?”

They said to him, “We are able.”

<sup>23</sup> He said to them, “You will indeed drink my cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with, but to sit on my right hand and on my left hand is not mine to give; but it is for whom it has been prepared by my Father.”

<sup>29</sup> As they went out from Jericho, a great multitude followed him. <sup>30</sup> Behold, two blind men sitting by the road, when they heard that Jesus was passing by, cried out, “Lord, have mercy on us, you son of David!” <sup>31</sup> The multitude rebuked them, telling them that they should be quiet, but they cried out even more, “Lord, have mercy on us, you son of David!”

<sup>32</sup> Jesus stood still, and called them, and asked, “What do you want me to do for you?”

21

<sup>1</sup> When they came near to Jerusalem, and came to Bethsphage,<sup>k</sup> to the Mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples, <sup>2</sup> saying to them, “Go into the village that is opposite you, and immediately you will find a donkey tied, and a colt with her. Untie them, and bring them to me. <sup>3</sup> If anyone says anything to you, you shall say, ‘The Lord needs them,’ and immediately he will send them.”

son of David! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest!”<sup>2</sup>

<sup>10</sup> When he had come into Jerusalem, all the city was stirred up, saying, “Who is this?” <sup>11</sup> The multitudes said, “This is the prophet, Jesus, from Nazareth of Galilee.”

<sup>12</sup> Jesus entered into the temple of God, and drove out all of those who sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the money changers’ tables and the seats of those who sold the doves. <sup>13</sup> He said to them, “It is written, ‘My house shall be called a house of prayer,’<sup>3</sup> but you have made it a den of robbers!”<sup>4</sup>

<sup>14</sup> The blind and the lame came to him in the temple, and he healed them. <sup>15</sup> But when the chief priests and the scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children who were crying in the temple and saying, “Hosanna to the son of David!” they were indignant, <sup>16</sup> and said to him, “Do you hear what these are saying?”

Jesus said to them, “Yes. Did you never read, ‘Out of the mouth of babes and nursing babies you have perfected praise?’”<sup>5</sup>

<sup>17</sup> He left them, and went out of the city to Bethany, and camped there. <sup>18</sup> Now in the morning, as he returned to the city, he was hungry. <sup>19</sup> Seeing a fig tree by the road, he came to it, and found nothing on it but leaves. He said to it, “Let there be no fruit from you forever!”

Immediately the fig tree withered away. <sup>20</sup> When the disciples saw it, they marveled, saying, “How did the fig tree immediately wither away?”

<sup>21</sup> Jesus answered them, “Most certainly I tell you, if you have faith, and don’t doubt, you will not only do what was done to the fig tree, but even if you told this mountain, ‘Be taken up and cast into the sea,’ it would be done. <sup>22</sup> All things, whatever you ask in prayer, believing, you will receive.”

<sup>23</sup> When he had come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him as he was teaching, and said, “By what authority do you do these things? Who gave you this authority?”

<sup>24</sup> Jesus answered them, “I also will ask you one question, which if you tell me, I likewise will tell you by what authority I do these things. <sup>25</sup> The baptism of John, where was it from? From heaven or from men?”

They reasoned with themselves, saying, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ he will ask us, ‘Why then did you not believe him?’ <sup>26</sup> But if we say, ‘From men,’ we fear the multitude, for all hold John as a prophet.” <sup>27</sup> They answered Jesus, and said, “We don’t know.”

He also said to them, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things. <sup>28</sup> But what do you think? A man had two sons, and he came to the first, and said, ‘Son, go work today in my vineyard.’ <sup>29</sup> He answered, ‘I will not,’ but afterward he changed his mind, and went. <sup>30</sup> He came to the second, and said the same thing. He answered, ‘I go, sir,’ but he didn’t go. <sup>31</sup> Which of the two did the will of his father?”

They said to him, “The first.”

Jesus said to them, “Most certainly I tell you that the tax collectors and the prostitutes are entering into God’s Kingdom before you. <sup>32</sup> For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you didn't believe him, but the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him. When you saw it, you didn't even repent afterward, that you might believe him.

<sup>33</sup> "Hear another parable. There was a man who was a master of a household, who planted a vineyard, set a hedge about it, dug a wine press in it, built a tower, leased it out to farmers, and went into another country. <sup>34</sup> When the season for the fruit came near, he sent his servants to the farmers, to receive his fruit. <sup>35</sup> The farmers took his servants, beat one, killed another, and stoned another. <sup>36</sup> Again, he sent other servants more than the first: and they treated them the same way. <sup>37</sup> But afterward he sent to them his son, saying, 'They will respect my son.' <sup>38</sup> But the farmers, when they saw the son, said among themselves, 'This is the heir. Come, let's kill him, and seize his inheritance.' <sup>39</sup> So they took him, and threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. <sup>40</sup> When therefore the lord of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those farmers?"

<sup>41</sup> They told him, "He will miserably destroy those miserable men, and will lease out the vineyard to other farmers, who will give him the fruit in its season."

<sup>42</sup> Jesus said to them, "Did you never read in the Scriptures, given to a nation producing its fruit. <sup>44</sup> He who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces, but on whomever it will fall, it will scatter him as dust."

<sup>45</sup> When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard his parables, they perceived that he spoke about them. <sup>46</sup> When they sought to seize him, they feared the multitudes, because they considered him to be a prophet.

<sup>8</sup> "Then he said to his servants, 'The wedding is ready, but those who were invited weren't worthy. <sup>9</sup> Go therefore to the intersections of the highways, and as many as you may find, invite to the marriage feast.' <sup>10</sup> Those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together as many as they found, both bad and good.

The wedding was filled with guests. <sup>11</sup> But when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man who didn't have on wedding clothing, <sup>12</sup> and he said to him, 'Friend, how did you come in here not wearing wedding clothing?' He was speechless. <sup>13</sup> Then the king said to the servants, 'Bind him hand and foot, take him away, and throw him into the outer darkness; there is where the weeping and grinding of teeth will be.' <sup>14</sup> For many are called, but few chosen."

<sup>15</sup> Then the Pharisees went and took counsel how they might entrap him in his talk. <sup>16</sup> They sent their disciples to him, along with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that you are honest, and teach the way of God in truth, no matter whom you teach, for you aren't partial to anyone. <sup>17</sup> Tell us therefore, what do you think? Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?"

They brought to him a denarius.

Then he said to them, "Give therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's."

<sup>23</sup> On that day Sadducees (those who say that there is no resurrection) came to him. They asked him, <sup>24</sup> saying, "Teacher, Moses said, 'If a man dies, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up offspring<sup>m</sup> for his brother.' <sup>25</sup> Now there were with us seven brothers. The first married and died, and having no offspring<sup>n</sup> left his wife to his brother. <sup>26</sup> In the same way, the second also, and the third, to the seventh. <sup>27</sup> After them all, the woman died. <sup>28</sup> In the resurrection therefore, whose wife will she be of the seven? For they all had her."

saying, “What do you think of the Christ? Whose son is he?”

They said to him, “Of David.”

<sup>43</sup> He said to them, “How then does David in the Spirit call him Lord, saying,

<sup>44</sup> ‘The Lord said to my Lord, sit on my right hand, until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet?’<sup>4</sup>

<sup>46</sup> No one was able to answer him a word, neither did any man dare ask him any more questions from that day forward.

23

called masters, for one is your master, the Christ. <sup>11</sup> But he who is greatest among you will be your servant. <sup>12</sup> Whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted.

<sup>13</sup> “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you devour widows’ houses, and as a pretense you make long prayers. Therefore you will receive greater condemnation.

<sup>14</sup> “But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you shut up the Kingdom of Heaven against men; for you don’t enter in yourselves, neither do you allow those who are entering in to enter.<sup>q</sup> <sup>15</sup> Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you travel around by sea and land to make one proselyte; and when he becomes one, you make him twice as much of a son of Gehenna<sup>r</sup> as yourselves.

<sup>16</sup> “Woe to you, you blind guides, who say, ‘Whoever swears by the temple, it is nothing; but whoever swears by the gold of the temple, he is obligated.’ <sup>17</sup> You blind fools! For which is greater, the gold, or the temple that sanctifies the gold? <sup>18</sup> ‘Whoever swears by the altar, it is nothing; but whoever swears by the gift that is on it, he is obligated?’ <sup>19</sup> You blind fools! For which is greater, the gift, or the altar that sanctifies the gift? <sup>20</sup> He therefore who swears by the altar, swears by it, and by everything on it. <sup>21</sup> He who swears by the temple, swears by it, and by him who was living<sup>s</sup> in it. <sup>22</sup> He who swears by heaven, swears by the throne of God, and by him who sits on it.

<sup>25</sup> “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and unrighteousness.<sup>u</sup> <sup>26</sup> You blind Pharisee, first clean the inside of the cup and of the platter, that its outside may become clean also.

<sup>27</sup> “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitened tombs, which outwardly appear beautiful, but inwardly are full of dead men’s bones, and of all uncleanness. <sup>28</sup> Even so you also outwardly appear righteous to men, but inwardly you are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.

<sup>29</sup> “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you build the tombs of the prophets, and decorate the tombs of the righteous, <sup>30</sup> and say, ‘If we had lived in the days of our fathers, we wouldn’t have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.’ <sup>31</sup> Therefore you testify to yourselves that you are children of those who killed the prophets. <sup>32</sup> Fill up, then, the measure of your fathers. <sup>33</sup> You serpents, you offspring of vipers, how will you escape the judgment of Gehenna<sup>v</sup> ? <sup>34</sup> Therefore behold, I send to you prophets, wise men, and scribes. Some of them you will kill and crucify; and some of them you will scourge in your synagogues, and persecute from city to city; <sup>35</sup> that on you may come all the righteous blood shed on the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel to the blood of Zachariah son of Barachiah, whom you killed between the sanctuary and the altar. <sup>36</sup> Most certainly I tell you, all these things will come upon this generation.

24

<sup>1</sup> Jesus went out from the temple, and was going on his way. His disciples came to him to show him the buildings of the temple. <sup>2</sup> But he answered them, “You see all of these things, don’t you? Most certainly I tell you, there will not be left here one stone on another, that will not be thrown down.”

<sup>3</sup> As he sat on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to him privately, saying, “Tell us, when will these things be? What is the sign of your coming, and of the end of the age?”

<sup>4</sup> Jesus answered them, “Be careful that no one leads you astray. <sup>5</sup> For many will come in my name, saying, ‘I am the Christ,’ and will lead many astray. <sup>6</sup> You will hear of wars and rumors of wars. will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; and there will be famines, plagues, and earthquakes in various places.

<sup>8</sup> But all these things are the beginning of birth pains. <sup>9</sup> Then they will deliver you up to oppression, and will kill you. You will be hated by all of the nations for my name's sake. <sup>10</sup> Then many will stumble, and will deliver up one another, and will hate one another. <sup>11</sup> Many false prophets will arise, and will lead many astray. <sup>12</sup> Because iniquity will be multiplied, the love of many will grow cold. <sup>13</sup> But he who endures to the end, the same will be saved. <sup>14</sup> This Good News of the Kingdom will be preached in the whole world for a testimony to all the nations, and then the end will come.

<sup>23</sup> "Then if any man tells you, 'Behold, here is the Christ,' or, 'There,' don't believe it. <sup>24</sup> For there will arise false christs, and false prophets, and they will show great signs and wonders, so as to lead astray, if possible, even the chosen ones.

<sup>25</sup> "Behold, I have told you beforehand. <sup>26</sup> If therefore they tell you, 'Behold, he is in the wilderness,' don't go out; 'Behold, he is in the inner rooms,' don't believe it. <sup>27</sup> For as the lightning flashes from the east, and is seen even to the west, so will be the coming of the Son of Man. <sup>28</sup> For wherever the carcass is, there is where the vultures <sup>w</sup> gather together. <sup>29</sup> But immediately after the oppression of those days, the sun will be darkened, the moon will not give its light, the stars will fall from the sky, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken;<sup>2</sup> <sup>30</sup> and then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky. Then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of the sky with power and great glory. <sup>31</sup> He will send out his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they will gather together his chosen ones from the four winds, from one end of the sky to the other.

<sup>37</sup> “As the days of Noah were, so will be the coming of the Son of Man. <sup>38</sup> For as in those days which were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ship, <sup>39</sup> and they didn’t know until the flood came, and took them all away, so will be the coming of the Son of Man. <sup>40</sup> Then two men will be in the field: one will be taken and one will be left; <sup>41</sup> two women grinding at the mill, one will be taken and one will be left. <sup>42</sup> Watch therefore, for you don’t know in what hour your Lord comes. <sup>43</sup> But know this, that if the master of the house had known in what watch of the night the thief was coming, he would have watched, and would not have allowed his house to be broken into. <sup>44</sup> Therefore also be ready, for in an hour that you don’t expect, the Son of Man will come.

<sup>45</sup> “Who then is the faithful and wise servant, whom his lord has set over his household, to give them their food in due season? <sup>46</sup> Blessed is that servant whom his lord finds doing so when he comes. <sup>47</sup> Most certainly I tell you that he will set him over all that he has. <sup>48</sup> But if that evil servant should say in his heart, ‘My lord is delaying his coming,’ <sup>49</sup> and begins to beat his fellow servants, and eat and drink with the drunkards, <sup>50</sup> the lord of that servant will come in a day when he doesn’t expect it, and in an hour when he doesn’t know it, <sup>51</sup> and will cut him in pieces, and appoint his portion with the hypocrites. There is where the weeping and grinding of teeth will be.

<sup>19</sup> "Now after a long time the lord of those servants came, and reconciled accounts with them. <sup>20</sup> He who received the five talents came and brought another five talents, saying, 'Lord, you delivered to me five talents. Behold, I have gained another five talents besides them.'

<sup>22</sup> "He also who got the two talents came and said, 'Lord, you delivered to me two talents. Behold, I have gained another two talents besides them.'

<sup>24</sup> "He also who had received the one talent came and said, 'Lord, I knew you that you are a hard man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not scatter. <sup>25</sup> I was afraid, and went away and hid your talent in the earth. Behold, you have what is yours.'

have deposited my money with the bankers, and at my coming I should have received back my own with interest. <sup>28</sup> Take away therefore the talent from him, and give it to him who has the ten talents. <sup>29</sup> For to everyone who has will be given, and he will have abundance, but from him who doesn't have, even that which he has will be taken away. <sup>30</sup> Throw out the unprofitable servant into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'

<sup>37</sup> "Then the righteous will answer him, saying, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry, and feed you; or thirsty, and give you a drink? <sup>38</sup> When did we see you as a stranger, and take you in; or naked, and clothe you? <sup>39</sup> When did we see you sick, or in prison, and come to you?'

<sup>40</sup> "The King will answer them, 'Most certainly I tell you, because you did it to one of the least of these my brothers<sup>b</sup>, you did it to me.’<sup>41</sup> Then he will say also to those on the left hand, ‘Depart from me, you cursed, into the eternal fire which is prepared for the devil and his angels;<sup>42</sup> for I was hungry, and you didn’t give me food to eat; I was thirsty, and you gave me no drink;<sup>43</sup> I was a stranger, and you didn’t take me in; naked, and you didn’t clothe me; sick, and in prison, and you didn’t visit me.’

<sup>44</sup> “Then they will also answer, saying, ‘Lord, when did we see you hungry, or thirsty, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and didn’t help you?’

<sup>45</sup> “Then he will answer them, saying, ‘Most certainly I tell you, because you didn’t do it to one of the least of these, you didn’t do it to me.’<sup>46</sup> These will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life.”

26

<sup>1</sup> When Jesus had finished all these words, he said to his disciples, <sup>2</sup> “You know that after two days the Passover is coming, and the Son of Man will be delivered up to be crucified.”

<sup>6</sup> Now when Jesus was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, <sup>7</sup> a woman came to him having an alabaster jar of very expensive ointment, and she poured it on his head as he sat at the table. <sup>8</sup> But when his disciples saw this, they were indignant, saying, “Why this waste? <sup>9</sup> For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor.”

<sup>10</sup> However, knowing this, Jesus said to them, “Why do you trouble the woman? Because she has done a good work for me. <sup>11</sup> For you always have the poor with you; but you don’t always have me. <sup>12</sup> For in pouring this ointment on my body, she did it to prepare me for burial. <sup>13</sup> Most certainly I tell you, wherever this Good News is preached in the whole world, what this woman has done will also be spoken of as a memorial of her.”

<sup>14</sup> Then one of the twelve, who was called Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests, <sup>15</sup> and said, “What are you willing to give me, that I should deliver him to you?” They weighed out for him thirty pieces of silver. <sup>16</sup> From that time he sought opportunity to betray him.

<sup>17</sup> Now on the first day of unleavened bread, the disciples came to Jesus, saying to him, “Where do you want us to prepare for you to eat the Passover?”

<sup>18</sup> He said, “Go into the city to a certain person, and tell him, ‘The Teacher says, “My time is at hand. I will keep the Passover at your house with my disciples.”’”

<sup>19</sup> The disciples did as Jesus commanded them, and they prepared the Passover. <sup>20</sup> Now when evening had come, he was reclining at the table with the twelve disciples. <sup>21</sup> As they were eating, he said,

“Most certainly I tell you that one of you will betray me.”

<sup>22</sup> They were exceedingly sorrowful, and each began to ask him, “It isn’t me, is it, Lord?”

<sup>23</sup> He answered, “He who dipped his hand with me in the dish, the same will betray me. <sup>24</sup> The Son of Man goes, even as it is written of him, but woe to that man through whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would be better for that man if he had not been born.”

He said to him, “You said it.”

<sup>26</sup> As they were eating, Jesus took bread, gave thanks for<sup>c</sup> it, and broke it. He gave to the disciples, and said, “Take, eat; this is my body.” <sup>27</sup> He took the cup, gave thanks, and gave to them, saying, “All of you drink it, <sup>28</sup> for this is my blood of the new covenant, which is poured out for many for the remission of sins. <sup>29</sup> But I tell you that I will not drink of this fruit of the vine from now on, until that day when I drink it anew with you in my Father’s Kingdom.” <sup>30</sup> When they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

<sup>31</sup> Then Jesus said to them, “All of you will be made to stumble because of me tonight, for it is written, ‘I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.’<sup>1</sup> <sup>32</sup> But after I am raised up, I will go before you into Galilee.”

<sup>33</sup> But Peter answered him, “Even if all will be made to stumble because of you, I will never be made to stumble.”

<sup>34</sup> Jesus said to him, “Most certainly I tell you that tonight, before the rooster crows, you will deny me three times.”

<sup>35</sup> Peter said to him, “Even if I must die with you, I will not deny you.” All of the disciples also said likewise.

<sup>36</sup> Then Jesus came with them to a place called Gethsemane, and said to his disciples, “Sit here, while I go there and pray.” <sup>37</sup> He took with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and severely troubled. <sup>38</sup> Then he said to them, “My soul is exceedingly sorrowful, even to death. Stay here, and watch with me.”

<sup>40</sup> He came to the disciples, and found them sleeping, and said to Peter, “What, couldn’t you watch with me for one hour?”

<sup>42</sup> Again, a second time he went away, and prayed, saying, “My Father, if this cup can’t pass away from me unless I drink it, your desire be done.” <sup>43</sup> He came again and found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy.

<sup>44</sup> He left them again, went away, and prayed a third time, saying the same words. <sup>45</sup> Then he came to his disciples, and said to them, “Sleep on now, and take your rest. Behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. <sup>46</sup> Arise, let’s be going. Behold, he who betrays me is at hand.”

<sup>55</sup> In that hour Jesus said to the multitudes, "Have you come out as against a robber with swords and clubs to seize me? I sat daily in the temple teaching, and you didn't arrest me. <sup>56</sup> But all this has happened, that the Scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled."

Then all the disciples left him, and fled. <sup>57</sup> Those who had taken Jesus led him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were gathered together. <sup>58</sup> But Peter followed him from a distance, to the court of the high priest, and entered in and sat with the officers, to see the end. <sup>59</sup> Now the chief priests, the elders, and the whole council sought false testimony against Jesus, that they might put him to death; <sup>60</sup> and they found none. Even though many false witnesses came forward, they found none. But at last two false witnesses came forward, <sup>61</sup> and said, "This man said, 'I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days.'"

<sup>62</sup> The high priest stood up, and said to him, "Have you no answer? What is this that these testify against you?" <sup>63</sup> But Jesus held his peace. The high priest answered him, "I adjure you by the living God, that you tell us whether you are the Christ, the Son of God."

<sup>64</sup> Jesus said to him, "You have said it. Nevertheless, I tell you, after this you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of Power, and coming on the clouds of the sky."

<sup>65</sup> Then the high priest tore his clothing, saying, "He has spoken blasphemy! Why do we need any more witnesses? Behold, now you have heard his blasphemy. <sup>66</sup> What do you think?"

They answered, "He is worthy of death!" <sup>67</sup> Then they spit in his face and beat him with their fists, and some slapped him, <sup>68</sup> saying, "Prophecy to us, you Christ! Who hit you?"

<sup>69</sup> Now Peter was sitting outside in the court, and a maid came to him, saying, "You were also with Jesus, the Galilean!"

<sup>71</sup> When he had gone out onto the porch, someone else saw him, and said to those who were there, "This man also was with Jesus of Nazareth."

<sup>74</sup> Then he began to curse and to swear, “I don’t know the man!”

Immediately the rooster crowed. <sup>75</sup> Peter remembered the word which Jesus had said to him, “Before the rooster crows, you will deny me three times.” He went out and wept bitterly.

27

<sup>1</sup> Now when morning had come, all the chief priests and the elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death: <sup>2</sup> and they bound him, and led him away, and delivered him up to Pontius Pilate, the governor. <sup>3</sup> Then Judas, who betrayed him, when he saw that Jesus was condemned, felt remorse, and brought back the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders, <sup>4</sup> saying, “I have sinned in that I betrayed innocent blood.”

But they said, “What is that to us? You see to it.”

<sup>5</sup> He threw down the pieces of silver in the sanctuary, and departed. He went away and hanged himself. <sup>6</sup> The chief priests took the pieces of silver, and said, “It’s not lawful to put them into the treasury, since it is the price of blood.” <sup>7</sup> They took counsel, and bought the potter’s field with them, to bury strangers in. <sup>8</sup> Therefore that field was called “The Field of Blood” to this day. <sup>9</sup> Then that which was spoken through Jeremiah<sup>d</sup> the prophet was fulfilled, saying,

“They took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him upon whom a price had been set, whom some of the children of Israel priced, <sup>10</sup> and they gave them for the potter’s field, as the Lord commanded me.”<sup>1</sup>

<sup>11</sup> Now Jesus stood before the governor: and the governor asked him, saying, “Are you the King of the Jews?”

Jesus said to him, “So you say.”

<sup>12</sup> When he was accused by the chief priests and elders, he answered nothing. <sup>13</sup> Then Pilate said to him, “Don’t you hear how many things they testify against you?”

<sup>14</sup> He gave him no answer, not even one word, so that the governor marveled greatly. <sup>15</sup> Now at the feast the governor was accustomed to release to the multitude one prisoner, whom they desired. <sup>16</sup> They had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas. <sup>17</sup> When therefore they were gathered together, Pilate said to them, “Whom do you want me to release to you? Barabbas, or Jesus, who is called Christ?” <sup>18</sup> For he knew that because of envy they had delivered him up.

<sup>19</sup> While he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent to him, saying, “Have nothing to do with that righteous man, for I have suffered many things today in a dream because of him.” <sup>20</sup> Now the chief priests and the elders persuaded the multitudes to ask for Barabbas, and destroy Jesus. <sup>21</sup> But the governor answered them, “Which of the two do you want me to release to you?”

They said, “Barabbas!”

They all said to him, “Let him be crucified!”

<sup>23</sup> But the governor said, “Why? What evil has he done?”

But they cried out exceedingly, saying, “Let him be crucified!”

<sup>24</sup> So when Pilate saw that nothing was being gained, but rather that a disturbance was starting, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, “I am innocent of the blood of this righteous person. You see to it.”

<sup>26</sup> Then he released to them Barabbas, but Jesus he flogged and delivered to be crucified. <sup>27</sup> Then the governor’s soldiers took Jesus into the Praetorium, and gathered the whole garrison together against him. <sup>28</sup> They stripped him, and put a scarlet robe on him. <sup>29</sup> They braided a crown of thorns and put it on his head, and a reed in his right hand; and they kneeled down before him, and mocked him, saying, “Hail, King of the Jews!” <sup>30</sup> They spat on him, and took the reed and struck him on the head. <sup>31</sup> When they had mocked him, they took the robe off of him, and put his clothes on him, and led him away to crucify him.

<sup>32</sup> As they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name, and they compelled him to go with them, that he might carry his cross. <sup>33</sup> When they came to a place called “Golgotha”, that is to say, “The place of a skull,” <sup>34</sup> they gave him

sour wine<sup>e</sup> to drink mixed with gall. When he had tasted it, he would not drink. <sup>35</sup> When they had crucified him, they divided his clothing among them, casting lots,<sup>f</sup> <sup>36</sup> and they sat and watched him there. <sup>37</sup> They set up over his head the accusation against him written, “THIS IS JESUS, THE KING OF THE JEWS.”

<sup>41</sup> Likewise the chief priests also mocking, with the scribes, the Pharisees,<sup>g</sup> and the elders, said, <sup>42</sup> “He saved others, but he can’t save himself. If he is the King of Israel, let him come down from the cross now, and we will believe in him. <sup>43</sup> He trusts in God. Let God deliver him now, if he wants him; for he said, ‘I am the Son of God.’” <sup>44</sup> The robbers also who were crucified with him cast on him the same reproach.

<sup>55</sup> Many women were there watching from afar, who had followed Jesus from Galilee, serving him. <sup>56</sup> Among them were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of the sons of Zebedee. <sup>57</sup> When evening had come, a rich man from Arimathaea, named Joseph, who himself was also Jesus' disciple came. <sup>58</sup> This man went to Pilate, and asked for Jesus' body. Then Pilate commanded the body to be given up. <sup>59</sup> Joseph took the body, and wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, <sup>60</sup> and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had cut out in the rock, and he rolled a great stone to the door of the tomb, and departed. <sup>61</sup> Mary Magdalene was there, and the other Mary, sitting opposite the tomb. <sup>62</sup> Now on the next day, which was the day after the Preparation Day, the chief priests and the Pharisees were gathered together to Pilate,

<sup>63</sup> saying, "Sir, we remember what that deceiver said while he was still alive: 'After three days I will rise again.' <sup>64</sup> Command therefore that the tomb be made secure until the third day, lest perhaps his disciples come at night and steal him away, and tell the people, 'He is risen from the dead;' and the last deception will be worse than the first."

<sup>65</sup> Pilate said to them, "You have a guard. Go, make it as secure as you can." <sup>66</sup> So they went with the guard and made the tomb secure, sealing the stone.

28

<sup>1</sup> Now after the Sabbath, as it began to dawn on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary came to see the tomb. <sup>2</sup> Behold, there was a great earthquake, for an angel of the Lord descended from the sky, and came and rolled away the stone from the door, and sat on it. <sup>3</sup> His appearance was like lightning, and his clothing white as snow. <sup>4</sup> For fear of him, the guards shook, and became like dead men. <sup>5</sup> The angel answered the women, "Don't be afraid, for I know that you seek Jesus, who has been crucified. <sup>6</sup> He is not here, for he has risen, just like he said. Come, see the place where the Lord was lying. <sup>7</sup> Go quickly and tell his disciples, 'He has risen from the dead, and behold, he goes before you into Galilee; there you will see him.' Behold, I have told you."

<sup>8</sup> They departed quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to bring his disciples word. <sup>9</sup> As they went to tell his disciples, behold, Jesus met them, saying, "Rejoice!"

They came and took hold of his feet, and worshiped him.

<sup>10</sup> Then Jesus said to them, “Don’t be afraid. Go tell my brothers <sup>k</sup> that they should go into Galilee, and there they will see me.”

<sup>11</sup> Now while they were going, behold, some of the guards came into the city, and told the chief priests all the things that had happened. <sup>12</sup> When they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave a large amount of silver to the soldiers, <sup>13</sup> saying, “Say that his disciples came by night, and stole him away while we slept. <sup>14</sup> If this comes to the governor’s ears, we will persuade him and make you free of worry.” <sup>15</sup> So they took the money and did as they were told. This saying was spread abroad among the Jews, and continues until today.

<sup>16</sup> But the eleven disciples went into Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had sent them. <sup>17</sup> When they saw him, they bowed down to him, but some doubted. <sup>18</sup> Jesus came to them and spoke to them, saying, “All authority has been given to me in heaven and on earth. <sup>19</sup> Go,<sup>l</sup> and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, <sup>20</sup> teaching them to observe all things that I commanded you. Behold, I am with you always, even to the end of the age.” Amen.

The Good News According to

1

who will prepare your way before you:<sup>1</sup>

<sup>12</sup> Immediately the Spirit drove him out into the wilderness. <sup>13</sup> He was there in the wilderness forty days tempted by Satan. He was with the wild animals; and the angels were serving him.

<sup>16</sup> Passing along by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew the brother of Simon casting a net into the sea, for they were fishermen. <sup>17</sup> Jesus said to them, “Come after me, and I will make you into fishers for men.”

know you who you are: the Holy One of God!”

<sup>27</sup> They were all amazed, so that they questioned among themselves, saying, “What is this? A new teaching? For with authority he commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey him!” <sup>28</sup> The report of him went out immediately everywhere into all the region of Galilee and its surrounding area.

<sup>29</sup> Immediately, when they had come out of the synagogue, they came into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John. <sup>30</sup> Now Simon’s wife’s mother lay sick with a fever, and immediately they told him about her. <sup>31</sup> He came and took her by the hand, and raised her up. The fever left her, and she served them. <sup>32</sup> At evening, when the sun had set, they brought to him all who were sick, and those who were possessed by demons. <sup>33</sup> All the city was gathered together at the door. <sup>34</sup> He healed many who were sick with various diseases, and cast out many demons. He didn’t allow the demons to speak, because they knew him.

<sup>38</sup> He said to them, “Let’s go elsewhere into the next towns, that I may preach there also, because I came out for this reason.” <sup>39</sup> He went into their synagogues throughout all Galilee, preaching and casting out demons.

<sup>40</sup> A leper came to him, begging him, kneeling down to him, and saying to him, “If you want to, you can make me clean.”

<sup>41</sup> Being moved with compassion, he stretched out his hand, and touched him, and said to him, “I want to. Be made clean.” <sup>42</sup> When he had said this, immediately the leprosy departed from him, and he was made clean. <sup>43</sup> He strictly warned him, and immediately sent him out, <sup>44</sup> and said to him, “See you say nothing to anybody, but go show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing the things which Moses commanded, for a testimony to them.”

<sup>45</sup> But he went out, and began to proclaim it much, and to spread about the matter, so that Jesus could no more openly enter into a city, but was outside in desert places: and they came to him from everywhere.

2

<sup>6</sup> But there were some of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts, <sup>7</sup> “Why does this man speak blasphemies like that? Who can forgive sins but God alone?”

<sup>8</sup> Immediately Jesus, perceiving in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, said to them, “Why do you reason these things in your hearts? <sup>9</sup> Which is easier, to tell the paralytic, ‘Your sins are forgiven;’ or to say, ‘Arise, and take up your bed, and walk?’ <sup>10</sup> But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins”—he said to the paralytic— <sup>11</sup> “I tell you, arise, take up your mat, and go to your house.”

<sup>12</sup> He arose, and immediately took up the mat, and went out in front of them all; so that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, “We never saw anything like this!”

<sup>13</sup> He went out again by the seaside. All the multitude came to him, and he taught them. <sup>14</sup> As he passed by, he saw Levi, the son of Alphaeus, sitting at the tax office, and he said to him, “Follow me.” And he arose and followed him.

<sup>15</sup> He was reclining at the table in his house, and many tax collectors and sinners sat down with Jesus and his disciples, for there were many, and they followed him. <sup>16</sup> The scribes and the Pharisees, when they saw that he was eating with the sinners and tax collectors, said to his disciples, “Why is it that he eats and drinks with tax collectors and sinners?”

not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.”

<sup>18</sup> John’s disciples and the Pharisees were fasting, and they came and asked him, “Why do John’s disciples and the disciples of the Pharisees fast, but your disciples don’t fast?”

<sup>19</sup> Jesus said to them, “Can the groomsmen fast while the bridegroom is with them? As long as they have the bridegroom with them, they can’t fast. <sup>20</sup> But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then will they fast in that day. <sup>21</sup> No one sews a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment, or else the patch shrinks and the new tears away from the old, and a worse hole is made. <sup>22</sup> No one puts new wine into old wineskins, or else the new wine will burst the skins, and the wine pours out, and the skins will be destroyed; but they put new wine into fresh wineskins.”

<sup>25</sup> He said to them, “Did you never read what David did, when he had need, and was hungry—he, and those who were with him? <sup>26</sup> How he entered into God’s house when Abiathar was high priest, and ate the show bread, which is not lawful to eat except for the priests, and gave also to those who were with him?” <sup>27</sup> He said to them, “The Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath. <sup>28</sup> Therefore the Son of Man is lord even of the Sabbath.”

3

<sup>1</sup> He entered again into the synagogue, and there was a man there who had his hand withered. <sup>2</sup> They watched him, whether he would heal him on the Sabbath day, that they might accuse him. <sup>3</sup> He said to the man who had his hand withered, “Stand up.” <sup>4</sup> He said to them, “Is it lawful on the Sabbath day to do good, or to do harm? To save a life, or to kill?” But they were silent. <sup>5</sup> When he had looked around at them with anger, being grieved at the hardening of their hearts, he said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” He stretched it out, and his hand was restored as healthy as the other. <sup>6</sup> The Pharisees went out, and immediately conspired with the Herodians against him, how they might destroy him.

<sup>13</sup> He went up into the mountain, and called to himself those whom he wanted, and they went to him. <sup>14</sup> He appointed twelve, that they might be with him, and that he might send them out to preach, <sup>15</sup> and to have authority to heal sicknesses and to cast out demons: <sup>16</sup> Simon, to whom he gave the name Peter; <sup>17</sup> James the son of Zebedee; John, the brother of James, and he called them Boanerges, which means, Sons of Thunder; <sup>18</sup> Andrew; Philip; Bartholomew; Matthew; Thomas; James, the son of Alphaeus; Thaddaeus; Simon the Zealot; <sup>19</sup> and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him.

He came into a house. <sup>20</sup> The multitude came together again, so that they could not so much as eat bread. <sup>21</sup> When his friends heard it, they went out to seize him: for they said, “He is insane.” <sup>22</sup> The scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, “He has Beelzebul,” and, “By the prince of the demons he casts out the demons.”

<sup>33</sup> He answered them, “Who are my mother and my brothers?” <sup>34</sup> Looking around at those who sat around him, he said, “Behold, my mother and my brothers! <sup>35</sup> For whoever does the will of God, the same is my brother, and my sister, and mother.”

4

<sup>10</sup> When he was alone, those who were around him with the twelve asked him about the parables. <sup>11</sup> He said to them, “To you is given the mystery of God’s Kingdom, but to those who are outside, all things are done in parables, <sup>12</sup> that ‘seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest perhaps they should turn again, and their sins should be forgiven them.’”<sup>1</sup>

<sup>13</sup> He said to them, “Don’t you understand this parable? How will you understand all of the parables? <sup>14</sup> The farmer sows the word. <sup>15</sup> The ones by the road are the ones where the word is sown; and when they have heard, immediately Satan comes, and takes away the word which has been sown in them. <sup>16</sup> These in the same way are those who are sown on the rocky places, who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with joy. <sup>17</sup> They have no root in themselves, but are short-lived. When oppression or persecution arises because of the word, immediately they stumble. <sup>18</sup> Others are those who are sown among the thorns. These are those who have heard the word, <sup>19</sup> and the cares of this age, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful. <sup>20</sup> Those which were sown on the good ground are those who hear the word, and accept it, and bear fruit, some thirty times, some sixty times, and some one hundred times.”

made known; neither was anything made secret, but that it should come to light. <sup>23</sup> If any man has ears to hear, let him hear.”

<sup>24</sup> He said to them, “Take heed what you hear. With whatever measure you measure, it will be measured to you, and more will be given to you who hear. <sup>25</sup> For whoever has, to him will more be given, and he who doesn’t have, even that which he has will be taken away from him.”

<sup>26</sup> He said, “God’s Kingdom is as if a man should cast seed on the earth, <sup>27</sup> and should sleep and rise night and day, and the seed should spring up and grow, he doesn’t know how. <sup>28</sup> For the earth bears fruit: first the blade, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear. <sup>29</sup> But when the fruit is ripe, immediately he puts in the sickle, because the harvest has come.”

<sup>30</sup> He said, “How will we liken God’s Kingdom? Or with what parable will we illustrate it? <sup>31</sup> It’s like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown in the earth, though it is less than all the seeds that are on the earth, <sup>32</sup> yet when it is sown, grows up, and becomes greater than all the herbs, and puts out great branches, so that the birds of the sky can lodge under its shadow.”

<sup>33</sup> With many such parables he spoke the word to them, as they were able to hear it.

<sup>34</sup> Without a parable he didn’t speak to them; but privately to his own disciples he explained everything.

<sup>35</sup> On that day, when evening had come, he said to them, “Let’s go over to the other side.” <sup>36</sup> Leaving the multitude, they took him with them, even as he was, in the boat. Other small boats were also with him. <sup>37</sup> A big wind storm arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so much that the boat was already filled. <sup>38</sup> He himself was in the stern, asleep on the cushion, and they woke him up, and told him, “Teacher, don’t you care that we are dying?”

<sup>39</sup> He awoke, and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, “Peace! Be still!” The wind ceased, and there was a great calm. <sup>40</sup> He said to them, “Why are you so afraid? How is it that you have no faith?”

<sup>41</sup> They were greatly afraid, and said to one another, “Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?”

5

<sup>1</sup> They came to the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gadarenes. <sup>2</sup> When he had come out of the boat, immediately a man with an unclean spirit met him out of the tombs. <sup>3</sup> He lived in the tombs. Nobody could bind him any more, not even with chains, <sup>4</sup> because he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been torn apart by him, and the fetters broken in pieces. Nobody had the strength to tame him. <sup>5</sup> Always, night and day, in the tombs and in the mountains, he was crying out, and cutting himself with stones. <sup>6</sup> When he saw Jesus from afar, he ran and bowed down to him, <sup>7</sup> and crying out with a loud voice, he said, “What have I to do with you, Jesus, you Son of the Most High God? I adjure you by God, don’t torment me.” <sup>8</sup> For he said to him, “Come out of the man, you unclean spirit!”

He said to him, “My name is Legion, for we are many.” <sup>10</sup> He begged him much that he would not send them away out of the country. <sup>11</sup> Now on the mountainside there was a great herd of pigs feeding. <sup>12</sup> All the demons begged him, saying, "Send us into the pigs, that we may enter into them."

<sup>13</sup> At once Jesus gave them permission. The unclean spirits came out and entered into the pigs. The herd of about two thousand rushed down the steep bank into the sea, and they were drowned in the sea. <sup>14</sup> Those who fed them fled, and told it in the city and in the country.

The people came to see what it was that had happened. <sup>15</sup> They came to Jesus, and saw him who had been possessed by demons sitting, clothed, and in his right mind, even him who had the legion; and they were afraid. <sup>16</sup> Those who saw it declared to them what happened to him who was possessed by demons, and about the pigs. <sup>17</sup> They began to beg him to depart from their region.

<sup>18</sup> As he was entering into the boat, he who had been possessed by demons begged him that he might be with him. <sup>19</sup> He didn't allow him, but said to him, "Go to your house, to your friends, and tell them what great things the Lord has done for you, and how he had mercy on you."

<sup>20</sup> He went his way, and began to proclaim in Decapolis how Jesus had done great things for him, and everyone marveled.

<sup>21</sup> When Jesus had crossed back over in the boat to the other side, a great multitude was gathered to him; and he was by the sea. <sup>22</sup> Behold, one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name, came; and seeing him, he fell at his feet, <sup>23</sup> and begged him much, saying, "My little daughter is at the point of death. Please come and lay your hands on her, that she may be made healthy, and live."

<sup>24</sup> He went with him, and a great multitude followed him, and they pressed upon him on all sides. <sup>25</sup> A certain woman, who had an issue of blood for twelve years, <sup>26</sup> and had suffered many things by many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was no better, but rather grew worse, <sup>27</sup> having heard the things concerning Jesus, came up behind him in the crowd, and touched his clothes. <sup>28</sup> For she said, "If I just touch his clothes, I will be made well." <sup>29</sup> Immediately the flow of her blood was dried up, and she felt in her body that she was healed of her affliction.

<sup>30</sup> Immediately Jesus, perceiving in himself that the power had gone out from him, turned around in the crowd, and asked, "Who touched my clothes?"

<sup>31</sup> His disciples said to him, "You see the multitude pressing against you, and you say, 'Who touched me?'"

<sup>32</sup> He looked around to see her who had done this thing. <sup>33</sup> But the woman, fearing and trembling, knowing what had been done to her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth.

<sup>34</sup> He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace, and be cured of your disease."

<sup>35</sup> While he was still speaking, people came from the synagogue ruler's house saying, "Your daughter is dead. Why bother the Teacher any more?"

<sup>36</sup> But Jesus, when he heard the message spoken, immediately said to the ruler of the synagogue, "Don't be afraid, only believe."

James. <sup>38</sup> He came to the synagogue ruler's house, and he saw an uproar, weeping, and great wailing. <sup>39</sup> When he had entered in, he said to them, "Why do you make an uproar and weep? The child is not dead, but is asleep."

<sup>40</sup> They ridiculed him. But he, having put them all out, took the father of the child, her mother, and those who were with him, and went in where the child was lying. <sup>41</sup> Taking the child by the hand, he said to her, "Talitha cumi!" which means, being interpreted, "Girl, I tell you, get up!" <sup>42</sup> Immediately the girl rose up and walked, for she was twelve years old. They were amazed with great amazement. <sup>43</sup> He strictly ordered them that no one should know this, and commanded that something should be given to her to eat.

<sup>1</sup> He went out from there. He came into his own country, and his disciples followed him. <sup>2</sup> When the Sabbath had come, he began to teach in the synagogue, and many hearing him were astonished, saying, "Where did this man get these things?" and, "What is the wisdom that is given to this man, that such mighty works come about by his hands?" <sup>3</sup> Isn't this the carpenter, the son of Mary, and brother of James, Joses, Judah, and Simon? Aren't his sisters here with us?" They were offended at him.

<sup>4</sup> Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor, except in his own country, and among his own relatives, and in his own house." <sup>5</sup> He could do no mighty work there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick people, and healed them. <sup>6</sup> He marveled because of their unbelief.

He went around the villages teaching. <sup>7</sup> He called to himself the twelve, and began to send them out two by two; and he gave them authority over the unclean spirits. <sup>8</sup> He commanded them that they should take nothing for their journey, except a staff only: no bread, no wallet, no money in their purse, <sup>9</sup> but to wear sandals, and not put on two tunics. <sup>10</sup> He said to them, "Wherever you enter into a house, stay there until you depart from there. <sup>11</sup> Whoever will not receive you nor hear you, as you depart from there, shake off the dust that is under your feet for a testimony against them. Assuredly, I tell you, it will be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment than for that city!"

<sup>12</sup> They went out and preached that people should repent. <sup>13</sup> They cast out many demons, and anointed many with oil who were sick, and healed them. <sup>14</sup> King Herod heard this, for his name had become known, and he said, "John the Baptizer has risen from the dead, and therefore these powers are at work in him." <sup>15</sup> But others said, "He is Elijah." Others said, "He is a prophet, or like one of the prophets." <sup>16</sup> But Herod, when he heard this, said, "This is John, whom I beheaded. He has risen from the dead." <sup>17</sup> For Herod himself had sent out and arrested John, and bound him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, for he had married her. <sup>18</sup> For John said to Herod, "It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife." <sup>19</sup> Herodias set herself against him, and desired to kill him, but she couldn't, <sup>20</sup> for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and kept him safe. When he heard him, he did many things, and he heard him gladly.

<sup>21</sup> Then a convenient day came, that Herod on his birthday made a supper for his nobles, the high officers, and the chief men of Galilee. <sup>22</sup> When the daughter of Herodias herself came in and danced, she pleased Herod and those sitting with him. The king said to the young lady, “Ask me whatever you want, and I will give it to you.” <sup>23</sup> He swore to her, “Whatever you shall ask of me, I will give you, up to half of my kingdom.”

She said, “The head of John the Baptizer.”

<sup>30</sup> The apostles gathered themselves together to Jesus, and they told him all things, whatever they had done, and whatever they had taught. <sup>31</sup> He said to them, “You come apart into a deserted place, and rest awhile.” For there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure so much as to eat. <sup>32</sup> They went away in the boat to a deserted place by themselves. <sup>33</sup> They<sup>h</sup> saw them going, and many recognized him and ran there on foot from all the cities. They arrived before them and came together to him. <sup>34</sup> Jesus came out, saw a great multitude, and he had compassion on them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd, and he began to teach them many things. <sup>35</sup> When it was late in the day, his disciples came to him, and said, “This place is deserted, and it is late in the day. <sup>36</sup> Send them away, that they may go into the surrounding country and villages, and buy themselves bread, for they have nothing to eat.”

They asked him, “Shall we go and buy two hundred denarii<sup>i</sup> worth of bread, and give them something to eat?”

<sup>38</sup> He said to them, “How many loaves do you have? Go see.”

When they knew, they said, “Five, and two fish.”

<sup>39</sup> He commanded them that everyone should sit down in groups on the green grass. <sup>40</sup> They sat down in ranks, by hundreds and by fifties. <sup>41</sup> He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he blessed and broke the loaves, and he gave to his disciples to set before them, and he divided the two fish among them all. <sup>42</sup> They all ate, and were filled. <sup>43</sup> They took up twelve baskets full of broken pieces and also of the fish. <sup>44</sup> Those who ate the loaves were<sup>j</sup> five thousand men.

<sup>45</sup> Immediately he made his disciples get into the boat, and to go ahead to the other side, to Bethsaida, while he himself sent the multitude away. <sup>46</sup> After he had taken leave of them, he went up the mountain to pray.

<sup>47</sup> When evening had come, the boat was in the middle of the sea, and he was alone on the land. <sup>48</sup> Seeing them distressed in rowing, for the wind was contrary to them, about the fourth watch of the night he came to them, walking on the sea, <sup>1</sup> and he would have passed by them, <sup>49</sup> but they, when they saw him walking on the sea, supposed that it was a ghost, and cried out; <sup>50</sup> for they all saw him, and were troubled. But he immediately spoke with them, and said to them, “Cheer up! It is I!<sup>k</sup> Don’t be afraid.”

<sup>53</sup> When they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret, and moored to the shore. <sup>54</sup> When they had come out of the boat, immediately the people recognized him, <sup>55</sup> and ran around that whole region, and began to bring those who were sick, on their mats, to where they heard he was. <sup>56</sup> Wherever he entered, into villages, or into cities, or into the country, they laid the sick in the marketplaces, and begged him that they might touch just the fringe<sup>l</sup> of his garment; and as many as touched him were made well.

7

<sup>6</sup> He answered them, “Well did Isaiah prophesy of you hypocrites, as it is written, ‘This people honors me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.

<sup>8</sup> “For you set aside the commandment of God, and hold tightly to the tradition of men—the washing of pitchers and cups, and you do many other such things.” <sup>9</sup> He said to them, “Full well do you reject the commandment of God, that you may keep your tradition. <sup>10</sup> For Moses said, ‘Honor your father and your mother;’<sup>2</sup> and, ‘He who speaks evil of father or mother, let him be put to death.’<sup>3</sup> <sup>11</sup> But you say, ‘If a man tells his father or his mother, “Whatever profit you might have received from me is

Corban<sup>m</sup>, that is to say, given to God”;<sup>12</sup> then you no longer allow him to do anything for his father or his mother, making void the word of God by your tradition, which you have handed down. You do many things like this.”<sup>13</sup>

<sup>14</sup> He called all the multitude to himself, and said to them, “Hear me, all of you, and understand. <sup>15</sup> There is nothing from outside of the man, that going into him can defile him; but the things which proceed out of the man are those that defile the man. <sup>16</sup> If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear!”<sup>n</sup>

<sup>17</sup> When he had entered into a house away from the multitude, his disciples asked him about the parable. <sup>18</sup> He said to them, “Are you also without understanding? Don’t you perceive that whatever goes into the man from outside can’t defile him, <sup>19</sup> because it doesn’t go into his heart, but into his stomach, then into the latrine, thus purifying all foods<sup>o</sup>?”

<sup>24</sup> From there he arose, and went away into the borders of Tyre and Sidon. He entered into a house, and didn’t want anyone to know it, but he couldn’t escape notice. <sup>25</sup> For a woman, whose little daughter had an unclean spirit, having heard of him, came and fell down at his feet. <sup>26</sup> Now the woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by race. She begged him that he would cast the demon out of her daughter. <sup>27</sup> But Jesus said to her, “Let the children be filled first, for it is not appropriate to take the children’s bread and throw it to the dogs.”

<sup>29</sup> He said to her, “For this saying, go your way. The demon has gone out of your daughter.”

<sup>31</sup> Again he departed from the borders of Tyre and Sidon, and came to the sea of Galilee, through the middle of the region of Decapolis. <sup>32</sup> They brought to him one who was deaf and had an impediment in his speech. They begged him to lay his hand on him. <sup>33</sup> He took him aside from the multitude, privately, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spat, and touched his tongue. <sup>34</sup> Looking up to heaven, he sighed, and said to him, “Ephphatha!” that is, “Be opened!” <sup>35</sup> Immediately his ears were opened, and the impediment of his tongue was released, and he spoke clearly. <sup>36</sup> He commanded them that they should tell no one, but the more he commanded them, so much the more widely they proclaimed it. <sup>37</sup> They were astonished beyond measure, saying, “He has done all things well. He makes even the deaf hear, and the mute speak!”

8

<sup>1</sup> In those days, when there was a very great multitude, and they had nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples to himself, and said to them, <sup>2</sup> “I have compassion on the multitude, because they have stayed with me now three days, and have nothing to eat. <sup>3</sup> If I send them away fasting to their home, they will faint on the way, for some of them have come a long way.”

They said, “Seven.”

<sup>6</sup> He commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground, and he took the seven loaves. Having given thanks, he broke them, and gave them to his disciples to serve, and they served the multitude. <sup>7</sup> They had a few small fish. Having blessed them, he said to serve these also. <sup>8</sup> They ate, and were filled. They took up seven baskets of broken pieces that were left over. <sup>9</sup> Those who had eaten were about four thousand. Then he sent them away.

<sup>10</sup> Immediately he entered into the boat with his disciples, and came into the region of Dalmanutha. <sup>11</sup> The Pharisees came out and began to question him, seeking from him a sign from heaven, and testing him. <sup>12</sup> He sighed deeply in his spirit, and said, “Why does this generation <sup>p</sup> seek a sign? Most certainly I tell you, no sign will be given to this generation.”

more than one loaf in the boat with them. <sup>15</sup> He warned them, saying, “Take heed: beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and the yeast of Herod.”

<sup>17</sup> Jesus, perceiving it, said to them, “Why do you reason that it’s because you have no bread? Don’t you perceive yet, neither understand? Is your heart still hardened? <sup>18</sup> Having eyes, don’t you see? Having ears, don’t you hear? Don’t you remember? <sup>19</sup> When I broke the five loaves among the five thousand, how many baskets full of broken pieces did you take up?”

They told him, “Twelve.”

<sup>20</sup> “When the seven loaves fed the four thousand, how many baskets full of broken pieces did you take up?”

They told him, “Seven.”

<sup>22</sup> He came to Bethsaida. They brought a blind man to him, and begged him to touch him. <sup>23</sup> He took hold of the blind man by the hand, and brought him out of the village. When he had spit on his eyes, and laid his hands on him, he asked him if he saw anything.

<sup>25</sup> Then again he laid his hands on his eyes. He looked intently, and was restored, and saw everyone clearly. <sup>26</sup> He sent him away to his house, saying, “Don’t enter into the village, nor tell anyone in the village.”

way he asked his disciples, “Who do men say that I am?”

Peter answered, “You are the Christ.”

<sup>30</sup> He commanded them that they should tell no one about him. <sup>31</sup> He began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. <sup>32</sup> He spoke to them openly. Peter took him, and began to rebuke him. <sup>33</sup> But he, turning around, and seeing his disciples, rebuked Peter, and said, “Get behind me, Satan! For you have in mind not the things of God, but the things of men.”

<sup>34</sup> He called the multitude to himself with his disciples, and said to them, “Whoever wants to come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. <sup>35</sup> For whoever wants to save his life will lose it; and whoever will lose his life for my sake and the sake of the Good News will save it. <sup>36</sup> For what does it profit a man, to gain the whole world, and forfeit his life? <sup>37</sup> For what will a man give in exchange for his life? <sup>38</sup> For whoever will be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of Man also will be ashamed of him, when he comes in his Father’s glory, with the holy angels.”

9

<sup>1</sup> He said to them, “Most certainly I tell you, there are some standing here who will in no way taste death until they see God’s Kingdom come with power.”

<sup>12</sup> He said to them, “Elijah indeed comes first, and restores all things. How is it written about the Son of Man, that he should suffer many things and be despised? <sup>13</sup> But I tell you that Elijah has come, and they have also done to him whatever they wanted to, even as it is written about him.”

<sup>14</sup> Coming to the disciples, he saw a great multitude around them, and scribes questioning them. <sup>15</sup> Immediately all the multitude, when they saw him, were greatly amazed, and running to him greeted him. <sup>16</sup> He asked the scribes, “What are you asking them?”

<sup>17</sup> One of the multitude answered, “Teacher, I brought to you my son, who has a mute spirit; <sup>18</sup> and wherever it seizes him, it throws him down, and he foams at the mouth, and grinds his teeth, and wastes away. I asked your disciples to cast it out, and they weren’t able.”

<sup>20</sup> They brought him to him, and when he saw him, immediately the spirit convulsed him, and he fell on the ground, wallowing and foaming at the mouth.

<sup>21</sup> He asked his father, “How long has it been since this has come to him?”

He said, “From childhood. <sup>22</sup> Often it has cast him both into the fire and into the water, to destroy him. But if you can do anything, have compassion on us, and help us.”

<sup>23</sup> Jesus said to him, “If you can believe, all things are possible to him who believes.”

<sup>25</sup> When Jesus saw that a multitude came running together, he rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to him, “You mute and deaf spirit, I command you, come out of him, and never enter him again!”

<sup>26</sup> Having cried out, and convulsed greatly, it came out of him. The boy became like one dead; so much that most of them said, “He is dead.” <sup>27</sup> But Jesus took him by the hand, and raised him up; and he arose.

<sup>28</sup> When he had come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, “Why couldn’t we cast it out?” <sup>29</sup> He said to them, “This kind can come out by nothing, except by prayer and fasting.”

<sup>30</sup> They went out from there, and passed through Galilee. He didn’t want anyone to know it. <sup>31</sup> For he was teaching his disciples, and said to them, “The Son of Man is being handed over to the hands of men, and they will kill him; and when he is killed, on the third day he will rise again.”

<sup>32</sup> But they didn’t understand the saying, and were afraid to ask him.

<sup>33</sup> He came to Capernaum, and when he was in the house he asked them, “What were you arguing among yourselves on the way?”

<sup>34</sup> But they were silent, for they had disputed one with another on the way about who was the greatest.

<sup>35</sup> He sat down, and called the twelve; and he said to them, “If any man wants to be first, he shall be last of all, and servant of all.” <sup>36</sup> He took a little child, and set him in the middle of them. Taking him in his arms, he said to them, <sup>37</sup> “Whoever receives one such little child in my name, receives me, and whoever receives me, doesn’t receive me, but him who sent me.”

<sup>38</sup> John said to him, “Teacher, we saw someone who doesn’t follow us casting out demons in your name; and we forbade him, because he doesn’t follow us.”

<sup>39</sup> But Jesus said, “Don’t forbid him, for there is no one who will do a mighty work in my name, and be able quickly to speak evil of me. <sup>40</sup> For whoever is not against us is on our side. <sup>41</sup> For whoever will give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because you are Christ’s, most certainly I tell you, he will in no way lose his reward. <sup>42</sup> Whoever will cause one of these little ones who believe in me to stumble, it would be better for him if he were thrown into the sea with a millstone hung around his neck. <sup>43</sup> If your hand causes you to stumble, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life maimed, rather than having your two hands to go into Gehenna, <sup>q</sup> into the unquenchable fire, <sup>44</sup> ‘where their worm doesn’t die, and the fire is not quenched.’ <sup>1r</sup> <sup>45</sup> If your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life lame, rather than having your two feet to be cast into Gehenna, <sup>s</sup> into the fire that will never be quenched— <sup>46</sup> ‘where their worm doesn’t die, and the fire is not quenched.’ <sup>t</sup> <sup>47</sup> If your eye causes you to stumble, cast it out. It is better for you to enter into God’s Kingdom with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into the Gehenna<sup>u</sup> of fire, <sup>48</sup> ‘where their worm doesn’t die, and the fire is not quenched.’ <sup>2</sup> <sup>49</sup> For everyone will be salted with fire, and every sacrifice will be seasoned with salt. <sup>50</sup> Salt is good, but if the salt has lost its saltiness, with what will you season it? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another.”

<sup>1</sup> He arose from there and came into the borders of Judea and beyond the Jordan. Multitudes came together to him again. As he usually did, he was again teaching them.

<sup>13</sup> They were bringing to him little children, that he should touch them, but the disciples rebuked those who were bringing them. <sup>14</sup> But when Jesus saw it, he was moved with indignation, and said to them, “Allow the little children to come to me! Don’t forbid them, for God’s Kingdom belongs to such as these. <sup>15</sup> Most certainly

I tell you, whoever will not receive God's Kingdom like a little child, he will in no way enter into it." <sup>16</sup> He took them in his arms, and blessed them, laying his hands on them.

<sup>17</sup> As he was going out into the way, one ran to him, knelt before him, and asked him, "Good Teacher, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?"

<sup>18</sup> Jesus said to him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good except one—God. <sup>19</sup> You know the commandments: 'Do not murder,' 'Do not commit adultery,' 'Do not steal,' 'Do not give false testimony,' 'Do not defraud,' 'Honor your father and mother.'" <sup>3</sup>

<sup>20</sup> He said to him, "Teacher, I have observed all these things from my youth."

<sup>21</sup> Jesus looking at him loved him, and said to him, "One thing you lack. Go, sell whatever you have, and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me, taking up the cross."

<sup>22</sup> But his face fell at that saying, and he went away sorrowful, for he was one who had great possessions. <sup>23</sup> Jesus looked around, and said to his disciples, "How difficult it is for those who have riches to enter into God's Kingdom!"

<sup>24</sup> The disciples were amazed at his words. But Jesus answered again, "Children, how hard is it for those who trust in riches to enter into God's Kingdom! <sup>25</sup> It is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye than for a rich man to enter into God's Kingdom."

<sup>27</sup> Jesus, looking at them, said, "With men it is impossible, but not with God, for all things are possible with God."

<sup>29</sup> Jesus said, "Most certainly I tell you, there is no one who has left house, or brothers, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or land, for my sake, and for the sake of the Good News, <sup>30</sup> but he will receive one hundred times more now in this time, houses, brothers, sisters, mothers, children, and land, with persecutions; and in the age to come eternal life. <sup>31</sup> But many who are first will be last; and the last first."

<sup>32</sup> They were on the way, going up to Jerusalem; and Jesus was going in front of them, and they were amazed; and those who followed were afraid. He again took the twelve, and began to tell them the things that were going to happen to him. <sup>33</sup> "Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem. The Son of Man will be delivered to the chief priests and the scribes. They will condemn him to death, and will deliver him to the Gentiles. <sup>34</sup> They will mock him, spit on him, scourge him, and kill him. On the third day he will rise again."

<sup>35</sup> James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came near to him, saying, "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we will ask."

<sup>38</sup> But Jesus said to them, "You don't know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, and to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?"

<sup>39</sup> They said to him, "We are able."

Jesus said to them, "You shall indeed drink the cup that I drink, and you shall be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with; <sup>40</sup> but to sit at my right hand and at my left hand is not mine to give, but for whom it has been prepared."

<sup>42</sup> Jesus summoned them, and said to them, "You know that they who are recognized as rulers over the nations lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them. <sup>43</sup> But it shall not be so among you, but whoever wants to become great among you shall be your servant. <sup>44</sup> Whoever of you wants to become first among you, shall be bondservant of all. <sup>45</sup> For the Son of Man also came not to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many."

<sup>46</sup> They came to Jericho. As he went out from Jericho, with his disciples and a great multitude, the son of Timaeus, Bartimaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the road. <sup>47</sup> When he heard that it was Jesus the Nazarene, he began to cry out, and say, "Jesus, you son of David, have mercy on me!" <sup>48</sup> Many rebuked him, that he should be quiet, but he cried out much more, "You son of David, have mercy on me!"

They called the blind man, saying to him, "Cheer up! Get up. He is calling you!"

<sup>51</sup> Jesus asked him, "What do you want me to do for you?"

The blind man said to him, "Rabboni,<sup>v</sup> that I may see again."

<sup>52</sup> Jesus said to him, "Go your way. Your faith has made you well." Immediately he received his sight, and followed Jesus on the way.

11

<sup>1</sup> When they came near to Jerusalem, to Bethsphage<sup>w</sup> and Bethany, at the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples, <sup>2</sup> and said to them, "Go your way into the village that is opposite you. Immediately as you enter into it, you will find a young donkey tied, on which no one has sat. Untie him, and bring him. <sup>3</sup> If anyone asks you, 'Why are you doing this?' say, 'The Lord needs him;' and immediately he will send him back here."

<sup>4</sup> They went away, and found a young donkey tied at the door outside in the open street, and they untied him. <sup>5</sup> Some of those who stood there asked them, "What are you doing, untying the young donkey?" <sup>6</sup> They said to them just as Jesus had said, and they let them go.

<sup>11</sup> Jesus entered into the temple in Jerusalem. When he had looked around at everything, it being now evening, he went out to Bethany with the twelve.

<sup>12</sup> The next day, when they had come out from Bethany, he was hungry. <sup>13</sup> Seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came to see if perhaps he might find anything on it. When he came to it, he found nothing but leaves, for it was not the season for figs. <sup>14</sup> Jesus told it, “May no one ever eat fruit from you again!” and his disciples heard it.

<sup>15</sup> They came to Jerusalem, and Jesus entered into the temple, and began to throw out those who sold and those who bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money changers, and the seats of those who sold the doves. <sup>16</sup> He would not allow anyone to carry a container through the temple. <sup>17</sup> He taught, saying to them, “Isn’t it written, ‘My house will be called a house of prayer for all the nations?’<sup>2</sup> But you have made it a den of robbers!”<sup>3</sup>

<sup>18</sup> The chief priests and the scribes heard it, and sought how they might destroy him. For they feared him, because all the multitude was astonished at his teaching.

<sup>19</sup> When evening came, he went out of the city. <sup>20</sup> As they passed by in the morning, they saw the fig tree withered away from the roots. <sup>21</sup> Peter, remembering, said to him, “Rabbi, look! The fig tree which you cursed has withered away.”

up and cast into the sea,’ and doesn’t doubt in his heart, but believes that what he says is happening; he shall have whatever he says. <sup>24</sup> Therefore I tell you, all things whatever you pray and ask for, believe that you have received them, and you shall have them. <sup>25</sup> Whenever you stand praying, forgive, if you have anything against anyone; so that your Father, who is in heaven, may also forgive you your transgressions. <sup>26</sup> But if you do not forgive, neither will your Father in heaven forgive your transgressions.”<sup>y</sup>

<sup>27</sup> They came again to Jerusalem, and as he was walking in the temple, the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders came to him, <sup>28</sup> and they began saying to him, “By what authority do you do these things? Or who gave you this authority to do these things?”

<sup>29</sup> Jesus said to them, “I will ask you one question. Answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things. <sup>30</sup> The baptism of John—was it from heaven, or from men? Answer me.”

<sup>31</sup> They reasoned with themselves, saying, “If we should say, ‘From heaven;’ he will say, ‘Why then did you not believe him?’ <sup>32</sup> If we should say, ‘From men’”—they feared the people, for all held John to really be a prophet. <sup>33</sup> They answered Jesus, “We don’t know.”

Jesus said to them, “Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.”

12

into another country. <sup>2</sup> When it was time, he sent a servant to the farmer to get from the farmer his share of the fruit of the vineyard. <sup>3</sup> They took him, beat him, and sent him away empty. <sup>4</sup> Again, he sent another servant to them; and they threw stones at him, wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully treated. <sup>5</sup> Again he sent another; and they killed him; and many others, beating some, and killing some. <sup>6</sup> Therefore still having one, his beloved son, he sent him last to them, saying, 'They will respect my son.' <sup>7</sup> But those farmers said among themselves, 'This is the heir. Come, let's kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.' <sup>8</sup> They took him, killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard. <sup>9</sup> What therefore will the lord of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the farmers, and will give the vineyard to others. <sup>10</sup> Haven't you even read this Scripture:

'The stone which the builders rejected, the same was made the head of the corner.

it is marvelous in our eyes?'"<sup>1</sup>

<sup>12</sup> They tried to seize him, but they feared the multitude; for they perceived that he spoke the parable against them. They left him, and went away. <sup>13</sup> They sent some of the Pharisees and of the Herodians to him, that they might trap him with words. <sup>14</sup> When they had come, they asked him, "Teacher, we know that you are honest, and don't defer to anyone; for you aren't partial to anyone, but truly teach the way of God. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not? <sup>15</sup> Shall we give, or shall we not give?"

But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said to them, "Why do you test me? Bring me a denarius, that I may see it."

He said to them, "Whose is this image and inscription?"

They said to him, "Caesar's."

<sup>17</sup> Jesus answered them, "Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's."

They marveled greatly at him.

<sup>18</sup> There came to him Sadducees, who say that there is no resurrection. They asked him, saying, <sup>19</sup> "Teacher, Moses wrote to us, 'If a man's brother dies, and leaves a wife behind him, and leaves no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up offspring for his brother.' <sup>20</sup> There were seven brothers. The first took a wife, and dying left no offspring. <sup>21</sup> The second took her, and died, leaving no children behind him. The third likewise; <sup>22</sup> and the seven took her and left no children. Last of all the woman also died. <sup>23</sup> In the resurrection, when they rise, whose wife will she be of them? For the seven had her as a wife."

<sup>24</sup> Jesus answered them, "Isn't this because you are mistaken, not knowing the Scriptures, nor the power of God? <sup>25</sup> For when they will rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven. <sup>26</sup> But about the dead, that they are raised; haven't you read in the book of Moses, about the Bush, how God spoke to him, saying, 'I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'? <sup>27</sup> He is not the God of the dead, but of the living. You are therefore badly mistaken.”

<sup>29</sup> Jesus answered, “The greatest is, ‘Hear, Israel, the Lord our God, the Lord is one: <sup>30</sup> you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.’<sup>3</sup> This is the first commandment.

<sup>32</sup> The scribe said to him, “Truly, teacher, you have said well that he is one, and there is none other but he, <sup>33</sup> and to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbor as himself, is more important than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices.”

<sup>34</sup> When Jesus saw that he answered wisely, he said to him, “You are not far from God’s Kingdom.”

No one dared ask him any question after that. <sup>35</sup> Jesus responded, as he taught in the temple, “How is it that the scribes say that the Christ is the son of David? <sup>36</sup> For David himself said in the Holy Spirit,

‘The Lord said to my Lord,
“Sit at my right hand,
until I make your enemies the
footstool of your feet.”’<sup>5</sup>

The common people heard him gladly. <sup>38</sup> In his teaching he said to them, “Beware of the scribes, who like to walk in long robes, and to get greetings in the marketplaces, <sup>39</sup> and the best seats in the synagogues, and the best places at feasts: <sup>40</sup> those who devour widows’ houses, and for a pretense make long prayers. These will receive greater condemnation.”

<sup>5</sup> Jesus, answering, began to tell them, “Be careful that no one leads you astray. <sup>6</sup> For many will come in my name, saying, ‘I am he!’<sup>b</sup>’ and will lead many astray.

<sup>7</sup> “When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, don’t be troubled. For those must happen, but the end is not yet. <sup>8</sup> For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be earthquakes in various places. There will be famines and troubles. These things are the beginning of birth pains. <sup>9</sup> But watch yourselves, for they will deliver you up to councils. You will be beaten in synagogues. You will stand before rulers and kings for my sake, for a testimony to them. <sup>10</sup> The Good News must first be preached to all the nations. <sup>11</sup> When they lead you away and deliver you up, don’t be anxious beforehand, or premeditate what you will say, but say whatever will be given you in that hour. For it is not you who speak, but the Holy Spirit.

<sup>12</sup> “Brother will deliver up brother to death, and the father his child. Children will rise up against parents, and cause them to be put to death. <sup>13</sup> You will be hated by all men for my name’s sake, but he who endures to the end, the same will be saved. <sup>14</sup> But when you see the abomination of desolation,<sup>1</sup> spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not (let the reader understand), then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains, <sup>15</sup> and let him who is on the housetop not go down, nor enter in, to take anything out of his house. <sup>16</sup> Let him who is in the field not return back to take his cloak. <sup>17</sup> But woe to those who are with child and to those who

nurse babies in those days! <sup>18</sup> Pray that your flight won’t be in the winter. <sup>19</sup> For in those days there will be oppression, such as there has not been the like from the beginning of the creation which God created until now, and never will be. <sup>20</sup> Unless the Lord had shortened the days, no flesh would have been saved; but for the sake of the chosen ones, whom he picked out, he shortened the days. <sup>21</sup> Then if anyone tells you, ‘Look, here is the Christ!’ or, ‘Look, there!’ don’t believe it. <sup>22</sup> For there will arise false christs and false prophets, and will show signs and wonders, that they may lead astray, if possible, even the chosen ones. <sup>23</sup> But you watch.

“Behold, I have told you all things beforehand. <sup>24</sup> But in those days, after that oppression, the sun will be darkened, the moon will not give its light, <sup>25</sup> the stars will be falling from the sky, and the powers that are in the heavens will be shaken.<sup>2</sup> <sup>26</sup> Then they will see the Son of Man coming in clouds with great power and glory. <sup>27</sup> Then he will send out his angels, and will gather together his chosen ones from the four winds, from the ends of the earth to the ends of the sky.

But of that day or that hour no one knows, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father. <sup>33</sup> Watch, keep alert, and pray; for you don't know when the time is.

14

<sup>1</sup> It was now two days before the feast of the Passover and the unleavened bread, and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might seize him by deception, and kill him. <sup>2</sup> For they said, "Not during the feast, because there might be a riot of the people."

<sup>3</sup> While he was at Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at the table, a woman came having an alabaster jar of ointment of pure nard—very costly. She broke the jar, and poured it over his head. <sup>4</sup> But there were some who were indignant among themselves, saying, "Why has this ointment been wasted? <sup>5</sup> For this might have been sold for more than three hundred denarii, <sup>d</sup> and given to the poor." They grumbled against her.

<sup>6</sup> But Jesus said, "Leave her alone. Why do you trouble her? She has done a good work for me. <sup>7</sup> For you always have the poor with you, and whenever you want to, you can do them good; but you will not always have me. <sup>8</sup> She has done what she could. She has anointed my body beforehand for the burying. <sup>9</sup> Most certainly I tell you, wherever this Good News may be preached throughout the whole world, that which this woman has done will also be spoken of for a memorial of her."

<sup>13</sup> He sent two of his disciples, and said to them, "Go into the city, and there you will meet a man carrying a pitcher of water. Follow him, <sup>14</sup> and wherever he enters in, tell the master of the house, 'The Teacher says, "Where is the guest room, where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?'" <sup>15</sup> He will himself show you a large upper room furnished and ready. Get ready for us there."

<sup>16</sup> His disciples went out, and came into the city, and found things as he had said to them, and they prepared the Passover.

<sup>17</sup> When it was evening he came with the twelve. <sup>18</sup> As they sat and were eating, Jesus said, "Most certainly I tell you, one of you will betray me—he who eats with me."

<sup>19</sup> They began to be sorrowful, and to ask him one by one, “Surely not I?” And another said, “Surely not I?”

<sup>20</sup> He answered them, “It is one of the twelve, he who dips with me in the dish. <sup>21</sup> For the Son of Man goes, even as it is written about him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would be better for that man if he had not been born.”

<sup>22</sup> As they were eating, Jesus took bread, and when he had blessed, he broke it, and gave to them, and said, “Take, eat. This is my body.”

<sup>23</sup> He took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave to them. They all drank of it. <sup>24</sup> He said to them, “This is my blood of the new covenant, which is poured out for many. <sup>25</sup> Most certainly I tell you, I will no more drink of the fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it anew in God’s Kingdom.” <sup>26</sup> When they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

<sup>27</sup> Jesus said to them, “All of you will be made to stumble because of me tonight, for it is written, ‘I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.’<sup>1</sup> <sup>28</sup> However, after I am raised up, I will go before you into Galilee.”

<sup>30</sup> Jesus said to him, “Most certainly I tell you, that you today, even this night, before the rooster crows twice, you will deny me three times.”

<sup>31</sup> But he spoke all the more, “If I must die with you, I will not deny you.” They all said the same thing.

<sup>32</sup> They came to a place which was named Gethsemane. He said to his disciples, “Sit here, while I pray.” <sup>33</sup> He took with him Peter, James, and John, and began to be greatly troubled and distressed.

<sup>34</sup> He said to them, “My soul is exceedingly sorrowful, even to death. Stay here, and watch.”

<sup>35</sup> He went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass away from him. <sup>36</sup> He said, “Abba,<sup>e</sup> Father, all things are possible to you. Please remove this cup from me. However, not what I desire, but what you desire.”

<sup>39</sup> Again he went away, and prayed, saying the same words. <sup>40</sup> Again he returned, and found them sleeping, for their eyes were very heavy, and they didn’t know what to answer him. <sup>41</sup> He came the third time, and said to them, “Sleep on now, and take your rest. It is enough. The hour has come. Behold, the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. <sup>42</sup> Arise, let us be going. Behold, he who betrays me is at hand.”

<sup>43</sup> Immediately, while he was still speaking, Judas, one of the twelve, came—and with him a multitude with swords and clubs, from the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders. <sup>44</sup> Now he who betrayed him had given them a sign, saying, “Whomever I will kiss, that is he. Seize him, and lead him away safely.”<sup>45</sup> When he had come, immediately he came to him, and said, “Rabbi! Rabbi!” and kissed him.

<sup>48</sup> Jesus answered them, “Have you come out, as against a robber, with swords and clubs to seize me? <sup>49</sup> I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and you didn’t arrest me. But this is so that the Scriptures might be fulfilled.”

<sup>54</sup> Peter had followed him from a distance, until he came into the court of the high priest. He was sitting with the officers, and warming himself in the light of the fire.

What is it which these testify against you?”

<sup>61</sup> But he stayed quiet, and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked him, “Are you the Christ, the Son of the Blessed?”

<sup>62</sup> Jesus said, “I am. You will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of Power, and coming with the clouds of the sky.”

<sup>63</sup> The high priest tore his clothes, and said, “What further need have we of witnesses? <sup>64</sup> You have heard the blasphemy! What do you think?” They all condemned him to be worthy of death. <sup>65</sup> Some began to spit on him, and to cover his face, and to beat him with fists, and to tell him, “Prophecy!” The officers struck him with the palms of their hands.

<sup>66</sup> As Peter was in the courtyard below, one of the maids of the high priest came, <sup>67</sup> and seeing Peter warming himself, she looked at him, and said, “You were also with the Nazarene, Jesus!”

<sup>68</sup> But he denied it, saying, “I neither know, nor understand what you are saying.” He went out on the porch, and the rooster crowed.

15

<sup>1</sup> Immediately in the morning the chief priests, with the elders and scribes, and the whole council, held a consultation, and bound Jesus, and carried him away, and delivered him up to Pilate. <sup>2</sup> Pilate asked him, “Are you the King of the Jews?”

He answered, “So you say.”

<sup>6</sup> Now at the feast he used to release to them one prisoner, whom they asked of him. <sup>7</sup> There was one called Barabbas, bound with his fellow insurgents, men who in the insurrection had committed murder. <sup>8</sup> The multitude, crying aloud, began to ask him to do as he always did for them. <sup>9</sup> Pilate answered them, saying, “Do you want me to release to you the King of the Jews?” <sup>10</sup> For he perceived that for envy the chief priests had delivered him up. <sup>11</sup> But the chief priests stirred up the multitude, that he should release Barabbas to them instead. <sup>12</sup> Pilate again asked them, “What then should I do to him whom you call the King of the Jews?”

But they cried out exceedingly, “Crucify him!”

<sup>15</sup> Pilate, wishing to please the multitude, released Barabbas to them, and handed over Jesus, when he had flogged him, to be crucified. <sup>16</sup> The soldiers led him away within the court, which is the Praetorium; and they called together the whole cohort. <sup>17</sup> They clothed him with purple, and weaving a crown of thorns, they put it on him. <sup>18</sup> They began to salute him, “Hail, King of the Jews!” <sup>19</sup> They struck his head with a reed, and spat on him, and bowing their knees, did homage to him. <sup>20</sup> When they had mocked him, they took the purple off of him, and put his own garments on him. They led him out to crucify him. <sup>21</sup> They compelled one passing by, coming from the country, Simon of Cyrene, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to go with them, that he might bear his cross. <sup>22</sup> They brought him to the place called Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, “The place of a skull.” <sup>23</sup> They offered him wine mixed with myrrh to drink, but he didn’t take it.

<sup>31</sup> Likewise, also the chief priests mocking among themselves with the scribes said, “He saved others. He can’t save himself. <sup>32</sup> Let the Christ, the King of

Israel, now come down from the cross, that we may see and believe him.”<sup>h</sup> Those who were crucified with him also insulted him.

<sup>33</sup> When the sixth hour<sup>i</sup> had come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour.<sup>j</sup> <sup>34</sup> At the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, “Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani?” which is, being interpreted, “My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?”<sup>l</sup>

<sup>36</sup> One ran, and filling a sponge full of vinegar, put it on a reed, and gave it to him to drink, saying, “Let him be. Let’s see whether Elijah comes to take him down.”

<sup>37</sup> Jesus cried out with a loud voice, and gave up the spirit. <sup>38</sup> The veil of the temple was torn in two from the top to the bottom. <sup>39</sup> When the centurion, who stood by opposite him, saw that he cried out like this and breathed his last, he said, “Truly this man was the Son of God!”

<sup>40</sup> There were also women watching from afar, among whom were both Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the less and of Joses, and Salome; <sup>41</sup> who, when he was in Galilee, followed him, and served him; and many other women who came up with him to Jerusalem.

<sup>42</sup> When evening had now come, because it was the Preparation Day, that is, the day before the Sabbath, <sup>43</sup> Joseph of Arimathaea, a prominent council member who also himself was looking for God’s Kingdom, came. He boldly went in to Pilate, and asked for Jesus’ body. <sup>44</sup> Pilate marveled if he were already dead; and summoning the centurion, he asked him whether he had been dead long. <sup>45</sup> When he found out from the centurion, he granted the body to Joseph. <sup>46</sup> He bought a linen cloth, and taking him down, wound him in the linen cloth, and laid him in a tomb which had been cut out of a rock. He rolled a stone against the door of the tomb. <sup>47</sup> Mary Magdalene and Mary, the mother of Joses, saw where he was laid.

<sup>1</sup> When the Sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, bought spices, that they might come and anoint him. <sup>2</sup> Very early on the first day of the week, they came to the tomb when the sun had risen. <sup>3</sup> They were saying among themselves, “Who will roll away the stone from the door of the tomb for us?” <sup>4</sup> for it was very big. Looking up, they saw that the stone was rolled back.

early on the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, from whom he had cast out seven demons.<sup>10</sup> She went and told those who had been with him, as they mourned and wept.<sup>11</sup> When they heard that he was alive, and had been seen by her, they disbelieved.<sup>12</sup> After these things he was revealed in another form to two of them, as they walked, on their way into the country.<sup>13</sup> They went away and told it to the rest. They didn't believe them, either.

<sup>14</sup> Afterward he was revealed to the eleven themselves as they sat at the table, and he rebuked them for their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they didn't believe those who had seen him after he had risen.<sup>15</sup> He said to them, “Go into all the world, and preach the Good News to the whole creation.<sup>16</sup> He who believes and is baptized will be saved; but he who disbelieves will be condemned.<sup>17</sup> These signs will accompany those who believe: in my name they will cast out demons; they will speak with new languages;<sup>18</sup> they will take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it will in no way hurt them; they will lay hands on the sick, and they will recover.”

<sup>19</sup> So then the Lord,<sup>m</sup> after he had spoken to them, was received up into heaven, and sat down at the right hand of God.<sup>20</sup> They went out, and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word by the signs that followed. Amen.

1

<sup>1</sup> Since many have undertaken to set in order a narrative concerning those matters which have been fulfilled among us, <sup>2</sup> even as those who from the beginning were eyewitnesses and servants of the word delivered them to us, <sup>3</sup> it seemed good to me also, having traced the course of all things accurately from the first, to write to you in order, most excellent Theophilus; <sup>4</sup> that you might know the certainty concerning the things in which you were instructed.

<sup>5</sup> There was in the days of Herod, the king of Judea, a certain priest named Zacharias, of the priestly division of Abijah. He had a wife of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth. <sup>6</sup> They were both righteous before God, walking blamelessly in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord. <sup>7</sup> But they had no child, because Elizabeth was barren, and they both were well advanced in years. <sup>8</sup> Now while he executed the priest's office before God in the order of his division, <sup>9</sup> according to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was to enter into the temple of the Lord and burn incense. <sup>10</sup> The whole multitude of the people were praying outside at the hour of incense.

angel said to him, "Don't be afraid, Zacharias, because your request has been heard, and your wife, Elizabeth, will bear you a son, and you shall call his name John. <sup>14</sup> You will have joy and gladness; and many will rejoice at his birth. <sup>15</sup> For he will be great in the sight of the Lord, and he will drink no wine nor strong drink. He will be filled with the Holy Spirit, even from his mother's womb. <sup>16</sup> He will turn many of the children of Israel to the Lord, their God. <sup>17</sup> He will go before him in the spirit and power of Elijah, 'to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children,' and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; to prepare a people prepared for the Lord."

<sup>18</sup> Zacharias said to the angel, "How can I be sure of this? For I am an old man, and my wife is well advanced in years."

<sup>19</sup> The angel answered him, "I am Gabriel, who stands in the presence of God. I was sent to speak to you, and to bring you this good news. <sup>20</sup> Behold,<sup>a</sup> you will be silent and not able to speak, until the day that these things will happen, because you didn't believe my words, which will be fulfilled in their proper time."

<sup>21</sup> The people were waiting for Zacharias, and they marveled that he delayed in the temple. <sup>22</sup> When he came out, he could not speak to them, and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple. He continued making signs to them, and remained mute. <sup>23</sup> When the days of his service were fulfilled, he departed to his house. <sup>24</sup> After these days Elizabeth, his wife, conceived, and she hid herself five months, saying, <sup>25</sup> “Thus has the Lord done to me in the days in which he looked at me, to take away my reproach among men.”

<sup>26</sup> Now in the sixth month, the angel Gabriel was sent from God to a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, <sup>27</sup> to a virgin pledged to be married to a man whose name was Joseph, of David’s house. The virgin’s name was Mary. <sup>28</sup> Having come in, the angel said to her, “Rejoice, you highly favored one! The Lord is with you. Blessed are you among women!”

<sup>29</sup> But when she saw him, she was greatly troubled at the saying, and considered what kind of salutation this might be. <sup>30</sup> The angel said to her, “Don’t be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God. <sup>31</sup> Behold, you will conceive in your womb, and give birth to a son, and will call his name ‘Jesus.’ <sup>32</sup> He will be great, and will be called the Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give him the throne of his father, David, <sup>33</sup> and he will reign over the house of Jacob forever. There will be no end to his Kingdom.”

<sup>35</sup> The angel answered her, “The Holy Spirit will come on you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. Therefore also the holy one who is born from you will be called the Son of God. <sup>36</sup> Behold, Elizabeth, your relative, also has conceived a son in her old age; and this is the sixth month with her who was called barren. <sup>37</sup> For nothing spoken by God is impossible.”<sup>b</sup>

<sup>38</sup> Mary said, “Behold, the servant of the Lord; let it be done to me according to your word.”

The angel departed from her. <sup>39</sup> Mary arose in those days and went into the hill country with haste, into a city of Judah, <sup>40</sup> and entered into the house of Zacharias and greeted Elizabeth. <sup>41</sup> When Elizabeth heard Mary’s greeting, the baby leaped in her womb, and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit. <sup>42</sup> She called out with a loud voice, and said, “Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb! <sup>43</sup> Why am I so favored, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? <sup>44</sup> For behold, when the voice of your greeting came into my ears, the baby leaped in my womb for joy! <sup>45</sup> Blessed is she who believed, for there will be a fulfillment of the things which have been spoken to her from the Lord!”

“My soul magnifies the Lord.

<sup>48</sup> for he has looked at the humble state of his servant.

For behold, from now on, all generations will call me blessed.

Holy is his name.

And has exalted the lowly.

He has sent the rich away empty.

They all marveled. <sup>64</sup> His mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue freed, and he spoke, blessing God. <sup>65</sup> Fear came on all who lived around them, and all these sayings were talked about throughout all the hill country of Judea. <sup>66</sup> All who heard them laid them up in their heart, saying, “What then will this child be?” The hand of the Lord was with him. <sup>67</sup> His father,

Zacharias, was filled with the Holy Spirit, and prophesied, saying,

<sup>68</sup> “Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel, for he has visited and redeemed his people;

<sup>69</sup> and has raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David

<sup>74</sup> to grant to us that we, being delivered out of the hand of our enemies, should serve him without fear,

<sup>75</sup> In holiness and righteousness before him all the days of our life.

<sup>76</sup> And you, child, will be called a prophet of the Most High, for you will go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways, whereby the dawn from on high will visit us,

<sup>77</sup> to give knowledge of salvation to his people by the remission of their sins,

to guide our feet into the way of peace.”

2

<sup>6</sup> While they were there, the day had come for her to give birth. <sup>7</sup> She gave birth to her firstborn son. She wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a feeding trough, because there was no room for them in the inn. <sup>8</sup> There were shepherds in the same country staying in the field, and keeping watch by night over their flock. <sup>9</sup> Behold, an angel of the Lord stood by them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. <sup>10</sup> The angel said to them, “Don't be afraid, for behold, I bring you good news of great joy which will be to all the people. <sup>11</sup> For there is born to you today, in David's city, a Savior, who is Christ the Lord. <sup>12</sup> This is the sign to you: you will find a baby wrapped in strips of cloth, lying in a feeding trough.” <sup>13</sup> Suddenly, there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly army praising God, and saying, <sup>14</sup> “Glory to God in the highest,

on earth peace, good will toward men.”

<sup>15</sup> When the angels went away from them into the sky, the shepherds said to one another, “Let's go to Bethlehem, now, and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has made known to us.” <sup>16</sup> They came with haste, and found both Mary and Joseph, and the baby was lying in the feeding trough. <sup>17</sup> When they saw it, they publicized widely the saying which was spoken to them about this child. <sup>18</sup> All who heard it wondered at the things which were spoken to them by the shepherds. <sup>19</sup> But Mary kept all these sayings, pondering them in her heart. <sup>20</sup> The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, just as it was told them.

<sup>21</sup> When eight days were fulfilled for the circumcision of the child, his name was called Jesus, which was given by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

<sup>25</sup> Behold, there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon. This man was righteous and devout, looking for the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was on him. <sup>26</sup> It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he should not see death before he had seen the Lord's Christ.<sup>d</sup> <sup>27</sup> He came in the Spirit into the temple. When the parents brought in the child, Jesus, that they might do concerning him according to the custom of the law, <sup>28</sup> then he received him into his arms, and blessed God, and said, <sup>29</sup> "Now you are releasing your servant, Master,

 according to your word, in peace;
<sup>30</sup> for my eyes have seen your salvation, <sup>31</sup> which you have prepared before the face of all peoples; <sup>32</sup> a light for revelation to the nations, and the glory of your people
 Israel."

<sup>36</sup> There was one Anna, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher (she was of a great age, having lived with a husband seven years from her virginity, <sup>37</sup> and she had been a widow for about eighty-four years), who didn't depart from the temple, worshiping with fastings and petitions night and day. <sup>38</sup> Coming up at that very hour, she gave thanks to the Lord, and spoke of him to all those who were looking for redemption in Jerusalem.

<sup>42</sup> When he was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem according to the custom of the feast, <sup>43</sup> and when they had fulfilled the days, as they were returning, the boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem. Joseph and his mother didn't know it, <sup>44</sup> but supposing him to be in the company, they went a day's journey, and they looked for him among their relatives and acquaintances. <sup>45</sup> When they didn't find him, they returned to Jerusalem, looking for him. <sup>46</sup> After three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the middle of the teachers, both listening to them, and asking them questions. <sup>47</sup> All who heard him were amazed at his understanding and his answers. <sup>48</sup> When they saw him, they were astonished, and his mother said to him, "Son, why have you treated us this way? Behold, your father and I were anxiously looking for you."

<sup>49</sup> He said to them, "Why were you looking for me? Didn't you know that I must be in my Father's house?" <sup>50</sup> They didn't understand the saying which he spoke to them. <sup>51</sup> And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth. He was subject to them, and his mother kept all these sayings in her heart. <sup>52</sup> And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and men.

3

<sup>1</sup> Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judea, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of the region of Ituraea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias tetrarch of Abilene, <sup>2</sup> in the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came to John, the son of Zacharias, in the wilderness. <sup>3</sup> He came into all the region around the Jordan, preaching the baptism of repentance for remission of sins. <sup>4</sup> As it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet,

“The voice of one crying in the wilderness,
‘Make ready the way of the Lord.
Make his paths straight.

<sup>5</sup> Every valley will be filled.
Every mountain and hill will be brought low.
The crooked will become straight, and the rough ways smooth.

<sup>7</sup> He said therefore to the multitudes who went out to be baptized by him, “You offspring of vipers, who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? <sup>8</sup> Therefore produce fruits worthy of repentance, and don’t begin to say among yourselves, ‘We have Abraham for our father;’ for I tell you that God is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones! <sup>9</sup> Even now the ax also lies at the root of the trees. Every tree therefore that doesn’t produce good fruit is cut down, and thrown into the fire.”

<sup>10</sup> The multitudes asked him, “What then must we do?”

<sup>11</sup> He answered them, “He who has two coats, let him give to him who has none. He who has food, let him do likewise.”

<sup>12</sup> Tax collectors also came to be baptized, and they said to him, “Teacher, what must we do?”

<sup>13</sup> He said to them, “Collect no more than that which is appointed to you.”

He said to them, “Extort from no one by violence, neither accuse anyone wrongfully. Be content with your wages.”

<sup>15</sup> As the people were in expectation, and all men reasoned in their hearts concerning John, whether perhaps he was the Christ, <sup>16</sup> John answered them all, “I indeed baptize you with water, but he comes who is mightier than I, the strap of whose sandals I am not worthy to loosen. He will baptize you in the Holy Spirit and fire, <sup>17</sup> whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly cleanse his threshing floor, and will gather the wheat into his barn; but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.”

<sup>1</sup> Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan, and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness <sup>2</sup> for forty days, being tempted by the devil. He ate nothing in those days. Afterward, when they were completed, he was hungry. <sup>3</sup> The devil said to him, “If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become bread.”

<sup>4</sup> Jesus answered him, saying, “It is written, ‘Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God.’”<sup>1</sup>

<sup>5</sup> The devil, leading him up on a high mountain, showed him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time. <sup>6</sup> The devil said to him, “I will give you all this authority, and their glory, for it has been delivered to me; and I give it to whomever I want. <sup>7</sup> If you therefore will worship before me, it will all be yours.”

<sup>8</sup> Jesus answered him, “Get behind me Satan! For it is written, ‘You shall worship the Lord your God, and you shall serve him only.’”<sup>2</sup>

<sup>9</sup> He led him to Jerusalem, and set him on the pinnacle of the temple, and said to him, “If you are the Son of God, cast yourself down from here, <sup>10</sup> for it is written,

‘He will put his angels in charge of you, to guard you;’

<sup>11</sup> and,

lest perhaps you dash your foot

<sup>12</sup> Jesus answering, said to him, “It has been said, ‘You shall not tempt the Lord your God.’”<sup>4</sup>

<sup>13</sup> When the devil had completed every temptation, he departed from him until another time.

<sup>14</sup> Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee, and news about him spread through all the surrounding area. <sup>15</sup> He taught in their synagogues, being glorified by all.

<sup>16</sup> He came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up. He entered, as was his custom, into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and stood up to read. <sup>17</sup> The book of the prophet Isaiah was handed to him. He opened the book, and found the place where it was written,

<sup>18</sup> “The Spirit of the Lord is on me, because he has anointed me to preach good news to the poor.

He has sent me to heal the broken hearted,<sup>h</sup>

to proclaim release to the captives, recovering of sight to the blind, to deliver those who are crushed,

<sup>19</sup> and to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord.”<sup>5</sup>

<sup>20</sup> He closed the book, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of all in the synagogue were fastened on him. <sup>21</sup> He began to tell them, “Today, this Scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing.”

<sup>22</sup> All testified about him, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth, and they said, “Isn’t this Joseph’s son?”

<sup>23</sup> He said to them, “Doubtless you will tell me this parable, ‘Physician, heal yourself! Whatever we have heard done at Capernaum, do also here in your hometown.’” <sup>24</sup> He said, “Most certainly I tell you, no prophet is acceptable in his hometown.” <sup>25</sup> But truly I tell you, there were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the sky was shut up three years and six months, when a great famine came over all the land. <sup>26</sup> Elijah was sent to none of them, except to Zarephath, in the land of Sidon, to a woman who was a widow. <sup>27</sup> There were many lepers in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet, yet not one of them was cleansed, except Naaman, the Syrian.”

<sup>28</sup> They were all filled with wrath in the synagogue, as they heard these things. <sup>29</sup> They rose up, threw him out of the city, and led him to the brow of the hill that their city was built on, that they might throw him off the cliff. <sup>30</sup> But he, passing through the middle of them, went his way.

<sup>35</sup> Jesus rebuked him, saying, “Be silent, and come out of him!” When the demon had thrown him down in the middle of them, he came out of him, having done him no harm.

<sup>36</sup> Amazement came on all, and they spoke together, one with another, saying, "What is this word? For with authority and power he commands the unclean spirits, and they come out!" <sup>37</sup> News about him went out into every place of the surrounding region.

<sup>38</sup> He rose up from the synagogue, and entered into Simon's house. Simon's mother-in-law was afflicted with a great fever, and they begged him for her. <sup>39</sup> He stood over her, and rebuked the fever; and it left her. Immediately she rose up and served them. <sup>40</sup> When the sun was setting, all those who had any sick with various diseases brought them to him; and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them. <sup>41</sup> Demons also came out of many, crying out, and saying, "You are the Christ, the Son of God!" Rebuking them, he didn't allow them to speak, because they knew that he was the Christ.

<sup>42</sup> When it was day, he departed and went into an uninhabited place, and the multitudes looked for him, and came to him, and held on to him, so that he wouldn't go away from them. <sup>43</sup> But he said to them, "I must preach the good news of God's Kingdom to the other cities also. For this reason I have been sent." <sup>44</sup> He was preaching in the synagogues of Galilee.

5

him to put out a little from the land. He sat down and taught the multitudes from the boat. <sup>4</sup> When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into the deep, and let down your nets for a catch."

<sup>5</sup> Simon answered him, "Master, we worked all night, and took nothing; but at your word I will let down the net." <sup>6</sup> When they had done this, they caught a great multitude of fish, and their net was breaking. <sup>7</sup> They beckoned to their partners in the other boat, that they should come and help them. They came, and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. <sup>8</sup> But Simon Peter, when he saw it, fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, Lord." <sup>9</sup> For he was amazed, and all who were with him, at the catch of fish which they had caught; <sup>10</sup> and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon.

Jesus said to Simon, "Don't be afraid. From now on you will be catching people alive."

<sup>11</sup> When they had brought their boats to land, they left everything, and followed him. <sup>12</sup> While he was in one of the cities, behold, there was a man full of leprosy. When he saw Jesus, he fell on his face, and begged him, saying, "Lord, if you want to, you can make me clean."

<sup>13</sup> He stretched out his hand, and touched him, saying, "I want to. Be made clean."

Immediately the leprosy left him. <sup>14</sup> He commanded him to tell no one, "But go your way, and show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing according to what Moses commanded, for a testimony to them." <sup>15</sup> But the report concerning him spread much more, and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities. <sup>16</sup> But he withdrew himself into the desert, and prayed.

<sup>17</sup> On one of those days, he was teaching; and there were Pharisees and teachers of the law sitting by, who had come out of every village of Galilee, Judea, and Jerusalem. The power of the Lord was with him to heal them. <sup>18</sup> Behold, men brought a paralyzed man on a cot, and they sought to bring him in to lay before Jesus. <sup>19</sup> Not finding a way to bring him in because of the multitude, they went up to the housetop, and let him down through the tiles with his cot into the middle before Jesus. <sup>20</sup> Seeing their faith, he said to him, “Man, your sins are forgiven you.”

<sup>21</sup> The scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, “Who is this that speaks blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, but God alone?”

<sup>22</sup> But Jesus, perceiving their thoughts, answered them, “Why are you reasoning so in your hearts? <sup>23</sup> Which is easier to say, ‘Your sins are forgiven you,’ or to say, ‘Arise and walk?’ <sup>24</sup> But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins” (he said to the paralyzed man), “I tell you, arise, and take up your cot, and go to your house.”

<sup>25</sup> Immediately he rose up before them, and took up that which he was laying on, and departed to his house, glorifying God. <sup>26</sup> Amazement took hold on all, and they glorified God. They were filled with fear, saying, “We have seen strange things today.”

<sup>27</sup> After these things he went out, and saw a tax collector named Levi sitting at the tax office, and said to him, “Follow me!”

<sup>28</sup> He left everything, and rose up and followed him. <sup>29</sup> Levi made a great feast for him in his house. There was a great crowd of tax collectors and others who were reclining with them. <sup>30</sup> Their scribes and the Pharisees murmured against his disciples, saying, “Why do you eat and drink with the tax collectors and sinners?”

<sup>31</sup> Jesus answered them, “Those who are healthy have no need for a physician, but those who are sick do. <sup>32</sup> I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.”

<sup>33</sup> They said to him, “Why do John’s disciples often fast and pray, likewise also the disciples of the Pharisees, but yours eat and drink?”

<sup>34</sup> He said to them, “Can you make the friends of the bridegroom fast, while the bridegroom is with them? <sup>35</sup> But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them. Then they will fast in those days.” <sup>36</sup> He also told a parable to them. “No one puts a piece from a new garment on an old garment, or else he will tear the new, and also the piece from the new will not match the old. <sup>37</sup> No one puts new wine into old wine skins, or else the new wine will burst the skins, and it will be spilled, and the skins will be destroyed. <sup>38</sup> But new wine must be put into fresh wine skins, and both are preserved. <sup>39</sup> No man having drunk old wine immediately desires new, for he says, ‘The old is better.’”

6

some of the Pharisees said to them, “Why do you do that which is not lawful to do on the Sabbath day?”

<sup>3</sup> Jesus, answering them, said, “Haven’t you read what David did when he was hungry, he, and those who were with him; <sup>4</sup> how he entered into God’s house, and took and ate the show bread, and gave also to those who were with him, which is not lawful to eat except for the priests alone?” <sup>5</sup> He said to them, “The Son of Man is lord of the Sabbath.”

<sup>6</sup> It also happened on another Sabbath that he entered into the synagogue and taught. There was a man there, and his right hand was withered. <sup>7</sup> The scribes and the Pharisees watched him, to see whether he would heal on the Sabbath, that they might find an accusation against him. <sup>8</sup> But he knew their thoughts; and he said to the man who had the withered hand, “Rise up, and stand in the middle.” He arose and stood. <sup>9</sup> Then Jesus said to them, “I will ask you something: Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good, or to do harm? To save a life, or to kill?” <sup>10</sup> He looked around at them all, and said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” He did, and his hand was restored as sound as the other. <sup>11</sup> But they were filled with rage, and talked with one another about what they might do to Jesus.

<sup>12</sup> In these days, he went out to the mountain to pray, and he continued all night in prayer to God. <sup>13</sup> When it was day, he called his disciples, and from them he chose twelve, whom he also named apostles: <sup>14</sup> Simon, whom he also named Peter; Andrew, his brother; James; John; Philip; Bartholomew; <sup>15</sup> Matthew; Thomas;

James, the son of Alphaeus; Simon, who was called the Zealot; <sup>16</sup> Judas the son of James; and Judas Iscariot, who also became a traitor. <sup>17</sup> He came down with them, and stood on a level place, with a crowd of his disciples, and a great number of the people from all Judea and Jerusalem, and the sea coast of Tyre and Sidon, who came to hear him and to be healed of their diseases; <sup>18</sup> as well as those who were troubled by unclean spirits, and they were being healed. <sup>19</sup> All the multitude sought to touch him, for power came out of him and healed them all.

<sup>20</sup> He lifted up his eyes to his disciples, and said,

“Blessed are you who are poor,
God’s Kingdom is yours.

<sup>21</sup> Blessed are you who hunger now,
for you will be filled.

Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh.

<sup>22</sup> Blessed are you when men shall hate you, and when they shall exclude and mock you, and throw out your name as evil, for the Son of Man’s sake.

<sup>23</sup> Rejoice in that day, and leap for joy, for behold, your reward is great in heaven, for their fathers did the same thing to the prophets.

<sup>24</sup> “But woe to you who are rich!
For you have received your consolation.

<sup>25</sup> Woe to you, you who are full now, for you will be hungry.

Woe to you who laugh now,
for you will mourn and weep.

for their fathers did the same thing to the false prophets.

<sup>27</sup> “But I tell you who hear: love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, <sup>28</sup> bless those who curse you, and pray for those who mistreat you. <sup>29</sup> To him who strikes you on the cheek, offer also the other; and from him who takes away your cloak, don’t withhold your coat also. <sup>30</sup> Give to everyone who asks you, and don’t ask him who takes away your goods to give them back again.

<sup>31</sup> “As you would like people to do to you, do exactly so to them. <sup>32</sup> If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them. <sup>33</sup> If you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same. <sup>34</sup> If you lend to those from whom you hope to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to receive back as much. <sup>35</sup> But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing back; and your reward will be great, and you will be children of the Most High; for he is kind toward the unthankful and evil.

even as your Father is also merciful.

<sup>37</sup> Don’t judge, and you won’t be judged.
Don’t condemn,
and you won’t be condemned.
Set free,
and you will be set free.

<sup>38</sup> “Give, and it will be given to you: good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over, will be given to you.<sup>k</sup> For with the same measure you measure it will be measured back to you.”

<sup>39</sup> He spoke a parable to them. “Can the blind guide the blind? Won’t they both fall into a pit? <sup>40</sup> A disciple is not above his teacher, but everyone when he is fully trained will be like his teacher. <sup>41</sup> Why do you see the speck of chaff that is in your brother’s eye, but don’t consider the beam that is in your own eye? <sup>42</sup> Or how can you tell your brother, ‘Brother, let me remove the speck of chaff that is in your eye,’ when you yourself don’t see the beam that is in your own eye? You hypocrite! First remove the beam from your own eye, and then you can see clearly to remove the speck of chaff that is in your brother’s eye. <sup>43</sup> For there is no good tree that produces rotten fruit; nor again a rotten tree that produces good fruit. <sup>44</sup> For each tree is known by its own fruit. For people don’t gather figs from thorns, nor do they gather grapes from a bramble bush. <sup>45</sup> The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings out that which is good, and the evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart brings out that which is evil, for out of the abundance of the heart, his mouth speaks.

<sup>46</sup> “Why do you call me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ and don’t do the things which I say? <sup>47</sup> Everyone who comes to me, and hears my words, and does them, I will show you who he is like. <sup>48</sup> He is like a man building a house, who dug and went deep, and laid a foundation on the rock. When a flood arose, the stream broke against that house, and could not shake it, because it was founded on the rock. <sup>49</sup> But he who hears, and doesn’t do, is like a man who built a house on the earth without a foundation, against which the stream broke, and immediately it fell, and the ruin of that house was great.”

7

<sup>1</sup> After he had finished speaking in the hearing of the people, he entered into Capernaum. <sup>2</sup> A certain centurion's servant, who was dear to him, was sick and at the point of death. <sup>3</sup> When he heard about Jesus, he sent to him elders of the Jews, asking him to come and save his servant. <sup>4</sup> When they came to Jesus, they begged him earnestly, saying, “He is worthy for you to do this for him, <sup>5</sup> for he loves our nation, and he built our synagogue for us.” <sup>6</sup> Jesus went with them. When he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying to him, “Lord, don't trouble yourself, for I am not worthy for you to come under my roof. <sup>7</sup> Therefore I didn't even think myself worthy to come to you; but say the word, and my servant will be healed. <sup>8</sup> For I also am a man placed under authority, having under myself soldiers. I tell this one, ‘Go!’ and he goes; and to another, ‘Come!’ and he comes; and to my servant, ‘Do this,’ and he does it.”

<sup>9</sup> When Jesus heard these things, he marveled at him, and turned and said to the multitude who followed him, “I tell you, I have not found such great faith, no, not in Israel.” <sup>10</sup> Those who were sent, returning to the house, found that the servant who had been sick was well.

<sup>11</sup> Soon afterwards, he went to a city called Nain. Many of his disciples, along with a great multitude, went with him. <sup>12</sup> Now when he came near to the gate of the city, behold, one who was dead was carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow. Many people of the city were with her. <sup>13</sup> When the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said to her, “Don't cry.” <sup>14</sup> He came near and touched the coffin, and the bearers stood still. He said, “Young man, I tell you, arise!” <sup>15</sup> He who was dead sat up, and began to speak. And he gave him to his mother.

<sup>16</sup> Fear took hold of all, and they glorified God, saying, “A great prophet has arisen among us!” and, “God has visited his people!” <sup>17</sup> This report went out concerning him in the whole of Judea, and in all the surrounding region.

<sup>18</sup> The disciples of John told him about all these things. <sup>19</sup> John, calling to himself two of his disciples, sent them to Jesus, saying, “Are you the one who is coming, or should we look for another?” <sup>20</sup> When the men had come to him, they said, “John the Baptizer has sent us to you, saying, ‘Are you he who comes, or should we look for another?’”

<sup>21</sup> In that hour he cured many of diseases and plagues and evil spirits; and to many who were blind he gave sight. <sup>22</sup> Jesus answered them, “Go and tell John the things which you have seen and heard: that the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have good news preached to them. <sup>23</sup> Blessed is he who finds no occasion for stumbling in me.”

<sup>24</sup> When John's messengers had departed, he began to tell the multitudes about John, “What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind? <sup>25</sup> But what did you go out to see? A man clothed in soft clothing? Behold, those who are gorgeously dressed, and live delicately, are in kings' courts. <sup>26</sup> But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and much more than a prophet. <sup>27</sup> This is he of whom it is written,

‘Behold, I send my messenger before your face, who will prepare your way before you.’<sup>1</sup>

<sup>28</sup> “For I tell you, among those who are born of women there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptizer, yet he who is least in God’s Kingdom is greater than he.”

<sup>29</sup> When all the people and the tax collectors heard this, they declared God to be just, having been baptized with John’s baptism. <sup>30</sup> But the Pharisees and the lawyers rejected the counsel of God, not being baptized by him themselves.

<sup>31</sup> <sup>1</sup> “To what then will I liken the people of this generation? What are they like? <sup>32</sup> They are like children who sit in the marketplace, and call to one another, saying, ‘We piped to you, and you didn’t dance. We mourned, and you didn’t weep.’ <sup>33</sup> For John the Baptizer came neither eating bread nor drinking wine, and you say, ‘He has a demon.’ <sup>34</sup> The Son of Man has come eating and drinking, and you say, ‘Behold, a gluttonous man, and a drunkard; a friend of tax collectors and sinners!’ <sup>35</sup> Wisdom is justified by all her children.”

<sup>36</sup> One of the Pharisees invited him to eat with him. He entered into the Pharisee’s house, and sat at the table. <sup>37</sup> Behold, a woman in the city who was a sinner, when she knew that he was reclining in the

Pharisee’s house, she brought an alabaster jar of ointment. <sup>38</sup> Standing behind at his feet weeping, she began to wet his feet with her tears, and she wiped them with the hair of her head, kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment. <sup>39</sup> Now when the Pharisee who had invited him saw it, he said to himself, “This man, if he were a prophet, would have perceived who and what kind of woman this is who touches him, that she is a sinner.”

He said, “Teacher, say on.”

<sup>41</sup> “A certain lender had two debtors. The one owed five hundred denarii, and the other fifty. <sup>42</sup> When they couldn’t pay, he forgave them both. Which of them therefore will love him most?”

He said to him, “You have judged correctly.” <sup>44</sup> Turning to the woman, he said to Simon, “Do you see this woman? I entered into your house, and you gave me no water for my feet, but she has wet my feet with her tears, and wiped them with the hair of her head. <sup>45</sup> You gave me no kiss, but she, since the time I came in, has not ceased to kiss my feet. <sup>46</sup> You didn’t anoint my head with oil, but she has anointed my feet with ointment. <sup>47</sup> Therefore I tell you, her sins, which are many, are forgiven, for she loved much. But to whom little is forgiven, the same loves little.” <sup>48</sup> He said to her, “Your sins are forgiven.”

<sup>50</sup> He said to the woman, “Your faith has saved you. Go in peace.”

8

<sup>1</sup> Soon afterwards, he went about through cities and villages, preaching and bringing the good news of God’s Kingdom. With him were the twelve, <sup>2</sup> and certain women who had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities: Mary who was called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out; <sup>3</sup> and Joanna, the wife of Chuzas, Herod’s steward; Susanna; and many others; who served them<sup>m</sup> from their possessions. <sup>4</sup> When a great multitude came together, and people from every city were coming to him, he spoke by a parable. <sup>5</sup> “The farmer went out to sow his seed. As he sowed, some fell along the road, and it was trampled under foot, and the birds of the sky devoured it. <sup>6</sup> Other seed fell on the rock, and as soon as it grew, it withered away, because it had no moisture. <sup>7</sup> Other fell amid the thorns, and the thorns grew with it, and choked it. <sup>8</sup> Other fell into the good ground, and grew, and produced one hundred times as much fruit.” As he said these things, he called out, “He who has ears to hear, let him hear!”

<sup>10</sup> He said, “To you it is given to know the mysteries of God’s Kingdom, but to the rest in parables; that ‘seeing they may not see, and hearing they may not understand.’<sup>1</sup>

<sup>11</sup> Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God. <sup>12</sup> Those along the road are those who hear, then the devil comes, and takes away the word from their heart, that they may not believe and be saved. <sup>13</sup> Those on the rock are they who, when they hear, receive the word with joy; but these have no root, who believe for a while, then fall away in time of temptation. <sup>14</sup> That which fell among the thorns, these are those who have heard, and as they go on their way they are choked with cares, riches, and pleasures of life, and bring no fruit to maturity. <sup>15</sup> That in the good ground, these are such as in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, hold it tightly, and produces fruit with patience.

<sup>16</sup> “No one, when he has lit a lamp, covers it with a container, or puts it under a bed; but puts it on a stand, that those who enter in may see the light. <sup>17</sup> For nothing is hidden, that will not be revealed; nor anything secret, that will not be known and come to light. <sup>18</sup> Be careful therefore how you hear. For whoever has, to him will be given; and whoever doesn’t have, from him will be taken away even that which he thinks he has.”

<sup>21</sup> But he answered them, “My mother and my brothers are these who hear the word of God, and do it.”

<sup>22</sup> Now on one of those days, he entered into a boat, himself and his disciples, and he said to them, “Let’s go over to the other side of the lake.” So they launched out. <sup>23</sup> But as they sailed, he fell asleep. A wind storm came down on the lake, and they were taking on dangerous amounts of water. <sup>24</sup> They came to him, and awoke him, saying, "Master, master, we are dying!" He awoke, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water, and they ceased, and it was calm.<sup>2</sup> <sup>25</sup> He said to them, "Where is your faith?" Being afraid they marveled, saying to one another, "Who is this, then, that he commands even the winds and the water, and they obey him?" <sup>26</sup> They arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, which is opposite Galilee.

<sup>27</sup> When Jesus stepped ashore, a certain man out of the city who had demons for a long time met him. He wore no clothes, and didn't live in a house, but in the tombs. <sup>28</sup> When he saw Jesus, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, "What do I have to do with you, Jesus, you Son of the Most High God? I beg you, don't torment me!" <sup>29</sup> For Jesus was commanding the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For the unclean spirit had often seized the man. He was kept under guard, and bound with chains and fetters. Breaking the bands apart, he was driven by the demon into the desert.

He said, "Legion," for many demons had entered into him. <sup>31</sup> They begged him that he would not command them to go into the abyss. <sup>32</sup> Now there was there a herd of many pigs feeding on the mountain, and they begged him that he would allow them to enter into those. He allowed them. <sup>33</sup> The demons came out of the man, and entered into the pigs, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake, and were drowned. <sup>34</sup> When those who fed them saw what had happened, they fled, and told it in the city and in the country.

<sup>35</sup> People went out to see what had happened. They came to Jesus, and found the man from whom the demons had gone out, sitting at Jesus' feet, clothed and in his right mind; and they were afraid. <sup>36</sup> Those who saw it told them how he who had been possessed by demons was healed. <sup>37</sup> All the people of the surrounding country of the Gadarenes asked him to depart from them, for they were very much afraid. He entered into the boat, and returned. <sup>38</sup> But the man from whom the demons had gone out begged him that he might go with him, but Jesus sent him away, saying, <sup>39</sup> "Return to your house, and declare what great things God has done for you." He went his way, proclaiming throughout the whole city what great things Jesus had done for him.

<sup>40</sup> When Jesus returned, the multitude welcomed him, for they were all waiting for him. <sup>41</sup> Behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue. He fell down at Jesus' feet, and begged him to come into his house, <sup>42</sup> for he had an only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she was dying. But as he went, the multitudes pressed against him. <sup>43</sup> A woman who had a flow of blood for twelve years, who had spent all her living on physicians, and could not be healed by any, <sup>44</sup> came behind him, and touched the fringe<sup>n</sup> of his cloak, and immediately the flow of her blood stopped. <sup>45</sup> Jesus said, "Who touched me?"

When all denied it, Peter and those with him said, "Master, the multitudes press and jostle you, and you say, 'Who touched me?'"

<sup>46</sup> But Jesus said, "Someone did touch me, for I perceived that power has gone out of me.”<sup>47</sup> When the woman saw that she was not hidden, she came trembling, and falling down before him declared to him in the presence of all the people the reason why she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately.<sup>48</sup> He said to her, “Daughter, cheer up. Your faith has made you well. Go in peace.”

<sup>49</sup> While he still spoke, one from the ruler of the synagogue’s house came, saying to him, “Your daughter is dead. Don’t trouble the Teacher.”

<sup>50</sup> But Jesus hearing it, answered him, “Don’t be afraid. Only believe, and she will be healed.”

<sup>51</sup> When he came to the house, he didn’t allow anyone to enter in, except Peter, John, James, the father of the child, and her mother.<sup>52</sup> All were weeping and mourning her, but he said, “Don’t weep. She isn’t dead, but sleeping.”

<sup>53</sup> They were ridiculing him, knowing that she was dead.<sup>54</sup> But he put them all outside, and taking her by the hand, he called, saying, “Child, arise!”<sup>55</sup> Her spirit returned, and she rose up immediately. He commanded that something be given to her to eat.<sup>56</sup> Her parents were amazed, but he commanded them to tell no one what had been done.

coats apiece.<sup>4</sup> Into whatever house you enter, stay there, and depart from there.<sup>5</sup> As many as don’t receive you, when you depart from that city, shake off even the dust from your feet for a testimony against them.”

<sup>6</sup> They departed, and went throughout the villages, preaching the Good News, and healing everywhere.<sup>7</sup> Now Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was done by him; and he was very perplexed, because it was said by some that John had risen from the dead,<sup>8</sup> and by some that Elijah had appeared, and by others that one of the old prophets had risen again.<sup>9</sup> Herod said, “John I beheaded, but who is this, about whom I hear such things?” He sought to see him.<sup>10</sup> The apostles, when they had returned, told him what things they had done.

He took them, and withdrew apart to a deserted place of a city called Bethsaida.<sup>11</sup> But the multitudes, perceiving it, followed him. He welcomed them, and spoke to them of God’s Kingdom, and he cured those who needed healing.<sup>12</sup> The day began to wear away; and the twelve came, and said to him, “Send the multitude away, that they may go into the surrounding villages and farms, and lodge, and get food, for we are here in a deserted place.”

<sup>13</sup> But he said to them, “You give them something to eat.”

They said, “We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless we should go and buy food for all these people.”<sup>14</sup> For they were about five thousand men.

He said to his disciples, “Make them sit down in groups of about fifty each.”<sup>15</sup> They did so, and made them all sit down.<sup>16</sup>

He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to the sky, he blessed them, and broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the multitude. <sup>17</sup> They ate, and were all filled. They gathered up twelve baskets of broken pieces that were left over.

<sup>18</sup> As he was praying alone, the disciples were with him, and he asked them, “Who do the multitudes say that I am?”

<sup>19</sup> They answered, “‘John the Baptizer,’ but others say, ‘Elijah,’ and others, that one of the old prophets is risen again.”

Peter answered, “The Christ of God.”

<sup>21</sup> But he warned them, and commanded them to tell this to no one, <sup>22</sup> saying, “The Son of Man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders, chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and the third day be raised up.”

<sup>23</sup> He said to all, “If anyone desires to come after me, let him deny himself, take up his cross,<sup>p</sup> and follow me. <sup>24</sup> For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever will lose his life for my sake, the same will save it. <sup>25</sup> For what does it profit a man if he gains the whole world, and loses or forfeits his own self? <sup>26</sup> For whoever will be ashamed of me and of my words, of him will the Son of Man be ashamed, when he comes in his glory, and the glory of the Father, and of the holy angels. <sup>27</sup> But I tell you the truth: There are some of those who stand here, who will in no way taste of death, until they see God’s Kingdom.”

and went up onto the mountain to pray. <sup>29</sup> As he was praying, the appearance of his face was altered, and his clothing became white and dazzling. <sup>30</sup> Behold, two men were talking with him, who were Moses and Elijah, <sup>31</sup> who appeared in glory, and spoke of his departure,<sup>q</sup> which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem.

<sup>32</sup> Now Peter and those who were with him were heavy with sleep, but when they were fully awake, they saw his glory, and the two men who stood with him. <sup>33</sup> As they were parting from him, Peter said to Jesus, “Master, it is good for us to be here. Let’s make three tents: one for you, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah,” not knowing what he said.

<sup>34</sup> While he said these things, a cloud came and overshadowed them, and they were afraid as they entered into the cloud. <sup>35</sup> A voice came out of the cloud, saying, “This is my beloved Son. Listen to him!” <sup>36</sup> When the voice came, Jesus was found alone. They were silent, and told no one in those days any of the things which they had seen.

with you and bear with you? Bring your son here.”

<sup>42</sup> While he was still coming, the demon threw him down and convulsed him violently. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the boy, and gave him back to his father. <sup>43</sup> They were all astonished at the majesty of God.

But while all were marveling at all the things which Jesus did, he said to his disciples, <sup>44</sup> “Let these words sink into your ears, for the Son of Man will be delivered up into the hands of men.” <sup>45</sup> But they didn’t understand this saying. It was concealed from them, that they should not perceive it, and they were afraid to ask him about this saying.

<sup>46</sup> There arose an argument among them about which of them was the greatest. <sup>47</sup> Jesus, perceiving the reasoning of their hearts, took a little child, and set him by his side, <sup>48</sup> and said to them, “Whoever receives this little child in my name receives me. Whoever receives me receives him who sent me. For whoever is least among you all, this one will be great.”

<sup>50</sup> Jesus said to him, “Don’t forbid him, for he who is not against us is for us.”

<sup>51</sup> It came to pass, when the days were near that he should be taken up, he intently set his face to go to Jerusalem, <sup>52</sup> and sent messengers before his face. They went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans, so as to prepare for him. <sup>53</sup> They didn’t receive him, because he was traveling with his face set towards Jerusalem. <sup>54</sup> When his disciples, James and John, saw this, they said, “Lord, do you want us to command fire to come down from the sky, and destroy them, just as Elijah did?”

<sup>55</sup> But he turned and rebuked them, “You don’t know of what kind of spirit you are. <sup>56</sup> For the Son of Man didn’t come to destroy men’s lives, but to save them.”

They went to another village. <sup>57</sup> As they went on the way, a certain man said to him, “I want to follow you wherever you go, Lord.”

<sup>59</sup> He said to another, “Follow me!”

But he said, “Lord, allow me first to go and bury my father.”

<sup>60</sup> But Jesus said to him, “Leave the dead to bury their own dead, but you go and announce God’s Kingdom.”

<sup>61</sup> Another also said, “I want to follow you, Lord, but first allow me to say good-bye to those who are at my house.”

10

<sup>1</sup> Now after these things, the Lord also appointed seventy others, and sent them two by two ahead of him<sup>r</sup> into every city and place, where he was about to come. <sup>2</sup> Then he said to them, “The harvest is indeed plentiful, but the laborers are few. Pray therefore to the Lord of the harvest, that he may send out laborers into his harvest. <sup>3</sup> Go your ways. Behold, I send you out as lambs among wolves. <sup>4</sup> Carry no purse, nor wallet, nor sandals. Greet no one on the way. <sup>5</sup> Into whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace be to this house.' <sup>6</sup> If a son of peace is there, your peace will rest on him; but if not, it will return to you. <sup>7</sup> Remain in that same house, eating and drinking the things they give, for the laborer is worthy of his wages. Don't go from house to house. <sup>8</sup> Into whatever city you enter, and they receive you, eat the things that are set before you. <sup>9</sup> Heal the sick who are therein, and tell them, 'God's Kingdom has come near to you.' <sup>10</sup> But into whatever city you enter, and they don't receive you, go out into its streets and say, <sup>11</sup> 'Even the dust from your city that clings to us, we wipe off against you. Nevertheless know this, that God's Kingdom has come near to you.' <sup>12</sup> I tell you, it will be more tolerable in that day for Sodom than for that city.

<sup>13</sup> "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon which were done in you, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. <sup>14</sup> But it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon in the judgment than for you. <sup>15</sup> You, Capernaum, who are exalted to heaven, will be brought down to Hades. <sup>s 16</sup> Whoever listens to you listens to me, and whoever rejects you rejects me. Whoever rejects me rejects him who sent me."

Behold, I give you authority to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy. Nothing will in any way hurt you. <sup>20</sup> Nevertheless, don't rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven."

<sup>21</sup> In that same hour Jesus rejoiced in the Holy Spirit, and said, "I thank you, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that you have hidden these things from the wise and understanding, and revealed them to little children. Yes, Father, for so it was well-pleasing in your sight."

<sup>22</sup> Turning to the disciples, he said, "All things have been delivered to me by my Father. No one knows who the Son is, except the Father, and who the Father is, except the Son, and he to whomever the Son desires to reveal him."

<sup>23</sup> Turning to the disciples, he said privately, "Blessed are the eyes which see the things that you see, <sup>24</sup> for I tell you that many prophets and kings desired to see the things which you see, and didn't see them, and to hear the things which you hear, and didn't hear them."

<sup>26</sup> He said to him, "What is written in the law? How do you read it?"

<sup>27</sup> He answered, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind;<sup>1</sup> and your neighbor as yourself."<sup>2</sup>

<sup>29</sup> But he, desiring to justify himself, asked Jesus, "Who is my neighbor?"

<sup>30</sup> Jesus answered, "A certain man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell among robbers, who both stripped him and beat him, and departed, leaving him half dead. <sup>31</sup> By chance a certain priest was going down that way. When he saw him, he passed by on the other side. <sup>32</sup> In the same way a Levite also, when he came to the place, and saw him, passed by on the other side. <sup>33</sup> But a certain Samaritan, as he traveled, came where he was. When he saw him, he was moved with compassion, <sup>34</sup> came to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. He set him on his own animal, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him. <sup>35</sup> On the next day, when he departed, he took out two denarii, and gave them to the host, and said to him, 'Take care of him. Whatever you spend beyond that, I will repay you when I return.' <sup>36</sup> Now which of these three do you think seemed to be a neighbor to him who fell among the robbers?"

<sup>37</sup> He said, "He who showed mercy on him."

Then Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."

<sup>38</sup> As they went on their way, he entered into a certain village, and a certain woman named Martha received him into her house.

<sup>39</sup> She had a sister called Mary, who also sat at Jesus' feet, and heard his word. <sup>40</sup> But Martha was distracted with much serving, and she came up to him, and said, "Lord, don't you care that my sister left me to serve alone? Ask her therefore to help me."

11

<sup>1</sup> When he finished praying in a certain place, one of his disciples said to him, "Lord, teach us to pray, just as John also taught his disciples."

<sup>2</sup> He said to them, "When you pray, say,
'Our Father in heaven, may your name be kept holy.

May your Kingdom come.

May your will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.

<sup>3</sup> Give us day by day our daily bread.

<sup>4</sup> Forgive us our sins, for we ourselves also forgive everyone who is indebted to us.

Bring us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one."

<sup>5</sup> He said to them, "Which of you, if you go to a friend at midnight, and tell him, 'Friend, lend me three loaves of bread, <sup>6</sup> for a friend of mine has come to me from a journey, and I have nothing to set before him,' <sup>7</sup> and he from within will answer and say, 'Don't bother me. The door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed. I can't get up and give it to you'? <sup>8</sup> I tell you, although he will not rise and give it to him because he is his friend, yet because of his persistence, he will get up and give him as many as he needs.

<sup>9</sup> "I tell you, keep asking, and it will be given you. Keep seeking, and you will find. Keep knocking, and it will be opened to you. <sup>10</sup> For everyone who asks receives. He who seeks finds. To him who knocks it will be opened.

<sup>11</sup> “Which of you fathers, if your son asks for bread, will give him a stone? Or if he asks for a fish, he won’t give him a snake instead of a fish, will he? <sup>12</sup> Or if he asks for an egg, he won’t give him a scorpion, will he? <sup>13</sup> If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him?”

<sup>23</sup> “He that is not with me is against me. He who doesn’t gather with me scatters. <sup>24</sup> The unclean spirit, when he has gone out of the man, passes through dry places, seeking rest, and finding none, he says, ‘I will turn back to my house from which I came out.’

<sup>25</sup> When he returns, he finds it swept and put in order. <sup>26</sup> Then he goes, and takes seven other spirits more evil than himself, and they enter in and dwell there. The last state of that man becomes worse than the first.”

<sup>27</sup> It came to pass, as he said these things, a certain woman out of the multitude lifted up her voice, and said to him, “Blessed is the womb that bore you, and the breasts which nursed you!”

<sup>28</sup> But he said, “On the contrary, blessed are those who hear the word of God, and keep it.”

<sup>29</sup> When the multitudes were gathering together to him, he began to say, “This is an evil generation. It seeks after a sign. No sign will be given to it but the sign of Jonah, the prophet. <sup>30</sup> For even as Jonah became a sign to the Ninevites, so will also the Son of Man be to this generation. <sup>31</sup> The Queen of the South will rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation, and will condemn them: for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, one greater than Solomon is here. <sup>32</sup> The men of Nineveh will stand up in the judgment with this generation, and will condemn it: for they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and behold, one greater than Jonah is here.

<sup>33</sup> “No one, when he has lit a lamp, puts it in a cellar or under a basket, but on a stand, that those who come in may see the light.

<sup>34</sup> The lamp of the body is the eye. Therefore when your eye is good, your whole body is also full of light; but when it is evil, your body also is full of darkness. <sup>35</sup> Therefore see whether the light that is in you isn't darkness. <sup>36</sup> If therefore your whole body is full of light, having no part dark, it will be wholly full of light, as when the lamp with its bright shining gives you light."

<sup>37</sup> Now as he spoke, a certain Pharisee asked him to dine with him. He went in, and sat at the table. <sup>38</sup> When the Pharisee saw it, he marveled that he had not first washed himself before dinner. <sup>39</sup> The Lord said to him, "Now you Pharisees cleanse the outside of the cup and of the platter, but your inward part is full of extortion and wickedness. <sup>40</sup> You foolish ones, didn't he who made the outside make the inside also? <sup>41</sup> But give for gifts to the needy those things which are within, and behold, all things will be clean to you. <sup>42</sup> But woe to you Pharisees! For you tithe mint and rue and every herb, but you bypass justice and God's love. You ought to have done these, and not to have left the other undone. <sup>43</sup> Woe to you Pharisees! For you love the best seats in the synagogues, and the greetings in the marketplaces. <sup>44</sup> Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like hidden graves, and the men who walk over them don't know it."

<sup>46</sup> He said, "Woe to you lawyers also! For you load men with burdens that are difficult to carry, and you yourselves won't even lift one finger to help carry those burdens. <sup>47</sup> Woe to you! For you build the tombs of the prophets, and your fathers killed them. <sup>48</sup> So you testify and consent to the works of your fathers. For they killed them, and you build their tombs. <sup>49</sup>

Therefore also the wisdom of God said, 'I will send to them prophets and apostles; and some of them they will kill and persecute, <sup>50</sup> that the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation; <sup>51</sup> from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zachariah, who perished between the altar and the sanctuary.' Yes, I tell you, it will be required of this generation. <sup>52</sup> Woe to you lawyers! For you took away the key of knowledge. You didn't enter in yourselves, and those who were entering in, you hindered."

<sup>53</sup> As he said these things to them, the scribes and the Pharisees began to be terribly angry, and to draw many things out of him; <sup>54</sup> lying in wait for him, and seeking to catch him in something he might say, that they might accuse him.

12

<sup>1</sup> Meanwhile, when a multitude of many thousands had gathered together, so much so that they trampled on each other, he began to tell his disciples first of all, "Beware of the yeast of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. <sup>2</sup> But there is nothing covered up, that will not be revealed, nor hidden, that will not be known. <sup>3</sup> Therefore whatever you have said in the darkness will be heard in the light. What you have spoken in the ear in the inner rooms will be proclaimed on the housetops.

<sup>4</sup> "I tell you, my friends, don't be afraid of those who kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do. <sup>5</sup> But I will warn you whom you should fear. Fear him, who after he has killed, has power to cast into Gehenna.<sup>t</sup> Yes, I tell you, fear him.

<sup>6</sup> “Aren’t five sparrows sold for two assaria coins<sup>u</sup>? Not one of them is forgotten by God. <sup>7</sup> But the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Therefore don’t be afraid. You are of more value than many sparrows.

<sup>8</sup> “I tell you, everyone who confesses me before men, him will the Son of Man also confess before the angels of God; <sup>9</sup> but he who denies me in the presence of men will be denied in the presence of the angels of God. <sup>10</sup> Everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but those who blaspheme against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven. <sup>11</sup> When they bring you before the synagogues, the rulers, and the authorities, don’t be anxious how or what you will answer, or what you will say; <sup>12</sup> for the Holy Spirit will teach you in that same hour what you must say.”

<sup>14</sup> But he said to him, “Man, who made me a judge or an arbitrator over you?” <sup>15</sup> He said to them, “Beware! Keep yourselves from covetousness, for a man’s life doesn’t consist of the abundance of the things which he possesses.”

<sup>16</sup> He spoke a parable to them, saying, “The ground of a certain rich man produced abundantly. <sup>17</sup> He reasoned within himself, saying, ‘What will I do, because I don’t have room to store my crops?’ <sup>18</sup> He said, ‘This is what I will do. I will pull down my barns, and build bigger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods. <sup>19</sup> I will tell my soul, ‘Soul, you have many goods laid up for many years. Take your ease, eat, drink, be merry.’”

<sup>20</sup> “But God said to him, ‘You foolish one, tonight your soul is required of you. The things which you have prepared—whose will they be?’ <sup>21</sup> So is he who lays up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God.”

<sup>22</sup> He said to his disciples, “Therefore I tell you, don’t be anxious for your life, what you will eat, nor yet for your body, what you will wear. <sup>23</sup> Life is more than food, and the body is more than clothing. <sup>24</sup> Consider the ravens: they don’t sow, they don’t reap, they have no warehouse or barn, and God feeds them. How much more valuable are you than birds! <sup>25</sup> Which of you by being anxious can add a cubit<sup>v</sup> to his height? <sup>26</sup> If then you aren’t able to do even the least things, why are you anxious about the rest? <sup>27</sup> Consider the lilies, how they grow. They don’t toil, neither do they spin; yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. <sup>28</sup> But if this is how God clothes the grass in the field, which today exists, and tomorrow is cast into the oven, how much more will he clothe you, O you of little faith? <sup>29</sup> Don’t seek what you will eat or what you will drink; neither be anxious. <sup>30</sup> For the nations of the world seek after all of these things, but your Father knows that you need these things. <sup>31</sup> But seek God’s Kingdom, and all these things will be added to you. <sup>32</sup> Don’t be afraid, little flock, for it is your Father’s good pleasure to give you the Kingdom. <sup>33</sup> Sell that which you have, and give gifts to the needy. Make for yourselves purses which don't grow old, a treasure in the heavens that doesn't fail, where no thief approaches, neither moth destroys. <sup>34</sup> For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

<sup>35</sup> "Let your waist be dressed and your lamps burning. <sup>36</sup> Be like men watching for their lord, when he returns from the marriage feast; that, when he comes and knocks, they may immediately open to him. <sup>37</sup> Blessed are those servants, whom the lord will find watching when he comes. Most certainly I tell you, that he will dress himself, and make them recline, and will come and serve them. <sup>38</sup> They will be blessed if he comes in the second or third watch, and finds them so. <sup>39</sup> But know this, that if the master of the house had known in what hour the thief was coming, he would have watched, and not allowed his house to be broken into. <sup>40</sup> Therefore be ready also, for the Son of Man is coming in an hour that you don't expect him."

<sup>42</sup> The Lord said, "Who then is the faithful and wise steward, whom his lord will set over his household, to give them their portion of food at the right times? <sup>43</sup> Blessed is that servant whom his lord will find doing so when he comes. <sup>44</sup> Truly I tell you, that he will set him over all that he has. <sup>45</sup> But if that servant says in his heart, 'My lord delays his coming,' and begins to beat the menservants and the maidservants, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken, <sup>46</sup> then the lord of that servant will come in a day when he isn't expecting him, and in an hour that he doesn't know, and will cut him in two, and place his portion with the unfaithful. <sup>47</sup> That servant, who knew his lord's will, and didn't prepare, nor do what he wanted, will be beaten with many stripes, <sup>48</sup> but he who didn't know, and did things worthy of stripes, will be beaten with few stripes. To whomever much is given, of him will much be required; and to whom much was entrusted, of him more will be asked.

<sup>49</sup> "I came to throw fire on the earth. I wish it were already kindled. <sup>50</sup> But I have a baptism to be baptized with, and how distressed I am until it is accomplished! <sup>51</sup> Do you think that I have come to give peace in the earth? I tell you, no, but rather division. <sup>52</sup> For from now on, there will be five in one house divided, three against two, and two against three. <sup>53</sup> They will be divided, father against son, and son against father; mother against daughter, and daughter against her mother; mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law, and daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law." <sup>1</sup>

<sup>54</sup> He said to the multitudes also, "When you see a cloud rising from the west, immediately you say, 'A shower is coming,' and so it happens. <sup>55</sup> When a south wind blows, you say, 'There will be a scorching heat,' and it happens. <sup>56</sup> You hypocrites! <sup>1</sup> Now there were some present at the same time who told him about the Galileans, whose blood Pilate had mixed with their sacrifices. <sup>2</sup> Jesus answered them, “Do you think that these Galileans were worse sinners than all the other Galileans, because they suffered such things? <sup>3</sup> I tell you, no, but unless you repent, you will all perish in the same way. <sup>4</sup> Or those eighteen, on whom the tower in Siloam fell, and killed them; do you think that they were worse offenders than all the men who dwell in Jerusalem? <sup>5</sup> I tell you, no, but, unless you repent, you will all perish in the same way.”

<sup>6</sup> He spoke this parable. “A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard, and he came seeking fruit on it, and found none. <sup>7</sup> He said to the vine dresser, ‘Behold, these three years I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree, and found none. Cut it down. Why does it waste the soil?’ <sup>8</sup> He answered, ‘Lord, leave it alone this year also, until I dig around it, and fertilize it. <sup>9</sup> If it bears fruit, fine; but if not, after that, you can cut it down.’”

<sup>10</sup> He was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath day. <sup>11</sup> Behold, there was a woman who had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and she was bent over, and could in no way straighten herself up. <sup>12</sup> When Jesus saw her, he called her, and said to her, “Woman, you are freed from your infirmity.” <sup>13</sup> He laid his hands on her, and immediately she stood up straight, and glorified God.

<sup>14</sup> The ruler of the synagogue, being indignant because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath, said to the multitude, “There are six days in which men ought to work. Therefore come on those days and be healed, and not on the Sabbath day!”

<sup>15</sup> Therefore the Lord answered him, “You hypocrites! Doesn’t each one of you free his ox or his donkey from the stall on the Sabbath, and lead him away to water?”

<sup>16</sup> Ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan had bound eighteen long years, be freed from this bondage on the Sabbath day?”

<sup>17</sup> As he said these things, all his adversaries were disappointed, and all the multitude rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.

<sup>18</sup> He said, “What is God’s Kingdom like? To what shall I compare it? <sup>19</sup> It is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and put in his own garden. It grew, and became a large tree, and the birds of the sky live in its branches.”

<sup>22</sup> He went on his way through cities and villages, teaching, and traveling on to Jerusalem. <sup>23</sup> One said to him, “Lord, are they few who are saved?”

<sup>w</sup> literally, lepton. A lepton is a very small brass Jewish coin worth half a Roman quadrans each, which is worth a quarter of the copper assarion. Lepta are worth less than 1% of an agricultural worker’s daily wages. <sup>x</sup> literally, three sata. 3 sata is about 39 liters or a bit more than a bushel

He said to them, <sup>24</sup> “Strive to enter in by the narrow door, for many, I tell you, will seek to enter in, and will not be able. <sup>25</sup> When once the master of the house has risen up, and has shut the door, and you begin to stand outside, and to knock at the door, saying, ‘Lord, Lord, open to us!’ then he will answer and tell you, ‘I don’t know you or where you come from.’ <sup>26</sup> Then you will begin to say, ‘We ate and drank in your presence, and you taught in our streets.’ <sup>27</sup> He will say, ‘I tell you, I don’t know where you come from. Depart from me, all you workers of iniquity.’ <sup>28</sup> There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when you see Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and all the prophets, in God’s Kingdom, and yourselves being thrown outside. <sup>29</sup> They will come from the east, west, north, and south, and will sit down in God’s Kingdom. <sup>30</sup> Behold, there are some who are last who will be first, and there are some who are first who will be last.”

<sup>32</sup> He said to them, “Go and tell that fox, ‘Behold, I cast out demons and perform cures today and tomorrow, and the third day I complete my mission. <sup>33</sup> Nevertheless I must go on my way today and tomorrow and the next day, for it can’t be that a prophet perish outside of Jerusalem.’

<sup>34</sup> “Jerusalem, Jerusalem, that kills the prophets, and stones those who are sent to her! How often I wanted to gather your children together, like a hen gathers her own brood under her wings, and you refused! <sup>35</sup> Behold, your house is left to you desolate. I tell you, you will not see me, until you say, ‘Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!’” <sup>1</sup>

14

<sup>1</sup> When he went into the house of one of the rulers of the Pharisees on a Sabbath to eat bread, they were watching him. <sup>2</sup> Behold, a certain man who had dropsy was in front of him. <sup>3</sup> Jesus, answering, spoke to the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, “Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?”

He took him, and healed him, and let him go. <sup>5</sup> He answered them, “Which of you, if your son<sup>y</sup> or an ox fell into a well, wouldn’t immediately pull him out on a Sabbath day?”

<sup>7</sup> He spoke a parable to those who were invited, when he noticed how they chose the best seats, and said to them, <sup>8</sup> “When you are invited by anyone to a marriage feast, don’t sit in the best seat, since perhaps someone more honorable than you might be invited by him, <sup>9</sup> and he who invited both of you would come and tell you, ‘Make room for this person.’ Then you would begin, with shame, to take the lowest place. <sup>10</sup> But when you are invited, go and sit in the lowest place, so that when he who invited you comes, he may tell you, ‘Friend, move up higher.’ Then you will be honored in the presence of all who sit at the table with you. <sup>11</sup> For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted.”

<sup>12</sup> He also said to the one who had invited him, “When you make a dinner or a supper, don’t call your friends, nor your brothers, nor your kinsmen, nor rich neighbors, or perhaps they might also return the favor, and pay you back. <sup>13</sup> But when you make a feast, ask the poor, the maimed, the lame, or the blind; <sup>14</sup> and you will be blessed, because they don’t have the resources to repay you. For you will be repaid in the resurrection of the righteous.”

<sup>15</sup> When one of those who sat at the table with him heard these things, he said to him, “Blessed is he who will feast in God’s Kingdom!”

<sup>16</sup> But he said to him, “A certain man made a great supper, and he invited many people. <sup>17</sup> He sent out his servant at supper time to tell those who were invited, ‘Come, for everything is ready now.’ <sup>18</sup> They all as one began to make excuses.

“The first said to him, ‘I have bought a field, and I must go and see it. Please have me excused.’

<sup>19</sup> “Another said, ‘I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I must go try them out. Please have me excused.’

<sup>20</sup> “Another said, ‘I have married a wife, and therefore I can’t come.’

<sup>21</sup> “That servant came, and told his lord these things. Then the master of the house, being angry, said to his servant, ‘Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in the poor, maimed, blind, and lame.’

<sup>22</sup> “The servant said, ‘Lord, it is done as you commanded, and there is still room.’

<sup>23</sup> “The lord said to the servant, ‘Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled. <sup>24</sup> For I tell you that none of those men who were invited will taste of my supper.”

<sup>25</sup> Now great multitudes were going with him. He turned and said to them, <sup>26</sup> “If anyone comes to me, and doesn’t disregard<sup>z</sup> his own father, mother, wife, children, brothers, and sisters, yes, and his own life also, he can’t be my disciple. <sup>27</sup> Whoever doesn’t bear his own cross, and come after me, can’t be my disciple. <sup>28</sup> For which of you, desiring to build a tower, doesn’t first sit down and count the cost, to see if he has enough to complete it? <sup>29</sup> Or perhaps, when he has laid a foundation, and is not able to finish, everyone who sees begins to mock him, <sup>30</sup> saying, ‘This man began to build, and wasn’t able to finish.’ <sup>31</sup> Or what king, as he goes to encounter another king in war, will not sit down first and consider whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him who comes against him with twenty thousand? <sup>32</sup> Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sends an envoy, and asks for conditions of peace. <sup>33</sup> So therefore whoever of you who doesn’t renounce all that he has, he can’t be my disciple. <sup>34</sup> Salt is good, but if the salt becomes flat and tasteless, with what do you season it? <sup>35</sup> It is fit neither for the soil nor for the manure pile. It is thrown out. He who has ears to hear, let him hear.”

15

<sup>3</sup> He told them this parable. <sup>4</sup> “Which of you men, if you had one hundred sheep, and lost one of them, wouldn’t leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness, and go after the one that was lost, until he found it? <sup>5</sup> When he has found it, he carries it on his shoulders, rejoicing. <sup>6</sup> When he comes home, he calls together his friends and his neighbors, saying to them, ‘Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep which was lost!’ <sup>7</sup> I tell you that even so there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents, than over ninety-nine righteous people who need no repentance. <sup>8</sup> Or what woman, if she had ten drachma<sup>a</sup> coins, if she lost one drachma coin, wouldn’t light a lamp, sweep the house, and seek diligently until she found it? <sup>9</sup> When she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbors, saying, ‘Rejoice with me, for I have found the drachma which I had lost.’ <sup>10</sup> Even so, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner repenting.”

<sup>11</sup> He said, “A certain man had two sons. <sup>12</sup> The younger of them said to his father, ‘Father, give me my share of your property.’ He divided his livelihood between them. <sup>13</sup> Not many days after, the younger son gathered all of this together and traveled into a far country. There he wasted his property with riotous living. <sup>14</sup> When he had spent all of it, there arose a severe famine in that country, and he began to be in need. <sup>15</sup> He went and joined himself to one of the citizens of that country, and he sent him into his fields to feed pigs. <sup>16</sup> He wanted to fill his belly with the husks that the pigs ate, but no one gave him any. <sup>17</sup> But when he came to himself he said, ‘How many hired servants of my father’s have bread enough to spare, and I’m dying with hunger! <sup>18</sup> I will get up and go to my father, and will tell him, ‘Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in your sight. <sup>19</sup> I am no more worthy to be called your son. Make me as one of your hired servants.’”

<sup>20</sup> “He arose, and came to his father. But while he was still far off, his father saw him, and was moved with compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him. <sup>21</sup> The son said to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in your sight. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.’

<sup>22</sup> “But the father said to his servants, ‘Bring out the best robe, and put it on him. Put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet. <sup>23</sup> Bring the fattened calf, kill it, and let us eat, and celebrate; <sup>24</sup> for this, my son, was dead, and is alive again. He was lost, and is found.’ They began to celebrate.

<sup>25</sup> “Now his elder son was in the field. As he came near to the house, he heard music and dancing. <sup>26</sup> He called one of the servants to him, and asked what was going on. <sup>27</sup> He said to him, ‘Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fattened calf, because he has received him back safe and healthy.’ <sup>28</sup> But he was angry, and would not go in. Therefore his father came out, and begged him. <sup>29</sup> But he answered his father, ‘Behold, these many years I have served you, and I never disobeyed a commandment of yours, but you never gave me a goat, that I might celebrate with my friends. <sup>30</sup> But when this, your son, came, who has devoured your living with prostitutes, you killed the fattened calf for him.’

<sup>31</sup> “He said to him, ‘Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours. <sup>32</sup> But it was appropriate to celebrate and be glad, for this, your brother, was dead, and is alive again. He was lost, and is found.’”

16

<sup>1</sup> He also said to his disciples, “There was a certain rich man who had a manager. An accusation was made to him that this man was wasting his possessions. <sup>2</sup> He called him, and said to him, ‘What is this that I hear about you? Give an accounting of your management, for you can no longer be manager.’

<sup>3</sup> “The manager said within himself, ‘What will I do, seeing that my lord is taking away the management position from me? I don’t have strength to dig. I am ashamed to beg. <sup>4</sup> I know what I will do, so that when I am removed from management, they may receive me into their houses.’ <sup>5</sup> Calling each one of his lord’s debtors to him, he said to the first, ‘How much do you owe to my lord?’ <sup>6</sup> He said, ‘A hundred batos<sup>b</sup> of oil.’ He said to him, ‘Take your bill, and sit down quickly and write fifty.’ <sup>7</sup> Then he said to another, ‘How much do you owe?’ He said, ‘A hundred cors<sup>c</sup> of wheat.’ He said to him, ‘Take your bill, and write eighty.’

friends by means of unrighteous mammon, so that when you fail, they may receive you into the eternal tents. <sup>10</sup> He who is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much. He who is dishonest in a very little is also dishonest in much. <sup>11</sup> If therefore you have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches? <sup>12</sup> If you have not been faithful in that which is another’s, who will give you that which is your own? <sup>13</sup> No servant can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to one, and despise the other. You aren’t able to serve God and Mammon.”<sup>d</sup>

<sup>14</sup> The Pharisees, who were lovers of money, also heard all these things, and they scoffed at him. <sup>15</sup> He said to them, “You are those who justify yourselves in the sight of men, but God knows your hearts. For that which is exalted among men is an abomination in the sight of God. <sup>16</sup> The law and the prophets were until John. From that time the Good News of God’s Kingdom is preached, and everyone is forcing his way into it. <sup>17</sup> But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away, than for one tiny stroke of a pen in the law to fall. <sup>18</sup> Everyone who divorces his wife, and marries another, commits adultery. He who marries one who is divorced from a husband commits adultery.

<sup>19</sup> “Now there was a certain rich man, and he was clothed in purple and fine linen, living in luxury every day. <sup>20</sup> A certain beggar, named Lazarus, was laid at his gate, full of sores, <sup>21</sup> and desiring to be fed with the crumbs that fell from the rich man's table. Yes, even the dogs came and licked his sores. <sup>22</sup> The beggar died, and he was carried away by the angels to Abraham's bosom. The rich man also died, and was buried. <sup>23</sup> In Hades,<sup>e</sup> he lifted up his eyes, being in torment, and saw Abraham far off, and Lazarus at his bosom. <sup>24</sup> He cried and said, 'Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue! For I am in anguish in this flame.'

<sup>25</sup> "But Abraham said, 'Son, remember that you, in your lifetime, received your good things, and Lazarus, in the same way, bad things. But now here he is comforted and you are in anguish. <sup>26</sup> Besides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed, that those who want to pass from here to you are not able, and that no one may cross over from there to us.'

<sup>27</sup> "He said, 'I ask you therefore, father, that you would send him to my father's house; <sup>28</sup> for I have five brothers, that he may testify to them, so they won't also come into this place of torment.'

<sup>29</sup> "But Abraham said to him, 'They have Moses and the prophets. Let them listen to them.'

<sup>30</sup> "He said, 'No, father Abraham, but if one goes to them from the dead, they will repent.'

<sup>31</sup> "He said to him, 'If they don't listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded if one rises from the dead.'"

17

<sup>1</sup> He said to the disciples, "It is impossible that no occasions of stumbling should come, but woe to him through whom they come! <sup>2</sup> It would be better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck, and he were thrown into the sea, rather than that he should cause one of these little ones to stumble. <sup>3</sup> Be careful. If your brother sins against you, rebuke him. If he repents, forgive him. <sup>4</sup> If he sins against you seven times in the day, and seven times returns, saying, 'I repent,' you shall forgive him."

<sup>6</sup> The Lord said, "If you had faith like a grain of mustard seed, you would tell this sycamore tree, 'Be uprooted, and be planted in the sea,' and it would obey you.

<sup>7</sup> But who is there among you, having a servant plowing or keeping sheep, that will say, when he comes in from the field, 'Come immediately and sit down at the table,' <sup>8</sup> and will not rather tell him, 'Prepare my supper, clothe yourself properly, and serve me, while I eat and drink. Afterward you shall eat and drink'? <sup>9</sup> Does he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded? I think not. <sup>10</sup> Even so you also, when you have done all the things that are commanded you, say, 'We are unworthy servants. We have done our duty.'"

<sup>11</sup> As he was on his way to Jerusalem, he was passing along the borders of Samaria and Galilee. <sup>12</sup> As he entered into a certain village, ten men who were lepers met him, who stood at a distance. <sup>13</sup> They lifted up their voices, saying, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!"

<sup>14</sup> When he saw them, he said to them, "Go and show yourselves to the priests."

As they went, they were cleansed. <sup>15</sup> One of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, glorifying God with a loud voice. <sup>16</sup> He fell on his face at Jesus' feet, giving him thanks; and he was a Samaritan. <sup>17</sup> Jesus answered, "Weren't the ten cleansed? But where are the nine?" <sup>18</sup> Were there none found who returned to give glory to God, except this stranger?" <sup>19</sup> Then he said to him, "Get up, and go your way. Your faith has healed you."

<sup>20</sup> Being asked by the Pharisees when God's Kingdom would come, he answered them, "God's Kingdom doesn't come with observation; <sup>21</sup> neither will they say, 'Look, here!' or, 'Look, there!' for behold, God's Kingdom is within you."

<sup>22</sup> He said to the disciples, "The days will come, when you will desire to see one of the days of the Son of Man, and you will not see it. <sup>23</sup> They will tell you, 'Look, here!' or 'Look, there!' Don't go away, nor follow after them, <sup>24</sup> for as the lightning, when it flashes out of the one part under the sky, shines to the other part under the sky; so will the Son of Man be in his day. <sup>25</sup> But first, he must suffer many things and be rejected by this generation. <sup>26</sup> As it was in the days of Noah, even so will it be also in the days of the Son of Man. <sup>27</sup> They ate, they drank, they married, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ship, and the flood came, and destroyed them all. <sup>28</sup> Likewise, even as it was in the days of Lot: they ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built; <sup>29</sup> but in the day that Lot went out from Sodom, it rained fire and sulfur from the sky, and destroyed them all. <sup>30</sup> It will be the same way in the day that the Son of Man is revealed. <sup>31</sup> In that day, he who will be on the housetop, and his goods in the house, let him not go down to take them away. Let him who is in the field likewise not turn back. <sup>32</sup> Remember Lot's wife! <sup>33</sup> Whoever seeks to save his life loses it, but whoever loses his life preserves it. <sup>34</sup> I tell you, in that night there will be two people in one bed. The one will be taken, and the other will be left. <sup>35</sup> There will be two grinding grain together. One will be taken, and the other will be left." <sup>36 f</sup>

He said to them, "Where the body is, there will the vultures also be gathered together."

18

<sup>1</sup> He also spoke a parable to them that they must always pray, and not give up, <sup>2</sup> saying, "There was a judge in a certain city who didn't fear God, and didn't respect man. <sup>3</sup> A widow was in that city, and she often came to him, saying, 'Defend me from my adversary!' <sup>4</sup> He wouldn't for a while, but afterward he said to himself, 'Though I neither fear God, nor respect man, <sup>5</sup> yet because this widow bothers me, I will defend her, or else she will wear me out by her continual coming.'"

<sup>6</sup> The Lord said, "Listen to what the unrighteous judge says. <sup>7</sup> Won't God avenge his chosen ones, who are crying out to him day and night, and yet he exercises patience with them? <sup>8</sup> I tell you that he will avenge them quickly. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on the earth?"

<sup>9</sup> He spoke also this parable to certain people who were convinced of their own righteousness, and who despised all others.

<sup>10</sup> "Two men went up into the temple to pray; one was a Pharisee, and the other was a tax collector. <sup>11</sup> The Pharisee stood and prayed to himself like this: 'God, I thank you, that I am not like the rest of men, extortionists, unrighteous, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. <sup>12</sup> I fast twice a week. I give tithes of all that I get.' <sup>13</sup> But the tax collector, standing far away, wouldn't even lift up his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, 'God, be merciful to me, a sinner!' <sup>14</sup> I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other; for everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but he who humbles himself will be exalted."

<sup>15</sup> They were also bringing their babies to him, that he might touch them. But when the disciples saw it, they rebuked them. <sup>16</sup> Jesus summoned them, saying, "Allow the little children to come to me, and don't hinder them, for God's Kingdom belongs to such as these. <sup>17</sup> Most certainly, I tell you, whoever doesn't receive God's Kingdom like a little child, he will in no way enter into it."

<sup>18</sup> A certain ruler asked him, saying, "Good Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?"

<sup>19</sup> Jesus asked him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good, except one—God. <sup>20</sup> You know the commandments: 'Don't commit adultery,' 'Don't murder,' 'Don't steal,' 'Don't give false testimony,' 'Honor your father and your mother.'"<sup>1</sup>

<sup>22</sup> When Jesus heard these things, he said to him, "You still lack one thing. Sell all that you have, and distribute it to the poor. You will have treasure in heaven. Come, follow me."

<sup>23</sup> But when he heard these things, he became very sad, for he was very rich.

<sup>24</sup> Jesus, seeing that he became very sad, said, "How hard it is for those who have riches to enter into God's Kingdom! <sup>25</sup> For it is easier for a camel to enter in through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into God's Kingdom."

<sup>26</sup> Those who heard it said, "Then who can be saved?"

<sup>27</sup> But he said, "The things which are impossible with men are possible with God."

<sup>29</sup> He said to them, "Most certainly I tell you, there is no one who has left house, or wife, or brothers, or parents, or children, for God's Kingdom's sake, <sup>30</sup> who will not receive many times more in this time, and in the world to come, eternal life."

<sup>31</sup> He took the twelve aside, and said to them, "Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and all the things that are written through the prophets concerning the Son of Man will be completed. <sup>32</sup> For he will be delivered up to the Gentiles, will be mocked, treated shamefully, and spit on. <sup>33</sup> They will scourge and kill him. On the third day, he will rise again."

<sup>34</sup> They understood none of these things. This saying was hidden from them, and they didn't understand the things that were said. <sup>35</sup> As he came near Jericho, a certain blind man sat by the road, begging. <sup>36</sup> Hearing a multitude going by, he asked what this meant. <sup>37</sup> They told him that Jesus of Nazareth was passing by. <sup>38</sup> He cried out, "Jesus, you son of David, have mercy on me!" <sup>39</sup> Those who led the way rebuked him, that he should be quiet; but he cried out all the more, "You son of David, have mercy on me!"

<sup>40</sup> Standing still, Jesus commanded him to be brought to him. When he had come near, he asked him, <sup>41</sup> "What do you want me to do?"

He said, "Lord, that I may see again."

<sup>42</sup> Jesus said to him, "Receive your sight. Your faith has healed you."

<sup>43</sup> Immediately he received his sight, and followed him, glorifying God. All the people, when they saw it, praised God.

19

<sup>1</sup> He entered and was passing through Jericho. <sup>2</sup> There was a man named Zacchaeus. He was a chief tax collector, and he was rich. <sup>3</sup> He was trying to see who Jesus was, and couldn't because of the crowd, because he was short. <sup>4</sup> He ran on ahead, and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him, for he was going to pass that way. <sup>5</sup> When Jesus came to the place, he looked up and saw him, and said to him, "Zacchaeus, hurry and come down, for today I must stay at your house." <sup>6</sup> He hurried, came down, and received him joyfully. <sup>7</sup> When they saw it, they all murmured, saying, "He has gone in to lodge with a man who is a sinner."

<sup>8</sup> Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, "Behold, Lord, half of my goods I give to the poor. If I have wrongfully exacted anything of anyone, I restore four times as much."

<sup>9</sup> Jesus said to him, "Today, salvation has come to this house, because he also is a son of Abraham. <sup>10</sup> For the Son of Man came to seek and to save that which was lost."

<sup>11</sup> As they heard these things, he went on and told a parable, because he was near Jerusalem, and they supposed that God's Kingdom would be revealed immediately.

<sup>12</sup> He said therefore, "A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return. <sup>13</sup> He called ten servants of his, and gave them ten mina coins, <sup>g</sup> and told them, 'Conduct business until I come.' <sup>14</sup> But his citizens hated him, and sent an envoy after him, saying, 'We don't want this man to reign over us.'

<sup>15</sup> "When he had come back again, having received the kingdom, he commanded these servants, to whom he had given the money, to be called to him, that he might know what they had gained by conducting business. <sup>16</sup> The first came before him, saying, 'Lord, your mina has made ten more minas.'

<sup>17</sup> "He said to him, 'Well done, you good servant! Because you were found faithful with very little, you shall have authority over ten cities.'

<sup>19</sup> "So he said to him, 'And you are to be over five cities.' <sup>20</sup> Another came, saying, 'Lord, behold, your mina, which I kept laid away in a handkerchief, <sup>21</sup> for I feared you, because you are an exacting man. You take up that which you didn't lay down, and reap that which you didn't sow.'

<sup>22</sup> "He said to him, 'Out of your own mouth will I judge you, you wicked servant! You knew that I am an exacting man, taking up that which I didn't lay down, and reaping that which I didn't sow.'

<sup>23</sup> Then why didn't you deposit my money in the bank, and at my coming, I might have earned interest on it?' <sup>24</sup> He said to those who stood by, 'Take the mina away from him, and give it to him who has the ten minas.'

<sup>25</sup> "They said to him, 'Lord, he has ten minas!' <sup>26</sup> 'For I tell you that to everyone who has, will more be given; but from him who doesn't have, even that which he has will be taken away from him. <sup>27</sup> But bring those enemies of mine who didn't want me to reign over them here, and kill them before me.'" <sup>28</sup> Having said these things, he went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem.

<sup>29</sup> When he came near to Bethsphage<sup>h</sup> and Bethany, at the mountain that is called Olivet, he sent two of his disciples, <sup>30</sup> saying, "Go your way into the village on the other side, in which, as you enter, you will find a colt tied, whereon no man ever yet sat. Untie it, and bring it. <sup>31</sup> If anyone asks you, 'Why are you untying it?' say to him: 'The Lord needs it.'"

<sup>32</sup> Those who were sent went away, and found things just as he had told them. <sup>33</sup> As they were untying the colt, its owners said to them, "Why are you untying the colt?" <sup>34</sup> They said, "The Lord needs it." <sup>35</sup> They brought it to Jesus. They threw their cloaks on the colt, and set Jesus on them. <sup>36</sup> As he went, they spread their cloaks on the road.

<sup>40</sup> He answered them, "I tell you that if these were silent, the stones would cry out."

<sup>41</sup> When he came near, he saw the city and wept over it, <sup>42</sup> saying, "If you, even you, had known today the things which belong to your peace! But now, they are hidden from your eyes. <sup>43</sup> For the days will come on you, when your enemies will throw up a barricade against you, surround you, hem you in on every side, <sup>44</sup> and will dash you and your children within you to the ground. They will not leave in you one stone on another, because you didn't know the time of your visitation."

<sup>45</sup> He entered into the temple, and began to drive out those who bought and sold in it, <sup>46</sup> saying to them, "It is written, 'My house is a house of prayer,' <sup>2</sup> but you have made it a 'den of robbers!'" <sup>3</sup>

<sup>47</sup> He was teaching daily in the temple, but the chief priests and the scribes and the leading men among the people sought to destroy him. <sup>48</sup> They couldn't find what they might do, for all the people hung on to every word that he said.

20

<sup>1</sup> On one of those days, as he was teaching the people in the temple and preaching the Good News, the <sup>i</sup>priests and scribes came to him with the elders. <sup>2</sup> They asked him, “Tell us: by what authority do you do these things? Or who is giving you this authority?”

<sup>3</sup> He answered them, “I also will ask you one question. Tell me: <sup>4</sup> the baptism of John, was it from heaven, or from men?”

<sup>5</sup> They reasoned with themselves, saying, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ he will say, ‘Why didn’t you believe him?’ <sup>6</sup> But if we say, ‘From men,’ all the people will stone us, for they are persuaded that John was a prophet.” <sup>7</sup> They answered that they didn’t know where it was from.

<sup>8</sup> Jesus said to them, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.”

<sup>9</sup> He began to tell the people this parable. “A <sup>j</sup> man planted a vineyard, and rented it out to some farmers, and went into another country for a long time. <sup>10</sup> At the proper season, he sent a servant to the farmers to collect his share of the fruit of the vineyard. But the farmers beat him, and sent him away empty. <sup>11</sup> He sent yet another servant, and they also beat him, and treated him shamefully, and sent him away empty. <sup>12</sup> He sent yet a third, and they also wounded him, and threw him out. <sup>13</sup> The lord of the vineyard said, ‘What shall I do? I will send my beloved son. It may be that seeing him, they will respect him.’

<sup>14</sup> “But when the farmers saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, ‘This is the heir. Come, let’s kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.’ <sup>15</sup> They threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore will the lord of the vineyard do to them? <sup>16</sup> He will come and destroy these farmers, and will give the vineyard to others.”

When they heard it, they said, “May it never be!”

<sup>17</sup> But he looked at them, and said, “Then what is this that is written,

‘The stone which the builders rejected, the same was made the chief cornerstone?’<sup>1</sup>

<sup>18</sup> Everyone who falls on that stone will be broken to pieces, but it will crush whomever it falls on to dust.”

<sup>19</sup> The chief priests and the scribes sought to lay hands on him that very hour, but they feared the people—for they knew he had spoken this parable against them. <sup>20</sup> They watched him, and sent out spies, who pretended to be righteous, that they might trap him in something he said, so as to deliver him up to the power and authority of the governor. <sup>21</sup> They asked him, “Teacher, we know that you say and teach what is right, and aren’t partial to anyone, but truly teach the way of God. <sup>22</sup> Is it lawful for us to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?”

<sup>23</sup> But he perceived their craftiness, and said to them, “Why do you test me? <sup>24</sup> Show me a denarius. Whose image and inscription are on it?”

They answered, “Caesar’s.”

<sup>25</sup> He said to them, “Then give to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s, and to God the things that are God’s.”

<sup>26</sup> They weren’t able to trap him in his words before the people. They marveled at his answer, and were silent. <sup>27</sup> Some of the Sadducees came to him, those who deny that there is a resurrection. <sup>28</sup> They asked him, “Teacher, Moses wrote to us that if a man’s brother dies having a wife, and he is childless, his brother should take the wife, and raise up children for his brother. <sup>29</sup> There were therefore seven brothers. The first took a wife, and died childless. <sup>30</sup> The second took her as wife, and he died childless. <sup>31</sup> The third took her, and likewise the seven all left no children, and died. <sup>32</sup> Afterward the woman also died. <sup>33</sup> Therefore in the resurrection whose wife of them will she be? For the seven had her as a wife.”

<sup>34</sup> Jesus said to them, “The children of this age marry, and are given in marriage. <sup>35</sup> But those who are considered worthy to attain to that age and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage. <sup>36</sup> For they can’t die any more, for they are like the angels, and are children of God, being children of the resurrection. <sup>37</sup> But that the dead are raised, even Moses showed at the bush, when he called the Lord ‘The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.’ <sup>2</sup> <sup>38</sup> Now he is not the God of the dead, but of the living, for all are alive to him.”

<sup>41</sup> He said to them, “Why do they say that the Christ is David’s son? <sup>42</sup> David himself says in the book of Psalms,

‘The Lord said to my Lord,

“Sit at my right hand,

<sup>43</sup> until I make your enemies the footstool of your feet.’” <sup>3</sup>

<sup>45</sup> In the hearing of all the people, he said to his disciples, <sup>46</sup> “Beware of the scribes, who like to walk in long robes, and love greetings in the marketplaces, the best seats in the synagogues, and the best places at feasts; <sup>47</sup> who devour widows’ houses, and for a pretense make long prayers: these will receive greater condemnation.”

21

<sup>5</sup> As some were talking about the temple and how it was decorated with beautiful stones and gifts, he said, <sup>6</sup> “As for these things which you see, the days will come, in which there will not be left here one stone on another that will not be thrown down.”

<sup>7</sup> They asked him, “Teacher, so when will these things be? What is the sign that these things are about to happen?”

<sup>8</sup> He said, “Watch out that you don’t get led astray, for many will come in my name, saying, ‘I am he<sup>l</sup>,’ and, ‘The time is at hand.’ Therefore don’t follow them. <sup>9</sup> When you hear of wars and disturbances, don’t be terrified, for these things must happen first, but the end won’t come immediately.”

<sup>10</sup> Then he said to them, “Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. <sup>11</sup> There will be great earthquakes, famines, and plagues in various places. There will be terrors and great signs from heaven. <sup>12</sup> But before all these things, they will lay their hands on you and will persecute you, delivering you up to synagogues and prisons, bringing you before kings and governors for my name’s sake. <sup>13</sup> It will turn out as a testimony for you. <sup>14</sup> Settle it therefore in your hearts not to meditate beforehand how to answer, <sup>15</sup> for I will give you a mouth and wisdom which all your adversaries will not be able to withstand or to contradict. <sup>16</sup> You will be handed over even by parents, brothers, relatives, and friends. They will cause some of you to be put to death. <sup>17</sup> You will be hated by all men for my name’s sake. <sup>18</sup> And not a hair of your head will perish.

<sup>20</sup> “But when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then know that its desolation is at hand. <sup>21</sup> Then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains. Let those who are in the middle of her depart. Let those who are in the country not enter therein. <sup>22</sup> For these are days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled. <sup>23</sup> Woe to those who are pregnant and to those who nurse infants in those days! For there will be great distress in the land, and wrath to this people. <sup>24</sup> They will fall by the edge of the sword, and will be led captive into all the nations. Jerusalem will be trampled down by the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled. <sup>25</sup> There will be signs in the sun, moon, and stars; and on the earth anxiety of nations, in perplexity for the roaring of the sea and the waves; <sup>26</sup> men fainting for fear, and for expectation of the things which are coming on the world: for the powers of the heavens will be shaken. <sup>27</sup> Then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. <sup>28</sup> But when these things begin to happen, look up, and lift up your heads, because your redemption is near.”

<sup>29</sup> He told them a parable. “See the fig tree, and all the trees. <sup>30</sup> When they are already budding, you see it and know by your own selves that the summer is already near. <sup>31</sup> Even so you also, when you see these things happening, know that God’s Kingdom is near. <sup>32</sup> Most certainly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all things are accomplished. <sup>33</sup> Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will by no means pass away.

<sup>34</sup> “So be careful, or your hearts will be loaded down with carousing, drunkenness, and cares of this life, and that day will come on you suddenly. <sup>35</sup> For it will come like a snare on all those who dwell on the surface of all the earth. <sup>36</sup> Therefore be watchful all the time, praying that you may be counted worthy to escape all these things that will happen, and to stand before the Son of Man.”

<sup>37</sup> Every day Jesus was teaching in the temple, and every night he would go out and spend the night on the mountain that is called Olivet. <sup>38</sup> All the people came early in the morning to him in the temple to hear him.

22

<sup>1</sup> Now the feast of unleavened bread, which is called the Passover, was approaching. <sup>2</sup> The chief priests and the scribes sought how they might put him to death, for they feared the people. <sup>3</sup> Satan entered into Judas, who was also called Iscariot, who was numbered with the twelve. <sup>4</sup> He went away, and talked with the chief priests and captains about how he might deliver him to them. <sup>5</sup> They were glad, and agreed to give him money. <sup>6</sup> He consented, and sought an opportunity to deliver him to them in the absence of the multitude. <sup>7</sup> The day of unleavened bread came, on which the Passover must be sacrificed. <sup>8</sup> He sent Peter and John, saying, “Go and prepare the Passover for us, that we may eat.”

<sup>10</sup> He said to them, “Behold, when you have entered into the city, a man carrying a pitcher of water will meet you. Follow him into the house which he enters. <sup>11</sup> Tell the master of the house, ‘The Teacher says to you, ‘Where is the guest room, where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?’”

<sup>13</sup> They went, found things as he had told them, and they prepared the Passover. <sup>14</sup> When the hour had come, he sat down with the twelve apostles. <sup>15</sup> He said to them, “I have earnestly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer, <sup>16</sup> for I tell you, I will no longer by any means eat of it until it is fulfilled in God’s Kingdom.” <sup>17</sup> He received a cup, and when he had given thanks, he said, “Take this, and share it among yourselves, <sup>18</sup> for I tell you, I will not drink at all again from the fruit of the vine, until God’s Kingdom comes.”

<sup>19</sup> He took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and gave to them, saying, “This is my body which is given for you. Do this in memory of me.” <sup>20</sup> Likewise, he took the cup after supper, saying, “This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you. <sup>21</sup> But behold, the hand of him who betrays me is with me on the table. <sup>22</sup> The Son of Man indeed goes, as it has been determined, but woe to that man through whom he is betrayed!”

<sup>23</sup> They began to question among themselves, which of them it was who would do this thing. <sup>24</sup> There arose also a contention among them, which of them was considered to be greatest. <sup>25</sup> He said to them, “The kings of the nations lord it over them, and those who have authority over them are called ‘benefactors.’ <sup>26</sup> But not so with you. But one who is the greater among you, let him become as the younger, and one who is governing, as one who serves. <sup>27</sup> For who is greater, one who sits at the table, or one who serves? Isn’t it he who sits at the table? But I am among you as one who serves. <sup>28</sup> But you are those who have continued with me in my trials. <sup>29</sup> I confer on you a kingdom, even as my Father conferred on me, <sup>30</sup> that you may eat and drink at my table in my Kingdom. You will sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.”

<sup>31</sup> The Lord said, “Simon, Simon, behold, Satan asked to have you, that he might sift you as wheat, <sup>32</sup> but I prayed for you, that your faith wouldn’t fail. You, when once you have turned again, establish your brothers.”<sup>m</sup>

<sup>33</sup> He said to him, “Lord, I am ready to go with you both to prison and to death!”

<sup>34</sup> He said, “I tell you, Peter, the rooster will by no means crow today until you deny that you know me three times.”

<sup>35</sup> He said to them, “When I sent you out without purse, and wallet, and shoes, did you lack anything?”

They said, “Nothing.”

<sup>36</sup> Then he said to them, “But now, whoever has a purse, let him take it, and likewise a wallet. Whoever has none, let him sell his cloak, and buy a sword. <sup>37</sup> For I tell you that this which is written must still be fulfilled in me: ‘He was counted with transgressors.’<sup>1</sup> For that which concerns me has an end.”

He said to them, “That is enough.”

<sup>39</sup> He came out, and went, as his custom was, to the Mount of Olives. His disciples also followed him. <sup>40</sup> When he was at the place, he said to them, “Pray that you don’t enter into temptation.”

<sup>41</sup> He was withdrawn from them about a stone’s throw, and he knelt down and prayed, <sup>42</sup> saying, “Father, if you are willing, remove this cup from me. Nevertheless, not my will, but yours, be done.”

<sup>45</sup> When he rose up from his prayer, he came to the disciples, and found them sleeping because of grief, <sup>46</sup> and said to them, “Why do you sleep? Rise and pray that you may not enter into temptation.”

<sup>47</sup> While he was still speaking, behold, a multitude, and he who was called Judas, one of the twelve, was leading them. He came near to Jesus to kiss him. <sup>48</sup> But Jesus said to him, “Judas, do you betray the Son of Man with a kiss?”

<sup>49</sup> When those who were around him saw what was about to happen, they said to him, “Lord, shall we strike with the sword?” <sup>50</sup> A certain one of them struck the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear.

<sup>51</sup> But Jesus answered, “Let me at least do this”—and he touched his ear, and healed him. <sup>52</sup> Jesus said to the chief priests, captains of the temple, and elders, who had come against him, “Have you come out as against a robber, with swords and clubs? <sup>53</sup> When I was with you in the temple daily, you didn’t stretch out your hands against me. But this is your hour, and the power of darkness.”

<sup>54</sup> They seized him, and led him away, and brought him into the high priest’s house. But Peter followed from a distance.

middle of the courtyard, and had sat down together, Peter sat among them. <sup>56</sup> A certain servant girl saw him as he sat in the light, and looking intently at him, said, "This man also was with him."

<sup>58</sup> After a little while someone else saw him, and said, "You also are one of them!"

But Peter answered, "Man, I am not!"

<sup>59</sup> After about one hour passed, another confidently affirmed, saying, "Truly this man also was with him, for he is a Galilean!"

<sup>60</sup> But Peter said, "Man, I don't know what you are talking about!" Immediately, while he was still speaking, a rooster crowed. <sup>61</sup> The Lord turned, and looked at Peter. Then Peter remembered the Lord's word, how he said to him, "Before the rooster crows you will deny me three times." <sup>62</sup> He went out, and wept bitterly.

<sup>63</sup> The men who held Jesus mocked him and beat him. <sup>64</sup> Having blindfolded him, they struck him on the face and asked him, "Prophecy! Who is the one who struck you?" <sup>65</sup> They spoke many other things against him, insulting him.

<sup>66</sup> As soon as it was day, the assembly of the elders of the people was gathered together, both chief priests and scribes, and they led him away into their council, saying, <sup>67</sup> "If you are the Christ, tell us."

But he said to them, "If I tell you, you won't believe, <sup>68</sup> and if I ask, you will in no way answer me or let me go. <sup>69</sup> From now on, the Son of Man will be seated at the right hand of the power of God."

<sup>70</sup> They all said, "Are you then the Son of God?"

He said to them, "You say it, because I am."

<sup>71</sup> They said, "Why do we need any more witness? For we ourselves have heard from his own mouth!"

23

<sup>1</sup> The whole company of them rose up and brought him before Pilate. <sup>2</sup> They began to accuse him, saying, "We found this man perverting the nation, forbidding paying taxes to Caesar, and saying that he himself is Christ, a king."

<sup>3</sup> Pilate asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?"

He answered him, "So you say."

<sup>4</sup> Pilate said to the chief priests and the multitudes, "I find no basis for a charge against this man."

<sup>5</sup> But they insisted, saying, "He stirs up the people, teaching throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee even to this place."

<sup>6</sup> But when Pilate heard Galilee mentioned, he asked if the man was a Galilean. <sup>7</sup> When he found out that he was in Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who was also in Jerusalem during those days.

<sup>8</sup> Now when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceedingly glad, for he had wanted to see him for a long time, because he had heard many things about him. He hoped to see some miracle done by him. <sup>9</sup> He questioned him with many words, but he gave no answers. <sup>10</sup> The chief priests and the scribes stood, vehemently accusing him. <sup>11</sup> Herod with his soldiers humiliated him and mocked him. Dressing him in luxurious clothing, they sent him back to Pilate. <sup>12</sup> Herod and Pilate became friends with each other that very day, for before that they were enemies with each other.

<sup>13</sup> Pilate called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people, <sup>14</sup> and said to them, “You brought this man to me as one that perverts the people, and see, I have examined him before you, and found no basis for a charge against this man concerning those things of which you accuse him. <sup>15</sup> Neither has Herod, for I sent you to him, and see, nothing worthy of death has been done by him. <sup>16</sup> I will therefore chastise him and release him.”

<sup>20</sup> Then Pilate spoke to them again, wanting to release Jesus, <sup>21</sup> but they shouted, saying, “Crucify! Crucify him!”

<sup>22</sup> He said to them the third time, “Why? What evil has this man done? I have found no capital crime in him. I will therefore chastise him and release him.” <sup>23</sup> But they were urgent with loud voices, asking that he might be crucified. Their voices and the voices of the chief priests prevailed. <sup>24</sup> Pilate decreed that what they asked for should be done. <sup>25</sup> He released him who had been thrown into prison for insurrection and murder, for whom they asked, but he delivered Jesus up to their will.

<sup>26</sup> When they led him away, they grabbed one Simon of Cyrene, coming from the country, and laid on him the cross, to carry it after Jesus. <sup>27</sup> A great multitude of the people followed him, including women who also mourned and lamented him. <sup>28</sup> But Jesus, turning to them, said, “Daughters of Jerusalem, don’t weep for me, but weep for yourselves and for your children. <sup>29</sup> For behold, the days are coming in which they will say, ‘Blessed are the barren, the wombs that never bore, and the breasts that never nursed.’ <sup>30</sup> Then they will begin to tell the mountains, ‘Fall on us!’ and tell the hills, ‘Cover us.’<sup>1</sup> <sup>31</sup> For if they do these things in the green tree, what will be done in the dry?”

<sup>32</sup> There were also others, two criminals, led with him to be put to death. <sup>33</sup> When they came to the place that is called The Skull, they crucified him there with the criminals, one on the right and the other on the left.

<sup>34</sup> Jesus said, “Father, forgive them, for they don’t know what they are doing.”

Dividing his garments among them, they cast lots. <sup>35</sup> The people stood watching. The rulers with them also scoffed at him, saying, “He saved others. Let him save himself, if this is the Christ of God, his chosen one!”

<sup>36</sup> The soldiers also mocked him, coming to him and offering him vinegar, <sup>37</sup> and saying, “If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!”

<sup>39</sup> One of the criminals who was hanged insulted him, saying, “If you are the Christ, save yourself and us!”

<sup>40</sup> But the other answered, and rebuking him said, “Don’t you even fear God, seeing you are under the same condemnation? <sup>41</sup> And we indeed justly, for we receive the due reward for our deeds, but this man has done nothing wrong.” <sup>42</sup> He said to Jesus, “Lord, remember me when you come into your Kingdom.”

<sup>43</sup> Jesus said to him, “Assuredly I tell you, today you will be with me in Paradise.”

<sup>44</sup> It was now about the sixth hour,<sup>o</sup> and darkness came over the whole land until the ninth hour.<sup>p</sup> <sup>45</sup> The sun was darkened, and the veil of the temple was torn in two. <sup>46</sup> Jesus, crying with a loud voice, said, “Father, into your hands I commit my spirit!” Having said this, he breathed his last.

<sup>47</sup> When the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, “Certainly this was a righteous man.” <sup>48</sup> All the multitudes that came together to see this, when they saw the things that were done, returned home beating their breasts. <sup>49</sup> All his acquaintances, and the women who followed with him from Galilee, stood at a distance, watching these things.

<sup>50</sup> Behold, a man named Joseph, who was a member of the council, a good and righteous man <sup>51</sup> (he had not consented to their counsel and deed), from Arimathaea, a city of the Jews, who was also waiting for God’s Kingdom: <sup>52</sup> this man went to Pilate, and asked for Jesus’ body. <sup>53</sup> He took it down, and wrapped it in a linen cloth, and laid him in a tomb that was cut in stone, where no one had ever been laid. <sup>54</sup> It was the day of the Preparation, and the Sabbath was drawing near. <sup>55</sup> The women, who had come with him out of Galilee, followed after, and saw the tomb, and how his body was laid. <sup>56</sup> They returned, and prepared spices and ointments. On the Sabbath they rested according to the commandment.

24

They said to them, “Why do you seek the living among the dead? <sup>6</sup> He isn’t here, but is risen. Remember what he told you when he was still in Galilee, <sup>7</sup> saying that the Son of Man must be delivered up into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again?”

<sup>8</sup> They remembered his words, <sup>9</sup> returned from the tomb, and told all these things to the eleven, and to all the rest. <sup>10</sup> Now they were Mary Magdalene, Joanna, and Mary the mother of James. The other women with them told these things to the apostles. <sup>11</sup> These words seemed to them to be nonsense, and they didn’t believe them. <sup>12</sup> But Peter got up and ran to the tomb. Stooping and looking in, he saw the strips of linen lying by themselves, and he departed to his home, wondering what had happened.

They talked with each other about all of these things which had happened. <sup>15</sup> While they talked and questioned together, Jesus himself came near, and went with them. <sup>16</sup> But their eyes were kept from recognizing him. <sup>17</sup> He said to them, “What are you talking about as you walk, and are sad?”

<sup>18</sup> One of them, named Cleopas, answered him, “Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who doesn’t know the things which have happened there in these days?”

They said to him, “The things concerning Jesus, the Nazarene, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people; <sup>20</sup> and how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him up to be condemned to death, and crucified him. <sup>21</sup> But we were hoping that it was he who would redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things happened. <sup>22</sup> Also, certain women of our company amazed us, having arrived early at the tomb; <sup>23</sup> and when they didn’t find his body, they came saying that they had also seen a vision of angels, who said that he was alive. <sup>24</sup> Some of us went to the tomb, and found it just like the women had said, but they didn’t see him.”

<sup>25</sup> He said to them, “Foolish men, and slow of heart to believe in all that the prophets have spoken! <sup>26</sup> Didn’t the Christ have to suffer these things and to enter into his glory?” <sup>27</sup> Beginning from Moses and from all the prophets, he explained to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning himself. <sup>28</sup> They came near to the village, where they were going, and he acted like he would go further.

<sup>29</sup> They urged him, saying, “Stay with us, for it is almost evening, and the day is almost over.”

He went in to stay with them. <sup>30</sup> When he had sat down at the table with them, he took the bread and gave thanks. Breaking it, he gave to them. <sup>31</sup> Their eyes were opened, and they recognized him, and he vanished out of their sight. <sup>32</sup> They said to one another, “Weren’t our hearts burning within us, while he spoke to us along the way, and while he opened the Scriptures to us?” <sup>33</sup> They rose up that very hour, returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and those who were with them, <sup>34</sup> saying, “The Lord is risen indeed, and has appeared to Simon!” <sup>35</sup> They related the things that happened along the way, and how he was recognized by them in the breaking of the bread.

<sup>36</sup> As they said these things, Jesus himself stood among them, and said to them, “Peace be to you.”

<sup>37</sup> But they were terrified and filled with fear, and supposed that they had seen a spirit.

<sup>38</sup> He said to them, “Why are you troubled? Why do doubts arise in your hearts? <sup>39</sup> See my hands and my feet, that it is truly me. Touch me and see, for a spirit doesn’t have flesh and bones, as you see that I have.” <sup>40</sup> When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. <sup>41</sup> While they still didn’t believe for joy, and wondered, he said to them, “Do you have anything here to eat?”

<sup>42</sup> They gave him a piece of a broiled fish and some honeycomb. <sup>43</sup> He took them, and ate in front of them. <sup>44</sup> He said to them, “This is what I told you, while I was still with you, that all things which are written in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms, concerning me must be fulfilled.”

<sup>45</sup> Then he opened their minds, that they might understand the Scriptures. <sup>46</sup> He said to them, “Thus it is written, and thus it was necessary for the Christ to suffer and to rise from the dead the third day, <sup>47</sup> and that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning at Jerusalem. <sup>48</sup> You are witnesses of these things. <sup>49</sup> Behold, I send out the promise of my Father on you. But wait in the city of Jerusalem until you are clothed with power from on high.”

<sup>50</sup> He led them out as far as Bethany, and he lifted up his hands, and blessed them. <sup>51</sup> While he blessed them, he withdrew from them, and was carried up into heaven. <sup>52</sup> They worshiped him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy, <sup>53</sup> and were continually in the temple, praising and blessing God. Amen.

The Good News According to

John

1

<sup>1</sup> In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. <sup>2</sup> The same was in the beginning with God. <sup>3</sup> All things were made through him. Without him was not anything made that has been made. <sup>4</sup> In him was life, and the life was the light of men. <sup>5</sup> The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness hasn't overcome <sup>a</sup> it. <sup>6</sup> There came a man, sent from God, whose name was John. <sup>7</sup> The same came as a witness, that he might testify about the light, that all might believe through him. <sup>8</sup> He was not the light, but was sent that he might testify about the light. <sup>9</sup> The true light that enlightens everyone was coming into the world.

<sup>10</sup> He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world didn't recognize him. <sup>11</sup> He came to his own, and those who were his own didn't receive him. <sup>12</sup> But as many as received him, to them he gave the right to become God's children, to those who believe in his name: <sup>13</sup> who were born not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. <sup>14</sup> The Word became flesh, and lived among us. We saw his glory, such glory as of the one and only Son of the Father, full of grace and truth. <sup>15</sup> John testified about him. He cried out, saying, "This was he of whom I said, 'He who comes after me has surpassed me, for he was before me.'" <sup>16</sup> From his fullness we all received grace upon grace. <sup>17</sup> For the law was given through Moses. Grace and truth were realized through Jesus Christ. <sup>18</sup> No one has seen God at any time. The one and only Son,<sup>b</sup> who is in the bosom of the Father, he has declared him.

<sup>19</sup> This is John's testimony, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, "Who are you?"

<sup>20</sup> He declared, and didn't deny, but he declared, "I am not the Christ."

<sup>21</sup> They asked him, "What then? Are you Elijah?"

He said, "I am not."

"Are you the prophet?"

He answered, "No."

<sup>22</sup> They said therefore to him, "Who are you? Give us an answer to take back to those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?"

<sup>24</sup> The ones who had been sent were from the Pharisees. <sup>25</sup> They asked him, "Why then do you baptize, if you are not the Christ, nor Elijah, nor the prophet?"

<sup>26</sup> John answered them, "I baptize in water, but among you stands one whom you don't know. <sup>27</sup> He is the one who comes after me, who is preferred before me, whose sandal strap I'm not worthy to loosen." <sup>28</sup> These things were done in Bethany beyond the Jordan, where John was baptizing.

<sup>29</sup> The next day, he saw Jesus coming to him, and said, “Behold,<sup>c</sup> the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world! <sup>30</sup> This is he of whom I said, ‘After me comes a man who is preferred before me, for he was before me.’ <sup>31</sup> I didn’t know him, but for this reason I came baptizing in water: that he would be revealed to Israel.” <sup>32</sup> John testified, saying, “I have seen the Spirit descending like a dove out of heaven, and it remained on him. <sup>33</sup> I didn’t recognize him, but he who sent me to baptize in water, he said to me, ‘On whomever you will see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he who baptizes in the Holy Spirit.’ <sup>34</sup> I have seen, and have testified that this is the Son of God.”

<sup>35</sup> Again, the next day, John was standing with two of his disciples, <sup>36</sup> and he looked at Jesus as he walked, and said, “Behold, the Lamb of God!” <sup>37</sup> The two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus. <sup>38</sup> Jesus turned, and saw them following, and said to them, “What are you looking for?”

They said to him, “Rabbi” (which is to say, being interpreted, Teacher), “where are you staying?”

<sup>39</sup> He said to them, “Come, and see.”

They came and saw where he was staying, and they stayed with him that day. It was about the tenth hour.<sup>d</sup> <sup>40</sup> One of the two who heard John, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter’s brother. <sup>41</sup> He first found his own brother, Simon, and said to him, “We have found the Messiah!” (which is, being interpreted, Christ<sup>e</sup>). <sup>42</sup> He brought him to Jesus. Jesus looked at him, and said, “You are Simon the son of Jonah. You shall be called Cephas” (which is by interpretation, Peter). <sup>43</sup> On the next day, he was determined to go out into Galilee, and he found Philip. Jesus said to him, “Follow me.” <sup>44</sup> Now Philip was from Bethsaida, of the city of Andrew and Peter. <sup>45</sup> Philip found Nathanael, and said to him, “We have found him, of whom Moses in the law, and the prophets, wrote: Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph.”

Philip said to him, “Come and see.”

<sup>47</sup> Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and said about him, “Behold, an Israelite indeed, in whom is no deceit!”

<sup>48</sup> Nathanael said to him, “How do you know me?”

Jesus answered him, “Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you.”

<sup>49</sup> Nathanael answered him, “Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are King of Israel!”

<sup>50</sup> Jesus answered him, “Because I told you, ‘I saw you underneath the fig tree,’ do you believe? You will see greater things than these!” <sup>51</sup> He said to him, “Most certainly, I tell you, hereafter you will see heaven opened, and the angels of God ascending and descending on the Son of Man.”

2

<sup>1</sup> The third day, there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee. Jesus' mother was there. <sup>2</sup> Jesus also was invited, with his disciples, to the marriage. <sup>3</sup> When the wine ran out, Jesus' mother said to him, "They have no wine."

<sup>4</sup> Jesus said to her, "Woman, what does that have to do with you and me? My hour has not yet come."

<sup>5</sup> His mother said to the servants, "Whatever he says to you, do it." <sup>6</sup> Now there were six water pots of stone set there after the Jews' way of purifying, containing two or three metretes<sup>f</sup> apiece. <sup>7</sup> Jesus said to them, "Fill the water pots with water." They filled them up to the brim. <sup>8</sup> He said to them, "Now draw some out, and take it to the ruler of the feast." So they took it. <sup>9</sup> When the ruler of the feast tasted the water now become wine, and didn't know where it came from (but the servants who had drawn the water knew), the ruler of the feast called the bridegroom, <sup>10</sup> and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and when the guests have drunk freely, then that which is worse. You have kept the good wine until now!" <sup>11</sup> This beginning of his signs Jesus did in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

<sup>12</sup> After this, he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, his brothers, and his disciples; and they stayed there a few days. <sup>13</sup> The Passover of the Jews was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup> He found in the temple those who sold oxen, sheep, and doves, and the changers of money sitting. <sup>15</sup> He made a whip of cords, and threw all out of the temple, both the sheep and the oxen; and he poured out the changers' money, and overthrew their tables. <sup>16</sup> To those who sold the doves, he said, "Take these things out of here! Don't make my Father's house a marketplace!" <sup>17</sup> His disciples remembered that it was written, "Zeal for your house will eat me up."<sup>1</sup>

<sup>18</sup> The Jews therefore answered him, "What sign do you show us, seeing that you do these things?"

<sup>19</sup> Jesus answered them, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up."

<sup>20</sup> The Jews therefore said, "It took forty-six years to build this temple! Will you raise it up in three days?" <sup>21</sup> But he spoke of the temple of his body. <sup>22</sup> When therefore he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he said this, and they believed the Scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.

<sup>23</sup> Now when he was in Jerusalem at the Passover, during the feast, many believed in his name, observing his signs which he did. <sup>24</sup> But Jesus didn't trust himself to them, because he knew everyone, <sup>25</sup> and because he didn't need for anyone to testify concerning man; for he himself knew what was in man.

3

<sup>1</sup> Now there was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews. <sup>2</sup> The same came to him by night, and said to him, "Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher come from God, for no one can do these signs that you do, unless God is with him."

<sup>4</sup> Nicodemus said to him, “How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter a second time into his mother’s womb, and be born?”

<sup>5</sup> Jesus answered, “Most certainly I tell you, unless one is born of water and spirit, he can’t enter into God’s Kingdom. <sup>6</sup> That which is born of the flesh is flesh. That which is born of the Spirit is spirit. <sup>7</sup> Don’t marvel that I said to you, ‘You must be born anew.’ <sup>8</sup> The wind<sup>h</sup> blows where it wants to, and you hear its sound, but don’t know where it comes from and where it is going. So is everyone who is born of the Spirit.”

<sup>10</sup> Jesus answered him, “Are you the teacher of Israel, and don’t understand these things? <sup>11</sup> Most certainly I tell you, we speak that which we know, and testify of that which we have seen, and you don’t receive our witness. <sup>12</sup> If I told you earthly things and you don’t believe, how will you believe if I tell you heavenly things? <sup>13</sup> No one has ascended into heaven, but he who descended out of heaven, the Son of Man, who is in heaven. <sup>14</sup> As Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of Man be lifted up, <sup>15</sup> that whoever believes in him should not perish, but have eternal life. <sup>16</sup> For God so loved the world, that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish, but have eternal life. <sup>17</sup> For God didn’t send his Son into the world to judge the world, but that the world should be saved through him. <sup>18</sup> He who believes in him is not judged. He who doesn’t believe has been judged already, because he has not believed in the name of the one and only Son of God. <sup>19</sup> This is the judgment, that the light has come into the world, and men loved the darkness rather than the light; for their works were evil. <sup>20</sup> For everyone who does evil hates the light, and doesn’t come to the light, lest his works would be exposed. <sup>21</sup> But he who does the truth comes to the light, that his works may be revealed, that they have been done in God.”

<sup>22</sup> After these things, Jesus came with his disciples into the land of Judea. He stayed there with them, and baptized. <sup>23</sup> John also was baptizing in Enon near Salim, because there was much water there. They came, and were baptized. <sup>24</sup> For John was not yet thrown into prison. <sup>25</sup> There arose therefore a questioning on the part of John’s disciples with some Jews about purification. <sup>26</sup> They came to John, and said to him, “Rabbi, he who was with you beyond the Jordan, to whom you have testified, behold, the same baptizes, and everyone is coming to him.”

<sup>27</sup> John answered, “A man can receive nothing, unless it has been given him from heaven. <sup>28</sup> You yourselves testify that I said, ‘I am not the Christ,’ but, ‘I have been sent before him.’ <sup>29</sup> He who has the bride is the bridegroom; but the friend of the bridegroom, who stands and hears him, rejoices greatly because of the bridegroom’s voice. This, my joy, therefore is made full. <sup>30</sup> He must increase, but I must decrease. <sup>31</sup> He who comes from above is above all. He who is from the earth belongs to the earth, and speaks of the earth. He who comes from heaven is above all. <sup>32</sup> What he has seen and heard, of that he testifies; and no one receives his witness. <sup>33</sup> He who has received his witness has set his seal to this, that God is true. <sup>34</sup> For he whom God has sent speaks the words of God; for God gives the Spirit without measure. <sup>35</sup> The Father loves the Son, and has given all things into his hand. <sup>36</sup> One who believes in the Son has eternal life, but one who disobeys <sup>i</sup> the Son won't see life, but the wrath of God remains on him."

<sup>9</sup> The Samaritan woman therefore said to him, "How is it that you, being a Jew, ask for a drink from me, a Samaritan woman?" (For Jews have no dealings with Samaritans.)

<sup>10</sup> Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is who says to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water."

<sup>11</sup> The woman said to him, "Sir, you have nothing to draw with, and the well is deep. So where do you get that living water? <sup>12</sup> Are you greater than our father, Jacob, who gave us the well, and drank of it himself, as did his children, and his livestock?"

<sup>13</sup> Jesus answered her, "Everyone who drinks of this water will thirst again, <sup>14</sup> but whoever drinks of the water that I will give him will never thirst again; but the water that I will give him will become in him a well of water springing up to eternal life."

<sup>15</sup> The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I don't get thirsty, neither come all the way here to draw."

Jesus said to her, "You said well, 'I have no husband,' <sup>18</sup> for you have had five husbands; and he whom you now have is not your husband. This you have said truly."

<sup>19</sup> The woman said to him, "Sir, I perceive that you are a prophet. <sup>20</sup> Our fathers worshiped in this mountain, and you Jews say that in Jerusalem is the place where people ought to worship."

<sup>21</sup> Jesus said to her, "Woman, believe me, the hour comes, when neither in this mountain, nor in Jerusalem, will you worship the Father. <sup>22</sup> You worship that which you don't know. We worship that which we know; for salvation is from the Jews. <sup>23</sup> But the hour comes, and now is, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father seeks such to be his worshipers. <sup>24</sup> God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth."

<sup>25</sup> The woman said to him, "I know that Messiah comes, he who is called Christ. When he has come, he will declare to us all things."

<sup>26</sup> Jesus said to her, "I am he, the one who speaks to you." <sup>27</sup> At this, his disciples came. They marveled that he was speaking with a woman; yet no one said, "What are you looking for?" or, "Why do you speak with her?" <sup>28</sup> So the woman left her water pot, and went away into the city, and said to the people, <sup>29</sup> "Come, see a man who told me everything that I did. Can this be the Christ?"

<sup>30</sup> They went out of the city, and were coming to him. <sup>31</sup> In the meanwhile, the disciples urged him, saying, "Rabbi, eat."

<sup>32</sup> But he said to them, "I have food to eat that you don't know about."

<sup>33</sup> The disciples therefore said to one another, "Has anyone brought him something to eat?"

<sup>34</sup> Jesus said to them, "My food is to do the will of him who sent me, and to accomplish his work. <sup>35</sup> Don't you say, 'There are yet four months until the harvest?' Behold, I tell you, lift up your eyes, and look at the fields, that they are white for harvest already. <sup>36</sup> He who reaps receives wages, and gathers fruit to eternal life; that both he who sows and he who reaps may rejoice together. <sup>37</sup> For in this the saying is true, 'One sows, and another reaps.' <sup>38</sup> I sent you to reap that for which you haven't labored. Others have labored, and you have entered into their labor."

<sup>39</sup> From that city many of the Samaritans believed in him because of the word of the woman, who testified, "He told me everything that I did." <sup>40</sup> So when the Samaritans came to him, they begged him to stay with them. He stayed there two days. <sup>41</sup> Many more believed because of his word. <sup>42</sup> They said to the woman, "Now we believe, not because of your speaking; for we have heard for ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Savior of the world."

<sup>43</sup> After the two days he went out from there and went into Galilee. <sup>44</sup> For Jesus himself testified that a prophet has no honor in his own country. <sup>45</sup> So when he came into Galilee, the Galileans received him, having seen all the things that he did in Jerusalem at the feast, for they also went to the feast. <sup>46</sup> Jesus came therefore again to Cana of Galilee, where he made the water into wine. There was a certain nobleman whose son was sick at Capernaum. <sup>47</sup> When he heard that Jesus had come out of Judea into Galilee, he went to him, and begged him that he would come down and heal his son, for he was at the point of death. <sup>48</sup> Jesus therefore said to him, "Unless you see signs and wonders, you will in no way believe."

<sup>49</sup> The nobleman said to him, "Sir, come down before my child dies." <sup>50</sup> Jesus said to him, "Go your way. Your son lives." The man believed the word that Jesus spoke to him, and he went his way. <sup>51</sup> As he was now going down, his servants met him and reported, saying “Your child lives!”<sup>52</sup> So he inquired of them the hour when he began to get better. They said therefore to him, “Yesterday at the seventh hour,<sup>k</sup> the fever left him.”<sup>53</sup> So the father knew that it was at that hour in which Jesus said to him, “Your son lives.” He believed, as did his whole house.<sup>54</sup> This is again the second sign that Jesus did, having come out of Judea into Galilee.

<sup>1</sup> After these things, there was a feast of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.<sup>2</sup> Now in Jerusalem by the sheep gate, there is a pool, which is called in Hebrew, “Bethesda”, having five porches.<sup>3</sup> In these lay a great multitude of those who were sick, blind, lame, or paralyzed, waiting for the moving of the water;<sup>4</sup> for an angel went down at certain times into the pool, and stirred up the water. Whoever stepped in first after the stirring of the water was healed of whatever disease he had.<sup>1 5</sup> A certain man was there, who had been sick for thirty-eight years.<sup>6</sup> When Jesus saw him lying there, and knew that he had been sick for a long time, he asked him, “Do you want to be made well?”

<sup>9</sup> Immediately, the man was made well, and took up his mat and walked.

Now it was the Sabbath on that day.<sup>10</sup> So the Jews said to him who was cured, “It is the Sabbath. It is not lawful for you to carry the mat.”

<sup>11</sup> He answered them, “He who made me well, the same said to me, ‘Take up your mat, and walk.’”

<sup>12</sup> Then they asked him, “Who is the man who said to you, ‘Take up your mat, and walk?’”

<sup>13</sup> But he who was healed didn’t know who it was, for Jesus had withdrawn, a crowd being in the place.

<sup>14</sup> Afterward Jesus found him in the temple, and said to him, “Behold, you are made well. Sin no more, so that nothing worse happens to you.”

<sup>15</sup> The man went away, and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had made him well.<sup>16</sup> For this cause the Jews persecuted Jesus, and sought to kill him, because he did these things on the Sabbath.<sup>17</sup> But Jesus answered them, “My Father is still working, so I am working, too.”<sup>18</sup> For this cause therefore the Jews sought all the more to kill him, because he not only broke the Sabbath, but also called God his own Father, making himself equal with God.<sup>19</sup> Jesus therefore answered them, “Most certainly, I tell you, the Son can do nothing of himself, but what he sees the Father doing. For whatever things he does, these the Son also does likewise.<sup>20</sup> For the Father has affection for the Son, and shows him all things that he himself does. He will show him greater works than these, that you may marvel.<sup>21</sup> For as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, even so the Son also gives life to whom he desires.<sup>22</sup> For the Father judges no one, but he has given all judgment to the Son,<sup>23</sup> that all may honor the Son, even as they honor the Father. He who doesn't honor the Son doesn't honor the Father who sent him.

<sup>24</sup> "Most certainly I tell you, he who hears my word, and believes him who sent me, has eternal life, and doesn't come into judgment, but has passed out of death into life. <sup>25</sup> Most certainly, I tell you, the hour comes, and now is, when the dead will hear the Son of God's voice; and those who hear will live. <sup>26</sup> For as the Father has life in himself, even so he gave to the Son also to have life in himself. <sup>27</sup> He also gave him authority to execute judgment, because he is a son of man. <sup>28</sup> Don't marvel at this, for the hour comes, in which all that are in the tombs will hear his voice, <sup>29</sup> and will come out; those who have done good, to the resurrection of life; and those who have done evil, to the resurrection of judgment. <sup>30</sup> I can of myself do nothing. As I hear, I judge, and my judgment is righteous; because I don't seek my own will, but the will of my Father who sent me.

<sup>31</sup> "If I testify about myself, my witness is not valid. <sup>32</sup> It is another who testifies about me. I know that the testimony which he testifies about me is true. <sup>33</sup> You have sent to John, and he has testified to the truth. <sup>34</sup> But the testimony which I receive is not from man. However, I say these things that you may be saved. <sup>35</sup> He was the burning and shining lamp, and you were willing to rejoice for a while in his light. <sup>36</sup> But the testimony which I have is greater than that of John, for the works which the Father gave me to accomplish, the very works that I do, testify about me, that the Father has sent me. <sup>37</sup> The Father himself, who sent me, has testified about me. You have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his form. <sup>38</sup> You don't have his word living in you; because you don't believe him whom he sent.

<sup>39</sup> "You search the Scriptures, because you think that in them you have eternal life; and these are they which testify about me. <sup>40</sup> Yet you will not come to me, that you may have life. <sup>41</sup> I don't receive glory from men. <sup>42</sup> But I know you, that you don't have God's love in yourselves. <sup>43</sup> I have come in my Father's name, and you don't receive me. If another comes in his own name, you will receive him. <sup>44</sup> How can you believe, who receive glory from one another, and you don't seek the glory that comes from the only God?

<sup>45</sup> "Don't think that I will accuse you to the Father. There is one who accuses you, even Moses, on whom you have set your hope. <sup>46</sup> For if you believed Moses, you would believe me; for he wrote about me. <sup>47</sup> But if you don't believe his writings, how will you believe my words?"

6

<sup>1</sup> After these things, Jesus went away to the other side of the sea of Galilee, which is also called the Sea of Tiberias. <sup>2</sup> A great multitude followed him, because they saw his signs which he did on those who were sick. <sup>3</sup> Jesus went up into the mountain, and he sat there with his disciples. <sup>4</sup> Now the Passover, the feast of the Jews, was at hand. <sup>5</sup> Jesus therefore lifting up his eyes, and seeing that a great multitude was coming to him, said to Philip, "Where are we to buy bread, that these may eat?" <sup>6</sup> This he said to test him, for he himself knew what he would do.

<sup>8</sup> One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter’s brother, said to him, <sup>9</sup> “There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish, but what are these among so many?”

<sup>10</sup> Jesus said, “Have the people sit down.” Now there was much grass in that place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand. <sup>11</sup> Jesus took the loaves; and having given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to those who were sitting down; likewise also of the fish as much as they desired. <sup>12</sup> When they were filled, he said to his disciples, “Gather up the broken pieces which are left over, that nothing be lost.” <sup>13</sup> So they gathered them up, and filled twelve baskets with broken pieces from the five barley loaves, which were left over by those who had eaten. <sup>14</sup> When therefore the people saw the sign which Jesus did, they said, “This is truly the prophet who comes into the world.” <sup>15</sup> Jesus therefore, perceiving that they were about to come and take him by force, to make him king, withdrew again to the mountain by himself.

<sup>16</sup> When evening came, his disciples went down to the sea, <sup>17</sup> and they entered into the boat, and were going over the sea to Capernaum. It was now dark, and Jesus had not come to them. <sup>18</sup> The sea was tossed by a great wind blowing. <sup>19</sup> When therefore they had rowed about twenty-five or thirty stadia, <sup>m</sup> they saw Jesus walking on the sea, <sup>1</sup> and drawing near to the boat; and they were afraid. <sup>20</sup> But he said to them, “It is I.<sup>n</sup> Don’t be afraid.” <sup>21</sup> They were willing therefore to receive him into the boat. Immediately the boat was at the land where they were going.

<sup>22</sup> On the next day, the multitude that stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was no other boat there, except the one in which his disciples had embarked, and that Jesus hadn’t entered with his disciples into the boat, but his disciples had gone away alone. <sup>23</sup> However boats from Tiberias came near to the place where they ate the bread after the Lord had given thanks. <sup>24</sup> When the multitude therefore saw that Jesus wasn’t there, nor his disciples, they themselves got into the boats, and came to Capernaum, seeking Jesus. <sup>25</sup> When they found him on the other side of the sea, they asked him, “Rabbi, when did you come here?”

<sup>26</sup> Jesus answered them, “Most certainly I tell you, you seek me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate of the loaves, and were filled. <sup>27</sup> Don’t work for the food which perishes, but for the food which remains to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give to you. For God the Father has sealed him.”

<sup>28</sup> They said therefore to him, “What must we do, that we may work the works of God?”

<sup>29</sup> Jesus answered them, “This is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he has sent.”

<sup>30</sup> They said therefore to him, “What then do you do for a sign, that we may see, and believe you? What work do you do? <sup>31</sup> Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness. As it is written, ‘He gave them bread out of heaven<sup>o</sup> to eat.’”<sup>2</sup>

<sup>m</sup> 25 to 30 stadia is about 5 to 6 kilometers or about 3 to 4 miles <sup>l</sup> see Job 9:8 <sup>n</sup> or, I AM

<sup>32</sup> Jesus therefore said to them, “Most certainly, I tell you, it wasn’t Moses who gave you the bread out of heaven, but my Father gives you the true bread out of heaven. <sup>33</sup> For the bread of God is that which comes down out of heaven, and gives life to the world.”

<sup>35</sup> Jesus said to them, “I am the bread of life. He who comes to me will not be hungry, and he who believes in me will never be thirsty. <sup>36</sup> But I told you that you have seen me, and yet you don’t believe. <sup>37</sup> All those whom the Father gives me will come to me. He who comes to me I will in no way throw out. <sup>38</sup> For I have come down from heaven, not to do my own will, but the will of him who sent me. <sup>39</sup> This is the will of my Father who sent me, that of all he has given to me I should lose nothing, but should raise him up at the last day. <sup>40</sup> This is the will of the one who sent me, that everyone who sees the Son, and believes in him, should have eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day.”

<sup>41</sup> The Jews therefore murmured concerning him, because he said, “I am the bread which came down out of heaven.” <sup>42</sup> They said, “Isn’t this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How then does he say, ‘I have come down out of heaven?’”

<sup>43</sup> Therefore Jesus answered them, “Don’t murmur among yourselves. <sup>44</sup> No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him, and I will raise him up in the last day. <sup>45</sup> It is written in the prophets, ‘They will all be taught by God.’

<sup>3</sup> Therefore everyone who hears from the Father, and has learned, comes to me. <sup>46</sup> Not that anyone has seen the Father, except he who is from God. He has seen the Father. <sup>47</sup> Most certainly, I tell you, he who believes in me has eternal life. <sup>48</sup> I am the bread of life. <sup>49</sup> Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died. <sup>50</sup> This is the bread which comes down out of heaven, that anyone may eat of it and not die. <sup>51</sup> I am the living bread which came down out of heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever. Yes, the bread which I will give for the life of the world is my flesh.”

<sup>53</sup> Jesus therefore said to them, “Most certainly I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you don’t have life in yourselves. <sup>54</sup> He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. <sup>55</sup> For my flesh is food indeed, and my blood is drink indeed. <sup>56</sup> He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood lives in me, and I in him. <sup>57</sup> As the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father; so he who feeds on me, he will also live because of me. <sup>58</sup> This is the bread which came down out of heaven—not as our fathers ate the manna, and died. He who eats this bread will live forever.” <sup>59</sup> He said these things in the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.

<sup>60</sup> Therefore many of his disciples, when they heard this, said, "This is a hard saying! Who can listen to it?"

<sup>61</sup> But Jesus knowing in himself that his disciples murmured at this, said to them, "Does this cause you to stumble? <sup>62</sup> Then what if you would see the Son of Man ascending to where he was before? <sup>63</sup> It is the spirit who gives life. The flesh profits nothing. The words that I speak to you are spirit, and are life. <sup>64</sup> But there are some of you who don't believe." For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were who didn't believe, and who it was who would betray him. <sup>65</sup> He said, "For this cause have I said to you that no one can come to me, unless it is given to him by my Father."

<sup>68</sup> Simon Peter answered him, "Lord, to whom would we go? You have the words of eternal life. <sup>69</sup> We have come to believe and know that you are the Christ, the Son of the living God."

<sup>70</sup> Jesus answered them, "Didn't I choose you, the twelve, and one of you is a devil?"

<sup>71</sup> Now he spoke of Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot, for it was he who would betray him, being one of the twelve.

7

<sup>1</sup> After these things, Jesus was walking in Galilee, for he wouldn't walk in Judea, because the Jews sought to kill him. <sup>2</sup> Now the feast of the Jews, the Feast of Booths, was at hand. <sup>3</sup> His brothers therefore said to him, "Depart from here, and go into Judea, that your disciples also may see your works which you do. <sup>4</sup> For no one does anything in secret, and himself seeks to be known openly. If you do these things, reveal yourself to the world." <sup>5</sup> For even his brothers didn't believe in him.

<sup>6</sup> Jesus therefore said to them, "My time has not yet come, but your time is always ready. <sup>7</sup> The world can't hate you, but it hates me, because I testify about it, that its works are evil. <sup>8</sup> You go up to the feast. I am not yet going up to this feast, because my time is not yet fulfilled."

<sup>9</sup> Having said these things to them, he stayed in Galilee. <sup>10</sup> But when his brothers had gone up to the feast, then he also went up, not publicly, but as it were in secret. <sup>11</sup> The Jews therefore sought him at the feast, and said, "Where is he?" <sup>12</sup> There was much murmuring among the multitudes concerning him. Some said, "He is a good man." Others said, "Not so, but he leads the multitude astray." <sup>13</sup> Yet no one spoke openly of him for fear of the Jews. <sup>14</sup> But when it was now the middle of the feast, Jesus went up into the temple and taught. <sup>15</sup> The Jews therefore marveled, saying, "How does this man know letters, having never been educated?"

<sup>16</sup> Jesus therefore answered them, "My teaching is not mine, but his who sent me. <sup>17</sup> If anyone desires to do his will, he will know about the teaching, whether it is from God, or if I am speaking from myself. <sup>18</sup> He who speaks from himself seeks his own glory, but he who seeks the glory of him who sent him is true, and no unrighteousness is in him. <sup>19</sup> Didn't Moses give you the law, and yet none of you keeps the law? Why do you seek to kill me?"

<sup>20</sup> The multitude answered, "You have a demon! Who seeks to kill you?"

<sup>21</sup> Jesus answered them, "I did one work, and you all marvel because of it. <sup>22</sup> Moses has given you circumcision (not that it is of Moses, but of the fathers), and on the Sabbath you circumcise a boy. <sup>23</sup> If a boy receives circumcision on the Sabbath, that the law of Moses may not be broken, are you angry with me, because I made a man completely healthy on the Sabbath? <sup>24</sup> Don't judge according to appearance, but judge righteous judgment."

<sup>28</sup> Jesus therefore cried out in the temple, teaching and saying, "You both know me, and know where I am from. I have not come of myself, but he who sent me is true, whom you don't know. <sup>29</sup> I know him, because I am from him, and he sent me."

<sup>30</sup> They sought therefore to take him; but no one laid a hand on him, because his hour had not yet come. <sup>31</sup> But of the multitude, many believed in him. They said, "When the Christ comes, he won't do more signs than those which this man has done, will he?" <sup>32</sup> The Pharisees heard the multitude murmuring these things concerning him, and the chief priests and the Pharisees sent officers to arrest him.

<sup>33</sup> Then Jesus said, "I will be with you a little while longer, then I go to him who sent me. <sup>34</sup> You will seek me, and won't find me; and where I am, you can't come."

<sup>35</sup> The Jews therefore said among themselves, "Where will this man go that we won't find him? Will he go to the Dispersion among the Greeks, and teach the Greeks? <sup>36</sup> What is this word that he said, 'You will seek me, and won't find me; and where I am, you can't come'?"

<sup>37</sup> Now on the last and greatest day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried out, "If anyone is thirsty, let him come to me and drink! <sup>38</sup> He who believes in me, as the Scripture has said, from within him will flow rivers of living water." <sup>39</sup> But he said this about the Spirit, which those believing in him were to receive. For the Holy Spirit was not yet given, because Jesus wasn't yet glorified.

<sup>40</sup> Many of the multitude therefore, when they heard these words, said, "This is truly the prophet." <sup>41</sup> Others said, "This is the Christ." But some said, "What, does the Christ come out of Galilee? <sup>42</sup> Hasn't the Scripture said that the Christ comes of the offspring<sup>p</sup> of David, <sup>1</sup> and from Bethlehem,<sup>2</sup> the village where David was?" <sup>43</sup> So there arose a division in the multitude because of him. <sup>44</sup> Some of them would have arrested him, but no one laid hands on him. <sup>45</sup> The officers therefore came to the chief priests and Pharisees, and they said to them, "Why didn't you bring him?"

<sup>48</sup> Have any of the rulers believed in him, or of the Pharisees? <sup>49</sup> But this multitude that doesn't know the law is accursed."

<sup>50</sup> Nicodemus (he who came to him by night, being one of them) said to them, <sup>51</sup> "Does our law judge a man, unless it first hears from him personally and knows what he does?"

<sup>52</sup> They answered him, "Are you also from Galilee? Search, and see that no prophet has arisen out of Galilee."<sup>3</sup>

<sup>53</sup> Everyone went to his own house,

8

<sup>1</sup> but Jesus went to the Mount of Olives. <sup>2</sup> Now very early in the morning, he came again into the temple, and all the people came to him. He sat down, and taught them. <sup>3</sup> The scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman taken in adultery. Having set her in the middle, <sup>4</sup> they told him, "Teacher, we found this woman in adultery, in the very act. <sup>5</sup> Now in our law, Moses commanded us to stone such women.<sup>1</sup> What then do you say about her?" <sup>6</sup> They said this testing him, that they might have something to accuse him of.

But Jesus stooped down, and wrote on the ground with his finger. <sup>7</sup> But when they continued asking him, he looked up and said to them, "He who is without sin among you, let him throw the first stone at her."<sup>8</sup> Again he stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground.

<sup>9</sup> They, when they heard it, being convicted by their conscience, went out one by one, beginning from the oldest, even to the last. Jesus was left alone with the woman where she was, in the middle. <sup>10</sup> Jesus, standing up, saw her and said,

"Woman, where are your accusers? Did no one condemn you?"

Jesus said, "Neither do I condemn you. Go your way. From now on, sin no more."<sup>9</sup>

<sup>12</sup> Again, therefore, Jesus spoke to them, saying, "I am the light of the world.<sup>2</sup> He who follows me will not walk in the darkness, but will have the light of life."

<sup>14</sup> Jesus answered them, "Even if I testify about myself, my testimony is true, for I know where I came from, and where I am going; but you don't know where I came from, or where I am going. <sup>15</sup> You judge according to the flesh. I judge no one. <sup>16</sup> Even if I do judge, my judgment is true, for I am not alone, but I am with the Father who sent me. <sup>17</sup> It's also written in your law that the testimony of two people is valid.<sup>3</sup> <sup>18</sup> I am one who testifies about myself, and the Father who sent me testifies about me."

<sup>19</sup> They said therefore to him, "Where is your Father?"

Jesus answered, "You know neither me, nor my Father. If you knew me, you would know my Father also."<sup>20</sup> Jesus spoke these words in the treasury, as he taught in the temple. Yet no one arrested him, because his hour had not yet come. <sup>21</sup> Jesus said therefore again to them, "I am going away, and you will seek me, and you will die in your sins. Where I go, you can't come."

<sup>22</sup> The Jews therefore said, "Will he kill himself, that he says, 'Where I am going, you can't come'?"

John 8-11. <sup>2</sup> Isaiah 60:1 <sup>3</sup> Deuteronomy 17:6; 19:15

<sup>23</sup> He said to them, “You are from beneath. I am from above. You are of this world. I am not of this world. <sup>24</sup> I said therefore to you that you will die in your sins; for unless you believe that I am<sup>r</sup> he, you will die in your sins.”

<sup>25</sup> They said therefore to him, “Who are you?”

Jesus said to them, “Just what I have been saying to you from the beginning. <sup>26</sup> I have many things to speak and to judge concerning you. However he who sent me is true; and the things which I heard from him, these I say to the world.”

<sup>27</sup> They didn’t understand that he spoke to them about the Father. <sup>28</sup> Jesus therefore said to them, “When you have lifted up the Son of Man, then you will know that I am he, and I do nothing of myself, but as my Father taught me, I say these things. <sup>29</sup> He who sent me is with me. The Father hasn’t left me alone, for I always do the things that are pleasing to him.”

<sup>30</sup> As he spoke these things, many believed in him. <sup>31</sup> Jesus therefore said to those Jews who had believed him, “If you remain in my word, then you are truly my disciples. <sup>32</sup> You will know the truth, and the truth will make you free.”<sup>4</sup>

<sup>33</sup> They answered him, “We are Abraham’s offspring,<sup>s</sup> and have never been in bondage to anyone. How do you say, ‘You will be made free’?”

<sup>34</sup> Jesus answered them, “Most certainly I tell you, everyone who commits sin is the bondservant of sin. <sup>35</sup> A bondservant doesn’t live in the house forever. A son remains forever. <sup>36</sup> If therefore the Son makes you free, you will be free indeed. <sup>37</sup>

I know that you are Abraham’s offspring,<sup>t</sup> yet you seek to kill me, because my word finds no place in you. <sup>38</sup> I say the things which I have seen with my Father; and you also do the things which you have seen with your father.”

Jesus said to them, “If you were Abraham’s children, you would do the works of Abraham. <sup>40</sup> But now you seek to kill me, a man who has told you the truth, which I heard from God. Abraham didn’t do this. <sup>41</sup> You do the works of your father.”

They said to him, “We were not born of sexual immorality. We have one Father, God.”

<sup>42</sup> Therefore Jesus said to them, “If God were your father, you would love me, for I came out and have come from God. For I haven’t come of myself, but he sent me. <sup>43</sup> Why don’t you understand my speech? Because you can’t hear my word. <sup>44</sup> You are of your father, the devil, and you want to do the desires of your father. He was a murderer from the beginning, and doesn’t stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks on his own; for he is a liar, and its father. <sup>45</sup> But because I tell the truth, you don’t believe me. <sup>46</sup> Which of you convicts me of sin? If I tell the truth, why do you not believe me? <sup>47</sup> He who is of God hears the words of God. For this cause you don’t hear, because you are not of God.”

<sup>48</sup> Then the Jews answered him, “Don’t we say well that you are a Samaritan, and have a demon?”

<sup>49</sup> Jesus answered, "I don't have a demon, but I honor my Father, and you dishonor me. <sup>50</sup> But I don't seek my own glory. There is one who seeks and judges. <sup>51</sup> Most certainly, I tell you, if a person keeps my word, he will never see death."

<sup>52</sup> Then the Jews said to him, "Now we know that you have a demon. Abraham died, and the prophets; and you say, 'If a man keeps my word, he will never taste of death.' <sup>53</sup> Are you greater than our father, Abraham, who died? The prophets died. Who do you make yourself out to be?"

<sup>54</sup> Jesus answered, "If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing. It is my Father who glorifies me, of whom you say that he is our God. <sup>55</sup> You have not known him, but I know him. If I said, 'I don't know him,' I would be like you, a liar. But I know him, and keep his word. <sup>56</sup> Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day. He saw it, and was glad."

<sup>57</sup> The Jews therefore said to him, "You are not yet fifty years old, and have you seen Abraham?"

<sup>58</sup> Jesus said to them, "Most certainly, I tell you, before Abraham came into existence, I AM."<sup>u</sup>

<sup>59</sup> Therefore they took up stones to throw at him, but Jesus was hidden, and went out of the temple, having gone through the middle of them, and so passed by.

9

<sup>3</sup> Jesus answered, "Neither did this man sin, nor his parents; but, that the works of God might be revealed in him. <sup>4</sup> I must work the works of him who sent me, while it is day. The night is coming, when no one can work. <sup>5</sup> While I am in the world, I am the light of the world." <sup>6</sup> When he had said this, he spat on the ground, made mud with the saliva, anointed the blind man's eyes with the mud, <sup>7</sup> and said to him, "Go, wash in the pool of Siloam" (which means "Sent"). So he went away, washed, and came back seeing. <sup>8</sup> The neighbors therefore, and those who saw that he was blind before, said, "Isn't this he who sat and begged?" <sup>9</sup> Others were saying, "It is he." Still others were saying, "He looks like him."

He said, "I am he." <sup>10</sup> They therefore were asking him, "How were your eyes opened?"

<sup>11</sup> He answered, "A man called Jesus made mud, anointed my eyes, and said to me, 'Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash.' So I went away and washed, and I received sight."

<sup>12</sup> Then they asked him, "Where is he?"

He said, "I don't know."

<sup>13</sup> They brought him who had been blind to the Pharisees. <sup>14</sup> It was a Sabbath when Jesus made the mud and opened his eyes. <sup>15</sup> Again therefore the Pharisees also asked him how he received his sight. He said to them, "He put mud on my eyes, I washed, and I see."

<sup>16</sup> Some therefore of the Pharisees said, "This man is not from God, because he doesn't keep the Sabbath." Others said, "How can a man who is a sinner do such signs?” There was division among them.<sup>17</sup> Therefore they asked the blind man again, “What do you say about him, because he opened your eyes?”

<sup>u</sup> or, I am

He said, “He is a prophet.”

<sup>18</sup> The Jews therefore did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and had received his sight, until they called the parents of him who had received his sight,<sup>19</sup> and asked them, “Is this your son, whom you say was born blind? How then does he now see?”

<sup>20</sup> His parents answered them, “We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind; <sup>21</sup> but how he now sees, we don’t know; or who opened his eyes, we don’t know. He is of age. Ask him. He will speak for himself.” <sup>22</sup> His parents said these things because they feared the Jews; for the Jews had already agreed that if any man would confess him as Christ, he would be put out of the synagogue. <sup>23</sup> Therefore his parents said, “He is of age. Ask him.”

<sup>24</sup> So they called the man who was blind a second time, and said to him, “Give glory to God. We know that this man is a sinner.”

<sup>25</sup> He therefore answered, “I don’t know if he is a sinner. One thing I do know: that though I was blind, now I see.”

<sup>26</sup> They said to him again, “What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?”

<sup>27</sup> He answered them, “I told you already, and you didn’t listen. Why do you want to hear it again? You don’t also want to become his disciples, do you?”

<sup>28</sup> They insulted him and said, “You are his disciple, but we are disciples of Moses. <sup>29</sup> We know that God has spoken to Moses. But as for this man, we don’t know where he comes from.”

<sup>30</sup> The man answered them, “How amazing! You don’t know where he comes from, yet he opened my eyes. <sup>31</sup> We know that God doesn’t listen to sinners, but if anyone is a worshiper of God, and does his will, he listens to him.<sup>1</sup> <sup>32</sup> Since the world began it has never been heard of that anyone opened the eyes of someone born blind. <sup>33</sup> If this man were not from God, he could do nothing.”

<sup>34</sup> They answered him, “You were altogether born in sins, and do you teach us?” They threw him out.

<sup>35</sup> Jesus heard that they had thrown him out, and finding him, he said, “Do you believe in the Son of God?”

<sup>36</sup> He answered, “Who is he, Lord, that I may believe in him?”

<sup>37</sup> Jesus said to him, “You have both seen him, and it is he who speaks with you.”

<sup>38</sup> He said, “Lord, I believe!” and he worshiped him.

<sup>39</sup> Jesus said, “I came into this world for judgment, that those who don’t see may see; and that those who see may become blind.”

<sup>40</sup> Those of the Pharisees who were with him heard these things, and said to him, “Are we also blind?”

<sup>41</sup> Jesus said to them, “If you were blind, you would have no sin; but now you say, ‘We see.’ Therefore your sin remains.”

10

<sup>1</sup> “Most certainly, I tell you, one who doesn’t enter by the door into the sheep fold, but climbs up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. <sup>2</sup> But one who enters in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep. <sup>3</sup> The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep listen to his voice. He calls his own sheep by name, and leads them out. <sup>4</sup> Whenever he brings out his own sheep, he goes before them, and the sheep follow him, for they know his voice. <sup>5</sup> They will by no means follow a stranger, but will flee from him; for they don't know the voice of strangers." <sup>6</sup> Jesus spoke this parable to them, but they didn't understand what he was telling them.

<sup>7</sup> Jesus therefore said to them again, "Most certainly, I tell you, I am the sheep's door. <sup>8</sup> All who came before me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep didn't listen to them. <sup>9</sup> I am the door. If anyone enters in by me, he will be saved, and will go in and go out, and will find pasture. <sup>10</sup> The thief only comes to steal, kill, and destroy. I came that they may have life, and may have it abundantly. <sup>11</sup> I am the good shepherd. <sup>1</sup> The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. <sup>12</sup> He who is a hired hand, and not a shepherd, who doesn't own the sheep, sees the wolf coming, leaves the sheep, and flees. The wolf snatches the sheep, and scatters them. <sup>13</sup> The hired hand flees because he is a hired hand, and doesn't care for the sheep. <sup>14</sup> I am the good shepherd. I know my own, and I'm known by my own; <sup>15</sup> even as the Father knows me, and I know the Father. I lay down my life for the sheep. <sup>16</sup> I have other sheep, which are not of this fold. <sup>2</sup> I must bring them also, and they will hear my voice. They will become one flock with one shepherd. <sup>17</sup> Therefore the Father loves me, because I lay down my life, <sup>3</sup> that I may take it again. <sup>18</sup> No one takes it away from me, but I lay it down by myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. I received this commandment from my Father."

<sup>19</sup> Therefore a division arose again among the Jews because of these words. <sup>20</sup> Many of them said, "He has a demon, and is insane! Why do you listen to him?" <sup>21</sup> Others said, "These are not the sayings of one possessed by a demon. It isn't possible for a demon to open the eyes of the blind, is it?"<sup>4</sup>

<sup>22</sup> It was the Feast of the Dedication<sup>v</sup> at Jerusalem. <sup>23</sup> It was winter, and Jesus was walking in the temple, in Solomon's porch. <sup>24</sup> The Jews therefore came around him and said to him, "How long will you hold us in suspense? If you are the Christ, tell us plainly."

<sup>25</sup> Jesus answered them, "I told you, and you don't believe. The works that I do in my Father's name, these testify about me. <sup>26</sup> But you don't believe, because you are not of my sheep, as I told you. <sup>27</sup> My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. <sup>28</sup> I give eternal life to them. They will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of my hand. <sup>29</sup> My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all. No one is able to snatch them out of my Father's hand. <sup>30</sup> I and the Father are one."

<sup>31</sup> Therefore Jews took up stones again to stone him. <sup>32</sup> Jesus answered them, "I have shown you many good works from my Father. For which of those works do you stone me?"

<sup>33</sup> The Jews answered him, “We don’t stone you for a good work, but for blasphemy: because you, being a man, make yourself God.”

<sup>34</sup> Jesus answered them, “Isn’t it written in your law, ‘I said, you are gods?’<sup>5</sup> <sup>35</sup> If he called them gods, to whom the word of God came (and the Scripture can’t be broken), <sup>36</sup> do you say of him whom the Father sanctified and sent into the world, ‘You blaspheme,’ because I said, ‘I am the Son of God?’ <sup>37</sup> If I don’t do the works of my Father, don’t believe me. <sup>38</sup> But if I do them, though you don’t believe me, believe the works; that you may know and believe that the Father is in me, and I in the Father.”

<sup>39</sup> They sought again to seize him, and he went out of their hand. <sup>40</sup> He went away again beyond the Jordan into the place where John was baptizing at first, and there he stayed. <sup>41</sup> Many came to him. They said, “John indeed did no sign, but everything that John said about this man is true.” <sup>42</sup> Many believed in him there.

11

sister, and Lazarus. <sup>6</sup> When therefore he heard that he was sick, he stayed two days in the place where he was. <sup>7</sup> Then after this he said to the disciples, “Let’s go into Judea again.”

<sup>8</sup> The disciples told him, “Rabbi, the Jews were just trying to stone you, and are you going there again?”

<sup>9</sup> Jesus answered, “Aren’t there twelve hours of daylight? If a man walks in the day, he doesn’t stumble, because he sees the light of this world. <sup>10</sup> But if a man walks in the night, he stumbles, because the light isn’t in him.” <sup>11</sup> He said these things, and after that, he said to them, “Our friend, Lazarus, has fallen asleep, but I am going so that I may awake him out of sleep.”

<sup>12</sup> The disciples therefore said, “Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will recover.”

<sup>13</sup> Now Jesus had spoken of his death, but they thought that he spoke of taking rest in sleep. <sup>14</sup> So Jesus said to them plainly then, “Lazarus is dead. <sup>15</sup> I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, so that you may believe. Nevertheless, let’s go to him.”

<sup>16</sup> Thomas therefore, who is called Didymus,<sup>w</sup> said to his fellow disciples, “Let’s go also, that we may die with him.”

<sup>17</sup> So when Jesus came, he found that he had been in the tomb four days already. <sup>18</sup> Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, about fifteen stadia<sup>x</sup> away. <sup>19</sup> Many of the Jews had joined the women around Martha and Mary, to console them concerning their brother. <sup>20</sup> Then when Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went and met him, but Mary stayed in the house. <sup>21</sup> Therefore Martha said to Jesus, “Lord, if you would have been here, my brother wouldn’t have died. <sup>22</sup> Even now I know that, whatever you ask of God, God will give you.” <sup>23</sup> Jesus said to her, “Your brother will rise again.”

<sup>24</sup> Martha said to him, “I know that he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day.”

<sup>25</sup> Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me will still live, even if he dies. <sup>26</sup> Whoever lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?”

<sup>27</sup> She said to him, “Yes, Lord. I have come to believe that you are the Christ, God’s Son, he who comes into the world.”

<sup>28</sup> When she had said this, she went away, and called Mary, her sister, secretly, saying, “The Teacher is here, and is calling you.”

<sup>29</sup> When she heard this, she arose quickly, and went to him. <sup>30</sup> Now Jesus had not yet come into the village, but was in the place where Martha met him. <sup>31</sup> Then the Jews who were with her in the house, and were consoling her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up quickly and went out, followed her, saying, “She is going to the tomb to weep there.” <sup>32</sup> Therefore when Mary came to where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying to him, “Lord, if you would have been here, my brother wouldn’t have died.”

<sup>33</sup> When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews weeping who came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled, <sup>34</sup> and said, “Where have you laid him?”

They told him, “Lord, come and see.”

<sup>36</sup> The Jews therefore said, “See how much affection he had for him!” <sup>37</sup> Some of them said, “Couldn’t this man, who opened the eyes of him who was blind, have also kept this man from dying?”

<sup>38</sup> Jesus therefore, again groaning in himself, came to the tomb. Now it was a cave, and a stone lay against it. <sup>39</sup> Jesus said, “Take away the stone.”

Martha, the sister of him who was dead, said to him, “Lord, by this time there is a stench, for he has been dead four days.”

<sup>40</sup> Jesus said to her, “Didn’t I tell you that if you believed, you would see God’s glory?”

<sup>41</sup> So they took away the stone from the place where the dead man was lying.<sup>y</sup> Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, “Father, I thank you that you listened to me. <sup>42</sup> I know that you always listen to me, but because of the multitude that stands around I said this, that they may believe that you sent me.” <sup>43</sup> When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, “Lazarus, come out!”

<sup>44</sup> He who was dead came out, bound hand and foot with wrappings, and his face was wrapped around with a cloth.

Jesus said to them, “Free him, and let him go.”

<sup>45</sup> Therefore many of the Jews, who came to Mary and saw what Jesus did, believed in him. <sup>46</sup> But some of them went away to the Pharisees, and told them the things which Jesus had done. <sup>47</sup> The chief priests therefore and the Pharisees gathered a council, and said, “What are we doing? For this man does many signs. <sup>48</sup> If we leave him alone like this, everyone will believe in him, and the Romans will come and take away both our place and our nation.”

<sup>49</sup> But a certain one of them, Caiaphas, being high priest that year, said to them, “You know nothing at all, <sup>50</sup> nor do you consider that it is advantageous for us that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation not perish.” <sup>51</sup> Now he didn’t say this of himself, but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus would die for the nation, <sup>52</sup> and not for the nation only, but that he might also gather together into one the children of God who are scattered abroad. <sup>53</sup> So from that day forward they took counsel that they might put him to death. <sup>54</sup> Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Jews, but departed from there into the country near the wilderness, to a city called Ephraim. He stayed there with his disciples.

<sup>55</sup> Now the Passover of the Jews was at hand. Many went up from the country to Jerusalem before the Passover, to purify themselves. <sup>56</sup> Then they sought for Jesus and spoke one with another, as they stood in the temple, “What do you think—that he isn’t coming to the feast at all?” <sup>57</sup> Now the chief priests and the Pharisees had commanded that if anyone knew where he was, he should report it, that they might seize him.

12

<sup>1</sup> Then six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, where Lazarus was, who had been dead, whom he raised from the dead. <sup>2</sup> So they made him a supper there. Martha served, but Lazarus was one of those who sat at the table with him. <sup>3</sup>

Mary, therefore, took a pound<sup>z</sup> of ointment of pure nard, very precious, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the ointment. <sup>4</sup> Then Judas Iscariot, Simon’s son, one of his disciples, who would betray him, said, <sup>5</sup> “Why wasn’t this ointment sold for three hundred denarii,<sup>a</sup> and given to the poor?” <sup>6</sup> Now he said this, not because he cared for the poor, but because he was a thief, and having the money box, used to steal what was put into it. <sup>7</sup> But Jesus said, “Leave her alone. She has kept this for the day of my burial. <sup>8</sup> For you always have the poor with you, but you don’t always have me.”

<sup>9</sup> A large crowd therefore of the Jews learned that he was there, and they came, not for Jesus’ sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead. <sup>10</sup> But the chief priests conspired to put Lazarus to death also, <sup>11</sup> because on account of him many of the Jews went away and believed in Jesus.

<sup>12</sup> On the next day a great multitude had come to the feast. When they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, <sup>13</sup> they took the branches of the palm trees, and went out to meet him, and cried out, “Hosanna!<sup>b</sup> Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord,<sup>1</sup> the King of Israel!”

written about him, and that they had done these things to him. <sup>17</sup> The multitude therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of the tomb, and raised him from the dead, was testifying about it. <sup>18</sup> For this cause also the multitude went and met him, because they heard that he had done this sign. <sup>19</sup> The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, "See how you accomplish nothing. Behold, the world has gone after him."

<sup>20</sup> Now there were certain Greeks among those that went up to worship at the feast. <sup>21</sup> These, therefore, came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida of Galilee, and asked him, saying, "Sir, we want to see Jesus." <sup>22</sup> Philip came and told Andrew, and in turn, Andrew came with Philip, and they told Jesus. <sup>23</sup> Jesus answered them, "The time has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. <sup>24</sup> Most certainly I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains by itself alone. But if it dies, it bears much fruit. <sup>25</sup> He who loves his life will lose it. He who hates his life in this world will keep it to eternal life. <sup>26</sup> If anyone serves me, let him follow me. Where I am, there will my servant also be. If anyone serves me, the Father will honor him.

<sup>27</sup> "Now my soul is troubled. What shall I say? 'Father, save me from this time?' But for this cause I came to this time. <sup>28</sup> Father, glorify your name!"

Then there came a voice out of the sky, saying, "I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again."

<sup>29</sup> The multitude therefore, who stood by and heard it, said that it had thundered. Others said, "An angel has spoken to him."

<sup>30</sup> Jesus answered, "This voice hasn't come for my sake, but for your sakes. <sup>31</sup> Now is the judgment of this world. Now the prince of this world will be cast out. <sup>32</sup> And I, if I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to myself." <sup>33</sup> But he said this, signifying by what kind of death he should die. <sup>34</sup> The multitude answered him, "We have heard out of the law that the Christ remains forever.<sup>3</sup> How do you say, 'The Son of Man must be lifted up?' Who is this Son of Man?"

<sup>35</sup> Jesus therefore said to them, "Yet a little while the light is with you. Walk while you have the light, that darkness doesn't overtake you. He who walks in the darkness doesn't know where he is going. <sup>36</sup> While you have the light, believe in the light, that you may become children of light." Jesus said these things, and he departed and hid himself from them. <sup>37</sup> But though he had done so many signs before them, yet they didn't believe in him, <sup>38</sup> that the word of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spoke,

"Lord, who has believed our report?

To whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?"<sup>4</sup>

<sup>39</sup> For this cause they couldn't believe, for Isaiah said again,

<sup>40</sup> "He has blinded their eyes and he hardened their heart, lest they should see with their eyes, and perceive with their heart, and would turn, and I would heal them."<sup>5</sup>

<sup>41</sup> Isaiah said these things when he saw his glory, and spoke of him. <sup>6</sup> <sup>42</sup> Nevertheless even of the rulers many believed in him, but because of the Pharisees they didn't confess it, so that they wouldn't be put out of the synagogue,<sup>43</sup> for they loved men's praise more than God's praise.

<sup>44</sup> Jesus cried out and said, "Whoever believes in me, believes not in me, but in him who sent me.<sup>45</sup> He who sees me sees him who sent me.<sup>46</sup> I have come as a light into the world, that whoever believes in me may not remain in the darkness.<sup>47</sup> If anyone listens to my sayings, and doesn't believe, I don't judge him. For I came not to judge the world, but to save the world.<sup>48</sup> He who rejects me, and doesn't receive my sayings, has one who judges him. The word that I spoke, the same will judge him in the last day.<sup>49</sup> For I spoke not from myself, but the Father who sent me, he gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak.<sup>50</sup> I know that his commandment is eternal life. The things therefore which I speak, even as the Father has said to me, so I speak."

13

<sup>1</sup> Now before the feast of the Passover, Jesus, knowing that his time had come that he would depart from this world to the Father, having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end.<sup>2</sup> During supper, the devil having already put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him,<sup>3</sup> Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he came from God, and was going to God,<sup>4</sup> arose from supper, and laid aside his outer garments. He took a towel, and wrapped a towel around his waist.<sup>5</sup> Then he poured water into the basin, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel that was wrapped around him.<sup>6</sup> Then he came to Simon Peter. He said to him, "Lord, do you wash my feet?"

<sup>7</sup> Jesus answered him, "You don't know what I am doing now, but you will understand later."

<sup>8</sup> Peter said to him, "You will never wash my feet!"

Jesus answered him, "If I don't wash you, you have no part with me."

<sup>9</sup> Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head!"

<sup>10</sup> Jesus said to him, "Someone who has bathed only needs to have his feet washed, but is completely clean. You are clean, but not all of you."<sup>11</sup> For he knew him who would betray him, therefore he said, "You are not all clean."<sup>12</sup> So when he had washed their feet, put his outer garment back on, and sat down again, he said to them, "Do you know what I have done to you?<sup>13</sup> You call me, 'Teacher' and 'Lord.' You say so correctly, for so I am.<sup>14</sup> If I then, the Lord and the Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet.<sup>15</sup> For I have given you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you.<sup>16</sup> Most certainly I tell you, a servant is not greater than his lord, neither one who is sent greater than he who sent him.<sup>17</sup> If you know these things, blessed are you if you do them.<sup>18</sup> I don't speak concerning all of you. I know whom I have chosen. But that the Scripture may be fulfilled, 'He who eats bread with me has lifted up his heel against me.'<sup>19</sup> From now on, I tell you before it happens, that when it happens, you may believe that I am he. <sup>20</sup> Most certainly I tell you, he who receives whomever I send, receives me; and he who receives me, receives him who sent me.”

<sup>21</sup> When Jesus had said this, he was troubled in spirit, and testified, “Most certainly I tell you that one of you will betray me.”

<sup>25</sup> He, leaning back, as he was, on Jesus’ breast, asked him, “Lord, who is it?”

<sup>26</sup> Jesus therefore answered, “It is he to whom I will give this piece of bread when I have dipped it.” So when he had dipped the piece of bread, he gave it to Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot. <sup>27</sup> After the piece of bread, then Satan entered into him.

Then Jesus said to him, “What you do, do quickly.”

<sup>28</sup> Now no man at the table knew why he said this to him. <sup>29</sup> For some thought, because Judas had the money box, that Jesus said to him, “Buy what things we need for the feast,” or that he should give something to the poor. <sup>30</sup> Therefore having received that morsel, he went out immediately. It was night.

<sup>31</sup> When he had gone out, Jesus said, “Now the Son of Man has been glorified, and God has been glorified in him. <sup>32</sup> If God has been glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself, and he will glorify him immediately. <sup>33</sup> Little children,

I will be with you a little while longer. You will seek me, and as I said to the Jews, ‘Where I am going, you can’t come,’ so now I tell you. <sup>34</sup> A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also love one another. <sup>35</sup> By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.”

Jesus answered, “Where I am going, you can’t follow now, but you will follow afterwards.”

<sup>37</sup> Peter said to him, “Lord, why can’t I follow you now? I will lay down my life for you.”

<sup>38</sup> Jesus answered him, “Will you lay down your life for me? Most certainly I tell you, the rooster won’t crow until you have denied me three times.

14

<sup>1</sup> “Don’t let your heart be troubled. Believe in God. Believe also in me. <sup>2</sup> In my Father’s house are many homes. If it weren’t so, I would have told you. I am going to prepare a place for you. <sup>3</sup> If I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and will receive you to myself; that where I am, you may be there also. <sup>4</sup> Where I go, you know, and you know the way.”

<sup>5</sup> Thomas said to him, “Lord, we don’t know where you are going. How can we know the way?”

<sup>6</sup> Jesus said to him, “I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father, except through me. <sup>7</sup> If you had known me, you would have known my Father also. From now on, you know him, and have seen him.”

<sup>8</sup> Philip said to him, “Lord, show us the Father, and that will be enough for us.”

<sup>9</sup> Jesus said to him, “Have I been with you such a long time, and do you not know me, Philip? He who has seen me has seen the Father. How do you say, ‘Show us the Father?’ <sup>10</sup> Don’t you believe that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? The words that I tell you, I speak not from myself; but the Father who lives in me does his works. <sup>11</sup> Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me; or else believe me for the very works’ sake. <sup>12</sup> Most certainly I tell you, he who believes in me, the works that I do, he will do also; and he will do greater works than these, because I am going to my Father. <sup>13</sup> Whatever you will ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. <sup>14</sup> If you will ask anything in my name, I will do it. <sup>15</sup> If you love me, keep my commandments. <sup>16</sup> I will pray to the Father, and he will give you another Counselor, <sup>c</sup> that he may be with you forever,— <sup>17</sup> the Spirit of truth, whom the world can’t receive; for it doesn’t see him, neither knows him. You know him, for he lives with you, and will be in you. <sup>18</sup> I will not leave you orphans. I will come to you. <sup>19</sup> Yet a little while, and the world will see me no more; but you will see me. Because I live, you will live also. <sup>20</sup> In that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you. <sup>21</sup> One who has my commandments, and keeps them, that person is one who loves me. One who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him, and will reveal myself to him.”

<sup>22</sup> Judas (not Iscariot) said to him, “Lord, what has happened that you are about to reveal yourself to us, and not to the world?”

<sup>23</sup> Jesus answered him, “If a man loves me, he will keep my word. My Father will love him, and we will come to him, and make our home with him. <sup>24</sup> He who doesn’t love me doesn’t keep my words. The word which you hear isn’t mine, but the Father’s who sent me. <sup>25</sup> I have said these things to you, while still living with you. <sup>26</sup> But the Counselor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things, and will remind you of all that I said to you. <sup>27</sup> Peace I leave with you. My peace I give to you; not as the world gives, give I to you. Don’t let your heart be troubled, neither let it be fearful. <sup>28</sup> You heard how I told you, ‘I go away, and I come to you.’ If you loved me, you would have rejoiced, because I said ‘I am going to my Father;’ for the Father is greater than I. <sup>29</sup> Now I have told you before it happens so that, when it happens, you may believe. <sup>30</sup> I will no more speak much with you, for the prince of the world comes, and he has nothing in me. <sup>31</sup> But that the world may know that I love the Father, and as the Father commanded me, even so I do. Arise, let us go from here.

<sup>1</sup> “I am the true vine, and my Father is the farmer. <sup>2</sup> Every branch in me that doesn’t bear fruit, he takes away. Every branch that bears fruit, he prunes, that it may bear more fruit. <sup>3</sup> You are already pruned clean because of the word which I have spoken to you. <sup>4</sup> Remain in me, and I in you. As the branch can't bear fruit by itself, unless it remains in the vine, so neither can you, unless you remain in me. <sup>5</sup> I am the vine. You are the branches. He who remains in me, and I in him, the same bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. <sup>6</sup> If a man doesn't remain in me, he is thrown out as a branch, and is withered; and they gather them, throw them into the fire, and they are burned. <sup>7</sup> If you remain in me, and my words remain in you, you will ask whatever you desire, and it will be done for you.

<sup>8</sup> "In this is my Father glorified, that you bear much fruit; and so you will be my disciples. <sup>9</sup> Even as the Father has loved me, I also have loved you. Remain in my love. <sup>10</sup> If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and remain in his love. <sup>11</sup> I have spoken these things to you, that my joy may remain in you, and that your joy may be made full.

<sup>12</sup> "This is my commandment, that you love one another, even as I have loved you. <sup>13</sup> Greater love has no one than this, that someone lay down his life for his friends. <sup>14</sup> You are my friends, if you do whatever I command you. <sup>15</sup> No longer do I call you servants, for the servant doesn't know what his lord does. But I have called you friends, for everything that I heard from my Father, I have made known to you. <sup>16</sup> You didn't choose me, but I chose you, and appointed you, that you should go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should remain; that whatever you will ask of the Father in my name, he may give it to you.

<sup>17</sup> "I command these things to you, that you may love one another. <sup>18</sup> If the world hates you, you know that it has hated me before it hated you. <sup>19</sup> If you were of the world, the world would love its own. But because you are not of the world, since I chose you out of the world, therefore the world hates you. <sup>20</sup> Remember the word that I said to you: 'A servant is not greater than his lord.'<sup>1</sup> If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you. If they kept my word, they will keep yours also. <sup>21</sup> But all these things will they do to you for my name's sake, because they don't know him who sent me. <sup>22</sup> If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have had sin; but now they have no excuse for their sin. <sup>23</sup> He who hates me, hates my Father also. <sup>24</sup> If I hadn't done among them the works which no one else did, they wouldn't have had sin. But now have they seen and also hated both me and my Father. <sup>25</sup> But this happened so that the word may be fulfilled which was written in their law, 'They hated me without a cause.'<sup>2</sup>

<sup>26</sup> "When the Counselor<sup>d</sup> has come, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth, who proceeds from the Father, he will testify about me. <sup>27</sup> You will also testify, because you have been with me from the beginning.

16

<sup>1</sup> "These things have I spoken to you, so that you wouldn't be caused to stumble. <sup>2</sup> They will put you out of the synagogues. Yes, the time comes that whoever kills you will think that he offers service to God. <sup>3</sup>

They will do these things<sup>e</sup> because they have not known the Father, nor me. <sup>4</sup> But I have told you these things, so that when the time comes, you may remember that I told you about them. I didn't tell you these things from the beginning, because I was with you. <sup>5</sup> But now I am going to him who sent me, and none of you asks me, 'Where are you going?' <sup>6</sup> But because I have told you these things, sorrow has filled your heart. <sup>7</sup> Nevertheless I tell you the truth: It is to your advantage that I go away, for if I don't go away, the Counselor won't come to you. But if I go, I will send him to you. <sup>8</sup> When he has come, he will convict the world about sin, about righteousness, and about judgment; <sup>9</sup> about sin, because they don't believe in me; <sup>10</sup> about righteousness, because I am going to my Father, and you won't see me any more; <sup>11</sup> about judgment, because the prince of this world has been judged.

<sup>12</sup> "I have yet many things to tell you, but you can't bear them now. <sup>13</sup> However when he, the Spirit of truth, has come, he will guide you into all truth, for he will not speak from himself; but whatever he hears, he will speak. He will declare to you things that are coming. <sup>14</sup> He will glorify me, for he will take from what is mine, and will declare it to you. <sup>15</sup> All things whatever the Father has are mine; therefore I said that he takes<sup>f</sup> of mine, and will declare it to you. <sup>16</sup> A little while, and you will not see me. Again a little while, and you will see me."

and again a little while, and you will see me;' and, 'Because I go to the Father?'" <sup>18</sup> They said therefore, "What is this that he says, 'A little while'? We don't know what he is saying."

<sup>19</sup> Therefore Jesus perceived that they wanted to ask him, and he said to them, "Do you inquire among yourselves concerning this, that I said, 'A little while, and you won't see me, and again a little while, and you will see me?'" <sup>20</sup> Most certainly I tell you, that you will weep and lament, but the world will rejoice. You will be sorrowful, but your sorrow will be turned into joy. <sup>21</sup> A woman, when she gives birth, has sorrow, because her time has come. But when she has delivered the child, she doesn't remember the anguish any more, for the joy that a human being is born into the world. <sup>22</sup> Therefore you now have sorrow, but I will see you again, and your heart will rejoice, and no one will take your joy away from you.

<sup>23</sup> "In that day you will ask me no questions. Most certainly I tell you, whatever you may ask of the Father in my name, he will give it to you. <sup>24</sup> Until now, you have asked nothing in my name. Ask, and you will receive, that your joy may be made full. <sup>25</sup> I have spoken these things to you in figures of speech. But the time is coming when I will no more speak to you in figures of speech, but will tell you plainly about the Father. <sup>26</sup> In that day you will ask in my name; and I don't say to you, that I will pray to the Father for you, <sup>27</sup> for the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me, and have believed that I came from God. <sup>28</sup> I came from the Father, and have come into the world.

Again, I leave the world, and go to the Father.”

<sup>29</sup> His disciples said to him, “Behold, now you speak plainly, and speak no figures of speech. <sup>30</sup> Now we know that you know all things, and don’t need for anyone to question you. By this we believe that you came from God.”

<sup>31</sup> Jesus answered them, “Do you now believe? <sup>32</sup> Behold, the time is coming, yes, and has now come, that you will be scattered, everyone to his own place, and you will leave me alone. Yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me. <sup>33</sup> I have told you these things, that in me you may have peace. In the world you have oppression; but cheer up! I have overcome the world.”

17

<sup>1</sup> Jesus said these things, and lifting up his eyes to heaven, he said, “Father, the time has come. Glorify your Son, that your Son may also glorify you; <sup>2</sup> even as you gave him authority over all flesh, he will give eternal life to all whom you have given him. <sup>3</sup> This is eternal life, that they should know you, the only true God, and him whom you sent, Jesus Christ. <sup>4</sup> I glorified you on the earth. I have accomplished the work which you have given me to do. <sup>5</sup> Now, Father, glorify me with your own self with the glory which I had with you before the world existed. <sup>6</sup> I revealed your name to the people whom you have given me out of the world. They were yours, and you have given them to me. They have kept your word. <sup>7</sup> Now they have known that all things whatever you have given me are from you, <sup>8</sup> for the words which you have given me I have given to them, and they received them, and knew for sure that I came from you, and they have believed that you sent me. <sup>9</sup> I pray for them. I don’t pray for the world, but for those whom you have given me, for they are yours. <sup>10</sup> All things that are mine are yours, and yours are mine, and I am glorified in them. <sup>11</sup> I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, keep them through your name which you have given me, that they may be one, even as we are. <sup>12</sup> While I was with them in the world, I kept them in your name. Those whom you have given me I have kept. None of them is lost, except the son of destruction, that the Scripture might be fulfilled. <sup>13</sup> But now I come to you, and I say these things in the world, that they may have my joy made full in themselves. <sup>14</sup> I have given them your word. The world hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. <sup>15</sup> I pray not that you would take them from the world, but that you would keep them from the evil one. <sup>16</sup> They are not of the world even as I am not of the world. <sup>17</sup> Sanctify them in your truth. Your word is truth. <sup>18</sup> As you sent me into the world, even so I have sent them into the world. <sup>19</sup> For their sakes I sanctify myself, that they themselves also may be sanctified in truth. <sup>20</sup> Not for these only do I pray, but for those also who believe in me through their word, <sup>21</sup> that they may all be one; even as you, Father, are in me, and I in you, that they also may be one in us; that the world may believe that you sent me. <sup>22</sup> The glory which you have given me, I have given to them; that they may be one, even as we are one; <sup>23</sup> I in them, and you in me, that they may be perfected into one; that the world may know that you sent me, and loved them, even as you loved me. <sup>24</sup> Father, I desire that they also whom you have given me be with me where I am, that they may see my glory, which you have given me, for you loved me before the foundation of the world. <sup>25</sup> Righteous Father, the world hasn't known you, but I knew you; and these knew that you sent me. <sup>26</sup> I made known to them your name, and will make it known; that the love with which you loved me may be in them, and I in them."

18

<sup>1</sup> When Jesus had spoken these words, he went out with his disciples over the brook Kidron, where there was a garden, into which he and his disciples entered. <sup>2</sup> Now Judas, who betrayed him, also knew the place, for Jesus often met there with his disciples. <sup>3</sup> Judas then, having taken a detachment of soldiers and officers from the chief priests and the Pharisees, came there with lanterns, torches, and weapons. <sup>4</sup> Jesus therefore, knowing all the things that were happening to him, went out, and said to them, "Who are you looking for?"

Jesus said to them, "I am he."

Judas also, who betrayed him, was standing with them. <sup>6</sup> When therefore he said to them, "I am he," they went backward, and fell to the ground.

<sup>7</sup> Again therefore he asked them, "Who are you looking for?"

They said, "Jesus of Nazareth."

<sup>8</sup> Jesus answered, "I told you that I am he. If therefore you seek me, let these go their way," <sup>9</sup> that the word might be fulfilled which he spoke, "Of those whom you have given me, I have lost none."<sup>1</sup>

<sup>10</sup> Simon Peter therefore, having a sword, drew it, and struck the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus. <sup>11</sup> Jesus therefore said to Peter, "Put the sword into its sheath. The cup which the Father has given me, shall I not surely drink it?"

<sup>12</sup> So the detachment, the commanding officer, and the officers of the Jews, seized Jesus and bound him, <sup>13</sup> and led him to Annas first, for he was father-in-law to Caiaphas, who was high priest that year. <sup>14</sup> Now it was Caiaphas who advised the Jews that it was expedient that one man should perish for the people. <sup>15</sup> Simon Peter followed Jesus, as did another disciple. Now that disciple was known to the high priest, and entered in with Jesus into the court of the high priest; <sup>16</sup> but Peter was standing at the door outside. So the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to her who kept the door, and brought in Peter. <sup>17</sup> Then the maid who kept the door said to Peter, "Are you also one of this man's disciples?"

He said, "I am not."

<sup>18</sup> Now the servants and the officers were standing there, having made a fire of coals, for it was cold. They were warming themselves. Peter was with them, standing and warming himself. <sup>19</sup> The high priest therefore asked Jesus about his disciples, and about his teaching. <sup>20</sup> Jesus answered him, "I spoke openly to the world. I always taught in synagogues, and in the temple, where the Jews always meet. I said nothing in secret. <sup>21</sup> Why do you ask me? Ask those who have heard me what I said to them. Behold, these know the things which I said."

<sup>22</sup> When he had said this, one of the officers standing by slapped Jesus with his hand, saying, "Do you answer the high priest like that?"

<sup>23</sup> Jesus answered him, "If I have spoken evil, testify of the evil; but if well, why do you beat me?"

<sup>24</sup> Annas sent him bound to Caiaphas, the high priest. <sup>25</sup> Now Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. They said therefore to him, "You aren't also one of his disciples, are you?"

He denied it, and said, "I am not."

<sup>26</sup> One of the servants of the high priest, being a relative of him whose ear Peter had cut off, said, "Didn't I see you in the garden with him?"

<sup>28</sup> They led Jesus therefore from Caiaphas into the Praetorium. It was early, and they themselves didn't enter into the Praetorium, that they might not be defiled, but might eat the Passover. <sup>29</sup> Pilate therefore went out to them, and said, "What accusation do you bring against this man?"

<sup>30</sup> They answered him, "If this man weren't an evildoer, we wouldn't have delivered him up to you."

<sup>31</sup> Pilate therefore said to them, "Take him yourselves, and judge him according to your law."

Therefore the Jews said to him, "It is not lawful for us to put anyone to death," <sup>32</sup> that the word of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spoke, signifying by what kind of death he should die.

<sup>33</sup> Pilate therefore entered again into the Praetorium, called Jesus, and said to him, "Are you the King of the Jews?"

<sup>34</sup> Jesus answered him, "Do you say this by yourself, or did others tell you about me?"

<sup>35</sup> Pilate answered, "I'm not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests delivered you to me. What have you done?"

<sup>36</sup> Jesus answered, "My Kingdom is not of this world. If my Kingdom were of this world, then my servants would fight, that I wouldn't be delivered to the Jews. But now my Kingdom is not from here."

<sup>37</sup> Pilate therefore said to him, "Are you a king then?"

Jesus answered, "You say that I am a king. For this reason I have been born, and for this reason I have come into the world, that I should testify to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to my voice."

<sup>38</sup> Pilate said to him, "What is truth?"

When he had said this, he went out again to the Jews, and said to them, "I find no basis for a charge against him. <sup>39</sup> But you have a custom, that I should release someone to you at the Passover. Therefore do you want me to release to you the King of the Jews?"

<sup>40</sup> Then they all shouted again, saying, "Not this man, but Barabbas!" Now Barabbas was a robber.

19

<sup>4</sup> Then Pilate went out again, and said to them, “Behold, I bring him out to you, that you may know that I find no basis for a charge against him.”

<sup>5</sup> Jesus therefore came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple garment. Pilate said to them, “Behold, the man!”

<sup>6</sup> When therefore the chief priests and the officers saw him, they shouted, saying, “Crucify! Crucify!”

Pilate said to them, “Take him yourselves, and crucify him, for I find no basis for a charge against him.”

<sup>7</sup> The Jews answered him, “We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God.”

<sup>8</sup> When therefore Pilate heard this saying, he was more afraid. <sup>9</sup> He entered into the Praetorium again, and said to Jesus, “Where are you from?” But Jesus gave him no answer. <sup>10</sup> Pilate therefore said to him, “Aren’t you speaking to me? Don’t you know that I have power to release you, and have power to crucify you?”

<sup>11</sup> Jesus answered, “You would have no power at all against me, unless it were given to you from above. Therefore he who delivered me to you has greater sin.”

<sup>12</sup> At this, Pilate was seeking to release him, but the Jews cried out, saying, “If you release this man, you aren’t Caesar’s friend! Everyone who makes himself a king speaks against Caesar!”

<sup>13</sup> When Pilate therefore heard these words, he brought Jesus out, and sat down on the judgment seat at a place called “The Pavement”, but in Hebrew, “Gabbatha.” <sup>14</sup> Now it was the Preparation Day of the Passover, at about the sixth hour.<sup>g</sup> He said to the Jews, “Behold, your King!”

Pilate said to them, “Shall I crucify your King?”

The chief priests answered, “We have no king but Caesar!”

<sup>16</sup> So then he delivered him to them to be crucified. So they took Jesus and led him away. <sup>17</sup> He went out, bearing his cross, to the place called “The Place of a Skull”, which is called in Hebrew, “Golgotha”, <sup>18</sup> where they crucified him, and with him two others, on either side one, and Jesus in the middle. <sup>19</sup> Pilate wrote a title also, and put it on the cross. There was written, “JESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWS.” <sup>20</sup> Therefore many of the Jews read this title, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city; and it was written in Hebrew, in Latin, and in Greek. <sup>21</sup> The chief priests of the Jews therefore said to Pilate, “Don’t write, ‘The King of the Jews,’ but, ‘he said, I am King of the Jews.’”

<sup>23</sup> Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also the coat. Now the coat was without <sup>g</sup> “the sixth hour” would have been 6:00 AM according to the Roman timekeeping system, or noon for the Jewish timekeeping system in use, then.

seam, woven from the top throughout. <sup>24</sup> Then they said to one another, "Let's not tear it, but cast lots for it to decide whose it will be," that the Scripture might be fulfilled, which says,

"They parted my garments among them.

For my cloak they cast lots."<sup>1</sup>

Therefore the soldiers did these things. <sup>25</sup> But there were standing by the cross of Jesus his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. <sup>26</sup> Therefore when Jesus saw his mother, and the disciple whom he loved standing there, he said to his mother, "Woman, behold, your son!" <sup>27</sup> Then he said to the disciple, "Behold, your mother!" From that hour, the disciple took her to his own home.

<sup>28</sup> After this, Jesus, seeing<sup>h</sup> that all things were now finished, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, said, "I am thirsty." <sup>29</sup> Now a vessel full of vinegar was set there; so they put a sponge full of the vinegar on hyssop, and held it at his mouth. <sup>30</sup> When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, "It is finished." He bowed his head, and gave up his spirit.

<sup>31</sup> Therefore the Jews, because it was the Preparation Day, so that the bodies wouldn't remain on the cross on the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was a special one), asked of Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. <sup>32</sup> Therefore the soldiers came, and broke the legs of the first, and of the other who was crucified with him; <sup>33</sup> but when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was already dead, they didn't break his legs. <sup>34</sup>

However one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and immediately blood and water came out. <sup>35</sup> He who has seen has testified, and his testimony is true. He knows that he tells the truth, that you may believe. <sup>36</sup> For these things happened, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, "A bone of him will not be broken."<sup>2</sup> <sup>37</sup> Again another Scripture says, "They will look on him whom they pierced."<sup>3</sup>

<sup>38</sup> After these things, Joseph of Arimathaea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, asked of Pilate that he might take away Jesus' body. Pilate gave him permission. He came therefore and took away his body. <sup>39</sup> Nicodemus, who at first came to Jesus by night, also came bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred Roman pounds.<sup>i</sup> <sup>40</sup> So they took Jesus' body, and bound it in linen cloths with the spices, as the custom of the Jews is to bury. <sup>41</sup> Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden. In the garden was a new tomb in which no man had ever yet been laid. <sup>42</sup> Then because of the Jews' Preparation Day (for the tomb was near at hand) they laid Jesus there.

20

<sup>1</sup> Now on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene went early, while it was still dark, to the tomb, and saw the stone taken away from the tomb. <sup>2</sup> Therefore she ran and came to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and said to them, "They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, and we don't know where they have laid him!"

<sup>3</sup> Therefore Peter and the other disciple went out, and they went toward the tomb. <sup>4</sup> They both ran together. The other disciple outran Peter, and came to the tomb first. <sup>5</sup> Stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths lying, yet he didn't enter in. <sup>6</sup> Then Simon Peter came, following him, and entered into the tomb. He saw the linen cloths lying, <sup>7</sup> and the cloth that had been on his head, not lying with the linen cloths, but rolled up in a place by itself. <sup>8</sup> So then the other disciple who came first to the tomb also entered in, and he saw and believed. <sup>9</sup> For as yet they didn't know the Scripture, that he must rise from the dead. <sup>10</sup> So the disciples went away again to their own homes.

<sup>11</sup> But Mary was standing outside at the tomb weeping. So, as she wept, she stooped and looked into the tomb, <sup>12</sup> and she saw two angels in white sitting, one at the head, and one at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain. <sup>13</sup> They told her, "Woman, why are you weeping?"

She said to them, "Because they have taken away my Lord, and I don't know where they have laid him." <sup>14</sup> When she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing, and didn't know that it was Jesus.

<sup>15</sup> Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Who are you looking for?"

She, supposing him to be the gardener, said to him, "Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away."

She turned and said to him, "Rabboni!"<sup>j</sup> which is to say, "Teacher!"<sup>k</sup>

<sup>17</sup> Jesus said to her, "Don't hold me, for I haven't yet ascended to my Father; but go to my brothers, and tell them, 'I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.'"

<sup>18</sup> Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that he had said these things to her. <sup>19</sup> When therefore it was evening, on that day, the first day of the week, and when the doors were locked where the disciples were assembled, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the middle, and said to them, "Peace be to you."

<sup>20</sup> When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples therefore were glad when they saw the Lord. <sup>21</sup> Jesus therefore said to them again, "Peace be to you. As the Father has sent me, even so I send you." <sup>22</sup> When he had said this, he breathed on them, and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit! <sup>23</sup> If you forgive anyone's sins, they have been forgiven them. If you retain anyone's sins, they have been retained."

<sup>24</sup> But Thomas, one of the twelve, called Didymus, wasn't with them when Jesus came. <sup>25</sup> The other disciples therefore said to him, "We have seen the Lord!"

But he said to them, "Unless I see in his hands the print of the nails, put my finger into the print of the nails, and put my hand into his side, I will not believe."

<sup>26</sup> After eight days again his disciples were inside, and Thomas was with them. Jesus came, the doors being locked, and stood in the middle, and said, "Peace be to you." <sup>27</sup> Then he said to Thomas, "Reach here your finger, and see my hands. Reach here your hand, and put it into my side. Don't be unbelieving, but believing."

<sup>28</sup> Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!"

<sup>29</sup> Jesus said to him, "Because you have seen me,<sup>1</sup> you have believed. Blessed are those who have not seen, and have believed."

<sup>30</sup> Therefore Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book; <sup>31</sup> but these are written, that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing you may have life in his name.

21

<sup>1</sup> After these things, Jesus revealed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias. He revealed himself this way. <sup>2</sup> Simon Peter, Thomas called Didymus, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples were together. <sup>3</sup> Simon Peter said to them, "I'm going fishing."

They told him, "We are also coming with you." They immediately went out, and entered into the boat. That night, they caught nothing. <sup>4</sup> But when day had already come, Jesus stood on the beach, yet the disciples didn't know that it was Jesus. <sup>5</sup> Jesus therefore said to them, "Children, have you anything to eat?"

They answered him, "No."

They cast it therefore, and now they weren't able to draw it in for the multitude of fish. <sup>7</sup> That disciple therefore whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It's the Lord!"

So when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he wrapped his coat around him (for he was naked), and threw himself into the sea. <sup>8</sup> But the other disciples came in the little boat (for they were not far from the land, but about two hundred cubits<sup>m</sup> away), dragging the net full of fish. <sup>9</sup> So when they got out on the land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid on it, and bread. <sup>10</sup> Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish which you have just caught."

<sup>11</sup> Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land, full of great fish, one hundred fifty-three; and even though there were so many, the net wasn't torn.

<sup>12</sup> Jesus said to them, "Come and eat breakfast."

None of the disciples dared inquire of him, "Who are you?" knowing that it was the Lord.

<sup>13</sup> Then Jesus came and took the bread, gave it to them, and the fish likewise. <sup>14</sup> This is now the third time that Jesus was revealed to his disciples, after he had risen from the dead. <sup>15</sup> So when they had eaten their breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of Jonah, do you love me more than these?"

He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I have affection for you."

He said to him, "Feed my lambs." <sup>16</sup> He said to him again a second time, "Simon, son of Jonah, do you love me?"

He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I have affection for you."

He said to him, "Tend my sheep." <sup>17</sup> He said to him the third time, "Simon, son of Jonah, do you have affection for me?"

Peter was grieved because he asked him the third time, "Do you have affection for me?” He said to him, “Lord, you know everything. You know that I have affection for you.”

Jesus said to him, “Feed my sheep. <sup>18</sup> Most certainly I tell you, when you were young, you dressed yourself, and walked where you wanted to. But when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and another will dress you, and carry you where you don’t want to go.”

<sup>19</sup> Now he said this, signifying by what kind of death he would glorify God. When he had said this, he said to him, “Follow me.”

<sup>20</sup> Then Peter, turning around, saw a disciple following. This was the disciple whom Jesus loved, the one who had also leaned on Jesus’ breast at the supper and asked, “Lord, who is going to betray You?”

<sup>21</sup> Peter seeing him, said to Jesus, “Lord, what about this man?”

<sup>22</sup> Jesus said to him, “If I desire that he stay until I come, what is that to you? You follow me.” <sup>23</sup> This saying therefore went out among the brothers,<sup>n</sup> that this disciple wouldn’t die. Yet Jesus didn’t say to him that he wouldn’t die, but, “If I desire that he stay until I come, what is that to you?” <sup>24</sup>

This is the disciple who testifies about these things, and wrote these things. We know that his witness is true. <sup>25</sup> There are also many other things which Jesus did, which if they would all be written, I suppose that even the world itself wouldn’t have room for the books that would be written.

<sup>n</sup> The word for “brothers” here may be also correctly translated “brothers and sisters” or “siblings.”

The Acts of the Apostles

1

<sup>1</sup> The first book I wrote, Theophilus, concerned all that Jesus began both to do and to teach, <sup>2</sup> until the day in which he was received up, after he had given commandment through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen. <sup>3</sup> To these he also showed himself alive after he suffered, by many proofs, appearing to them over a period of forty days, and speaking about God's Kingdom. <sup>4</sup> Being assembled together with them, he commanded them, "Don't depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, which you heard from me. <sup>5</sup> For John indeed baptized in water, but you will be baptized in the Holy Spirit not many days from now."

<sup>6</sup> Therefore when they had come together, they asked him, "Lord, are you now restoring the kingdom to Israel?"

<sup>7</sup> He said to them, "It isn't for you to know times or seasons which the Father has set within his own authority. <sup>8</sup> But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you. You will be witnesses to me in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the uttermost parts of the earth."

<sup>9</sup> When he had said these things, as they were looking, he was taken up, and a cloud received him out of their sight. <sup>10</sup> While they were looking steadfastly into the sky as he went, behold,<sup>a</sup> two men stood by them in white clothing, <sup>11</sup> who also said, "You men of Galilee, why do you stand looking into the sky? This Jesus, who was received up from you into the sky, will come back in the same way as you saw him going into the sky."

<sup>12</sup> Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mountain called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a Sabbath day's journey away. <sup>13</sup> When they had come in, they went up into the upper room, where they were staying; that is Peter, John, James, Andrew, Philip, Thomas, Bartholomew, Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus, Simon the Zealot, and Judas the son of James. <sup>14</sup> All these with one accord continued steadfastly in prayer and supplication, along with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brothers.

<sup>15</sup> In these days, Peter stood up in the middle of the disciples (and the number of names was about one hundred twenty), and said, <sup>16</sup> "Brothers, it was necessary that this Scripture should be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit spoke before by the mouth of David concerning Judas, who was guide to those who took Jesus. <sup>17</sup> For he was numbered with us, and received his portion in this ministry. <sup>18</sup> Now this man obtained a field with the reward for his wickedness, and falling headlong, his body burst open, and all his intestines gushed out. <sup>19</sup> It became known to everyone who lived in Jerusalem that in their language that field was called 'Akeldama,' that is, 'The field of blood.' <sup>20</sup> For it is written in the book of Psalms,

'Let his habitation be made desolate.

Let no one dwell therein;'<sup>1</sup>

and,

‘Let another take his office.’<sup>2</sup>

<sup>21</sup> “Of the men therefore who have accompanied us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, <sup>22</sup> beginning from the baptism of John, to the day that he was received up from us, of these one must become a witness with us of his resurrection.”

<sup>23</sup> They put forward two, Joseph called Barsabbas, who was also called Justus, and Matthias. <sup>24</sup> They prayed, and said, “You, Lord, who know the hearts of all men, show which one of these two you have chosen <sup>25</sup> to take part in this ministry and apostleship from which Judas fell away, that he might go to his own place.” <sup>26</sup> They drew lots for them, and the lot fell on Matthias, and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

2

<sup>1</sup> Now when the day of Pentecost had come, they were all with one accord in one place. <sup>2</sup> Suddenly there came from the sky a sound like the rushing of a mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. <sup>3</sup> Tongues like fire appeared and were distributed to them, and one sat on each of them. <sup>4</sup> They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak with other languages, as the Spirit gave them the ability to speak. <sup>5</sup> Now there were dwelling in Jerusalem Jews, devout men, from every nation under the sky. <sup>6</sup> When this sound was heard, the multitude came together, and were bewildered, because everyone heard them speaking in his own language. <sup>7</sup> They were all amazed and marveled, saying to one another, “Behold, aren’t all these who speak Galileans? <sup>8</sup> How do we hear, everyone in our own native language?

<sup>9</sup> Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and people from Mesopotamia, Judea, Cappadocia, Pontus, Asia, <sup>10</sup> Phrygia, Pamphylia, Egypt, the parts of Libya around Cyrene, visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, <sup>11</sup> Cretans and Arabians: we hear them speaking in our languages the mighty works of God!” <sup>12</sup> They were all amazed, and were perplexed, saying to one another, “What does this mean?” <sup>13</sup> Others, mocking, said, “They are filled with new wine.”

<sup>14</sup> But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and spoke out to them, “You men of Judea, and all you who dwell at Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to my words. <sup>15</sup> For these aren’t drunken, as you suppose, seeing it is only the third hour of the day.<sup>b</sup> <sup>16</sup> But this is what has been spoken through the prophet Joel:

<sup>17</sup> ‘It will be in the last days, says God, that I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh.

Your sons and your daughters will prophesy.

Your young men will see visions.

Your old men will dream dreams.

<sup>18</sup> Yes, and on my servants and on my handmaidens in those days, I will pour out my Spirit, and they will prophesy.

<sup>19</sup> I will show wonders in the sky above, and signs on the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and billows of smoke.

<sup>20</sup> The sun will be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood,

<sup>2</sup> Psalm 109:8 <sup>b</sup> about 9:00 AM before the great and glorious day of the Lord comes.

<sup>21</sup> It will be that whoever will call on the name of the Lord will be saved.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>22</sup> “Men of Israel, hear these words! Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved by God to you by mighty works and wonders and signs which God did by him among you, even as you yourselves know, <sup>23</sup> him, being delivered up by the determined counsel and foreknowledge of God, you have taken by the hand of lawless men, crucified and killed; <sup>24</sup> whom God raised up, having freed him from the agony of death, because it was not possible that he should be held by it. <sup>25</sup> For David says concerning him,

‘I saw the Lord always before my face,
For he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved.

<sup>26</sup> Therefore my heart was glad, and my tongue rejoiced.
Moreover my flesh also will dwell in hope;

<sup>27</sup> because you will not leave my soul in Hades,<sup>c</sup> neither will you allow your Holy
One to see decay.

<sup>28</sup> You made known to me the ways of life.
You will make me full of gladness with your presence.<sup>2</sup>

<sup>29</sup> “Brothers, I may tell you freely of the patriarch David, that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day.

<sup>30</sup> Therefore, being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him that of the fruit of his body, according to the flesh, he would raise up the Christ to sit on his throne, <sup>31</sup> he foreseeing this spoke about the resurrection of the Christ, that neither was his soul left in Hades,<sup>d</sup> nor did his flesh see decay. <sup>32</sup> This Jesus God raised up, to which we all are witnesses. <sup>33</sup> Being therefore exalted by the right hand of God, and having received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, he has poured out this, which you now see and hear. <sup>34</sup> For David didn’t ascend into the heavens, but he says himself,

‘The Lord said to my Lord, “Sit by my right hand,

<sup>35</sup> until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet.”<sup>3</sup>

<sup>36</sup> “Let all the house of Israel therefore know certainly that God has made him both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom you crucified.”

<sup>37</sup> Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart, and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, “Brothers, what shall we do?”

<sup>38</sup> Peter said to them, “Repent, and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. <sup>39</sup> For the promise is to you, and to your children, and to all who are far off, even as many as the Lord our God will call to himself.” <sup>40</sup> With many other words he testified, and exhorted them, saying, “Save yourselves from this crooked generation!”

<sup>41</sup> Then those who gladly received his word were baptized. There were added that day about three thousand souls. <sup>42</sup> They continued steadfastly in the apostles’ teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and prayer. <sup>43</sup> Fear came on every soul, and many wonders and signs were done through the apostles. <sup>44</sup> All who believed were together, and had all things in common. <sup>45</sup> They sold their possessions and goods, and distributed them to all, according as anyone had need. <sup>46</sup> Day by day, continuing steadfastly with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread at home, they took their food with gladness and singleness of heart, <sup>47</sup> praising God, and having favor with all the people. The Lord added to the assembly day by day those who were being saved.

3

<sup>1</sup> Peter and John were going up into the temple at the hour of prayer, the ninth hour.<sup>e</sup> <sup>2</sup> A certain man who was lame from his mother's womb was being carried, whom they laid daily at the door of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask gifts for the needy of those who entered into the temple. <sup>3</sup> Seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple, he asked to receive gifts for the needy. <sup>4</sup> Peter, fastening his eyes on him, with John, said, "Look at us." <sup>5</sup> He listened to them, expecting to receive something from them. <sup>6</sup> But Peter said, "Silver and gold have I none, but what I have, that I give you. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, get up and walk!" <sup>7</sup> He took him by the right hand, and raised him up. Immediately his feet and his ankle bones received strength. <sup>8</sup> Leaping up, he stood, and began to walk. He entered with them into the temple, walking, leaping, and praising God. <sup>9</sup> All the people saw him walking and praising God. <sup>10</sup> They recognized him, that it was he who used to sit begging for gifts for the needy at the Beautiful Gate of the temple. They were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him. <sup>11</sup> As the lame man who was healed held on to Peter and John, all the people ran together to them in the porch that is called Solomon's, greatly wondering.

<sup>12</sup> When Peter saw it, he responded to the people, "You men of Israel, why do you marvel at this man? Why do you fasten your eyes on us, as though by our own power or godliness we had made him walk? <sup>13</sup> The God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified his Servant Jesus, whom you delivered up, and denied in the presence of Pilate, when he had determined to release him. <sup>14</sup> But you denied the Holy and Righteous One, and asked for a murderer to be granted to you, <sup>15</sup> and killed the Prince of life, whom God raised from the dead, to which we are witnesses. <sup>16</sup> By faith in his name, his name has made this man strong, whom you see and know. Yes, the faith which is through him has given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.

<sup>17</sup> "Now, brothers,<sup>f</sup> I know that you did this in ignorance, as did also your rulers. <sup>18</sup> But the things which God announced by the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ should suffer, he thus fulfilled.

<sup>19</sup> "Repent therefore, and turn again, that your sins may be blotted out, so that there may come times of refreshing from the presence of the Lord, <sup>20</sup> and that he may send Christ Jesus, who was ordained for you before, <sup>21</sup> whom heaven must receive until the times of restoration of all things, which God spoke long ago by the mouth of his holy prophets.<sup>22</sup> For Moses indeed said to the fathers, ‘The Lord God will raise up a prophet for you from among your brothers, like me. You shall listen to him in all things whatever he says to you.’<sup>23</sup> It will be that every soul that will not listen to that prophet will be utterly destroyed from among the people.<sup>1</sup><sup>24</sup> Yes, and all the prophets from Samuel and those who followed after, as many as have spoken, they also told of these days.<sup>25</sup> You are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying to Abraham, ‘In your offspring<sup>g</sup> will all the families of the earth be blessed.’<sup>2</sup><sup>26</sup> God, having raised up his servant Jesus, sent him to you first to bless you, in turning away every one of you from your wickedness.”

4

<sup>1</sup> As they spoke to the people, the priests and the captain of the temple and the Sadducees came to them, <sup>2</sup> being upset because they taught the people and proclaimed in Jesus the resurrection from the dead. <sup>3</sup> They laid hands on them, and put them in custody until the next day, for it was now evening. <sup>4</sup> But many of those who heard the word believed, and the number of the men came to be about five thousand.

<sup>5</sup> In the morning, their rulers, elders, and scribes were gathered together in Jerusalem. <sup>6</sup> Annas the high priest was there, with Caiaphas, John, Alexander, and as many as were relatives of the high priest. <sup>7</sup> When they had stood them in the middle of them, they inquired, “By what power, or in what name, have you done this?”

<sup>8</sup> Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, “You rulers of the people, and elders of Israel, <sup>9</sup> if we are examined today concerning a good deed done to a crippled man, by what means this man has been healed, <sup>10</sup> be it known to you all, and to all the people of Israel, that in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead, in him does this man stand here before you whole. <sup>11</sup> He is ‘the stone which was regarded as worthless by you, the builders, which has become the head of the corner.’<sup>1</sup> <sup>12</sup> There is salvation in none other, for neither is there any other name under heaven, that is given among men, by which we must be saved!”

<sup>13</sup> Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and had perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marveled. They recognized that they had been with Jesus. <sup>14</sup> Seeing the man who was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it. <sup>15</sup> But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves, <sup>16</sup> saying, “What shall we do to these men? Because indeed a notable miracle has been done through them, as can be plainly seen by all who dwell in Jerusalem, and we can’t deny it. <sup>17</sup> But so that this spreads no further among the people, let’s threaten them, that from now on they don’t speak to anyone in this name.” <sup>18</sup> They called them, and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus.

<sup>19</sup> But Peter and John answered them, “Whether it is right in the sight of God to listen to you rather than to God, judge for yourselves, <sup>20</sup> for we can't help telling the things which we saw and heard."

<sup>21</sup> When they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding no way to punish them, because of the people; for everyone glorified God for that which was done. <sup>22</sup> For the man on whom this miracle of healing was performed was more than forty years old.

<sup>23</sup> Being let go, they came to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and the elders had said to them. <sup>24</sup> When they heard it, they lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, "O Lord, you are God, who made the heaven, the earth, the sea, and all that is in them; <sup>25</sup> who by the mouth of your servant, David, said,

'Why do the nations rage, and the peoples plot a vain thing?

<sup>26</sup> The kings of the earth take a stand, and the rulers take council together, against the Lord, and against his Christ.'<sup>h2</sup>

<sup>27</sup> "For truly, in this city against your holy servant, Jesus, whom you anointed, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles and the people of Israel, were gathered together <sup>28</sup> to do whatever your hand and your council foreordained to happen. <sup>29</sup> Now, Lord, look at their threats, and grant to your servants to speak your word with all boldness, <sup>30</sup> while you stretch out your hand to heal; and that signs and wonders may be done through the name of your holy Servant Jesus."

<sup>31</sup> When they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were gathered together. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they spoke the word of God with boldness. <sup>32</sup> The multitude of those who believed were of one heart and soul. Not one of them claimed that anything of the things which he possessed was his own, but they had all things in common. <sup>33</sup> With great power, the apostles gave their testimony of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus. Great grace was on them all. <sup>34</sup> For neither was there among them any who lacked, for as many as were owners of lands or houses sold them, and brought the proceeds of the things that were sold, <sup>35</sup> and laid them at the apostles' feet, and distribution was made to each, according as anyone had need. <sup>36</sup> Joses, who by the apostles was also called Barnabas (which is, being interpreted, Son of Encouragement), a Levite, a man of Cyprus by race, <sup>37</sup> having a field, sold it, and brought the money and laid it at the apostles' feet.

5

<sup>5</sup> Ananias, hearing these words, fell down and died. Great fear came on all who heard these things. <sup>6</sup> The young men arose and wrapped him up, and they carried him out and buried him. <sup>7</sup> About three hours later, his wife, not knowing what had happened, came in. <sup>8</sup> Peter answered her, "Tell me whether you sold the land for so much."

She said, "Yes, for so much."

<sup>9</sup> But Peter asked her, "How is it that you have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? Behold, the feet of those who have buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out."

<sup>10</sup> She fell down immediately at his feet, and died. The young men came in and found her dead, and they carried her out and buried her by her husband. <sup>11</sup> Great fear came on the whole assembly, and on all who heard these things. <sup>12</sup> By the hands of the apostles many signs and wonders were done among the people. They were all with one accord in Solomon's porch. <sup>13</sup> None of the rest dared to join them, however the people honored them. <sup>14</sup> More believers were added to the Lord, multitudes of both men and women. <sup>15</sup> They even carried out the sick into the streets, and laid them on cots and mattresses, so that as Peter came by, at the least his shadow might overshadow some of them. <sup>16</sup> The multitude also came together from the cities around Jerusalem, bringing sick people, and those who were tormented by unclean spirits: and they were all healed.

<sup>17</sup> But the high priest rose up, and all those who were with him (which is the sect of the Sadducees), and they were filled with jealousy, <sup>18</sup> and laid hands on the apostles, and put them in public custody. <sup>19</sup> But an angel of the Lord opened the prison doors by night, and brought them out, and said, <sup>20</sup> "Go stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this life."

<sup>21</sup> When they heard this, they entered into the temple about daybreak, and taught. But the high priest came, and those who were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought. <sup>22</sup> But the officers who came didn't find them in the prison. They returned and reported, <sup>23</sup> "We found the prison shut and locked, and the guards standing before the doors, but when we opened them, we found no one inside!"

<sup>24</sup> Now when the high priest, the captain of the temple, and the chief priests heard these words, they were very perplexed about them and what might become of this. <sup>25</sup> One came and told them, "Behold, the men whom you put in prison are in the temple, standing and teaching the people." <sup>26</sup> Then the captain went with the officers, and brought them without violence, for they were afraid that the people might stone them.

<sup>27</sup> When they had brought them, they set them before the council. The high priest questioned them, <sup>28</sup> saying, "Didn't we strictly command you not to teach in this name? Behold, you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and intend to bring this man's blood on us."

<sup>29</sup> But Peter and the apostles answered, "We must obey God rather than men. <sup>30</sup> The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom you killed, hanging him on a tree. <sup>31</sup> God exalted him with his right hand to be a Prince and a Savior, to give repentance to Israel, and remission of sins. <sup>32</sup> We are His witnesses of these things; and so also is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him.”

<sup>33</sup> But they, when they heard this, were cut to the heart, and were determined to kill them. <sup>34</sup> But one stood up in the council, a Pharisee named Gamaliel, a teacher of the law, honored by all the people, and commanded to put the apostles out for a little while. <sup>35</sup> He said to them, “You men of Israel, be careful concerning these men, what you are about to do. <sup>36</sup> For before these days Theudas rose up, making himself out to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were dispersed, and came to nothing. <sup>37</sup> After this man, Judas of Galilee rose up in the days of the enrollment, and drew away some people after him. He also perished, and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered abroad. <sup>38</sup> Now I tell you, withdraw from these men, and leave them alone. For if this counsel or this work is of men, it will be overthrown. <sup>39</sup> But if it is of God, you will not be able to overthrow it, and you would be found even to be fighting against God!”

<sup>40</sup> They agreed with him. Summoning the apostles, they beat them and commanded them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go. <sup>41</sup> They therefore departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer dishonor for Jesus’ name.

<sup>42</sup> Every day, in the temple and at home, they never stopped teaching and preaching Jesus, the Christ.

6

<sup>8</sup> Stephen, full of faith and power, performed great wonders and signs among the people. <sup>9</sup> But some of those who were of the synagogue called “The Libertines”, and of the Cyrenians, of the Alexandrians, and of those of Cilicia and Asia arose, disputing with Stephen. <sup>10</sup> They weren’t able to withstand the wisdom and the Spirit by which he spoke. <sup>11</sup> Then they secretly induced men to say, “We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses and God.” <sup>12</sup> They stirred up the people, the elders, and the scribes, and came against him and seized him, and brought him in to the council, <sup>13</sup> and set up false witnesses who said, “This man never stops speaking blasphemous words against this holy place and the law. <sup>14</sup> For we have heard him say that this Jesus of Nazareth will destroy this place, and will change the customs which Moses delivered to us.” <sup>15</sup> All who sat in the council, fastening their eyes on him, saw his face like it was the face of an angel.

<sup>2</sup> He said, “Brothers and fathers, listen. The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he lived in Haran, <sup>3</sup> and said to him, ‘Get out of your land, and from your relatives, and come into a land which I will show you.’<sup>1 4</sup> Then he came out of the land of the Chaldaeans, and lived in Haran. From there, when his father was dead, God moved him into this land, where you are now living. <sup>5</sup> He gave him no inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on. He promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his offspring<sup>j</sup> after him, when he still had no child. <sup>6</sup> God spoke in this way: that his offspring<sup>k</sup> would live as aliens in a strange land, and that they would be enslaved and mistreated for four hundred years. <sup>7</sup> ‘I will judge the nation to which they will be in bondage,’ said God, ‘and after that will they come out, and serve me in this place.’<sup>2 8</sup> He gave him the covenant of circumcision. So Abraham became the father of Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day. Isaac became the father of Jacob, and Jacob became the father of the twelve patriarchs.

<sup>9</sup> “The patriarchs, moved with jealousy against Joseph, sold him into Egypt. God was with him, <sup>10</sup> and delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favor and wisdom before Pharaoh, king of Egypt. He made him governor over Egypt and all his house. <sup>11</sup> Now a famine came over all the land of Egypt and Canaan, and great affliction. Our fathers found no food. <sup>12</sup> But when Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent out our fathers the first time. <sup>13</sup> On the second time Joseph was made known to his brothers, and Joseph’s race was revealed to Pharaoh. <sup>14</sup> Joseph sent, and summoned Jacob, his father, and all his relatives, seventy-five souls. <sup>15</sup> Jacob went down into Egypt, and he died, himself and our fathers, <sup>16</sup> and they were brought back to Shechem, and laid in the tomb that Abraham bought for a price in silver from the children of Hamor of Shechem.

<sup>17</sup> “But as the time of the promise came close which God had sworn to Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt, <sup>18</sup> until there arose a different king, who didn’t know Joseph. <sup>19</sup> The same took advantage of our race, and mistreated our fathers, and forced them to throw out their babies, so that they wouldn’t stay alive. <sup>20</sup> At that time Moses was born, and was exceedingly handsome. He was nourished three months in his father’s house. <sup>21</sup> When he was thrown out, Pharaoh’s daughter took him up, and reared him as her own son. <sup>22</sup> Moses was instructed in all the wisdom of the Egyptians. He was mighty in his words and works.<sup>23</sup> But when he was forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brothers,<sup>1</sup> the children of Israel.<sup>24</sup> Seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him who was oppressed, striking the Egyptian.<sup>25</sup> He supposed that his brothers understood that God, by his hand, was giving them deliverance; but they didn't understand.

<sup>26</sup> "The day following, he appeared to them as they fought, and urged them to be at peace again, saying, 'Sirs, you are brothers. Why do you wrong one another?'

<sup>27</sup> But he who did his neighbor wrong pushed him away, saying, 'Who made you a ruler and a judge over us?'<sup>28</sup> Do you want to kill me, as you killed the Egyptian yesterday?'<sup>3</sup> <sup>29</sup> Moses fled at this saying, and became a stranger in the land of Midian, where he became the father of two sons.

<sup>30</sup> "When forty years were fulfilled, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in the wilderness of Mount Sinai, in a flame of fire in a bush.<sup>31</sup> When Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight. As he came close to see, a voice of the Lord came to him,<sup>32</sup> 'I am the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.'<sup>4</sup> Moses trembled, and dared not look.<sup>33</sup> The Lord said to him, 'Take your sandals off of your feet, for the place where you stand is holy ground.<sup>34</sup> I have surely seen the affliction of my people that is in Egypt, and have heard their groaning. I have come down to deliver them. Now come, I will send you into Egypt.'<sup>5</sup>

<sup>35</sup> "This Moses, whom they refused, saying, 'Who made you a ruler and a judge?'—God has sent him as both a ruler and a deliverer by the hand of the angel who appeared to him in the bush.<sup>36</sup> This man led them out, having worked wonders and signs in Egypt, in the Red Sea, and in the wilderness for forty years.<sup>37</sup> This is that Moses, who said to the children of Israel, 'The Lord our God will raise up a prophet for you from among your brothers, like me.'<sup>6</sup> <sup>38</sup> This is he who was in the assembly in the wilderness with the angel that spoke to him on Mount Sinai, and with our fathers, who received living revelations to give to us,<sup>39</sup> to whom our fathers wouldn't be obedient, but rejected him, and turned back in their hearts to Egypt,<sup>40</sup> saying to Aaron, 'Make us gods that will go before us, for as for this Moses, who led us out of the land of Egypt, we don't know what has become of him.'<sup>7</sup> <sup>41</sup> They made a calf in those days, and brought a sacrifice to the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their hands.<sup>42</sup> But God turned, and gave them up to serve the army of the sky,<sup>n</sup> as it is written in the book of the prophets,

'Did you offer to me slain animals and sacrifices forty years in the wilderness, O house of Israel?

<sup>43</sup> You took up the tabernacle of Moloch,
the star of your god Rephan,
the figures which you made to worship.
I will carry you away<sup>8</sup> beyond Babylon.'

<sup>1</sup> The word for "brothers" here and where the context allows may be also correctly translated "brothers and sisters" or "siblings."

<sup>n</sup> This idiom could also be translated "host of heaven", or "angelic beings", or "heavenly bodies." <sup>8</sup> Amos 5:25-27

<sup>44</sup> “Our fathers had the tabernacle of the testimony in the wilderness, even as he who spoke to Moses commanded him to make it according to the pattern that he had seen; <sup>45</sup> which also our fathers, in their turn, brought in with Joshua when they entered into the possession of the nations, whom God drove out before the face of our fathers, to the days of David, <sup>46</sup> who found favor in the sight of God, and asked to find a habitation for the God of Jacob. <sup>47</sup> But Solomon built him a house. <sup>48</sup> However, the Most High doesn’t dwell in temples made with hands, as the prophet says,

<sup>49</sup> ‘heaven is my throne, and the earth a footstool for my feet.

What kind of house will you build me?’
says the Lord;

‘or what is the place of my rest?’

<sup>50</sup> Didn’t my hand make all these things?’<sup>9</sup>

<sup>51</sup> “You stiff-necked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, you always resist the Holy Spirit! As your fathers did, so you do. <sup>52</sup> Which of the prophets didn’t your fathers persecute? They killed those who foretold the coming of the Righteous One, of whom you have now become betrayers and murderers. <sup>53</sup> You received the law as it was ordained by angels, and didn’t keep it!”

<sup>54</sup> Now when they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed at him with their teeth. <sup>55</sup> But he, being full of the Holy Spirit, looked up steadfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God, <sup>56</sup> and said, “Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God!”

<sup>1</sup> Saul was consenting to his death. A great persecution arose against the assembly which was in Jerusalem in that day. They were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except for the apostles. <sup>2</sup> Devout men buried Stephen, and lamented greatly over him. <sup>3</sup> But Saul ravaged the assembly, entering into every house, and dragged both men and women off to prison. <sup>4</sup> Therefore those who were scattered abroad went around preaching the word. <sup>5</sup> Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and proclaimed to them the Christ. <sup>6</sup> The multitudes listened with one accord to the things that were spoken by Philip, when they heard and saw the signs which he did. <sup>7</sup> For unclean spirits came out of many of those who had them. They came out, crying with a loud voice. Many who had been paralyzed and lame were healed. <sup>8</sup> There was great joy in that city.

<sup>9</sup> But there was a certain man, Simon by name, who used to practice sorcery in the city, and amazed the people of Samaria, making himself out to be some great one,<sup>10</sup> to whom they all listened, from the least to the greatest, saying, “This man is that great power of God.”<sup>11</sup> They listened to him, because for a long time he had amazed them with his sorceries.<sup>12</sup> But when they believed Philip preaching good news concerning God’s Kingdom and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women.<sup>13</sup> Simon himself also believed. Being baptized, he continued with Philip. Seeing signs and great miracles occurring, he was amazed.

<sup>14</sup> Now when the apostles who were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent Peter and John to them,<sup>15</sup> who, when they had come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Spirit;<sup>16</sup> for as yet he had fallen on none of them. They had only been baptized in the name of Christ Jesus.<sup>17</sup> Then they laid their hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit.<sup>18</sup> Now when Simon saw that the Holy Spirit was given through the laying on of the apostles’ hands, he offered them money,<sup>19</sup> saying, “Give me also this power, that whomever I lay my hands on may receive the Holy Spirit.”<sup>20</sup> But Peter said to him, “May your silver perish with you, because you thought you could obtain the gift of God with money!<sup>21</sup> You have neither part nor lot in this matter, for your heart isn’t right before God.<sup>22</sup> Repent therefore of this, your wickedness, and ask God if perhaps the thought of your heart may be forgiven you.<sup>23</sup> For I see that you are in the gall of bitterness and in the bondage of iniquity.”

<sup>24</sup> Simon answered, “Pray for me to the Lord, that none of the things which you have spoken happen to me.”

<sup>25</sup> They therefore, when they had testified and spoken the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the Good News to many villages of the Samaritans.<sup>26</sup> But an angel of the Lord spoke to Philip, saying, “Arise, and go toward the south to the way that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza. This is a desert.”

<sup>27</sup> He arose and went; and behold, there was a man of Ethiopia, a eunuch of great authority under Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, who was over all her treasure, who had come to Jerusalem to worship.<sup>28</sup> He was returning and sitting in his chariot, and was reading the prophet Isaiah.

<sup>29</sup> The Spirit said to Philip, “Go near, and join yourself to this chariot.”

<sup>30</sup> Philip ran to him, and heard him reading Isaiah the prophet, and said, “Do you understand what you are reading?”

<sup>31</sup> He said, “How can I, unless someone explains it to me?” He begged Philip to come up and sit with him.<sup>32</sup> Now the passage of the Scripture which he was reading was this,

“He was led as a sheep to the slaughter.

As a lamb before his shearer is silent,

so he doesn’t open his mouth.

<sup>33</sup> In his humiliation, his judgment was taken away.

Who will declare His generation?

For his life is taken from the earth.”<sup>1</sup>

<sup>35</sup> Philip opened his mouth, and beginning from this Scripture, preached to him about Jesus. <sup>36</sup> As they went on the way, they came to some water, and the eunuch said, “Behold, here is water. What is keeping me from being baptized?”

<sup>37</sup> <sup>o</sup> <sup>38</sup> He commanded the chariot to stand still, and they both went down into the water, both Philip and the eunuch, and he baptized him.

<sup>39</sup> When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught Philip away, and the eunuch didn’t see him any more, for he went on his way rejoicing. <sup>40</sup> But Philip was found at Azotus. Passing through, he preached the Good News to all the cities, until he came to Caesarea.

<sup>1</sup> But Saul, still breathing threats and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest, <sup>2</sup> and asked for letters from him to the synagogues of Damascus, that if he found any who were of the Way, whether men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup> As he traveled, he got close to Damascus, and suddenly a light from the sky shone around him. <sup>4</sup> He fell on the earth, and heard a voice saying to him, “Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?”

<sup>5</sup> He said, “Who are you, Lord?”

The Lord said, “I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting.<sup>p</sup> <sup>6</sup> But<sup>q</sup> rise up, and enter into the city, and you will be told what you must do.”

<sup>7</sup> The men who traveled with him stood speechless, hearing the sound, but seeing no one. <sup>8</sup> Saul arose from the ground, and when his eyes were opened, he saw no one. They led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus. <sup>9</sup> He was without sight for three days, and neither ate nor drank.

<sup>10</sup> Now there was a certain disciple at Damascus named Ananias. The Lord said to him in a vision, “Ananias!”

He said, “Behold, it’s me, Lord.”

<sup>11</sup> The Lord said to him, “Arise, and go to the street which is called Straight, and inquire in the house of Judah<sup>r</sup> for one named Saul, a man of Tarsus. For behold, he is praying, <sup>12</sup> and in a vision he has seen a man named Ananias coming in, and laying his hands on him, that he might receive his sight.”

<sup>13</sup> But Ananias answered, “Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how much evil he did to your saints at Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup> Here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all who call on your name.”

<sup>15</sup> But the Lord said to him, “Go your way, for he is my chosen vessel to bear my name before the nations and kings, and the children of Israel. <sup>16</sup> For I will show him how many things he must suffer for my name’s sake.”

<sup>17</sup> Ananias departed, and entered into the house. Laying his hands on him, he said, “Brother Saul, the Lord, who appeared to you on the road by which you came, has sent me, that you may receive your sight, and be filled with the Holy Spirit.” <sup>18</sup> Immediately something like scales fell from his eyes, and he received his sight. He arose and was baptized. <sup>19</sup> He took food and was strengthened. Saul stayed several days with the disciples who were at

Damascus. <sup>20</sup> Immediately in the synagogues he proclaimed the Christ, that he is the Son of God. <sup>21</sup> All who heard him were amazed, and said, "Isn't this he who in Jerusalem made havoc of those who called on this name? And he had come here intending to bring them bound before the chief priests!"

<sup>22</sup> But Saul increased more in strength, and confounded the Jews who lived at Damascus, proving that this is the Christ. <sup>23</sup> When many days were fulfilled, the Jews conspired together to kill him, <sup>24</sup> but their plot became known to Saul. They watched the gates both day and night that they might kill him, <sup>25</sup> but his disciples took him by night, and let him down through the wall, lowering him in a basket. <sup>26</sup> When Saul had come to Jerusalem, he tried to join himself to the disciples; but they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a disciple. <sup>27</sup> But Barnabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared to them how he had seen the Lord on the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how at Damascus he had preached boldly in the name of Jesus. <sup>28</sup> He was with them entering into<sup>s</sup> Jerusalem, <sup>29</sup> preaching boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus.<sup>t</sup> He spoke and disputed against the Hellenists,<sup>u</sup> but they were seeking to kill him. <sup>30</sup> When the brothers<sup>v</sup> knew it, they brought him down to Caesarea, and sent him off to Tarsus. <sup>31</sup> So the assemblies throughout all Judea and Galilee and Samaria had peace, and were built up. They were multiplied, walking in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit.

<sup>32</sup> As Peter went throughout all those parts, he came down also to the saints who lived at Lydda. <sup>33</sup> There he found a certain man named Aeneas, who had been bedridden for eight years, because he was paralyzed. <sup>34</sup> Peter said to him, "Aeneas, Jesus Christ heals you. Get up and make your bed!" Immediately he arose. <sup>35</sup> All who lived at Lydda and in Sharon saw him, and they turned to the Lord.

<sup>36</sup> Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which when translated, means Dorcas.<sup>w</sup> This woman was full of good works and acts of mercy which she did. <sup>37</sup> In those days, she became sick, and died. When they had washed her, they laid her in an upper room. <sup>38</sup> As Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples, hearing that Peter was there, sent two men<sup>x</sup> to him, imploring him not to delay in coming to them. <sup>39</sup> Peter got up and went with them. When he had come, they brought him into the upper room. All the widows stood by him weeping, and showing the coats and garments which Dorcas had made while she was with them. <sup>40</sup> Peter sent them all out, and knelt down and prayed. Turning to the body, he said, "Tabitha, get up!" She opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter, she sat up. <sup>41</sup> He gave her his hand, and raised her up. Calling the saints and widows, he presented her alive. <sup>42</sup> And it became known throughout all Joppa, and many believed in the Lord. <sup>43</sup> He stayed many days in Joppa with a tanner named Simon.

<sup>s</sup> TR and NU add "and going out" <sup>t</sup> TR and NU omit "Jesus" and reverse the order of verses 28 & 29. <sup>u</sup> The Hellenists were Hebrews who used Greek language and culture. <sup>v</sup> The word for "brothers" here and where the context allows may also be correctly translated "brothers and sisters" or "siblings." <sup>w</sup> "Dorcas" is Greek for "Gazelle." <sup>x</sup> Reading from NU, TR; MT omits "two men"

10

<sup>1</sup> Now there was a certain man in Caesarea, Cornelius by name, a centurion of what was called the Italian Regiment, <sup>2</sup> a devout man, and one who feared God with all his house, who gave gifts for the needy generously to the people, and always prayed to God. <sup>3</sup> At about the ninth hour of the day,<sup>y</sup> he clearly saw in a vision an angel of God coming to him, and saying to him, “Cornelius!”

<sup>4</sup> He, fastening his eyes on him, and being frightened, said, “What is it, Lord?”

He said to him, “Your prayers and your gifts to the needy have gone up for a memorial before God. <sup>5</sup> Now send men to Joppa, and get Simon, who is also called Peter. <sup>6</sup> He lodges with a tanner named Simon, whose house is by the seaside. <sup>z</sup>

<sup>7</sup> When the angel who spoke to him had departed, Cornelius called two of his household servants and a devout soldier of those who waited on him continually. <sup>8</sup> Having explained everything to them, he sent them to Joppa. <sup>9</sup> Now on the next day as they were on their journey, and got close to the city, Peter went up on the housetop to pray at about noon. <sup>10</sup> He became hungry and desired to eat, but while they were preparing, he fell into a trance. <sup>11</sup> He saw heaven opened and a certain container descending to him, like a great sheet let down by four corners on the earth, <sup>12</sup> in which were all kinds of four-footed animals of the earth, wild animals, reptiles, and birds of the sky. <sup>13</sup> A voice came to him, “Rise, Peter, kill and eat!”

<sup>14</sup> But Peter said, “Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten anything that is common or unclean.”

<sup>15</sup> A voice came to him again the second time, “What God has cleansed, you must not call unclean.” <sup>16</sup> This was done three times, and immediately the vessel was received up into heaven. <sup>17</sup> Now while Peter was very perplexed in himself what the vision which he had seen might mean, behold, the men who were sent by Cornelius, having made inquiry for Simon’s house, stood before the gate, <sup>18</sup> and called and asked whether Simon, who was also called Peter, was lodging there. <sup>19</sup> While Peter was pondering the vision, the Spirit said to him, “Behold, three <sup>a</sup> men seek you. <sup>20</sup> But arise, get down, and go with them, doubting nothing; for I have sent them.”

<sup>21</sup> Peter went down to the men, and said, “Behold, I am he whom you seek. Why have you come?”

<sup>22</sup> They said, “Cornelius, a centurion, a righteous man and one who fears God, and well spoken of by all the nation of the Jews, was directed by a holy angel to invite you to his house, and to listen to what you say.” <sup>23</sup> So he called them in and provided a place to stay. On the next day Peter arose and went out with them, and some of the brothers from Joppa accompanied him. <sup>24</sup> On the next day they entered into Caesarea. Cornelius was waiting for them, having called together his relatives and his near friends. <sup>25</sup> When Peter entered, Cornelius met him, fell down at his feet, and worshiped him. <sup>26</sup> But Peter raised him up, saying, “Stand up! I myself am also a man.”<sup>27</sup> As he talked with him, he went in and found many gathered together.<sup>28</sup> He said to them, “You yourselves know how it is an unlawful thing for a man who is a Jew to join himself or come to one of another nation, but God has shown me that I shouldn’t call any man unholy or unclean.<sup>29</sup> Therefore also I came without complaint when I was sent for. I ask therefore, why did you send for me?”

<sup>30</sup> Cornelius said, “Four days ago, I was fasting until this hour, and at the ninth hour,<sup>b</sup> I prayed in my house, and behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing,<sup>31</sup> and said, ‘Cornelius, your prayer is heard, and your gifts to the needy are remembered in the sight of God.<sup>32</sup> Send therefore to Joppa, and summon Simon, who is also called Peter. He lodges in the house of a tanner named Simon, by the seaside. When he comes, he will speak to you.’<sup>33</sup> Therefore I sent to you at once, and it was good of you to come. Now therefore we are all here present in the sight of God to hear all things that have been commanded you by God.”

<sup>34</sup> Peter opened his mouth and said, “Truly I perceive that God doesn’t show favoritism;<sup>35</sup> but in every nation he who fears him and works righteousness is acceptable to him.<sup>36</sup> The word which he sent to the children of Israel, preaching good news of peace by Jesus Christ—he is Lord of all—<sup>37</sup> you yourselves know what happened, which was proclaimed throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee, after the baptism which John preached;<sup>38</sup> even Jesus of Nazareth, how God anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power, who went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him.<sup>39</sup> We are witnesses of everything he did both in the country of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom they also<sup>c</sup> killed, hanging him on a tree.<sup>40</sup> God raised him up the third day, and gave him to be revealed,<sup>41</sup> not to all the people, but to witnesses who were chosen before by God, to us, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead.<sup>42</sup> He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that this is he who is appointed by God as the Judge of the living and the dead.<sup>43</sup> All the prophets testify about him, that through his name everyone who believes in him will receive remission of sins.”

<sup>44</sup> While Peter was still speaking these words, the Holy Spirit fell on all those who heard the word.<sup>45</sup> They of the circumcision who believed were amazed, as many as came with Peter, because the gift of the Holy Spirit was also poured out on the Gentiles.<sup>46</sup> For they heard them speaking in other languages and magnifying God.

Then Peter answered,<sup>47</sup> “Can anyone forbid these people from being baptized with water? They have received the Holy Spirit just like us.”<sup>48</sup> He commanded them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they asked him to stay some days.

<sup>1</sup> Now the apostles and the brothers<sup>d</sup> who were in Judea heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God.<sup>2</sup> When Peter had come up to Jerusalem, those who were of the circumcision contended with him, <sup>3</sup> saying, “You went in to uncircumcised men, and ate with them!”

<sup>4</sup> But Peter began, and explained to them in order, saying, <sup>5</sup> “I was in the city of Joppa praying, and in a trance I saw a vision: a certain container descending, like it was a great sheet let down from heaven by four corners. It came as far as me. <sup>6</sup> When I had looked intently at it, I considered, and saw the four-footed animals of the earth, wild animals, creeping things, and birds of the sky. <sup>7</sup> I also heard a voice saying to me, ‘Rise, Peter, kill and eat!’ <sup>8</sup> But I said, ‘Not so, Lord, for nothing unholy or unclean has ever entered into my mouth.’ <sup>9</sup> But a voice answered me the second time out of heaven, ‘What God has cleansed, don’t you call unclean.’ <sup>10</sup> This was done three times, and all were drawn up again into heaven. <sup>11</sup> Behold, immediately three men stood before the house where I was, having been sent from Caesarea to me. <sup>12</sup> The Spirit told me to go with them, without discriminating. These six brothers also accompanied me, and we entered into the man’s house. <sup>13</sup> He told us how he had seen the angel standing in his house, and saying to him, ‘Send to Joppa, and get Simon, who is called Peter, <sup>14</sup> who will speak to you words by which you will be saved, you and all your house.’ <sup>15</sup> As I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell on them, even as on us at the beginning. <sup>16</sup> I remembered the word of the Lord, how he said, ‘John indeed baptized in water, but you will be baptized in the Holy Spirit.’ <sup>17</sup> If then God gave to them the same gift as us, when we believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I, that I could withstand God?”

<sup>18</sup> When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, “Then God has also granted to the Gentiles repentance to life!”

<sup>19</sup> They therefore who were scattered abroad by the oppression that arose about Stephen traveled as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch, speaking the word to no one except to Jews only. <sup>20</sup> But there were some of them, men of Cyprus and Cyrene, who, when they had come to Antioch, spoke to the Hellenists,<sup>e</sup> preaching the Lord Jesus. <sup>21</sup> The hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number believed and turned to the Lord. <sup>22</sup> The report concerning them came to the ears of the assembly which was in Jerusalem. They sent out Barnabas to go as far as Antioch, <sup>23</sup> who, when he had come, and had seen the grace of God, was glad. He exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they should remain near to the Lord. <sup>24</sup> For he was a good man, and full of the Holy Spirit and of faith, and many people were added to the Lord.

<sup>25</sup> Barnabas went out to Tarsus to look for Saul. <sup>26</sup> When he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. For a whole year they were gathered together with the assembly, and taught many people. The disciples were first called Christians in Antioch.

<sup>27</sup> Now in these days, prophets came down from Jerusalem to Antioch. <sup>28</sup> One of them named Agabus stood up, and indicated by the Spirit that there should be a great famine all over the world, which also happened in the days of Claudius. <sup>29</sup>

As any of the disciples had plenty, each determined to send relief to the brothers who lived in Judea; <sup>30</sup> which they also did, sending it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

12

<sup>7</sup> And behold, an angel of the Lord stood by him, and a light shone in the cell. He struck Peter on the side, and woke him up, saying, "Stand up quickly!" His chains fell off from his hands. <sup>8</sup> The angel said to him, "Get dressed and put on your sandals." He did so. He said to him, "Put on your cloak, and follow me." <sup>9</sup> And he went out and followed him. He didn't know that what was being done by the angel was real, but thought he saw a vision. <sup>10</sup> When they were past the first and the second guard, they came to the iron gate that leads into the city, which opened to them by itself. They went out, and went down one street, and immediately the angel departed from him.

<sup>11</sup> When Peter had come to himself, he said, "Now I truly know that the Lord has sent out his angel and delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from everything the Jewish people were expecting." <sup>12</sup> Thinking about that, he came to the house of Mary, the mother of John who was called Mark, where many were gathered together and were praying. <sup>13</sup> When Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a maid named Rhoda came to answer. <sup>14</sup> When she recognized Peter's voice, she didn't open the gate for joy, but ran in, and reported that Peter was standing in front of the gate.

<sup>15</sup> They said to her, "You are crazy!" But she insisted that it was so. They said, "It is his angel." <sup>16</sup> But Peter continued knocking. When they had opened, they saw him, and were amazed. <sup>17</sup> But he, beckoning to them with his hand to be silent, declared to them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. He said, "Tell these things to James, and to the brothers." Then he departed, and went to another place.

<sup>18</sup> Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers about what had become of Peter. <sup>19</sup> When Herod had sought for him, and didn't find him, he examined the guards, and commanded that they should be put to death. He went down from Judea to Caesarea, and stayed there. <sup>20</sup> Now Herod was very angry with the people of Tyre and Sidon. They came with one accord to him, and, having made Blastus, the king's personal aide, their friend, they asked for peace, because their country depended on the king's country for food. <sup>21</sup> On an appointed day, Herod dressed himself in royal clothing, sat on the throne, and gave a speech to them. <sup>22</sup> The people shouted, “The voice of a god, and not of a man!” <sup>23</sup> Immediately an angel of the Lord struck him, because he didn’t give God the glory, and he was eaten by worms and died.

<sup>24</sup> But the word of God grew and multiplied. <sup>25</sup> Barnabas and Saul returned to<sup>f</sup> Jerusalem, when they had fulfilled their service, also taking with them John who was called Mark.

13

<sup>1</sup> Now in the assembly that was at Antioch there were some prophets and teachers: Barnabas, Simeon who was called Niger, Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen the foster brother of Herod the tetrarch, and Saul. <sup>2</sup> As they served the Lord and fasted, the Holy Spirit said, “Separate Barnabas and Saul for me, for the work to which I have called them.”

<sup>3</sup> Then, when they had fasted and prayed and laid their hands on them, they sent them away. <sup>4</sup> So, being sent out by the Holy Spirit, they went down to Seleucia. From there they sailed to Cyprus. <sup>5</sup> When they were at Salamis, they proclaimed the word of God in the Jewish synagogues. They had also John as their attendant. <sup>6</sup> When they had gone through the island to Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Bar Jesus, <sup>7</sup> who was with the proconsul, Sergius Paulus, a man of understanding. This man summoned Barnabas and Saul, and sought to hear the word of God. <sup>8</sup> But Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn aside the proconsul from the faith. <sup>9</sup>

But Saul, who is also called Paul, filled with the Holy Spirit, fastened his eyes on him, <sup>10</sup> and said, “Full of all deceit and all cunning, you son of the devil, you enemy of all righteousness, will you not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord? <sup>11</sup> Now, behold, the hand of the Lord is on you, and you will be blind, not seeing the sun for a season!”

Immediately a mist and darkness fell on him. He went around seeking someone to lead him by the hand. <sup>12</sup> Then the proconsul, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the teaching of the Lord.

<sup>13</sup> Now Paul and his company set sail from Paphos, and came to Perga in Pamphylia. John departed from them and returned to Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup> But they, passing on from Perga, came to Antioch of Pisidia. They went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and sat down. <sup>15</sup> After the reading of the law and the prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent to them, saying, “Brothers, if you have any word of exhortation for the people, speak.”

<sup>16</sup> Paul stood up, and beckoning with his hand said, “Men of Israel, and you who fear God, listen. <sup>17</sup> The God of this people<sup>g</sup> chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they stayed as aliens in the land of Egypt, and with an uplifted arm, he led them out of it. <sup>18</sup> For a period of about forty years he put up with them in the wilderness. <sup>19</sup> When he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, he gave them their land for an inheritance, for about four hundred fifty years. <sup>20</sup> After these things he gave them judges until Samuel the prophet. <sup>21</sup> Afterward they asked for a king, and God gave to them Saul the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, for forty years.<sup>22</sup> When he had removed him, he raised up David to be their king, to whom he also testified, ‘I have found David the son of Jesse, a man after my heart, who will do all my will.’<sup>23</sup> From this man’s offspring,<sup>h</sup> God has brought salvation<sup>i</sup> to Israel according to his promise,<sup>24</sup> before his coming, when John had first preached the baptism of repentance to Israel.<sup>j</sup> <sup>25</sup> As John was fulfilling his course, he said, ‘What do you suppose that I am? I am not he. But behold, one comes after me the sandals of whose feet I am not worthy to untie.’<sup>26</sup> Brothers, children of the stock of Abraham, and those among you who fear God, the word of this salvation is sent out to you.<sup>27</sup> For those who dwell in Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they didn’t know him, nor the voices of the prophets which are read every Sabbath, fulfilled them by condemning him.<sup>28</sup> Though they found no cause for death, they still asked Pilate to have him killed.<sup>29</sup> When they had fulfilled all things that were written about him, they took him down from the tree, and laid him in a tomb.<sup>30</sup> But God raised him from the dead,<sup>31</sup> and he was seen for many days by those who came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are his witnesses to the people.<sup>32</sup> We bring you good news of the promise made to the fathers,<sup>33</sup> that God has fulfilled the same to us, their children, in that he raised up Jesus. As it is also written in the second psalm,

‘You are my Son.

Today I have become your father.’<sup>1</sup>

<sup>34</sup> “Concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he has spoken thus: ‘I will give you the holy and sure blessings of David.’<sup>2</sup> <sup>35</sup> Therefore he says also in another psalm, ‘You will not allow your Holy One to see decay.’<sup>3</sup> <sup>36</sup> For David, after he had in his own generation served the counsel of God, fell asleep, and was laid with his fathers, and saw decay.<sup>37</sup> But he whom God raised up saw no decay.<sup>38</sup> Be it known to you therefore, brothers,<sup>k</sup> that through this man is proclaimed to you remission of sins,<sup>39</sup> and by him everyone who believes is justified from all things, from which you could not be justified by the law of Moses.<sup>40</sup> Beware therefore, lest that come on you which is spoken in the prophets:

<sup>41</sup> ‘Behold, you scoffers, and wonder, and perish;
for I work a work in your days, a work which you will in no way believe, if one declares it to you.’”<sup>4</sup>

<sup>42</sup> So when the Jews went out of the synagogue, the Gentiles begged that these words might be preached to them the next Sabbath.<sup>43</sup> Now when the synagogue broke up, many of the Jews and of the devout proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas; who, speaking to them, urged them to continue in the grace of God.<sup>44</sup> The next Sabbath almost the whole city was gathered together to hear the word of God.<sup>45</sup> But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with jealousy, and contradicted the things which were spoken by Paul, and blasphemed.

<sup>46</sup> Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly, and said, "It was necessary that God's word should be spoken to you first. Since indeed you thrust it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of eternal life, behold, we turn to the Gentiles. <sup>47</sup> For so has the Lord commanded us, saying,

'I have set you as a light for the Gentiles,
that you should bring salvation to the uttermost parts of the earth.'"<sup>5</sup>

<sup>48</sup> As the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of God. As many as were appointed to eternal life believed. <sup>49</sup> The Lord's word was spread abroad throughout all the region. <sup>50</sup> But the Jews stirred up the devout and prominent women and the chief men of the city, and stirred up a persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and threw them out of their borders. <sup>51</sup> But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came to Iconium. <sup>52</sup> The disciples were filled with joy and with the Holy Spirit.

14

sided with the Jews, and part with the apostles. <sup>5</sup> When some of both the Gentiles and the Jews, with their rulers, made a violent attempt to mistreat and stone them, <sup>6</sup> they became aware of it, and fled to the cities of Lycaonia, Lystra, Derbe, and the surrounding region. <sup>7</sup> There they preached the Good News.

<sup>8</sup> At Lystra a certain man sat, impotent in his feet, a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked. <sup>9</sup> He was listening to Paul speaking, who, fastening eyes on him, and seeing that he had faith to be made whole, <sup>10</sup> said with a loud voice, "Stand upright on your feet!" He leaped up and walked. <sup>11</sup> When the multitude saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voice, saying in the language of Lycaonia, "The gods have come down to us in the likeness of men!" <sup>12</sup> They called Barnabas "Jupiter", and Paul "Mercury", because he was the chief speaker. <sup>13</sup> The priest of Jupiter, whose temple was in front of their city, brought oxen and garlands to the gates, and would have made a sacrifice along with the multitudes. <sup>14</sup> But when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of it, they tore their clothes, and sprang into the multitude, crying out, <sup>15</sup> "Men, why are you doing these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and bring you good news, that you should turn from these vain things to the living God, who made the sky and the earth and the sea, and all that is in them; <sup>16</sup> who in the generations gone by allowed all the nations to walk in their own ways. <sup>17</sup> Yet he didn't leave himself without witness, in that he did good and gave you<sup>m</sup> rains from the sky and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness.”

<sup>18</sup> Even saying these things, they hardly stopped the multitudes from making a sacrifice to them. <sup>19</sup> But some Jews from Antioch and Iconium came there, and having persuaded the multitudes, they stoned Paul, and dragged him out of the city, supposing that he was dead.

<sup>20</sup> But as the disciples stood around him, he rose up, and entered into the city. On the next day he went out with Barnabas to Derbe. <sup>21</sup> When they had preached the Good News to that city, and had made many disciples, they returned to Lystra, Iconium, and Antioch, <sup>22</sup> confirming the souls of the disciples, exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that through many afflictions we must enter into God’s Kingdom. <sup>23</sup> When they had appointed elders for them in every assembly, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they had believed.

<sup>24</sup> They passed through Pisidia, and came to Pamphylia. <sup>25</sup> When they had spoken the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia. <sup>26</sup> From there they sailed to Antioch, from where they had been committed to the grace of God for the work which they had fulfilled. <sup>27</sup> When they had arrived, and had gathered the assembly together, they reported all the things that God had done with them, and that he had opened a door of faith to the nations. <sup>28</sup> They stayed there with the disciples for a long time.

circumcised after the custom of Moses, you can’t be saved.” <sup>2</sup> Therefore when Paul and Barnabas had no small discord and discussion with them, they appointed Paul and Barnabas, and some others of them, to go up to Jerusalem to the apostles and elders about this question. <sup>3</sup> They, being sent on their way by the assembly, passed through both Phoenicia and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles. They caused great joy to all the brothers.<sup>n</sup> <sup>4</sup> When they had come to Jerusalem, they were received by the assembly and the apostles and the elders, and they reported all things that God had done with them.

<sup>5</sup> But some of the sect of the Pharisees who believed rose up, saying, “It is necessary to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses.”

<sup>6</sup> The apostles and the elders were gathered together to see about this matter. <sup>7</sup> When there had been much discussion, Peter rose up and said to them, “Brothers, you know that a good while ago God made a choice among you, that by my mouth the nations should hear the word of the Good News, and believe. <sup>8</sup> God, who knows the heart, testified about them, giving them the Holy Spirit, just like he did to us. <sup>9</sup> He made no distinction between us and them, cleansing their hearts by faith. <sup>10</sup> Now therefore why do you tempt God, that you should put a yoke on the neck of the disciples which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear? <sup>11</sup> But we believe that we are saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus, <sup>o</sup> just as they are.”

<sup>n</sup> The word for “brothers” here and where the context allows may also be correctly translated “brothers and sisters” or “siblings.”

what signs and wonders God had done among the nations through them. <sup>13</sup> After they were silent, James answered, “Brothers, listen to me. <sup>14</sup> Simeon has reported how God first visited the nations, to take out of them a people for his name. <sup>15</sup> This agrees with the words of the prophets. As it is written, <sup>16</sup> ‘After these things I will return.

I will again build the tabernacle of David, which has fallen.

I will again build its ruins.
I will set it up,

<sup>17</sup> That the rest of men may seek after the Lord;
all the Gentiles who are called by my name, says the Lord, who does all these

<sup>18</sup> All of God’s works are known to him
from eternity.’

<sup>19</sup> “Therefore my judgment is that we don’t trouble those from among the Gentiles who turn to God, <sup>20</sup> but that we write to them that they abstain from the pollution of idols, from sexual immorality, from what is strangled, and from blood. <sup>21</sup> For Moses from generations of old has in every city those who preach him, being read in the synagogues every Sabbath.”

<sup>22</sup> Then it seemed good to the apostles and the elders, with the whole assembly, to choose men out of their company, and send them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas: Judas called Barsabbas, and Silas, chief men among the brothers. <sup>p</sup> <sup>23</sup> They wrote these things by their hand:

“The apostles, the elders, and the brothers, to the brothers who are of the Gentiles in Antioch, Syria, and Cilicia: greetings. <sup>24</sup> Because we have heard that some who went out from us have troubled you with words, unsettling your souls, saying, ‘You must be circumcised and keep the law,’ to whom we gave no commandment; <sup>25</sup> it seemed good to us, having come to one accord, to choose out men and send them to you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, <sup>26</sup> men who have risked their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>27</sup> We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who themselves will also tell you the same things by word of mouth. <sup>28</sup> For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit, and to us, to lay no greater burden on you than these necessary things: <sup>29</sup> that you abstain from things sacrificed to idols, from blood, from things strangled, and from sexual immorality, from which if you keep yourselves, it will be well with you. Farewell.”

<sup>30</sup> So, when they were sent off, they came to Antioch. Having gathered the multitude together, they delivered the letter. <sup>31</sup> When they had read it, they rejoiced over the encouragement. <sup>32</sup> Judas and Silas, also being prophets themselves, encouraged the brothers with many words, and strengthened them. <sup>33</sup> After they had spent some time there, they were sent back with greetings from the brothers to the apostles. <sup>34</sup> <sup>q</sup> <sup>35</sup> But Paul and Barnabas stayed in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

<sup>36</sup> After some days Paul said to Barnabas, “Let’s return now and visit our brothers in every city in which we proclaimed the word of the Lord, to see how they are doing.”<sup>37</sup> Barnabas planned to take John, who was called Mark, with them also.<sup>38</sup> But Paul didn’t think that it was a good idea to take with them someone who had withdrawn from them in Pamphylia, and didn’t go with them to do the work.<sup>39</sup> Then the contention grew so sharp that they separated from each other. Barnabas took Mark with him, and sailed away to Cyprus,<sup>40</sup> but Paul chose Silas, and went out, being commended by the brothers to the grace of God.<sup>41</sup> He went through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the assemblies.

16

<sup>1</sup> He came to Derbe and Lystra: and behold, a certain disciple was there, named Timothy, the son of a Jewess who believed; but his father was a Greek.<sup>2</sup> The brothers who were at Lystra and Iconium gave a good testimony about him.<sup>3</sup> Paul wanted to have him go out with him, and he took and circumcised him because of the Jews who were in those parts; for they all knew that his father was a Greek.<sup>4</sup> As they went on their way through the cities, they delivered the decrees to them to keep which had been ordained by the apostles and elders who were at Jerusalem.<sup>5</sup> So the assemblies were strengthened in the faith, and increased in number daily.

<sup>6</sup> When they had gone through the region of Phrygia and Galatia, they were forbidden by the Holy Spirit to speak the word in Asia.<sup>7</sup> When they had come opposite Mysia, they tried to go into Bithynia, but the Spirit didn’t allow them.<sup>8</sup> Passing by Mysia, they came down to Troas.<sup>9</sup> A vision appeared to Paul in the night. There was a man of Macedonia standing, begging him, and saying, “Come over into Macedonia and help us.”<sup>10</sup> When he had seen the vision, immediately we sought to go out to Macedonia, concluding that the Lord had called us to preach the Good News to them.<sup>11</sup> Setting sail therefore from Troas, we made a straight course to Samothrace, and the day following to Neapolis;<sup>12</sup> and from there to Philippi, which is a city of Macedonia, the foremost of the district, a Roman colony. We were staying some days in this city.

<sup>13</sup> On the Sabbath day we went outside of the city by a riverside, where we supposed there was a place of prayer, and we sat down, and spoke to the women who had come together.<sup>14</sup> A certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, one who worshiped God, heard us; whose heart the Lord opened to listen to the things which were spoken by Paul.<sup>15</sup> When she and her household were baptized, she begged us, saying, “If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and stay.” So she persuaded us.

<sup>16</sup> As we were going to prayer, a certain girl having a spirit of divination met us, who brought her masters much gain by fortune telling.<sup>17</sup> Following Paul and us, she cried out, “These men are servants of the Most High God, who proclaim to us a way of salvation!”<sup>18</sup> She was doing this for many days.

But Paul, becoming greatly annoyed, turned and said to the spirit, “I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her!” It came out that very hour.<sup>19</sup> But when her masters saw that the hope of their gain was gone, they seized Paul and Silas, and dragged them into the marketplace before the rulers. <sup>20</sup> When they had brought them to the magistrates, they said, “These men, being Jews, are agitating our city, <sup>21</sup> and advocate customs which it is not lawful for us to accept or to observe, being Romans.”

<sup>25</sup> But about midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them. <sup>26</sup> Suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened, and everyone’s bonds were loosened. <sup>27</sup> The jailer, being roused out of sleep and seeing the prison doors open, drew his sword and was about to kill himself, supposing that the prisoners had escaped. <sup>28</sup> But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, “Don’t harm yourself, for we are all here!”

<sup>29</sup> He called for lights, sprang in, fell down trembling before Paul and Silas, <sup>30</sup> brought them out, and said, “Sirs, what must I do to be saved?”

<sup>31</sup> They said, “Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved, you and your household.” <sup>32</sup> They spoke the word of the Lord to him, and to all who were in his house.

<sup>33</sup> He took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes, and was immediately baptized, he and all his household. <sup>34</sup> He brought them up into his house, and set food before them, and rejoiced greatly, with all his household, having believed in God.

<sup>35</sup> But when it was day, the magistrates sent the sergeants, saying, “Let those men go.”

<sup>36</sup> The jailer reported these words to Paul, saying, “The magistrates have sent to let you go; now therefore come out, and go in peace.”

<sup>37</sup> But Paul said to them, “They have beaten us publicly, without a trial, men who are Romans, and have cast us into prison! Do they now release us secretly? No, most certainly, but let them come themselves and bring us out!”

<sup>38</sup> The sergeants reported these words to the magistrates, and they were afraid when they heard that they were Romans, <sup>39</sup> and they came and begged them. When they had brought them out, they asked them to depart from the city. <sup>40</sup> They went out of the prison, and entered into Lydia’s house. When they had seen the brothers, they encouraged them, and departed.

17

<sup>1</sup> Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where there was a Jewish synagogue. <sup>2</sup> Paul, as was his custom, went in to them, and for three Sabbath days reasoned with them from the Scriptures, <sup>3</sup> explaining and demonstrating that the Christ had to suffer and rise again from the dead, and saying, “This Jesus, whom I proclaim to you, is the Christ.”

<sup>11</sup> Now these were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, examining the Scriptures daily to see whether these things were so. <sup>12</sup> Many of them therefore believed; also of the prominent Greek women, and not a few men. <sup>13</sup> But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was proclaimed by Paul at Beroea also, they came there likewise, agitating the multitudes. <sup>14</sup> Then the brothers immediately sent out Paul to go as far as to the sea, and Silas and Timothy still stayed there. <sup>15</sup> But those who escorted Paul brought him as far as Athens.

Receiving a commandment to Silas and Timothy that they should come to him very quickly, they departed.

<sup>16</sup> Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was provoked within him as he saw the city full of idols. <sup>17</sup> So he reasoned in the synagogue with the Jews and the devout persons, and in the marketplace every day with those who met him. <sup>18</sup> Some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers also<sup>t</sup> were conversing with him. Some said, "What does this babblers want to say?"

Others said, "He seems to be advocating foreign deities," because he preached Jesus and the resurrection.

<sup>19</sup> They took hold of him, and brought him to the Areopagus, saying, "May we know what this new teaching is, which is spoken by you? <sup>20</sup> For you bring certain strange things to our ears. We want to know therefore what these things mean." <sup>21</sup> Now all the Athenians and the strangers living there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell or to hear some new thing.

<sup>22</sup> Paul stood in the middle of the Areopagus, and said, "You men of Athens, I perceive that you are very religious in all things. <sup>23</sup> For as I passed along, and observed the objects of your worship, I found also an altar with this inscription: 'TO AN UNKNOWN GOD.' What therefore you worship in ignorance, this I announce to you. <sup>24</sup> The God who made the world and all things in it, he, being Lord of heaven and earth, doesn't dwell in temples made with hands, <sup>25</sup> neither is he served by men's hands, as though he needed anything, seeing he himself gives to all life and breath, and all things.<sup>26</sup> He made from one blood every nation of men to dwell on all the surface of the earth, having determined appointed seasons, and the boundaries of their dwellings,<sup>27</sup> that they should seek the Lord, if perhaps they might reach out for him and find him, though he is not far from each one of us.<sup>28</sup> 'For in him we live, and move, and have our being.' As some of your own poets have said, 'For we are also his offspring.'<sup>29</sup> Being then the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Divine Nature is like gold, or silver, or stone, engraved by art and design of man.<sup>30</sup> The times of ignorance therefore God overlooked. But now he commands that all people everywhere should repent,<sup>31</sup> because he has appointed a day in which he will judge the world in righteousness by the man whom he has ordained; of which he has given assurance to all men, in that he has raised him from the dead."

<sup>32</sup> Now when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked; but others said, "We want to hear you again concerning this."

<sup>34</sup> But certain men joined with him, and believed, among whom also was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

18

Rome. He came to them,<sup>3</sup> and because he practiced the same trade, he lived with them and worked, for by trade they were tent makers.<sup>4</sup> He reasoned in the synagogue every Sabbath, and persuaded Jews and Greeks.<sup>5</sup> But when Silas and Timothy came down from Macedonia, Paul was compelled by the Spirit, testifying to the Jews that Jesus was the Christ.<sup>6</sup> When they opposed him and blasphemed, he shook out his clothing and said to them, "Your blood be on your own heads! I am clean. From now on, I will go to the Gentiles!"

<sup>7</sup> He departed there, and went into the house of a certain man named Justus, one who worshiped God, whose house was next door to the synagogue.<sup>8</sup> Crispus, the ruler of the synagogue, believed in the Lord with all his house. Many of the Corinthians, when they heard, believed and were baptized.<sup>9</sup> The Lord said to Paul in the night by a vision, "Don't be afraid, but speak and don't be silent;<sup>10</sup> for I am with you, and no one will attack you to harm you, for I have many people in this city."

<sup>11</sup> He lived there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.<sup>12</sup> But when Gallio was proconsul of Achaia, the Jews with one accord rose up against Paul and brought him before the judgment seat,<sup>13</sup> saying, "This man persuades men to worship God contrary to the law."

<sup>14</sup> But when Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, "If indeed it were a matter of wrong or of wicked crime, you Jews, it would be reasonable that I should bear with you;<sup>15</sup> but if they are questions about words and names and your own law, look to it yourselves. For I don't want to be a judge of these matters.”<sup>16</sup> He drove them from the judgment seat.

<sup>17</sup> Then all the Greeks laid hold on Sosthenes, the ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment seat. Gallio didn't care about any of these things.

<sup>18</sup> Paul, having stayed after this many more days, took his leave of the brothers,<sup>u</sup> and sailed from there for Syria, together with Priscilla and Aquila. He shaved his head in Cenchreae, for he had a vow.<sup>19</sup> He came to Ephesus, and he left them there; but he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews.<sup>20</sup> When they asked him to stay with them a longer time, he declined;<sup>21</sup> but taking his leave of them, and saying, “I must by all means keep this coming feast in Jerusalem, but I will return again to you if God wills,” he set sail from Ephesus.

<sup>22</sup> When he had landed at Caesarea, he went up and greeted the assembly, and went down to Antioch.<sup>23</sup> Having spent some time there, he departed, and went through the region of Galatia, and Phrygia, in order, establishing all the disciples.<sup>24</sup> Now a certain Jew named Apollos, an Alexandrian by race, an eloquent man, came to Ephesus. He was mighty in the Scriptures.<sup>25</sup> This man had been instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in spirit, he spoke and taught accurately the things concerning Jesus, although he knew only the baptism of John.<sup>26</sup> He began to speak boldly in the synagogue. But when Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him aside, and explained to him the way of God more accurately.

<sup>27</sup> When he had determined to pass over into Achaia, the brothers encouraged him, and wrote to the disciples to receive him. When he had come, he greatly helped those who had believed through grace;<sup>28</sup> for he powerfully refuted the Jews, publicly showing by the Scriptures that Jesus was the Christ.

19

<sup>1</sup> While Apollos was at Corinth, Paul, having passed through the upper country, came to Ephesus, and found certain disciples.<sup>2</sup> He said to them, “Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?”

They said to him, “No, we haven't even heard that there is a Holy Spirit.”

<sup>3</sup> He said, “Into what then were you baptized?”

They said, “Into John's baptism.”

<sup>4</sup> Paul said, “John indeed baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying to the people that they should believe in the one who would come after him, that is, in Jesus.”

<sup>5</sup> When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.<sup>6</sup> When Paul had laid his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came on them, and they spoke with other languages and prophesied.<sup>7</sup> They were about twelve men in all.<sup>8</sup> He entered into the synagogue, and spoke boldly for a period of three months, reasoning and persuading about the things concerning God's Kingdom.

<sup>9</sup> But when some were hardened and disobedient, speaking evil of the Way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, reasoning daily in the school of Tyrannus.

<sup>10</sup> This continued for two years, so that all those who lived in Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.

<sup>11</sup> God worked special miracles by the hands of Paul, <sup>12</sup> so that even handkerchiefs or aprons were carried away from his body to the sick, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out. <sup>13</sup> But some of the itinerant Jews, exorcists, took on themselves to invoke over those who had the evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, “We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preaches.” <sup>14</sup> There were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jewish chief priest, who did this.

<sup>16</sup> The man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overpowered them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.

<sup>17</sup> This became known to all, both Jews and Greeks, who lived at Ephesus. Fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified. <sup>18</sup> Many also of those who had believed came, confessing, and declaring their deeds. <sup>19</sup> Many of those who practiced magical arts brought their books together and burned them in the sight of all. They counted their price, and found it to be fifty thousand pieces of silver.<sup>v</sup> <sup>20</sup> So the word of the Lord was growing and becoming mighty.

<sup>21</sup> Now after these things had ended, Paul determined in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, “After I have been there, I must also see Rome.”

<sup>22</sup> Having sent into Macedonia two of those who served him, Timothy and

Erastus, he himself stayed in Asia for a while. <sup>23</sup> About that time there arose no small stir concerning the Way. <sup>24</sup> For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith, who made silver shrines of Artemis, brought no little business to the craftsmen, <sup>25</sup> whom he gathered together, with the workmen of like occupation, and said, “Sirs, you know that by this business we have our wealth. <sup>26</sup> You see and hear, that not at Ephesus alone, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul has persuaded and turned away many people, saying that they are no gods, that are made with hands. <sup>27</sup> Not only is there danger that this our trade come into disrepute, but also that the temple of the great goddess Artemis will be counted as nothing, and her majesty destroyed, whom all Asia and the world worships.”

<sup>28</sup> When they heard this they were filled with anger, and cried out, saying, “Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!” <sup>29</sup> The whole city was filled with confusion, and they rushed with one accord into the theater, having seized Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul’s companions in travel. <sup>30</sup> When Paul wanted to enter in to the people, the disciples didn’t allow him. <sup>31</sup> Certain also of the Asiarchs, being his friends, sent to him and begged him not to venture into the theater. <sup>32</sup> Some therefore cried one thing, and some another, for the assembly was in confusion. Most of them didn’t know why they had come together. <sup>33</sup> They brought Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. Alexander beckoned with his hand, and would have made a defense to the people.<sup>34</sup> But when they perceived that he was a Jew, all with one voice for a time of about two hours cried out, "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!"

<sup>35</sup> When the town clerk had quieted the multitude, he said, "You men of Ephesus, what man is there who doesn't know that the city of the Ephesians is temple keeper of the great goddess Artemis, and of the image which fell down from Zeus?<sup>36</sup> Seeing then that these things can't be denied, you ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rash.<sup>37</sup> For you have brought these men here, who are neither robbers of temples nor blasphemers of your goddess.<sup>38</sup> If therefore Demetrius and the craftsmen who are with him have a matter against anyone, the courts are open, and there are proconsuls. Let them press charges against one another.<sup>39</sup> But if you seek anything about other matters, it will be settled in the regular assembly.<sup>40</sup> For indeed we are in danger of being accused concerning today's riot, there being no cause. Concerning it, we wouldn't be able to give an account of this commotion."<sup>41</sup> When he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

20

<sup>1</sup> After the uproar had ceased, Paul sent for the disciples, took leave of them, and departed to go into Macedonia.<sup>2</sup> When he had gone through those parts, and had encouraged them with many words, he came into Greece.<sup>3</sup> When he had spent three months there, and a plot was made against him by Jews as he was about to set sail for Syria, he determined to return through Macedonia.<sup>4</sup> These accompanied him as far as Asia: Sopater of Beroea; Aristarchus and Secundus of the Thessalonians; Gaius of Derbe; Timothy; and Tychicus and Trophimus of Asia.<sup>5</sup> But these had gone ahead, and were waiting for us at Troas.<sup>6</sup> We sailed away from Philippi after the days of Unleavened Bread, and came to them at Troas in five days, where we stayed seven days.

<sup>11</sup> When he had gone up, and had broken bread, and eaten, and had talked with them a long while, even until break of day, he departed.<sup>12</sup> They brought the boy in alive, and were greatly comforted.

<sup>13</sup> But we, going ahead to the ship, set sail for Assos, intending to take Paul aboard there; for he had so arranged, intending himself to go by land.<sup>14</sup> When he met us at Assos, we took him aboard, and came to Mitylene.<sup>15</sup> Sailing from there, we came the following day opposite Chios. The next day we touched at Samos and stayed at Trogyllium, and the day after we came to Miletus.<sup>16</sup> For Paul had determined to sail past Ephesus, that he might not have to spend time in Asia; for he was hastening, if it were possible for him, to be in Jerusalem on the day of Pentecost.

<sup>17</sup> From Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called to himself the elders of the assembly.

<sup>18</sup> When they had come to him, he said to them, “You yourselves know, from the first day that I set foot in Asia, how I was with you all the time, <sup>19</sup> serving the Lord with all humility, with many tears, and with trials which happened to me by the plots of the Jews; <sup>20</sup> how I didn’t shrink from declaring to you anything that was profitable, teaching you publicly and from house to house, <sup>21</sup> testifying both to Jews and to Greeks repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus.<sup>x</sup> <sup>22</sup> Now, behold, I go bound by the Spirit to Jerusalem, not knowing what will happen to me there; <sup>23</sup> except that the Holy Spirit testifies in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions wait for me. <sup>24</sup> But these things don’t count; nor do I hold my life dear to myself, so that I may finish my race with joy, and the ministry which I received from the Lord Jesus, to fully testify to the Good News of the grace of God.

<sup>25</sup> “Now, behold, I know that you all, among whom I went about preaching God’s Kingdom, will see my face no more.

<sup>26</sup> Therefore I testify to you today that I am clean from the blood of all men, <sup>27</sup> for I didn’t shrink from declaring to you the whole counsel of God. <sup>28</sup> Take heed, therefore, to yourselves, and to all the flock, in which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to shepherd the assembly of the Lord and <sup>y</sup> God which he purchased with his own blood. <sup>29</sup> For I know that after my departure, vicious wolves will enter in among you, not sparing the flock. <sup>30</sup> Men will arise from among your own selves, speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after them. <sup>31</sup> Therefore watch, remembering that for a period of three years I didn’t cease to admonish everyone night and day with tears. <sup>32</sup> Now, brothers,<sup>z</sup> I entrust you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build up, and to give you the inheritance among all those who are sanctified. <sup>33</sup> I coveted no one’s silver, or gold, or clothing. <sup>34</sup> You yourselves know that these hands served my necessities, and those who were with me. <sup>35</sup> In all things I gave you an example, that so laboring you ought to help the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, that he himself said, ‘It is more blessed to give than to receive.’”

<sup>36</sup> When he had spoken these things, he knelt down and prayed with them all. <sup>37</sup> They all wept a lot, and fell on Paul’s neck and kissed him, <sup>38</sup> sorrowing most of all because of the word which he had spoken, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him to the ship.

21

<sup>1</sup> When we had departed from them and had set sail, we came with a straight course to Cos, and the next day to Rhodes, and from there to Patara. <sup>2</sup> Having found a ship crossing over to Phoenicia, we went aboard, and set sail. <sup>3</sup> When we had come in sight of Cyprus, leaving it on the left hand, we sailed to Syria, and landed at Tyre, for there the ship was to unload her cargo. <sup>4</sup> Having found disciples, we stayed there seven days. These said to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup> When those days were over, we departed and went on our journey. They all, with wives and children, brought us on our way until we were out of the city. Kneeling down on the beach, we prayed. <sup>6</sup> After saying goodbye to each other, we went on board the ship, and they returned home again.

<sup>7</sup> When we had finished the voyage from Tyre, we arrived at Ptolemais. We greeted the brothers, and stayed with them one day. <sup>8</sup> On the next day, we, who were Paul's companions, departed, and came to Caesarea.

We entered into the house of Philip the evangelist, who was one of the seven, and stayed with him. <sup>9</sup> Now this man had four virgin daughters who prophesied. <sup>10</sup> As we stayed there some days, a certain prophet named Agabus came down from Judea. <sup>11</sup> Coming to us, and taking Paul's belt, he bound his own feet and hands, and said, "Thus says the Holy Spirit: 'So will the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man who owns this belt, and will deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.'"

<sup>12</sup> When we heard these things, both we and they of that place begged him not to go up to Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup> Then Paul answered, "What are you doing, weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready not only to be bound, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus."

<sup>14</sup> When he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, "The Lord's will be done."

<sup>15</sup> After these days we took up our baggage and went up to Jerusalem. <sup>16</sup> Some of the disciples from Caesarea also went with us, bringing one Mnason of Cyprus, an early disciple, with whom we would stay.

<sup>17</sup> When we had come to Jerusalem, the brothers received us gladly. <sup>18</sup> The day following, Paul went in with us to James; and all the elders were present. <sup>19</sup> When he had greeted them, he reported one by one the things which God had worked among the Gentiles through his ministry. <sup>20</sup> They, when they heard it, glorified God. They said to him, "You see, brother, how many thousands there are among the Jews of those who have believed, and they are all zealous for the law. <sup>21</sup> They have been informed about you, that you teach all the Jews who are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, telling them not to circumcise their children neither to walk after the customs. <sup>22</sup> What then? The assembly must certainly meet, for they will hear that you have come. <sup>23</sup> Therefore do what we tell you. We have four men who have taken a vow. <sup>24</sup> Take them, and purify yourself with them, and pay their expenses for them, that they may shave their heads. Then all will know that there is no truth in the things that they have been informed about you, but that you yourself also walk keeping the law. <sup>25</sup> But concerning the Gentiles who believe, we have written our decision that they should observe no such thing, except that they should keep themselves from food offered to idols, from blood, from strangled things, and from sexual immorality."

<sup>26</sup> Then Paul took the men, and the next day, purified himself and went with them into the temple, declaring the fulfillment of the days of purification, until the offering was offered for every one of them. <sup>27</sup> When the seven days were almost completed, the Jews from Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the multitude and laid hands on him, <sup>28</sup> crying out, “Men of Israel, help! This is the man who teaches all men everywhere against the people, and the law, and this place. Moreover, he also brought Greeks into the temple, and has defiled this holy place!” <sup>29</sup> For they had seen Trophimus, the Ephesian, with him in the city, and they supposed that Paul had brought him into the temple.

<sup>30</sup> All the city was moved, and the people ran together. They seized Paul and dragged him out of the temple. Immediately the doors were shut. <sup>31</sup> As they were trying to kill him, news came up to the commanding officer of the regiment that all Jerusalem was in an uproar. <sup>32</sup> Immediately he took soldiers and centurions, and ran down to them. They, when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, stopped beating Paul. <sup>33</sup> Then the commanding officer came near, arrested him, commanded him to be bound with two chains, and inquired who he was and what he had done. <sup>34</sup> Some shouted one thing, and some another, among the crowd. When he couldn't find out the truth because of the noise, he commanded him to be brought into the barracks.

He said, “Do you know Greek? <sup>38</sup> Aren't you then the Egyptian, who before these days stirred up to sedition and led out into the wilderness the four thousand men of the Assassins?”

<sup>39</sup> But Paul said, “I am a Jew, from Tarsus in Cilicia, a citizen of no insignificant city. I beg you, allow me to speak to the people.”

<sup>40</sup> When he had given him permission, Paul, standing on the stairs, beckoned with his hand to the people. When there was a great silence, he spoke to them in the Hebrew language, saying,

<sup>2</sup> When they heard that he spoke to them in the Hebrew language, they were even more quiet. He said, <sup>3</sup> “I am indeed a Jew, born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, instructed according to the strict tradition of the law of our fathers, being zealous for God, even as you all are today. <sup>4</sup> I persecuted this Way to the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women. <sup>5</sup> As also the high priest and all the council of the elders testify, from whom also I received letters to the brothers, and traveled to Damascus to bring them also who were there to Jerusalem in bonds to be punished.

<sup>6</sup> As I made my journey, and came close to Damascus, about noon, suddenly a great light shone around me from the sky. <sup>7</sup> I fell to the ground, and heard a voice saying to me, ‘Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?’ <sup>8</sup> I answered, ‘Who are you, Lord?’ He said to me, ‘I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom you persecute.’

<sup>9</sup> “Those who were with me indeed saw the light and were afraid, but they didn’t understand the voice of him who spoke to me. <sup>10</sup> I said, ‘What shall I do, Lord?’ The Lord said to me, ‘Arise, and go into Damascus. There you will be told about all things which are appointed for you to do.’

<sup>11</sup> When I couldn’t see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of those who were with me, I came into Damascus. <sup>12</sup> One Ananias, a devout man according to the law, well reported of by all the Jews who lived in Damascus, <sup>13</sup> came to me, and standing by me said to me, ‘Brother Saul, receive your sight!’ In that very hour I looked up at him. <sup>14</sup> He said, ‘The God of our fathers has appointed you to know his will, and to see the Righteous One, and to hear a voice from his mouth. <sup>15</sup> For you will be a witness for him to all men of what you have seen and heard. <sup>16</sup> Now why do you wait? Arise, be baptized, and wash away your sins, calling on the name of the Lord.’

<sup>17</sup> “When I had returned to Jerusalem, and while I prayed in the temple, I fell into a trance, <sup>18</sup> and saw him saying to me, ‘Hurry and get out of Jerusalem quickly, because they will not receive testimony concerning me from you.’ <sup>19</sup> I said, ‘Lord, they themselves know that I imprisoned and beat in every synagogue those who believed in you. <sup>20</sup> When the blood of Stephen, your witness, was shed, I also was standing by, and consenting to his death, and guarding the cloaks of those who killed him.’

<sup>21</sup> “He said to me, ‘Depart, for I will send you out far from here to the Gentiles.’”

<sup>22</sup> They listened to him until he said that; then they lifted up their voice, and said, “Rid the earth of this fellow, for he isn’t fit to live!”

<sup>23</sup> As they cried out, and threw off their cloaks, and threw dust into the air, <sup>24</sup> the commanding officer commanded him to be brought into the barracks, ordering him to be examined by scourging, that he might know for what crime they shouted against him like that. <sup>25</sup> When they had tied him up with thongs, Paul asked the centurion who stood by, “Is it lawful for you to scourge a man who is a Roman, and not found guilty?”

<sup>26</sup> When the centurion heard it, he went to the commanding officer and told him, “Watch what you are about to do, for this man is a Roman!”

<sup>27</sup> The commanding officer came and asked him, “Tell me, are you a Roman?” He said, “Yes.”

Paul said, “But I was born a Roman.”

<sup>29</sup> Immediately those who were about to examine him departed from him, and the commanding officer also was afraid when he realized that he was a Roman, because he had bound him. <sup>30</sup> But on the next day, desiring to know the truth about why he was accused by the Jews, he freed him from the bonds, and commanded the chief priests and all the council to come together, and brought Paul down and set him before them.

<sup>2</sup> The high priest, Ananias, commanded those who stood by him to strike him on the mouth.

<sup>3</sup> Then Paul said to him, “God will strike you, you whitewashed wall! Do you sit to judge me according to the law, and command me to be struck contrary to the law?”

<sup>4</sup> Those who stood by said, “Do you malign God’s high priest?”

<sup>5</sup> Paul said, “I didn’t know, brothers, that he was high priest. For it is written, ‘You shall not speak evil of a ruler of your people.’”<sup>1</sup> <sup>6</sup> But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, “Men and brothers, I am a Pharisee, a son of Pharisees. Concerning the hope and resurrection of the dead I am being judged!”

<sup>7</sup> When he had said this, an argument arose between the Pharisees and Sadducees, and the crowd was divided. <sup>8</sup> For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, nor angel, nor spirit; but the Pharisees confess all of these. <sup>9</sup> A great clamor arose, and some of the scribes of the Pharisees’ part stood up, and contended, saying, “We find no evil in this man. But if a spirit or angel has spoken to him, let’s not fight against God!”

<sup>10</sup> When a great argument arose, the commanding officer, fearing that Paul would be torn in pieces by them, commanded the soldiers to go down and take him by force from among them, and bring him into the barracks.

<sup>11</sup> The following night, the Lord stood by him, and said, “Cheer up, Paul, for as you have testified about me at Jerusalem, so you must testify also at Rome.”

<sup>12</sup> When it was day, some of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink until they had killed Paul. <sup>13</sup> There were more than forty people who had made this conspiracy. <sup>14</sup> They came to the chief priests and the elders, and said, “We have bound ourselves under a great curse, to taste nothing until we have killed Paul. <sup>15</sup> Now therefore, you with the council inform the commanding officer that he should bring him down to you tomorrow, as though you were going to judge his case more exactly. We are ready to kill him before he comes near.”

<sup>16</sup> But Paul’s sister’s son heard of their lying in wait, and he came and entered into the barracks and told Paul. <sup>17</sup> Paul summoned one of the centurions, and said, “Bring this young man to the commanding officer, for he has something to tell him.”

<sup>18</sup> So he took him, and brought him to the commanding officer, and said, “Paul, the prisoner, summoned me and asked me to bring this young man to you, who has something to tell you.”

<sup>19</sup> The commanding officer took him by the hand, and going aside, asked him privately, “What is it that you have to tell me?”

<sup>20</sup> He said, “The Jews have agreed to ask you to bring Paul down to the council tomorrow, as though intending to inquire somewhat more accurately concerning him.

<sup>21</sup> Therefore don't yield to them, for more than forty men lie in wait for him, who have bound themselves under a curse neither to eat nor to drink until they have killed him. Now they are ready, looking for the promise from you."

<sup>22</sup> So the commanding officer let the young man go, charging him, "Tell no one that you have revealed these things to me."

<sup>23</sup> He called to himself two of the centurions, and said, "Prepare two hundred soldiers to go as far as Caesarea, with seventy horsemen, and two hundred men armed with spears, at the third hour of the night."<sup>a</sup> <sup>24</sup> He asked them to provide animals, that they might set Paul on one, and bring him safely to Felix the governor.

<sup>27</sup> "This man was seized by the Jews, and was about to be killed by them, when I came with the soldiers and rescued him, having learned that he was a Roman. <sup>28</sup> Desiring to know the cause why they accused him, I brought him down to their council. <sup>29</sup> I found him to be accused about questions of their law, but not to be charged with anything worthy of death or of imprisonment. <sup>30</sup> When I was told that the Jews lay in wait for the man, I sent him to you immediately, charging his accusers also to bring their accusations against him before you. Farewell."

came to Caesarea and delivered the letter to the governor, they also presented Paul to him. <sup>34</sup> When the governor had read it, he asked what province he was from. When he understood that he was from Cilicia, he said, <sup>35</sup> "I will hear you fully when your accusers also arrive." He commanded that he be kept in Herod's palace.

24

<sup>1</sup> After five days, the high priest, Ananias, came down with certain elders and an orator, one Tertullus. They informed the governor against Paul. <sup>2</sup> When he was called, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, "Seeing that by you we enjoy much peace, and that prosperity is coming to this nation by your foresight, <sup>3</sup> we accept it in all ways and in all places, most excellent Felix, with all thankfulness. <sup>4</sup> But, that I don't delay you, I entreat you to bear with us and hear a few words. <sup>5</sup> For we have found this man to be a plague, an instigator of insurrections among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes. <sup>6</sup> He even tried to profane the temple, and we arrested him.<sup>b</sup> <sup>7</sup> <sup>c</sup> <sup>8</sup> <sup>d</sup>By examining him yourself you may ascertain all these things of which we accuse him."

<sup>9</sup> The Jews also joined in the attack, affirming that these things were so. <sup>10</sup> When the governor had beckoned to him to speak, Paul answered, "Because I know that you have been a judge of this nation for many years, I cheerfully make my defense, <sup>11</sup> seeing that you can recognize that it is not more than twelve days since I went up to worship at Jerusalem. <sup>12</sup> In the temple they didn't find me disputing with anyone or stirring up a crowd, either in the synagogues, or in the city. <sup>13</sup> Nor can they prove to you the things of which they now accuse me. <sup>14</sup> But this I confess to you, that after the Way, which they call a sect, so I serve the God of our fathers, believing all things which are according to the law, and which are written in the prophets; <sup>15</sup> having hope toward God, which these also themselves look for, that there will be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust. <sup>16</sup> Herein I also practice always having a conscience void of offense toward God and men. <sup>17</sup> Now after some years, I came to bring gifts for the needy to my nation, and offerings; <sup>18</sup> amid which certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, not with a mob, nor with turmoil. <sup>19</sup> They ought to have been here before you, and to make accusation, if they had anything against me. <sup>20</sup> Or else let these men themselves say what injustice they found in me when I stood before the council, <sup>21</sup> unless it is for this one thing that I cried standing among them, 'Concerning the resurrection of the dead I am being judged before you today!'"

<sup>22</sup> But Felix, having more exact knowledge concerning the Way, deferred them, saying, "When Lysias, the commanding officer, comes down, I will decide your case." <sup>23</sup> He ordered the centurion that Paul should be kept in custody, and should have some privileges, and not to forbid any of his friends to serve him or to visit him. <sup>24</sup> But after some days, Felix came with Drusilla, his wife, who was a Jewess, and sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ Jesus. <sup>25</sup> As he reasoned about righteousness, self-control, and the judgment to come, Felix was terrified, and answered, "Go your way for this time, and when it is convenient for me, I will summon you." <sup>26</sup> Meanwhile, he also hoped that money would be given to him by Paul, that he might release him. Therefore also he sent for him more often, and talked with him. <sup>27</sup> But when two years were fulfilled, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus, and desiring to gain favor with the Jews, Felix left Paul in bonds.

25

<sup>1</sup> Festus therefore, having come into the province, after three days went up to Jerusalem from Caesarea. <sup>2</sup> Then the high priest and the principal men of the Jews informed him against Paul, and they begged him, <sup>3</sup> asking a favor against him, that he would summon him to Jerusalem; plotting to kill him on the way. <sup>4</sup> However Festus answered that Paul should be kept in custody at Caesarea, and that he himself was about to depart shortly. <sup>5</sup> "Let them therefore", said he, "that are in power among you go down with me, and if there is anything wrong in the man, let them accuse him."

<sup>6</sup> When he had stayed among them more than ten days, he went down to Caesarea, and on the next day he sat on the judgment seat, and commanded Paul to be brought. <sup>7</sup> When he had come, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem stood around him, bringing against him many and grievous charges which they could not prove, <sup>8</sup> while he said in his defense, "Neither against the law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor against Caesar, have I sinned at all.”

<sup>9</sup> But Festus, desiring to gain favor with the Jews, answered Paul and said, “Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem, and be judged by me there concerning these things?”

<sup>10</sup> But Paul said, “I am standing before Caesar’s judgment seat, where I ought to be tried. I have done no wrong to the Jews, as you also know very well. <sup>11</sup> For if I have done wrong, and have committed anything worthy of death, I don’t refuse to die; but if none of those things is true that they accuse me of, no one can give me up to them. I appeal to Caesar!”

<sup>12</sup> Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, “You have appealed to Caesar. To Caesar you shall go.”

<sup>13</sup> Now when some days had passed, King Agrippa and Bernice arrived at Caesarea, and greeted Festus. <sup>14</sup> As he stayed there many days, Festus laid Paul’s case before the king, saying, “There is a certain man left a prisoner by Felix; <sup>15</sup> about whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, asking for a sentence against him. <sup>16</sup> To whom I answered that it is not the custom of the Romans to give up any man to destruction, before the accused has met the accusers face to face, and has had opportunity to make his defense concerning the matter laid against him. <sup>17</sup> When therefore they had come together here, I didn’t delay, but on the next day sat on the judgment seat, and commanded the man to be brought. <sup>18</sup> Concerning whom, when the accusers stood up, they brought no charge of such things as I supposed; <sup>19</sup> but had certain questions against him about their own religion, and about one Jesus, who was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive. <sup>20</sup> Being perplexed how to inquire concerning these things, I asked whether he was willing to go to Jerusalem and there be judged concerning these matters. <sup>21</sup> But when Paul had appealed to be kept for the decision of the emperor, I commanded him to be kept until I could send him to Caesar.”

“Tomorrow,” he said, “you shall hear him.”

<sup>23</sup> So on the next day, when Agrippa and Bernice had come with great pomp, and they had entered into the place of hearing with the commanding officers and the principal men of the city, at the command of Festus, Paul was brought in. <sup>24</sup> Festus said, “King Agrippa, and all men who are here present with us, you see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jews petitioned me, both at Jerusalem and here, crying that he ought not to live any longer. <sup>25</sup> But when I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death, and as he himself appealed to the emperor I determined to send him. <sup>26</sup> Of whom I have no certain thing to write to my lord. Therefore I have brought him out before you, and especially before you, King Agrippa, that, after examination, I may have something to write. <sup>27</sup> For it seems to me unreasonable, in sending a prisoner, not to also specify the charges against him.”

26

Then Paul stretched out his hand, and made his defense. <sup>2</sup> “I think myself happy, King Agrippa, that I am to make my defense before you today concerning all the things that I am accused by the Jews, <sup>3</sup> especially because you are expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews. Therefore I beg you to hear me patiently.

<sup>4</sup> “Indeed, all the Jews know my way of life from my youth up, which was from the beginning among my own nation and at Jerusalem; <sup>5</sup> having known me from the first, if they are willing to testify, that after the strictest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee. <sup>6</sup> Now I stand here to be judged for the hope of the promise made by God to our fathers, <sup>7</sup> which our twelve tribes, earnestly serving night and day, hope to attain. Concerning this hope I am accused by the Jews, King Agrippa! <sup>8</sup> Why is it judged incredible with you, if God does raise the dead?

<sup>9</sup> “I myself most certainly thought that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth. <sup>10</sup> This I also did in Jerusalem. I both shut up many of the saints in prisons, having received authority from the chief priests, and when they were put to death I gave my vote against them. <sup>11</sup> Punishing them often in all the synagogues, I tried to make them blaspheme. Being exceedingly enraged against them, I persecuted them even to foreign cities.

chief priests, <sup>13</sup> at noon, O king, I saw on the way a light from the sky, brighter than the sun, shining around me and those who traveled with me. <sup>14</sup> When we had all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice saying to me in the Hebrew language, ‘Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads.’

<sup>15</sup> “I said, ‘Who are you, Lord?’

“He said, ‘I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. <sup>16</sup> But arise, and stand on your feet, for I have appeared to you for this purpose: to appoint you a servant and a witness both of the things which you have seen, and of the things which I will reveal to you; <sup>17</sup> delivering you from the people, and from the Gentiles, to whom I send you, <sup>18</sup> to open their eyes, that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive remission of sins and an inheritance among those who are sanctified by faith in me.’

<sup>19</sup> “Therefore, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision, <sup>20</sup> but declared first to them of Damascus, at Jerusalem, and throughout all the country of Judea, and also to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, doing works worthy of repentance. <sup>21</sup> For this reason the Jews seized me in the temple, and tried to kill me. <sup>22</sup> Having therefore obtained the help that is from God, I stand to this day testifying both to small and great, saying nothing but what the prophets and Moses said would happen, <sup>23</sup> how the Christ must suffer, and how, by the resurrection of the dead, he would be first to proclaim light both to these people and to the Gentiles.”

<sup>24</sup> As he thus made his defense, Festus said with a loud voice, “Paul, you are crazy! Your great learning is driving you insane!”

<sup>25</sup> But he said, “I am not crazy, most excellent Festus, but boldly declare words of truth and reasonableness. <sup>26</sup> For the king knows of these things, to whom also I speak freely. For I am persuaded that none of these things is hidden from him, for this has not been done in a corner. <sup>27</sup> King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know that you believe.”

<sup>29</sup> Paul said, “I pray to God, that whether with little or with much, not only you, but also all that hear me today, might become such as I am, except for these bonds.”

<sup>30</sup> The king rose up with the governor, and Bernice, and those who sat with them.

<sup>31</sup> When they had withdrawn, they spoke to one another, saying, “This man does nothing worthy of death or of bonds.” <sup>32</sup> Agrippa said to Festus, “This man might have been set free if he had not appealed to Caesar.”

<sup>1</sup> When it was determined that we should sail for Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners to a centurion named Julius, of the Augustan band. <sup>2</sup> Embarking in a ship of Adramyttium, which was about to sail to places on the coast of Asia, we put to sea; Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us. <sup>3</sup> The next day, we touched at Sidon. Julius treated Paul kindly, and gave him permission to go to his friends and refresh himself. <sup>4</sup> Putting to sea from there, we sailed under the lee of Cyprus, because the winds were contrary. <sup>5</sup> When we had sailed across the sea which is off Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia. <sup>6</sup> There the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing for Italy, and he put us on board. <sup>7</sup> When we had sailed slowly many days, and had come with difficulty opposite Cnidus, the wind not allowing us further, we sailed under the lee of Crete, opposite Salmone. <sup>8</sup> With difficulty sailing along it we came to a certain place called Fair Havens, near the city of Lasea.

<sup>9</sup> When much time had passed and the voyage was now dangerous, because the Fast had now already gone by, Paul admonished them, <sup>10</sup> and said to them, “Sirs, I perceive that the voyage will be with injury and much loss, not only of the cargo and the ship, but also of our lives.” <sup>11</sup> But the centurion gave more heed to the master and to the owner of the ship than to those things which were spoken by Paul. <sup>12</sup> Because the haven was not suitable to winter in, the majority advised going to sea from there, if by any means they could reach Phoenix, and winter there, which is a port of Crete, looking northeast and southeast.

<sup>13</sup> When the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, they weighed anchor and sailed along Crete, close to shore. <sup>14</sup> But before long, a stormy wind beat down from shore, which is called Euroclydon. <sup>e</sup> <sup>15</sup> When the ship was caught, and couldn’t face the wind, we gave way to it, and were driven along. <sup>16</sup> Running under the lee of a small island called Clauda, we were able, with difficulty, to secure the boat. <sup>17</sup> After they had hoisted it up, they used cables to help reinforce the ship. Fearing that they would run aground on the Syrtis sand bars, they lowered the sea anchor, and so were driven along. <sup>18</sup> As we labored exceedingly with the storm, the next day they began to throw things overboard. <sup>19</sup> On the third day, they threw out the ship's tackle with their own hands. <sup>20</sup> When neither sun nor stars shone on us for many days, and no small storm pressed on us, all hope that we would be saved was now taken away.

<sup>21</sup> When they had been long without food, Paul stood up in the middle of them, and said, "Sirs, you should have listened to me, and not have set sail from Crete, and have gotten this injury and loss. <sup>22</sup> Now I exhort you to cheer up, for there will be no loss of life among you, but only of the ship. <sup>23</sup> For there stood by me this night an angel, belonging to the God whose I am and whom I serve, <sup>24</sup> saying, 'Don't be afraid, Paul. You must stand before Caesar. Behold, God has granted you all those who sail with you.' <sup>25</sup> Therefore, sirs, cheer up! For I believe God, that it will be just as it has been spoken to me. <sup>26</sup> But we must run aground on a certain island."

<sup>27</sup> But when the fourteenth night had come, as we were driven back and forth in the Adriatic Sea, about midnight the sailors surmised that they were drawing near to some land. <sup>28</sup> They took soundings, and found twenty fathoms.<sup>f</sup> After a little while, they took soundings again, and found fifteen fathoms.<sup>g</sup> <sup>29</sup> Fearing that we would run aground on rocky ground, they let go four anchors from the stern, and wished for daylight. <sup>30</sup> As the sailors were trying to flee out of the ship, and had lowered the boat into the sea, pretending that they would lay out anchors from the bow, <sup>31</sup> Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, "Unless these stay in the ship, you can't be saved." <sup>32</sup> Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the boat, and let it fall off.

<sup>33</sup> While the day was coming on, Paul begged them all to take some food, saying, "Today is the fourteenth day that you wait and continue fasting, having taken nothing. <sup>34</sup> Therefore I beg you to take some food, for this is for your safety; for not a hair will perish from any of your heads." <sup>35</sup> When he had said this, and had taken bread, he gave thanks to God in the presence of all, and he broke it, and began to eat. <sup>36</sup> Then they all cheered up, and they also took food. <sup>37</sup> In all, we were two hundred seventy-six souls on the ship. <sup>38</sup> When they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, throwing out the wheat into the sea. <sup>39</sup> When it was day, they didn't recognize the land, but they noticed a certain bay with a beach, and they decided to try to drive the ship onto it. <sup>40</sup> Casting off the anchors, they left them in the sea, at the same time untying the rudder ropes. Hoisting up the foresail to the wind, they made for the beach. <sup>41</sup> But coming to a place where two seas met, they ran the vessel aground. The bow struck and remained immovable, but the stern began to break up by the violence of the waves.

<sup>42</sup> The soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, so that none of them would swim out and escape. <sup>43</sup> But the centurion, desiring to save Paul, stopped them from their purpose, and commanded that those who could swim should throw themselves overboard first to go toward the land; <sup>44</sup> and the rest should follow, some on planks, and some on other things from the ship. So they all escaped safely to the land.

28

<sup>1</sup> When we had escaped, then they<sup>h</sup> learned that the island was called Malta. <sup>2</sup> The natives showed us uncommon kindness; for they kindled a fire, and received us all, because of the present rain, and because of the cold. <sup>3</sup> But when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks and laid them on the fire, a viper came out because of the heat, and fastened on his hand. <sup>4</sup> When the natives saw the creature hanging from his hand, they said to one another, “No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he has escaped from the sea, yet Justice has not allowed to live.” <sup>5</sup> However he shook off the creature into the fire, and wasn’t harmed. <sup>6</sup> But they expected that he would have swollen or fallen down dead suddenly, but when they watched for a long time and saw nothing bad happen to him, they changed their minds, and said that he was a god.

<sup>7</sup> Now in the neighborhood of that place were lands belonging to the chief man of the island, named Publius, who received us, and courteously entertained us for three days. <sup>8</sup> The father of Publius lay sick of fever and dysentery. Paul entered in to him, prayed, and laying his hands on him, healed him. <sup>9</sup> Then when this was done, the rest also who had diseases in the island came, and were cured. <sup>10</sup> They also honored us with many honors, and when we sailed, they put on board the things that we needed.

<sup>11</sup> After three months, we set sail in a ship of Alexandria which had wintered in the island, whose sign was “The Twin Brothers.” <sup>12</sup> Touching at Syracuse, we stayed there three days. <sup>13</sup> From there we circled around and arrived at Rhegium. After one day, a south wind sprang up, and on the second day we came to Puteoli, <sup>14</sup> where we found brothers,<sup>i</sup> and were entreated to stay with them for seven days. So we came to Rome. <sup>15</sup> From there the brothers, when they heard of us, came to meet us as far as The Market of Appius and The Three Taverns. When Paul saw them, he thanked God, and took courage. <sup>16</sup> When we entered into Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard, but Paul was allowed to stay by himself with the soldier who guarded him.

<sup>17</sup> After three days Paul called together those who were the leaders of the Jews. When they had come together, he said to them, “I, brothers, though I had done nothing against the people, or the customs of our fathers, still was delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans, <sup>18</sup> who, when they had examined me, desired to set me free, because there was no cause of death in me. <sup>19</sup> But when the Jews spoke against it, I was constrained to appeal to Caesar, not that I had anything about which to accuse my nation. <sup>20</sup> For this cause therefore I asked to see you and to speak with you. For because of the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain.”

<sup>21</sup> They said to him, “We neither received letters from Judea concerning you, nor did any of the brothers come here and report or speak any evil of you. <sup>22</sup> But we desire to hear from you what you think. For, as concerning this sect, it is known to us that everywhere it is spoken against.”

<sup>23</sup> When they had appointed him a day, many people came to him at his lodging. He explained to them, testifying about God’s Kingdom, and persuading them concerning Jesus, both from the law of Moses and from the prophets, from morning until evening. <sup>24</sup> Some believed the things which were spoken, and some disbelieved. <sup>25</sup> When they didn’t agree among themselves, they departed after Paul had spoken one word, “The Holy Spirit spoke rightly through Isaiah, the prophet, to our fathers, <sup>26</sup> saying,

‘Go to this people, and say,
in hearing, you will hear,
but will in no way understand.

In seeing, you will see,
but will in no way perceive.

<sup>27</sup> For this people’s heart has grown callous.

Their ears are dull of hearing.
Their eyes they have closed.

Lest they should see with their eyes,
hear with their ears,
understand with their heart,
and would turn again,
and I would heal them.’<sup>1</sup>

<sup>28</sup> “Be it known therefore to you, that the salvation of God is sent to the nations, and they will listen.”

<sup>29</sup> When he had said these words, the Jews departed, having a great dispute among themselves.<sup>j</sup>

<sup>30</sup> Paul stayed two whole years in his own rented house, and received all who were coming to him, <sup>31</sup> preaching God’s Kingdom, and teaching the things concerning the Lord Jesus Christ with all boldness, without hindrance.

Paul's Letter to the # Romans

1

<sup>8</sup> First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you, that your faith is proclaimed throughout the whole world. <sup>9</sup> For God is my witness, whom I serve in my spirit in the Good News of his Son, how unceasingly I make mention of you always in my prayers, <sup>10</sup> requesting, if by any means now at last I may be prospered by the will of God to come to you. <sup>11</sup> For I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift, to the end that you may be established; <sup>12</sup> that is, that I with you may be encouraged in you, each of us by the other's faith, both yours and mine.

<sup>13</sup> Now I don't desire to have you unaware, brothers, that I often planned to come to you, and was hindered so far, that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among the rest of the Gentiles. <sup>14</sup> I am debtor both to Greeks and to foreigners, both to the wise and to the foolish. <sup>15</sup> So, as much as is in me, I am eager to preach the Good News to you also who are in Rome. <sup>16</sup> For I am not ashamed of the Good News of Christ, for it is the power of God for salvation for everyone who believes; for the Jew first, and also for the Greek. <sup>17</sup> For in it is revealed God's righteousness from faith to faith. As it is written, "But the righteous shall live by faith."<sup>1</sup> <sup>18</sup> For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who suppress the truth in unrighteousness, <sup>19</sup> because that which is known of God is revealed in them, for God revealed it to them. <sup>20</sup> For the invisible things of him since the creation of the world are clearly seen, being perceived through the things that are made, even his everlasting power and divinity; that they may be without excuse. <sup>21</sup> Because, knowing God, they didn't glorify him as God, neither gave thanks, but became vain in their reasoning, and their senseless heart was darkened.

four-footed animals, and creeping things. <sup>24</sup>

Therefore God also gave them up in the lusts of their hearts to uncleanness, that their bodies should be dishonored among themselves, <sup>25</sup> who exchanged the truth of God for a lie, and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen.

<sup>26</sup> For this reason, God gave them up to vile passions. For their women changed the natural function into that which is against nature. <sup>27</sup> Likewise also the men, leaving the natural function of the woman, burned in their lust toward one another, men doing what is inappropriate with men, and receiving in themselves the due penalty of their error. <sup>28</sup> Even as they refused to have God in their knowledge, God gave them up to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not fitting; <sup>29</sup> being filled with all unrighteousness, sexual immorality, wickedness, covetousness, malice; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, evil habits, secret slanderers, <sup>30</sup> backbiters, hateful to God, insolent, haughty, boastful, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, <sup>31</sup> without understanding, covenant breakers, without natural affection, unforgiving, unmerciful; <sup>32</sup> who, knowing the ordinance of God, that those who practice such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but also approve of those who practice them.

<sup>1</sup> Therefore you are without excuse, O man, whoever you are who judge. For in that which you judge another, you condemn yourself. For you who judge practice the same things. <sup>2</sup> We know that the judgment of God is according to truth against those who practice such things. <sup>3</sup> Do you think this, O man who judges those who practice such things, and do the same, that you will escape the judgment of God? <sup>4</sup> Or do you despise the riches of his goodness, forbearance, and patience, not knowing that the goodness of God leads you to repentance? <sup>5</sup> But according to your hardness and unrepentant heart you are treasuring up for yourself wrath in the day of wrath, revelation, and of the righteous judgment of God; <sup>6</sup> who “will pay back to everyone according to their works:”<sup>1</sup> <sup>7</sup> to those who by patience in well-doing seek for glory, honor, and incorruptibility, eternal life; <sup>8</sup> but to those who are self-seeking, and don’t obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, will be wrath and indignation, <sup>9</sup> oppression and anguish, on every soul of man who does evil, to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

<sup>10</sup> But glory, honor, and peace go to every man who does good, to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. <sup>11</sup> For there is no partiality with God. <sup>12</sup> For as many as have sinned without law will also perish without the law. As many as have sinned under the law will be judged by the law. <sup>13</sup> For it isn’t the hearers of the law who are righteous before God, but the doers of the law will be justified <sup>14</sup> (for when Gentiles who don’t have the law do by nature the things of the law, these, not having the law, are a law to themselves, <sup>15</sup> in that they show the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience testifying with them, and their thoughts among themselves accusing or else excusing them) <sup>16</sup> in the day when God will judge the secrets of men, according to my Good News, by Jesus Christ.

<sup>17</sup> Indeed you bear the name of a Jew, and rest on the law, and glory in God, <sup>18</sup> and know his will, and approve the things that are excellent, being instructed out of the law, <sup>19</sup> and are confident that you yourself are a guide of the blind, a light to those who are in darkness, <sup>20</sup> a corrector of the foolish, a teacher of babies, having in the law the form of knowledge and of the truth. <sup>21</sup> You therefore who teach another, don't you teach yourself? You who preach that a man shouldn't steal, do you steal? <sup>22</sup> You who say a man shouldn't commit adultery. Do you commit adultery? You who abhor idols, do you rob temples? <sup>23</sup> You who glory in the law, through your disobedience of the law do you dishonor God? <sup>24</sup> For "the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you," <sup>2</sup> just as it is written. <sup>25</sup> For circumcision indeed profits, if you are a doer of the law, but if you are a transgressor of the law, your circumcision has become uncircumcision. <sup>26</sup> If therefore the uncircumcised keep the ordinances of the law, won't his uncircumcision be accounted as circumcision? <sup>27</sup> Won't the uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfills the law, judge you, who with the letter and circumcision are a transgressor of the law? <sup>28</sup> For he is not a Jew who is one outwardly, neither is that circumcision which is outward in the flesh; <sup>29</sup> but he is a Jew who is one inwardly, and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit not in the letter; whose praise is not from men, but from God.

<sup>1</sup> Then what advantage does the Jew have? Or what is the profit of circumcision? <sup>2</sup> Much in every way! Because first of all, they were entrusted with the revelations of God. <sup>3</sup> For what if some were without faith? Will their lack of faith nullify the faithfulness of God? <sup>4</sup> May it never be! Yes, let God be found true, but every man a liar. As it is written,

"That you might be justified in your words, and might prevail when you come into judgment."<sup>1</sup>

<sup>5</sup> But if our unrighteousness commends the righteousness of God, what will we say? Is God unrighteous who inflicts wrath? I speak like men do. <sup>6</sup> May it never be! For then how will God judge the world? <sup>7</sup> For if the truth of God through my lie abounded to his glory, why am I also still judged as a sinner? <sup>8</sup> Why not (as we are slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say), "Let us do evil, that good may come?" Those who say so are justly condemned. <sup>9</sup> What then? Are we better than they? No, in no way. For we previously warned both Jews and Greeks, that they are all under sin. <sup>10</sup> As it is written,

"There is no one righteous;
no, not one.

<sup>11</sup> There is no one who understands.
There is no one who seeks after God.

<sup>12</sup> They have all turned aside.
They have together become unprofitable.

There is no one who does good,

no, not so much as one.”<sup>2</sup>

<sup>13</sup> “Their throat is an open tomb.

With their tongues they have used deceit.”<sup>3</sup>

“The poison of vipers is under their lips”;<sup>4</sup>

<sup>14</sup> “whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness.”<sup>5</sup>

<sup>16</sup> Destruction and misery are in their ways.

<sup>17</sup> The way of peace, they haven’t known.”<sup>6</sup>

<sup>18</sup> “There is no fear of God before their eyes.”<sup>7</sup>

<sup>19</sup> Now we know that whatever things the law says, it speaks to those who are under the law, that every mouth may be closed, and all the world may be brought under the judgment of God. <sup>20</sup> Because by the works of the law, no flesh will be justified in his sight. For through the law comes the knowledge of sin. <sup>21</sup> But now apart from the law, a righteousness of God has been revealed, being testified by the law and the prophets; <sup>22</sup> even the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ to all and on all those who believe. For there is no distinction, <sup>23</sup> for all have sinned, and fall short of the glory of God; <sup>24</sup> being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus; <sup>25</sup> whom God sent to be an atoning sacrifice,<sup>b</sup> through faith in his blood, for a demonstration of his righteousness through the passing over of prior sins, in God’s forbearance; <sup>26</sup> to demonstrate his righteousness at this present time; that he might himself be just, and the justifier of him who has faith in Jesus.

<sup>27</sup> Where then is the boasting? It is excluded. By what kind of law? Of works? No, but by a law of faith. <sup>28</sup> We maintain therefore that a man is justified by faith apart from the works of the law. <sup>29</sup> Or is God the God of Jews only? Isn’t he the God of Gentiles also? Yes, of Gentiles also, <sup>30</sup> since indeed there is one God who will justify the circumcised by faith, and the uncircumcised through faith. <sup>31</sup> Do we then nullify the law through faith? May it never be! No, we establish the law.

4

<sup>1</sup> What then will we say that Abraham, our forefather, has found according to the flesh? <sup>2</sup> For if Abraham was justified by works, he has something to boast about, but not toward God. <sup>3</sup> For what does the Scripture say? “Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness.”<sup>1</sup> <sup>4</sup> Now to him who works, the reward is not counted as grace, but as something owed. <sup>5</sup> But to him who doesn’t work, but believes in him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is accounted for righteousness. <sup>6</sup> Even as David also pronounces blessing on the man to whom God counts righteousness apart from works, <sup>7</sup> “Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, whose sins are covered.

<sup>8</sup> Blessed is the man whom the Lord will by no means charge with sin.”<sup>2</sup>

<sup>9</sup> Is this blessing then pronounced on the circumcised, or on the uncircumcised also? For we say that faith was accounted to Abraham for righteousness. <sup>10</sup> How then was it counted? When he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision. <sup>11</sup> He received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had while he was in uncircumcision, that he might be the father of all those who believe, though they might be in uncircumcision, that righteousness might also be accounted to them. <sup>12</sup> He is the father of circumcision to those who not only are of the circumcision, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had in uncircumcision. <sup>13</sup> For the promise to Abraham and to his offspring<sup>c</sup> that he should be heir of the world wasn't through the law, but through the righteousness of faith. <sup>14</sup> For if those who are of the law are heirs, faith is made void, and the promise is made of no effect. <sup>15</sup> For the law produces wrath, for where there is no law, neither is there disobedience. <sup>16</sup> For this cause it is of faith, that it may be according to grace, to the end that the promise may be sure to all the offspring,<sup>d</sup> not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all. <sup>17</sup> As it is written, "I have made you a father of many nations."<sup>3</sup> This is in the presence of him whom he believed: God, who gives life to the dead, and calls the things that are not, as though they were. <sup>18</sup> Besides hope, Abraham in hope believed, to the end that he might become a father of many nations, according to that which had been spoken, "So will your offspring<sup>e</sup> be."<sup>4</sup> <sup>19</sup> Without being weakened in faith, he didn't consider his own body, already having been worn out, (he being about a hundred years old), and the deadness of Sarah's womb. <sup>20</sup> Yet, looking to the promise of God, he didn't waver through unbelief, but grew strong through faith, giving glory to God, <sup>21</sup> and being fully assured that what he had promised, he was also able to perform. <sup>22</sup> Therefore it also was "credited to him for righteousness."<sup>5</sup> <sup>23</sup> Now it was not written that it was accounted to him for his sake alone, <sup>24</sup> but for our sake also, to whom it will be accounted, who believe in him who raised Jesus, our Lord, from the dead, <sup>25</sup> who was delivered up for our trespasses, and was raised for our justification.

5

<sup>1</sup> Being therefore justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ; <sup>2</sup> through whom we also have our access by faith into this grace in which we stand. We rejoice in hope of the glory of God. <sup>3</sup> Not only this, but we also rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces perseverance; <sup>4</sup> and perseverance, proven character; and proven character, hope: <sup>5</sup> and hope doesn't disappoint us, because God's love has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who was given to us. <sup>6</sup> For while we were yet weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. <sup>7</sup> For one will hardly die for a righteous man. Yet perhaps for a righteous person someone would even dare to die. <sup>8</sup> But God commends his own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

<sup>9</sup> Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we will be saved from God's wrath through him. <sup>10</sup> For if, while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we will be saved by his life.

<sup>11</sup> Not only so, but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received the reconciliation. <sup>12</sup> Therefore as sin entered into the world through one man, and death through sin; and so death passed to all men, because all sinned. <sup>13</sup> For until the law, sin was in the world; but sin is not charged when there is no law. <sup>14</sup> Nevertheless death reigned from Adam until Moses, even over those whose sins weren't like Adam's disobedience, who is a foreshadowing of him who was to come. <sup>15</sup> But the free gift isn't like the trespass. For if by the trespass of the one the many died, much more did the grace of God, and the gift by the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, abound to the many. <sup>16</sup> The gift is not as through one who sinned: for the judgment came by one to condemnation, but the free gift came of many trespasses to justification. <sup>17</sup> For if by the trespass of the one, death reigned through the one; so much more will those who receive the abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness reign in life through the one, Jesus Christ. <sup>18</sup> So then as through one trespass, all men were condemned; even so through one act of righteousness, all men were justified to life. <sup>19</sup> For as through the one man's disobedience many were made sinners, even so through the obedience of the one, many will be made righteous. <sup>20</sup> The law came in besides, that the trespass might abound; but where sin abounded, grace abounded more exceedingly; <sup>21</sup> that as sin reigned in death, even so grace might reign through righteousness to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

6

<sup>1</sup> What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound? <sup>2</sup> May it never be! We who died to sin, how could we live in it any longer? <sup>3</sup> Or don't you know that all we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? <sup>4</sup> We were buried therefore with him through baptism into death, that just as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, so we also might walk in newness of life. <sup>5</sup> For if we have become united with him in the likeness of his death, we will also be part of his resurrection; <sup>6</sup> knowing this, that our old man was crucified with him, that the body of sin might be done away with, so that we would no longer be in bondage to sin. <sup>7</sup> For he who has died has been freed from sin. <sup>8</sup> But if we died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him; <sup>9</sup> knowing that Christ, being raised from the dead, dies no more. Death no more has dominion over him! <sup>10</sup> For the death that he died, he died to sin one time; but the life that he lives, he lives to God. <sup>11</sup> Thus consider yourselves also to be dead to sin, but alive to God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

<sup>12</sup> Therefore don't let sin reign in your mortal body, that you should obey it in its lusts. <sup>13</sup> Also, do not present your members to sin as instruments of unrighteousness, but present yourselves to God, as alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness to God. <sup>14</sup> For sin will not have dominion over you. For you are not under law, but under grace. <sup>15</sup> What then? Shall we sin, because we are not under law, but under grace? May it never be! <sup>16</sup> Don't you know that when you present yourselves as servants and obey someone, you are the servants of whomever you obey; whether of sin to death, or of obedience to righteousness? <sup>17</sup> But thanks be to God, that, whereas you were bondservants of sin, you became obedient from the heart to that form of teaching to which you were delivered. <sup>18</sup> Being made free from sin, you became bondservants of righteousness.

<sup>19</sup> I speak in human terms because of the weakness of your flesh, for as you presented your members as servants to uncleanness and to wickedness upon wickedness, even so now present your members as servants to righteousness for sanctification. <sup>20</sup> For when you were servants of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. <sup>21</sup> What fruit then did you have at that time in the things of which you are now ashamed? For the end of those things is death. <sup>22</sup> But now, being made free from sin, and having become servants of God, you have your fruit of sanctification, and the result of eternal life. <sup>23</sup> For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

<sup>1</sup> Or don't you know, brothers<sup>f</sup> (for I speak to men who know the law), that the law has dominion over a man for as long as he lives? <sup>2</sup> For the woman that has a husband is bound by law to the husband while he lives, but if the husband dies, she is discharged from the law of the husband. <sup>3</sup> So then if, while the husband lives, she is joined to another man, she would be called an adulteress. But if the husband dies, she is free from the law, so that she is no adulteress, though she is joined to another man. <sup>4</sup> Therefore, my brothers, you also were made dead to the law through the body of Christ, that you would be joined to another, to him who was raised from the dead, that we might produce fruit to God. <sup>5</sup> For when we were in the flesh, the sinful passions which were through the law, worked in our members to bring out fruit to death. <sup>6</sup> But now we have been discharged from the law, having died to that in which we were held; so that we serve in newness of the spirit, and not in oldness of the letter.

<sup>7</sup> What shall we say then? Is the law sin? May it never be! However, I wouldn't have known sin, except through the law. For I wouldn't have known coveting, unless the law had said, "You shall not covet."<sup>1</sup> <sup>8</sup> But sin, finding occasion through the commandment, produced in me all kinds of coveting. For apart from the law, sin is dead. <sup>9</sup> I was alive apart from the law once, but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died. <sup>10</sup> The commandment, which was for life, this I found to be for death; <sup>11</sup> for sin, finding occasion through the commandment, deceived me, and through it killed me. <sup>12</sup> Therefore the law indeed is holy, and the commandment holy, and righteous, and good.

<sup>13</sup> Did then that which is good become death to me? May it never be! But sin, that it might be shown to be sin, by working death to me through that which is good; that through the commandment sin might become exceedingly sinful. <sup>14</sup> For we know that the law is spiritual, but I am fleshly, sold under sin. <sup>15</sup> For I don't know what I am doing. For I don't practice what I desire to do; but what I hate, that I do. <sup>16</sup> But if what I don't desire, that I do, I consent to the law that it is good. <sup>17</sup> So now it is no more I that do it, but sin which dwells in me. <sup>18</sup> For I know that in me, that is, in my flesh, dwells no good thing. For desire is present with me, but I don't find it doing that which is good. <sup>19</sup> For the good which I desire, I don't do; but the evil which I don't desire, that I practice. <sup>20</sup> But if what I don't desire, that I do, it is no more I that do it, but sin which dwells in me. <sup>21</sup> I find then the law, that, to me, while I desire to do good, evil is present. <sup>22</sup> For I delight in God's law after the inward man, <sup>23</sup> but I see a different law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity under the law of sin which is in my members. <sup>24</sup> What a wretched man I am! Who will deliver me out of the body of this death? <sup>25</sup> I thank God through Jesus Christ, our Lord! So then with the mind, I myself serve God's law, but with the flesh, the sin's law.

8

<sup>1</sup> There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus, who don't walk according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit.<sup>g</sup> <sup>2</sup> For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus made me free from the law of sin and of death. <sup>3</sup> For what the law couldn't do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God did, sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh; <sup>4</sup> that the ordinance of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. <sup>5</sup> For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit, the things of the Spirit. <sup>6</sup> For the mind of the flesh is death, but the mind of the Spirit is life and peace; <sup>7</sup> because the mind of the flesh is hostile towards God; for it is not subject to God's law, neither indeed can it be. <sup>8</sup> Those who are in the flesh can't please God. <sup>9</sup> But you are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if it is so that the Spirit of God dwells in you. But if any man doesn't have the Spirit of Christ, he is not his. <sup>10</sup> If Christ is in you, the body is dead because of sin, but the spirit is alive because of righteousness. <sup>11</sup> But if the Spirit of him who raised up Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised up Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you. <sup>12</sup> So then, brothers, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh. <sup>13</sup> For if you live after the flesh, you must die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. <sup>14</sup> For as many as are led by the Spirit of God,

<sup>g</sup> NU omits "who don't walk according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit"

these are children of God. <sup>15</sup> For you didn't receive the spirit of bondage again to fear, but you received the Spirit of adoption, by whom we cry, "Abba!<sup>h</sup> Father!"

<sup>16</sup> The Spirit himself testifies with our spirit that we are children of God; <sup>17</sup> and if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint heirs with Christ; if indeed we suffer with him, that we may also be glorified with him. <sup>18</sup> For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which will be revealed toward us. <sup>19</sup> For the creation waits with eager expectation for the children of God to be revealed. <sup>20</sup> For the creation was subjected to vanity, not of its own will, but because of him who subjected it, in hope <sup>21</sup> that the creation itself also will be delivered from the bondage of decay into the liberty of the glory of the children of God. <sup>22</sup> For we know that the whole creation groans and travails in pain together until now. <sup>23</sup> Not only so, but ourselves also, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for adoption, the redemption of our body. <sup>24</sup> For we were saved in hope, but hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for that which he sees? <sup>25</sup> But if we hope for that which we don't see, we wait for it with patience. <sup>26</sup> In the same way, the Spirit also helps our weaknesses, for we don't know how to pray as we ought. But the Spirit himself makes intercession for us with groanings which can't be uttered. <sup>27</sup> He who searches the hearts knows what is on the Spirit's mind, because he makes intercession for the saints according to God.

<sup>28</sup> We know that all things work together for good for those who love God, to those who are called according to his purpose. <sup>29</sup> For whom he foreknew, he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brothers.<sup>i</sup> <sup>30</sup> Whom he predestined, those he also called. Whom he called, those he also justified. Whom he justified, those he also glorified.

<sup>31</sup> What then shall we say about these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? <sup>32</sup> He who didn't spare his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how would he not also with him freely give us all things? <sup>33</sup> Who could bring a charge against God's chosen ones? It is God who justifies. <sup>34</sup> Who is he who condemns? It is Christ who died, yes rather, who was raised from the dead, who is at the right hand of God, who also makes intercession for us.

<sup>35</sup> Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Could oppression, or anguish, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? <sup>36</sup> Even as it is written, "For your sake we are killed all day long. We were accounted as sheep for the slaughter."<sup>1</sup> <sup>37</sup> No, in all these things, we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. <sup>38</sup> For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, <sup>39</sup> nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing, will be able to separate us from God's love, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

<sup>h</sup> Abba is an Aramaic word for "Father" or "Daddy", which can be used affectionately and respectfully in prayer to our Father in heaven.

9

<sup>1</sup> I tell the truth in Christ. I am not lying, my conscience testifying with me in the Holy Spirit, <sup>2</sup> that I have great sorrow and unceasing pain in my heart. <sup>3</sup> For I could wish that I myself were accursed from Christ for my brothers' sake, my relatives according to the flesh, <sup>4</sup> who are Israelites; whose is the adoption, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the service, and the promises; <sup>5</sup> of whom are the fathers, and from whom is Christ as concerning the flesh, who is over all, God, blessed forever. Amen.

<sup>6</sup> But it is not as though the word of God has come to nothing. For they are not all Israel, that are of Israel. <sup>7</sup> Neither, because they are Abraham's offspring,<sup>j</sup> are they all children. But, "your offspring<sup>k</sup> will be accounted as from Isaac."<sup>1</sup> <sup>8</sup> That is, it is not the children of the flesh who are children of God, but the children of the promise are counted as heirs. <sup>9</sup> For this is a word of promise, "At the appointed time I will come, and Sarah will have a son."<sup>2</sup> <sup>10</sup> Not only so, but Rebekah also conceived by one, by our father Isaac. <sup>11</sup> For being not yet born, neither having done anything good or bad, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him who calls,<sup>1</sup> <sup>12</sup> it was said to her, "The elder will serve the younger."<sup>3</sup> <sup>13</sup> Even as it is written, "Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated."<sup>4</sup>

<sup>14</sup> What shall we say then? Is there unrighteousness with God? May it never be! <sup>15</sup> For he said to Moses, "I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion."<sup>5</sup> <sup>16</sup> So then it is not of him who wills, nor of him who runs, but of God who has mercy. <sup>17</sup> For the Scripture says to Pharaoh, "For this very purpose I caused you to be raised up, that I might show in you my power, and that my name might be proclaimed in all the earth."<sup>6</sup> <sup>18</sup> So then, he has mercy on whom he desires, and he hardens whom he desires. <sup>19</sup> You will say then to me, "Why does he still find fault? For who withstands his will?" <sup>20</sup> But indeed, O man, who are you to reply against God? Will the thing formed ask him who formed it, "Why did you make me like this?"<sup>7</sup> <sup>21</sup> Or hasn't the potter a right over the clay, from the same lump to make one part a vessel for honor, and another for dishonor? <sup>22</sup> What if God, willing to show his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much patience vessels of wrath made for destruction, <sup>23</sup> and that he might make known the riches of his glory on vessels of mercy, which he prepared beforehand for glory, <sup>24</sup> us, whom he also called, not from the Jews only, but also from the Gentiles? <sup>25</sup> As he says also in Hosea,

"I will call them 'my people,' which were not my people; and her 'beloved,' who was not beloved."<sup>8</sup>

<sup>26</sup> "It will be that in the place where it was said to them, 'You are not my people,' There they will be called 'children of the living God.'"<sup>9</sup>

 “If the number of the children of Israel are as the sand of the sea,
 it is the remnant who will be saved;
<sup>28</sup> for He will finish the work and cut it short in righteousness, because the LORD will make a short work upon the earth.”<sup>10</sup>

<sup>29</sup> As Isaiah has said before, “Unless the Lord of Armies<sup>m</sup> had left us a seed,
 we would have become like Sodom, and would have been made like Gomorrah.”<sup>11</sup>

<sup>30</sup> What shall we say then? That the Gentiles, who didn’t follow after righteousness, attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith; <sup>31</sup> but Israel, following after a law of righteousness, didn’t arrive at the law of righteousness. <sup>32</sup> Why? Because they didn’t seek it by faith, but as it were by works of the law. They stumbled over the stumbling stone; <sup>33</sup> even as it is written, “Behold,<sup>n</sup> I lay in Zion a stumbling stone and a rock of offense; and no one who believes in him will be disappointed.”<sup>12</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Brothers, my heart’s desire and my prayer to God is for Israel, that they may be saved. <sup>2</sup> For I testify about them that they have a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge. <sup>3</sup> For being ignorant of God’s righteousness, and seeking to establish their own righteousness, they didn’t subject themselves to the righteousness of God. <sup>4</sup> For Christ is the fulfillment<sup>o</sup> of the law for righteousness to everyone who believes. <sup>5</sup>

 For Moses writes about the righteousness of the law, “The one who does them will live by them.”<sup>1</sup> <sup>6</sup> But the righteousness which is of faith says this, “Don’t say in your heart, ‘Who will ascend into heaven?’<sup>2</sup> (that is, to bring Christ down); <sup>7</sup> or, ‘Who will descend into the abyss?’<sup>3</sup> (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead.)” <sup>8</sup> But what does it say? “The word is near you, in your mouth, and in your heart”;<sup>4</sup> that is, the word of faith, which we preach: <sup>9</sup> that if you will confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord, and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. <sup>10</sup> For with the heart, one believes unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. <sup>11</sup> For the Scripture says, “Whoever believes in him will not be disappointed.”<sup>5</sup>

<sup>12</sup> For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; for the same Lord is Lord of all, and is rich to all who call on him. <sup>13</sup> For, “Whoever will call on the name of the Lord will be saved.”<sup>6</sup> <sup>14</sup> How then will they call on him in whom they have not believed?
 How will they believe in him whom they have not heard? How will they hear without a preacher? <sup>15</sup> And how will they preach unless they are sent? As it is written:

“How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the Good News of peace, who bring glad tidings of good things!”<sup>7</sup>

It is often used as an interjection. <sup>12</sup> Isaiah 8:14; 28:16 <sup>o</sup> or, completion, or end <sup>1</sup> Leviticus 18:5

<sup>16</sup> But they didn't all listen to the glad news. For Isaiah says, "Lord, who has believed our report?"<sup>8</sup> <sup>17</sup> So faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of God. <sup>18</sup> But I say, didn't they hear? Yes, most certainly,

"Their sound went out into all the earth, their words to the ends of the world."<sup>9</sup>

<sup>19</sup> But I ask, didn't Israel know? First Moses says,

"I will provoke you to jealousy with that which is no nation, with a nation void of understanding
I will make you angry."<sup>10</sup>

<sup>20</sup> Isaiah is very bold, and says,

"I was found by those who didn't seek me.

I was revealed to those who didn't ask for me."<sup>11</sup>

<sup>21</sup> But as to Israel he says, "All day long I stretched out my hands to a disobedient and contrary people."<sup>12</sup>

11

<sup>1</sup> I ask then, did God reject his people? May it never be! For I also am an Israelite, a descendant of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin. <sup>2</sup> God didn't reject his people, which he foreknew. Or don't you know what the Scripture says about Elijah? How he pleads with God against Israel: <sup>3</sup> "Lord, they have killed your prophets, they have broken down your altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life."<sup>1</sup> <sup>4</sup> But how does God answer him? "I have reserved for myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to Baal."<sup>2</sup> <sup>5</sup> Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace. <sup>6</sup> And if by grace, then it is no longer of works; otherwise grace is no longer grace. But if it is of works, it is no longer grace; otherwise work is no longer work.

<sup>7</sup> What then? That which Israel seeks for, that he didn't obtain, but the chosen ones obtained it, and the rest were hardened. <sup>8</sup> According as it is written, "God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear, to this very day."<sup>3</sup> <sup>9</sup> David says,

"Let their table be made a snare, and a trap,
a stumbling block, and a retribution to them.

<sup>10</sup> Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see.

Bow down their back always."<sup>4</sup>

<sup>11</sup> I ask then, did they stumble that they might fall? May it never be! But by their fall salvation has come to the Gentiles, to provoke them to jealousy. <sup>12</sup> Now if their fall is the riches of the world, and their loss the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their fullness? <sup>13</sup> For I speak to you who are Gentiles. Since then as I am an apostle to Gentiles, I glorify my ministry; <sup>14</sup> if by any means I may provoke to jealousy those who are my flesh, and may save some of them. <sup>15</sup> For if the rejection of them is the reconciling of the world, what would their acceptance be, but life from the dead? <sup>16</sup> If the first fruit is holy, so is the lump. If the root is holy, so are the branches. <sup>17</sup> But if some of the branches were broken off, and you, being a wild olive, were grafted in among them, and became partaker with them of the root and of the richness of the olive tree; <sup>18</sup> don't boast over the branches. But if you boast, it is not you who support the root, but the root supports you. <sup>19</sup> You will say then, "Branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in." <sup>20</sup> True; by their unbelief they were broken off, and you stand by your faith. Don't be conceited, but fear; <sup>21</sup> for if God didn't spare the natural branches, neither will he spare you. <sup>22</sup> See then the goodness and severity of God. Toward those who fell, severity; but toward you, goodness, if you continue in his goodness; otherwise you also will be cut off. <sup>23</sup> They also, if they don't continue in their unbelief, will be grafted in, for God is able to graft them in again. <sup>24</sup> For if you were cut out of that which is by nature a wild olive tree, and were grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree, how much more will these, which are the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree? <sup>25</sup> For I don't desire you to be ignorant, brothers,<sup>p</sup> of this mystery, so that you won't be wise in your own conceits, that a partial hardening has happened to Israel, until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in, <sup>26</sup> and so all Israel will be saved. Even as it is written,

"There will come out of Zion the Deliverer, and he will turn away ungodliness from Jacob.

<sup>27</sup> This is my covenant to them, when I will take away their sins."<sup>5</sup>

<sup>28</sup> Concerning the Good News, they are enemies for your sake. But concerning the election, they are beloved for the fathers' sake. <sup>29</sup> For the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable. <sup>30</sup> For as you in time past were disobedient to God, but now have obtained mercy by their disobedience, <sup>31</sup> even so these also have now been disobedient, that by the mercy shown to you they may also obtain mercy. <sup>32</sup> For God has shut up all to disobedience, that he might have mercy on all.

<sup>33</sup> Oh the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and the knowledge of God! How unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past tracing out!

<sup>34</sup> "For who has known the mind of the Lord?

Or who has been his counselor?"<sup>6</sup>

<sup>35</sup> "Or who has first given to him, and it will be repaid to him again?"<sup>7</sup>

<sup>36</sup> For of him, and through him, and to him, are all things. To him be the glory for ever! Amen.

12

<sup>1</sup> Therefore I urge you, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your spiritual service. <sup>2</sup> Don't be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, so that you may prove what is the good, well-pleasing, and perfect will of God. <sup>3</sup> For I say, through the grace that was given me, to every man who is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think reasonably, as God has apportioned to each person a measure of faith. <sup>4</sup> For even as we have many members in one body, and all the members don't have the same function, <sup>5</sup> so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually members one of another. <sup>6</sup> Having gifts differing according to the grace that was given to us, if prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of our faith; <sup>7</sup> or service, let us give ourselves to service; or he who teaches, to his teaching; <sup>8</sup> or he who exhorts, to his exhorting: he who gives, let him do it with liberality; he who rules, with diligence; he who shows mercy, with cheerfulness.

<sup>9</sup> Let love be without hypocrisy. Abhor that which is evil. Cling to that which is good. <sup>10</sup> In love of the brothers be tenderly affectionate to one another; in honor preferring one another; <sup>11</sup> not lagging in diligence; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord; <sup>12</sup> rejoicing in hope; enduring in troubles; continuing steadfastly in prayer; <sup>13</sup> contributing to the needs of the saints; given to hospitality. <sup>14</sup> Bless those who persecute you; bless, and don't curse. <sup>15</sup> Rejoice with those who rejoice. Weep with those who weep. <sup>16</sup> Be of the same mind one toward another. Don't set your mind on high things, but associate with the humble. Don't be wise in your own conceits. <sup>17</sup> Repay no one evil for evil. Respect what is honorable in the sight of all men. <sup>18</sup> If it is possible, as much as it is up to you, be at peace with all men. <sup>19</sup> Don't seek revenge yourselves, beloved, but give place to God's wrath. For it is written, "Vengeance belongs to me; I will repay, says the Lord."

<sup>1</sup> <sup>20</sup> Therefore

"If your enemy is hungry, feed him.

If he is thirsty, give him a drink;

for in doing so, you will heap coals of fire on his head."<sup>2</sup>

13

<sup>1</sup> Let every soul be in subjection to the higher authorities, for there is no authority except from God, and those who exist are ordained by God. <sup>2</sup> Therefore he who resists the authority, withstands the ordinance of God; and those who withstand will receive to themselves judgment. <sup>3</sup> For rulers are not a terror to the good work, but to the evil. Do you desire to have no fear of the authority? Do that which is good, and you will have praise from the same, <sup>4</sup> for he is a servant of God to you for good. But if you do that which is evil, be afraid, for he doesn't bear the sword in vain; for he is a servant of God, an avenger for wrath to him who does evil. <sup>5</sup> Therefore you need to be in subjection, not only because of the wrath, but also for conscience' sake. <sup>6</sup> For this reason you also pay taxes, for they are servants of God's service, attending continually on this very thing. <sup>7</sup> Therefore give everyone what you owe: if you owe taxes, pay taxes; if customs, then customs; if respect, then respect; if honor, then honor. <sup>8</sup> Owe no one anything, except to love one another; for he who loves his neighbor has fulfilled the law.

the fulfillment of the law. <sup>11</sup> Do this, knowing the time, that it is already time for you to awaken out of sleep, for salvation is now nearer to us than when we first believed. <sup>12</sup> The night is far gone, and the day is near. Let's therefore throw off the deeds of darkness, and let's put on the armor of light. <sup>13</sup> Let us walk properly, as in the day; not in reveling and drunkenness, not in sexual promiscuity and lustful acts, and not in strife and jealousy. <sup>14</sup> But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, for its lusts.

14

<sup>1</sup> Now accept one who is weak in faith, but not for disputes over opinions. <sup>2</sup> One man has faith to eat all things, but he who is weak eats only vegetables. <sup>3</sup> Don't let him who eats despise him who doesn't eat. Don't let him who doesn't eat judge him who eats, for God has accepted him. <sup>4</sup> Who are you who judge another's servant? To his own lord he stands or falls. Yes, he will be made to stand, for God has power to make him stand.

<sup>5</sup> One man esteems one day as more important. Another esteems every day alike. Let each man be fully assured in his own mind. <sup>6</sup> He who observes the day, observes it to the Lord; and he who does not observe the day, to the Lord he does not observe it. He who eats, eats to the Lord, for he gives God thanks. He who doesn't eat, to the Lord he doesn't eat, and gives God thanks. <sup>7</sup> For none of us lives to himself, and none dies to himself. <sup>8</sup> For if we live, we live to the Lord. Or if we die, we die to the Lord. If therefore we live or die, we are the Lord's. <sup>9</sup> For to this end Christ died, rose, and lived again, that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living.

<sup>10</sup> But you, why do you judge your brother? Or you again, why do you despise your brother? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of Christ. <sup>11</sup> For it is written,

“As I live,’ says the Lord, ‘to me every knee will bow.

Every tongue will confess to God.”<sup>1</sup>

<sup>12</sup> So then each one of us will give account of himself to God. <sup>13</sup> Therefore let's not judge one another any more, but judge this rather, that no man put a stumbling block in his brother's way, or an occasion for falling. <sup>14</sup> I know, and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus, that nothing is unclean of itself; except that to him who considers anything to be unclean, to him it is unclean. <sup>15</sup> Yet if because of food your brother is grieved, you walk no longer in love. Don't destroy with your food him for whom Christ died. <sup>16</sup> Then don't let your good be slandered, <sup>17</sup> for God's Kingdom is not eating and drinking, but righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit. <sup>18</sup> For he who serves Christ in these things is acceptable to God and approved by men. <sup>19</sup> So then, let us follow after things which make for peace, and things by which we may build one another up. <sup>20</sup> Don't overthrow God's work for food's sake. All things indeed are clean, however it is evil for that man who creates a stumbling block by eating. <sup>21</sup> It is good to not eat meat, drink wine, nor do anything

by which your brother stumbles, is offended, or is made weak.

<sup>22</sup> Do you have faith? Have it to yourself before God. Happy is he who doesn't judge himself in that which he approves. <sup>23</sup> But he who doubts is condemned if he eats, because it isn't of faith; and whatever is not of faith is sin.

<sup>24</sup> Now to him who is able to establish you according to my Good News and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery which has been kept secret through long ages, <sup>25</sup> but now is revealed, and by the Scriptures of the prophets, according to the commandment of the eternal God, is made known for obedience of faith to all the nations; <sup>26</sup> to the only wise God, through Jesus Christ, to whom be the glory forever! Amen.<sup>r</sup>

15

<sup>1</sup> Now we who are strong ought to bear the weaknesses of the weak, and not to please ourselves. <sup>2</sup> Let each one of us please his neighbor for that which is good, to be building him up. <sup>3</sup> For even Christ didn't please himself. But, as it is written, "The reproaches of those who reproached you fell on me."<sup>1</sup> <sup>4</sup> For whatever things were written before were written for our learning, that through patience and through encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope. <sup>5</sup> Now the God of patience and of encouragement grant you to be of the same mind one with another according to Christ Jesus, <sup>6</sup> that with one accord you may with one mouth glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>7</sup> Therefore accept one another, even as Christ also accepted you,<sup>s</sup> to the glory of God. <sup>8</sup> Now I say that Christ has been made a servant of the circumcision for the truth of God, that he might confirm the promises given to the fathers, <sup>9</sup> and that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy. As it is written,

"Therefore will I give praise to you among the Gentiles, and sing to your name."<sup>2</sup>

<sup>10</sup> Again he says,

"Rejoice, you Gentiles, with his people."<sup>3</sup>

<sup>11</sup> Again,

"Praise the Lord, all you Gentiles!
Let all the peoples praise him."<sup>4</sup>

<sup>12</sup> Again, Isaiah says,

"There will be the root of Jesse, he who arises to rule over the Gentiles;

in him the Gentiles will hope."<sup>5</sup>

<sup>13</sup> Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that you may abound in hope, in the power of the Holy Spirit. <sup>14</sup> I myself am also persuaded about you, my brothers,<sup>t</sup> that you yourselves are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish others. <sup>15</sup> But I write the more boldly to you in part, as reminding you, because of the grace that was given to me by God, <sup>16</sup> that I should be a servant of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles, serving as a priest of the Good News of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be made acceptable, sanctified by the Holy Spirit. <sup>17</sup> I have therefore my boasting in Christ Jesus in things pertaining to God.

<sup>18</sup> For I will not dare to speak of any things except those which Christ worked through me, for the obedience of the Gentiles, by word and deed, <sup>19</sup> in the power of signs and wonders, in the power of God's Spirit; so that from Jerusalem, and around as far as to Illyricum, I have fully preached the Good News of Christ; <sup>20</sup> yes, making it my aim to preach the Good News, not where Christ was already named, that I might not build on another's foundation. <sup>21</sup> But, as it is written,

“They will see, to whom no news of him came.

They who haven't heard will understand.”<sup>6</sup>

<sup>22</sup> Therefore also I was hindered these many times from coming to you, <sup>23</sup> but now, no longer having any place in these regions, and having these many years a longing to come to you, <sup>24</sup> whenever I travel to Spain, I will come to you. For I hope to see you on my journey, and to be helped on my way there by you, if first I may enjoy your company for a while. <sup>25</sup> But now, I say, I am going to Jerusalem, serving the saints. <sup>26</sup> For it has been the good pleasure of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor among the saints who are at Jerusalem. <sup>27</sup> Yes, it has been their good pleasure, and they are their debtors. For if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, they owe it to them also to serve them in fleshly things. <sup>28</sup> When therefore I have accomplished this, and have sealed to them this fruit, I will go on by way of you to Spain. <sup>29</sup> I know that, when I come to you, I will come in the fullness of the blessing of the Good News of Christ.

<sup>30</sup> Now I beg you, brothers, by our Lord Jesus Christ, and by the love of the Spirit, that you strive together with me in your prayers to God for me, <sup>31</sup> that I may be delivered from those who are disobedient in Judea, and that my service which I have for Jerusalem may be acceptable to the saints; <sup>32</sup> that I may come to you in joy through the will of God, and together with you, find rest. <sup>33</sup> Now the God of peace be with you all. <sup>1</sup> I commend to you Phoebe, our sister, who is a servant<sup>u</sup> of the assembly that is at Cenchreae, <sup>2</sup> that you receive her in the Lord, in a way worthy of the saints, and that you assist her in whatever matter she may need from you, for she herself also has been a helper of many, and of my own self.

<sup>3</sup> Greet Prisca and Aquila, my fellow workers in Christ Jesus, <sup>4</sup> who for my life, laid down their own necks; to whom not only I give thanks, but also all the assemblies of the Gentiles. <sup>5</sup> Greet the assembly that is in their house. The assemblies of Christ greet you.

<sup>17</sup> Now I beg you, brothers, look out for those who are causing the divisions and occasions of stumbling, contrary to the doctrine which you learned, and turn away from them. <sup>18</sup> For those who are such don't serve our Lord, Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by their smooth and flattering speech, they deceive the hearts of the innocent. <sup>19</sup> For your obedience has become known to all. I rejoice therefore over you. But I desire to have you wise in that which is good, but innocent in that which is evil. <sup>20</sup> And the God of peace will quickly crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians

1

<sup>1</sup> Paul, called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and our brother Sosthenes, <sup>2</sup> to the assembly of God which is at Corinth; those who are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, with all who call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ in every place, both theirs and ours: <sup>3</sup> Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>4</sup> I always thank my God concerning you, for the grace of God which was given you in Christ Jesus; <sup>5</sup> that in everything you were enriched in him, in all speech and all knowledge; <sup>6</sup> even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you: <sup>7</sup> so that you come behind in no gift; waiting for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ; <sup>8</sup> who will also confirm you until the end, blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>9</sup> God is faithful, through whom you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord. <sup>10</sup> Now I beg you, brothers,<sup>a</sup> through the name of our Lord, Jesus Christ, that you all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be perfected together in the same mind and in the same judgment. <sup>11</sup> For it has been reported to me concerning you, my brothers, by those who are from Chloe's household, that there are contentions among you. <sup>12</sup> Now I mean this, that each one of you says, "I follow Paul," "I follow Apollos," "I follow Cephas," and, "I follow Christ." <sup>13</sup> Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized into the name of Paul? <sup>14</sup> I thank God that I baptized none of you, except Crispus and Gaius, <sup>15</sup> so that no one should say that I had baptized you into my own name. <sup>16</sup> (I also baptized the household of Stephanas; besides them, I don't know whether I baptized any other.) <sup>17</sup> For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the Good News—not in wisdom of words, so that the cross of Christ wouldn't be made void. <sup>18</sup> For the word of the cross is foolishness to those who are dying, but to us who are saved it is the power of God.

<sup>19</sup> For it is written,

"I will destroy the wisdom of the wise,
I will bring the discernment of the discerning to nothing."<sup>1</sup>

<sup>20</sup> Where is the wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the lawyer of this world? Hasn't God made foolish the wisdom of this world? <sup>21</sup> For seeing that in the wisdom of God, the world through its wisdom didn't know God, it was God's good pleasure through the foolishness of the preaching to save those who believe. <sup>22</sup> For Jews ask for signs, Greeks seek after wisdom, <sup>23</sup> but we preach Christ crucified; a stumbling block to Jews, and foolishness to Greeks, <sup>24</sup> but to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ is the power of God and the wisdom of God. <sup>25</sup> Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God is stronger than men. <sup>26</sup> For you see your calling, brothers, that not many are wise according to the flesh, not many mighty, and not many noble; <sup>27</sup> but God chose the foolish things of the world that he might put to shame those who are wise. God chose the weak things of the world, that he might put to shame the things that are strong; <sup>28</sup> and God chose the lowly things of the world, and the things that are despised, and the things that are not, that he might bring to nothing the things that are: <sup>29</sup> that no flesh should boast before God. <sup>30</sup> Because of him, you are in Christ Jesus, who was made to us wisdom from God, and righteousness and sanctification, and redemption: <sup>31</sup> that, according as it is written, "He who boasts, let him boast in the Lord."<sup>2</sup>

2

<sup>1</sup> When I came to you, brothers, I didn't come with excellence of speech or of wisdom, proclaiming to you the testimony of God. <sup>2</sup> For I determined not to know anything among you, except Jesus Christ, and him crucified. <sup>3</sup> I was with you in weakness, in fear, and in much trembling. <sup>4</sup> My speech and my preaching were not in persuasive words of human wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power, <sup>5</sup> that your faith wouldn't stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God. <sup>6</sup> We speak wisdom, however, among those who are full grown; yet a wisdom not of this world, nor of the rulers of this world, who are coming to nothing. <sup>7</sup> But we speak God's wisdom in a mystery, the wisdom that has been hidden, which God foreordained before the worlds for our glory, <sup>8</sup> which none of the rulers of this world has known. For had they known it, they wouldn't have crucified the Lord of glory. <sup>9</sup> But as it is written,

"Things which an eye didn't see, and an ear didn't hear, which didn't enter into the heart of man, these God has prepared for those who love him."<sup>1</sup>

<sup>10</sup> But to us, God revealed them through the Spirit. For the Spirit searches all things, yes, the deep things of God. <sup>11</sup> For who among men knows the things of a man, except the spirit of the man, which is in him? Even so, no one knows the things of God, except God's Spirit. <sup>12</sup> But we received, not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit which is from God, that we might know the things that were freely given to us by God. <sup>13</sup> Which things also we speak, not in words which man's wisdom teaches, but which the Holy Spirit teaches, comparing spiritual things with spiritual things. <sup>14</sup> Now the natural man doesn't receive the things of God's Spirit, for they are foolishness to him, and he can't know them, because they are spiritually discerned. <sup>15</sup> But he who is spiritual discerns all things, and he himself is judged by no one. <sup>16</sup> "For who has known the mind of the Lord, that he should instruct him?" <sup>2</sup> But we have Christ's mind.

3

<sup>1</sup> Brothers, I couldn't speak to you as to spiritual, but as to fleshly, as to babies in Christ. <sup>2</sup> I fed you with milk, not with meat; for you weren't yet ready. Indeed, not even now are you ready, <sup>3</sup> for you are still fleshly. For insofar as there is jealousy, strife, and factions among you, aren't you fleshly, and don't you walk in the ways of men? <sup>4</sup> For when one says, "I follow Paul," and another, "I follow Apollos," aren't you fleshly? <sup>5</sup> Who then is Apollos, and who is Paul, but servants through whom you believed; and each as the Lord gave to him? <sup>6</sup> I planted. Apollos watered. But God gave the increase. <sup>7</sup> So then neither he who plants is anything, nor he who waters, but God who gives the increase. <sup>8</sup> Now he who plants and he who waters are the same, but each will receive his own reward according to his own labor. <sup>9</sup> For we are God's fellow workers. You are God's farming, God's building. <sup>10</sup> According to the grace of God which was given to me, as a wise master builder I laid a foundation, and another builds on it. But let each man be careful how he builds on it. <sup>11</sup> For no one can lay any other foundation than that which has been laid, which is Jesus Christ. <sup>12</sup> But if anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, costly stones, wood, hay, or stubble; <sup>13</sup> each man's work will be revealed. For the Day will declare it, because it is revealed in fire; and the fire itself will test what sort of work each man's work is. <sup>14</sup> If any man's work remains which he built on it, he will receive a reward. <sup>15</sup> If any man's work is burned, he will suffer loss, but he himself will be saved, but as through fire.

<sup>16</sup> Don't you know that you are a temple of God, and that God's Spirit lives in you?

<sup>17</sup> If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy him; for God's temple is holy, which you are.

<sup>18</sup> Let no one deceive himself. If anyone thinks that he is wise among you in this world, let him become a fool, that he may become wise. <sup>19</sup> For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, "He has taken the wise in their craftiness."<sup>1</sup> <sup>20</sup> And again, "The Lord knows the reasoning of the wise, that it is worthless."<sup>2</sup> <sup>21</sup> Therefore let no one boast in men. For all things are yours, <sup>22</sup> whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come. All are yours, <sup>23</sup> and you are Christ's, and Christ is God's.

4

<sup>1</sup> So let a man think of us as Christ's servants, and stewards of God's mysteries. <sup>2</sup> Here, moreover, it is required of stewards, that they be found faithful. <sup>3</sup> But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you, or by man's judgment. Yes, I don't judge my own self. <sup>4</sup> For I know nothing against myself. Yet I am not justified by this, but he who judges me is the Lord. <sup>5</sup> Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord comes, who will both bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and reveal the counsels of the hearts. Then each man will get his praise from God.

<sup>6</sup> Now these things, brothers, I have in a figure transferred to myself and Apollos for your sakes, that in us you might learn not to think beyond the things which are written, that none of you be puffed up against one another. <sup>7</sup> For who makes you different? And what do you have that you didn't receive? But if you did receive it, why do you boast as if you had not received it? <sup>8</sup> You are already filled. You have already become rich. You have come to reign without us. Yes, and I wish that you did reign, that we also might reign with you.<sup>9</sup> For, I think that God has displayed us, the apostles, last of all, like men sentenced to death. For we are made a spectacle to the world, both to angels and men.<sup>10</sup> We are fools for Christ's sake, but you are wise in Christ. We are weak, but you are strong. You have honor, but we have dishonor.<sup>11</sup> Even to this present hour we hunger, thirst, are naked, are beaten, and have no certain dwelling place.<sup>12</sup> We toil, working with our own hands. When people curse us, we bless. Being persecuted, we endure.<sup>13</sup> Being defamed, we entreat. We are made as the filth of the world, the dirt wiped off by all, even until now.<sup>14</sup> I don't write these things to shame you, but to admonish you as my beloved children.<sup>15</sup> For though you have ten thousand tutors in Christ, yet not many fathers. For in Christ Jesus, I became your father through the Good News.<sup>16</sup> I beg you therefore, be imitators of me.<sup>17</sup> Because of this I have sent Timothy to you, who is my beloved and faithful child in the Lord, who will remind you of my ways which are in Christ, even as I teach everywhere in every assembly.<sup>18</sup> Now some are puffed up, as though I were not coming to you.<sup>19</sup> But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord is willing. And I will know, not the word of those who are puffed up, but the power.<sup>20</sup> For God's Kingdom is not in word, but in power.<sup>21</sup> What do you want? Shall I come to you with a rod, or in love and a spirit of gentleness?

sexual immorality as is not even named among the Gentiles, that one has his father's wife.<sup>2</sup> You are puffed up, and didn't rather mourn, that he who had done this deed might be removed from among you.<sup>3</sup> For I most certainly, as being absent in body but present in spirit, have already, as though I were present, judged him who has done this thing.<sup>4</sup> In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, you being gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ,<sup>5</sup> are to deliver such a one to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.

<sup>6</sup> Your boasting is not good. Don't you know that a little yeast leavens the whole lump?<sup>7</sup> Purge out the old yeast, that you may be a new lump, even as you are unleavened. For indeed Christ, our Passover, has been sacrificed in our place.<sup>8</sup> Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old yeast, neither with the yeast of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.<sup>9</sup> I wrote to you in my letter to have no company with sexual sinners;<sup>10</sup> yet not at all meaning with the sexual sinners of this world, or with the covetous and extortionists, or with idolaters; for then you would have to leave the world.<sup>11</sup> But as it is, I wrote to you not to associate with anyone who is called a brother who is a sexual sinner, or covetous, or an idolater, or a slanderer, or a drunkard, or an extortionist. Don't even eat with such a person.<sup>12</sup> For what have I to do with also judging those who are outside? Don't you judge those who are within?<sup>13</sup> But those who are outside, God judges. "Put away the wicked man from among yourselves."<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Dare any of you, having a matter against his neighbor, go to law before the unrighteous, and not before the saints? <sup>2</sup> Don't you know that the saints will judge the world? And if the world is judged by you, are you unworthy to judge the smallest matters? <sup>3</sup> Don't you know that we will judge angels? How much more, things that pertain to this life? <sup>4</sup> If then, you have to judge things pertaining to this life, do you set them to judge who are of no account in the assembly? <sup>5</sup> I say this to move you to shame. Isn't there even one wise man among you who would be able to decide between his brothers? <sup>6</sup> But brother goes to law with brother, and that before unbelievers! <sup>7</sup> Therefore it is already altogether a defect in you, that you have lawsuits one with another. Why not rather be wronged? Why not rather be defrauded? <sup>8</sup> No, but you yourselves do wrong, and defraud, and that against your brothers. <sup>9</sup> Or don't you know that the unrighteous will not inherit God's Kingdom? Don't be deceived. Neither the sexually immoral, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor male prostitutes, nor homosexuals, <sup>10</sup> nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor slanderers, nor extortionists, will inherit God's Kingdom. <sup>11</sup> Such were some of you, but you were washed. But you were sanctified. But you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and in the Spirit of our God. <sup>12</sup> "All things are lawful for me," but not all things are expedient. "All things are lawful for me," but I will not be brought under the power of anything. <sup>13</sup> "Foods for the belly, and the belly for foods," but God will bring to nothing both it and them. But the body is not for sexual immorality, but for the Lord; and the Lord for the body. <sup>14</sup> Now God raised up the Lord, and will also raise us up by his power. <sup>15</sup> Don't you know that your bodies are members of Christ? Shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them members of a prostitute? May it never be! <sup>16</sup> Or don't you know that he who is joined to a prostitute is one body? For, "The two", he says, "will become one flesh."<sup>1</sup> <sup>17</sup> But he who is joined to the Lord is one spirit. <sup>18</sup> Flee sexual immorality! "Every sin that a man does is outside the body," but he who commits sexual immorality sins against his own body. <sup>19</sup> Or don't you know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit which is in you, which you have from God? You are not your own, <sup>20</sup> for you were bought with a price. Therefore glorify God in your body and in your spirit, which are God's.

7

doesn't tempt you because of your lack of self-control.

<sup>6</sup> But this I say by way of concession, not of commandment. <sup>7</sup> Yet I wish that all men were like me. However each man has his own gift from God, one of this kind, and another of that kind. <sup>8</sup> But I say to the unmarried and to widows, it is good for them if they remain even as I am. <sup>9</sup> But if they don't have self-control, let them marry. For it's better to marry than to burn. <sup>10</sup> But to the married I command—not I, but the Lord—that the wife not leave her husband <sup>11</sup> (but if she departs, let her remain unmarried, or else be reconciled to her husband), and that the husband not leave his wife.

<sup>12</sup> But to the rest I—not the Lord—say, if any brother has an unbelieving wife, and she is content to live with him, let him not leave her. <sup>13</sup> The woman who has an unbelieving husband, and he is content to live with her, let her not leave her husband. <sup>14</sup> For the unbelieving husband is sanctified in the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified in the husband. Otherwise your children would be unclean, but now they are holy. <sup>15</sup> Yet if the unbeliever departs, let there be separation. The brother or the sister is not under bondage in such cases, but God has called us in peace. <sup>16</sup> For how do you know, wife, whether you will save your husband? Or how do you know, husband, whether you will save your wife? <sup>17</sup> Only, as the Lord has distributed to each man, as God has called each, so let him walk. So I command in all the assemblies.

<sup>18</sup> Was anyone called having been circumcised? Let him not become uncircumcised. Has anyone been called in uncircumcision? Let him not be circumcised. <sup>19</sup> Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God. <sup>20</sup> Let each man stay in that calling in which he was called. <sup>21</sup> Were you called being a bondservant? Don't let that bother you, but if you get an opportunity to become free, use it. <sup>22</sup> For he who was called in the Lord being a bondservant is the Lord's free man. Likewise he who was called being free is Christ's bondservant. <sup>23</sup> You were bought with a price. Don't become bondservants of men. <sup>24</sup> Brothers, let each man, in whatever condition he was called, stay in that condition with God.

<sup>25</sup> Now concerning virgins, I have no commandment from the Lord, but I give my judgment as one who has obtained mercy from the Lord to be trustworthy. <sup>26</sup> I think that it is good therefore, because of the distress that is on us, that it is good for a man to be as he is. <sup>27</sup> Are you bound to a wife? Don't seek to be freed. Are you free from a wife? Don't seek a wife. <sup>28</sup> But if you marry, you have not sinned. If a virgin marries, she has not sinned. Yet such will have oppression in the flesh, and I want to spare you. <sup>29</sup> But I say this, brothers: the time is short, that from now on, both those who have wives may be as though they had none; <sup>30</sup> and those who weep, as though they didn't weep; and those who rejoice, as though they didn't rejoice; and those who buy, as though they didn't possess; <sup>31</sup> and those who use the world, as not using it to the fullest. For the mode of this world passes away. <sup>32</sup> But I desire to have you to be free from cares. He who is unmarried is concerned for the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord; <sup>33</sup> but he who is married is concerned about the things of the world, how he may please his wife. <sup>34</sup> There is also a difference between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman cares about the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit. But she who is married cares about the things of the world—how she may please her husband. <sup>35</sup> This I say for your own profit; not that I may ensnare you, but for that which is appropriate, and that you may attend to the Lord without distraction. <sup>36</sup> But if any man thinks that he is behaving inappropriately toward his virgin, if she is past the flower of her age, and if need so requires, let him do what he desires. He doesn't sin. Let them marry. <sup>37</sup> But he who stands steadfast in his heart, having no urgency, but has power over his own will, and has determined in his own heart to keep his own virgin, does well. <sup>38</sup> So then both he who gives his own virgin in marriage does well, and he who doesn't give her in marriage does better.

<sup>39</sup> A wife is bound by law for as long as her husband lives; but if the husband is dead, she is free to be married to whomever she desires, only in the Lord. <sup>40</sup> But she is happier if she stays as she is, in my judgment, and I think that I also have God's Spirit.

8

<sup>1</sup> Now concerning things sacrificed to idols: We know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up. <sup>2</sup> But if anyone thinks that he knows anything, he doesn't yet know as he ought to know. <sup>3</sup> But if anyone loves God, the same is known by him. <sup>4</sup> Therefore concerning the eating of things sacrificed to idols, we know that no idol is anything in the world, and that there is no other God but one. <sup>5</sup> For though there are things that are called "gods", whether in the heavens or on earth; as there are many "gods" and many "lords"; <sup>6</sup> yet to us there is one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we for him; and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom are all things, and we live through him. <sup>7</sup> However, that knowledge isn't in all men. But some, with consciousness of the idol until now, eat as of a thing sacrificed to an idol, and their conscience, being weak, is defiled. <sup>8</sup> But food will not commend us to God. For neither, if we don't eat, are we the worse; nor, if we eat, are we the better. <sup>9</sup> But be careful that by no means does this liberty of yours become a stumbling block to the weak. <sup>10</sup> For if a man sees you who have knowledge sitting in an idol's temple, won't his conscience, if he is weak, be emboldened to eat things sacrificed to idols? <sup>11</sup> And through your knowledge, he who is weak perishes, the brother for whose sake Christ died. <sup>12</sup> Thus, sinning against the brothers, and wounding their conscience when it is weak, you sin against Christ. <sup>13</sup> Therefore if food causes my brother to stumble, I will eat no meat forever more, that I don't cause my brother to stumble.

9

<sup>1</sup> Am I not free? Am I not an apostle? Haven't I seen Jesus Christ, our Lord? Aren't you my work in the Lord? <sup>2</sup> If to others I am not an apostle, yet at least I am to you; for you are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord. <sup>3</sup> My defense to those who examine me is this. <sup>4</sup> Have we no right to eat and to drink? <sup>5</sup> Have we no right to take along a wife who is a believer, even as the rest of the apostles, and the brothers of the Lord, and Cephas? <sup>6</sup> Or have only Barnabas and I no right to not work? <sup>7</sup> What soldier ever serves at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard, and doesn't eat of its fruit? Or who feeds a flock, and doesn't drink from the flock's milk? <sup>8</sup> Do I speak these things according to the ways of men? Or doesn't the law also say the same thing? <sup>9</sup> For it is written in the law of Moses, "You shall not muzzle an ox while it treads out the grain."<sup>1</sup> Is it for the oxen that God cares, <sup>10</sup> or does he say it assuredly for our sake? Yes, it was written for our sake, because he who plows ought to plow in hope, and he who threshes in hope should partake of his hope. <sup>11</sup> If we sowed to you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we reap your fleshly things? <sup>12</sup> If others partake of this right over you, don't we yet more? Nevertheless we did not use this right, but we bear all things, that we may cause no hindrance to the Good News of Christ. <sup>13</sup> Don't you know that those who serve around sacred things eat from the things of the temple, and those who wait on the altar have their portion with the altar? <sup>14</sup> Even so the Lord ordained that those who proclaim the Good News should live from the Good News. <sup>15</sup> But I have used none of these things, and I don't write these things that it may be done so in my case; for I would rather die, than that anyone should make my boasting void. <sup>16</sup> For if I preach the Good News, I have nothing to boast about; for necessity is laid on me; but woe is to me, if I don't preach the Good News. <sup>17</sup> For if I do this of my own will, I have a reward. But if not of my own will, I have a stewardship entrusted to me. <sup>18</sup> What then is my reward? That, when I preach the Good News, I may present the Good News of Christ without charge, so as not to abuse my authority in the Good News. <sup>19</sup> For though I was free from all, I brought myself under bondage to all, that I might gain the more. <sup>20</sup> To the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain Jews; to those who are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain those who are under the law; <sup>21</sup> to those who are without law, as without law (not being without law toward God, but under law toward Christ), that I might win those who are without law. <sup>22</sup> To the weak I became as weak, that I might gain the weak. I have become all things to all men, that I may by all means save some. <sup>23</sup> Now I do this for the sake of the Good News, that I may be a joint partaker of it. <sup>24</sup> Don't you know that those who run in a race all run, but one receives the prize? Run like that, that you may win. <sup>25</sup> Every man who strives in the games exercises self-control in all things. Now they do it to receive a corruptible crown, but we an incorruptible. <sup>26</sup> I therefore run like that, not aimlessly. I fight like that, not beating the air, <sup>27</sup> but I beat my body and bring it into submission, lest by any means, after I have preached to others, I myself should be rejected.

<sup>1</sup> Now I would not have you ignorant, brothers, that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea; <sup>2</sup> and were all baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea; <sup>3</sup> and all ate the same spiritual food; <sup>4</sup> and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank of a spiritual rock that followed them, and the rock was Christ. <sup>5</sup> However with most of them, God was not well pleased, for they were overthrown in the wilderness. <sup>6</sup> Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted. <sup>7</sup> Don't be idolaters, as some of them were. As it is written, "The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play."<sup>1</sup> <sup>8</sup> Let us not commit sexual immorality, as some of them committed, and in one day twenty-three thousand fell. <sup>9</sup> Let us not test Christ,<sup>c</sup> as some of them tested, and perished by the serpents. <sup>10</sup> Don't grumble, as some of them also grumbled, and perished by the destroyer. <sup>11</sup> Now all these things happened to them by way of example, and they were written for our admonition, on whom the ends of the ages have come. <sup>12</sup> Therefore let him who thinks he stands be careful that he doesn't fall.

<sup>13</sup> No temptation has taken you except what is common to man. God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted above what you are able, but will with the temptation also make the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it. <sup>14</sup> Therefore, my beloved, flee from idolatry. <sup>15</sup> I speak as to wise men. Judge what I say.

<sup>16</sup> The cup of blessing which we bless, isn't it a sharing of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, isn't it a sharing of the body of Christ? <sup>17</sup> Because there is one loaf of bread, we, who are many, are one body; for we all partake of the one loaf of bread. <sup>18</sup> Consider Israel according to the flesh. Don't those who eat the sacrifices participate in the altar?

<sup>19</sup> What am I saying then? That a thing sacrificed to idols is anything, or that an idol is anything? <sup>20</sup> But I say that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons, and not to God, and I don't desire that you would have fellowship with demons. <sup>21</sup> You can't both drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You can't both partake of the table of the Lord, and of the table of demons. <sup>22</sup> Or do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? Are we stronger than he? <sup>23</sup> "All things are lawful for me," but not all things are profitable. "All things are lawful for me," but not all things build up. <sup>24</sup> Let no one seek his own, but each one his neighbor's good. <sup>25</sup> Whatever is sold in the butcher shop, eat, asking no question for the sake of conscience, <sup>26</sup> for "the earth is the Lord's, and its fullness."<sup>2</sup> <sup>27</sup> But if one of those who don't believe invites you to a meal, and you are inclined to go, eat whatever is set before you, asking no questions for the sake of conscience. <sup>28</sup> But if anyone says to you, "This was offered to idols," don't eat it for the sake of the one who told you, and for the sake of conscience. For "the earth is the Lord's, and all its fullness."<sup>29</sup> Conscience, I say, not your own, but the other's conscience. For why is my liberty judged by another conscience? <sup>30</sup> If I partake with thankfulness, why am I denounced for that for which I give thanks? <sup>31</sup> Whether therefore you eat, or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God. <sup>32</sup> Give no occasion for stumbling, either to Jews, or to Greeks, or to the assembly of God; <sup>33</sup> even as I also please all men in all things, not seeking my own profit, but the profit of the many, that they may be saved.

11

<sup>1</sup> Be imitators of me, even as I also am of Christ. <sup>2</sup> Now I praise you, brothers, that you remember me in all things, and hold firm the traditions, even as I delivered them to you. <sup>3</sup> But I would have you know that the head<sup>d</sup> of every man is Christ, and the head<sup>e</sup> of the woman is man, and the head<sup>f</sup> of Christ is God. <sup>4</sup> Every man praying or prophesying, having his head covered, dishonors his head. <sup>5</sup> But every woman praying or prophesying with her head uncovered dishonors her head. For it is one and the same thing as if she were shaved. <sup>6</sup> For if a woman is not covered, let her hair also be cut off. But if it is shameful for a woman to be have her hair cut off or shaved, let her be covered. <sup>7</sup> For a man indeed ought not to have his head covered, because he is the image and glory of God, but the woman is the glory of the man. <sup>8</sup> For man is not from woman, but woman from man; <sup>9</sup> for man wasn't created for the woman, but woman for the man. <sup>10</sup> For this cause the woman ought to have authority over her own head, because of the angels.

independent of the woman, in the Lord. <sup>12</sup> For as woman came from man, so a man also comes through a woman; but all things are from God. <sup>13</sup> Judge for yourselves. Is it appropriate that a woman pray to God unveiled? <sup>14</sup> Doesn't even nature itself teach you that if a man has long hair, it is a dishonor to him? <sup>15</sup> But if a woman has long hair, it is a glory to her, for her hair is given to her for a covering. <sup>16</sup> But if any man seems to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither do God's assemblies.

<sup>17</sup> But in giving you this command, I don't praise you, that you come together not for the better but for the worse. <sup>18</sup> For first of all, when you come together in the assembly, I hear that divisions exist among you, and I partly believe it. <sup>19</sup> For there also must be factions among you, that those who are approved may be revealed among you. <sup>20</sup> When therefore you assemble yourselves together, it is not the Lord's supper that you eat. <sup>21</sup> For in your eating each one takes his own supper first. One is hungry, and another is drunken. <sup>22</sup> What, don't you have houses to eat and to drink in? Or do you despise God's assembly, and put them to shame who don't have? What shall I tell you? Shall I praise you? In this I don't praise you.

<sup>23</sup> For I received from the Lord that which also I delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night in which he was betrayed took bread. <sup>24</sup> When he had given thanks, he broke it, and said, "Take, eat. This is my body, which is broken for you. Do this in memory of me." <sup>25</sup> In the same way he also took the cup, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink, in memory of me.”<sup>26</sup> For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord’s death until he comes.<sup>27</sup> Therefore whoever eats this bread or drinks the Lord’s cup in a way unworthy of the Lord will be guilty of the body and the blood of the Lord.<sup>28</sup> But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of the bread, and drink of the cup.<sup>29</sup> For he who eats and drinks in an unworthy way eats and drinks judgment to himself, if he doesn’t discern the Lord’s body.<sup>30</sup> For this cause many among you are weak and sickly, and not a few sleep.<sup>31</sup> For if we discerned ourselves, we wouldn’t be judged.<sup>32</sup> But when we are judged, we are punished by the Lord, that we may not be condemned with the world.<sup>33</sup> Therefore, my brothers, when you come together to eat, wait for one another.<sup>34</sup> But if anyone is hungry, let him eat at home, lest your coming together be for judgment. The rest I will set in order whenever I come.

12

<sup>1</sup> Now concerning spiritual things, brothers, I don’t want you to be ignorant.<sup>2</sup> You know that when you were heathen,<sup>g</sup> you were led away to those mute idols, however you might be led.<sup>3</sup> Therefore I make known to you that no man speaking by God’s Spirit says, “Jesus is accursed.” No one can say, “Jesus is Lord,” but by the Holy Spirit.<sup>4</sup> Now there are various kinds of gifts, but the same Spirit.

<sup>5</sup> There are various kinds of service, and the same Lord.<sup>6</sup> There are various kinds of workings, but the same God, who works all things in all.<sup>7</sup> But to each one is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the profit of all.<sup>8</sup> For to one is given through the Spirit the word of wisdom, and to another the word of knowledge, according to the same Spirit;<sup>9</sup> to another faith, by the same Spirit; and to another gifts of healings, by the same Spirit;<sup>10</sup> and to another workings of miracles; and to another prophecy; and to another discerning of spirits; to another different kinds of languages; and to another the interpretation of languages.<sup>11</sup> But the one and the same Spirit produces all of these, distributing to each one separately as he desires.

<sup>12</sup> For as the body is one, and has many members, and all the members of the body, being many, are one body; so also is Christ.

<sup>13</sup> For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether bond or free; and were all given to drink into one Spirit.<sup>14</sup> For the body is not one member, but many.<sup>15</sup> If the foot would say, “Because I’m not the hand, I’m not part of the body,” it is not therefore not part of the body.<sup>16</sup> If the ear would say, “Because I’m not the eye, I’m not part of the body,” it’s not therefore not part of the body.<sup>17</sup> If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole were hearing, where would the smelling be?<sup>18</sup> But now God has set the members, each one of them, in the body, just as he desired.<sup>19</sup> If they were all one member, where would the body be?<sup>20</sup> But now they are many members, but one body.<sup>21</sup> The eye can’t tell the hand, “I have no need for you,” or again the head to the feet, “I have no need for you.”<sup>22</sup> No, much rather, those members of the body which seem to be weaker are necessary. <sup>23</sup> Those parts of the body which we think to be less honorable, on those we bestow more abundant honor; and our unpresentable parts have more abundant propriety; <sup>24</sup> whereas our presentable parts have no such need. But God composed the body together, giving more abundant honor to the inferior part, <sup>25</sup> that there should be no division in the body, but that the members should have the same care for one another. <sup>26</sup> When one member suffers, all the members suffer with it. Or when one member is honored, all the members rejoice with it.

<sup>27</sup> Now you are the body of Christ, and members individually. <sup>28</sup> God has set some in the assembly: first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then miracle workers, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, and various kinds of languages. <sup>29</sup> Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Are all miracle workers? <sup>30</sup> Do all have gifts of healings? Do all speak with various languages? Do all interpret? <sup>31</sup> But earnestly desire the best gifts. Moreover, I show a most excellent way to you.

13

<sup>1</sup> If I speak with the languages of men and of angels, but don't have love, I have become sounding brass, or a clanging cymbal. <sup>2</sup> If I have the gift of prophecy, and know all mysteries and all knowledge; and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but don't have love, I am nothing. <sup>3</sup> If I dole out all my goods to feed the poor, and if I give my body to be burned, but don't have love, it profits me nothing.

14

<sup>1</sup> Follow after love, and earnestly desire spiritual gifts, but especially that you may prophesy. <sup>2</sup> For he who speaks in another language speaks not to men, but to God; for no one understands; but in the Spirit he speaks mysteries. <sup>3</sup> But he who prophesies speaks to men for their edification, exhortation, and consolation. <sup>4</sup> He who speaks in another language edifies himself, but he who prophesies edifies the assembly. <sup>5</sup> Now I desire to have you all speak with other languages, but rather that you would prophesy. For he is greater who prophesies than he who speaks with other languages, unless he interprets, that the assembly may be built up.

<sup>6</sup> But now, brothers,<sup>h</sup> if I come to you speaking with other languages, what would I profit you, unless I speak to you either by way of revelation, or of knowledge, or of prophesying, or of teaching? <sup>7</sup> Even things without life, giving a voice, whether pipe or harp, if they didn't give a distinction in the sounds, how would it be known what is piped or harped? <sup>8</sup> For if the trumpet gave an uncertain sound, who would prepare himself for war? <sup>9</sup> So also you, unless you uttered by the tongue words easy to understand, how would it be known what is spoken? For you would be speaking into the air. <sup>10</sup> There are, it may be, so many kinds of sounds in the world, and none of them is without meaning. <sup>11</sup> If then I don't know the meaning of the sound, I would be to him who speaks a foreigner, and he who speaks would be a foreigner to me. <sup>12</sup> So also you, since you are zealous for spiritual gifts, seek that you may abound to the building up of the assembly. <sup>13</sup> Therefore let him who speaks in another language pray that he may interpret. <sup>14</sup> For if I pray in another language, my spirit prays, but my understanding is unfruitful.

<sup>15</sup> What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also. I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also. <sup>16</sup> Otherwise if you bless with the spirit, how will he who fills the place of the unlearned say the "Amen" at your giving of thanks, seeing he doesn't know what you say? <sup>17</sup> For you most certainly give thanks well, but the other person is not built up. <sup>18</sup> I thank my God, I speak with other languages more than you all. <sup>19</sup> However in the assembly I would rather speak five words with my understanding, that I might instruct others also, than ten thousand words in another language.

<sup>20</sup> Brothers, don't be children in thoughts, yet in malice be babies, but in thoughts be mature. <sup>21</sup> In the law it is written, "By men of strange languages and by the lips of strangers I will speak to this people. Not even thus will they hear me, says the Lord."<sup>1</sup> <sup>22</sup> Therefore other languages are for a sign, not to those who believe, but to the unbelieving; but prophesying is for a sign, not to the unbelieving, but to those who believe. <sup>23</sup> If therefore the whole assembly is assembled together and all speak with other languages, and unlearned or unbelieving people come in, won't they say that you are crazy? <sup>24</sup> But if all prophesy, and someone unbelieving or unlearned comes in, he is reprov'd by all, and he is judged by all. <sup>25</sup> And thus the secrets of his heart are revealed. So he will fall down on his face and worship God, declaring that God is among you indeed.

<sup>26</sup> What is it then, brothers? When you come together, each one of you has a psalm, has a teaching, has a revelation, has another language, has an interpretation. Let all things be done to build each other up. <sup>27</sup> If any man speaks in another language, let it be two, or at the most three, and in turn; and let one interpret. <sup>28</sup> But if there is no interpreter, let him keep silent in the assembly, and let him speak to himself, and to God. <sup>29</sup> Let the prophets speak, two or three, and let the others discern. <sup>30</sup> But if a revelation is made to another sitting by, let the first keep silent. <sup>31</sup> For you all can prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be exhorted. <sup>32</sup> The spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets, <sup>33</sup> for God is not a God of confusion, but of peace, as in all the assemblies of the saints. <sup>34</sup> Let the women be quiet in the assemblies, for it has not been permitted for them to speak except in submission, as the law also says,<sup>2</sup> <sup>35</sup> if they desire to learn anything. “Let them ask their own husbands at home, for it is shameful for a woman to chatter in the assembly.” <sup>36</sup> What!? Was it from you that the word of God went out? Or did it come to you alone? <sup>37</sup> If any man thinks himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him recognize the things which I write to you, that they are the commandment of the Lord. <sup>38</sup> But if anyone is ignorant, let him be ignorant. <sup>39</sup> Therefore, brothers, desire earnestly to prophesy, and don’t forbid speaking with other languages. <sup>40</sup> Let all things be done decently and in order.

15

<sup>1</sup> Now I declare to you, brothers, the Good News which I preached to you, which also you received, in which you also stand, <sup>2</sup> by which also you are saved, if you hold firmly the word which I preached to you—unless you believed in vain. <sup>3</sup> For I delivered to you first of all that which I also received: that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, <sup>4</sup> that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures, <sup>5</sup> and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. <sup>6</sup> Then he appeared to over five hundred brothers at once, most of whom remain until now, but some have also fallen asleep. <sup>7</sup> Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles, <sup>8</sup> and last of all, as to the child born at the wrong time, he appeared to me also. <sup>9</sup> For I am the least of the apostles, who is not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the assembly of God. <sup>10</sup> But by the grace of God I am what I am. His grace which was given to me was not futile, but I worked more than all of them; yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. <sup>11</sup> Whether then it is I or they, so we preach, and so you believed.

<sup>12</sup> Now if Christ is preached, that he has been raised from the dead, how do some among you say that there is no resurrection of the dead? <sup>13</sup> But if there is no resurrection of the dead, neither has Christ been raised. <sup>14</sup> If Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is in vain, and your faith also is in vain. <sup>15</sup> Yes, we are also found false witnesses of God, because we testified about God that he raised up Christ, whom he didn’t raise up, if it is so that the dead are not raised. <sup>16</sup> For if the dead aren’t raised, neither has Christ been raised. <sup>17</sup> If Christ has not been raised, your faith is vain; you are still in your sins. <sup>18</sup> Then they also who are fallen asleep in Christ have perished. <sup>19</sup> If we have only hoped in Christ in this life, we are of all men most pitiable.

<sup>20</sup> But now Christ has been raised from the dead. He became the first fruits of those who are asleep. <sup>21</sup> For since death came by man, the resurrection of the dead also came by man. <sup>22</sup> For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ all will be made alive. <sup>23</sup> But each in his own order: Christ the first fruits, then those who are Christ's, at his coming. <sup>24</sup> Then the end comes, when he will deliver up the Kingdom to God, even the Father; when he will have abolished all rule and all authority and power. <sup>25</sup> For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. <sup>26</sup> The last enemy that will be abolished is death. <sup>27</sup> For, "He put all things in subjection under his feet."<sup>1</sup> But when he says, "All things are put in subjection", it is evident that he is excepted who subjected all things to him. <sup>28</sup> When all things have been subjected to him, then the Son will also himself be subjected to him who subjected all things to him, that God may be all in all. <sup>29</sup> Or else what will they do who are baptized for the dead? If the dead aren't raised at all, why then are they baptized for the dead? <sup>30</sup> Why do we also stand in jeopardy every hour? <sup>31</sup> I affirm, by the boasting in you which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily. <sup>32</sup> If I fought with animals at Ephesus for human purposes, what does it profit me? If the dead are not raised, then "let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die."<sup>2</sup> <sup>33</sup> Don't be deceived! "Evil companionships corrupt good morals."<sup>34</sup> Wake up righteously, and don't sin, for some have no knowledge of God. I say this to your shame. <sup>35</sup> But someone will say, "How are the dead raised?" and, "With what kind of body do they come?"<sup>36</sup> You foolish one, that which you yourself sow is not made alive unless it dies. <sup>37</sup> That which you sow, you don't sow the body that will be, but a bare grain, maybe of wheat, or of some other kind. <sup>38</sup> But God gives it a body even as it pleased him, and to each seed a body of its own. <sup>39</sup> All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one flesh of men, another flesh of animals, another of fish, and another of birds. <sup>40</sup> There are also celestial bodies, and terrestrial bodies; but the glory of the celestial differs from that of the terrestrial. <sup>41</sup> There is one glory of the sun, another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differs from another star in glory. <sup>42</sup> So also is the resurrection of the dead. The body is sown perishable; it is raised imperishable. <sup>43</sup> It is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power. <sup>44</sup> It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body and there is also a spiritual body.

<sup>45</sup> So also it is written, "The first man, Adam, became a living soul."<sup>3</sup> The last Adam became a life-giving spirit. <sup>46</sup> However that which is spiritual isn't first, but that which is natural, then that which is spiritual. <sup>47</sup> The first man is of the earth, made of dust. The second man is the Lord from heaven. <sup>48</sup> As is the one made of dust, such are those who are also made of dust; and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly. <sup>49</sup> As we have borne the image of those made of dust, let's<sup>i</sup> also bear the image of the heavenly. <sup>50</sup> Now I say this, brothers,<sup>j</sup> that flesh and blood can't inherit God's Kingdom; neither does the perishable inherit imperishable.

<sup>51</sup> Behold,<sup>k</sup> I tell you a mystery. We will not all sleep, but we will all be changed, <sup>52</sup> in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised incorruptible, and we will be changed. <sup>53</sup> For this perishable body must become imperishable, and this mortal must put on immortality. <sup>54</sup> But when this perishable body will have become imperishable, and this mortal will have put on immortality, then what is written will happen: "Death is swallowed up in victory."<sup>4</sup>

Hades,<sup>l</sup> where is your victory?"<sup>5</sup>

<sup>56</sup> The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. <sup>57</sup> But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>58</sup> Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the Lord's work, because you know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord.

16

<sup>1</sup> Now concerning the collection for the saints, as I commanded the assemblies of Galatia, you do likewise. <sup>2</sup> On the first day of the week, let each one of you save, as he may prosper, that no collections be made when I come. <sup>3</sup> When I arrive, I will send whoever you approve with letters to carry your gracious gift to Jerusalem. <sup>4</sup> If it is appropriate for me to go also, they will go with me. <sup>5</sup> But I will come to you when I have passed through Macedonia, for I am passing through Macedonia. <sup>6</sup> But with you it may be that I will stay, or even winter, that you may send me on my journey wherever I go. <sup>7</sup> For I do not wish to see you now in passing, but I hope to stay a while with you, if the Lord permits. <sup>8</sup> But I will stay at Ephesus until Pentecost, <sup>9</sup> for a great and effective door has opened to me, and there are many adversaries. <sup>10</sup> Now if Timothy comes, see that he is with you without fear, for he does the work of the Lord, as I also do. <sup>11</sup> Therefore let no one despise him. But set him forward on his journey in peace, that he may come to me; for I expect him with the brothers.

<sup>12</sup> Now concerning Apollos, the brother, I strongly urged him to come to you with the brothers; and it was not at all his desire to come now; but he will come when he has an opportunity.

<sup>15</sup> Now I beg you, brothers (you know the house of Stephanas, that it is the first fruits of Achaia, and that they have set themselves to serve the saints), <sup>16</sup> that you also be in subjection to such, and to everyone who helps in the work and labors.

<sup>17</sup> I rejoice at the coming of Stephanas, Fortunatus, and Achaicus; for that which was lacking on your part, they supplied. <sup>18</sup> For they refreshed my spirit and yours. Therefore acknowledge those who are like that.

<sup>19</sup> The assemblies of Asia greet you. Aquila and Priscilla greet you much in the Lord, together with the assembly that is in their house. <sup>20</sup> All the brothers greet you. Greet one another with a holy kiss.

<sup>k</sup> "Behold", from "ἰδοὺ", means look at, take notice, observe, see, or gaze at. It is often used as an interjection. <sup>4</sup> Isaiah 25:8

Paul's Second Letter to the Corinthians

1

<sup>1</sup> Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, and Timothy our brother, to the assembly of God which is at Corinth, with all the saints who are in the whole of Achaia: <sup>2</sup> Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>3</sup> Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort; <sup>4</sup> who comforts us in all our affliction, that we may be able to comfort those who are in any affliction, through the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God. <sup>5</sup> For as the sufferings of Christ abound to us, even so our comfort also abounds through Christ. <sup>6</sup> But if we are afflicted, it is for your comfort and salvation. If we are comforted, it is for your comfort, which produces in you the patient enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer. <sup>7</sup> Our hope for you is steadfast, knowing that, since you are partakers of the sufferings, so also are you of the comfort. <sup>8</sup> For we don't desire to have you uninformed, brothers,<sup>a</sup> concerning our affliction which happened to us in Asia, that we were weighed down exceedingly, beyond our power, so much that we despaired even of life. <sup>9</sup> Yes, we ourselves have had the sentence of death within ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God who raises the dead, <sup>10</sup> who delivered us out of so great a death, and does deliver; on whom we have set our hope that he will also still deliver us; <sup>11</sup> you also helping together on our behalf by your supplication; that, for the gift given to us by means of many, thanks may be given by many persons on your behalf. <sup>12</sup> For our boasting is this: the testimony of our conscience, that in holiness and sincerity of God, not in fleshly wisdom but in the grace of God we behaved ourselves in the world, and more abundantly toward you. <sup>13</sup> For we write no other things to you, than what you read or even acknowledge, and I hope you will acknowledge to the end; <sup>14</sup> as also you acknowledged us in part, that we are your boasting, even as you also are ours, in the day of our Lord Jesus. <sup>15</sup> In this confidence, I was determined to come first to you, that you might have a second benefit; <sup>16</sup> and by you to pass into Macedonia, and again from Macedonia to come to you, and to be sent forward by you on my journey to Judea. <sup>17</sup> When I therefore was thus determined, did I show fickleness? Or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be the "Yes, yes" and the "No, no?" <sup>18</sup> But as God is faithful, our word toward you was not "Yes and no." <sup>19</sup> For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, by me, Silvanus, and Timothy, was not "Yes and no," but in him is "Yes." <sup>20</sup> For however many are the promises of God, in him is the "Yes." Therefore also through him is the "Amen", to the glory of God through us.

<sup>21</sup> Now he who establishes us with you in Christ, and anointed us, is God; <sup>22</sup> who also sealed us, and gave us the down payment of the Spirit in our hearts. <sup>23</sup> But I call God for a witness to my soul, that I didn't come to Corinth to spare you. <sup>24</sup> Not that we control your faith, but are fellow workers with you for your joy. For you stand firm in faith.

2

<sup>1</sup> But I determined this for myself, that I would not come to you again in sorrow. <sup>2</sup> For if I make you sorry, then who will make me glad but he who is made sorry by me? <sup>3</sup> And I wrote this very thing to you, so that, when I came, I wouldn't have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; having confidence in you all, that my joy would be shared by all of you. <sup>4</sup> For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote to you with many tears, not that you should be made sorry, but that you might know the love that I have so abundantly for you. <sup>5</sup> But if any has caused sorrow, he has caused sorrow, not to me, but in part (that I not press too heavily) to you all. <sup>6</sup> This punishment which was inflicted by the many is sufficient for such a one; <sup>7</sup> so that on the contrary you should rather forgive him and comfort him, lest by any means such a one should be swallowed up with his excessive sorrow. <sup>8</sup> Therefore I beg you to confirm your love toward him. <sup>9</sup> For to this end I also wrote, that I might know the proof of you, whether you are obedient in all things. <sup>10</sup> Now I also forgive whomever you forgive anything. For if indeed I have forgiven anything, I have forgiven that one for your sakes in the presence of Christ, <sup>11</sup> that no advantage may be gained over us by Satan; for we are not ignorant of his schemes.

<sup>12</sup> Now when I came to Troas for the Good News of Christ, and when a door was opened to me in the Lord, <sup>13</sup> I had no relief for my spirit, because I didn't find Titus, my brother, but taking my leave of them, I went out into Macedonia. <sup>14</sup> Now thanks be to God, who always leads us in triumph in Christ, and reveals through us the sweet aroma of his knowledge in every place. <sup>15</sup> For we are a sweet aroma of Christ to God, in those who are saved, and in those who perish; <sup>16</sup> to the one a stench from death to death; to the other a sweet aroma from life to life. Who is sufficient for these things? <sup>17</sup> For we are not as so many, peddling the word of God. But as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God, we speak in Christ.

<sup>1</sup> Are we beginning again to commend ourselves? Or do we need, as do some, letters of commendation to you or from you? <sup>2</sup> You are our letter, written in our hearts, known and read by all men; <sup>3</sup> being revealed that you are a letter of Christ, served by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tablets of stone, but in tablets that are hearts of flesh. <sup>4</sup> Such confidence we have through Christ toward God; <sup>5</sup> not that we are sufficient of ourselves, to account anything as from ourselves; but our sufficiency is from God; <sup>6</sup> who also made us sufficient as servants of a new covenant; not of the letter, but of the Spirit. For the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life. <sup>7</sup> But if the service of death, written engraved on stones, came with glory, so that the children of Israel could not look steadfastly on the face of Moses for the glory of his face; which was passing away: <sup>8</sup> won't service of the Spirit be with much more glory? <sup>9</sup> For if the service of condemnation has glory, the service of righteousness exceeds much more in glory. <sup>10</sup> For most certainly that which has been made glorious has not been made glorious in this respect, by reason of the glory that surpasses. <sup>11</sup> For if that which passes away was with glory, much more that which remains is in glory.

<sup>1</sup> Therefore seeing we have this ministry, even as we obtained mercy, we don't faint. <sup>2</sup> But we have renounced the hidden things of shame, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by the manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. <sup>3</sup> Even if our Good News is veiled, it is veiled in those who perish; <sup>4</sup> in whom the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelieving, that the light of the Good News of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God, should not dawn on them. <sup>5</sup> For we don't preach ourselves, but Christ Jesus as Lord, and ourselves as your servants for Jesus' sake; <sup>6</sup> seeing it is God who said, "Light will shine out of darkness,"<sup>1</sup> who has shone in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

<sup>7</sup> But we have this treasure in clay vessels, that the exceeding greatness of the power may be of God, and not from ourselves. <sup>8</sup> We are pressed on every side, yet not crushed; perplexed, yet not to despair; <sup>9</sup> pursued, yet not forsaken; struck down, yet not destroyed; <sup>10</sup> always carrying in the body the putting to death of the Lord Jesus, that the life of Jesus may also be revealed in our body. <sup>11</sup> For we who live are always delivered to death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus may be revealed in our mortal flesh. <sup>12</sup> So then death works in us, but life in you. <sup>13</sup> But having the same spirit of faith, according to that which is written, "I believed, and therefore I spoke."<sup>2</sup> We also believe, and therefore also we speak; <sup>14</sup> knowing that he who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus, and will present us with you. <sup>15</sup> For all things are for your sakes, that the grace, being multiplied through the many, may cause the thanksgiving to abound to the glory of God. <sup>16</sup> Therefore we don't faint, but though our outward man is decaying, yet our inward man is renewed day by day. <sup>17</sup> For our light affliction, which is for the moment, works for us more and more exceedingly an eternal weight of glory; <sup>18</sup> while we don't look at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen. For the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are eternal.

5

<sup>1</sup> For we know that if the earthly house of our tent is dissolved, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal, in the heavens. <sup>2</sup> For most certainly in this we groan, longing to be clothed with our habitation which is from heaven; <sup>3</sup> if so be that being clothed we will not be found naked. <sup>4</sup> For indeed we who are in this tent do groan, being burdened; not that we desire to be unclothed, but that we desire to be clothed, that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life. <sup>5</sup> Now he who made us for this very thing is God, who also gave to us the down payment of the Spirit.

<sup>6</sup> Therefore we are always confident and know that while we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord; <sup>7</sup> for we walk by faith, not by sight. <sup>8</sup> We are courageous, I say, and are willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be at home with the Lord. <sup>9</sup> Therefore also we make it our aim, whether at home or absent, to be well pleasing to him. <sup>10</sup> For we must all be revealed before the judgment seat of Christ; that each one may receive the things in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad. <sup>11</sup> Knowing therefore the fear of the Lord, we persuade men, but we are revealed to God; and I hope that we are revealed also in your consciences. <sup>12</sup> For we are not commending ourselves to you again, but speak as giving you occasion of boasting on our behalf, that you may have something to answer those who boast in appearance, and not in heart. <sup>13</sup> For if we are beside ourselves, it is for God. Or if we are of sober mind, it is for you. <sup>14</sup> For the love of Christ constrains us; because we judge thus, that one died for all, therefore all died. <sup>15</sup> He died for all, that those who live should no longer live to themselves, but to him who for their sakes died and rose again. <sup>16</sup> Therefore we know no one after the flesh from now on. Even though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now we know him so no more. <sup>17</sup> Therefore if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old things have passed away. Behold,<sup>b</sup> all things have become new. <sup>18</sup> But all things are of God, who reconciled us to himself through Jesus Christ, and gave to us the ministry of reconciliation; <sup>19</sup> namely, that God was in Christ reconciling the world to himself, not reckoning to them their trespasses, and having committed to us the word of reconciliation. <sup>20</sup> We are therefore ambassadors on behalf of Christ, as though God were entreating by us: we beg you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. <sup>21</sup> For him who knew no sin he made to be sin on our behalf; so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

6

<sup>1</sup> Working together, we entreat also that you not receive the grace of God in vain, <sup>2</sup> for he says,

“At an acceptable time I listened to you,

<sup>b</sup> “Behold”, from “ἰδοὺ”, means look at, take notice, observe, see, or gaze at. It is often used as an interjection.

in a day of salvation I helped you.”<sup>1</sup>

Behold, now is the acceptable time. Behold, now is the day of salvation. <sup>3</sup> We give no occasion of stumbling in anything, that our service may not be blamed, <sup>4</sup> but in everything commending ourselves, as servants of God, in great endurance, in afflictions, in hardships, in distresses, <sup>5</sup> in beatings, in imprisonments, in riots, in labors, in watchings, in fastings; <sup>6</sup> in pureness, in knowledge, in patience, in kindness, in the Holy Spirit, in sincere love, <sup>7</sup> in the word of truth, in the power of God; by the armor of righteousness on the right hand and on the left, <sup>8</sup> by glory and dishonor, by evil report and good report; as deceivers, and yet true; <sup>9</sup> as unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and behold, we live; as punished, and not killed; <sup>10</sup> as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

<sup>11</sup> Our mouth is open to you, Corinthians. Our heart is enlarged. <sup>12</sup> You are not restricted by us, but you are restricted by your own affections. <sup>13</sup> Now in return, I speak as to my children, you also be open wide. <sup>14</sup> Don't be unequally yoked with unbelievers, for what fellowship have righteousness and iniquity? Or what fellowship has light with darkness? <sup>15</sup> What agreement has Christ with Belial? Or what portion has a believer with an unbeliever? <sup>16</sup> What agreement has a temple of God with idols? For you are a temple of the living God. Even as God said, “I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they will be my people.”<sup>2</sup> <sup>17</sup> Therefore “‘Come out from among them, and be separate,’ says the Lord.

‘Touch no unclean thing.

I will receive you.’<sup>3</sup>

<sup>18</sup> I will be to you a Father.

You will be to me sons and daughters,’ says the Lord Almighty.”<sup>4</sup>

7

<sup>1</sup> Having therefore these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all defilement of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God. <sup>2</sup> Open your hearts to us. We wronged no one. We corrupted no one. We took advantage of no one. <sup>3</sup> I say this not to condemn you, for I have said before, that you are in our hearts to die together and live together. <sup>4</sup> Great is my boldness of speech toward you. Great is my boasting on your behalf. I am filled with comfort. I overflow with joy in all our affliction. <sup>5</sup> For even when we had come into Macedonia, our flesh had no relief, but we were afflicted on every side. Fightings were outside. Fear was inside. <sup>6</sup> Nevertheless, he who comforts the lowly, God, comforted us by the coming of Titus; <sup>7</sup> and not by his coming only, but also by the comfort with which he was comforted in you, while he told us of your longing, your mourning, and your zeal for me; so that I rejoiced still more.

<sup>8</sup> For though I made you sorry with my letter, I do not regret it, though I did regret it. For I see that my letter made you sorry, though just for a while. <sup>9</sup> I now rejoice, not that you were made sorry, but that you were made sorry to repentance. For you were made sorry in a godly way, that you might suffer loss by us in nothing. <sup>10</sup> For godly sorrow produces repentance to salvation, which brings no regret. But the sorrow of the world produces death. <sup>11</sup> For behold, this same thing, that you were made sorry in a godly way, what earnest care it worked in you. Yes, what defense, indignation, fear, longing, zeal, and vengeance! In everything you demonstrated yourselves to be pure in the matter. <sup>12</sup> So although I wrote to you, I wrote not for his cause that did the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered the wrong, but that your earnest care for us might be revealed in you in the sight of God. <sup>13</sup> Therefore we have been comforted. In our comfort we rejoiced the more exceedingly for the joy of Titus, because his spirit has been refreshed by you all. <sup>14</sup> For if in anything I have boasted to him on your behalf, I was not disappointed. But as we spoke all things to you in truth, so our glorying also which I made before Titus was found to be truth. <sup>15</sup> His affection is more abundantly toward you, while he remembers all of your obedience, how with fear and trembling you received him. <sup>16</sup> I rejoice that in everything I am confident concerning you.

8

<sup>1</sup> Moreover, brothers, we make known to you the grace of God which has been given in the assemblies of Macedonia; <sup>2</sup> how that in much proof of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded to the riches of their liberality. <sup>3</sup> For according to their power, I testify, yes and beyond their power, they gave of their own accord, <sup>4</sup> begging us with much entreaty to receive this grace and the fellowship in the service to the saints. <sup>5</sup> This was not as we had hoped, but first they gave their own selves to the Lord, and to us through the will of God. <sup>6</sup> So we urged Titus, that as he had made a beginning before, so he would also complete in you this grace. <sup>7</sup> But as you abound in everything, in faith, utterance, knowledge, all earnestness, and in your love to us, see that you also abound in this grace. <sup>8</sup> I speak not by way of commandment, but as proving through the earnestness of others the sincerity also of your love. <sup>9</sup> For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that you through his poverty might become rich. <sup>10</sup> I give a judgment in this: for this is expedient for you, who were the first to start a year ago, not only to do, but also to be willing. <sup>11</sup> But now complete the doing also, that as there was the readiness to be willing, so there may be the completion also out of your ability. <sup>12</sup> For if the readiness is there, it is acceptable according to what you have, not according to what you don't have. <sup>13</sup> For this is not that others may be eased and you distressed, <sup>14</sup> but for equality. Your abundance at this present time supplies their lack, that their abundance also may become a supply for your lack; that there may be equality. <sup>15</sup> As it is written, "He who gathered much had nothing left over, and he who gathered little had no lack."<sup>1</sup>

<sup>16</sup> But thanks be to God, who puts the same earnest care for you into the heart of Titus. <sup>17</sup> For he indeed accepted our exhortation, but being himself very earnest,

he went out to you of his own accord. <sup>18</sup> We have sent together with him the brother whose praise in the Good News is known through all the assemblies. <sup>19</sup> Not only so, but who was also appointed by the assemblies to travel with us in this grace, which is served by us to the glory of the Lord himself, and to show our readiness. <sup>20</sup> We are avoiding this, that any man should blame us concerning this abundance which is administered by us. <sup>21</sup> Having regard for honorable things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men. <sup>22</sup> We have sent with them our brother, whom we have many times proved earnest in many things, but now much more earnest, by reason of the great confidence which he has in you. <sup>23</sup> As for Titus, he is my partner and fellow worker for you. As for our brothers, they are the apostles of the assemblies, the glory of Christ. <sup>24</sup> Therefore show the proof of your love to them in front of the assemblies, and of our boasting on your behalf.

9

<sup>1</sup> It is indeed unnecessary for me to write to you concerning the service to the saints, <sup>2</sup> for I know your readiness, of which I boast on your behalf to them of Macedonia, that Achaia has been prepared for a year past. Your zeal has stirred up very many of them. <sup>3</sup> But I have sent the brothers that our boasting on your behalf may not be in vain in this respect, that, just as I said, you may be prepared, <sup>4</sup> so that I won't by any means, if anyone from Macedonia comes there with me and finds you unprepared, we (to say nothing of you) should be disappointed in this confident boasting. <sup>5</sup> I thought it necessary therefore to entreat the brothers that they would go before to you, and arrange ahead of time the generous gift that you promised before, that the same might be ready as a matter of generosity, and not of greediness. <sup>6</sup> Remember this: he who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly. He who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. <sup>7</sup> Let each man give according as he has determined in his heart; not grudgingly, or under compulsion; for God loves a cheerful giver. <sup>8</sup> And God is able to make all grace abound to you, that you, always having all sufficiency in everything, may abound to every good work. <sup>9</sup> As it is written,

“He has scattered abroad, he has given to the poor.

His righteousness remains forever.”<sup>1</sup>

<sup>10</sup> Now may he who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food, supply and multiply your seed for sowing, and increase the fruits of your righteousness; <sup>11</sup> you being enriched in everything to all liberality, which produces through us thanksgiving to God. <sup>12</sup> For this service of giving that you perform not only makes up for lack among the saints, but abounds also through many givings of thanks to God; <sup>13</sup> seeing that through the proof given by this service, they glorify God for the obedience of your confession to the Good News of Christ, and for the liberality of your contribution to them and to all; <sup>14</sup> while they themselves also, with supplication on your behalf, yearn for you by reason of the exceeding grace of God in you. <sup>15</sup> Now thanks be to God for his unspeakable gift!

10

<sup>1</sup> Now I Paul, myself, entreat you by the humility and gentleness of Christ; I who in your presence am lowly among you, but being absent am bold toward you. <sup>2</sup> Yes, I beg you that I may not, when present, show courage with the confidence with which I intend to be bold against some, who consider us to be walking according to the flesh. <sup>3</sup> For though we walk in the flesh, we don't wage war according to the flesh; <sup>4</sup> for the weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh, but mighty before God to the throwing down of strongholds, <sup>5</sup> throwing down imaginations and every high thing that is exalted against the knowledge of God, and bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ; <sup>6</sup> and being in readiness to avenge all disobedience, when your obedience will be made full. <sup>7</sup> Do you look at things only as they appear in front of your face? If anyone trusts in himself that he is Christ's, let him consider this again with himself, that, even as he is Christ's, so also we are Christ's. <sup>8</sup> For though I should boast somewhat abundantly concerning our authority, (which the Lord gave for building you up, and not for casting you down) I will not be disappointed, <sup>9</sup> that I may not seem as if I desire to terrify you by my letters. <sup>10</sup> For, "His letters", they say, "are weighty and strong, but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech is despised." <sup>11</sup> Let such a person consider this, that what we are in word by letters when we are absent, such are we also in deed when we are present. <sup>12</sup> For we are not bold to number or compare ourselves with some of those who commend themselves. But they themselves, measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves with themselves, are without understanding. <sup>13</sup> But we will not boast beyond proper limits, but within the boundaries with which God appointed to us, which reach even to you. <sup>14</sup> For we don't stretch ourselves too much, as though we didn't reach to you. For we came even as far as to you with the Good News of Christ, <sup>15</sup> not boasting beyond proper limits in other men's labors, but having hope that as your faith grows, we will be abundantly enlarged by you in our sphere of influence, <sup>16</sup> so as to preach the Good News even to the parts beyond you, not to boast in what someone else has already done. <sup>17</sup> But "he who boasts, let him boast in the Lord."<sup>18</sup> For it isn't he who commends himself who is approved, but whom the Lord commends.

11

<sup>1</sup> I wish that you would bear with me in a little foolishness, but indeed you do bear with me. <sup>2</sup> For I am jealous over you with a godly jealousy. For I married you to one husband, that I might present you as a pure virgin to Christ. <sup>3</sup> But I am afraid that somehow, as the serpent deceived Eve in his craftiness, so your minds might be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. <sup>4</sup> For if he who comes preaches another Jesus, whom we did not preach, or if you receive a different spirit, which you did not receive, or a different "good news", which you did not accept, you put up with that well enough. <sup>5</sup> For I reckon that I am not at all behind the very best apostles. <sup>6</sup> But though I am unskilled in speech, yet I am not unskilled in knowledge. No, in every way we have been revealed to you in all things. <sup>7</sup> Or did I commit a sin in humbling myself that you might be exalted, because I preached to you God's Good News free of charge? <sup>8</sup> I robbed other assemblies, taking wages from them that I might serve you. <sup>9</sup> When I was present with you and was in need, I wasn't a burden on anyone, for the brothers, when they came from Macedonia, supplied the measure of my need. In everything I kept myself from being burdensome to you, and I will continue to do so. <sup>10</sup> As the truth of Christ is in me, no one will stop me from this boasting in the regions of Achaia. <sup>11</sup> Why? Because I don't love you? God knows. <sup>12</sup> But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from them that desire an occasion, that in which they boast, they may be found even as we. <sup>13</sup> For such men are false apostles, deceitful workers, masquerading as Christ's apostles. <sup>14</sup> And no wonder, for even Satan masquerades as an angel of light. <sup>15</sup> It is no great thing therefore if his servants also masquerade as servants of righteousness, whose end will be according to their works.

<sup>16</sup> I say again, let no one think me foolish. But if so, yet receive me as foolish, that I also may boast a little. <sup>17</sup> That which I speak, I don't speak according to the Lord, but as in foolishness, in this confidence of boasting. <sup>18</sup> Seeing that many boast after the flesh, I will also boast. <sup>19</sup> For you bear with the foolish gladly, being wise. <sup>20</sup> For you bear with a man, if he brings you into bondage, if he devours you, if he takes you captive, if he exalts himself, if he strikes you on the face. <sup>21</sup> I speak by way of disparagement, as though we had been weak. Yet in whatever way anyone is bold (I speak in foolishness), I am bold also. <sup>22</sup> Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they the offspring<sup>c</sup> of Abraham? So am I. <sup>23</sup> Are they servants of Christ? (I speak as one beside himself) I am more so; in labors more abundantly, in prisons more abundantly, in stripes above measure, in deaths often. <sup>24</sup> Five times from the Jews I received forty stripes minus one. <sup>25</sup> Three times I was beaten with rods. Once I was stoned. Three times I suffered shipwreck. I have been a night and a day in the deep. <sup>26</sup> I have been in travels often, perils of rivers, perils of robbers, perils from my countrymen, perils from the Gentiles, perils in the city, perils in the wilderness, perils in the sea, perils among false brothers; <sup>27</sup> in labor and travail, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, and in cold and nakedness.

<sup>28</sup> Besides those things that are outside, there is that which presses on me daily, anxiety for all the assemblies. <sup>29</sup> Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is caused to stumble, and I don't burn with indignation? <sup>30</sup> If I must boast, I will boast of the things that concern my weakness. <sup>31</sup> The God and Father of the Lord Jesus Christ, he who is blessed forever more, knows that I don't lie. <sup>32</sup> In Damascus the governor under King Aretas guarded the city of the Damascenes desiring to arrest me. <sup>33</sup> Through a window I was let down in a basket by the wall, and escaped his hands.

<sup>1</sup> It is doubtless not profitable for me to boast. For I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord. <sup>2</sup> I know a man in Christ, fourteen years ago (whether in the body, I don't know, or whether out of the body, I don't know; God knows), such a one caught up into the third heaven. <sup>3</sup> I know such a man (whether in the body, or outside of the body, I don't know; God knows), <sup>4</sup> how he was caught up into Paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter. <sup>5</sup> On behalf of such a one I will boast, but on my own behalf I will not boast, except in my weaknesses. <sup>6</sup> For if I would desire to boast, I will not be foolish; for I will speak the truth. But I refrain, so that no man may think more of me than that which he sees in me, or hears from me. <sup>7</sup> By reason of the exceeding greatness of the revelations, that I should not be exalted excessively, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to torment me, that I should not be exalted excessively. <sup>8</sup> Concerning this thing, I begged the Lord three times that it might depart from me. <sup>9</sup> He has said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness." Most gladly therefore I will rather glory in my weaknesses, that the power of Christ may rest on me.

<sup>10</sup> Therefore I take pleasure in weaknesses, in injuries, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses, for Christ's sake. For when I am weak, then am I strong. <sup>11</sup> I have become foolish in boasting. You compelled me, for I ought to have been commended by you, for in nothing was I inferior to the very best apostles, though I am nothing. <sup>12</sup> Truly the signs of an apostle were worked among you in all patience, in signs and wonders and mighty works. <sup>13</sup> For what is there in which you were made inferior to the rest of the assemblies, unless it is that I myself was not a burden to you? Forgive me this wrong.

<sup>14</sup> Behold, this is the third time I am ready to come to you, and I will not be a burden to you; for I seek not your possessions, but you. For the children ought not to save up for the parents, but the parents for the children. <sup>15</sup> I will most gladly spend and be spent for your souls. If I love you more abundantly, am I loved the less? <sup>16</sup> But be it so, I did not myself burden you. But, being crafty, I caught you with deception. <sup>17</sup> Did I take advantage of you by anyone of them whom I have sent to you? <sup>18</sup> I exhorted Titus, and I sent the brother with him. Did Titus take any advantage of you? Didn't we walk in the same spirit? Didn't we walk in the same steps? <sup>19</sup> Again, do you think that we are excusing ourselves to you? In the sight of God we speak in Christ. But all things, beloved, are for your edifying. <sup>20</sup> For I am afraid that by any means, when I come, I might find you not the way I want to, and that I might be found by you as you don't desire; that by any means there would be strife, jealousy, outbursts of anger, factions, slander, whisperings, proud thoughts, riots; <sup>21</sup> that again when I come my God would humble me before you, and I would mourn for many of those who have sinned before now, and not repented of the uncleanness and sexual immorality and lustfulness which they committed.

<sup>1</sup> This is the third time I am coming to you. “At the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.”<sup>1</sup> <sup>2</sup> I have said beforehand, and I do say beforehand, as when I was present the second time, so now, being absent, I write to those who have sinned before now, and to all the rest, that, if I come again, I will not spare; <sup>3</sup> seeing that you seek a proof of Christ who speaks in me; who toward you is not weak, but is powerful in you. <sup>4</sup> For he was crucified through weakness, yet he lives through the power of God. For we also are weak in him, but we will live with him through the power of God toward you. <sup>5</sup> Examine your own selves, whether you are in the faith. Test your own selves. Or don’t you know as to your own selves, that Jesus Christ is in you?—unless indeed you are disqualified. <sup>6</sup> But I hope that you will know that we aren’t disqualified.

<sup>7</sup> Now I pray to God that you do no evil; not that we may appear approved, but that you may do that which is honorable, though we are as reprobate. <sup>8</sup> For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth. <sup>9</sup> For we rejoice when we are weak and you are strong. And this we also pray for, even your perfecting. <sup>10</sup> For this cause I write these things while absent, that I may not deal sharply when present, according to the authority which the Lord gave me for building up, and not for tearing down.

<sup>11</sup> Finally, brothers, rejoice. Be perfected, be comforted, be of the same mind, live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you. <sup>12</sup> Greet one another with a holy kiss. <sup>13</sup> All the saints greet you. <sup>14</sup> The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, God’s love, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all. Amen.

Paul's Letter to the Galatians

1

<sup>1</sup> Paul, an apostle (not from men, nor through man, but through Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead), <sup>2</sup> and all the brothers<sup>a</sup> who are with me, to the assemblies of Galatia: <sup>3</sup> Grace to you and peace from God the Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>4</sup> who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us out of this present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father— <sup>5</sup> to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

<sup>6</sup> I marvel that you are so quickly deserting him who called you in the grace of Christ to a different “good news”; <sup>7</sup> and there isn't another “good news.” Only there are some who trouble you, and want to pervert the Good News of Christ. <sup>8</sup> But even though we, or an angel from heaven, should preach to you any “good news” other than that which we preached to you, let him be cursed. <sup>9</sup> As we have said before, so I now say again: if any man preaches to you any “good news” other than that which you received, let him be cursed. <sup>10</sup> For am I now seeking the favor of men, or of God? Or am I striving to please men? For if I were still pleasing men, I wouldn't be a servant of Christ. <sup>11</sup> But I make known to you, brothers, concerning the Good News which was preached by me, that it is not according to man. <sup>12</sup> For neither did I receive it from man, nor was I taught it, but it came to me through revelation of Jesus Christ. <sup>13</sup> For you have heard of my way of living in time past in the Jews' religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the assembly of God, and ravaged it. <sup>14</sup> I advanced in the Jews' religion beyond many of my own age among my countrymen, being more exceedingly zealous for the traditions of my fathers. <sup>15</sup> But when it was the good pleasure of God, who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me through his grace, <sup>16</sup> to reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the Gentiles, I didn't immediately confer with flesh and blood, <sup>17</sup> nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me, but I went away into Arabia. Then I returned to Damascus. <sup>18</sup> Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to visit Peter, and stayed with him fifteen days. <sup>19</sup> But of the other apostles I saw no one, except James, the Lord's brother. <sup>20</sup> Now about the things which I write to you, behold,<sup>b</sup> before God, I'm not lying. <sup>21</sup> Then I came to the regions of Syria and Cilicia. <sup>22</sup> I was still unknown by face to the assemblies of Judea which were in Christ, <sup>23</sup> but they only heard: “He who once persecuted us now preaches the faith that he once tried to destroy.” <sup>24</sup> And they glorified God in me.

2

<sup>1</sup> Then after a period of fourteen years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking Titus also with me. <sup>2</sup> I went up by revelation, and I laid before them the Good News which I preach among the Gentiles, but privately before those who were respected, for fear that I might be running, or had run, in vain. <sup>3</sup> But not even Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised. <sup>4</sup> This was because of the false brothers secretly brought in, who stole in to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage; <sup>5</sup> to whom we gave no place in the way of subjection, not for an hour, that the truth of the Good News might continue with you. <sup>6</sup> But from those who were reputed to be important (whatever they were, it makes no difference to me; God doesn't show partiality to man)—they, I say, who were respected imparted nothing to me, <sup>7</sup> but to the contrary, when they saw that I had been entrusted with the Good News for the uncircumcision, even as Peter with the Good News for the circumcision <sup>8</sup> (for he who appointed Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision appointed me also to the Gentiles); <sup>9</sup> and when they perceived the grace that was given to me, James and Cephas and John, they who were reputed to be pillars, gave to me and Barnabas the right hand of fellowship, that we should go to the Gentiles, and they to the circumcision. <sup>10</sup> They only asked us to remember the poor—which very thing I was also zealous to do.

<sup>11</sup> But when Peter came to Antioch, I resisted him to his face, because he stood condemned. <sup>12</sup> For before some people came from James, he ate with the Gentiles. But when they came, he drew back and separated himself, fearing those who were of the circumcision. <sup>13</sup> And the rest of the Jews joined him in his hypocrisy; so that even Barnabas was carried away with their hypocrisy. <sup>14</sup> But when I saw that they didn't walk uprightly according to the truth of the Good News, I said to Peter before them all, "If you, being a Jew, live as the Gentiles do, and not as the Jews do, why do you compel the Gentiles to live as the Jews do?"

<sup>15</sup> "We, being Jews by nature, and not Gentile sinners, <sup>16</sup> yet knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law but through faith in Jesus Christ, even we believed in Christ Jesus, that we might be justified by faith in Christ, and not by the works of the law, because no flesh will be justified by the works of the law. <sup>17</sup> But if, while we sought to be justified in Christ, we ourselves also were found sinners, is Christ a servant of sin? Certainly not! <sup>18</sup> For if I build up again those things which I destroyed, I prove myself a law-breaker. <sup>19</sup> For I, through the law, died to the law, that I might live to God. <sup>20</sup> I have been crucified with Christ, and it is no longer I that live, but Christ lives in me. That life which I now live in the flesh, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself up for me. <sup>21</sup> I don't reject the grace of God. For if righteousness is through the law, then Christ died for nothing!"

3

<sup>1</sup> Foolish Galatians, who has bewitched you not to obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ was openly portrayed among you as crucified? <sup>2</sup> I just want to learn this from you: Did you receive the Spirit by the works of the law, or by hearing of faith? <sup>3</sup> Are you so foolish? Having begun in the Spirit, are you now completed in the flesh? <sup>4</sup> Did you suffer so many things in vain, if it is indeed in vain? <sup>5</sup> He therefore who supplies the Spirit to you, and does miracles among you, does he do it by the works of the law, or by hearing of faith? <sup>6</sup> Even as Abraham “believed God, and it was counted to him for righteousness.” <sup>7</sup> Know therefore that those who are of faith, the same are children of Abraham. <sup>8</sup> The Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, preached the Good News beforehand to Abraham, saying, “In you all the nations will be blessed.” <sup>1</sup> <sup>9</sup> So then, those who are of faith are blessed with the faithful Abraham. <sup>10</sup> For as many as are of the works of the law are under a curse. For it is written, “Cursed is everyone who doesn’t continue in all things that are written in the book of the law, to do them.” <sup>2</sup> <sup>11</sup> Now that no man is justified by the law before God is evident, for, “The righteous will live by faith.” <sup>3</sup> <sup>12</sup> The law is not of faith, but, “The man who does them will live by them.” <sup>4</sup>

<sup>13</sup> Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law, having become a curse for us. For it is written, “Cursed is everyone who hangs on a tree,” <sup>5</sup> <sup>14</sup> that the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Christ Jesus; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith. <sup>15</sup> Brothers, speaking of human terms, though it is only a man’s covenant, yet when it has been confirmed, no one makes it void, or adds to it. <sup>16</sup> Now the promises were spoken to Abraham and to his offspring.<sup>c</sup> He doesn’t say, “To descendants<sup>d</sup>”, as of many, but as of one, “To your offspring<sup>e</sup>”, <sup>6</sup>

which is Christ. <sup>17</sup> Now I say this. A covenant confirmed beforehand by God in Christ, the law, which came four hundred thirty years after, does not annul, so as to make the promise of no effect. <sup>18</sup> For if the inheritance is of the law, it is no more of promise; but God has granted it to Abraham by promise.

<sup>19</sup> What then is the law? It was added because of transgressions, until the offspring<sup>f</sup> should come to whom the promise has been made. It was ordained through angels by the hand of a mediator. <sup>20</sup> Now a mediator is not between one, but God is one. <sup>21</sup> Is the law then against the promises of God? Certainly not! For if there had been a law given which could make alive, most certainly righteousness would have been of the law. <sup>22</sup> But the Scriptures imprisoned all things under sin, that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe. <sup>23</sup> But before faith came, we were kept in custody under the law, confined for the faith which should afterwards be revealed. <sup>24</sup> So that the law has become our tutor to bring us to Christ, that we might be justified by faith. <sup>25</sup> But now that faith has come, we are no longer under a tutor. <sup>26</sup> For you are all children of God, through faith in Christ Jesus. <sup>27</sup> For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ. <sup>28</sup> There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free man, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus. <sup>29</sup> If you are Christ’s, then you are Abraham’s offspring<sup>g</sup> and heirs according to promise.

<sup>1</sup> But I say that so long as the heir is a child, he is no different from a bondservant, though he is lord of all; <sup>2</sup> but is under guardians and stewards until the day appointed by the father. <sup>3</sup> So we also, when we were children, were held in bondage under the elemental principles of the world. <sup>4</sup> But when the fullness of the time came, God sent out his Son, born to a woman, born under the law, <sup>5</sup> that he might redeem those who were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of children. <sup>6</sup> And because you are children, God sent out the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, “Abba,<sup>h</sup> Father!” <sup>7</sup> So you are no longer a bondservant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ. <sup>8</sup> However at that time, not knowing God, you were in bondage to those who by nature are not gods. <sup>9</sup> But now that you have come to know God, or rather to be known by God, why do you turn back again to the weak and miserable elemental principles, to which you desire to be in bondage all over again? <sup>10</sup> You observe days, months, seasons, and years. <sup>11</sup> I am afraid for you, that I might have wasted my labor for you. <sup>12</sup> I beg you, brothers, become as I am, for I also have become as you are. You did me no wrong, <sup>13</sup> but you know that because of weakness of the flesh I preached the Good News to you the first time. <sup>14</sup> That which was a temptation to you in my flesh, you didn’t despise nor reject; but you received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus.

<sup>15</sup> What was the blessing you enjoyed? For I testify to you that, if possible, you would have plucked out your eyes and given them to me. <sup>16</sup> So then, have I become your enemy by telling you the truth? <sup>17</sup> They zealously seek you in no good way. No, they desire to alienate you, that you may seek them. <sup>18</sup> But it is always good to be zealous in a good cause, and not only when I am present with you.

<sup>19</sup> My little children, of whom I am again in travail until Christ is formed in you— <sup>20</sup> but I could wish to be present with you now, and to change my tone, for I am perplexed about you. <sup>21</sup> Tell me, you that desire to be under the law, don’t you listen to the law? <sup>22</sup> For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by the servant, and one by the free woman. <sup>23</sup> However, the son by the servant was born according to the flesh, but the son by the free woman was born through promise. <sup>24</sup> These things contain an allegory, for these are two covenants. One is from Mount Sinai, bearing children to bondage, which is Hagar. <sup>25</sup> For this Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia, and answers to the Jerusalem that exists now, for she is in bondage with her children. <sup>26</sup> But the Jerusalem that is above is free, which is the mother of us all. <sup>27</sup> For it is written, “Rejoice, you barren who don’t bear.

Break out and shout, you that don’t travail.

For more are the children of the desolate than of her who has a husband.” <sup>1</sup>

<sup>28</sup> Now we, brothers, as Isaac was, are children of promise. <sup>29</sup> But as then, he who was born according to the flesh persecuted him who was born according to the Spirit, so also it is now. <sup>30</sup> However what does the Scripture say? “Throw out the servant and her son, for the son of the servant will not inherit with the son of the free woman.”<sup>2</sup> <sup>31</sup> So then, brothers, we are not children of a servant, but of the free woman.

5

<sup>1</sup> Stand firm therefore in the liberty by which Christ has made us free, and don't be entangled again with a yoke of bondage. <sup>2</sup> Behold, I, Paul, tell you that if you receive circumcision, Christ will profit you nothing. <sup>3</sup> Yes, I testify again to every man who receives circumcision, that he is a debtor to do the whole law. <sup>4</sup> You are alienated from Christ, you who desire to be justified by the law. You have fallen away from grace. <sup>5</sup> For we, through the Spirit, by faith wait for the hope of righteousness. <sup>6</sup> For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision amounts to anything, nor uncircumcision, but faith working through love. <sup>7</sup> You were running well! Who interfered with you that you should not obey the truth? <sup>8</sup> This persuasion is not from him who calls you. <sup>9</sup> A little yeast grows through the whole lump. <sup>10</sup> I have confidence toward you in the Lord that you will think no other way. But he who troubles you will bear his judgment, whoever he is.

Then the stumbling block of the cross has been removed. <sup>12</sup> I wish that those who disturb you would cut themselves off. <sup>13</sup> For you, brothers, were called for freedom. Only don't use your freedom for gain to the flesh, but through love be servants to one another. <sup>14</sup> For the whole law is fulfilled in one word, in this: “You shall love your neighbor as yourself.”<sup>1</sup> <sup>15</sup> But if you bite and devour one another, be careful that you don't consume one another. <sup>16</sup> But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you won't fulfill the lust of the flesh. <sup>17</sup> For the flesh lusts against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; and these are contrary to one another, that you may not do the things that you desire. <sup>18</sup> But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law. <sup>19</sup> Now the deeds of the flesh are obvious, which are: adultery, sexual immorality, uncleanness, lustfulness, <sup>20</sup> idolatry, sorcery, hatred, strife, jealousies, outbursts of anger, rivalries, divisions, heresies, <sup>21</sup> envy, murders, drunkenness, orgies, and things like these; of which I forewarn you, even as I also forewarned you, that those who practice such things will not inherit God's Kingdom.

<sup>1</sup> Brothers, even if a man is caught in some fault, you who are spiritual must restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness; looking to yourself so that you also aren't tempted. <sup>2</sup> Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ. <sup>3</sup> For if a man thinks himself to be something when he is nothing, he deceives himself. <sup>4</sup> But let each man examine his own work, and then he will have reason to boast in himself, and not in someone else. <sup>5</sup> For each man will bear his own burden. <sup>6</sup> But let him who is taught in the word share all good things with him who teaches. <sup>7</sup> Don't be deceived. God is not mocked, for whatever a man sows, that he will also reap. <sup>8</sup> For he who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption. But he who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life. <sup>9</sup> Let us not be weary in doing good, for we will reap in due season, if we don't give up. <sup>10</sup> So then, as we have opportunity, let's do what is good toward all men, and especially toward those who are of the household of the faith.

<sup>11</sup> See with what large letters I write to you with my own hand. <sup>12</sup> As many as desire to look good in the flesh, they compel you to be circumcised; only that they may not be persecuted for the cross of Christ. <sup>13</sup> For even they who receive circumcision don't keep the law themselves, but they desire to have you circumcised, that they may boast in your flesh. <sup>14</sup> But far be it from me to boast, except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. <sup>15</sup> For in Christ Jesus neither is circumcision anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creation. <sup>16</sup> As many as walk by this rule, peace and mercy be on them, and on God's Israel. <sup>17</sup> From now on, let no one cause me any trouble, for I bear the marks of the Lord Jesus branded on my body.

Paul's Letter to the Ephesians

1

to the saints who are at Ephesus, and the faithful in Christ Jesus: <sup>2</sup> Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>3</sup> Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ; <sup>4</sup> even as he chose us in him before the foundation of the world, that we would be holy and without defect before him in love; <sup>5</sup> having predestined us for adoption as children through Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his desire, <sup>6</sup> to the praise of the glory of his grace, by which he freely gave us favor in the Beloved, <sup>7</sup> in whom we have our redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace, <sup>8</sup> which he made to abound toward us in all wisdom and prudence, <sup>9</sup> making known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he purposed in him <sup>10</sup> to an administration of the fullness of the times, to sum up all things in Christ, the things in the heavens, and the things on the earth, in him; <sup>11</sup> in whom also we were assigned an inheritance, having been foreordained according to the purpose of him who does all things after the counsel of his will; <sup>12</sup> to the end that we should be to the praise of his glory, we who had before hoped in Christ: <sup>13</sup> in whom you also, having heard the word of the truth, the Good News of your salvation—in whom, having also believed, you were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit, <sup>14</sup> who is a pledge of our inheritance, to the redemption of God's own possession, to the praise of his glory. <sup>15</sup> For this cause I also, having heard of the faith in the Lord Jesus which is among you, and the love which you have toward all the saints, <sup>16</sup> don't cease to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers, <sup>17</sup> that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give to you a spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him; <sup>18</sup> having the eyes of your hearts<sup>a</sup> enlightened, that you may know what is the hope of his calling, and what are the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints, <sup>19</sup> and what is the exceeding greatness of his power toward us who believe, according to that working of the strength of his might <sup>20</sup> which he worked in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and made him to sit at his right hand in the heavenly places, <sup>21</sup> far above all rule, and authority, and power, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this age, but also in that which is to come. <sup>22</sup> He put all things in subjection under his feet, and gave him to be head over all things for the assembly, <sup>23</sup> which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

2

<sup>1</sup> You were made alive when you were dead in transgressions and sins, <sup>2</sup> in which you once walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit who now works in the children of disobedience; <sup>3</sup> among whom we also all once lived in the lusts of our flesh, doing the desires of the flesh and of the mind, and were by nature children of wrath, even as the rest. <sup>4</sup> But God, being rich in mercy, for his great love with which he loved us, <sup>5</sup> even when we were dead through our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ (by grace you have been saved), <sup>6</sup> and raised us up with him, and made us to sit with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, <sup>7</sup> that in the ages to come he might show the exceeding riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus; <sup>8</sup> for by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God, <sup>9</sup> not of works, that no one would boast. <sup>10</sup> For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared before that we would walk in them.

<sup>11</sup> Therefore remember that once you, the Gentiles in the flesh, who are called “uncircumcision” by that which is called “circumcision”, (in the flesh, made by hands); <sup>12</sup> that you were at that time separate from Christ, alienated from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of the promise, having no hope and without God in the world. <sup>13</sup> But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off are made near in the blood of Christ. <sup>14</sup> For he is our peace, who made both one, and broke down the middle wall of partition, <sup>15</sup> having abolished in his flesh the hostility, the law of commandments contained in ordinances, that he might create in himself one new man of the two, making peace; <sup>16</sup> and might reconcile them both in one body to God through the cross, having killed the hostility thereby. <sup>17</sup> He came and preached peace to you who were far off and to those who were near. <sup>18</sup> For through him we both have our access in one Spirit to the Father. <sup>19</sup> So then you are no longer strangers and foreigners, but you are fellow citizens with the saints, and of the household of God, <sup>20</sup> being built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus himself being the chief cornerstone; <sup>21</sup> in whom the whole building, fitted together, grows into a holy temple in the Lord; <sup>22</sup> in whom you also are built together for a habitation of God in the Spirit.

3

<sup>1</sup> For this cause I, Paul, am the prisoner of Christ Jesus on behalf of you Gentiles, <sup>2</sup> if it is so that you have heard of the administration of that grace of God which was given me toward you; <sup>3</sup> how that by revelation the mystery was made known to me, as I wrote before in few words, <sup>4</sup> by which, when you read, you can perceive my understanding in the mystery of Christ; <sup>5</sup> which in other generations was not made known to the children of men, as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets in the Spirit; <sup>6</sup> that the Gentiles are fellow heirs, and fellow members of the body, and fellow partakers of his promise in Christ Jesus through the Good News, <sup>7</sup> of which I was made a servant, according to the gift of that grace of God which was given me according to the working of his power. <sup>8</sup> To me, the very least of all saints, was this grace given, to preach to the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ,<sup>9</sup> and to make all men see what is the administration<sup>b</sup> of the mystery which for ages has been hidden in God, who created all things through Jesus Christ;<sup>10</sup> to the intent that now through the assembly the manifold wisdom of God might be made known to the principalities and the powers in the heavenly places,<sup>11</sup> according to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord;<sup>12</sup> in whom we have boldness and access in confidence through our faith in him.<sup>13</sup> Therefore I ask that you may not lose heart at my troubles for you, which are your glory.

<sup>14</sup> For this cause, I bow my knees to the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,<sup>15</sup> from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named,<sup>16</sup> that he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, that you may be strengthened with power through his Spirit in the inward man;<sup>17</sup> that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; to the end that you, being rooted and grounded in love,<sup>18</sup> may be strengthened to comprehend with all the saints what is the width and length and height and depth,<sup>19</sup> and to know Christ's love which surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.<sup>20</sup> Now to him who is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that works in us,<sup>21</sup> to him be the glory in the assembly and in Christ Jesus to all generations forever and ever. Amen.

<sup>11</sup> He gave some to be apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, shepherds<sup>c</sup> and teachers;<sup>12</sup> for the perfecting of the saints, to the work of serving, to the building up of the body of Christ;<sup>13</sup> until we all attain to the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a full grown man, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ;<sup>14</sup> that we may no longer be children, tossed back and forth and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of men, in craftiness, after the wiles of error;<sup>15</sup> but speaking truth in love, we may grow up in all things into him, who is the head, Christ;<sup>16</sup> from whom all the body, being fitted and knit together through that which every joint supplies, according to the working in measure of each individual part, makes the body increase to the building up of itself in love.

<sup>17</sup> This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that you no longer walk as the rest of the Gentiles also walk, in the futility of their mind, <sup>18</sup> being darkened in their understanding, alienated from the life of God, because of the ignorance that is in them, because of the hardening of their hearts; <sup>19</sup> who having become callous gave themselves up to lust, to work all uncleanness with greediness. <sup>20</sup> But you did not learn Christ that way; <sup>21</sup> if indeed you heard him, and were taught in him, even as truth is in Jesus: <sup>22</sup> that you put away, as concerning your former way of life, the old man, that grows corrupt after the lusts of deceit; <sup>23</sup> and that you be renewed in the spirit of your mind, <sup>24</sup> and put on the new man, who in the likeness of God has been created in righteousness and holiness of truth.

the day of redemption. <sup>31</sup> Let all bitterness, wrath, anger, outcry, and slander, be put away from you, with all malice. <sup>32</sup> And be kind to one another, tender hearted, forgiving each other, just as God also in Christ forgave you.

5

<sup>1</sup> Be therefore imitators of God, as beloved children. <sup>2</sup> Walk in love, even as Christ also loved you, and gave himself up for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling fragrance. <sup>3</sup> But sexual immorality, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not even be mentioned among you, as becomes saints; <sup>4</sup> nor filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not appropriate; but rather giving of thanks.

<sup>5</sup> Know this for sure, that no sexually immoral person, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, has any inheritance in the Kingdom of Christ and God.

<sup>6</sup> Let no one deceive you with empty words. For because of these things, the wrath of God comes on the children of disobedience. <sup>7</sup> Therefore don't be partakers with them. <sup>8</sup> For you were once darkness, but are now light in the Lord. Walk as children of light, <sup>9</sup> for the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth, <sup>10</sup> proving what is well pleasing to the Lord. <sup>11</sup> Have no fellowship with the unfruitful deeds of darkness, but rather even reprove them. <sup>12</sup> For the things which are done by them in secret, it is a shame even to speak of. <sup>13</sup> But all things, when they are reprov'd, are revealed by the light, for everything that reveals is light. <sup>14</sup> Therefore he says, “Awake, you who sleep, and arise from the dead, and Christ will shine on you.”

<sup>22</sup> Wives, be subject to your own husbands, as to the Lord. <sup>23</sup> For the husband is the head of the wife, as Christ also is the head of the assembly, being himself the savior of the body. <sup>24</sup> But as the assembly is subject to Christ, so let the wives also be to their own husbands in everything.

<sup>25</sup> Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the assembly, and gave himself up for it; <sup>26</sup> that he might sanctify it, having cleansed it by the washing of water with the word, <sup>27</sup> that he might present the assembly to himself gloriously, not having spot or wrinkle or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without defect. <sup>28</sup> Even so husbands also ought to love their own wives as their own bodies. He who loves his own wife loves himself. <sup>29</sup> For no man ever hated his own flesh; but nourishes and cherishes it, even as the Lord also does the assembly; <sup>30</sup> because we are members of his body, of his flesh and bones. <sup>31</sup> “For this cause a man will leave his father and mother, and will be joined to his wife. The two will become one flesh.”<sup>1</sup>

<sup>32</sup> This mystery is great, but I speak concerning Christ and of the assembly. <sup>33</sup> Nevertheless each of you must also love his own wife even as himself; and let the wife see that she respects her husband.

6

<sup>4</sup> You fathers, don’t provoke your children to wrath, but nurture them in the discipline and instruction of the Lord.

<sup>5</sup> Servants, be obedient to those who according to the flesh are your masters, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as to Christ; <sup>6</sup> not in the way of service only when eyes are on you, as men pleasers; but as servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart; <sup>7</sup> with good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men; <sup>8</sup> knowing that whatever good thing each one does, he will receive the same again from the Lord, whether he is bound or free.

<sup>9</sup> You masters, do the same things to them, and give up threatening, knowing that he who is both their Master and yours is in heaven, and there is no partiality with him.

<sup>10</sup> Finally, be strong in the Lord, and in the strength of his might. <sup>11</sup> Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. <sup>12</sup> For our wrestling is not against flesh and blood, but against the principalities, against the powers, against the world's rulers of the darkness of this age, and against the spiritual forces of wickedness in the heavenly places. <sup>13</sup> Therefore put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and, having done all, to stand. <sup>14</sup> Stand therefore, having the utility belt of truth buckled around your waist, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness, <sup>15</sup> and having fitted your feet with the preparation of the Good News of peace; <sup>16</sup> above all, taking up the shield of faith, with which you will be able to quench all the fiery darts of the evil one. <sup>17</sup> And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word<sup>d</sup> of God; <sup>18</sup> with all prayer and requests, praying at all times in the Spirit, and being watchful to this end in all perseverance and requests for all the saints: <sup>19</sup> on my behalf, that utterance may be given to me in opening my mouth, to make known with boldness the mystery of the Good News, <sup>20</sup> for which I am an ambassador in chains; that in it I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

<sup>21</sup> But that you also may know my affairs, how I am doing, Tychicus, the beloved brother and faithful servant in the Lord, will make known to you all things; <sup>22</sup> whom I have sent to you for this very purpose, that you may know our state, and that he may comfort your hearts.

<sup>23</sup> Peace be to the brothers, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>24</sup> Grace be with all those who love our Lord Jesus Christ with incorruptible love. Amen.

To all the saints in Christ Jesus who are at Philippi, with the overseers <sup>a</sup> and servants<sup>b</sup>:

<sup>2</sup> Grace to you, and peace from God, our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>3</sup> I thank my God whenever I remember you, <sup>4</sup> always in every request of mine on behalf of you all making my requests with joy, <sup>5</sup> for your partnership<sup>c</sup> in furtherance of the Good News from the first day until now; <sup>6</sup> being confident of this very thing, that he who began a good work in you will complete it until the day of Jesus Christ. <sup>7</sup> It is even right for me to think this way on behalf of all of you, because I have you in my heart, because, both in my bonds and in the defense and confirmation of the Good News, you all are partakers with me of grace. <sup>8</sup> For God is my witness, how I long after all of you in the tender mercies of Christ Jesus.

<sup>9</sup> This I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and all discernment; <sup>10</sup> so that you may approve the things that are excellent; that you may be sincere and without offense to the day of Christ; <sup>11</sup> being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.

<sup>12</sup> Now I desire to have you know, brothers,<sup>d</sup> that the things which happened to me have turned out rather to the progress of the Good News; <sup>13</sup> so that it became evident to the whole palace<sup>e</sup> guard, and to all the rest, that my bonds are in Christ; <sup>14</sup> and that most of the brothers in the Lord, being confident through my bonds, are more abundantly bold to speak the word of God without fear. <sup>15</sup> Some indeed preach Christ even out of envy and strife, and some also out of good will. <sup>16</sup> The former insincerely preach Christ from selfish ambition, thinking that they add affliction to my chains; <sup>17</sup> but the latter out of love, knowing that I am appointed for the defense of the Good News.

<sup>18</sup> What does it matter? Only that in every way, whether in pretense or in truth, Christ is proclaimed. I rejoice in this, yes, and will rejoice. <sup>19</sup> For I know that this will turn out to my salvation, through your supplication and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, <sup>20</sup> according to my earnest expectation and hope, that I will in no way be disappointed, but with all boldness, as always, now also Christ will be magnified in my body, whether by life, or by death. <sup>21</sup> For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain. <sup>22</sup> But if I live on in the flesh, this will bring fruit from my work; yet I don't know what I will choose. <sup>23</sup> But I am in a dilemma between the two, having the desire to depart and be with Christ, which is far better. <sup>24</sup> Yet, to remain in the flesh is more needful for your sake. <sup>25</sup> Having this confidence, I know that I will remain, yes, and remain with you all, for your progress and joy in the faith, <sup>26</sup> that your rejoicing may abound in Christ

<sup>d</sup> The word for "brothers" here and where context allows may also be correctly translated "brothers and sisters" or "siblings."

Jesus in me through my presence with you again.

<sup>27</sup> Only let your way of life be worthy of the Good News of Christ, that, whether I come and see you or am absent, I may hear of your state, that you stand firm in one spirit, with one soul striving for the faith of the Good News; <sup>28</sup> and in nothing frightened by the adversaries, which is for them a proof of destruction, but to you of salvation, and that from God. <sup>29</sup> Because it has been granted to you on behalf of Christ, not only to believe in him, but also to suffer on his behalf, <sup>30</sup> having the same conflict which you saw in me, and now hear is in me.

2

<sup>1</sup> If there is therefore any exhortation in Christ, if any consolation of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any tender mercies and compassion, <sup>2</sup> make my joy full, by being like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind; <sup>3</sup> doing nothing through rivalry or through conceit, but in humility, each counting others better than himself; <sup>4</sup> each of you not just looking to his own things, but each of you also to the things of others.

<sup>5</sup> Have this in your mind, which was also in Christ Jesus, <sup>6</sup> who, existing in the form of God, didn't consider equality with God a thing to be grasped, <sup>7</sup> but emptied himself, taking the form of a servant, being made in the likeness of men. <sup>8</sup> And being found in human form, he humbled himself, becoming obedient to death, yes, the death of the cross. <sup>9</sup> Therefore God also highly exalted him, and gave to him the name which is above every name; <sup>10</sup> that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those in heaven, those on earth, and those under the earth, <sup>11</sup> and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

<sup>12</sup> So then, my beloved, even as you have always obeyed, not only in my presence, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling. <sup>13</sup> For it is God who works in you both to will and to work, for his good pleasure. <sup>14</sup> Do all things without murmurings and disputes, <sup>15</sup> that you may become blameless and harmless, children of God without defect in the middle of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom you are seen as lights in the world, <sup>16</sup> holding up the word of life; that I may have something to boast in the day of Christ, that I didn't run in vain nor labor in vain. <sup>17</sup> Yes, and if I am poured out on the sacrifice and service of your faith, I rejoice, and rejoice with you all. <sup>18</sup> In the same way, you also rejoice, and rejoice with me.

<sup>19</sup> But I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon, that I also may be cheered up when I know how you are doing. <sup>20</sup> For I have no one else like-minded, who will truly care about you. <sup>21</sup> For they all seek their own, not the things of Jesus Christ. <sup>22</sup> But you know the proof of him, that, as a child serves a father, so he served with me in furtherance of the Good News. <sup>23</sup> Therefore I hope to send him at once, as soon as I see how it will go with me. <sup>24</sup> But I trust in the Lord that I myself also will come shortly. <sup>25</sup> But I counted it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother, fellow worker, fellow soldier, and your apostle and servant of my need; <sup>26</sup> since he longed for you all, and was very troubled, because you had heard that he was sick. <sup>27</sup> For indeed he was sick, nearly to death, but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, that I might not have sorrow on sorrow. <sup>28</sup> I have sent him therefore the more diligently, that, when you see him again, you may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful. <sup>29</sup> Receive him therefore in the Lord with all joy, and hold such in honor, <sup>30</sup> because for the work of Christ he came near to death, risking his life to supply that which was lacking in your service toward me.

3

<sup>1</sup> Finally, my brothers, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not tiresome, but for you it is safe. <sup>2</sup> Beware of the dogs, beware of the evil workers, beware of the false circumcision. <sup>3</sup> For we are the circumcision, who worship God in the Spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh; <sup>4</sup> though I myself might have confidence even in the flesh. If any other man thinks that he has confidence in the flesh, I yet more: <sup>5</sup> circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; concerning the law, a Pharisee; <sup>6</sup> concerning zeal, persecuting the assembly; concerning the righteousness which is in the law, found blameless.

<sup>7</sup> However, I consider those things that were gain to me as a loss for Christ. <sup>8</sup> Yes most certainly, and I count all things to be a loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus, my Lord, for whom I suffered the loss of all things, and count them nothing but refuse, that I may gain Christ <sup>9</sup> and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own, that which is of the law, but that which is through faith in Christ, the righteousness which is from God by faith; <sup>10</sup> that I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, becoming conformed to his death; <sup>11</sup> if by any means I may attain to the resurrection from the dead. <sup>12</sup> Not that I have already obtained, or am already made perfect; but I press on, if it is so that I may take hold of that for which also I was taken hold of by Christ Jesus.

<sup>13</sup> Brothers, I don't regard myself as yet having taken hold, but one thing I do. Forgetting the things which are behind, and stretching forward to the things which are before, <sup>14</sup> I press on toward the goal for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. <sup>15</sup> Let us therefore, as many as are perfect, think this way. If in anything you think otherwise, God will also reveal that to you. <sup>16</sup> Nevertheless, to the extent that we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule. Let us be of the same mind. <sup>17</sup> Brothers, be imitators together of me, and note those who walk this way, even as you have us for an example. <sup>18</sup> For many walk, of whom I told you often, and now tell you even weeping, as the enemies of the cross of Christ, <sup>19</sup> whose end is destruction, whose god is the belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who think about earthly things. <sup>20</sup> For our citizenship is in heaven, from where we also wait for a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ; <sup>21</sup> who will change the body of our humiliation to be conformed to the body of his glory, according to the working by which he is able even to subject all things to himself.

4

<sup>1</sup> Therefore, my brothers, beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand firm in the Lord, my beloved. <sup>2</sup> I exhort Euodia, and I exhort Syntyche, to think the same way in the Lord. <sup>3</sup> Yes, I beg you also, true partner, help these women, for they labored with me in the Good News, with Clement also, and the rest of my fellow workers, whose names are in the book of life. <sup>4</sup> Rejoice in the Lord always! Again I will say, "Rejoice!" <sup>5</sup> Let your gentleness be known to all men. The Lord is at hand. <sup>6</sup> In nothing be anxious, but in everything, by prayer and petition with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God. <sup>7</sup> And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your thoughts in Christ Jesus.

<sup>8</sup> Finally, brothers, whatever things are true, whatever things are honorable, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report; if there is any virtue, and if there is any praise, think about these things. <sup>9</sup> The things which you learned, received, heard, and saw in me: do these things, and the God of peace will be with you. <sup>10</sup> But I rejoice in the Lord greatly, that now at length you have revived your thought for me; in which you did indeed take thought, but you lacked opportunity. <sup>11</sup> Not that I speak in respect to lack, for I have learned in whatever state I am, to be content in it. <sup>12</sup> I know how to be humbled, and I know also how to abound. In everything and in all things I have learned the secret both to be filled and to be hungry, both to abound and to be in need. <sup>13</sup> I can do all things through Christ, who strengthens me. <sup>14</sup> However you did well that you shared in my affliction. <sup>15</sup> You yourselves also know, you Philippians, that in the beginning of the Good News, when I departed from Macedonia, no assembly shared with me in the matter of giving and receiving but you only. <sup>16</sup> For even in Thessalonica you sent once and again to my need. <sup>17</sup> Not that I seek for the gift, but I seek for the fruit that increases to your account. <sup>18</sup> But I have all things, and abound. I am filled, having received from Epaphroditus the things that came from you, a sweet-smelling fragrance, an acceptable and well-pleasing sacrifice to God. <sup>19</sup> My God will supply every need of yours according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus. <sup>20</sup> Now to our God and Father be the glory forever and ever! Amen.

<sup>21</sup> Greet every saint in Christ Jesus. The brothers who are with me greet you. <sup>22</sup> All the saints greet you, especially those who are of Caesar's household. <sup>23</sup> The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

Paul's Letter to the Colossians

1

<sup>1</sup> Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, and Timothy our brother, <sup>2</sup> to the saints and faithful brothers<sup>a</sup> in Christ at Colossae: Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>3</sup> We give thanks to God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you, <sup>4</sup> having heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which you have toward all the saints, <sup>5</sup> because of the hope which is laid up for you in the heavens, of which you heard before in the word of the truth of the Good News, <sup>6</sup> which has come to you; even as it is in all the world and is bearing fruit and growing, as it does in you also, since the day you heard and knew the grace of God in truth; <sup>7</sup> even as you learned of Epaphras our beloved fellow servant, who is a faithful servant of Christ on our behalf, <sup>8</sup> who also declared to us your love in the Spirit. <sup>9</sup> For this cause, we also, since the day we heard this, don't cease praying and making requests for you, that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, <sup>10</sup> that you may walk worthily of the Lord, to please him in all respects, bearing fruit in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God; <sup>11</sup> strengthened with all power, according to the might of his glory, for all endurance and perseverance with joy; <sup>12</sup> giving thanks to the Father, who made us fit to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light; <sup>13</sup> who delivered us out of the power of darkness, and translated us into the Kingdom of the Son of his love; <sup>14</sup> in whom we have our redemption,<sup>b</sup> the forgiveness of our sins; <sup>15</sup> who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. <sup>16</sup> For by him all things were created, in the heavens and on the earth, things visible and things invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers; all things have been created through him, and for him. <sup>17</sup> He is before all things, and in him all things are held together. <sup>18</sup> He is the head of the body, the assembly, who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things he might have the preeminence. <sup>19</sup> For all the fullness was pleased to dwell in him; <sup>20</sup> and through him to reconcile all things to himself, by him, whether things on the earth, or things in the heavens, having made peace through the blood of his cross.

<sup>21</sup> You, being in past times alienated and enemies in your mind in your evil deeds, <sup>22</sup> yet now he has reconciled in the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and without defect and blameless before him, <sup>23</sup> if it is so that you continue in the faith, grounded and steadfast, and not moved away from the hope of the Good News which you heard, which is being proclaimed in all creation under heaven; of which I, Paul, was made a servant.

<sup>24</sup> Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and fill up on my part that which is lacking of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for his body's sake, which is the assembly; <sup>25</sup> of which I was made a servant, according to the stewardship of God which was given me toward you, to fulfill the word of God, <sup>26</sup> the mystery which has been hidden for ages and generations. But now it has been revealed to his saints, <sup>27</sup> to whom God was pleased to make known what are the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory; <sup>28</sup> whom we proclaim, admonishing every man and teaching every man in all wisdom, that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus; <sup>29</sup> for which I also labor, striving according to his working, which works in me mightily.

2

<sup>1</sup> For I desire to have you know how greatly I struggle for you, and for those at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh; <sup>2</sup> that their hearts may be comforted, they being knit together in love, and gaining all riches of the full assurance of understanding, that they may know the mystery of God, both of the Father and of Christ, <sup>3</sup> in whom are all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge hidden. <sup>4</sup> Now this I say that no one may delude you with persuasiveness of speech. <sup>5</sup> For though I am absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, rejoicing and seeing your order, and the steadfastness of your faith in Christ. <sup>6</sup> As therefore you received Christ Jesus, the Lord, walk in him, <sup>7</sup> rooted and built up in him, and established in the faith, even as you were taught, abounding in it in thanksgiving. <sup>8</sup> Be careful that you don't let anyone rob you through his philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the elements of the world, and not after Christ. <sup>9</sup> For in him all the fullness of the Godhead dwells bodily, <sup>10</sup> and in him you are made full, who is the head of all principality and power; <sup>11</sup> in whom you were also circumcised with a circumcision not made with hands, in the putting off of the body of the sins of the flesh, in the circumcision of Christ; <sup>12</sup> having been buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him through faith in the working of God, who raised him from the dead. <sup>13</sup> You were dead through your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh. He made you alive together with him, having forgiven us all our trespasses, <sup>14</sup> wiping out the handwriting in ordinances which was against us; and he has taken it out of the way, nailing it to the cross; <sup>15</sup> having stripped the principalities and the powers, he made a show of them openly, triumphing over them in it.

<sup>16</sup> Let no one therefore judge you in eating, or in drinking, or with respect to a feast day or a new moon or a Sabbath day, <sup>17</sup> which are a shadow of the things to come; but the body is Christ's. <sup>18</sup> Let no one rob you of your prize by a voluntary humility and worshiping of the angels, dwelling in the things which he has not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind, <sup>19</sup> and not holding firmly to the Head, from whom all the body, being supplied and knit together through the joints and ligaments, grows with God's growth. <sup>20</sup> If you died with Christ from the elements of the world, why, as though living in the world, do you subject yourselves to ordinances, <sup>21</sup> "Don't handle, nor taste, nor touch" <sup>22</sup> (all of which perish with use), according to the precepts and doctrines of men? <sup>23</sup> Which things indeed appear like wisdom in self-imposed worship, and humility, and severity to the body; but aren't of any value against the indulgence of the flesh.

3

<sup>12</sup> Put on therefore, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, a heart of compassion, kindness, lowliness, humility, and perseverance; <sup>13</sup> bearing with one another, and forgiving each other, if any man has a complaint against any; even as Christ forgave you, so you also do.

<sup>14</sup> Above all these things, walk in love, which is the bond of perfection. <sup>15</sup> And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to which also you were called in one body; and be thankful. <sup>16</sup> Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly; in all wisdom teaching and admonishing one another with psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your heart to the Lord.

<sup>17</sup> Whatever you do, in word or in deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father, through him.

<sup>22</sup> Servants, obey in all things those who are your masters according to the flesh, not just when they are looking, as men pleasers, but in singleness of heart, fearing God. <sup>23</sup> And whatever you do, work heartily, as for the Lord, and not for men, <sup>24</sup> knowing that from the Lord you will receive the reward of the inheritance; for you serve the Lord Christ. <sup>25</sup> But he who does wrong will receive again for the wrong that he has done, and there is no partiality.

4

<sup>1</sup> Masters, give to your servants that which is just and equal, knowing that you also have a Master in heaven.

<sup>2</sup> Continue steadfastly in prayer, watching therein with thanksgiving; <sup>3</sup> praying together for us also, that God may open to us a door for the word, to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in bonds; <sup>4</sup> that I may reveal it as I ought to speak. <sup>5</sup> Walk in wisdom toward those who are outside, redeeming the time. <sup>6</sup> Let your speech always be with grace, seasoned with salt, that you may know how you ought to answer each one.

<sup>7</sup> All my affairs will be made known to you by Tychicus, the beloved brother, faithful servant, and fellow bondservant in the Lord. <sup>8</sup> I am sending him to you for this very purpose, that he may know your circumstances and comfort your hearts, <sup>9</sup> together with Onesimus, the faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They will make known to you everything that is going on here. <sup>10</sup> Aristarchus, my fellow prisoner, greets you, and Mark, the cousin of Barnabas (concerning whom you received commandments, "if he comes to you, receive him"), <sup>11</sup> and Jesus who is called Justus. These are my only fellow workers for God's Kingdom who are of the circumcision, men who have been a comfort to me.

<sup>12</sup> Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ, salutes you, always striving for you in his prayers, that you may stand perfect and complete in all the will of God. <sup>13</sup> For I testify about him, that he has great zeal for you, and for those in Laodicea, and for those in Hierapolis. <sup>14</sup> Luke, the beloved physician, and Demas greet you. <sup>15</sup> Greet the brothers who are in Laodicea, and Nymphas, and the assembly that is in his house. <sup>16</sup> When this letter has been read among you, cause it to be read also in the assembly of the Laodiceans; and that you also read the letter from Laodicea. <sup>17</sup> Tell Archippus, "Take heed to the ministry which you have received in the Lord, that you fulfill it."

<sup>18</sup> The salutation of me, Paul, with my own hand: remember my bonds. Grace be with you. Amen.

Paul's First Letter to the Thessalonians

1

<sup>1</sup> Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, to the assembly of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>2</sup> We always give thanks to God for all of you, mentioning you in our prayers, <sup>3</sup> remembering without ceasing your work of faith and labor of love and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, before our God and Father. <sup>4</sup> We know, brothers<sup>a</sup> loved by God, that you are chosen, <sup>5</sup> and that our Good News came to you not in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Spirit, and with much assurance. You know what kind of men we showed ourselves to be among you for your sake. <sup>6</sup> You became imitators of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Spirit, <sup>7</sup> so that you became an example to all who believe in Macedonia and in Achaia. <sup>8</sup> For from you the word of the Lord has been declared, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith toward God has gone out; so that we need not to say anything. <sup>9</sup> For they themselves report concerning us what kind of a reception we had from you; and how you turned to God from idols, to serve a living and true God, <sup>10</sup> and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead—Jesus, who delivers us from the wrath to come.

2

<sup>1</sup> For you yourselves know, brothers, our visit to you wasn't in vain, <sup>2</sup> but having suffered before and been shamefully treated, as you know, at Philippi, we grew bold in our God to tell you the Good News of God in much conflict. <sup>3</sup> For our exhortation is not of error, nor of uncleanness, nor in deception. <sup>4</sup> But even as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the Good News, so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God, who tests our hearts. <sup>5</sup> For neither were we at any time found using words of flattery, as you know, nor a cloak of covetousness (God is witness), <sup>6</sup> nor seeking glory from men (neither from you nor from others), when we might have claimed authority as apostles of Christ. <sup>7</sup> But we were gentle among you, like a nursing mother cherishes her own children.

<sup>8</sup> Even so, affectionately longing for you, we were well pleased to impart to you, not the Good News of God only, but also our own souls, because you had become very dear to us. <sup>9</sup> For you remember, brothers, our labor and travail; for working night and day, that we might not burden any of you, we preached to you the Good News of God. <sup>10</sup> You are witnesses with God, how holy, righteously, and blamelessly we behaved ourselves toward you who believe. <sup>11</sup> As you know, we exhorted, comforted, and implored every one of you, as a father does his own children, <sup>12</sup> to the end that you should walk worthily of God, who calls you into his own Kingdom and glory. <sup>13</sup> For this cause we also thank God without ceasing, that, when you received from us the word of the message of God, you accepted it not as the word of men, but, as it is in truth, the word of God, which also works in you who believe. <sup>14</sup> For you, brothers, became imitators of the assemblies of God which are in Judea in Christ Jesus; for you also suffered the same things from your own countrymen, even as they did from the Jews; <sup>15</sup> who killed both the Lord Jesus and their own prophets, and drove us out, and didn't please God, and are contrary to all men; <sup>16</sup> forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they may be saved; to fill up their sins always. But wrath has come on them to the uttermost.

<sup>17</sup> But we, brothers, being bereaved of you for a short season, in presence, not in heart, tried even harder to see your face with great desire, <sup>18</sup> because we wanted to come to you—indeed, I, Paul, once and again—but Satan hindered us. <sup>19</sup> For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Isn't it even you, before our Lord Jesus<sup>b</sup> at his coming? <sup>20</sup> For you are our glory and our joy.

3

<sup>1</sup> Therefore when we couldn't stand it any longer, we thought it good to be left behind at Athens alone, <sup>2</sup> and sent Timothy, our brother and God's servant in the Good News of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith; <sup>3</sup> that no one be moved by these afflictions. For you know that we are appointed to this task. <sup>4</sup> For most certainly, when we were with you, we told you beforehand that we are to suffer affliction, even as it happened, and you know. <sup>5</sup> For this cause I also, when I couldn't stand it any longer, sent that I might know your faith, for fear that by any means the tempter had tempted you, and our labor would have been in vain. <sup>6</sup> But when Timothy came just now to us from you, and brought us glad news of your faith and love, and that you have good memories of us always, longing to see us, even as we also long to see you; <sup>7</sup> for this cause, brothers, we were comforted over you in all our distress and affliction through your faith. <sup>8</sup> For now we live, if you stand fast in the Lord. <sup>9</sup> For what thanksgiving can we render again to God for you, for all the joy with which we rejoice for your sakes before our God; <sup>10</sup> night and day praying exceedingly that we may see your face, and may perfect that which is lacking in your faith? <sup>11</sup> Now may our God and Father himself, and our Lord Jesus Christ, direct our way to you; <sup>12</sup> and the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we also do toward you, <sup>13</sup> to the end he may establish your hearts blameless in holiness before our God and Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints.

4

<sup>1</sup> Finally then, brothers, we beg and exhort you in the Lord Jesus, that as you received from us how you ought to walk and to please God, that you abound more and more. <sup>2</sup> For you know what instructions we gave you through the Lord Jesus. <sup>3</sup> For this is the will of God: your sanctification, that you abstain from sexual immorality, <sup>4</sup> that each one of you know how to control his own body<sup>c</sup> in sanctification and honor, <sup>5</sup> not in the passion of lust, even as the Gentiles who don't know God; <sup>6</sup> that no one should take advantage of and wrong a brother or sister in this matter; because the Lord is an avenger in all these things, as also we forewarned you and testified. <sup>7</sup> For God called us not for uncleanness, but in sanctification. <sup>8</sup> Therefore he who rejects this doesn't reject man, but God, who has also given his Holy Spirit to you.

<sup>9</sup> But concerning brotherly love, you have no need that one write to you. For you yourselves are taught by God to love one another, <sup>10</sup> for indeed you do it toward all the brothers who are in all Macedonia. But we exhort you, brothers, that you abound more and more; <sup>11</sup> and that you make it your ambition to lead a quiet life, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, even as we instructed you; <sup>12</sup> that you may walk properly toward those who are outside, and may have need of nothing.

<sup>13</sup> But we don't want you to be ignorant, brothers, concerning those who have fallen asleep, so that you don't grieve like the rest, who have no hope. <sup>14</sup> For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so God will bring with him those who have fallen asleep in Jesus. <sup>15</sup> For this we tell you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left to the coming of the Lord, will in no way precede those who have fallen asleep. <sup>16</sup> For the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with God's trumpet. The dead in Christ will rise first, <sup>17</sup> then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air. So we will be with the Lord forever. <sup>18</sup> Therefore comfort one another with these words.

5

<sup>1</sup> But concerning the times and the seasons, brothers, you have no need that anything be written to you. <sup>2</sup> For you yourselves know well that the day of the Lord comes like a thief in the night. <sup>3</sup> For when they are saying, "Peace and safety," then sudden destruction will come on them, like birth pains on a pregnant woman; and they will in no way escape. <sup>4</sup> But you, brothers, aren't in darkness, that the day should overtake you like a thief. <sup>5</sup> You are all children of light, and children of the day. We don't belong to the night, nor to darkness, <sup>6</sup> so then let's not sleep, as the rest do, but let's watch and be sober. <sup>7</sup> For those who sleep, sleep in the night; and those who are drunk are drunk in the night. <sup>8</sup> But let us, since we belong to the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love, and, for a helmet, the hope of salvation. <sup>9</sup> For God didn't appoint us to wrath, but to the obtaining of salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>10</sup> who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him. <sup>11</sup> Therefore exhort one another, and build each other up, even as you also do. <sup>12</sup> But we beg you, brothers, to know those who labor among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you,<sup>13</sup> and to respect and honor them in love for their work's sake.

Be at peace among yourselves.<sup>14</sup> We exhort you, brothers, admonish the disorderly, encourage the faint-hearted, support the weak, be patient toward all.<sup>15</sup> See that no one returns evil for evil to anyone, but always follow after that which is good, for one another, and for all.

and hold firmly that which is good.<sup>22</sup> Abstain from every form of evil.

<sup>23</sup> May the God of peace himself sanctify you completely. May your whole spirit, soul, and body be preserved blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>24</sup> He who calls you is faithful, who will also do it. <sup>25</sup> Brothers, pray for us. <sup>26</sup> Greet all the brothers with a holy kiss. <sup>27</sup> I solemnly command you by the Lord that this letter be read to all the holy brothers.

<sup>28</sup> The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

Paul's Second Letter to the Thessalonians

1

<sup>1</sup> Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, to the assembly of the Thessalonians in God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ: <sup>2</sup> Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>3</sup> We are bound to always give thanks to God for you, brothers,<sup>a</sup> even as it is appropriate, because your faith grows exceedingly, and the love of each and every one of you towards one another abounds; <sup>4</sup> so that we ourselves boast about you in the assemblies of God for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and in the afflictions which you endure. <sup>5</sup> This is an obvious sign of the righteous judgment of God, to the end that you may be counted worthy of God's Kingdom, for which you also suffer. <sup>6</sup> Since it is a righteous thing with God to repay affliction to those who afflict you, <sup>7</sup> and to give relief to you who are afflicted with us, when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with his mighty angels in flaming fire, <sup>8</sup> giving vengeance to those who don't know God, and to those who don't obey the Good News of our Lord Jesus, <sup>9</sup> who will pay the penalty: eternal destruction from the face of the Lord and from the glory of his might, <sup>10</sup> when he comes to be glorified in his saints, and to be admired among all those who have believed (because our testimony to you was believed) in that day.

<sup>11</sup> To this end we also pray always for you, that our God may count you worthy of your calling, and fulfill every desire of goodness and work of faith, with power; <sup>12</sup> that the name of our Lord Jesus<sup>b</sup> may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2

<sup>1</sup> Now, brothers, concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and our gathering together to him, we ask you <sup>2</sup> not to be quickly shaken in your mind, nor yet be troubled, either by spirit, or by word, or by letter as from us, saying that the day of Christ had come. <sup>3</sup> Let no one deceive you in any way. For it will not be, unless the departure comes first, and the man of sin is revealed, the son of destruction, <sup>4</sup> he who opposes and exalts himself against all that is called God or that is worshiped; so that he sits as God in the temple of God, setting himself up as God. <sup>5</sup> Don't you remember that, when I was still with you, I told you these things? <sup>6</sup> Now you know what is restraining him, to the end that he may be revealed in his own season. <sup>7</sup> For the mystery of lawlessness already works. Only there is one who restrains now, until he is taken out of the way. <sup>8</sup> Then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord will kill with the breath of his mouth, and destroy by the manifestation of his coming; <sup>9</sup> even he whose coming is according to the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, <sup>10</sup> and with all deception of wickedness for those who are being lost, because they didn't receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved. <sup>11</sup> Because of this, God sends them a working of error, that they should believe a lie; <sup>12</sup> that they all might be judged who didn't believe the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness. <sup>13</sup> But we are bound to always give thanks to God for you, brothers loved by the Lord, because God chose you from the beginning for salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief in the truth; <sup>14</sup> to which he called you through our Good News, for the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>15</sup> So then, brothers, stand firm, and hold the traditions which you were taught by us, whether by word, or by letter.

<sup>16</sup> Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God our Father, who loved us and gave us eternal comfort and good hope through grace, <sup>17</sup> comfort your hearts and establish you in every good work and word.

3

<sup>1</sup> Finally, brothers, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may spread rapidly and be glorified, even as also with you; <sup>2</sup> and that we may be delivered from unreasonable and evil men; for not all have faith. <sup>3</sup> But the Lord is faithful, who will establish you, and guard you from the evil one. <sup>4</sup> We have confidence in the Lord concerning you, that you both do and will do the things we command. <sup>5</sup> May the Lord direct your hearts into God's love, and into the patience of Christ.

<sup>6</sup> Now we command you, brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you withdraw yourselves from every brother who walks in rebellion, and not after the tradition which they received from us. <sup>7</sup> For you know how you ought to imitate us. For we didn't behave ourselves rebelliously among you, <sup>8</sup> neither did we eat bread from anyone's hand without paying for it, but in labor and travail worked night and day, that we might not burden any of you; <sup>9</sup> not because we don't have the right, but to make ourselves an example to you, that you should imitate us. <sup>10</sup> For even when we were with you, we commanded you this: "If anyone will not work, don't let him eat." <sup>11</sup> For we hear of some who walk among you in rebellion, who don't work at all, but are busybodies. <sup>12</sup> Now those who are that way, we command and exhort in the Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread.

<sup>13</sup> But you, brothers, don't be weary in doing well. <sup>14</sup> If any man doesn't obey our word in this letter, note that man, that you have no company with him, to the end that he may be ashamed. <sup>15</sup> Don't count him as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.

<sup>16</sup> Now may the Lord of peace himself give you peace at all times in all ways. The Lord be with you all.

<sup>17</sup> The greeting of me, Paul, with my own hand, which is the sign in every letter: this is how I write. <sup>18</sup> The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

Paul's First Letter to Timothy

1

<sup>1</sup> Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus according to the commandment of God our Savior, and Christ Jesus our hope; <sup>2</sup> to Timothy, my true child in faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

<sup>3</sup> As I urged you when I was going into Macedonia, stay at Ephesus that you might command certain men not to teach a different doctrine, <sup>4</sup> and not to pay attention to myths and endless genealogies, which cause disputes, rather than God's stewardship, which is in faith— <sup>5</sup> but the goal of this command is love, out of a pure heart and a good conscience and sincere faith; <sup>6</sup> from which things some, having missed the mark, have turned aside to vain talking; <sup>7</sup> desiring to be teachers of the law, though they understand neither what they say, nor about what they strongly affirm. <sup>8</sup> But we know that the law is good, if a man uses it lawfully, <sup>9</sup> as knowing this, that law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and insubordinate, for the ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for man slayers, <sup>10</sup> for the sexually immoral, for homosexuals, for slave-traders, for liars, for perjurers, and for any other thing contrary to the sound doctrine; <sup>11</sup> according to the Good News of the glory of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust. <sup>12</sup> And I thank him who enabled me, Christ Jesus our Lord, because he counted me faithful, appointing me to service; <sup>13</sup> although I was before a blasphemer, a persecutor, and insolent. However, I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief. <sup>14</sup> The grace of our Lord abounded exceedingly with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. <sup>15</sup> The saying is faithful and worthy of all acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief. <sup>16</sup> However, for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first, Jesus Christ might display all his patience, for an example of those who were going to believe in him for eternal life. <sup>17</sup> Now to the King eternal, immortal, invisible, to God who alone is wise, be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen.

<sup>18</sup> This instruction I commit to you, my child Timothy, according to the prophecies which led the way to you, that by them you may wage the good warfare; <sup>19</sup> holding faith and a good conscience; which some having thrust away made a shipwreck concerning the faith; <sup>20</sup> of whom is Hymenaeus and Alexander; whom I delivered to Satan, that they might be taught not to blaspheme.

2

<sup>1</sup> I exhort therefore, first of all, that petitions, prayers, intercessions, and givings of thanks, be made for all men: <sup>2</sup> for kings and all who are in high places; that we may lead a tranquil and quiet life in all godliness and reverence. <sup>3</sup> For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Savior; <sup>4</sup> who desires all people to be saved and come to full knowledge of the truth. <sup>5</sup> For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus,<sup>6</sup> who gave himself as a ransom for all; the testimony in its own times;<sup>7</sup> to which I was appointed a preacher and an apostle (I am telling the truth in Christ, not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

<sup>8</sup> I desire therefore that the men in every place pray, lifting up holy hands without anger and doubting. <sup>9</sup> In the same way, that women also adorn themselves in decent clothing, with modesty and propriety; not just<sup>a</sup> with braided hair, gold, pearls, or expensive clothing; <sup>10</sup> but (which becomes women professing godliness) with good works. <sup>11</sup> Let a woman learn in quietness with full submission. <sup>12</sup> But I don't permit a woman to teach, nor to exercise authority over a man, but to be in quietness. <sup>13</sup> For Adam was first formed, then Eve. <sup>14</sup> Adam wasn't deceived, but the woman, being deceived, has fallen into disobedience; <sup>15</sup> but she will be saved through her childbearing, if they continue in faith, love, and sanctification with sobriety.

in subjection with all reverence; <sup>5</sup> (but if a man doesn't know how to rule his own house, how will he take care of the assembly of God?) <sup>6</sup> not a new convert, lest being puffed up he fall into the same condemnation as the devil. <sup>7</sup> Moreover he must have good testimony from those who are outside, to avoid falling into reproach and the snare of the devil.

<sup>14</sup> These things I write to you, hoping to come to you shortly; <sup>15</sup> but if I wait long, that you may know how men ought to behave themselves in God's house, which is the assembly of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth. <sup>16</sup> Without controversy, the mystery of godliness is great:

God<sup>g</sup> was revealed in the flesh, justified in the spirit,
seen by angels,
preached among the nations,
believed on in the world,
and received up in glory.

<sup>a</sup> The word "just" is inserted here in English to preserve the meaning of the whole original Greek sentence in context. The word for "not" is the negative particle "μη" which denies an expected idea, as opposed to the usual word for "not" (ου) which denies a fact. Thus "μη" in this context is denying an expected idea (that women can be properly dressed without good works). <sup>b</sup> or, superintendents, or bishops <sup>c</sup> or, Deacons. <sup>d</sup> or, serve as deacons <sup>e</sup> or, deacons <sup>f</sup> or, served well as deacons <sup>g</sup> NU replaces "God" with "who"

<sup>12</sup> Let no man despise your youth; but be an example to those who believe, in word, in your way of life, in love, in spirit, in faith, and in purity. <sup>13</sup> Until I come, pay attention to reading, to exhortation, and to teaching. <sup>14</sup> Don't neglect the gift that is in you, which was given to you by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the elders. <sup>15</sup> Be diligent in these things. Give yourself wholly to them, that your progress may be revealed to all. <sup>16</sup> Pay attention to yourself, and to your teaching. Continue in these things, for in doing this you will save both yourself and those who hear you.

5

<sup>11</sup> But refuse younger widows, for when they have grown wanton against Christ, they desire to marry; <sup>12</sup> having condemnation, because they have rejected their first pledge. <sup>13</sup> Besides, they also learn to be idle, going about from house to house. Not only idle, but also gossips and busybodies, saying things which they ought not. <sup>14</sup> I desire therefore that the younger widows marry, bear children, rule the household, and give no occasion to the adversary for insulting. <sup>15</sup> For already some have turned aside after Satan. <sup>16</sup> If any man or woman who believes has widows, let them relieve them, and don't let the assembly be burdened; that it might relieve those who are widows indeed.

<sup>17</sup> Let the elders who rule well be counted worthy of double honor, especially those who labor in the word and in teaching. <sup>18</sup> For the Scripture says, "You shall not muzzle the ox when it treads out the grain."<sup>1</sup> And, "The laborer is worthy of his wages."<sup>2</sup>

<sup>19</sup> Don't receive an accusation against an elder, except at the word of two or three witnesses. <sup>20</sup> Those who sin, reprove in the sight of all, that the rest also may be in fear. <sup>21</sup> I command you in the sight of God, and Christ Jesus, and the chosen angels, that you observe these things without prejudice, doing nothing by partiality. <sup>22</sup> Lay hands hastily on no one, neither be a participant in other men's sins. Keep yourself pure. <sup>23</sup> Be no longer a drinker of water only, but use a little wine for your stomach's sake and your frequent infirmities.

<sup>24</sup> Some men's sins are evident, preceding them to judgment, and some also follow later. <sup>25</sup> In the same way also there are good works that are obvious, and those that are otherwise can't be hidden.

6

<sup>1</sup> Let as many as are bondservants under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honor, that the name of God and the doctrine not be blasphemed. <sup>2</sup> Those who have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brothers, but rather let them serve them, because those who partake of the benefit are believing and beloved. Teach and exhort these things.

<sup>3</sup> If anyone teaches a different doctrine, and doesn't consent to sound words, the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness, <sup>4</sup> he is conceited, knowing nothing, but obsessed with arguments, disputes, and word battles, from which come envy, strife, insulting, evil suspicions, <sup>5</sup> constant friction of people of corrupt minds and destitute of the truth, who suppose that godliness is a means of gain. Withdraw yourself from such. <sup>i</sup>

<sup>6</sup> But godliness with contentment is great gain. <sup>7</sup> For we brought nothing into the world, and we certainly can't carry anything out. <sup>8</sup> But having food and clothing, we will be content with that. <sup>9</sup> But those who are determined to be rich fall into a temptation and a snare and many foolish and harmful lusts, such as drown men in ruin and destruction. <sup>10</sup> For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil. Some have been led astray from the faith in their greed, and have pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

<sup>11</sup> But you, man of God, flee these things, and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, and gentleness. <sup>12</sup>

Fight the good fight of faith. Take hold of the eternal life to which you were called, and you confessed the good confession in the sight of many witnesses. <sup>13</sup> I command you before God, who gives life to all things, and before Christ Jesus, who before Pontius Pilate testified the good confession, <sup>14</sup> that you keep the commandment without spot, blameless, until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ; <sup>15</sup> which in its own times he will show, who is the blessed and only Ruler, the King of kings, and Lord of lords; <sup>16</sup> who alone has immortality, dwelling in unapproachable light; whom no man has seen, nor can see: to whom be honor and eternal power. Amen.

<sup>17</sup> Charge those who are rich in this present world that they not be haughty, nor have their hope set on the uncertainty of riches, but on the living God, who richly provides us with everything to enjoy; <sup>18</sup> that they do good, that they be rich in good works, that they be ready to distribute, willing to communicate; <sup>19</sup> laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold of eternal life.

<sup>20</sup> Timothy, guard that which is committed to you, turning away from the empty chatter and oppositions of what is falsely called knowledge; <sup>21</sup> which some profess, and thus have wandered from the faith. Grace be with you. Amen.

Paul's Second Letter to Timothy

1

<sup>1</sup> Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, according to the promise of the life which is in Christ Jesus, <sup>2</sup> to Timothy, my beloved child: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

<sup>3</sup> I thank God, whom I serve as my forefathers did, with a pure conscience. How unceasing is my memory of you in my petitions, night and day <sup>4</sup> longing to see you, remembering your tears, that I may be filled with joy; <sup>5</sup> having been reminded of the sincere faith that is in you; which lived first in your grandmother Lois, and your mother Eunice, and, I am persuaded, in you also.

<sup>6</sup> For this cause, I remind you that you should stir up the gift of God which is in you through the laying on of my hands. <sup>7</sup> For God didn't give us a spirit of fear, but of power, love, and self-control. <sup>8</sup> Therefore don't be ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner; but endure hardship for the Good News according to the power of God, <sup>9</sup> who saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given to us in Christ Jesus before times eternal, <sup>10</sup> but has now been revealed by the appearing of our Savior, Christ Jesus, who abolished death, and brought life and immortality to light through the Good News. <sup>11</sup> For this, I was appointed as a preacher, an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles. <sup>12</sup> For this cause I also suffer these things.

Yet I am not ashamed, for I know him whom I have believed, and I am persuaded that he is able to guard that which I have committed to him against that day.

<sup>13</sup> Hold the pattern of sound words which you have heard from me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. <sup>14</sup> That good thing which was committed to you, guard through the Holy Spirit who dwells in us.

<sup>15</sup> This you know, that all who are in Asia turned away from me; of whom are Phygelus and Hermogenes. <sup>16</sup> May the Lord grant mercy to the house of Onesiphorus, for he often refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain, <sup>17</sup> but when he was in Rome, he sought me diligently, and found me <sup>18</sup> (the Lord grant to him to find the Lord's mercy in that day); and in how many things he served at Ephesus, you know very well.

2

<sup>1</sup> You therefore, my child, be strengthened in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. <sup>2</sup> The things which you have heard from me among many witnesses, commit the same to faithful men, who will be able to teach others also. <sup>3</sup> You therefore must endure hardship, as a good soldier of Christ Jesus. <sup>4</sup> No soldier on duty entangles himself in the affairs of life, that he may please him who enrolled him as a soldier. <sup>5</sup> Also, if anyone competes in athletics, he isn't crowned unless he has competed by the rules. <sup>6</sup> The farmer who labors must be the first to get a share of the crops. <sup>7</sup>

Consider what I say, and may the Lord give you understanding in all things.

<sup>8</sup> Remember Jesus Christ, risen from the dead, of the offspring<sup>a</sup> of David, according to my Good News, <sup>9</sup> in which I suffer hardship to the point of chains as a criminal. But God's word isn't chained. <sup>10</sup> Therefore I endure all things for the chosen ones' sake, that they also may obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. <sup>11</sup> This saying is trustworthy:

“For if we died with him,
we will also live with him.

<sup>12</sup> If we endure, we will also reign with him.

If we deny him,
he also will deny us.

<sup>13</sup> If we are faithless, he remains faithful.
For he can't deny himself.”

<sup>14</sup> Remind them of these things, charging them in the sight of the Lord, that they don't argue about words, to no profit, to the subverting of those who hear.

<sup>15</sup> Give diligence to present yourself approved by God, a workman who doesn't need to be ashamed, properly handling the Word of Truth. <sup>16</sup> But shun empty chatter, for it will go further in ungodliness, <sup>17</sup> and those words will consume like gangrene, of whom is Hymenaeus and Philetus; <sup>18</sup> men who have erred concerning the truth, saying that the resurrection is already past, and overthrowing the faith of some. <sup>19</sup> However God's firm foundation stands, having this seal, “The Lord knows those who are his,”<sup>1</sup> and, “Let every one who names the name of the Lord<sup>b</sup> depart from unrighteousness.” <sup>20</sup> Now in a large house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of clay. Some are for honor, and some for dishonor. <sup>21</sup> If anyone therefore purges himself from these, he will be a vessel for honor, sanctified, and suitable for the master's use, prepared for every good work.

the truth. <sup>8</sup> Even as Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses, so do these also oppose the truth; men corrupted in mind, who concerning the faith, are rejected. <sup>9</sup> But they will proceed no further. For their folly will be evident to all men, as theirs also came to be. <sup>10</sup> But you did follow my teaching, conduct, purpose, faith, patience, love, steadfastness, <sup>11</sup> persecutions, and sufferings: those things that happened to me at Antioch, Iconium, and Lystra. I endured those persecutions. The Lord delivered me out of them all. <sup>12</sup> Yes, and all who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus will suffer persecution. <sup>13</sup> But evil men and impostors will grow worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived. <sup>14</sup> But you remain in the things which you have learned and have been assured of, knowing from whom you have learned them. <sup>15</sup> From infancy, you have known the holy Scriptures which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith, which is in Christ Jesus. <sup>16</sup> Every Scripture is God-breathed and<sup>c</sup> profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for instruction in righteousness, <sup>17</sup> that the man of God may be complete, thoroughly equipped for every good work.

4

<sup>1</sup> I command you therefore before God and the Lord Jesus Christ, who will judge the living and the dead at his appearing and his Kingdom: <sup>2</sup> preach the word; be urgent in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, and exhort, with all patience and teaching. <sup>3</sup> For the time will come when they will not listen to the sound doctrine, but, having itching ears, will heap up for themselves teachers after their own lusts; <sup>4</sup> and will turn away their ears from the truth, and turn aside to fables. <sup>5</sup> But you be sober in all things, suffer hardship, do the work of an evangelist, and fulfill your ministry.

<sup>6</sup> For I am already being offered, and the time of my departure has come. <sup>7</sup> I have fought the good fight. I have finished the course. I have kept the faith. <sup>8</sup> From now on, there is stored up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give to me on that day; and not to me only, but also to all those who have loved his appearing. <sup>9</sup> Be diligent to come to me soon, <sup>10</sup> for Demas left me, having loved this present world, and went to Thessalonica; Crescens to Galatia, and Titus to Dalmatia. <sup>11</sup> Only Luke is with me. Take Mark, and bring him with you, for he is useful to me for service. <sup>12</sup> But I sent Tychicus to Ephesus. <sup>13</sup> Bring the cloak that I left at Troas with Carpus when you come, and the books, especially the parchments. <sup>14</sup> Alexander, the coppersmith, did much evil to me. The Lord will repay him according to his deeds, <sup>15</sup> of whom you also must beware; for he greatly opposed our words.

<sup>16</sup> At my first defense, no one came to help me, but all left me. May it not be held against them. <sup>17</sup> But the Lord stood by me, and strengthened me, that through me the message might be fully proclaimed, and that all the Gentiles might hear; and I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion. <sup>18</sup> And the Lord will deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me for his

Corinth, but I left Trophimus at Miletus sick. <sup>21</sup> Be diligent to come before winter. Eubulus salutes you, as do Pudens, Linus, Claudia, and all the brothers. <sup>22</sup> The Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Grace be with you. Amen.

Paul's Letter to Titus

1

<sup>1</sup> Paul, a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's chosen ones, and the knowledge of the truth which is according to godliness, <sup>2</sup> in hope of eternal life, which God, who can't lie, promised before time began; <sup>3</sup> but in his own time revealed his word in the message with which I was entrusted according to the commandment of God our Savior; <sup>4</sup> to Titus, my true child according to a common faith: Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ our Savior.

<sup>5</sup> I left you in Crete for this reason, that you would set in order the things that were lacking, and appoint elders in every city, as I directed you; <sup>6</sup> if anyone is blameless, the husband of one wife, having children who believe, who are not accused of loose or unruly behavior. <sup>7</sup> For the overseer must be blameless, as God's steward; not self-pleasing, not easily angered, not given to wine, not violent, not greedy for dishonest gain; <sup>8</sup> but given to hospitality, a lover of good, sober minded, fair, holy, self-controlled; <sup>9</sup> holding to the faithful word which is according to the teaching, that he may be able to exhort in the sound doctrine, and to convict those who contradict him. <sup>10</sup> For there are also many unruly men, vain talkers and deceivers, especially those of the circumcision, <sup>11</sup> whose mouths must be stopped; men who overthrow whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for dishonest gain's sake. <sup>12</sup> One of them, a prophet of their own, said, "Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, and idle gluttons." <sup>13</sup> This testimony is true. For this cause, reprove them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith, <sup>14</sup> not paying attention to Jewish fables and commandments of men who turn away from the truth. <sup>15</sup> To the pure, all things are pure; but to those who are defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure; but both their mind and their conscience are defiled. <sup>16</sup> They profess that they know God, but by their deeds they deny him, being abominable, disobedient, and unfit for any good work.

well-pleasing in all things; not contradicting; <sup>10</sup> not stealing, but showing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God, our Savior, in all things. <sup>11</sup> For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all men, <sup>12</sup> instructing us to the intent that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we would live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present world; <sup>13</sup> looking for the blessed hope and appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ; <sup>14</sup> who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify for himself a people for his own possession, zealous for good works. <sup>15</sup> Say these things and exhort and reprove with all authority. Let no man despise you.

3

<sup>1</sup> Remind them to be in subjection to rulers and to authorities, to be obedient, to be ready for every good work, <sup>2</sup> to speak evil of no one, not to be contentious, to be gentle, showing all humility toward all men. <sup>3</sup> For we were also once foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving various lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another. <sup>4</sup> But when the kindness of God our Savior and his love toward mankind appeared, <sup>5</sup> not by works

of righteousness, which we did ourselves, but according to his mercy, he saved us, through the washing of regeneration and renewing by the Holy Spirit, <sup>6</sup> whom he poured out on us richly, through Jesus Christ our Savior; <sup>7</sup> that, being justified by his grace, we might be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life. <sup>8</sup> This saying is faithful, and concerning these things I desire that you affirm confidently, so that those who have believed God may be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable to men; <sup>9</sup> but shun foolish questionings, genealogies, strife, and disputes about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain. <sup>10</sup> Avoid a factious man after a first and second warning, <sup>11</sup> knowing that such a one is perverted and sins, being self-condemned.

<sup>12</sup> When I send Artemas to you, or Tychicus, be diligent to come to me to Nicopolis, for I have determined to winter there. <sup>13</sup> Send Zenas, the lawyer, and Apollos on their journey speedily, that nothing may be lacking for them. <sup>14</sup> Let our people also learn to maintain good works for necessary uses, that they may not be unfruitful.

<sup>15</sup> All who are with me greet you. Greet those who love us in faith. Grace be with you all. Amen.

Paul's Letter to Philemon

<sup>1</sup> Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy our brother, to Philemon, our beloved fellow worker, <sup>2</sup> to the beloved Apphia, to Archippus, our fellow soldier, and to the assembly in your house: <sup>3</sup> Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>4</sup> I thank my God always, making mention of you in my prayers, <sup>5</sup> hearing of your love, and of the faith which you have toward the Lord Jesus, and toward all the saints; <sup>6</sup> that the fellowship of your faith may become effective, in the knowledge of every good thing which is in us in Christ Jesus. <sup>7</sup> For we have much joy and comfort in your love, because the hearts of the saints have been refreshed through you, brother.

<sup>8</sup> Therefore though I have all boldness in Christ to command you that which is appropriate, <sup>9</sup> yet for love's sake I rather beg, being such a one as Paul, the aged, but also a prisoner of Jesus Christ. <sup>10</sup> I beg you for my child, whom I have become the father of in my chains, Onesimus, <sup>a</sup> <sup>11</sup> who once was useless to you, but now is useful to you and to me. <sup>12</sup> I am sending him back. Therefore receive him, that is, my own heart, <sup>13</sup> whom I desired to keep with me, that on your behalf he might serve me in my chains for the Good News. <sup>14</sup> But I was willing to do nothing without your consent, that your goodness would not be as of necessity, but of free will. <sup>15</sup> For perhaps he was therefore separated from you for a while, that you would have him forever, <sup>16</sup> no longer as a slave, but more than a slave, a beloved brother, especially to me, but how much rather to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord.

<sup>17</sup> If then you count me a partner, receive him as you would receive me. <sup>18</sup> But if he has wronged you at all, or owes you anything, put that to my account. <sup>19</sup> I, Paul, write this with my own hand: I will repay it (not to mention to you that you owe to me even your own self besides). <sup>20</sup> Yes, brother, let me have joy from you in the Lord. Refresh my heart in the Lord. <sup>21</sup> Having confidence in your obedience, I write to you, knowing that you will do even beyond what I say.

<sup>22</sup> Also, prepare a guest room for me, for I hope that through your prayers I will be restored to you.

The Letter to the Hebrews

1

<sup>1</sup> God, having in the past spoken to the fathers through the prophets at many times and in various ways, <sup>2</sup> has at the end of these days spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, through whom also he made the worlds. <sup>3</sup> His Son is the radiance of his glory, the very image of his substance, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purified us of our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high; <sup>4</sup> having become so much better than the angels, as he has inherited a more excellent name than they have. <sup>5</sup> For to which of the angels did he say at any time,

“You are my Son.

Today have I become your father?”<sup>1</sup>

and again,

“I will be to him a Father, and he will be to me a Son?”<sup>2</sup>

<sup>6</sup> When he again brings in the firstborn into the world he says, “Let all the angels of God worship him.”<sup>3</sup> <sup>7</sup> Of the angels he says,

“Who makes his angels winds, and his servants a flame of fire.”<sup>4</sup>

<sup>8</sup> But of the Son he says,

“Your throne, O God, is forever and ever.

The scepter of uprightness is the scepter of your Kingdom.

<sup>9</sup> You have loved righteousness, and hated iniquity;

therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness above your fellows.”<sup>5</sup>

<sup>10</sup> And,

“You, Lord, in the beginning, laid the foundation of the earth.

The heavens are the works of your hands.

<sup>11</sup> They will perish, but you continue.

They all will grow old like a garment does.

<sup>12</sup> You will roll them up like a mantle, and they will be changed;

but you are the same.

Your years will not fail.”<sup>6</sup>

<sup>13</sup> But which of the angels has he told at any time,

“Sit at my right hand,
until I make your enemies the

<sup>14</sup> Aren't they all serving spirits, sent out to do service for the sake of those who will inherit salvation?

<sup>1</sup> Therefore we ought to pay greater attention to the things that were heard, lest perhaps we drift away. <sup>2</sup> For if the word spoken through angels proved steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompense; <sup>3</sup> how will we escape if we neglect so great a salvation—which at the first having been spoken through the Lord, was confirmed to us by those who heard; <sup>4</sup> God also testifying with them, both by signs and wonders, by various works of power, and by gifts of the Holy Spirit, according to his own will? <sup>5</sup> For he didn't subject the world to come, of which we speak, to angels. <sup>6</sup> But one has somewhere testified, saying,

“What is man, that you think of him?
Or the son of man, that you care for
him?

<sup>7</sup> You made him a little lower than the angels.

You crowned him with glory and honor.<sup>a</sup>

subjection under his feet.”<sup>1</sup>

For in that he subjected all things to him, he left nothing that is not subject to him. But now we don't see all things subjected to him, yet. <sup>9</sup> But we see him who has been made a little lower than the angels, Jesus, because of the suffering of death crowned with glory and honor, that by the grace of God he should taste of death for everyone. <sup>10</sup> For it became him, for whom are all things, and through whom are all things, in bringing many children to glory, to make the author of their salvation perfect through sufferings. <sup>11</sup> For both he who sanctifies and those who are sanctified are all from one, for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brothers,<sup>b</sup> <sup>12</sup> saying,

“I will declare your name to my brothers.

Among of the congregation I will sing your praise.”<sup>2</sup>

<sup>13</sup> Again, “I will put my trust in him.”<sup>3</sup> Again, “Behold, here I am with the children whom God has given me.”<sup>4</sup> <sup>14</sup> Since then the children have shared in flesh and blood, he also himself in the same way partook of the same, that through death he might bring to nothing him who had the power of death, that is, the devil, <sup>15</sup> and might deliver all of them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage. <sup>16</sup> For most certainly, he doesn't give help to angels, but he gives help to the offspring<sup>c</sup> of Abraham. <sup>17</sup> Therefore he was obligated in all things to be made like his brothers, that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make atonement for the sins of the people. <sup>18</sup> For in that he himself has suffered being tempted, he is able to help those who are tempted.

3

<sup>1</sup> Therefore, holy brothers, partakers of a heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our confession, Jesus; <sup>2</sup> who was faithful to him who appointed him, as also was Moses in all his house. <sup>3</sup> For he has been counted worthy of more glory than Moses, because he who built the house has more honor than the house. <sup>4</sup> For every house is built by someone; but he who built all things is God. <sup>5</sup> Moses indeed was faithful in all his house as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were afterward to be spoken, <sup>6</sup> but Christ is faithful as a Son over his house; whose house we are, if we hold fast our confidence and the glorying of our hope firm to the end. <sup>7</sup> Therefore, even as the Holy Spirit says,

“Today if you will hear his voice,

<sup>8</sup> don't harden your hearts, as in the rebellion, like as in the day of the trial in the wilderness, <sup>9</sup> where your fathers tested me by proving me,
 and saw my deeds for forty years.
<sup>10</sup> Therefore I was displeased with that generation, and said, 'They always err in their heart, but they didn't know my ways;'
<sup>11</sup> as I swore in my wrath,
 'They will not enter into my rest.'<sup>1</sup> <sup>12</sup> Beware, brothers, lest perhaps there be in any one of you an evil heart of unbelief, in falling away from the living God; <sup>13</sup> but exhort one another day by day, so long as it is called "today"; lest any one of you be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. <sup>14</sup> For we have become partakers of Christ, if we hold fast the beginning of our confidence firm to the end: <sup>15</sup> while it is said,
 "Today if you will hear his voice, don't harden your hearts, as in the rebellion."<sup>2</sup>
<sup>16</sup> For who, when they heard, rebelled? No, didn't all those who came out of Egypt by Moses? <sup>17</sup> With whom was he displeased forty years? Wasn't it with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? <sup>18</sup> To whom did he swear that they wouldn't enter into his rest, but to those who were disobedient? <sup>19</sup> We see that they were not able to enter in because of unbelief.

4

<sup>1</sup> Let us fear therefore, lest perhaps anyone of you should seem to have come short of a promise of entering into his rest. <sup>2</sup> For indeed we have had good news preached to us, even as they also did, but the word they heard didn't profit them, because it wasn't mixed with faith by those who heard. <sup>3</sup> For we who have believed do enter into that rest, even as he has said, "As I swore in my wrath, they will not enter into my rest";<sup>1</sup> although the works were finished from the foundation of the world. <sup>4</sup> For he has said this somewhere about the seventh day, "God rested on the seventh day from all his works";<sup>2 5</sup> and in this place again, "They will not enter into my rest."<sup>3</sup>

<sup>6</sup> Seeing therefore it remains that some should enter therein, and they to whom the good news was before preached failed to enter in because of disobedience, <sup>7</sup> he again defines a certain day, today, saying through David so long a time afterward (just as has been said),

"Today if you will hear his voice,
 don't harden your hearts."<sup>4</sup>

<sup>8</sup> For if Joshua had given them rest, he would not have spoken afterward of another day. <sup>9</sup> There remains therefore a Sabbath rest for the people of God. <sup>10</sup> For he who has entered into his rest has himself also rested from his works, as God did from his. <sup>11</sup> Let us therefore give diligence to enter into that rest, lest anyone fall after the same example of disobedience. <sup>12</sup> For the word of God is living and active, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and is able to discern the thoughts and intentions of the heart.

<sup>13</sup> There is no creature that is hidden from his sight, but all things are naked and laid open before the eyes of him to whom we must give an account. <sup>14</sup> Having then a great high priest, who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold tightly to our confession. <sup>15</sup> For we don't have a high priest who can't be touched with the feeling of our infirmities, but one who has been in all points tempted like we are, yet without sin. <sup>16</sup> Let us therefore draw near with boldness to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy, and may find grace for help in time of need.

5

<sup>1</sup> For every high priest, being taken from among men, is appointed for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins. <sup>2</sup> The high priest can deal gently with those who are ignorant and going astray, because he himself is also surrounded with weakness. <sup>3</sup> Because of this, he must offer sacrifices for sins for the people, as well as for himself. <sup>4</sup> Nobody takes this honor on himself, but he is called by God, just like Aaron was. <sup>5</sup> So also Christ didn't glorify himself to be made a high priest, but it was he who said to him,

“You are my Son.

Today I have become your father.”<sup>1</sup>

<sup>6</sup> As he says also in another place,

“You are a priest forever, after the order of Melchizedek.”<sup>2</sup>

crying and tears to him who was able to save him from death, and having been heard for his godly fear, <sup>8</sup> though he was a Son, yet learned obedience by the things which he suffered. <sup>9</sup> Having been made perfect, he became to all of those who obey him the author of eternal salvation, <sup>10</sup> named by God a high priest after the order of Melchizedek. <sup>11</sup> About him we have many words to say, and hard to interpret, seeing you have become dull of hearing. <sup>12</sup> For although by this time you should be teachers, you again need to have someone teach you the rudiments of the first principles of the revelations of God. You have come to need milk, and not solid food. <sup>13</sup> For everyone who lives on milk is not experienced in the word of righteousness, for he is a baby. <sup>14</sup> But solid food is for those who are full grown, who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern good and evil.

6

<sup>1</sup> Therefore leaving the teaching of the first principles of Christ, let us press on to perfection—not laying again a foundation of repentance from dead works, of faith toward God, <sup>2</sup> of the teaching of baptisms, of laying on of hands, of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment. <sup>3</sup> This will we do, if God permits. <sup>4</sup> For concerning those who were once enlightened and tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Spirit, <sup>5</sup> and tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the age to come, <sup>6</sup> and then fell away, it is impossible to renew them again to repentance; seeing they crucify the Son of

God for themselves again, and put him to open shame. <sup>7</sup> For the land which has drunk the rain that comes often on it, and produces a crop suitable for them for whose sake it is also tilled, receives blessing from God; <sup>8</sup> but if it bears thorns and thistles, it is rejected and near being cursed, whose end is to be burned.

<sup>9</sup> But, beloved, we are persuaded of better things for you, and things that accompany salvation, even though we speak like this. <sup>10</sup> For God is not unrighteous, so as to forget your work and the labor of love which you showed toward his name, in that you served the saints, and still do serve them. <sup>11</sup> We desire that each one of you may show the same diligence to the fullness of hope even to the end, <sup>12</sup> that you won't be sluggish, but imitators of those who through faith and patience inherited the promises. <sup>13</sup> For when God made a promise to Abraham, since he could swear by no one greater, he swore by himself, <sup>14</sup> saying, "Surely blessing I will bless you, and multiplying I will multiply you."<sup>1</sup> <sup>15</sup> Thus, having patiently endured, he obtained the promise. <sup>16</sup> For men indeed swear by a greater one, and in every dispute of theirs the oath is final for confirmation. <sup>17</sup> In this way God, being determined to show more abundantly to the heirs of the promise the immutability of his counsel, interposed with an oath; <sup>18</sup> that by two immutable things, in which it is impossible for God to lie, we may have a strong encouragement, who have fled for refuge to take hold of the hope set before us. <sup>19</sup> This hope we have as an anchor of the soul, a hope both sure and steadfast and entering into that which is within the veil; <sup>20</sup> where as a forerunner Jesus entered for us, having become a high priest forever after the order of Melchizedek.

7

<sup>1</sup> For this Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of God Most High, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him, <sup>2</sup> to whom also Abraham divided a tenth part of all (being first, by interpretation, "king of righteousness", and then also "king of Salem", which means "king of peace"; <sup>3</sup> without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but made like the Son of God), remains a priest continually. <sup>4</sup> Now consider how great this man was, to whom even Abraham, the patriarch, gave a tenth out of the best plunder. <sup>5</sup> They indeed of the sons of Levi who receive the priest's office have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brothers, though these have come out of the body of Abraham, <sup>6</sup> but he whose genealogy is not counted from them has accepted tithes from Abraham, and has blessed him who has the promises. <sup>7</sup> But without any dispute the lesser is blessed by the greater. <sup>8</sup> Here people who die receive tithes, but there one receives tithes of whom it is testified that he lives. <sup>9</sup> We can say that through Abraham even Levi, who receives tithes, has paid tithes, <sup>10</sup> for he was yet in the body of his father when Melchizedek met him. <sup>11</sup> Now if there were perfection through the Levitical priesthood (for under it the people have received the law), what further need was there for another priest to arise after the order of

Melchizedek, and not be called after the order of Aaron? <sup>12</sup> For the priesthood being changed, there is of necessity a change made also in the law. <sup>13</sup> For he of whom these things are said belongs to another tribe, from which no one has officiated at the altar. <sup>14</sup> For it is evident that our Lord has sprung out of Judah, about which tribe Moses spoke nothing concerning priesthood. <sup>15</sup> This is yet more abundantly evident, if after the likeness of Melchizedek there arises another priest, <sup>16</sup> who has been made, not after the law of a fleshly commandment, but after the power of an endless life: <sup>17</sup> for it is testified,

“You are a priest forever,
according to the order of

<sup>18</sup> For there is an annulling of a foregoing commandment because of its weakness and uselessness <sup>19</sup> (for the law made nothing perfect), and a bringing in of a better hope, through which we draw near to God. <sup>20</sup> Inasmuch as he was not made priest without the taking of an oath <sup>21</sup> (for they indeed have been made priests without an oath), but he with an oath by him that says of him,

“The Lord swore and will not change his mind,
‘You are a priest forever,
according to the order of Melchizedek.’”<sup>2</sup>

<sup>22</sup> By so much, Jesus has become the collateral of a better covenant. <sup>23</sup> Many, indeed, have been made priests, because they are hindered from continuing by death. <sup>24</sup> But he, because he lives forever, has his priesthood unchangeable. <sup>25</sup>

Therefore he is also able to save to the uttermost those who draw near to God through him, seeing that he lives forever to make intercession for them.

<sup>26</sup> For such a high priest was fitting for us: holy, guiltless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and made higher than the heavens; <sup>27</sup> who doesn't need, like those high priests, to offer up sacrifices daily, first for his own sins, and then for the sins of the people. For he did this once for all, when he offered up himself. <sup>28</sup> For the law appoints men as high priests who have weakness, but the word of the oath which came after the law appoints a Son forever who has been perfected.

8

<sup>1</sup> Now in the things which we are saying, the main point is this. We have such a high priest, who sat down on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens, <sup>2</sup> a servant of the sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, not man. <sup>3</sup> For every high priest is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices. Therefore it is necessary that this high priest also have something to offer. <sup>4</sup> For if he were on earth, he would not be a priest at all, seeing there are priests who offer the gifts according to the law; <sup>5</sup> who serve a copy and shadow of the heavenly things, even as Moses was warned by God when he was about to make the tabernacle, for he said, “See, you shall make everything according to the pattern that was shown to you on the mountain.”<sup>1</sup> <sup>6</sup> But now he has obtained a more excellent ministry, by so much as he is also the mediator of a better covenant, which on better promises has been given as law. <sup>7</sup> For if that first covenant had been faultless, then no place would have been sought for a second. <sup>8</sup> For finding fault with them, he said, “Behold,<sup>d</sup> the days come”, says the Lord,

 “that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah; <sup>9</sup> not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers, in the day that I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt;
 for they didn’t continue in my covenant, and I disregarded them,” says the Lord.

<sup>10</sup> “For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel.
 After those days,” says the Lord;
 “I will put my laws into their mind,
 I will also write them on their heart.
 I will be their God,
 and they will be my people.

<sup>11</sup> They will not teach every man his fellow citizen,<sup>e</sup> and every man his brother, saying, ‘Know the Lord,’
 for all will know me,
 from their least to their greatest.

<sup>12</sup> For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness.
 I will remember their sins and lawless deeds no more.”<sup>2</sup>

<sup>13</sup> In that he says, “A new covenant”, he has made the first old. But that which is becoming old and grows aged is near to vanishing away.

9

<sup>11</sup> But Christ having come as a high priest of the coming good things, through the greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this creation, <sup>12</sup> nor yet through the blood of goats and calves, but through his own blood, entered in once for all into the Holy Place, having obtained eternal redemption.

<sup>13</sup> For if the blood of goats and bulls, and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling those who have been defiled, sanctify to the cleanness of the flesh: <sup>14</sup> how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without defect to God, cleanse your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? <sup>15</sup> For this reason he is the mediator of a new covenant, since a death has occurred for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first covenant, that those who have been called may receive the promise of the eternal inheritance. <sup>16</sup> For where a last will and testament is, there must of necessity be the death of him who made it. <sup>17</sup> For a will is in force where there has been death, for it is never in force while he who made it lives. <sup>18</sup> Therefore even the first covenant has not been dedicated without blood. <sup>19</sup> For when every commandment had been spoken by Moses to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of the calves and the goats, with water and scarlet wool and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book itself and all the people, <sup>20</sup> saying, "This is the blood of the covenant which God has commanded you."<sup>1</sup>

heavens should be cleansed with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these. <sup>24</sup> For Christ hasn't entered into holy places made with hands, which are representations of the true, but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us; <sup>25</sup> nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest enters into the holy place year by year with blood not his own, <sup>26</sup> or else he must have suffered often since the foundation of the world. But now once at the end of the ages, he has been revealed to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself. <sup>27</sup> Inasmuch as it is appointed for men to die once, and after this, judgment, <sup>28</sup> so Christ also, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, without sin, to those who are eagerly waiting for him for salvation.

10

<sup>1</sup> For the law, having a shadow of the good to come, not the very image of the things, can never with the same sacrifices year by year, which they offer continually, make perfect those who draw near. <sup>2</sup> Or else wouldn't they have ceased to be offered, because the worshipers, having been once cleansed, would have had no more consciousness of sins? <sup>3</sup> But in those sacrifices there is a yearly reminder of sins.

<sup>4</sup> For it is impossible that the blood of bulls and goats should take away sins. <sup>5</sup> Therefore when he comes into the world, he says,

"Sacrifice and offering you didn't desire,

but you prepared a body for me.

<sup>6</sup> You had no pleasure in whole burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin.

<sup>7</sup> Then I said, ‘Behold, I have come (in the scroll of the book it is written of me) to do your will, O God.’”<sup>1</sup>

<sup>8</sup> Previously saying, “Sacrifices and offerings and whole burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin you didn’t desire, neither had pleasure in them” (those which are offered according to the law), <sup>9</sup> then he has said, “Behold, I have come to do your will.” He takes away the first, that he may establish the second, <sup>10</sup> by which will we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. <sup>11</sup> Every priest indeed stands day by day serving and often offering the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins, <sup>12</sup> but he, when he had offered one sacrifice for sins forever, sat down on the right hand of God; <sup>13</sup> from that time waiting until his enemies are made the footstool of his feet. <sup>14</sup> For by one offering he has perfected forever those who are being sanctified. <sup>15</sup> The Holy Spirit also testifies to us, for after saying,

‘After those days,’ says the Lord, ‘I will put my laws on their heart, I will also write them on their mind;’”<sup>2</sup>

then he says,

<sup>18</sup> Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin. <sup>19</sup> Having

therefore, brothers, boldness to enter into the holy place by the blood of Jesus, <sup>20</sup> by the way which he dedicated for us, a new and living way, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh; <sup>21</sup> and having a great priest over God’s house, <sup>22</sup> let’s draw near with a true heart in fullness of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and having our body washed with pure water, <sup>23</sup> let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering; for he who promised is faithful.

<sup>24</sup> Let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good works, <sup>25</sup> not forsaking our own assembling together, as the custom of some is, but exhorting one another; and so much the more, as you see the Day approaching. <sup>26</sup> For if we sin willfully after we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remains no more a sacrifice for sins, <sup>27</sup> but a certain fearful expectation of judgment, and a fierceness of fire which will devour the adversaries. <sup>28</sup> A man who disregards Moses’ law dies without compassion on the word of two or three witnesses. <sup>29</sup> How much worse punishment do you think he will be judged worthy of who has trodden under foot the Son of God, and has counted the blood of the covenant with which he was sanctified an unholy thing, and has insulted the Spirit of grace? <sup>30</sup> For we know him who said, “Vengeance belongs to me,” says the Lord, “I will repay.”<sup>4</sup> Again, “The Lord will judge his people.”<sup>5</sup> <sup>31</sup> It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God. <sup>32</sup> But remember the former days, in which, after you were enlightened, you endured a great struggle with sufferings; <sup>33</sup> partly, being exposed to both reproaches and oppressions; and partly, becoming partakers with those who were treated so. <sup>34</sup> For you both had compassion on me in my chains, and joyfully accepted the plundering of your possessions, knowing that you have for yourselves a better possession and an enduring one in the heavens. <sup>35</sup> Therefore don't throw away your boldness, which has a great reward. <sup>36</sup> For you need endurance so that, having done the will of God, you may receive the promise.

<sup>37</sup> "In a very little while, he who comes will come, and will not wait.

<sup>38</sup> But the righteous will live by faith.
If he shrinks back, my soul has no pleasure in him."<sup>6</sup>

<sup>39</sup> But we are not of those who shrink back to destruction, but of those who have faith to the saving of the soul.

11

<sup>1</sup> Now faith is assurance of things hoped for, proof of things not seen. <sup>2</sup> For by this, the elders obtained testimony. <sup>3</sup> By faith, we understand that the universe has been framed by the word of God, so that what is seen has not been made out of things which are visible. <sup>4</sup> By faith, Abel offered to God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, through which he had testimony given to him that he was righteous, God testifying with respect to his gifts; and through it he, being dead, still speaks. <sup>5</sup> By faith, Enoch was taken away, so that he wouldn't see death, and he was not found, because God translated him. For he has had testimony given to him that before his translation he had been well pleasing to God. <sup>6</sup> Without faith it is impossible to be well pleasing to him, for he who comes to God must believe that he exists, and that he is a rewarder of those who seek him. <sup>7</sup> By faith, Noah, being warned about things not yet seen, moved with godly fear,<sup>g</sup> prepared a ship for the saving of his house, through which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is according to faith. <sup>8</sup> By faith, Abraham, when he was called, obeyed to go out to the place which he was to receive for an inheritance. He went out, not knowing where he went. <sup>9</sup> By faith, he lived as an alien in the land of promise, as in a land not his own, dwelling in tents, with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise. <sup>10</sup> For he looked for the city which has the foundations, whose builder and maker is God. <sup>11</sup> By faith, even Sarah herself received power to conceive, and she bore a child when she was past age, since she counted him faithful who had promised. <sup>12</sup> Therefore as many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as innumerable as the sand which is by the sea shore, were fathered by one man, and him as good as dead. <sup>13</sup> These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen<sup>h</sup> them and embraced them from afar, and having confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth. <sup>14</sup> For those who say such things make it clear that they are seeking a country of their own. <sup>15</sup> If indeed they had been thinking of that country from which they went out, they would have had enough time to return. <sup>16</sup> But now they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed of them, to be called their God, for he has prepared a city for them.

<sup>17</sup> By faith, Abraham, being tested, offered up Isaac. Yes, he who had gladly received the promises was offering up his one and only son, <sup>18</sup> to whom it was said, “your offspring<sup>i</sup> will be accounted as from Isaac”; <sup>19</sup> concluding that God is able to raise up even from the dead. Figuratively speaking, he also did receive him back from the dead. <sup>20</sup> By faith, Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau, even concerning things to come. <sup>21</sup> By faith, Jacob, when he was dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph, and worshiped, leaning on the top of his staff. <sup>22</sup> By faith, Joseph, when his end was near, made mention of the departure of the children of Israel; and gave instructions concerning his bones. <sup>23</sup> By faith, Moses, when he was born, was hidden for three months by his parents, because they saw that he was a beautiful child, and they were not afraid of the king’s commandment. <sup>24</sup> By faith, Moses, when he had grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh’s daughter, <sup>25</sup> choosing rather to share ill treatment with God’s people, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a time; <sup>26</sup> accounting the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures of Egypt; for he looked to the reward. <sup>27</sup> By faith, he left Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king; for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible. <sup>28</sup> By faith, he kept the Passover, and the sprinkling of the blood, that the destroyer of the firstborn should not touch them. <sup>29</sup> By faith, they passed through the Red Sea as on dry land. When the Egyptians tried to do so, they were swallowed up. <sup>30</sup> By faith, the walls of Jericho fell down, after they had been encircled for seven days. <sup>31</sup> By faith, Rahab the prostitute, didn’t perish with those who were disobedient, having received the spies in peace. <sup>32</sup> What more shall I say? For the time would fail me if I told of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, David, Samuel, and the prophets; <sup>33</sup> who, through faith subdued kingdoms, worked out righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions,<sup>2</sup> <sup>34</sup> quenched the power of fire,<sup>3</sup> escaped the edge of the sword,<sup>4</sup> from weakness were made strong, grew mighty in war, and caused foreign armies to flee. <sup>35</sup> Women received their dead by resurrection.<sup>5</sup> Others were tortured, not accepting their deliverance, that they might obtain a better resurrection. <sup>36</sup> Others were tried by mocking and scourging, yes, moreover by bonds and imprisonment. <sup>37</sup> They were stoned.<sup>6</sup> They were sawn apart. They were tempted. They were slain with the sword.<sup>7</sup> They went around in sheep skins and in goat skins; being destitute, afflicted, ill-treated <sup>38</sup> (of whom the world was not worthy), wandering in deserts, mountains, caves, and the holes of the earth. <sup>39</sup> These all, having had testimony given to them through their faith, didn’t receive the promise, <sup>40</sup> God having provided some better thing concerning us, so that apart from us they should not be made perfect.

12

<sup>1</sup> Therefore let us also, seeing we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, lay aside every weight and the sin which so easily entangles us, and let us

run with patience the race that is set before us, <sup>2</sup> looking to Jesus, the author and perfecter of faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising its shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. <sup>3</sup> For consider him who has endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, that you don't grow weary, fainting in your souls. <sup>4</sup> You have not yet resisted to blood, striving against sin; <sup>5</sup> and you have forgotten the exhortation which reasons with you as with children,

“My son, don't take lightly the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when you are reproved by
him;

<sup>6</sup> For whom the Lord loves, he chastens, and scourges every son whom he receives.”<sup>1</sup>

<sup>7</sup> It is for discipline that you endure. God deals with you as with children, for what son is there whom his father doesn't discipline? <sup>8</sup> But if you are without discipline, of which all have been made partakers, then are you illegitimate, and not children. <sup>9</sup> Furthermore, we had the fathers of our flesh to chasten us, and we paid them respect. Shall we not much rather be in subjection to the Father of spirits, and live? <sup>10</sup> For they indeed, for a few days, punished us as seemed good to them; but he for our profit, that we may be partakers of his holiness. <sup>11</sup> All chastening seems for the present to be not joyous but grievous; yet afterward it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been exercised thereby. <sup>12</sup> Therefore lift up the hands that hang down and the feeble knees,

<sup>2</sup> <sup>13</sup> and make straight paths for your feet,<sup>3</sup> so that which is lame may not be dislocated, but rather be healed. <sup>14</sup> Follow after peace with all men, and the sanctification without which no man will see the Lord, <sup>15</sup> looking carefully lest there be any man who falls short of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and many be defiled by it; <sup>16</sup> lest there be any sexually immoral person, or profane person, like Esau, who sold his birthright for one meal. <sup>17</sup> For you know that even when he afterward desired to inherit the blessing, he was rejected, for he found no place for a change of mind though he sought it diligently with tears. <sup>18</sup> For you have not come to a mountain that might be touched, and that burned with fire, and to blackness, darkness, storm, <sup>19</sup> the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; which those who heard it begged that not one more word should be spoken to them, <sup>20</sup> for they could not stand that which was commanded, “If even an animal touches the mountain, it shall be stoned”<sup>j</sup>; <sup>4</sup> <sup>21</sup> and so fearful was the appearance that Moses said, “I am terrified and trembling.”<sup>5</sup>

<sup>22</sup> But you have come to Mount Zion, and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to innumerable multitudes of angels, <sup>23</sup> to the festal gathering and assembly of the firstborn who are enrolled in heaven, to God the Judge of all, to the spirits of just men made perfect, <sup>24</sup> to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant,<sup>6</sup> and to the blood of sprinkling that speaks better than that of Abel.

<sup>25</sup> See that you don't refuse him who speaks. For if they didn't escape when they refused him who warned on the earth, how much more will we not escape who turn away from him who warns from heaven, <sup>26</sup> whose voice shook the earth then, but now he has promised, saying, "Yet once more I will shake not only the earth, but also the heavens."<sup>7</sup> <sup>27</sup> This phrase, "Yet once more", signifies the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that have been made, that those things which are not shaken may remain. <sup>28</sup> Therefore, receiving a Kingdom that can't be shaken, let us have grace, through which we serve God acceptably, with reverence and awe, <sup>29</sup> for our God is a consuming fire.<sup>8</sup>

13

<sup>5</sup> Be free from the love of money, content with such things as you have, for he has said, "I will in no way leave you, neither will I in any way forsake you."<sup>1</sup> <sup>6</sup> So that with good courage we say,

"The Lord is my helper. I will not fear.

What can man do to me?"<sup>2</sup>

<sup>7</sup> Remember your leaders, men who spoke to you the word of God, and considering the results of their conduct, imitate their faith. <sup>8</sup> Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever. <sup>9</sup> Don't be carried away by various and strange teachings, for it is good that the heart be established by grace, not by food, through which those who were so occupied were not benefited.

<sup>10</sup> We have an altar from which those who serve the holy tabernacle have no right to eat. <sup>11</sup> For the bodies of those animals, whose blood is brought into the holy place by the high priest as an offering for sin, are burned outside of the camp.<sup>3</sup> <sup>12</sup> Therefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people through his own blood, suffered outside of the gate. <sup>13</sup> Let us therefore go out to him outside of the camp, bearing his reproach. <sup>14</sup> For we don't have here an enduring city, but we seek that which is to come. <sup>15</sup> Through him, then, let us offer up a sacrifice of praise to God <sup>4</sup> continually, that is, the fruit of lips which proclaim allegiance to his name. <sup>16</sup> But don't forget to be doing good and sharing, for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.

<sup>17</sup> Obey your leaders and submit to them, for they watch on behalf of your souls, as those who will give account, that they may do this with joy, and not with groaning, for that would be unprofitable for you.

<sup>18</sup> Pray for us, for we are persuaded that we have a good conscience, desiring to live honorably in all things. <sup>19</sup> I strongly urge you to do this, that I may be restored to you sooner.

<sup>20</sup> Now may the God of peace, who brought again from the dead the great shepherd of the sheep with the blood of an eternal covenant, our Lord Jesus, <sup>21</sup> make you complete in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

<sup>22</sup> But I exhort you, brothers, endure the word of exhortation; for I have written to you in few words. <sup>23</sup> Know that our brother Timothy has been freed, with whom, if he comes shortly, I will see you. <sup>24</sup> Greet all of your leaders and all the saints. The Italians greet you. <sup>25</sup> Grace be with you all. Amen.

The Letter from James

1

<sup>9</sup> But let the brother in humble circumstances glory in his high position; <sup>10</sup> and the rich, in that he is made humble, because like the flower in the grass, he will pass away. <sup>11</sup> For the sun arises with the scorching wind, and withers the grass, and the flower in it falls, and the beauty of its appearance perishes. So also will the rich man fade away in his pursuits.

<sup>12</sup> Blessed is the man who endures temptation, for when he has been approved, he will receive the crown of life, which the Lord promised to those who love him.

<sup>13</sup> Let no man say when he is tempted, "I am tempted by God," for God can't be tempted by evil, and he himself tempts no one. <sup>14</sup> But each one is tempted when he is drawn away by his own lust, and enticed. <sup>15</sup> Then the lust, when it has conceived, bears sin; and the sin, when it is full grown, produces death. <sup>16</sup> Don't be deceived, my beloved brothers. <sup>17</sup> Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom can be no variation, nor turning shadow. <sup>18</sup> Of his own will he gave birth to us by the word of truth, that we should be a kind of first fruits of his creatures.

<sup>19</sup> So, then, my beloved brothers, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, and slow to anger; <sup>20</sup> for the anger of man doesn't produce the righteousness of God. <sup>21</sup> Therefore, putting away all filthiness and overflowing of wickedness, receive with humility the implanted word, which is able to save your souls.<sup>b</sup> <sup>22</sup> But be doers of the word, and not only hearers, deluding your own selves. <sup>23</sup> For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man looking at his natural face in a mirror; <sup>24</sup> for he sees himself, and goes away, and immediately forgets what kind of man he was. <sup>25</sup> But he who looks into the perfect law of freedom, and continues, not being a hearer who forgets, but a doer of the work, this man will be blessed in what he does.

<sup>26</sup> If anyone among you thinks himself to be religious while he doesn't bridle his tongue, but deceives his heart, this man's religion is worthless. <sup>27</sup> Pure religion and undefiled before our God and Father is this: to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep oneself unstained by the world.

2

<sup>1</sup> My brothers, don't hold the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ of glory with partiality. <sup>2</sup> For if a man with a gold ring, in fine clothing, comes into your synagogue,<sup>c</sup> and a poor man in filthy clothing also comes in; <sup>3</sup> and you pay special attention to him who wears the fine clothing, and say, "Sit here in a good place"; and you tell the poor man, "Stand there," or "Sit by my footstool"; <sup>4</sup> haven't you shown partiality among yourselves, and become judges with evil thoughts? <sup>5</sup> Listen, my beloved brothers. Didn't God choose those who are poor in this world to be rich in faith, and heirs of the Kingdom which he promised to those who love him? <sup>6</sup> But you have dishonored the poor man. Don't the rich oppress you, and personally drag you before the courts? <sup>7</sup> Don't they blaspheme the honorable name by which you are called? <sup>8</sup> However, if you fulfill the royal law, according to the Scripture, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself,"<sup>1</sup> you do well. <sup>9</sup> But if you show partiality, you commit sin, being convicted by the law as transgressors. <sup>10</sup> For whoever keeps the whole law, and yet stumbles in one point, he has become guilty of all. <sup>11</sup> For he who said, "Do not commit adultery,"<sup>2</sup> also said, "Do not commit murder."<sup>3</sup> Now if you do not commit adultery, but murder, you have become a transgressor of the law. <sup>12</sup> So speak, and so do, as men who are to be judged by a law of freedom. <sup>13</sup> For judgment is without mercy to him who has shown no mercy. Mercy triumphs over judgment.

<sup>14</sup> What good is it, my brothers, if a man says he has faith, but has no works? Can faith save him? <sup>15</sup> And if a brother or sister is naked and in lack of daily food, <sup>16</sup> and one of you tells them, "Go in peace, be warmed and filled"; and yet you didn't give them the things the body needs, what good is it? <sup>17</sup> Even so faith, if it has no works, is dead in itself. <sup>18</sup> Yes, a man will say, "You have faith, and I have works." Show me your faith without works, and I by my works will show you my faith.

<sup>19</sup> You believe that God is one. You do well. The demons also believe, and shudder. <sup>20</sup> But do you want to know, vain man, that faith apart from works is dead? <sup>21</sup> Wasn't Abraham our father justified by works, in that he offered up Isaac his son on the altar? <sup>22</sup> You see that faith worked with his works, and by works faith was perfected; <sup>23</sup> and the Scripture was fulfilled which says, "Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him as righteousness";<sup>4</sup> and he was called the friend of God. <sup>24</sup> You see then that by works, a man is justified, and not only by faith. <sup>25</sup> In the same way, wasn't Rahab the prostitute also justified by works, in that she received the messengers, and sent them out another way? <sup>26</sup> For as the body apart from the spirit is dead, even so faith apart from works is dead.

3

<sup>1</sup> Let not many of you be teachers, my brothers, knowing that we will receive heavier judgment. <sup>2</sup> For in many things we all stumble. If anyone doesn't stumble in word, the same is a perfect man, able to bridle the whole body also. <sup>3</sup> Indeed, we put bits into the horses' mouths so that they may obey us, and we guide their whole body. <sup>4</sup> Behold,<sup>d</sup> the ships also, though they are so big and are driven by fierce winds, are yet guided by a very small rudder, wherever the pilot desires. <sup>5</sup> So the tongue is also a little member, and boasts great things. See how a small fire can spread to a large forest! <sup>6</sup> And the tongue is a fire. The world of iniquity among our members is the tongue, which defiles the whole body, and sets on fire the course of nature, and is set on fire by Gehenna.<sup>e</sup> <sup>7</sup> For every kind of animal, bird, creeping thing, and sea creature, is tamed, and has been tamed by mankind; <sup>8</sup> but nobody can tame the tongue. It is a restless evil, full of deadly poison. <sup>9</sup> With it we bless our God and Father, and with it we curse men, who are made in the image of God. <sup>10</sup> Out of the same mouth comes blessing and cursing. My brothers, these things ought not to be so. <sup>11</sup> Does a spring send out from the same opening fresh and bitter water? <sup>12</sup> Can a fig tree, my brothers, yield olives, or a vine figs? Thus no spring yields both salt water and fresh water.

<sup>13</sup> Who is wise and understanding among you? Let him show by his good conduct that his deeds are done in gentleness of wisdom. <sup>14</sup> But if you have bitter jealousy and selfish ambition in your heart, don't boast and don't lie against the truth. <sup>15</sup> This wisdom is not that which comes down from above, but is earthly, sensual, and demonic. <sup>16</sup> For where jealousy and selfish ambition are, there is confusion and every evil deed. <sup>17</sup> But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceful, gentle, reasonable, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy. <sup>18</sup> Now the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace.

4

<sup>1</sup> Where do wars and fightings among you come from? Don't they come from your pleasures that war in your members? <sup>2</sup> You lust, and don't have. You murder and covet, and can't obtain. You fight and make war. You don't have, because you don't ask. <sup>3</sup> You ask, and don't receive, because you ask with wrong motives, so that you may spend it for your pleasures. <sup>4</sup> You adulterers and adulteresses, don't you know that friendship with the world is hostility toward God? Whoever therefore wants to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God. <sup>5</sup> Or do you think that the Scripture says in vain, "The Spirit who lives in us yearns jealously"? <sup>6</sup> But he gives more grace. Therefore it says, "God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble."<sup>1</sup> <sup>7</sup> Be subject therefore to God. But resist the devil, and he will flee from you. <sup>8</sup> Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners; and purify your hearts, you double-minded. <sup>9</sup> Lament, mourn, and weep. Let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to gloom. <sup>10</sup> Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he will exalt you.

law and judges the law. But if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law, but a judge. <sup>12</sup> Only one is the lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy. But who are you to judge another?

<sup>13</sup> Come now, you who say, “Today or tomorrow let’s go into this city, and spend a year there, trade, and make a profit.” <sup>14</sup> Whereas you don’t know what your life will be like tomorrow. For what is your life? For you are a vapor, that appears for a little time, and then vanishes away. <sup>15</sup> For you ought to say, “If the Lord wills, we will both live, and do this or that.” <sup>16</sup> But now you glory in your boasting. All such boasting is evil. <sup>17</sup> To him therefore who knows to do good, and doesn’t do it, to him it is sin.

5

<sup>1</sup> Come now, you rich, weep and howl for your miseries that are coming on you. <sup>2</sup> Your riches are corrupted and your garments are moth-eaten. <sup>3</sup> Your gold and your silver are corroded, and their corrosion will be for a testimony against you, and will eat your flesh like fire. You have laid up your treasure in the last days. <sup>4</sup> Behold, the wages of the laborers who mowed your fields, which you have kept back by fraud, cry out, and the cries of those who reaped have entered into the ears of the Lord of Armies.<sup>f</sup> <sup>5</sup> You have lived delicately on the earth, and taken your pleasure. You have nourished your hearts as in a day of slaughter. <sup>6</sup> You have condemned, you have murdered the righteous one. He doesn’t resist you.

waits for the precious fruit of the earth, being patient over it, until it receives the early and late rain. <sup>8</sup> You also be patient. Establish your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is at hand.

<sup>9</sup> Don’t grumble, brothers, against one another, so that you won’t be judged. Behold, the judge stands at the door. <sup>10</sup> Take, brothers, for an example of suffering and of patience, the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord. <sup>11</sup> Behold, we call them blessed who endured. You have heard of the patience of Job, and have seen the Lord in the outcome, and how the Lord is full of compassion and mercy. <sup>12</sup> But above all things, my brothers, don’t swear— not by heaven, or by the earth, or by any other oath; but let your “yes” be “yes”, and your “no”, “no”; so that you don’t fall into hypocrisy.<sup>g</sup>

<sup>13</sup> Is any among you suffering? Let him pray. Is any cheerful? Let him sing praises.

<sup>14</sup> Is any among you sick? Let him call for the elders of the assembly, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord, <sup>15</sup> and the prayer of faith will heal him who is sick, and the Lord will raise him up. If he has committed sins, he will be forgiven. <sup>16</sup> Confess your offenses to one another, and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The insistent prayer of a righteous person is powerfully effective. <sup>17</sup> Elijah was a man with a nature like ours, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain, and it didn’t rain on the earth for three years and six months. <sup>18</sup> He prayed again, and the sky gave rain, and the earth produced its fruit.

<sup>20</sup> let him know that he who turns a sinner from death and will cover a multitude of sins.
from the error of his way will save a soul

Peter's First Letter

1

<sup>1</sup> Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the chosen ones who are living as foreigners in the Dispersion in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, <sup>2</sup> according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, in sanctification of the Spirit, that you may obey Jesus Christ and be sprinkled with his blood: Grace to you and peace be multiplied. <sup>3</sup> Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to his great mercy became our father again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, <sup>4</sup> to an incorruptible and undefiled inheritance that doesn't fade away, reserved in Heaven for you, <sup>5</sup> who by the power of God are guarded through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. <sup>6</sup> Wherein you greatly rejoice, though now for a little while, if need be, you have been put to grief in various trials, <sup>7</sup> that the proof of your faith, which is more precious than gold that perishes even though it is tested by fire, may be found to result in praise, glory, and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ— <sup>8</sup> whom not having known you love; in whom, though now you don't see him, yet believing, you rejoice greatly with joy unspeakable and full of glory— <sup>9</sup> receiving the result of your faith, the salvation of your souls. <sup>10</sup> Concerning this salvation, the prophets sought and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that would come to you, <sup>11</sup> searching for who or what kind of time the Spirit of Christ, which was in them, pointed to, when he predicted the sufferings of Christ, and the glories that would follow them. <sup>12</sup> To them it was revealed, that not to themselves, but to you, they ministered these things, which now have been announced to you through those who preached the Good News to you by the Holy Spirit sent out from heaven; which things angels desire to look into.

<sup>13</sup> Therefore prepare your minds for action,<sup>a</sup> be sober, and set your hope fully on the grace that will be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ— <sup>14</sup> as children of obedience, not conforming yourselves according to your former lusts as in your ignorance, <sup>15</sup> but just as he who called you is holy, you yourselves also be holy in all of your behavior; <sup>16</sup> because it is written, "You shall be holy; for I am holy."<sup>17</sup> <sup>17</sup> If you call on him as Father, who without respect of persons judges according to each man's work, pass the time of your living as foreigners here in reverent fear: <sup>18</sup> knowing that you were redeemed, not with corruptible things, with silver or gold, from the useless way of life handed down from your fathers, <sup>19</sup> but with precious blood, as of a lamb without blemish or spot, the blood of Christ; <sup>20</sup> who was foreknown indeed before the foundation of the world, but was revealed in this last age for your sake, <sup>21</sup> who through him are believers in God, who raised him from the dead, and gave him glory; so that your faith and hope might be in God.

<sup>22</sup> Seeing you have purified your souls in your obedience to the truth through the

<sup>a</sup> literally, "gird up the waist of your mind" or "put on the belt of the waist of your mind" <sup>1</sup> Leviticus 11:44-45

Spirit in sincere brotherly affection, love one another from the heart fervently: <sup>23</sup> having been born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, through the word of God, which lives and remains forever. <sup>24</sup> For,

“All flesh is like grass, and all of man’s glory like the flower in the grass.
The grass withers, and its flower falls;
<sup>25</sup> but the Lord’s word endures forever.”<sup>2</sup>

This is the word of Good News which was preached to you.

2

<sup>1</sup> Putting away therefore all wickedness, all deceit, hypocrisies, envies, and all evil speaking, <sup>2</sup> as newborn babies, long for the pure milk of the Word, that with it you may grow, <sup>3</sup> if indeed you have tasted that the Lord is gracious: <sup>4</sup> coming to him, a living stone, rejected indeed by men, but chosen by God, precious. <sup>5</sup> You also, as living stones, are built up as a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. <sup>6</sup> Because it is contained in Scripture, “Behold,<sup>b</sup> I lay in Zion a chief cornerstone, chosen, and precious:

He who believes in him will not be disappointed.”<sup>1</sup>

<sup>7</sup> For you who believe therefore is the honor, but for those who are disobedient,

“The stone which the builders rejected, has become the chief cornerstone,”<sup>2</sup>

<sup>8</sup> and,

“a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offense.”<sup>3</sup>

For they stumble at the word, being disobedient, to which also they were appointed. <sup>9</sup> But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for God’s own possession, that you may proclaim the excellence of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light: <sup>10</sup> who in time past were no people, but now are God’s people, who had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy. <sup>11</sup> Beloved, I beg you as foreigners and pilgrims, to abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul; <sup>12</sup> having good behavior among the nations, so in that of which they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your good works, which they see, glorify God in the day of visitation. <sup>13</sup> Therefore subject yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord’s sake: whether to the king, as supreme; <sup>14</sup> or to governors, as sent by him for vengeance on evildoers and for praise to those who do well. <sup>15</sup> For this is the will of God, that by well-doing you should put to silence the ignorance of foolish men: <sup>16</sup> as free, and not using your freedom for a cloak of wickedness, but as bondservants of God.

<sup>17</sup> Honor all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the king. <sup>18</sup> Servants, be in subjection to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the wicked. <sup>19</sup> For it is commendable if someone endures pain, suffering unjustly, because of conscience toward God. <sup>20</sup> For what glory is it if, when you sin, you patiently endure beating? But if, when you do well, you patiently endure suffering, this is commendable with God. <sup>21</sup> For to this you were called, because Christ also suffered for us, leaving you<sup>c</sup> an example, that you should follow his steps, <sup>22</sup> who did not sin, “neither was deceit found in his mouth.”<sup>4</sup> <sup>23</sup> Who, when he was cursed, didn’t curse back. When he suffered, didn’t threaten, but committed himself to him who judges righteously; <sup>24</sup> who his own self bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we, having died to sins, might live to righteousness; by whose stripes you were healed. <sup>25</sup> For you were going astray like sheep; but now have returned to the Shepherd and Overseer<sup>d</sup> of your souls.

3

<sup>1</sup> In the same way, wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; so that, even if any don’t obey the Word, they may be won by the behavior of their wives without a word; <sup>2</sup> seeing your pure behavior in fear. <sup>3</sup> Let your beauty be not just the outward adorning of braiding the hair, and of wearing jewels of gold, or of putting on fine clothing; <sup>4</sup> but in the hidden person of the heart, in the incorruptible adornment of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God very precious. <sup>5</sup> For this is how the holy women before, who hoped in God also adorned themselves, being in subjection to their own husbands: <sup>6</sup> as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him lord, whose children you now are, if you do well, and are not put in fear by any terror.

<sup>7</sup> You husbands, in the same way, live with your wives according to knowledge, giving honor to the woman, as to the weaker vessel, as being also joint heirs of the grace of life; that your prayers may not be hindered.

<sup>8</sup> Finally, be all like-minded, compassionate, loving as brothers, tender hearted, courteous, <sup>9</sup> not rendering evil for evil, or insult for insult; but instead blessing; knowing that to this were you called, that you may inherit a blessing. <sup>10</sup> For,

“He who would love life,
and see good days,
let him keep his tongue from evil,
and his lips from speaking deceit.

Let him seek peace, and pursue it.

<sup>12</sup> For the eyes of the Lord are on the righteous, and his ears open to their prayer;
but the face of the Lord is against those who do evil.”<sup>1</sup>

<sup>13</sup> Now who is he who will harm you, if you become imitators of that which is good? <sup>14</sup> But even if you should suffer for righteousness’ sake, you are blessed. “Don’t fear what they fear, neither be troubled.”<sup>2</sup> <sup>15</sup> But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts; and always be ready to give an answer to everyone who asks you a reason concerning the hope that is in you, with humility and fear: <sup>16</sup> having a good conscience; that, while you are spoken against as evildoers, they may be disappointed who curse your good way of life in Christ. <sup>17</sup> For it is better, if it is God’s will, that you suffer for doing well than for doing evil. <sup>18</sup> Because Christ also suffered for sins once, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring you to

God; being put to death in the flesh, but made alive in the spirit;<sup>19</sup> in which he also went and preached to the spirits in prison,<sup>20</sup> who before were disobedient, when God waited patiently in the days of Noah, while the ship was being built. In it, few, that is, eight souls, were saved through water.<sup>21</sup> This is a symbol of baptism, which now saves you—not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ,<sup>22</sup> who is at the right hand of God, having gone into heaven, angels and authorities and powers being made subject to him.

4

<sup>1</sup> Therefore, since Christ suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves also with the same mind; for he who has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin;<sup>2</sup> that you no longer should live the rest of your time in the flesh for the lusts of men, but for the will of God.<sup>3</sup> For we have spent enough of our past time doing the desire of the Gentiles, and having walked in lewdness, lusts, drunken binges, orgies, carousings, and abominable idolatries.<sup>4</sup> They think it is strange that you don't run with them into the same excess of riot, blaspheming:<sup>5</sup> who will give account to him who is ready to judge the living and the dead.<sup>6</sup> For to this end the Good News was preached even to the dead, that they might be judged indeed as men in the flesh, but live as to God in the spirit.<sup>7</sup> But the end of all things is near. Therefore be of sound mind, self-controlled, and sober in prayer.<sup>8</sup> And above all things be earnest in your love among yourselves, for love covers a multitude of sins.<sup>9</sup> Be hospitable to one another without grumbling.<sup>10</sup> As each has received a gift, employ it in serving one another, as good managers of the grace of God in its various forms.<sup>11</sup> If anyone speaks, let it be as it were the very words of God. If anyone serves, let it be as of the strength which God supplies, that in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom belong the glory and the dominion forever and ever. Amen.

<sup>12</sup> Beloved, don't be astonished at the fiery trial which has come upon you, to test you, as though a strange thing happened to you.<sup>13</sup> But because you are partakers of Christ's sufferings, rejoice; that at the revelation of his glory you also may rejoice with exceeding joy.<sup>14</sup> If you are insulted for the name of Christ, you are blessed; because the Spirit of glory and of God rests on you. On their part he is blasphemed, but on your part he is glorified.<sup>15</sup> For let none of you suffer as a murderer, or a thief, or an evil doer, or a meddler in other men's matters.<sup>16</sup> But if one of you suffers for being a Christian, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify God in this matter.<sup>17</sup> For the time has come for judgment to begin with the household of God. If it begins first with us, what will happen to those who don't obey the Good News of God?<sup>18</sup> "If it is hard for the righteous to be saved, what will happen to the ungodly and the sinner?"<sup>19</sup> Therefore let them also who suffer according to the will of God in doing good entrust their souls to him, as to a faithful Creator.

<sup>1</sup> Therefore I exhort the elders among you, as a fellow elder, and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and who will also share in the glory that will be revealed. <sup>2</sup> Shepherd the flock of God which is among you, exercising the oversight, not under compulsion, but voluntarily, not for dishonest gain, but willingly; <sup>3</sup> neither as lording it over those entrusted to you, but making yourselves examples to the flock. <sup>4</sup> When the chief Shepherd is revealed, you will receive the crown of glory that doesn't fade away.

<sup>5</sup> Likewise, you younger ones, be subject to the elder. Yes, all of you clothe yourselves with humility, to subject yourselves to one another; for "God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble."<sup>1</sup> <sup>6</sup> Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time; <sup>7</sup> casting all your worries on him, because he cares for you.

<sup>8</sup> Be sober and self-controlled. Be watchful. Your adversary, the devil, walks around like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour. <sup>9</sup> Withstand him steadfast in your faith, knowing that your brothers who are in the world are undergoing the same sufferings. <sup>10</sup> But may the God of all grace, who called you to his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after you have suffered a little while, perfect, establish, strengthen, and settle you. <sup>11</sup> To him be the glory and the power forever and ever. Amen.

<sup>12</sup> Through Silvanus, our faithful brother, as I consider him, I have written to you briefly, exhorting, and testifying that this is the true grace of God in which you stand. <sup>13</sup> She who is in Babylon, chosen together with you, greets you; and so does Mark, my son. <sup>14</sup> Greet one another with a kiss of love. Peace be to you all who are in Christ Jesus. Amen.

Peter's Second Letter

1

<sup>1</sup> Simon Peter, a servant and apostle of Jesus Christ, to those who have obtained a like precious faith with us in the righteousness of our God and Savior, Jesus Christ: <sup>2</sup> Grace to you and peace be multiplied in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord, <sup>3</sup> seeing that his divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us by his own glory and virtue; <sup>4</sup> by which he has granted to us his precious and exceedingly great promises; that through these you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world by lust. <sup>5</sup> Yes, and for this very cause adding on your part all diligence, in your faith supply moral excellence; and in moral excellence, knowledge; <sup>6</sup> and in knowledge, self-control; and in self-control perseverance; and in patience godliness; <sup>7</sup> and in godliness brotherly affection; and in brotherly affection, love. <sup>8</sup> For if these things are yours and abound, they make you to be not idle nor unfruitful to the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>9</sup> For he who lacks these things is blind, seeing only what is near, having forgotten the cleansing from his old sins. <sup>10</sup> Therefore, brothers,<sup>a</sup> be more diligent to make your calling and election sure. For if you do these things, you will never stumble. <sup>11</sup> For thus you will be richly supplied with the entrance into the eternal Kingdom of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

<sup>12</sup> Therefore I will not be negligent to remind you of these things, though you know them, and are established in the present truth. <sup>13</sup> I think it right, as long as I am in this tent, to stir you up by reminding you; <sup>14</sup> knowing that the putting off of my tent comes swiftly, even as our Lord Jesus Christ made clear to me. <sup>15</sup> Yes, I will make every effort that you may always be able to remember these things even after my departure. <sup>16</sup> For we did not follow cunningly devised fables, when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were eyewitnesses of his majesty. <sup>17</sup> For he received from God the Father honor and glory, when the voice came to him from the Majestic Glory, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased."<sup>1</sup> <sup>18</sup> We heard this voice come out of heaven when we were with him on the holy mountain.

<sup>19</sup> We have the more sure word of prophecy; and you do well that you heed it, as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns, and the morning star arises in your hearts: <sup>20</sup> knowing this first, that no prophecy of Scripture is of private interpretation. <sup>21</sup> For no prophecy ever came by the will of man: but holy men of God spoke, being moved by the Holy Spirit.

2

<sup>1</sup> But false prophets also arose among the people, as false teachers will also be among you, who will secretly bring in destructive heresies, denying even the Master who bought them, bringing on themselves swift destruction. <sup>2</sup> Many will follow their immoral<sup>b</sup> ways, and as a result, the way of the truth will be maligned. <sup>3</sup> In covetousness they will exploit you with deceptive words: whose sentence now from of old doesn't linger, and their destruction will not slumber. <sup>4</sup> For if God didn't spare angels when they sinned, but cast them down to Tartarus,<sup>c</sup> and committed them to pits of darkness, to be reserved for judgment; <sup>5</sup> and didn't spare the ancient world, but preserved Noah with seven others, a preacher of righteousness, when he brought a flood on the world of the ungodly; <sup>6</sup> and turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes, condemned them to destruction, having made them an example to those who would live ungodly; <sup>7</sup> and delivered righteous Lot, who was very distressed by the lustful life of the wicked <sup>8</sup> (for that righteous man dwelling among them, was tormented in his righteous soul from day to day with seeing and hearing lawless deeds): <sup>9</sup> the Lord knows how to deliver the godly out of temptation and to keep the unrighteous under punishment for the day of judgment; <sup>10</sup> but chiefly those who walk after the flesh in the lust of defilement, and despise authority. Daring, self-willed, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignitaries; <sup>11</sup> whereas angels, though greater in might and power, don't bring a railing judgment against them before the Lord. <sup>12</sup> But these, as unreasoning creatures, born natural animals to be taken and destroyed, speaking evil in matters about which they are ignorant, will in their destroying surely be destroyed, <sup>13</sup> receiving the wages of unrighteousness; people who count it pleasure to revel in the daytime, spots and defects, reveling in their deceit while they feast with you; <sup>14</sup> having eyes full of adultery, and who can't cease from sin; enticing unsettled souls; having a heart trained in greed; children of cursing; <sup>15</sup> forsaking the right way, they went astray, having followed the way of Balaam the son of Beor, who loved the wages of wrongdoing; <sup>16</sup> but he was rebuked for his own disobedience. A mute donkey spoke with a man's voice and stopped the madness of the prophet. <sup>17</sup> These are wells without water, clouds driven by a storm; for whom the blackness of darkness has been reserved forever. <sup>18</sup> For, uttering great swelling words of emptiness, they entice in the lusts of the flesh, by licentiousness, those who are indeed escaping from those who live in error; <sup>19</sup> promising them liberty, while they themselves are bondservants of corruption; for a man is brought into bondage by whoever overcomes him.

<sup>20</sup> For if, after they have escaped the defilement of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in it and overcome, the last state has become worse for them than the first. <sup>21</sup> For it would be better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after knowing it, to turn back from the holy commandment delivered to them. <sup>22</sup> But it has happened to them according to the true proverb, "The dog turns to his own vomit again,"<sup>1</sup> and "the sow that has washed to wallowing in the mire."

3

<sup>1</sup> This is now, beloved, the second letter that I have written to you; and in both of them I stir up your sincere mind by reminding you; <sup>2</sup> that you should remember the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and the commandment of us, the apostles of the Lord and Savior: <sup>3</sup> knowing this first, that in the last days mockers will come, walking after their own lusts, <sup>4</sup> and saying, "Where is the promise of his coming? For, from the day that the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation." <sup>5</sup> For this they willfully forget, that there were heavens from of old, and an earth formed out of water and amid water, by the word of God; <sup>6</sup> by which means the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished. <sup>7</sup> But the heavens that now are, and the earth, by the same word have been stored up for fire, being reserved against the day of judgment and destruction of ungodly men. <sup>8</sup> But don't forget this one thing, beloved, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. <sup>9</sup> The Lord is not slow concerning his promise, as some count slowness; but is patient with us, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. <sup>10</sup> But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in which the heavens will pass away with a great noise, and the elements will be dissolved with fervent heat, and the earth and the works that are in it will be burned up. <sup>11</sup> Therefore since all these things will be destroyed like this, what kind of people ought you to be in holy living and godliness, <sup>12</sup> looking for and earnestly desiring the coming of the day of God, which will cause the burning heavens to be dissolved, and the elements will melt with fervent heat? <sup>13</sup> But, according to his promise, we look for new heavens and a new earth, in which righteousness dwells.

<sup>14</sup> Therefore, beloved, seeing that you look for these things, be diligent to be found in peace, without defect and blameless in his sight. <sup>15</sup> Regard the patience of our Lord as salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also, according to the wisdom given to him, wrote to you; <sup>16</sup> as also in all of his letters, speaking in them of these things. In those, there are some things that are hard to understand, which the ignorant and unsettled twist, as they also do to the other Scriptures, to their own destruction. <sup>17</sup> You therefore, beloved, knowing these things beforehand, beware, lest being carried away with the error of the wicked, you fall from your own steadfastness. <sup>18</sup> But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To him be the glory both now and forever. Amen.

John's First Letter

1

<sup>1</sup> That which was from the beginning, that which we have heard, that which we have seen with our eyes, that which we saw, and our hands touched, concerning the Word of life <sup>2</sup> (and the life was revealed, and we have seen, and testify, and declare to you the life, the eternal life, which was with the Father, and was revealed to us); <sup>3</sup> that which we have seen and heard we declare to you, that you also may have fellowship with us. Yes, and our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son, Jesus Christ. <sup>4</sup> And we write these things to you, that our joy may be fulfilled.

<sup>5</sup> This is the message which we have heard from him and announce to you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. <sup>6</sup> If we say that we have fellowship with him and walk in the darkness, we lie, and don't tell the truth. <sup>7</sup> But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus Christ, his Son, cleanses us from all sin. <sup>8</sup> If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. <sup>9</sup> If we confess our sins, he is faithful and righteous to forgive us the sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. <sup>10</sup> If we say that we haven't sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

2

<sup>1</sup> My little children, I write these things to you so that you may not sin. If anyone sins, we have a Counselor<sup>a</sup> with the Father, Jesus Christ, the righteous. <sup>2</sup> And he is the atoning sacrifice<sup>b</sup> for our sins, and not for ours only, but also for the whole world. <sup>3</sup> This is how we know that we know him: if we keep his commandments. <sup>4</sup> One who says, "I know him," and doesn't keep his commandments, is a liar, and the truth isn't in him. <sup>5</sup> But whoever keeps his word, God's love has most certainly been perfected in him. This is how we know that we are in him: <sup>6</sup> he who says he remains in him ought himself also to walk just like he walked.

<sup>7</sup> Brothers, I write no new commandment to you, but an old commandment which you had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which you heard from the beginning. <sup>8</sup> Again, I write a new commandment to you, which is true in him and in you; because the darkness is passing away, and the true light already shines. <sup>9</sup> He who says he is in the light and hates his brother, is in the darkness even until now. <sup>10</sup> He who loves his brother remains in the light, and there is no occasion for stumbling in him. <sup>11</sup> But he who hates his brother is in the darkness, and walks in the darkness, and doesn't know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

<sup>12</sup> I write to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake.

<sup>13</sup> I write to you, fathers, because you know him who is from the beginning.

<sup>a</sup> Greek παρακλητον: Counselor, Helper, Intercessor, Advocate, and Comforter. <sup>b</sup> "atoning sacrifice" is from the Greek "ιλασμος", an appeasing, propitiating, or the means of appeasement or propitiation—the sacrifice that turns away God's wrath because of our sin.

I write to you, young men, because you have overcome the evil one.

I write to you, little children, because you know the Father.

<sup>14</sup> I have written to you, fathers, because you know him who is from the beginning.

I have written to you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of God remains in you, and you have overcome the evil one.

<sup>15</sup> Don't love the world or the things that are in the world. If anyone loves the world, the Father's love isn't in him. <sup>16</sup> For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, isn't the Father's, but is the world's. <sup>17</sup> The world is passing away with its lusts, but he who does God's will remains forever.

<sup>18</sup> Little children, these are the end times, and as you heard that the Antichrist is coming, even now many antichrists have arisen. By this we know that it is the final hour. <sup>19</sup> They went out from us, but they didn't belong to us; for if they had belonged to us, they would have continued with us. But they left, that they might be revealed that none of them belong to us. <sup>20</sup> You have an anointing from the Holy One, and you all have knowledge. <sup>c</sup> <sup>21</sup> I have not written to you because you don't know the truth, but because you know it, and because no lie is of the truth. <sup>22</sup> Who is the liar but he who denies that Jesus is the Christ? This is the Antichrist, he who denies the Father and the Son. <sup>23</sup> Whoever denies the Son, the same doesn't have the Father. He who confesses the Son has the Father also.

<sup>24</sup> Therefore, as for you, let that remain in you which you heard from the beginning. If that which you heard from the beginning remains in you, you also will remain in the Son, and in the Father. <sup>25</sup> This is the promise which he promised us, the eternal life. <sup>26</sup> These things I have written to you concerning those who would lead you astray. <sup>27</sup> As for you, the anointing which you received from him remains in you, and you don't need for anyone to teach you. But as his anointing teaches you concerning all things, and is true, and is no lie, and even as it taught you, you will remain in him. <sup>28</sup> Now, little children, remain in him, that when he appears, we may have boldness, and not be ashamed before him at his coming. <sup>29</sup> If you know that he is righteous, you know that everyone who practices righteousness has been born of him.

3

<sup>1</sup> See how great a love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God! For this cause the world doesn't know us, because it didn't know him. <sup>2</sup> Beloved, now we are children of God, and it is not yet revealed what we will be. But we know that, when he is revealed, we will be like him; for we will see him just as he is. <sup>3</sup> Everyone who has this hope set on him purifies himself, even as he is pure. <sup>4</sup> Everyone who sins also commits lawlessness. Sin is lawlessness. <sup>5</sup> You know that he was revealed to take away our sins, and in him is no sin. <sup>6</sup> Whoever remains in him doesn't sin. Whoever sins hasn't seen him and doesn't know him.

<sup>7</sup> Little children, let no one lead you astray. He who does righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous. <sup>8</sup> He who sins is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. To this end the Son of God was revealed: that he might destroy the works of the devil. <sup>9</sup> Whoever is born of God doesn't commit sin, because his seed remains in him; and he can't sin, because he is born of God. <sup>10</sup> In this the children of God are revealed, and the children of the devil. Whoever doesn't do righteousness is not of God, neither is he who doesn't love his brother. <sup>11</sup> For this is the message which you heard from the beginning, that we should love one another; <sup>12</sup> unlike Cain, who was of the evil one, and killed his brother. Why did he kill him? Because his deeds were evil, and his brother's righteous. <sup>13</sup> Don't be surprised, my brothers, if the world hates you. <sup>14</sup> We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brothers. He who doesn't love his brother remains in death. <sup>15</sup> Whoever hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life remaining in him.

<sup>16</sup> By this we know love, because he laid down his life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. <sup>17</sup> But whoever has the world's goods, and sees his brother in need, and closes his heart of compassion against him, how does God's love remain in him? <sup>18</sup> My little children, let's not love in word only, or with the tongue only, but in deed and truth. <sup>19</sup> And by this we know that we are of the truth, and persuade our hearts before him, <sup>20</sup> because if our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and knows all things. <sup>21</sup> Beloved, if our hearts don't condemn us, we have boldness toward God; <sup>22</sup> and whatever we ask, we receive from him, because we keep his commandments and do the things that are pleasing in his sight. <sup>23</sup> This is his commandment, that we should believe in the name of his Son, Jesus Christ, and love one another, even as he commanded. <sup>24</sup> He who keeps his commandments remains in him, and he in him. By this we know that he remains in us, by the Spirit which he gave us.

4

<sup>1</sup> Beloved, don't believe every spirit, but test the spirits, whether they are of God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world. <sup>2</sup> By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit who confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God, <sup>3</sup> and every spirit who doesn't confess that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is not of God, and this is the spirit of the Antichrist, of whom you have heard that it comes. Now it is in the world already. <sup>4</sup> You are of God, little children, and have overcome them; because greater is he who is in you than he who is in the world. <sup>5</sup> They are of the world. Therefore they speak of the world, and the world hears them. <sup>6</sup> We are of God. He who knows God listens to us. He who is not of God doesn't listen to us. By this we know the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

<sup>7</sup> Beloved, let us love one another, for love is of God; and everyone who loves has been born of God, and knows God. <sup>8</sup> He who doesn't love doesn't know God, for God is love. <sup>9</sup> By this God's love was revealed in us, that God has sent his one and only Son into the world that we might live through him. <sup>10</sup> In this is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son as the atoning sacrifice<sup>d</sup> for our sins. <sup>11</sup> Beloved, if God loved us in this way, we also ought to love one another. <sup>12</sup> No one has seen God at any time. If we love one another, God remains in us, and his love has been perfected in us.

<sup>13</sup> By this we know that we remain in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit. <sup>14</sup> We have seen and testify that the Father has sent the Son as the Savior of the world. <sup>15</sup> Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God remains in him, and he in God. <sup>16</sup> We know and have believed the love which God has for us. God is love, and he who remains in love remains in God, and God remains in him. <sup>17</sup> In this love has been made perfect among us, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment, because as he is, even so are we in this world. <sup>18</sup> There is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear, because fear has punishment. He who fears is not made perfect in love. <sup>19</sup> We love him, because he first loved us. <sup>20</sup> If a man says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who doesn't love his brother whom he has seen, how can he love God whom he has not seen? <sup>21</sup> This commandment we have from him, that he who loves God should also love his brother.

5

<sup>1</sup> Whoever believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God. Whoever loves the Father also loves the child who is born of him. <sup>2</sup> By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love

God and keep his commandments. <sup>3</sup> For this is loving God, that we keep his commandments. His commandments are not grievous. <sup>4</sup> For whatever is born of God overcomes the world. This is the victory that has overcome the world: your faith. <sup>5</sup> Who is he who overcomes the world, but he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? <sup>6</sup> This is he who came by water and blood, Jesus Christ; not with the water only, but with the water and the blood. It is the Spirit who testifies, because the Spirit is the truth. <sup>7</sup> For there are three who testify<sup>e</sup>: <sup>8</sup> the Spirit, the water, and the blood; and the three agree as one. <sup>9</sup> If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater; for this is God's testimony which he has testified concerning his Son. <sup>10</sup> He who believes in the Son of God has the testimony in himself. He who doesn't believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has given concerning his Son. <sup>11</sup> The testimony is this, that God gave to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. <sup>12</sup> He who has the Son has the life. He who doesn't have God's Son doesn't have the life. <sup>13</sup> These things I have written to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, that you may know that you have eternal life, and that you may continue to believe in the name of the Son of God.

<sup>14</sup> This is the boldness which we have toward him, that, if we ask anything according to his will, he listens to us. <sup>15</sup> And if we know that he listens to us, whatever we ask, we know that we have the petitions which we have asked of him.

<sup>d</sup> "atoning sacrifice" is from the Greek "ἱλασμοῦ", an appeasing, propitiating, or the means of appeasement or propitiation—the sacrifice that turns away God's wrath because of our sin. <sup>e</sup> Only a few recent manuscripts add "in heaven: the Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit; and these three are one. And there are three that testify on earth"

<sup>16</sup> If anyone sees his brother sinning a sin not leading to death, he shall ask, and God will give him life for those who sin not leading to death. There is a sin leading to death. I don't say that he should make a request concerning this. <sup>17</sup> All unrighteousness is sin, and there is a sin not leading to death. <sup>18</sup> We know that whoever is born of God doesn't sin, but he who was born of God keeps himself, and the evil one doesn't touch him. <sup>19</sup> We know that we are of God, and the whole world lies in the power of the evil one. <sup>20</sup> We know that the Son of God has come, and has given us an understanding, that we know him who is true, and we are in him who is true, in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life.

<sup>21</sup> Little children, keep yourselves from idols.

John's Second Letter

<sup>1</sup> The elder, to the chosen lady and her children, whom I love in truth; and not I only, but also all those who know the truth;
<sup>2</sup> for the truth's sake, which remains in us, and it will be with us forever: <sup>3</sup> Grace, mercy, and peace will be with us, from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

<sup>4</sup> I rejoice greatly that I have found some of your children walking in truth, even as we have been commanded by the Father. <sup>5</sup> Now I beg you, dear lady, not as though I wrote to you a new commandment, but that which we had from the beginning, that we love one another. <sup>6</sup> This is love, that we should walk according to his commandments. This is the commandment, even as you heard from the beginning, that you should walk in it. <sup>7</sup> For many deceivers have gone out into the world, those who don't confess that Jesus Christ came in the flesh. This is the deceiver and the Antichrist. <sup>8</sup> Watch yourselves, that we don't lose the things which we have accomplished, but that we receive a full reward. <sup>9</sup> Whoever transgresses and doesn't remain in the teaching of Christ, doesn't have God. He who remains in the teaching, the same has both the Father and the Son. <sup>10</sup> If anyone comes to you, and doesn't bring this teaching, don't receive him into your house, and don't welcome him, <sup>11</sup> for he who welcomes him participates in his evil deeds.

<sup>12</sup> Having many things to write to you, I don't want to do so with paper and ink, but I hope to come to you, and to speak face to face, that our joy may be made full. <sup>13</sup> The children of your chosen sister greet you. Amen.

John's Third Letter

<sup>2</sup> Beloved, I pray that you may prosper in all things and be healthy, even as your soul prospers. <sup>3</sup> For I rejoiced greatly, when brothers came and testified about your truth, even as you walk in truth. <sup>4</sup> I have no greater joy than this, to hear about my children walking in truth.

<sup>5</sup> Beloved, you do a faithful work in whatever you accomplish for those who are brothers and strangers. <sup>6</sup> They have testified about your love before the assembly. You will do well to send them forward on their journey in a way worthy of God, <sup>7</sup> because for the sake of the Name they went out, taking nothing from the Gentiles. <sup>8</sup> We therefore ought to receive such, that we may be fellow workers for the truth.

<sup>9</sup> I wrote to the assembly, but Diotrephes, who loves to be first among them, doesn't accept what we say. <sup>10</sup> Therefore if I come, I will call attention to his deeds which he does, unjustly accusing us with wicked words. Not content with this, neither does he himself receive the brothers, and those who would, he forbids and throws out of the assembly. <sup>11</sup> Beloved, don't imitate that which is evil, but that which is good. He who does good is of God. He who does evil hasn't seen God. <sup>12</sup> Demetrius has the testimony of all, and of the truth itself; yes, we also testify, and you know that our testimony is true.

<sup>13</sup> I had many things to write to you, but I am unwilling to write to you with ink and pen; <sup>14</sup> but I hope to see you soon, and we will speak face to face. Peace be to you. The friends greet you. Greet the friends by name.

The Letter from Jude

<sup>1</sup> Jude,<sup>a</sup> a servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to those who are called, sanctified by God the Father, and kept for Jesus Christ: <sup>2</sup> Mercy to you and peace and love be multiplied.

<sup>3</sup> Beloved, while I was very eager to write to you about our common salvation, I was constrained to write to you exhorting you to contend earnestly for the faith which was once for all delivered to the saints. <sup>4</sup> For there are certain men who crept in secretly, even those who were long ago written about for this condemnation: ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into indecency, and denying our only Master, God, and Lord, Jesus Christ.

<sup>5</sup> Now I desire to remind you, though you already know this, that the Lord, having saved a people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who didn't believe. <sup>6</sup> Angels who didn't keep their first domain, but deserted their own dwelling place, he has kept in everlasting bonds under darkness for the judgment of the great day. <sup>7</sup> Even as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities around them, having, in the same way as these, given themselves over to sexual immorality and gone after strange flesh, are shown as an example, suffering the punishment of eternal fire. <sup>8</sup> Yet in the same way, these also in their dreaming defile the flesh, despise authority, and slander celestial beings. <sup>9</sup> But Michael, the archangel, when contending with the devil and arguing about the body of Moses, dared not bring against him an abusive condemnation, but said, "May the Lord rebuke you!" <sup>10</sup> But these speak evil of whatever things they don't know. They are destroyed in these things that they understand naturally, like the creatures without reason. <sup>11</sup> Woe to them! For they went in the way of Cain, and ran riotously in the error of Balaam for hire, and perished in Korah's rebellion. <sup>12</sup> These are hidden rocky reefs in your love feasts when they feast with you, shepherds who without fear feed themselves; clouds without water, carried along by winds; autumn trees without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots; <sup>13</sup> wild waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, for whom the blackness of darkness has been reserved forever. <sup>14</sup> About these also Enoch, the seventh from Adam, prophesied, saying, "Behold,<sup>b</sup> the Lord came with ten thousands of his holy ones, <sup>15</sup> to execute judgment on all, and to convict all the ungodly of all their works of ungodliness which they have done in an ungodly way, and of all the hard things which ungodly sinners have spoken against him." <sup>16</sup> These are murmurers and complainers, walking after their lusts (and their mouth speaks proud things), showing respect of persons to gain advantage.

<sup>17</sup> But you, beloved, remember the words which have been spoken before by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>18</sup> They said to you that "In the last time there will be mockers, walking after their own ungodly lusts." <sup>19</sup> These are they who cause divisions, and are sensual, not having the Spirit. <sup>20</sup> But you, beloved, keep building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit. <sup>21</sup> Keep yourselves in God's love, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ to eternal life. <sup>22</sup> On some have compassion, making a distinction, <sup>23</sup> and some save, snatching them out of the fire with fear, hating even the clothing stained by the flesh.

<sup>24</sup> Now to him who is able to keep them<sup>c</sup> from stumbling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory in great joy, <sup>25</sup> to God our Savior, who alone is wise, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and forever. Amen.

The Revelation to John

1

<sup>1</sup> This is the Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave him to show to his servants the things which must happen soon, which he sent and made known by his angel<sup>a</sup> to his servant, John, <sup>2</sup> who testified to God's word, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, about everything that he saw.

<sup>3</sup> Blessed is he who reads and those who hear the words of the prophecy, and keep the things that are written in it, for the time is at hand.

<sup>4</sup> John, to the seven assemblies that are in Asia: Grace to you and peace, from God, who is and who was and who is to come; and from the seven Spirits who are before his throne; <sup>5</sup> and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth. To him who loves us, and washed us from our sins by his blood; <sup>6</sup> and he made us to be a Kingdom, priests<sup>1</sup> to his God and Father; to him be the glory and the dominion forever and ever. Amen.

<sup>7</sup> Behold,<sup>b</sup> he is coming with the clouds, and every eye will see him, including those who pierced him. All the tribes of the earth will mourn over him. Even so, Amen.

<sup>8</sup> "I am the Alpha and the Omega,<sup>c</sup>" says the Lord God,<sup>d</sup> "who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty."

<sup>9</sup> I John, your brother and partner with you in the oppression, Kingdom, and perseverance in Christ Jesus, was on the isle that is called Patmos because of God's Word and the testimony of Jesus Christ. <sup>10</sup> I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and I heard behind me a loud voice, like a trumpet <sup>11</sup> saying, "<sup>e</sup> What you see, write in a book and send to the seven assemblies<sup>f</sup> : to Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamum, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, and to Laodicea."

He laid his right hand on me, saying, "<sup>g</sup> Don't be afraid. I am the first and the last, <sup>18</sup> and the Living one. I was dead, and behold, I am alive forever more. Amen. I have the keys of Death and of Hades.<sup>g</sup> <sup>19</sup> Write therefore the things which you have seen, and the things which are, and the things which will happen hereafter; <sup>20</sup> the mystery of the seven stars which you saw in my right hand, and the seven golden lamp stands. The seven stars are the angels<sup>h</sup> of the seven assemblies. The seven lamp stands are seven assemblies.

“He who holds the seven stars in his right hand, he who walks among the seven golden lamp stands says these things:

<sup>2</sup> “I know your works, and your toil and perseverance, and that you can’t tolerate evil men, and have tested those who call themselves apostles, and they are not, and found them false. <sup>3</sup> You have perseverance and have endured for my name’s sake, and have <sup>i</sup> not grown weary. <sup>4</sup> But I have this against you, that you left your first love. <sup>5</sup> Remember therefore from where you have fallen, and repent and do the first works; or else I am coming to you swiftly, and will move your lamp stand out of its place, unless you repent. <sup>6</sup> But this you have, that you hate the works of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate. <sup>7</sup> He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies. To him who overcomes I will give to eat from the tree of life, which is in the Paradise of my God.

“The first and the last, who was dead, and has come to life says these things:

<sup>9</sup> “I know your works, oppression, and your poverty (but you are rich), and the blasphemy of those who say they are Jews, and they are not, but are a synagogue of Satan. <sup>10</sup> Don’t be afraid of the things which you are about to suffer. Behold, the devil is about to throw some of you into prison, that you may be tested; and you will have oppression for ten days. Be faithful to death, and I will give you the crown of life. <sup>11</sup> He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies. He who overcomes won’t be harmed by the second death.

“He who has the sharp two-edged sword says these things:

<sup>13</sup> “I know your works and where you dwell, where Satan’s throne is. You hold firmly to my name, and didn’t deny my faith in the days of Antipas my witness, my faithful one, who was killed among you, where Satan dwells. <sup>14</sup> But I have a few things against you, because you have there some who hold the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to throw a stumbling block before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed to idols, and to commit sexual immorality. <sup>15</sup> So you also have some who hold to the teaching of the Nicolaitans likewise<sup>j</sup>. <sup>16</sup> Repent therefore, or else I am coming to you quickly, and I will make war against them with the sword of my mouth. <sup>17</sup> He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies. To him who overcomes, to him I will give of the hidden manna, <sup>k</sup> and I will give him a white stone, and on the stone a new name written, which no one knows but he who receives it.

“The Son of God, who has his eyes like a flame of fire, and his feet are like burnished brass, says these things:

She teaches and seduces my servants to commit sexual immorality, and to eat things sacrificed to idols. <sup>21</sup> I gave her time to repent, but she refuses to repent of her sexual immorality. <sup>22</sup> Behold, I will throw her into a bed, and those who commit adultery with her into great oppression, unless they repent of her works. <sup>23</sup> I will kill her children with Death, and all the assemblies will know that I am he who searches the minds and hearts. I will give to each one of you according to your deeds. <sup>24</sup> But to you I say, to the rest who are in Thyatira, as many as don’t have this teaching, who don’t know what some call ‘the deep things of Satan,’ to you I say, I am not putting any other burden on you. <sup>25</sup> Nevertheless, hold that which you have firmly until I come. <sup>26</sup> He who overcomes, and he who keeps my works to the end, to him I will give authority over the nations. <sup>27</sup> He will rule them with a rod of iron, shattering them like clay pots;<sup>1</sup> as I also have received of my Father: <sup>28</sup> and I will give him the morning star. <sup>29</sup> He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies.

“He who has the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars says these things:

“I know your works, that you have a reputation of being alive, but you are dead.

<sup>2</sup> Wake up, and keep the things that remain, which you were about to throw away, for I have found no works of yours perfected before my God. <sup>3</sup> Remember therefore how you have received and heard. Keep it, and repent. If therefore you won’t watch, I will come as a thief, and you won’t know what hour I will come upon you. <sup>4</sup>

Nevertheless you have a few names in Sardis that did not defile their garments. They will walk with me in white, for they are worthy. <sup>5</sup> He who overcomes will be arrayed in white garments, and I will in no way blot his name out of the book of life, and I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels. <sup>6</sup> He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies.

<sup>8</sup> “I know your works (behold, I have set before you an open door, which no one can shut), that you have a little power, and kept my word, and didn’t deny my name. <sup>9</sup>

Behold, I give some of the synagogue of Satan, of those who say they are Jews, and they are not, but lie. Behold, I will make them to come and worship before your feet, and to know that I have loved you. <sup>10</sup>

“The Amen, the Faithful and True Witness, the Head of God’s creation, says these things:

<sup>15</sup> “I know your works, that you are neither cold nor hot. I wish you were cold or hot. <sup>16</sup> So, because you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will vomit you out of my mouth. <sup>17</sup> Because you say, ‘I am rich, and have gotten riches, and have need of nothing;’ and don’t know that you are the wretched one, miserable, poor, blind, and naked; <sup>18</sup> I counsel you to buy from me gold refined by fire, that you may become rich; and white garments, that you may clothe yourself, and that the shame of your nakedness may not be revealed; and eye salve to anoint your eyes, that you may see. <sup>19</sup> As many as I love, I reprove and chasten. Be zealous therefore, and repent. <sup>20</sup> Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, then I will come in to him, and will dine with him, and he with me. <sup>21</sup> He who overcomes, I will give to him to sit down with me on my throne, as I also overcame, and sat down with my Father on his throne. <sup>22</sup> He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies.”

<sup>1</sup> After these things I looked and saw a door opened in heaven, and the first voice that I heard, like a trumpet speaking with me, was one saying, “Come up here, and I will show you the things which must happen after this.”

<sup>2</sup> Immediately I was in the Spirit. Behold, there was a throne set in heaven, and one sitting on the throne <sup>3</sup> that looked like a jasper stone and a sardius. There was a rainbow around the throne, like an emerald to look at. <sup>4</sup> Around the throne were twenty-four thrones. On the thrones were twenty-four elders sitting, dressed in white garments, with crowns of gold on their heads. <sup>5</sup> Out of the throne proceed lightnings, sounds, and thunders. There were seven lamps of fire burning before his throne, which are the seven Spirits of God. <sup>6</sup> Before the throne was something like a sea of glass, similar to crystal. In the middle of the throne, and around the throne were four living creatures full of eyes before and behind. <sup>7</sup> The first creature was like a lion, and the second creature like a calf, and the third creature had a face like a man, and the fourth was like a flying eagle. <sup>8</sup> The four living creatures, each one of them having six wings, are full of eyes around and within. They have no rest day and night, saying, “Holy, holy, holy<sup>m</sup> is the Lord God, the Almighty, who was and who is and who is to come!”

<sup>9</sup> When the living creatures give glory, honor, and thanks to him who sits on the throne, to him who lives forever and ever, <sup>10</sup> the twenty-four elders fall down before him who sits on the throne, and worship him who lives forever and ever, and throw their crowns before the throne, saying, <sup>11</sup> “Worthy are you, our Lord and God, the Holy One,<sup>n</sup> to receive the glory, the honor, and the power, for you created all things, and because of your desire they existed, and were created!”

<sup>1</sup> I saw, in the right hand of him who sat on the throne, a book written inside and outside, sealed shut with seven seals. <sup>2</sup> I saw a mighty angel proclaiming with a loud voice, “Who is worthy to open the book, and to break its seals?” <sup>3</sup> No one in heaven above, or on the earth, or under the earth, was able to open the book, or to look in it. <sup>4</sup> And I wept much, because no one was found worthy to open the book, or to look in it. <sup>5</sup> One of the elders said to me, “Don’t weep. Behold, the Lion who is of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has overcome; he who opens the book and its seven seals.” <sup>6</sup> I saw in the middle of the throne and of the four living creatures, and in the middle of the elders, a Lamb standing, as though it had been slain, having seven horns, and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God, sent out into all the earth. <sup>7</sup> Then he came, and he took it out of the right hand of him who sat on the throne. <sup>8</sup> Now when he had taken the book, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each one having a harp, and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints.

<sup>9</sup> They sang a new song, saying,
 “You are worthy to take the book,
 and to open its seals:
 for you were killed, and bought us for God with your blood,

 out of every tribe, language, people,
 and nation,

<sup>10</sup> and made us kings and priests to our God,
 and we will reign on the earth.”

<sup>11</sup> I saw, and I heard something like a voice of many angels around the throne, the living creatures, and the elders; and the number of them was ten thousands of ten thousands, and thousands of thousands; <sup>12</sup> saying with a loud voice, “Worthy is the Lamb who has been killed to receive the power, wealth, wisdom, strength, honor, glory, and blessing!”

<sup>13</sup> I heard every created thing which is in heaven, on the earth, under the earth, on the sea, and everything in them, saying, “To him who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb be the blessing, the honor, the glory, and the dominion, forever and ever! Amen!”<sup>o</sup>

<sup>14</sup> The four living creatures said, “Amen!” The <sup>p</sup> elders fell down and worshiped.<sup>q</sup>

6

<sup>1</sup> I saw that the Lamb opened one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures saying, as with a voice of thunder, “Come and see!” <sup>2</sup> And behold, a white horse, and he who sat on it had a bow. A crown was given to him, and he came out conquering, and to conquer.

<sup>3</sup> When he opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature saying, “Come!” <sup>4</sup> Another came out, a red horse. To him who sat on it was given power to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another. There was given to him a great sword.

<sup>5</sup> When he opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature saying, "Come and see!" And behold, a black horse, and he who sat on it had a balance in his hand. <sup>6</sup> I heard a voice in the middle of the four living creatures saying, "A choenix <sup>r</sup> of wheat for a denarius, and three choenix of barley for a denarius! Don't damage the oil and the wine!"

<sup>7</sup> When he opened the fourth seal, I heard the fourth living creature saying, "Come and see!" <sup>8</sup> And behold, a pale horse, and he who sat on it, his name was Death. Hades <sup>s</sup> followed with him. Authority over one fourth of the earth, to kill with the sword, with famine, with death, and by the wild animals of the earth was given to him.

<sup>9</sup> When he opened the fifth seal, I saw underneath the altar the souls of those who had been killed for the Word of God, and for the testimony of the Lamb which they had. <sup>10</sup> They cried with a loud voice, saying, "How long, Master, the holy and true, until you judge and avenge our blood on those who dwell on the earth?" <sup>11</sup> A long white robe was given to each of them. They were told that they should rest yet for a while, until their fellow servants and their brothers, <sup>t</sup> who would also be killed even as they were, should complete their course.

<sup>12</sup> I saw when he opened the sixth seal, and there was a great earthquake. The sun became black as sackcloth made of hair, and the whole moon became as blood. <sup>13</sup> The stars of the sky fell to the earth, like a fig tree dropping its unripe figs when it is shaken by a great wind. <sup>14</sup> The sky was removed like a scroll when it is rolled up. Every mountain and island were moved out of their places. <sup>15</sup> The kings of the earth, the princes, the commanding officers, the rich, the strong, and every slave and free person, hid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the mountains. <sup>16</sup> They told the mountains and the rocks, "Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him who sits on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb, <sup>17</sup> for the great day of his wrath has come; and who is able to stand?"

7

<sup>1</sup> After this, I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, so that no wind would blow on the earth, or on the sea, or on any tree. <sup>2</sup> I saw another angel ascend from the sunrise, having the seal of the living God. He cried with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was given to harm the earth and the sea, <sup>3</sup> saying, "Don't harm the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, until we have sealed the bondservants of our God on their foreheads!" <sup>4</sup> I heard the number of those who were sealed, one hundred forty-four thousand, sealed out of every tribe of the children of Israel:

<sup>5</sup> of the tribe of Judah were sealed twelve thousand,

of the tribe of Reuben twelve thousand,
of the tribe of Gad twelve thousand,

<sup>6</sup> of the tribe of Asher twelve thousand, of the tribe of Naphtali twelve thousand,
of the tribe of Manasseh twelve thousand,

<sup>7</sup> of the tribe of Simeon twelve thousand,

<sup>r</sup> A choenix is a dry volume measure that is a little more than a liter (a little more than a quart). <sup>s</sup> or, Hell <sup>t</sup> The word for "brothers" here and where context allows may also be correctly translated "brothers and sisters" or "siblings."

of the tribe of Levi twelve thousand, of the tribe of Issachar twelve thousand, <sup>8</sup> of the tribe of Zebulun twelve thousand,
of the tribe of Joseph twelve thousand,
of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed
twelve thousand.

<sup>9</sup> After these things I looked, and behold, a great multitude, which no man could number, out of every nation and of all tribes, peoples, and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, dressed in white robes, with palm branches in their hands. <sup>10</sup> They cried with a loud voice, saying, "Salvation be to our God, who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!"

<sup>11</sup> All the angels were standing around the throne, the elders, and the four living creatures; and they fell on their faces before his throne, and worshiped God, <sup>12</sup> saying, "Amen! Blessing, glory, wisdom, thanksgiving, honor, power, and might, be to our God forever and ever! Amen."

<sup>13</sup> One of the elders answered, saying to me, "These who are arrayed in the white robes, who are they, and from where did they come?"

<sup>14</sup> I told him, "My lord, you know."

He said to me, "These are those who came out of the great tribulation. They washed their robes, and made them white in the Lamb's blood. <sup>15</sup> Therefore they are before the throne of God, they serve him day and night in his temple. He who sits on the throne will spread his tabernacle over them. <sup>16</sup> They will never be hungry, neither thirsty any more; neither will the sun beat on them, nor any heat; <sup>17</sup> for the Lamb who is in the middle of the throne shepherds them, and leads them to springs of waters of life. And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

8

<sup>1</sup> When he opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour. <sup>2</sup> I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and seven trumpets were given to them. <sup>3</sup> Another angel came and stood over the altar, having a golden censer. Much incense was given to him, that he should add it to the prayers of all the saints on the golden altar which was before the throne. <sup>4</sup> The smoke of the incense, with the prayers of the saints, went up before God out of the angel's hand. <sup>5</sup> The angel took the censer, and he filled it with the fire of the altar, and threw it on the earth. There followed thunders, sounds, lightnings, and an earthquake.

<sup>6</sup> The seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound. <sup>7</sup> The first sounded, and there followed hail and fire, mixed with blood, and they were thrown to the earth. One third of the earth was burned up, <sup>u</sup> and one third of the trees were burned up, and all green grass was burned up.

<sup>8</sup> The second angel sounded, and something like a great burning mountain was thrown into the sea. One third of the sea became blood, <sup>9</sup> and one third of the living creatures which were in the sea died. One third of the ships were destroyed.

<sup>10</sup> The third angel sounded, and a great star fell from the sky, burning like a torch, and it fell on one third of the rivers, and on the springs of the waters. <sup>11</sup> The name of the star is called "Wormwood." One third of the waters became wormwood. Many people died from the waters, because they were made bitter.

<sup>12</sup> The fourth angel sounded, and one third of the sun was struck, and one third of the moon, and one third of the stars; so that one third of them would be darkened, and the day wouldn't shine for one third of it, and the night in the same way. <sup>13</sup> I saw, and I heard an eagle,<sup>v</sup> flying in mid heaven, saying with a loud voice, "Woe! Woe! Woe for those who dwell on the earth, because of the other voices of the trumpets of the three angels, who are yet to sound!"

9

<sup>1</sup> The fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star from the sky which had fallen to the earth. The key to the pit of the abyss was given to him. <sup>2</sup> He opened the pit of the abyss, and smoke went up out of the pit, like the smoke from a<sup>w</sup> burning furnace. The sun and the air were darkened because of the smoke from the pit. <sup>3</sup> Then out of the smoke came locusts on the earth, and power was given to them, as the scorpions of the earth have power. <sup>4</sup> They were told that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree, but only those people who don't have God's seal on their foreheads. <sup>5</sup> They were given power not to kill them, but to torment them for five months. Their torment was like the torment of a scorpion, when it strikes a person. <sup>6</sup> In those days people will seek death, and will in no way find it. They will desire to die, and death will flee from them. <sup>7</sup> The shapes of the locusts were like horses prepared for war. On their heads were something like golden crowns, and their faces were like people's faces. <sup>8</sup> They had hair like women's hair, and their teeth were like those of lions. <sup>9</sup> They had breastplates, like breastplates of iron. The sound of their wings was like the sound of chariots, or of many horses rushing to war. <sup>10</sup> They have tails like those of scorpions, and stings. In their tails they have power to harm men for five months. <sup>11</sup> They have over them as king the angel of the abyss. His name in Hebrew is "Abaddon",<sup>x</sup> but in Greek, he has the name "Apollyon".<sup>y</sup> <sup>12</sup> The first woe is past. Behold, there are still two woes coming after this.

<sup>13</sup> The sixth angel sounded. I heard a voice from the horns of the golden altar which is before God, <sup>14</sup> saying to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, "Free the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates!"

<sup>15</sup> The four angels were freed who had been prepared for that hour and day and month and year, so that they might kill one third of mankind. <sup>16</sup> The number of the armies of the horsemen was two hundred million.<sup>z</sup> I heard the number of them. <sup>17</sup> Thus I saw the horses in the vision, and those who sat on them, having breastplates of fiery red, hyacinth blue, and sulfur yellow; and the horses' heads resembled lions' heads. Out of their mouths proceed fire, smoke, and sulfur. <sup>18</sup> By these three plagues were one third of mankind killed: by the fire, the smoke, and the sulfur, which proceeded out of their mouths. <sup>19</sup> For the power of the horses is in their mouths, and in their tails. For their tails are like serpents, and have heads, and with them they harm. <sup>20</sup> The rest of mankind, who were not killed with these plagues, didn't repent of the works of their hands, that they wouldn't worship demons, and the idols of gold, and of silver, and of brass, and of stone, and of wood; which can neither see, nor hear, nor walk. <sup>21</sup> They didn't repent of their murders, nor of their sorceries,<sup>a</sup> nor of their sexual immorality, nor of their thefts.

<sup>1</sup> I saw a mighty angel coming down out of the sky, clothed with a cloud. A rainbow was on his head. His face was like the sun, and his feet like pillars of fire. <sup>2</sup> He had in his hand a little open book. He set his right foot on the sea, and his left on the land. <sup>3</sup> He cried with a loud voice, as a lion roars. When he cried, the seven thunders uttered their voices. <sup>4</sup> When the seven thunders sounded, I was about to write; but I heard a voice from the sky saying, "Seal up the things which the seven thunders said, and don't write them."

<sup>5</sup> The angel whom I saw standing on the sea and on the land lifted up his right hand to the sky, <sup>6</sup> and swore by him who lives forever and ever, who created heaven and the things that are in it, the earth and the things that are in it, and the sea and the things that are in it, that there will no longer be delay, <sup>7</sup> but in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he is about to sound, then the mystery of God is finished, as he declared to his servants, the prophets. <sup>8</sup> The voice which I heard from heaven, again speaking with me, said, "Go, take the book which is open in the hand of the angel who stands on the sea and on the land."

He said to me, "Take it, and eat it up. It will make your stomach bitter, but in your mouth it will be as sweet as honey."

<sup>10</sup> I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up. It was as sweet as honey in my mouth. When I had eaten it, my stomach was made bitter. <sup>11</sup> They told me, "You must prophesy again over many peoples, nations, languages, and kings."

11

<sup>1</sup> A reed like a rod was given to me. Someone said, "Rise, and measure God's temple, and the altar, and those who worship in it. <sup>2</sup> Leave out the court which is outside of the temple, and don't measure it, for it has been given to the nations. They will tread the holy city under foot for forty-two months. <sup>3</sup> I will give power to my two witnesses, and they will prophesy one thousand two hundred sixty days, clothed in sackcloth." <sup>4</sup> These are the two olive trees and the two lamp stands, standing before the Lord of the earth. <sup>5</sup> If anyone desires to harm them, fire proceeds out of their mouth and devours their enemies. If anyone desires to harm them, he must be killed in this way. <sup>6</sup> These have the power to shut up the sky, that it may not rain during the days of their prophecy. They have power over the waters, to turn them into blood, and to strike the earth with every plague, as often as they desire. <sup>7</sup> When they have finished their testimony, the beast that comes up out of the abyss will make war with them, and overcome them, and kill them. <sup>8</sup> Their dead bodies will be in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also their Lord was crucified. <sup>9</sup> From among the peoples, tribes, languages, and nations people will look at their dead bodies for three and a half days, and will not allow their dead bodies to be laid in a tomb. <sup>10</sup> Those who dwell on the earth rejoice over them, and they will be glad. They will give gifts to one another, because these two prophets tormented those who dwell on the earth. <sup>11</sup> After the three and a half days, the breath of life from God entered into them, and they stood on their feet. Great fear fell on those who saw them. <sup>12</sup> I heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, "Come up here!" They went up into heaven in the cloud, and their enemies saw them. <sup>13</sup> In that day there was a great earthquake, and a tenth of the city fell. Seven thousand people were killed in the earthquake, and the rest were terrified, and gave glory to the God of heaven. <sup>14</sup> The second woe is past. Behold, the third woe comes quickly.

<sup>a</sup> The word for "sorceries" (pharmakeia) also implies the use of potions, poisons, and drugs

<sup>15</sup> The seventh angel sounded, and great voices in heaven followed, saying, "The kingdom of the world has become the Kingdom of our Lord, and of his Christ. He will reign forever and ever!"

<sup>16</sup> The twenty-four elders, who sit on their thrones before God's throne, fell on their faces and worshiped God, <sup>17</sup> saying: "We give you thanks, Lord God, the Almighty, the one who is and who was<sup>b</sup>; because you have taken your great power, and reigned. <sup>18</sup> The nations were angry, and your wrath came, as did the time for the dead to be judged, and to give your bondservants the prophets, their reward, as well as to the saints, and those who fear your name, to the small and the great; and to destroy those who destroy the earth."

<sup>19</sup> God's temple that is in heaven was opened, and the ark of the Lord's covenant was seen in his temple. Lightnings, sounds, thunders, an earthquake, and great hail followed.

12

<sup>7</sup> There was war in the sky. Michael and his angels made war on the dragon. The dragon and his angels made war. <sup>8</sup> They didn't prevail, neither was a place found for him any more in heaven. <sup>9</sup> The great dragon was thrown down, the old serpent, he who is called the devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole world. He was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him. <sup>10</sup> I heard a loud voice in heaven, saying, "Now the salvation, the power, and the Kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Christ has come; for the accuser of our brothers has been thrown down, who accuses them before our God day and night. <sup>11</sup> They overcame him because of the Lamb's blood, and because of the word of their testimony. They didn't love their life, even to death. <sup>12</sup> Therefore rejoice, heavens, and you who dwell in them. Woe to the earth and to the sea, because the devil has gone down to you, having great wrath, knowing that he has but a short time."

<sup>13</sup> When the dragon saw that he was thrown down to the earth, he persecuted the woman who gave birth to the male child. <sup>14</sup> Two wings of the great eagle were given to the woman, that she might fly into the wilderness to her place, so that she might be nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent. <sup>15</sup> The serpent spewed water out of his mouth after the woman like a river, that he might cause her to be carried away by the stream. <sup>16</sup> The earth helped the woman, and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed up the river which the dragon spewed out of his mouth. <sup>17</sup> The dragon grew angry with the woman, and went away to make war with the rest of her offspring,<sup>c</sup> who keep God's commandments and hold Jesus' testimony.

<sup>1</sup> Then I stood on the sand of the sea. I saw a beast coming up out of the sea, having ten horns and seven heads. On his horns were ten crowns, and on his heads, blasphemous names. <sup>2</sup> The beast which I saw was like a leopard, and his feet were like those of a bear, and his mouth like the mouth of a lion. The dragon gave him his power, his throne, and great authority. <sup>3</sup> One of his heads looked like it had been wounded fatally. His fatal wound was healed, and the whole earth marveled at the beast. <sup>4</sup> They worshiped the dragon, because he gave his authority to the beast, and they worshiped the beast, saying, "Who is like the beast? Who is able to make war with him?" <sup>5</sup> A mouth speaking great things and blasphemy was given to him. Authority to make war for forty-two months was given to him. <sup>6</sup> He opened his mouth for blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his dwelling, those who dwell in heaven. <sup>7</sup> It was given to him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them. Authority over every tribe, people, language, and nation was given to him. <sup>8</sup> All who dwell on the earth will worship him, everyone whose name has not been written from the foundation of the world in the book of life of the Lamb who has been killed. <sup>9</sup> If anyone has an ear, let him hear. <sup>10</sup> If anyone is to go into captivity, he will go into captivity. If anyone is to be killed with the sword, he must be killed.<sup>d</sup> Here is the endurance and the faith of the saints.

<sup>11</sup> I saw another beast coming up out of the earth. He had two horns like a lamb, and he spoke like a dragon. <sup>12</sup> He exercises all the authority of the first beast in his presence. He makes the earth and those who dwell in it to worship the first beast, whose fatal wound was healed. <sup>13</sup> He performs great signs, even making fire come down out of the sky to the earth in

<sup>c</sup> or, seed <sup>d</sup> TR reads "If anyone leads into captivity, into captivity he goes. If anyone will kill with the sword, he must be killed with a sword." instead of "If anyone is to go into captivity, he will go into captivity. If anyone is to be killed with the sword, he must be killed."

the sight of people. <sup>14</sup> He deceives my own<sup>e</sup> people who dwell on the earth because of the signs he was granted to do in front of the beast; saying to those who dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast who had the sword wound and lived. <sup>15</sup> It was given to him to give breath to it, to the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause as many as wouldn't worship the image of the beast to be killed. <sup>16</sup> He causes all, the small and the great, the rich and the poor, and the free and the slave, to be given marks on their right hands, or on their foreheads; <sup>17</sup> and that no one would be able to buy or to sell, unless he has that mark, the name of the beast or the number of his name. <sup>18</sup> Here is wisdom. He who has understanding, let him calculate the number of the beast, for it is the number of a man. His number is six hundred sixty-six.

14

<sup>1</sup> I saw, and behold, the Lamb standing on Mount Zion, and with him a number, one hundred forty-four thousand, having his name, and the name of his Father, written on their foreheads. <sup>2</sup> I heard a sound from heaven, like the sound of many waters, and like the sound of a great thunder. The sound which I heard was like that of harpists playing on their harps. <sup>3</sup> They sing a new song before the throne, and before the four living creatures and the elders. No one could learn the song except the one hundred forty-four thousand, those who had been redeemed out of the earth. <sup>4</sup> These are those who were not defiled with women, for they are virgins. These are those who follow the Lamb wherever he goes. These were redeemed by Jesus from among men, the first fruits to God and to the Lamb. <sup>5</sup> In their mouth was found no lie, for they are blameless.<sup>f</sup>

<sup>6</sup> I saw an angel flying in mid heaven, having an eternal Good News to proclaim to those who dwell on the earth, and to every nation, tribe, language, and people. <sup>7</sup> He said with a loud voice, "Fear the Lord, and give him glory; for the hour of his judgment has come. Worship him who made the heaven, the earth, the sea, and the springs of waters!"

<sup>8</sup> Another, a second angel, followed, saying, "Babylon the great has fallen, which has made all the nations to drink of the wine of the wrath of her sexual immorality."

<sup>9</sup> Another angel, a third, followed them, saying with a great voice, "If anyone worships the beast and his image, and receives a mark on his forehead, or on his hand, <sup>10</sup> he also will drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is prepared unmixed in the cup of his anger. He will be tormented with fire and sulfur in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb. <sup>11</sup> The smoke of their torment goes up forever and ever. They have no rest day and night, those who worship the beast and his image, and whoever receives the mark of his name. <sup>12</sup> Here is the patience of the saints, those who keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus."

“Yes,” says the Spirit, “that they may rest from their labors; for their works follow with them.”

<sup>17</sup> Another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven. He also had a sharp sickle. <sup>18</sup> Another angel came out from the altar, he who has power over fire, and he called with a great voice to him who had the sharp sickle, saying, “Send your sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth, for the earth’s grapes are fully ripe!” <sup>19</sup> The angel thrust his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vintage of the earth, and threw it into the great wine press of the wrath of God. <sup>20</sup> The wine press was trodden outside of the city, and blood came out of the wine press, even to the bridles of the horses, as far as one thousand six hundred stadia.<sup>g</sup>

15

<sup>1</sup> I saw another great and marvelous sign in the sky: seven angels having the seven last plagues, for in them God’s wrath is finished. <sup>2</sup> I saw something like a sea of glass mixed with fire, and those who overcame the beast, his image,<sup>h</sup> and the number of his name, standing on the sea of glass, having harps of God. <sup>3</sup> They sang the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, “Great and marvelous are your works,

Lord God, the Almighty!
Righteous and true are your ways,
you King of the nations.

<sup>4</sup> Who wouldn’t fear you, Lord, and glorify your name?

For you only are holy.

For all the nations will come and worship before you.

For your righteous acts have been revealed.”

<sup>5</sup> After these things I looked, and the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened. <sup>6</sup> The seven angels who had the seven plagues came out, clothed with pure, bright linen, and wearing golden sashes around their breasts.

<sup>7</sup> One of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God, who lives forever and ever. <sup>8</sup> The temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from his power. No one was able to enter into the temple, until the seven plagues of the seven angels would be finished.

16

<sup>1</sup> I heard a loud voice out of the temple, saying to the seven angels, “Go and pour out the seven bowls of the wrath of God on the earth!”

<sup>2</sup> The first went, and poured out his bowl into the earth, and it became a harmful and evil sore on the people who had the mark of the beast, and who worshiped his image.

<sup>3</sup> The second angel poured out his bowl into the sea, and it became blood as of a dead man. Every living thing in the sea died.

<sup>4</sup> The third poured out his bowl into the rivers and springs of water, and they became blood. <sup>5</sup> I heard the angel of the waters saying, "You are righteous, who are and who were, you Holy One, because you have judged these things. <sup>6</sup> For they poured out the blood of the saints and prophets, and you have given them blood to drink. They deserve this." <sup>7</sup> I heard the altar saying, "Yes, Lord God, the Almighty, true and righteous are your judgments."

<sup>8</sup> The fourth poured out his bowl on the sun, and it was given to him to scorch men with fire. <sup>9</sup> People were scorched with great heat, and people blasphemed the name of God who has the power over these plagues. They didn't repent and give him glory.

<sup>10</sup> The fifth poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and his kingdom was darkened. They gnawed their tongues because of the pain, <sup>11</sup> and they blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores. They didn't repent of their works.

<sup>12</sup> The sixth poured out his bowl on the great river, the Euphrates. Its water was dried up, that the way might be prepared for the kings that come from the sunrise. <sup>13</sup> I saw coming out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet, three unclean spirits, something like frogs; <sup>14</sup> for they are spirits of demons, performing signs; which go out to the kings of the whole inhabited earth, to gather them together for the war of that great day of God, the Almighty.

<sup>15</sup> "Behold, I come like a thief. Blessed is he who watches, and keeps his clothes, so that he doesn't walk naked, and they see his shame." <sup>16</sup> He gathered them together into the place which is called in Hebrew, Megiddo.

<sup>17</sup> The seventh poured out his bowl into the air. A loud voice came out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, "It is done!" <sup>18</sup> There were lightnings, sounds, and thunders; and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since there were men on the earth, so great an earthquake, so mighty. <sup>19</sup> The great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell. Babylon the great was remembered in the sight of God, to give to her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath. <sup>20</sup> Every island fled away, and the mountains were not found. <sup>21</sup> Great hailstones, about the weight of a talent,<sup>i</sup> came down out of the sky on people. People blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail, for this plague is exceedingly severe.

17

<sup>1</sup> One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and spoke with me, saying, "Come here. I will show you the judgment of the great prostitute who sits on many waters, <sup>2</sup> with whom the kings of the earth committed sexual immorality, and those who dwell in the earth were made drunken with the wine of her sexual immorality." <sup>3</sup> He carried me away in the Spirit into a wilderness. I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet-colored animal, full of blasphemous names, having seven heads and ten horns. <sup>4</sup> The woman was dressed in purple and scarlet, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having in her hand a golden cup full of abominations and the impurities of the sexual immorality of the earth.<sup>5</sup> And on her forehead a name was written, "MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF THE PROSTITUTES AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH."<sup>6</sup> I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus. When I saw her, I wondered with great amazement.<sup>7</sup> The angel said to me, "Why do you wonder? I will tell you the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carries her, which has the seven heads and the ten horns."<sup>8</sup> The beast that you saw was, and is not; and is about to come up out of the abyss and to go into destruction. Those who dwell on the earth and whose names have not been written in the book of life from the foundation of the world will marvel when they see that the beast was, and is not, and shall be present.<sup>9</sup> Here is the mind that has wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sits.<sup>10</sup> They are seven kings. Five have fallen, the one is, the other has not yet come. When he comes, he must continue a little while.<sup>11</sup> The beast that was, and is not, is himself also an eighth, and is of the seven; and he goes to destruction.<sup>12</sup> The ten horns that you saw are ten kings who have received no kingdom as yet, but they receive authority as kings, with the beast, for one hour.<sup>13</sup> These have one mind, and they give their power and authority to the beast.<sup>14</sup> These will war against the Lamb, and the Lamb will overcome them, for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings, and those who are with him are called, chosen, and faithful."<sup>15</sup> He said to me, "The waters which you saw, where the prostitute sits, are peoples, multitudes, nations, and languages."<sup>16</sup> The ten horns which you saw, and the beast, these will hate the prostitute, and will make her desolate, and will make her naked, and will eat her flesh, and will burn her utterly with fire.<sup>17</sup> For God has put in their hearts to do what he has in mind, and to be of one mind, and to give their kingdom to the beast, until the words of God should be accomplished.<sup>18</sup> The woman whom you saw is the great city, which reigns over the kings of the earth."

18

<sup>1</sup> After these things, I saw another angel coming down out of the sky, having great authority. The earth was illuminated with his glory.<sup>2</sup> He cried with a mighty voice, saying, "Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great, and she has become a habitation of demons, a prison of every unclean spirit, and a prison of every unclean and hateful bird!"<sup>3</sup> For all the nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her sexual immorality, the kings of the earth committed sexual immorality with her, and the merchants of the earth grew rich from the abundance of her luxury."

<sup>4</sup> I heard another voice from heaven, saying, "Come out of her, my people, that you have no participation in her sins, and that you don't receive of her plagues,<sup>5</sup> for her sins have reached to the sky, and God has remembered her iniquities."<sup>6</sup> Return to her just as she returned, and repay her double as she did, and according to her

works. In the cup which she mixed, mix to her double. <sup>7</sup> However much she glorified herself, and grew wanton, so much give her of torment and mourning. For she says in her heart, 'I sit a queen, and am no widow, and will in no way see mourning.' <sup>8</sup> Therefore in one day her plagues will come: death, mourning, and famine; and she will be utterly burned with fire; for the Lord God who has judged her is strong. <sup>9</sup> The kings of the earth, who committed sexual immorality and lived wantonly with her, will weep and wail over her, when they look at the smoke of her burning, <sup>10</sup> standing far away for the fear of her torment, saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, Babylon, the strong city! For your judgment has come in one hour.' <sup>11</sup> The merchants of the earth weep and mourn over her, for no one buys their merchandise any more; <sup>12</sup> merchandise of gold, silver, precious stones, pearls, fine linen, purple, silk, scarlet, all expensive wood, every vessel of ivory, every vessel made of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble; <sup>13</sup> and cinnamon, incense, perfume, frankincense, wine, olive oil, fine flour, wheat, sheep, horses, chariots, and people's bodies and souls. <sup>14</sup> The fruits which your soul lusted after have been lost to you, and all things that were dainty and sumptuous have perished from you, and you will find them no more at all. <sup>15</sup> The merchants of these things, who were made rich by her, will stand far away for the fear of her torment, weeping and mourning; <sup>16</sup> saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, she who was dressed in fine linen, purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls! <sup>17</sup> For in an hour such great riches are made desolate.' Every ship master, and everyone who sails anywhere, and mariners, and as many as gain their living by sea, stood far away, <sup>18</sup> and cried out as they looked at the smoke of her burning, saying, 'What is like the great city?' <sup>19</sup> They cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and mourning, saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, in which all who had their ships in the sea were made rich by reason of her great wealth!' For she is made desolate in one hour.

<sup>20</sup> "Rejoice over her, O heaven, you saints, apostles, and prophets; for God has judged your judgment on her." <sup>21</sup> A mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone and cast it into the sea, saying, "Thus with violence will Babylon, the great city, be thrown down, and will be found no more at all. <sup>22</sup> The voice of harpists, minstrels, flute players, and trumpeters will be heard no more at all in you. No craftsman, of whatever craft, will be found any more at all in you. The sound of a mill will be heard no more at all in you. <sup>23</sup> The light of a lamp will shine no more at all in you. The voice of the bridegroom and of the bride will be heard no more at all in you; for your merchants were the princes of the earth; for with your sorcery all the nations were deceived. <sup>24</sup> In her was found the blood of prophets and of saints, and of all who have been slain on the earth."

19

<sup>1</sup> After these things I heard something like a loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, saying, "Hallelujah! Salvation, power, and glory belong to our God: <sup>2</sup> for true and righteous are his judgments. For he has judged the great prostitute, who corrupted the earth with her sexual immorality, and he has avenged the blood of his servants at her hand.”

<sup>3</sup> A second said, “Hallelujah! Her smoke goes up forever and ever.” <sup>4</sup> The twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God who sits on the throne, saying, “Amen! Hallelujah!”

<sup>5</sup> A voice came from the throne, saying, “Give praise to our God, all you his servants, you who fear him, the small and the great!”

<sup>6</sup> I heard something like the voice of a great multitude, and like the voice of many waters, and like the voice of mighty thunders, saying, “Hallelujah! For the Lord our God, the Almighty, reigns! <sup>7</sup> Let us rejoice and be exceedingly glad, and let us give the glory to him. For the marriage of the Lamb has come, and his wife has made herself ready.” <sup>8</sup> It was given to her that she would array herself in bright, pure, fine linen: for the fine linen is the righteous acts of the saints.

<sup>9</sup> He said to me, “Write, ‘Blessed are those who are invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb.’” He said to me, “These are true words of God.”

<sup>10</sup> I fell down before his feet to worship him. He said to me, “Look! Don’t do it! I am a fellow bondservant with you and with your brothers who hold the testimony of Jesus. Worship God, for the testimony of Jesus is the Spirit of Prophecy.”

<sup>11</sup> I saw the heaven opened, and behold, a white horse, and he who sat on it is called Faithful and True. In righteousness he judges and makes war. <sup>12</sup> His eyes are a flame of fire, and on his head are many crowns. He has names written and a name written which no one knows but he himself.

<sup>13</sup> He is clothed in a garment sprinkled with blood. His name is called “The Word of God.” <sup>14</sup> The armies which are in heaven followed him on white horses, clothed in white, pure, fine linen. <sup>15</sup> Out of his mouth proceeds a sharp, double-edged sword, that with it he should strike the nations. He will rule them with an iron rod.<sup>1</sup> He treads the wine press of the fierceness of the wrath of God, the Almighty. <sup>16</sup> He has on his garment and on his thigh a name written, “KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.”

<sup>17</sup> I saw an angel standing in the sun. He cried with a loud voice, saying to all the birds that fly in the sky, “Come! Be gathered together to the great supper of God,<sup>k</sup> <sup>18</sup> that you may eat the flesh of kings, the flesh of captains, the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses and of those who sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and slave, and small and great.” <sup>19</sup> I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him who sat on the horse, and against his army. <sup>20</sup> The beast was taken, and with him the false prophet who worked the signs in his sight, with which he deceived those who had received the mark of the beast and those who worshiped his image. These two were thrown alive into the lake of fire that burns with sulfur. <sup>21</sup> The rest were killed with the sword of him who sat on the horse, the sword which came out of his mouth. All the birds were filled with their flesh.

<sup>1</sup> I saw an angel coming down out of heaven, having the key of the abyss and a great chain in his hand. <sup>2</sup> He seized the dragon, the old serpent, which is the devil and Satan, who deceives the whole inhabited earth, and bound him for a thousand years, <sup>3</sup> and cast him into the abyss, and shut it, and sealed it over him, that he should deceive the nations no more, until the thousand years were finished. After this, he must be freed for a short time. <sup>4</sup> I saw thrones, and they sat on them, and judgment was given to them. I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for the testimony of Jesus, and for the word of God, and such as didn't worship the beast nor his image, and didn't receive the mark on their forehead and on their hand. They lived and reigned with Christ for a thousand years. <sup>5</sup> The rest of the dead didn't live until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection. <sup>6</sup> Blessed and holy is he who has part in the first resurrection. Over these, the second death has no power, but they will be priests of God and of Christ, and will reign with him one thousand years.

<sup>7</sup> And after the thousand years, Satan will be released from his prison, <sup>8</sup> and he will come out to deceive the nations which are in the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to the war; the number of whom is as the sand of the sea. <sup>9</sup> They went up over the width of the earth, and surrounded the camp of the saints, and the beloved city. Fire came down out of heaven from God, and devoured them. <sup>10</sup> The devil who deceived them was thrown into the lake of fire and sulfur, where the beast and the false prophet are also. They will be tormented day and night forever and ever.

<sup>11</sup> I saw a great white throne, and him who sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away. There was found no place for them. <sup>12</sup> I saw the dead, the great and the small, standing before the throne, and they opened books. Another book was opened, which is the book of life. The dead were judged out of the things which were written in the books, according to their works. <sup>13</sup> The sea gave up the dead who were in it. Death and Hades<sup>l</sup> gave up the dead who were in them. They were judged, each one according to his works. <sup>14</sup> Death and Hades<sup>m</sup> were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death, the lake of fire. <sup>15</sup> If anyone was not found written in the book of life, he was cast into the lake of fire.

21

<sup>1</sup> I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth have passed away, and the sea is no more. <sup>2</sup> I saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared like a bride adorned for her husband. <sup>3</sup> I heard a loud voice out of heaven saying, "Behold, God's dwelling is with people, and he will dwell with them, and they will be his people, and God himself will be with them as their God. <sup>4</sup> He will wipe away from them every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; neither will there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain, any more. The first things have passed away."

<sup>5</sup> He who sits on the throne said, “Behold, I am making all things new.” He said, “Write, for these words of God are faithful and true.” <sup>6</sup> He said to me, “It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. I will give freely to him who is thirsty from the spring of the water of life. <sup>7</sup> He who overcomes, I will give him these things. I will be his God, and he will be my son. <sup>8</sup> But for the cowardly, unbelieving, sinners, abominable, murderers, sexually immoral, sorcerers,<sup>n</sup> idolaters, and all liars, their part is in the lake that burns with fire and sulfur, which is the second death.”

<sup>9</sup> One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls, who were loaded with the seven last plagues came, and he spoke with me, saying, “Come here. I will show you the wife, the Lamb’s bride.” <sup>10</sup> He carried me away in the Spirit to a great and high mountain, and showed me the holy city, Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, <sup>11</sup> having the glory of God. Her light was like a most precious stone, as if it were a jasper stone, clear as crystal; <sup>12</sup> having a great and high wall; having twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels; and names written on them, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel. <sup>13</sup> On the east were three gates; and on the north three gates; and on the south three gates; and on the west three gates. <sup>14</sup> The wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them twelve names of the twelve Apostles of the Lamb. <sup>15</sup> He who spoke with me had for a measure, a golden reed, to measure the city, its gates, and its walls. <sup>16</sup> The city is square, and its length is as great as its width. He measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand twelve stadia.<sup>o</sup> Its length, width, and height are equal. <sup>17</sup> Its wall is one hundred forty-four cubits,<sup>p</sup> by the measure of a man, that is, of an angel. <sup>18</sup> The construction of its wall was jasper. The city was pure gold, like pure glass. <sup>19</sup> The foundations of the city’s wall were adorned with all kinds of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire;<sup>q</sup> the third, chalcedony; the fourth, emerald; <sup>20</sup> the fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, topaz; the tenth, chrysoprasus; the eleventh, jacinth; and the twelfth, amethyst. <sup>21</sup> The twelve gates were twelve pearls. Each one of the gates was made of one pearl. The street of the city was pure gold, like transparent glass. <sup>22</sup> I saw no temple in it, for the Lord God, the Almighty, and the Lamb, are its temple. <sup>23</sup> The city has no need for the sun, neither of the moon, to shine, for the very glory of God illuminated it, and its lamp is the Lamb. <sup>24</sup> The nations will walk in its light. The kings of the earth bring the glory and honor of the nations into it. <sup>25</sup> Its gates will in no way be shut by day (for there will be no night there), <sup>26</sup> and they shall bring the glory and the honor of the nations into it so that they may enter. <sup>27</sup> There will in no way enter into it anything profane, or one who causes an abomination or a lie, but only those who are written in the Lamb’s book of life.

22

<sup>1</sup> He showed me a<sup>r</sup> river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb, <sup>2</sup> in the middle of its street. On this side of the river and on that was the tree of life, bearing twelve kinds of fruits, yielding its fruit every month. The leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations. <sup>3</sup> There will be no curse any more. The throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and his servants serve him. <sup>4</sup> They will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads. <sup>5</sup> There will be no night, and they need no lamp light; for the Lord God will illuminate them. They will reign forever and ever.

<sup>6</sup> He said to me, "These words are faithful and true. The Lord God of the spirits of the prophets sent his angel to show to his bondservants the things which must happen soon."

<sup>7</sup> "Behold, I come quickly. Blessed is he who keeps the words of the prophecy of this book."

<sup>8</sup> Now I, John, am the one who heard and saw these things. When I heard and saw, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel who had shown me these things. <sup>9</sup> He said to me, "See you don't do it! I am a fellow bondservant with you and with your brothers, the prophets, and with those who keep the words of this book. Worship God." <sup>10</sup> He said to me, "Don't seal up the words of the prophecy of this book, for the time is at hand. <sup>11</sup> He who acts unjustly, let him act unjustly still. He who is filthy, let him be filthy still. He who is righteous, let him do righteousness still. He who is holy, let him be holy still."

<sup>12</sup> "Behold, I come quickly. My reward is with me, to repay to each man according to his work. <sup>13</sup> I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End. <sup>14</sup> Blessed are those who do his commandments,<sup>s</sup> that they may have the right to the tree of life, and may enter in by the gates into the city. <sup>15</sup> Outside are the dogs, the sorcerers, the sexually immoral, the murderers, the idolaters, and everyone who loves and practices falsehood. <sup>16</sup> I, Jesus, have sent my angel to testify these things to you for the assemblies. I am the root and the offspring of David; the Bright and Morning Star."

<sup>17</sup> The Spirit and the bride say, "Come!" He who hears, let him say, "Come!" He who is thirsty, let him come. He who desires, let him take the water of life freely.

<sup>18</sup> I testify to everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book, if anyone adds to them, may God add to him the plagues which are written in this book. <sup>19</sup> If anyone takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy, may God take away his part from the tree<sup>t</sup> of life, and out of the holy city, which are written in this book. <sup>20</sup> He who testifies these things says, "Yes, I come quickly."

Amen! Yes, come, Lord Jesus.

World English Bible Glossary

The following words used in the World English Bible (WEB) are not very common, either because they refer to ancient weights, measures, or money, or because they are in some way unique to the Bible. If you find words in the World English Bible that you think should be added to this list, or if you have comments or corrections for this list, please let us know.

Abaddon

Abaddon is Hebrew for destruction.

Abba

Abba is a Chaldee word for father, used in a respectful, affectionate, and familiar way, like papa, dad, or daddy. Often used in prayer to refer to our Father in Heaven.

adultery

Adultery is having sexual intercourse with someone besides your own husband or wife. In the Bible, the only legitimate sexual intercourse is between a man and a woman who are married to each other.

alpha

Alpha is the first letter of the Greek alphabet. It is sometimes used to mean the beginning or the first.

amen

Amen means “so be it” or “it is certainly so.”

angel

“Angel” literally means “messenger” or “envoy,” and is usually used to refer to spiritual beings who normally are invisible to us, but can also appear as exceedingly strong creatures or as humans.

Apollyon

Apollyon is Greek for destroyer.

apostle

“Apostle” means a delegate, messenger, or one sent forth with orders. This term is applied in the New Testament in both a general sense connected with a ministry of establishing and strengthening church fellowships, as well as in a specific sense to “The 12 Apostles of the Lamb” (Revelation 21:14). The former category applies to a specific ministry that continues in the Church (Ephesians 4:11-13) and which includes many more than 12 people, while the latter refers to the apostles named in Matthew 10:2-4, except with Judas Iscariot replaced by Matthias (Acts 1:26).

Armageddon

See Har-magedon.

assarion

An assarion is a small Roman copper coin worth one tenth of a drachma, or about an hour's wages for an agricultural laborer.

aureus

An aureus is a Roman gold coin, worth 25 silver denarii. An aureus weighed from 115 to 126.3 grains (7.45 to 8.18 grams).

baptize

Baptize means to immerse in, or wash with something, usually water. Baptism in the Holy Spirit, fire, the Body of Christ, and suffering are also mentioned in the New Testament, along with baptism in water. Baptism is not just to cleanse the body, but as an outward sign of an inward spiritual cleansing and commitment. Baptism is a sign of repentance, as practiced by John the Baptizer, and of faith in Jesus Christ, as practiced by Jesus' disciples.

bath

A bath is a liquid measure of about 22 liters, 5.8 U. S. gallons, or 4.8 imperial gallons.

batos

A batos is a liquid measure of about 39.5 liters, 10.4 U. S. gallons, or 8.7 imperial gallons.

Beelzebul

literally, lord of the flies. A name used for the devil.

Beersheba

Beersheba is Hebrew for "well of the oath" or "well of the seven." A city in Israel.

behold

Look! See! Wow! Notice this! Lo!

cherub

A cherub is a kind of angel with wings and hands that is associated with the throne room of God and guardian duty. See Ezekiel 10.

cherubim

Cherubim means more than one cherub or a mighty cherub.

choenix

A choenix is a dry volume measure that is a little more than a liter (which is a little more than a quart). A choenix was the daily ration of grain for a soldier in some armies.

concubine

a woman who is united to a man for the purpose of providing him with sexual pleasure and children, but not being honored as a full partner in marriage; a second-class wife. In Old Testament times (and in some places now), it was the custom of middle-eastern kings, chiefs, and wealthy men to marry multiple wives and concubines, but God commanded the Kings of Israel not to do so (Deuteronomy 17:17) and Jesus encouraged people to either remain single or marry as God originally intended: one man married to one woman (Matthew 19:3-12; 1 Corinthians 7:1-13).

cor

A cor is a dry measure of about 391 liters, 103 U. S. gallons, or 86 imperial gallons.

corban

Corban is a Hebrew word for an offering devoted to God.

crucify

Crucify means to execute someone by nailing them to a cross with metal spikes. Their hands are stretched out on the crossbeam with spikes driven through their wrists or hands. Their feet or ankles are attached to a cross with a metal spike. The weight of the victim's body tends to force the air out of his lungs. To rise up to breathe, the victim has to put weight on the wounds, and use a lot of strength. The victim is nailed to the cross while the cross is on the ground, then the cross is raised up and dropped into a hole, thus jarring the wounds. Before crucifixion, the victim was usually whipped with a Roman cat of nine tails, which had bits of glass and metal tied to its ends. This caused chunks of flesh to be removed and open wounds to be placed against the raw wood of the cross. The victim was made to carry the heavy crossbeam of his cross from the place of judgment to the place of crucifixion, but often was physically unable after the scourging, so another person would be pressed into involuntary service to carry the cross for him. Roman crucifixion was generally done totally naked to maximize both shame and discomfort. Eventually, the pain, weakness, dehydration, and exhaustion of the muscles needed to breathe make breathing impossible, and the victim suffocates.

cubit

A cubit is a unit of linear measure, from the elbow to the tip of the longest finger of a man. This unit is commonly converted to 0.46 meters or 18 inches, although that varies with height of the man doing the measurement. There is also a “long” cubit that is longer than a regular cubit by a handbreadth. (Ezekiel 43:13)

cummin

Cummin is an aromatic seed from Cuminum cyminum, resembling caraway in flavor and appearance. It is used as a spice.

darnel

Darnel is a weed grass (probably bearded darnel or Lolium temulentum) that looks very much like wheat until it is mature, when the seeds reveal a great difference. Darnel seeds aren't good for much except as chicken feed or to burn to prevent the spread of this weed.

denarii

denarii: plural form of denarius, a silver Roman coin worth about a day's wages for a laborer.

denarius

A denarius is a silver Roman coin worth about a day's wages for an agricultural laborer. A denarius was worth 1/25th of a Roman aureus.

devil

The word “devil” comes from the Greek “diabolos,” which means “one prone to slander; a liar.” “Devil” is used to refer to a fallen angel, also called “Satan,” who works to steal, kill, destroy, and do evil. The devil's doom is certain, and it is only a matter of time before he is thrown into the Lake of Fire, never to escape.

didrachma

A didrachma is a Greek silver coin worth 2 drachmas, about as much as 2 Roman denarii, or about 2 days wages. It was commonly used to pay the half-shekel temple tax.

distaff

part of a spinning wheel used for twisting threads.

drachma

A drachma is a Greek silver coin worth about one Roman denarius, or about a day's wages for an agricultural laborer.

El-Elohe-Israel

El-Elohe-Israel means “God, the God of Israel” or “The God of Israel is mighty.”

ephah

An ephah is a measure of volume of about 22 liters, 5.8 U. S. gallons, 4.8 imperial gallons, or a bit more than half a bushel.

Gehenna

Gehenna is one word used for Hell. It comes from the Hebrew Gey-Hinnom, literally “valley of Hinnom.” This word originated as the name for a place south of the old city of Jerusalem where the city's rubbish was burned. At one time, live babies were thrown crying into the fire under the arms of the idol, Moloch, to die there. This place was so despised by the people after the righteous King Josiah abolished this hideous practice that it was made into a garbage heap. Bodies of diseased animals and executed criminals were thrown there and burned.

Gittith is a musical term possibly meaning “an instrument of Gath.”

goad

a sharp, pointed prodding device used to motivate reluctant animals (such as oxen and mules) to move in the right direction.

gospel

Gospel means “good news” or “glad tidings,” specifically the Good News of Jesus’ life, death, and resurrection for our salvation, healing, and provision; and the hope of eternal life that Jesus made available to us by God's grace.

Hades

Hades: The nether realm of the disembodied spirits. Also known as “hell.”

Har-magedon

Har-magedon, also called Armageddon, is most likely a reference to hill (“har”) of Megiddo, near the Carmel Range in Israel. This area has a large valley plain with plenty of room for armies to maneuver.

hin

A hin was about 6.5 liters or 1.7 gallons.

homer

One homer is about 220 liters, 6.2 U. S. bushels, 6.1 imperial bushels, 58 U. S. gallons, or 48.4 imperial gallons.

hypocrite

a stage actor; someone who pretends to be someone other than who they really are;
a pretender; a dissembler

Ishmael

Ishmael is the son of Abraham and Hagar. Ishmael literally means, "God hears."

Jehovah

See "Yahweh."

Jesus

"Jesus" is Greek for the Hebrew name "Yeshua," which is a short version of "Yehoshua," which comes from "Yoshia," which means "He will save."

kodrantēs

A kodrantēs is a small coin worth one half of an Attic chalcus or two lepta. It is worth less than 2% of a day's wages for an agricultural laborer.

lepta

Lepta are very small, brass, Jewish coins worth half a Roman quadrans each, which is worth a quarter of the copper assarion. Lepta are worth less than 1% of an agricultural worker's daily wages.

Leviathan

Leviathan is a poetic name for a large aquatic creature, possibly a crocodile or a dinosaur.

Mahalath

Mahalath is the name of a tune or a musical term.

manna

Name for the food that God miraculously provided to the Israelites while they were wandering in the wilderness between Egypt and the promised land. From Hebrew man-hu (What is that?) or manan (to allot). See Exodus 16:14-35.

marriage

the union of a husband and a wife for the purpose of cohabitation, procreation, and to enjoy each other's company. God's plan for marriage is between one man and one woman (Mark 10:6-9; 1 Corinthians 7). Although there are many cases of a man marrying more than one woman in the Old Testament, being married to one wife is a requirement to serve in certain church leadership positions (1 Timothy 3:2,12; Titus 1:5-6).

Maschil

Maschil is a musical and literary term for "contemplation" or "meditative psalm."

michtam

A michtam is a poem.

mina

A mina is a Greek coin worth 100 Greek drachmas (or 100 Roman denarii), or about 100 day's wages for an agricultural laborer.

myrrh

Myrrh is the fragrant substance that oozes out of the stems and branches of the low, shrubby tree commiphora myrrha or comiphora kataf native to the Arabian deserts and parts of Africa. The fragrant gum drops to the ground and hardens into an oily yellowish-brown resin. Myrrh was highly valued as a perfume, and as an ingredient in medicinal and ceremonial ointments.

Nicolaitans

Nicolaitans were most likely Gnostics who taught the detestable lie that the physical and spiritual realms were entirely separate and that immorality in the physical realm wouldn't harm your spiritual health.

omega

Omega is the last letter of the Greek alphabet. It is sometimes used to mean the last or the end.

Peniel

Peniel is Hebrew for "face of God."

phylactery

a leather container for holding a small scroll containing important Scripture passages that is worn on the arm or forehead in prayer. These phylacteries (tefillin in Hebrew) are still used by orthodox Jewish men. See Deuteronomy 6:8.

Praetorium

Praetorium: the Roman governor's residence and office building, and those who work there.

quadrans

A quadrans is a Roman coin worth about 1/64 of a denarius. A denarius is about one day's wages for an agricultural laborer.

rabbi

Rabbi is a transliteration of the Hebrew word for "my teacher," used as a title of respect for Jewish teachers.

Rahab

Rahab is either (1) The prostitute who hid Joshua's 2 spies in Jericho (Joshua 2,6) and later became an ancestor of Jesus (Matthew 1:5) and an example of faith (Hebrews 11:31; James 2:25). (2) Literally, "pride" or "arrogance" — possibly a reference to a large aquatic creature (Job 9:13; 26:12; Isaiah 51:9) or symbolically referring to Egypt (Psalm 87:4; 89:10; Isaiah 30:7).

repent

to change one's mind; turn away from sin and turn towards God; to abhor one's past sins and determine to follow God.

Rhabboni

Rhabboni: a transliteration of the Hebrew word for "great teacher."

Sabbath

The seventh day of the week, set aside by God for man to rest.

saints

The Greek word for "saints" literally means "holy ones." Saints are people set apart for service to God as holy and separate, living in righteousness. Used in the Bible to refer to all Christians and to all of those who worship Yahweh in Old Testament times.

Samaritan

A Samaritan is a resident of Samaria. The Samaritans and the Jews generally detested each other during the time that Jesus walked the Earth.

sata

a dry measure of capacity approximately equal to 13 liters or 1.5 pecks.

Satan

Satan means "accuser." This is one name for the devil, an enemy of God and God's people.

scribe

A scribe is one who copies God's law. They were often respected as teachers and authorities on God's law.

selah

Selah is a musical term indicating a pause or instrumental interlude for reflection.

sexual immorality

The term "sexual immorality" in the New Testament comes from the Greek "porneia," which refers to any sexual activity besides that between a husband and his wife. In other words, prostitution (male or female), bestiality, homosexual activity, any sexual intercourse outside of marriage, and the production and consumption of pornography all are included in this term.

shekel

A measure of weight, and when referring to that weight in gold, silver, or brass, of money. A shekel is approximately 16 grams, about a half an ounce, or 20 gerahs (Ezekiel 45:12).

Sheol

Sheol is the place of the dead.

Shibah

Shibah is Hebrew for “oath” or “seven.” See Beersheba.

shigionoth

Victorious music.

soul

“Soul” refers to the emotions and intellect of a living person, as well as that person’s very life. It is distinguished in the Bible from a person’s spirit and body. (1 Thessalonians 5:23, Hebrews 4:12)

span

The length from the tip of the thumb to the tip of the little finger when the hand is stretched out (about 9 inches or 22.8 cm.).

spirit

Spirit, breath, and wind all derive from the same Hebrew and Greek words. A person’s spirit is the very essence of that person’s life, which comes from God, who is a Spirit being (John 4:24, Genesis 1:2; 2:7). The Bible distinguishes between a person’s spirit, soul, and body (1 Thessalonians 5:23, Hebrews 4:12). Some beings may exist as spirits without necessarily having a visible body, such as angels and demons (Luke 9:39, 1 John 4:1-3).

stadia

stadia: plural for “stadion,” a linear measure of about 184.9 meters or 606.6 feet (the length of the race course at Olympia).

stater

A stater is a Greek silver coin equivalent to four Attic or two Alexandrian drachmas, or a Jewish shekel: just exactly enough to cover the half-shekel Temple Tax for two people.

tabernacle

a dwelling place or place of worship, usually a tent.

talent

A measure of weight or mass of 3000 shekels.

Tartarus

Tartarus is the Greek name for an underworld for the wicked dead; another name for Gehenna or Hell.

teraphim

Teraphim are household idols that may have been associated with inheritance rights to the household property.

Yah

“Yah” is a shortened form of “Yahweh,” which is God’s proper name. This form is used occasionally in the Old Testament, mostly in the Psalms. See “Yahweh.”

Yahweh

“Yahweh” is God's proper name. In Hebrew, the four consonants roughly equivalent to YHWH were considered too holy to pronounce, so the Hebrew word for “Lord” (Adonai) was substituted when reading it aloud. When vowel points were added to the Hebrew Old Testament, the vowel points for “Adonai” were mixed with the consonants for “Yahweh,” which if you pronounced it literally as written, would be pronounced “Yehovah” or “Jehovah.” When the Old Testament was translated to Greek, the tradition of substituting “Lord” for God’s proper name continued in the translation of God’s name to “Lord” (Kurios). Some English Bibles translate God’s proper name to “LORD” or “GOD” (usually with small capital letters), based on that same tradition. This can get really confusing, since two other words (“Adonai” and “Elohim”) translate to “Lord” and “God,” and they are sometimes used together. The ASV of 1901 (and some other translations) render YHWH as “Jehovah.” The most probable pronunciation of God's proper name is “Yahweh.” In Hebrew, the name “Yahweh” is related to the active declaration “I AM.” See Exodus 3:13-14. Since Hebrew has no tenses, the declaration “I AM” can also be interpreted as “I WAS” and “I WILL BE.” Compare Revelation 1:8.
