Translation Status

The World English Bible is a work in progress. As of 27 Mar 2013: All Old Testament and New Testament books are essentially done EXCEPT for JEREMIAH, LAMENTATIONS, EZEKIEL, and DANIEL. Editing work continues on those books and the Apocrypha/Deuterocanon/Pseudepigrapha books, mostly in the form of slight updates to language and punctuation, but the meaning should be correct as those books read now. The companion Apocrypha/Deuterocanon of the World English Bible is mostly (except for Psalm 151) in a rough draft form, as an automated language update of portions of the Apocrypha from the Revised Version and portions from the "LXX2012: Septuagint in English 2012". New updates will be posted on <http://eBible.org/web/>, also accessible at <http://WorldEnglishBible.org>.

What is the Holy Bible?

The Holy Bible is a collection of books and letters written by many people who were inspired by the Holy Spirit of God. These books tell us how we can be saved from the evil of this world and gain eternal life that is truly worth living. Although the Holy Bible contains rules of conduct, it is not just a rule book. It reveals God's heart—a Father's heart, full of love and compassion. The Holy Bible tells you what you need to know and believe to be saved from sin and evil and how to live a life that is truly worth living, no matter what your current circumstances may be.

The Holy Bible consists of two main sections: the Old Testament (including Psalms and Proverbs) and the New Testament (Matthew through Revelation). The Old Testament records God's interaction with mankind before He sent His son to redeem us, while recording prophesy predicting that coming. The New Testament tells us of God's Son and Anointed One, Jesus, and the wonderful salvation that He purchased for us.

The same Holy Spirit who inspired the Holy Bible is living among us today, and He is happy to help you understand what He intended as you study His Word. Just ask Him, and He is more than happy to help you apply His message to your life.

The Old Testament was originally written mostly in Hebrew. The New Testament was originally written mostly in the common street Greek (not the formal Greek used for official legal matters). The Holy Bible is translated into many languages, and being translated into many more, so that everyone may have an opportunity to hear the Good News about Jesus Christ.

Why was the World English Bible translated?

There are already many good translations of the Holy Bible into contemporary English. Unfortunately, almost all of them are restricted by copyright and copyright holder policy. This restricts publication and republication of God's Word in many ways, such as in downloadable files on the Internet, use of extensive quotations in books, etc. The World English Bible was commissioned by God in response to prayer about this subject.

Because the World English Bible is in the Public Domain (not copyrighted), it can be freely copied, distributed, and redistributed without any payment of royalties. You don't even have to ask permission to do so. You may publish the whole World English Bible in book form, bind it in leather and sell it. You may incorporate it into your Bible study software. You may make and distribute audio recordings of it. You may broadcast it. All you have to do is maintain the integrity of God's Word before God, and reserve the name "World English Bible" for faithful copies of this translation.

How was the World English Bible translated?

The World English Bible is an update of the American Standard Version (ASV) of the Holy Bible, published in 1901. A custom computer program updated the archaic words and word forms to contemporary equivalents, and then a team of volunteers proofread and updated the grammar. The New Testament was updated to conform to the Majority Text reconstruction of the original Greek manuscripts, thus taking advantage of the superior access to manuscripts that we have now compared to when the original ASV was translated.

What is different about the World English Bible?

The style of the World English Bible, while fairly literally translated, is in informal, spoken English. The World English Bible is designed to sound good and be accurate when read aloud. It is not formal in its language, just as the original Greek of the New Testament was not formal. The WEB uses contractions rather freely.

The World English Bible doesn't capitalize pronouns pertaining to God. The original manuscripts made no such distinction. Hebrew has no such thing as upper and lower case, and the original Greek manuscripts were written in all upper case letters. Attempting to add in such a distinction raises some difficulties in translating dual-meaning Scriptures such as the coronation psalms.

The World English Bible main edition translates God's Proper Name in the Old Testament as "Yahweh." The Messianic Edition and the British Edition of the World English Bible translates the same name as "LORD" (all capital letters), or when used with "Lord" (mixed case, translated from "Adonai",) GOD. There are solid translational arguments for both traditions.

Because World English Bible uses the Majority Text as the basis for the New Testament, you may notice the following differences in comparing the WEB to other translations:

The order of Matthew 23:13 and 14 is reversed in some translations.

Luke 17:36 and Acts 15:34, which are not found in the majority of the Greek Manuscripts (and are relegated to footnotes in the WEB) may be included in some other translations.

Romans 14:24-26 in the WEB may appear as Romans 16:25-27 in other translations.

1 John 5:7-8 contains an addition in some translations, including the KJV. Erasmus admitted adding this text to his published Greek New Testament, even though he could at first find no Greek manuscript support for it, because he was being pressured by men to do so, and because he didn't see any doctrinal harm in it. Lots of things not written by John in this letter are true, but we decline to add them to what the Holy Spirit inspired through John.

With all of the above and some other places where lack of clarity in the original manuscripts has led to multiple possible readings, significant variants are listed in footnotes. The reading that in our prayerful judgment is best is in the main text. Overall, the World English Bible isn't very much different than several other good contemporary English translations of the Holy Bible. The message of Salvation through Jesus Christ is still the same. The point of this translation was not to be very different (except for legal status), but to update the ASV for readability while retaining or improving the accuracy of that well-respected translation and retaining the public domain status of the ASV.

Does the World English Bible include the Apocrypha?

The World English Bible is an ecumenical project that includes books included in Bibles in many denominations. The main 66 books of the Old and New Testaments are recognized as Scripture by all true Christians. There are also books considered to be part of, depending on which book and who you ask, Deuterocanon, Apocrypha, and Pseudepigrapha.

The following books and parts of books are recognized as Deuterocanonical Scripture by the Roman Catholic, Greek, and Russian Orthodox Churches: Tobit, Judith, Esther from the Greek Septuagint, The Wisdom of Solomon, Ecclesiasticus or the Wisdom of Jesus Son of Sirach, Baruch, The Letter of Jeremiah (sometimes included as chapter 6 of Baruch), Daniel from the Greek Septuagint (including the Prayer of Azariah and the Song of the Three Jews, Susanna, and Bel and the Dragon), 1 Maccabees, 2 Maccabees. If you count the Greek Esther as one book and the extra parts of Daniel found in the Greek but not the Hebrew Old Testament as separate books, that makes a total of 88 books in the Roman Catholic Bible.

The following books are recognized as Deuterocanonical Scripture by the Greek and Russian Orthodox Churches, but not the Roman Catholic Church: 1 Esdras, The Prayer of Manasseh, Psalm 151, and 3 Maccabees. Note that 1 Esdras and the Prayer of Manasseh are also in an appendix to the Latin Vulgate Bible.

The Slavonic Bible includes 2 Esdras, but calls it 3 Esdras. This same book is in the Appendix to the Latin Vulgate as 4 Esdras.

An appendix to the Greek Septuagint contains 4 Maccabees. It is included for its historical value.

The World English Bible: Messianic Edition and World English Bible British Messianic Edition do not include any of the Apocryphal books, since they are not considered Scripture in the Hebrew tradition.

Among Christian denominations, opinions vary widely on these books, as do the collective names they give them. Many regard them as useful in gaining additional understanding of the Old and New Testaments and the hand of God in history, even if they don't give them the same status as the 66 books of the Old and New Testaments.

The First Book of Moses,

Commonly Called

Genesis

1

<sup>3</sup> God said, "Let there be light," and there was light. <sup>4</sup> God saw the light, and saw that it was good. God divided the light from the darkness. <sup>5</sup> God called the light "day", and the darkness he called "night". There was evening and there was morning, the first day.

<sup>6</sup> God said, "Let there be an expanse in the middle of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters." <sup>7</sup> God made the expanse, and divided the waters which were under the expanse from the waters which were above the expanse; and it was so. <sup>8</sup> God called the expanse "sky". There was evening and there was morning, a second day.

<sup>9</sup> God said, "Let the waters under the sky be gathered together to one place, and let the dry land appear"; and it was so. <sup>10</sup> God called the dry land "earth", and the gathering together of the waters he called "seas". God saw that it was good. <sup>11</sup> God said, "Let the earth yield grass, herbs yielding seeds, and fruit trees bearing fruit after their kind, with their seeds in it, on the earth"; and it was so. <sup>12</sup> The earth yielded grass, herbs yielding seed after their kind, and trees bearing fruit, with their seeds in it, after their kind; and God saw that it was good. <sup>13</sup> There was evening and there was morning, a third day.

<sup>14</sup> God said, "Let there be lights in the expanse of sky to divide the day from the night; and let them be for signs to mark seasons, days, and years; <sup>15</sup> and let them be for lights in the expanse of sky to give light on the earth"; and it was so. <sup>16</sup> God made the two great lights: the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night. He also made the stars. <sup>17</sup> God set them in the expanse of sky to give light to the earth, <sup>18</sup> and to rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness. God saw that it was good. <sup>19</sup> There was evening and there was morning, a fourth day.

<sup>24</sup> God said, “Let the earth produce living creatures after their kind, livestock, creeping things, and animals of the earth after their kind”; and it was so. <sup>25</sup> God made the animals of the earth after their kind, and the livestock after their kind, and everything that creeps on the ground after its kind. God saw that it was good.

<sup>26</sup> God said, “Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the sky, and over the livestock, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth.” <sup>27</sup> God created man in his own image. In God’s image he created him; male and female he created them. <sup>28</sup> God blessed them. God said to them, “Be fruitful, multiply, fill the earth, and subdue it. Have dominion over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the sky, and over every living thing that moves on the earth.” <sup>29</sup> God said, “Behold,<sup>b</sup> I have given you every herb yielding seed, which is on the surface of all the earth, and every tree, which bears fruit yielding seed. It will be your food. <sup>30</sup> To every animal of the earth, and to every bird of the sky, and to everything that creeps on the earth, in which there is life, I have given every green herb for food;” and it was so.

<sup>31</sup> God saw everything that he had made, and, behold, it was very good. There was evening and there was morning, a sixth day.

and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had done. <sup>3</sup> God blessed the seventh day, and made it holy, because he rested in it from all his work of creation which he had done.

<sup>4</sup> This is the history of the generations of the heavens and of the earth when they were created, in the day that Yahweh<sup>c</sup> God made the earth and the heavens. <sup>5</sup> No plant of the field was yet in the earth, and no herb of the field had yet sprung up; for Yahweh God had not caused it to rain on the earth. There was not a man to till the ground, <sup>6</sup> but a mist went up from the earth, and watered the whole surface of the ground. <sup>7</sup> Yahweh God formed man from the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul. <sup>8</sup> Yahweh God planted a garden eastward, in Eden, and there he put the man whom he had formed. <sup>9</sup> Out of the ground Yahweh God made every tree to grow that is pleasant to the sight, and good for food, including the tree of life in the middle of the garden and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. <sup>10</sup> A river went out of Eden to water the garden; and from there it was parted, and became the source of four rivers. <sup>11</sup> The name of the first is Pishon: it flows through the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold; <sup>12</sup> and the gold of that land is good. Bdelium<sup>d</sup> and onyx stone are also there. <sup>13</sup> The name of the second river is Gihon. It is the same river that flows through the whole land of Cush. <sup>14</sup> The name of the third river is Hiddekel. This is the one which flows in front of Assyria. The fourth river is the Euphrates. <sup>15</sup> Yahweh God took the man, and put him into the garden of Eden to cultivate and keep it. <sup>16</sup> Yahweh God commanded the man, saying, “You may freely eat of every tree of the garden; <sup>17</sup> but you shall not eat of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil; for in the day that you eat of it, you will surely die.”

<sup>18</sup> Yahweh God said, “It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make him a helper comparable to<sup>e</sup> him.” <sup>19</sup> Out of the ground Yahweh God formed every animal of the field, and every bird of the sky, and brought them to the man to see what he would call them. Whatever the man called every living creature became its name. <sup>20</sup> The man gave names to all livestock, and to the birds of the sky, and to every animal of the field; but for man there was not found a helper comparable to him. <sup>21</sup> Yahweh God caused the man to fall into a deep sleep. As the man slept, he took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh in its place. <sup>22</sup> Yahweh God made a woman from the rib which had taken from the man, and brought her to the man. <sup>23</sup> The man said, “This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh. She will be called ‘woman,’ because she was taken out of Man.” <sup>24</sup> Therefore a man will leave his father and his mother, and will join with his wife, and they will be one flesh. <sup>25</sup> The man and his wife were both naked, and they were not ashamed.

3

<sup>1</sup> Now the serpent was more subtle than any animal of the field which Yahweh God had made. He said to the woman, “Has God really said, ‘You shall not eat of any tree of the garden?’”

<sup>2</sup> The woman said to the serpent, “We may eat fruit from the trees of the garden, <sup>3</sup> but not the fruit of the tree which is in the middle of the garden. God has said, ‘You shall not eat of it. You shall not touch it, lest you die.’”

<sup>4</sup> The serpent said to the woman, “You won’t surely die, <sup>5</sup> for God knows that in the day you eat it, your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil.”

<sup>6</sup> When the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a delight to the eyes, and that the tree was to be desired to make one wise, she took some of its fruit, and ate; and she gave some to her husband with her, and he ate it, too. <sup>7</sup> Their eyes were opened, and they both knew that they were naked. They sewed fig leaves together, and made coverings for themselves. <sup>8</sup> They heard Yahweh God’s voice walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of Yahweh God among the trees of the garden.

<sup>10</sup> The man said, “I heard your voice in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself.”

<sup>11</sup> God said, “Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree that I commanded you not to eat from?”

<sup>12</sup> The man said, “The woman whom you gave to be with me, she gave me fruit from the tree, and I ate it.”

<sup>13</sup> Yahweh God said to the woman, “What have you done?”

The woman said, “The serpent deceived me, and I ate.”

<sup>e</sup> or, suitable for, or appropriate for.

14 Yahweh God said to the serpent, “Because you have done this,
 you are cursed above all livestock, and above every animal of the field.
 You shall go on your belly and you shall eat dust all the days of your life.

15 I will put hostility between you and the woman, and between your offspring and her offspring.
 He will bruise your head, and you will bruise his heel.”

16 To the woman he said, “I will greatly multiply your pain in childbirth.
 In pain you will bear children.
 Your desire will be for your husband, and he will rule over you.”

17 To Adam he said, “Because you have listened to your wife’s voice, and ate from the tree,
 about which I commanded you, saying, ‘You shall not eat of it,’
 the ground is cursed for your sake.
 You will eat from it with much labor all the days of your life.

18 It will yield thorns and thistles to
 you;
 and you will eat the herb of the field.

19 By the sweat of your face will you eat bread until you return to the ground, for out of it you were taken.
 For you are dust,
 and to dust you shall return.”

20 The man called his wife Eve because she would be the mother of all the living. 21 Yahweh God made coats of animal skins for Adam and for his wife, and clothed them.

22 Yahweh God said, “Behold, the man has become like one of us, knowing good and evil. Now, lest he reach out his hand, and also take of the tree of life, and eat, and live forever...” 23 Therefore Yahweh God sent him out from the garden of Eden, to till the ground from which he was taken. 24
 So he drove out the man; and he placed cherubim<sup>f</sup> at the east of the garden of Eden, and a flaming sword which turned every way, to guard the way to the tree of life.

4

1 The man knew<sup>g</sup> Eve his wife. She conceived,<sup>h</sup> and gave birth to Cain, and said, “I have gotten a man with Yahweh’s help.” 2 Again she gave birth, to Cain’s brother Abel. Abel was a keeper of sheep, but Cain was a tiller of the ground. 3 As time passed, Cain brought an offering to Yahweh from the fruit of the ground. 4 Abel also brought some of the firstborn of his flock and of its fat. Yahweh respected Abel and his offering, 5 but he didn’t respect Cain and his offering. Cain was very angry, and the expression on his face fell. 6 Yahweh said to Cain, “Why are you angry? Why has the expression of your face fallen? 7 If you do well, won’t it be lifted up? If you don’t do well, sin crouches at the door. Its desire is for you, but you are to rule over it.” 8 Cain said to Abel, his brother, “Let’s go into the field.” While <sup>f</sup> cherubim are powerful angelic creatures, messengers of God with wings. See Ezekiel 10. <sup>g</sup> or, lay with, or, had relations with they were in the field, Cain rose up against Abel, his brother, and killed him.

He said, “I don’t know. Am I my brother’s keeper?”

<sup>10</sup> Yahweh said, “What have you done? The voice of your brother’s blood cries to me from the ground. <sup>11</sup> Now you are cursed because of the ground, which has opened its mouth to receive your brother’s blood from your hand. <sup>12</sup> From now on, when you till the ground, it won’t yield its strength to you. You will be a fugitive and a wanderer in the earth.”

<sup>13</sup> Cain said to Yahweh, “My punishment is greater than I can bear. <sup>14</sup> Behold, you have driven me out today from the surface of the ground. I will be hidden from your face, and I will be a fugitive and a wanderer in the earth. Whoever finds me will kill me.”

<sup>15</sup> Yahweh said to him, “Therefore whoever slays Cain, vengeance will be taken on him sevenfold.” Yahweh appointed a sign for Cain, so that anyone finding him would not strike him.

dwell in tents and have livestock. <sup>21</sup> His brother’s name was Jubal, who was the father of all who handle the harp and pipe.

“Adah and Zillah, hear my voice.

You wives of Lamech, listen to my speech, for I have slain a man for wounding me, a young man for bruising me.

<sup>25</sup> Adam knew his wife again. She gave birth to a son, and named him Seth, saying, “for God has given me another child instead of Abel, for Cain killed him.” <sup>26</sup> A son was also born to Seth, and he named him Enosh. At that time men began to call on Yahweh’s name.

hundred seven years, and became the father of other sons and daughters. <sup>8</sup> All of the days of Seth were nine hundred twelve years, then he died.

<sup>9</sup> Enosh lived ninety years, and became the father of Kenan. <sup>10</sup> Enosh lived after he became the father of Kenan, eight hundred fifteen years, and became the father of other sons and daughters. <sup>11</sup> All of the days of Enosh were nine hundred five years, then he died.

<sup>12</sup> Kenan lived seventy years, then became the father of Mahalalel. <sup>13</sup> Kenan lived after he became the father of Mahalalel eight hundred forty years, and became the father of other sons and daughters <sup>14</sup> and all of the days of Kenan were nine hundred ten years, then he died.

<sup>15</sup> Mahalalel lived sixty-five years, then became the father of Jared. <sup>16</sup> Mahalalel lived after he became the father of Jared eight hundred thirty years, and became the father of other sons and daughters. <sup>17</sup> All of the days of Mahalalel were eight hundred ninety-five years, then he died.

<sup>18</sup> Jared lived one hundred sixty-two years, then became the father of Enoch. <sup>19</sup> Jared lived after he became the father of Enoch eight hundred years, and became the father of other sons and daughters. <sup>20</sup> All of the days of Jared were nine hundred sixty-two years, then he died.

God, and he was not found, for God took him.

<sup>25</sup> Methuselah lived one hundred eighty-seven years, then became the father of Lamech. <sup>26</sup> Methuselah lived after he became the father of Lamech seven hundred eighty-two years, and became the father of other sons and daughters. <sup>27</sup> All the days of Methuselah were nine hundred sixty-nine years, then he died.

<sup>28</sup> Lamech lived one hundred eighty-two years, then became the father of a son. <sup>29</sup> He named him Noah, saying, "This one will comfort us in our work and in the toil of our hands, caused by the ground which Yahweh has cursed." <sup>30</sup> Lamech lived after he became the father of Noah five hundred ninety-five years, and became the father of other sons and daughters. <sup>31</sup> All the days of Lamech were seven hundred seventy-seven years, then he died.

<sup>1</sup> When men began to multiply on the surface of the ground, and daughters were born to them, <sup>2</sup> God's sons saw that men's daughters were beautiful, and they took any that they wanted for themselves as wives. <sup>3</sup> Yahweh said, "My Spirit will not strive with man forever, because he also is flesh; so his days will be one hundred twenty years." <sup>4</sup> The Nephilim<sup>j</sup> were in the earth in those days, and also after that, when God's sons came in to men's daughters and had children with them. Those were the mighty men who were of old, men of renown.

<sup>5</sup> Yahweh saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of man's heart was continually only evil. <sup>6</sup> Yahweh was sorry that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him in his heart. <sup>7</sup> Yahweh said, "I will destroy man whom I have created from the surface of the ground—man, along with animals, creeping things, and birds of the sky—for I am sorry that I have made them." <sup>8</sup> But Noah found favor in Yahweh's eyes.

<sup>13</sup> God said to Noah, "I will bring an end to all flesh, for the earth is filled with violence through them. Behold, I will destroy them and the earth. <sup>14</sup> Make a ship of gopher wood. You shall make rooms in the ship, and shall seal it inside and outside with pitch. <sup>15</sup> This is how you shall make it. The length of the ship shall be three hundred cubits,<sup>k</sup> its width fifty cubits, and its height thirty cubits. <sup>16</sup> You shall make a roof in the ship, and you shall finish it to a cubit upward. You shall set the door of the ship in its side. You shall make it with lower, second, and third levels. <sup>17</sup> I, even I, do bring the flood of waters on this earth, to destroy all flesh having the breath of life from under the sky. Everything that is in the earth will die. <sup>18</sup> But I will establish my covenant with you. You shall come into the ship, you, your sons, your wife, and your sons' wives with you. <sup>19</sup> Of every living thing of all flesh, you shall bring two of every sort into the ship, to keep them alive with you. They shall be male and female. <sup>20</sup> Of the birds after their kind, of the livestock after their kind, of every creeping thing of the ground after its kind, two of every sort will come to you, to keep them alive. <sup>21</sup> Take with you of all food that is eaten, and gather it to yourself; and it will be for food for you, and for them." <sup>22</sup> Thus Noah did. He did all that God commanded him.

on the ground <sup>9</sup> went by pairs to Noah into the ship, male and female, as God commanded Noah. <sup>10</sup> After the seven days, the floodwaters came on the earth. <sup>11</sup> In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, on the seventeenth day of the month, on the same day all the fountains of the great deep were burst open, and the sky's windows were opened. <sup>12</sup> It rained on the earth forty days and forty nights.

<sup>13</sup> In the same day Noah, and Shem, Ham, and Japheth—the sons of Noah—and Noah's wife and the three wives of his sons with them, entered into the ship— <sup>14</sup> they, and every animal after its kind, all the livestock after their kind, every creeping thing that creeps on the earth after its kind, and every bird after its kind, every bird of every sort. <sup>15</sup> Pairs from all flesh with the breath of life in them went to Noah into the ship. <sup>16</sup> Those who went in, went in male and female of all flesh, as God commanded him; then Yahweh shut him in. <sup>17</sup> The flood was forty days on the earth. The waters increased, and lifted up the ship, and it was lifted up above the earth. <sup>18</sup> The waters rose, and increased greatly on the earth; and the ship floated on the surface of the waters. <sup>19</sup> The waters rose very high on the earth. All the high mountains that were under the whole sky were covered. <sup>20</sup> The waters rose fifteen cubits<sup>1</sup> higher, and the mountains were covered. <sup>21</sup> All flesh died that moved on the earth, including birds, livestock, animals, every creeping thing that creeps on the earth, and every man. <sup>22</sup> All on the dry land, in whose nostrils was the breath of the spirit of life, died. <sup>23</sup>

Every living thing was destroyed that was on the surface of the ground, including man, livestock, creeping things, and birds of the sky. They were destroyed from the earth. Only Noah was left, and those who were with him in the ship. <sup>24</sup> The waters flooded the earth one hundred fifty days.

<sup>1</sup> God remembered Noah, all the animals, and all the livestock that were with him in the ship; and God made a wind to pass over the earth. The waters subsided. <sup>2</sup> The deep's fountains and the sky's windows were also stopped, and the rain from the sky was restrained. <sup>3</sup> The waters continually receded from the earth. After the end of one hundred fifty days the waters decreased. <sup>4</sup> The ship rested in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, on Ararat's mountains. <sup>5</sup> The waters receded continually until the tenth month. In the tenth month, on the first day of the month, the tops of the mountains were visible.

<sup>6</sup> At the end of forty days, Noah opened the window of the ship which he had made, <sup>7</sup> and he sent out a raven. It went back and forth, until the waters were dried up from the earth. <sup>8</sup> He himself sent out a dove to see if the waters were abated from the surface of the ground, <sup>9</sup> but the dove found no place to rest her foot, and she returned to him into the ship, for the waters were on the surface of the whole earth. He put out his hand, and took her, and brought her to him into the ship. <sup>10</sup> He waited yet another seven days; and again he sent the dove out of the ship. <sup>11</sup> The dove came back to him at evening and, behold, in her mouth was a freshly plucked olive leaf. So Noah knew that the waters were abated from the earth.

<sup>12</sup> He waited yet another seven days, and sent out the dove; and she didn't return to him anymore.

<sup>13</sup> In the six hundred first year, in the first month, the first day of the month, the waters were dried up from the earth. Noah removed the covering of the ship, and looked. He saw that the surface of the ground was dried. <sup>14</sup> In the second month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, the earth was dry.

<sup>20</sup> Noah built an altar to Yahweh, and took of every clean animal, and of every clean bird, and offered burnt offerings on the altar. <sup>21</sup> Yahweh smelled the pleasant aroma. Yahweh said in his heart, "I will not again curse the ground any more for man's sake because the imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth. I will never again strike every living thing, as I have done. <sup>22</sup> While the earth remains, seed time and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night will not cease."

<sup>1</sup> God blessed Noah and his sons, and said to them, "Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth. <sup>2</sup> The fear of you and the dread of you will be on every animal of the earth, and on every bird of the sky. Everything that moves along the ground, and all the fish of the sea, are delivered into your hand. <sup>3</sup> Every moving thing that lives will be food for you. As I gave you the green herb, I have given everything to you.

<sup>8</sup> God spoke to Noah and to his sons with him, saying, <sup>9</sup> "As for me, behold, I establish my covenant with you, and with your offspring after you, <sup>10</sup> and with every living creature that is with you: the birds, the livestock, and every animal of the earth with you, of all that go out of the ship, even every animal of the earth. <sup>11</sup> I will establish my covenant with you: All flesh will not be cut off any more by the waters of the flood. There will never again be a flood to destroy the earth." <sup>12</sup> God said, "This is the token of the covenant which I make between me and you and every living creature that is with you, for perpetual generations: <sup>13</sup> I set my rainbow in the cloud, and it will be a sign of a covenant between me and the earth. <sup>14</sup> When I bring a cloud over the earth, that the rainbow will be seen in the cloud, <sup>15</sup> and I will remember my covenant, which is between me and you and every living creature of all flesh, and the waters will no more become a flood to destroy all flesh. <sup>16</sup> The rainbow will be in the cloud. I will look at it, that I may remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is on the earth.” <sup>17</sup> God said to Noah, “This is the token of the covenant which I have established between me and all flesh that is on the earth.”

He will be a servant of servants to his brothers.”

<sup>27</sup> May God enlarge Japheth.

Let Canaan be his servant.”

10

11

<sup>1</sup> The whole earth was of one language and of one speech. <sup>2</sup> As they traveled east, they found a plain in the land of Shinar, and they lived there. <sup>3</sup> They said to one another, “Come, let's make bricks, and burn them thoroughly.” They had brick for stone, and they used tar for mortar. <sup>4</sup> They said, “Come, let's build ourselves a city, and a tower whose top reaches to the sky, and let's make a name for ourselves, lest we be scattered abroad on the surface of the whole earth.”

<sup>10</sup> This is the history of the generations of Shem: Shem was one hundred years old when he became the father of Arpachshad two years after the flood. <sup>11</sup> Shem lived five hundred years after he became the father of Arpachshad, and became the father of more sons and daughters.

<sup>12</sup> Arpachshad lived thirty-five years and became the father of Shelah. <sup>13</sup> Arpachshad lived four hundred three years after he became the father of Shelah, and became the father of more sons and daughters.

<sup>14</sup> Shelah lived thirty years, and became the father of Eber. <sup>15</sup> Shelah lived four hundred three years after he became the father of Eber, and became the father of more sons and daughters.

<sup>16</sup> Eber lived thirty-four years, and became the father of Peleg. <sup>17</sup> Eber lived four hundred thirty years after he became the father of Peleg, and became the father of more sons and daughters.

<sup>18</sup> Peleg lived thirty years, and became the father of Reu. <sup>19</sup> Peleg lived two hundred nine years after he became the father of Reu, and became the father of more sons and daughters.

<sup>20</sup> Reu lived thirty-two years, and became the father of Serug. <sup>21</sup> Reu lived two hundred seven years after he became the father of Serug, and became the father of more sons and daughters.

<sup>22</sup> Serug lived thirty years, and became the father of Nahor. <sup>23</sup> Serug lived two hundred years after he became the father of Nahor, and became the father of more sons and daughters.

<sup>27</sup> Now this is the history of the generations of Terah. Terah became the father of Abram, Nahor, and Haran. Haran became the father of Lot. <sup>28</sup> Haran died before his father Terah in the land of his birth, in Ur of the Chaldees. <sup>29</sup> Abram and Nahor married wives. The name of Abram's wife was Sarai, and the name of Nahor's wife was Milcah, the daughter of Haran who was also the father of Iscah. <sup>30</sup> Sarai was barren. She had no child. <sup>31</sup> Terah took Abram his son, Lot the son of Haran, his son's son, and Sarai his daughter-in-law, his son Abram's wife. They went from Ur of the Chaldees, to go into the land of Canaan. They came to Haran and lived there. <sup>32</sup> The days of Terah were two hundred five years. Terah died in Haran.

12

<sup>1</sup> Now Yahweh said to Abram, "Leave your country, and your relatives, and your father's house, and go to the land that I will show you. <sup>2</sup> I will make of you a great nation. I will bless you and make your name great. You will be a blessing. <sup>3</sup> I will bless those who bless you, and I will curse him who curses you. All the families of the earth will be blessed through you."

<sup>4</sup> So Abram went, as Yahweh had told him. Lot went with him. Abram was seventy-five years old when he departed from Haran. <sup>5</sup> Abram took Sarai his wife, Lot his brother's son, all their possessions that they had gathered, and the people whom they had acquired in Haran, and they went to go into the land of Canaan. They entered into the land of Canaan. <sup>6</sup> Abram passed through the land to the place of Shechem, to the oak of Moreh. The Canaanites were in the land, then.

He built an altar there to Yahweh, who had appeared to him.<sup>8</sup> He left from there to go to the mountain on the east of Bethel and pitched his tent, having Bethel on the west, and Ai on the east. There he built an altar to Yahweh and called on Yahweh's name.<sup>9</sup> Abram traveled, still going on toward the South.

<sup>10</sup> There was a famine in the land. Abram went down into Egypt to live as a foreigner there, for the famine was severe in the land.

<sup>11</sup> When he had come near to enter Egypt, he said to Sarai his wife, "See now, I know that you are a beautiful woman to look at.<sup>12</sup> It will happen, when the Egyptians see you, that they will say, 'This is his wife.' They will kill me, but they will save you alive.<sup>13</sup> Please say that you are my sister, that it may be well with me for your sake, and that my soul may live because of you."

<sup>1</sup> Abram went up out of Egypt—he, his wife, all that he had, and Lot with him—into the South.<sup>2</sup> Abram was very rich in livestock, in silver, and in gold.<sup>3</sup> He went on his journeys from the South even to Bethel, to the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Bethel and Ai,<sup>4</sup> to the place of the altar, which he had made there at the first. There Abram called on Yahweh's name.<sup>5</sup> Lot also, who went with Abram, had flocks, herds, and tents.<sup>6</sup> The land was not able to bear them, that they might live together; for their substance was great, so that they could not live together.<sup>7</sup> There was strife between the herdsmen of Abram's livestock and the herdsmen of Lot's livestock. The Canaanites and the Perizzites lived in the land at that time.<sup>8</sup> Abram said to Lot, "Please, let there be no strife between you and me, and between your herdsmen and my herdsmen; for we are relatives.<sup>9</sup> Isn't the whole land before you? Please separate yourself from me. If you go to the left hand, then I will go to the right. Or if you go to the right hand, then I will go to the left."

<sup>10</sup> Lot lifted up his eyes, and saw all the plain of the Jordan, that it was well-watered everywhere, before Yahweh destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah, like the garden of Yahweh, like the land of Egypt, as you go to Zoar.<sup>11</sup> So Lot chose the Plain of the Jordan for himself. Lot traveled east, and they separated themselves the one from the other.<sup>12</sup> Abram lived in the land of Canaan, and Lot lived in the cities of the plain, and moved his tent as far as Sodom.

exceedingly wicked and sinners against Yahweh.

<sup>14</sup> Yahweh said to Abram, after Lot was separated from him, “Now, lift up your eyes, and look from the place where you are, northward and southward and eastward and westward, <sup>15</sup> for all the land which you see, I will give to you, and to your offspring forever. <sup>16</sup> I will make your offspring as the dust of the earth, so that if a man can number the dust of the earth, then your offspring<sup>n</sup> may also be numbered. <sup>17</sup> Arise, walk through the land in its length and in its width; for I will give it to you.”

of the Amalekites, and also the Amorites, that lived in Hazazon Tamar. <sup>8</sup> The king of Sodom, and the king of Gomorrah, and the king of Admah, and the king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela (also called Zoar) went out; and they set the battle in array against them in the valley of Siddim; <sup>9</sup> against Chedorlaomer king of Elam, and Tidal king of Goiim, and Amraphel king of Shinar, and Arioch king of Ellasar; four kings against the five. <sup>10</sup> Now the valley of Siddim was full of tar pits; and the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled, and some fell there, and those who remained fled to the hills. <sup>11</sup> They took all the goods of Sodom and Gomorrah, and all their food, and went their way. <sup>12</sup> They took Lot, Abram’s brother’s son, who lived in Sodom, and his goods, and departed.

Salem brought out bread and wine: and he was priest of God Most High. <sup>19</sup> He blessed him, and said, "Blessed be Abram of God Most High, possessor of heaven and earth: <sup>20</sup> and blessed be God Most High, who has delivered your enemies into your hand."

Abram gave him a tenth of all.

<sup>22</sup> Abram said to the king of Sodom, "I have lifted up my hand to Yahweh, God Most High, possessor of heaven and earth, <sup>23</sup> that I will not take a thread nor a sandal strap nor anything that is yours, lest you should say, 'I have made Abram rich.' <sup>24</sup> I will accept nothing from you except that which the young men have eaten, and the portion of the men who went with me: Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre. Let them take their portion."

<sup>2</sup> Abram said, "Lord<sup>o</sup> Yahweh, what will you give me, since I go childless, and he who will inherit my estate is Eliezer of Damascus?" <sup>3</sup> Abram said, "Behold, to me you have given no children<sup>p</sup>: and, behold, one born in my house is my heir."

<sup>4</sup> Behold, Yahweh's word came to him, saying, "This man will not be your heir, but he who will come out of your own body will be your heir." <sup>5</sup> Yahweh brought him outside, and said, "Look now toward the sky, and count the stars, if you are able to count them." He said to Abram, "So will your offspring<sup>q</sup> be." <sup>6</sup> He believed in Yahweh, who credited it to him for righteousness. <sup>7</sup> He said to Abram, "I am Yahweh who brought you out of Ur of the Chaldees, to give you this land to inherit it."

<sup>9</sup> He said to him, "Bring me a heifer three years old, a female goat three years old, a ram three years old, a turtledove, and a young pigeon." <sup>10</sup> He brought him all these, and divided them in the middle, and laid each half opposite the other; but he didn't divide the birds. <sup>11</sup> The birds of prey came down on the carcasses, and Abram drove them away.

<sup>12</sup> When the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell on Abram. Now terror and great darkness fell on him. <sup>13</sup> He said to Abram, "Know for sure that your offspring<sup>r</sup> will live as foreigners in a land that is not theirs, and will serve them. They will afflict them four hundred years. <sup>14</sup> I will also judge that nation, whom they will serve. Afterward they will come out with great wealth, <sup>15</sup> but you will go to your fathers in peace. You will be buried at a good old age. <sup>16</sup> In the fourth generation they will come here again, for the iniquity of the Amorite is not yet full." <sup>17</sup> It came to pass that, when the sun went down, and it was dark, behold, a smoking furnace, and a flaming torch passed between these pieces. <sup>18</sup> In that day Yahweh made a covenant with Abram, saying, "I have given this land to your offspring,<sup>s</sup> from the river of Egypt to the great river, the river Euphrates: <sup>19</sup> the Kenites, the Kenizzites, the Kadmonites, <sup>20</sup>

She said, “I am fleeing from the face of my mistress Sarai.”

they will not be numbered for multitude.” <sup>11</sup> Yahweh’s angel said to her, “Behold, you are with child, and will bear a son. You shall call his name Ishmael, because Yahweh has heard your affliction. <sup>12</sup> He will be like a wild donkey among men. His hand will be against every man, and every man’s hand against him. He will live opposite all of his brothers.”

<sup>13</sup> She called the name of Yahweh who spoke to her, “You are a God who sees,” for she said, “Have I even stayed alive after seeing him?” <sup>14</sup> Therefore the well was called Beer Lahai Roi.<sup>u</sup> Behold, it is between Kadesh and Bered.

<sup>1</sup> When Abram was ninety-nine years old, Yahweh appeared to Abram, and said to him, “I am God Almighty. Walk before me, and be blameless. <sup>2</sup> I will make my covenant between me and you, and will multiply you exceedingly.”

<sup>3</sup> Abram fell on his face. God talked with him, saying, <sup>4</sup> “As for me, behold, my covenant is with you. You will be the father of a multitude of nations. <sup>5</sup> Your name will no more be called Abram, but your name will be Abraham; for I have made you the father of a multitude of nations. <sup>6</sup> I will make you exceedingly fruitful, and I will make nations of you. Kings will come out of you. <sup>7</sup> I will establish my covenant between me and you and your offspring<sup>v</sup> after you throughout their generations for an everlasting covenant, to be a God to you and to your offspring<sup>w</sup> after you. <sup>8</sup> I will give to you, and to your offspring<sup>x</sup> after you, the land where you are traveling, all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession. I will be their God.”

<sup>9</sup> God said to Abraham, “As for you, you will keep my covenant, you and your offspring<sup>y</sup> after you throughout their generations. <sup>10</sup> This is my covenant, which you shall keep, between me and you and your offspring<sup>z</sup> after you. Every male among you shall be circumcised. <sup>11</sup> You shall be circumcised in the flesh of your foreskin. It will be a token of the covenant between me and you. <sup>12</sup> He who is eight days old will be circumcised among you, every male throughout your generations, he who is born in the house, or bought with money from any foreigner who is not of your offspring.<sup>a</sup> <sup>13</sup> He who is born in your house, and he who is bought with your money, must be circumcised. My covenant will be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant. <sup>14</sup> The uncircumcised male who is not circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin, that soul shall be cut off from his people. He has broken my covenant.”

<sup>15</sup> God said to Abraham, “As for Sarai your wife, you shall not call her name Sarai, but her name will be Sarah. <sup>16</sup> I will bless her, and moreover I will give you a son by her. Yes, I will bless her, and she will be a mother of nations. Kings of peoples will come from her.”

be born to him who is one hundred years old? Will Sarah, who is ninety years old, give birth?” <sup>18</sup> Abraham said to God, “Oh that Ishmael might live before you!”

<sup>19</sup> God said, “No, but Sarah, your wife, will bear you a son. You shall call his name Isaac.<sup>b</sup> I will establish my covenant with him for an everlasting covenant for his offspring<sup>c</sup> after him. <sup>20</sup> As for Ishmael, I have heard you. Behold, I have blessed him, and will make him fruitful, and will multiply him exceedingly. He will become the father of twelve princes, and I will make him a great nation. <sup>21</sup> But my covenant I establish with Isaac, whom Sarah will bear to you at this set time next year.”

<sup>22</sup> When he finished talking with him, God went up from Abraham. <sup>23</sup> Abraham took Ishmael his son, all who were born in his house, and all who were bought with his money; every male among the men of Abraham’s house, and circumcised the flesh of their foreskin in the same day, as God had said to him. <sup>24</sup> Abraham was ninety-nine years old, when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin. <sup>25</sup> Ishmael, his son, was thirteen years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin. <sup>26</sup> In the same day both Abraham and Ishmael, his son, were circumcised. <sup>27</sup> All the men of his house, those born in the house, and those bought with money from a foreigner, were circumcised with him.

opposite him. When he saw them, he ran to meet them from the tent door, and bowed himself to the earth,<sup>3</sup> and said, “My lord, if now I have found favor in your sight, please don’t go away from your servant.<sup>4</sup> Now let a little water be fetched, wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree.<sup>5</sup> I will get a morsel of bread so you can refresh your heart. After that you may go your way, now that you have come to your servant.”

They said, “Very well, do as you have said.”

He said, “See, in the tent.”

<sup>10</sup> He said, “I will certainly return to you when the season comes round. Behold, Sarah your wife will have a son.”

Sarah heard in the tent door, which was behind him.<sup>11</sup> Now Abraham and Sarah were old, well advanced in age. Sarah had passed the age of childbearing.<sup>12</sup> Sarah laughed within herself, saying, “After I have grown old will I have pleasure, my lord being old also?”

<sup>13</sup> Yahweh said to Abraham, “Why did Sarah laugh, saying, ‘Will I really bear a child, yet I am old?’<sup>14</sup> Is anything too hard for Yahweh? At the set time I will return to you, when the season comes round, and Sarah will have a son.”

He said, “No, but you did laugh.”

<sup>16</sup> The men rose up from there, and looked toward Sodom. Abraham went with them to see them on their way.<sup>17</sup> Yahweh said, “Will I hide from Abraham what I do,<sup>18</sup> since Abraham will surely become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth will be blessed in him?<sup>19</sup> For I have known him, to the end that he may command his children and his household after him, that they may keep the way of Yahweh, to do righteousness and justice; to the end that Yahweh may bring on Abraham that which he has spoken of him.”<sup>20</sup> Yahweh said, “Because the cry of Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and because their sin is very grievous,<sup>21</sup> I will go down now, and see whether their deeds are as bad as the reports which have come to me. If not, I will know.”

<sup>22</sup> The men turned from there, and went toward Sodom, but Abraham stood yet before Yahweh.<sup>23</sup> Abraham came near, and said, “Will you consume the righteous with the wicked?<sup>24</sup> What if there are fifty righteous within the city? Will you consume and not spare the place for the fifty righteous who are in it?<sup>25</sup> Be it far from you to do things like that, to kill the righteous with the wicked, so that the righteous should be like the wicked. May that be far from you. Shouldn’t the Judge of all the earth do right?”

answered, "See now, I have taken it on myself to speak to the Lord, although I am dust and ashes. <sup>28</sup> What if there will lack five of the fifty righteous? Will you destroy all the city for lack of five?"

He said, "I will not destroy it, if I find forty-five there."

<sup>29</sup> He spoke to him yet again, and said, "What if there are forty found there?"

He said, "I will not do it for the forty's sake."

<sup>30</sup> He said, "Oh don't let the Lord be angry, and I will speak. What if there are thirty found there?"

He said, "I will not do it, if I find thirty there."

<sup>31</sup> He said, "See now, I have taken it on myself to speak to the Lord. What if there are twenty found there?"

He said, "I will not destroy it for the twenty's sake."

<sup>32</sup> He said, "Oh don't let the Lord be angry, and I will speak just once more. What if ten are found there?"

He said, "I will not destroy it for the ten's sake."

19

<sup>1</sup> The two angels came to Sodom at evening. Lot sat in the gate of Sodom. Lot saw them, and rose up to meet them. He bowed himself with his face to the earth, <sup>2</sup> and he said, "See now, my lords, please turn aside into your servant's house, stay all night, wash your feet, and you can rise up early, and go on your way."

They said, "No, but we will stay in the street all night."

<sup>3</sup> He urged them greatly, and they came in with him, and entered into his house. He made them a feast, and baked unleavened bread, and they ate. <sup>4</sup> But before they lay down, the men of the city, the men of Sodom, surrounded the house, both young and old, all the people from every quarter. <sup>5</sup> They called to Lot, and said to him, "Where are the men who came in to you this night? Bring them out to us, that we may have sex with them."

<sup>6</sup> Lot went out to them to the door, and shut the door after him. <sup>7</sup> He said, "Please, my brothers, don't act so wickedly. <sup>8</sup> See now, I have two virgin daughters. Please let me bring them out to you, and you may do to them what seems good to you. Only don't do anything to these men, because they have come under the shadow of my roof."

<sup>9</sup> They said, "Stand back!" Then they said, "This one fellow came in to live as a foreigner, and he appoints himself a judge. Now will we deal worse with you, than with them!" They pressed hard on the man Lot, and came near to break the door. <sup>10</sup> But the men reached out their hand, and brought Lot into the house to them, and shut the door. <sup>11</sup> They struck the men who were at the door of the house with blindness, both small and great, so that they wearied themselves to find the door.

<sup>12</sup> The men said to Lot, "Do you have anybody else here? Sons-in-law, your sons, your daughters, and whoever you have in the city, bring them out of the place: <sup>13</sup> for we will destroy this place, because the outcry against them has grown great before Yahweh that Yahweh has sent us to destroy it."

But he seemed to his sons-in-law to be joking. <sup>15</sup> When the morning came, then the angels hurried Lot, saying, “Get up! Take your wife, and your two daughters who are here, lest you be consumed in the iniquity of the city.” <sup>16</sup> But he lingered; and the men grabbed his hand, his wife’s hand, and his two daughters’ hands, Yahweh being merciful to him; and they took him out, and set him outside of the city. <sup>17</sup> It came to pass, when they had taken them out, that he said, “Escape for your life! Don’t look behind you, and don’t stay anywhere in the plain. Escape to the mountains, lest you be consumed!”

<sup>21</sup> He said to him, “Behold, I have granted your request concerning this thing also, that I will not overthrow the city of which you have spoken. <sup>22</sup> Hurry, escape there, for I can’t do anything until you get there.” Therefore the name of the city was called Zoar.<sup>e</sup>

from Yahweh out of the sky. <sup>25</sup> He overthrew those cities, all the plain, all the inhabitants of the cities, and that which grew on the ground. <sup>26</sup> But his wife looked back from behind him, and she became a pillar of salt.

<sup>27</sup> Abraham got up early in the morning to the place where he had stood before Yahweh. <sup>28</sup> He looked toward Sodom and Gomorrah, and toward all the land of the plain, and looked, and saw that the smoke of the land went up as the smoke of a furnace.

<sup>29</sup> When God destroyed the cities of the plain, God remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the middle of the overthrow, when he overthrew the cities in which Lot lived.

<sup>30</sup> Lot went up out of Zoar, and lived in the mountain, and his two daughters with him; for he was afraid to live in Zoar. He lived in a cave with his two daughters. <sup>31</sup> The firstborn said to the younger, “Our father is old, and there is not a man in the earth to come in to us in the way of all the earth. <sup>32</sup> Come, let’s make our father drink wine, and we will lie with him, that we may preserve our father’s family line<sup>f</sup>.” <sup>33</sup> They made their father drink wine that night: and the firstborn went in, and lay with her father. He didn’t know when she lay down, nor when she arose. <sup>34</sup> It came to pass on the next day, that the firstborn said to the younger, “Behold, I lay last night with my father. Let us make him drink wine again, tonight. You go in, and lie with him, that we may preserve our father’s family line.<sup>g</sup>” <sup>35</sup> They made their father drink wine that night also. The younger went and lay with him. He didn’t know when she lay down, nor when she got up. <sup>36</sup> Thus both of Lot's daughters were with child by their father. <sup>37</sup> The firstborn bore a son, and named him Moab. He is the father of the Moabites to this day. <sup>38</sup> The younger also bore a son, and called his name Ben Ammi. He is the father of the children of Ammon to this day.

20

<sup>4</sup> Now Abimelech had not come near her. He said, "Lord, will you kill even a righteous nation? <sup>5</sup> Didn't he tell me, 'She is my sister?'" She, even she herself, said, 'He is my brother.' In the integrity of my heart and the innocence of my hands have I done this."

<sup>6</sup> God said to him in the dream, "Yes, I know that in the integrity of your heart you have done this, and I also withheld you from sinning against me. Therefore I didn't allow you to touch her. <sup>7</sup> Now therefore, restore the man's wife. For he is a prophet, and he will pray for you, and you will live. If you don't restore her, know for sure that you will die, you, and all who are yours."

<sup>8</sup> Abimelech rose early in the morning, and called all his servants, and told all these things in their ear. The men were very scared. <sup>9</sup> Then Abimelech called

Abraham, and said to him, "What have you done to us? How have I sinned against you, that you have brought on me and on my kingdom a great sin? You have done deeds to me that ought not to be done!" <sup>10</sup> Abimelech said to Abraham, "What did you see, that you have done this thing?"

<sup>11</sup> Abraham said, "Because I thought, 'Surely the fear of God is not in this place. They will kill me for my wife's sake.' <sup>12</sup> Besides, she is indeed my sister, the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother; and she became my wife. <sup>13</sup> When God caused me to wander from my father's house, I said to her, 'This is your kindness which you shall show to me. Everywhere that we go, say of me, 'He is my brother.''"

had spoken to him. <sup>3</sup> Abraham called his son who was born to him, whom Sarah bore to him, Isaac. <sup>h</sup> <sup>4</sup> Abraham circumcised his son, Isaac, when he was eight days old, as God had commanded him. <sup>5</sup> Abraham was one hundred years old when his son, Isaac, was born to him. <sup>6</sup> Sarah said, "God has made me laugh. Everyone who hears will laugh with me." <sup>7</sup> She said, "Who would have said to Abraham, that Sarah would nurse children? For I have borne him a son in his old age."

<sup>11</sup> The thing was very grievous in Abraham's sight on account of his son. <sup>12</sup> God said to Abraham, "Don't let it be grievous in your sight because of the boy, and because of your servant. In all that Sarah says to you, listen to her voice. For your offspring<sup>i</sup> will be accounted as from Isaac. <sup>13</sup> I will also make a nation of the son of the servant, because he is your child<sup>j</sup>." <sup>14</sup> Abraham rose up early in the morning, and took bread and a bottle of water, and gave it to Hagar, putting it on her shoulder; and gave her the child, and sent her away. She departed, and wandered in the wilderness of Beersheba. <sup>15</sup> The water in the bottle was spent, and she cast the child under one of the shrubs. <sup>16</sup> She went and sat down opposite him, a good way off, about a bow shot away. For she said, "Don't let me see the death of the child." She sat over against him, and lifted up her voice, and wept. <sup>17</sup> God heard the voice of the boy.

The angel of God called to Hagar out of the sky, and said to her, "What ails you, Hagar? Don't be afraid. For God has heard the voice of the boy where he is. <sup>18</sup> Get up, lift up the boy, and hold him in your hand. For I will make him a great nation."

<sup>19</sup> God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water. She went, filled the bottle with water, and gave the boy drink. <sup>20</sup> God was with the boy, and he grew. He lived in the wilderness, and became, as he grew up, an archer. <sup>21</sup> He lived in the wilderness of Paran. His mother took a wife for him out of the land of Egypt.

<sup>22</sup> At that time, Abimelech and Phicol the captain of his army spoke to Abraham, saying, "God is with you in all that you do. <sup>23</sup> Now, therefore, swear to me here by God that you will not deal falsely with me, nor with my son, nor with my son's son. But according to the kindness that I have done to you, you shall do to me, and to the land in which you have lived as a foreigner."

<sup>24</sup> Abraham said, "I will swear." <sup>25</sup> Abraham complained to Abimelech because of a water well, which Abimelech's servants had violently taken away. <sup>26</sup> Abimelech said, "I don't know who has done this thing. You didn't tell me, and I didn't hear of it until today."

these seven ewe lambs which you have set by themselves mean?"

<sup>30</sup> He said, "You shall take these seven ewe lambs from my hand, that it may be a witness to me, that I have dug this well." <sup>31</sup> Therefore he called that place Beersheba,<sup>k</sup> because they both swore there. <sup>32</sup> So they made a covenant at Beersheba. Abimelech rose up with Phicol, the captain of his army, and they returned into the land of the Philistines. <sup>33</sup> Abraham planted a tamarisk tree in Beersheba, and called there on the name of Yahweh, the Everlasting God. <sup>34</sup> Abraham lived as a foreigner in the land of the Philistines many days.

He said, "Here I am."

<sup>2</sup> He said, "Now take your son, your only son, whom you love, even Isaac, and go into the land of Moriah. Offer him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains which I will tell you of."

<sup>3</sup> Abraham rose early in the morning, and saddled his donkey, and took two of his young men with him, and Isaac his son. He split the wood for the burnt offering, and rose up, and went to the place of which God had told him. <sup>4</sup> On the third day Abraham lifted up his eyes, and saw the place far off. <sup>5</sup> Abraham said to his young men, "Stay here with the donkey. The boy and I will go yonder. We will worship, and come back to you." <sup>6</sup> Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering and laid it on Isaac his son. He took in his hand the fire and the knife. They both went together. <sup>7</sup>

Isaac spoke to Abraham his father, and said, "My father?"

He said, "Here I am, my son."

He said, "Here is the fire and the wood, but where is the lamb for a burnt offering?"

<sup>8</sup> Abraham said, "God will provide himself the lamb for a burnt offering, my son." So they both went together. <sup>9</sup> They came to the place which God had told him of. Abraham built the altar there, and laid the wood in order, bound Isaac his son, and laid him on the altar, on the wood. <sup>10</sup> Abraham stretched out his hand, and took the knife to kill his son.

He said, "Here I am."

<sup>12</sup> He said, "Don't lay your hand on the boy or do anything to him. For now I know that you fear God, since you have not withheld your son, your only son, from me."

<sup>13</sup> Abraham lifted up his eyes, and looked, and saw that behind him was a ram caught in the thicket by his horns. Abraham went and took the ram, and offered him up for a burnt offering instead of his son. <sup>14</sup> Abraham called the name of that place Yahweh Will Provide.<sup>1</sup> As it is said to this day, "On Yahweh's mountain, it will be provided."

<sup>15</sup> Yahweh's angel called to Abraham a second time out of the sky, <sup>16</sup> and said, "I have sworn by myself, says Yahweh, because you have done this thing, and have not withheld your son, your only son, <sup>17</sup> that I will bless you greatly, and I will multiply your offspring<sup>m</sup> greatly like the stars of the heavens, and like the sand which is on the seashore. Your offspring<sup>n</sup> will possess the gate of his enemies. <sup>18</sup> All the nations of the earth will be blessed by your offspring,<sup>o</sup> because you have obeyed my voice.”

you agree that I should bury my dead out of my sight, hear me, and entreat for me to Ephron the son of Zohar, <sup>9</sup> that he may give me the cave of Machpelah, which he has, which is in the end of his field. For the full price let him give it to me among you for a possession of a burying-place.”

<sup>12</sup> Abraham bowed himself down before the people of the land. <sup>13</sup> He spoke to Ephron in the audience of the people of the land, saying, “But if you will, please hear me. I will give the price of the field. Take it from me, and I will bury my dead there.”

<sup>17</sup> So the field of Ephron, which was in Machpelah, which was before Mamre, the field, the cave which was in it, and all the trees that were in the field, that were in all of its borders, were deeded <sup>18</sup> to Abraham for a possession in the presence of the children of Heth, before all who went in at the gate of his city. <sup>19</sup> After this, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field of Machpelah before Mamre (that is, Hebron), in the land of Canaan. <sup>20</sup> The field, and the cave that is in it, were deeded to Abraham for a possession of a burying place by the children of Heth.

24

<sup>1</sup> Abraham was old, and well stricken in age. Yahweh had blessed Abraham in all things. <sup>2</sup> Abraham said to his servant, the elder of his house, who ruled over all that he had, "Please put your hand under my thigh. <sup>3</sup> I will make you swear by Yahweh, the God of heaven and the God of the earth, that you shall not take a wife for my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I live. <sup>4</sup> But you shall go to my country, and to my relatives, and take a wife for my son Isaac."

<sup>5</sup> The servant said to him, "What if the woman isn't willing to follow me to this land? Must I bring your son again to the land you came from?"

<sup>6</sup> Abraham said to him, "Beware that you don't bring my son there again. <sup>7</sup> Yahweh, the God of heaven, who took me from my father's house, and from the land of my birth, who spoke to me, and who swore to me, saying, 'I will give this land to your offspring.' He will send his angel before you, and you shall take a wife for my son from there. <sup>8</sup> If the woman isn't willing to follow you, then you shall be clear from this oath to me. Only you shall not bring my son there again."

concerning this matter. <sup>10</sup> The servant took ten camels, of his master's camels, and departed, having a variety of good things of his master's with him. He arose, and went to Mesopotamia, to the city of Nahor. <sup>11</sup> He made the camels kneel down outside the city by the well of water at the time of evening, the time that women go out to draw water. <sup>12</sup> He said, "Yahweh, the God of my master Abraham, please give me success today, and show kindness to my master Abraham. <sup>13</sup> Behold, I am standing by the spring of water. The daughters of the men of the city are coming out to draw water. <sup>14</sup> Let it happen, that the young lady to whom I will say, 'Please let down your pitcher, that I may drink,' and she will say, 'Drink, and I will also give your camels a drink,'—let her be the one you have appointed for your servant Isaac. By this I will know that you have shown kindness to my master."

<sup>18</sup> She said, "Drink, my lord." She hurried, and let down her pitcher on her hand, and gave him drink. <sup>19</sup> When she had done giving him drink, she said, "I will also draw for your camels, until they have done drinking." <sup>20</sup> She hurried, and emptied her pitcher into the trough, and ran again to the well to draw, and drew for all his camels.

<sup>24</sup> She said to him, “I am the daughter of Bethuel the son of Milcah, whom she bore to Nahor.” <sup>25</sup> She said moreover to him, “We have both straw and feed enough, and room to lodge in.”

<sup>26</sup> The man bowed his head, and worshiped Yahweh. <sup>27</sup> He said, “Blessed be Yahweh, the God of my master Abraham, who has not forsaken his loving kindness and his truth toward my master. As for me, Yahweh has led me on the way to the house of my master’s relatives.”

feed for the camels, and water to wash his feet and the feet of the men who were with him. <sup>33</sup> Food was set before him to eat, but he said, “I will not eat until I have told my message.”

He said, “Speak on.”

<sup>34</sup> He said, “I am Abraham’s servant. <sup>35</sup> Yahweh has blessed my master greatly. He has become great. He has given him flocks and herds, silver and gold, male servants and female servants, and camels and donkeys. <sup>36</sup> Sarah, my master’s wife, bore a son to my master when she was old. He has given all that he has to him. <sup>37</sup> My master made me swear, saying, ‘You shall not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I live, <sup>38</sup> but you shall go to my father’s house, and to my relatives, and take a wife for my son.’ <sup>39</sup> I asked my master, ‘What if the woman will not follow me?’ <sup>40</sup> He said to me, ‘Yahweh, before whom I walk, will send his angel with you, and prosper your way. You shall take a wife for my son from my relatives, and of my father’s house. <sup>41</sup> Then will you be clear from my oath, when you come to my relatives. If they don’t give her to you, you shall be clear from my oath.’ <sup>42</sup> I came today to the spring, and said, ‘Yahweh, the God of my master Abraham, if now you do prosper my way which I go — <sup>43</sup> behold, I am standing by this spring of water. Let it happen, that the maiden who comes out to draw, to whom I will say, ‘Please give me a little water from your pitcher to drink,’ <sup>44</sup> and she will tell me, ‘Drink, and I will also draw for your camels,’—let her be the woman whom Yahweh has appointed for my master’s son.’ <sup>45</sup> Before I had finished speaking in my heart, behold, Rebekah came out with her pitcher on her shoulder. She went down to the spring, and drew. I said to her, 'Please let me drink.'<sup>46</sup> She hurried and let down her pitcher from her shoulder, and said, 'Drink, and I will also give your camels a drink.' So I drank, and she also gave the camels a drink.<sup>47</sup> I asked her, and said, 'Whose daughter are you?' She said, 'The daughter of Bethuel, Nahor's son, whom Milcah bore to him.' I put the ring on her nose, and the bracelets on her hands.<sup>48</sup> I bowed my head, and worshiped Yahweh, and blessed Yahweh, the God of my master Abraham, who had led me in the right way to take my master's brother's daughter for his son.<sup>49</sup> Now if you will deal kindly and truly with my master, tell me. If not, tell me, that I may turn to the right hand, or to the left."

<sup>56</sup> He said to them, "Don't hinder me, since Yahweh has prospered my way. Send me away that I may go to my master."

<sup>57</sup> They said, "We will call the young lady, and ask her."<sup>58</sup> They called Rebekah, and said to her, "Will you go with this man?"

She said, "I will go."

The servant said, "It is my master."

Ishmael, and these are their names, by their villages, and by their encampments: twelve princes, according to their nations. <sup>17</sup> These are the years of the life of Ishmael: one hundred thirty-seven years. He gave up his spirit and died, and was gathered to his people. <sup>18</sup> They lived from Havilah to Shur that is before Egypt, as you go toward Assyria. He lived opposite all his relatives.

"Two nations are in your womb.

Two peoples will be separated from your body.

The one people will be stronger than the other people.

The elder will serve the younger."

Rebekah loved Jacob. <sup>29</sup> Jacob boiled stew. Esau came in from the field, and he was famished. <sup>30</sup> Esau said to Jacob, "Please feed me with that same red stew, for I am famished." Therefore his name was called Edom.<sup>u</sup>

He swore to him. He sold his birthright to Jacob. <sup>34</sup> Jacob gave Esau bread and stew of lentils. He ate and drank, rose up, and went his way. So Esau despised his birthright.

26

<sup>1</sup> There was a famine in the land, besides the first famine that was in the days of Abraham. Isaac went to Abimelech king of the Philistines, to Gerar. <sup>2</sup> Yahweh appeared to him, and said, "Don't go down into Egypt. Live in the land I will tell you about. <sup>3</sup> Live in this land, and I will be with you, and will bless you. For I will give to you, and to your offspring,<sup>v</sup> all these lands, and I will establish the oath which I swore to Abraham your father. <sup>4</sup> I will multiply your offspring<sup>w</sup> as the stars of the sky, and will give all these lands to your offspring.<sup>x</sup> In your offspring<sup>y</sup> will all the nations of the earth be blessed, <sup>5</sup> because Abraham obeyed my voice, and kept my requirements, my commandments, my statutes, and my laws."

<sup>6</sup> Isaac lived in Gerar. <sup>7</sup> The men of the place asked him about his wife. He said, "She is my sister," for he was afraid to say,

"My wife", lest, he thought, "the men of the place might kill me for Rebekah, because she is beautiful to look at." <sup>8</sup> When he had been there a long time, Abimelech king of the Philistines looked out at a window, and saw, and, behold, Isaac was caressing Rebekah, his wife. <sup>9</sup> Abimelech called Isaac, and said, "Behold, surely she is your wife. Why did you say, 'She is my sister?'"

Isaac said to him, "Because I said, 'Lest I die because of her.'"

<sup>10</sup> Abimelech said, "What is this you have done to us? One of the people might easily have lain with your wife, and you would have brought guilt on us!"

<sup>18</sup> Isaac dug again the wells of water, which they had dug in the days of Abraham his father. For the Philistines had stopped them after the death of Abraham. He called their names after the names by which his father had called them. <sup>19</sup> Isaac's servants dug in the valley, and found there a well of springing water. <sup>20</sup> The herdsmen of Gerar argued with Isaac's herdsmen, saying, "The water is ours." He called the name of the well Esek, because they contended with him. <sup>21</sup> They dug another well, and they argued over that, also. He called its name Sitnah. <sup>22</sup> He left that place, and dug another well. They didn't argue over that one. He called it Rehoboth. He said, "For now Yahweh has made room for us, and we will be fruitful in the land."

<sup>23</sup> He went up from there to Beersheba. <sup>24</sup> Yahweh appeared to him the same night, and said, "I am the God of Abraham your father. Don't be afraid, for I am with you, and will bless you, and multiply your offspring<sup>z</sup> for my servant Abraham's sake."

<sup>26</sup> Then Abimelech went to him from Gerar, and Ahuzzath his friend, and Phicol the captain of his army. <sup>27</sup> Isaac said to them, "Why have you come to me, since you hate me, and have sent me away from you?"

<sup>28</sup> They said, "We saw plainly that Yahweh was with you. We said, 'Let there now be an oath between us, even between us and you, and let us make a covenant with you, <sup>29</sup> that you will do us no harm, as we have not touched you, and as we have done to you nothing but good, and have sent you away in peace.' You are now the blessed of Yahweh."

<sup>30</sup> He made them a feast, and they ate and drank. <sup>31</sup> They rose up some time in the morning, and swore to one another. Isaac sent them away, and they departed from him in peace. <sup>32</sup> The same day, Isaac's servants came, and told him concerning the well which they had dug, and said to him, "We have found water." <sup>33</sup> He called it Shibah.<sup>a</sup> Therefore the name of the city is Beersheba<sup>b</sup> to this day.

<sup>1</sup> When Isaac was old, and his eyes were dim, so that he could not see, he called Esau his elder son, and said to him, "My son?"

He said to him, "Here I am."

<sup>2</sup> He said, "See now, I am old. I don't know the day of my death. <sup>3</sup> Now therefore, please take your weapons, your quiver and your bow, and go out to the field, and take me venison. <sup>4</sup> Make me savory food, such as I love, and bring it to me, that I may eat, and that my soul may bless you before I die."

<sup>5</sup> Rebekah heard when Isaac spoke to Esau his son. Esau went to the field to hunt for venison, and to bring it. <sup>6</sup> Rebekah spoke to Jacob her son, saying, "Behold, I heard your father speak to Esau your brother, saying, <sup>7</sup> 'Bring me venison, and make me savory food, that I may eat, and bless you before Yahweh before my death.'

<sup>8</sup> Now therefore, my son, obey my voice according to that which I command you. <sup>9</sup> Go now to the flock, and get me from there two good young goats. I will make them savory food for your father, such as he loves. <sup>10</sup> You shall bring it to your father, that he may eat, so that he may bless you before his death.”

<sup>11</sup> Jacob said to Rebekah his mother, “Behold, Esau my brother is a hairy man, and I am a smooth man. <sup>12</sup> What if my father touches me? I will seem to him as a deceiver, and I would bring a curse on myself, and not a blessing.”

He said, “Here I am. Who are you, my son?”

<sup>19</sup> Jacob said to his father, “I am Esau your firstborn. I have done what you asked me to do. Please arise, sit and eat of my venison, that your soul may bless me.”

<sup>20</sup> Isaac said to his son, “How is it that you have found it so quickly, my son?”

He said, “Because Yahweh your God gave me success.”

<sup>21</sup> Isaac said to Jacob, “Please come near, that I may feel you, my son, whether you are really my son Esau or not.”

voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau.”

<sup>23</sup> He didn’t recognize him, because his hands were hairy, like his brother, Esau’s hands. So he blessed him. <sup>24</sup> He said, “Are you really my son Esau?”

He said, “I am.”

<sup>25</sup> He said, “Bring it near to me, and I will eat of my son’s venison, that my soul may bless you.”

He brought it near to him, and he ate. He brought him wine, and he drank. <sup>26</sup> His father Isaac said to him, “Come near now, and kiss me, my son.” <sup>27</sup> He came near, and kissed him. He smelled the smell of his clothing, and blessed him, and said, “Behold, the smell of my son is as the smell of a field which Yahweh has blessed.

<sup>28</sup> God give you of the dew of the sky, of the fatness of the earth, and plenty of grain and new wine.

<sup>29</sup> Let peoples serve you, and nations bow down to you.

Be lord over your brothers.

Let your mother’s sons bow down to you.

Cursed be everyone who curses you.

Blessed be everyone who blesses
you.”

<sup>30</sup> As soon as Isaac had finished blessing Jacob, and Jacob had just gone out from the presence of Isaac his father, Esau his brother came in from his hunting. <sup>31</sup> He also made savory food, and brought it to his father. He said to his father, “Let my father arise, and eat of his son’s venison, that your soul may bless me.”

He said, “I am your son, your firstborn, Esau.”

<sup>33</sup> Isaac trembled violently, and said, “Who, then, is he who has taken venison, and brought it me, and I have eaten of all before you came, and have blessed him? Yes, he will be blessed.”

<sup>34</sup> When Esau heard the words of his father, he cried with an exceeding great and bitter cry, and said to his father, “Bless me, even me also, my father.”

<sup>36</sup> He said, “Isn’t he rightly named Jacob? For he has supplanted me these two times. He took away my birthright. See, now he has taken away my blessing.” He said, “Haven’t you reserved a blessing for me?”

<sup>37</sup> Isaac answered Esau, “Behold, I have made him your lord, and all his brothers have I given to him for servants. With grain and new wine have I sustained him. What then will I do for you, my son?”

<sup>38</sup> Esau said to his father, “Have you but one blessing, my father? Bless me, even me also, my father.” Esau lifted up his voice, and wept.

“Behold, of the fatness of the earth will be your dwelling, and of the dew of the sky from above.

<sup>40</sup> By your sword will you live, and you will serve your brother.
It will happen, when you will break loose, that you shall shake his yoke from off your neck.”

<sup>41</sup> Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing with which his father blessed him. Esau said in his heart, “The days of mourning for my father are at hand. Then I will kill my brother Jacob.”

<sup>42</sup> The words of Esau, her elder son, were told to Rebekah. She sent and called Jacob, her younger son, and said to him, “Behold, your brother Esau comforts himself about you by planning to kill you. <sup>43</sup> Now therefore, my son, obey my voice. Arise, flee to Laban, my brother, in Haran. <sup>44</sup> Stay with him a few days, until your brother’s fury turns away; <sup>45</sup> until your brother’s anger turn away from you, and he forgets what you have done to him. Then I will send, and get you from there. Why should I be bereaved of you both in one day?”

<sup>46</sup> Rebekah said to Isaac, “I am weary of my life because of the daughters of Heth. If Jacob takes a wife of the daughters of Heth, such as these, of the daughters of the land, what good will my life do me?”

28

to take him a wife from there, and that as he blessed him he gave him a command, saying, "You shall not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan," <sup>7</sup> and that Jacob obeyed his father and his mother, and was gone to Paddan Aram. <sup>8</sup> Esau saw that the daughters of Canaan didn't please Isaac, his father. <sup>9</sup> Esau went to Ishmael, and took, besides the wives that he had, Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael, Abraham's son, the sister of Nebaioth, to be his wife.

<sup>10</sup> Jacob went out from Beersheba, and went toward Haran. <sup>11</sup> He came to a certain place, and stayed there all night, because the sun had set. He took one of the stones of the place, and put it under his head, and lay down in that place to sleep. <sup>12</sup> He dreamed. Behold, a stairway set upon the earth, and its top reached to heaven. Behold, the angels of God ascending and descending on it. <sup>13</sup> Behold, Yahweh stood above it, and said, "I am Yahweh, the God of Abraham your father, and the God of Isaac. The land whereon you lie, to you will I give it, and to your offspring<sup>d</sup>. <sup>14</sup> Your offspring<sup>e</sup> will be as the dust of the earth, and you will spread abroad to the west, and to the east, and to the north, and to the south. In you and in your offspring<sup>f</sup> will all the families of the earth be blessed. <sup>15</sup> Behold, I am with you, and will keep you, wherever you go, and will bring you again into this land. For I will not leave you, until I have done that which I have spoken of to you."

<sup>16</sup> Jacob awakened out of his sleep, and he said, "Surely Yahweh is in this place, and I didn't know it." <sup>17</sup> He was afraid, and said, "How dreadful is this place! This is none other than God's house, and this is the gate of heaven."

<sup>2</sup> He looked, and behold, a well in the field, and, behold, three flocks of sheep lying there by it. For out of that well they watered the flocks. The stone on the well's mouth was large. <sup>3</sup> There all the flocks were gathered. They rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the sheep, and put the stone again on the well's mouth in its place. <sup>4</sup> Jacob said to them, "My relatives, where are you from?"

They said, "We are from Haran."

<sup>5</sup> He said to them, "Do you know Laban, the son of Nahor?"

They said, "We know him."

They said, "It is well. See, Rachel, his daughter, is coming with the sheep."

<sup>13</sup> When Laban heard the news of Jacob, his sister’s son, he ran to meet Jacob, and embraced him, and kissed him, and brought him to his house. Jacob told Laban all these things. <sup>14</sup> Laban said to him, “Surely you are my bone and my flesh.” He lived with him for a month. <sup>15</sup> Laban said to Jacob, “Because you are my brother, should you therefore serve me for nothing? Tell me, what will your wages be?”

<sup>16</sup> Laban had two daughters. The name of the elder was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel. <sup>17</sup> Leah’s eyes were weak, but Rachel was beautiful in form and attractive. <sup>18</sup> Jacob loved Rachel. He said, “I will serve you seven years for Rachel, your younger daughter.”

<sup>19</sup> Laban said, “It is better that I give her to you, than that I should give her to another man. Stay with me.”

<sup>26</sup> Laban said, “It is not done so in our place, to give the younger before the firstborn. <sup>27</sup> Fulfill the week of this one, and we will give you the other also for the service which you will serve with me yet seven other years.”

<sup>28</sup> Jacob did so, and fulfilled her week. He gave him Rachel his daughter as wife. <sup>29</sup> Laban gave to Rachel his daughter Bilhah, his servant, to be her servant. <sup>30</sup> He went in also to Rachel, and he loved also Rachel more than Leah, and served with him yet seven other years.

<sup>31</sup> Yahweh saw that Leah was hated, and he opened her womb, but Rachel was barren. <sup>32</sup> Leah conceived, and bore a son, and she named him Reuben. For she said, “Because Yahweh has looked at my affliction. For now my husband will love me.” <sup>33</sup> She conceived again, and bore a son, and said, “Because Yahweh has heard that I am hated, he has therefore given me this son also.” She named him Simeon. <sup>34</sup> She conceived again, and bore a son. Said, “Now this time will my husband be joined to me, because I have borne him three sons.” Therefore his name was called Levi. <sup>35</sup> She conceived again, and bore a son. She said, “This time will I praise Yahweh.” Therefore she named him Judah. Then she stopped bearing.

30

<sup>2</sup> Jacob’s anger burned against Rachel, and he said, “Am I in God’s place, who has withheld from you the fruit of the womb?”

<sup>14</sup> Reuben went in the days of wheat harvest, and found mandrakes in the field, and brought them to his mother, Leah. Then Rachel said to Leah, “Please give me some of your son’s mandrakes.”

<sup>15</sup> She said to her, “Is it a small matter that you have taken away my husband? Would you take away my son’s mandrakes, also?”

Rachel said, “Therefore he will lie with you tonight for your son’s mandrakes.”

<sup>16</sup> Jacob came from the field in the evening, and Leah went out to meet him, and said, “You must come in to me; for I have surely hired you with my son’s mandrakes.”

He lay with her that night. <sup>17</sup> God listened to Leah, and she conceived, and bore Jacob a fifth son. <sup>18</sup> Leah said, “God has given me my hire, because I gave my servant to my husband.” She named him Issachar. <sup>19</sup> Leah conceived again, and bore a sixth son to Jacob. <sup>20</sup> Leah said, “God has endowed me with a good dowry. Now my husband will live with me, because I have borne him six sons.” She named him Zebulun. <sup>21</sup> Afterwards, she bore a daughter, and named her Dinah.

<sup>22</sup> God remembered Rachel, and God listened to her, and opened her womb. <sup>23</sup> She conceived, bore a son, and said, “God has taken away my reproach.” <sup>24</sup> She named him Joseph,<sup>g</sup> saying, “May Yahweh add another son to me.”

<sup>25</sup> When Rachel had borne Joseph, Jacob said to Laban, “Send me away, that I may go to my own place, and to my country. <sup>26</sup> Give me my wives and my children for whom I have served you, and let me go; for you know my service with which I have served you.”

<sup>27</sup> Laban said to him, “If now I have found favor in your eyes, stay here, for I have divined that Yahweh has blessed me for your sake.” <sup>28</sup> He said, “Appoint me your wages, and I will give it.”

<sup>29</sup> He said to him, “You know how I have served you, and how your livestock have fared with me. <sup>30</sup> For it was little which you had before I came, and it has increased to a multitude. Yahweh has blessed you wherever I turned. Now when will I provide for my own house also?”

Jacob said, “You shall not give me anything. If you will do this thing for me, I will again feed your flock and keep it. <sup>32</sup> I will pass through all your flock today, removing from there every speckled and spotted one, and every black one among the sheep, and the spotted and speckled among the goats. This will be my hire. <sup>33</sup> So my righteousness will answer for me hereafter, when you come concerning my hire that is before you. Every one that is not speckled and spotted among the goats, and black among the sheep, that might be with me, will be counted stolen.”

<sup>35</sup> That day, he removed the male goats that were streaked and spotted, and all the female goats that were speckled and spotted, every one that had white in it, and all the black ones among the sheep, and gave them into the hand of his sons. <sup>36</sup> He set three days’ journey between himself and Jacob, and Jacob fed the rest of Laban’s flocks.

<sup>37</sup> Jacob took to himself rods of fresh poplar, almond, plane tree, peeled white streaks in them, and made the white appear which was in the rods. <sup>38</sup> He set the rods which he had peeled opposite the flocks in the gutters in the watering-troughs where the flocks came to drink. They conceived when they came to drink. <sup>39</sup> The flocks conceived before the rods, and the flocks produced streaked, speckled, and spotted. <sup>40</sup> Jacob separated the lambs, and set the faces of the flocks toward the streaked and all the black in the flock of Laban: and he put his own droves apart, and didn’t put them into Laban’s flock. <sup>41</sup> Whenever the stronger of the flock conceived, Jacob laid the rods in front of the eyes of the flock in the gutters, that they might conceive among the rods; <sup>42</sup> but when the flock were feeble, he didn’t put them in. So the feebler were Laban’s, and the stronger Jacob’s. <sup>43</sup> The man increased exceedingly, and had large flocks, female servants and male servants, and camels and donkeys.

<sup>4</sup> Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah to the field to his flock, <sup>5</sup> and said to them, “I see the expression on your father’s face, that it is not toward me as before; but the God of my father has been with me. <sup>6</sup> You know that I have served your father with all of my strength. <sup>7</sup> Your father has deceived me, and changed my wages ten times, but God didn't allow him to hurt me. <sup>8</sup> If he said this, 'The speckled will be your wages,' then all the flock bore speckled. If he said this, 'The streaked will be your wages,' then all the flock bore streaked. <sup>9</sup> Thus God has taken away your father's livestock, and given them to me. <sup>10</sup> During mating season, I lifted up my eyes, and saw in a dream, and behold, the male goats which leaped on the flock were streaked, speckled, and grizzled. <sup>11</sup> The angel of God said to me in the dream, 'Jacob,' and I said, 'Here I am.' <sup>12</sup> He said, 'Now lift up your eyes, and behold, all the male goats which leap on the flock are streaked, speckled, and grizzled, for I have seen all that Laban does to you. <sup>13</sup> I am the God of Bethel, where you anointed a pillar, where you vowed a vow to me. Now arise, get out from this land, and return to the land of your birth.'"

<sup>14</sup> Rachel and Leah answered him, "Is there yet any portion or inheritance for us in our father's house? <sup>15</sup> Aren't we accounted by him as foreigners? For he has sold us, and has also quite devoured our money. <sup>16</sup> For all the riches which God has taken away from our father, that is ours and our children's. Now then, whatever God has said to you, do."

Laban had gone to shear his sheep: and Rachel stole the teraphim <sup>h</sup> that were her father's.

<sup>20</sup> Jacob deceived Laban the Syrian, in that he didn't tell him that he was running away. <sup>21</sup> So he fled with all that he had. He rose up, passed over the River, and set his face toward the mountain of Gilead.

<sup>22</sup> Laban was told on the third day that Jacob had fled. <sup>23</sup> He took his relatives with him, and pursued him seven days' journey. He overtook him in the mountain of Gilead. <sup>24</sup> God came to Laban, the Syrian, in a dream of the night, and said to him, "Be careful that you don't speak to Jacob either good or bad."

<sup>25</sup> Laban caught up with Jacob. Now Jacob had pitched his tent in the mountain, and Laban with his relatives encamped in the mountain of Gilead. <sup>26</sup> Laban said to Jacob, "What have you done, that you have deceived me, and carried away my daughters like captives of the sword? <sup>27</sup> Why did you flee secretly, and deceive me, and didn't tell me, that I might have sent you away with mirth and with songs, with tambourine and with harp; <sup>28</sup> and didn't allow me to kiss my sons and my daughters? Now have you done foolishly. <sup>29</sup> It is in the power of my hand to hurt you, but the God of your father spoke to me last night, saying, 'Be careful that you don't speak to Jacob either good or bad.' <sup>30</sup> Now, you want to be gone, because you greatly longed for your father's house, but why have you stolen my gods?"

Anyone you find your gods with shall not live. Before our relatives, discern what is yours with me, and take it.” For Jacob didn’t know that Rachel had stolen them.

<sup>36</sup> Jacob was angry, and argued with Laban. Jacob answered Laban, “What is my trespass? What is my sin, that you have hotly pursued me? <sup>37</sup> Now that you have felt around in all my stuff, what have you found of all your household stuff? Set it here before my relatives and your relatives, that they may judge between us two.

<sup>38</sup> “These twenty years I have been with you. Your ewes and your female goats have not cast their young, and I haven’t eaten the rams of your flocks. <sup>39</sup> That which was torn of animals, I didn’t bring to you. I bore its loss. Of my hand you required it, whether stolen by day or stolen by night. <sup>40</sup> This was my situation: in the day the drought consumed me, and the frost by night; and my sleep fled from my eyes. <sup>41</sup> These twenty years I have been in your house. I served you fourteen years for your two daughters, and six years for your flock, and you have changed my wages ten times. <sup>42</sup> Unless the God of my father, the God of Abraham, and the fear of Isaac, had been with me, surely now you would have sent me away empty. God has seen my affliction and the labor of my hands, and rebuked you last night.”

<sup>43</sup> Laban answered Jacob, “The daughters are my daughters, the children are my children, the flocks are my flocks, and all that you see is mine: and what can I do today to these my daughters, or to their children whom they have borne? <sup>44</sup> Now come, let us make a covenant, you and I; and let it be for a witness between me and you.”

relatives to eat bread. They ate bread, and stayed all night in the mountain. <sup>55</sup> Early in the morning, Laban rose up, and kissed his sons and his daughters, and blessed them. Laban departed and returned to his place.

32

two companies. <sup>11</sup> Please deliver me from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau: for I fear him, lest he come and strike me, and the mothers with the children. <sup>12</sup> You said, 'I will surely do you good, and make your offspring<sup>1</sup> as the sand of the sea, which can't be numbered because there are so many.'"

<sup>13</sup> He stayed there that night, and took from that which he had with him, a present for Esau, his brother: <sup>14</sup> two hundred female goats and twenty male goats, two hundred ewes and twenty rams, <sup>15</sup> thirty milk camels and their colts, forty cows, ten bulls, twenty female donkeys and ten foals. <sup>16</sup> He delivered them into the hands of his servants, every herd by itself, and said to his servants, "Pass over before me, and put a space between herd and herd." <sup>17</sup> He commanded the foremost, saying, "When Esau, my brother, meets you, and asks you, saying, 'Whose are you? Where are you going? Whose are these before you?' <sup>18</sup> Then you shall say, 'They are your servant, Jacob's. It is a present sent to my lord, Esau. Behold, he also is behind us.'" <sup>19</sup> He commanded also the second, and the third, and all that followed the herds, saying, "This is how you shall speak to Esau, when you find him. <sup>20</sup> You shall say, 'Not only that, but behold, your servant, Jacob, is behind us.'" For, he said, "I will appease him with the present that goes before me, and afterward I will see his face. Perhaps he will accept me."

sons, and crossed over the ford of the Jabbok. <sup>23</sup> He took them, and sent them over the stream, and sent over that which he had. <sup>24</sup> Jacob was left alone, and wrestled with a man there until the breaking of the day. <sup>25</sup> When he saw that he didn't prevail against him, he touched the hollow of his thigh, and the hollow of Jacob's thigh was strained, as he wrestled. <sup>26</sup> The man said, "Let me go, for the day breaks."

Jacob said, "I won't let you go, unless you bless me."

<sup>27</sup> He said to him, "What is your name?"

He said, "Jacob". <sup>28</sup> He said, "Your name will no longer be called Jacob, but Israel; for you have fought with God and with men, and have prevailed."

<sup>29</sup> Jacob asked him, "Please tell me your name."

He said, "Why is it that you ask what my name is?" He blessed him there.

<sup>30</sup> Jacob called the name of the place Peniel<sup>m</sup>: for, he said, "I have seen God face to face, and my life is preserved." <sup>31</sup> The sun rose on him as he passed over Peniel, and he limped because of his thigh. <sup>32</sup> Therefore the children of Israel don't eat the sinew of the hip, which is on the hollow of the thigh, to this day, because he touched the hollow of Jacob's thigh in the sinew of the hip.

33

after, and Rachel and Joseph at the rear. <sup>3</sup> He himself passed over in front of them, and bowed himself to the ground seven times, until he came near to his brother.

He said, "The children whom God has graciously given your servant." <sup>6</sup> Then the servants came near with their children, and they bowed themselves. <sup>7</sup> Leah also and her children came near, and bowed themselves. After them, Joseph came near with Rachel, and they bowed themselves.

Jacob said, "To find favor in the sight of my lord."

<sup>10</sup> Jacob said, "Please, no, if I have now found favor in your sight, then receive my present at my hand, because I have seen your face, as one sees the face of God, and you were pleased with me. <sup>11</sup> Please take the gift that I brought to you, because God has dealt graciously with me, and because I have enough." He urged him, and he took it.

<sup>13</sup> Jacob said to him, "My lord knows that the children are tender, and that the flocks and herds with me have their young, and if they overdrive them one day, all the flocks will die. <sup>14</sup> Please let my lord pass over before his servant, and I will lead on gently, according to the pace of the livestock that are before me and according to the pace of the children, until I come to my lord to Seir.”

He said, “Why? Let me find favor in the sight of my lord.”

field when they heard it. The men were grieved, and they were very angry, because he had done folly in Israel in lying with Jacob’s daughter; a thing ought not to be done. <sup>8</sup> Hamor talked with them, saying, “The soul of my son, Shechem, longs for your daughter. Please give her to him as a wife. <sup>9</sup> Make marriages with us. Give your daughters to us, and take our daughters for yourselves. <sup>10</sup> You shall dwell with us, and the land will be before you. Live and trade in it, and get possessions in it.”

<sup>11</sup> Shechem said to her father and to her brothers, “Let me find favor in your eyes, and whatever you will tell me I will give. <sup>12</sup> Ask me a great amount for a dowry, and I will give whatever you ask of me, but give me the young lady as a wife.”

<sup>13</sup> The sons of Jacob answered Shechem and Hamor his father with deceit, and spoke, because he had defiled Dinah their sister, <sup>14</sup> and said to them, “We can’t do this thing, to give our sister to one who is uncircumcised; for that is a reproach to us.

<sup>15</sup> Only on this condition will we consent to you. If you will be as we are, that every male of you be circumcised; <sup>16</sup> then will we give our daughters to you, and we will take your daughters to us, and we will dwell with you, and we will become one people.

<sup>17</sup> But if you will not listen to us, to be circumcised, then we will take our sister,<sup>p</sup> and we will be gone.”

gate of their city, and talked with the men of their city, saying, <sup>21</sup> “These men are peaceful with us. Therefore let them live in the land and trade in it. For behold, the land is large enough for them. Let us take their daughters to us for wives, and let us give them our daughters. <sup>22</sup> Only on this condition will the men consent to us to live with us, to become one people, if every male among us is circumcised, as they are circumcised. <sup>23</sup> Won’t their livestock and their possessions and all their animals be ours? Only let us give our consent to them, and they will dwell with us.”

<sup>24</sup> All who went out of the gate of his city listened to Hamor, and to Shechem his son; and every male was circumcised, all who went out of the gate of his city. <sup>25</sup> On the third day, when they were sore, two of Jacob’s sons, Simeon and Levi, Dinah’s brothers, each took his sword, came upon the unsuspecting city, and killed all the males. <sup>26</sup> They killed Hamor and Shechem, his son, with the edge of the sword, and took Dinah out of Shechem’s house, and went away. <sup>27</sup> Jacob’s sons came on the dead, and plundered the city, because they had defiled their sister. <sup>28</sup> They took their flocks, their herds, their donkeys, that which was in the city, that which was in the field, <sup>29</sup> and all their wealth. They took captive all their little ones and their wives, and took as plunder everything that was in the house. <sup>30</sup> Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, “You have troubled me, to make me odious to the inhabitants of the land, among the Canaanites and the Perizzites. I am few in number. They will gather themselves together against me and strike me, and I will be destroyed, I and my house.”

<sup>1</sup> God said to Jacob, “Arise, go up to Bethel, and live there. Make there an altar to God, who appeared to you when you fled from the face of Esau your brother.”

<sup>2</sup> Then Jacob said to his household, and to all who were with him, “Put away the foreign gods that are among you, purify yourselves, change your garments. <sup>3</sup> Let us arise, and go up to Bethel. I will make there an altar to God, who answered me in the day of my distress, and was with me on the way which I went.”

<sup>4</sup> They gave to Jacob all the foreign gods which were in their hands, and the rings which were in their ears; and Jacob hid them under the oak which was by Shechem. <sup>5</sup> They traveled, and a terror of God was on the cities that were around them, and they didn’t pursue the sons of Jacob. <sup>6</sup> So Jacob came to Luz (that is, Bethel), which is in the land of Canaan, he and all the people who were with him. <sup>7</sup> He built an altar there, and called the place El Beth El; because there God was revealed to him, when he fled from the face of his brother. <sup>8</sup> Deborah, Rebekah’s nurse, died, and she was buried below Bethel under the oak; and its name was called Allon Bacuth.

<sup>10</sup> God said to him, “Your name is Jacob. Your name shall not be Jacob any more, but your name will be Israel.” He named him Israel. <sup>11</sup> God said to him, “I am God Almighty. Be fruitful and multiply. A nation and a company of nations will be from you, and kings will come out of your body. <sup>12</sup> The land which I gave to Abraham and Isaac, I will give it to you, and to your offspring<sup>q</sup> after you will I give the land.”

<sup>13</sup> God went up from him in the place where he spoke with him. <sup>14</sup> Jacob set up a pillar in the place where he spoke with him, a pillar of stone. He poured out a drink offering on it, and poured oil on it. <sup>15</sup> Jacob called the name of the place where God spoke with him “Bethel”.

<sup>16</sup> They traveled from Bethel. There was still some distance to come to Ephrath, and Rachel travailed. She had hard labor. <sup>17</sup> When she was in hard labor, the midwife said to her, “Don’t be afraid, for now you will have another son.”

Now the sons of Jacob were twelve. <sup>23</sup> The sons of Leah: Reuben (Jacob’s firstborn), Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, and Zebulun. <sup>24</sup> The sons of Rachel: Joseph and Benjamin. <sup>25</sup> The sons of Bilhah (Rachel’s servant): Dan and Naphtali. <sup>26</sup> The sons of Zilpah (Leah’s servant): Gad and Asher. These are the sons of Jacob, who were born to him in Paddan Aram. <sup>27</sup> Jacob came to Isaac his father, to Mamre, to Kiriath Arba (which is Hebron), where Abraham and Isaac lived as foreigners.

concubine to Eliphaz, Esau's son; and she bore to Eliphaz Amalek. These are the sons of Adah, Esau's wife.<sup>13</sup> These are the sons of Reuel: Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah. These were the sons of Basemath, Esau's wife.<sup>14</sup> These were the sons of Oholibamah, the daughter of Anah, the daughter of Zibeon, Esau's wife: she bore to Esau Jeush, Jalam, and Korah.

Iram. These are the chiefs of Edom, according to their habitations in the land of their possession. This is Esau, the father of the Edomites.

37

<sup>5</sup> Joseph dreamed a dream, and he told it to his brothers, and they hated him all the more. <sup>6</sup> He said to them, "Please hear this dream which I have dreamed: <sup>7</sup> for behold, we were binding sheaves in the field, and behold, my sheaf arose and also stood upright; and behold, your sheaves came around, and bowed down to my sheaf."

<sup>8</sup> His brothers said to him, "Will you indeed reign over us? Or will you indeed have dominion over us?" They hated him all the more for his dreams and for his words. <sup>9</sup> He dreamed yet another dream, and told it to his brothers, and said, "Behold, I have dreamed yet another dream: and behold, the sun and the moon and eleven stars bowed down to me." <sup>10</sup> He told it to his father and to his brothers. His father rebuked him, and said to him, "What is this dream that you have dreamed? Will I and your mother and your brothers indeed come to bow ourselves down to you to the earth?" <sup>11</sup> His brothers envied him, but his father kept this saying in mind.

<sup>12</sup> His brothers went to feed their father's flock in Shechem. <sup>13</sup> Israel said to Joseph, "Aren't your brothers feeding the flock in Shechem? Come, and I will send you to them." He said to him, "Here I am."

<sup>14</sup> He said to him, "Go now, see whether it is well with your brothers, and well with the flock; and bring me word again." So he sent him out of the valley of Hebron, and he came to Shechem. <sup>15</sup> A certain man found him, and behold, he was wandering in the field. The man asked him, "What are you looking for?"

<sup>16</sup> He said, "I am looking for my brothers. Tell me, please, where they are feeding the flock."

Joseph went after his brothers, and found them in Dothan. <sup>18</sup> They saw him afar off, and before he came near to them, they conspired against him to kill him. <sup>19</sup> They said to one another, "Behold, this dreamer comes. <sup>20</sup> Come now therefore, and let's kill him, and cast him into one of the pits, and we will say, 'An evil animal has devoured him.' We will see what will become of his dreams."

<sup>21</sup> Reuben heard it, and delivered him out of their hand, and said, "Let's not take his life." <sup>22</sup> Reuben said to them, "Shed no blood. Throw him into this pit that is in the wilderness, but lay no hand on him"—that he might deliver him out of their hand, to restore him to his father. <sup>23</sup> When Joseph came to his brothers, they stripped Joseph of his coat, the coat of many colors that was on him; <sup>24</sup> and they took him, and threw him into the pit. The pit was empty. There was no water in it.

<sup>25</sup> They sat down to eat bread, and they lifted up their eyes and looked, and saw a caravan of Ishmaelites was coming from Gilead, with their camels bearing spices and balm and myrrh, going to carry it down to Egypt. <sup>26</sup> Judah said to his brothers, "What profit is it if we kill our brother and conceal his blood? <sup>27</sup> Come, and let's sell him to the Ishmaelites, and not let our hand be on him; for he is our brother, our flesh." His brothers listened to him. <sup>28</sup> Midianites who were merchants passed by, and they drew and lifted up Joseph out of the pit, and sold Joseph to the Ishmaelites for twenty pieces of silver. They brought Joseph into Egypt.

mourning." His father wept for him. <sup>36</sup> The Midianites sold him into Egypt to Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh's, the captain of the guard.

38

Adullamite. <sup>13</sup> Tamar was told, “Behold, your father-in-law is going up to Timnah to shear his sheep.” <sup>14</sup> She took off of her the garments of her widowhood, and covered herself with her veil, and wrapped herself, and sat in the gate of Enaim, which is by the way to Timnah; for she saw that Shelah was grown up, and she wasn’t given to him as a wife. <sup>15</sup> When Judah saw her, he thought that she was a prostitute, for she had covered her face. <sup>16</sup> He turned to her by the way, and said, “Please come, let me come in to you,” for he didn’t know that she was his daughter-in-law.

She said, “What will you give me, that you may come in to me?”

<sup>17</sup> He said, “I will send you a young goat from the flock.”

She said, “Will you give me a pledge, until you send it?”

<sup>18</sup> He said, “What pledge will I give you?”

She said, “Your signet and your cord, and your staff that is in your hand.”

He gave them to her, and came in to her, and she conceived by him. <sup>19</sup> She arose, and went away, and put off her veil from her, and put on the garments of her widowhood. <sup>20</sup> Judah sent the young goat by the hand of his friend, the Adullamite, to receive the pledge from the woman’s hand, but he didn’t find her. <sup>21</sup> Then he asked the men of her place, saying, “Where is the prostitute, that was at Enaim by the road?”

They said, “There has been no prostitute here.”

<sup>22</sup> He returned to Judah, and said, “I haven’t found her; and also the men of the place said, ‘There has been no prostitute here.’” <sup>23</sup> Judah said, “Let her keep it, lest we be shamed. Behold, I sent this young goat, and you haven’t found her.”

Judah said, “Bring her out, and let her be burned.” <sup>25</sup> When she was brought out, she sent to her father-in-law, saying, “By the man, whose these are, I am with child.” She also said, “Please discern whose are these—the signet, and the cords, and the staff.”

He knew her again no more. <sup>27</sup> In the time of her travail, behold, twins were in her womb. <sup>28</sup> When she travailed, one put out a hand, and the midwife took and tied a scarlet thread on his hand, saying, “This came out first.” <sup>29</sup> As he drew back his hand, behold, his brother came out, and she said, “Why have you made a breach for yourself?” Therefore his name was called Perez.<sup>x</sup> <sup>30</sup> Afterward his brother came out, that had the scarlet thread on his hand, and his name was called Zerah.<sup>y</sup>

found favor in his sight. He ministered to him, and he made him overseer over his house, and all that he had he put into his hand. <sup>5</sup> From the time that he made him overseer in his house, and over all that he had, Yahweh blessed the Egyptian's house for Joseph's sake. Yahweh's blessing was on all that he had, in the house and in the field. <sup>6</sup> He left all that he had in Joseph's hand. He didn't concern himself with anything, except for the food which he ate.

Joseph was well-built and handsome. <sup>7</sup> After these things, his master's wife set her eyes on Joseph; and she said, "Lie with me."

<sup>8</sup> But he refused, and said to his master's wife, "Behold, my master doesn't know what is with me in the house, and he has put all that he has into my hand. <sup>9</sup> No one is greater in this house than I am, and he has not kept back anything from me but you, because you are his wife. How then can I do this great wickedness, and sin against God?"

He left his garment in her hand, and ran outside. <sup>13</sup> When she saw that he had left his garment in her hand, and had run outside, <sup>14</sup> she called to the men of her house, and spoke to them, saying, "Behold, he has brought in a Hebrew to us to mock us. He came in to me to lie with me, and I cried with a loud voice. <sup>15</sup> When he heard that I lifted up my voice and cried, he left his garment by me, and ran outside." <sup>16</sup> She laid up his garment by her, until his master came home. <sup>17</sup> She spoke to him according to these words, saying, "The Hebrew servant, whom you have brought to us, came in to me to mock me, <sup>18</sup> and as I lifted up my voice and cried, he left his garment by me, and ran outside."

dream, the cup bearer and the baker of the king of Egypt, who were bound in the prison. <sup>6</sup> Joseph came in to them in the morning, and saw them, and saw that they were sad. <sup>7</sup> He asked Pharaoh's officers who were with him in custody in his master's house, saying, "Why do you look so sad today?"

<sup>8</sup> They said to him, "We have dreamed a dream, and there is no one who can interpret it."

Joseph said to them, "Don't interpretations belong to God? Please tell it to me."

<sup>9</sup> The chief cup bearer told his dream to Joseph, and said to him, "In my dream, behold, a vine was in front of me, <sup>10</sup> and in the vine were three branches. It was as though it budded, it blossomed, and its clusters produced ripe grapes. <sup>11</sup> Pharaoh's cup was in my hand; and I took the grapes, and pressed them into Pharaoh's cup, and I gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand."

<sup>12</sup> Joseph said to him, "This is its interpretation: the three branches are three days. <sup>13</sup> Within three more days, Pharaoh will lift up your head, and restore you to your office. You will give Pharaoh's cup into his hand, the way you did when you were his cup bearer. <sup>14</sup> But remember me when it will be well with you, and please show kindness to me, and make mention of me to Pharaoh, and bring me out of this house. <sup>15</sup> For indeed, I was stolen away out of the land of the Hebrews, and here also have I done nothing that they should put me into the dungeon."

<sup>16</sup> When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was good, he said to Joseph, "I also was in my dream, and behold, three baskets of white bread were on my head. <sup>17</sup> In the uppermost basket there were all kinds of baked food for Pharaoh, and the birds ate them out of the basket on my head."

<sup>18</sup> Joseph answered, "This is its interpretation. The three baskets are three days. <sup>19</sup> Within three more days, Pharaoh will lift up your head from off you, and will hang you on a tree; and the birds will eat your flesh from off you." <sup>20</sup> On the third day, which was Pharaoh's birthday, he made a feast for all his servants, and he lifted up the head of the chief cup bearer and the head of the chief baker among his servants. <sup>21</sup> He restored the chief cup bearer to his position again, and he gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand; <sup>22</sup> but he hanged the chief baker, as Joseph had interpreted to them. <sup>23</sup> Yet the chief cup bearer didn't remember Joseph, but forgot him.

full ears. Pharaoh awoke, and behold, it was a dream. <sup>8</sup> In the morning, his spirit was troubled, and he sent and called for all of Egypt's magicians and wise men. Pharaoh told them his dreams, but there was no one who could interpret them to Pharaoh.

<sup>9</sup> Then the chief cup bearer spoke to Pharaoh, saying, "I remember my faults today. <sup>10</sup> Pharaoh was angry with his servants, and put me in custody in the house of the captain of the guard, me and the chief baker. <sup>11</sup> We dreamed a dream in one night, I and he. We dreamed each man according to the interpretation of his dream. <sup>12</sup> There was with us there a young man, a Hebrew, servant to the captain of the guard, and we told him, and he interpreted to us our dreams. To each man according to his dream he interpreted. <sup>13</sup> As he interpreted to us, so it was. He restored me to my office, and he hanged him."

<sup>14</sup> Then Pharaoh sent and called Joseph, and they brought him hastily out of the dungeon. He shaved himself, changed his clothing, and came in to Pharaoh. <sup>15</sup> Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I have dreamed a dream, and there is no one who can interpret it. I have heard it said of you, that when you hear a dream you can interpret it."

very ugly and thin, such as I never saw in all the land of Egypt for ugliness. <sup>20</sup> The thin and ugly cattle ate up the first seven fat cattle, <sup>21</sup> and when they had eaten them up, it couldn't be known that they had eaten them, but they were still ugly, as at the beginning. So I awoke. <sup>22</sup> I saw in my dream, and behold, seven heads of grain came up on one stalk, full and good: <sup>23</sup> and behold, seven heads of grain, withered, thin, and blasted with the east wind, sprung up after them. <sup>24</sup> The thin heads of grain swallowed up the seven good heads of grain. I told it to the magicians, but there was no one who could explain it to me."

<sup>37</sup> The thing was good in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of all his servants. <sup>38</sup> Pharaoh said to his servants, “Can we find such a one as this, a man in whom is the Spirit of God?” <sup>39</sup> Pharaoh said to Joseph, “Because God has shown you all of this, there is no one so discreet and wise as you. <sup>40</sup> You shall be over my house, and according to your word will all my people be ruled. Only in the throne I will be greater than you.” <sup>41</sup> Pharaoh said to Joseph, “Behold, I have set you over all the land of Egypt.” <sup>42</sup> Pharaoh took off his signet ring from his hand, and put it on Joseph’s hand, and arrayed him in robes of fine linen, and put a gold chain about his neck, <sup>43</sup> and he made him to ride in the second chariot which he had. They cried before him, “Bow the knee!” He set him over all the land of Egypt. <sup>44</sup> Pharaoh said to Joseph, “I am Pharaoh, and without you shall no man lift up his hand or his foot in all the land of Egypt.” <sup>45</sup> Pharaoh called Joseph’s name Zaphenath-Paneah; and he gave him Asenath, the daughter of Potiphera priest of On as a wife. Joseph went out over the land of Egypt.

<sup>53</sup> The seven years of plenty, that were in the land of Egypt, came to an end. <sup>54</sup> The seven years of famine began to come, just as Joseph had said. There was famine in all lands, but in all the land of Egypt there was bread. <sup>55</sup> When all the land of Egypt was famished, the people cried to Pharaoh for bread, and Pharaoh said to all the Egyptians, “Go to Joseph. What he says to you, do.” <sup>56</sup> The famine was over all the surface of the earth. Joseph opened all the store houses, and sold to the Egyptians. The famine was severe in the land of Egypt. <sup>57</sup> All countries came into Egypt, to

Joseph, to buy grain, because the famine was severe in all the earth.

42

<sup>1</sup> Now Jacob saw that there was grain in Egypt, and Jacob said to his sons, "Why do you look at one another?" <sup>2</sup> He said, "Behold, I have heard that there is grain in Egypt. Go down there, and buy for us from there, so that we may live, and not die." <sup>3</sup> Joseph's ten brothers went down to buy grain from Egypt. <sup>4</sup> But Jacob didn't send Benjamin, Joseph's brother, with his brothers; for he said, "Lest perhaps harm happen to him." <sup>5</sup> The sons of Israel came to buy among those who came, for the famine was in the land of Canaan. <sup>6</sup> Joseph was the governor over the land. It was he who sold to all the people of the land. Joseph's brothers came, and bowed themselves down to him with their faces to the earth. <sup>7</sup> Joseph saw his brothers, and he recognized them, but acted like a stranger to them, and spoke roughly with them. He said to them, "Where did you come from?"

They said, "From the land of Canaan to buy food."

<sup>8</sup> Joseph recognized his brothers, but they didn't recognize him. <sup>9</sup> Joseph remembered the dreams which he dreamed about them, and said to them, "You are spies! You have come to see the nakedness of the land."

<sup>10</sup> They said to him, "No, my lord, but your servants have come to buy food. <sup>11</sup> We are all one man's sons; we are honest men. Your servants are not spies."

<sup>12</sup> He said to them, "No, but you have come to see the nakedness of the land!"

<sup>13</sup> They said, "We, your servants, are twelve brothers, the sons of one man in the land of Canaan; and behold, the youngest is today with our father, and one is no more."

<sup>18</sup> Joseph said to them the third day, "Do this, and live, for I fear God. <sup>19</sup> If you are honest men, then let one of your brothers be bound in your prison; but you go, carry grain for the famine of your houses. <sup>20</sup> Bring your youngest brother to me; so will your words be verified, and you won't die."

They did so. <sup>21</sup> They said to one another, "We are certainly guilty concerning our brother, in that we saw the distress of his soul, when he begged us, and we wouldn't listen. Therefore this distress has come upon us." <sup>22</sup> Reuben answered them, saying, "Didn't I tell you, saying, 'Don't sin against the child,' and you wouldn't listen? Therefore also, behold, his blood is required." <sup>23</sup> They didn't know that Joseph understood them; for there was an interpreter between them. <sup>24</sup> He turned himself away from them, and wept. Then he returned to them, and spoke to them, and took Simeon from among them, and bound him before their eyes. <sup>25</sup> Then Joseph gave a command to fill their bags with grain, and to restore each man's money into his sack, and to give them food for the way. So it was done to them.

you. Entrust him to my care, and I will bring him to you again.”

<sup>38</sup> He said, “My son shall not go down with you; for his brother is dead, and he only is left. If harm happens to him along the way in which you go, then you will bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to Sheol.”<sup>b</sup>

43

<sup>3</sup> Judah spoke to him, saying, “The man solemnly warned us, saying, ‘You shall not see my face, unless your brother is with you.’ <sup>4</sup> If you’ll send our brother with us, we’ll go down and buy you food, <sup>5</sup> but if you’ll not send him, we’ll not go down, for the man said to us, ‘You shall not see my face, unless your brother is with you.’”

<sup>7</sup> They said, “The man asked directly concerning ourselves, and concerning our relatives, saying, ‘Is your father still alive? Have you another brother?’ We just answered his questions. Is there any way we could know that he would say, ‘Bring your brother down?’”

<sup>8</sup> Judah said to Israel, his father, “Send the boy with me, and we’ll get up and go, so that we may live, and not die, both we, and you, and also our little ones. <sup>9</sup> I’ll be collateral for him. From my hand will you require him. If I don’t bring him to you, and set him before you, then let me bear the blame forever,<sup>10</sup> for if we hadn't delayed, surely we would have returned a second time by now."

<sup>11</sup> Their father, Israel, said to them, "If it must be so, then do this. Take from the choice fruits of the land in your bags, and carry down a present for the man, a little balm, a little honey, spices and myrrh, nuts, and almonds;<sup>12</sup> and take double money in your hand, and take back the money that was returned in the mouth of your sacks. Perhaps it was an oversight.<sup>13</sup> Take your brother also, get up, and return to the man.<sup>14</sup> May God Almighty give you mercy before the man, that he may release to you your other brother and Benjamin. If I am bereaved of my children, I am bereaved."

<sup>17</sup> The man did as Joseph commanded, and the man brought the men to Joseph's house.<sup>18</sup> The men were afraid, because they were brought to Joseph's house; and they said, "Because of the money that was returned in our sacks at the first time, we're brought in; that he may seek occasion against us, attack us, and seize us as slaves, along with our donkeys."<sup>19</sup> They came near to the steward of Joseph's house, and they spoke to him at the door of the house,<sup>20</sup> and said, "Oh, my lord, we indeed came down the first time to buy food.<sup>21</sup> When we came to the lodging place, we opened our sacks, and behold, each man's money was in the mouth of his sack, our money in full weight. We have brought it back in our hand.<sup>22</sup> We have brought down other money in our hand to buy food. We don't know who put our money in our sacks."

<sup>23</sup> He said, "Peace be to you. Don't be afraid. Your God, and the God of your father, has given you treasure in your sacks. I received your money." He brought Simeon out to them.<sup>24</sup> The man brought the men into Joseph's house, and gave them water, and they washed their feet. He gave their donkeys fodder.<sup>25</sup> They prepared the present for Joseph's coming at noon, for they heard that they should eat bread there.

<sup>26</sup> When Joseph came home, they brought him the present which was in their hand into the house, and bowed themselves down to him to the earth.<sup>27</sup> He asked them of their welfare, and said, "Is your father well, the old man of whom you spoke? Is he yet alive?"

<sup>28</sup> They said, "Your servant, our father, is well. He is still alive." They bowed down humbly.<sup>29</sup> He lifted up his eyes, and saw Benjamin, his brother, his mother's son, and said, "Is this your youngest brother, of whom you spoke to me?" He said, "God be gracious to you, my son."<sup>30</sup> Joseph hurried, for his heart yearned over his brother; and he sought a place to weep. He entered into his room, and wept there.<sup>31</sup> He washed his face, and came out. He controlled himself, and said, "Serve the meal."

Egyptians don't eat bread with the Hebrews, for that is an abomination to the Egyptians. <sup>33</sup> They sat before him, the firstborn according to his birthright, and the youngest according to his youth, and the men marveled one with another. <sup>34</sup> He sent portions to them from before him, but Benjamin's portion was five times as much as any of theirs. They drank, and were merry with him.

<sup>7</sup> They said to him, "Why does my lord speak such words as these? Far be it from your servants that they should do such a thing! <sup>8</sup> Behold, the money, which we found in our sacks' mouths, we brought again to you out of the land of Canaan. How then should we steal silver or gold out of your lord's house? <sup>9</sup> With whomever of your servants it is found, let him die, and we also will be my lord's slaves."

<sup>10</sup> He said, "Now also let it be according to your words: he with whom it is found will be my slave; and you will be blameless."

<sup>14</sup> Judah and his brothers came to Joseph's house, and he was still there. They fell on the ground before him. <sup>15</sup> Joseph said to them, "What deed is this that you have done? Don't you know that such a man as I can indeed divine?"

<sup>16</sup> Judah said, "What will we tell my lord? What will we speak? Or how will we clear ourselves? God has found out the iniquity of your servants. Behold, we are my lord's slaves, both we, and he also in whose hand the cup is found."

<sup>17</sup> He said, "Far be it from me that I should do so. The man in whose hand the cup is found, he will be my slave; but as for you, go up in peace to your father."

<sup>18</sup> Then Judah came near to him, and said, "Oh, my lord, please let your servant speak a word in my lord's ears, and don't let your anger burn against your servant; for you are even as Pharaoh. <sup>19</sup> My lord asked his servants, saying, 'Have you a father, or a brother?' <sup>20</sup> We said to my lord, 'We have a father, an old man, and a child of his old age, a little one; and his brother is dead, and he alone is left of his mother; and his father loves him.' <sup>21</sup> You said to your servants, 'Bring him down to me, that I may set my eyes on him.' <sup>22</sup> We said to my lord, ‘The boy can’t leave his father: for if he should leave his father, his father would die.’<sup>23</sup> You said to your servants, ‘Unless your youngest brother comes down with you, you will see my face no more.’<sup>24</sup> When we came up to your servant my father, we told him the words of my lord.<sup>25</sup> Our father said, ‘Go again, buy us a little food.’<sup>26</sup> We said, ‘We can’t go down. If our youngest brother is with us, then we will go down: for we may not see the man’s face, unless our youngest brother is with us.’<sup>27</sup> Your servant, my father, said to us, ‘You know that my wife bore me two sons:<sup>28</sup> and the one went out from me, and I said, “Surely he is torn in pieces”; and I haven’t seen him since.<sup>29</sup> If you take this one also from me, and harm happens to him, you will bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to Sheol.’<sup>c</sup><sup>30</sup> Now therefore when I come to your servant my father, and the boy is not with us; since his life is bound up in the boy’s life;<sup>31</sup> it will happen, when he sees that the boy is no more, that he will die. Your servants will bring down the gray hairs of your servant, our father, with sorrow to Sheol.’<sup>d</sup><sup>32</sup> For your servant became collateral for the boy to my father, saying, ‘If I don’t bring him to you, then I will bear the blame to my father forever.’<sup>33</sup> Now therefore, please let your servant stay instead of the boy, my lord’s slave; and let the boy go up with his brothers.<sup>34</sup> For how will I go up to my father, if the boy isn’t with me?—lest I see the evil that will come on my father.”

45

he cried, “Cause everyone to go out from me!” No one else stood with him, while Joseph made himself known to his brothers.<sup>2</sup> He wept aloud. The Egyptians heard, and the house of Pharaoh heard.<sup>3</sup> Joseph said to his brothers, “I am Joseph! Does my father still live?”

His brothers couldn’t answer him; for they were terrified at his presence.<sup>4</sup> Joseph said to his brothers, “Come near to me, please.”

They came near. “He said, I am Joseph, your brother, whom you sold into Egypt.<sup>5</sup> Now don’t be grieved, nor angry with yourselves, that you sold me here, for God sent me before you to preserve life.<sup>6</sup> For these two years the famine has been in the land, and there are yet five years, in which there will be no plowing and no harvest.<sup>7</sup> God sent me before you to preserve for you a remnant in the earth, and to save you alive by a great deliverance.<sup>8</sup> So now it wasn’t you who sent me here, but God, and he has made me a father to Pharaoh, lord of all his house, and ruler over all the land of Egypt.<sup>9</sup> Hurry, and go up to my father, and tell him, ‘This is what your son Joseph says, “God has made me lord of all Egypt. Come down to me. Don’t wait.<sup>10</sup> You shall dwell in the land of Goshen, and you will be near to me, you, your children, your children’s children, your flocks, your herds, and all that you have.<sup>11</sup> There I will nourish you; for there are yet five years of famine; lest you come to poverty, you, and your household, and all that you have.”’<sup>12</sup> Behold, your eyes see, and the eyes of my brother Benjamin, that it is my mouth that speaks to you.<sup>13</sup> You shall tell my father of all my glory in Egypt, and of all that you have seen. You shall hurry and bring my father down here.”<sup>14</sup> He fell on his brother Benjamin’s neck, and wept, and Benjamin wept on his neck.<sup>15</sup> He kissed all his brothers, and wept on them. After that his brothers talked with him.

still alive, and he is ruler over all the land of Egypt.” His heart fainted, for he didn’t believe them.<sup>27</sup> They told him all the words of Joseph, which he had said to them. When he saw the wagons which Joseph had sent to carry him, the spirit of Jacob, their father, revived.<sup>28</sup> Israel said, “It is enough. Joseph my son is still alive. I will go and see him before I die.”

46

<sup>1</sup> Israel traveled with all that he had, and came to Beersheba, and offered sacrifices to the God of his father, Isaac.<sup>2</sup> God spoke to Israel in the visions of the night, and said, “Jacob, Jacob!”

He said, “Here I am.”

<sup>3</sup> He said, “I am God, the God of your father. Don’t be afraid to go down into Egypt, for there I will make of you a great nation.<sup>4</sup> I will go down with you into Egypt. I will also surely bring you up again. Joseph will close your eyes.”

<sup>5</sup> Jacob rose up from Beersheba, and the sons of Israel carried Jacob, their father, their little ones, and their wives, in the wagons which Pharaoh had sent to carry him.<sup>6</sup> They took their livestock, and their goods, which they had gotten in the land of Canaan, and came into Egypt—Jacob, and all his offspring<sup>e</sup> with him,<sup>7</sup> his sons, and his sons’ sons with him, his daughters, and his sons’ daughters, and he brought all his offspring<sup>f</sup> with him into Egypt.

son of a Canaanite woman. <sup>11</sup> The sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. <sup>12</sup> The sons of Judah: Er, Onan, Shelah, Perez, and Zerah; but Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan. The sons of Perez were Hezron and Hamul. <sup>13</sup> The sons of Issachar: Tola, Puvah, Iob, and Shimron. <sup>14</sup> The sons of Zebulun: Sered, Elon, and Jahleel. <sup>15</sup> These are the sons of Leah, whom she bore to Jacob in Paddan Aram, with his daughter Dinah. All the souls of his sons and his daughters were thirty-three. <sup>16</sup> The sons of Gad: Ziphion, Haggi, Shuni, Ezbon, Eri, Arodi, and Areli. <sup>17</sup> The sons of Asher: Imnah, Ishvah, Ishvi, Beriah, and Serah their sister. The sons of Beriah: Heber and Malchiel. <sup>18</sup> These are the sons of Zilpah, whom Laban gave to Leah, his daughter, and these she bore to Jacob, even sixteen souls. <sup>19</sup> The sons of Rachel, Jacob's wife: Joseph and Benjamin. <sup>20</sup> To Joseph in the land of Egypt were born Manasseh and Ephraim, whom Asenath, the daughter of Potiphara, priest of On, bore to him. <sup>21</sup> The sons of Benjamin: Bela, Becher, Ashbel, Gera, Naaman, Ehi, Rosh, Muppim, Huppim, and Ard. <sup>22</sup> These are the sons of Rachel, who were born to Jacob: all the souls were fourteen. <sup>23</sup> The son of Dan: Hushim. <sup>24</sup> The sons of Naphtali: Jahzeel, Guni, Jezer, and Shillem. <sup>25</sup> These are the sons of Bilhah, whom Laban gave to Rachel, his daughter, and these she bore to Jacob: all the souls were seven. <sup>26</sup> All the souls who came with Jacob into Egypt, who were his direct offspring, besides Jacob's sons' wives, all the souls were sixty-six. <sup>27</sup> The sons of Joseph, who were born to him in Egypt, were two souls. All the souls of the house of Jacob, who came into Egypt, were seventy.

<sup>28</sup> He sent Judah before him to Joseph, to show the way before him to Goshen, and they came into the land of Goshen. <sup>29</sup> Joseph prepared his chariot, and went up to meet Israel, his father, in Goshen. He presented himself to him, and fell on his neck, and wept on his neck a good while. <sup>30</sup> Israel said to Joseph, "Now let me die, since I have seen your face, that you are still alive."

<sup>31</sup> Joseph said to his brothers, and to his father's house, "I will go up, and speak with Pharaoh, and will tell him, 'My brothers, and my father's house, who were in the land of Canaan, have come to me. <sup>32</sup> These men are shepherds, for they have been keepers of livestock, and they have brought their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have.' <sup>33</sup> It will happen, when Pharaoh summons you, and will say, 'What is your occupation?' <sup>34</sup> that you shall say, 'Your servants have been keepers of livestock from our youth even until now, both we, and our fathers:' that you may dwell in the land of Goshen; for every shepherd is an abomination to the Egyptians."

<sup>1</sup> Then Joseph went in and told Pharaoh, and said, "My father and my brothers, with their flocks, their herds, and all that they own, have come out of the land of Canaan; and behold, they are in the land of Goshen." <sup>2</sup> From among his brothers he took five men, and presented them to Pharaoh. <sup>3</sup> Pharaoh said to his brothers, "What is your occupation?"

They said to Pharaoh, “Your servants are shepherds, both we, and our fathers.”<sup>4</sup> They said to Pharaoh, “We have come to live as foreigners in the land, for there is no pasture for your servants’ flocks. For the famine is severe in the land of Canaan. Now therefore, please let your servants dwell in the land of Goshen.”

<sup>6</sup> The land of Egypt is before you. Make your father and your brothers dwell in the best of the land. Let them dwell in the land of Goshen. If you know any able men among them, then put them in charge of my livestock.”

<sup>7</sup> Joseph brought in Jacob, his father, and set him before Pharaoh, and Jacob blessed Pharaoh. <sup>8</sup> Pharaoh said to Jacob, “How many are the days of the years of your life?”

<sup>9</sup> Jacob said to Pharaoh, “The days of the years of my pilgrimage are one hundred thirty years. Few and evil have been the days of the years of my life, and they have not attained to the days of the years of the life of my fathers in the days of their pilgrimage.” <sup>10</sup> Jacob blessed Pharaoh, and went out from the presence of Pharaoh.

<sup>11</sup> Joseph placed his father and his brothers, and gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the best of the land, in the land of Rameses, as Pharaoh had commanded. <sup>12</sup> Joseph nourished his father, his brothers, and all of his father’s household, with bread, according to their families.

<sup>13</sup> There was no bread in all the land; for the famine was very severe, so that the land of Egypt and the land of Canaan fainted by reason of the famine. <sup>14</sup> Joseph gathered up all the money that was found in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, for the grain which they bought: and Joseph brought the money into Pharaoh’s house. <sup>15</sup> When the money was all spent in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, all the Egyptians came to Joseph, and said, “Give us bread, for why should we die in your presence? For our money fails.”

<sup>17</sup> They brought their livestock to Joseph, and Joseph gave them bread in exchange for the horses, and for the flocks, and for the herds, and for the donkeys: and he fed them with bread in exchange for all their livestock for that year. <sup>18</sup> When that year was ended, they came to him the second year, and said to him, “We will not hide from my lord how our money is all spent, and the herds of livestock are my lord’s. There is nothing left in the sight of my lord, but our bodies, and our lands. <sup>19</sup> Why should we die before your eyes, both we and our land? Buy us and our land for bread, and we and our land will be servants to Pharaoh. Give us seed, that we may live, and not die, and that the land won’t be desolate.”

Pharaoh gave them. That is why they didn't sell their land. <sup>23</sup> Then Joseph said to the people, "Behold, I have bought you and your land today for Pharaoh. Behold, here is seed for you, and you shall sow the land.

<sup>24</sup> It will happen at the harvests, that you shall give a fifth to Pharaoh, and four parts will be your own, for seed of the field, for your food, for them of your households, and for food for your little ones."

<sup>25</sup> They said, "You have saved our lives! Let us find favor in the sight of my lord, and we will be Pharaoh's servants."

<sup>26</sup> Joseph made it a statute concerning the land of Egypt to this day, that Pharaoh should have the fifth. Only the land of the priests alone didn't become Pharaoh's.

<sup>27</sup> Israel lived in the land of Egypt, in the land of Goshen; and they got themselves possessions therein, and were fruitful, and multiplied exceedingly. <sup>28</sup> Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years. So the days of Jacob, the years of his life, were one hundred forty-seven years. <sup>29</sup> The time came near that Israel must die, and he called his son Joseph, and said to him, "If now I have found favor in your sight, please put your hand under my thigh, and deal kindly and truly with me. Please don't bury me in Egypt, <sup>30</sup> but when I sleep with my fathers, you shall carry me out of Egypt, and bury me in their burying place."

He said, "I will do as you have said."

took with him his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim. <sup>2</sup> Someone told Jacob, and said, "Behold, your son Joseph comes to you," and Israel strengthened himself, and sat on the bed. <sup>3</sup> Jacob said to Joseph, "God Almighty appeared to me at Luz in the land of Canaan, and blessed me, <sup>4</sup> and said to me, 'Behold, I will make you fruitful, and multiply you, and I will make of you a company of peoples, and will give this land to your offspring<sup>g</sup> after you for an everlasting possession.' <sup>5</sup> Now your two sons, who were born to you in the land of Egypt before I came to you into Egypt, are mine; Ephraim and Manasseh, even as Reuben and Simeon, will be mine. <sup>6</sup> Your issue, whom you become the father of after them, will be yours. They will be called after the name of their brothers in their inheritance. <sup>7</sup> As for me, when I came from Paddan, Rachel died by me in the land of Canaan on the way, when there was still some distance to come to Ephrath, and I buried her there on the way to Ephrath (also called Bethlehem)."

He said, "Please bring them to me, and I will bless them." <sup>10</sup> Now the eyes of Israel were dim for age, so that he couldn't see. He brought them near to him; and he kissed them, and embraced them. <sup>11</sup> Israel said to Joseph, "I didn't think I would see your face, and behold, God has let me see your offspring<sup>h</sup> also." <sup>12</sup> Joseph brought them out from between his knees, and he bowed himself with his face to the earth. <sup>13</sup> Joseph took them both, Ephraim in his right hand

<sup>19</sup> His father refused, and said, "I know, my son, I know. He also will become a people, and he also will be great. However, his younger brother will be greater than he, and his offspring<sup>i</sup> will become a multitude of nations." <sup>20</sup> He blessed them that day, saying, "In you will Israel bless, saying, 'God make you as Ephraim and as Manasseh'" He set Ephraim before Manasseh. <sup>21</sup> Israel said to Joseph, "Behold, I am dying, but God will be with you, and bring you again to the land of your fathers. <sup>22</sup> Moreover I have given to you one portion above your brothers, which I took out of the hand of the Amorite with my sword and with my bow."

He blessed everyone according to his blessing. <sup>29</sup> He instructed them, and said to them, “I am to be gathered to my people. Bury me with my fathers in the cave that is in the field of Ephron the Hittite, <sup>30</sup> in the cave that is in the field of Machpelah, which is before Mamre, in the land of Canaan, which Abraham bought with the field from Ephron the Hittite as a burial place. <sup>31</sup> There they buried Abraham and Sarah, his wife. There they buried Isaac and Rebekah, his wife, and there I buried Leah: <sup>32</sup> the field and the cave that is therein, which was purchased from the children of Heth.” <sup>33</sup> When Jacob finished charging his sons, he gathered up his feet into the bed, and yielded up the spirit, and was gathered to his people.

<sup>4</sup> When the days of weeping for him were past, Joseph spoke to the house of Pharaoh, saying, “If now I have found favor in your eyes, please speak in the ears of Pharaoh, saying, <sup>5</sup> ‘My father made me swear, saying, “Behold, I am dying. Bury me in my grave which I have dug for myself in the land of Canaan.” Now therefore, please let me go up and bury my father, and I will come again.’”

<sup>15</sup> When Joseph’s brothers saw that their father was dead, they said, “It may be that Joseph will hate us, and will fully pay us back for all the evil which we did to him.”

evil to you.” Now, please forgive the disobedience of the servants of the God of your father.” Joseph wept when they spoke to him. <sup>18</sup> His brothers also went and fell down before his face; and they said, “Behold, we are your servants.” <sup>19</sup> Joseph said to them, “Don’t be afraid, for am I in the place of God? <sup>20</sup> As for you, you meant evil against me, but God meant it for good, to bring to pass, as it is today, to save many people alive. <sup>21</sup> Now therefore don’t be afraid. I will nourish you and your little ones.” He comforted them, and spoke kindly to them.

ten years. <sup>23</sup> Joseph saw Ephraim’s children to the third generation. The children also of Machir, the son of Manasseh, were born on Joseph’s knees. <sup>24</sup> Joseph said to his brothers, “I am dying, but God will surely visit you, and bring you up out of this land to the land which he swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.” <sup>25</sup> Joseph took an oath of the children of Israel, saying, “God will surely visit you, and you shall carry up my bones from here.” <sup>26</sup> So Joseph died, being one hundred ten years old, and they embalmed him, and he was put in a coffin in Egypt.

the children of Israel serve, <sup>14</sup> and they made their lives bitter with hard service, in mortar and in brick, and in all kinds of service in the field, all their service, in which they ruthlessly made them serve.

<sup>15</sup> The king of Egypt spoke to the Hebrew midwives, of whom the name of the one was Shiphrah, and the name of the other Puah, <sup>16</sup> and he said, "When you perform the duty of a midwife to the Hebrew women, and see them on the birth stool; if it is a son, then you shall kill him; but if it is a daughter, then she shall live." <sup>17</sup> But the midwives feared God,<sup>b</sup> and didn't do what the king of Egypt commanded them, but saved the baby boys alive. <sup>18</sup> The king of Egypt called for the midwives, and said to them, "Why have you done this thing, and have saved the boys alive?"

<sup>20</sup> God dealt well with the midwives, and the people multiplied, and grew very mighty. <sup>21</sup> Because the midwives feared God, he gave them families. <sup>22</sup> Pharaoh commanded all his people, saying, "You shall cast every son who is born into the river, and every daughter you shall save alive."

<sup>1</sup> A man of the house of Levi went and took a daughter of Levi as his wife. <sup>2</sup> The woman conceived, and bore a son. When she saw that he was a fine child, she hid him three months. <sup>3</sup> When she could no longer hide him, she took a papyrus basket for him, and coated it with tar and with pitch. She put the child in it, and laid it in the reeds by the river's bank. <sup>4</sup> His sister stood far off, to see what would be done to him. <sup>5</sup> Pharaoh's daughter came down to bathe at the river. Her maidens walked along by the riverside. She saw the basket among the reeds, and sent her servant to get it. <sup>6</sup> She opened it, and saw the child, and behold, the baby cried. She had compassion on him, and said, "This is one of the Hebrews' children."

<sup>7</sup> Then his sister said to Pharaoh's daughter, "Should I go and call a nurse for you from the Hebrew women, that she may nurse the child for you?"

The maiden went and called the child's mother. <sup>9</sup> Pharaoh's daughter said to her, "Take this child away, and nurse him for me, and I will give you your wages."

The woman took the child, and nursed it. <sup>10</sup> The child grew, and she brought him to Pharaoh's daughter, and he became her son. She named him Moses,<sup>c</sup> and said, "Because I drew him out of the water."

<sup>11</sup> In those days, when Moses had grown up, he went out to his brothers, and looked at their burdens. He saw an Egyptian striking a Hebrew, one of his brothers. <sup>12</sup> He looked this way and that way, and when he saw that there was no one, he killed the Egyptian, and hid him in the sand.

<sup>13</sup> He went out the second day, and behold, two men of the Hebrews were fighting with each other. He said to him who did the wrong, "Why do you strike your fellow?"

<sup>14</sup> He said, "Who made you a prince and a judge over us? Do you plan to kill me, as you killed the Egyptian?"

Moses was afraid, and said, "Surely this thing is known." <sup>15</sup> Now when Pharaoh heard this thing, he sought to kill Moses. But Moses fled from the face of Pharaoh, and lived in the land of Midian, and he sat down by a well.

<sup>16</sup> Now the priest of Midian had seven daughters. They came and drew water, and filled the troughs to water their father's flock. <sup>17</sup> The shepherds came and drove them away; but Moses stood up and helped them, and watered their flock. <sup>18</sup> When they came to Reuel, their father, he said, "How is it that you have returned so early today?"

they cried, and their cry came up to God because of the bondage. <sup>24</sup> God heard their groaning, and God remembered his covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob. <sup>25</sup> God saw the children of Israel, and God was concerned about them.

3

<sup>4</sup> When Yahweh saw that he turned aside to see, God called to him out of the middle of the bush, and said, "Moses! Moses!"

He said, "Here I am."

<sup>5</sup> He said, "Don't come close. Take your sandals off of your feet, for the place you are standing on is holy ground." <sup>6</sup> Moreover he said, "I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob."

Moses hid his face; for he was afraid to look at God.

<sup>7</sup> Yahweh said, "I have surely seen the affliction of my people who are in Egypt, and have heard their cry because of their taskmasters, for I know their sorrows. <sup>8</sup> I have come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land to a good and large land, to a land flowing with milk and honey; to the place of the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Amorite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite. <sup>9</sup> Now, behold, the cry of the children of Israel has come to me. Moreover I have seen the oppression with which the Egyptians oppress them. <sup>10</sup> Come now therefore, and I will send you to Pharaoh, that you may bring my people, the children of Israel, out of Egypt."

<sup>11</sup> Moses said to God, "Who am I, that I should go to Pharaoh, and that I should bring the children of Israel out of Egypt?"

<sup>12</sup> He said, "Certainly I will be with you. This will be the token to you, that I have sent you: when you have brought the people out of Egypt, you shall serve God on this mountain."

<sup>13</sup> Moses said to God, "Behold, when I come to the children of Israel, and tell them, 'The God of your fathers has sent me to you;' and they ask me, 'What is his name?' What should I tell them?"

<sup>14</sup> God said to Moses, "I AM WHO I AM," and he said, "You shall tell the children of Israel this: 'I AM has sent me to you.'" <sup>15</sup> God said moreover to Moses, "You shall tell the children of Israel this, 'Yahweh, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you.' This is my name forever, and this is my memorial to all generations. <sup>16</sup> Go, and gather the elders of Israel together, and tell them, 'Yahweh, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob, has appeared to me, saying, 'I have surely visited you, and seen that which is done to you in Egypt; <sup>17</sup> and I have said, I will bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt to the land of the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Amorite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite, to a land flowing with milk and honey.”<sup>18</sup> They will listen to your voice, and you shall come, you and the elders of Israel, to the king of Egypt, and you shall tell him, ‘Yahweh, the God of the Hebrews, has met with us. Now please let us go three days’ journey into the wilderness, that we may sacrifice to Yahweh, our God.’<sup>19</sup> I know that the king of Egypt won’t give you permission to go, no, not by a mighty hand.<sup>20</sup> I will reach out my hand and strike Egypt with all my wonders which I will do among them, and after that he will let you go.<sup>21</sup> I will give this people favor in the sight of the Egyptians, and it will happen that when you go, you shall not go empty-handed.<sup>22</sup> But every woman shall ask of her neighbor, and of her who visits her house, jewels of silver, jewels of gold, and clothing; and you shall put them on your sons, and on your daughters. You shall plunder the Egyptians.”

He said, “A rod.”

<sup>3</sup> He said, “Throw it on the ground.”

He threw it on the ground, and it became a snake; and Moses ran away from it.

<sup>4</sup> Yahweh said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand, and take it by the tail.”

He stretched out his hand, and took hold of it, and it became a rod in his hand.

Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has appeared to you.”<sup>6</sup> Yahweh said furthermore to him, “Now put your hand inside your cloak.”

He put his hand inside his cloak, and when he took it out, behold, his hand was leprous, as white as snow.

He put his hand inside his cloak again, and when he took it out of his cloak, behold, it had turned again as his other flesh.

<sup>8</sup> “It will happen, if they will not believe you or listen to the voice of the first sign, that they will believe the voice of the latter sign.<sup>9</sup> It will happen, if they will not believe even these two signs or listen to your voice, that you shall take of the water of the river, and pour it on the dry land. The water which you take out of the river will become blood on the dry land.”

<sup>11</sup> Yahweh said to him, “Who made man’s mouth? Or who makes one mute, or deaf, or seeing, or blind? Isn’t it I, Yahweh?<sup>12</sup> Now therefore go, and I will be with your mouth, and teach you what you shall speak.”

<sup>14</sup> Yahweh’s anger burned against Moses, and he said, “What about Aaron, your brother, the Levite? I know that he can speak well. Also, behold, he comes out to meet you. When he sees you, he will be glad in his heart.<sup>15</sup> You shall speak to him, and put the words in his mouth. I will be with your mouth, and with his mouth, and will teach you what you shall do. <sup>16</sup> He will be your spokesman to the people; and it will happen, that he will be to you a mouth, and you will be to him as God. <sup>17</sup> You shall take this rod in your hand, with which you shall do the signs.”

<sup>18</sup> Moses went and returned to Jethro his father-in-law, and said to him, “Please let me go and return to my brothers who are in Egypt, and see whether they are still alive.”

Jethro said to Moses, “Go in peace.”

<sup>20</sup> Moses took his wife and his sons, and set them on a donkey, and he returned to the land of Egypt. Moses took God’s rod in his hand. <sup>21</sup> Yahweh said to Moses, “When you go back into Egypt, see that you do before Pharaoh all the wonders which I have put in your hand, but I will harden his heart and he will not let the people go. <sup>22</sup> You shall tell Pharaoh, ‘Yahweh says, Israel is my son, my firstborn, <sup>23</sup> and I have said to you, “Let my son go, that he may serve me”; and you have refused to let him go. Behold, I will kill your son, your firstborn.””

<sup>24</sup> On the way at a lodging place, Yahweh met Moses and wanted to kill him. <sup>25</sup> Then Zipporah took a flint, and cut off the foreskin of her son, and cast it at his feet; and she said, “Surely you are a bridegroom of blood to me.”

<sup>26</sup> So he let him alone. Then she said, “You are a bridegroom of blood,” because of the circumcision.

He went, and met him on God’s mountain, and kissed him. <sup>28</sup> Moses told Aaron all Yahweh’s words with which he had sent him, and all the signs with which he had instructed him. <sup>29</sup> Moses and Aaron went and gathered together all the elders of the children of Israel. <sup>30</sup> Aaron spoke all the words which Yahweh had spoken to Moses, and did the signs in the sight of the people. <sup>31</sup> The people believed, and when they heard that Yahweh had visited the children of Israel, and that he had seen their affliction, then they bowed their heads and worshiped.

<sup>1</sup> Afterward Moses and Aaron came, and said to Pharaoh, “This is what Yahweh, the God of Israel, says, ‘Let my people go, that they may hold a feast to me in the wilderness.’”

<sup>2</sup> Pharaoh said, “Who is Yahweh, that I should listen to his voice to let Israel go? I don’t know Yahweh, and moreover I will not let Israel go.”

<sup>3</sup> They said, “The God of the Hebrews has met with us. Please let us go three days’ journey into the wilderness, and sacrifice to Yahweh, our God, lest he fall on us with pestilence, or with the sword.”

officers, saying, <sup>7</sup> “You shall no longer give the people straw to make brick, as before. Let them go and gather straw for themselves. <sup>8</sup> The number of the bricks, which they made before, you require from them. You shall not diminish anything of it, for they are idle; therefore they cry, saying, ‘Let us go and sacrifice to our God.’ <sup>9</sup> Let heavier work be laid on the men, that they may labor therein; and don’t let them pay any attention to lying words.”

<sup>17</sup> But he said, “You are idle! You are idle! Therefore you say, ‘Let us go and sacrifice to Yahweh.’ <sup>18</sup> Go therefore now, and work, for no straw shall be given to you, yet you shall deliver the same number of bricks!”

<sup>20</sup> They met Moses and Aaron, who stood in the way, as they came out from Pharaoh: <sup>21</sup> and they said to them, “May Yahweh look at you, and judge, because you have made us a stench to be abhorred in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of his servants, to put a sword in their hand to kill us.”

<sup>22</sup> Moses returned to Yahweh, and said, “Lord, why have you brought trouble on this people? Why is it that you have sent me? <sup>23</sup> For since I came to Pharaoh to speak in your name, he has brought trouble on this people; and you have not rescued your people at all.”

6

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh said to Moses, “Now you shall see what I will do to Pharaoh, for by a strong hand he shall let them go, and by a strong hand he shall drive them out of his land.”

<sup>2</sup> God spoke to Moses, and said to him, “I am Yahweh; <sup>3</sup> and I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, as God Almighty; but by my name Yahweh I was not known to them. <sup>4</sup> I have also established my covenant with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the land of their travels, in which they lived as aliens. <sup>5</sup> Moreover I have heard the groaning of the children of Israel, whom the Egyptians keep in bondage, and I have remembered my covenant. <sup>6</sup> Therefore tell the children of Israel, ‘I am Yahweh, and I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, and I will rid you out of their bondage, and I will redeem you with an outstretched arm, and with great judgments: <sup>7</sup> and I will take you to me for a people, and I will be to you a God; and you shall know that I am Yahweh your God, who brings you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians. <sup>8</sup> I will bring you into the land which I swore to give to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob; and I will give it to you for a heritage: I am Yahweh.”

7

<sup>6</sup> Moses and Aaron did so. As Yahweh commanded them, so they did. <sup>7</sup> Moses was eighty years old, and Aaron eighty-three years old, when they spoke to Pharaoh.

<sup>10</sup> Moses and Aaron went in to Pharaoh, and they did so, as Yahweh had commanded: and Aaron cast down his rod before Pharaoh and before his servants, and it became a serpent. <sup>11</sup> Then Pharaoh also called for the wise men and the sorcerers. They also, the magicians of Egypt, did the same thing with their enchantments. <sup>12</sup> For they each cast down their rods, and they became serpents: but Aaron’s rod swallowed up their rods. <sup>13</sup> Pharaoh’s heart was hardened, and he didn’t listen to them; as Yahweh had spoken.

<sup>14</sup> Yahweh said to Moses, “Pharaoh’s heart is stubborn. He refuses to let the people go. <sup>15</sup> Go to Pharaoh in the morning. Behold, he goes out to the water; and you shall stand by the river’s bank to meet him; and the rod which was turned to a serpent you shall take in your hand. <sup>16</sup> You shall tell him, ‘Yahweh, the God of the Hebrews, has sent me to you, saying, “Let my people go, that they may serve me in the wilderness:” and behold, until now you haven’t listened. <sup>17</sup> Yahweh says, “In this you shall know that I am Yahweh. Behold, I will strike with the rod that is in my hand on the waters which are in the river, and they shall be turned to blood. <sup>18</sup> The fish that are in the river shall die, and the river shall become foul; and the Egyptians shall loathe to drink water from the river.”’” <sup>19</sup> Yahweh said to Moses, “Tell Aaron, ‘Take your rod, and stretch out your hand over the waters of Egypt, over their rivers, over their streams, and over their pools, and over all their ponds of water, that they may become blood; and there shall be blood throughout all the land of Egypt, both in vessels of wood and in vessels of stone.’”

<sup>20</sup> Moses and Aaron did so, as Yahweh commanded; and he lifted up the rod, and struck the waters that were in the river, in the sight of Pharaoh, and in the sight of his servants; and all the waters that were in the river were turned to blood. <sup>21</sup> The fish that were in the river died; and the river became foul, and the Egyptians couldn’t drink water from the river; and the blood was throughout all the land of Egypt. <sup>22</sup> The magicians of Egypt did the same thing with their enchantments; and Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he didn't listen to them; as Yahweh had spoken. <sup>23</sup> Pharaoh turned and went into his house, and he didn't even take this to heart. <sup>24</sup> All the Egyptians dug around the river for water to drink; for they couldn't drink the river water. <sup>25</sup> Seven days were fulfilled, after Yahweh had struck the river.

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh spoke to Moses, Go in to Pharaoh, and tell him, "This is what Yahweh says, 'Let my people go, that they may serve me. <sup>2</sup> If you refuse to let them go, behold, I will plague all your borders with frogs: <sup>3</sup> and the river shall swarm with frogs, which shall go up and come into your house, and into your bedroom, and on your bed, and into the house of your servants, and on your people, and into your ovens, and into your kneading troughs: <sup>4</sup> and the frogs shall come up both on you, and on your people, and on all your servants.'" <sup>5</sup> Yahweh said to Moses, "Tell Aaron, 'Stretch out your hand with your rod over the rivers, over the streams, and over the pools, and cause frogs to come up on the land of Egypt.'" <sup>6</sup> Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt; and the frogs came up, and covered the land of Egypt. <sup>7</sup> The magicians did the same thing with their enchantments, and brought up frogs on the land of Egypt.

<sup>8</sup> Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, "Entreat Yahweh, that he take away the frogs from me, and from my people; and I will let the people go, that they may sacrifice to Yahweh."

<sup>9</sup> Moses said to Pharaoh, "I give you the honor of setting the time that I should pray for you, and for your servants, and for your people, that the frogs be destroyed from you and your houses, and remain in the river only."

He said, "Be it according to your word, that you may know that there is no one like Yahweh our God. <sup>11</sup> The frogs shall depart from you, and from your houses, and from your servants, and from your people. They shall remain in the river only."

<sup>12</sup> Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh, and Moses cried to Yahweh concerning the frogs which he had brought on Pharaoh. <sup>13</sup> Yahweh did according to the word of Moses, and the frogs died out of the houses, out of the courts, and out of the fields. <sup>14</sup> They gathered them together in heaps, and the land stank. <sup>15</sup> But when Pharaoh saw that there was a respite, he hardened his heart, and didn't listen to them, as Yahweh had spoken.

<sup>16</sup> Yahweh said to Moses, "Tell Aaron, 'Stretch out your rod, and strike the dust of the earth, that it may become lice throughout all the land of Egypt.'" <sup>17</sup> They did so; and Aaron stretched out his hand with his rod, and struck the dust of the earth, and there were lice on man, and on animal; all the dust of the earth became lice throughout all the land of Egypt. <sup>18</sup> The magicians tried with their enchantments to produce lice, but they couldn't. There were lice on man, and on animal. <sup>19</sup> Then the magicians said to Pharaoh, "This is God's finger:" and Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he didn't listen to them; as Yahweh had spoken.

<sup>20</sup> Yahweh said to Moses, "Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh; behold, he comes out to the water; and tell him, 'This is what Yahweh says, "Let my people go, that they may serve me. <sup>21</sup> Else, if you will not let my people go, behold, I will send swarms of flies on you, and on your servants, and on your people, and into your houses: and the houses of the Egyptians shall be full of swarms of flies, and also the ground whereon they are. <sup>22</sup> I will set apart in that day the land of Goshen, in which my people dwell, that no swarms of flies shall be there; to the end you may know that I am Yahweh on the earth. <sup>23</sup> I will put a division between my people and your people: by tomorrow shall this sign be.'"" <sup>24</sup> Yahweh did so; and there came grievous swarms of flies into the house of Pharaoh, and into his servants' houses: and in all the land of Egypt the land was corrupted by reason of the swarms of flies.

<sup>26</sup> Moses said, "It isn't appropriate to do so; for we shall sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians to Yahweh our God. Behold, shall we sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, and won't they stone us? <sup>27</sup> We will go three days' journey into the wilderness, and sacrifice to Yahweh our God, as he shall command us."

<sup>28</sup> Pharaoh said, "I will let you go, that you may sacrifice to Yahweh your God in the wilderness, only you shall not go very far away. Pray for me."

<sup>29</sup> Moses said, "Behold, I go out from you, and I will pray to Yahweh that the swarms of flies may depart from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people, tomorrow; only don't let Pharaoh deal deceitfully any more in not letting the people go to sacrifice to Yahweh." <sup>30</sup> Moses went out from Pharaoh, and prayed to Yahweh. <sup>31</sup> Yahweh did according to the word of Moses, and he removed the swarms of flies from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people. There remained not one. <sup>32</sup> Pharaoh hardened his heart this time also, and he didn't let the people go.

<sup>1</sup> Then Yahweh said to Moses, "Go in to Pharaoh, and tell him, 'This is what Yahweh, the God of the Hebrews, says: "Let my people go, that they may serve me.

<sup>13</sup> Yahweh said to Moses, “Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh, and tell him, ‘This is what Yahweh, the God of the Hebrews, says: “Let my people go, that they may serve me. <sup>14</sup> For this time I will send all my plagues against your heart, against your officials, and against your people; that you may know that there is no one like me in all the earth. <sup>15</sup> For now I would have stretched out my hand, and struck you and your people with pestilence, and you would have been cut off from the earth; <sup>16</sup> but indeed for this cause I have made you stand: to show you my power, and that my name may be declared throughout all the earth; <sup>17</sup> as you still exalt yourself against my people, that you won’t let them go. <sup>18</sup> Behold, tomorrow about this time I will cause it to rain a very grievous hail, such as has not been in Egypt since the day it was founded even until now. <sup>19</sup> Now therefore command that all of your livestock and all that you have in the field be brought into shelter. Every man and animal that is found in the field, and isn’t brought home, the hail shall come down on them, and they shall die.””

<sup>22</sup> Yahweh said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand toward the sky, that there may be hail in all the land of Egypt, on man, and on animal, and on every herb of the field, throughout the land of Egypt.”

<sup>23</sup> Moses stretched out his rod toward the heavens, and Yahweh sent thunder, hail, and lightning flashed down to the earth. Yahweh rained hail on the land of Egypt. <sup>24</sup> So there was very severe hail, and lightning mixed with the hail, such as had not been in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation. <sup>25</sup> The hail struck throughout all the land of Egypt all that was in the field, both man and animal; and the hail struck every herb of the field, and broke every tree of the field. <sup>26</sup> Only in the land of Goshen, where the children of Israel were, there was no hail.

<sup>27</sup> Pharaoh sent, and called for Moses and Aaron, and said to them, “I have sinned this time. Yahweh is righteous, and I and my people are wicked. <sup>28</sup> Pray to Yahweh; for there has been enough of mighty thunderings and hail. I will let you go, and you shall stay no longer.”

<sup>29</sup> Moses said to him, “As soon as I have gone out of the city, I will spread abroad my hands to Yahweh. The thunders shall cease, and there will not be any more hail; that you may know that the earth is Yahweh's. <sup>30</sup> But as for you and your servants, I know that you don't yet fear Yahweh God."

<sup>31</sup> The flax and the barley were struck, for the barley was in the ear, and the flax was in bloom. <sup>32</sup> But the wheat and the spelt were not struck, for they had not grown up. <sup>33</sup> Moses went out of the city from Pharaoh, and spread abroad his hands to Yahweh; and the thunders and hail ceased, and the rain was not poured on the earth. <sup>34</sup> When Pharaoh saw that the rain and the hail and the thunders were ceased, he sinned yet more, and hardened his heart, he and his servants. <sup>35</sup> The heart of Pharaoh was hardened, and he didn't let the children of Israel go, just as Yahweh had spoken through Moses.

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh said to Moses, "Go in to Pharaoh, for I have hardened his heart, and the heart of his servants, that I may show these my signs among them, <sup>2</sup> and that you may tell in the hearing of your son, and of your son's son, what things I have done to Egypt, and my signs which I have done among them; that you may know that I am Yahweh."

<sup>3</sup> Moses and Aaron went in to Pharaoh, and said to him, "This is what Yahweh, the God of the Hebrews, says: 'How long will you refuse to humble yourself before me? Let my people go, that they may serve me. <sup>4</sup> Or else, if you refuse to let my people go, behold, tomorrow I will bring locusts into your country, <sup>5</sup> and they shall cover the surface of the earth, so that one won't be able to see the earth. They shall eat the residue of that which has escaped, which remains to you from the hail, and shall eat every tree which grows for you out of the field. <sup>6</sup> Your houses shall be filled, and the houses of all your servants, and the houses of all the Egyptians; as neither your fathers nor your fathers' fathers have seen, since the day that they were on the earth to this day.'" He turned, and went out from Pharaoh.

<sup>7</sup> Pharaoh's servants said to him, "How long will this man be a snare to us? Let the men go, that they may serve Yahweh, their God. Don't you yet know that Egypt is destroyed?"

<sup>8</sup> Moses and Aaron were brought again to Pharaoh, and he said to them, "Go, serve Yahweh your God; but who are those who will go?"

<sup>9</sup> Moses said, "We will go with our young and with our old; with our sons and with our daughters, with our flocks and with our herds will we go; for we must hold a feast to Yahweh."

<sup>10</sup> He said to them, "Yahweh be with you if I will let you go with your little ones! See, evil is clearly before your faces. <sup>11</sup> Not so! Go now you who are men, and serve Yahweh; for that is what you desire!" They were driven out from Pharaoh's presence.

<sup>12</sup> Yahweh said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand over the land of Egypt for the locusts, that they may come up on the land of Egypt, and eat every herb of the land, even all that the hail has left." <sup>13</sup> Moses stretched out his rod over the land of Egypt, and Yahweh brought an east wind on the land all that day, and all night; and when it was morning, the east wind brought the locusts. <sup>14</sup> The locusts went up over all the land of Egypt, and rested in all the borders of Egypt. They were very grievous.

Before them there were no such locusts as they, nor will there ever be again. <sup>15</sup> For they covered the surface of the whole earth, so that the land was darkened, and they ate every herb of the land, and all the fruit of the trees which the hail had left. There remained nothing green, either tree or herb of the field, through all the land of Egypt. <sup>16</sup> Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron in haste, and he said, "I have sinned against Yahweh your God, and against you. <sup>17</sup> Now therefore please forgive my sin again, and pray to Yahweh your God, that he may also take away from me this death."

<sup>21</sup> Yahweh said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand toward the sky, that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, even darkness which may be felt." <sup>22</sup> Moses stretched out his hand toward the sky, and there was a thick darkness in all the land of Egypt for three days. <sup>23</sup> They didn't see one another, and nobody rose from his place for three days; but all the children of Israel had light in their dwellings.

<sup>25</sup> Moses said, "You must also give into our hand sacrifices and burnt offerings, that we may sacrifice to Yahweh our God. <sup>26</sup>

Our livestock also shall go with us. Not a hoof shall be left behind, for of it we must take to serve Yahweh our God; and we don't know with what we must serve Yahweh, until we come there."

<sup>27</sup> But Yahweh hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he wouldn't let them go. <sup>28</sup> Pharaoh said to him, "Get away from me! Be careful to see my face no more; for in the day you see my face you shall die!"

11

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh said to Moses, "Yet one plague more will I bring on Pharaoh, and on Egypt; afterwards he will let you go. When he lets you go, he will surely thrust you out altogether. <sup>2</sup> Speak now in the ears of the people, and let every man ask of his neighbor, and every woman of her neighbor, jewels of silver, and jewels of gold." <sup>3</sup> Yahweh gave the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians. Moreover the man Moses was very great in the land of Egypt, in the sight of Pharaoh's servants, and in the sight of the people.

<sup>4</sup> Moses said, "This is what Yahweh says: 'About midnight I will go out into the middle of Egypt, <sup>5</sup> and all the firstborn in the land of Egypt shall die, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sits on his throne, even to the firstborn of the female servant who is behind the mill; and all the firstborn of livestock. <sup>6</sup> There shall be a great cry throughout all the land of Egypt, such as there has not been, nor shall be any more. <sup>7</sup> But against any of the children of Israel a dog won't even bark or move its tongue, against man or animal; that you may know that Yahweh makes a distinction between the Egyptians and Israel. <sup>8</sup> All these servants of yours will come down to me, and bow down themselves to me, saying, "Get out, with all the people who follow you"; and after that I will go out." He went out from Pharaoh in hot anger.

<sup>9</sup> Yahweh said to Moses, "Pharaoh won't listen to you, that my wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt." <sup>10</sup> Moses and Aaron did all these wonders before Pharaoh, and Yahweh hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he didn't let the children of Israel go out of his land.

12

fire, and unleavened bread. They shall eat it with bitter herbs. <sup>9</sup> Don't eat it raw, nor boiled at all with water, but roasted with fire; with its head, its legs and its inner parts. <sup>10</sup> You shall let nothing of it remain until the morning; but that which remains of it until the morning you shall burn with fire. <sup>11</sup> This is how you shall eat it: with your belt on your waist, your shoes on your feet, and your staff in your hand; and you shall eat it in haste: it is Yahweh's Passover. <sup>12</sup> For I will go through the land of Egypt in that night, and will strike all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and animal. Against all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgments: I am Yahweh. <sup>13</sup> The blood shall be to you for a token on the houses where you are: and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and there shall no plague be on you to destroy you, when I strike the land of Egypt. <sup>14</sup> This day shall be to you for a memorial, and you shall keep it a feast to Yahweh: throughout your generations you shall keep it a feast by an ordinance forever.

the fourteenth day of the month at evening, you shall eat unleavened bread, until the twenty first day of the month at evening.<sup>19</sup> There shall be no yeast found in your houses for seven days, for whoever eats that which is leavened, that soul shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether he be a foreigner, or one who is born in the land.<sup>20</sup> You shall eat nothing leavened. In all your habitations you shall eat unleavened bread.”

<sup>21</sup> Then Moses called for all the elders of Israel, and said to them, “Draw out, and take lambs according to your families, and kill the Passover.<sup>22</sup> You shall take a bunch of hyssop, and dip it in the blood that is in the basin, and strike the lintel and the two door posts with the blood that is in the basin; and none of you shall go out of the door of his house until the morning.<sup>23</sup> For Yahweh will pass through to strike the Egyptians; and when he sees the blood on the lintel, and on the two door posts, Yahweh will pass over the door, and will not allow the destroyer to come in to your houses to strike you.<sup>24</sup> You shall observe this thing for an ordinance to you and to your sons forever.<sup>25</sup> It shall happen when you have come to the land which Yahweh will give you, according as he has promised, that you shall keep this service.<sup>26</sup> It will happen, when your children ask you, ‘What do you mean by this service?’<sup>27</sup> that you shall say, ‘It is the sacrifice of Yahweh’s Passover, who passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt, when he struck the Egyptians, and spared our houses.’” and did so; as Yahweh had commanded Moses and Aaron, so they did.

The people bowed their heads and worshiped.<sup>28</sup> The children of Israel went

Egypt, and couldn't wait, and they had not prepared any food for themselves. <sup>40</sup> Now the time that the children of Israel lived in Egypt was four hundred thirty years. <sup>41</sup> At the end of four hundred thirty years, to the day, all of Yahweh's armies went out from the land of Egypt. <sup>42</sup> It is a night to be much observed to Yahweh for bringing them out from the land of Egypt. This is that night of Yahweh, to be much observed of all the children of Israel throughout their generations.

opens the womb among the children of Israel, both of man and of animal. It is mine."

<sup>3</sup> Moses said to the people, "Remember this day, in which you came out of Egypt, out of the house of bondage; for by strength of hand Yahweh brought you out from this place. No leavened bread shall be eaten. <sup>4</sup> Today you go out in the month Abib. <sup>5</sup> It shall be, when Yahweh shall bring you into the land of the Canaanite, and the Hittite, and the Amorite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite, which he swore to your fathers to give you, a land flowing with milk and honey, that you shall keep this service in this month. <sup>6</sup> Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, and in the seventh day shall be a feast to Yahweh. <sup>7</sup> Unleavened bread shall be eaten throughout the seven days; and no leavened bread shall be seen with you. No yeast shall be seen with you, within all your borders. <sup>8</sup> You shall tell your son in that day, saying, 'It is because of that which Yahweh did for me when I came out of Egypt.' <sup>9</sup> It shall be for a sign to you on your hand, and for a memorial between your eyes, that Yahweh's law may be in your mouth; for with a strong hand Yahweh has brought you out of Egypt. <sup>10</sup> You shall therefore keep this ordinance in its season from year to year.

<sup>11</sup> "It shall be, when Yahweh shall bring you into the land of the Canaanite, as he swore to you and to your fathers, and shall give it you, <sup>12</sup> that you shall set apart to Yahweh all that opens the womb, and every firstborn which you have that comes from an animal. The males shall be Yahweh's. <sup>13</sup> Every firstborn of a donkey you shall redeem with a lamb; and if you will not redeem it, then you shall break its neck; and you shall redeem all the firstborn of man among your sons. <sup>14</sup> It shall be, when your son asks you in time to come, saying, ‘What is this?’ that you shall tell him, ‘By strength of hand Yahweh brought us out from Egypt, from the house of bondage. <sup>15</sup> When Pharaoh stubbornly refused to let us go, Yahweh killed all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both the firstborn of man, and the firstborn of animal. Therefore I sacrifice to Yahweh all that opens the womb, being males; but all the firstborn of my sons I redeem.’ <sup>16</sup> It shall be for a sign on your hand, and for symbols between your eyes: for by strength of hand Yahweh brought us out of Egypt.”

<sup>17</sup> When Pharaoh had let the people go, God didn’t lead them by the way of the land of the Philistines, although that was near; for God said, “Lest perhaps the people change their minds when they see war, and they return to Egypt”; <sup>18</sup> but God led the people around by the way of the wilderness by the Red Sea; and the children of Israel went up armed out of the land of Egypt. <sup>19</sup> Moses took the bones of Joseph with him, for he had made the children of Israel swear, saying, “God will surely visit you, and you shall carry up my bones away from here with you.” <sup>20</sup> They took their journey from Succoth, and encamped in Etham, in the edge of the wilderness. <sup>21</sup> Yahweh went before them by day in a pillar of cloud, to lead them on their way, and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light, that they might go by day and by night: <sup>22</sup> the pillar of cloud by day, and the pillar of fire by night, didn’t depart from before the people.

<sup>5</sup> The king of Egypt was told that the people had fled; and the heart of Pharaoh and of his servants was changed towards the people, and they said, “What is this we have done, that we have let Israel go from serving us?” <sup>6</sup> He prepared his chariot, and took his army with him; <sup>7</sup> and he took six hundred chosen chariots, and all the chariots of Egypt, and captains over all them. <sup>8</sup> Yahweh hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he pursued the children of Israel; for the children of Israel went out with a high hand. <sup>9</sup> The Egyptians pursued them. All the horses and chariots of Pharaoh, his horsemen, and his army overtook them encamping by the sea, beside Pihahiroth, before Baal Zephon.

<sup>10</sup> When Pharaoh came near, the children of Israel lifted up their eyes, and behold, the Egyptians were marching after them; and they were very afraid. The children of Israel cried out to Yahweh. <sup>11</sup> They said to Moses, “Because there were no graves in Egypt, have you taken us away to die in the wilderness? Why have you treated us this way, to bring us out of Egypt?” <sup>12</sup> Isn’t this the word that we spoke to you in Egypt, saying, ‘Leave us alone, that we may serve the Egyptians?’ For it were better for us to serve the Egyptians, than that we should die in the wilderness.”

<sup>13</sup> Moses said to the people, “Don’t be afraid. Stand still, and see the salvation of Yahweh, which he will work for you today: for the Egyptians whom you have seen today, you shall never see them again. <sup>14</sup> Yahweh will fight for you, and you shall be still.”

<sup>15</sup> Yahweh said to Moses, “Why do you cry to me? Speak to the children of Israel, that they go forward. <sup>16</sup> Lift up your rod, and stretch out your hand over the sea, and divide it: and the children of Israel shall go into the middle of the sea on dry ground. <sup>17</sup> Behold, I myself will harden the hearts of the Egyptians, and they shall go in after them: and I will get myself honor over Pharaoh, and over all his armies, over his chariots, and over his horsemen. <sup>18</sup> The Egyptians shall know that I am Yahweh, when I have gotten myself honor over Pharaoh, over his chariots, and over his horsemen.” <sup>19</sup> The angel of God, who went before the camp of Israel, moved and went behind them; and the pillar of cloud moved from before them, and stood behind them.

<sup>20</sup> It came between the camp of Egypt and the camp of Israel; and there was the cloud and the darkness, yet gave it light by night: and one didn’t come near the other all night.

and the waters were a wall to them on their right hand, and on their left. <sup>23</sup> The Egyptians pursued, and went in after them into the middle of the sea: all of Pharaoh’s horses, his chariots, and his horsemen. <sup>24</sup> In the morning watch, Yahweh looked out on the Egyptian army through the pillar of fire and of cloud, and confused the Egyptian army. <sup>25</sup> He took off their chariot wheels, and they drove them heavily; so that the Egyptians said, “Let’s flee from the face of Israel, for Yahweh fights for them against the Egyptians!”

<sup>26</sup> Yahweh said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand over the sea, that the waters may come again on the Egyptians, on their chariots, and on their horsemen.” <sup>27</sup> Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and the sea returned to its strength when the morning appeared; and the Egyptians fled against it. Yahweh overthrew the Egyptians in the middle of the sea. <sup>28</sup> The waters returned, and covered the chariots and the horsemen, even all Pharaoh’s army that went in after them into the sea. There remained not so much as one of them. <sup>29</sup> But the children of Israel walked on dry land in the middle of the sea, and the waters were a wall to them on their right hand, and on their left. <sup>30</sup> Thus Yahweh saved Israel that day out of the hand of the Egyptians; and Israel saw the Egyptians dead on the seashore. <sup>31</sup> Israel saw the great work which Yahweh did to the Egyptians, and the people feared Yahweh; and they believed in Yahweh, and in his servant Moses.

15

- “I will sing to Yahweh, for he has triumphed gloriously.
The horse and his rider he has thrown into the sea.
- <sup>2</sup> Yah is my strength and song.
He has become my salvation.
This is my God, and I will praise him;
my father’s God, and I will exalt him.
- <sup>3</sup> Yahweh is a man of war.
Yahweh is his name.
- <sup>4</sup> He has cast Pharaoh’s chariots and his army into the sea.
His chosen captains are sunk in the Red Sea.
- <sup>5</sup> The deeps cover them.
They went down into the depths like a stone.
- <sup>6</sup> Your right hand, Yahweh, is glorious in power.
Your right hand, Yahweh, dashes the enemy in pieces.
- <sup>7</sup> In the greatness of your excellency, you overthrow those who rise up against you.
You send out your wrath. It consumes them as stubble.
- <sup>8</sup> With the blast of your nostrils, the waters were piled up.
The floods stood upright as a heap.
The deeps were congealed in the heart of the sea.
- <sup>9</sup> The enemy said, ‘I will pursue. I will overtake. I will divide the plunder.
My desire shall be satisfied on them.
I will draw my sword, my hand shall destroy them.’
- <sup>10</sup> You blew with your wind.
The sea covered them.
- They sank like lead in the mighty waters.
- <sup>11</sup> Who is like you, Yahweh, among the gods?
Who is like you, glorious in holiness, fearful in praises, doing wonders?
- <sup>12</sup> You stretched out your right hand.
The earth swallowed them.
- <sup>13</sup> “You, in your loving kindness, have led the people that you have redeemed.
You have guided them in your strength to your holy habitation.
- <sup>14</sup> The peoples have heard.
They tremble.
Pangs have taken hold on the inhabitants of Philistia.
- <sup>15</sup> Then the chiefs of Edom were dismayed.
Trembling takes hold of the mighty men of Moab.
All the inhabitants of Canaan have melted away.
- <sup>16</sup> Terror and dread falls on them.
By the greatness of your arm they are as still as a stone—until your people pass over, Yahweh,
until the people pass over who you have purchased.
- <sup>17</sup> You shall bring them in, and plant them in the mountain of your inheritance, the place, Yahweh, which you have made for yourself to dwell in;
the sanctuary, Lord, which your hands have established.
- <sup>18</sup> Yahweh shall reign forever and ever.”

gloriously.

The horse and his rider he has thrown into the sea.”

<sup>22</sup> Moses led Israel onward from the Red Sea, and they went out into the wilderness of Shur; and they went three days in the wilderness, and found no water. <sup>23</sup> When they came to Marah, they couldn't drink from the waters of Marah, for they were bitter. Therefore its name was called Marah.<sup>h</sup> <sup>24</sup> The people murmured against Moses, saying, “What shall we drink?” <sup>25</sup> Then he cried to Yahweh. Yahweh showed him a tree, and he threw it into the waters, and the waters were made sweet. There he made a statute and an ordinance for them, and there he tested them; <sup>26</sup> and he said, “If you will diligently listen to Yahweh your God's voice, and will do that which is right in his eyes, and will pay attention to his commandments, and keep all his statutes, I will put none of the diseases on you, which I have put on the Egyptians; for I am Yahweh who heals you.”

<sup>4</sup> Then Yahweh said to Moses, “Behold, I will rain bread from the sky for you, and the people shall go out and gather a day's portion every day, that I may test them, whether they will walk in my law, or not. <sup>5</sup> It shall come to pass on the sixth day, that they shall prepare that which they bring in, and it shall be twice as much as they gather daily.”

<sup>6</sup> Moses and Aaron said to all the children of Israel, “At evening, then you shall know that Yahweh has brought you out from the land of Egypt; <sup>7</sup> and in the morning, then you shall see Yahweh's glory; because he hears your murmurings against Yahweh. Who are we, that you murmur against us?” <sup>8</sup> Moses said, “Now Yahweh shall give you meat to eat in the evening, and in the morning bread to satisfy you; because Yahweh hears your murmurings which you murmur against him. And who are we? Your murmurings are not against us, but against Yahweh.” <sup>9</sup> Moses said to Aaron, morning by morning, everyone according to his eating. When the sun grew hot, it melted.<sup>22</sup> On the sixth day, they gathered twice as much bread, two omers for each one, and all the rulers of the congregation came and told Moses.<sup>23</sup> He said to them, “This is that which Yahweh has spoken, ‘Tomorrow is a solemn rest, a holy Sabbath to Yahweh. Bake that which you want to bake, and boil that which you want to boil; and all that remains over lay up for yourselves to be kept until the morning.’”<sup>24</sup> They laid it up until the morning, as Moses asked, and it didn’t become foul, and there were no worms in it.<sup>25</sup> Moses said, “Eat that today, for today is a Sabbath to Yahweh. Today you shall not find it in the field.<sup>26</sup> Six days you shall gather it, but on the seventh day is the Sabbath. In it there shall be none.”<sup>27</sup> On the seventh day, some of the people went out to gather, and they found none.<sup>28</sup> Yahweh said to Moses, “How long do you refuse to keep my commandments and my laws?<sup>29</sup> Behold, because Yahweh has given you the Sabbath, therefore he gives you on the sixth day the bread of two days. Everyone stay in his place. Let no one go out of his place on the seventh day.”<sup>30</sup> So the people rested on the seventh day.

Egypt.”<sup>33</sup> Moses said to Aaron, “Take a pot, and put an omer-full of manna in it, and lay it up before Yahweh, to be kept throughout your generations.”<sup>34</sup> As Yahweh commanded Moses, so Aaron laid it up before the Testimony, to be kept.<sup>35</sup> The children of Israel ate the manna forty years, until they came to an inhabited land. They ate the manna until they came to the borders of the land of Canaan.<sup>36</sup> Now an omer is one tenth of an ephah.<sup>k</sup>

17

<sup>1</sup> All the congregation of the children of Israel traveled from the wilderness of Sin, by their journeys, according to Yahweh’s commandment, and encamped in Rephidim; but there was no water for the people to drink.<sup>2</sup> Therefore the people quarreled with Moses, and said, “Give us water to drink.”

Moses said to them, “Why do you quarrel with me? Why do you test Yahweh?”

<sup>3</sup> The people were thirsty for water there; and the people murmured against Moses, and said, “Why have you brought us up out of Egypt, to kill us, our children, and our livestock with thirst?”

<sup>5</sup> Yahweh said to Moses, “Walk on before the people, and take the elders of Israel with you, and take the rod in your hand with which you struck the Nile, and go.<sup>6</sup> Behold, I will stand before you there on the rock in Horeb. You shall strike the rock, and water will come out of it, that the people may drink.” Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel.<sup>7</sup> He called the name of the place Massah,<sup>l</sup> and Meribah,<sup>m</sup> because the children of Israel quarreled, and because they tested Yahweh, saying, “Is Yahweh among us, or not?”

<sup>8</sup> Then Amalek came and fought with Israel in Rephidim.<sup>9</sup> Moses said to Joshua, “Choose men for us, and go out, fight with Amalek. Tomorrow I will stand on the top of the hill with God’s rod in my hand.”<sup>10</sup> So Joshua did as Moses had told him, and fought with Amalek; and Moses, Aaron, and Hur went up to the top of the hill.<sup>11</sup> When Moses held up his hand, Israel prevailed. When he let down his hand, Amalek prevailed.<sup>12</sup> But Moses’ hands were heavy; and they took a stone, and put it under him, and he sat on it. Aaron and Hur held up his hands, the one on the one side, and the other on the other side. His hands were steady until sunset.<sup>13</sup> Joshua defeated Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword.<sup>14</sup> Yahweh said to Moses, “Write this for a memorial in a book, and rehearse it in the ears of Joshua: that I will utterly blot out the memory of Amalek from under the sky.”<sup>15</sup> Moses built an altar, and called its name Yahweh our Banner.<sup>n</sup><sup>16</sup> He said, “Yah has sworn: ‘Yahweh will have war with Amalek from generation to generation.’” sons. The name of one son was Gershom,<sup>o</sup> for Moses said, "I have lived as a foreigner in a foreign land".<sup>4</sup> The name of the other was Eliezer,<sup>p</sup> for he said, "My father's God was my help and delivered me from Pharaoh's sword."<sup>5</sup> Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, came with his sons and his wife to Moses into the wilderness where he was encamped, at the Mountain of God.<sup>6</sup> He said to Moses, "I, your father-in-law Jethro, have come to you with your wife, and her two sons with her."

<sup>7</sup> Moses went out to meet his father-in-law, and bowed and kissed him. They asked each other of their welfare, and they came into the tent.<sup>8</sup> Moses told his father-in-law all that Yahweh had done to Pharaoh and to the Egyptians for Israel's sake, all the hardships that had come on them on the way, and how Yahweh delivered them.<sup>9</sup> Jethro rejoiced for all the goodness which Yahweh had done to Israel, in that he had delivered them out of the hand of the Egyptians.<sup>10</sup> Jethro said, "Blessed be Yahweh, who has delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of Pharaoh; who has delivered the people from under the hand of the Egyptians.<sup>11</sup> Now I know that Yahweh is greater than all gods because of the thing in which they dealt arrogantly against them."<sup>12</sup> Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, took a burnt offering and sacrifices for God. Aaron came with all the elders of Israel, to eat bread with Moses' father-in-law before God.

<sup>13</sup> On the next day, Moses sat to judge the people, and the people stood around Moses from the morning to the evening.<sup>14</sup> When Moses' father-in-law saw all that he did to the people, he said, "What is this thing that you do for the people? Why do you sit alone, and all the people stand around you from morning to evening?"

<sup>15</sup> Moses said to his father-in-law, "Because the people come to me to inquire of God.<sup>16</sup> When they have a matter, they come to me, and I judge between a man and his neighbor, and I make them know the statutes of God, and his laws."<sup>17</sup> Moses' father-in-law said to him, "The thing that you do is not good.<sup>18</sup> You will surely wear away, both you, and this people that is with you; for the thing is too heavy for you. You are not able to perform it yourself alone.<sup>19</sup> Listen now to my voice. I will give you counsel, and God be with you. You represent the people before God, and bring the causes to God.<sup>20</sup> You shall teach them the statutes and the laws, and shall show them the way in which they must walk, and the work that they must do.<sup>21</sup> Moreover you shall provide out of all the people able men which fear God: men of truth, hating unjust gain; and place such over them, to be rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens.<sup>22</sup> Let them judge the people at all times. It shall be that every great matter they shall bring to you, but every small matter they shall judge themselves. So shall it be easier for you, and they shall share the load with you.<sup>23</sup> If you will do this thing, and God commands you so, then you will be able to endure, and all these people also will go to their place in peace."

<sup>24</sup> So Moses listened to the voice of his father-in-law, and did all that he had said.<sup>25</sup> Moses chose able men out of all Israel, and made them heads over the people, rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens. <sup>26</sup> They judged the people at all times. They brought the hard causes to Moses, but every small matter they judged themselves. <sup>27</sup> Moses let his father-in-law depart, and he went his way into his own land.

19

<sup>1</sup> In the third month after the children of Israel had gone out of the land of Egypt, on that same day they came into the wilderness of Sinai. <sup>2</sup> When they had departed from Rephidim, and had come to the wilderness of Sinai, they encamped in the wilderness; and there Israel encamped before the mountain. <sup>3</sup> Moses went up to God, and Yahweh called to him out of the mountain, saying, "This is what you shall tell the house of Jacob, and tell the children of Israel: <sup>4</sup> 'You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I bore you on eagles' wings, and brought you to myself. <sup>5</sup> Now therefore, if you will indeed obey my voice, and keep my covenant, then you shall be my own possession from among all peoples; for all the earth is mine; <sup>6</sup> and you shall be to me a kingdom of priests, and a holy nation.' These are the words which you shall speak to the children of Israel."

<sup>7</sup> Moses came and called for the elders of the people, and set before them all these words which Yahweh commanded him. <sup>8</sup> All the people answered together, and said, "All that Yahweh has spoken we will do."

Moses reported the words of the people to Yahweh. <sup>9</sup> Yahweh said to Moses, "Behold, I come to you in a thick cloud, that the people may hear when I speak with you, and may also believe you forever." Moses told the words of the people to Yahweh. <sup>10</sup> Yahweh said to Moses, "Go to the people, and sanctify them today and tomorrow, and let them wash their garments, <sup>11</sup> and be ready against the third day; for on the third day Yahweh will come down in the sight of all the people on Mount Sinai. <sup>12</sup> You shall set bounds to the people all around, saying, 'Be careful that you don't go up onto the mountain, or touch its border. Whoever touches the mountain shall be surely put to death. <sup>13</sup> No hand shall touch him, but he shall surely be stoned or shot through; whether it is animal or man, he shall not live.' When the trumpet sounds long, they shall come up to the mountain."

<sup>14</sup> Moses went down from the mountain to the people, and sanctified the people; and they washed their clothes. <sup>15</sup> He said to the people, "Be ready by the third day. Don't have sexual relations with a woman."

<sup>16</sup> On the third day, when it was morning, there were thunders and lightnings, and a thick cloud on the mountain, and the sound of an exceedingly loud trumpet; and all the people who were in the camp trembled. <sup>17</sup> Moses led the people out of the camp to meet God; and they stood at the lower part of the mountain. <sup>18</sup> All of Mount Sinai smoked, because Yahweh descended on it in fire; and its smoke ascended like the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mountain quaked greatly. <sup>19</sup> When the sound of the trumpet grew louder and louder, Moses spoke, and God answered him by a voice. <sup>20</sup> Yahweh came down on Mount Sinai, to the top of the mountain. Yahweh called Moses to the top of the mountain, and Moses went up.

<sup>23</sup> Moses said to Yahweh, “The people can’t come up to Mount Sinai, for you warned us, saying, ‘Set bounds around the mountain, and sanctify it.’”

<sup>4</sup> “You shall not make for yourselves an idol, nor any image of anything that is in the heavens above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: <sup>5</sup> you shall not bow yourself down to them, nor serve them, for I, Yahweh your God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children, on the third and on the fourth generation of those who hate me, <sup>6</sup> and showing loving kindness to thousands of those who love me and keep my commandments.

not hold him guiltless who takes his name in vain.

<sup>8</sup> “Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy. <sup>9</sup> You shall labor six days, and do all your work, <sup>10</sup> but the seventh day is a Sabbath to Yahweh your God. You shall not do any work in it, you, nor your son, nor your daughter, your male servant, nor your female servant, nor your livestock, nor your stranger who is within your gates; <sup>11</sup> for in six days Yahweh made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them, and rested the seventh day; therefore Yahweh blessed the Sabbath day, and made it holy.

<sup>18</sup> All the people perceived the thunderings, the lightnings, the sound of the trumpet, and the mountain smoking. When the people saw it, they trembled, and stayed at a distance. <sup>19</sup> They said to Moses, “Speak with us yourself, and we will listen; but don’t let God speak with us, lest we die.”

<sup>20</sup> Moses said to the people, “Don’t be afraid, for God has come to test you, and that his fear may be before you, that you won’t sin.” <sup>21</sup> The people stayed at a distance, and Moses came near to the thick darkness where God was.

<sup>7</sup> “If a man sells his daughter to be a female servant, she shall not go out as the male servants do. <sup>8</sup> If she doesn’t please her master, who has married her to himself, then he shall let her be redeemed. He shall have no right to sell her to a foreign people, since he has dealt deceitfully with her. <sup>9</sup> If he marries her to his son, he shall deal with her as a daughter. <sup>10</sup> If he takes another wife to himself, he shall not diminish her food, her clothing, and her marital rights. <sup>11</sup> If he doesn’t do these three things for her, she may go free without paying any money.

<sup>12</sup> “One who strikes a man so that he dies shall surely be put to death, <sup>13</sup> but not if it is unintentional, but God allows it to happen: then I will appoint you a place where he shall flee. <sup>14</sup> If a man schemes and comes presumptuously on his neighbor to kill him, you shall take him from my altar, that he may die.

<sup>18</sup> “If men quarrel and one strikes the other with a stone, or with his fist, and he doesn’t die, but is confined to bed; <sup>19</sup> if he rises again and walks around with his staff, then he who struck him shall be cleared: only he shall pay for the loss of his time, and shall provide for his healing until he is thoroughly healed.

or two, he shall not be punished, for he is his property.

<sup>22</sup> “If men fight and hurt a pregnant woman so that she gives birth prematurely, and yet no harm follows, he shall be surely fined as much as the woman’s husband demands and the judges allow. <sup>23</sup> But if any harm follows, then you must take life for life, <sup>24</sup> eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot, <sup>25</sup> burning for burning, wound for wound, and bruise for bruise.

<sup>28</sup> “If a bull gores a man or a woman to death, the bull shall surely be stoned, and its flesh shall not be eaten; but the owner of the bull shall not be held responsible. <sup>29</sup> But if the bull had a habit of goring in the past, and it has been testified to its owner, and he has not kept it in, but it has killed a man or a woman, the bull shall be stoned, and its owner shall also be put to death. <sup>30</sup> If a ransom is laid on him, then he shall give for the redemption of his life whatever is laid on him. <sup>31</sup> Whether it has gored a son or has gored a daughter, according to this judgment it shall be done to him. <sup>32</sup> If the bull gores a male servant or a female servant, thirty shekels<sup>r</sup> of silver shall be given to their master, and the ox shall be stoned.

shall make it good. He shall give money to its owner, and the dead animal shall be his.

<sup>35</sup> “If one man’s bull injures another’s, so that it dies, then they shall sell the live bull, and divide its price; and they shall also divide the dead animal. <sup>36</sup> Or if it is known that the bull was in the habit of goring in the past, and its owner has not kept it in, he shall surely pay bull for bull, and the dead animal shall be his own.

<sup>6</sup> “If fire breaks out, and catches in thorns so that the shocks of grain, or the standing grain, or the field are consumed; he who kindled the fire shall surely make restitution.

<sup>7</sup> “If a man delivers to his neighbor money or stuff to keep, and it is stolen out of the man’s house; if the thief is found, he shall pay double. <sup>8</sup> If the thief isn’t found, then the master of the house shall come near to God, to find out if he hasn't put his hand to his neighbor's goods. <sup>9</sup> For every matter of trespass, whether it is for ox, for donkey, for sheep, for clothing, or for any kind of lost thing, about which one says, 'This is mine,' the cause of both parties shall come before God. He whom God condemns shall pay double to his neighbor.

<sup>12</sup> But if it is stolen from him, he shall make restitution to its owner. <sup>13</sup> If it is torn in pieces, let him bring it for evidence. He shall not make good that which was torn.

<sup>14</sup> "If a man borrows anything of his neighbor's, and it is injured, or dies, its owner not being with it, he shall surely make restitution. <sup>15</sup> If its owner is with it, he shall not make it good. If it is a leased thing, it came for its lease.

<sup>21</sup> "You shall not wrong an alien or oppress him, for you were aliens in the land of Egypt.

<sup>22</sup> "You shall not take advantage of any widow or fatherless child. <sup>23</sup> If you take advantage of them at all, and they cry at all to me, I will surely hear their cry; <sup>24</sup> and my wrath will grow hot, and I will kill you with the sword; and your wives shall be widows, and your children fatherless.

"You shall give the firstborn of your sons to me. <sup>30</sup> You shall do likewise with your cattle and with your sheep. Seven days it shall be with its mother, then on the eighth day you shall give it to me.

23

<sup>4</sup> “If you meet your enemy’s ox or his donkey going astray, you shall surely bring it back to him again. <sup>5</sup> If you see the donkey of him who hates you fallen down under his burden, don’t leave him, you shall surely help him with it.

<sup>9</sup> “You shall not oppress an alien, for you know the heart of an alien, since you were aliens in the land of Egypt.

<sup>10</sup> “For six years you shall sow your land, and shall gather in its increase, <sup>11</sup> but the seventh year you shall let it rest and lie fallow, that the poor of your people may eat; and what they leave the animal of the field shall eat. In the same way, you shall deal with your vineyard and with your olive grove.

<sup>12</sup> “Six days you shall do your work, and on the seventh day you shall rest, that your ox and your donkey may have rest, and the son of your servant, and the alien may be refreshed.

<sup>13</sup> “Be careful to do all things that I have said to you; and don’t invoke the name of other gods or even let them be heard out of your mouth.

of unleavened bread. Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, as I commanded you, at the time appointed in the month Abib (for in it you came out of Egypt), and no one shall appear before me empty. <sup>16</sup> And the feast of harvest, the first fruits of your labors, which you sow in the field; and the feast of ingathering, at the end of the year, when you gather in your labors out of the field. <sup>17</sup> Three times in the year all your males shall appear before the Lord Yahweh.

<sup>18</sup> “You shall not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leavened bread. The fat of my feast shall not remain all night until the morning. <sup>19</sup> The first of the first fruits of your ground you shall bring into the house of Yahweh your God.

<sup>20</sup> “Behold, I send an angel before you, to keep you by the way, and to bring you into the place which I have prepared. <sup>21</sup> Pay attention to him, and listen to his voice. Don’t provoke him, for he will not pardon your disobedience, for my name is in him. <sup>22</sup> But if you indeed listen to his voice, and do all that I speak, then I will be an enemy to your enemies, and an adversary to your adversaries. <sup>23</sup> For my angel shall go before you, and bring you in to the Amorite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, the Canaanite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite; and I will cut them off. <sup>24</sup> You shall not bow down to their gods, nor serve them, nor follow their practices, but you shall utterly overthrow them and demolish their pillars. <sup>25</sup> You shall serve Yahweh your God, and he will bless your bread and your water, and I will take sickness away from among you. <sup>26</sup> No one will miscarry or be barren in your land. I will fulfill the number of your days. <sup>27</sup> I will send my terror before you, and will confuse all the people to whom you come, and I will make all your enemies turn their backs to you. <sup>28</sup> I will send the hornet before you, which will drive out the Hivite, the Canaanite, and the Hittite, from before you. <sup>29</sup> I will not drive them out from before you in one year, lest the land become desolate, and the animals of the field multiply against you. <sup>30</sup> Little by little I will drive them out from before you, until you have increased and inherit the land. <sup>31</sup> I will set your border from the Red Sea even to the sea of the Philistines, and from the wilderness to the River; for I will deliver the inhabitants of the land into your hand, and you shall drive them out before you. <sup>32</sup> You shall make no covenant with them, nor with their gods. <sup>33</sup> They shall not dwell in your land, lest they make you sin against me, for if you serve their gods, it will surely be a snare to you.”

<sup>1</sup> He said to Moses, “Come up to Yahweh, you, and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel; and worship from a distance. <sup>2</sup> Moses alone shall come near to Yahweh, but they shall not come near. The people shall not go up with him.”

<sup>3</sup> Moses came and told the people all Yahweh’s words, and all the ordinances; and all the people answered with one voice, and said, “All the words which Yahweh has spoken will we do.”

altar under the mountain, and twelve pillars for the twelve tribes of Israel. <sup>5</sup> He sent young men of the children of Israel, who offered burnt offerings and sacrificed peace offerings of cattle to Yahweh. <sup>6</sup> Moses took half of the blood and put it in basins, and half of the blood he sprinkled on the altar. <sup>7</sup> He took the book of the covenant and read it in the hearing of the people, and they said, “All that Yahweh has spoken will we do, and be obedient.”

<sup>12</sup> Yahweh said to Moses, “Come up to me on the mountain, and stay here, and I will give you the stone tablets with the law and the commands that I have written, that you may teach them.”

<sup>13</sup> Moses rose up with Joshua, his servant, and Moses went up onto God’s Mountain. <sup>14</sup> He said to the elders, “Wait here for us, until we come again to you. Behold, Aaron and Hur are with you. Whoever is involved in a dispute can go to them.”

middle of the cloud. <sup>17</sup> The appearance of Yahweh's glory was like devouring fire on the top of the mountain in the eyes of the children of Israel. <sup>18</sup> Moses entered into the middle of the cloud, and went up on the mountain; and Moses was on the mountain forty days and forty nights.

put the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark to carry the ark. <sup>15</sup> The poles shall be in the rings of the ark. They shall not be taken from it. <sup>16</sup> You shall put the testimony which I shall give you into the ark. <sup>17</sup> You shall make a mercy seat of pure gold. Two and a half cubits shall be its length, and a cubit and a half its width. <sup>18</sup> You shall make two cherubim of hammered gold. You shall make them at the two ends of the mercy seat. <sup>19</sup> Make one cherub at the one end, and one cherub at the other end. You shall make the cherubim on its two ends of one piece with the mercy seat. <sup>20</sup> The cherubim shall spread out their wings upward, covering the mercy seat with their wings, with their faces toward one another. The faces of the cherubim shall be toward the mercy seat. <sup>21</sup> You shall put the mercy seat on top of the ark, and in the ark you shall put the testimony that I will give you. <sup>22</sup> There I will meet with you, and I will tell you from above the mercy seat, from between the two cherubim which are on the ark of the testimony, all that I command you for the children of Israel.

You shall make the poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with gold, that the table may be carried with them. <sup>29</sup> You shall make its dishes, its spoons, its ladles, and its bowls to pour out offerings with. You shall make them of pure gold. <sup>30</sup> You shall set bread of the presence on the table before me always.

shall make fifty clasps of brass, and put the clasps into the loops, and couple the tent together, that it may be one. <sup>12</sup> The overhanging part that remains of the curtains of the tent, the half curtain that remains, shall hang over the back of the tabernacle. <sup>13</sup> The cubit on the one side, and the cubit on the other side, of that which remains in the length of the curtains of the tent, shall hang over the sides of the tabernacle on this side and on that side, to cover it. <sup>14</sup> You shall make a covering for the tent of rams' skins dyed red, and a covering of sea cow hides above.

<sup>15</sup> "You shall make the boards for the tabernacle of acacia wood, standing up. <sup>16</sup> Ten cubits shall be the length of a board, and one and a half cubits the width of each board. <sup>17</sup> There shall be two tenons in each board, joined to one another: thus you shall make for all the boards of the tabernacle. <sup>18</sup> You shall make the boards for the tabernacle, twenty boards for the south side southward. <sup>19</sup> You shall make forty sockets of silver under the twenty boards; two sockets under one board for its two tenons, and two sockets under another board for its two tenons. <sup>20</sup> For the second side of the tabernacle, on the north side, twenty boards, <sup>21</sup> and their forty sockets of silver; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board. <sup>22</sup> For the far part of the tabernacle westward you shall make six boards. <sup>23</sup> You shall make two boards for the corners of the tabernacle in the far part. <sup>24</sup> They shall be double beneath, and in the same way they shall be whole to its top to one ring: thus shall it be for them both; they shall be for the two corners. <sup>25</sup> There shall be eight boards, and their sockets of silver, sixteen sockets; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.

gold: and you shall cast five sockets of brass for them.

hangings of fifty cubits; their pillars ten, and their sockets ten. <sup>13</sup> The width of the court on the east side eastward shall be fifty cubits. <sup>14</sup> The hangings for the one side of the gate shall be fifteen cubits; their pillars three, and their sockets three. <sup>15</sup> For the other side shall be hangings of fifteen cubits; their pillars three, and their sockets three. <sup>16</sup> For the gate of the court shall be a screen of twenty cubits, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, the work of the embroiderer; their pillars four, and their sockets four. <sup>17</sup> All the pillars of the court around shall be filleted with silver; their hooks of silver, and their sockets of brass. <sup>18</sup> The length of the court shall be one hundred cubits, and the width fifty every where, and the height five cubits, of fine twined linen, and their sockets of brass. <sup>19</sup> All the instruments of the tabernacle in all its service, and all its pins, and all the pins of the court, shall be of brass.

28

<sup>w</sup> a cubit is the length from the tip of the middle finger to the elbow on a man’s arm, or about 18 inches or 46 centimeters.

Aaron's sons. <sup>2</sup> You shall make holy garments for Aaron your brother, for glory and for beauty. <sup>3</sup> You shall speak to all who are wise-hearted, whom I have filled with the spirit of wisdom, that they make Aaron's garments to sanctify him, that he may minister to me in the priest's office. <sup>4</sup> These are the garments which they shall make: a breastplate, and an ephod, and a robe, and a coat of checker work, a turban, and a sash: and they shall make holy garments for Aaron your brother, and his sons, that he may minister to me in the priest's office. <sup>5</sup> They shall take the gold, and the blue, and the purple, and the scarlet, and the fine linen.

before Yahweh on his two shoulders for a memorial. <sup>13</sup> You shall make settings of gold, <sup>14</sup> and two chains of pure gold; you shall make them like cords of braided work: and you shall put the braided chains on the settings.

ends of the breastplate, on its edge, which is toward the side of the ephod inward. <sup>27</sup> You shall make two rings of gold, and shall put them on the two shoulder straps of the ephod underneath, in its forepart, close by its coupling, above the skillfully woven band of the ephod. <sup>28</sup> They shall bind the breastplate by its rings to the rings of the ephod with a lace of blue, that it may be on the skillfully woven band of the ephod, and that the breastplate may not swing out from the ephod. <sup>29</sup> Aaron shall bear the names of the children of Israel in the breastplate of judgment on his heart, when he goes in to the holy place, for a memorial before Yahweh continually. <sup>30</sup> You shall put in the breastplate of judgment the Urim and the Thummim; and they shall be on Aaron's heart, when he goes in before Yahweh: and Aaron shall bear the judgment of the children of Israel on his heart before Yahweh continually.

shall put it on a lace of blue, and it shall be on the sash; on the front of the sash it shall be. <sup>38</sup> It shall be on Aaron's forehead, and Aaron shall bear the iniquity of the holy things, which the children of Israel shall make holy in all their holy gifts; and it shall be always on his forehead, that they may be accepted before Yahweh. <sup>39</sup> You shall weave the coat in checker work of fine linen, and you shall make a turban of fine linen, and you shall make a sash, the work of the embroiderer.

<sup>1</sup> "This is the thing that you shall do to them to make them holy, to minister to me in the priest's office: take one young bull and two rams without defect, <sup>2</sup> unleavened bread, unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil: you shall make them of fine wheat flour. <sup>3</sup> You shall put them into one basket, and bring them in the basket, with the bull and the two rams. <sup>4</sup> You shall bring Aaron and his sons to the door of the Tent of Meeting, and shall wash them with water. <sup>5</sup> You shall take the garments, and put on Aaron the coat, the robe of the ephod, the ephod, and the breastplate, and clothe him with the skillfully woven band of the ephod; <sup>6</sup> and you shall set the turban on his head, and put the holy crown on the turban. <sup>7</sup> Then you shall take the anointing oil, and pour it on his head, and anoint him. <sup>8</sup> You shall bring his sons, and put coats on them. <sup>9</sup> You shall clothe them with belts, Aaron and his sons, and bind headbands on them: and they shall have the priesthood by a perpetual statute: and you shall consecrate Aaron and his sons.

the whole ram on the altar: it is a burnt offering to Yahweh; it is a pleasant aroma, an offering made by fire to Yahweh.

Aaron, and of that which is for his sons: <sup>28</sup> and it shall be for Aaron and his sons as their portion forever from the children of Israel; for it is a wave offering: and it shall be a wave offering from the children of Israel of the sacrifices of their peace offerings, even their wave offering to Yahweh.

<sup>29</sup> “The holy garments of Aaron shall be for his sons after him, to be anointed in them, and to be consecrated in them. <sup>30</sup> Seven days shall the son who is priest in his place put them on, when he comes into the Tent of Meeting to minister in the holy place.

<sup>35</sup> “You shall do so to Aaron, and to his sons, according to all that I have commanded you. You shall consecrate them seven days. <sup>36</sup> Every day you shall offer the bull of sin offering for atonement: and you shall cleanse the altar, when you make atonement for it; and you shall anoint it, to sanctify it. <sup>37</sup> Seven days you shall make atonement for the altar, and sanctify it: and the altar shall be most holy; whatever touches the altar shall be holy.

When he tends the lamps, he shall burn it. <sup>8</sup> When Aaron lights the lamps at evening, he shall burn it, a perpetual incense before Yahweh throughout your generations. <sup>9</sup> You shall offer no strange incense on it, nor burnt offering, nor meal offering; and you shall pour no drink offering on it. <sup>10</sup> Aaron shall make atonement on its horns once in the year; with the blood of the sin offering of atonement once in the year he shall make atonement for it throughout your generations. It is most holy to Yahweh.”

It is holy. It shall be holy to you. <sup>33</sup> Whoever compounds any like it, or whoever puts any of it on a stranger, he shall be cut off from his people.'

Spirit of God, in wisdom, and in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all kinds of workmanship, <sup>4</sup> to devise skillful works, to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, <sup>5</sup> and in cutting of stones for setting, and in carving of wood, to work in all kinds of workmanship. <sup>6</sup> Behold, I myself have appointed with him Oholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan; and in the heart of all who are wise-hearted I have put wisdom, that they may make all that I have commanded you: <sup>7</sup> the Tent of Meeting, the ark of the testimony, the mercy seat that is on it, all the furniture of the Tent, <sup>8</sup> the table and its vessels, the pure lamp stand with all its vessels, the altar of incense, <sup>9</sup> the altar of burnt offering with all its vessels, the basin and its base, <sup>10</sup> the finely worked garments—the holy garments for Aaron the priest—the garments of his sons to minister in the priest's office, <sup>11</sup> the anointing oil, and the incense of sweet spices for the holy place: according to all that I have commanded you they shall do.'

<sup>12</sup> Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>13</sup> 'Speak also to the children of Israel, saying, 'Most certainly you shall keep my Sabbaths: for it is a sign between me and you throughout your generations; that you may know that I am Yahweh who sanctifies you. <sup>14</sup> You shall keep the Sabbath therefore; for it is holy to you. Everyone who profanes it shall surely be put to death; for whoever does any work therein, that soul shall be cut off from among his people. <sup>15</sup> Six days shall work be done, but on the seventh day is a Sabbath of solemn rest, holy to Yahweh. Whoever does any work on the Sabbath day shall surely be put to death. <sup>16</sup>

Therefore the children of Israel shall keep the Sabbath, to observe the Sabbath throughout their generations, for a perpetual covenant. <sup>17</sup> It is a sign between me and the children of Israel forever; for in six days Yahweh made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day he rested, and was refreshed.”

<sup>18</sup> He gave to Moses, when he finished speaking with him on Mount Sinai, the two tablets of the testimony, stone tablets, written with God’s finger.

<sup>1</sup> When the people saw that Moses delayed to come down from the mountain, the people gathered themselves together to Aaron, and said to him, “Come, make us gods, which shall go before us; for as for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we don’t know what has become of him.”

<sup>2</sup> Aaron said to them, “Take off the golden rings, which are in the ears of your wives, of your sons, and of your daughters, and bring them to me.”

<sup>3</sup> All the people took off the golden rings which were in their ears, and brought them to Aaron. <sup>4</sup> He received what they handed him, and fashioned it with an engraving tool, and made it a molten calf; and they said, “These are your gods, Israel, which brought you up out of the land of Egypt.”

offerings; and the people sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to play.

<sup>7</sup> Yahweh spoke to Moses, “Go, get down; for your people, who you brought up out of the land of Egypt, have corrupted themselves! <sup>8</sup> They have turned aside quickly out of the way which I commanded them. They have made themselves a molten calf, and have worshiped it, and have sacrificed to it, and said, ‘These are your gods, Israel, which brought you up out of the land of Egypt.’”

<sup>9</sup> Yahweh said to Moses, “I have seen these people, and behold, they are a stiff-necked people. <sup>10</sup> Now therefore leave me alone, that my wrath may burn hot against them, and that I may consume them; and I will make of you a great nation.”

<sup>11</sup> Moses begged Yahweh his God, and said, “Yahweh, why does your wrath burn hot against your people, that you have brought out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand? <sup>12</sup> Why should the Egyptians speak, saying, ‘He brought them out for evil, to kill them in the mountains, and to consume them from the surface of the earth?’ Turn from your fierce wrath, and repent of this evil against your people. <sup>13</sup> Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, your servants, to whom you swore by your own self, and said to them, ‘I will multiply your offspring<sup>f</sup> as the stars of the sky, and all this land that I have spoken of I will give to your offspring,<sup>g</sup> and they shall inherit it forever.’”

written on both their sides; on the one side and on the other they were written. <sup>16</sup> The tablets were the work of God, and the writing was the writing of God, engraved on the tables.

<sup>17</sup> When Joshua heard the noise of the people as they shouted, he said to Moses, “There is the noise of war in the camp.”

<sup>18</sup> He said, “It isn’t the voice of those who shout for victory. It is not the voice of those who cry for being overcome; but the noise of those who sing that I hear.” <sup>19</sup> As soon as he came near to the camp, he saw the calf and the dancing. Then Moses’ anger grew hot, and he threw the tablets out of his hands, and broke them beneath the mountain. <sup>20</sup> He took the calf which they had made, and burned it with fire, ground it to powder, and scattered it on the water, and made the children of Israel drink of it.

<sup>22</sup> Aaron said, “Don’t let the anger of my lord grow hot. You know the people, that they are set on evil. <sup>23</sup> For they said to me, ‘Make us gods, which shall go before us; for as for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we don’t know what has become of him.’ <sup>24</sup> I said to them, ‘Whoever has any gold, let them take it off:’ so they gave it to me; and I threw it into the fire, and out came this calf.”

All the sons of Levi gathered themselves together to him. <sup>27</sup> He said to them, “Yahweh says, the God of Israel, ‘Every man put his sword on his thigh, and go back and forth from gate to gate throughout the camp, and every man kill his brother, and every man his companion, and every man his neighbor.’” <sup>28</sup> The sons of Levi did according to the word of Moses: and there fell of the people that day about three thousand men. <sup>29</sup> Moses said, “Consecrate yourselves today to Yahweh, yes, every man against his son, and against his brother; that he may give you a blessing today.”

<sup>30</sup> On the next day, Moses said to the people, “You have sinned a great sin. Now I will go up to Yahweh. Perhaps I shall make atonement for your sin.”

<sup>31</sup> Moses returned to Yahweh, and said, “Oh, this people have sinned a great sin, and have made themselves gods of gold. <sup>32</sup> Yet now, if you will, forgive their sin—and if not, please blot me out of your book which you have written.”

<sup>33</sup> Yahweh said to Moses, “Whoever has sinned against me, him will I blot out of my book. <sup>34</sup> Now go, lead the people to the place of which I have spoken to you. Behold, my angel shall go before you. Nevertheless in the day when I punish, I will punish them for their sin.” <sup>35</sup> Yahweh struck the people, because they made the calf, which Aaron made.

33

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh spoke to Moses, “Depart, go up from here, you and the people that you have brought up out of the land of Egypt, to the land of which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, ‘I will give it to your offspring.<sup>h</sup> 2 I will send an angel before you; and I will drive out the Canaanite, the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite: 3 to a land flowing with milk and honey: for I will not go up among you, for you are a stiff-necked people, lest I consume you on the way.”

4 When the people heard this evil news, they mourned: and no one put on his jewelry.

5 Yahweh said to Moses, “Tell the children of Israel, ‘You are a stiff-necked people. If I were to go up into the middle of you for one moment, I would consume you. Therefore now take off your jewelry from you, that I may know what to do to you.’”

6 The children of Israel stripped themselves of their jewelry from Mount Horeb onward.

7 Now Moses used to take the tent and to pitch it outside the camp, far away from the camp, and he called it “The Tent of Meeting.” Everyone who sought Yahweh went out to the Tent of Meeting, which was outside the camp. 8 When Moses went out to the Tent, that all the people rose up, and stood, everyone at their tent door, and watched Moses, until he had gone into the Tent. 9 When Moses entered into the Tent, the pillar of cloud descended, stood at the door of the Tent, and spoke with Moses. 10 All the people saw the pillar of cloud stand at the door of the Tent, and all the people rose up and worshiped, everyone at their tent door. 11 Yahweh spoke to Moses face to face, as a man speaks to his friend. He turned again into the camp, but his servant Joshua, the son of Nun, a young man, didn’t depart from the Tent.

12 Moses said to Yahweh, “Behold, you tell me, ‘Bring up this people:’ and you haven’t let me know whom you will send with me. Yet you have said, ‘I know you by name, and you have also found favor in my sight.’ 13 Now therefore, if I have found favor in your sight, please show me now your way, that I may know you, so that I may find favor in your sight: and consider that this nation is your people.”

14 He said, “My presence will go with you, and I will give you rest.”

15 He said to him, “If your presence doesn’t go with me, don’t carry us up from here. 16 For how would people know that I have found favor in your sight, I and your people? Isn’t it that you go with us, so that we are separated, I and your people, from all the people who are on the surface of the earth?”

17 Yahweh said to Moses, “I will do this thing also that you have spoken; for you have found favor in my sight, and I know you by name.”

18 He said, “Please show me your glory.”

19 He said, “I will make all my goodness pass before you, and will proclaim Yahweh’s name before you. I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will show mercy on whom I will show mercy.” 20 He said, “You cannot see my face, for man may not see me and live.” 21 Yahweh also said, “Behold, there is a place by me, and you shall stand on the rock. 22 It will happen, while my glory passes by, that I will put you in a cleft of the rock, and will cover you with my hand until I have passed by; 23 then I will take away my hand, and you will see my back; but my face shall not be seen.”

34

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh said to Moses, “Chisel two stone tablets like the first: and I will write on the tablets the words that were on the first tablets, which you broke. <sup>2</sup> Be ready by the morning, and come up in the morning to Mount Sinai, and present yourself there to me on the top of the mountain. <sup>3</sup> No one shall come up with you or be seen anywhere on the mountain. Do not let the flocks or herds graze in front of that mountain.”

<sup>8</sup> Moses hurried and bowed his head toward the earth, and worshiped. <sup>9</sup> He said, “If now I have found favor in your sight, Lord, please let the Lord go among us; although this is a stiff-necked people; pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us for your inheritance.”

<sup>10</sup> He said, “Behold, I make a covenant: before all your people I will do marvels, such as have not been worked in all the earth, nor in any nation; and all the people among which you are shall see the work of Yahweh; for it is an awesome thing that I do with you. <sup>11</sup> Observe that which I command you today. Behold, I drive out before you the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite. <sup>12</sup> Be careful, lest you make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land where you are going, lest it be for a snare in the middle of you: <sup>13</sup> but you shall break down their altars, and dash in pieces their pillars, and you shall cut down their Asherah poles; <sup>14</sup> for you shall worship no other god: for Yahweh, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God.

<sup>18</sup> “You shall keep the feast of unleavened bread. Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, as I commanded you, at the time appointed in the month Abib; for in the month Abib you came out of Egypt.

<sup>19</sup> “All that opens the womb is mine; and all your livestock that is male, the firstborn of cow and sheep. <sup>20</sup> You shall redeem the firstborn of a donkey with a lamb. If you will not redeem it, then you shall break its neck. You shall redeem all the firstborn of your sons. No one shall appear before me empty.

<sup>28</sup> He was there with Yahweh forty days and forty nights; he neither ate bread, nor drank water. He wrote on the tablets the words of the covenant, the ten commandments.

them, and Aaron and all the rulers of the congregation returned to him; and Moses spoke to them. <sup>32</sup> Afterward all the children of Israel came near, and he gave them all the commandments that Yahweh had spoken with him on Mount Sinai. <sup>33</sup> When Moses was done speaking with them, he put a veil on his face. <sup>34</sup> But when Moses went in before Yahweh to speak with him, he took the veil off, until he came out; and he came out, and spoke to the children of Israel that which he was commanded. <sup>35</sup> The children of Israel saw Moses’ face, that the skin of Moses’ face shone: and Moses put the veil on his face again, until he went in to speak with him.

<sup>1</sup> Moses assembled all the congregation of the children of Israel, and said to them, “These are the words which Yahweh has commanded, that you should do them. <sup>2</sup> ‘Six days shall work be done, but on the seventh day there shall be a holy day for you, a Sabbath of solemn rest to Yahweh: whoever does any work in it shall be put to death. <sup>3</sup> You shall kindle no fire throughout your habitations on the Sabbath day.’”

stones to be set for the ephod and for the breastplate.

goats’ hair, rams’ skins dyed red, and sea cow hides, brought them. <sup>24</sup> Everyone who offered an offering of silver and brass brought Yahweh’s offering; and everyone, with whom was found acacia wood for any work of the service, brought it. <sup>25</sup> All the women who were wise-hearted spun with their hands, and brought that which they had spun, the blue, the purple, the scarlet, and the fine linen. <sup>26</sup> All the women whose heart stirred them up in wisdom spun the goats’ hair. <sup>27</sup> The rulers brought the onyx stones, and the stones to be set, for the ephod and for the breastplate; <sup>28</sup> and the spice, and the oil for the light, for the anointing oil, and for the sweet incense. <sup>29</sup> The children of Israel brought a freewill offering to Yahweh; every man and woman, whose heart made them willing to bring for all the work, which Yahweh had commanded to be made by Moses.

<sup>30</sup> Moses said to the children of Israel, “Behold, Yahweh has called by name Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah. <sup>31</sup> He has filled him with the Spirit of God, in wisdom, in understanding, in knowledge, and in all kinds of workmanship; <sup>32</sup> and to make skillful works, to work in gold, in silver, in brass, <sup>33</sup> in cutting of stones for setting, and in carving of wood, to work in all kinds of skillful workmanship. <sup>34</sup> He has put in his heart that he may teach, both he, and Oholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan. <sup>35</sup> He has filled them with wisdom of heart, to work all kinds of workmanship, of the engraver, of the skillful workman, and of the embroiderer, in blue, in purple, in scarlet, and in fine linen, and of the weaver, even of those who do any

36

<sup>6</sup> Moses gave commandment, and they caused it to be proclaimed throughout the camp, saying, “Let neither man nor woman make anything else for the offering for the sanctuary.” So the people were restrained from bringing. <sup>7</sup> For the stuff they had was sufficient for all the work to make it, and too much.

twenty-eight cubits,<sup>i</sup> and the width of each curtain four cubits. All the curtains had one measure. <sup>10</sup> He coupled five curtains to one another, and the other five curtains he coupled to one another. <sup>11</sup> He made loops of blue on the edge of the one curtain from the edge in the coupling. Likewise he made in the edge of the curtain that was outermost in the second coupling. <sup>12</sup> He made fifty loops in the one curtain, and he made fifty loops in the edge of the curtain that was in the second coupling. The loops were opposite to one another. <sup>13</sup> He made fifty clasps of gold, and coupled the curtains to one another with the clasps: so the tabernacle was a unit.

way. <sup>23</sup> He made the boards for the tabernacle: twenty boards for the south side southward. <sup>24</sup> He made forty sockets of silver under the twenty boards; two sockets under one board for its two tenons, and two sockets under another board for its two tenons. <sup>25</sup> For the second side of the tabernacle, on the north side, he made twenty boards, <sup>26</sup> and their forty sockets of silver; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board. <sup>27</sup> For the far part of the tabernacle westward he made six boards. <sup>28</sup> He made two boards for the corners of the tabernacle in the far part. <sup>29</sup> They were double beneath, and in the same way they were all the way to its top to one ring. He did this to both of them in the two corners. <sup>30</sup> There were eight boards, and their sockets of silver, sixteen sockets; under every board two sockets.

fine twined linen, the work of an embroiderer; <sup>38</sup> and the five pillars of it with their hooks. He overlaid their capitals and their fillets with gold, and their five sockets were of brass.

37

<sup>1</sup> Bezalel made the ark of acacia wood. Its length was two and a half cubits,<sup>j</sup> and its width a cubit and a half, and a cubit and a half its height. <sup>2</sup> He overlaid it with pure gold inside and outside, and made a molding of gold for it around it. <sup>3</sup> He cast four rings of gold for it, in its four feet; even two rings on its one side, and two rings on its other side. <sup>4</sup> He made poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold. <sup>5</sup> He put the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark, to bear the ark. <sup>6</sup> He made a mercy seat of pure gold. Its length was two and a half cubits, and a cubit and a half its width. <sup>7</sup> He made two cherubim of gold. He made them of beaten work, at the two ends of the mercy seat; <sup>8</sup> one cherub at the one end, and one cherub at the other end. He made the cherubim of one piece with the mercy seat at its two ends. <sup>9</sup> The cherubim spread out their wings on high, covering the mercy seat with their wings, with their faces toward one another. The faces of the cherubim were toward the mercy seat.

<sup>10</sup> He made the table of acacia wood. Its length was two cubits, and its width was a cubit, and its height was a cubit and a half. <sup>11</sup> He overlaid it with pure gold, and made a gold molding around it. <sup>12</sup> He made a border of a hand width around it, and made a golden molding on its border around it. <sup>13</sup> He cast four rings of gold for it, and put the rings in the four corners that were on its four feet. <sup>14</sup> The rings were close by the border, the places for the poles to carry the table. <sup>15</sup> He made the poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold, to carry the table. <sup>16</sup> He made the vessels which were on the table, its dishes, its spoons, its bowls, and its pitchers with which to pour out, of pure gold.

<sup>17</sup> He made the lamp stand of pure gold. He made the lamp stand of beaten work. Its base, its shaft, its cups, its buds, and its flowers were of one piece with it. <sup>18</sup> There were six branches going out of its sides: three branches of the lamp stand out of its one side, and three branches of the lamp stand out of its other side: <sup>19</sup> three cups made like almond blossoms in one branch, a bud and a flower, and three cups made like almond blossoms in the other branch, a bud and a flower: so for the six branches going out of the lamp stand. <sup>20</sup> In the lamp stand were four cups made like almond blossoms, its buds and its flowers; <sup>21</sup> and a bud under two branches of one piece with it, and a bud under two branches of one piece with it, and a bud under two branches of one piece with it, for the six branches going out of it. <sup>22</sup> Their buds and their branches were of one piece with it. The whole thing was one beaten work of pure gold. <sup>23</sup> He made its seven lamps, and its snuffers, and its snuff dishes, of pure gold. <sup>24</sup> He made it of a talent<sup>k</sup> of pure gold, with all its vessels.

<sup>25</sup> He made the altar of incense of acacia wood. It was square: its length was a cubit, and its width a cubit. Its height was two cubits. Its horns were of one piece with it. <sup>26</sup>

He overlaid it with pure gold, its top, its sides around it, and its horns. He made a gold molding around it. <sup>27</sup> He made two golden rings for it under its molding crown, on its two ribs, on its two sides, for places for poles with which to carry it. <sup>28</sup> He made the poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold. <sup>29</sup> He made the holy anointing oil and the pure incense of sweet spices, after the art of the perfumer.

38

<sup>1</sup> He made the altar of burnt offering of acacia wood. It was square. Its length was five cubits,<sup>l</sup> its width was five cubits, and its height was three cubits. <sup>2</sup> He made its horns on its four corners. Its horns were of one piece with it, and he overlaid it with brass. <sup>3</sup> He made all the vessels of the altar, the pots, the shovels, the basins, the forks, and the fire pans. He made all its vessels of brass. <sup>4</sup> He made for the altar a grating of a network of brass, under the ledge around it beneath, reaching halfway up. <sup>5</sup> He cast four rings for the four ends of brass grating, to be places for the poles. <sup>6</sup> He made the poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with brass. <sup>7</sup> He put the poles into the rings on the sides of the altar, with which to carry it. He made it hollow with planks.

and their fillets were of silver. <sup>11</sup> For the north side one hundred cubits, their pillars twenty, and their sockets twenty, of brass; the hooks of the pillars, and their fillets, of silver. <sup>12</sup> For the west side were hangings of fifty cubits, their pillars ten, and their sockets ten; the hooks of the pillars, and their fillets, of silver. <sup>13</sup> For the east side eastward fifty cubits. <sup>14</sup> The hangings for the one side were fifteen cubits; their pillars three, and their sockets three; <sup>15</sup> and so for the other side: on this hand and that hand by the gate of the court were hangings of fifteen cubits; their pillars three, and their sockets three. <sup>16</sup> All the hangings around the court were of fine twined linen. <sup>17</sup> The sockets for the pillars were of brass. The hooks of the pillars and their fillets were of silver; and the overlaying of their capitals, of silver; and all the pillars of the court were filleted with silver. <sup>18</sup> The screen for the gate of the court was the work of the embroiderer, of blue, purple, scarlet, and fine twined linen. Twenty cubits was the length, and the height in the width was five cubits, like to the hangings of the court. <sup>19</sup> Their pillars were four, and their sockets four, of brass; their hooks of silver, and the overlaying of their capitals, and their fillets, of silver. <sup>20</sup> All the pins of the tabernacle, and around the court, were of brass.

<sup>21</sup> This is the amount of material used for the tabernacle, even the Tabernacle of the Testimony, as they were counted, according to the commandment of Moses, for the service of the Levites, by the hand of Ithamar, the son of Aaron the priest. <sup>22</sup> Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made all that Yahweh commanded Moses. <sup>23</sup> With him was Oholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, an engraver, and a skillful workman, and an embroiderer in blue, in purple, in scarlet, and in fine linen.

<sup>8</sup> He made the breastplate, the work of a skillful workman, like the work of the ephod; of gold, of blue, purple, scarlet, and fine twined linen. <sup>9</sup> It was square. They made the breastplate double. Its length was a span, and its width a span, being double. <sup>10</sup> They set in it four rows of stones. A row of ruby, topaz, and beryl was the first row; <sup>11</sup> and the second row, a turquoise, a sapphire,<sup>w</sup> and an emerald; <sup>12</sup> and the third row, a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst; <sup>13</sup> and the fourth row, a chrysolite, an onyx, and a jasper. They were enclosed in gold settings. <sup>14</sup> The stones were according to the names of the children of Israel, twelve, according to their names; like the engravings of a signet, everyone according to his name, for the twelve tribes. <sup>15</sup> They made on the breastplate chains like cords, of braided work of pure gold. <sup>16</sup> They made two settings of gold, and two gold rings, and put the two rings on the two ends of the breastplate. <sup>17</sup> They put the two braided chains of gold in the two rings at the ends of the breastplate. <sup>18</sup> The other two ends of the two braided chains they put on the two settings, and put them on the shoulder straps of the ephod, in its front. <sup>19</sup> They made two rings of gold, and put them on the two ends of the breastplate, on its edge, which was toward the side of the ephod inward. <sup>20</sup> They made two rings of gold, and put them on the two shoulder straps of the ephod underneath, in its front, close by its coupling, above the skillfully woven band of the ephod. <sup>21</sup> They bound the breastplate by its rings to the rings of the ephod with a lace of blue, that it might be on the skillfully woven band of the ephod, and that the breastplate might not come loose from the ephod, as Yahweh commanded Moses.

gold, and put the bells between the pomegranates around the skirts of the robe, between the pomegranates;<sup>26</sup> a bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate, around the skirts of the robe, to minister in, as Yahweh commanded Moses.

<sup>32</sup> Thus all the work of the tabernacle of the Tent of Meeting was finished. The children of Israel did according to all that Yahweh commanded Moses; so they did.<sup>33</sup> They brought the tabernacle to Moses, the tent, with all its furniture, its clasps, its boards, its bars, its pillars, its sockets,<sup>34</sup> the covering of rams' skins dyed red, the covering of sea cow hides, the veil of the screen,<sup>35</sup> the ark of the testimony with its poles, the mercy seat,<sup>36</sup> the table, all its vessels, the show bread,<sup>37</sup> the pure lamp stand, its lamps, even the lamps to be set in order, all its vessels, the oil for the light,<sup>38</sup> the golden altar, the anointing oil, the sweet incense, the screen for the door of the Tent,<sup>39</sup> the bronze altar, its grating of brass, its poles, all of its vessels, the basin and its base,<sup>40</sup> the hangings of the court, its pillars, its sockets, the screen for the gate of the court, its cords, its pins, all the instruments of the service of the tabernacle, for the Tent of Meeting,<sup>41</sup> the finely worked garments for ministering in the holy place, the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons, to minister in the priest's office.<sup>42</sup> According to all that Yahweh commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did all the work.<sup>43</sup> Moses saw all the work, and behold, they had done it as Yahweh had commanded, even so had they done it: and Moses blessed them.

<sup>9</sup> "You shall take the anointing oil, and anoint the tabernacle, and all that is in it, and shall make it holy, and all its furniture: and it will be holy.<sup>10</sup> You shall anoint the altar of burnt offering, with all its vessels, and sanctify the altar: and the altar will be most holy. <sup>11</sup> You shall anoint the basin and its base, and sanctify it.

the tabernacle southward. <sup>25</sup> He lit the lamps before Yahweh, as Yahweh commanded Moses. <sup>26</sup> He put the golden altar in the Tent of Meeting before the veil; <sup>27</sup> and he burned incense of sweet spices on it, as Yahweh commanded Moses. <sup>28</sup> He put up the screen of the door to the tabernacle. <sup>29</sup> He set the altar of burnt offering at the door of the tabernacle of the Tent of Meeting, and offered on it the burnt offering and the meal offering, as Yahweh commanded Moses. <sup>30</sup> He set the basin between the Tent of Meeting and the altar, and put water therein, with which to wash. <sup>31</sup> Moses, Aaron, and his sons washed their hands and their feet there. <sup>32</sup> When they went into the Tent of Meeting, and when they came near to the altar, they washed, as Yahweh commanded Moses. <sup>33</sup> He raised up the court around the tabernacle and the altar, and set up the screen of the gate of the court. So Moses finished the work.

<sup>3</sup> “‘If his offering is a burnt offering from the herd, he shall offer a male without defect. He shall offer it at the door of the Tent of Meeting, that he may be accepted before Yahweh. <sup>4</sup> He shall lay his hand on the head of the burnt offering, and it shall be accepted for him to make atonement for him. <sup>5</sup> He shall kill the bull before Yahweh. Aaron’s sons, the priests, shall present the blood and sprinkle the blood around on the altar that is at the door of the Tent of Meeting. <sup>6</sup> He shall flay the burnt offering, and cut it into pieces. <sup>7</sup> The sons of Aaron the priest shall put fire on the altar, and lay wood in order on the fire; <sup>8</sup> and Aaron’s sons, the priests, shall lay the pieces, the head, and the fat in order on the wood that is on the fire which is on the altar; <sup>9</sup> but its innards and its legs he shall wash with water. The priest shall burn all of it on the altar, for a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to Yahweh.

defect. <sup>11</sup> He shall kill it on the north side of the altar before Yahweh. Aaron’s sons, the priests, shall sprinkle its blood around on the altar. <sup>12</sup> He shall cut it into its pieces, with its head and its fat. The priest shall lay them in order on the wood that is on the fire which is on the altar, <sup>13</sup> but the innards and the legs he shall wash with water. The priest shall offer the whole, and burn it on the altar. It is a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to Yahweh.

<sup>14</sup> “‘If his offering to Yahweh is a burnt offering of birds, then he shall offer his offering of turtledoves or of young pigeons. <sup>15</sup> The priest shall bring it to the altar, and wring off its head, and burn it on the altar; and its blood shall be drained out on the side of the altar; <sup>16</sup> and he shall take away its crop with its filth, and cast it beside the altar on the east part, in the place of the ashes. <sup>17</sup> He shall tear it by its wings, but shall not divide it apart. The priest shall burn it on the altar, on the wood that is on the fire. It is a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to Yahweh.

<sup>1</sup> “‘When anyone offers an offering of a meal offering to Yahweh, his offering shall be of fine flour. He shall pour oil on it, and put frankincense on it. <sup>2</sup> He shall bring it to Aaron’s sons, the priests; and he shall take his handful of its fine flour, and of its oil, with all its frankincense; and the priest shall burn its memorial on the altar, an offering made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to Yahweh. <sup>3</sup> That which is left of the meal offering shall be Aaron's and his sons'. It is a most holy thing of the offerings of Yahweh made by fire.

<sup>4</sup> "When you offer an offering of a meal offering baked in the oven, it shall be unleavened cakes of fine flour mixed with oil, or unleavened wafers anointed with oil. <sup>5</sup> If your offering is a meal offering of the griddle, it shall be of unleavened fine flour, mixed with oil. <sup>6</sup> You shall cut it in pieces, and pour oil on it. It is a meal offering. <sup>7</sup> If your offering is a meal offering of the pan, it shall be made of fine flour with oil. <sup>8</sup> You shall bring the meal offering that is made of these things to Yahweh: and it shall be presented to the priest, and he shall bring it to the altar. <sup>9</sup> The priest shall take from the meal offering its memorial, and shall burn it on the altar, an offering made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to Yahweh. <sup>10</sup> That which is left of the meal offering shall be Aaron's and his sons'. It is a thing most holy of the offerings of Yahweh made by fire.

<sup>11</sup> "No meal offering, which you shall offer to Yahweh, shall be made with yeast; for you shall burn no yeast, nor any honey, as an offering made by fire to Yahweh. <sup>12</sup> As an offering of first fruits you shall offer them to Yahweh: but they shall not rise up for a pleasant aroma on the altar. <sup>13</sup> Every offering of your meal offering you shall season with salt. You shall not allow the salt of the covenant of your God<sup>b</sup> to be lacking from your meal offering. With all your offerings you shall offer salt.

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup> "Speak to the children of Israel, saying, 'If anyone sins unintentionally, in any of the things which Yahweh has commanded not to be done, and does any one of them: <sup>3</sup> if the anointed priest sins so as to bring guilt on the people, then let him offer for his sin, which he has sinned, a young bull without defect to Yahweh for a sin offering. <sup>4</sup> He shall bring the bull to the door of the Tent of Meeting before Yahweh; and he shall lay his hand on the head of the bull, and kill the bull before Yahweh. <sup>5</sup> The anointed priest shall take some of the blood of the bull, and bring it to the Tent of Meeting. <sup>6</sup> The priest shall dip his finger in the blood, and sprinkle some of the blood seven times before Yahweh, before the veil of the sanctuary. <sup>7</sup> The priest shall put some of the blood on the horns of the altar of sweet incense before Yahweh, which is in the Tent of Meeting; and he shall pour out all of rest of the blood of the bull at the base of the altar of burnt offering, which is at the door of the Tent of Meeting. <sup>8</sup> He shall take all the fat of the bull of the sin offering off of it; the fat that covers the innards, and all the fat that is on the innards, <sup>9</sup> and the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the loins, and the cover on the liver, with the kidneys, he shall take away, <sup>10</sup> as it is taken off of the bull of the sacrifice of peace offerings. The priest shall burn them on the altar of burnt offering. <sup>11</sup> The bull's skin, all its flesh, with its head, and with its legs, its innards, and its dung, <sup>12</sup> he shall carry the whole bull outside of the camp to a clean place, where the ashes are poured out, and burn it on wood with fire. Where the ashes are poured out, it shall be burned.

<sup>13</sup> "If the whole congregation of Israel sins, and the thing is hidden from the eyes of the assembly, and they have done any of the things which Yahweh has commanded not to be done, and are guilty; <sup>14</sup> when the sin in which they have sinned is known, then the assembly shall offer a young bull for a sin offering, and bring it before the Tent of Meeting. <sup>15</sup> The elders of the congregation shall lay their hands on the head of the bull before Yahweh; and the bull shall be killed before Yahweh. <sup>16</sup> The anointed priest shall bring of the blood of the bull to the Tent of Meeting: <sup>17</sup> and the priest shall dip his finger in the blood, and sprinkle it seven times before Yahweh, before the veil. <sup>18</sup> He shall put some of the blood on the horns of the altar which is before Yahweh, that is in the Tent of Meeting; and the rest of the blood he shall pour out at the base of the altar of burnt offering, which is at the door of the Tent of Meeting. <sup>19</sup> All its fat he shall take from it, and burn it on the altar. <sup>20</sup> Thus shall he do with the bull; as he did with the bull of the sin offering, so shall he do with this; and the priest shall make atonement for them, and they shall be forgiven. <sup>21</sup> He shall carry the bull outside the camp, and burn it as he burned the first bull. It is the sin offering for the assembly.

peace offerings; and the priest shall make atonement for him concerning his sin, and he will be forgiven.

<sup>27</sup> ““If anyone of the common people sins unwittingly, in doing any of the things which Yahweh has commanded not to be done, and is guilty; <sup>28</sup> if his sin, which he has sinned, is made known to him, then he shall bring for his offering a goat, a female without defect, for his sin which he has sinned. <sup>29</sup> He shall lay his hand on the head of the sin offering, and kill the sin offering in the place of burnt offering. <sup>30</sup> The priest shall take some of its blood with his finger, and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering; and the rest of its blood he shall pour out at the base of the altar. <sup>31</sup> All its fat he shall take away, like the fat is taken away from off of the sacrifice of peace offerings; and the priest shall burn it on the altar for a pleasant aroma to Yahweh; and the priest shall make atonement for him, and he will be forgiven.

<sup>2</sup> ““Or if anyone touches any unclean thing, whether it is the carcass of an unclean animal, or the carcass of unclean livestock, or the carcass of unclean creeping things, and it is hidden from him, and he is unclean, then he shall be guilty.

<sup>3</sup> ““Or if he touches the uncleanness of man, whatever his uncleanness is with which he is unclean, and it is hidden from him; when he knows of it, then he shall be guilty.

<sup>4</sup> ““Or if anyone swears rashly with his lips to do evil, or to do good, whatever it is that a man might utter rashly with an oath, and it is hidden from him; when he knows of it, then he shall be guilty of one of these.

<sup>5</sup> It shall be, when he is guilty of one of these, he shall confess that in which he has sinned: <sup>6</sup> and he shall bring his trespass offering to Yahweh for his sin which he has sinned, a female from the flock, a lamb or a goat, for a sin offering; and the priest shall make atonement for him concerning his sin.

<sup>7</sup> ““If he can’t afford a lamb, then he shall bring his trespass offering for that in which he has sinned, two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, to Yahweh; one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering. <sup>8</sup> He shall bring them to the priest, who shall first offer the one which is for the sin offering, and wring off its head from its neck, but shall not sever it completely. <sup>9</sup> He shall sprinkle some of the blood of the sin offering on the side of the altar; and the rest of the blood shall be drained out at the base of the altar. It is a sin offering. <sup>10</sup> He shall offer the second for a burnt offering, according to the ordinance; and the priest shall make atonement for him concerning his sin which he has sinned, and he shall be forgiven.

<sup>11</sup> ““But if he can’t afford two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, then he shall bring his offering for that in which he has sinned, one tenth of an ephah<sup>c</sup> of fine flour for a sin offering. He shall put no oil on it, and he shall not put any frankincense on it, for it is a sin offering. <sup>12</sup> He shall bring it to the priest, and the priest shall take his handful of it as the memorial portion, and burn it on the altar, on the offerings of Yahweh made by fire. It is a sin offering. <sup>13</sup> The priest shall make atonement for him concerning his sin that he has sinned in any of these things, and he will be forgiven; and the rest shall be the priest’s, as the meal offering.”

<sup>17</sup> “If anyone sins, and does any of the things which Yahweh has commanded not to be done; though he didn’t know it, yet he is guilty, and shall bear his iniquity. <sup>18</sup> He shall bring a ram without defect from of the flock, according to your estimation, for a trespass offering, to the priest; and the priest shall make atonement for him concerning the thing in which he sinned and didn’t know it, and he will be forgiven. <sup>19</sup> It is a trespass offering. He is certainly guilty before Yahweh.”

<sup>8</sup> Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>9</sup> “Command Aaron and his sons, saying, ‘This is the law of the burnt offering: the burnt offering shall be on the hearth on the altar all night until the morning; and the fire of the altar shall be kept burning on it. <sup>10</sup> The priest shall put on his linen garment, and he shall put on his linen breeches upon his body; and he shall remove the ashes from where the fire has consumed the burnt offering on the altar, and he shall put them beside the altar. <sup>11</sup> He shall take off his garments, and put on other garments, and carry the ashes outside the camp to a clean place. <sup>12</sup> The fire on the altar shall be kept burning on it, it shall not go out; and the priest shall burn wood on it every morning; and he shall lay the burnt offering in order upon it, and shall burn on it the fat of the peace offerings. <sup>13</sup> Fire shall be kept burning on the altar continually; it shall not go out.

<sup>14</sup> “This is the law of the meal offering: the sons of Aaron shall offer it before Yahweh, before the altar. <sup>15</sup> He shall take from there his handful of the fine flour of the meal offering, and of its oil, and all the frankincense which is on the meal offering, and shall burn it on the altar for a pleasant aroma, as its memorial, to Yahweh. <sup>16</sup> That which is left of it Aaron and his sons shall eat. It shall be eaten without yeast in a holy place. They shall eat it in the court of the Tent of Meeting. <sup>17</sup> It shall not be baked with yeast. I have given it as their portion of my offerings made by fire. It is most holy, as the sin offering, and as the trespass offering. <sup>18</sup> Every male among the children of Aaron shall eat of it, as their portion forever throughout your generations, from

<sup>24</sup> Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>25</sup> “Speak to Aaron and to his sons, saying, ‘This is the law of the sin offering: in the place where the burnt offering is killed, the sin offering shall be killed before Yahweh. It is most holy. <sup>26</sup> The priest who offers it for sin shall eat it. It shall be eaten in a holy place, in the court of the Tent of Meeting. <sup>27</sup> Whatever shall touch its flesh shall be holy. When there is any of its blood sprinkled on a garment, you shall wash that on which it was sprinkled in a holy place. <sup>28</sup> But the earthen vessel in which it is boiled shall be broken; and if it is boiled in a bronze vessel, it shall be scoured, and rinsed in water. <sup>29</sup> Every male among the priests shall eat of it: it is most holy. <sup>30</sup> No sin offering, of which any of the blood is brought into the Tent of Meeting to make atonement in the Holy Place, shall be eaten: it shall be burned with fire.

<sup>1</sup> “This is the law of the trespass offering. It is most holy. <sup>2</sup> In the place where they kill the burnt offering, he shall kill the trespass offering; and its blood he shall sprinkle around on the altar. <sup>3</sup> He shall offer all of its fat: the fat tail, and the fat that covers the innards, <sup>4</sup> and the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the loins, and the cover on the liver, with the kidneys, shall he take away; <sup>5</sup> and the priest shall burn them on the altar for an offering made by fire to Yahweh: it is a trespass offering. <sup>6</sup> Every male among the priests may eat of it. It shall be eaten in a holy place. It is most holy.

<sup>7</sup> “As is the sin offering, so is the trespass offering; there is one law for them. The priest who makes atonement with them shall have it. <sup>8</sup> The priest who offers any man’s burnt offering, even the priest shall have for himself the skin of the burnt offering which he has offered. <sup>9</sup> Every meal offering that is baked in the oven, and all that is dressed in the pan, and on the griddle, shall be the priest’s who offers it. <sup>10</sup> Every meal offering, mixed with oil or dry, belongs to all the sons of Aaron, one as well as another.

shall offer one out of each offering for a heave offering to Yahweh. It shall be the priest's who sprinkles the blood of the peace offerings. <sup>15</sup> The flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings for thanksgiving shall be eaten on the day of his offering. He shall not leave any of it until the morning.

shall in no way eat of it. <sup>25</sup> For whoever eats the fat of the animal, of which men offer an offering made by fire to Yahweh, even the soul who eats it shall be cut off from his people. <sup>26</sup> You shall not eat any blood, whether it is of bird or of animal, in any of your dwellings. <sup>27</sup> Whoever it is who eats any blood, that soul shall be cut off from his people."

anointed them. It is their portion forever throughout their generations. <sup>37</sup> This is the law of the burnt offering, of the meal offering, and of the sin offering, and of the trespass offering, and of the consecration, and of the sacrifice of peace offerings; <sup>38</sup> which Yahweh commanded Moses in Mount Sinai, in the day that he commanded the children of Israel to offer their offerings to Yahweh, in the wilderness of Sinai.

and the basin and its base, to sanctify them.

<sup>31</sup> Moses said to Aaron and to his sons, "Boil the flesh at the door of the Tent of Meeting, and there eat it and the bread that is in the basket of consecration, as I commanded, saying, 'Aaron and his sons shall eat it.'" <sup>32</sup> What remains of the flesh and of the bread you shall burn with fire. <sup>33</sup> You shall not go out from the door of the Tent of Meeting seven days, until the days of your consecration are fulfilled: for he shall consecrate you seven days. <sup>34</sup> What has been done today, so Yahweh has commanded to do, to make atonement for you. <sup>35</sup> You shall stay at the door of the Tent of Meeting day and night seven days, and keep Yahweh's command, that you don't die: for so I am commanded." <sup>36</sup> Aaron and his sons did all the things which Yahweh commanded by Moses.

<sup>8</sup> So Aaron came near to the altar, and killed the calf of the sin offering, which was for himself. <sup>9</sup> The sons of Aaron presented the blood to him; and he dipped his finger in the blood, and put it on the horns of the altar, and poured out the blood at the base of the altar: <sup>10</sup> but the fat, and the kidneys, and the cover from the liver of the sin offering, he burned upon the altar; as Yahweh commanded Moses. <sup>11</sup> The flesh and the skin he burned with fire outside the camp. <sup>12</sup> He killed the burnt offering; and Aaron's sons delivered the blood to him, and he sprinkled it around on the altar. <sup>13</sup> They delivered the burnt offering to him, piece by piece, and the head: and he burned them upon the altar. <sup>14</sup> He washed the innards and the legs, and burned them on the burnt offering on the altar. <sup>15</sup> He presented the people's offering, and took the goat of the sin offering which was for the people, and killed it, and offered it for sin, like the first. <sup>16</sup> He presented the burnt offering, and offered it according to the ordinance. <sup>17</sup> He presented the meal offering, and filled his hand from there, and burned it upon the altar, besides the burnt offering of the morning. <sup>18</sup> He also killed the bull and the ram, the sacrifice of peace offerings, which was for the people: and Aaron's sons delivered to him the blood, which he sprinkled around on the altar, <sup>19</sup> and the fat of the bull and of the ram, the fat tail, and that which covers the innards, and the kidneys, and the cover of the liver: <sup>20</sup> and they put the fat upon the breasts, and he burned the fat on the altar: <sup>21</sup> and the breasts and the right thigh Aaron waved for a wave offering before Yahweh, as Moses commanded. <sup>22</sup> Aaron lifted up his hands toward the people, and blessed them; and he came down from offering the sin offering, and the burnt offering, and the peace offerings.

<sup>23</sup> Moses and Aaron went into the Tent of Meeting, and came out, and blessed the people: and Yahweh's glory appeared to all the people. <sup>24</sup> Fire came out from before Yahweh, and consumed the burnt offering and the fat upon the altar. When all the people saw it, they shouted, and fell on their faces.

10

'I will show myself holy to those who come near me, and before all the people I will be glorified.'"

Aaron held his peace. <sup>4</sup> Moses called Mishael and Elzaphan, the sons of Uzziel the uncle of Aaron, and said to them, "Draw near, carry your brothers from before the sanctuary out of the camp." <sup>5</sup> So they came near, and carried them in their coats out of the camp, as Moses had said.

<sup>6</sup> Moses said to Aaron, and to Eleazar and to Ithamar, his sons, "Don't let the hair of your heads go loose, and don't tear your clothes; so that you don't die, and so that he not be angry with all the congregation; but let your brothers, the whole house of Israel, bewail the burning which Yahweh has kindled. <sup>7</sup> You shall not go out from the door of the Tent of Meeting, lest you die; for the anointing oil of Yahweh is on you.” They did according to the word of Moses.<sup>8</sup> Then Yahweh said to Aaron,<sup>9</sup> “You and your sons are not to drink wine or strong drink whenever you go into the Tent of Meeting, or you will die. This shall be a statute forever throughout your generations.<sup>10</sup> You are to make a distinction between the holy and the common, and between the unclean and the clean.<sup>11</sup> You are to teach the children of Israel all the statutes which Yahweh has spoken to them by Moses.”

sin offering in the place of the sanctuary, since it is most holy, and he has given it you to bear the iniquity of the congregation, to make atonement for them before Yahweh?<sup>18</sup> Behold, its blood was not brought into the inner part of the sanctuary: you certainly should have eaten it in the sanctuary, as I commanded.”

<sup>19</sup> Aaron spoke to Moses, “Behold, today they have offered their sin offering and their burnt offering before Yahweh; and such things as these have happened to me. If I had eaten the sin offering today, would it have been pleasing in Yahweh’s sight?”

<sup>4</sup> “Nevertheless these you shall not eat of those that chew the cud, or of those who part the hoof: the camel, because he chews the cud but doesn’t have a parted hoof, he is unclean to you.<sup>5</sup> The cony,<sup>g</sup> because he chews the cud but doesn’t have a parted hoof, he is unclean to you.<sup>6</sup> The hare, because she chews the cud but doesn’t part the hoof, she is unclean to you.<sup>7</sup> The pig, because he has a split hoof, and is cloven-footed, but doesn’t chew the cud, he is unclean to you.<sup>8</sup> Of their flesh you shall not eat, and their carcasses you shall not touch; they are unclean to you.

<sup>9</sup> ““These you may eat of all that are in the waters: whatever has fins and scales in the waters, in the seas, and in the rivers, that you may eat. <sup>10</sup> All that don’t have fins and scales in the seas, and in the rivers, of all that move in the waters, and of all the living creatures that are in the waters, they are an abomination to you, <sup>11</sup> and you detest them. You shall not eat of their flesh, and you shall detest their carcasses. <sup>12</sup> Whatever has no fins nor scales in the waters, that is an abomination to you.

part of their carcass falls on any sowing seed which is to be sown, it is clean. <sup>38</sup> But if water is put on the seed, and part of their carcass falls on it, it is unclean to you.

<sup>39</sup> “If any animal, of which you may eat, dies; he who touches its carcass shall be unclean until the evening. <sup>40</sup> He who eats of its carcass shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the evening. He also who carries its carcass shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the evening.

a woman conceives, and bears a male child, then she shall be unclean seven days; as in the days of her monthly period she shall be unclean. <sup>3</sup> In the eighth day the flesh of his foreskin shall be circumcised. <sup>4</sup> She shall continue in the blood of purification thirty-three days. She shall not touch any holy thing, nor come into the sanctuary, until the days of her purifying are completed. <sup>5</sup> But if she bears a female child, then she shall be unclean two weeks, as in her period; and she shall continue in the blood of purification sixty-six days.

“This is the law for her who bears, whether a male or a female. <sup>8</sup> If she cannot afford a lamb, then she shall take two turtledoves, or two young pigeons; the one for a burnt offering, and the other for a sin offering: and the priest shall make atonement for her, and she shall be clean.”

deeper than the body's skin, it is the plague of leprosy; and the priest shall examine him, and pronounce him unclean. <sup>4</sup> If the bright spot is white in the skin of his body, and its appearance isn't deeper than the skin, and its hair hasn't turned white, then the priest shall isolate the infected person for seven days. <sup>5</sup> The priest shall examine him on the seventh day, and, behold, if in his eyes the plague is arrested, and the plague hasn't spread in the skin, then the priest shall isolate him for seven more days. <sup>6</sup> The priest shall examine him again on the seventh day; and behold, if the plague has faded, and the plague hasn't spread in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him clean. It is a scab. He shall wash his clothes, and be clean. <sup>7</sup> But if the scab spreads on the skin, after he has shown himself to the priest for his cleansing, he shall show himself to the priest again. <sup>8</sup> The priest shall examine him; and behold, if the scab has spread on the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is leprosy.

<sup>9</sup> "When the plague of leprosy is in a man, then he shall be brought to the priest; <sup>10</sup> and the priest shall examine him. Behold, if there is a white rising in the skin, and it has turned the hair white, and there is raw flesh in the rising, <sup>11</sup> it is a chronic leprosy in the skin of his body, and the priest shall pronounce him unclean. He shall not isolate him, for he is already unclean.

flesh, he shall pronounce him clean of the plague. It has all turned white: he is clean.

leprosy. <sup>26</sup> But if the priest examines it, and behold, there is no white hair in the bright spot, and it isn't lower than the skin, but is faded; then the priest shall isolate him seven days. <sup>27</sup> The priest shall examine him on the seventh day. If it has spread in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is the plague of leprosy. <sup>28</sup> If the bright spot stays in its place, and hasn't spread in the skin, but is faded, it is the swelling from the burn, and the priest shall pronounce him clean; for it is the scar from the burn.

<sup>29</sup> "When a man or woman has a plague on the head or on the beard, <sup>30</sup> then the priest shall examine the plague; and behold, if its appearance is deeper than the skin, and the hair in it is yellow and thin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is an itch, it is leprosy of the head or of the beard. <sup>31</sup> If the priest examines the plague of itching, and behold, its appearance isn't deeper than the skin, and there is no black hair in it, then the priest shall isolate the person infected with itching seven days. <sup>32</sup> On the seventh day the priest shall examine the plague; and behold, if the itch hasn't spread, and there is no yellow hair in it, and the appearance of the itch isn't deeper than the skin, <sup>33</sup> then he shall be shaved, but he shall not shave the itch; and the priest shall shut him up who has the itch seven more days. <sup>34</sup> On the seventh day, the priest shall examine the itch; and behold, if the itch hasn't spread in the skin, and its appearance isn't deeper than the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him clean. He shall wash his clothes, and be clean. <sup>35</sup> But if the itch spreads in the skin after his cleansing, <sup>36</sup>

then the priest shall examine him; and behold, if the itch has spread in the skin, the priest shall not look for the yellow hair; he is unclean. <sup>37</sup> But if in his eyes the itch is arrested, and black hair has grown in it; the itch is healed, he is clean. The priest shall pronounce him clean.

is in warp, or woof; of linen, or of wool; whether in a skin, or in anything made of skin; <sup>49</sup> if the plague is greenish or reddish in the garment, or in the skin, or in the warp, or in the woof, or in anything made of skin; it is the plague of leprosy, and shall be shown to the priest. <sup>50</sup> The priest shall examine the plague, and isolate the plague seven days. <sup>51</sup> He shall examine the plague on the seventh day. If the plague has spread in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in the skin, whatever use the skin is used for, the plague is a destructive mildew. It is unclean. <sup>52</sup> He shall burn the garment, whether the warp or the woof, in wool or in linen, or anything of skin, in which the plague is: for it is a destructive mildew. It shall be burned in the fire.

<sup>53</sup> “If the priest examines it, and behold, the plague hasn’t spread in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in anything of skin; <sup>54</sup> then the priest shall command that they wash the thing in which the plague is, and he shall isolate it seven more days. <sup>55</sup> Then the priest shall examine it, after the plague is washed; and behold, if the plague hasn’t changed its color, and the plague hasn’t spread, it is unclean; you shall burn it in the fire. It is a mildewed spot, whether the bareness is inside or outside. <sup>56</sup> If the priest looks, and behold, the plague has faded after it is washed, then he shall tear it out of the garment, or out of the skin, or out of the warp, or out of the woof: <sup>57</sup> and if it appears again in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in anything of skin, it is spreading. You shall burn with fire that in which the plague is. <sup>58</sup> The garment, either the warp, or the woof, or whatever thing of skin it is, which you shall wash, if the plague has departed from them, then it shall be washed the second time, and it will be clean.”

<sup>2</sup> “This shall be the law of the leper in the day of his cleansing. He shall be brought to the priest, <sup>3</sup> and the priest shall go out of the camp. The priest shall examine him, and behold, if the plague of leprosy is healed in the leper, <sup>4</sup> then the priest shall command them to take for him who is to be cleansed two living clean birds, and cedar wood, and scarlet, and hyssop. <sup>5</sup> The priest shall command them to kill one of the birds in an earthen vessel over running water. <sup>6</sup> As for the living bird, he shall take it, and the cedar wood, and the scarlet, and the hyssop, and shall dip them and the living bird in the blood of the bird that was killed over the running water. <sup>7</sup> He shall sprinkle on him who is to be cleansed from the leprosy seven times, and shall pronounce him clean, and shall let the living bird go into the open field.

<sup>8</sup> “He who is to be cleansed shall wash his clothes, and shave off all his hair, and bathe himself in water; and he shall be clean. After that he shall come into the camp, but shall dwell outside his tent seven days. <sup>9</sup> It shall be on the seventh day, that he shall shave all his hair off his head and his beard and his eyebrows, even all his hair he shall shave off. He shall wash his clothes, and he shall bathe his body in water, then he shall be clean.

<sup>12</sup> “The priest shall take one of the male lambs, and offer him for a trespass offering, with the log of oil, and wave them for a wave offering before Yahweh. <sup>13</sup> He shall kill the male lamb in the place where they kill the sin offering and the burnt offering, in the place of the sanctuary; for as the sin offering is the priest’s, so is the trespass offering. It is most holy. <sup>14</sup> The priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass offering, and the priest shall put it on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot. <sup>15</sup> The priest shall take some of the log of oil, and pour it into the palm of his own left hand. <sup>16</sup> The priest shall dip his right finger in the oil that is in his left hand, and shall sprinkle some of the oil with his finger seven times before Yahweh. <sup>17</sup> The priest shall put some of the rest of the oil that is in his hand on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot, upon the blood of the trespass offering. <sup>18</sup> The rest of the oil that is in the priest’s hand he shall put on the head of him who is to be cleansed, and the priest shall make atonement for him before Yahweh.

<sup>19</sup> “The priest shall offer the sin offering, and make atonement for him who is to be cleansed because of his uncleanness: and afterward he shall kill the burnt offering; <sup>20</sup> and the priest shall offer the burnt offering and the meal offering on the altar. The priest shall make atonement for him, and he shall be clean.

is in the priest's hand he shall put on the head of him who is to be cleansed, to make atonement for him before Yahweh. <sup>30</sup> He shall offer one of the turtledoves, or of the young pigeons, such as he is able to afford, <sup>31</sup> even such as he is able to afford, the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering, with the meal offering. The priest shall make atonement for him who is to be cleansed before Yahweh."

<sup>33</sup> Yahweh spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, <sup>34</sup> "When you have come into the land of Canaan, which I give to you for a possession, and I put a spreading mildew in a house in the land of your possession, <sup>35</sup> then he who owns the house shall come and tell the priest, saying, 'There seems to me to be some sort of plague in the house.' <sup>36</sup> The priest shall command that they empty the house, before the priest goes in to examine the plague, that all that is in the house not be made unclean. Afterward the priest shall go in to inspect the house. <sup>37</sup> He shall examine the plague; and behold, if the plague is in the walls of the house with hollow streaks, greenish or reddish, and it appears to be deeper than the wall; <sup>38</sup> then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days. <sup>39</sup> The priest shall come again on the seventh day, and look. If the plague has spread in the walls of the house, <sup>40</sup> then the priest shall command that they take out the stones in which is the plague, and cast them into an unclean place outside of the city: <sup>41</sup> and he shall cause the inside of the house to be scraped all over, and they shall pour out the mortar, that they scraped off, outside of the city into an unclean place. <sup>42</sup> They shall take other stones, and put them in the place of those stones; and he shall take other mortar, and shall plaster the house.

<sup>43</sup> "If the plague comes again, and breaks out in the house, after he has taken out the stones, and after he has scraped the house, and after it was plastered; <sup>44</sup> then the priest shall come in and look; and behold, if the plague has spread in the house, it is a destructive mildew in the house. It is unclean. <sup>45</sup> He shall break down the house, its stones, and its timber, and all the house's mortar. He shall carry them out of the city into an unclean place.

<sup>48</sup> "If the priest shall come in, and examine it, and behold, the plague hasn't spread in the house, after the house was plastered, then the priest shall pronounce the house clean, because the plague is healed. <sup>49</sup> To cleanse the house he shall take two birds, and cedar wood, and scarlet, and hyssop. <sup>50</sup> He shall kill one of the birds in an earthen vessel over running water. <sup>51</sup> He shall take the cedar wood, and the hyssop, and the scarlet, and the living bird, and dip them in the blood of the slain bird, and in the running water, and sprinkle the house seven times. <sup>52</sup> He shall cleanse the house with the blood of the bird, and with the running water, with the living bird, with the cedar wood, with the hyssop, and with the scarlet; <sup>53</sup> but he shall let the living bird go out of the city into the open field. So shall he make atonement for the house; and it shall be clean.”

This is the law of leprosy.

<sup>7</sup> “He who touches the body of him who has the discharge shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.

<sup>8</sup> “If he who has the discharge spits on him who is clean, then he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.

<sup>9</sup> “Whatever saddle he who has the discharge rides on shall be unclean. <sup>10</sup> Whoever touches anything that was under him shall be unclean until the evening. He who carries those things shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.

<sup>11</sup> “Whoever he who has the discharge touches, without having rinsed his hands in water, he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.

<sup>12</sup> “The earthen vessel, which he who has the discharge touches, shall be broken; and every vessel of wood shall be rinsed in water.

<sup>13</sup> “When he who has a discharge is cleansed of his discharge, then he shall count to himself seven days for his cleansing, and wash his clothes; and he shall bathe his flesh in running water, and shall be clean.

<sup>14</sup> “On the eighth day he shall take two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, and come before Yahweh to the door of the Tent of Meeting, and give them to the priest: <sup>15</sup> and the priest shall offer them, the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering. The priest shall make atonement for him before Yahweh for his discharge.

<sup>16</sup> “If any man has an emission of semen, then he shall bathe all his flesh in water, and be unclean until the evening. <sup>17</sup> Every garment, and every skin, whereon the semen is, shall be washed with water, and be unclean until the evening. <sup>18</sup> If a man lies with a woman and there is an emission of semen, they shall both bathe themselves in water, and be unclean until the evening.

<sup>25</sup> “If a woman has a discharge of her blood many days not in the time of her period, or if she has a discharge beyond the time of her period; all the days of the discharge of her uncleanness shall be as in the days of her period: she is unclean. <sup>26</sup> Every bed whereon she lies all the days of her discharge shall be to her as the bed of her period: and everything whereon she sits shall be unclean, as the uncleanness of her period. <sup>27</sup> Whoever touches these things shall be unclean, and shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.

<sup>28</sup> “But if she is cleansed of her discharge, then she shall count to herself seven days, and after that she shall be clean. <sup>29</sup> On the eighth day she shall take two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, and bring them to the priest, to the door of the Tent of Meeting. <sup>30</sup> The priest shall offer the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering; and the priest shall make atonement for her before Yahweh for the uncleanness of her discharge.

<sup>32</sup> This is the law of him who has a discharge, and of him who has an emission of semen, so that he is unclean thereby; <sup>33</sup> and of her who has her period, and of a man or woman who has a discharge, and of him who lies with her who is unclean.

16

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh spoke to Moses, after the death of the two sons of Aaron, when they came near before Yahweh, and died; <sup>2</sup> and Yahweh said to Moses, “Tell Aaron your brother, not to come at all times into the Most Holy Place within the veil, before the mercy seat which is on the ark; lest he die: for I will appear in the cloud on the mercy seat.

atonement for himself and for his house. <sup>7</sup> He shall take the two goats, and set them before Yahweh at the door of the Tent of Meeting. <sup>8</sup> Aaron shall cast lots for the two goats; one lot for Yahweh, and the other lot for the scapegoat. <sup>9</sup> Aaron shall present the goat on which the lot fell for Yahweh, and offer him for a sin offering. <sup>10</sup> But the goat, on which the lot fell for the scapegoat, shall be presented alive before Yahweh, to make atonement for him, to send him away for the scapegoat into the wilderness.

middle of their uncleanness. <sup>17</sup> No one shall be in the Tent of Meeting when he enters to make atonement in the Holy Place, until he comes out, and has made atonement for himself and for his household, and for all the assembly of Israel.

<sup>20</sup> "When he has finished atoning for the Holy Place, the Tent of Meeting, and the altar, he shall present the live goat. <sup>21</sup> Aaron shall lay both his hands on the head of the live goat, and confess over him all the iniquities of the children of Israel, and all their transgressions, even all their sins; and he shall put them on the head of the goat, and shall send him away into the wilderness by the hand of a man who is in readiness. <sup>22</sup> The goat shall carry all their iniquities on himself to a solitary land, and he shall let the goat go in the wilderness.

<sup>23</sup> "Aaron shall come into the Tent of Meeting, and shall take off the linen garments, which he put on when he went into the Holy Place, and shall leave them there. <sup>24</sup> Then he shall bathe himself in water in a holy place, and put on his garments, and come out and offer his burnt offering and the burnt offering of the people, and make atonement for himself and for the people. <sup>25</sup> The fat of the sin offering he shall burn on the altar.

<sup>29</sup> “It shall be a statute to you forever: in the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, you shall afflict your souls, and shall do no kind of work, the native-born, or the stranger who lives as a foreigner among you: <sup>30</sup> for on this day shall atonement be made for you, to cleanse you; from all your sins you shall be clean before Yahweh. <sup>31</sup> It is a Sabbath of solemn rest to you, and you shall afflict your souls. It is a statute forever. <sup>32</sup> The priest, who is anointed and who is consecrated to be priest in his father’s place, shall make the atonement, and shall put on the linen garments, even the holy garments. <sup>33</sup> Then he shall make atonement for the Holy Sanctuary; and he shall make atonement for the Tent of Meeting and for the altar; and he shall make atonement for the priests and for all the people of the assembly.

It was done as Yahweh commanded Moses.

17

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup> “Speak to Aaron, and to his sons, and to all the children of Israel, and say to them: ‘This is the thing which Yahweh has commanded, <sup>3</sup> Whatever man there is of the house of Israel, who kills a bull, or lamb, or goat, in the camp, or who kills it outside the camp, <sup>4</sup> and hasn’t brought it to the door of the Tent of Meeting, to offer it as an offering to Yahweh before Yahweh’s tabernacle: blood shall be imputed to that man. He has shed blood; and that man shall be cut off from among his people. <sup>5</sup> This is to the end that the children of Israel may bring their sacrifices, which they sacrifice in the open field, that they may bring them to Yahweh, to the door of the Tent of Meeting, to the priest, and sacrifice them for sacrifices of peace offerings to Yahweh. <sup>6</sup> The priest shall sprinkle the blood on Yahweh’s altar at the door of the Tent of Meeting, and burn the fat for a pleasant aroma to Yahweh. <sup>7</sup> They shall no more sacrifice their sacrifices to the goat idols, after which they play the prostitute. This shall be a statute forever to them throughout their generations.’

<sup>8</sup> “You shall say to them, ‘Any man there is of the house of Israel, or of the strangers who live as foreigners among them, who offers a burnt offering or sacrifice, <sup>9</sup> and doesn’t bring it to the door of the Tent of Meeting, to sacrifice it to Yahweh; that man shall be cut off from his people.

<sup>10</sup> “‘Any man of the house of Israel, or of the strangers who live as foreigners among them, who eats any kind of blood, I will set my face against that soul who eats blood, and will cut him off from among his people. <sup>11</sup> For the life of the flesh is in the blood; and I have given it to you on the altar to make atonement for your souls: for it is the blood that makes atonement by reason of the life. <sup>12</sup> Therefore I have said to the children of Israel, "No person among you may eat blood, nor may any stranger who lives as a foreigner among you eat blood."

<sup>15</sup> "Every person that eats what dies of itself, or that which is torn by animals, whether he is native-born or a foreigner, he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening: then he shall be clean. <sup>16</sup> But if he doesn't wash them, or bathe his flesh, then he shall bear his iniquity."

if a man does, he shall live in them. I am Yahweh.

<sup>9</sup> "You shall not uncover the nakedness of your sister, the daughter of your father, or the daughter of your mother, whether born at home, or born abroad.

not take her son's daughter, or her daughter's daughter, to uncover her nakedness; they are near kinswomen: it is wickedness.

<sup>23</sup> “You shall not lie with any animal to defile yourself with it. No woman may give herself to an animal, to lie down with it: it is a perversion.

<sup>24</sup> “Don't defile yourselves in any of these things: for in all these the nations which I am casting out before you were defiled. <sup>25</sup> The land was defiled: therefore I punished its iniquity, and the land vomited out her inhabitants. <sup>26</sup> You therefore shall keep my statutes and my ordinances, and shall not do any of these abominations; neither the native-born, nor the stranger who lives as a foreigner among you; <sup>27</sup> (for the men of the land that were before you had done all these abominations, and the land became defiled); <sup>28</sup> that the land not vomit you out also, when you defile it, as it vomited out the nation that was before you.

shall be cut off from among their people. <sup>30</sup> Therefore you shall keep my requirements, that you do not practice any of these abominable customs, which were practiced before you, and that you do not defile yourselves with them. I am Yahweh your God.”

19

<sup>5</sup> “When you offer a sacrifice of peace offerings to Yahweh, you shall offer it so that you may be accepted. <sup>6</sup> It shall be eaten the same day you offer it, and on the next day: and if anything remains until the third day, it shall be burned with fire. <sup>7</sup> If it is eaten at all on the third day, it is an abomination. It will not be accepted; <sup>8</sup> but everyone who eats it shall bear his iniquity, because he has profaned the holy thing of Yahweh, and that soul shall be cut off from his people.

“You shall not deceive one another.

<sup>12</sup> “You shall not swear by my name falsely, and profane the name of your God. I am Yahweh.

“The wages of a hired servant shall not remain with you all night until the morning.

“You shall not sow your field with two kinds of seed;

“Don’t wear a garment made of two kinds of material.

<sup>20</sup> “If a man lies carnally with a woman who is a slave girl, pledged to be married to another man, and not ransomed, or given her freedom; they shall be punished. They shall not be put to death, because she was not free. <sup>21</sup> He shall bring his trespass offering to Yahweh, to the door of the Tent of Meeting, even a ram for a trespass offering. <sup>22</sup> The priest shall make atonement for him with the ram of the trespass offering before Yahweh for his sin which he has committed: and the sin which he has committed shall be forgiven him.

<sup>23</sup> “When you come into the land, and have planted all kinds of trees for food, then you shall count their fruit as forbidden.<sup>k</sup> Three years they shall be forbidden to you. It shall not be eaten. <sup>24</sup> But in the fourth year all its fruit shall be holy, for giving praise to Yahweh. <sup>25</sup> In the fifth year you shall eat its fruit, that it may yield its increase to you. I am Yahweh your God.

<sup>33</sup> “If a stranger lives as a foreigner with you in your land, you shall not do him wrong. <sup>34</sup> The stranger who lives as a foreigner with you shall be to you as the native-born among you, and you shall love him as yourself; for you lived as foreigners in the land of Egypt. I am Yahweh your God.

20

<sup>6</sup> “The person that turns to those who are mediums, and to the wizards, to play the prostitute after them, I will even set my face against that person, and will cut him off from among his people.

<sup>7</sup> “Sanctify yourselves therefore, and be holy; for I am Yahweh your God. <sup>8</sup> You shall keep my statutes, and do them. I am Yahweh who sanctifies you.

<sup>9</sup> “For everyone who curses his father or his mother shall surely be put to death: he has cursed his father or his mother; his blood shall be upon him.

<sup>13</sup> “If a man lies with a male, as with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them.

<sup>14</sup> “If a man takes a wife and her mother, it is wickedness: they shall be burned with fire, both he and they; that there may be no wickedness among you.

<sup>22</sup> “You shall therefore keep all my statutes, and all my ordinances, and do them; that the land, where I am bringing you to dwell, may not vomit you out. <sup>23</sup> You shall not walk in the customs of the nation, which I am casting out before you: for they did all these things, and therefore I abhorred them. <sup>24</sup> But I have said to you, “You shall inherit their land, and I will give it to you to possess it, a land flowing with milk and honey.” I am Yahweh your God, who has separated you from the peoples.

the unclean, and between the unclean fowl and the clean: and you shall not make yourselves abominable by animal, or by bird, or by anything with which the ground teems, which I have separated from you as unclean for you. <sup>26</sup> You shall be holy to me; for I, Yahweh, am holy, and have set you apart from the peoples, that you should be mine.

<sup>5</sup> “They shall not shave their heads or shave off the corners of their beards or make any cuttings in their flesh. <sup>6</sup> They shall be holy to their God, and not profane the name of their God; for they offer the offerings of Yahweh made by fire, the bread of their God; therefore they shall be holy.

<sup>7</sup> “They shall not marry a woman who is a prostitute, or profane. They shall not marry a woman divorced from her husband; for he is holy to his God. <sup>8</sup> You shall sanctify him therefore; for he offers the bread of your God. He shall be holy to you; for I Yahweh, who sanctify you, am holy.

<sup>9</sup> “The daughter of any priest, if she profanes herself by playing the prostitute, she profanes her father. She shall be burned with fire.

<sup>10</sup> “He who is the high priest among his brothers, upon whose head the anointing oil is poured, and that is consecrated to put on the garments, shall not let the hair of his head hang loose, or tear his clothes. <sup>11</sup> He must not go in to any dead body, or defile himself for his father, or for his mother. <sup>12</sup> He shall not go out of the sanctuary, nor profane the sanctuary of his God; for the crown of the anointing oil of his God is upon him. I am Yahweh.

the offerings of Yahweh made by fire. Since he has a defect, he shall not come near to offer the bread of his God. <sup>22</sup> He shall eat the bread of his God, both of the most holy, and of the holy. <sup>23</sup> He shall not come near to the veil, nor come near to the altar, because he has a defect; that he may not profane my sanctuaries, for I am Yahweh who sanctifies them.”

<sup>3</sup> “Tell them, ‘If anyone of all your offspring<sup>s</sup> throughout your generations approaches the holy things, which the children of Israel make holy to Yahweh, having his uncleanness on him, that soul shall be cut off from before me. I am Yahweh.

things, because it is his bread. <sup>8</sup> That which dies of itself, or is torn by animals, he shall not eat, defiling himself by it. I am Yahweh.

<sup>9</sup> ““They shall therefore follow my requirements, lest they bear sin for it, and die therein, if they profane it. I am Yahweh who sanctifies them.

may be accepted, you shall offer a male without defect, of the bulls, of the sheep, or of the goats. <sup>20</sup> But whatever has a defect, that you shall not offer; for it shall not be acceptable for you. <sup>21</sup> Whoever offers a sacrifice of peace offerings to Yahweh to accomplish a vow, or for a freewill offering, of the herd or of the flock, it shall be perfect to be accepted. It shall have no defect. <sup>22</sup> Blind, injured, maimed, having a wart, festering, or having a running sore: you shall not offer these to Yahweh, nor make an offering by fire of them on the altar to Yahweh. <sup>23</sup> Either a bull or a lamb that has any deformity or lacking in his parts, that you may offer for a freewill offering; but for a vow it shall not be accepted. <sup>24</sup> You must not offer to Yahweh that which has its testicles bruised, crushed, broken, or cut. You must not do this in your land. <sup>25</sup> You must not offer the bread of your God from the hand of a foreigner as any of these; because their corruption is in them. There is a defect in them. They shall not be accepted for you.”

<sup>29</sup> “When you sacrifice a sacrifice of thanksgiving to Yahweh, you shall sacrifice it so that you may be accepted. <sup>30</sup> It shall be eaten on the same day; you shall leave none of it until the morning. I am Yahweh.

<sup>31</sup> “Therefore you shall keep my commandments, and do them. I am Yahweh. <sup>32</sup> You shall not profane my holy name, but I will be made holy among the children of Israel. I am Yahweh who makes you holy, <sup>33</sup> who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God. I am Yahweh.”

23

<sup>3</sup> “Six days shall work be done, but on the seventh day is a Sabbath of solemn rest, a holy convocation; you shall do no kind of work. It is a Sabbath to Yahweh in all your dwellings.

<sup>4</sup> “These are the set feasts of Yahweh, even holy convocations, which you shall proclaim in their appointed season. <sup>5</sup> In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month in the evening, is Yahweh’s Passover. <sup>6</sup> On the fifteenth day of the same month is the feast of unleavened bread to Yahweh. Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread. <sup>7</sup> In the first day you shall have a holy convocation. You shall do no regular work. <sup>8</sup> But you shall offer an offering made by fire to Yahweh seven days. In the seventh day is a holy convocation: you shall do no regular work.”

<sup>9</sup> Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>10</sup> “Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them, ‘When you have come into the land which I give to you, and shall reap its harvest, then you shall bring the sheaf of the first fruits of your harvest to the priest: <sup>11</sup> and he shall wave the sheaf before Yahweh, to be accepted for you. On the next day after the Sabbath the priest shall wave it. <sup>12</sup> On the day when you wave the sheaf, you shall offer a male lamb without defect a year old for a burnt offering to Yahweh. <sup>13</sup> The meal offering with it shall be two tenths of an ephah<sup>v</sup> of fine flour mingled with oil, an offering made by fire to Yahweh for a pleasant aroma; and the drink offering with it shall be of wine, the fourth part of a hin. <sup>14</sup> You must not eat bread, or roasted grain, or fresh grain, until this same day, until you have brought the offering of your God. This is a statute forever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

<sup>15</sup> “You shall count from the next day after the Sabbath, from the day that you brought the sheaf of the wave offering; seven Sabbaths shall be completed: <sup>16</sup> even to the next day after the seventh Sabbath you shall number fifty days; and you shall offer a new meal offering to Yahweh. <sup>17</sup> You shall bring out of your habitations two loaves of bread for a wave offering made of two tenths of an ephah<sup>w</sup> of fine flour. They shall be baked with yeast, for first fruits to Yahweh. <sup>18</sup> You shall present with the bread seven lambs without defect a year old, one young bull, and two rams. They shall be a burnt offering to Yahweh, with their meal offering, and their drink offerings, even an offering made by fire, of a sweet aroma to Yahweh. <sup>19</sup> You shall offer one male goat for a sin offering, and two male lambs a year old for a sacrifice of peace offerings. <sup>20</sup> The priest shall wave them with the bread of the first fruits for a wave offering before Yahweh, with the two lambs. They shall be holy to Yahweh for the priest. <sup>21</sup> You shall make proclamation on the same day: there shall be a holy convocation to you; you shall do no regular work. This is a statute forever in all your dwellings throughout your generations.

<sup>22</sup> “When you reap the harvest of your land, you must not wholly reap into the corners of your field, and you must not gather the gleanings of your harvest. You must leave them for the poor, and for the foreigner. I am Yahweh your God.”

<sup>26</sup> Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>27</sup> “However on the tenth day of this seventh month is the day of atonement: it shall be a holy convocation to you, and you shall afflict yourselves; and you shall offer an offering made by fire to Yahweh. <sup>28</sup> You shall do no kind of work in that same day; for it is a day of atonement, to make atonement for you before Yahweh your God. <sup>29</sup> For whoever it is who shall not deny himself in that same day; shall be cut off from his people. <sup>30</sup> Whoever it is who does any kind of work in that same day, that person I will destroy from among his people. <sup>31</sup> You shall do no kind of work: it is a statute forever throughout your generations in all your dwellings. <sup>32</sup> It shall be a Sabbath of solemn rest for you, and you shall deny yourselves. In the ninth day of the month at evening, from evening to evening, you shall keep your Sabbath.”

<sup>37</sup> “These are the appointed feasts of Yahweh, which you shall proclaim to be holy convocations, to offer an offering made by fire to Yahweh, a burnt offering, and a meal offering, a sacrifice, and drink offerings, each on its own day; <sup>38</sup> besides the Sabbaths of Yahweh, and besides your gifts, and besides all your vows, and besides all your freewill offerings, which you give to Yahweh.

<sup>39</sup> “So on the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when you have gathered in the fruits of the land, you shall keep the feast of Yahweh seven days: on the first day shall be a solemn rest, and on the eighth day shall be a solemn rest. <sup>40</sup> You shall take on the first day the fruit of goodly trees, branches of palm trees, and boughs of thick trees, and willows of the brook; and you shall rejoice before Yahweh your God seven days. <sup>41</sup> You shall keep it a feast to Yahweh seven days in the year. It is a statute forever throughout your generations. You shall keep it in the seventh month. <sup>42</sup> You shall dwell in temporary shelters<sup>x</sup> seven days. All who are native-born in Israel shall dwell in temporary shelters,<sup>y</sup> <sup>43</sup> that your generations may know that I made the children of Israel to dwell in temporary shelters,<sup>z</sup> when I brought them out of the land of Egypt. I am Yahweh your God.”

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh said to Moses in Mount Sinai, <sup>2</sup> “Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them, ‘When you come into the land which I give you, then the land shall keep a Sabbath to Yahweh. <sup>3</sup> You shall sow your field six years, and you shall prune your vineyard six years, and gather in its fruits; <sup>4</sup> but in the seventh year there shall be a Sabbath of solemn rest for the land, a Sabbath to Yahweh. You shall not sow your field or prune your vineyard. <sup>5</sup> What grows of itself in your harvest you shall not reap, and you shall not gather the grapes of your undressed vine. It shall be a year of solemn rest for the land. <sup>6</sup> The Sabbath of the land shall be for food for you; for yourself, for your servant, for your maid, for your hired servant, and for your stranger, who lives as a foreigner with you. <sup>7</sup> For your livestock also, and for the animals that are in your land, shall all its increase be for food.

<sup>8</sup> “You shall count off seven Sabbaths of years, seven times seven years; and there shall be to you the days of seven Sabbaths of years, even forty-nine years. <sup>9</sup> Then you shall sound the loud trumpet on the tenth day of the seventh month. On the Day of Atonement you shall sound the trumpet throughout all your land. <sup>10</sup> You shall make the fiftieth year holy, and proclaim liberty throughout the land to all its inhabitants. It shall be a jubilee to you; and each of you shall return to his own property, and each of you shall return to his family. <sup>11</sup> That fiftieth year shall be a jubilee to you. In it you shall not sow, neither reap that which grows of itself, nor gather from the undressed vines. <sup>12</sup> For it is a jubilee; it shall be holy to you. You shall eat of its increase out of the field.

<sup>14</sup> “If you sell anything to your neighbor, or buy from your neighbor, you shall not wrong one another. <sup>15</sup> According to the number of years after the Jubilee you shall buy from your neighbor. According to the number of years of the crops he shall sell to you. <sup>16</sup> According to the length of the years you shall increase its price, and according to the shortness of the years you shall diminish its price; for he is selling the number of the crops to you. <sup>17</sup> You shall not wrong one another; but you shall fear your God: for I am Yahweh your God.

kinsman who is next to him shall come, and redeem that which his brother has sold.

<sup>26</sup> If a man has no one to redeem it, and he becomes prosperous and finds sufficient means to redeem it; <sup>27</sup> then let him reckon the years since its sale, and restore the surplus to the man to whom he sold it; and he shall return to his property. <sup>28</sup> But if he isn't able to get it back for himself, then what he has sold shall remain in the hand of him who has bought it until the Year of Jubilee: and in the Jubilee it shall be released, and he shall return to his property.

<sup>30</sup> If it isn't redeemed within the space of a full year, then the house that is in the walled city shall be made sure in perpetuity to him who bought it, throughout his generations. It shall not be released in the Jubilee. <sup>31</sup> But the houses of the villages which have no wall around them shall be accounted for with the fields of the country: they may be redeemed, and they shall be released in the Jubilee.

<sup>35</sup> "If your brother has become poor, and his hand can't support himself among you; then you shall uphold him. He shall live with you like an alien and a temporary resident. <sup>36</sup> Take no interest from him or profit, but fear your God; that your brother may live among you. <sup>37</sup> You shall not lend him your money at interest, nor give him your food for profit. <sup>38</sup> I am Yahweh your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to give you the land of Canaan, and to be your God.

<sup>39</sup> "If your brother has grown poor among you, and sells himself to you; you shall not make him to serve as a slave. <sup>40</sup> As a hired servant, and as a temporary resident, he shall be with you; he shall serve with you until the Year of Jubilee: <sup>41</sup> then he shall go out from you, he and his children with him, and shall return to his own family, and to the possession of his fathers. <sup>42</sup> For they are my servants, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt. They shall not be sold as slaves. <sup>43</sup> You shall not rule over him with harshness, but shall fear your God.

<sup>44</sup> "As for your male and your female slaves, whom you may have; of the nations that are around you, from them you may buy male and female slaves. <sup>45</sup> Moreover of the children of the aliens who live among you, of them you may buy, and of their families who are with you, which they have conceived in your land; and they will be your property. <sup>46</sup> You may make them an inheritance for your children after you, to hold for a possession; of them may you take your slaves forever; but over your brothers the children of Israel you shall not rule, one over another, with harshness.

<sup>47</sup> "If an alien or temporary resident with you becomes rich, and your brother beside him has grown poor, and sells himself to the stranger or foreigner living among you, or to a member of the stranger's family; <sup>48</sup> after he is sold he may be redeemed. One of his brothers may redeem him; <sup>49</sup> or his uncle, or his uncle's son, may redeem him, or any who is a close relative to him of his family may redeem him; or if he has grown rich, he may redeem himself. <sup>50</sup> He shall reckon with him who bought him from the year that he sold himself to him to the Year of Jubilee. The price of his sale shall be according to the number of years; he shall be with him according to the time of a hired servant. <sup>51</sup> If there are yet many years, according to them he shall give back the price of his redemption out of the money that he was bought for. <sup>52</sup> If there remain but a few years to the year of jubilee, then he shall reckon with him; according to his years of service he shall give back the price of his redemption. <sup>53</sup> As a servant hired year by year shall he be with him. He shall not rule with harshness over him in your sight. <sup>54</sup> If he isn't redeemed by these means, then he shall be released in the Year of Jubilee, he, and his children with him. <sup>55</sup> For to me the children of Israel are servants; they are my servants whom I brought out of the land of Egypt. I am Yahweh your God.

<sup>1</sup> "You shall make for yourselves no idols, and you shall not raise up an engraved image or a pillar, and you shall not place any figured stone in your land, to bow down to it; for I am Yahweh your God.

<sup>3</sup> "If you walk in my statutes, and keep my commandments, and do them; <sup>4</sup> then I will give you your rains in their season, and the land shall yield its increase, and the trees of the field shall yield their fruit. <sup>5</sup> Your threshing shall reach to the vintage, and the vintage shall reach to the sowing time. You shall eat your bread to the full, and dwell in your land safely.

<sup>9</sup> "I will have respect for you, and make you fruitful, and multiply you, and will establish my covenant with you. <sup>10</sup> You shall eat old store long kept, and you shall move out the old because of the new. <sup>11</sup> I will set my tent among you, and my soul won't abhor you. <sup>12</sup> I will walk among you, and will be your God, and you will be my people. <sup>13</sup> I am Yahweh your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, that you should not be their slaves. I have broken the bars of your yoke, and made you go upright.

<sup>14</sup> "But if you will not listen to me, and will not do all these commandments; <sup>15</sup> and if you shall reject my statutes, and if your soul abhors my ordinances, so that you will not do all my commandments, but break my covenant; <sup>16</sup> I also will do this to you: I will appoint terror over you, even consumption and fever, that shall consume the eyes, and make the soul to pine away. You will sow your seed in vain, for your enemies will eat it. <sup>17</sup> I will set my face against you, and you will be struck before your enemies. Those who hate you will rule over you; and you will flee when no one pursues you.

<sup>18</sup> ““If you in spite of these things will not listen to me, then I will chastise you seven times more for your sins. <sup>19</sup> I will break the pride of your power, and I will make your sky like iron, and your soil like brass. <sup>20</sup> Your strength will be spent in vain; for your land won’t yield its increase, neither will the trees of the land yield their fruit.

<sup>21</sup> ““If you walk contrary to me, and won’t listen to me, then I will bring seven times more plagues on you according to your sins. <sup>22</sup> I will send the wild animals among you, which will rob you of your children, destroy your livestock, and make you few in number. Your roads will become desolate.

<sup>23</sup> ““If by these things you won’t be reformed to me, but will walk contrary to me; <sup>24</sup> then I will also walk contrary to you; and I will strike you, even I, seven times for your sins. <sup>25</sup> I will bring a sword upon you that will execute the vengeance of the covenant. You will be gathered together within your cities, and I will send the pestilence among you. You will be delivered into the hand of the enemy. <sup>26</sup> When I break your staff of bread, ten women shall bake your bread in one oven, and they shall deliver your bread again by weight. You shall eat, and not be satisfied.

walk contrary to you in wrath. I will also chastise you seven times for your sins. <sup>29</sup> You will eat the flesh of your sons, and you will eat the flesh of your daughters. <sup>30</sup> I will destroy your high places, and cut down your incense altars, and cast your dead bodies upon the bodies of your idols; and my soul will abhor you. <sup>31</sup> I will lay your cities waste, and will bring your sanctuaries to desolation. I will not take delight in the sweet fragrance of your offerings. <sup>32</sup> I will bring the land into desolation; and your enemies that dwell therein will be astonished at it. <sup>33</sup> I will scatter you among the nations, and I will draw out the sword after you. Your land will be a desolation, and your cities shall be a waste. <sup>34</sup> Then the land will enjoy its Sabbaths as long as it lies desolate and you are in your enemies’ land. Even then the land will rest and enjoy its Sabbaths. <sup>35</sup> As long as it lies desolate it shall have rest, even the rest which it didn’t have in your Sabbaths, when you lived on it.

<sup>40</sup> “If they confess their iniquity, and the iniquity of their fathers, in their trespass which they trespassed against me, and also that, because they walked contrary to me, <sup>41</sup> I also walked contrary to them, and brought them into the land of their enemies; if then their uncircumcised heart is humbled, and they then accept the punishment of their iniquity; <sup>42</sup> then I will remember my covenant with Jacob; and also my covenant with Isaac, and also my covenant with Abraham; and I will remember the land. <sup>43</sup> The land also will be left by them, and will enjoy its Sabbaths while it lies desolate without them: and they will accept the punishment of their iniquity; because, even because they rejected my ordinances, and their soul abhorred my statutes. <sup>44</sup> Yet for all that, when they are in the land of their enemies, I will not reject them, neither will I abhor them, to destroy them utterly, and to break my covenant with them; for I am Yahweh their God; <sup>45</sup> but I will for their sake remember the covenant of their ancestors, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the nations, that I might be their God. I am Yahweh.”

27

shekel<sup>b</sup> of the sanctuary. <sup>4</sup> If she is a female, then your valuation shall be thirty shekels. <sup>5</sup> If the person is from five years old even to twenty years old, then your valuation shall be for a male twenty shekels, and for a female ten shekels. <sup>6</sup> If the person is from a month old even to five years old, then your valuation shall be for a male five shekels of silver, and for a female your valuation shall be three shekels of silver. <sup>7</sup> If the person is from sixty years old and upward; if he is a male, then your valuation shall be fifteen shekels, and for a female ten shekels. <sup>8</sup> But if he is poorer than your valuation, then he shall be set before the priest, and the priest shall assign a value to him. The priest shall assign a value according to his ability to pay.

<sup>9</sup> “If it is an animal, of which men offer an offering to Yahweh, all that any man gives of such to Yahweh becomes holy. <sup>10</sup> He shall not alter it, nor change it, a good for a bad, or a bad for a good: and if he shall at all change animal for animal, then both it and that for which it is changed shall be holy. <sup>11</sup> If it is any unclean animal, of which they do not offer as an offering to Yahweh, then he shall set the animal before the priest; <sup>12</sup> and the priest shall value it, whether it is good or bad. As you the priest values it, so shall it be. <sup>13</sup> But if he will indeed redeem it, then he shall add the fifth part of it to its valuation.

<sup>14</sup> “When a man dedicates his house to be holy to Yahweh, then the priest shall evaluate it, whether it is good or bad: as the priest shall evaluate it, so shall it stand. <sup>15</sup> If he who dedicates it will redeem his house, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of your valuation to it, and it shall be his.

<sup>22</sup> “If he dedicates a field to Yahweh which he has bought, which is not of the field of his possession, <sup>23</sup> then the priest shall reckon to him the worth of your valuation up to the Year of Jubilee; and he shall give your valuation on that day, as a holy thing to Yahweh. <sup>24</sup> In the Year of Jubilee the field shall return to him from whom it was bought, even to him to whom the possession of the land belongs. <sup>25</sup> All your valuations shall be according to the

<sup>26</sup> “Only the firstborn among animals, which is made a firstborn to Yahweh, no man may dedicate it; whether an ox or sheep. It is Yahweh’s. <sup>27</sup> If it is an unclean animal, then he shall buy it back according to your valuation, and shall add to it the fifth part of it; or if it isn’t redeemed, then it shall be sold according to your valuation.

<sup>28</sup> “Notwithstanding, no devoted thing, that a man shall devote to Yahweh of all that he has, whether of man or animal, or of the field of his possession, shall be sold or redeemed: every devoted thing is most holy to Yahweh.

The Fourth Book of Moses,

Numbers

1

Of Ephraim: Elishama the son of Ammihud.

Of Manasseh: Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.

old and upward, all who were able to go out to war; <sup>23</sup> those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Simeon, were fifty-nine thousand three hundred.

<sup>44</sup> These are those who were numbered, whom Moses and Aaron numbered, and the princes of Israel, being twelve men: they were each one for his fathers' house. <sup>45</sup> So all those who were numbered of the children of Israel by their fathers' houses, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go out to war in Israel; <sup>46</sup> even all those who were numbered were six hundred three thousand five hundred fifty. <sup>47</sup> But the Levites after the tribe of their fathers were not numbered among them. <sup>48</sup> For Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>49</sup> "Only the tribe of Levi you shall not number, neither shall you take a census of them among the children of Israel; <sup>50</sup> but appoint the Levites over the Tabernacle of the Testimony, and over all its furnishings, and over all that belongs to it. They shall carry the tabernacle, and all its furnishings; and they shall take care of it, and shall encamp around it. <sup>51</sup> When the tabernacle is to move, the Levites shall take it down; and when the tabernacle is to be set up, the Levites shall set it up. The stranger who comes near shall be put to death. <sup>52</sup> The children of Israel shall pitch their tents, every man by his own camp, and every man by his own standard, according to their divisions. <sup>53</sup> But the Levites shall encamp around the Tabernacle of the Testimony, that there may be no wrath on the congregation of the children of Israel: and the Levites shall be responsible for the Tabernacle of the Testimony."

<sup>3</sup> Those who encamp on the east side toward the sunrise shall be of the standard of the camp of Judah, according to their divisions: and the prince of the children of Judah shall be Nahshon the son of Amminadab. <sup>4</sup> His division, and those who were numbered of them, were seventy-four thousand six hundred.

<sup>9</sup> All who were numbered of the camp of Judah were one hundred eighty-six thousand four hundred, according to their divisions. They shall set out first.

<sup>10</sup> "On the south side shall be the standard of the camp of Reuben according to their divisions. The prince of the children of Reuben shall be Elizur the son of Shedeur. <sup>11</sup> His division, and those who were numbered of it, were forty-six thousand five hundred.

<sup>16</sup> “All who were numbered of the camp of Reuben were one hundred fifty-one thousand four hundred fifty, according to their armies. They shall set out second.

<sup>17</sup> “Then the Tent of Meeting shall set out, with the camp of the Levites in the middle of the camps. As they encamp, so shall they set out, every man in his place, by their standards.

<sup>25</sup> “On the north side shall be the standard of the camp of Dan according to their divisions: and the prince of the children of Dan shall be Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai. <sup>26</sup> His division, and those who were numbered of them, were sixty-two thousand seven hundred.

<sup>34</sup> Thus the children of Israel did. According to all that Yahweh commanded Moses, so they encamped by their standards, and so they set out, everyone by their families, according to their fathers' houses.

On the day that I struck down all the firstborn in the land of Egypt I made holy to me all the firstborn in Israel, both man and animal. They shall be mine. I am Yahweh."

These are the families of the Levites according to their fathers' houses.

<sup>22</sup> Those who were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, even those who were numbered of them were seven thousand five hundred.

the door of the court, which is by the tabernacle, and around the altar, and its cords for all of its service.

<sup>27</sup> Of Kohath was the family of the Amramites, and the family of the Izharites, and the family of the Hebronites, and the family of the Uzzielites: these are the families of the Kohathites. <sup>28</sup> According to the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, there were eight thousand six hundred, keeping the requirements of the sanctuary.

<sup>33</sup> Of Merari was the family of the Mahlites, and the family of the Mushites. These are the families of Merari. <sup>34</sup> Those who were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, were six thousand two hundred.

sockets, their pins, and their cords. <sup>38</sup> Those who encamp before the tabernacle eastward, in front of the Tent of Meeting toward the sunrise, shall be Moses, and Aaron and his sons, keeping the requirements of the sanctuary for the duty of the children of Israel. The stranger who comes near shall be put to death. <sup>39</sup> All who were numbered of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron numbered at the commandment of Yahweh, by their families, all the males from a month old and upward, were twenty-two thousand.

them (the shekel is twenty gerahs<sup>d</sup>): <sup>48</sup> and you shall give the money, with which their remainder is redeemed, to Aaron and to his sons.”

<sup>7</sup> “On the table of show bread they shall spread a blue cloth, and put on it the dishes, the spoons, the bowls, and the cups with which to pour out; and the continual bread shall be on it. <sup>8</sup> They shall spread on them a scarlet cloth, and cover the same with a covering of sealskin, and shall put in its poles.

<sup>15</sup> “When Aaron and his sons have finished covering the sanctuary, and all the furniture of the sanctuary, as the camp moves forward; after that, the sons of Kohath shall come to carry it: but they shall not touch the sanctuary, lest they die. These things are the burden of the sons of Kohath in the Tent of Meeting.

<sup>16</sup> “The duty of Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest shall be the oil for the light, the sweet incense, the continual meal offering, and the anointing oil, the requirements of all the tabernacle, and of all that is in it, the sanctuary, and its furnishings.”

<sup>d</sup> a gerah is about 0.5 grams or about 7.7 grains    <sup>e</sup> a shekel is about 10 grams or about 0.35 ounces, so 1365 shekels is about 13.65 kilograms or about 30 pounds

<sup>17</sup> Yahweh spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, <sup>18</sup> “Don’t cut off the tribe of the families of the Kohathites from among the Levites; <sup>19</sup> but thus do to them, that they may live, and not die, when they approach to the most holy things: Aaron and his sons shall go in, and appoint them everyone to his service and to his burden; <sup>20</sup> but they shall not go in to see the sanctuary even for a moment, lest they die.”

<sup>38</sup> Those who were numbered of the sons of Gershon, their families, and by their fathers’ houses, <sup>39</sup> from thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, everyone who entered into the service, for work in the Tent of Meeting, <sup>40</sup> even those who were numbered of them, by their families, by their fathers' houses, were two thousand six hundred thirty. <sup>41</sup> These are those who were numbered of the families of the sons of Gershon, all who served in the Tent of Meeting, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the commandment of Yahweh. <sup>42</sup> Those who were numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, by their families, by their fathers' houses, <sup>43</sup> from thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, everyone who entered into the service, for work in the Tent of Meeting, <sup>44</sup> even those who were numbered of them by their families, were three thousand two hundred. <sup>45</sup> These are those who were numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the commandment of Yahweh by Moses. <sup>46</sup> All those who were numbered of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron and the princes of Israel numbered, by their families, and by their fathers' houses, <sup>47</sup> from thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, everyone who entered in to do the work of service, and the work of bearing burdens in the Tent of Meeting, <sup>48</sup> even those who were numbered of them, were eight thousand five hundred eighty. <sup>49</sup> According to the commandment of Yahweh they were numbered by Moses, everyone according to his service, and according to his burden. Thus were they numbered by him, as Yahweh commanded Moses.

male and female outside of the camp; that they not defile their camp, in the middle of which I dwell."

<sup>4</sup> The children of Israel did so, and put them outside of the camp; as Yahweh spoke to Moses, so did the children of Israel.

<sup>5</sup> Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>6</sup> "Speak to the children of Israel: 'When a man or woman commits any sin that men commit, so as to trespass against Yahweh, and that soul is guilty; <sup>7</sup> then he shall confess his sin which he has done, and he shall make restitution for his guilt in full, and add to it the fifth part of it, and give it to him in respect of whom he has been guilty. <sup>8</sup> But if the man has no kinsman to whom restitution may be made for the guilt, the restitution for guilt which is made to Yahweh shall be the priest's; besides the ram of the atonement, by which atonement shall be made for him. <sup>9</sup> Every heave offering of all the holy things of the children of Israel, which they present to the priest, shall be his. <sup>10</sup> Every man's holy things shall be his: whatever any man gives the priest, it shall be his.'"

one tenth of an ephah<sup>f</sup> of barley meal. He shall pour no oil on it, nor put frankincense on it, for it is a meal offering of jealousy, a meal offering of memorial, bringing iniquity to memory. <sup>16</sup> The priest shall bring her near, and set her before Yahweh; <sup>17</sup> and the priest shall take holy water in an earthen vessel; and of the dust that is on the floor of the tabernacle the priest shall take, and put it into the water. <sup>18</sup> The priest shall set the woman before Yahweh, and let the hair of the woman's head go loose, and put the meal offering of memorial in her hands, which is the meal offering of jealousy. The priest shall have in his hand the water of bitterness that brings a curse. <sup>19</sup> The priest shall cause her to swear, and shall tell the woman, "If no man has lain with you, and if you haven't gone aside to uncleanness, being under your husband, be free from this water of bitterness that brings a curse. <sup>20</sup> But if you have gone astray, being under your husband, and if you are defiled, and some man has lain with you besides your husband:" <sup>21</sup> then the priest shall cause the woman to swear with the oath of cursing, and the priest shall tell the woman, "Yahweh make you a curse and an oath among your people, when Yahweh allows your thigh to fall away, and your body to swell; <sup>22</sup> and this water that brings a curse will go into your bowels, and make your body swell, and your thigh fall away." The woman shall say, "Amen, Amen."

bitter. <sup>25</sup> The priest shall take the meal offering of jealousy out of the woman's hand, and shall wave the meal offering before Yahweh, and bring it to the altar. <sup>26</sup> The priest shall take a handful of the meal offering, as its memorial, and burn it on the altar, and afterward shall make the woman drink the water. <sup>27</sup> When he has made her drink the water, then it shall happen, if she is defiled, and has committed a trespass against her husband, that the water that causes the curse will enter into her and become bitter, and her body will swell, and her thigh will fall away: and the woman will be a curse among her people. <sup>28</sup> If the woman isn't defiled, but is clean; then she shall be free, and shall conceive offspring.<sup>g</sup>

<sup>f</sup> 1 ephah is about 22 liters or about 2/3 of a bushel <sup>g</sup> or, seed of the grapevine, from the seeds even to the skins.

<sup>9</sup> “If any man dies very suddenly beside him, and he defiles the head of his separation; then he shall shave his head in the day of his cleansing. On the seventh day he shall shave it. <sup>10</sup> On the eighth day he shall bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons to the priest, to the door of the Tent of Meeting. <sup>11</sup> The priest shall offer one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering, and make atonement for him, because he sinned by reason of the dead, and shall make his head holy that same day. <sup>12</sup> He shall separate to Yahweh the days of his separation, and shall bring a male lamb a year old for a trespass offering; but the former days shall be void, because his separation was defiled.

ewe lamb a year old without defect for a sin offering, and one ram without defect for peace offerings, <sup>15</sup> and a basket of unleavened bread, cakes of fine flour mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil, and their meal offering, and their drink offerings. <sup>16</sup> The priest shall present them before Yahweh, and shall offer his sin offering, and his burnt offering. <sup>17</sup> He shall offer the ram for a sacrifice of peace offerings to Yahweh, with the basket of unleavened bread. The priest shall offer also its meal offering, and its drink offering. <sup>18</sup> The Nazirite shall shave the head of his separation at the door of the Tent of Meeting, and shall take the hair of the head of his separation, and put it on the fire which is under the sacrifice of peace offerings. <sup>19</sup> The priest shall take the boiled shoulder of the ram, and one unleavened cake out of the basket, and one unleavened wafer, and shall put them on the hands of the Nazirite, after he has shaved the head of his separation; <sup>20</sup> and the priest shall wave them for a wave offering before Yahweh. This is holy for the priest, together with the breast that is waved and the thigh that is offered. After that the Nazirite may drink wine.

<sup>21</sup> “This is the law of the Nazirite who vows, and of his offering to Yahweh for his separation, besides that which he is able to get. According to his vow which he vows, so he must do after the law of his separation.”

on you, and be gracious to you.

<sup>26</sup> Yahweh lift up his face toward you, and give you peace.’

<sup>27</sup> “So they shall put my name on the children of Israel; and I will bless them.”

7

<sup>6</sup> Moses took the wagons and the oxen, and gave them to the Levites. <sup>7</sup> He gave two wagons and four oxen to the sons of Gershon, according to their service: <sup>8</sup> and he gave four wagons and eight oxen to the sons of Merari, according to their service, under the direction of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest. <sup>9</sup> But to the sons of Kohath he gave none, because the service of the sanctuary belonged to them; they carried it on their shoulders.

one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred thirty shekels,<sup>i</sup>

one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering;

one ram,

one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred thirty shekels,

one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering;

one ram,
one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

one silver platter, the weight of which was a hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering;

<sup>27</sup> one young bull,

one ram,

one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

<sup>29</sup> and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two head of cattle, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Eliab the son of Helon.

one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred thirty shekels,

one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering;

<sup>33</sup> one young bull,

one ram,

one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred thirty shekels,

one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering;

<sup>39</sup> one young bull,

one ram,

one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred thirty shekels,

one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering;

one ram,
one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred thirty shekels,

one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering;

one ram,
one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering;

<sup>57</sup> one young bull,
one ram,

one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred thirty shekels,

one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering;

<sup>63</sup> one young bull,
one ram,

one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred thirty shekels,

one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering;

<sup>69</sup> one young bull,

one ram,

one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred thirty shekels,

one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering;

<sup>75</sup> one young bull,

one ram,

one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred thirty shekels,

one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering;

one ram,

one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

<sup>84</sup> This was the dedication of the altar, on the day when it was anointed, by the princes of Israel: twelve silver platters, twelve silver bowls, twelve golden ladles; <sup>85</sup> each silver platter weighing one hundred thirty shekels, and each bowl seventy; all the silver of the vessels two thousand four hundred shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; <sup>86</sup> the twelve golden ladles, full of incense, weighing ten shekels apiece, after the shekel of the sanctuary; all the gold of the ladles weighed one hundred twenty shekels; <sup>87</sup> all the cattle for the burnt offering twelve bulls, the rams twelve, the male lambs a year old twelve, and their meal offering; and the male goats for a sin offering twelve; <sup>88</sup> and all the cattle for the sacrifice of peace offerings twenty-four bulls, the rams sixty, the male goats sixty, the male lambs a year old sixty.

This was the dedication of the altar, after it was anointed.

<sup>89</sup> When Moses went into the Tent of Meeting to speak with Yahweh, he heard his voice speaking to him from above the mercy seat that was on the ark of the Testimony, from between the two cherubim: and he spoke to him.

8

<sup>3</sup> Aaron did so. He lit its lamps to light the area in front of the lamp stand, as Yahweh commanded Moses. <sup>4</sup> This was the workmanship of the lamp stand, beaten work of gold. From its base to its flowers, it was beaten work: according to the pattern which Yahweh had shown Moses, so he made the lamp stand.

it may be theirs to do the service of Yahweh.

<sup>15</sup> “After that, the Levites shall go in to do the service of the Tent of Meeting: and you shall cleanse them, and offer them as a wave offering. <sup>16</sup> For they are wholly given to me from among the children of Israel; instead of all who open the womb, even the firstborn of all the children of Israel, I have taken them to me. <sup>17</sup> For all the firstborn among the children of Israel are mine, both man and animal. On the day that I struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, I sanctified them for myself. <sup>18</sup> I have taken the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel. <sup>19</sup> I have given the Levites as a gift to Aaron and to his sons from among the children of Israel, to do the service of the children of Israel in the Tent of Meeting, and to make atonement for the children of Israel; that there be no plague among the children of Israel, when the children of Israel come near to the sanctuary.”

<sup>20</sup> Moses, and Aaron, and all the congregation of the children of Israel did so to the Levites. According to all that Yahweh commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so the children of Israel did to them. <sup>21</sup> The Levites purified themselves from sin, and they washed their clothes; and Aaron offered them for a wave offering before Yahweh; and Aaron made atonement for them to cleanse them. <sup>22</sup> After that, the Levites went in to do their service in the Tent of Meeting before Aaron, and before his sons: as Yahweh had commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so they did to them.

<sup>4</sup> Moses spoke to the children of Israel, that they should keep the Passover. <sup>5</sup> They kept the Passover in the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, at evening, in the wilderness of Sinai. According to all that Yahweh commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did. <sup>6</sup> There were certain men, who were unclean because of the dead body of a man, so that they could not keep the Passover on that day, and they came before Moses and before Aaron on that day. <sup>7</sup> Those men said to him, “We are unclean because of the dead body of a man. Why are we kept back, that we may not offer the offering of Yahweh in its appointed season among the children of Israel?”

<sup>9</sup> Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>10</sup> “Say to the children of Israel, ‘If any man of you or of your generations is unclean by reason of a dead body, or is on a journey far away, he shall still keep the Passover to Yahweh. <sup>11</sup> In the second month, on the fourteenth day at evening they shall keep it; they shall eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs. <sup>12</sup> They shall leave none of it until the morning, nor break a bone of it. According to all the statute of the Passover they shall keep it. <sup>13</sup> But the man who is clean, and is not on a journey, and fails to keep the Passover, that soul shall be cut off from his people. Because he didn’t offer the offering of Yahweh in its appointed season, that man shall bear his sin.

<sup>14</sup> “‘If a foreigner lives among you, and desires to keep the Passover to Yahweh; according to the statute of the Passover, and according to its ordinance, so shall he do. You shall have one statute, both for the foreigner, and for him who is born in the land.’”

<sup>15</sup> On the day that the tabernacle was raised up, the cloud covered the tabernacle, even the Tent of the Testimony: and at evening it was over the tabernacle as it were the appearance of fire, until morning.

it, and the appearance of fire by night. <sup>17</sup> Whenever the cloud was taken up from over the Tent, then after that the children of Israel traveled; and in the place where the cloud remained, there the children of Israel encamped. <sup>18</sup> At the commandment of Yahweh, the children of Israel traveled, and at the commandment of Yahweh they encamped. As long as the cloud remained on the tabernacle they remained encamped. <sup>19</sup> When the cloud stayed on the tabernacle many days, then the children of Israel kept Yahweh's command, and didn't travel. <sup>20</sup> Sometimes the cloud was a few days on the tabernacle; then according to the commandment of Yahweh they remained encamped, and according to the commandment of Yahweh they traveled. <sup>21</sup> Sometimes the cloud was from evening until morning; and when the cloud was taken up in the morning, they traveled: or by day and by night, when the cloud was taken up, they traveled. <sup>22</sup> Whether it was two days, or a month, or a year that the cloud stayed on the tabernacle, remaining on it, the children of Israel remained encamped, and didn't travel; but when it was taken up, they traveled. <sup>23</sup> At the commandment of Yahweh they encamped, and at the commandment of Yahweh they traveled. They kept Yahweh's command, at the commandment of Yahweh by Moses.

of the Tent of Meeting. <sup>4</sup> If they blow just one, then the princes, the heads of the thousands of Israel, shall gather themselves to you. <sup>5</sup> When you blow an alarm, the camps that lie on the east side shall go forward. <sup>6</sup> When you blow an alarm the second time, the camps that lie on the south side shall go forward. They shall blow an alarm for their journeys. <sup>7</sup> But when the assembly is to be gathered together, you shall blow, but you shall not sound an alarm.

<sup>8</sup> "The sons of Aaron, the priests, shall blow the trumpets. This shall be to you for a statute forever throughout your generations. <sup>9</sup> When you go to war in your land against the adversary who oppresses you, then you shall sound an alarm with the trumpets. Then you will be remembered before Yahweh your God, and you will be saved from your enemies.

<sup>10</sup> "Also in the day of your gladness, and in your set feasts, and in the beginnings of your months, you shall blow the trumpets over your burnt offerings, and over the sacrifices of your peace offerings; and they shall be to you for a memorial before your God. I am Yahweh your God."

Amminadab was over his army. <sup>15</sup> Nethanel the son of Zuar was over the army of the tribe of the children of Issachar. <sup>16</sup> Eliab the son of Helon was over the army of the tribe of the children of Zebulun. <sup>17</sup> The tabernacle was taken down; and the sons of Gershon and the sons of Merari, who bore the tabernacle, went forward. <sup>18</sup> The standard of the camp of Reuben went forward according to their armies. Elizur the son of Shedeur was over his army. <sup>19</sup> Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai was over the army of the tribe of the children of Simeon. <sup>20</sup> Eliasaph the son of Deuel was over the army of the tribe of the children of Gad.

according to their armies; and they went forward.

<sup>29</sup> Moses said to Hobab, the son of Reuel the Midianite, Moses' father-in-law, "We are journeying to the place of which Yahweh said, 'I will give it to you.' Come with us, and we will treat you well; for Yahweh has spoken good concerning Israel."

<sup>30</sup> He said to him, "I will not go; but I will depart to my own land, and to my relatives."

<sup>31</sup> He said, "Don't leave us, please; because you know how we are to encamp in the wilderness, and you can be our eyes. <sup>32</sup> It shall be, if you go with us, yes, it shall be, that whatever good Yahweh does to us, we will do the same to you."

that place was called Taberah,<sup>j</sup> because Yahweh's fire burned among them.

<sup>4</sup> The mixed multitude that was among them lusted exceedingly: and the children of Israel also wept again, and said, "Who will give us flesh to eat?" <sup>5</sup> We remember the fish, which we ate in Egypt for nothing; the cucumbers, and the melons, and the leeks, and the onions, and the garlic; <sup>6</sup> but now we have lost our appetite. There is nothing at all except this manna to look at."

<sup>11</sup> Moses said to Yahweh, "Why have you treated with your servant so badly? Why haven't I found favor in your sight, that you lay the burden of all this people on me?" <sup>12</sup> Have I conceived all this people? Have I brought them out, that you should tell me, 'Carry them in your bosom, as a nurse carries a nursing infant, to the land which you swore to their fathers?' <sup>13</sup> Where could I get meat to give to all this people? For they weep to me, saying, 'Give us meat, that we may eat.' <sup>14</sup> I am not able to bear all this people alone, because it is too heavy for me. <sup>15</sup> If you treat me this way, please kill me right now, if I have found favor in your sight; and don't let me see my wretchedness."

<sup>16</sup> Yahweh said to Moses, "Gather to me seventy men of the elders of Israel, whom you know to be the elders of the people, and officers over them; and bring them to the Tent of Meeting, that they may stand there with you. <sup>17</sup> I will come down and talk with you there. I will take of the Spirit which is on you, and will put it on them; and they shall bear the burden of the people with you, that you not bear it yourself alone.

<sup>18</sup> "Say to the people, 'Sanctify yourselves against tomorrow, and you will eat flesh; for you have wept in the ears of Yahweh, saying, "Who will give us flesh to eat? For it was well with us in Egypt." Therefore Yahweh will give you flesh, and you will eat. <sup>19</sup> You will not eat one day, nor two days, nor five days, neither ten days, nor twenty days, <sup>20</sup> but a whole month, until it come out at your nostrils, and it is loathsome to you; because that you have rejected Yahweh who is among you, and have wept before him, saying, "Why did we come out of Egypt?"'"

<sup>21</sup> Moses said, "The people, among whom I am, are six hundred thousand men on foot; and you have said, 'I will give them flesh, that they may eat a whole month.' <sup>22</sup> Shall flocks and herds be slaughtered for them, to be sufficient for them? Shall all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them, to be sufficient for them?"

<sup>23</sup> Yahweh said to Moses, "Has Yahweh's hand grown short? Now you will see whether my word will happen to you or not."

men of the elders of the people, and set them around the Tent. <sup>25</sup> Yahweh came down in the cloud, and spoke to him, and took of the Spirit that was on him, and put it on the seventy elders. When the Spirit rested on them, they prophesied, but they did so no more. <sup>26</sup> But two men remained in the camp. The name of one was Eldad, and the name of the other Medad: and the Spirit rested on them; and they were of those who were written, but had not gone out to the Tent; and they prophesied in the camp. <sup>27</sup> A young man ran, and told Moses, and said, "Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp!"

<sup>29</sup> Moses said to him, "Are you jealous for my sake? I wish that all Yahweh's people were prophets, that Yahweh would put his Spirit on them!"

<sup>30</sup> Moses went into the camp, he and the elders of Israel. <sup>31</sup> A wind from Yahweh went out and brought quails from the sea, and let them fall by the camp, about a day's journey on this side, and a day's journey on the other side, around the camp, and about two cubits<sup>k</sup> above the surface of the earth.

called Kibroth Hattaavah,<sup>m</sup> because there they buried the people who lusted.

12

The three of them came out. <sup>5</sup> Yahweh came down in a pillar of cloud, and stood at the door of the Tent, and called Aaron and Miriam; and they both came forward. <sup>6</sup> He said, "Now hear my words. If there is a prophet among you, I, Yahweh, will make myself known to him in a vision. I will speak with him in a dream. <sup>7</sup> My servant Moses is not so. He is faithful in all my house. <sup>8</sup> With him, I will speak mouth to mouth, even plainly, and not in riddles; and he shall see Yahweh's form. Why then were you not afraid to speak against my servant, against Moses?" <sup>9</sup> Yahweh's anger burned against them; and he departed.

<sup>11</sup> Aaron said to Moses, “Oh, my lord, please don’t count this sin against us, in which we have done foolishly, and in which we have sinned. <sup>12</sup> Let her not, I pray, be as one dead, of whom the flesh is half consumed when he comes out of his mother’s womb.”

<sup>14</sup> Yahweh said to Moses, “If her father had but spit in her face, shouldn’t she be ashamed seven days? Let her be shut up outside of the camp seven days, and after that she shall be brought in again.”

Of the tribe of Reuben, Shammua the son of Zaccur.

Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, and said to them, “Go up this way by the South, and go up into the hill country. <sup>18</sup> See the land, what it is; and the people who dwell therein, whether they are strong or weak, whether they are few or many; <sup>19</sup> and what the land is that they dwell in, whether it is good or bad; and what cities they are that they dwell in, whether in camps, or in strongholds; <sup>20</sup> and what the land is, whether it is fat or lean, whether there is wood therein, or not. Be courageous, and bring some of the fruit of the land.” Now the time was the time of the first-ripe grapes.

Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmai, the children of Anak, were there. (Now Hebron was built seven years before Zoan in Egypt.)<sup>23</sup> They came to the valley of Eshcol, and cut down from there a branch with one cluster of grapes, and they bore it on a staff between two. They also brought some of the pomegranates and figs.<sup>24</sup> That place was called the valley of Eshcol, because of the cluster which the children of Israel cut down from there.<sup>25</sup> They returned from spying out the land at the end of forty days.<sup>26</sup> They went and came to Moses, to Aaron, and to all the congregation of the children of Israel, to the wilderness of Paran, to Kadesh; and brought back word to them and to all the congregation. They showed them the fruit of the land.<sup>27</sup> They told him, and said, "We came to the land where you sent us. Surely it flows with milk and honey, and this is its fruit.<sup>28</sup> However the people who dwell in the land are strong, and the cities are fortified and very large. Moreover, we saw the children of Anak there.<sup>29</sup> Amalek dwells in the land of the South. The Hittite, the Jebusite, and the Amorite dwell in the hill country. The Canaanite dwells by the sea, and along the side of the Jordan."

<sup>30</sup> Caleb stilled the people before Moses, and said, "Let us go up at once, and possess it; for we are well able to overcome it!"

<sup>31</sup> But the men who went up with him said, "We aren't able to go up against the people; for they are stronger than we."<sup>32</sup> They brought up an evil report of the land which they had spied out to the children of Israel, saying, "The land, through which we have gone to spy it out, is a land that eats up its inhabitants; and all the people who we saw in it are men of great stature.<sup>33</sup> There we saw the Nephilim,<sup>n</sup> the sons of Anak, who come from the Nephilim.<sup>o</sup> We were in our own sight as grasshoppers, and so we were in their sight."

Yahweh's glory appeared in the Tent of Meeting to all the children of Israel. <sup>11</sup> Yahweh said to Moses, "How long will this people despise me? and how long will they not believe in me, for all the signs which I have worked among them? <sup>12</sup> I will strike them with the pestilence, and disinherit them, and will make of you a nation greater and mightier than they."

<sup>13</sup> Moses said to Yahweh, "Then the Egyptians will hear it; for you brought up this people in your might from among them. <sup>14</sup> They will tell it to the inhabitants of this land. They have heard that you Yahweh are in the middle of this people; for you Yahweh are seen face to face, and your cloud stands over them, and you go before them, in a pillar of cloud by day, and in a pillar of fire by night. <sup>15</sup> Now if you killed this people as one man, then the nations which have heard the fame of you will speak, saying, <sup>16</sup> 'Because Yahweh was not able to bring this people into the land which he swore to them, therefore he has slain them in the wilderness.' <sup>17</sup> Now please let the power of the Lord<sup>p</sup> be great, according as you have spoken, saying, <sup>18</sup> 'Yahweh is slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness, forgiving iniquity and disobedience; and that will by no means clear the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children, on the third and on the fourth generation.' <sup>19</sup> Please pardon the iniquity of this people according to the greatness of your loving kindness, and according as you have forgiven this people, from Egypt even until now."

<sup>20</sup> Yahweh said, "I have pardoned according to your word: <sup>21</sup> but in very deed, as I live, and as all the earth shall be filled with Yahweh's glory; <sup>22</sup> because all those men who have seen my glory, and my signs, which I worked in Egypt and in the wilderness, yet have tempted me these ten times, and have not listened to my voice; <sup>23</sup> surely they shall not see the land which I swore to their fathers, neither shall any of those who despised me see it. <sup>24</sup> But my servant Caleb, because he had another spirit with him, and has followed me fully, him I will bring into the land into which he went. His offspring<sup>q</sup> shall possess it. <sup>25</sup> Since the Amalekite and the Canaanite dwell in the valley, tomorrow turn, and go into the wilderness by the way to the Red Sea." <sup>26</sup> Yahweh spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, <sup>27</sup> "How long shall I bear with this evil congregation, that murmur against me? I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel, which they murmur against me. <sup>28</sup> Tell them, 'As I live, says Yahweh, surely as you have spoken in my ears, so will I do to you. <sup>29</sup> Your dead bodies shall fall in this wilderness; and all who were numbered of you, according to your whole number, from twenty years old and upward, who have murmured against me, <sup>30</sup> surely you shall not come into the land, concerning which I swore that I would make you dwell therein, except Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun. <sup>31</sup> But your little ones, that you said should be captured or killed, them I will bring in, and they shall know the land which you have rejected. <sup>32</sup> But as for you, your dead bodies shall fall in this wilderness. <sup>33</sup> Your children shall be wanderers in the wilderness forty years, and shall bear your prostitution, until your dead bodies are consumed in the wilderness.<sup>34</sup> After the number of the days in which you spied out the land, even forty days, for every day a year, you will bear your iniquities, even forty years, and you will know my alienation.’<sup>35</sup> I, Yahweh, have spoken. I will surely do this to all this evil congregation, who are gathered together against me. In this wilderness they shall be consumed, and there they shall die.”

<sup>39</sup> Moses told these words to all the children of Israel, and the people mourned greatly.<sup>40</sup> They rose up early in the morning, and went up to the top of the mountain, saying, “Behold, we are here, and will go up to the place which Yahweh has promised: for we have sinned.”

<sup>44</sup> But they presumed to go up to the top of the mountain. Nevertheless, the ark of Yahweh’s covenant and Moses didn’t depart out of the camp.<sup>45</sup> Then the Amalekites came down, and the Canaanites who lived in that mountain, and struck them and beat them down, even to Hormah.

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,<sup>2</sup> “Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them, ‘When you have come into the land of your habitations, which I give to you,<sup>3</sup> and will make an offering by fire to Yahweh, a burnt offering, or a sacrifice, to accomplish a vow, or as a freewill offering, or in your set feasts, to make a pleasant aroma to Yahweh, of the herd, or of the flock;<sup>4</sup> then he who offers his offering shall offer to Yahweh a meal offering of one tenth of an ephah<sup>r</sup> of fine flour mixed with the fourth part of a hin of oil.<sup>5</sup> You shall prepare wine for the drink offering, the fourth part of a hin, with the burnt offering, or for the sacrifice, for each lamb.

to Yahweh. <sup>11</sup> Thus shall it be done for each bull, or for each ram, or for each of the male lambs, or of the young goats. <sup>12</sup> According to the number that you shall prepare, so you shall do to everyone according to their number.

<sup>13</sup> “All who are native-born shall do these things in this way, in offering an offering made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to Yahweh. <sup>14</sup> If a stranger lives as a foreigner with you, or whoever may be among you throughout your generations, and will offer an offering made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to Yahweh; as you do, so he shall do. <sup>15</sup> For the assembly, there shall be one statute for you and for the stranger who lives as a foreigner, a statute forever throughout your generations. As you are, so shall the foreigner be before Yahweh. <sup>16</sup> One law and one ordinance shall be for you, and for the stranger who lives as a foreigner with you.”

then it shall be, if it was done unwittingly, without the knowledge of the congregation, that all the congregation shall offer one young bull for a burnt offering, for a pleasant aroma to Yahweh, with its meal offering, and its drink offering, according to the ordinance, and one male goat for a sin offering. <sup>25</sup> The priest shall make atonement for all the congregation of the children of Israel, and they shall be forgiven; for it was an error, and they have brought their offering, an offering made by fire to Yahweh, and their sin offering before Yahweh, for their error. <sup>26</sup> All the congregation of the children of Israel shall be forgiven, as well as the stranger who lives as a foreigner among them; for with regard to all the people, it was done unwittingly.

found him gathering sticks brought him to Moses and Aaron, and to all the congregation. <sup>34</sup> They put him in custody, because it had not been declared what should be done to him.

16

Moses and against Aaron, and said to them, “You take too much on yourself, since all the congregation are holy, everyone of them, and Yahweh is among them! Why do you lift yourselves up above Yahweh’s assembly?”

<sup>4</sup> When Moses heard it, he fell on his face. <sup>5</sup> He said to Korah and to all his company, “In the morning, Yahweh will show who are his, and who is holy, and will cause him to come near to him. Even him whom he shall choose, he will cause to come near to him. <sup>6</sup> Do this: take censers, Korah, and all his company; <sup>7</sup> and put fire in them, and put incense on them before Yahweh tomorrow. It shall be that the man whom Yahweh chooses, he shall be holy. You have gone too far, you sons of Levi!”

<sup>8</sup> Moses said to Korah, “Hear now, you sons of Levi! <sup>9</sup> Is it a small thing to you, that the God of Israel has separated you from the congregation of Israel, to bring you near to himself, to do the service of Yahweh’s tabernacle, and to stand before the congregation to minister to them; <sup>10</sup> and that he has brought you near, and all your brothers the sons of Levi with you? Do you seek the priesthood also? <sup>11</sup> Therefore you and all your company have gathered together against Yahweh! What is Aaron that you murmur against him?”

<sup>12</sup> Moses sent to call Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab; and they said, “We won’t come up! <sup>13</sup> Is it a small thing that you have brought us up out of a land flowing with milk and honey, to kill us in the wilderness, but you must also make yourself a prince over us? <sup>14</sup> Moreover you haven’t brought us into a land flowing with milk and honey, nor given us inheritance of fields and vineyards. Will you put out the eyes of these men? We won't come up."

Yahweh's glory appeared to all the congregation. <sup>20</sup> Yahweh spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, <sup>21</sup> "Separate yourselves from among this congregation, that I may consume them in a moment!"

<sup>22</sup> They fell on their faces, and said, "God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, shall one man sin, and will you be angry with all the congregation?"

<sup>25</sup> Moses rose up and went to Dathan and Abiram; and the elders of Israel followed him. <sup>26</sup> He spoke to the congregation, saying, "Depart, please, from the tents of these wicked men, and touch nothing of theirs, lest you be consumed in all their sins!"

<sup>28</sup> Moses said, "Hereby you shall know that Yahweh has sent me to do all these works; for they are not from my own mind. <sup>29</sup> If these men die the common death of all men, or if they experience what all men experience, then Yahweh hasn't sent me. <sup>30</sup> But if Yahweh makes a new thing, and the ground opens its mouth, and swallows them up, with all that belong to them, and they go down alive into Sheol<sup>x</sup>; then you shall understand that these men have despised Yahweh."

<sup>46</sup> Moses said to Aaron, "Take your censer, and put fire from off the altar in it, and lay incense on it, and carry it quickly to the congregation, and make atonement for them; for wrath has gone out from Yahweh! The plague has begun."

<sup>47</sup> Aaron did as Moses said, and ran into the middle of the assembly. Behold, the plague has begun among the people. He put on the incense, and made atonement for the people. <sup>48</sup> He stood between the dead and the living; and the plague was stayed. <sup>49</sup> Now those who died by the plague were fourteen thousand and seven hundred, besides those who died about the matter of Korah. <sup>50</sup> Aaron returned to Moses to the door of the Tent of Meeting, and the plague was stopped.

<sup>8</sup> On the next day, Moses went into the Tent of the Testimony; and behold, Aaron's rod for the house of Levi had sprouted, budded, produced blossoms, and bore ripe almonds. <sup>9</sup> Moses brought out all the rods from before Yahweh to all the children of Israel. They looked, and each man took his rod.

<sup>10</sup> Yahweh said to Moses, "Put back the rod of Aaron before the testimony, to be kept for a token against the children of rebellion; that you may make an end of their murmurings against me, that they not die.” <sup>11</sup> Moses did so. As Yahweh commanded him, so he did.

<sup>12</sup> The children of Israel spoke to Moses, saying, “Behold, we perish! We are undone! We are all undone! <sup>13</sup> Everyone who keeps approaching Yahweh’s tabernacle, dies! Will we all perish?”

18

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh said to Aaron, “You and your sons and your fathers’ house with you shall bear the iniquity of the sanctuary; and you and your sons with you shall bear the iniquity of your priesthood. <sup>2</sup> Bring your brothers also, the tribe of Levi, the tribe of your father, near with you, that they may be joined to you, and minister to you; but you and your sons with you shall be before the Tent of the Testimony. <sup>3</sup> They shall keep your commands, and the duty of the whole Tent; only they shall not come near to the vessels of the sanctuary and to the altar, that they not die, neither they, nor you. <sup>4</sup> They shall be joined to you, and keep the responsibility of the Tent of Meeting, for all the service of the Tent. A stranger shall not come near to you.

<sup>5</sup> “You shall perform the duty of the sanctuary and the duty of the altar, that there be no more wrath on the children of Israel. <sup>6</sup> Behold, I myself have taken your brothers the Levites from among the children of Israel. They are a gift to you, dedicated to Yahweh, to do the service of the Tent of Meeting. <sup>7</sup> You and your sons with you shall keep your priesthood for everything of the altar, and for that within the veil. You shall serve. I give you the service of the priesthood as a gift. The stranger who comes near shall be put to death.”

<sup>8</sup> Yahweh spoke to Aaron, “Behold, I myself have given you the command of my wave offerings, even all the holy things of the children of Israel. I have given them to you by reason of the anointing, and to your sons, as a portion forever. <sup>9</sup> This shall be yours of the most holy things from the fire: every offering of theirs, even every meal offering of theirs, and every sin offering of theirs, and every trespass offering of theirs, which they shall render to me, shall be most holy for you and for your sons. <sup>10</sup> You shall eat of it like the most holy things. Every male shall eat of it. It shall be holy to you.

<sup>11</sup> “This is yours, too: the wave offering of their gift, even all the wave offerings of the children of Israel. I have given them to you, and to your sons and to your daughters with you, as a portion forever. Everyone who is clean in your house shall eat of it.

<sup>12</sup> “I have given to you all the best of the oil, and all the best of the vintage, and of the grain, the first fruits of them which they give to Yahweh. <sup>13</sup> The first-ripe fruits of all that is in their land, which they bring to Yahweh, shall be yours. Everyone who is clean in your house shall eat of it.

<sup>14</sup> “Everything devoted in Israel shall be yours. <sup>15</sup> Everything that opens the womb, of all flesh which they offer to Yahweh, both of man and animal shall be yours. Nevertheless, you shall surely redeem the firstborn of man, and you shall redeem the firstborn of unclean animals. <sup>16</sup> You shall redeem those who are to be redeemed of them from a month old, according to your estimation, for five shekels of money, after the shekel<sup>a</sup> of the sanctuary, which weighs twenty gerahs.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>30</sup> “Therefore you shall tell them, ‘When you heave its best from it, then it shall be credited to the Levites as the increase of the threshing floor, and as the increase of the wine press. <sup>31</sup> You may eat it anywhere, you and your households, for it is your reward in return for your service in the Tent of Meeting. <sup>32</sup> You shall bear no sin by reason of it, when you have heaved from it its best. You shall not profane the holy things of the children of Israel, that you not die.’”

<sup>11</sup> “He who touches the dead body of any man shall be unclean seven days. <sup>12</sup> He shall purify himself with water on the third day, and on the seventh day he shall be clean; but if he doesn’t purify himself the third day, then the seventh day he shall not be clean. <sup>13</sup> Whoever touches a dead person, the body of a man who has died, and doesn’t purify himself, defiles Yahweh’s tabernacle; and that soul shall be cut off from Israel; because the water for impurity was not sprinkled on him, he shall be unclean. His uncleanness is yet on him.

<sup>14</sup> “This is the law when a man dies in a tent: everyone who comes into the tent, and everyone who is in the tent, shall be unclean seven days. <sup>15</sup> Every open vessel, which has no covering bound on it, is unclean.

<sup>18</sup> A clean person shall take hyssop, dip it in the water, and sprinkle it on the tent, on all the vessels, on the persons who were there, and on him who touched the bone, or the slain, or the dead, or the grave. <sup>19</sup> The clean person shall sprinkle on the unclean on the third day, and on the seventh day. On the seventh day, he shall purify him. He shall wash his clothes and bathe himself in water, and shall be clean at evening. <sup>20</sup> But the man who shall be unclean, and shall not purify himself, that soul shall be cut off from the middle of the assembly, because he has defiled the sanctuary of Yahweh. The water for impurity has not been sprinkled on him. He is unclean. <sup>21</sup> It shall be a perpetual statute to them. He who sprinkles the water for impurity shall wash his clothes, and he who touches the water for impurity shall be unclean until evening.

Kadesh. Miriam died there, and was buried there. <sup>2</sup> There was no water for the congregation; and they assembled themselves together against Moses and against Aaron. <sup>3</sup> The people quarreled with Moses, and spoke, saying, "We wish that we had died when our brothers died before Yahweh!" <sup>4</sup> Why have you brought Yahweh's assembly into this wilderness, that we should die there, we and our animals? <sup>5</sup> Why have you made us to come up out of Egypt, to bring us in to this evil place? It is no place of seed, or of figs, or of vines, or of pomegranates; neither is there any water to drink."

<sup>9</sup> Moses took the rod from before Yahweh, as he commanded him. <sup>10</sup> Moses and Aaron gathered the assembly together before the rock, and he said to them, "Hear now, you rebels! Shall we bring water out of this rock for you?" <sup>11</sup> Moses lifted up his hand, and struck the rock with his rod twice, and water came out abundantly. The congregation and their livestock drank.

<sup>12</sup> Yahweh said to Moses and Aaron, "Because you didn't believe in me, to sanctify me in the eyes of the children of Israel, therefore you shall not bring this assembly into the land which I have given them."

"Thus says your brother Israel: You know all the travail that has happened to us; <sup>15</sup> how our fathers went down into Egypt, and we lived in Egypt a long time. The Egyptians mistreated us and our fathers. <sup>16</sup> When we cried to Yahweh, he heard our voice, sent an angel, and brought us out of Egypt. Behold, we are in Kadesh, a city in the edge of your border.

<sup>17</sup> "Please let us pass through your land. We will not pass through field or through vineyard, neither will we drink from the water of the wells. We will go along the king's highway. We will not turn aside to the right hand nor to the left, until we have passed your border."

<sup>19</sup> The children of Israel said to him, "We will go up by the highway; and if we drink your water, I and my livestock, then I will give its price. Only let me, without doing anything else, pass through on my feet."

Yahweh spoke to Moses and Aaron in Mount Hor, by the border of the land of Edom, saying, <sup>24</sup> “Aaron shall be gathered to his people; for he shall not enter into the land which I have given to the children of Israel, because you rebelled against my word at the waters of Meribah. <sup>25</sup> Take Aaron and Eleazar his son, and bring them up to Mount Hor; <sup>26</sup> and strip Aaron of his garments, and put them on Eleazar his son. Aaron shall be taken, and shall die there.”

21

<sup>1</sup> The Canaanite, the king of Arad, who lived in the South, heard that Israel came by the way of Atharim. He fought against Israel, and took some of them captive. <sup>2</sup> Israel vowed a vow to Yahweh, and said, “If you will indeed deliver this people into my hand, then I will utterly destroy their cities.” <sup>3</sup> Yahweh listened to the voice of Israel, and delivered up the Canaanites; and they utterly destroyed them and their cities. The name of the place was called Hormah.

<sup>4</sup> They traveled from Mount Hor by the way to the Red Sea, to go around the land of Edom. The soul of the people was very discouraged because of the journey. <sup>5</sup> The people spoke against God, and against Moses, “Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no bread, and there is no water; and our soul loathes this light bread.”

<sup>6</sup> Yahweh sent fiery serpents among the people, and they bit the people. Many people of Israel died. <sup>7</sup> The people came to Moses, and said, “We have sinned, because we have spoken against Yahweh, and against you. Pray to Yahweh, that he take away the serpents from us.” Moses prayed for the people.

<sup>8</sup> Yahweh said to Moses, “Make a fiery serpent, and set it on a pole. It shall happen, that everyone who is bitten, when he sees it, shall live.” <sup>9</sup> Moses made a serpent of brass, and set it on the pole. If a serpent had bitten any man, when he looked at the serpent of brass, he lived.

<sup>18</sup> the well, which the princes dug, which the nobles of the people dug,

with the scepter, and with their poles.”

From the wilderness they traveled to Mattanah; <sup>19</sup> and from Mattanah to Nahaliel; and from Nahaliel to Bamoth; <sup>20</sup> and from Bamoth to the valley that is in the field of Moab, to the top of Pisgah, which looks down on the desert. <sup>21</sup> Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, saying, <sup>22</sup> “Let me pass through your land. We will not turn aside into field, or into vineyard. We will not drink of the water of the wells. We will go by the king’s highway, until we have passed your border.”

<sup>23</sup> Sihon would not allow Israel to pass through his border, but Sihon gathered all his people together, and went out against Israel into the wilderness, and came to Jahaz. He fought against Israel. <sup>24</sup> Israel struck him with the edge of the sword, and possessed his land from the Arnon to the Jabbok, even to the children of Ammon; for the border of the children of Ammon was strong. <sup>25</sup> Israel took all these cities. Israel lived in all the cities of the Amorites, in Heshbon, and in all its villages. <sup>26</sup> For Heshbon was the city of Sihon the king of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab, and taken all his land out of his hand, even to the Arnon. <sup>27</sup> Therefore those who speak in proverbs say, “Come to Heshbon.

Let the city of Sihon be built and established;

<sup>28</sup> for a fire has gone out of Heshbon, a flame from the city of Sihon.

It has devoured Ar of Moab,
The lords of the high places of the Arnon.

<sup>29</sup> Woe to you, Moab!

You are undone, people of Chemosh!

He has given his sons as fugitives, and his daughters into captivity, to Sihon king of the Amorites.

<sup>30</sup> We have shot at them.

Heshbon has perished even to Dibon.

We have laid waste even to Nophah, Which reaches to Medeba.”

<sup>34</sup> Yahweh said to Moses, “Don’t fear him, for I have delivered him into your hand, with all his people, and his land. You shall do to him as you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived at Heshbon.”

<sup>35</sup> So they struck him, with his sons and all his people, until there were no survivors; and they possessed his land.

Balak the son of Zippor was king of Moab at that time. <sup>5</sup> He sent messengers to Balaam the son of Beor, to Pethor, which is by the River, to the land of the children of his people, to call him, saying, "Behold, there is a people who came out of Egypt. Behold, they cover the surface of the earth, and they are staying opposite me. <sup>6</sup> Please come now therefore curse me this people; for they are too mighty for me. Perhaps I shall prevail, that we may strike them, and that I may drive them out of the land; for I know that he whom you bless is blessed, and he whom you curse is cursed."

<sup>7</sup> The elders of Moab and the elders of Midian departed with the rewards of divination in their hand. They came to Balaam, and spoke to him the words of Balak.

<sup>8</sup> He said to them, "Lodge here this night, and I will bring you word again, as Yahweh shall speak to me." The princes of Moab stayed with Balaam.

<sup>10</sup> Balaam said to God, "Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, has said to me, <sup>11</sup> 'Behold, the people that has come out of Egypt covers the surface of the earth. Now, come curse me them. Perhaps I shall be able to fight against them, and shall drive them out.'"

<sup>12</sup> God said to Balaam, "You shall not go with them. You shall not curse the people; for they are blessed."

<sup>13</sup> Balaam rose up in the morning, and said to the princes of Balak, "Go to your land; for Yahweh refuses to permit me to go with you."

<sup>14</sup> The princes of Moab rose up, and they went to Balak, and said, "Balaam refuses to come with us."

<sup>15</sup> Balak again sent princes, more, and more honorable than they. <sup>16</sup> They came to Balaam, and said to him, "Thus says Balak the son of Zippor, 'Please let nothing hinder you from coming to me, <sup>17</sup> for I will promote you to very great honor, and whatever you say to me I will do. Please come therefore, and curse this people for me.'"

<sup>18</sup> Balaam answered the servants of Balak, "If Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I can't go beyond the word of Yahweh my God, to do less or more. <sup>19</sup> Now therefore, please wait also here this night, that I may know what Yahweh will speak to me more."

<sup>20</sup> God came to Balaam at night, and said to him, "If the men have come to call you, rise up, go with them; but only the word which I speak to you, that you shall do."

crushed Balaam's foot against the wall. He struck her again.

<sup>28</sup> Yahweh opened the mouth of the donkey, and she said to Balaam, "What have I done to you, that you have struck me these three times?"

<sup>29</sup> Balaam said to the donkey, "Because you have mocked me, I wish there were a sword in my hand, for now I would have killed you."

<sup>30</sup> The donkey said to Balaam, "Am I not your donkey, on which you have ridden all your life long until today? Was I ever in the habit of doing so to you?"

He said, "No."

<sup>31</sup> Then Yahweh opened the eyes of Balaam, and he saw Yahweh's angel standing in the way, with his sword drawn in his hand; and he bowed his head, and fell on his face. <sup>32</sup> Yahweh's angel said to him, "Why have you struck your donkey these three times? Behold, I have come out as an adversary, because your way is perverse before me. <sup>33</sup> The donkey saw me, and turned aside before me these three times. Unless she had turned aside from me, surely now I would have killed you, and saved her alive."

<sup>34</sup> Balaam said to Yahweh's angel, "I have sinned; for I didn't know that you stood in the way against me. Now therefore, if it displeases you, I will go back again."

<sup>35</sup> Yahweh's angel said to Balaam, "Go with the men; but only the word that I shall speak to you, that you shall speak."

So Balaam went with the princes of Balak. <sup>36</sup> When Balak heard that Balaam had come, he went out to meet him to the City of Moab, which is on the border of the Arnon, which is in the utmost part of the border. <sup>37</sup> Balak said to Balaam, "Didn't I earnestly send to you to call you? Why didn't you come to me? Am I not able indeed to promote you to honor?"

<sup>38</sup> Balaam said to Balak, "Behold, I have come to you. Have I now any power at all to speak anything? The word that God puts in my mouth, that shall I speak."

<sup>2</sup> Balak did as Balaam had spoken; and Balak and Balaam offered on every altar a bull and a ram. <sup>3</sup> Balaam said to Balak, "Stand by your burnt offering, and I will go. Perhaps Yahweh will come to meet me. Whatever he shows me I will tell you."

He went to a bare height. <sup>4</sup> God met Balaam, and he said to him, "I have prepared the seven altars, and I have offered up a bull and a ram on every altar."

<sup>6</sup> He returned to him, and behold, he was standing by his burnt offering, he, and all the princes of Moab. <sup>7</sup> He took up his parable, and said,

"From Aram has Balak brought me, the king of Moab from the mountains of the East.
Come, curse Jacob for me.
Come, defy Israel.

<sup>8</sup> How shall I curse whom God has not cursed?
How shall I defy whom Yahweh has not defied?

<sup>9</sup> For from the top of the rocks I see him.
From the hills I see him.
Behold, it is a people that dwells alone, and shall not be listed among the nations.

<sup>10</sup> Who can count the dust of Jacob, or number the fourth part of Israel?
Let me die the death of the righteous!
Let my last end be like his!"

<sup>11</sup> Balak said to Balaam, "What have you done to me? I took you to curse my enemies, and behold, you have blessed them altogether."

<sup>12</sup> He answered and said, "Must I not take heed to speak that which Yahweh puts in my mouth?"

<sup>13</sup> Balak said to him, "Please come with me to another place, where you may see them. You shall see just part of them, and shall not see them all. Curse them from there for me."

<sup>14</sup> He took him into the field of Zophim, to the top of Pisgah, and built seven altars, and offered up a bull and a ram on every altar. <sup>15</sup> He said to Balak, "Stand here by your burnt offering, while I meet over there."

<sup>17</sup> He came to him, and behold, he was standing by his burnt offering, and the princes of Moab with him. Balak said to him, "What has Yahweh spoken?"

<sup>18</sup> He took up his parable, and said,
"Rise up, Balak, and hear!
Listen to me, you son of Zippor.

<sup>19</sup> God is not a man, that he should lie, nor the son of man, that he should repent.

Has he said, and will he not do it?
Or has he spoken, and will he not make it good?

<sup>20</sup> Behold, I have received a command to bless.
He has blessed, and I can't reverse
it.

<sup>21</sup> He has not seen iniquity in Jacob.
Neither has he seen perverseness in Israel.

Yahweh his God is with him.
The shout of a king is among them.

<sup>22</sup> God brings them out of Egypt.
He has as it were the strength of the wild ox.

<sup>23</sup> Surely there is no enchantment with Jacob;
Neither is there any divination with Israel.

Now it shall be said of Jacob and of Israel,
'What has God done!'

<sup>24</sup> Behold, the people rises up as a lioness.

As a lion he lifts himself up.
 He shall not lie down until he eats of the prey, and drinks the blood of the slain.”

<sup>27</sup> Balak said to Balaam, “Come now, I will take you to another place; perhaps it will please God that you may curse them for me from there.”

24

<sup>1</sup> When Balaam saw that it pleased Yahweh to bless Israel, he didn’t go, as at the other times, to meet with enchantments, but he set his face toward the wilderness. <sup>2</sup> Balaam lifted up his eyes, and he saw Israel dwelling according to their tribes; and the Spirit of God came on him. <sup>3</sup> He took up his parable, and said,

“Balaam the son of Beor says,
 the man whose eyes are open says;
<sup>4</sup> he says, who hears the words of God, who sees the vision of the Almighty, falling down, and having his eyes
 open:

 and your tents, Israel!

<sup>6</sup> As valleys they are spread out,

as gardens by the riverside,
 as aloes which Yahweh has planted, as cedar trees beside the waters.

 His seed shall be in many waters.

His king shall be higher than Agag.
 His kingdom shall be exalted.

<sup>8</sup> God brings him out of Egypt.
 He has as it were the strength of the wild ox.

He shall eat up the nations his adversaries,
 shall break their bones in pieces, and pierce them with his arrows.

<sup>9</sup> He couched, he lay down as a lion, as a lioness; who shall rouse him up?

Everyone who blesses you is blessed.
 Everyone who curses you is cursed.”

<sup>10</sup> Balak’s anger burned against Balaam, and he struck his hands together. Balak said to Balaam, “I called you to curse my enemies, and, behold, you have altogether blessed them these three times. <sup>11</sup> Therefore now flee you to your place! I thought to promote you to great honor; but, behold, Yahweh has kept you back from honor.”

<sup>12</sup> Balaam said to Balak, “Didn’t I also tell your messengers who you sent to me, saying, <sup>13</sup> ‘If Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I can’t go beyond Yahweh’s word, to do either good or bad of my own mind. I will say what Yahweh says?’ <sup>14</sup> Now, behold, I go to my people. Come, I will inform you what this people shall do to your people in the latter days.”

 “Balaam the son of Beor says,

the man whose eyes are open says;
<sup>16</sup> he says, who hears the words of God, knows the knowledge of the Most High, and who sees the vision of the Almighty,
 Falling down, and having his eyes
 open:

I see him, but not near.

A star will come out of Jacob.

A scepter will rise out of Israel, and shall strike through the corners of Moab, and break down all the sons of Sheth.

<sup>18</sup> Edom shall be a possession.

Seir, his enemies, also shall be a possession,
 while Israel does valiantly.

<sup>19</sup> Out of Jacob shall one have dominion, and shall destroy the remnant from the city.”

 parable, and said,

“Amalek was the first of the nations, But his latter end shall come to destruction.”

<sup>21</sup> He looked at the Kenite, and took up his parable, and said,

“Your dwelling place is strong.
 Your nest is set in the rock.

 until Asshur carries you away captive.”

<sup>23</sup> He took up his parable, and said,

“Alas, who shall live when God does this?

 coast of Kittim.

They shall afflict Asshur, and shall afflict Eber.

He also shall come to destruction.”

<sup>25</sup> Balaam rose up, and went and returned to his place; and Balak also went his way.

25

 began to play the prostitute with the daughters of Moab; <sup>2</sup> for they called the people to the sacrifices of their gods. The people ate and bowed down to their gods. <sup>3</sup> Israel joined himself to Baal Peor.
 Yahweh’s anger burned against Israel. <sup>4</sup> Yahweh said to Moses, “Take all the chiefs of the people, and hang them up to Yahweh before the sun, that the fierce anger of Yahweh may turn away from Israel.”

<sup>5</sup> Moses said to the judges of Israel, “Everyone kill his men who have joined themselves to Baal Peor.”

<sup>6</sup> Behold, one of the children of Israel came and brought to his brothers a Midianite woman in the sight of Moses, and in the sight of all the congregation of the children of Israel, while they were weeping at the door of the Tent of Meeting.

<sup>7</sup> When Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, saw it, he rose up from the middle of the congregation, and took a spear in his hand. <sup>8</sup> He went after the man of Israel into the pavilion, and thrust both of them through, the man of Israel, and the woman through her body. So the plague was stayed from the children of Israel. <sup>9</sup> Those who died by the plague were twenty-four thousand.

<sup>10</sup> Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>11</sup> “Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, has turned my wrath away from the children of Israel, in that he was jealous with my jealousy among them, so that I didn’t consume the children of Israel in my jealousy. <sup>12</sup> Therefore say, ‘Behold, I give to him my covenant of peace. <sup>13</sup> It shall be to him, and to his offspring<sup>d</sup> after him, the covenant of an everlasting priesthood, because he was jealous for his God, and made atonement for the children of Israel.’”

<sup>14</sup> Now the name of the man of Israel that was slain, who was slain with the Midianite woman, was Zimri, the son of Salu, a prince of a fathers’ house among the Simeonites. <sup>15</sup> The name of the Midianite woman who was slain was Cozbi, the daughter of Zur. He was head of the people of a fathers’ house in Midian.

26

These are those that came out of the land of Egypt. <sup>5</sup> Reuben, the firstborn of Israel; the sons of Reuben: of Hanoah, the family of the Hanochites; of Pallu, the family of the Palluites; <sup>6</sup> of Hezron, the family of the Hezronites; of Carmi, the family of the Carmites. <sup>7</sup> These are the families of the Reubenites; and those who were numbered of them were forty-three thousand seven hundred thirty. <sup>8</sup> The sons of Pallu: Eliab. <sup>9</sup> The sons of Eliab: Nemuel, and Dathan, and Abiram. These are that Dathan and Abiram, who were called by the congregation, who rebelled against Moses and against Aaron in the company of Korah, when they rebelled against Yahweh, <sup>10</sup> and the earth opened its mouth, and swallowed them up together with Korah, when that company died; at the time the fire devoured two hundred fifty men, and they became a sign. <sup>11</sup> Notwithstanding, the sons of Korah didn’t die. <sup>12</sup> The sons of Simeon after their families: of Nemuel, the family of the Nemuelites; of Jamin, the family of the Jaminites; of Jachin, the family of the Jachinites; <sup>13</sup> of Zerah, the family of the Zerahites; of Shaul, the family of the Shaulites. <sup>14</sup> These are the families of the Simeonites, twenty-two thousand two hundred. <sup>15</sup> The sons of Gad after their families: of Zephon, the family of the Zephonites; of Haggi, the family of the Haggites; of Shuni, the family of the Shunites; <sup>16</sup> of Ozni, the family of the Oznites; of Eri, the family of the Erites; <sup>17</sup> of Arod, the family of the Arodites; of Areli, the family of the Arelites. <sup>18</sup> These are the families of the sons of Gad according to those who were numbered of them, forty thousand and five hundred.<sup>19</sup> The sons of Judah: Er and Onan. Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan.<sup>20</sup> The sons of Judah after their families were: of Shelah, the family of the Shelanites; of Perez, the family of the Perezites; of Zerah, the family of the Zerahites.<sup>21</sup> The sons of Perez were: of Hezron, the family of the Hezronites; of Hamul, the family of the Hamulites.<sup>22</sup> These are the families of Judah according to those who were numbered of them, seventy-six thousand five hundred.<sup>23</sup> The sons of Issachar after their families: of Tola, the family of the Tolaites; of Puvah, the family of the Punites;<sup>24</sup> of Jashub, the family of the Jashubites; of Shimron, the family of the Shimronites.<sup>25</sup> These are the families of Issachar according to those who were numbered of them, sixty-four thousand three hundred.<sup>26</sup> The sons of Zebulun after their families: of Sered, the family of the Seredites; of Elon, the family of the Elonites; of Jahleel, the family of the Jahleelites.<sup>27</sup> These are the families of the Zebulunites according to those who were numbered of them, sixty thousand five hundred.<sup>28</sup> The sons of Joseph after their families: Manasseh and Ephraim.<sup>29</sup> The sons of Manasseh: of Machir, the family of the Machirites; and Machir became the father of Gilead; of Gilead, the family of the Gileadites.<sup>30</sup> These are the sons of Gilead: of Iezer, the family of the Iezerites; of Helek, the family of the Helekites;<sup>31</sup> and Asriel, the family of the Asrielites; and Shechem, the family of the Shechemites;<sup>32</sup> and Shemida, the family of the Shemidaites; and Hephher, the family of the Hephherites.<sup>33</sup> Zelophehad the son of Hephher had no sons, but daughters: and the names of the daughters of Zelophehad were Mahlah, and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.<sup>34</sup> These are the families of Manasseh. Those who were numbered of them were fifty-two thousand seven hundred.<sup>35</sup> These are the sons of Ephraim after their families: of Shuthelah, the family of the Shuthelahites; of Becher, the family of the Becherites; of Tahan, the family of the Tahanites.<sup>36</sup> These are the sons of Shuthelah: of Eran, the family of the Eranites.<sup>37</sup> These are the families of the sons of Ephraim according to those who were numbered of them, thirty-two thousand five hundred. These are the sons of Joseph after their families.<sup>38</sup> The sons of Benjamin after their families: of Bela, the family of the Belaites; of Ashbel, the family of the Ashbelites; of Ahiram, the family of the Ahiramites;<sup>39</sup> of Shephupham, the family of the Shuphamites; of Hupham, the family of the Huphamites.<sup>40</sup> The sons of Bela were Ard and Naaman: the family of the Ardites; of Naaman, the family of the Naamites.<sup>41</sup> These are the sons of Benjamin after their families; and those who were numbered of them were forty-five thousand six hundred.<sup>42</sup> These are the sons of Dan after their families: of Shuham, the family of the Shuhamites. These are the families of Dan after their families.<sup>43</sup> All the families of the Shuhamites, according to those who were numbered of them, were sixty-four thousand four hundred.<sup>44</sup> The sons of Asher after their families: of Imnah, the family of the Imnites; of Ishvi, the family of the Ishvites; of Beriah, the family of the Berites. <sup>45</sup> Of the sons of Beriah: of Heber, the family of the Heberites; of Malchiel, the family of the Malchielites. <sup>46</sup> The name of the daughter of Asher was Serah. <sup>47</sup> These are the families of the sons of Asher according to those who were numbered of them, fifty-three thousand and four hundred. <sup>48</sup> The sons of Naphtali after their families: of Jahzeel, the family of the Jahzeelites; of Guni, the family of the Gunites; <sup>49</sup> of Jezer, the family of the Jezerites; of Shillem, the family of the Shillemites. <sup>50</sup> These are the families of Naphtali according to their families; and those who were numbered of them were forty-five thousand four hundred. <sup>51</sup> These are those who were numbered of the children of Israel, six hundred one thousand seven hundred thirty.

<sup>52</sup> Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>53</sup> "To these the land shall be divided for an inheritance according to the number of names. <sup>54</sup> To the more you shall give the more inheritance, and to the fewer you shall give the less inheritance. To everyone according to those who were numbered of him shall his inheritance be given. <sup>55</sup> Notwithstanding, the land shall be divided by lot. According to the names of the tribes of their fathers they shall inherit. <sup>56</sup> According to the lot shall their inheritance be divided between the more and the fewer."

the family of the Hebronites, the family of the Mahlites, the family of the Mushites, the family of the Korahites. Kohath became the father of Amram. <sup>59</sup> The name of Amram's wife was Jochebed, the daughter of Levi, who was born to Levi in Egypt. She bore to Amram Aaron and Moses, and Miriam their sister. <sup>60</sup> To Aaron were born Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar. <sup>61</sup> Nadab and Abihu died when they offered strange fire before Yahweh. <sup>62</sup> Those who were numbered of them were twenty-three thousand, every male from a month old and upward; for they were not numbered among the children of Israel, because there was no inheritance given them among the children of Israel. <sup>63</sup> These are those who were numbered by Moses and Eleazar the priest, who numbered the children of Israel in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho. <sup>64</sup> But among these there was not a man of them who were numbered by Moses and Aaron the priest, who numbered the children of Israel in the wilderness of Sinai. <sup>65</sup> For Yahweh had said of them, "They shall surely die in the wilderness." There was not a man left of them, except Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun.

“Our father died in the wilderness. He was not among the company of those who gathered themselves together against Yahweh in the company of Korah, but he died in his own sin. He had no sons. <sup>4</sup> Why should the name of our father be taken away from among his family, because he had no son? Give to us a possession among the brothers of our father.”

Meribah of Kadesh in the wilderness of Zin.)

28

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup> “Command the children of Israel, and tell them, ‘See that you present my offering, my food for my offerings made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to me, in their due season.’ <sup>3</sup> You shall tell them, ‘This is the offering made by fire which you shall offer to Yahweh: male lambs a year old without defect, two day by day, for a continual burnt offering. <sup>4</sup> You shall offer the one lamb in the morning, and you shall offer the other lamb at evening; <sup>5</sup> with one tenth of an ephah<sup>e</sup> of fine flour for a meal offering, mixed with the fourth part of a hin of beaten oil. <sup>6</sup> It is a continual burnt offering, which was ordained in Mount Sinai for a pleasant aroma, an offering made by fire to Yahweh. <sup>7</sup> Its drink offering shall be the fourth part of a hin for the one lamb. You shall pour out a drink offering of strong drink to Yahweh in the holy place. <sup>8</sup> The other lamb you shall offer at evening. As the meal offering of the morning, and as its drink offering, you shall offer it, an offering made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to Yahweh.

of a hin for a lamb. This is the burnt offering of every month throughout the months of the year. <sup>15</sup> One male goat for a sin offering to Yahweh; it shall be offered besides the continual burnt offering, and its drink offering.

<sup>16</sup> ““In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, is Yahweh’s Passover. <sup>17</sup> On the fifteenth day of this month shall be a feast. Unleavened bread shall be eaten for seven days. <sup>18</sup> In the first day shall be a holy convocation. You shall do no regular work; <sup>19</sup> but you shall offer an offering made by fire, a burnt offering to Yahweh: two young bulls, and one ram, and seven male lambs a year old; they shall be to you without defect; <sup>20</sup> and their meal offering, fine flour mixed with oil. You shall offer three tenths for a bull, and two tenths for the ram. <sup>21</sup> You shall offer one tenth for every lamb of the seven lambs; <sup>22</sup> and one male goat for a sin offering, to make atonement for you. <sup>23</sup> You shall offer these besides the burnt offering of the morning, which is for a continual burnt offering. <sup>24</sup> In this way you shall offer daily, for seven days, the food of the offering made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to Yahweh. It shall be offered in addition to the continual burnt offering, and its drink offering. <sup>25</sup> On the seventh day you shall have a holy convocation. You shall do no regular work.

<sup>26</sup> ““Also in the day of the first fruits, when you offer a new meal offering to Yahweh in your feast of weeks, you shall have a holy convocation. You shall do no regular work; <sup>27</sup> but you shall offer a burnt offering for a pleasant aroma to Yahweh: two young bulls, one ram, seven male

See that they are without defect.

29

of the seven lambs: <sup>11</sup> one male goat for a sin offering; besides the sin offering of atonement, and the continual burnt offering, and its meal offering, and their drink offerings.

<sup>12</sup> ““On the fifteenth day of the seventh month you shall have a holy convocation. You shall do no regular work. You shall keep a feast to Yahweh seven days. <sup>13</sup> You shall offer a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to Yahweh: thirteen young bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs a year old; all without defect; <sup>14</sup> and their meal offering, fine flour mixed with oil, three tenths for every bull of the thirteen bulls, two tenths for each ram of the two rams, <sup>15</sup> and one tenth for every lamb of the fourteen lambs; <sup>16</sup> and one male goat for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering, its meal offering, and its drink offering.

offering, an offering made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to Yahweh: one bull, one ram, seven male lambs a year old without defect; <sup>37</sup> their meal offering and their drink offerings for the bull, for the ram, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the ordinance: <sup>38</sup> and one male goat for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering, with its meal offering, and its drink offering.

<sup>39</sup> ““You shall offer these to Yahweh in your set feasts, besides your vows, and your freewill offerings, for your burnt offerings, and for your meal offerings, and for your drink offerings, and for your peace offerings.””

stand. Yahweh will forgive her, because her father has forbidden her.

<sup>3</sup> Moses spoke to the people, saying, “Arm men from among you for the war, that they may go against Midian, to execute Yahweh’s vengeance on Midian. <sup>4</sup> Of every tribe one thousand, throughout all the tribes of Israel, you shall send to the war.” <sup>5</sup> So there were delivered, out of the thousands of Israel, a thousand of every tribe, twelve thousand armed for war. <sup>6</sup> Moses sent them, one thousand of every tribe, to the war, them and Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, to the war, with the vessels of the sanctuary and the trumpets for the alarm in his hand. <sup>7</sup> They fought against Midian, as Yahweh commanded Moses. They killed every male. <sup>8</sup> They killed the kings of Midian with the rest of their slain: Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba, the five kings of Midian. They also killed Balaam the son of Beor with the sword. <sup>9</sup> The children of Israel took the women of Midian captive with their little ones; and all their livestock, all their flocks, and all their goods, they took as plunder. <sup>10</sup> All their cities in the places in which they lived, and all their encampments, they burned with fire. <sup>11</sup> They took all the captives, and all the plunder, both of man and of animal. <sup>12</sup> They brought the captives, and the prey, and the plunder, to Moses, and to Eleazar the priest, and to the congregation of the children of Israel, to the camp at the plains of Moab, which are by the Jordan at Jericho. <sup>13</sup> Moses, and Eleazar the priest, and all the princes of the congregation, went out to meet them outside of the camp. <sup>14</sup> Moses was angry with the officers of the army, the captains of thousands and the captains of hundreds, who came from the service of the war. <sup>15</sup> Moses said to them, "Have you saved all the women alive? <sup>16</sup> Behold, these caused the children of Israel, through the counsel of Balaam, to commit trespass against Yahweh in the matter of Peor, and so the plague was among the congregation of Yahweh. <sup>17</sup> Now therefore kill every male among the little ones, and kill every woman who has known man by lying with him. <sup>18</sup> But all the girls, who have not known man by lying with him, keep alive for yourselves.

<sup>19</sup> "Encamp outside of the camp seven days. Whoever has killed any person, and whoever has touched any slain, purify yourselves on the third day and on the seventh day, you and your captives. <sup>20</sup> As to every garment, and all that is made of skin, and all work of goats' hair, and all things made of wood, you shall purify yourselves."

water for impurity. All that doesn't withstand the fire you shall make to go through the water. <sup>24</sup> You shall wash your clothes on the seventh day, and you shall be clean. Afterward you shall come into the camp."

hundred seventy-five.<sup>38</sup> The cattle were thirty-six thousand; of which Yahweh's tribute was seventy-two.<sup>39</sup> The donkeys were thirty thousand five hundred; of which Yahweh's tribute was sixty-one.<sup>40</sup> The persons were sixteen thousand; of whom Yahweh's tribute was thirty-two persons.<sup>41</sup> Moses gave the tribute, which was Yahweh's wave offering, to Eleazar the priest, as Yahweh commanded Moses.<sup>42</sup> Of the children of Israel's half, which Moses divided off from the men who fought<sup>43</sup> (now the congregation's half was three hundred thirty-seven thousand five hundred sheep,<sup>44</sup> and thirty-six thousand head of cattle,<sup>45</sup> and thirty thousand five hundred donkeys,<sup>46</sup> and sixteen thousand persons),<sup>47</sup> even of the children of Israel's half, Moses took one drawn out of every fifty, both of man and of animal, and gave them to the Levites, who performed the duty of Yahweh's tabernacle; as Yahweh commanded Moses.

and of the captains of hundreds, was sixteen thousand seven hundred fifty shekels.<sup>h</sup><sup>53</sup> The men of war had taken booty, every man for himself.<sup>54</sup> Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold of the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and brought it into the Tent of Meeting, for a memorial for the children of Israel before Yahweh.

32

them. <sup>10</sup> Yahweh's anger burned in that day, and he swore, saying, <sup>11</sup> 'Surely none of the men who came up out of Egypt, from twenty years old and upward, shall see the land which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob; because they have not wholly followed me, <sup>12</sup> except Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite, and Joshua the son of Nun; because they have followed Yahweh completely.' <sup>13</sup> Yahweh's anger burned against Israel, and he made them wander back and forth in the wilderness forty years, until all the generation, who had done evil in Yahweh's sight, was consumed.

<sup>16</sup> They came near to him, and said, "We will build sheepfolds here for our livestock, and cities for our little ones; <sup>17</sup> but we ourselves will be ready armed to go before the children of Israel, until we have brought them to their place. Our little ones shall dwell in the fortified cities because of the inhabitants of the land. <sup>18</sup> We will not return to our houses, until the children of Israel have each inherited their inheritance. <sup>19</sup> For we will not inherit with them on the other side of the Jordan, and forward; because our inheritance has come to us on this side of the Jordan eastward."

<sup>20</sup> Moses said to them, "If you will do this thing, if you will arm yourselves to go before Yahweh to the war, <sup>21</sup> and every armed man of you will pass over the Jordan

before Yahweh, until he has driven out his enemies from before him, <sup>22</sup> and the land is subdued before Yahweh; then afterward you shall return, and be guiltless towards Yahweh, and towards Israel; and this land shall be to you for a possession before Yahweh.

<sup>23</sup> "But if you will not do so, behold, you have sinned against Yahweh; and be sure your sin will find you out. <sup>24</sup> Build cities for your little ones, and folds for your sheep; and do that which has proceeded out of your mouth."

<sup>25</sup> The children of Gad and the children of Reuben spoke to Moses, saying, "Your servants will do as my lord commands. <sup>26</sup> Our little ones, our wives, our flocks, and all our livestock, shall be there in the cities of Gilead; <sup>27</sup> but your servants will pass over, every man who is armed for war, before Yahweh to battle, as my lord says."

<sup>31</sup> The children of Gad and the children of Reuben answered, saying, "As Yahweh has said to your servants, so will we do. <sup>32</sup> We will pass over armed before Yahweh into the land of Canaan, and the possession of our inheritance shall remain with us beyond the Jordan.”

<sup>33</sup> Moses gave to them, even to the children of Gad, and to the children of Reuben, and to the half-tribe of Manasseh the son of Joseph, the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, and the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, the land, according to its cities and borders, even the cities of the surrounding land. <sup>34</sup> The children of Gad built Dibon, Ataroth, Aroer, <sup>35</sup> Atrothshophan, Jazer, Jogbehah, <sup>36</sup> Beth Nimrah, and Beth Haran: fortified cities, and folds for sheep. <sup>37</sup> The children of Reuben built Heshbon, Elealeh, Kiriathaim, <sup>38</sup> Nebo, and Baal Meon, (their names being changed), and Sibmah. They gave other names to the cities which they built. <sup>39</sup> The children of Machir the son of Manasseh went to Gilead, took it, and dispossessed the Amorites who were therein. <sup>40</sup> Moses gave Gilead to Machir the son of Manasseh; and he lived therein. <sup>41</sup> Jair the son of Manasseh went and took its villages, and called them Havvoth Jair. <sup>42</sup> Nobah went and took Kenath, and its villages, and called it Nobah, after his own name.

<sup>55</sup> "But if you do not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before you, then those you let remain of them will be as pricks in your eyes and as thorns in your sides, and they will harass you in the land in which you dwell. <sup>56</sup> It shall happen that as I thought to do to them, so will I do to you.”

34

to divide the inheritance to the children of Israel in the land of Canaan.

35

and tell them, ‘When you pass over the Jordan into the land of Canaan, <sup>11</sup> then you shall appoint for yourselves cities to be cities of refuge for you, that the man slayer who kills any person unwittingly may flee there. <sup>12</sup> The cities shall be to you for refuge from the avenger, that the man slayer not die, until he stands before the congregation for judgment. <sup>13</sup> The cities which you shall give shall be for you six cities of refuge. <sup>14</sup> You shall give three cities beyond the Jordan, and you shall give three cities in the land of Canaan. They shall be cities of refuge. <sup>15</sup> For the children of Israel, and for the stranger and for the foreigner living among them, shall these six cities be for refuge; that everyone who kills any person unwittingly may flee there.

<sup>16</sup> “‘But if he struck him with an instrument of iron, so that he died, he is a murderer. The murderer shall surely be put to death. <sup>17</sup> If he struck him with a stone in the hand, by which a man may die, and he died, he is a murderer. The murderer shall surely be put to death. <sup>18</sup> Or if he struck him with a weapon of wood in the hand, by which a man may die, and he died, he is a murderer. The murderer shall surely be put to death. <sup>19</sup> The avenger of blood shall himself put the murderer to death. When he meets him, he shall put him to death. <sup>20</sup> If he shoved him out of hatred, or hurled at him, lying in wait, so that he died, <sup>21</sup> or in hostility struck him with his hand, so that he died, he who struck him shall surely be put to death. He is a murderer. The avenger of blood shall put the murderer to death, when he meets him.

without lying in wait, <sup>23</sup> or with any stone, by which a man may die, not seeing him, and cast it on him, so that he died, and he was not his enemy, neither sought his harm; <sup>24</sup> then the congregation shall judge between the striker and the avenger of blood according to these ordinances. <sup>25</sup> The congregation shall deliver the man slayer out of the hand of the avenger of blood, and the congregation shall restore him to his city of refuge, where he had fled. He shall dwell therein until the death of the high priest, who was anointed with the holy oil.

<sup>32</sup> “You shall take no ransom for him who is fled to his city of refuge, that he may come again to dwell in the land, until the death of the priest.

No atonement can be made for the land for the blood that is shed in it, but by the blood of him who shed it. <sup>34</sup> You shall not defile the land which you inhabit, in the middle of which I dwell; for I, Yahweh, dwell in the middle of the children of Israel.”

36

father. <sup>7</sup> So shall no inheritance of the children of Israel move from tribe to tribe; for the children of Israel shall all keep the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers. <sup>8</sup> Every daughter who possesses an inheritance in any tribe of the children of Israel shall be wife to one of the family of the tribe of her father, that the children of Israel may each possess the inheritance of his fathers. <sup>9</sup> So shall no inheritance move from one tribe to another tribe; for the tribes of the children of Israel shall each keep his own inheritance.”

<sup>10</sup> The daughters of Zelophehad did as Yahweh commanded Moses: <sup>11</sup> for Mahlah, Tirzah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Noah, the daughters of Zelophehad, were married to their father’s brothers’ sons. <sup>12</sup> They were married into the families of the sons of Manasseh the son of Joseph. Their inheritance remained in the tribe of the family of their father. <sup>13</sup> These are the commandments and the ordinances which Yahweh commanded by Moses to the children of Israel in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho.

Deuteronomy

1

<sup>9</sup> I spoke to you at that time, saying, "I am not able to bear you myself alone. <sup>10</sup> Yahweh your God has multiplied you, and behold, you are today as the stars of the sky for multitude. <sup>11</sup> Yahweh, the God of your fathers, make you a thousand times as many as you are, and bless you, as he has promised you! <sup>12</sup> How can I myself alone bear your problems, your burdens, and your strife? <sup>13</sup> Take wise men of understanding and well known according to your tribes, and I will make them heads over you."

<sup>14</sup> You answered me, and said, "The thing which you have spoken is good to do." <sup>15</sup> So I took the heads of your tribes, wise men, and known, and made them heads over you, captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds, and captains of fifties, and captains of tens, and officers, according to your tribes. <sup>16</sup> I commanded your judges at that time, saying, "Hear cases between your brothers, and judge righteously between a man and his brother, and the foreigner who is living with him. <sup>17</sup> You shall not show partiality in judgment; you shall hear the small and the great alike. You shall not be afraid of the face of man, for the judgment is God's. The case that is too hard for you, you shall bring to me, and I will hear it." <sup>18</sup> I commanded you at that time all the things which you should do. <sup>19</sup> We traveled from Horeb, and went through all that great and terrible wilderness which you saw, by the way to the hill country of the Amorites, as Yahweh our God commanded us; and we came to Kadesh Barnea. <sup>20</sup> I said to you, “You have come to the hill country of the Amorites, which Yahweh our God gives to us. <sup>21</sup> Behold, Yahweh your God has set the land before you. Go up, take possession, as Yahweh, the God of your fathers, has spoken to you. Don’t be afraid, neither be dismayed.”

<sup>22</sup> You came near to me, everyone of you, and said, “Let us send men before us, that they may search the land for us, and bring us word again of the way by which we must go up, and the cities to which we shall come.”

God who goes before you, he will fight for you, according to all that he did for you in Egypt before your eyes, <sup>31</sup> and in the wilderness, where you have seen how that Yahweh your God bore you, as a man does bear his son, in all the way that you went, until you came to this place.”

<sup>37</sup> Also Yahweh was angry with me for your sakes, saying, “You also shall not go in there. <sup>38</sup> Joshua the son of Nun, who stands before you, shall go in there. Encourage him, for he shall cause Israel to inherit it. <sup>39</sup> Moreover your little ones, whom you said should be captured or killed, and your children, who today have no knowledge of good or evil, they shall go in there, and I will give it to, and they shall possess it. <sup>40</sup> But as for you, turn, and take your journey into the wilderness by the way to the Red Sea.”

<sup>41</sup> Then you answered and said to me, “We have sinned against Yahweh, we will go up and fight, according to all that Yahweh our God commanded us.” Every man of you put on his weapons of war, and presumed to go up into the hill country.

<sup>42</sup> Yahweh said to me, "Tell them, 'Don't go up, neither fight; for I am not among you; lest you be struck before your enemies.'"

<sup>43</sup> So I spoke to you, and you didn't listen; but you rebelled against the commandment of Yahweh, and were presumptuous, and went up into the hill country. <sup>44</sup> The Amorites, who lived in that hill country, came out against you, and chased you, as bees do, and beat you down in Seir, even to Hormah. <sup>45</sup> You returned and wept before Yahweh; but Yahweh didn't listen to your voice, nor turn his ear to you. <sup>46</sup> So you stayed in Kadesh many days, according to the days that you remained.

2

<sup>7</sup> For Yahweh your God has blessed you in all the work of your hand. He has known your walking through this great wilderness. These forty years, Yahweh your God has been with you. You have lacked nothing.

<sup>8</sup> So we passed by from our brothers the children of Esau, who dwell in Seir, from the way of the Arabah from Elath and from Ezion Geber. We turned and passed by the way of the wilderness of Moab.

<sup>14</sup> The days in which we came from Kadesh Barnea, until we had come over the brook Zered, were thirty-eight years; until all the generation of the men of war were consumed from the middle of the camp, as Yahweh swore to them. <sup>15</sup> Moreover Yahweh's hand was against them, to destroy them from the middle of the camp, until they were consumed. <sup>16</sup> So, when all the men of war were consumed and dead from among the people, <sup>17</sup> Yahweh spoke to me, saying, <sup>18</sup> "You are to pass over Ar, the border of Moab, today. <sup>19</sup> When you come near the border of the children of Ammon, don't bother them, nor contend with them; for I will not give you any of the land of the children of Ammon for a possession; because I have given it to the children of Lot for a possession."

Moabites who dwell in Ar, did to me; until I pass over the Jordan into the land which Yahweh our God gives us." <sup>30</sup> But Sihon king of Heshbon would not let us pass by him; for Yahweh your God hardened his spirit, and made his heart obstinate, that he might deliver him into your hand, as it is today.

<sup>31</sup> Yahweh said to me, "Behold, I have begun to deliver up Sihon and his land before you. Begin to possess, that you may inherit his land." <sup>32</sup> Then Sihon came out against us, he and all his people, to battle at Jahaz. <sup>33</sup> Yahweh our God delivered him up before us; and we struck him, his sons, and all his people. <sup>34</sup> We took all his cities at that time, and utterly destroyed every inhabited city, with the women and the little ones. We left no one remaining. <sup>35</sup> Only the livestock we took for plunder for ourselves, with the plunder of the cities which we had taken. <sup>36</sup> From Aroer, which is on the edge of the valley of the Arnon, and the city that is in the valley, even to Gilead, there was not a city too high for us. Yahweh our God delivered up all before us. <sup>37</sup> Only to the land of the children of Ammon you didn't come near; all the banks of the river Jabbok, and the cities of the hill country, and wherever Yahweh our God forbade us.

3

<sup>1</sup> Then we turned, and went up the way to Bashan. Og the king of Bashan came out against us, he and all his people, to battle at Edrei. <sup>2</sup> Yahweh said to me, "Don't fear him; for I have delivered him, with all his people, and his land, into your hand. You shall do to him as you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived at Heshbon."

<sup>3</sup> So Yahweh our God delivered into our hand Og also, the king of Bashan, and all his people. We struck him until no one was left to him remaining. <sup>4</sup> We took all his cities at that time. There was not a city which we didn't take from them; sixty cities, all the region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan. <sup>5</sup> All these were cities fortified with high walls, gates, and bars; besides a great many villages without walls. <sup>6</sup> We utterly destroyed them, as we did to Sihon king of Heshbon, utterly destroying every inhabited city, with the women and the little ones. <sup>7</sup> But all the livestock, and the plunder of the cities, we took for plunder for ourselves. <sup>8</sup> We took the land at that time out of the hand of the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan, from the valley of the Arnon to Mount Hermon. <sup>9</sup> (The Sidonians call Hermon Sirion, and the Amorites call it Senir.) <sup>10</sup> We took all the cities of the plain, and all Gilead, and all Bashan, to Salecah and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan. <sup>11</sup> (For only Og king of Bashan remained of the remnant of the Rephaim. Behold, his bedstead was a bedstead of iron. Isn't it in Rabbah of the children of Ammon? Nine cubits<sup>e</sup> was its length, and four cubits its width, after the cubit of a man.) <sup>12</sup> This land we took in possession at that time: from Aroer, which is by the valley of the Arnon, and half the hill country of Gilead, and its cities, gave I to the Reubenites and to the Gadites: <sup>13</sup> and the rest of Gilead, and all Bashan, the kingdom of Og, gave I to the half-tribe of Manasseh; all the region of Argob, even all Bashan. (The same is called the land of Rephaim. <sup>14</sup> Jair the son of Manasseh took all the region of Argob, to the border of the Geshurites and the Maacathites, and called them, even Bashan, after his own name, Havvoth Jair, to this day.) <sup>15</sup> I gave Gilead to Machir. <sup>16</sup> To the Reubenites and to the Gadites I gave from Gilead even to the valley of the Arnon, the middle of the valley, and its border, even to the river Jabbok, which is the border of the children of Ammon; <sup>17</sup> the Arabah also, and the Jordan and its border, from Chinnereth even to the sea of the Arabah, the Salt Sea, under the slopes of Pisgah eastward.

<sup>18</sup> I commanded you at that time, saying, "Yahweh your God has given you this land to possess it. You shall pass over armed before your brothers the children of Israel, all the men of valor. <sup>19</sup> But your wives, and your little ones, and your livestock, (I know that you have much livestock), shall live in your cities which I have given you, <sup>20</sup> until Yahweh gives rest to your brothers, as to you, and they also possess the land which Yahweh your God gives them beyond the Jordan. Then you shall each return to his own possession, which I have given you."

<sup>21</sup> I commanded Joshua at that time, saying, "Your eyes have seen all that Yahweh your God has done to these two kings. So shall Yahweh do to all the kingdoms where you go over. <sup>22</sup> You shall not fear them; for Yahweh your God himself fights for you."

yours, and mighty acts like yours? <sup>25</sup> Please let me go over and see the good land that is beyond the Jordan, that fine mountain, and Lebanon.”

<sup>26</sup> But Yahweh was angry with me for your sakes, and didn't listen to me. Yahweh said to me, “Let this satisfy you. Speak no more to me of this matter. <sup>27</sup> Go up to the top of Pisgah, and lift up your eyes westward, and northward, and southward, and eastward, and see with your eyes; for you shall not go over this Jordan. <sup>28</sup> But commission Joshua, and encourage him, and strengthen him; for he shall go over before this people, and he shall cause them to inherit the land which you shall see.” <sup>29</sup> So we stayed in the valley near Beth Peor.

4

<sup>1</sup> Now, Israel, listen to the statutes and to the ordinances, which I teach you, to do them; that you may live, and go in and possess the land which Yahweh, the God of your fathers, gives you. <sup>2</sup> You shall not add to the word which I command you, neither shall you take away from it, that you may keep the commandments of Yahweh your God which I command you. <sup>3</sup> Your eyes have seen what Yahweh did because of Baal Peor; for all the men who followed Baal Peor, Yahweh your God has destroyed them from among you. <sup>4</sup> But you who were faithful to Yahweh your God are all alive today. <sup>5</sup> Behold, I have taught you statutes and ordinances, even as Yahweh my God commanded me, that you should do so in the middle of the land where you go in to possess it. <sup>6</sup> Keep therefore and do them; for this is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the peoples, who shall hear all these statutes, and say, “Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people.” <sup>7</sup> For what great nation is there, that has a god so near to them, as Yahweh our God is whenever we call on him? <sup>8</sup> What great nation is there, that has statutes and ordinances so righteous as all this law, which I set before you today?

<sup>9</sup> Only be careful, and keep your soul diligently, lest you forget the things which your eyes saw, and lest they depart from your heart all the days of your life; but make them known to your children and your children's children; <sup>10</sup> the day that you stood before Yahweh your God in Horeb, when Yahweh said to me, “Assemble the people to me, and I will make them hear my words, that they may learn to fear me all the days that they live on the earth, and that they may teach their children.” <sup>11</sup> You came near and stood under the mountain. The mountain burned with fire to the heart of the sky, with darkness, cloud, and thick darkness. <sup>12</sup> Yahweh spoke to you out of the middle of the fire: you heard the voice of words, but you saw no form; you only heard a voice. <sup>13</sup> He declared to you his covenant, which he commanded you to perform, even the ten commandments. He wrote them on two stone tablets. <sup>14</sup> Yahweh commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and ordinances, that you might do them in the land where you go over to possess it. <sup>15</sup> Be very careful, for you saw no kind of form on the day that Yahweh spoke to you in Horeb out of the middle of the fire, <sup>16</sup> lest you corrupt yourselves, and make yourself an engraved image in the form of any figure, the likeness of male or female,<sup>17</sup> the likeness of any animal that is on the earth, the likeness of any winged bird that flies in the sky,<sup>18</sup> the likeness of anything that creeps on the ground, the likeness of any fish that is in the water under the earth;<sup>19</sup> and lest you lift up your eyes to the sky, and when you see the sun and the moon and the stars, even all the army of the sky, you are drawn away and worship them, and serve them, which Yahweh your God has allotted to all the peoples under the whole sky.<sup>20</sup> But Yahweh has taken you, and brought you out of the iron furnace, out of Egypt, to be to him a people of inheritance, as it is today.<sup>21</sup> Furthermore Yahweh was angry with me for your sakes, and swore that I should not go over the Jordan, and that I should not go in to that good land, which Yahweh your God gives you for an inheritance;<sup>22</sup> but I must die in this land. I must not go over the Jordan; but you shall go over, and possess that good land.<sup>23</sup> Be careful, lest you forget the covenant of Yahweh your God, which he made with you, and make yourselves an engraved image in the form of anything which Yahweh your God has forbidden you.<sup>24</sup> For Yahweh your God is a devouring fire, a jealous God.<sup>25</sup> When you shall father children, and children's children, and you shall have been long in the land, and shall corrupt yourselves, and make an engraved image in the form of anything, and shall do that which is evil in Yahweh your God's sight, to provoke him to anger;<sup>26</sup> I call heaven and earth to witness against you today, that you will soon utterly perish from off the land which you go over the Jordan to possess it. You will not prolong your days on it, but will utterly be destroyed.<sup>27</sup> Yahweh will scatter you among the peoples, and you will be left few in number among the nations, where Yahweh will lead you away.<sup>28</sup> There you shall serve gods, the work of men's hands, wood and stone, which neither see, nor hear, nor eat, nor smell.<sup>29</sup> But from there you shall seek Yahweh your God, and you shall find him, when you search after him with all your heart and with all your soul.<sup>30</sup> When you are in oppression, and all these things have come on you, in the latter days you shall return to Yahweh your God, and listen to his voice.<sup>31</sup> For Yahweh your God is a merciful God. He will not fail you, neither destroy you, nor forget the covenant of your fathers which he swore to them.<sup>32</sup> For ask now of the days that are past, which were before you, since the day that God created man on the earth, and from the one end of the sky to the other, whether there has been anything as this great thing is, or has been heard like it?<sup>33</sup> Did a people ever hear the voice of God speaking out of the middle of the fire, as you have heard, and live?<sup>34</sup> Or has God tried to go and take a nation for himself from among another nation, by trials, by signs, by wonders, by war, by a mighty hand, by an outstretched arm, and by great terrors, according to all that Yahweh your God did for you in Egypt before your eyes?<sup>35</sup> It was shown to you so that you might know that Yahweh is God. There is no one else besides him.<sup>36</sup> Out of heaven he made you to hear his voice, that he might instruct you. On earth he made you to see his great fire; and you heard his words out of the middle of the fire.<sup>37</sup> Because he loved your fathers, therefore he chose their offspring<sup>8</sup> after them, and brought you out with his presence, with his great power, out of Egypt; <sup>38</sup> to drive out nations from before you greater and mightier than you, to bring you in, to give you their land for an inheritance, as it is today. <sup>39</sup> Know therefore today, and take it to heart, that Yahweh himself is God in heaven above and on the earth beneath. There is no one else. <sup>40</sup> You shall keep his statutes, and his commandments, which I command you today, that it may go well with you, and with your children after you, and that you may prolong your days in the land, which Yahweh your God gives you, forever. <sup>41</sup> Then Moses set apart three cities beyond the Jordan toward the sunrise; <sup>42</sup> that the man slayer might flee there, who kills his neighbor unawares, and didn't hate him in time past; and that fleeing to one of these cities he might live: <sup>43</sup> Bezer in the wilderness, in the plain country, for the Reubenites; and Ramoth in Gilead, for the Gadites; and Golan in Bashan, for the Manassites. <sup>44</sup> This is the law which Moses set before the children of Israel. <sup>45</sup> These are the testimonies, and the statutes, and the ordinances, which Moses spoke to the children of Israel, when they came out of Egypt, <sup>46</sup> beyond the Jordan, in the valley over against Beth Peor, in the land of Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived at Heshbon, whom Moses and the children of Israel struck, when they came out of Egypt. <sup>47</sup> They took his land in possession, and the land of Og king of Bashan, the two kings of the Amorites, who were beyond the Jordan toward the sunrise; <sup>48</sup> from Aroer, which is on the edge of the valley of the Arnon, even to Mount Sion (also called Hermon), <sup>49</sup> and all the Arabah beyond the Jordan eastward, even to the sea of the Arabah, under the slopes of Pisgah.

5

<sup>1</sup> Moses called to all Israel, and said to them, "Hear, Israel, the statutes and the ordinances which I speak in your ears today, that you may learn them, and observe to do them." <sup>2</sup> Yahweh our God made a covenant with us in Horeb. <sup>3</sup> Yahweh didn't make this covenant with our fathers, but with us, even us, who are all of us here alive today. <sup>4</sup> Yahweh spoke with you face to face on the mountain out of the middle of the fire, <sup>5</sup> (I stood between Yahweh and you at that time, to show you Yahweh's word: for you were afraid because of the fire, and didn't go up onto the mountain;) saying, <sup>6</sup> "I am Yahweh your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

<sup>8</sup> "You shall not make an engraved image for yourself, any likeness of what is in heaven above, or what is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth. <sup>9</sup> You shall not bow yourself down to them, nor serve them; for I, Yahweh, your God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children, and on the third and on the fourth generation of those who hate me; <sup>10</sup> and showing loving kindness to thousands of those who love me and keep my commandments.

not hold him guiltless who takes his name in vain.

<sup>12</sup> “Observe the Sabbath day, to keep it holy, as Yahweh your God commanded you. <sup>13</sup> You shall labor six days, and do all your work; <sup>14</sup> but the seventh day is a Sabbath to Yahweh your God, in which you shall not do any work, you, nor your son, nor your daughter, nor your male servant, nor your female servant, nor your ox, nor your donkey, nor any of your livestock, nor your stranger who is within your gates; that your male servant and your female servant may rest as well as you. <sup>15</sup> You shall remember that you were a servant in the land of Egypt, and Yahweh your God brought you out of there by a mighty hand and by an outstretched arm. Therefore Yahweh your God commanded you to keep the Sabbath day.

<sup>16</sup> “Honor your father and your mother, as Yahweh your God commanded you; that your days may be long, and that it may go well with you, in the land which Yahweh your God gives you.

added no more. He wrote them on two stone tablets, and gave them to me. <sup>23</sup> When you heard the voice out of the middle of the darkness, while the mountain was burning with fire, you came near to me, even all the heads of your tribes, and your elders; <sup>24</sup> and you said, “Behold, Yahweh our God has shown us his glory and his greatness, and we have heard his voice out of the middle of the fire. We have seen today that God does speak with man, and he lives. <sup>25</sup> Now therefore why should we die? For this great fire will consume us. If we hear Yahweh our God’s voice any more, then we shall die. <sup>26</sup> For who is there of all flesh, that has heard the voice of the living God speaking out of the middle of the fire, as we have, and lived? <sup>27</sup> Go near, and hear all that Yahweh our God shall say, and tell us all that Yahweh our God tells you; and we will hear it, and do it.”

<sup>28</sup> Yahweh heard the voice of your words, when you spoke to me; and Yahweh said to me, “I have heard the voice of the words of this people, which they have spoken to you. They have well said all that they have spoken. <sup>29</sup> Oh that there were such a heart in them, that they would fear me, and keep all my commandments always, that it might be well with them, and with their children forever!

<sup>30</sup> “Go tell them, ‘Return to your tents.’” <sup>31</sup> But as for you, stand here by me, and I will tell you all the commandment, and the statutes, and the ordinances, which you shall teach them, that they may do them in the land which I give them to possess it.”

which Yahweh your God has commanded you, that you may live, and that it may be well with you, and that you may prolong your days in the land which you shall possess.

6

<sup>1</sup> Now this is the commandment, the statutes, and the ordinances, which Yahweh your God commanded to teach you, that you might do them in the land where you go over to possess it; <sup>2</sup> that you might fear Yahweh your God, to keep all his statutes and his commandments, which I command you; you, and your son, and your son's son, all the days of your life; and that your days may be prolonged. <sup>3</sup> Hear therefore, Israel, and observe to do it; that it may be well with you, and that you may increase mightily, as Yahweh, the God of your fathers, has promised to you, in a land flowing with milk and honey. <sup>4</sup> Hear, Israel: Yahweh is our God. Yahweh is one. <sup>5</sup> You shall love Yahweh your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your might. <sup>6</sup> These words, which I command you today, shall be on your heart; <sup>7</sup> and you shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise up. <sup>8</sup> You shall bind them for a sign on your hand, and they shall be for frontlets between your eyes. <sup>9</sup> You shall write them on the door posts of your house, and on your gates. <sup>10</sup> It shall be, when Yahweh your God brings you into the land which he swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give you, great and goodly cities, which you didn't build, <sup>11</sup> and houses full of all good things, which you didn't fill, and cisterns dug out, which you didn't dig, vineyards and olive trees, which you didn't plant, and you shall eat and be full; <sup>12</sup> then beware lest you forget Yahweh, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. <sup>13</sup> You shall fear Yahweh your God; and you shall serve him, and shall swear by his name. <sup>14</sup> You shall not go after other gods, of the gods of the peoples who are around you; <sup>15</sup> for Yahweh your God among you is a jealous God; lest the anger of Yahweh your God be kindled against you, and he destroy you from off the face of the earth. <sup>16</sup> You shall not tempt Yahweh your God, as you tempted him in Massah. <sup>17</sup> You shall diligently keep the commandments of Yahweh your God, and his testimonies, and his statutes, which he has commanded you. <sup>18</sup> You shall do that which is right and good in Yahweh's sight; that it may be well with you, and that you may go in and possess the good land which Yahweh swore to your fathers, <sup>19</sup> to thrust out all your enemies from before you, as Yahweh has spoken.

<sup>20</sup> When your son asks you in time to come, saying, "What do the testimonies, the statutes, and the ordinances, which Yahweh our God has commanded you mean?" <sup>21</sup> then you shall tell your son, "We were Pharaoh's slaves in Egypt. Yahweh brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand; <sup>22</sup> and Yahweh showed great and awesome signs and wonders on Egypt, on Pharaoh, and on all his house, before our eyes; <sup>23</sup> and he brought us out from there, that he might bring us in, to give us the land which he swore to our fathers. <sup>24</sup> Yahweh commanded us to do all these statutes, to fear Yahweh our God, for our good always, that he might preserve us alive, as we are today. <sup>25</sup> It shall be righteousness to us, if we observe to do all this commandment before Yahweh our God, as he has commanded us.”

7

<sup>1</sup> When Yahweh your God brings you into the land where you go to possess it, and casts out many nations before you, the Hittite, the Girgashite, the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite, seven nations greater and mightier than you; <sup>2</sup> and when Yahweh your God delivers them up before you, and you strike them; then you shall utterly destroy them. You shall make no covenant with them, nor show mercy to them; <sup>3</sup> neither shall you make marriages with them. You shall not give your daughter to his son, nor shall you take his daughter for your son. <sup>4</sup> For he will turn away your son from following me, that they may serve other gods. So Yahweh’s anger would be kindled against you, and he would destroy you quickly. <sup>5</sup> But you shall deal with them like this. You shall break down their altars, dash their pillars in pieces, and cut down their Asherah poles, and burn their engraved images with fire. <sup>6</sup> For you are a holy people to Yahweh your God. Yahweh your God has chosen you to be a people for his own possession, above all peoples who are on the face of the earth. <sup>7</sup> Yahweh didn’t set his love on you, nor choose you, because you were more in number than any people; for you were the fewest of all peoples: <sup>8</sup> but because Yahweh loves you, and because he desires to keep the oath which he swore to your fathers, Yahweh has brought you out with a mighty hand, and redeemed you out of the house of bondage, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt. <sup>9</sup> Know therefore that Yahweh your God himself is God, the faithful God, who keeps covenant and loving kindness with them who love him and keep his commandments to a thousand generations, <sup>10</sup> and repays those who hate him to their face, to destroy them. He will not be slack to him who hates him. He will repay him to his face. <sup>11</sup> You shall therefore keep the commandments, the statutes, and the ordinances, which I command you today, to do them. <sup>12</sup> It shall happen, because you listen to these ordinances, and keep and do them, that Yahweh your God will keep with you the covenant and the loving kindness which he swore to your fathers. <sup>13</sup> He will love you, bless you, multiply you. He will also bless the fruit of your body and the fruit of your ground, your grain and your new wine and your oil, the increase of your livestock and the young of your flock, in the land which he swore to your fathers to give you. <sup>14</sup> You shall be blessed above all peoples. There shall not be male or female barren among you, or among your livestock. <sup>15</sup> Yahweh will take away from you all sickness; and none of the evil diseases of Egypt, which you know, will he put on you, but will lay them on all those who hate you. <sup>16</sup> You shall consume all the peoples whom Yahweh your God shall deliver to you. Your eye shall not pity them: neither shall you serve their gods; for that would be a snare to you. <sup>17</sup> If you shall say in your heart, “These nations are more than I; how can I dispossess them?” <sup>18</sup> you shall not be afraid of them. You shall remember well what Yahweh your God did to Pharaoh, and to all Egypt; <sup>19</sup> the great trials which your eyes saw, the signs, the wonders, the mighty hand, and the outstretched arm, by which Yahweh your God brought you out. So shall Yahweh your God do to all the peoples of whom you are afraid. <sup>20</sup> Moreover Yahweh your God will send the hornet among them, until those who are left, and hide themselves, perish from before you. <sup>21</sup> You shall not be scared of them; for Yahweh your God is among you, a great and awesome God. <sup>22</sup> Yahweh your God will cast out those nations before you little by little. You may not consume them at once, lest the animals of the field increase on you. <sup>23</sup> But Yahweh your God will deliver them up before you, and will confuse them with a great confusion, until they are destroyed. <sup>24</sup> He will deliver their kings into your hand, and you shall make their name perish from under the sky. No one will be able to stand before you, until you have destroyed them. <sup>25</sup> You shall burn the engraved images of their gods with fire. You shall not covet the silver or the gold that is on them, nor take it for yourself, lest you be snared in it; for it is an abomination to Yahweh your God. <sup>26</sup> You shall not bring an abomination into your house, and become a devoted thing like it. You shall utterly detest it, and you shall utterly abhor it; for it is a devoted thing.

<sup>1</sup> You shall observe to do all the commandments which I command you today, that you may live, and multiply, and go in and possess the land which Yahweh swore to your fathers. <sup>2</sup> You shall remember all the way which Yahweh your God has led you these forty years in the wilderness, that he might humble you, to prove you, to know what was in your heart, whether you would keep his commandments, or not. <sup>3</sup> He humbled you, and allowed you to be hungry, and fed you with manna, which you didn't know, neither did your fathers know; that he might teach you that man does not live by bread only, but man lives by every word that proceeds out of Yahweh's mouth. <sup>4</sup> Your clothing didn't grow old on you, neither did your foot swell, these forty years. <sup>5</sup> You shall consider in your heart that as a man disciplines his son, so Yahweh your God disciplines you. <sup>6</sup> You shall keep the commandments of Yahweh your God, to walk in his ways, and to fear him. <sup>7</sup> For Yahweh your God brings you into a good land, a land of brooks of water, of springs, and underground water flowing into valleys and hills; <sup>8</sup> a land of wheat and barley, and vines and fig trees and pomegranates; a land of olive trees and honey; <sup>9</sup> a land in which you shall eat bread without scarceness, you shall not lack anything in it; a land whose stones are iron, and out of whose hills you may dig copper. <sup>10</sup> You shall eat and be full, and you shall bless Yahweh your God for the good land which he has given you. <sup>11</sup> Beware lest you forget Yahweh your God, in not keeping his commandments, and his ordinances, and his statutes, which I command you today; <sup>12</sup> lest, when you have eaten and are full, and have built fine houses, and lived in them; <sup>13</sup> and when your herds and your flocks multiply, and your silver and your gold is multiplied, and all that you have is multiplied; <sup>14</sup> then your heart might be lifted up, and you forget Yahweh your

God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage; <sup>15</sup> who led you through the great and terrible wilderness, with fiery serpents and scorpions, and thirsty ground where there was no water; who poured water for you out of the rock of flint; <sup>16</sup> who fed you in the wilderness with manna, which your fathers didn't know; that he might humble you, and that he might prove you, to do you good at your latter end: <sup>17</sup> and lest you say in your heart, "My power and the might of my hand has gotten me this wealth." <sup>18</sup> But you shall remember Yahweh your God, for it is he who gives you power to get wealth; that he may establish his covenant which he swore to your fathers, as it is today.

<sup>19</sup> It shall be, if you shall forget Yahweh your God, and walk after other gods, and serve them, and worship them, I testify against you today that you shall surely perish. <sup>20</sup> As the nations that Yahweh makes to perish before you, so you shall perish; because you wouldn't listen to Yahweh your God's voice.

<sup>4</sup> Don't say in your heart, after Yahweh your God has thrust them out from before you, saying, "For my righteousness Yahweh has brought me in to possess this land"; because Yahweh drives them out before you because of the wickedness of these nations. <sup>5</sup> Not for your righteousness, or for the uprightness of your heart, do you go in to possess their land; but for the wickedness of these nations Yahweh your God does drive them out from before you, and that he may establish the word which Yahweh swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. <sup>6</sup> Know therefore, that Yahweh your God doesn't give you this good land to possess for your righteousness; for you are a stiff-necked people. <sup>7</sup> Remember, and don't forget, how you provoked Yahweh your God to wrath in the wilderness. From the day that you left the land of Egypt, until you came to this place, you have been rebellious against Yahweh. <sup>8</sup> Also in Horeb you provoked Yahweh to wrath, and Yahweh was angry with you to destroy you. <sup>9</sup> When I had gone up onto the mountain to receive the stone tablets, even the tablets of the covenant which Yahweh made with you, then I stayed on the mountain forty days and forty nights. I neither ate bread nor drank water. <sup>10</sup> Yahweh delivered to me the two stone tablets written with God's finger. On them were all the words which Yahweh spoke with you on the mountain out of the middle of the fire in the day of the assembly.

<sup>11</sup> It came to pass at the end of forty days and forty nights, that Yahweh gave me the two stone tablets, even the tablets of the covenant. <sup>12</sup> Yahweh said to me, "Arise, get down quickly from here; for your people whom you have brought out of Egypt have corrupted themselves. They have quickly turned aside out of the way which I commanded them. They have made a molten image for themselves!”

<sup>13</sup> Furthermore Yahweh spoke to me, saying, “I have seen this people, and behold, it is a stiff-necked people. <sup>14</sup> Leave me alone, that I may destroy them, and blot out their name from under the sky; and I will make of you a nation mightier and greater than they.”

<sup>15</sup> So I turned and came down from the mountain, and the mountain was burning with fire. The two tablets of the covenant were in my two hands. <sup>16</sup> I looked, and behold, you had sinned against Yahweh your God. You had made yourselves a molten calf. You had turned aside quickly out of the way which Yahweh had commanded you. <sup>17</sup> I took hold of the two tablets, and threw them out of my two hands, and broke them before your eyes. <sup>18</sup> I fell down before Yahweh, as at the first, forty days and forty nights. I neither ate bread nor drank water, because of all your sin which you sinned, in doing that which was evil in Yahweh’s sight, to provoke him to anger. <sup>19</sup> For I was afraid of the anger and hot displeasure with which Yahweh was angry against you to destroy you. But Yahweh listened to me that time also. <sup>20</sup> Yahweh was angry enough with Aaron to destroy him. I prayed for Aaron also at the same time. <sup>21</sup> I took your sin, the calf which you had made, and burned it with fire, and crushed it, grinding it very small, until it was as fine as dust. I threw its dust into the brook that descended out of the mountain. <sup>22</sup> At Taberah, and at Massah, and at Kibroth Hattaavah, you provoked Yahweh to wrath. <sup>23</sup> When Yahweh sent you from Kadesh Barnea, saying, “Go up and possess the land which I have given you,” you rebelled against the commandment of Yahweh your God, and you didn’t believe him, nor listen to his voice. <sup>24</sup> You have been rebellious against Yahweh from the day that I knew you. <sup>25</sup> So I fell down before Yahweh the forty days and forty nights that I fell down, because Yahweh had said he would destroy you. <sup>26</sup> I prayed to Yahweh, and said, “Lord Yahweh, don’t destroy your people and your inheritance, that you have redeemed through your greatness, that you have brought out of Egypt with a mighty hand. <sup>27</sup> Remember your servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Don’t look at the stubbornness of this people, nor at their wickedness, nor at their sin, <sup>28</sup> lest the land you brought us out from say, ‘Because Yahweh was not able to bring them into the land which he promised to them, and because he hated them, he has brought them out to kill them in the wilderness.’” <sup>29</sup> Yet they are your people and your inheritance, which you brought out by your great power and by your outstretched arm.”

<sup>1</sup> At that time Yahweh said to me, “Cut two stone tablets like the first, and come up to me onto the mountain, and make an ark of wood. <sup>2</sup> I will write on the tables the words that were on the first tables which you broke, and you shall put them in the ark.” <sup>3</sup> So I made an ark of acacia wood, and cut two stone tablets like the first, and went up onto the mountain, having the two tables in my hand. <sup>4</sup> He wrote on the tables, according to the first writing, the ten commandments, which Yahweh spoke to you on the mountain out of the middle of the fire in the day of the assembly: and Yahweh gave them to me. <sup>5</sup> I turned and came down from the mountain, and put the tables in the ark which I had made; and there they are as Yahweh commanded me. <sup>6</sup> (The children of Israel traveled from Beeroth Bene Jaakan to Moserah. There Aaron died, and there he was buried; and Eleazar his son ministered in the priest's office in his place. <sup>7</sup> From there they traveled to Gudgodah; and from Gudgodah to Jotbathah, a land of brooks of water. <sup>8</sup> At that time Yahweh set apart the tribe of Levi, to bear the ark of Yahweh's covenant, to stand before Yahweh to minister to him, and to bless in his name, to this day. <sup>9</sup> Therefore Levi has no portion nor inheritance with his brothers; Yahweh is his inheritance, according as Yahweh your God spoke to him.) <sup>10</sup> I stayed on the mountain, as at the first time, forty days and forty nights: and Yahweh listened to me that time also; Yahweh would not destroy you. <sup>11</sup> Yahweh said to me, "Arise, take your journey before the people; and they shall go in and possess the land, which I swore to their fathers to give to them."

<sup>12</sup> Now, Israel, what does Yahweh your God require of you, but to fear Yahweh your God, to walk in all his ways, and to love him, and to serve Yahweh your God with all your heart and with all your soul, <sup>13</sup> to keep Yahweh's commandments and statutes, which I command you today for your good? <sup>14</sup> Behold, to Yahweh your God belongs heaven and the heaven of heavens, the earth, with all that is therein. <sup>15</sup> Only Yahweh had a delight in your fathers to love them, and he chose their offspring<sup>h</sup> after them, even you above all peoples, as it is today. <sup>16</sup> Circumcise therefore the foreskin of your heart, and be no more stiff-necked. <sup>17</sup> For Yahweh your God, he is God of gods, and Lord of lords, the great God, the mighty, and the awesome, who doesn't respect persons, nor takes reward. <sup>18</sup> He does execute justice for the fatherless and widow, and loves the foreigner, in giving him food and clothing. <sup>19</sup> Therefore love the foreigner; for you were foreigners in the land of Egypt. <sup>20</sup> You shall fear Yahweh your God; you shall serve him; and you shall cling to him, and you shall swear by his name. <sup>21</sup> He is your praise, and he is your God, who has done for you these great and awesome things, which your eyes have seen. <sup>22</sup> Your fathers went down into Egypt with seventy persons; and now Yahweh your God has made you as the stars of the sky for multitude.

did to you in the wilderness, until you came to this place; <sup>6</sup> and what he did to Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, the son of Reuben; how the earth opened its mouth, and swallowed them up, and their households, and their tents, and every living thing that followed them, in the middle of all Israel; <sup>7</sup> but your eyes have seen all of Yahweh's great work which he did. <sup>8</sup> Therefore you shall keep all the commandment which I command you today, that you may be strong, and go in and possess the land, where you go over to possess it; <sup>9</sup> and that you may prolong your days in the land, which Yahweh swore to your fathers to give to them and to their offspring,<sup>i</sup> a land flowing with milk and honey. <sup>10</sup> For the land, where you go in to possess it, isn't as the land of Egypt, that you came out of, where you sowed your seed, and watered it with your foot, as a garden of herbs; <sup>11</sup> but the land, where you go over to possess it, is a land of hills and valleys which drinks water from the rain of the sky, <sup>12</sup> a land which Yahweh your God cares for. Yahweh your God's eyes are always on it, from the beginning of the year even to the end of the year. <sup>13</sup> It shall happen, if you shall listen diligently to my commandments which I command you today, to love Yahweh your God, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul, <sup>14</sup> that I will give the rain of your land in its season, the former rain and the latter rain, that you may gather in your grain, your new wine, and your oil. <sup>15</sup> I will give grass in your fields for your livestock, and you shall eat and be full. <sup>16</sup> Be careful, lest your heart be deceived, and you turn aside, and serve other gods, and worship

them; <sup>17</sup> and Yahweh's anger be kindled against you, and he shut up the sky, so that there is no rain, and the land doesn't yield its fruit; and you perish quickly from off the good land which Yahweh gives you. <sup>18</sup> Therefore you shall lay up these my words in your heart and in your soul. You shall bind them for a sign on your hand, and they shall be for frontlets between your eyes. <sup>19</sup> You shall teach them your children, talking of them, when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise up. <sup>20</sup> You shall write them on the door posts of your house, and on your gates; <sup>21</sup> that your days may be multiplied, and the days of your children, in the land which Yahweh swore to your fathers to give them, as the days of the heavens above the earth. <sup>22</sup> For if you shall diligently keep all these commandments which I command you, to do them, to love Yahweh your God, to walk in all his ways, and to cling to him; <sup>23</sup> then will Yahweh drive out all these nations from before you, and you shall dispossess nations greater and mightier than yourselves. <sup>24</sup> Every place whereon the sole of your foot treads shall be yours: from the wilderness, and Lebanon, from the river, the river Euphrates, even to the western sea shall be your border. <sup>25</sup> No man will be able to stand before you. Yahweh your God will lay the fear of you and the dread of you on all the land that you tread on, as he has spoken to you. <sup>26</sup> Behold, I set before you today a blessing and a curse: <sup>27</sup> the blessing, if you listen to the commandments of Yahweh your God, which I command you today; <sup>28</sup> and the curse, if you do not listen to the commandments of Yahweh your God, but turn aside out of the way which I command you today, to go after other gods, which you have not known. <sup>29</sup> It shall happen, when Yahweh your God brings you into the land where you go to possess it, that you shall set the blessing on Mount Gerizim, and the curse on Mount Ebal. <sup>30</sup> Aren't they beyond the Jordan, behind the way of the going down of the sun, in the land of the Canaanites who dwell in the Arabah, near Gilgal, beside the oaks of Moreh? <sup>31</sup> For you are to pass over the Jordan to go in to possess the land which Yahweh your God gives you, and you shall possess it, and dwell therein. <sup>32</sup> You shall observe to do all the statutes and the ordinances which I set before you today.

<sup>1</sup> These are the statutes and the ordinances which you shall observe to do in the land which Yahweh, the God of your fathers, has given you to possess it, all the days that you live on the earth. <sup>2</sup> You shall surely destroy all the places in which the nations that you shall dispossess served their gods, on the high mountains, and on the hills, and under every green tree. <sup>3</sup> You shall break down their altars, and dash their pillars in pieces, and burn their Asherah poles with fire. You shall cut down the engraved images of their gods. You shall destroy their name out of that place. <sup>4</sup> You shall not do so to Yahweh your God. <sup>5</sup> But to the place which Yahweh your God shall choose out of all your tribes, to put his name there, you shall seek his habitation, and there you shall come. <sup>6</sup> There you shall bring your burnt offerings, your sacrifices, your tithes, the wave offering of your hand, your vows, your freewill offerings, and the firstborn of your herd and of your flock. <sup>7</sup> There you shall eat before Yahweh your God, and you shall rejoice in all that you put your hand to, you and your households, in which Yahweh your God has blessed you. <sup>8</sup> You shall not do after all the things that we do here today, every man whatever is right in his own eyes; <sup>9</sup> for you haven't yet come to the rest and to the inheritance, which Yahweh your God gives you. <sup>10</sup> But when you go over the Jordan, and dwell in the land which Yahweh your God causes you to inherit, and he gives you rest from all your enemies around you, so that you dwell in safety; <sup>11</sup> then it shall happen that to the place which Yahweh your God shall choose, to cause his name to dwell there, there you shall bring all that I command you: your burnt offerings, your sacrifices, your tithes, the wave offering of your hand, and all your choice vows which you vow to Yahweh. <sup>12</sup> You shall rejoice before Yahweh your God, you, and your sons, your daughters, your male servants, your female servants, and the Levite who is within your gates, because he has no portion nor inheritance with you. <sup>13</sup> Be careful that you don't offer your burnt offerings in every place that you see; <sup>14</sup> but in the place which Yahweh chooses in one of your tribes, there you shall offer your burnt offerings, and there you shall do all that I command you. <sup>15</sup> Notwithstanding, you may kill and eat flesh within all your gates, after all the desire of your soul, according to Yahweh your God's blessing which he has given you. The unclean and the clean may eat of it, as of the gazelle, and as of the deer. <sup>16</sup> Only you shall not eat the blood. You shall pour it out on the earth like water. <sup>17</sup> You may not eat within your gates the tithe of your grain, or of your new wine, or of your oil, or the firstborn of your herd or of your flock, nor any of your vows which you vow, nor your freewill offerings, nor the wave offering of your hand; <sup>18</sup> but you shall eat them before Yahweh your God in the place which Yahweh your God shall choose, you, your son, your daughter, your male servant, your female servant, and the Levite who is within your gates. You shall rejoice before Yahweh your God in all that you put your hand to. <sup>19</sup> Be careful that you don't forsake the Levite as long as you live in your land.

<sup>20</sup> When Yahweh your God enlarges your border, as he has promised you, and you shall say, "I want to eat meat," because your soul desires to eat meat; you may eat meat, after all the desire of your soul. <sup>21</sup> If the place which Yahweh your God shall choose, to put his name there, is too far from you, then you shall kill of your herd and of your flock, which Yahweh has given you, as I have commanded you; and you may eat within your gates, after all the desire of your soul. <sup>22</sup> Even as the gazelle and as the deer is eaten, so you shall eat of it. The unclean and the clean may eat of it alike. <sup>23</sup> Only be sure that you don't eat the blood; for the blood is the life. You shall not eat the life with the flesh. <sup>24</sup> You shall not eat it. You shall pour it out on the earth like water. <sup>25</sup> You shall not eat it; that it may go well with you, and with your children after you, when you shall do that which is right in Yahweh's eyes. <sup>26</sup> Only your holy things which you have, and your vows, you shall take, and go to the place which Yahweh shall choose. <sup>27</sup> You shall offer your burnt offerings, the flesh and the blood, on Yahweh your God's altar; and the blood of your sacrifices shall be poured out on Yahweh your God's altar; and you shall eat the flesh. <sup>28</sup> Observe and hear all these words which I command you, that it may go well with you, and with your children after you forever, when you do that which is good and right in Yahweh your God's eyes.

<sup>29</sup> When Yahweh your God cuts off the nations from before you, where you go in to dispossess them, and you dispossess them, and dwell in their land; <sup>30</sup> be careful that you are not ensnared to follow them, after that they are destroyed from before you; and that you not inquire after their gods, saying, "How do these nations serve their gods? I will do likewise." <sup>31</sup> You shall not do so to Yahweh your God; for every abomination to Yahweh, which he hates, have they done to their gods; for they even burn their sons and their daughters in the fire to their gods. <sup>32</sup> Whatever thing I command you, that you shall observe to do. You shall not add to it, nor take away from it.

with all your heart and with all your soul. <sup>4</sup> You shall walk after Yahweh your God, fear him, keep his commandments, and obey his voice, and you shall serve him, and cling to him. <sup>5</sup> That prophet, or that dreamer of dreams, shall be put to death, because he has spoken rebellion against Yahweh your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed you out of the house of bondage, to draw you aside out of the way which Yahweh your God commanded you to walk in. So you shall remove the evil from among you.

<sup>6</sup> If your brother, the son of your mother, or your son, or your daughter, or the wife of your bosom, or your friend, who is as your own soul, entices you secretly, saying, "Let us go and serve other gods," which you have not known, you, nor your fathers; <sup>7</sup> of the gods of the peoples who are around you, near to you, or far off from you, from the one end of the earth even to the other end of the earth; <sup>8</sup> you shall not consent to him, nor listen to him; neither shall your eye pity him, neither shall you spare, neither shall you conceal him; <sup>9</sup> but you shall surely kill him. Your hand shall be first on him to put him to death, and afterwards the hands of all the people. <sup>10</sup> You shall stone him to death with stones, because he has sought to draw you away from Yahweh your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. <sup>11</sup> All Israel shall hear, and fear, and shall not do any more wickedness like this among you.

saying, "Let us go and serve other gods," which you have not known; <sup>14</sup> then you shall inquire, and make search, and ask diligently. Behold, if it is true, and the thing certain, that such abomination was done among you, <sup>15</sup> you shall surely strike the inhabitants of that city with the edge of the sword, destroying it utterly, with all that is therein and its livestock, with the edge of the sword. <sup>16</sup> You shall gather all its plunder into the middle of its street, and shall burn with fire the city, and all every bit of its plunder, to Yahweh your God. It shall be a heap forever. It shall not be built again. <sup>17</sup> Nothing of the devoted thing shall cling to your hand, that Yahweh may turn from the fierceness of his anger, and show you mercy, and have compassion on you, and multiply you, as he has sworn to your fathers; <sup>18</sup> when you listen to Yahweh your God's voice, to keep all his commandments which I command you today, to do that which is right in Yahweh your God's eyes.

among the animals, that may you eat. <sup>7</sup> Nevertheless these you shall not eat of them that chew the cud, or of those who have the hoof cloven: the camel, the hare, and the rabbit. Because they chew the cud but don't part the hoof, they are unclean to you. <sup>8</sup> The pig, because it has a split hoof but doesn't chew the cud, is unclean to you. You shall not eat their flesh, and you shall not touch their carcasses. <sup>9</sup> These you may eat of all that are in the waters: whatever has fins and scales may you eat. <sup>10</sup> You shall not eat whatever doesn't have fins and scales. It is unclean to you. <sup>11</sup> Of all clean birds you may eat. <sup>12</sup> But these are they of which you shall not eat: the eagle, the vulture, the osprey, <sup>13</sup> the red kite, the falcon, the kite after its kind, <sup>14</sup> every raven after its kind, <sup>15</sup> the ostrich, the owl, the seagull, the hawk after its kind, <sup>16</sup> the little owl, the great owl, the horned owl, <sup>17</sup> the pelican, the vulture, the cormorant, <sup>18</sup> the stork, the heron after its kind, the hoopoe, and the bat. <sup>19</sup> All winged creeping things are unclean to you. They shall not be eaten. <sup>20</sup> Of all clean birds you may eat.

<sup>21</sup> You shall not eat of anything that dies of itself. You may give it to the foreigner living among you who is within your gates, that he may eat it; or you may sell it to a foreigner; for you are a holy people to Yahweh your God. You shall not boil a young goat in its mother's milk.

herd and of your flock; that you may learn to fear Yahweh your God always. <sup>24</sup> If the way is too long for you, so that you are not able to carry it, because the place is too far from you, which Yahweh your God shall choose, to set his name there, when Yahweh your God shall bless you; <sup>25</sup> then you shall turn it into money, and bind up the money in your hand, and shall go to the place which Yahweh your God shall choose. <sup>26</sup> You shall trade the money for whatever your soul desires, for cattle, or for sheep, or for wine, or for strong drink, or for whatever your soul asks of you; and you shall eat there before Yahweh your God, and you shall rejoice, you and your household. <sup>27</sup> You shall not forsake the Levite who is within your gates, for he has no portion nor inheritance with you. <sup>28</sup> At the end of every three years you shall bring all the tithe of your increase in the same year, and shall store it within your gates. <sup>29</sup> The Levite, because he has no portion nor inheritance with you, and the foreigner living among you, and the fatherless, and the widow, who are within your gates, shall come, and shall eat and be satisfied; that Yahweh your God may bless you in all the work of your hand which you do.

(for Yahweh will surely bless you in the land which Yahweh your God gives you for an inheritance to possess it) <sup>5</sup> if only you diligently listen to Yahweh your God's voice, to observe to do all this commandment which I command you today. <sup>6</sup> For Yahweh your God will bless you, as he promised you. You will lend to many nations, but you will not borrow. You will rule over many nations, but they will not rule over you. <sup>7</sup> If a poor man, one of your brothers, is with you within any of your gates in your land which Yahweh your God gives you, you shall not harden your heart, nor shut your hand from your poor brother; <sup>8</sup> but you shall surely open your hand to him, and shall surely lend him sufficient for his need, which he lacks. <sup>9</sup> Beware that there not be a base thought in your heart, saying, "The seventh year, the year of release, is at hand"; and your eye be evil against your poor brother, and you give him nothing; and he cry to Yahweh against you, and it be sin to you. <sup>10</sup> You shall surely give, and your heart shall not be grieved when you give to him; because that for this thing Yahweh your God will bless you in all your work, and in all that you put your hand to. <sup>11</sup> For the poor will never cease out of the land. Therefore I command you to surely open your hand to your brother, to your needy, and to your poor, in your land. <sup>12</sup> If your brother, a Hebrew man, or a Hebrew woman, is sold to you, and serves you six years; then in the seventh year you shall let him go free from you. <sup>13</sup> When you let him go free from you, you shall not let him go empty. <sup>14</sup> You shall furnish him liberally out of your flock, out of your threshing floor, and out of your wine press. As Yahweh your God has blessed you, you shall give to him. <sup>15</sup> You shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and Yahweh your God redeemed you. Therefore I command you this thing today. <sup>16</sup> It shall be, if he tells you, "I will not go out from you," because he loves you and your house, because he is well with you; <sup>17</sup> then you shall take an awl, and thrust it through his ear to the door, and he shall be your servant forever. Also to your female servant you shall do likewise. <sup>18</sup> It shall not seem hard to you, when you let him go free from you; for he has been double value of a hired hand as he served you six years. Yahweh your God will bless you in all that you do. <sup>19</sup> You shall dedicate all the firstborn males that are born of your herd and of your flock to Yahweh your God. You shall do no work with the firstborn of your herd, nor shear the firstborn of your flock. <sup>20</sup> You shall eat it before Yahweh your God year by year in the place which Yahweh shall choose, you and your household. <sup>21</sup> If it has any defect, is lame or blind, or has any defect whatever, you shall not sacrifice it to Yahweh your God. <sup>22</sup> You shall eat it within your gates. The unclean and the clean shall eat it alike, as the gazelle, and as the deer. <sup>23</sup> Only you shall not eat its blood. You shall pour it out on the ground like water.

name to dwell there. <sup>3</sup> You shall eat no leavened bread with it. You shall eat unleavened bread with it seven days, even the bread of affliction; for you came out of the land of Egypt in haste; that you may remember the day when you came out of the land of Egypt all the days of your life. <sup>4</sup> No yeast shall be seen with you in all your borders seven days; neither shall any of the flesh, which you sacrifice the first day at evening, remain all night until the morning. <sup>5</sup> You may not sacrifice the Passover within any of your gates, which Yahweh your God gives you; <sup>6</sup> but at the place which Yahweh your God shall choose, to cause his name to dwell in, there you shall sacrifice the Passover at evening, at the going down of the sun, at the season that you came out of Egypt. <sup>7</sup> You shall roast and eat it in the place which Yahweh your God chooses. In the morning you shall return to your tents. <sup>8</sup> Six days you shall eat unleavened bread. On the seventh day shall be a solemn assembly to Yahweh your God. You shall do no work. <sup>9</sup> You shall count for yourselves seven weeks. From the time you begin to put the sickle to the standing grain you shall begin to number seven weeks. <sup>10</sup> You shall keep the feast of weeks to Yahweh your God with a tribute of a freewill offering of your hand, which you shall give, according as Yahweh your God blesses you. <sup>11</sup> You shall rejoice before Yahweh your God: you, your son, your daughter, your male servant, your female servant, the Levite who is within your gates, the foreigner, the fatherless, and the widow, who are among you, in the place which Yahweh your God shall choose to cause his name to dwell there. <sup>12</sup> You shall remember that you were a slave in Egypt. You shall observe and do these statutes. <sup>13</sup> You shall keep the feast of tents seven days, after you have gathered in from your threshing floor and from your wine press. <sup>14</sup> You shall rejoice in your feast, you, your son, your daughter, your male servant, your female servant, the Levite, the foreigner, the fatherless, and the widow, who are within your gates. <sup>15</sup> You shall keep a feast to Yahweh your God seven days in the place which Yahweh chooses; because Yahweh your God will bless you in all your increase, and in all the work of your hands, and you shall be altogether joyful. <sup>16</sup> Three times in a year all of your males shall appear before Yahweh your God in the place which he chooses: in the feast of unleavened bread, in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of tents. They shall not appear before Yahweh empty. <sup>17</sup> Every man shall give as he is able, according to Yahweh your God's blessing which he has given you. <sup>18</sup> You shall make judges and officers in all your gates, which Yahweh your God gives you, according to your tribes; and they shall judge the people with righteous judgment. <sup>19</sup> You shall not pervert justice. You shall not show partiality. You shall not take a bribe, for a bribe blinds the eyes of the wise, and perverts the words of the righteous. <sup>20</sup> You shall follow that which is altogether just, that you may live, and inherit the land which Yahweh your God gives you. <sup>21</sup> You shall not plant for yourselves an Asherah of any kind of tree beside Yahweh your God's altar, which you shall make for yourselves. <sup>22</sup> Neither shall you set yourself up a sacred stone which Yahweh your God hates.

<sup>1</sup> You shall not sacrifice to Yahweh your God an ox, or a sheep, in which is a defect, or anything evil; for that is an abomination to Yahweh your God. <sup>2</sup> If there is found among you, within any of your gates which Yahweh your God gives you, a man or woman who does that which is evil in Yahweh your God's sight, in transgressing his covenant, <sup>3</sup> and has gone and served other gods, and worshiped them, or the sun, or the moon, or any of the stars of the sky, which I have not commanded; <sup>4</sup> and you are told, and you have heard of it, then you shall inquire diligently. Behold, if it is true, and the thing certain, that such abomination is done in Israel, <sup>5</sup> then you shall bring out that man or that woman, who has done this evil thing, to your gates, even that same man or woman; and you shall stone them to death with stones. <sup>6</sup> At the mouth of two witnesses, or three witnesses, he who is to die shall be put to death. At the mouth of one witness he shall not be put to death. <sup>7</sup> The hand of the witnesses shall be first on him to put him to death, and afterward the hand of all the people. So you shall remove the evil from among you. <sup>8</sup> If there arises a matter too hard for you in judgment, between blood and blood, between plea and plea, and between stroke and stroke, being matters of controversy within your gates; then you shall arise, and go up to the place which Yahweh your God chooses. <sup>9</sup> You shall come to the priests who are Levites, and to the judge who shall be in those days. You shall inquire, and they shall give you the verdict. <sup>10</sup> You shall do according to the decisions of the verdict which they shall give you from that place which Yahweh chooses. You shall observe to do according to all that they shall teach you: <sup>11</sup> according to the decisions of the law which they shall teach you, and according to the judgment which they shall tell you, you shall do. You shall not turn aside from the sentence which they shall show you, to the right hand, nor to the left. <sup>12</sup> The man who does presumptuously, in not listening to the priest who stands to minister there before Yahweh your God, or to the judge, even that man shall die. You shall put away the evil from Israel. <sup>13</sup> All the people shall hear, and fear, and do no more presumptuously.

<sup>14</sup> When you have come to the land which Yahweh your God gives you, and possess it, and dwell in it, and say, "I will set a king over me, like all the nations that are around me"; <sup>15</sup> you shall surely set him king over yourselves, whom Yahweh your God chooses. You shall set as king over you one from among your brothers. You may not put a foreigner over you, who is not your brother. <sup>16</sup> Only he shall not multiply horses to himself, nor cause the people to return to Egypt, to the end that he may multiply horses; because Yahweh has said to you, "You shall not go back that way again." <sup>17</sup> He shall not multiply wives to himself, that his heart not turn away. He shall not greatly multiply to himself silver and gold.

<sup>18</sup> It shall be, when he sits on the throne of his kingdom, that he shall write himself a copy of this law in a book, out of that which is before the priests the Levites. <sup>19</sup> It shall be with him, and he shall read from it all the days of his life; that he may learn to fear Yahweh his God, to keep all the words of this law and these statutes, to do them; <sup>20</sup> that his heart not be lifted up above his brothers, and that he not turn aside from the commandment, to the right hand, or to the left; to the end that he may prolong his days in his kingdom, he and his children, in the middle of Israel.

through the fire, one who uses divination, one who practices sorcery, or an enchanter, or a sorcerer, <sup>11</sup> or a charmer, or a consulter with a familiar spirit, or a wizard, or a necromancer. <sup>12</sup> For whoever does these things is an abomination to Yahweh. Because of these abominations, Yahweh your God drives them out from before you. <sup>13</sup> You shall be perfect with Yahweh your God. <sup>14</sup> For these nations that you shall dispossess listen to those who practice sorcery and to diviners; but as for you, Yahweh your God has not allowed you so to do. <sup>15</sup> Yahweh your God will raise up to you a prophet from among you, of your brothers, like me. You shall listen to him. <sup>16</sup> This is according to all that you desired of Yahweh your God in Horeb in the day of the assembly, saying, "Let me not hear again Yahweh my God's voice, neither let me see this great fire any more, that I not die."

<sup>17</sup> Yahweh said to me, "They have well said that which they have spoken. <sup>18</sup> I will raise them up a prophet from among their brothers, like you. I will put my words in his mouth, and he shall speak to them all that I shall command him. <sup>19</sup> It shall happen, that whoever will not listen to my words which he shall speak in my name, I will require it of him. <sup>20</sup> But the prophet who speaks a word presumptuously in my name, which I have not commanded him to speak, or who speaks in the name of other gods, that same prophet shall die."

<sup>21</sup> You may say in your heart, "How shall we know the word which Yahweh has not spoken?" <sup>22</sup> When a prophet speaks in Yahweh's name, if the thing doesn't follow, nor happen, that is the thing which Yahweh has not spoken. The prophet has spoken it presumptuously. You shall not be afraid of him.

19

<sup>1</sup> When Yahweh your God cuts off the nations, whose land Yahweh your God gives you, and you succeed them, and dwell in their cities, and in their houses; <sup>2</sup> you shall set apart three cities for yourselves in the middle of your land, which Yahweh your God gives you to possess it. <sup>3</sup> You shall prepare the way, and divide the borders of your land, which Yahweh your God causes you to inherit, into three parts, that every man slayer may flee there. <sup>4</sup> This is the case of the man slayer who shall flee there and live. Whoever kills his neighbor unawares, and didn't hate him in time past; <sup>5</sup> as when a man goes into the forest with his neighbor to chop wood, and his hand fetches a stroke with the ax to cut down the tree, and the head slips from the handle, and lights on his neighbor, so that he dies, he shall flee to one of these cities and live. <sup>6</sup> Otherwise, the avenger of blood might pursue the man slayer, while his heart is hot, and overtake him, because the way is long, and strike him mortally; even though he was not worthy of death, because he didn't hate him in time past. <sup>7</sup> Therefore I command you to set apart three cities for yourselves. <sup>8</sup> If Yahweh your God enlarges your border, as he has sworn to your fathers, and gives you all the land which he promised to give to your fathers; <sup>9</sup> if you keep all this commandment to do it, which I command you today, to love Yahweh your God, and to walk ever in his ways; then you shall add three cities more for yourselves, besides these three. <sup>10</sup> This is so that innocent blood will not be shed in the middle of your land which Yahweh your God gives you for an inheritance, leaving blood guilt on you. <sup>11</sup> But if any man hates his neighbor, lies in wait for him, rises up against him, strikes him mortally so that he dies, and he flees into one of these cities; <sup>12</sup> then the elders of his city shall send and bring him there, and deliver him into the hand of the avenger of blood, that he may die. <sup>13</sup> Your eye shall not pity him, but you shall purge the innocent blood from Israel, that it may go well with you. <sup>14</sup> You shall not remove your neighbor's landmark, which they of old time have set, in your inheritance which you shall inherit, in the land that Yahweh your God gives you to possess. <sup>15</sup> One witness shall not rise up against a man for any iniquity, or for any sin, in any sin that he sins. At the mouth of two witnesses, or at the mouth of three witnesses, shall a matter be established. <sup>16</sup> If an unrighteous witness rises up against any man to testify against him of wrongdoing, <sup>17</sup> then both the men, between whom the controversy is, shall stand before Yahweh, before the priests and the judges who shall be in those days; <sup>18</sup> and the judges shall make diligent inquisition: and, behold, if the witness is a false witness, and has testified falsely against his brother; <sup>19</sup> then you shall do to him as he had thought to do to his brother. So you shall remove the evil from among you. <sup>20</sup> Those who remain shall hear, and fear, and will never again commit any such evil among you. <sup>21</sup> Your eyes shall not pity: life for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

<sup>5</sup> The officers shall speak to the people, saying, “What man is there who has built a new house, and has not dedicated it? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man dedicate it. <sup>6</sup> What man is there who has planted a vineyard, and has not used its fruit? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man use its fruit. <sup>7</sup> What man is there who has pledged to be married a wife, and has not taken her? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man take her.” <sup>8</sup> The officers shall speak further to the people, and they shall say, “What man is there who is fearful and faint-hearted? Let him go and return to his house, lest his brother’s heart melt as his heart.” <sup>9</sup> It shall be, when the officers have finished speaking to the people, that they shall appoint captains of armies at the head of the people.

shall be, if it makes you answer of peace, and opens to you, then it shall be, that all the people who are found therein shall become forced laborers to you, and shall serve you. <sup>12</sup> If it will make no peace with you, but will make war against you, then you shall besiege it. <sup>13</sup> When Yahweh your God delivers it into your hand, you shall strike every male of it with the edge of the sword; <sup>14</sup> but the women, the little ones, the livestock, and all that is in the city, even all its plunder, you shall take for plunder for yourself. You may use the plunder of your enemies, which Yahweh your God has given you. <sup>15</sup> Thus you shall do to all the cities which are very far off from you, which are not of the cities of these nations. <sup>16</sup> But of the cities of these peoples, that Yahweh your God gives you for an inheritance, you shall save alive nothing that breathes; <sup>17</sup> but you shall utterly destroy them: the Hittite, the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite; as Yahweh your God has commanded you; <sup>18</sup> that they not teach you to follow all their abominations, which they have done to their gods; so would you sin against Yahweh your God. <sup>19</sup> When you shall besiege a city a long time, in making war against it to take it, you shall not destroy its trees by wielding an ax against them; for you may eat of them. You shall not cut them down; for is the tree of the field man, that it should be besieged by you? <sup>20</sup> Only the trees that you know are not trees for food, you shall destroy and cut them down. You shall build bulwarks against the city that makes war with you, until it falls.

21

<sup>1</sup> If someone is found slain in the land which Yahweh your God gives you to possess, lying in the field, and it isn't known who has struck him; <sup>2</sup> then your elders and your judges shall come out, and they shall measure to the cities which are around him who is slain. <sup>3</sup> It shall be that the elders of the city which is nearest to the slain man shall take a heifer of the herd, which hasn't been worked with, and which has not drawn in the yoke. <sup>4</sup> The elders of that city shall bring the heifer down to a valley with running water, which is neither plowed nor sown, and shall break the heifer's neck there in the valley. <sup>5</sup> The priests the sons of Levi shall come near; for them Yahweh your God has chosen to minister to him, and to bless in Yahweh's name; and according to their word shall every controversy and every assault be decided. <sup>6</sup> All the elders of that city, who are nearest to the slain man, shall wash their hands over the heifer whose neck was broken in the valley. <sup>7</sup> They shall answer and say, "Our hands have not shed this blood, neither have our eyes seen it. <sup>8</sup> Forgive, Yahweh, your people Israel, whom you have redeemed, and don't allow innocent blood among your people Israel." The blood shall be forgiven them. <sup>9</sup> So you shall put away the innocent blood from among you, when you shall do that which is right in Yahweh's eyes.

<sup>10</sup> When you go out to battle against your enemies, and Yahweh your God delivers them into your hands, and you carry them away captive, <sup>11</sup> and see among the captives a beautiful woman, and you have a desire to her, and desire to take her as your wife; <sup>12</sup> then you shall bring her home to your house. She shall shave her head and trim her nails. <sup>13</sup> She shall take the clothing of her captivity off of herself, and shall remain in your house, and bewail her father and her mother a full month. After that you shall go in to her and be her husband, and she shall be your wife. <sup>14</sup> It shall be, if you have no delight in her, then you shall let her go where she desires; but you shall not sell her at all for money. You shall not deal with her as a slave, because you have humbled her. <sup>15</sup> If a man has two wives, the one beloved, and the other hated, and they have borne him children, both the beloved and the hated; and if the firstborn son is hers who was hated; <sup>16</sup> then it shall be, in the day that he causes his sons to inherit that which he has, that he may not give the son of the beloved the rights of the firstborn before the son of the hated, who is the firstborn; <sup>17</sup> but he shall acknowledge the firstborn, the son of the hated, by giving him a double portion of all that he has; for he is the beginning of his strength. The right of the firstborn is his. <sup>18</sup> If a man has a stubborn and rebellious son, who will not obey the voice of his father or the voice of his mother, and though they chasten him, will not listen to them; <sup>19</sup> then his father and his mother shall take hold of him and bring him out to the elders of his city, and to the gate of his place. <sup>20</sup> They shall tell the elders of his city, "This our son is stubborn and rebellious. He will not obey our voice. He is a glutton and a drunkard." <sup>21</sup> All the men of his city shall stone him to death with stones. So you shall remove the evil from among you. All Israel shall hear, and fear.

<sup>1</sup> You shall not see your brother's ox or his sheep go astray, and hide yourself from them. You shall surely bring them again to your brother. <sup>2</sup> If your brother isn't near to you, or if you don't know him, then you shall bring it home to your house, and it shall be with you until your brother comes looking for it, and you shall restore it to him. <sup>3</sup> So you shall do with his donkey. So you shall do with his garment. So you shall do with every lost thing of your brother's, which he has lost, and you have found. You may not hide yourself. <sup>4</sup> You shall not see your brother's donkey or his ox fallen down by the way, and hide yourself from them. You shall surely help him to lift them up again. <sup>5</sup> A woman shall not wear men's clothing, neither shall a man put on women's clothing; for whoever does these things is an abomination to Yahweh your God. <sup>6</sup> If you come across a bird's nest on the way, in any tree or on the ground, with young ones or eggs, and the hen sitting on the young, or on the eggs, you shall not take the hen with the young. <sup>7</sup> You shall surely let the hen go, but the young you may take for yourself; that it may be well with you, and that you may prolong your days. <sup>8</sup> When you build a new house, then you shall make a railing around your roof, so that you don't bring blood on your house if anyone falls from there. <sup>9</sup> You shall not sow your vineyard with two kinds of seed, lest all the fruit be defiled, the seed which you have sown, and the increase of the vineyard. <sup>10</sup> You shall not plow with an ox and a donkey together. <sup>11</sup> You shall not wear clothes of wool and linen woven together. <sup>12</sup> You shall make yourselves fringes<sup>j</sup> on the four corners of your cloak with which you cover yourself.

the men of her city shall stone her to death with stones, because she has done folly in Israel, to play the prostitute in her father's house. So you shall remove the evil from among you. <sup>22</sup> If a man is found lying with a woman married to a husband, then they shall both die, the man who lay with the woman and the woman. So you shall remove the evil from Israel. <sup>23</sup> If there is a young lady who is a virgin pledged to be married to a husband, and a man finds her in the city, and lies with her; <sup>24</sup> then you shall bring them both out to the gate of that city, and you shall stone them to death with stones; the lady, because she didn't cry, being in the city; and the man, because he has humbled his neighbor's wife. So you shall remove the evil from among you. <sup>25</sup> But if the man finds the lady who is pledged to be married in the field, and the man forces her, and lies with her; then only the man who lay with her shall die; <sup>26</sup> but to the lady you shall do nothing. There is in the lady no sin worthy of death; for as when a man rises against his neighbor, and kills him, even so is this matter; <sup>27</sup> for he found her in the field, the pledged to be married lady cried, and there was no one to save her. <sup>28</sup> If a man finds a lady who is a virgin, who is not pledged to be married, grabs her, and lies with her, and they are found; <sup>29</sup> then the man who lay with her shall give to the lady's father fifty shekels<sup>1</sup> of silver. She shall be his wife, because he has humbled her. He may not put her away all his days. <sup>30</sup> A man shall not take his father's wife, and shall not uncover his father's skirt.

23

go relieve yourself. <sup>13</sup> You shall have a trowel among your weapons. It shall be, when you relieve yourself, you shall dig with it, and shall turn back and cover your excrement; <sup>14</sup> for Yahweh your God walks in the middle of your camp, to deliver you, and to give up your enemies before you. Therefore your camp shall be holy, that he may not see an unclean thing in you, and turn away from you. <sup>15</sup> You shall not deliver to his master a servant who has escaped from his master to you. <sup>16</sup> He shall dwell with you, among you, in the place which he shall choose within one of your gates, where it pleases him best. You shall not oppress him. <sup>17</sup> There shall be no prostitute of the daughters of Israel, neither shall there be a sodomite of the sons of Israel. <sup>18</sup> You shall not bring the hire of a prostitute, or the wages of a male prostitute,<sup>m</sup> into the house of Yahweh your God for any vow; for both of these are an abomination to Yahweh your God. <sup>19</sup> You shall not lend on interest to your brother; interest of money, interest of food, interest of anything that is lent on interest. <sup>20</sup> You may lend on interest to a foreigner; but to your brother you shall not lend on interest, that Yahweh your God may bless you in all that you put your hand to, in the land where you go in to possess it. <sup>21</sup> When you vow a vow to Yahweh your God, you shall not be slack to pay it; for Yahweh your God will surely require it of you; and it would be sin in you. <sup>22</sup> But if you refrain from making a vow, it shall be no sin in you. <sup>23</sup> You shall observe and do that which has gone out of your lips. Whatever you have vowed to Yahweh your God as a freewill offering, which you have promised with your mouth, you must do. <sup>24</sup> When you come into your neighbor's vineyard, then you may eat of grapes your fill at your own pleasure; but you shall not put any in your container. <sup>25</sup> When you come into your neighbor's standing grain, then you may pluck the ears with your hand; but you shall not move a sickle to your neighbor's standing grain.

24

diligently, and do according to all that the priests the Levites teach you. As I commanded them, so you shall observe to do. <sup>9</sup> Remember what Yahweh your God did to Miriam, by the way as you came out of Egypt. <sup>10</sup> When you lend your neighbor any kind of loan, you shall not go into his house to get his pledge. <sup>11</sup> You shall stand outside, and the man to whom you lend shall bring the pledge outside to you. <sup>12</sup> If he is a poor man, you shall not sleep with his pledge. <sup>13</sup> You shall surely restore to him the pledge when the sun goes down, that he may sleep in his garment, and bless you. It shall be righteousness to you before Yahweh your God. <sup>14</sup> You shall not oppress a hired servant who is poor and needy, whether he is one of your brothers, or one of the foreigners who are in your land within your gates. <sup>15</sup> In his day you shall give him his hire, neither shall the sun go down on it; for he is poor, and sets his heart on it; lest he cry against you to Yahweh, and it be sin to you. <sup>16</sup> The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, neither shall the children be put to death for the fathers. Every man shall be put to death for his own sin. <sup>17</sup> You shall not deprive the foreigner or the fatherless of justice, nor take a widow's clothing in pledge; <sup>18</sup> but you shall remember that you were a slave in Egypt, and Yahweh your God redeemed you there. Therefore I command you to do this thing. <sup>19</sup> When you reap your harvest in your field, and have forgotten a sheaf in the field, you shall not go again to get it. It shall be for the foreigner, for the fatherless, and for the widow; that Yahweh your God may bless you in all the work of your hands. <sup>20</sup> When you beat your olive tree, you shall not go over the boughs again. It shall be for the foreigner, for the fatherless, and for the widow. <sup>21</sup> When you harvest your vineyard, you shall not glean it after yourselves. It shall be for the foreigner, for the fatherless, and for the widow. <sup>22</sup> You shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt. Therefore I command you to do this thing.

<sup>1</sup> If there is a controversy between men, and they come to judgment, and the judges judge them; then they shall justify the righteous, and condemn the wicked. <sup>2</sup> It shall be, if the wicked man is worthy to be beaten, that the judge shall cause him to lie down, and to be beaten before his face, according to his wickedness, by number. <sup>3</sup> He may sentence him to no more than forty stripes. He shall not give more; lest, if he should give more, and beat him more than that many stripes, then your brother will be degraded in your sight.

<sup>7</sup> If the man doesn't want to take his brother's wife, then his brother's wife shall go up to the gate to the elders, and say, "My husband's brother refuses to raise up to his brother a name in Israel. He will not perform the duty of a husband's brother to me." <sup>8</sup> Then the elders of his city shall call him, and speak to him: and if he stands and says, "I don't want to take her"; <sup>9</sup> then his brother's wife shall come to him in the presence of the elders, and loose his shoe from off his foot, and spit in his face. She shall answer and say, "So shall it be done to the man who does not build up his brother's house." <sup>10</sup> His name shall be called in Israel, "The house of him who had his shoe removed."

<sup>13</sup> You shall not have in your bag diverse weights, one heavy and one light. <sup>14</sup> You shall not have in your house diverse measures, one large and one small. <sup>15</sup> You shall have a perfect and just weight. You shall have a perfect and just measure, that your days may be long in the land which Yahweh your God gives you. <sup>16</sup> For all who do such things, all who do unrighteously, are an abomination to Yahweh your God.

<sup>17</sup> Remember what Amalek did to you by the way as you came out of Egypt; <sup>18</sup> how he met you by the way, and struck the rearmost of you, all who were feeble behind you, when you were faint and weary; and he didn't fear God. <sup>19</sup> Therefore it shall be, when Yahweh your God has given you rest from all your enemies all around, in the land which Yahweh your God gives you for an inheritance to possess it, that you shall blot out the memory of Amalek from under the sky. You shall not forget.

26

<sup>1</sup> It shall be, when you have come in to the land which Yahweh your God gives you for an inheritance, possess it, and dwell in it, <sup>2</sup> that you shall take some of the first of all the fruit of the ground, which you shall bring in from your land that Yahweh your God gives you. You shall put it in a basket, and shall go to the place which Yahweh your God shall choose, to cause his name to dwell there. <sup>3</sup> You shall come to the priest who shall be in those days, and tell him, "I profess today to Yahweh your God, that I have come to the land which Yahweh swore to our fathers to give us." <sup>4</sup> The priest shall take the basket out of your hand, and set it down before Yahweh your God's altar. <sup>5</sup> You shall answer and say before Yahweh your God, "My father<sup>n</sup> was a Syrian ready to perish. He went down into Egypt, and lived there, few in number. There he became a great, mighty, and populous nation. <sup>6</sup> The Egyptians mistreated us, afflicted us, and imposed hard labor on us. <sup>7</sup> Then we cried to Yahweh, the God of our fathers. Yahweh heard our voice, and saw our affliction, our toil, and our oppression. <sup>8</sup> Yahweh brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand, with an outstretched arm, with great terror, with signs, and with wonders; <sup>9</sup> and he has brought us into this place, and has given us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey. <sup>10</sup> Now, behold, I have brought the first of the fruit of the ground, which you, Yahweh, have given me." You shall set it down before Yahweh your God, and worship before Yahweh your God. <sup>11</sup> You shall rejoice in all the good which Yahweh your God has given to you, and to your house, you, and the Levite, and the foreigner who is among you.

<sup>12</sup> When you have finished tithing all the tithe of your increase in the third year, which is the year of tithing, then you shall give it to the Levite, to the foreigner, to the fatherless, and to the widow, that they may eat within your gates, and be filled. <sup>13</sup> You shall say before Yahweh your God, "I have put away the holy things out of my house, and also have given them to the Levite, to the foreigner, to the fatherless, and to the widow, according to all your commandment which you have commanded me. I have not transgressed any of your commandments, neither have I forgotten them. <sup>14</sup> I have not eaten of it in my mourning, neither have I removed any of it while I was unclean, nor given of it for the dead. I have listened to Yahweh my God's voice. I have done according to all that you have commanded me. <sup>15</sup> Look down from your holy habitation, from heaven, and bless your people Israel, and the ground which you have given us, as you swore to our fathers, a land flowing with milk and honey."

<sup>16</sup> Today Yahweh your God commands you to do these statutes and ordinances. You shall therefore keep and do them with all your heart and with all your soul. <sup>17</sup> You have declared today that Yahweh is your God, and that you would walk in his ways, and keep his statutes, and his commandments, and his ordinances, and listen to his voice. <sup>18</sup> Yahweh has declared today that you are a people for his own possession, as he has promised you, and that you should keep all his commandments. <sup>19</sup> He will make you high above all nations that he has made, in praise, in name, and in honor; and that you may be a holy people to Yahweh your God, as he has spoken.

27

<sup>1</sup> Moses and the elders of Israel commanded the people, saying, "Keep all the commandment which I command you today. <sup>2</sup> It shall be on the day when you shall pass over the Jordan to the land which Yahweh your God gives you, that you shall set yourself up great stones, and coat them with plaster. <sup>3</sup> You shall write on them all the words of this law, when you have passed over; that you may go in to the land which Yahweh your God gives you, a land flowing with milk and honey, as Yahweh, the God of your fathers, has promised you. <sup>4</sup> It shall be, when you have crossed over the Jordan, that you shall set up these stones, which I command you today, on Mount Ebal, and you shall coat them with plaster. <sup>5</sup> There you shall build an altar to Yahweh your God, an altar of stones. You shall not use any iron tool on them. <sup>6</sup> You shall build Yahweh your God's altar of uncut stones. You shall offer burnt offerings on it to Yahweh your God. <sup>7</sup> You shall sacrifice peace offerings, and shall eat there. You shall rejoice before Yahweh your God. <sup>8</sup> You shall write on the stones all the words of this law very plainly."

<sup>9</sup> Moses and the priests the Levites spoke to all Israel, saying, "Be silence, and listen, Israel! Today you have become the people of Yahweh your God. <sup>10</sup> You shall therefore obey Yahweh your God's voice, and do his commandments and his statutes, which I command you today.”

All the people shall answer and say, ‘Amen.’

All the people shall say, ‘Amen.’

<sup>17</sup> ‘Cursed is he who removes his neighbor’s landmark.’

All the people shall say, ‘Amen.’

<sup>18</sup> ‘Cursed is he who leads the blind astray on the road.’

All the people shall say, ‘Amen.’

<sup>19</sup> ‘Cursed is he who withholds justice from the foreigner, fatherless, and widow.’

<sup>20</sup> ‘Cursed is he who lies with<sup>o</sup> his father’s wife, because he dishonors his father’s bed.’

All the people shall say, ‘Amen.’

<sup>21</sup> ‘Cursed is he who lies with any kind of animal.’

All the people shall say, ‘Amen.’

<sup>o</sup> i.e., has sexual relations with

<sup>23</sup> ‘Cursed is he who lies with his mother-in-law.’

All the people shall say, ‘Amen.’

<sup>24</sup> ‘Cursed is he who secretly kills his neighbor.’

All the people shall say, ‘Amen.’

<sup>25</sup> ‘Cursed is he who takes a bribe to kill an innocent person.’

All the people shall say, ‘Amen.’

<sup>26</sup> ‘Cursed is he who doesn’t uphold the words of this law by doing them.’

All the people shall say, ‘Amen.’”

28

<sup>1</sup> It shall happen, if you shall listen diligently to Yahweh your God’s voice, to observe to do all his commandments which I command you today, that Yahweh your God will set you high above all the nations of the earth. <sup>2</sup> All these blessings will come upon you, and overtake you, if you listen to Yahweh your God’s voice. <sup>3</sup> You shall be blessed in the city, and you shall be blessed in the field. <sup>4</sup> You shall be blessed in the fruit of your body, the fruit of your ground, the fruit of your animals, the increase of your livestock, and the young of your flock. <sup>5</sup> Your basket and your kneading trough shall be blessed. <sup>6</sup> You shall be blessed when you come in, and you shall be blessed when you go out. <sup>7</sup> Yahweh will cause your enemies who rise up against you to be struck before you. They will come out against you one way, and will flee before you seven ways. <sup>8</sup> Yahweh will command the blessing on you in your barns, and in all that you put your hand to. He will bless you in the land which Yahweh your God gives you. <sup>9</sup> Yahweh will establish you for a holy people to himself, as he has sworn to you, if you shall keep the commandments of Yahweh your God, and walk in his ways. <sup>10</sup> All the peoples of the earth shall see that you are called by Yahweh's name, and they will be afraid of you. <sup>11</sup> Yahweh will grant you abundant prosperity, in the fruit of your body, in the fruit of your livestock, and in the fruit of your ground, in the land which Yahweh swore to your fathers to give you. <sup>12</sup> Yahweh will open to you his good treasure in the sky, to give the rain of your land in its season, and to bless all the work of your hand. You will lend to many nations, and you will not borrow. <sup>13</sup> Yahweh will make you the head, and not the tail. You will be above only, and you will not be beneath; if you listen to the commandments of Yahweh your God, which I command you today, to observe and to do, <sup>14</sup> and shall not turn aside from any of the words which I command you today, to the right hand, or to the left, to go after other gods to serve them.

<sup>15</sup> But it shall come to pass, if you will not listen to Yahweh your God's voice, to observe to do all his commandments and his statutes which I command you today, that all these curses will come on you, and overtake you. <sup>16</sup> You will be cursed in the city, and you will be cursed in the field. <sup>17</sup> Your basket and your kneading trough will be cursed. <sup>18</sup> The fruit of your body, the fruit of your ground, the increase of your livestock, and the young of your flock will be cursed. <sup>19</sup> You will be cursed when you come in, and you will be cursed when you go out. <sup>20</sup> Yahweh will send on you cursing, confusion, and rebuke, in all that you put your hand to do, until you are destroyed, and until you perish quickly; because of the evil of your doings, by which you have forsaken me. <sup>21</sup> Yahweh will make the pestilence cling to you, until he has consumed you from off the land, where you go in to possess it. <sup>22</sup> Yahweh will strike you with consumption, with fever, with inflammation, with fiery heat, with the sword, with blight, and with mildew. They will pursue you until you perish. <sup>23</sup> Your sky that is over your head will be brass, and the earth that is under you will be iron. <sup>24</sup> Yahweh will make the rain of your land powder and dust. It will come down on you from the sky, until you are destroyed. <sup>25</sup> Yahweh will cause you to be struck before your enemies. You will go out one way against them, and will flee seven ways before them. You will be tossed back and forth among all the kingdoms of the earth. <sup>26</sup> Your dead body will be food to all birds of the sky, and to the animals of the earth; and there will be no one to frighten them away. <sup>27</sup> Yahweh will strike you with the boils of Egypt, with the tumors, with the scurvy, and with the itch, of which you can not be healed. <sup>28</sup> Yahweh will strike you with madness, with blindness, and with astonishment of heart. <sup>29</sup> You will grope at noonday, as the blind gropes in darkness, and you shall not prosper in your ways. You will only be oppressed and robbed always, and there will be no one to save you. <sup>30</sup> You will betroth a wife, and another man shall lie with her. You will build a house, and you won't dwell in it. You will plant a vineyard, and not use its fruit. <sup>31</sup> Your ox will be slain before your eyes, and you will not eat any of it. Your donkey will be violently taken away from before your face, and will not be restored to you. Your sheep will be given to your enemies, and you will have no one to save you. <sup>32</sup> Your sons and your daughters will be given to another people. Your eyes will look, and fail with longing for them all day long. There will be no power in your hand. <sup>33</sup> A nation which you don't know eat the fruit of your ground and all of your work. You will only be oppressed and crushed always; <sup>34</sup> so that the sights that you see with your eyes will drive you mad. <sup>35</sup> Yahweh will strike you in the knees and in the legs with a sore boil, of which you can not be healed, from the sole of your foot to the crown of your head. <sup>36</sup> Yahweh will bring you, and your king whom you will set over yourselves, to a nation that you have not known, you nor your fathers. There you will serve other gods of wood and stone. <sup>37</sup> You will become an astonishment, a proverb, and a byword among all the peoples where Yahweh will lead you away. <sup>38</sup> You will carry much seed out into the field, and will gather little in; for the locust will consume it. <sup>39</sup> You will plant vineyards and dress them, but you will neither drink of the wine, nor harvest, because worms will eat them. <sup>40</sup> You will have olive trees throughout all your borders, but you won't anoint yourself with the oil; for your olives will drop off. <sup>41</sup> You will father sons and daughters, but they will not be yours; for they will go into captivity. <sup>42</sup> Locusts will consume all of your trees and the fruit of your ground. <sup>43</sup> The foreigner who is among you will mount up above you higher and higher, and you will come down lower and lower. <sup>44</sup> He will lend to you, and you won't lend to him. He will be the head, and you will be the tail. <sup>45</sup> All these curses will come on you, and will pursue you, and overtake you, until you are destroyed; because you didn't listen to Yahweh your God's voice, to keep his commandments and his statutes which he commanded you. <sup>46</sup> They will be for a sign and for a wonder to you and to your offspring<sup>p</sup> forever. <sup>47</sup> Because you didn't serve Yahweh your God with joyfulness, and with gladness of heart, by reason of the abundance of all things; <sup>48</sup> therefore you will serve your enemies whom Yahweh sends against you, in hunger, in thirst, in nakedness, and in lack of all things. He will put an iron yoke on your neck, until he has destroyed you. <sup>49</sup> Yahweh will bring a nation against you from far, from the end of the earth, as the eagle flies; a nation whose language you will not understand; <sup>50</sup> a nation of fierce facial expressions, that doesn't respect the elderly, nor show favor to the young, <sup>51</sup> and they will eat the fruit of your livestock, and the fruit of your ground, until you are destroyed. They also won't leave you grain, new wine, or oil, the increase of your livestock, or the young of your flock, until they have caused you to perish. <sup>52</sup> They will besiege you in all your gates, until your high and fortified walls come down, in which you trusted, throughout all your land. They will besiege you in all your gates throughout all your land, which Yahweh your God has given you. <sup>53</sup> You will eat the fruit of your own body, the flesh of your sons and of your daughters, whom Yahweh your God has given you, in the siege and in the distress with which your enemies will distress you.

<sup>54</sup> The man who is tender among you, and very delicate, his eye will be evil toward his brother, toward the wife whom he loves, and toward the remnant of his children whom he has remaining; <sup>55</sup> so that he will not give to any of them of the flesh of his children whom he will eat, because he has nothing left to him, in the siege and in the distress with which your enemy will distress you in all your gates. <sup>56</sup> The tender and delicate woman among you, who would not venture to set the sole of her foot on the ground for delicateness and tenderness, her eye will be evil toward the husband that she loves, toward her son, toward her daughter, <sup>57</sup> toward her young one who comes out from between her feet, and toward her children whom she bears; for she will eat them secretly for lack of all things, in the siege and in the distress with which your enemy will distress you in your gates. <sup>58</sup> If you will not observe to do all the words of this law that are written in this book, that you may fear this glorious and fearful name, YAHWEH YOUR GOD; <sup>59</sup> then Yahweh will make your plagues fearful, and the plagues of your offspring,<sup>9</sup> even great plagues, and of long duration, and severe sicknesses, and of long duration.

<sup>60</sup> He will bring on you again all the diseases of Egypt, which you were afraid of; and they will cling to you. <sup>61</sup> Also every sickness and every plague, which is not written in the book of this law, Yahweh will bring them on you, until you are destroyed. <sup>62</sup> You will be left few in number, even though you were as the stars of the sky for multitude; because you didn't listen to Yahweh your God's voice. <sup>63</sup> It will happen that as Yahweh rejoiced over you to do you good, and to multiply you, so Yahweh will rejoice over you to cause you to perish, and to destroy you. You will be plucked from off of the land where you go in to possess it. <sup>64</sup> Yahweh will scatter you among all peoples, from one end of the earth to the other end of the earth. There you will serve other gods, which you have not known, you nor your fathers, even wood and stone. <sup>65</sup> Among these nations you will find no ease, and there will be no rest for the sole of your foot; but Yahweh will give you there a trembling heart, failing of eyes, and pining of soul. <sup>66</sup> Your life will hang in doubt before you. You will be afraid night and day, and will have no assurance of your life. <sup>67</sup> In the morning you will say, "I wish it were evening!" and at evening you will say, "I wish it were morning!" for the fear of your heart which you will fear, and for the sights which your eyes will see. <sup>68</sup> Yahweh will bring you into Egypt again with ships, by the way of which I told to you that you would never see it again. There you will sell yourselves to your enemies for male and female slaves, and nobody will buy you.

29

<sup>1</sup> These are the words of the covenant which Yahweh commanded Moses to make with the children of Israel in the land of Moab, in addition to the covenant which he made with them in Horeb. <sup>2</sup> Moses called to all Israel, and said to them:

Your eyes have seen all that Yahweh did in the land of Egypt to Pharaoh, and to all his servants, and to all his land; <sup>3</sup> the great trials which your eyes saw, the signs, and those great wonders. <sup>4</sup> But Yahweh has not given you a heart to know, eyes to see, and ears to hear, to this day. <sup>5</sup> I have led you forty years in the wilderness. Your clothes have not grown old on you, and your shoes have not grown old on your feet. <sup>6</sup> You have not eaten bread, neither have you drunk wine or strong drink; that you may know that I am Yahweh your God. <sup>7</sup> When you came to this place, Sihon the king of Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, came out against us to battle, and we struck them. <sup>8</sup> We took their land, and gave it for an inheritance to the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to the half-tribe of the Manassites. <sup>9</sup> Therefore keep the words of this covenant and do them, that you may prosper in all that you do. <sup>10</sup> All of you stand today in the presence of Yahweh your God; your heads, your tribes, your elders, and your officers, even all the men of Israel, <sup>11</sup> your little ones, your wives, and the foreigners who are in the middle of your camps, from the one who cuts your wood to the one who draws your water; <sup>12</sup> that you may enter into the covenant of Yahweh your God, and into his oath, which Yahweh your God makes with you today; <sup>13</sup> that he may establish you today as his people, and that he may be your God, as he spoke to you, and as he swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. <sup>14</sup> Neither do I make this covenant and this oath with you only, <sup>15</sup> but with those who stand here with us today before Yahweh our God, and also with those who are not here with us today <sup>16</sup> (for you know how we lived in the land of Egypt, and how we came through the middle of the nations through which you passed; <sup>17</sup> and you have seen their abominations, and their idols, wood and stone, silver and gold, which were among them); <sup>18</sup> lest there should be among you man, woman, family, or tribe whose heart turns away today from Yahweh our God, to go to serve the gods of those nations; lest there should be among you a root that produces bitter poison; <sup>19</sup> and it happen, when he hears the words of this curse, that he bless himself in his heart, saying, "I shall have peace, though I walk in the stubbornness of my heart, to destroy the moist with the dry." <sup>20</sup> Yahweh will not pardon him, but then Yahweh's anger and his jealousy will smoke against that man, and all the curse that is written in this book will fall on him, and Yahweh will blot out his name from under the sky. <sup>21</sup> Yahweh will set him apart for evil out of all the tribes of Israel, according to all the curses of the covenant that is written in this book of the law.

<sup>22</sup> The generation to come, your children who will rise up after you, and the foreigner who will come from a far land, will say, when they see the plagues of that land, and the sicknesses with which Yahweh has made it sick; <sup>23</sup> and that all of its land is sulfur, salt, and burning, that it is not sown, doesn't produce, nor does any grass grow in it, like the overthrow of Sodom, Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboiim, which Yahweh overthrew in his anger, and in his wrath; <sup>24</sup> even all the nations will say, "Why has Yahweh done thus to this land? What does the heat of this great anger mean?"

them when he brought them out of the land of Egypt, <sup>26</sup> and went and served other gods, and worshiped them, gods that they didn't know, and that he had not given to them. <sup>27</sup> Therefore Yahweh's anger burned against this land, to bring on it all the curses that are written in this book. <sup>28</sup> Yahweh rooted them out of their land in anger, in wrath, and in great indignation, and thrust them into another land, as it is today."

<sup>29</sup> The secret things belong to Yahweh our God; but the things that are revealed belong to us and to our children forever, that we may do all the words of this law.

30

<sup>1</sup> It shall happen, when all these things have come on you, the blessing and the curse, which I have set before you, and you shall call them to mind among all the nations, where Yahweh your God has driven you, <sup>2</sup> and return to Yahweh your God, and obey his voice according to all that I command you today, you and your children, with all your heart, and with all your soul; <sup>3</sup> that then Yahweh your God will release you from captivity, have compassion on you, and will return and gather you from all the peoples where Yahweh your God has scattered you. <sup>4</sup> If your outcasts are in the uttermost parts of the heavens, from there Yahweh your God will gather you, and from there he will bring you back. <sup>5</sup> Yahweh your God will bring you into the land which your fathers possessed, and you will possess it. He will do you good, and increase your numbers more than your fathers. <sup>6</sup> Yahweh your God will circumcise your heart, and the heart of your offspring,<sup>r</sup> to love Yahweh your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, that you may live. <sup>7</sup> Yahweh your God will put all these curses on your enemies, and on those who hate you, who persecuted you. <sup>8</sup> You shall return and obey Yahweh's voice, and do all his commandments which I command you today. <sup>9</sup> Yahweh your God will make you plenteous in all the work of your hand, in the fruit of your body, in the fruit of your livestock, and in the fruit of your ground, for good; for Yahweh will again rejoice over you for good, as he rejoiced over your fathers; <sup>10</sup> if you will obey Yahweh your God's voice, to keep his commandments and his statutes which are written in this book of the law; if you turn to Yahweh your God with all your heart, and with all your soul.

<sup>11</sup> For this commandment which I command you today is not too hard for you or too distant. <sup>12</sup> It is not in heaven, that you should say, "Who will go up for us to heaven, and bring it to us, and proclaim it to us, that we may do it?" <sup>13</sup> Neither is it beyond the sea, that you should say, "Who will go over the sea for us, and bring it to us, and proclaim it to us, that we may do it?" <sup>14</sup> But the word is very near to you, in your mouth and in your heart, that you may do it. <sup>15</sup> Behold, I have set before you today life and prosperity, and death and evil. <sup>16</sup> For I command you today to love Yahweh your God, to walk in his ways, and to keep his commandments, his statutes, and his ordinances, that you may live and multiply, and that Yahweh your God may bless you in the land where you go in to possess it. <sup>17</sup> But if your heart turns away, and you will not hear, but are drawn away, and worship other gods, and serve them; <sup>18</sup> I denounce to you today, that you will surely perish. You will not prolong your days in the land where you pass over the Jordan to go in to possess it. <sup>19</sup> I call heaven and earth to witness against you today, that I have set before you life and death, the blessing and the curse. Therefore choose life, that you may live, you and your descendants; <sup>20</sup> to love Yahweh your God, to obey his voice, and to cling to him; for he is your life, and the length of your days; that you may dwell in the land which Yahweh swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give them.

31

<sup>1</sup> Moses went and spoke these words to all Israel. <sup>2</sup> He said to them, "I am one hundred twenty years old today. I can no more go out and come in. Yahweh has said to me, 'You shall not go over this Jordan.' <sup>3</sup> Yahweh your God himself will go over before you. He will destroy these nations from before you, and you shall dispossess them. Joshua will go over before you, as Yahweh has spoken. <sup>4</sup> Yahweh will do to them as he did to Sihon and to Og, the kings of the Amorites, and to their land; whom he destroyed. <sup>5</sup> Yahweh will deliver them up before you, and you shall do to them according to all the commandment which I have commanded you. <sup>6</sup> Be strong and courageous. Don't be afraid or scared of them; for Yahweh your God himself is who goes with you. He will not fail you nor forsake you."

<sup>7</sup> Moses called to Joshua, and said to him in the sight of all Israel, "Be strong and courageous, for you shall go with this people into the land which Yahweh has sworn to their fathers to give them; and you shall cause them to inherit it. <sup>8</sup> Yahweh himself is who goes before you. He will be with you. He will not fail you nor forsake you. Don't be afraid. Don't be discouraged."

<sup>9</sup> Moses wrote this law, and delivered it to the priests the sons of Levi, who bore the ark of Yahweh's covenant, and to all the elders of Israel. <sup>10</sup> Moses commanded them, saying, "At the end of every seven years, in the set time of the year of release, in the feast of tents, <sup>11</sup> when all Israel has come to appear before Yahweh your God in the place which he will choose, you shall read this law before all Israel in their hearing. <sup>12</sup> Assemble the people, the men and the women and the little ones, and the foreigners who are within your gates, that they may hear, and that they may learn, and fear Yahweh your God, and observe to do all the words of this law; <sup>13</sup> and that their children, who have not known, may hear, and learn to fear Yahweh your God, as long as you live in the land where you go over the Jordan to possess it."

<sup>14</sup> Yahweh said to Moses, "Behold, your days approach that you must die. Call Joshua, and present yourselves in the Tent of Meeting, that I may commission him."

Moses and Joshua went, and presented themselves in the Tent of Meeting.

<sup>15</sup> Yahweh appeared in the Tent in a pillar of cloud, and the pillar of cloud stood over the Tent's door. <sup>16</sup> Yahweh said to Moses, "Behold, you shall sleep with your fathers. This people will rise up, and play the prostitute after the strange gods of the land, where they go to be among them, and will forsake me, and break my covenant which I have made with them. <sup>17</sup> Then my anger shall be kindled against them in that day, and I will forsake them, and I will hide my face from them, and they shall be devoured, and many evils and troubles shall come on them; so that they will say in that day, ‘Haven’t these evils come on us because our God is not among us?’ <sup>18</sup> I will surely hide my face in that day for all the evil which they have done, in that they have turned to other gods.

<sup>23</sup> He commissioned Joshua the son of Nun, and said, “Be strong and courageous; for you shall bring the children of Israel into the land which I swore to them. I will be with you.”

put it by the side of the ark of Yahweh’s covenant your God, that it may be there for a witness against you. <sup>27</sup> For I know your rebellion, and your stiff neck. Behold, while I am yet alive with you today, you have been rebellious against Yahweh. How much more after my death? <sup>28</sup> Assemble to me all the elders of your tribes, and your officers, that I may speak these words in their ears, and call heaven and earth to witness against them. <sup>29</sup> For I know that after my death you will utterly corrupt yourselves, and turn aside from the way which I have commanded you; and evil will happen to you in the latter days; because you will do that which is evil in Yahweh’s sight, to provoke him to anger through the work of your hands.”

Let the earth hear the words of my mouth.

My speech will condense as the dew, as the misty rain on the tender grass, as the showers on the herb.

<sup>3</sup> For I will proclaim Yahweh’s name.

Ascribe greatness to our God!

for all his ways are just.

A God of faithfulness who does no wrong, just and right is he.

<sup>5</sup> They have dealt corruptly with him.

- They are not his children, because of their defect.
They are a perverse and crooked generation.
- <sup>6</sup> Is this the way you repay Yahweh, foolish and unwise people?
Isn't he your father who has bought
you?
He has made you and established
you.
- <sup>7</sup> Remember the days of old.
Consider the years of many generations.
Ask your father, and he will show you;
your elders, and they will tell you.
- <sup>8</sup> When the Most High gave to the nations their inheritance, when he separated the children of men, he set the bounds of the peoples according to the number of the children of Israel.
- <sup>9</sup> For Yahweh's portion is his people.
Jacob is the lot of his inheritance.
- <sup>10</sup> He found him in a desert land, in the waste howling wilderness.
He surrounded him.
He cared for him.
He kept him as the apple of his eye.
- <sup>11</sup> As an eagle that stirs up her nest, that flutters over her young,
he spread abroad his wings,
he took them,
he bore them on his feathers.
- <sup>12</sup> Yahweh alone led him.
There was no foreign god with him.
- <sup>13</sup> He made him ride on the high places of the earth.
He ate the increase of the field.
He caused him to suck honey out of the rock,
- oil out of the flinty rock; <sup>14</sup> butter from the herd, and milk from the flock,
with fat of lambs, rams of the breed of Bashan, and goats,
with the finest of the wheat.
From the blood of the grape, you drank wine.
- <sup>15</sup> But Jeshurun grew fat, and kicked.
You have grown fat.
You have grown thick.
You have become sleek.
Then he abandoned God who made him, and rejected the Rock of his salvation.
- <sup>16</sup> They moved him to jealousy with strange gods.
They provoked him to anger with abominations.
- <sup>17</sup> They sacrificed to demons, not God, to gods that they didn't know,
to new gods that came up recently, which your fathers didn't dread.
- <sup>18</sup> Of the Rock who became your father,
you are unmindful, and have forgotten God who gave you birth.
- <sup>19</sup> Yahweh saw and abhorred, because of the provocation of his sons and his daughters.
- <sup>20</sup> He said, "I will hide my face from them.
I will see what their end will be;
for they are a very perverse generation, children in whom is no faithfulness.
- <sup>21</sup> They have moved me to jealousy with that which is not God.
They have provoked me to anger with their vanities.

I will move them to jealousy with those who are not a people.
 I will provoke them to anger with a foolish nation.

22 For a fire is kindled in my anger, that burns to the lowest Sheol,<sup>s</sup> devours the earth with its increase, and sets the foundations of the mountains on fire.

23 “I will heap evils on them.
 I will spend my arrows on them.

24 They shall be wasted with hunger, and devoured with burning heat and bitter destruction.

I will send the teeth of animals on them, with the venom of vipers that glide in the dust.

25 Outside the sword will bereave, and in the rooms, terror;
 on both young man and virgin, the nursing infant with the gray-haired man.

26 I said that I would scatter them afar.
 I would make their memory to cease from among men;

27 were it not that I feared the provocation of the enemy, lest their adversaries should judge wrongly, lest they should say, ‘Our hand is exalted, Yahweh has not done all this.’”

28 For they are a nation void of counsel.
 There is no understanding in them.

29 Oh that they were wise, that they understood this,
 that they would consider their latter end!

30 How could one chase a thousand, and two put ten thousand to flight, unless their Rock had sold them, and Yahweh had delivered them

 up?

31 For their rock is not as our Rock, even our enemies themselves concede.

32 For their vine is of the vine of Sodom, of the fields of Gomorrah.
 Their grapes are poison grapes.
 Their clusters are bitter.

33 Their wine is the poison of serpents, the cruel venom of asps.

34 “Isn’t this laid up in store with me, sealed up among my treasures?

35 Vengeance is mine, and recompense, at the time when their foot slides;
 for the day of their calamity is at hand.
 Their doom rushes at them.”

36 For Yahweh will judge his people, and have compassion on his servants,
 when he sees that their power is gone;
 that there is no one remaining, shut up or left at large.

37 He will say, “Where are their gods, the rock in which they took refuge; 38 which ate the fat of their sacrifices, and drank the wine of their drink offering?

Let them rise up and help you!
 Let them be your protection.

39 “See now that I myself am he.
 There is no god with me.
 I kill and I make alive.
 I wound and I heal.
 There is no one who can deliver out of my hand.

40 For I lift up my hand to heaven and declare,

<sup>s</sup> Sheol is the place of the dead.

as I live forever, <sup>41</sup> if I sharpen my glittering sword, my hand grasps it in judgment;
 I will take vengeance on my adversaries, and will repay those who hate me.

<sup>42</sup> I will make my arrows drunk with blood.
 My sword shall devour flesh with the blood of the slain and the captives, from the head of the leaders of the enemy.”

<sup>43</sup> Rejoice, you nations, with his people, for he will avenge the blood of his servants.
 He will take vengeance on his
 adversaries,
 and will make atonement for his land and for his people.<sup>t</sup>

<sup>44</sup> Moses came and spoke all the words of this song in the ears of the people, he and Joshua the son of Nun. <sup>45</sup> Moses finished reciting all these words to all Israel. <sup>46</sup> He said to them, “Set your heart to all the words which I testify to you today, which you shall command your children to observe to do, all the words of this law. <sup>47</sup>
 For it is no vain thing for you; because it is your life, and through this thing you shall prolong your days in the land, where you go over the Jordan to possess it.”

<sup>48</sup> Yahweh spoke to Moses that same day, saying, <sup>49</sup> “Go up into this mountain of Abarim, to Mount Nebo, which is in the land of Moab, that is across from Jericho; and see the land of Canaan, which I give to the children of Israel for a possession. <sup>50</sup> Die on the mountain where you go up, and be gathered to your people, as Aaron your brother died on Mount Hor, and was gathered to his people; <sup>51</sup> because you trespassed against me among the children of Israel at the waters of Meribah of Kadesh, in the wilderness of Zin; because you didn’t uphold my holiness among the children of Israel. <sup>52</sup> For you shall see the land from a distance; but you shall not go there into the land which I give the children of Israel.”

33

 the man of God blessed the children of Israel before his death. <sup>2</sup> He said, “Yahweh came from Sinai, and rose from Seir to them.

 He shone from Mount Paran.

He came from the ten thousands of holy ones.

At his right hand was a fiery law for them.<sup>u</sup>

<sup>3</sup> Yes, he loves the people.
 All his saints are in your hand.
 They sat down at your feet.
 Each receives your words.

 an inheritance for the assembly of Jacob.

<sup>5</sup> He was king in Jeshurun, when the heads of the people were gathered,
 all the tribes of Israel together.

<sup>6</sup> “Let Reuben live, and not die; Nor let his men be few.”

 “Hear, Yahweh, the voice of Judah.

<sup>t</sup> For this verse, LXX reads: Rejoice, you heavens, with him, and let all the angels of God worship him; rejoice you Gentiles, with his people, and let all the sons of God strengthen themselves in him; for he will avenge the blood of his sons, and he will render vengeance, and recompense justice to his enemies, and will reward them that hate him; and the Lord shall purge the land of his people.
<sup>u</sup> another manuscript reads “He came with myriads of holy ones from the south, from his mountain slopes.”

Bring him in to his people.
 With his hands he contended for himself.
 You shall be a help against his adversaries.”

<sup>8</sup> About Levi he said, “Your Thummim and your Urim are with your godly one,
 whom you proved at Massah, with whom you contended at the waters of Meribah.

<sup>9</sup> He said of his father, and of his mother, ‘I have not seen him.’
 He didn’t acknowledge his brothers,
 nor did he know his own children;
 for they have observed your word, and keep your covenant.

 ordinances,
 and Israel your law.
 They shall put incense before you, and whole burnt offering on your altar.

<sup>11</sup> Yahweh, bless his skills.
 Accept the work of his hands.
 Strike through the hips of those who rise up against him, of those who hate him, that they not rise again.”

<sup>12</sup> About Benjamin he said, “The beloved of Yahweh will dwell in safety by him.
 He covers him all day long.
 He dwells between his shoulders.”

<sup>13</sup> About Joseph he said, “His land is blessed by Yahweh, for the precious things of the heavens, for the dew, for the deep that couches beneath, <sup>14</sup> for the precious things of the fruits of the sun, for the precious things that the moon can yield, <sup>15</sup> for the best things of the ancient mountains,

 for the precious things of the everlasting hills, <sup>16</sup> for the precious things of the earth and its fullness, the good will of him who lived in the bush.<sup>v</sup>

Let this come on the head of Joseph, on the crown of the head of him who was separated from his brothers.

<sup>17</sup> The firstborn of his herd, majesty is his.
 His horns are the horns of the wild ox.
 With them he will push all the peoples, to the ends of the earth.
 They are the ten thousands of Ephraim.
 They are the thousands of Manasseh.”

<sup>18</sup> About Zebulun he said, “Rejoice, Zebulun, in your going out;
 and Issachar, in your tents.

<sup>19</sup> They will call the peoples to the mountain.
 There they will offer sacrifices of righteousness,
 for they will draw out the abundance of the seas,
 the hidden treasures of the sand.”

<sup>20</sup> About Gad he said, “He who enlarges Gad is blessed.
 He dwells as a lioness,

<sup>v</sup> i. e. the burning bush of Exodus 3:3-4.

- and tears the arm, yes, the crown of the head.
- <sup>21</sup> He provided the first part for himself, for the lawgiver's portion reserved was reserved for him.
He came with the heads of the people.
He executed the righteousness of Yahweh,
His ordinances with Israel."
- <sup>22</sup> About Dan he said,
"Dan is a lion's cub that leaps out of Bashan."
- <sup>23</sup> About Naphtali he said,
"Naphtali, satisfied with favor,
full of Yahweh's blessing, Possess the west and the south."
- <sup>24</sup> About Asher he said,
"Asher is blessed with children.
Let him be acceptable to his brothers.
Let him dip his foot in oil.
- <sup>25</sup> Your bars will be iron and brass.
As your days, so your strength will be.
- <sup>26</sup> "There is no one like God, Jeshurun, who rides on the heavens for your help,
in his excellency on the skies.
- <sup>27</sup> The eternal God is your dwelling place.
Underneath are the everlasting arms.
He thrust out the enemy from before
you,
and said, 'Destroy!'
- <sup>28</sup> Israel dwells in safety;
the fountain of Jacob alone,
In a land of grain and new wine.
Yes, his heavens drop down dew.
- <sup>29</sup> You are happy, Israel!

Who is like you, a people saved by Yahweh,
the shield of your help,
the sword of your excellency?
Your enemies will submit themselves to
you.
You will tread on their high places."

34

<sup>5</sup> So Moses the servant of Yahweh died there in the land of Moab, according to Yahweh's word. <sup>6</sup> He buried him in the valley in the land of Moab opposite Beth Peor, but no man knows where his tomb is to this day. <sup>7</sup> Moses was one hundred twenty years old when he died. His eye was not dim, nor his strength gone. <sup>8</sup> The children of Israel wept for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days, until the days of weeping in the mourning for Moses were ended. <sup>9</sup> Joshua the son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom; for Moses had laid his hands on him. The children of Israel listened to him, and did as Yahweh commanded Moses. <sup>10</sup> Since then, there has not arisen a prophet in Israel like Moses, whom Yahweh knew face to face, <sup>11</sup> in all the signs and the wonders, which Yahweh sent him to do in the land of Egypt, to Pharaoh, and to all his servants, and to all his land, <sup>12</sup> and in all the mighty hand, and in all the awesome deeds, which Moses did in the sight of all Israel.

The Book of # Joshua

1

<sup>1</sup> Now after the death of Moses the servant of Yahweh,<sup>a</sup> Yahweh spoke to Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' servant, saying, <sup>2</sup> "Moses my servant is dead. Now therefore arise, go across this Jordan, you, and all these people, to the land which I am giving to them, even to the children of Israel. <sup>3</sup> I have given you every place that the sole of your foot will tread on, as I told Moses. <sup>4</sup> From the wilderness, and this Lebanon, even to the great river, the river Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites, and to the great sea toward the going down of the sun, shall be your border. <sup>5</sup> No man will be able to stand before you all the days of your life. As I was with Moses, so I will be with you. I will not fail you nor forsake you.

<sup>6</sup> "Be strong and courageous; for you shall cause this people to inherit the land which I swore to their fathers to give them. <sup>7</sup> Only be strong and very courageous. Be careful to observe to do according to all the law, which Moses my servant commanded you. Don't turn from it to the right hand or to the left, that you may have good success wherever you go. <sup>8</sup> This book of the law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, that you may observe to do according to all that is written in it; for then you shall make your way prosperous, and then you shall have good success. <sup>9</sup> Haven't I commanded you?

Be strong and courageous. Don't be afraid. Don't be dismayed, for Yahweh your God<sup>b</sup> is with you wherever you go."

<sup>10</sup> Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people, saying, <sup>11</sup> "Pass through the middle of the camp, and command the people, saying, 'Prepare food; for within three days you are to pass over this Jordan, to go in to possess the land, which Yahweh your God gives you to possess it.'"

<sup>12</sup> Joshua spoke to the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to the half-tribe of Manasseh, saying, <sup>13</sup> "Remember the word which Moses the servant of Yahweh commanded you, saying, 'Yahweh your God gives you rest, and will give you this land. <sup>14</sup> Your wives, your little ones, and your livestock, shall live in the land which Moses gave you beyond the Jordan; but you shall pass over before your brothers armed, all the mighty men of valor, and shall help them <sup>15</sup> until Yahweh has given your brothers rest, as he has given you, and they have also possessed the land which Yahweh your God gives them. Then you shall return to the land of your possession, and possess it, which Moses the servant of Yahweh gave you beyond the Jordan toward the sunrise.'"

<sup>16</sup> They answered Joshua, saying, "All that you have commanded us we will do, and wherever you send us we will go. <sup>17</sup> Just as we listened to Moses in all things, so will we listen to you. Only may Yahweh your God be with you, as he was with

Moses. <sup>18</sup> Whoever rebels against your commandment, and doesn't listen to your words in all that you command him shall himself be put to death. Only be strong and courageous."

2

<sup>3</sup> Jericho's king sent to Rahab, saying, "Bring out the men who have come to you, who have entered into your house; for they have come to spy out all the land."

<sup>4</sup> The woman took the two men and hid them. Then she said, "Yes, the men came to me, but I didn't know where they came from. <sup>5</sup> About the time of the shutting of the gate, when it was dark, the men went out. Where the men went, I don't know. Pursue them quickly. You may catch up with them." <sup>6</sup> But she had brought them up to the roof, and hidden them under the stalks of flax which she had laid in order on the roof. <sup>7</sup> The men pursued them along the way to the fords of the Jordan River. As soon as those who pursued them had gone out, they shut the gate. <sup>8</sup> Before they had lain down, she came up to them on the roof. <sup>9</sup> She said to the men, "I know that Yahweh has given you the land, and that the fear of you has fallen upon us, and that all the inhabitants of the land melt away before you. <sup>10</sup> For we have heard how Yahweh dried up the water of the Red Sea before you, when you came out of Egypt; and what you did to the two kings of the Amorites, who were beyond the Jordan, to Sihon and to Og, whom you utterly destroyed. <sup>11</sup> As soon as we had heard it, our hearts melted, and there wasn't any more spirit in any man, because of you: for Yahweh your God, he is God in heaven above, and on earth beneath. <sup>12</sup> Now therefore, please swear to me by Yahweh, since I have dealt kindly with you, that you also will deal kindly with my father's house, and give me a true sign; <sup>13</sup> and that you will save alive my father, my mother, my brothers, and my sisters, and all that they have, and will deliver our lives from death."

<sup>14</sup> The men said to her, "Our life for yours, if you don't talk about this business of ours; and it shall be, when Yahweh gives us the land, that we will deal kindly and truly with you."

<sup>15</sup> Then she let them down by a cord through the window; for her house was on the side of the wall, and she lived on the wall. <sup>16</sup> She said to them, "Go to the mountain, lest the pursuers find you. Hide yourselves there three days, until the pursuers have returned. Afterward, you may go your way."

<sup>17</sup> The men said to her, "We will be guiltless of this your oath which you've made us to swear. <sup>18</sup> Behold, when we come into the land, tie this line of scarlet thread in the window which you used to let us down. Gather to yourself into the house your father, your mother, your brothers, and all your father's household. <sup>19</sup> It shall be that whoever goes out of the doors of your house into the street, his blood will be on his head, and we will be guiltless. Whoever is with you in the house, his blood shall be on our head, if any hand is on him. <sup>20</sup> But if you talk about this business of ours, then we shall be guiltless of your oath which you've made us to swear."

<sup>21</sup> She said, "Let it be as you have said." She sent them away, and they departed. Then she tied the scarlet line in the window.

<sup>22</sup> They went, and came to the mountain, and stayed there three days, until the pursuers had returned. The pursuers sought them all along the way, but didn't find them. <sup>23</sup> Then the two men returned, descended from the mountain, crossed the river, and came to Joshua the son of Nun. They told him all that had happened to them. <sup>24</sup> They said to Joshua, "Truly Yahweh has delivered all the land into our hands. Moreover, all the inhabitants of the land melt away before us."

3

<sup>1</sup> Joshua got up early in the morning; and they moved from Shittim, and came to the Jordan, he and all the children of Israel. They camped there before they crossed over. <sup>2</sup> After three days, the officers went through the middle of the camp; <sup>3</sup> and they commanded the people, saying, "When you see the ark of Yahweh your God's covenant, and the priests the Levites bearing it, then leave your place, and follow it. <sup>4</sup> Yet there shall be a space between you and it, about two thousand cubits<sup>d</sup> by measure. Don't come near it, that you may know the way by which you must go; for you have not passed this way before."

<sup>7</sup> Yahweh said to Joshua, "Today I will begin to magnify you in the sight of all Israel, that they may know that as I was with Moses, so I will be with you. <sup>8</sup> You shall command the priests who bear the ark of the covenant, saying, 'When you come to the brink of the waters of the Jordan, you shall stand still in the Jordan.'"

<sup>9</sup> Joshua said to the children of Israel, "Come here, and hear the words of Yahweh your God." <sup>10</sup> Joshua said, "By this you shall know that the living God is among you, and that he will without fail drive the Canaanite, and the Hittite, and the Hivite, and the Perizzite, and the Gergashite, and the Amorite, and the Jebusite out from before you. <sup>11</sup> Behold, the ark of the covenant of the Lord<sup>e</sup> of all the earth passes over before you into the Jordan. <sup>12</sup> Now therefore take twelve men out of the tribes of Israel, for every tribe a man. <sup>13</sup> It shall be that when the soles of the feet of the priests who bear the ark of Yahweh, the Lord of all the earth, rest in the waters of the Jordan, that the waters of the Jordan will be cut off. The waters that come down from above shall stand in one heap."

<sup>14</sup> When the people moved from their tents to pass over the Jordan, the priests who bore the ark of the covenant being before the people, <sup>15</sup> and when those who bore the ark had come to the Jordan, and the feet of the priests who bore the ark had dipped in the edge of the water (for the Jordan overflows all its banks all the time of harvest), <sup>16</sup> the waters which came down from above stood, and rose up in one heap, a great way off, at Adam, the city that is beside Zarethan; and those that went down toward the sea of the Arabah, even the Salt Sea, were wholly cut off. Then the people passed over near Jericho. <sup>17</sup> The priests who bore the ark of Yahweh's covenant stood firm on dry ground in the middle of the Jordan; and all Israel crossed over on dry ground, until all the nation had passed completely over the Jordan.

4

<sup>4</sup> Then Joshua called the twelve men, whom he had prepared of the children of Israel, a man out of every tribe. <sup>5</sup> Joshua said to them, "Cross before the ark of Yahweh your God into the middle of the Jordan, and each of you pick up a stone and put it on your shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel; <sup>6</sup> that this may be a sign among you, that when your children ask in the future, saying, 'What do you mean by these stones?' <sup>7</sup> then you shall tell them, 'Because the waters of the Jordan were cut off before the ark of Yahweh's covenant. When it crossed over the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were cut off. These stones shall be for a memorial to the children of Israel forever.'"

<sup>8</sup> The children of Israel did as Joshua commanded, and took up twelve stones out of the middle of the Jordan, as Yahweh spoke to Joshua, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel. They carried them over with them to the place where they camped, and laid them down there. <sup>9</sup> Joshua set up twelve stones in the middle of the Jordan, in the place where the feet of the priests who bore the ark of the covenant stood; and they are there to this day. <sup>10</sup> For the priests who bore the ark stood in the middle of the Jordan, until everything was finished that Yahweh commanded Joshua to speak to the people, according to all that Moses commanded Joshua; and the people hurried and passed over. <sup>11</sup> When all the people had completely crossed over, Yahweh's ark crossed over, with the priests, in the presence of the people.

<sup>13</sup> About forty thousand men, ready and armed for war passed over before Yahweh to battle, to the plains of Jericho. <sup>14</sup> On that day, Yahweh magnified Joshua in the sight of all Israel; and they feared him, as they feared Moses, all the days of his life.

children of Israel, until we had crossed over, their heart melted, and there was no more spirit in them, because of the children of Israel. <sup>2</sup> At that time, Yahweh said to Joshua, “Make flint knives, and circumcise again the sons of Israel the second time.” <sup>3</sup> Joshua made himself flint knives, and circumcised the sons of Israel at the hill of the foreskins. <sup>4</sup> This is the reason Joshua circumcised them: all the people who came out of Egypt, who were males, even all the men of war, died in the wilderness along the way, after they came out of Egypt. <sup>5</sup> For all the people who came out were circumcised; but all the people who were born in the wilderness along the way as they came out of Egypt had not been circumcised. <sup>6</sup> For the children of Israel walked forty years in the wilderness, until all the nation, even the men of war who came out of Egypt, were consumed, because they didn’t listen to Yahweh’s voice. Yahweh swore to them that he wouldn’t let them see the land which Yahweh swore to their fathers that he would give us, a land flowing with milk and honey. <sup>7</sup> Their children, whom he raised up in their place, were circumcised by Joshua; for they were uncircumcised, because they had not circumcised them on the way. <sup>8</sup> When they were done circumcising the whole nation, they stayed in their places in the camp until they were healed.

month at evening in the plains of Jericho. <sup>11</sup> They ate unleavened cakes and parched grain of the produce of the land on the next day after the Passover, in the same day. <sup>12</sup> The manna ceased on the next day, after they had eaten of the produce of the land. The children of Israel didn't have manna any more; but they ate of the fruit of the land of Canaan that year.

<sup>13</sup> When Joshua was by Jericho, he lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, a man stood in front of him with his sword drawn in his hand. Joshua went to him and said to him, "Are you for us, or for our enemies?"

<sup>14</sup> He said, "No; but I have come now as commander of Yahweh's army."

Joshua fell on his face to the earth, and worshiped, and asked him, "What does my lord say to his servant?"

<sup>15</sup> The prince of Yahweh's army said to Joshua, "Take your shoes off of your feet; for the place on which you stand is holy." Joshua did so.

6

trumpet, all the people shall shout with a great shout; and the city wall shall fall down flat, and the people shall go up, every man straight in front of him."

<sup>7</sup> They said to the people, "Advance! March around the city, and let the armed men pass on before Yahweh's ark."

<sup>8</sup> It was so, that when Joshua had spoken to the people, the seven priests bearing the seven trumpets of rams' horns before Yahweh advanced and blew the trumpets, and the ark of Yahweh's covenant followed them. <sup>9</sup> The armed men went before the priests who blew the trumpets, and the ark went after them. The trumpets sounded as they went.

<sup>10</sup> Joshua commanded the people, saying, "You shall not shout, nor let your voice be heard, neither shall any word proceed out of your mouth, until the day I tell you to shout. Then you shall shout." <sup>11</sup> So he caused Yahweh's ark to go around the city, going about it once. Then they came into the camp, and stayed in the camp. <sup>12</sup> Joshua rose early in the morning, and the priests took up Yahweh's ark. <sup>13</sup> The seven priests bearing the seven trumpets of rams' horns in front of Yahweh's ark went on continually, and blew the trumpets. The armed men went in front of them. The rear guard came after Yahweh's ark. The trumpets sounded as they went. <sup>14</sup> The second day they marched around the city once, and returned into the camp. They did this six days.

<sup>15</sup> On the seventh day, they rose early at the dawning of the day, and marched around the city in the same way seven times. Only on this day they marched around the city seven times. <sup>16</sup> At the seventh time, when the priests blew the trumpets, Joshua said to the people, "Shout, for Yahweh has given you the city! <sup>17</sup> The city shall be devoted, even it and all that is in it, to Yahweh. Only Rahab the prostitute shall live, she and all who are with her in the house, because she hid the messengers that we sent. <sup>18</sup> But as for you, only keep yourselves from what is devoted to destruction, lest when you have devoted it, you take of the devoted thing; so you would make the camp of Israel accursed, and trouble it. <sup>19</sup> But all the silver, gold, and vessels of brass and iron, are holy to Yahweh. They shall come into Yahweh's treasury."

<sup>20</sup> So the people shouted and the priests blew the trumpets. When the people heard the sound of the trumpet, the people shouted with a great shout, and the wall fell down flat, so that the people went up into the city, every man straight in front of him, and they took the city. <sup>21</sup> They utterly destroyed all that was in the city, both man and woman, both young and old, and ox, sheep, and donkey, with the edge of the sword. <sup>22</sup> Joshua said to the two men who had spied out the land, "Go into the prostitute's house, and bring the woman and all that she has out from there, as you swore to her." <sup>23</sup> The young men who were spies went in, and brought out Rahab with her father, her mother, her brothers, and all that she had. They also brought out all of her relatives, and they set them outside of the camp of Israel. <sup>24</sup> They burned the city with fire, and all that was in it. Only they put the silver, the gold, and the vessels of brass and of iron into the treasury of Yahweh's house. <sup>25</sup> But Rahab the prostitute, her father's household, and all that she had, Joshua saved alive. She lives in the middle of Israel to this day, because she hid the messengers, whom Joshua sent to spy out Jericho.

<sup>26</sup> Joshua commanded them with an oath at that time, saying, "Cursed is the man before Yahweh, who rises up and builds this city Jericho. With the loss of his firstborn he will lay its foundation, and with the loss of his youngest son he will set up its gates." <sup>27</sup> So Yahweh was with Joshua; and his fame was in all the land.

The men went up and spied out Ai. <sup>3</sup> They returned to Joshua, and said to him, "Don't let all the people go up; but let about two or three thousand men go up and strike Ai. Don't make all the people to toil there, for there are only a few of them." <sup>4</sup> So about three thousand men of the people went up there, and they fled before the men of Ai. <sup>5</sup> The men of Ai struck about thirty-six men of them, and they chased them from before the gate even to Shebarim, and struck them at the descent. The hearts of the people melted, and became like water. <sup>6</sup> Joshua tore his clothes, and fell to the earth on his face before Yahweh's ark until the evening, he and the elders of Israel; and they put dust on their heads. <sup>7</sup> Joshua said, "Alas, Lord Yahweh, why have you brought this people over the Jordan at all, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to cause us to perish? I wish that we had been content and lived beyond the Jordan! <sup>8</sup> Oh, Lord, what shall I say, after Israel has turned their backs before their enemies! <sup>9</sup> For the Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land will hear of it, and will surround us, and cut off our name from the earth. What will you do for your great name?"

<sup>10</sup> Yahweh said to Joshua, "Get up! Why have you fallen on your face like that? <sup>11</sup> Israel has sinned. Yes, they have even transgressed my covenant which I commanded them. Yes, they have even taken some of the devoted things, and have also stolen, and also deceived. They have even put it among their own stuff. <sup>12</sup> Therefore the children of Israel can't stand before their enemies. They turn their backs before their enemies, because they have become devoted for destruction. I will not be with you any more, unless you destroy the devoted things from among you.

<sup>13</sup> "Get up! Sanctify the people, and say, 'Sanctify yourselves for tomorrow, for Yahweh, the God of Israel, says, "There is a devoted thing among you, Israel. You cannot stand before your enemies until you take away the devoted thing from among you."

<sup>14</sup> "In the morning therefore you shall be brought near by your tribes. It shall be that the tribe which Yahweh selects shall come near by families. The family which Yahweh selects shall come near by households. The household which Yahweh selects shall come near man by man. <sup>15</sup> It shall be, that he who is taken with the devoted thing shall be burned with fire, he and all that he has, because he has transgressed Yahweh's covenant, and because he has done a disgraceful thing in Israel."

<sup>16</sup> So Joshua rose up early in the morning and brought Israel near by their tribes. The tribe of Judah was selected. <sup>17</sup> He brought near the family of Judah; and he selected the family of the Zerahites. He brought near the family of the Zerahites man by man, and Zabdi was selected. <sup>18</sup> He brought near his household man by man, and Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, was selected. <sup>19</sup> Joshua said to Achan, "My son, please give glory to Yahweh, the God of Israel, and make confession to him. Tell me now what you have done! Don't hide it from me!"

children of Israel. They laid them down before Yahweh. <sup>24</sup> Joshua, and all Israel with him, took Achan the son of Zerah, the silver, the robe, the wedge of gold, his sons, his daughters, his cattle, his donkeys, his sheep, his tent, and all that he had; and they brought them up to the valley of Achor. <sup>25</sup> Joshua said, "Why have you troubled us? Yahweh will trouble you today." All Israel stoned him with stones, and they burned them with fire and stoned them with stones. <sup>26</sup> They raised over him a great heap of stones that remains to this day. Yahweh turned from the fierceness of his anger. Therefore the name of that place was called "The valley of Achor" to this day.

8

after us, until we have drawn them away from the city; for they will say, 'They flee before us, like the first time.' So we will flee before them, <sup>7</sup> and you shall rise up from the ambush, and take possession of the city; for Yahweh your God will deliver it into your hand. <sup>8</sup> It shall be, when you have seized the city, that you shall set the city on fire. You shall do this according to Yahweh's word. Behold, I have commanded you."

<sup>9</sup> Joshua sent them out; and they went to set up the ambush, and stayed between Bethel and Ai, on the west side of Ai; but Joshua stayed among the people that night. <sup>10</sup> Joshua rose up early in the morning, mustered the people, and went up, he and the elders of Israel, before the people to Ai.

<sup>11</sup> All the people, even the men of war who were with him, went up, and came near, and came before the city, and encamped on the north side of Ai. Now there was a valley between him and Ai. <sup>12</sup> He took about five thousand men, and set them in ambush between Bethel and Ai, on the west side of the city. <sup>13</sup> So they set the people, even all the army who was on the north of the city, and their ambush on the west of the city; and Joshua went that night into the middle of the valley. <sup>14</sup> When the king of Ai saw it, they hurried and rose up early, and the men of the city went out against Israel to battle, he and all his people, at the time appointed, before the Arabah; but he didn't know that there was an ambush against him behind the city. <sup>15</sup> Joshua and all Israel made as if they were beaten before them, and fled by the way of the wilderness. <sup>16</sup> All the people who were in the city were called together to pursue after them. They pursued Joshua, and were drawn away from the city. <sup>17</sup> There was not a man left in Ai or Beth El who didn't go out after Israel. They left the city open, and pursued Israel.

<sup>18</sup> Yahweh said to Joshua, "Stretch out the javelin that is in your hand toward Ai, for I will give it into your hand."

Joshua stretched out the javelin that was in his hand toward the city. <sup>19</sup> The ambush arose quickly out of their place, and they ran as soon as he had stretched out his hand, and entered into the city, and took it. They hurried and set the city on fire. <sup>20</sup> When the men of Ai looked behind them, they saw, and behold, the smoke of the city ascended up to heaven, and they had no power to flee this way or that way. The people who fled to the wilderness turned back on the pursuers. <sup>21</sup> When Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had taken the city, and that the smoke of the city ascended, then they turned again, and killed the men of Ai. <sup>22</sup> The others came out of the city against them, so they were in the middle of Israel, some on this side, and some on that side. They struck them, so that they let none of them remain or escape. <sup>23</sup> They captured the king of Ai alive, and brought him to Joshua.

stretched out the javelin, until he had utterly destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai. <sup>27</sup> Israel took for themselves only the livestock and the goods of that city, according to Yahweh's word which he commanded Joshua. <sup>28</sup> So Joshua burned Ai, and made it a heap forever, even a desolation, to this day. <sup>29</sup> He hanged the king of Ai on a tree until the evening, and at sundown Joshua commanded, and they took his body down from the tree, and threw it at the entrance of the gate of the city, and raised a great heap of stones on it that remains to this day.

<sup>30</sup> Then Joshua built an altar to Yahweh, the God of Israel, on Mount Ebal, <sup>31</sup> as Moses the servant of Yahweh commanded the children of Israel, as it is written in the book of the law of Moses, an altar of uncut stones, on which no one had lifted up any iron. They offered burnt offerings on it to Yahweh and sacrificed peace offerings. <sup>32</sup> He wrote there on the stones a copy of Moses' law, which he wrote in the presence of the children of Israel. <sup>33</sup> All Israel, their elders and officers, and their judges, stood on both sides of the ark before the priests the Levites, who carried the ark of Yahweh's covenant, the foreigner as well as the native; half of them in front of Mount Gerizim, and half of them in front of Mount Ebal, as Moses the servant of Yahweh had commanded at the first, that they should bless the people of Israel. <sup>34</sup> Afterward he read all the words of the law, the blessing and the curse, according to all that is written in the book of the law. <sup>35</sup> There was not a word of all that Moses commanded, which Joshua didn't read before all the assembly of Israel, with the women, the little ones, and the foreigners who were among them.

9

<sup>7</sup> The men of Israel said to the Hivites, "What if you live among us. How could we make a covenant with you?"

<sup>8</sup> They said to Joshua, "We are your servants."

Joshua said to them, "Who are you? Where do you come from?"

<sup>9</sup> They said to him, "Your servants have come from a very far country because of the name of Yahweh your God; for we have heard of his fame, all that he did in Egypt, <sup>10</sup> and all that he did to the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan, to Sihon king of Heshbon and to Og king of Bashan, who was at Ashtaroth.

<sup>11</sup> Our elders and all the inhabitants of our country spoke to us, saying, 'Take supplies in your hand for the journey, and go to meet them. Tell them, "We are your servants. Now make a covenant with us."'

<sup>12</sup> This our bread we took hot for our supplies out of our houses on the day we went out to go to you; but now, behold, it is dry, and has become moldy. <sup>13</sup> These wine skins, which we filled, were new; and behold, they are torn. These our garments and our shoes have become old because of the very long journey."

<sup>15</sup> Joshua made peace with them, and made a covenant with them, to let them live. The princes of the congregation swore to them.

<sup>16</sup> At the end of three days after they had made a covenant with them, they heard that they were their neighbors, and that they lived among them. <sup>17</sup> The children of Israel traveled and came to their cities on the third day. Now their cities were Gibeon, Chephirah, Beeroth, and Kiriath Jearim. <sup>18</sup> The children of Israel didn't strike them, because the princes of the congregation had sworn to them by Yahweh, the God of Israel. All the congregation murmured against the princes. <sup>19</sup> But all the princes said to all the congregation,

"We have sworn to them by Yahweh, the God of Israel. Now therefore we may not touch them. <sup>20</sup> We will do this to them, and let them live; lest wrath be on us, because of the oath which we swore to them."

<sup>21</sup> The princes said to them, "Let them live, so they became wood cutters and drawers of water for all the congregation, as the princes had spoken to them."

<sup>22</sup> Joshua called for them, and he spoke to them, saying, “Why have you deceived us, saying, ‘We are very far from you,’ when you live among us? <sup>23</sup> Now therefore you are cursed, and some of you will never fail to be slaves, both wood cutters and drawers of water for the house of my God.”

<sup>24</sup> They answered Joshua, and said, “Because your servants were certainly told how Yahweh your God commanded his servant Moses to give you all the land, and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land from before you. Therefore we were very afraid for our lives because of you, and have done this thing. <sup>25</sup> Now, behold, we are in your hand. Do to us as it seems good and right to you to do.”

<sup>26</sup> He did so to them, and delivered them out of the hand of the children of Israel, so that they didn’t kill them. <sup>27</sup> That day Joshua made them wood cutters and drawers of water for the congregation and for Yahweh’s altar to this day, in the place which he should choose.

10

<sup>1</sup> Now when Adoni-Zedek king of Jerusalem heard how Joshua had taken Ai and had utterly destroyed it; as he had done to Jericho and her king, so he had done to Ai and her king; and how the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel, and were among them. <sup>2</sup> They were very afraid, because Gibeon was a great city, as one of the royal cities, and because it was greater than Ai, and all its men were mighty. <sup>3</sup> Therefore Adoni-Zedek king of Jerusalem sent to Hoham king of Hebron, Piram king of Jarmuth, Japhia king of Lachish, and Debir king of Eglon, saying, <sup>4</sup> “Come up to me and help me. Let us strike Gibeon; for they have made peace with Joshua and with the children of Israel.” <sup>5</sup> Therefore the five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon, gathered themselves together and went up, they and all their armies, and encamped against Gibeon, and made war against it. <sup>6</sup> The men of Gibeon sent to Joshua at the camp at Gilgal, saying, “Don’t abandon your servants! Come up to us quickly and save us! Help us; for all the kings of the Amorites that dwell in the hill country have gathered together against us.”

<sup>7</sup> So Joshua went up from Gilgal, he, and the whole army with him, including all the mighty men of valor. <sup>8</sup> Yahweh said to Joshua, “Don’t fear them, for I have delivered them into your hands. Not a man of them will stand before you.”

<sup>9</sup> Joshua therefore came to them suddenly. He marched from Gilgal all night. <sup>10</sup> Yahweh confused them before Israel. He killed them with a great slaughter at Gibeon, and chased them by the way of the ascent of Beth Horon, and struck them to Azekah and to Makkedah. <sup>11</sup> As they fled from before Israel, while they were at the descent of Beth Horon, Yahweh hurled down great stones from the sky on them to Azekah, and they died. There were more who died from the hailstones than those whom the children of Israel killed with the sword.

<sup>12</sup> Then Joshua spoke to Yahweh in the day when Yahweh delivered up the Amorites before the children of Israel. He said in the sight of Israel, “Sun, stand still on Gibeon! You, moon, stop in the valley of Aijalon!”

<sup>13</sup> The sun stood still, and the moon stayed, until the nation had avenged themselves of their enemies. Isn't this written in the book of Jashar? The sun stayed in the middle of the sky, and didn't hurry to go down about a whole day. <sup>14</sup> There was no day like that before it or after it, that Yahweh listened to the voice of a man; for Yahweh fought for Israel.

<sup>18</sup> Joshua said, "Roll large stones to cover the cave's entrance, and set men by it to guard them; <sup>19</sup> but don't stay there. Pursue your enemies, and attack them from the rear. Don't allow them to enter into their cities; for Yahweh your God has delivered them into your hand."

<sup>20</sup> When Joshua and the children of Israel had finished killing them with a very great slaughter until they were consumed, and the remnant which remained of them had entered into the fortified cities, <sup>21</sup> all the people returned to the camp to Joshua at Makkedah in peace. None moved his tongue against any of the children of Israel. <sup>22</sup> Then Joshua said, "Open the cave entrance, and bring those five kings out of the cave to me."

<sup>23</sup> They did so, and brought those five kings out of the cave to him: the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon. <sup>24</sup> When they brought those kings out to Joshua, Joshua called for all the men of Israel, and said to the chiefs of the men of war who went with him, "Come near. Put your feet on the necks of these kings."

They came near, and put their feet on their necks.

<sup>25</sup> Joshua said to them, "Don't be afraid, nor be dismayed. Be strong and courageous, for Yahweh will do this to all your enemies against whom you fight."

<sup>26</sup> Afterward Joshua struck them, put them to death, and hanged them on five trees. They were hanging on the trees until the evening. <sup>27</sup> At the time of the going down of the sun, Joshua commanded, and they took them down off the trees, and threw them into the cave in which they had hidden themselves, and laid great stones on the mouth of the cave, which remain to this very day.

<sup>28</sup> Joshua took Makkedah on that day, and struck it with the edge of the sword, with its king. He utterly destroyed it and all the souls who were in it. He left no one remaining. He did to the king of Makkedah as he had done to the king of Jericho.

<sup>29</sup> Joshua passed from Makkedah, and all Israel with him, to Libnah, and fought against Libnah. <sup>30</sup> Yahweh delivered it also, with its king, into the hand of Israel. He struck it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls who were in it. He left no one remaining in it. He did to its king as he had done to the king of Jericho.

<sup>31</sup> Joshua passed from Libnah, and all Israel with him, to Lachish, and encamped against it, and fought against it. <sup>32</sup> Yahweh delivered Lachish into the hand of Israel. He took it on the second day, and struck it with the edge of the sword, with all the souls who were in it, according to all that he had done to Libnah. <sup>33</sup> Then Horam king of Gezer came up to help Lachish; and Joshua struck him and his people, until he had left him no one remaining.

<sup>34</sup> Joshua passed from Lachish, and all Israel with him, to Eglon; and they encamped against it fought against it. <sup>35</sup> They took it on that day, and struck it with the edge of the sword. He utterly destroyed all the souls who were in it that day, according to all that he had done to Lachish.

<sup>36</sup> Joshua went up from Eglon, and all Israel with him, to Hebron; and they fought against it. <sup>37</sup> They took it, and struck it with the edge of the sword, with its king and all its cities, and all the souls who were in it. He left no one remaining, according to all that he had done to Eglon; but he utterly destroyed it, and all the souls who were in it.

<sup>38</sup> Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to Debir, and fought against it. <sup>39</sup> He took it, with its king and all its cities. They struck them with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed all the souls who were in it. He left no one remaining. As he had done to Hebron, so he did to Debir, and to its king; as he had done also to Libnah, and to its king. <sup>40</sup> So Joshua struck all the land, the hill country, the South, the lowland, the slopes, and all their kings. He left no one remaining, but he utterly destroyed all that breathed, as Yahweh, the God of Israel, commanded. <sup>41</sup> Joshua struck them from Kadesh Barnea even to Gaza, and all the country of Goshen, even to Gibeon. <sup>42</sup> Joshua took all these kings and their land at one time, because Yahweh, the God of Israel, fought for Israel. <sup>43</sup> Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to the camp to Gilgal.

11

<sup>6</sup> Yahweh said to Joshua, "Don't be afraid because of them; for tomorrow at this time, I will deliver them up all slain before Israel. You shall hamstring their horses and burn their chariots with fire."

<sup>7</sup> So Joshua came suddenly, with all the warriors, against them by the waters of Merom, and attacked them. <sup>8</sup> Yahweh delivered them into the hand of Israel, and they struck them, and chased them to great Sidon, and to Misrephoth Maim, and to the valley of Mizpah eastward. They struck them until they left them no one remaining. <sup>9</sup> Joshua did to them as Yahweh told him. He hamstrung their horses and burned their chariots with fire. <sup>10</sup> Joshua turned back at that time, and took Hazor, and struck its king with the sword: for Hazor used to be the head of all those kingdoms. <sup>11</sup> They struck all the souls who were in it with the edge of the sword, utterly destroying them.

There was no one left who breathed. He burned Hazor with fire. <sup>12</sup> Joshua captured all the cities of those kings, with their kings, and he struck them with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed them; as Moses the servant of Yahweh commanded. <sup>13</sup> But as for the cities that stood on their mounds, Israel burned none of them, except Hazor only. Joshua burned that. <sup>14</sup> The children of Israel took all the plunder of these cities, with the livestock, as plunder for themselves; but every man they struck with the edge of the sword, until they had destroyed them. They didn't leave any who breathed.

<sup>15</sup> As Yahweh commanded Moses his servant, so Moses commanded Joshua. Joshua did so. He left nothing undone of all that Yahweh commanded Moses. <sup>16</sup> So Joshua captured all that land, the hill country, all the South, all the land of Goshen, the lowland, the Arabah, the hill country of Israel, and the lowland of the same; <sup>17</sup> from Mount Halak, that goes up to Seir, even to Baal Gad in the valley of Lebanon under Mount Hermon. He took all their kings, struck them, and put them to death. <sup>18</sup> Joshua made war a long time with all those kings. <sup>19</sup> There was not a city that made peace with the children of Israel, except the Hivites, the inhabitants of Gibeon. They took all in battle. <sup>20</sup> For it was of Yahweh to harden their hearts, to come against Israel in battle, that he might utterly destroy them, that they might have no favor, but that he might destroy them, as Yahweh commanded Moses. <sup>21</sup> Joshua came at that time, and cut off the Anakim from the hill country, from Hebron, from Debir, from Anab, and from all the hill country of Judah, and from all the hill country of Israel: Joshua utterly destroyed them with their cities. <sup>22</sup> There were none of the Anakim left in the land of the children of Israel. Only in Gaza, in Gath, and in Ashdod, did some remain. <sup>23</sup> So Joshua took the whole land, according to all that Yahweh spoke to Moses; and Joshua gave it for an inheritance to Israel according to their divisions by their tribes. The land had rest from war.

<sup>6</sup> Moses the servant of Yahweh and the children of Israel struck them. Moses the servant of Yahweh gave it for a possession to the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh. <sup>7</sup> These are the kings of the land whom Joshua and the children of Israel struck beyond the Jordan westward, from Baal Gad in the valley of Lebanon even to Mount Halak, that goes up to Seir. Joshua gave it to the tribes of Israel for a possession according to their divisions; <sup>8</sup> in the hill country, and in the lowland, and in the Arabah, and in the slopes, and in the wilderness, and in the South; the Hittite, the Amorite, and the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite:

the king of Ai, which is beside Bethel, one;

the king of Hebron, one;

the king of Lachish, one;

the king of Gezer, one;

<sup>13</sup> the king of Debir, one;
the king of Geder, one;

<sup>14</sup> the king of Hormah, one;
the king of Arad, one;

<sup>15</sup> the king of Libnah, one;
the king of Adullam, one;

the king of Bethel, one;

the king of Hopher, one;

the king of Lassaron, one;

the king of Hazor, one;

the king of Achshaph, one;

the king of Megiddo, one;

the king of Jokneam in Carmel, one;

the king of Goim in Gilgal, one;

all the kings thirty-one.

13

<sup>1</sup> Now Joshua was old and well advanced in years. Yahweh said to him, "You are old and advanced in years, and there remains yet very much land to be possessed.

<sup>2</sup> "This is the land that still remains: all the regions of the Philistines, and all the Geshurites; <sup>3</sup> from the Shihor, which is before Egypt, even to the border of Ekron northward, which is counted as Canaanite; the five lords of the Philistines; the Gazites, and the Ashdodites, the Ashkelonites, the Gittites, and the Ekronites; also the Avvim, <sup>4</sup> on the south; all the land of the Canaanites, and Mearah that belongs to the Sidonians, to Aphek, to the border of the Amorites; <sup>5</sup> and the land of the Gebalites, and all Lebanon, toward the sunrise, from Baal Gad under Mount Hermon to the entrance of Hamath; <sup>6</sup> all the inhabitants of the hill country from Lebanon to Misrephoth Maim, even all the Sidonians. I will drive them out from before the children of Israel. Just allocate it to Israel for an inheritance, as I have commanded you. <sup>7</sup> Now therefore divide this land for an inheritance to the nine tribes and the half-tribe of Manasseh." <sup>8</sup> With him the Reubenites and the Gadites received their inheritance, which Moses gave them, beyond the Jordan eastward, even as Moses the servant of Yahweh gave them: <sup>9</sup> from Aroer, that is on the edge of the valley of the Arnon, and the city that is in the middle of the valley, and all the plain of Medeba to Dibon; <sup>10</sup> and all the cities of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, to the border of the children of Ammon; <sup>11</sup> and Gilead, and the border of the Geshurites and Maacathites, and all Mount Hermon, and all Bashan to Salecah; <sup>12</sup> all the kingdom of Og in Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei (the same was left of the remnant of the Rephaim); for Moses attacked these, and drove them out. <sup>13</sup> Nevertheless the children of Israel didn't drive out the Geshurites, nor the Maacathites: but Geshur and Maacath live within Israel to this day. <sup>14</sup> Only he gave no inheritance to the tribe of Levi. The offerings of Yahweh, the God of Israel, made by fire are his inheritance, as he spoke to him. <sup>15</sup> Moses gave to the tribe of the children of Reuben according to their families. <sup>16</sup> Their border was from Aroer, that is on the edge of the valley of the Arnon, and the city that is in the middle of the valley, and all the plain by Medeba; <sup>17</sup> Heshbon, and all its cities that are in the plain; Dibon, Bamoth Baal, Beth Baal Meon, <sup>18</sup> Jahaz, Kedemoth, Mephaath, <sup>19</sup> Kiriathaim, Sibmah, Zereth Shahar in the mount of the valley, <sup>20</sup> Beth Peor, the slopes of Pisgah, Beth Jeshimoth, <sup>21</sup> all the cities of the plain, and all the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, whom Moses struck with the chiefs of Midian, Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba, the princes of Sihon, who lived in the land. <sup>22</sup> The children of Israel also killed Balaam the son of Beor, the soothsayer, with the sword, among the rest of their slain.

according to their families, the cities and its villages.

<sup>32</sup> These are the inheritances which Moses distributed in the plains of Moab, beyond the Jordan at Jericho, eastward. <sup>33</sup> But Moses gave no inheritance to the tribe of Levi. Yahweh, the God of Israel, is their inheritance, as he spoke to them.

the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers' houses of the tribes of the children of Israel, distributed to them,<sup>2</sup> by the lot of their inheritance, as Yahweh commanded by Moses, for the nine tribes, and for the half-tribe.<sup>3</sup> For Moses had given the inheritance of the two tribes and the half-tribe beyond the Jordan; but to the Levites he gave no inheritance among them.<sup>4</sup> For the children of Joseph were two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim. They gave no portion to the Levites in the land, except cities to dwell in, with their suburbs for their livestock and for their property.<sup>5</sup> The children of Israel did as Yahweh commanded Moses, and they divided the land.

<sup>6</sup> Then the children of Judah came near to Joshua in Gilgal. Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite said to him, "You know the thing that Yahweh spoke to Moses the man of God concerning me and concerning you in Kadesh Barnea.<sup>7</sup> I was forty years old when Moses the servant of Yahweh sent me from Kadesh Barnea to spy out the land. I brought him word again as it was in my heart.<sup>8</sup> Nevertheless, my brothers who went up with me made the heart of the people melt; but I wholly followed Yahweh my God.<sup>9</sup> Moses swore on that day, saying, 'Surely the land where you walked shall be an inheritance to you and to your children forever, because you have wholly followed Yahweh my God.'

<sup>10</sup> "Now, behold, Yahweh has kept me alive, as he spoke, these forty-five years, from the time that Yahweh spoke this word to Moses, while Israel walked in the wilderness. Now, behold, I am eighty-five years old, today.<sup>11</sup> As yet I am as strong today as I was in the day that Moses sent me. As my strength was then, even so is my strength now for war, to go out and to come in.<sup>12</sup> Now therefore give me this hill country, of which Yahweh spoke in that day; for you heard in that day how the Anakim were there, and great and fortified cities. It may be that Yahweh will be with me, and I shall drive them out, as Yahweh said."

and the border went up to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben. <sup>7</sup> The border went up to Debir from the valley of Achor, and so northward, looking toward Gilgal, that faces the ascent of Adummim, which is on the south side of the river. The border passed along to the waters of En Shemesh, and ended at En Rogel. <sup>8</sup> The border went up by the valley of the son of Hinnom to the side of the Jebusite (also called Jerusalem) southward; and the border went up to the top of the mountain that lies before the valley of Hinnom westward, which is at the farthest part of the valley of Rephaim northward. <sup>9</sup> The border extended from the top of the mountain to the spring of the waters of Nephtoah, and went out to the cities of Mount Ephron; and the border extended to Baalah (also called Kiriath Jearim); <sup>10</sup> and the border turned about from Baalah westward to Mount Seir, and passed along to the side of Mount Jearim (also called Chesalon) on the north, and went down to Beth Shemesh, and passed along by Timnah; <sup>11</sup> and the border went out to the side of Ekron northward; and the border extended to Shikkeron, and passed along to Mount Baalah, and went out at Jabneel; and the goings out of the border were at the sea. <sup>12</sup> The west border was to the shore of the great sea. This is the border of the children of Judah according to their families.

<sup>13</sup> He gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh a portion among the children of Judah, according to the commandment of Yahweh to Joshua, even Kiriath Arba, named after the father of Anak (also called Hebron). <sup>14</sup> Caleb drove out the three sons of Anak: Sheshai, and Ahiman, and Talmai, the children of Anak. <sup>15</sup> He went up against the inhabitants of Debir: now the name of Debir before was Kiriath Sepher. <sup>16</sup> Caleb said, "He who strikes Kiriath Sepher, and takes it, to him I will give Achsah my daughter as wife." <sup>17</sup> Othniel the son of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb, took it: and he gave him Achsah his daughter as wife. <sup>18</sup> When she came, she had him ask her father for a field. She got off of her donkey, and Caleb said, "What do you want?"

<sup>19</sup> She said, "Give me a blessing. Because you have set me in the land of the South, give me also springs of water."

So he gave her the upper springs and the lower springs.

Jarmuth, Adullam, Socoh, Azekah, <sup>36</sup>

<sup>45</sup> Ekron, with its towns and its villages; <sup>46</sup> from Ekron even to the sea, all that were by the side of Ashdod, with their villages. <sup>47</sup> Ashdod, its towns and its villages; Gaza, its towns and its villages; to the brook of Egypt, and the great sea with its coastline.

the children of Judah at Jerusalem to this day.

16

<sup>1</sup> This was the lot for the tribe of Manasseh, for he was the firstborn of Joseph. As for Machir the firstborn of Manasseh, the father of Gilead, because he was a man of war, therefore he had Gilead and Bashan. <sup>2</sup> So this was for the rest of the children of Manasseh according to their families: for the children of Abiezer, for the children of Helek, for the children of Asriel, for the children of Shechem, for the children of Hephher, and for the children of Shemida. These were the male children of Manasseh the son of Joseph according to their families. <sup>3</sup> But Zelophehad, the son of Hephher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, had no sons, but daughters. These are the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah. <sup>4</sup> They came to Eleazar the priest, and to Joshua the son of Nun, and to the princes, saying, “Yahweh commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our brothers.” Therefore according to the commandment of Yahweh he gave them an inheritance among the brothers of their father. <sup>5</sup> Ten parts fell to Manasseh, besides the land of Gilead and Bashan, which is beyond the Jordan; <sup>6</sup> because the daughters of Manasseh had an inheritance among his sons. The land of Gilead belonged to the rest of the sons of Manasseh. <sup>7</sup> The border of Manasseh was from Asher to Michmethath, which is before Shechem. The border went along to the right hand, to the inhabitants of En Tappuah. <sup>8</sup> The land of Tappuah belonged to Manasseh; but Tappuah on the border of Manasseh belonged to the children of Ephraim. <sup>9</sup> The border went down to the brook of Kanah, southward of the brook. These cities belonged to Ephraim among the cities of Manasseh. The border of Manasseh was on the north side of the brook, and ended at the sea. <sup>10</sup> Southward it was Ephraim's, and northward it was Manasseh's, and the sea was his border. They reached to Asher on the north, and to Issachar on the east. <sup>11</sup> Manasseh had three heights in Issachar, in Asher Beth Shean and its towns, and Ibleam and its towns, and the inhabitants of Dor and its towns, and the inhabitants of Endor and its towns, and the inhabitants of Taanach and its towns, and the inhabitants of Megiddo and its towns. <sup>12</sup> Yet the children of Manasseh couldn't drive out the inhabitants of those cities; but the Canaanites would dwell in that land.

<sup>13</sup> When the children of Israel had grown strong, they put the Canaanites to forced labor, and didn't utterly drive them out. <sup>14</sup> The children of Joseph spoke to Joshua, saying, “Why have you given me just one lot and one part for an inheritance, since we are a numerous people, because Yahweh has blessed us so far?”

<sup>15</sup> Joshua said to them, “If you are a numerous people, go up to the forest, and clear land for yourself there in the land of the Perizzites and of the Rephaim; since the hill country of Ephraim is too narrow for you.”

<sup>16</sup> The children of Joseph said, “The hill country is not enough for us. All the Canaanites who dwell in the land of the valley have chariots of iron, both those who are in Beth Shean and its towns, and those who are in the valley of Jezreel.”

<sup>17</sup> Joshua spoke to the house of Joseph, that is, to Ephraim and to Manasseh, saying, “You are a numerous people, and have great power. You shall not have one lot only; <sup>18</sup> but the hill country shall be yours. Although it is a forest, you shall cut it down, and its farthest extent shall be yours; for you shall drive out the Canaanites, though they have chariots of iron, and though they are strong.”

18

survey it, and come again to me. I will cast lots for you here before Yahweh in Shiloh.”

<sup>9</sup> The men went and passed through the land, and surveyed it by cities into seven portions in a book. They came to Joshua to the camp at Shiloh. <sup>10</sup> Joshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before Yahweh. There Joshua divided the land to the children of Israel according to their divisions.

<sup>11</sup> The lot of the tribe of the children of Benjamin came up according to their families. The border of their lot went out between the children of Judah and the children of Joseph. <sup>12</sup> Their border on the north quarter was from the Jordan. The border went up to the side of Jericho on the north, and went up through the hill country westward. It ended at the wilderness of Beth Aven. <sup>13</sup> The border passed along from there to Luz, to the side of Luz (also called Bethel), southward. The border went down to Ataroth Addar, by the mountain that lies on the south of Beth Horon the lower. <sup>14</sup> The border extended, and turned around on the west quarter southward, from the mountain that lies before Beth Horon southward; and ended at Kiriath Baal (also called Kiriath Jearim), a city of the children of Judah. This was the west quarter. <sup>15</sup> The south quarter was from the farthest part of Kiriath Jearim. The border went out westward, and went out to the spring of the waters of Nephtoah. <sup>16</sup> The border went down to the farthest part of the mountain that lies before the valley of the son of Hinnom, which is in the valley of Rephaim northward. It went down to the valley of Hinnom, to the side of the Jebusite southward, and went down to En Rogel. <sup>17</sup> It extended northward, went out at En Shemesh, and went out to Geliloth, which is over against the ascent of Adummim. It went down to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben.<sup>18</sup> It passed along to the side over against the Arabah northward, and went down to the Arabah.<sup>19</sup> The border passed along to the side of Beth Hoglah northward; and the border ended at the north bay of the Salt Sea, at the south end of the Jordan. This was the south border.<sup>20</sup> The Jordan was its border on the east quarter. This was the inheritance of the children of Benjamin, by the borders around it, according to their families.<sup>21</sup> Now the cities of the tribe of the children of Benjamin according to their families were Jericho, Beth Hoglah, Emek Keziz,<sup>22</sup> Beth Arabah, Zemaraim, Bethel,<sup>23</sup> Avvim, Parah, Ophrah,<sup>24</sup> Chephar Ammoni, Ophni, and Geba; twelve cities with their villages.<sup>25</sup> Gibeon, Ramah, Beeroth,<sup>26</sup> Mizpeh, Chephirah, Mozah,<sup>27</sup> Rekem, Irpeel, Taralah,<sup>28</sup> Zelah, Eleph, the Jebusite (also called Jerusalem), Gibeath, and Kiriath; fourteen cities with their villages. This is the inheritance of the children of Benjamin according to their families.

Ashan; four cities with their villages;<sup>8</sup> and all the villages that were around these cities to Baalath Beer, Ramah of the South. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their families.<sup>9</sup> Out of the part of the children of Judah was the inheritance of the children of Simeon; for the portion of the children of Judah was too much for them. Therefore the children of Simeon had inheritance in the middle of their inheritance.

<sup>49</sup> So they finished distributing the land for inheritance by its borders. The children of Israel gave an inheritance to Joshua the son of Nun among them.<sup>50</sup> According to Yahweh's commandment, they gave him the city which he asked, even Timnathserah in the hill country of Ephraim; and he built the city, and lived there.<sup>51</sup> These are the inheritances, which Eleazar the priest, Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers' houses of the tribes of the children of Israel, distributed for inheritance by lot in Shiloh before Yahweh, at the door of the Tent of Meeting. So they finished dividing the land.

20

<sup>7</sup> They set apart Kedesh in Galilee in the hill country of Naphtali, Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim, and Kiriath Arba (also called Hebron) in the hill country of Judah. <sup>8</sup> Beyond the Jordan at Jericho eastward, they assigned Bezer in the wilderness in the plain out of the tribe of Reuben, Ramoth in Gilead out of the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan out of the tribe of Manasseh. <sup>9</sup> These were the appointed cities for all the children of Israel, and for the alien who lives among them, that whoever kills any person unintentionally might flee there, and not die by the hand of the avenger of blood, until he stands trial before the congregation.

children of Levi; for theirs was the first lot.

forty-eight cities with their suburbs. <sup>42</sup> Each of these cities included their suburbs around them. It was this way with all these cities.

<sup>43</sup> So Yahweh gave to Israel all the land which he swore to give to their fathers. They possessed it, and lived in it. <sup>44</sup> Yahweh gave them rest all around, according to all that he swore to their fathers. Not a man of all their enemies stood before them. Yahweh delivered all their enemies into their hand. <sup>45</sup> Nothing failed of any good thing which Yahweh had spoken to the house of Israel. All came to pass.

22

<sup>1</sup> Then Joshua called the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, <sup>2</sup> and said to them, “You have kept all that Moses the servant of Yahweh commanded you, and have listened to my voice in all that I commanded you. <sup>3</sup> You have not left your brothers these many days to this day, but have performed the duty of the commandment of Yahweh your God. <sup>4</sup> Now Yahweh your God has given rest to your brothers, as he spoke to them. Therefore now return and go to your tents, to the land of your possession, which Moses the servant of Yahweh gave you beyond the Jordan. <sup>5</sup> Only take diligent heed to do the commandment and the law which Moses the servant of Yahweh commanded you, to love Yahweh your God, to walk in all his ways, to keep his commandments, to hold fast to him, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul.”

to the one half-tribe of Manasseh Moses had given inheritance in Bashan; but to the other half gave Joshua among their brothers beyond the Jordan westward. Moreover when Joshua sent them away to their tents, he blessed them, <sup>8</sup> and spoke to them, saying, “Return with much wealth to your tents, with very much livestock, with silver, with gold, with brass, with iron, and with very much clothing. Divide the plunder of your enemies with your brothers.”

<sup>9</sup> The children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh returned, and departed from the children of Israel out of Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan, to go to the land of Gilead, to the land of their possession, which they owned, according to the commandment of Yahweh by Moses. <sup>10</sup> When they came to the region about the Jordan, that is in the land of Canaan, the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh built there an altar by the Jordan, a great altar to look at. <sup>11</sup> The children of Israel heard this, “Behold, the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh have built an altar in the border of the land of Canaan, in the region around the Jordan, on the side that belongs to the children of Israel.” <sup>12</sup> When the children of Israel heard of it, the whole congregation of the children of Israel gathered themselves together at Shiloh, to go up against them to war. <sup>13</sup> The children of Israel sent to the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half-tribe of Manasseh, into the land of Gilead, Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest. <sup>14</sup> With him were ten princes, one prince of a fathers’ house for each of the tribes of Israel; and they were each head of their fathers' houses among the thousands of Israel. <sup>15</sup> They came to the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half-tribe of Manasseh, to the land of Gilead, and they spoke with them, saying, <sup>16</sup> "Thus says the whole congregation of Yahweh, 'What trespass is this that you have committed against the God of Israel, to turn away today from following Yahweh, in that you have built yourselves an altar, to rebel today against Yahweh?' <sup>17</sup> Is the iniquity of Peor too little for us, from which we have not cleansed ourselves to this day, although there came a plague on the congregation of Yahweh, <sup>18</sup> that you must turn away today from following Yahweh? It will be, since you rebel today against Yahweh, that tomorrow he will be angry with the whole congregation of Israel. <sup>19</sup> However, if the land of your possession is unclean, then pass over to the land of the possession of Yahweh, in which Yahweh's tabernacle dwells, and take possession among us; but don't rebel against Yahweh, nor rebel against us, in building an altar other than Yahweh our God's altar. <sup>20</sup> Didn't Achan the son of Zerah commit a trespass in the devoted thing, and wrath fell on all the congregation of Israel? That man didn't perish alone in his iniquity.'"

<sup>21</sup> Then the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh answered, and spoke to the heads of the thousands of Israel, <sup>22</sup> "The Mighty One, God, Yahweh, the Mighty One, God, Yahweh, he knows; and Israel shall know: if it was in rebellion, or if in trespass against Yahweh (don't save us today), <sup>23</sup> that we have built us an altar to turn away from following Yahweh; or if to offer burnt offering or meal offering, or if to offer sacrifices of peace offerings, let Yahweh himself require it.

<sup>24</sup> "If we have not out of concern done this, and for a reason, saying, 'In time to come your children might speak to our children, saying, "What have you to do with Yahweh, the God of Israel?' <sup>25</sup> For Yahweh has made the Jordan a border between us and you, you children of Reuben and children of Gad. You have no portion in Yahweh.'" So your children might make our children cease from fearing Yahweh.

<sup>26</sup> "Therefore we said, 'Let's now prepare to build ourselves an altar, not for burnt offering, nor for sacrifice; <sup>27</sup> but it will be a witness between us and you, and between our generations after us, that we may perform the service of Yahweh before him with our burnt offerings, with our sacrifices, and with our peace offerings;' that your children may not tell our children in time to come, 'You have no portion in Yahweh.'

<sup>28</sup> "Therefore we said, 'It shall be, when they tell us or our generations this in time to come, that we shall say, "Behold the pattern of Yahweh's altar, which our fathers made, not for burnt offering, nor for sacrifice; but it is a witness between us and you.'"

<sup>29</sup> "Far be it from us that we should rebel against Yahweh, and turn away today from following Yahweh, to build an altar for burnt offering, for meal offering, or for sacrifice, besides Yahweh our God's altar that is before his tabernacle!"

<sup>30</sup> When Phinehas the priest, and the princes of the congregation, even the heads of the thousands of Israel that were with him, heard the words that the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the children of Manasseh spoke, it pleased them well. <sup>31</sup> Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest said to the children of Reuben, to the children of Gad, and to the children of Manasseh, "Today we know that Yahweh is among us, because you have not committed this trespass against Yahweh. Now you have delivered the children of Israel out of Yahweh's hand." <sup>32</sup> Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, and the princes, returned from the children of Reuben, and from the children of Gad, out of the land of Gilead, to the land of Canaan, to the children of Israel, and brought them word again. <sup>33</sup> The thing pleased the children of Israel; and the children of Israel blessed God, and spoke no more of going up against them to war, to destroy the land in which the children of Reuben and the children of Gad lived. <sup>34</sup> The children of Reuben and the children of Gad named the altar "A Witness Between Us that Yahweh is God."

23

<sup>1</sup> After many days, when Yahweh had given rest to Israel from their enemies all around, and Joshua was old and well advanced in years, <sup>2</sup> Joshua called for all Israel, for their elders and for their heads, and for their judges and for their officers, and said to them, "I am old and well advanced in years. <sup>3</sup> You have seen all that Yahweh your God has done to all these nations because of you; for it is Yahweh your God who has fought for you. <sup>4</sup> Behold, I have allotted to you these nations that remain, to be an inheritance for your tribes, from the Jordan, with all the nations that I have cut off, even to the great sea toward the going down of the sun. <sup>5</sup> Yahweh your God will thrust them out from before you, and drive them from out of your sight. You shall possess their land, as Yahweh your God spoke to you.

<sup>6</sup> "Therefore be very courageous to keep and to do all that is written in the book of the law of Moses, that you not turn aside from it to the right hand or to the left; <sup>7</sup> that you not come among these nations, these that remain among you; neither make mention of the name of their gods, nor cause to swear by them, neither serve them, nor bow down yourselves to them; <sup>8</sup> but hold fast to Yahweh your God, as you have done to this day.

<sup>9</sup> "For Yahweh has driven great and strong nations out from before you. But as for you, no man has stood before you to this day. <sup>10</sup> One man of you shall chase a thousand; for it is Yahweh your God who fights for you, as he spoke to you. <sup>11</sup> Take good heed therefore to yourselves, that you love Yahweh your God.

<sup>12</sup> "But if you do at all go back, and hold fast to the remnant of these nations, even these who remain among you, and make marriages with them, and go in to them, and they to you; <sup>13</sup> know for a certainty that Yahweh your God will no longer drive these nations from out of your sight; but they shall be a snare and a trap to you, a scourge in your sides, and thorns in your eyes, until you perish from off this good land which Yahweh your God has given you.

<sup>14</sup> "Behold, today I am going the way of all the earth. You know in all your hearts and in all your souls that not one thing has failed of all the good things which Yahweh your God spoke concerning you. All have happened to you. Not one thing has failed of it. <sup>15</sup> It shall happen that as all the good things have come on you of which Yahweh your God spoke to you, so Yahweh will bring on you all the evil things, until he has destroyed you from off this good land which Yahweh your God has given you, <sup>16</sup> when you disobey the covenant of Yahweh your God, which he commanded you, and go and serve other gods, and bow down yourselves to them. Then Yahweh's anger will be kindled against you, and you will perish quickly from off the good land which he has given to you."

24

<sup>1</sup> Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shechem, and called for the elders of Israel, for their heads, for their judges, and for their officers; and they presented themselves before God. <sup>2</sup> Joshua said to all the people, "Yahweh says, the God of Israel, 'Your fathers lived of old time beyond the River, even Terah, the father of Abraham, and the father of Nahor: and they served other gods. <sup>3</sup> I took your father Abraham from beyond the River, and led him throughout all the land of Canaan, and multiplied his offspring,<sup>h</sup> and gave him Isaac. <sup>4</sup> I gave to Isaac Jacob and Esau: and I gave to Esau Mount Seir, to possess it. Jacob and his children went down into Egypt.

<sup>5</sup> "I sent Moses and Aaron, and I plagued Egypt, according to that which I did among them: and afterward I brought you out. <sup>6</sup> I brought your fathers out of Egypt: and you came to the sea. The Egyptians pursued your fathers with chariots and with horsemen to the Red Sea. <sup>7</sup> When they cried out to Yahweh, he put darkness between you and the Egyptians, and brought the sea on them, and covered them; and your eyes saw what I did in Egypt. You lived in the wilderness many days.

<sup>8</sup> "I brought you into the land of the Amorites, that lived beyond the Jordan. They fought with you, and I gave them into your hand. You possessed their land, and I destroyed them from before you. <sup>9</sup> Then Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, arose and fought against Israel. He sent and called Balaam the son of Beor to curse you, <sup>10</sup> but I would not listen to Balaam; therefore he blessed you still. So I delivered you out of his hand.

<sup>14</sup> "Now therefore fear Yahweh, and serve him in sincerity and in truth. Put away the gods which your fathers served beyond the River, in Egypt; and serve Yahweh. <sup>15</sup> If it seems evil to you to serve Yahweh, choose today whom you will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were beyond the River, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you dwell; but as for me and my house, we will serve Yahweh.”

<sup>16</sup> The people answered, “Far be it from us that we should forsake Yahweh, to serve other gods; <sup>17</sup> for it is Yahweh our God who brought us and our fathers up out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage, and who did those great signs in our sight, and preserved us in all the way in which we went, and among all the peoples through the middle of whom we passed. <sup>18</sup> Yahweh drove out from before us all the peoples, even the Amorites who lived in the land. Therefore we also will serve Yahweh; for he is our God.”

<sup>19</sup> Joshua said to the people, “You can’t serve Yahweh, for he is a holy God. He is a jealous God. He will not forgive your disobedience nor your sins. <sup>20</sup> If you forsake Yahweh, and serve foreign gods, then he will turn and do you evil, and consume you, after he has done you good.”

<sup>21</sup> The people said to Joshua, “No, but we will serve Yahweh.” <sup>22</sup> Joshua said to the people, “You are witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen Yahweh yourselves, to serve him.”

They said, “We are witnesses.”

<sup>23</sup> “Now therefore put away the foreign gods which are among you, and incline your heart to Yahweh, the God of Israel.”

<sup>24</sup> The people said to Joshua, “We will serve Yahweh our God, and we will listen to his voice.”

<sup>25</sup> So Joshua made a covenant with the people that day, and made for them a statute and an ordinance in Shechem. <sup>26</sup> Joshua wrote these words in the book of the law of God; and he took a great stone, and set it up there under the oak that was by the sanctuary of Yahweh. <sup>27</sup> Joshua said to all the people, “Behold, this stone shall be a witness against us, for it has heard all Yahweh’s words which he spoke to us. It shall be therefore a witness against you, lest you deny your God.” <sup>28</sup> So Joshua sent the people away, each to his own inheritance.

<sup>3</sup> Judah said to Simeon his brother, “Come up with me into my lot, that we may fight against the Canaanites; and I likewise will go with you into your lot.” So Simeon went with him. <sup>4</sup> Judah went up, and Yahweh delivered the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hand. They struck ten thousand men in Bezek. <sup>5</sup> They found Adoni-Bezek in Bezek, and they fought against him. They struck the Canaanites and the Perizzites. <sup>6</sup> But Adoni-Bezek fled. They pursued him, caught him, and cut off his thumbs and his big toes. <sup>7</sup> Adoni-Bezek said, “Seventy kings, having their thumbs and their big toes cut off, scavenged under my table. As I have done, so God<sup>c</sup> has done to me.” They brought him to Jerusalem, and he died there. <sup>8</sup> The children of Judah fought against Jerusalem, took it, struck it with the edge of the sword, and set the city on fire.

<sup>9</sup> After that, the children of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites who lived in the hill country, and in the South, and in the lowland. <sup>10</sup> Judah went against the Canaanites who lived in Hebron. (The name of Hebron before that was Kiriath Arba.) They struck Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmai.

<sup>11</sup> From there he went against the inhabitants of Debir. (The name of Debir before that was Kiriath Sepher.) <sup>12</sup> Caleb said, “I will give Achsah my daughter as wife to the man who strikes Kiriath Sepher, and takes it.” <sup>13</sup> Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb’s younger brother, took it, so he gave him Achsah his daughter as his wife.

<sup>14</sup> When she came, she got him to ask her father for a field. She dismounted from off of her donkey; and Caleb said to her, “What would you like?”

<sup>15</sup> She said to him, “Give me a blessing; because you have set me in the land of the South, give me also springs of water.” Then Caleb gave her the upper springs and the lower springs. <sup>16</sup> The children of the Kenite, Moses’ brother-in-law, went up out of the city of palm trees with the children of Judah into the wilderness of Judah, which is in the south of Arad; and they went and lived with the people. <sup>17</sup> Judah went with Simeon his brother, and they struck the Canaanites who inhabited Zephath, and utterly destroyed it. The name of the city was called Hormah. <sup>18</sup> Also Judah took Gaza with its border, and Ashkelon with its border, and Ekron with its border. <sup>19</sup> Yahweh was with Judah; and drove out the inhabitants of the hill country; for he could not drive out the inhabitants of the valley, because they had chariots of iron. <sup>20</sup> They gave Hebron to Caleb, as Moses had said, and he drove the three sons of Anak out of there. <sup>21</sup> The children of Benjamin did not drive out the Jebusites who inhabited Jerusalem, but the Jebusites dwell with the children of Benjamin in Jerusalem to this day.

<sup>22</sup> The house of Joseph also went up against Bethel, and Yahweh was with them.

<sup>23</sup> The house of Joseph sent to spy out Bethel. (The name of the city before that was Luz.) <sup>24</sup> The watchers saw a man come out of the city, and they said to him, "Please show us the entrance into the city, and we will deal kindly with you." <sup>25</sup> He showed them the entrance into the city, and they struck the city with the edge of the sword; but they let the man and all his family go. <sup>26</sup> The man went into the land of the Hittites, built a city, and called its name Luz, which is its name to this day.

<sup>27</sup> Manasseh did not drive out the inhabitants of Beth Shean and its towns, nor Taanach and its towns, nor the inhabitants of Dor and its towns, nor the inhabitants of Ibleam and its towns, nor the inhabitants of Megiddo and its towns; but the Canaanites would dwell in that land. <sup>28</sup> When Israel had grown strong, they put the Canaanites to forced labor, and did not utterly drive them out. <sup>29</sup> Ephraim didn't drive out the Canaanites who lived in Gezer, but the Canaanites lived in Gezer among them. <sup>30</sup> Zebulun didn't drive out the inhabitants of Kitron, nor the inhabitants of Nahalol; but the Canaanites lived among them, and became subject to forced labor. <sup>31</sup> Asher didn't drive out the inhabitants of Acco, nor the inhabitants of Sidon, nor of Ahlab, nor of Achzib, nor of Helbah, nor of Aphik, nor of Rehob; <sup>32</sup> but the Asherites lived among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land; for they did not drive them out. <sup>33</sup> Naphtali didn't drive out the inhabitants of Beth Shemesh, nor the inhabitants of Beth Anath; but he lived among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land. Nevertheless the inhabitants of Beth Shemesh and of Beth Anath became subject to forced labor. <sup>34</sup> The Amorites forced the children of Dan into the hill country, for they would not allow them to come down to the valley; <sup>35</sup> but the Amorites would dwell in Mount Heres, in Aijalon, and in Shaalbim. Yet the hand of the house of Joseph prevailed, so that they became subject to forced labor. <sup>36</sup> The border of the Amorites was from the ascent of Akrabbim, from the rock, and upward.

2

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh's angel came up from Gilgal to Bochim. He said, "I brought you out of Egypt, and have brought you to the land which I swore to give your fathers. I said, 'I will never break my covenant with you. <sup>2</sup> You shall make no covenant with the inhabitants of this land. You shall break down their altars.' But you have not listened to my voice. Why have you done this? <sup>3</sup> Therefore I also said, 'I will not drive them out from before you; but they shall be in your sides, and their gods will be a snare to you.'"

people away, the children of Israel each went to his inheritance to possess the land.<sup>7</sup> The people served Yahweh all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua, who had seen all the great work of Yahweh that he had worked for Israel.<sup>8</sup> Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of Yahweh, died, being one hundred ten years old.<sup>9</sup> They buried him in the border of his inheritance in Timnath Heres, in the hill country of Ephraim, on the north of the mountain of Gaash.<sup>10</sup> After all that generation were gathered to their fathers, another generation arose after them, who didn't know Yahweh, nor the work which he had done for Israel.<sup>11</sup> The children of Israel did that which was evil in Yahweh's sight, and served the Baals.<sup>12</sup> They abandoned Yahweh, the God of their fathers, who brought them out of the land of Egypt, and followed other gods, of the gods of the peoples who were around them, and bowed themselves down to them; and they provoked Yahweh to anger.<sup>13</sup> They abandoned Yahweh, and served Baal and the Ashtaroth.<sup>14</sup> Yahweh's anger burned against Israel, and he delivered them into the hands of raiders who plundered them. He sold them into the hands of their enemies all around, so that they could no longer stand before their enemies.<sup>15</sup> Wherever they went out, Yahweh's hand was against them for evil, as Yahweh had spoken, and as Yahweh had sworn to them; and they were very distressed.<sup>16</sup> Yahweh raised up judges, who saved them out of the hand of those who plundered them.<sup>17</sup> Yet they didn't listen to their judges; for they prostituted themselves to other gods, and bowed themselves down to them. They turned aside quickly out of the way in which their fathers walked, obeying Yahweh's commandments. They didn't do so.<sup>18</sup> When Yahweh raised up judges for them, then Yahweh was with the judge, and saved them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge; for it grieved Yahweh because of their groaning by reason of those who oppressed them and troubled them.<sup>19</sup> But when the judge was dead, they turned back, and dealt more corruptly than their fathers in following other gods to serve them, and to bow down to them. They didn't cease what they were doing, or give up their stubborn ways.<sup>20</sup> Yahweh's anger burned against Israel; and he said, "Because this nation transgressed my covenant which I commanded their fathers, and has not listened to my voice,<sup>21</sup> I also will no longer drive out any of the nations that Joshua left when he died from before them;<sup>22</sup> that by them I may test Israel, to see if they will keep the Yahweh's way to walk therein, as their fathers kept it, or not."<sup>23</sup> So Yahweh left those nations, without driving them out hastily. He didn't deliver them into Joshua's hand.

to test Israel by them, to know whether they would listen to Yahweh's commandments, which he commanded their fathers by Moses.<sup>5</sup> The children of Israel lived among the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites.<sup>6</sup> They took their daughters to be their wives, and gave their own daughters to their sons and served their gods.<sup>7</sup> The children of Israel did that which was evil in Yahweh's sight, and forgot Yahweh their God, and served the Baals and the Asheroth.<sup>8</sup> Therefore Yahweh's anger burned against Israel, and he sold them into the hand of Cushan Rishathaim king of Mesopotamia; and the children of Israel served Cushan Rishathaim eight years.<sup>9</sup> When the children of Israel cried to Yahweh, Yahweh raised up a savior to the children of Israel, who saved them, even Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother.<sup>10</sup> The Yahweh's Spirit came on him, and he judged Israel; and he went out to war, and Yahweh delivered Cushan Rishathaim king of Mesopotamia into his hand. His hand prevailed against Cushan Rishathaim.<sup>11</sup> The land had rest forty years, then Othniel the son of Kenaz died.

<sup>12</sup> The children of Israel again did that which was evil in Yahweh's sight, and Yahweh strengthened Eglon the king of Moab against Israel, because they had done that which was evil in Yahweh's sight.<sup>13</sup> He gathered the children of Ammon and Amalek to himself; and he went and struck Israel, and they possessed the city of palm trees.<sup>14</sup> The children of Israel served Eglon the king of Moab eighteen years.<sup>15</sup> But when the children of Israel cried to Yahweh, Yahweh raised up a savior for them, Ehud the son of Gera, the Benjamite, a left-handed man. The children of Israel sent tribute by him to Eglon the king of Moab.<sup>16</sup> Ehud made himself a sword which had two edges, a cubit<sup>e</sup> in length; and he wore it under his clothing on his right thigh.<sup>17</sup> He offered the tribute to Eglon king of Moab. Now Eglon was a very fat man.<sup>18</sup> When he had finished offering the tribute, he sent away the people who carried the tribute.<sup>19</sup> But he himself turned back from the stone idols that were by Gilgal, and said, "I have a secret message for you, O king."

The king said, "Keep silence!" All who stood by him left him.

<sup>26</sup> Ehud escaped while they waited, passed beyond the stone idols, and escaped to Seirah. <sup>27</sup> When he had come, he blew a trumpet in the hill country of Ephraim; and the children of Israel went down with him from the hill country, and he led them.

<sup>28</sup> He said to them, "Follow me; for Yahweh has delivered your enemies the Moabites into your hand." They followed him, and took the fords of the Jordan against the Moabites, and didn't allow any man to pass over. <sup>29</sup> They struck at that time about ten thousand men of Moab, every strong man, and every man of valor. No man escaped. <sup>30</sup> So Moab was subdued that day under the hand of Israel. Then the land had rest eighty years.

<sup>31</sup> After him was Shamgar the son of Anath, who struck six hundred men of the Philistines with an ox goad. He also saved Israel.

up to her for judgment. <sup>6</sup> She sent and called Barak the son of Abinoam out of Kedesh Naphtali, and said to him, "Hasn't Yahweh, the God of Israel, commanded, 'Go and lead the way to Mount Tabor, and take with you ten thousand men of the children of Naphtali and of the children of Zebulun?' <sup>7</sup> I will draw to you, to the river Kishon, Sisera, the captain of Jabin's army, with his chariots and his multitude; and I will deliver him into your hand.'"

<sup>8</sup> Barak said to her, "If you will go with me, then I will go; but if you will not go with me, I will not go."

<sup>9</sup> She said, "I will surely go with you. Nevertheless, the journey that you take won't be for your honor; for Yahweh will sell Sisera into a woman's hand." Deborah arose, and went with Barak to Kedesh.

<sup>10</sup> Barak called Zebulun and Naphtali together to Kedesh; and ten thousand men followed him; and Deborah went up with him. <sup>11</sup> Now Heber the Kenite had separated himself from the Kenites, even from the children of Hobab, Moses' brother-in-law, and had pitched his tent as far as the oak in Zaananim, which is by Kedesh. <sup>12</sup> They told Sisera that Barak the son of Abinoam was gone up to Mount Tabor. <sup>13</sup> Sisera gathered together all his chariots, even nine hundred chariots of iron, and all the people who were with him, from Harosheth of the Gentiles, to the river Kishon.

<sup>14</sup> Deborah said to Barak, "Go; for this is the day in which Yahweh has delivered Sisera into your hand. Hasn't Yahweh gone out before you?" So Barak went down from Mount Tabor, and ten thousand men after him. <sup>15</sup> Yahweh confused Sisera, all his chariots, and all his army, with the edge of the sword before Barak. Sisera abandoned his chariot and fled away on his feet. <sup>16</sup> But Barak pursued the chariots and the army to Harosheth of the Gentiles; and all the army of Sisera fell by the edge of the sword. There was not a man left.

<sup>17</sup> However Sisera fled away on his feet to the tent of Jael the wife of Heber the Kenite; for there was peace between Jabin the king of Hazor and the house of Heber the Kenite. <sup>18</sup> Jael went out to meet Sisera, and said to him, "Turn in, my lord, turn in to me; don't be afraid." He came in to her into the tent, and she covered him with a rug.

<sup>19</sup> He said to her, "Please give me a little water to drink; for I am thirsty."

She opened a bottle of milk, and gave him a drink, and covered him.

<sup>20</sup> He said to her, "Stand in the door of the tent, and if any man comes and inquires of you, and says, 'Is there any man here?' you shall say, 'No.'"

<sup>21</sup> Then Jael Heber's wife took a tent peg, and took a hammer in her hand, and went softly to him, and struck the pin into his temples, and it pierced through into the ground; for he was in a deep sleep; so he fainted and died. <sup>22</sup> Behold, as Barak pursued Sisera, Jael came out to meet him, and said to him, "Come, and I will show you the man whom you seek." He came to her; and behold, Sisera lay dead, and the tent peg was in his temples. <sup>23</sup> So God subdued Jabin the king of Canaan before the children of Israel on that day. <sup>24</sup> The hand of the children of Israel prevailed more and more against Jabin the king of Canaan, until they had destroyed Jabin king of Canaan.

5

<sup>2</sup> "Because the leaders took the lead in Israel, because the people offered themselves willingly, be blessed, Yahweh!

<sup>3</sup> "Hear, you kings!

Give ear, you princes!

I, even I, will sing to Yahweh.

I will sing praise to Yahweh, the God of Israel.

<sup>4</sup> "Yahweh, when you went out of Seir, when you marched out of the field of Edom, the earth trembled, the sky also dropped. Yes, the clouds dropped water.

<sup>6</sup> "In the days of Shamgar the son of Anath, in the days of Jael, the highways were unoccupied.

The travelers walked through byways.

They ceased until I, Deborah, arose; Until I arose a mother in Israel.

<sup>8</sup> They chose new gods.

Then war was in the gates.

Was there a shield or spear seen among forty thousand in Israel?

<sup>9</sup> My heart is toward the governors of Israel, who offered themselves willingly among the people.

- Bless Yahweh!
- <sup>10</sup> “Speak, you who ride on white donkeys, you who sit on rich carpets, and you who walk by the way.
- <sup>11</sup> Far from the noise of archers, in the places of drawing water, there they will rehearse Yahweh’s righteous acts, the righteous acts of his rule in Israel.
- “Then Yahweh’s people went down to the gates.
- <sup>12</sup> ‘Awake, awake, Deborah!
Awake, awake, utter a song!
Arise, Barak, and lead away your captives, you son of Abinoam.’
- <sup>13</sup> “Then a remnant of the nobles and the people came down.
Yahweh came down for me against the mighty.
- <sup>14</sup> Those whose root is in Amalek came out of Ephraim, after you, Benjamin, among your peoples.
Governors come down out of Machir.
Those who handle the marshal’s staff came out of Zebulun.
- <sup>15</sup> The princes of Issachar were with Deborah.
As was Issachar, so was Barak.
They rushed into the valley at his feet.
- By the watercourses of Reuben, there were great resolves of heart.
- <sup>16</sup> Why did you sit among the sheepfolds?
To hear the whistling for the flocks?
At the watercourses of Reuben,
- there were great searchings of heart.
- <sup>17</sup> Gilead lived beyond the Jordan.
Why did Dan remain in ships?
Asher sat still at the haven of the sea, and lived by his creeks.
- <sup>18</sup> Zebulun was a people that jeopardized their lives to the death;
Naphtali also, on the high places of the field.
- <sup>19</sup> “The kings came and fought, then the kings of Canaan fought at Taanach by the waters of Megiddo.
They took no plunder of silver.
- <sup>20</sup> From the sky the stars fought.
From their courses, they fought against Sisera.
- <sup>21</sup> The river Kishon swept them away, that ancient river, the river Kishon.
My soul, march on with strength.
- <sup>22</sup> Then the horse hoofs stamped because of the prancing, the prancing of their strong ones.
- <sup>23</sup> ‘Curse Meroz,’ said Yahweh’s angel.
‘Curse bitterly its inhabitants, because they didn’t come to help Yahweh, to help Yahweh against the mighty.’
- <sup>24</sup> “Jael shall be blessed above women, the wife of Heber the Kenite;
blessed shall she be above women in the tent.
- <sup>25</sup> He asked for water.
She gave him milk.
She brought him butter in a lordly dish.
- <sup>26</sup> She put her hand to the tent peg, and her right hand to the workmen's hammer.

With the hammer she struck Sisera.
She struck through his head.
Yes, she pierced and struck through his temples.
27 At her feet he bowed, he fell, he lay.
At her feet he bowed, he fell.
Where he bowed, there he fell down dead.
28 "Through the window she looked out,
and cried:
Sisera's mother looked through the lattice.
'Why is his chariot so long in coming?
Why do the wheels of his chariots wait?'
29 Her wise ladies answered her,
Yes, she returned answer to herself, 30 'Have they not found, have they not divided the plunder?
A lady, two ladies to every man;
to Sisera a plunder of dyed garments, a plunder of dyed garments
embroidered, of dyed garments embroidered on both sides, on the necks of the plunder?'
31 "So let all your enemies perish, Yahweh,
but let those who love him be as the sun when it rises in its strength."
Then the land had rest forty years.

6

prevailed against Israel; and because of Midian the children of Israel made themselves the dens which are in the mountains, and the caves, and the strongholds. <sup>3</sup> So it was, when Israel had sown, that the Midianites, the Amalekites, and the children of the east came up against them. <sup>4</sup> They encamped against them, and destroyed the increase of the earth, until you come to Gaza. They left no sustenance in Israel, and no sheep, ox, or donkey. <sup>5</sup> For they came up with their livestock and their tents. They came in as locusts for multitude. Both they and their camels were without number; and they came into the land to destroy it. <sup>6</sup> Israel was brought very low because of Midian; and the children of Israel cried to Yahweh.

<sup>7</sup> When the children of Israel cried to Yahweh because of Midian, <sup>8</sup> Yahweh sent a prophet to the children of Israel; and he said to them, "Yahweh says, the God of Israel, 'I brought you up from Egypt, and brought you out of the house of bondage. <sup>9</sup> I delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all who oppressed you, and drove them out from before you, and gave you their land. <sup>10</sup> I said to you, "I am Yahweh your God. You shall not fear the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you dwell." But you have not listened to my voice.'"

<sup>11</sup> Yahweh's angel came, and sat under the oak which was in Ophrah, that belonged to Joash the Abiezrite. His son Gideon was beating out wheat in the wine press, to hide it from the Midianites. <sup>12</sup> Yahweh's angel appeared to him, and said to him, "Yahweh is with you, you mighty man of valor!"

<sup>13</sup> Gideon said to him, “Oh, my lord, if Yahweh is with us, why then has all this happened to us? Where are all his wondrous works which our fathers told us of, saying, ‘Didn’t Yahweh bring us up from Egypt?’ But now Yahweh has cast us off, and delivered us into the hand of Midian.”

<sup>14</sup> Yahweh looked at him, and said, “Go in this your might, and save Israel from the hand of Midian. Haven’t I sent you?”

<sup>15</sup> He said to him, “O Lord,<sup>g</sup> how shall I save Israel? Behold, my family is the poorest in Manasseh, and I am the least in my father’s house.”

<sup>16</sup> Yahweh said to him, “Surely I will be with you, and you shall strike the Midianites as one man.”

<sup>17</sup> He said to him, “If now I have found favor in your sight, then show me a sign that it is you who talk with me. <sup>18</sup> Please don’t go away, until I come to you, and bring out my present, and lay it before you.”

He said, “I will wait until you come back.”

<sup>19</sup> Gideon went in and prepared a young goat and unleavened cakes of an ephah <sup>h</sup> of meal. He put the meat in a basket and he put the broth in a pot, and brought it out to him under the oak, and presented it.

<sup>20</sup> The angel of God said to him, “Take the meat and the unleavened cakes, and lay them on this rock, and pour out the broth.”

He did so. <sup>21</sup> Then Yahweh’s angel stretched out the end of the staff that was in his hand, and touched the meat and the unleavened cakes; and fire went up out of the rock, and consumed the meat and the unleavened cakes. Then Yahweh’s angel departed out of his sight.

<sup>23</sup> Yahweh said to him, “Peace be to you! Don’t be afraid. You shall not die.”

<sup>24</sup> Then Gideon built an altar there to Yahweh, and called it “Yahweh is Peace.”<sup>i</sup> To this day it is still in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

<sup>25</sup> That same night, Yahweh said to him, “Take your father’s bull, even the second bull seven years old, and throw down the altar of Baal that your father has, and cut down the Asherah that is by it. <sup>26</sup> Then build an altar to Yahweh your God on the top of this stronghold, in an orderly way, and take the second bull, and offer a burnt offering with the wood of the Asherah which you shall cut down.”

<sup>27</sup> Then Gideon took ten men of his servants, and did as Yahweh had spoken to him. Because he feared his father’s household and the men of the city, he could not do it by day, but he did it by night.

<sup>28</sup> When the men of the city arose early in the morning, behold, the altar of Baal was broken down, and the Asherah was cut down that was by it, and the second bull was offered on the altar that was built. <sup>29</sup> They said to one another, “Who has done this thing?”

When they inquired and asked, they said, “Gideon the son of Joash has done this thing.”

<sup>30</sup> Then the men of the city said to Joash, “Bring out your son, that he may die, because he has broken down the altar of Baal, and because he has cut down the Asherah that was by it.”<sup>31</sup> Joash said to all who stood against him, “Will you contend for Baal? Or will you save him? He who will contend for him, let him be put to death by morning! If he is a god, let him contend for himself, because someone has broken down his altar!”<sup>32</sup> Therefore on that day he named him Jerub-Baal,<sup>j</sup> saying, “Let Baal contend against him, because he has broken down his altar.”

<sup>33</sup> Then all the Midianites and the Amalekites and the children of the east assembled themselves together; and they passed over, and encamped in the valley of Jezreel. <sup>34</sup> But Yahweh’s Spirit came on Gideon, and he blew a trumpet; and Abiezer was gathered together to follow him. <sup>35</sup> He sent messengers throughout all Manasseh; and they also were gathered together to follow him. He sent messengers to Asher, and to Zebulun, and to Naphtali; and they came up to meet them.

<sup>36</sup> Gideon said to God, “If you will save Israel by my hand, as you have spoken,<sup>37</sup> behold, I will put a fleece of wool on the threshing floor; if there is dew on the fleece only, and it is dry on all the ground, then shall I know that you will save Israel by my hand, as you have spoken.”

<sup>38</sup> It was so; for he rose up early on the next day, and pressed the fleece together, and wrung the dew out of the fleece, a bowl full of water.

<sup>39</sup> Gideon said to God, “Don’t let your anger be kindled against me, and I will speak but this once. Please let me make a trial just this once with the fleece. Let it now be dry only on the fleece, and on all the ground let there be dew.”

<sup>40</sup> God did so that night; for it was dry on the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

7

<sup>1</sup> Then Jerubbaal, who is Gideon, and all the people who were with him, rose up early, and encamped beside the spring of Harod. Midian’s camp was on the north side of them, by the hill of Moreh, in the valley. <sup>2</sup> Yahweh said to Gideon, “The people who are with you are too many for me to give the Midianites into their hand, lest Israel brag against me, saying, ‘My own hand has saved me.’<sup>3</sup> Now therefore proclaim in the ears of the people, saying, ‘Whoever is fearful and trembling, let him return and depart from Mount Gilead.’” So twenty-two thousand of the people returned, and ten thousand remained.

<sup>4</sup> Yahweh said to Gideon, “There are still too many people. Bring them down to the water, and I will test them for you there. It shall be, that those whom I tell you, ‘This shall go with you,’ the same shall go with you; and whoever I tell you, ‘This shall not go with you,’ the same shall not go.”<sup>5</sup> So he brought down the people to the water; and Yahweh said to Gideon, “Everyone who laps of the water with his tongue, like a dog laps, you shall set him by himself; likewise everyone who bows down on his knees to drink.”<sup>6</sup> The number of those who lapped, putting their hand to their mouth, was three hundred men; but all the rest of the people bowed down on their knees to drink water. <sup>7</sup> Yahweh said to Gideon, “By the three hundred men who lapped will I save you, and deliver the Midianites into your hand. Let all the other people go, each to his own place.”

<sup>8</sup> So the people took food in their hand, and their trumpets; and he sent all the men of Israel every man to his tent, but retained the three hundred men; and the camp of Midian was beneath him in the valley. <sup>9</sup> That same night, Yahweh said to him, “Arise, go down into the camp; for I have delivered it into your hand. <sup>10</sup> But if you are afraid to go down, go with Purah your servant down to the camp. <sup>11</sup> You will hear what they say; and afterward your hands will be strengthened to go down into the camp.” Then went he down with Purah his servant to the outermost part of the armed men who were in the camp.

<sup>12</sup> The Midianites and the Amalekites and all the children of the east lay along in the valley like locusts for multitude; and their camels were without number, as the sand which is on the seashore for multitude.

<sup>13</sup> When Gideon had come, behold, there was a man telling a dream to his fellow. He said, “Behold, I dreamed a dream; and behold, a cake of barley bread tumbled into the camp of Midian, and came to the tent, and struck it so that it fell, and turned it upside down, so that the tent lay flat.”

<sup>14</sup> His fellow answered, “This is nothing other than the sword of Gideon the son of Joash, a man of Israel. God has delivered Midian into his hand, with all the army.”

<sup>15</sup> It was so, when Gideon heard the telling of the dream, and its interpretation, that he worshiped. Then he returned into the camp of Israel, and said, “Arise; for Yahweh has delivered the army of Midian into your hand!”

<sup>16</sup> He divided the three hundred men into three companies, and he put into the hands of all them trumpets, and empty pitchers, with torches within the pitchers.

<sup>17</sup> He said to them, “Watch me, and do likewise. Behold, when I come to the outermost part of the camp, it shall be that, as I do, so you shall do. <sup>18</sup> When I blow the trumpet, I and all who are with me, then blow the trumpets also on every side of all the camp, and shout, ‘For Yahweh and for Gideon!’”

<sup>19</sup> So Gideon, and the hundred men who were with him, came to the outermost part of the camp in the beginning of the middle watch, when they had but newly set the watch. Then they blew the trumpets, and broke in pieces the pitchers that were in their hands. <sup>20</sup> The three companies blew the trumpets, broke the pitchers, and held the torches in their left hands, and the trumpets in their right hands with which to blow; and they shouted, “The sword of Yahweh and of Gideon!” <sup>21</sup> They each stood in his place around the camp; and all the army ran; and they shouted, and put them to flight. <sup>22</sup> They blew the three hundred trumpets, and Yahweh set every man’s sword against his fellow, and against all the army; and the army fled as far as Beth Shittah toward Zererah, as far as the border of Abel Meholah, by Tabbath. <sup>23</sup> The men of Israel were gathered together out of Naphtali, and out of Asher, and out of all Manasseh, and pursued Midian. <sup>24</sup> Gideon sent messengers throughout all the hill country of Ephraim, saying, “Come down against Midian, and take before them the waters, as far as Beth Barah, even the Jordan!” So all the men of Ephraim were gathered together, and took the waters as far as Beth Barah, even the Jordan. <sup>25</sup> They took the two princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb. They killed Oreb at Oreb's rock, and Zeeb they killed at Zeeb's wine press; and pursued Midian. Then they brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon beyond the Jordan.

8

<sup>1</sup> The men of Ephraim said to him, "Why have you treated us this way, that you didn't call us when you went to fight with Midian?" They rebuked him sharply. <sup>2</sup> He said to them, "What have I now done in comparison with you? Isn't the gleanings of the grapes of Ephraim better than the vintage of Abiezer?" <sup>3</sup> God has delivered into your hand the princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb! What was I able to do in comparison with you?" Then their anger was abated toward him, when he had said that.

<sup>4</sup> Gideon came to the Jordan, and passed over, he, and the three hundred men who were with him, faint, yet pursuing. <sup>5</sup> He said to the men of Succoth, "Please give loaves of bread to the people who follow me; for they are faint, and I am pursuing after Zebah and Zalmunna, the kings of Midian."

<sup>6</sup> The princes of Succoth said, "Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in your hand, that we should give bread to your army?"

<sup>7</sup> Gideon said, "Therefore when Yahweh has delivered Zebah and Zalmunna into my hand, then I will tear your flesh with the thorns of the wilderness and with briers."

<sup>8</sup> He went up there to Penuel, and spoke to them in the same way; and the men of Penuel answered him as the men of Succoth had answered. <sup>9</sup> He spoke also to the men of Penuel, saying, "When I come again in peace, I will break down this tower."

<sup>10</sup> Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor, and their armies with them, about fifteen thousand men, all who were left of all the army of the children of the east; for there fell one hundred twenty thousand men who drew sword. <sup>11</sup> Gideon went up by the way of those who lived in tents on the east of Nobah and Jogbehah, and struck the army; for the army was secure. <sup>12</sup> Zebah and Zalmunna fled; and he pursued them. He took the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and confused all the army. <sup>13</sup> Gideon the son of Joash returned from the battle from the ascent of Heres. <sup>14</sup> He caught a young man of the men of Succoth, and inquired of him: and he described for him the princes of Succoth, and its elders, seventy-seven men. <sup>15</sup> He came to the men of Succoth, and said, "See Zebah and Zalmunna, concerning whom you taunted me, saying, 'Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in your hand, that we should give bread to your men who are weary?'" <sup>16</sup> He took the elders of the city, and thorns of the wilderness and briers, and with them he taught the men of Succoth. <sup>17</sup> He broke down the tower of Penuel, and killed the men of the city.

<sup>18</sup> Then he said to Zebah and Zalmunna, "What kind of men were they whom you killed at Tabor?"

They answered, "They were like you. Each one resembled the children of a king."

<sup>19</sup> He said, "They were my brothers, the sons of my mother. As Yahweh lives, if you had saved them alive, I would not kill you.”

<sup>20</sup> He said to Jether his firstborn, “Get up, and kill them!” But the youth didn’t draw his sword; for he was afraid, because he was yet a youth.

<sup>21</sup> Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, “Rise and fall on us; for as the man is, so is his strength.” Gideon arose, and killed Zebah and Zalmunna, and took the crescents that were on their camels’ necks.

<sup>22</sup> Then the men of Israel said to Gideon, “Rule over us, both you, and your son, and your son’s son also; for you have saved us out of the hand of Midian.”

<sup>23</sup> Gideon said to them, “I will not rule over you, neither shall my son rule over you. Yahweh shall rule over you.” <sup>24</sup> Gideon said to them, “I do have a request, that you would each give me the earrings of his plunder.” (For they had golden earrings, because they were Ishmaelites.)

<sup>25</sup> They answered, “We will willingly give them.” They spread a garment, and every man threw the earrings of his plunder into it. <sup>26</sup> The weight of the golden earrings that he requested was one thousand and seven hundred shekels<sup>k</sup> of gold, besides the crescents, and the pendants, and the purple clothing that was on the kings of Midian, and besides the chains that were about their camels’ necks. <sup>27</sup> Gideon made an ephod out of it, and put it in Ophrah, his city. Then all Israel played the prostitute with it there; and it became a snare to Gideon, and to his house. <sup>28</sup> So Midian was subdued before the children of Israel, and they lifted up their heads no more. The land had rest forty years in the days of Gideon. <sup>29</sup> Jerubbaal the son of Joash went and lived in his own house. <sup>30</sup> Gideon had seventy sons conceived from his body, for he had many wives. <sup>31</sup> His concubine who was in Shechem also bore him a son, and he named him Abimelech. <sup>32</sup> Gideon the son of Joash died in a good old age, and was buried in the tomb of Joash his father, in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

<sup>33</sup> As soon as Gideon was dead, the children of Israel turned again, and played the prostitute following the Baals, and made Baal Berith their god. <sup>34</sup> The children of Israel didn’t remember Yahweh their God, who had delivered them out of the hand of all their enemies on every side; <sup>35</sup> neither did they show kindness to the house of Jerubbaal, that is, Gideon, according to all the goodness which he had shown to Israel.

9

<sup>1</sup> Abimelech the son of Jerubbaal went to Shechem to his mother’s brothers, and spoke with them, and with all the family of the house of his mother’s father, saying, <sup>2</sup> “Please speak in the ears of all the men of Shechem, ‘Is it better for you that all the sons of Jerubbaal, who are seventy persons, rule over you, or that one rule over you?’ Remember also that I am your bone and your flesh.”

<sup>3</sup> His mother’s brothers spoke of him in the ears of all the men of Shechem all these words. Their hearts inclined to follow Abimelech; for they said, “He is our brother.” <sup>4</sup> They gave him seventy pieces of silver out of the house of Baal Berith, with which Abimelech hired vain and light fellows, who followed him. <sup>5</sup> He went to his father’s house at Ophrah, and killed his brothers the sons of Jerubbaal, being seventy persons, on one stone: but Jotham the youngest son of Jerubbaal was left; for he hid himself. <sup>6</sup> All the men of Shechem assembled themselves together, and all the house of Millo, and went and made Abimelech king, by the oak of the pillar that was in Shechem. <sup>7</sup> When they told it to Jotham, he went and stood on the top of Mount Gerizim, and lifted up his voice, cried out, and said to them, "Listen to me, you men of Shechem, that God may listen to you. <sup>8</sup> The trees set out to anoint a king over themselves. They said to the olive tree, 'Reign over us.'

<sup>9</sup> "But the olive tree said to them, 'Should I stop producing my oil, with which they honor God and man by me, and go to wave back and forth over the trees?'

<sup>10</sup> "The trees said to the fig tree, 'Come and reign over us.'

<sup>11</sup> "But the fig tree said to them, 'Should I leave my sweetness, and my good fruit, and go to wave back and forth over the trees?'

<sup>12</sup> "The trees said to the vine, 'Come and reign over us.'

<sup>13</sup> "The vine said to them, 'Should I leave my new wine, which cheers God and man, and go to wave back and forth over the trees?'

<sup>14</sup> "Then all the trees said to the bramble, 'Come and reign over us.'

<sup>15</sup> "The bramble said to the trees, 'If in truth you anoint me king over you, then come and take refuge in my shade; and if not, let fire come out of the bramble, and devour the cedars of Lebanon.'

<sup>16</sup> "Now therefore, if you have dealt truly and righteously, in that you have made Abimelech king, and if you have dealt well with Jerubbaal and his house, and have done to him according to the deserving of his hands <sup>17</sup> (for my father fought for you, and risked his life, and delivered you out of the hand of Midian; <sup>18</sup> and you have risen up against my father's house today, and have slain his sons, seventy persons, on one stone, and have made Abimelech, the son of his female servant, king over the men of Shechem, because he is your brother); <sup>19</sup> if you then have dealt truly and righteously with Jerubbaal and with his house today, then rejoice in Abimelech, and let him also rejoice in you; <sup>20</sup> but if not, let fire come out from Abimelech, and devour the men of Shechem, and the house of Millo; and let fire come out from the men of Shechem, and from the house of Millo, and devour Abimelech."

Shechem; and the men of Shechem put their trust in him. <sup>27</sup> They went out into the field, harvested their vineyards, trod the grapes, held festival, and went into the house of their god, and ate and drank, and cursed Abimelech. <sup>28</sup> Gaal the son of Ebed said, "Who is Abimelech, and who is Shechem, that we should serve him? Isn't he the son of Jerubbaal? Isn't Zebul his officer? Serve the men of Hamor the father of Shechem, but why should we serve him? <sup>29</sup> I wish that this people were under my hand! Then I would remove Abimelech." He said to Abimelech, "Increase your army, and come out!"

<sup>30</sup> When Zebul the ruler of the city heard the words of Gaal the son of Ebed, his anger burned. <sup>31</sup> He sent messengers to Abimelech craftily, saying, "Behold, Gaal the son of Ebed and his brothers have come to Shechem; and behold, they incite the city against you. <sup>32</sup> Now therefore, go up by night, you and the people who are with you, and lie in wait in the field. <sup>33</sup> It shall be that in the morning, as soon as the sun is up, you shall rise early, and rush on the city. Behold, when he and the people who are with him come out against you, then may you do to them as you shall find occasion."

<sup>34</sup> Abimelech rose up, and all the people who were with him, by night, and they laid wait against Shechem in four companies. <sup>35</sup> Gaal the son of Ebed went out, and stood in the entrance of the gate of the city. Abimelech rose up, and the people who were with him, from the ambush.

<sup>36</sup> When Gaal saw the people, he said to Zebul, "Behold, people are coming down from the tops of the mountains."

Zebul said to him, "You see the shadow of the mountains as if they were men."

<sup>37</sup> Gaal spoke again and said, "Behold, people are coming down by the middle of the land, and one company comes by the way of the oak of Meonenim."

<sup>38</sup> Then Zebul said to him, "Now where is your mouth, that you said, 'Who is Abimelech, that we should serve him?' Isn't this the people that you have despised? Please go out now and fight with them."

he and all the people who were with him; and Abimelech took an ax in his hand, and cut down a bough from the trees, and took it up, and laid it on his shoulder. Then he said to the people who were with him, "What you have seen me do, make haste, and do as I have done!"<sup>49</sup> All the people likewise each cut down his bough, and followed Abimelech, and put them at the base of the stronghold, and set the stronghold on fire on them; so that all the people of the tower of Shechem died also, about a thousand men and women.<sup>50</sup> Then Abimelech went to Thebez, and encamped against Thebez, and took it.<sup>51</sup> But there was a strong tower within the city, and all the men and women of the city fled there, and shut themselves in, and went up to the roof of the tower.<sup>52</sup> Abimelech came to the tower, and fought against it, and came near to the door of the tower to burn it with fire.<sup>53</sup> A certain woman cast an upper millstone on Abimelech's head, and broke his skull.

<sup>54</sup> Then he called hastily to the young man his armor bearer, and said to him, "Draw your sword, and kill me, that men not say of me, 'A woman killed him.' His young man thrust him through, and he died."

<sup>55</sup> When the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, they each departed to his place.<sup>56</sup> Thus God repaid the wickedness of Abimelech, which he did to his father, in killing his seventy brothers;<sup>57</sup> and God repaid all the wickedness of the men of Shechem on their heads; and the curse of Jotham the son of Jerubbaal came on them.

10

<sup>1</sup> After Abimelech, Tola the son of Puah, the son of Dodo, a man of Issachar, arose to save Israel. He lived in Shamir in the hill country of Ephraim.<sup>2</sup> He judged Israel twenty-three years, and died, and was buried in Shamir.

<sup>3</sup> After him Jair, the Gileadite arose, and he judged Israel twenty-two years.<sup>4</sup> He had thirty sons who rode on thirty donkey colts, and they had thirty cities, which are called Havvoth Jair to this day, which are in the land of Gilead.<sup>5</sup> Jair died, and was buried in Kamon.

<sup>6</sup> The children of Israel again did that which was evil in Yahweh's sight, and served the Baals, the Ashtaroth, the gods of Syria, the gods of Sidon, the gods of Moab, the gods of the children of Ammon, and the gods of the Philistines. They abandoned Yahweh, and didn't serve him.<sup>7</sup> Yahweh's anger burned against Israel, and he sold them into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the children of Ammon.<sup>8</sup> They troubled and oppressed the children of Israel that year. For eighteen years, they oppressed all the children of Israel that were beyond the Jordan in the land of the Amorites, which is in Gilead.<sup>9</sup> The children of Ammon passed over the Jordan to fight also against Judah, and against Benjamin, and against the house of Ephraim, so that Israel was very distressed.<sup>10</sup> The children of Israel cried to Yahweh, saying, "We have sinned against you, even because we have forsaken our God, and have served the Baals."

Ammon, and from the Philistines? <sup>12</sup> The Sidonians also, and the Amalekites, and the Maonites, oppressed you; and you cried to me, and I saved you out of their hand. <sup>13</sup> Yet you have forsaken me, and served other gods. Therefore I will save you no more. <sup>14</sup> Go and cry to the gods which you have chosen. Let them save you in the time of your distress!”

<sup>15</sup> The children of Israel said to Yahweh, “We have sinned! Do you to us whatever seems good to you; only deliver us, please, today.” <sup>16</sup> They put away the foreign gods from among them, and served Yahweh; and his soul was grieved for the misery of Israel.

11

<sup>1</sup> Now Jephthah the Gileadite was a mighty man of valor, and he was the son of a prostitute. Gilead became the father of Jephthah. <sup>2</sup> Gilead’s wife bore him sons. When his wife’s sons grew up, they drove Jephthah out, and said to him, “You will not inherit in our father’s house, for you are the son of another woman.” <sup>3</sup> Then Jephthah fled from his brothers, and lived in the land of Tob. Outlaws joined up with Jephthah, and they went out with him.

children of Ammon made war against Israel, the elders of Gilead went to get Jephthah out of the land of Tob. <sup>6</sup> They said to Jephthah, “Come and be our chief, that we may fight with the children of Ammon.”

<sup>7</sup> Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, “Didn’t you hate me, and drive me out of my father’s house? Why have you come to me now when you are in distress?”

<sup>8</sup> The elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, “Therefore we have turned again to you now, that you may go with us, and fight with the children of Ammon. You will be our head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.”

<sup>9</sup> Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, “If you bring me home again to fight with the children of Ammon, and Yahweh delivers them before me, will I be your head?”

<sup>10</sup> The elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, “Yahweh will be witness between us. Surely we will do what you say.”

<sup>11</sup> Then Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and chief over them. Jephthah spoke all his words before Yahweh in Mizpah.

<sup>12</sup> Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the children of Ammon, saying, “What have you to do with me, that you have come to me to fight against my land?”

<sup>13</sup> The king of the children of Ammon answered to the messengers of Jephthah, “Because Israel took away my land, when he came up out of Egypt, from the Arnon even to the Jabbok, and to the Jordan. Now therefore restore that territory again peaceably.”

<sup>14</sup> Jephthah sent messengers again to the king of the children of Ammon; <sup>15</sup> and he said to him, “Thus says Jephthah: Israel didn’t take away the land of Moab, nor the land of the children of Ammon, <sup>16</sup> but when they came up from Egypt, and Israel went through the wilderness to the Red Sea, and came to Kadesh; <sup>17</sup> then Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying, 'Please let me pass through your land;' but the king of Edom didn't listen. In the same way, he sent to the king of Moab; but he would not: and Israel stayed in Kadesh. <sup>18</sup> Then they went through the wilderness, and went around the land of Edom, and the land of Moab, and came by the east side of the land of Moab, and they encamped on the other side of the Arnon; but they didn't come within the border of Moab, for the Arnon was the border of Moab. <sup>19</sup> Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, the king of Heshbon; and Israel said to him, 'Please let us pass through your land to my place.' <sup>20</sup> But Sihon didn't trust Israel to pass through his border; but Sihon gathered all his people together, and encamped in Jahaz, and fought against Israel. <sup>21</sup> Yahweh, the God of Israel, delivered Sihon and all his people into the hand of Israel, and they struck them. So Israel possessed all the land of the Amorites, the inhabitants of that country. <sup>22</sup> They possessed all the border of the Amorites, from the Arnon even to the Jabbok, and from the wilderness even to the Jordan. <sup>23</sup> So now Yahweh, the God of Israel, has dispossessed the Amorites from before his people Israel, and should you possess them? <sup>24</sup> Won't you possess that which Chemosh your god gives you to possess? So whoever Yahweh our God has dispossessed from before us, them will we possess. <sup>25</sup> Now are you anything better than Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab? Did he ever strive against Israel, or did he ever fight against them? <sup>26</sup> While Israel lived in Heshbon and its towns, and in Aroer and its towns, and in all the cities that are along by the side of the Arnon, three hundred years; why didn't you recover them within that time? <sup>27</sup> I therefore have not sinned against you, but you do me wrong to war against me. May Yahweh the Judge be judge today between the children of Israel and the children of Ammon."

<sup>28</sup> However the king of the children of Ammon didn't listen to the words of Jephthah which he sent him. <sup>29</sup> Then Yahweh's Spirit came on Jephthah, and he passed over Gilead and Manasseh, and passed over Mizpah of Gilead, and from Mizpah of Gilead he passed over to the children of Ammon.

<sup>30</sup> Jephthah vowed a vow to Yahweh, and said, "If you will indeed deliver the children of Ammon into my hand, <sup>31</sup> then it shall be, that whatever comes out of the doors of my house to meet me, when I return in peace from the children of Ammon, it shall be Yahweh's, and I will offer it up for a burnt offering."

<sup>32</sup> So Jephthah passed over to the children of Ammon to fight against them; and Yahweh delivered them into his hand. <sup>33</sup> He struck them from Aroer until you come to Minnith, even twenty cities, and to Abelcheramim, with a very great slaughter. So the children of Ammon were subdued before the children of Israel.

<sup>34</sup> Jephthah came to Mizpah to his house; and behold, his daughter came out to meet him with tambourines and with dances. She was his only child. Besides her he had neither son nor daughter. <sup>35</sup> When he saw her, he tore his clothes, and said, "Alas, my daughter! You have brought me very low, and you are one of those who trouble me; for I have opened my mouth to Yahweh, and I can't go back."

<sup>36</sup> She said to him, "My father, you have opened your mouth to Yahweh; do to me according to that which has proceeded out of your mouth, because Yahweh has taken vengeance for you on your enemies, even on the children of Ammon." <sup>37</sup> She said to her father, "Let this thing be done for me. Leave me alone two months, that I may depart and go down on the mountains, and bewail my virginity, I and my companions."

<sup>38</sup> He said, "Go." He sent her away for two months: and she departed, she and her companions, and mourned her virginity on the mountains. <sup>39</sup> At the end of two months, she returned to her father, who did with her according to his vow which he had vowed. She was a virgin. It was a custom in Israel <sup>40</sup> that the daughters of Israel went yearly to celebrate the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite four days in a year.

<sup>1</sup> The men of Ephraim were gathered together, and passed northward; and they said to Jephthah, "Why did you pass over to fight against the children of Ammon, and didn't call us to go with you? We will burn your house around you with fire!"

<sup>2</sup> Jephthah said to them, "I and my people were at great strife with the children of Ammon; and when I called you, you didn't save me out of their hand. <sup>3</sup> When I saw that you didn't save me, I put my life in my hand, and passed over against the children of Ammon, and Yahweh delivered them into my hand. Why then have you come up to me today, to fight against me?"

<sup>7</sup> Jephthah judged Israel six years. Then Jephthah the Gileadite died, and was buried in the cities of Gilead.

<sup>8</sup> After him Ibzan of Bethlehem judged Israel. <sup>9</sup> He had thirty sons; and thirty daughters he sent outside his clan, and thirty daughters he brought in from outside his clan for his sons. He judged Israel seven years. <sup>10</sup> Ibzan died, and was buried at Bethlehem.

<sup>11</sup> After him Elon the Zebulunite judged Israel; and he judged Israel ten years. <sup>12</sup> Elon the Zebulunite died, and was buried in Aijalon in the land of Zebulun.

<sup>13</sup> After him Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite judged Israel. <sup>14</sup> He had forty sons and thirty sons' sons, who rode on seventy donkey colts. He judged Israel eight years. <sup>15</sup> Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite died, and was buried in Pirathon in the land of Ephraim, in the hill country of the Amalekites.

13

<sup>1</sup> The children of Israel again did that which was evil in Yahweh's sight; and Yahweh delivered them into the hand of the Philistines forty years. <sup>2</sup> There was a certain man of Zorah, of the family of the Danites, whose name was Manoah; and his wife was barren, and childless. <sup>3</sup> Yahweh's angel appeared to the woman, and said to her, "See now, you are barren and childless; but you shall conceive, and bear a son. <sup>4</sup> Now therefore please beware and drink no wine nor strong drink, and don't eat any unclean thing: <sup>5</sup> for, behold, you shall conceive, and give birth to a son. No razor shall come on his head; for the child shall be a Nazirite to God from the womb. He shall begin to save Israel out of the hand of the Philistines."

<sup>6</sup> Then the woman came and told her husband, saying, "A man of God came to me, and his face was like the face of the angel of God, very awesome. I didn't ask him where he was from, neither did he tell me his name; <sup>7</sup> but he said to me, 'Behold, you shall conceive, and bear a son; and now drink no wine nor strong drink. Don't eat any unclean thing; for the child shall be a Nazirite to God from the womb to the day of his death.'"

<sup>8</sup> Then Manoah entreated Yahweh, and said, "Oh, Lord, please let the man of God whom you sent come again to us, and teach us what we should do to the child who shall be born."

<sup>9</sup> God listened to the voice of Manoah, and the angel of God came again to the woman as she sat in the field, but Manoah, her husband, wasn't with her. <sup>10</sup> The woman hurried and ran, and told her husband, and said to him, "Behold, the man who came to me that day has appeared to me,"

<sup>11</sup> Manoah arose, and followed his wife, and came to the man, and said to him, "Are you the man who spoke to my wife?"

He said, "I am."

<sup>12</sup> Manoah said, "Now let your words happen. What shall the child's way of life and mission be?"

<sup>13</sup> Yahweh's angel said to Manoah, "Of all that I said to the woman let her beware.

<sup>14</sup> She may not eat of anything that comes of the vine, neither let her drink wine or strong drink, nor eat any unclean thing. Let her observe all that I commanded her."

<sup>15</sup> Manoah said to Yahweh's angel, "Please stay with us, that we may make a young goat ready for you."

<sup>16</sup> Yahweh's angel said to Manoah, "Though you detain me, I won't eat your bread. If you will prepare a burnt offering, you must offer it to Yahweh." For Manoah didn't know that he was Yahweh's angel.

<sup>17</sup> Manoah said to Yahweh's angel, "What is your name, that when your words happen, we may honor you?"

<sup>18</sup> Yahweh's angel said to him, "Why do you ask about my name, since it is incomprehensible<sup>m</sup>?"

<sup>19</sup> So Manoah took the young goat with the meal offering, and offered it on the rock to Yahweh. Then the angel did an amazing thing as Manoah and his wife watched. <sup>20</sup> For when the flame went up toward the sky from off the altar, Yahweh's angel ascended in the flame of the altar. Manoah and his wife watched; and they fell on their faces to the ground. <sup>21</sup> But Yahweh's angel didn't appear to Manoah or to his wife any more. Then Manoah knew that he was Yahweh's angel. <sup>22</sup> Manoah said to his wife, "We shall surely die, because we have seen God."

<sup>23</sup> But his wife said to him, "If Yahweh were pleased to kill us, he wouldn't have received a burnt offering and a meal offering at our hand, and he wouldn't have shown us all these things, nor would he have told us such things as these at this time." <sup>24</sup> The woman bore a son, and named him Samson. The child grew, and Yahweh blessed him. <sup>25</sup> Yahweh's Spirit began to move him in Mahaneh Dan, between Zorah and Eshtaol.

14

<sup>1</sup> Samson went down to Timnah, and saw a woman in Timnah of the daughters of the Philistines. <sup>2</sup> He came up, and told his father and his mother, and said, "I have seen a woman in Timnah of the daughters of the Philistines. Now therefore get her for me as my wife."

<sup>3</sup> Then his father and his mother said to him, "Isn't there a woman among your brothers' daughters, or among all my people, that you go to take a wife of the uncircumcised Philistines?"

Samson said to his father, "Get her for me, for she pleases me well."

<sup>4</sup> But his father and his mother didn't know that it was of Yahweh; for he sought an occasion against the Philistines. Now at that time the Philistines ruled over Israel. <sup>5</sup> Then went Samson down with his father and his mother to Timnah, and came to the vineyards of Timnah; and behold, a young lion roared against him. <sup>6</sup> Yahweh's Spirit came mightily on him, and he tore him as he would have torn a young goat; and he had nothing in his hand, but he didn't tell his father or his mother what he had done. <sup>7</sup> He went down, and talked with the woman, and she pleased Samson well. <sup>8</sup> After a while he returned to take her; and he turned aside to see the carcass of the lion; and behold, there was a swarm of bees in the body of the lion, and honey. <sup>9</sup> He took it into his hands, and went on, eating as he went. He came to his father and mother, and gave to them, and they ate, but he didn't tell them that he had taken the honey out of the lion's body. <sup>10</sup> His father went down to the woman: and Samson made a feast there; for so the young men used to do. <sup>11</sup> When they saw him, they brought thirty companions to be with him.

<sup>12</sup> Samson said to them, "Let me tell you a riddle now. If you can declare it to me within the seven days of the feast, and find it out, then I will give you thirty linen garments and thirty changes of clothing; <sup>13</sup> but if you can't declare it to me, then you shall give me thirty linen garments and thirty changes of clothing."

They said to him, "Tell us your riddle, that we may hear it." <sup>14</sup> He said to them,

"Out of the eater came out food.

Out of the strong came out sweetness."

They couldn't in three days declare the riddle. <sup>15</sup> On the seventh day, they said to Samson's wife, "Entice your husband, that he may declare to us the riddle, lest we burn you and your father's house with fire. Have you called us to impoverish us? Isn't that so?"

<sup>16</sup> Samson's wife wept before him, and said, "You just hate me, and don't love me. You've told a riddle to the children of my people, and haven't told it to me."

He said to her, "Behold, I haven't told my father or my mother, so why should I tell you?"

<sup>17</sup> She wept before him the seven days, while their feast lasted; and on the seventh day, he told her, because she pressed him severely; and she told the riddle to the children of her people. <sup>18</sup> The men of the city said to him on the seventh day before the sun went down, "What is sweeter than honey? What is stronger than a lion?"

He said to them,

"If you hadn't plowed with my heifer, you wouldn't have found out my riddle."

<sup>19</sup> Yahweh's Spirit came mightily on him, and he went down to Ashkelon, and struck thirty men of them, and took their plunder, then gave the changes of clothing to those who declared the riddle. His anger burned, and he went up to his father's house. <sup>20</sup> But Samson's wife was given to his companion who had been his friend.

15

<sup>1</sup> But after a while, in the time of wheat harvest, Samson visited his wife with a young goat. He said, "I will go in to my wife's room."

But her father wouldn't allow him to go in. <sup>2</sup> Her father said, "I most certainly thought that you utterly hated her; therefore I gave her to your companion. Isn't her younger sister more beautiful than she? Please take her, instead."

<sup>3</sup> Samson said to them, "This time I will be blameless in the case of the Philistines, when I harm them." <sup>4</sup> Samson went and caught three hundred foxes, and took torches, and turned tail to tail, and put a torch in the middle between every two tails.

<sup>5</sup> When he had set the torches on fire, he let them go into the standing grain of the Philistines, and burned up both the shocks and the standing grain, and also the olive groves.

<sup>6</sup> Then the Philistines said, "Who has done this?"

They said, "Samson, the son-in-law of the Timnite, because he has taken his wife, and given her to his companion." The Philistines came up, and burned her and her father with fire.

<sup>7</sup> Samson said to them, "If you behave like this, surely I will take revenge on you, and after that I will cease." <sup>8</sup> He struck them hip and thigh with a great slaughter; and he went down and lived in the cave in Etam's rock. <sup>9</sup> Then the Philistines went up, encamped in Judah, and spread themselves in Lehi.

<sup>10</sup> The men of Judah said, "Why have you come up against us?"

They said, "We have come up to bind Samson, to do to him as he has done to us."

<sup>11</sup> Then three thousand men of Judah went down to the cave in Etam's rock, and said to Samson, "Don't you know that the Philistines are rulers over us? What then is this that you have done to us?"

He said to them, "As they did to me, so have I done to them."

<sup>12</sup> They said to him, "We have come down to bind you, that we may deliver you into the hand of the Philistines."

Samson said to them, "Swear to me that you will not attack me yourselves."

<sup>13</sup> They spoke to him, saying, “No; but we will bind you securely, and deliver you into their hands; but surely we will not kill you.” They bound him with two new ropes, and brought him up from the rock.

<sup>14</sup> When he came to Lehi, the Philistines shouted as they met him. Then Yahweh’s Spirit came mightily on him, and the ropes that were on his arms became as flax that was burned with fire, and his bands dropped from off his hands. <sup>15</sup> He found a fresh jawbone of a donkey, put out his hand, took it, and struck a thousand men with it. <sup>16</sup> Samson said, “With the jawbone of a donkey, heaps on heaps; with the jawbone of a donkey I have struck a thousand men.” <sup>17</sup> When he had finished speaking, he threw the jawbone out of his hand; and that place was called Ramath Lehi.<sup>n</sup> <sup>18</sup> He was very thirsty, and called on Yahweh, and said, “You have given this great deliverance by the hand of your servant; and now shall I die of thirst, and fall into the hands of the uncircumcised?”

<sup>19</sup> But God split the hollow place that is in Lehi, and water came out of it. When he had drunk, his spirit came again, and he revived. Therefore its name was called En Hakkore, which is in Lehi, to this day. <sup>20</sup> He judged Israel twenty years in the days of the Philistines.

16

<sup>1</sup> Samson went to Gaza, and saw there a prostitute, and went in to her. <sup>2</sup> The Gazites were told, “Samson is here!” They surrounded him, and laid wait for him all night in the gate of the city, and were quiet all the night, saying, “Wait until morning light, then we will kill him.” <sup>3</sup> Samson lay until midnight, and arose at midnight, and laid hold of the doors of the gate of the city, and the two posts, and plucked them up, bar and all, and put them on his shoulders, and carried them up to the top of the mountain that is before Hebron.

<sup>4</sup> It came to pass afterward, that he loved a woman in the valley of Sorek, whose name was Delilah. <sup>5</sup> The lords of the Philistines came up to her, and said to her, “Entice him, and see in which his great strength lies, and by what means we may prevail against him, that we may bind him to afflict him; and we will each give you eleven hundred pieces of silver.”

<sup>6</sup> Delilah said to Samson, “Please tell me where your great strength lies, and what you might be bound to afflict you.”

<sup>7</sup> Samson said to her, “If they bind me with seven green cords that were never dried, then shall I become weak, and be as another man.”

<sup>8</sup> Then the lords of the Philistines brought up to her seven green cords which had not been dried, and she bound him with them. <sup>9</sup> Now she had an ambush waiting in the inner room. She said to him, “The Philistines are on you, Samson!” He broke the cords, as a string of tow is broken when it touches the fire. So his strength was not known.

<sup>10</sup> Delilah said to Samson, “Behold, you have mocked me, and told me lies: now please tell me with which you might be bound.”

<sup>11</sup> He said to her, “If they only bind me with new ropes with which no work has been done, then shall I become weak, and be as another man.”

<sup>12</sup> So Delilah took new ropes, and bound him therewith, and said to him, “The Philistines are on you, Samson!” The ambush was waiting in the inner room. He broke them off his arms like a thread.

<sup>13</sup> Delilah said to Samson, “Until now, you have mocked me and told me lies. Tell me with what you might be bound.”

He said to her, “If you weave the seven locks of my head with the web.”

<sup>14</sup> She fastened it with the pin, and said to him, “The Philistines are on you, Samson!” He awakened out of his sleep, and plucked away the pin of the beam, and the web.

<sup>15</sup> She said to him, “How can you say, ‘I love you,’ when your heart is not with me? You have mocked me these three times, and have not told me where your great strength lies.”

<sup>16</sup> When she pressed him daily with her words, and urged him, his soul was troubled to death. <sup>17</sup> He told her all his heart, and said to her, “No razor has ever come on my head; for I have been a Nazirite to God from my mother’s womb. If I am shaved, then my strength will go from me, and I will become weak, and be like any other man.”

<sup>18</sup> When Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart, she sent and called for the lords of the Philistines, saying, “Come up this once, for he has told me all his heart.” Then the lords of the Philistines came up to her, and brought the money in their hand. <sup>19</sup> She made him sleep on her knees; and she called for a man, and shaved off the seven locks of his head; and she began to afflict him, and his strength went from him. <sup>20</sup> She said, “The Philistines are upon you, Samson!”

He awoke out of his sleep, and said, “I will go out as at other times, and shake myself free.” But he didn’t know that Yahweh had departed from him. <sup>21</sup> The Philistines laid hold on him, and put out his eyes; and they brought him down to Gaza, and bound him with fetters of brass; and he ground at the mill in the prison. <sup>22</sup> However the hair of his head began to grow again after he was shaved.

<sup>23</sup> The lords of the Philistines gathered them together to offer a great sacrifice to Dagon their god, and to rejoice; for they said, “Our god has delivered Samson our enemy into our hand.” <sup>24</sup> When the people saw him, they praised their god; for they said, “Our god has delivered our enemy and the destroyer of our country, who has slain many of us, into our hand.”

<sup>25</sup> When their hearts were merry, they said, “Call for Samson, that he may entertain us.” They called for Samson out of the prison; and he performed before them. They set him between the pillars; <sup>26</sup> and Samson said to the boy who held him by the hand, “Allow me to feel the pillars whereupon the house rests, that I may lean on them.”

<sup>27</sup> Now the house was full of men and women; and all the lords of the Philistines were there; and there were on the roof about three thousand men and women, who saw while Samson performed. <sup>28</sup> Samson called to Yahweh, and said, “Lord Yahweh, remember me, please, and strengthen me, please, only this once, God, that I may be at once avenged of the Philistines for my two eyes.” <sup>29</sup> Samson took hold of the two middle pillars on which the house rested, and leaned on them, the one with his right hand, and the other with his left. <sup>30</sup> Samson said, "Let me die with the Philistines!" He bowed himself with all his might; and the house fell on the lords, and on all the people who were therein. So the dead that he killed at his death were more than those who he killed in his life. <sup>31</sup> Then his brothers and all the house of his father came down, and took him, and brought him up, and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol in the burial site of Manoah his father. He judged Israel twenty years.

17

<sup>1</sup> There was a man of the hill country of Ephraim, whose name was Micah. <sup>2</sup> He said to his mother, "The eleven hundred pieces of silver that were taken from you, about which you uttered a curse, and also spoke it in my ears, behold, the silver is with me. I took it."

His mother said, "May Yahweh bless my son!"

<sup>3</sup> He restored the eleven hundred pieces of silver to his mother, then his mother said, "I most certainly dedicate the silver to Yahweh from my hand for my son, to make an engraved image and a molten image. Now therefore I will restore it to you."

<sup>4</sup> When he restored the money to his mother, his mother took two hundred pieces of silver, and gave them to a silversmith, who made an engraved image and a molten image out of it. It was in the house of Micah.

<sup>5</sup> The man Micah had a house of gods, and he made an ephod, and teraphim,<sup>o</sup> and consecrated one of his sons, who became his priest. <sup>6</sup> In those days there was no king in Israel. Everyone did that which was right in his own eyes. <sup>7</sup> There was a young man out of Bethlehem Judah, of the family of Judah, who was a Levite; and he lived there. <sup>8</sup> The man departed out of the city, out of Bethlehem Judah, to live where he could find a place, and he came to the hill country of Ephraim, to the house of Micah, as he traveled. <sup>9</sup> Micah said to him, "Where did you come from?"

He said to him, "I am a Levite of Bethlehem Judah, and I am looking for a place to live." <sup>10</sup> Micah said to him, "Dwell with me, and be to me a father and a priest, and I will give you ten pieces of silver per year, a suit of clothing, and your food." So the Levite went in. <sup>11</sup> The Levite was content to dwell with the man; and the young man was to him as one of his sons. <sup>12</sup> Micah consecrated the Levite, and the young man became his priest, and was in the house of Micah. <sup>13</sup> Then Micah said, "Now know I that Yahweh will do good to me, since I have a Levite as my priest."

18

<sup>1</sup> In those days there was no king in Israel. In those days the tribe of the Danites sought an inheritance to dwell in; for to that day, their inheritance had not fallen to them among the tribes of Israel. <sup>2</sup> The children of Dan sent five men of their family from their whole number, men of valor, from Zorah, and from Eshtaol, to spy out the land, and to search it. They said to them, "Go, explore the land!"

They came to the hill country of Ephraim, to the house of Micah, and lodged there. <sup>3</sup> When they were by the house of Micah, they knew the voice of the young man the <sup>o</sup> teraphim were household idols that may have been associated with inheritance rights to the household property.

Levite; so they turned aside there, and said to him, "Who brought you here? What do you do in this place? What do you have here?"

<sup>4</sup> He said to them, "Thus and thus has Micah dealt with me, and he has hired me, and I am become his priest."

<sup>5</sup> They said to him, "Please ask counsel of God, that we may know whether our way which we go shall be prosperous."

<sup>6</sup> The priest said to them, "Go in peace. Your way in which you go is before Yahweh."

<sup>7</sup> Then the five men departed, and came to Laish, and saw the people who were there, how they lived in safety, in the way of the Sidonians, quiet and secure; for there was no one in the land, possessing authority, that might put them to shame in anything, and they were far from the Sidonians, and had no dealings with anyone else. <sup>8</sup> They came to their brothers at Zorah and Eshtaol; and their brothers asked them, "What do you say?"

<sup>9</sup> They said, "Arise, and let us go up against them; for we have seen the land, and behold, it is very good. Do you stand still? Don't be slothful to go and to enter in to possess the land. <sup>10</sup> When you go, you will come to an unsuspecting people, and the land is large; for God has given it into your hand, a place where there is no lack of anything that is in the earth."

<sup>11</sup> The family of the Danites set out from Zorah and Eshtaol, with six hundred men armed with weapons of war. <sup>12</sup> They went up and encamped in Kiriath Jearim, in Judah. Therefore they called that place Mahaneh Dan, to this day. Behold, it is behind Kiriath Jearim. <sup>13</sup> They passed from there to the hill country of Ephraim, and came to the house of Micah.

<sup>14</sup> Then the five men who went to spy out the country of Laish answered, and said to their brothers, "Do you know that there is in these houses an ephod, and teraphim,<sup>p</sup> and an engraved image, and a molten image? Now therefore consider what you have to do." <sup>15</sup> They turned aside there, and came to the house of the young Levite man, even to the house of Micah, and asked him how he was doing. <sup>16</sup> The six hundred men armed with their weapons of war, who were of the children of Dan, stood by the entrance of the gate. <sup>17</sup> The five men who went to spy out the land went up, and came in there, and took the engraved image, the ephod, the teraphim, and the molten image; and the priest stood by the entrance of the gate with the six hundred men armed with weapons of war.

<sup>18</sup> When these went into Micah's house, and took the engraved image, the ephod, the teraphim, and the molten image, the priest said to them, "What are you doing?"

<sup>19</sup> They said to him, "Hold your peace, put your hand on your mouth, and go with us, and be to us a father and a priest. Is it better for you to be priest to the house of one man, or to be priest to a tribe and a family in Israel?"

<sup>20</sup> The priest's heart was glad, and he took the ephod, the teraphim, and the engraved image, and went with the people.

<sup>21</sup> So they turned and departed, and put the little ones, the livestock, and the goods before them. <sup>22</sup> When they were a good way from the house of Micah, the men who were in the houses near Micah's house gathered together and overtook the children of Dan. <sup>23</sup> As they cried to the children of Dan, they turned their faces, and said to Micah, “What ails you, that you come with such a company?”

<sup>24</sup> He said, “You have taken away my gods which I made, and the priest, and have gone away! What more do I have? How can you ask me, ‘What ails you?’”

<sup>25</sup> The children of Dan said to him, “Don’t let your voice be heard among us, lest angry fellows fall on you, and you lose your life, with the lives of your household.”

<sup>26</sup> The children of Dan went their way; and when Micah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned and went back to his house. <sup>27</sup> They took that which Micah had made, and the priest whom he had, and came to Laish, to a people quiet and unsuspecting, and struck them with the edge of the sword; then they burned the city with fire. <sup>28</sup> There was no deliverer, because it was far from Sidon, and they had no dealings with anyone else; and it was in the valley that lies by Beth Rehob. They built the city, and lived in it. <sup>29</sup> They called the name of the city Dan, after the name of Dan their father, who was born to Israel; however the name of the city used to be Laish. <sup>30</sup> The children of Dan set up for themselves the engraved image; and Jonathan, the son of Gershom, the son of Moses, and his sons were priests to the tribe of the Danites until the day of the captivity of the land. <sup>31</sup> So they set up for themselves Micah’s engraved image which he made, and it remained all the time that God’s house was in Shiloh.

19

<sup>1</sup> In those days, when there was no king in Israel, there was a certain Levite living on the farther side of the hill country of Ephraim, who took for himself a concubine out of Bethlehem Judah. <sup>2</sup> His concubine played the prostitute against him, and went away from him to her father’s house to Bethlehem Judah, and was there for four months. <sup>3</sup> Her husband arose, and went after her, to speak kindly to her, to bring her again, having his servant with him, and a couple of donkeys. She brought him into her father’s house; and when the father of the young lady saw him, he rejoiced to meet him. <sup>4</sup> His father-in-law, the young lady’s father, kept him there; and he stayed with him three days. So they ate and drank, and stayed there.

<sup>5</sup> On the fourth day, they got up early in the morning, and he rose up to depart. The young lady’s father said to his son-in-law, “Strengthen your heart with a morsel of bread, and afterward you shall go your way.” <sup>6</sup> So they sat down, ate, and drank, both of them together. Then the young lady’s father said to the man, “Please be pleased to stay all night, and let your heart be merry.” <sup>7</sup> The man rose up to depart; but his father-in-law urged him, and he stayed there again. <sup>8</sup> He arose early in the morning on the fifth day to depart; and the young lady’s father said, “Please strengthen your heart and stay until the day declines”; and they both ate.

<sup>9</sup> When the man rose up to depart, he, and his concubine, and his servant, his father-in-law, the young lady’s father, said to him, “Behold, now the day draws toward evening, please stay all night. Behold, the day is ending. Stay here, that your heart may be merry; and tomorrow go on your way early, that you may go home.”<sup>10</sup> But the man wouldn’t stay that night, but he rose up and departed, and toward Jebus (also called Jerusalem). With him were a couple of saddled donkeys. His concubine also was with him.

<sup>11</sup> When they were by Jebus, the day was far spent; and the servant said to his master, “Please come and let us turn aside into this city of the Jebusites, and stay in it.”

<sup>12</sup> His master said to him, “We won’t turn aside into the city of a foreigner that is not of the children of Israel; but we will pass over to Gibeah.”<sup>13</sup> He said to his servant, “Come and let us draw near to one of these places; and we will lodge in Gibeah, or in Ramah.”<sup>14</sup> So they passed on and went their way; and the sun went down on them near Gibeah, which belongs to Benjamin.<sup>15</sup> They turned aside there, to go in to stay in Gibeah. He went in, and sat down in the street of the city; for there was no one who took them into his house to stay.

<sup>16</sup> Behold, an old man came from his work out of the field at evening. Now the man was from the hill country of Ephraim, and he lived in Gibeah; but the men of the place were Benjamites.<sup>17</sup> He lifted up his eyes, and saw the wayfaring man in the street of the city; and the old man said, “Where are you going? Where did you come from?”

<sup>18</sup> He said to him, “We are passing from Bethlehem Judah to the farther side of the hill country of Ephraim. I am from there, and I went to Bethlehem Judah. I am going to Yahweh’s house; and there is no one who has taken me into his house.”<sup>19</sup> Yet there is both straw and feed for our donkeys; and there is bread and wine also for me, and for your servant, and for the young man who is with your servants. There is no lack of anything.”

<sup>20</sup> The old man said, “Peace be to you; how ever let me supply all your needs. Just don’t sleep in the street.”<sup>21</sup> So he brought him into his house, and gave the donkeys fodder. Then they washed their feet, and ate and drank.<sup>22</sup> As they were making their hearts merry, behold, the men of the city, certain base fellows, surrounded the house, beating at the door; and they spoke to the master of the house, the old man, saying, “Bring out the man who came into your house, that we can have sex with him!”

<sup>23</sup> The man, the master of the house, went out to them, and said to them, “No, my brothers, please don’t act so wickedly; since this man has come into my house, don’t do this folly.”<sup>24</sup> Behold, here is my virgin daughter and his concubine. I will bring them out now. Humble them, and do with them what seems good to you; but to this man don’t do any such folly.”

<sup>25</sup> But the men wouldn’t listen to him: so the man laid hold of his concubine, and brought her out to them; and they had sex with her, and abused her all night until the morning. When the day began to dawn, they let her go.<sup>26</sup> Then the woman came in the dawning of the day, and fell down at the door of the man’s house where her lord was, until it was light.<sup>27</sup> Her lord rose up in the morning, and opened the doors of the house, and went out to go his way; and behold, the woman his concubine had fallen down at the door of the house, with her hands on the threshold.

<sup>28</sup> He said to her, “Get up, and let us be going!” but no one answered. Then he took her up on the donkey; and the man rose up, and went to his place.

<sup>29</sup> When he had come into his house, he took a knife, and cut up his concubine, and divided her, limb by limb, into twelve pieces, and sent her throughout all the borders of Israel. <sup>30</sup> It was so, that all who saw it said, "Such a deed has not been done or seen from the day that the children of Israel came up out of the land of Egypt to this day! Consider it, take counsel, and speak."

20

<sup>1</sup> Then all the children of Israel went out, and the congregation was assembled as one man, from Dan even to Beersheba, with the land of Gilead, to Yahweh at Mizpah. <sup>2</sup> The chiefs of all the people, even of all the tribes of Israel, presented themselves in the assembly of the people of God, four hundred thousand footmen who drew sword. <sup>3</sup> (Now the children of Benjamin heard that the children of Israel had gone up to Mizpah.) The children of Israel said, "Tell us, how did this wickedness happen?"

<sup>4</sup> The Levite, the husband of the woman who was murdered, answered, "I came into Gibeah that belongs to Benjamin, I and my concubine, to spend the night. <sup>5</sup> The men of Gibeah rose against me, and surrounded the house by night. They intended to kill me, and they raped my concubine, and she is dead. <sup>6</sup> I took my concubine, and cut her in pieces, and sent her throughout all the country of the inheritance of Israel; for they have committed lewdness and folly in Israel. <sup>7</sup> Behold, you children of Israel, all of you, give here your advice and counsel."

<sup>8</sup> All the people arose as one man, saying, "None of us will go to his tent, neither will any of us turn to his house. <sup>9</sup> But now this is the thing which we will do to Gibeah: we will go up against it by lot; <sup>10</sup> and we will take ten men of one hundred throughout all the tribes of Israel, and one hundred of one thousand, and a thousand out of ten thousand, to get food for the people, that they may do, when they come to Gibeah of Benjamin, according to all the folly that they have worked in Israel." <sup>11</sup> So all the men of Israel were gathered against the city, knit together as one man.

<sup>12</sup> The tribes of Israel sent men through all the tribe of Benjamin, saying, "What wickedness is this that is happen among you? <sup>13</sup> Now therefore deliver up the men, the base fellows, who are in Gibeah, that we may put them to death, and put away evil from Israel."

But Benjamin would not listen to the voice of their brothers the children of Israel. <sup>14</sup> The children of Benjamin gathered themselves together out of the cities to Gibeah, to go out to battle against the children of Israel. <sup>15</sup> The children of Benjamin were numbered on that day out of the cities twenty-six thousand men who drew the sword, besides the inhabitants of Gibeah, who were numbered seven hundred chosen men. <sup>16</sup> Among all these soldiers there were seven hundred chosen men who were left-handed. Every one of them could sling a stone at a hair and not miss. <sup>17</sup> The men of Israel, besides Benjamin, were numbered four hundred thousand men who drew sword. All these were men of war.

<sup>18</sup> The children of Israel arose, went up to Bethel, and asked counsel of God. They asked, "Who shall go up for us first to battle against the children of Benjamin?"

Yahweh said, "Judah first."

Yahweh said, "Go up against him."

<sup>26</sup> Then all the children of Israel, and all the people, went up, and came to Bethel, and wept, and sat there before Yahweh, and fasted that day until evening; then they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before Yahweh. <sup>27</sup> The children of Israel asked Yahweh (for the ark of the covenant of God was there in those days, <sup>28</sup> and Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, stood before it in those days), saying, "Shall I yet again go out to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother, or shall I cease?"

Yahweh said, "Go up; for tomorrow I will deliver him into your hand."

<sup>30</sup> The children of Israel went up against the children of Benjamin on the third day, and set themselves in array against Gibeah, as at other times. <sup>31</sup> The children of Benjamin went out against the people, and were drawn away from the city; and they began to strike and kill of the people, as at other times, in the highways, of which one goes up to Bethel, and the other to Gibeah, in the field, about thirty men of Israel.

<sup>32</sup> The children of Benjamin said, "They are struck down before us, as at the first." But the children of Israel said, "Let us flee, and draw them away from the city to the highways."

<sup>33</sup> All the men of Israel rose up out of their place, and set themselves in array at Baal Tamar. Then the ambushers of Israel broke out of their place, even out of Maareh Geba. <sup>34</sup> Ten thousand chosen men out of all Israel came over against Gibeah, and the battle was severe; but they didn't know that disaster was close to them. <sup>35</sup> Yahweh struck Benjamin before Israel; and the children of Israel destroyed of Benjamin that day twenty-five thousand one hundred men. All these drew the sword. <sup>36</sup> So the children of Benjamin saw that they were struck; for the men of Israel yielded to Benjamin, because they trusted the ambushers whom they had set against Gibeah. <sup>37</sup> The ambushers hurried, and rushed on Gibeah; then the ambushers spread out, and struck all the city with the edge of the sword. <sup>38</sup> Now the appointed sign between the men of Israel and the ambushers was that they should make a great cloud of smoke rise up out of the city.

and Benjamin began to strike and kill of the men of Israel about thirty persons; for they said, "Surely they are struck down before us, as in the first battle."<sup>40</sup> But when the cloud began to arise up out of the city in a pillar of smoke, the Benjamites looked behind them; and behold, the whole city went up in smoke to the sky.<sup>41</sup> The men of Israel turned, and the men of Benjamin were dismayed; for they saw that disaster had come on them.<sup>42</sup> Therefore they turned their backs before the men of Israel to the way of the wilderness; but the battle followed hard after them; and those who came out of the cities destroyed them in the middle of it.<sup>43</sup> They surrounded the Benjamites, chased them, and trod them down at their resting place, as far as near Gibeah toward the sunrise.<sup>44</sup> Eighteen thousand men of Benjamin fell; all these were men of valor.<sup>45</sup> They turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon; and they gleaned five thousand men of them in the highways, and followed hard after them to Gidom, and struck two thousand men of them.<sup>46</sup> So that all who fell that day of Benjamin were twenty-five thousand men who drew the sword. All these were men of valor.<sup>47</sup> But six hundred men turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon, and stayed in the rock of Rimmon four months.<sup>48</sup> The men of Israel turned again on the children of Benjamin, and struck them with the edge of the sword, both the entire city, and the livestock, and all that they found. Moreover all the cities which they found they set on fire.

21

<sup>1</sup> Now the men of Israel had sworn in Mizpah, saying, "None of us will give his daughter to Benjamin as a wife."<sup>2</sup> The people came to Bethel, and sat there until evening before God, and lifted up their voices, and wept severely.<sup>3</sup> They said, "Yahweh, the God of Israel, why has this happened in Israel, that there should be one tribe lacking in Israel today?"

<sup>4</sup> On the next day, the people rose early, and built an altar there, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings.<sup>5</sup> The children of Israel said, "Who is there among all the tribes of Israel who didn't come up in the assembly to Yahweh?" For they had made a great oath concerning him who didn't come up to Yahweh to Mizpah, saying, "He shall surely be put to death."<sup>6</sup> The children of Israel grieved for Benjamin their brother, and said, "There is one tribe cut off from Israel today.<sup>7</sup> How shall we provide wives for those who remain, since we have sworn by Yahweh that we will not give them of our daughters to wives?"<sup>8</sup> They said, "What one is there of the tribes of Israel who didn't come up to Yahweh to Mizpah?" Behold, no one came from Jabesh Gilead to the camp to the assembly.<sup>9</sup> For when the people were numbered, behold, there were none of the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead there.<sup>10</sup> The congregation sent twelve thousand of the most valiant men there, and commanded them, saying, "Go and strike the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead with the edge of the sword, with the women and the little ones."<sup>11</sup> This is the thing that you shall do: you shall utterly destroy every male, and every woman who has lain with a man."<sup>12</sup> They found among the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead four hundred young virgins, who had not known man by lying with him; and they brought them to the camp to Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan.

<sup>13</sup> The whole congregation sent and spoke to the children of Benjamin who were in the rock of Rimmon, and proclaimed peace to them. <sup>14</sup> Benjamin returned at that time; and they gave them the women whom they had saved alive of the women of Jabesh Gilead. There still weren't enough for them. <sup>15</sup> The people grieved for Benjamin, because Yahweh had made a breach in the tribes of Israel. <sup>16</sup> Then the elders of the congregation said, "How shall we provide wives for those who remain, since the women are destroyed out of Benjamin?" <sup>17</sup> They said, "There must be an inheritance for those who are escaped of Benjamin, that a tribe not be blotted out from Israel. <sup>18</sup> However we may not give them wives of our daughters, for the children of Israel had sworn, saying, 'Cursed is he who gives a wife to Benjamin.'" <sup>19</sup> They said, "Behold, there is a feast of Yahweh from year to year in Shiloh, which is on the north of Bethel, on the east side of the highway that goes up from Bethel to Shechem, and on the south of Lebonah." <sup>20</sup> They commanded the children of Benjamin, saying, "Go and lie in wait in the vineyards, <sup>21</sup> and see, and behold, if the daughters of Shiloh come out to dance in the dances, then come out of the vineyards, and each man catch his wife of the daughters of Shiloh, and go to the land of Benjamin. <sup>22</sup> It shall be, when their fathers or their brothers come to complain to us, that we will say to them, 'Grant them graciously to us, because we didn't take for each man his wife in battle, neither did you give them to them, otherwise you would now be guilty.'"

<sup>23</sup> The children of Benjamin did so, and took wives for themselves, according to their number, of those who danced, whom they carried off. They went and returned to their inheritance, built the cities, and lived in them. <sup>24</sup> The children of Israel departed from there at that time, every man to his tribe and to his family, and they each went out from there to his own inheritance. <sup>25</sup> In those days there was no king in Israel. Everyone did that which was right in his own eyes.

Ruth

1

<sup>1</sup> In the days when the judges judged, there was a famine in the land. A certain man of Bethlehem Judah went to live in the country of Moab, he, and his wife, and his two sons. <sup>2</sup> The name of the man was Elimelech, and the name of his wife Naomi. The names of his two sons were Mahlon and Chilion, Ephrathites of Bethlehem Judah. They came into the country of Moab, and lived there. <sup>3</sup> Elimelech, Naomi's husband, died; and she was left with her two sons. <sup>4</sup> They took for themselves wives of the women of Moab. The name of the one was Orpah, and the name of the other was Ruth. They lived there about ten years. <sup>5</sup> Mahlon and Chilion both died, and the woman was bereaved of her two children and of her husband. <sup>6</sup> Then she arose with her daughters-in-law, that she might return from the country of Moab; for she had heard in the country of Moab how Yahweh <sup>a</sup> had visited his people in giving them bread. <sup>7</sup> She went out of the place where she was, and her two daughters-in-law with her. They went on the way to return to the land of Judah. <sup>8</sup> Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, "Go, return each of you to her mother's house. May Yahweh deal kindly with you, as you have dealt with the dead, and with me. <sup>9</sup> May Yahweh grant you that you may find rest, each of you in the house of her husband."

Then she kissed them, and they lifted up their voices, and wept. <sup>10</sup> They said to her, "No, but we will return with you to your people."

<sup>11</sup> Naomi said, "Go back, my daughters. Why do you want to go with me? Do I still have sons in my womb, that they may be your husbands? <sup>12</sup> Go back, my daughters, go your way; for I am too old to have a husband. If I should say, 'I have hope,' if I should even have a husband tonight, and should also bear sons; <sup>13</sup> would you then wait until they were grown? Would you then refrain from having husbands? No, my daughters, for it grieves me seriously for your sakes, for Yahweh's hand has gone out against me."

<sup>14</sup> They lifted up their voices, and wept again; then Orpah kissed her mother-in-law, but Ruth joined with her. <sup>15</sup> She said, "Behold,<sup>b</sup> your sister-in-law has gone back to her people, and to her god. Follow your sister-in-law."

<sup>16</sup> Ruth said, "Don't urge me to leave you, and to return from following you, for where you go, I will go; and where you stay, I will stay. Your people will be my people, and your God<sup>c</sup> my God. <sup>17</sup> Where you die, I will die, and there I will be buried. May Yahweh do so to me, and more also, if anything but death parts you and me."

<sup>18</sup> When she saw that she was determined to go with her, she stopped urging her.

<sup>19</sup> So they both went until they came to Bethlehem. When they had come to Bethlehem, all the city was excited about them, and they asked, “Is this Naomi?”

<sup>20</sup> She said to them, “Don’t call me Naomi.<sup>d</sup> Call me Mara;<sup>e</sup> for the Almighty has dealt very bitterly with me. <sup>21</sup> I went out full, and Yahweh has brought me home again empty. Why do you call me Naomi, since Yahweh has testified against me, and the Almighty has afflicted me?” <sup>22</sup> So Naomi returned, and Ruth the Moabitess, her daughter-in-law, with her, who returned out of the country of Moab. They came to Bethlehem in the beginning of barley harvest.

2

<sup>1</sup> Naomi had a relative of her husband’s, a mighty man of wealth, of the family of Elimelech, and his name was Boaz. <sup>2</sup> Ruth the Moabitess said to Naomi, “Let me now go to the field, and glean among the ears of grain after him in whose sight I find favor.”

She said to her, “Go, my daughter.” <sup>3</sup> She went, and came and gleaned in the field after the reapers; and she happened to come to the portion of the field belonging to Boaz, who was of the family of Elimelech.

<sup>4</sup> Behold, Boaz came from Bethlehem, and said to the reapers, “May Yahweh be with you.”

They answered him, “May Yahweh bless you.”

<sup>5</sup> Then Boaz said to his servant who was set over the reapers, “Whose young lady is this?”

<sup>6</sup> The servant who was set over the reapers answered, “It is the Moabite lady who came back with Naomi out of the country of Moab. <sup>7</sup> She said, ‘Please let me glean and gather after the reapers among the sheaves.’ So she came, and has continued even from the morning until now, except that she rested a little in the house.”

<sup>8</sup> Then Boaz said to Ruth, “Listen, my daughter. Don’t go to glean in another field, and don’t go from here, but stay here close to my maidens. <sup>9</sup> Let your eyes be on the field that they reap, and go after them. Haven’t I commanded the young men not to touch you? When you are thirsty, go to the vessels, and drink from that which the young men have drawn.”

<sup>10</sup> Then she fell on her face, and bowed herself to the ground, and said to him, “Why have I found favor in your sight, that you should take knowledge of me, since I am a foreigner?”

<sup>11</sup> Boaz answered her, “I have been fully told about all that you have done to your mother-in-law since the death of your husband, and how you have left your father and your mother, and the land of your birth, and have come to a people that you didn’t know before. <sup>12</sup> May Yahweh repay your work, and a full reward be given to you from Yahweh, the God of Israel, under whose wings you have come to take refuge.”

<sup>13</sup> Then she said, “Let me find favor in your sight, my lord, because you have comforted me, and because you have spoken kindly to your servant, though I am not as one of your servants.”

<sup>14</sup> At meal time Boaz said to her, “Come here, and eat some bread, and dip your morsel in the vinegar.”

She sat beside the reapers, and they passed her parched grain, and she ate, and was satisfied, and left some of it. <sup>15</sup> When she had risen up to glean, Boaz commanded his young men, saying, “Let her glean even among the sheaves, and don’t reproach her. <sup>16</sup> Also pull out some for her from the bundles, and leave it. Let her glean, and don’t rebuke her.”

<sup>17</sup> So she gleaned in the field until evening; and she beat out that which she had gleaned, and it was about an ephah<sup>f</sup> of barley. <sup>18</sup> She took it up, and went into the city. Then her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned; and she brought out and gave to her that which she had left after she had enough.

<sup>19</sup> Her mother-in-law said to her, “Where have you gleaned today? Where have you worked? Blessed be he who noticed you.”

She told her mother-in-law with whom she had worked, “The man’s name with whom I worked today is Boaz.” <sup>20</sup> Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, “May he be blessed by Yahweh, who has not left off his kindness to the living and to the dead.” Naomi said to her, “The man is a close relative to us, one of our near kinsmen.”

<sup>21</sup> Ruth the Moabite said, “Yes, he said to me, ‘You shall stay close to my young men, until they have finished all my harvest.’”

<sup>22</sup> Naomi said to Ruth her daughter-in-law, “It is good, my daughter, that you go out with his maidens, and that they not meet you in any other field.” <sup>23</sup> So she stayed close to the maidens of Boaz, to glean to the end of barley harvest and of wheat harvest; and she lived with her mother-in-law.

3

<sup>1</sup> Naomi her mother-in-law said to her, “My daughter, shall I not seek rest for you, that it may be well with you? <sup>2</sup> Now isn’t Boaz our kinsman, with whose maidens you were? Behold, he will be winnowing barley tonight on the threshing floor. <sup>3</sup> Therefore wash yourself, anoint yourself, get dressed, and go down to the threshing floor, but don’t make yourself known to the man until he has finished eating and drinking. <sup>4</sup> It shall be, when he lies down, that you shall note the place where he is lying. Then you shall go in, uncover his feet, and lay down. Then he will tell you what to do.”

<sup>5</sup> She said to her, “All that you say, I will do.” <sup>6</sup> She went down to the threshing floor, and did everything that her mother-in-law told her. <sup>7</sup> When Boaz had eaten and drunk, and his heart was merry, he went to lie down at the end of the heap of grain. She came softly, uncovered his feet, and laid down. <sup>8</sup> At midnight, the man was startled and turned himself; and behold, a woman lay at his feet. <sup>9</sup> He said, “Who are you?”

She answered, “I am Ruth your servant. Therefore spread the corner of your garment over your servant; for you are a near kinsman.”

<sup>10</sup> He said, “You are blessed by Yahweh, my daughter. You have shown more kindness in the latter end than at the beginning, because you didn’t follow young men, whether poor or rich. <sup>11</sup> Now, my daughter, don’t be afraid. I will do to you all that you say; for all the city of my people knows that you are a worthy woman. <sup>12</sup> Now it is true that I am a near kinsman. However, there is a kinsman nearer than I. <sup>13</sup> Stay this night, and in the morning, if he will perform for you the part of a kinsman, good. Let him do the kinsman's duty. But if he will not do the duty of a kinsman for you, then I will do the duty of a kinsman for you, as Yahweh lives. Lie down until the morning."

<sup>14</sup> She lay at his feet until the morning, then she rose up before one could discern another. For he said, "Let it not be known that the woman came to the threshing floor." <sup>15</sup> He said, "Bring the mantle that is on you, and hold it." She held it; and he measured six measures of barley, and laid it on her; then he went into the city.

<sup>16</sup> When she came to her mother-in-law, she said, "How did it go, my daughter?"

She told her all that the man had done for her. <sup>17</sup> She said, "He gave me these six measures of barley; for he said, 'Don't go empty to your mother-in-law.'"

<sup>18</sup> Then she said, "Wait, my daughter, until you know what will happen; for the man will not rest until he has settled this today."

4

<sup>1</sup> Now Boaz went up to the gate, and sat down there. Behold, the near kinsman of whom Boaz spoke came by. He said to him, "Come over here, friend, and sit down!" He turned aside, and sat down. <sup>2</sup> He took ten men of the elders of the city, and said, "Sit down here," and they sat down. <sup>3</sup> He said to the near kinsman, "Naomi, who has come back out of the country of Moab, is selling the parcel of land, which was our brother Elimelech's. <sup>4</sup> I thought I should tell you, saying, 'Buy it before those who sit here, and before the elders of my people.' If you will redeem it, redeem it; but if you will not redeem it, then tell me, that I may know. For there is no one to redeem it besides you; and I am after you."

He said, "I will redeem it."

<sup>5</sup> Then Boaz said, "On the day you buy the field from the hand of Naomi, you must buy it also from Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of the dead, to raise up the name of the dead on his inheritance."

<sup>6</sup> The near kinsman said, "I can't redeem it for myself, lest I endanger my own inheritance. Take my right of redemption for yourself; for I can't redeem it."

<sup>7</sup> Now this was the custom in former time in Israel concerning redeeming and concerning exchanging, to confirm all things: a man took off his shoe, and gave it to his neighbor; and this was the way of legalizing transactions in Israel. <sup>8</sup> So the near kinsman said to Boaz, "Buy it for yourself," then he took off his shoe.

<sup>9</sup> Boaz said to the elders, and to all the people, "You are witnesses today, that I have bought all that was Elimelech's, and all that was Chilion's and Mahlon's, from the hand of Naomi. <sup>10</sup> Moreover Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of Mahlon, I have purchased to be my wife, to raise up the name of the dead on his inheritance, that the name of the dead may not be cut off from among his brothers, and from the gate of his place. You are witnesses today."

<sup>11</sup> All the people who were in the gate, and the elders, said, "We are witnesses. May Yahweh make the woman who has come into your house like Rachel and like Leah, which both built the house of Israel; and treat you worthily in Ephrathah, and be famous in Bethlehem. <sup>12</sup> Let your house be like the house of Perez, whom Tamar bore to Judah, of the offspring<sup>g</sup> which Yahweh will give you by this young woman.”

<sup>13</sup> So Boaz took Ruth, and she became his wife; and he went in to her, and Yahweh enabled her to conceive, and she bore a son. <sup>14</sup> The women said to Naomi, “Blessed be Yahweh, who has not left you today without a near kinsman. Let his name be famous in Israel. <sup>15</sup> He shall be to you a restorer of life, and sustain you in your old age, for your daughter-in-law, who loves you, who is better to you than seven sons, has given birth to him.” <sup>16</sup> Naomi took the child, and laid him in her bosom, and became nurse to it. <sup>17</sup> The women, her neighbors, gave him a name, saying, “A son is born to Naomi”. They named him Obed. He is the father of Jesse, the father of David.

<sup>18</sup> Now this is the history of the generations of Perez: Perez became the father of Hezron, <sup>19</sup> and Hezron became the father of Ram, and Ram became the father of Amminadab, <sup>20</sup> and Amminadab became the father of Nahshon, and Nahshon became the father of Salmon, <sup>21</sup> and Salmon became the father of Boaz, and Boaz became the father of Obed, <sup>22</sup> and Obed became the father of Jesse, and Jesse became the father of David.

<sup>1</sup> Now there was a certain man of Ramathaim Zophim, of the hill country of Ephraim, and his name was Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephraimite. <sup>2</sup> He had two wives. The name of one was Hannah, and the name of other Peninnah. Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children. <sup>3</sup> This man went up out of his city from year to year to worship and to sacrifice to Yahweh<sup>a</sup> of Armies in Shiloh. The two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, priests to Yahweh, were there. <sup>4</sup> When the day came that Elkanah sacrificed, he gave to Peninnah his wife, and to all her sons and her daughters, portions; <sup>5</sup> but to Hannah he gave a double portion, for he loved Hannah, but Yahweh had shut up her womb. <sup>6</sup> Her rival provoked her severely, to irritate her, because Yahweh had shut up her womb. <sup>7</sup> As he did so year by year, when she went up to Yahweh's house. Her rival provoked her; therefore she wept, and didn't eat. <sup>8</sup> Elkanah her husband said to her, "Hannah, why do you weep? Why don't you eat? Why is your heart grieved? Am I not better to you than ten sons?"

<sup>9</sup> So Hannah rose up after they had finished eating and drinking in Shiloh. Now Eli the priest was sitting on his seat by the doorpost of Yahweh's temple. <sup>10</sup> She was in bitterness of soul, and prayed to Yahweh, weeping bitterly. <sup>11</sup> She vowed a vow, and said, "Yahweh of Armies, if you will indeed look at the affliction of your servant, and remember me, and not forget your servant, but will give to your servant a boy, then I will give him to Yahweh all the days of his life, and no razor shall come on his head."

<sup>15</sup> Hannah answered, "No, my lord, I am a woman of a sorrowful spirit. I have not been drinking wine or strong drink, but I poured out my soul before Yahweh. <sup>16</sup> Don't consider your servant a wicked woman; for I have been speaking out of the abundance of my complaint and my provocation."

<sup>17</sup> Then Eli answered, "Go in peace; and may the God<sup>b</sup> of Israel grant your petition that you have asked of him."

<sup>18</sup> She said, "Let your servant find favor in your sight." So the woman went her way, and ate; and her facial expression wasn't sad any more.

<sup>19</sup> They rose up in the morning early, and worshiped before Yahweh, and returned, and came to their house to Ramah. Then Elkanah knew Hannah his wife; and Yahweh remembered her.

<sup>20</sup> When the time had come, Hannah conceived, and bore a son; and she named him Samuel,<sup>c</sup> saying, "Because I have asked him of Yahweh."

<sup>21</sup> The man Elkanah, and all his house, went up to offer to Yahweh the yearly sacrifice, and his vow. <sup>22</sup> But Hannah didn't go up; for she said to her husband, "Not until the child is weaned; then I will bring him, that he may appear before Yahweh, and stay there forever."

<sup>23</sup> Elkanah her husband said to her, "Do what seems good to you. Wait until you have weaned him; only may Yahweh establish his word."

So the woman waited and nursed her son, until she weaned him. <sup>24</sup> When she had weaned him, she took him up with her, with three bulls, and one ephah<sup>d</sup> of meal, and a bottle of wine, and brought him to Yahweh's house in Shiloh. The child was young. <sup>25</sup> They killed the bull, and brought the child to Eli. <sup>26</sup> She said, "Oh, my lord, as your soul lives, my lord, I am the woman who stood by you here, praying to Yahweh. <sup>27</sup> I prayed for this child; and Yahweh has given me my petition which I asked of him. <sup>28</sup> Therefore I have also given him to Yahweh. As long as he lives he is given to Yahweh." He worshiped Yahweh there.

<sup>1</sup> Hannah prayed, and said:

"My heart exults in Yahweh!

My horn is exalted in Yahweh.

My mouth is enlarged over my enemies, because I rejoice in your salvation.

<sup>2</sup> There is no one as holy as Yahweh,
For there is no one besides you,
nor is there any rock like our God.

<sup>3</sup> "Don't keep talking so exceedingly proudly.

Don't let arrogance come out of your mouth,

For Yahweh is a God of knowledge.

By him actions are weighed.

<sup>4</sup> "The bows of the mighty men are broken.

Those who stumbled are armed with strength.

<sup>5</sup> Those who were full have hired themselves out for bread.

Those who were hungry are satisfied.

Yes, the barren has borne seven.

She who has many children languishes.

<sup>6</sup> "Yahweh kills, and makes alive.

He brings down to Sheol,<sup>e</sup> and brings up.

<sup>7</sup> Yahweh makes poor, and makes rich.

He brings low, he also lifts up.

<sup>8</sup> He raises up the poor out of the dust.

He lifts up the needy from the dunghill,
To make them sit with princes, and inherit the throne of glory.

For the pillars of the earth are Yahweh's.

He has set the world on them.

<sup>9</sup> He will keep the feet of his holy ones, but the wicked shall be put to silence in darkness; for no man shall prevail by strength.

<sup>10</sup> Those who strive with Yahweh shall be broken to pieces.

He will thunder against them in the sky.

"Yahweh will judge the ends of the earth.

<sup>d</sup> 1 ephah is about 22 liters or about 2/3 of a bushel    <sup>e</sup> Sheol is the place of the dead.

He will give strength to his king, and exalt the horn of his anointed.”

<sup>16</sup> If the man said to him, “Let the fat be burned first, and then take as much as your soul desires”; then he would say, “No, but you shall give it to me now; and if not, I will take it by force.” <sup>17</sup> The sin of the young men was very great before Yahweh; for the men despised the offering of Yahweh. <sup>18</sup> But Samuel ministered before Yahweh, being a child, clothed with a linen ephod. <sup>19</sup> Moreover his mother made him a little robe, and brought it to him from year to year, when she came up with her husband to offer the yearly sacrifice. <sup>20</sup> Eli blessed Elkanah and his wife, and said, “May Yahweh give you offspring<sup>f</sup> from this woman for the petition which was asked of Yahweh.” Then they went to their own home. <sup>21</sup> Yahweh visited Hannah, and she conceived, and bore three sons and two daughters. The child Samuel grew before Yahweh. <sup>22</sup> Now Eli was very old; and he heard all that his sons did to all Israel, and how that they slept with the women who served at the door of the Tent of Meeting. <sup>23</sup> He said to them, “Why do you do such things? for I hear of your evil dealings from all this people. <sup>24</sup> No, my sons; for it is no good report that I hear! You make Yahweh's people disobey. <sup>25</sup> If one man sins against another, God will judge him; but if a man sins against Yahweh, who will intercede for him?” Notwithstanding, they didn't listen to the voice of their father, because Yahweh intended to kill them. <sup>26</sup> The child Samuel grew on, and increased in favor both with Yahweh, and also with men. <sup>27</sup> A man of God came to Eli, and said to him, “Yahweh says, ‘Did I reveal myself to the house of your father, when they were in Egypt in bondage to Pharaoh's house? <sup>28</sup> Didn't I choose him out of all the tribes of Israel to be my priest, to go up to my altar, to burn incense, to wear an ephod before me? Didn't I give to the house of your father all the offerings of the children of Israel made by fire? <sup>29</sup> Why do you<sup>g</sup> kick at my sacrifice and at my offering, which I have commanded in my habitation, and honor your sons above me, to make yourselves fat with the best of all the offerings of Israel my people?’

<sup>30</sup> “Therefore Yahweh, the God of Israel, says, ‘I said indeed that your house, and the house of your father, should walk before me forever.’ But now Yahweh says, ‘Far be it from me; for those who honor me I will honor, and those who despise me will be lightly esteemed. <sup>31</sup> Behold,<sup>h</sup> the days come, that I will cut off your arm, and the arm of your father's house, that there will not be an old man in your house. <sup>32</sup> You will see the affliction of my habitation, in all the wealth which I will give Israel; and there shall not be an old man in your house forever. <sup>33</sup> The man of yours, whom I don't cut off from my altar, will consume your eyes<sup>i</sup> and grieve your heart; and all the increase of your house will die in the flower of their age.

<sup>34</sup> "This will be the sign to you, that will come on your two sons, on Hophni and Phinehas: in one day they will both die. <sup>35</sup> I will raise me up a faithful priest, that will do according to that which is in my heart and in my mind. I will build him a sure house; and he will walk before my anointed forever. <sup>36</sup> It will happen, that everyone who is left in your house will come and bow down to him for a piece of silver and a loaf of bread, and will say, "Please put me into one of the priests' offices, that I may eat a morsel of bread."'"

3

<sup>1</sup> The child Samuel ministered to Yahweh before Eli. Yahweh's word was precious in those days. There visions were not frequent. <sup>2</sup> At that time, when Eli was laid down in his place (now his eyes had begun to grow dim, so that he could not see), <sup>3</sup> and God's lamp hadn't yet gone out, and Samuel had laid down in Yahweh's temple, where God's ark was; <sup>4</sup> Yahweh called Samuel; and he said, "Here I am." <sup>5</sup> He ran to Eli, and said, "Here I am; for you called me."

He said, "I didn't call. Lie down again."

He went and lay down. <sup>6</sup> Yahweh called yet again, "Samuel!"

Samuel arose and went to Eli, and said, "Here I am; for you called me."

He answered, "I didn't call, my son. Lie down again." <sup>7</sup> Now Samuel didn't yet know Yahweh, neither was Yahweh's word yet revealed to him. <sup>8</sup> Yahweh called Samuel again the third time. He arose and went to Eli, and said, "Here I am; for you called me."

Eli perceived that Yahweh had called the child. <sup>9</sup> Therefore Eli said to Samuel, "Go, lie down. It shall be, if he calls you, that you shall say, 'Speak, Yahweh; for your servant hears.'" So Samuel went and lay down in his place. <sup>10</sup> Yahweh came, and stood, and called as at other times, "Samuel! Samuel!"

Then Samuel said, "Speak; for your servant hears."

<sup>11</sup> Yahweh said to Samuel, "Behold, I will do a thing in Israel, at which both the ears of everyone who hears it will tingle. <sup>12</sup> In that day I will perform against Eli all that I have spoken concerning his house, from the beginning even to the end. <sup>13</sup> For I have told him that I will judge his house forever, for the iniquity which he knew, because his sons brought a curse on themselves, and he didn't restrain them. <sup>14</sup> Therefore I have sworn to the house of Eli, that the iniquity of Eli's house shall not be removed with sacrifice or offering forever."

<sup>15</sup> Samuel lay until the morning, and opened the doors of Yahweh's house. Samuel feared to show Eli the vision. <sup>16</sup> Then Eli called Samuel, and said, "Samuel, my son!"

He said, "Here I am."

<sup>17</sup> He said, "What is the thing that he has spoken to you? Please don't hide it from me. God do so to you, and more also, if you hide anything from me of all the things that he spoke to you.”

<sup>i</sup> or, blind your eyes with tears

<sup>18</sup> Samuel told him every bit, and hid nothing from him.

He said, “It is Yahweh. Let him do what seems good to him.”

<sup>19</sup> Samuel grew, and Yahweh was with him, and let none of his words fall to the ground. <sup>20</sup> All Israel from Dan even to Beersheba knew that Samuel was established to be a prophet of Yahweh. <sup>21</sup> Yahweh appeared again in Shiloh; for Yahweh revealed himself to Samuel in Shiloh by Yahweh’s word.

4

<sup>1</sup> The word of Samuel came to all Israel. Now Israel went out against the Philistines to battle, and encamped beside Ebenezer; and the Philistines encamped in Aphek. <sup>2</sup> The Philistines put themselves in array against Israel. When they joined battle, Israel was defeated by the Philistines, who killed about four thousand men of the army in the field. <sup>3</sup> When the people had come into the camp, the elders of Israel said, “Why has Yahweh defeated us today before the Philistines? Let us get the ark of Yahweh’s covenant out of Shiloh and bring it to us, that it may come among us, and save us out of the hand of our enemies.”

<sup>4</sup> So the people sent to Shiloh; and they brought from there the ark of the covenant of Yahweh of Armies, who sits above the cherubim: and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God. <sup>5</sup> When the ark of Yahweh’s covenant came into the camp, all Israel shouted with a great shout, so that the earth rang again. <sup>6</sup> When the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they said, “What does the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews mean?” They understood that Yahweh’s ark had come into the camp. <sup>7</sup> The Philistines were afraid, for they said, “God has come into the camp.” They said, “Woe to us! For there has not been such a thing before. <sup>8</sup> Woe to us! Who shall deliver us out of the hand of these mighty gods? These are the gods that struck the Egyptians with all kinds of plagues in the wilderness. <sup>9</sup> Be strong, and behave like men, O you Philistines, that you not be servants to the Hebrews, as they have been to you. Strengthen yourselves like men, and fight!”

<sup>10</sup> The Philistines fought, and Israel was defeated, and each man fled to his tent. There was a very great slaughter; for thirty thousand footmen of Israel fell. <sup>11</sup> God’s ark was taken; and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were slain. <sup>12</sup> A man of Benjamin ran out of the army, and came to Shiloh the same day, with his clothes torn, and with dirt on his head. <sup>13</sup> When he came, behold, Eli was sitting on his seat by the road watching; for his heart trembled for God’s ark. When the man came into the city and told about it, all the city cried out. <sup>14</sup> When Eli heard the noise of the crying, he said, “What does the noise of this tumult mean?”

The man hurried, and came and told Eli. <sup>15</sup> Now Eli was ninety-eight years old. His eyes were set, so that he could not see. <sup>16</sup> The man said to Eli, “I am he who came out of the army, and I fled today out of the army.”

He said, “How did the matter go, my son?”

<sup>17</sup> He who brought the news answered, "Israel has fled before the Philistines, and there has been also a great slaughter among the people. Your two sons also, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead, and God's ark has been captured."

<sup>18</sup> When he made mention of God's ark, Eli fell from off his seat backward by the side of the gate; and his neck broke, and he died; for he was an old man, and heavy. He had judged Israel forty years.

<sup>19</sup> His daughter-in-law, Phinehas' wife, was with child, near to be delivered. When she heard the news that God's ark was taken, and that her father-in-law and her husband were dead, she bowed herself and gave birth; for her pains came on her. <sup>20</sup> About the time of her death the women who stood by her said to her, "Don't be afraid; for you have given birth to a son." But she didn't answer, neither did she regard it. <sup>21</sup> She named the child Ichabod,<sup>j</sup> saying, "The glory has departed from Israel"; because God's ark was taken, and because of her father-in-law and her husband. <sup>22</sup> She said, "The glory has departed from Israel; for God's ark has been taken."

5

<sup>1</sup> Now the Philistines had taken God's ark, and they brought it from Ebenezer to Ashdod. <sup>2</sup> The Philistines took God's ark, and brought it into the house of Dagon, and set it by Dagon. <sup>3</sup> When the people of Ashdod arose early on the next day, behold, Dagon had fallen on his face to the ground before Yahweh's ark. They took Dagon, and set him in his place again. <sup>4</sup> When they arose early on the following morning, behold, Dagon had fallen on his face to the ground before Yahweh's ark; and the head of Dagon and both the palms of his hands were cut off on the threshold. Only Dagon's torso was intact. <sup>5</sup> Therefore neither the priests of Dagon, nor any who come into Dagon's house, step on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod, to this day. <sup>6</sup> But Yahweh's hand was heavy on the people of Ashdod, and he destroyed them, and struck them with tumors, even Ashdod and its borders.

<sup>7</sup> When the men of Ashdod saw that it was so, they said, "The ark of the God of Israel shall not stay with us; for his hand is severe on us, and on Dagon our god." <sup>8</sup> They sent therefore and gathered together all the lords of the Philistines, and said, "What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel?"

They answered, "Let the ark of the God of Israel be carried over to Gath." They carried the ark of the God of Israel there. <sup>9</sup> It was so, that after they had carried it there, Yahweh's hand was against the city with a very great confusion; and he struck the men of the city, both small and great so that tumors broke out on them. <sup>10</sup> So they sent God's ark to Ekron.

As God's ark came to Ekron, the Ekronites cried out, saying, "They have brought about the ark of the God of Israel to us, to kill us and our people." <sup>11</sup> They sent therefore and gathered together all the lords of the Philistines, and they said, "Send the ark of the God of Israel away, and let it go again to its own place, that it not kill us and our people." For there was a deadly confusion throughout all the city. The hand of God was very heavy there. <sup>12</sup>

The men who didn't die were struck with the tumors; and the cry of the city went up to heaven.

6

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh's ark was in the country of the Philistines seven months. <sup>2</sup> The Philistines called for the priests and the diviners, saying, "What shall we do with Yahweh's ark? Show us how we should send it to its place."

<sup>3</sup> They said, "If you send away the ark of the God of Israel, don't send it empty; but by all means return a trespass offering to him. Then you will be healed, and it will be known to you why his hand is not removed from you."

<sup>4</sup> Then they said, "What should the trespass offering be which we shall return to him?"

They said, "Five golden tumors, and five golden mice, for the number of the lords of the Philistines; for one plague was on you all, and on your lords. <sup>5</sup> Therefore you shall make images of your tumors, and images of your mice that mar the land; and you shall give glory to the God of Israel. Perhaps he will release his hand from you, from your gods, and from your land. <sup>6</sup> Why then do you harden your hearts, as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? When he had worked wonderfully among them, didn't they let the people go, and they departed?"

<sup>7</sup> "Now therefore take and prepare yourselves a new cart, and two milk cows, on which there has come no yoke; and tie the cows to the cart, and bring their calves home from them; <sup>8</sup> and take Yahweh's ark, and lay it on the cart. Put the jewels of gold, which you return him for a trespass offering, in a coffer by its side; and send it away, that it may go. <sup>9</sup> Behold; if it goes up by the way of its own border to Beth Shemesh, then he has done us this great evil; but if not, then we shall know that it is not his hand that struck us. It was a chance that happened to us."

<sup>10</sup> The men did so, and took two milk cows, and tied them to the cart, and shut up their calves at home. <sup>11</sup> They put Yahweh's ark on the cart, and the coffer with the golden mice and the images of their tumors. <sup>12</sup> The cows took the straight way by the way to Beth Shemesh. They went along the highway, lowing as they went, and didn't turn aside to the right hand or to the left; and the lords of the Philistines went after them to the border of Beth Shemesh. <sup>13</sup> The people of Beth Shemesh were reaping their wheat harvest in the valley; and they lifted up their eyes, and saw the ark, and rejoiced to see it. <sup>14</sup> The cart came into the field of Joshua of Beth Shemesh, and stood there, where there was a great stone. Then they split the wood of the cart, and offered up the cows for a burnt offering to Yahweh. <sup>15</sup> The Levites took down Yahweh's ark, and the coffer that was with it, in which the jewels of gold were, and put them on the great stone; and the men of Beth Shemesh offered burnt offerings and sacrificed sacrifices the same day to Yahweh. <sup>16</sup> When the five lords of the Philistines had seen it, they returned to Ekron the same day. <sup>17</sup> These are the golden tumors which the Philistines returned for a trespass offering to Yahweh: for Ashdod one, for Gaza one, for Ashkelon one, for Gath one, for Ekron one; <sup>18</sup> and the golden mice, according to the number of all the cities of the Philistines belonging to the five lords, both of fortified cities and of country villages, even to the great stone, on which they set down Yahweh's ark. That stone remains to this day in the field of Joshua of Beth Shemesh. <sup>19</sup> He struck of the men of Beth Shemesh, because they had looked into Yahweh's ark, he struck fifty thousand seventy of the men. Then the people mourned, because Yahweh had struck the people with a great slaughter. <sup>20</sup> The men of Beth Shemesh said, "Who is able to stand before Yahweh, this holy God? To whom shall he go up from us?"

<sup>21</sup> They sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kiriath Jearim, saying, "The Philistines have brought back Yahweh's ark. Come down, and bring it up to yourselves."

7

<sup>1</sup> The men of Kiriath Jearim came, and took Yahweh's ark, and brought it into Abinadab's house on the hill, and consecrated Eleazar his son to keep Yahweh's ark. <sup>2</sup> From the day that the ark stayed in Kiriath Jearim, the time was long; for it was twenty years; and all the house of Israel lamented after Yahweh. <sup>3</sup> Samuel spoke to all the house of Israel, saying, "If you are returning to Yahweh with all your heart, then put away the foreign gods and the Ashtaroth from among you, and direct your hearts to Yahweh, and serve him only; and he will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines." <sup>4</sup> Then the children of Israel removed the Baals and the Ashtaroth, and served Yahweh only. <sup>5</sup> Samuel said, "Gather all Israel to Mizpah, and I will pray to Yahweh for you." <sup>6</sup> They gathered together to Mizpah, and drew water, and poured it out before Yahweh, and fasted on that day, and said there, "We have sinned against Yahweh." Samuel judged the children of Israel in Mizpah. <sup>7</sup> When the Philistines heard that the children of Israel were gathered together at Mizpah, the lords of the Philistines went up against Israel. When the children of Israel heard it, they were afraid of the Philistines. <sup>8</sup> The children of Israel said to Samuel, "Don't stop crying to Yahweh our God for us, that he will save us out of the hand of the Philistines." <sup>9</sup> Samuel took a suckling lamb, and offered it for a whole burnt offering to Yahweh. Samuel cried to Yahweh for Israel; and Yahweh answered him. <sup>10</sup> As Samuel was offering up the burnt offering, the Philistines came near to battle against Israel; but Yahweh thundered with a great thunder on that day on the Philistines, and confused them; and they were struck down before Israel. <sup>11</sup> The men of Israel went out of Mizpah, and pursued the Philistines, and struck them, until they came under Beth Kar.

<sup>12</sup> Then Samuel took a stone, and set it between Mizpah and Shen, and called its name Ebenezer,<sup>k</sup> saying, "Yahweh helped us until now." <sup>13</sup> So the Philistines were subdued, and they stopped coming within the border of Israel. Yahweh's hand was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel.

<sup>14</sup> The cities which the Philistines had taken from Israel were restored to Israel, from Ekron even to Gath; and Israel recovered its border out of the hand of the

Philistines. There was peace between Israel and the Amorites.

<sup>15</sup> Samuel judged Israel all the days of his life. <sup>16</sup> He went from year to year in a circuit to Bethel, Gilgal, and Mizpah; and he judged Israel in all those places. <sup>17</sup> His return was to Ramah, for his house was there; and he judged Israel there; and he built an altar to Yahweh there.

8

Samuel prayed to Yahweh. <sup>7</sup> Yahweh said to Samuel, "Listen to the voice of the people in all that they tell you; for they have not rejected you, but they have rejected me as the king over them. <sup>8</sup> According to all the works which they have done since the day that I brought them up out of Egypt even to this day, in that they have forsaken me, and served other gods, so they also do to you. <sup>9</sup> Now therefore listen to their voice. However you shall protest solemnly to them, and shall show them the way of the king who will reign over them."

<sup>10</sup> Samuel told all Yahweh's words to the people who asked him for a king. <sup>11</sup> He said, "This will be the way of the king who shall reign over you: he will take your sons, and appoint them as his servants, for his chariots, and to be his horsemen; and they will run before his chariots. <sup>12</sup> He will appoint them to him for captains of thousands, and captains of fifties; and he will assign some to plow his ground, and to reap his harvest, and to make his instruments of war, and the instruments of his chariots. <sup>13</sup> He will take your daughters to be perfumers, to be cooks, and to be bakers. <sup>14</sup> He will take your fields, your vineyards, and your olive groves, even their best, and give them to his servants. <sup>15</sup> He will take one tenth of your seed, and of your vineyards, and give it to his officers, and to his servants. <sup>16</sup> He will take your male servants, your female servants, your best young men, and your donkeys, and assign them to his own work. <sup>17</sup> He will take one tenth of your flocks; and you will be his servants. <sup>18</sup> You will cry out in that day because of your king whom you will have chosen for yourselves; and Yahweh will not answer you in that day."

<sup>19</sup> But the people refused to listen to the voice of Samuel; and they said, "No; but we will have a king over us, <sup>20</sup> that we also may be like all the nations, and that our king may judge us, and go out before us, and fight our battles."

<sup>21</sup> Samuel heard all the words of the people, and he rehearsed them in the ears of Yahweh. <sup>22</sup> Yahweh said to Samuel, "Listen to their voice, and make them a king."

Samuel said to the men of Israel, "Everyone go to your own city."

9

<sup>1</sup> Now there was a man of Benjamin, whose name was Kish, the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Becorath, the son of Aphiah, the son of a Benjamite, a mighty man of valor. <sup>2</sup> He had a son, whose name was Saul, an impressive young man; and there was not among the children of Israel a better person than he. From his shoulders and upward he was taller than any of the people.

<sup>3</sup> The donkeys of Kish, Saul's father, were lost. Kish said to Saul his son, "Take now one of the servants with you, and arise, go look for the donkeys." <sup>4</sup> He passed through the hill country of Ephraim, and passed through the land of Shalishah, but they didn't find them. Then they passed through the land of Shaalim, and there they weren't there. Then he passed through the land of the Benjamites, but they didn't find them.

<sup>5</sup> When they had come to the land of Zuph, Saul said to his servant who was with him, "Come, and let us return, lest my father stop caring about the donkeys, and be anxious for us."

<sup>6</sup> The servant said to him, "Behold now, there is in this city a man of God, and he is a man who is held in honor. All that he says surely happens. Now let us go there. Perhaps he can tell us which way to go."

<sup>7</sup> Then Saul said to his servant, "But, behold, if we go, what should we bring the man? For the bread is spent in our sacks, and there is not a present to bring to the man of God. What do we have?"

<sup>8</sup> The servant answered Saul again, and said, "Behold, I have in my hand the fourth part of a shekel<sup>1</sup> of silver. I will give that to the man of God, to tell us our way." <sup>9</sup> (In earlier times in Israel, when a man went to inquire of God, he said, "Come, and let us go to the seer"; for he who is now called a prophet was before called a seer.)

<sup>10</sup> Then Saul said to his servant, "Well said. Come, let us go." So they went to the city where the man of God was. <sup>11</sup> As they went up the ascent to the city, they found young maidens going out to draw water, and said to them, "Is the seer here?"

<sup>12</sup> They answered them, and said, "He is. Behold, he is before you. Hurry now, for he has come today into the city; for the people have a sacrifice today in the high place. <sup>13</sup> As soon as you have come into the city, you will immediately find him, before he goes up to the high place to eat; for the people will not eat until he come, because he blesses the sacrifice. Afterwards those who are invited eat. Now therefore go up; for at this time you will find him."

<sup>14</sup> They went up to the city. As they came within the city, behold, Samuel came out toward them, to go up to the high place.

<sup>15</sup> Now Yahweh had revealed to Samuel a day before Saul came, saying, <sup>16</sup> "Tomorrow about this time I will send you a man out of the land of Benjamin, and you shall anoint him to be prince over my people Israel. He will save my people out of the hand of the Philistines; for I have looked upon my people, because their cry has come to me."

<sup>17</sup> When Samuel saw Saul, Yahweh said to him, "Behold, the man of whom I spoke to you! He will have authority over my people.”

<sup>18</sup> Then Saul approached Samuel in the gateway, and said, “Please tell me where the seer’s house is.”

<sup>19</sup> Samuel answered Saul, and said, “I am the seer. Go up before me to the high place, for you are to eat with me today. In the morning I will let you go, and will tell you all that is in your heart. <sup>20</sup> As for your donkeys who were lost three days ago, don’t set your mind on them; for they have been found. For whom is all that is desirable in Israel? Is it not for you, and for all your father’s house?”

<sup>21</sup> Saul answered, “Am I not a Benjamite, of the smallest of the tribes of Israel? And my family the least of all the families of the tribe of Benjamin? Why then do you speak to me like this?”

<sup>22</sup> Samuel took Saul and his servant, and brought them into the guest room, and made them sit in the best place among those who were invited, who were about thirty persons. <sup>23</sup> Samuel said to the cook, “Bring the portion which I gave you, of which I said to you, ‘Set it aside.’” <sup>24</sup> The cook took up the thigh, and that which was on it, and set it before Saul. Samuel said, “Behold, that which has been reserved! Set it before yourself and eat; because for the appointed time has it been kept for you, for I said, ‘I have invited the people.’” So Saul ate with Samuel that day.

<sup>25</sup> When they had come down from the high place into the city, he talked with Saul on the housetop. <sup>26</sup> They arose early; and about daybreak, Samuel called to Saul on the housetop, saying, “Get up, that I may send you away.” Saul arose, and they both went outside, he and Samuel, together. <sup>27</sup> As they were going down at the end of the city, Samuel said to Saul, “Tell the servant to go on ahead of us.” He went ahead, then Samuel said, “But stand still first, that I may cause you to hear God’s message.”

10

<sup>1</sup> Then Samuel took the vial of oil, and poured it on his head, and kissed him, and said, “Hasn’t Yahweh anointed you to be prince over his inheritance? <sup>2</sup> When you have departed from me today, then you will find two men by Rachel’s tomb, on the border of Benjamin at Zelzah. They will tell you, ‘The donkeys which you went to look for have been found; and behold, your father has stopped caring about the donkeys, and is anxious for you, saying, ‘What shall I do for my son?’”

<sup>3</sup> “Then you will go on forward from there, and you will come to the oak of Tabor. Three men will meet you there going up to God to Bethel, one carrying three young goats, and another carrying three loaves of bread, and another carrying a bottle of wine. <sup>4</sup> They will greet you, and give you two loaves of bread, which you shall receive from their hand.

<sup>5</sup> “After that you will come to the hill of God, where the garrison of the Philistines is; and it will happen, when you have come there to the city, that you will meet a band of prophets coming down from the high place with a lute, a tambourine, a pipe, and a harp before them; and they will be prophesying. <sup>6</sup> Then Yahweh’s Spirit will come mightily on you, and you will prophesy with them, and will be turned into another man. <sup>7</sup> Let it be, when these signs have come to you, that you do what is appropriate for the occasion; for God is with you.

<sup>8</sup> “Go down ahead of me to Gilgal; and behold, I will come down to you, to offer burnt offerings, and to sacrifice sacrifices of peace offerings. Wait seven days, until I come to you, and show you what you are to do.” <sup>9</sup> It was so, that when he had turned his back to go from Samuel, God gave him another heart; and all those signs happened that day. <sup>10</sup> When they came there to the hill, behold, a band of prophets met him; and the Spirit of God came mightily on him, and he prophesied among them. <sup>11</sup> When all who knew him before saw that, behold, he prophesied with the prophets, then the people said to one another, “What is this that has come to the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets?”

<sup>12</sup> One of the same place answered, “Who is their father?” Therefore it became a proverb, “Is Saul also among the prophets?” <sup>13</sup> When he had finished prophesying, he came to the high place.

<sup>14</sup> Saul’s uncle said to him and to his servant, “Where did you go?”

He said, “To seek the donkeys. When we saw that they were not found, we came to Samuel.”

<sup>15</sup> Saul’s uncle said, “Please tell me what Samuel said to you.”

<sup>16</sup> Saul said to his uncle, “He told us plainly that the donkeys were found.” But concerning the matter of the kingdom, of which Samuel spoke, he didn’t tell him.

<sup>17</sup> Samuel called the people together to Yahweh to Mizpah; <sup>18</sup> and he said to the children of Israel, “Yahweh, the God of Israel, says ‘I brought Israel up out of Egypt, and I delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all the kingdoms that oppressed you.’ <sup>19</sup> But you have today rejected your God, who himself saves you out of all your calamities and your distresses; and you have said to him, ‘No! Set a king over us.’ Now therefore present yourselves before Yahweh by your tribes, and by your thousands.”

<sup>20</sup> So Samuel brought all the tribes of Israel near, and the tribe of Benjamin was chosen. <sup>21</sup> He brought the tribe of Benjamin near by their families; and the family of the Matrites was chosen. Then Saul the son of Kish was chosen; but when they looked for him, he could not be found. <sup>22</sup> Therefore they asked of Yahweh further, “Is there yet a man to come here?”

Yahweh answered, “Behold, he has hidden himself among the baggage.”

<sup>23</sup> They ran and got him there. When he stood among the people, he was higher than any of the people from his shoulders and upward. <sup>24</sup> Samuel said to all the people, “Do you see him whom Yahweh has chosen, that there is no one like him among all the people?”

All the people shouted, and said, “Long live the king!”

<sup>25</sup> Then Samuel told the people the regulations of the kingdom, and wrote it in a book, and laid it up before Yahweh. Samuel sent all the people away, every man to his house. <sup>26</sup> Saul also went to his house to Gibeah; and the army went with him, whose hearts God had touched. <sup>27</sup> But certain worthless fellows said, “How could this man save us?” They despised him, and brought him no present. But he held his peace.

11

<sup>1</sup> Then Nahash the Ammonite came up, and encamped against Jabesh Gilead: and all the men of Jabesh said to Nahash, "Make a covenant with us, and we will serve you." <sup>2</sup> Nahash the Ammonite said to them, "On this condition I will make it with you, that all your right eyes be gouged out. I will make this dishonor all Israel."

<sup>3</sup> The elders of Jabesh said to him, "Give us seven days, that we may send messengers to all the borders of Israel; and then, if there is no one to save us, we will come out to you." <sup>4</sup> Then the messengers came to Gibeah of Saul, and spoke these words in the ears of the people, then all the people lifted up their voice, and wept.

<sup>5</sup> Behold, Saul came following the oxen out of the field; and Saul said, "What ails the people that they weep?" They told him the words of the men of Jabesh. <sup>6</sup> God's Spirit came mightily on Saul when he heard those words, and his anger burned hot. <sup>7</sup> He took a yoke of oxen, and cut them in pieces, and sent them throughout all the borders of Israel by the hand of messengers, saying, "Whoever doesn't come out after Saul and after Samuel, so shall it be done to his oxen." The dread of Yahweh fell on the people, and they came out as one man. <sup>8</sup> He numbered them in Bezek; and the children of Israel were three hundred thousand, and the men of Judah thirty thousand. <sup>9</sup> They said to the messengers who came, "Tell the men of Jabesh Gilead, 'Tomorrow, by the time the sun is hot, you will be rescued.'" The messengers came and told the men of Jabesh; and they were glad. <sup>10</sup> Therefore the men of Jabesh said, "Tomorrow we will come out to you, and you shall do with us all that seems good to you." <sup>11</sup> On the next day, Saul put the people in three companies; and they came into the middle of the camp in the morning watch, and struck the Ammonites until the heat of the day. Those who remained were scattered, so that no two of them were left together. <sup>12</sup> The people said to Samuel, "Who is he who said, 'Shall Saul reign over us?' Bring those men, that we may put them to death!"

<sup>13</sup> Saul said, "No man shall be put to death today; for today Yahweh has rescued Israel." <sup>14</sup> Then Samuel said to the people, "Come, and let us go to Gilgal, and renew the kingdom there." <sup>15</sup> All the people went to Gilgal; and there they made Saul king before Yahweh in Gilgal. There they offered sacrifices of peace offerings before Yahweh; and there Saul and all the men of Israel rejoiced greatly.

12

<sup>1</sup> Samuel said to all Israel, "Behold, I have listened to your voice in all that you said to me, and have made a king over you. <sup>2</sup> Now, behold, the king walks before you. I am old and gray-headed. Behold, my sons are with you. I have walked before you from my youth to this day. <sup>3</sup> Here I am. Witness against me before Yahweh, and before his anointed. Whose ox have I taken? Whose donkey have I taken? Whom have I defrauded? Whom have I oppressed? Of whose hand have I taken a ransom to make me blind my eyes? I will restore it to you."

<sup>4</sup> They said, "You have not defrauded us, nor oppressed us, neither have you taken anything from anyone's hand."

<sup>5</sup> He said to them, "Yahweh is witness against you, and his anointed is witness today, that you have not found anything in my hand."

They said, "He is witness."<sup>6</sup> Samuel said to the people, "It is Yahweh who appointed Moses and Aaron, and that brought your fathers up out of the land of Egypt.<sup>7</sup> Now therefore stand still, that I may plead with you before Yahweh concerning all the righteous acts of Yahweh, which he did to you and to your fathers.

<sup>8</sup> "When Jacob had come into Egypt, and your fathers cried to Yahweh, then Yahweh sent Moses and Aaron, who brought your fathers out of Egypt, and made them to dwell in this place.

<sup>9</sup> "But they forgot Yahweh their God; and he sold them into the hand of Sisera, captain of the army of Hazor, and into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the king of Moab; and they fought against them.<sup>10</sup> They cried to Yahweh, and said, 'We have sinned, because we have forsaken Yahweh, and have served the Baals and the Ashtaroth: but now deliver us out of the hand of our enemies, and we will serve you.'<sup>11</sup> Yahweh sent Jerubbaal, Bedan, Jephthah, and Samuel, and delivered you out of the hand of your enemies on every side; and you lived in safety.

<sup>12</sup> "When you saw that Nahash the king of the children of Ammon came against you, you said to me, 'No, but a king shall reign over us;' when Yahweh your God was your king.<sup>13</sup> Now therefore see the king whom you have chosen, and whom you have asked for. Behold, Yahweh has set a king over you.<sup>14</sup> If you will fear Yahweh, and serve him, and listen to his voice, and not rebel against the commandment of Yahweh, then both you and also the king who reigns over you are followers of Yahweh your God.<sup>15</sup> But if you will not listen to Yahweh's voice, but rebel against the commandment of Yahweh, then Yahweh's hand will be against you, as it was against your fathers.

<sup>16</sup> "Now therefore stand still and see this great thing, which Yahweh will do before your eyes.<sup>17</sup> Isn't it wheat harvest today? I will call to Yahweh, that he may send thunder and rain; and you will know and see that your wickedness is great, which you have done in Yahweh's sight, in asking for a king."

<sup>18</sup> So Samuel called to Yahweh; and Yahweh sent thunder and rain that day. Then all the people greatly feared Yahweh and Samuel.

<sup>19</sup> All the people said to Samuel, "Pray for your servants to Yahweh your God, that we not die; for we have added to all our sins this evil, to ask for a king."

<sup>20</sup> Samuel said to the people, "Don't be afraid. You have indeed done all this evil; yet don't turn aside from following Yahweh, but serve Yahweh with all your heart.<sup>21</sup> Don't turn aside to go after vain things which can't profit or deliver, for they are vain.<sup>22</sup> For Yahweh will not forsake his people for his great name's sake, because it has pleased Yahweh to make you a people for himself.<sup>23</sup> Moreover as for me, far be it from me that I should sin against Yahweh in ceasing to pray for you: but I will instruct you in the good and the right way.<sup>24</sup> Only fear Yahweh, and serve him in truth with all your heart; for consider what great things he has done for you. <sup>25</sup> But if you keep doing evil, you will be consumed, both you and your king.”

13

<sup>1</sup> Saul was thirty years old when he became king, and he reigned over Israel forty-two years.<sup>m</sup> <sup>2</sup> Saul chose for himself three thousand men of Israel, of which two thousand were with Saul in Michmash and in the Mount of Bethel, and one thousand were with Jonathan in Gibeah of Benjamin. He sent the rest of the people to their own tents. <sup>3</sup> Jonathan struck the garrison of the Philistines that was in Geba: and the Philistines heard of it. Saul blew the trumpet throughout all the land, saying, “Let the Hebrews hear!” <sup>4</sup> All Israel heard that Saul had struck the garrison of the Philistines, and also that Israel was had in abomination with the Philistines. The people were gathered together after Saul to Gilgal. <sup>5</sup> The Philistines assembled themselves together to fight with Israel, thirty thousand chariots, and six thousand horsemen, and people as the sand which is on the seashore in multitude. They came up and encamped in Michmash, eastward of Beth Aven. <sup>6</sup> When the men of Israel saw that they were in trouble (for the people were distressed), then the people hid themselves in caves, in thickets, in rocks, in tombs, and in pits. <sup>7</sup> Now some of the Hebrews had gone over the Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead; but as for Saul, he was yet in Gilgal, and all the people followed him trembling. <sup>8</sup> He stayed seven days, according to the time set by Samuel; but Samuel didn’t come to Gilgal, and the people were scattering from him. <sup>9</sup> Saul said, “Bring the burnt offering to me here, and the peace offerings.” He offered the burnt offering.

<sup>10</sup> It came to pass that as soon as he had finished offering the burnt offering, behold, Samuel came; and Saul went out to meet him, that he might greet him. <sup>11</sup> Samuel said, “What have you done?”

Saul said, “Because I saw that the people were scattered from me, and that you didn’t come within the days appointed, and that the Philistines assembled themselves together at Michmash; <sup>12</sup> therefore I said, ‘Now the Philistines will come down on me to Gilgal, and I haven’t entreated the favor of Yahweh.’ I forced myself therefore, and offered the burnt offering.”

<sup>13</sup> Samuel said to Saul, “You have done foolishly. You have not kept the commandment of Yahweh your God, which he commanded you; for now Yahweh would have established your kingdom on Israel forever. <sup>14</sup> But now your kingdom will not continue. Yahweh has sought for himself a man after his own heart, and Yahweh has appointed him to be prince over his people, because you have not kept that which Yahweh commanded you.”

<sup>15</sup> Samuel arose, and went from Gilgal to Gibeah of Benjamin. Saul numbered the people who were present with him, about six hundred men. <sup>16</sup> Saul, and Jonathan his son, and the people who were present with them, stayed in Geba of Benjamin; but the Philistines encamped in Michmash. <sup>17</sup> The raiders came out of the camp of the Philistines in three companies: one company turned to the way that leads to Ophrah, to the land of Shual; <sup>18</sup> another company turned the way to Beth Horon; and another company turned the way of the border that looks down on the valley of Zeboim toward the wilderness. <sup>19</sup> Now there was no blacksmith found throughout all the land of Israel; for the Philistines said, "Lest the Hebrews make themselves swords or spears"; <sup>20</sup> but all the Israelites went down to the Philistines, each man to sharpen his own plowshare, mattock, ax, and sickle. <sup>21</sup> The price was one payim<sup>n</sup> each to sharpen mattocks, plowshares, pitchforks, axes, and goads. <sup>22</sup> So it came to pass in the day of battle, that neither sword nor spear was found in the hand of any of the people who were with Saul and Jonathan; but Saul and Jonathan his son had them. <sup>23</sup> The garrison of the Philistines went out to the pass of Michmash.

14

<sup>1</sup> Now it fell on a day, that Jonathan the son of Saul said to the young man who bore his armor, "Come, and let us go over to the Philistines' garrison, that is on the other side." But he didn't tell his father. <sup>2</sup> Saul stayed in the uttermost part of Gibeah under the pomegranate tree which is in Migron: and the people who were with him were about six hundred men; <sup>3</sup> including Ahijah, the son of Ahitub, Ichabod's brother, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eli, the priest of Yahweh in Shiloh, wearing an ephod. The people didn't know that Jonathan was gone. <sup>4</sup> Between the passes, by which Jonathan sought to go over to the Philistines' garrison, there was a rocky crag on the one side, and a rocky crag on the other side: and the name of the one was Bozez, and the name of the other Seneh. <sup>5</sup>

The one crag rose up on the north in front of Michmash, and the other on the south in front of Geba. <sup>6</sup> Jonathan said to the young man who bore his armor, "Come, let us go over to the garrison of these uncircumcised. It may be that Yahweh will work for us; for there is no restraint on Yahweh to save by many or by few." <sup>7</sup> His armor bearer said to him, "Do all that is in your heart. Turn and, behold, I am with you according to your heart." <sup>8</sup> Then Jonathan said, "Behold, we will pass over to the men, and we will reveal ourselves to them. <sup>9</sup> If they say thus to us, 'Wait until we come to you!' then we will stand still in our place, and will not go up to them. <sup>10</sup> But if they say this, 'Come up to us!' then we will go up; for Yahweh has delivered them into our hand. This shall be the sign to us."

<sup>11</sup> Both of them revealed themselves to the garrison of the Philistines: and the Philistines said, "Behold, the Hebrews are coming out of the holes where they had hidden themselves!" <sup>12</sup> The men of the garrison answered Jonathan and his armor bearer, and said, "Come up to us, and we will show you something!"

Jonathan said to his armor bearer, "Come up after me; for Yahweh has delivered them into the hand of Israel." <sup>13</sup> Jonathan climbed up on his hands and on his feet, and his armor bearer after him: and they fell before Jonathan; and his armor bearer killed them after him. <sup>14</sup> That first slaughter, which Jonathan and his armor bearer made, was about twenty men, within as it were half a furrow's length in an acre of land. <sup>15</sup> There was a trembling in the camp, in the field, and among all the people; the garrison, and the raiders, also trembled; and the earth quaked, so there was an exceedingly great trembling. <sup>16</sup> The watchmen of Saul in Gibeah of Benjamin looked; and behold, the multitude melted away and scattered. <sup>17</sup> Then Saul said to the people who were with him, "Count now, and see who is missing from us." When they had counted, behold, Jonathan and his armor bearer were not there.

<sup>18</sup> Saul said to Ahijah, "Bring God's ark here." For God's ark was with the children of Israel at that time. <sup>19</sup> While Saul talked to the priest, the tumult that was in the camp of the Philistines went on and increased; and Saul said to the priest, "Withdraw your hand!"

<sup>20</sup> Saul and all the people who were with him were gathered together, and came to the battle; and behold, they were all striking each other with their swords in very great confusion. <sup>21</sup> Now the Hebrews who were with the Philistines before, and who went up with them into the camp, from all around, even they also turned to be with the Israelites who were with Saul and Jonathan. <sup>22</sup> Likewise all the men of Israel who had hidden themselves in the hill country of Ephraim, when they heard that the Philistines fled, even they also followed hard after them in the battle. <sup>23</sup> So Yahweh saved Israel that day; and the battle passed over by Beth Aven.

<sup>24</sup> The men of Israel were distressed that day; for Saul had adjured the people, saying, "Cursed is the man who eats any food until it is evening, and I am avenged of my enemies." So none of the people tasted food.

<sup>25</sup> All the people came into the forest; and there was honey on the ground. <sup>26</sup> When the people had come to the forest, behold, honey was dripping, but no one put his hand to his mouth; for the people feared the oath. <sup>27</sup> But Jonathan didn't hear when his father commanded the people with the oath. Therefore he put out the end of the rod who was in his hand, and dipped it in the honeycomb, and put his hand to his mouth; and his eyes brightened. <sup>28</sup> Then one of the people answered, and said, "Your father directly commanded the people with an oath, saying, 'Cursed is the man who eats food today.'" The people were faint.

<sup>29</sup> Then Jonathan said, "My father has troubled the land. Please look how my eyes have brightened, because I tasted a little of this honey. <sup>30</sup> How much more, if perhaps the people had eaten freely today of the plunder of their enemies which they found? For now has there been no great slaughter among the Philistines." <sup>31</sup> They struck the Philistines that day from Michmash to Aijalon. The people were very faint; <sup>32</sup> and the people pounced on the plunder, and took sheep, cattle, and calves, and killed them on the ground; and the people ate them with the blood. <sup>33</sup> Then they told Saul, saying, "Behold, the people are sinning against Yahweh, in that they eat meat with the blood."

He said, "You have dealt treacherously. Roll a large stone to me today!" <sup>34</sup> Saul said, "Disperse yourselves among the people, and tell them, 'Every man bring me here his ox, and every man his sheep, and kill them here, and eat; and don't sin against Yahweh in eating meat with the blood.'" All the people brought every man his ox with him that night, and killed them there.

<sup>35</sup> Saul built an altar to Yahweh. This was the first altar that he built to Yahweh. <sup>36</sup> Saul said, "Let us go down after the Philistines by night, and take plunder among them until the morning light, and let us not leave a man of them."

They said, "Do whatever seems good to you."

Then the priest said, "Let us draw near here to God."

<sup>37</sup> Saul asked counsel of God, "Shall I go down after the Philistines? Will you deliver them into the hand of Israel?" But he didn't answer him that day. <sup>38</sup> Saul said, "Draw near here, all you chiefs of the people; and know and see in which this sin has been today. <sup>39</sup> For, as Yahweh lives, who saves Israel, though it is in Jonathan my son, he shall surely die." But there was not a man among all the people who answered him. <sup>40</sup> Then he said to all Israel, "You be on one side, and I and Jonathan my son will be on the other side."

The people said to Saul, "Do what seems good to you."

<sup>41</sup> Therefore Saul said to Yahweh, the God of Israel, "Show the right."

Jonathan and Saul were chosen, but the people escaped.

<sup>42</sup> Saul said, "Cast lots between me and Jonathan my son."

Jonathan was selected.

<sup>43</sup> Then Saul said to Jonathan, "Tell me what you have done!"

Jonathan told him, and said, "I certainly did taste a little honey with the end of the rod that was in my hand; and behold, I must die."

<sup>44</sup> Saul said, "God do so and more also; for you shall surely die, Jonathan."

<sup>45</sup> The people said to Saul, "Shall Jonathan die, who has worked this great salvation in Israel? Far from it! As Yahweh lives, there shall not one hair of his head fall to the ground; for he has worked with God today!" So the people rescued Jonathan, that he didn't die.

<sup>46</sup> Then Saul went up from following the Philistines; and the Philistines went to their own place. <sup>47</sup> Now when Saul had taken the kingdom over Israel, he fought against all his enemies on every side, against Moab, and against the children of Ammon, and against Edom, and against the kings of Zobah, and against the Philistines. Wherever he turned himself, he defeated them. <sup>48</sup> He did valiantly, and struck the Amalekites, and delivered Israel out of the hands of those who plundered them. <sup>49</sup> Now the sons of Saul were Jonathan, Ishvi, and Malchishua; and the names of his two daughters were these: the name of the firstborn Merab, and the name of the younger Michal. <sup>50</sup> The name of Saul's wife was Ahinoam the daughter of Ahimaaz. The name of the captain of his army was Abner the son of Ner, Saul's uncle. <sup>51</sup> Kish was the father of Saul; and Ner the father of Abner was the son of Abiel. <sup>52</sup> There was severe war against the Philistines all the days of Saul; and when Saul saw any mighty man, or any valiant man, he took him into his service.

15

<sup>1</sup> Samuel said to Saul, "Yahweh sent me to anoint you to be king over his people, over Israel. Now therefore listen to the voice of Yahweh's words. <sup>2</sup> Yahweh of Armies says, 'I remember what Amalek did to Israel, how he set himself against him on the way, when he came up out of Egypt. <sup>3</sup> Now go and strike Amalek, and utterly destroy all that they have, and don't spare them; but kill both man and woman, infant and nursing baby, ox and sheep, camel and donkey.”

<sup>4</sup> Saul summoned the people, and numbered them in Telaim, two hundred thousand footmen, and ten thousand men of Judah. <sup>5</sup> Saul came to the city of Amalek, and set an ambush in the valley. <sup>6</sup> Saul said to the Kenites, “Go, depart, go down from among the Amalekites, lest I destroy you with them; for you showed kindness to all the children of Israel, when they came up out of Egypt.” So the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites.

<sup>7</sup> Saul struck the Amalekites, from Havilah as you go to Shur, that is before Egypt. <sup>8</sup> He took Agag the king of the Amalekites alive, and utterly destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword. <sup>9</sup> But Saul and the people spared Agag, and the best of the sheep, of the cattle, and of the fat calves, and the lambs, and all that was good, and were not willing to utterly destroy them; but everything that was vile and refuse, that they destroyed utterly. <sup>10</sup> Then Yahweh's word came to Samuel, saying, <sup>11</sup> “It grieves me that I have set up Saul to be king; for he has turned back from following me, and has not performed my commandments.” Samuel was angry; and he cried to Yahweh all night.

<sup>12</sup> Samuel rose early to meet Saul in the morning; and Samuel was told, saying, “Saul came to Carmel, and behold, he set up a monument for himself, and turned, and passed on, and went down to Gilgal.”

<sup>13</sup> Samuel came to Saul; and Saul said to him, “You are blessed by Yahweh! I have performed the commandment of Yahweh.”

<sup>14</sup> Samuel said, “Then what does this bleating of the sheep in my ears, and the lowing of the cattle which I hear mean?”

<sup>15</sup> Saul said, “They have brought them from the Amalekites; for the people spared the best of the sheep and of the cattle, to sacrifice to Yahweh your God. We have utterly destroyed the rest.”

<sup>16</sup> Then Samuel said to Saul, “Stay, and I will tell you what Yahweh said to me last night.”

He said to him, “Say on.”

<sup>17</sup> Samuel said, “Though you were little in your own sight, weren't you made the head of the tribes of Israel? Yahweh anointed you king over Israel; <sup>18</sup> and Yahweh sent you on a journey, and said, ‘Go, and utterly destroy the sinners the Amalekites, and fight against them until they are consumed.’ <sup>19</sup> Why then didn't you obey Yahweh's voice, but took the plunder, and did that which was evil in Yahweh's sight?”

<sup>20</sup> Saul said to Samuel, “But I have obeyed Yahweh's voice, and have gone the way which Yahweh sent me, and have brought Agag the king of Amalek, and have utterly destroyed the Amalekites. <sup>21</sup> But the people took of the plunder, sheep and cattle, the chief of the devoted things, to sacrifice to Yahweh your God in Gilgal.”

<sup>22</sup> Samuel said, “Has Yahweh as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying Yahweh's voice? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to listen than the fat of rams. <sup>23</sup> For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as idolatry and teraphim.<sup>o</sup> Because you have rejected Yahweh's word, he has also rejected you from being king."

<sup>24</sup> Saul said to Samuel, "I have sinned; for I have transgressed the commandment of Yahweh, and your words, because I feared the people, and obeyed their voice. <sup>25</sup> Now therefore, please pardon my sin, and turn again with me, that I may worship Yahweh."

<sup>26</sup> Samuel said to Saul, "I will not return with you; for you have rejected Yahweh's word, and Yahweh has rejected you from being king over Israel." <sup>27</sup> As Samuel turned around to go away, Saul grabbed the skirt of his robe, and it tore. <sup>28</sup> Samuel said to him, "Yahweh has torn the kingdom of Israel from you today, and has given it to a neighbor of yours who is better than you. <sup>29</sup> Also the Strength of Israel will not lie nor repent; for he is not a man, that he should repent."

<sup>30</sup> Then he said, "I have sinned; yet please honor me now before the elders of my people, and before Israel, and come back with me, that I may worship Yahweh your God."

<sup>31</sup> So Samuel went back with Saul; and Saul worshiped Yahweh. <sup>32</sup> Then Samuel said, "Bring Agag the king of the Amalekites here to me!"

Agag came to him cheerfully. Agag said, "Surely the bitterness of death is past."

<sup>33</sup> Samuel said, "As your sword has made women childless, so your mother will be childless among women!" Then Samuel cut Agag in pieces before Yahweh in Gilgal.

<sup>34</sup> Then Samuel went to Ramah; and Saul went up to his house to Gibeah of Saul. <sup>35</sup> Samuel came no more to see Saul until the day of his death; for Samuel mourned for Saul: and Yahweh grieved that he had made Saul king over Israel.

16

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh said to Samuel, "How long will you mourn for Saul, since I have rejected him from being king over Israel? Fill your horn with oil, and go. I will send you to Jesse the Bethlehemite; for I have provided a king for myself among his sons."

<sup>2</sup> Samuel said, "How can I go? If Saul hears it, he will kill me."

Yahweh said, "Take a heifer with you, and say, I have come to sacrifice to Yahweh. <sup>3</sup> Call Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will show you what you shall do. You shall anoint to me him whom I name to you."

<sup>4</sup> Samuel did that which Yahweh spoke, and came to Bethlehem. The elders of the city came to meet him trembling, and said, "Do you come peaceably?"

<sup>5</sup> He said, "Peaceably; I have come to sacrifice to Yahweh. Sanctify yourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice." He sanctified Jesse and his sons, and called them to the sacrifice. <sup>6</sup> When they had come, he looked at Eliab, and said, "Surely Yahweh's anointed is before him."

<sup>7</sup> But Yahweh said to Samuel, "Don't look on his face, or on the height of his stature, because I have rejected him; for I don't see as man sees. For man looks at the outward appearance, but Yahweh looks at the heart." <sup>8</sup> Then Jesse called Abinadab, and made him pass before Samuel. He said, "Yahweh has not chosen this one, either." <sup>9</sup> Then Jesse made Shammah to pass by. He said, "Yahweh has not chosen this one, either." <sup>10</sup> Jesse made seven of his sons to pass before Samuel. Samuel said to Jesse, "Yahweh has not chosen these." <sup>11</sup> Samuel said to Jesse, "Are all your children here?"

He said, "There remains yet the youngest. Behold, he is keeping the sheep."

Samuel said to Jesse, "Send and get him, for we will not sit down until he comes here."

<sup>12</sup> He sent, and brought him in. Now he was ruddy, with a handsome face and good appearance. Yahweh said, "Arise! Anoint him, for this is he."

<sup>17</sup> Saul said to his servants, "Provide me now a man who can play well, and bring him to me."

<sup>18</sup> Then one of the young men answered, and said, "Behold, I have seen a son of Jesse the Bethlehemite who is skillful in playing, a mighty man of valor, a man of war, prudent in speech, and a handsome person; and Yahweh is with him."

<sup>19</sup> Therefore Saul sent messengers to Jesse, and said, "Send me David your son, who is with the sheep."

17

<sup>1</sup> Now the Philistines gathered together their armies to battle; and they were gathered together at Socoh, which belongs to Judah, and encamped between Socoh and Azekah, in Ephesdammim. <sup>2</sup> Saul and the men of Israel were gathered together, and encamped in the valley of Elah, and set the battle in array against the Philistines. <sup>3</sup> The Philistines stood on the mountain on the one side, and Israel stood on the mountain on the other side: and there was a valley between them. <sup>4</sup> A champion out of the camp of the Philistines named Goliath, of Gath, whose height was six cubits and a span<sup>p</sup> went out. <sup>5</sup> He had a helmet of brass on his head, and he wore a coat of mail; and the weight of the coat was five thousand shekels<sup>q</sup> of brass. <sup>6</sup> He had brass shin armor on his legs, and a brass javelin between his shoulders. <sup>7</sup> The staff of his spear was like a weaver's beam; and his spear's head weighed six hundred shekels of iron.<sup>r</sup> His shield bearer went before him. <sup>8</sup> He stood and cried to the armies of Israel, and said to them, "Why have you come out to set your battle in array? Am I not a Philistine, and you servants to Saul? Choose a man for yourselves, and let him come down to me. <sup>9</sup> If he is able to fight with me and kill me, then will we be your servants; but if I prevail against him and kill him, then you will be our servants and serve us." <sup>10</sup> The Philistine said, "I defy the armies of Israel today! Give me a man, that we may fight together!"

<sup>p</sup> a cubit is the length from the tip of the middle finger to the elbow on a man's arm, or about 18 inches or 46 centimeters. A span is the length from the tip of the little finger to the tip of the thumb on a man's stretched-out hand, about 9 inches or 23 cm. Therefore, Goliath was about 9 feet and 9 inches or 2.97 meters tall. <sup>q</sup> a shekel is about 10 grams or about 0.35 ounces, so 5000 shekels is about 50 kilograms or 110 pounds. <sup>r</sup> a shekel is about 10 grams or about 0.35 ounces, so 600 shekels is about 6 kilograms or about 13 pounds.

<sup>11</sup> When Saul and all Israel heard those words of the Philistine, they were dismayed, and greatly afraid. <sup>12</sup> Now David was the son of that Ephrathite of Bethlehem Judah, whose name was Jesse; and he had eight sons. The man was an elderly old man in the days of Saul. <sup>13</sup> The three oldest sons of Jesse had gone after Saul to the battle: and the names of his three sons who went to the battle were Eliab the firstborn, and next to him Abinadab, and the third Shammah. <sup>14</sup> David was the youngest; and the three oldest followed Saul. <sup>15</sup> Now David went back and forth from Saul to feed his father's sheep at Bethlehem. <sup>16</sup> The Philistine came near morning and evening, and presented himself forty days. <sup>17</sup> Jesse said to David his son, "Now take for your brothers an ephah <sup>s</sup> of this parched grain, and these ten loaves, and carry them quickly to the camp to your brothers; <sup>18</sup> and bring these ten cheeses to the captain of their thousand, and see how your brothers are doing, and bring back news." <sup>19</sup> Now Saul, and they, and all the men of Israel, were in the valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines. <sup>20</sup> David rose up early in the morning, and left the sheep with a keeper, and took and went, as Jesse had commanded him. He came to the place of the wagons, as the army which was going out to the fight shouted for the battle. <sup>21</sup> Israel and the Philistines put the battle in array, army against army. <sup>22</sup> David left his baggage in the hand of the keeper of the baggage, and ran to the army, and came and greeted his brothers. <sup>23</sup> As he talked with them, behold, the champion, the Philistine of Gath, Goliath by name, came up out of the ranks of the Philistines, and said the same words; and David heard them. <sup>24</sup> All the men of Israel, when they saw the man, fled from him, and were terrified. <sup>25</sup> The men of Israel said, "Have you seen this man who has come up? He has surely come up to defy Israel. The king will give great riches to the man who kills him, and will give him his daughter, and make his father's house free in Israel."

<sup>26</sup> David spoke to the men who stood by him, saying, "What shall be done to the man who kills this Philistine, and takes away the reproach from Israel? For who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he should defy the armies of the living God?"

<sup>27</sup> The people answered him in this way, saying, "So shall it be done to the man who kills him."

<sup>28</sup> Eliab his oldest brother heard when he spoke to the men; and Eliab's anger burned against David, and he said, "Why have you come down? With whom have you left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know your pride, and the naughtiness of your heart; for you have come down that you might see the battle."

<sup>29</sup> David said, "What have I now done? Is there not a cause?" <sup>30</sup> He turned away from him toward another, and spoke like that again; and the people answered him again the same way. <sup>31</sup> When the words were heard which David spoke, they rehearsed them before Saul; and he sent for him. <sup>32</sup> David said to Saul, "Let no man's heart fail because of him. Your servant will go and fight with this Philistine."

<sup>33</sup> Saul said to David, "You are not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him; for you are but a youth, and he a man of war from his youth."

<sup>34</sup> David said to Saul, "Your servant was keeping his father's sheep; and when a lion or a bear came, and took a lamb out of the flock, <sup>35</sup> I went out after him, and struck him, and rescued it out of his mouth. When he arose against me, I caught him by his beard, and struck him, and killed him. <sup>36</sup> Your servant struck both the lion and the bear. This uncircumcised Philistine shall be as one of them, since he has defied the armies of the living God." <sup>37</sup> David said, "Yahweh who delivered me out of the paw of the lion, and out of the paw of the bear, he will deliver me out of the hand of this Philistine."

Saul said to David, "Go! Yahweh will be with you." <sup>38</sup> Saul dressed David with his clothing. He put a helmet of brass on his head, and he clad him with a coat of mail. <sup>39</sup> David strapped his sword on his clothing, and he tried to move; for he had not tested it. David said to Saul, "I can't go with these; for I have not tested them." Then David took them off.

<sup>40</sup> He took his staff in his hand, and chose for himself five smooth stones out of the brook, and put them in the pouch of his shepherd's bag which he had. His sling was in his hand; and he came near to the Philistine. <sup>41</sup> The Philistine walked and came near to David; and the man who bore the shield went before him. <sup>42</sup> When the Philistine looked around, and saw David, he disdained him; for he was but a youth, and ruddy, and had a good looking face. <sup>43</sup> The Philistine said to David, "Am I a dog, that you come to me with sticks?" The Philistine cursed David by his gods. <sup>44</sup> The Philistine said to David, "Come to me, and I will give your flesh to the birds of the sky, and to the animals of the field."

<sup>45</sup> Then David said to the Philistine, "You come to me with a sword, with a spear, and with a javelin; but I come to you in the name of Yahweh of Armies, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have defied. <sup>46</sup> Today, Yahweh will deliver you into my hand. I will strike you, and take your head from off you. I will give the dead bodies of the army of the Philistines today to the birds of the sky, and to the wild animals of the earth; that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel, <sup>47</sup> and that all this assembly may know that Yahweh doesn't save with sword and spear; for the battle is Yahweh's, and he will give you into our hand."

<sup>48</sup> When the Philistine arose, and walked and came near to meet David, David hurried, and ran toward the army to meet the Philistine. <sup>49</sup> David put his hand in his bag, took a stone, and slung it, and struck the Philistine in his forehead. The stone sank into his forehead, and he fell on his face to the earth. <sup>50</sup> So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and with a stone, and struck the Philistine, and killed him; but there was no sword in the hand of David. <sup>51</sup> Then David ran, stood over the Philistine, took his sword, drew it out of its sheath, killed him, and cut off his head with it. When the Philistines saw that their champion was dead, they fled. <sup>52</sup> The men of Israel and of Judah arose and shouted, and pursued the Philistines as far as Gai and to the gates of Ekron. The wounded of the Philistines fell down by the way to Shaaraim, even to Gath and to Ekron. <sup>53</sup> The children of Israel returned from chasing after the Philistines and they plundered their camp. <sup>54</sup> David took the head of the Philistine, and brought it to Jerusalem; but he put his armor in his tent. <sup>55</sup> When Saul saw David go out against the Philistine, he said to Abner, the captain of the army, "Abner, whose son is this youth?"

Abner said, "As your soul lives, O king, I can't tell."

<sup>57</sup> As David returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, Abner took him and brought him before Saul with the head of the Philistine in his hand. <sup>58</sup> Saul said to him, "Whose son are you, you young man?"

David answered, "I am the son of your servant Jesse the Bethlehemite."

18

<sup>1</sup> When he had finished speaking to Saul, the soul of Jonathan was knit with the soul of David, and Jonathan loved him as his own soul. <sup>2</sup> Saul took him that day, and would let him go no more home to his father's house. <sup>3</sup> Then Jonathan and David made a covenant, because he loved him as his own soul. <sup>4</sup> Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that was on him, and gave it to David, and his clothing, even including his sword, his bow, and his sash. <sup>5</sup> David went out wherever Saul sent him, and behaved himself wisely; and Saul set him over the men of war. It was good in the sight of all the people, and also in the sight of Saul's servants. <sup>6</sup> As they came, when David returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, the women came out of all the cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet king Saul, with tambourines, with joy, and with instruments of music. <sup>7</sup> The women sang to one another as they played, and said,

"Saul has slain his thousands, David his ten thousands."

<sup>8</sup> Saul was very angry, and this saying displeased him. He said, "They have ascribed to David ten thousands, and to me they have ascribed only thousands. What can he have more but the kingdom?" <sup>9</sup> Saul watched David from that day and forward. <sup>10</sup> On the next day, an evil spirit from God came mightily on Saul, and he prophesied in the middle of the house. David played with his hand, as he did day by day. Saul had his spear in his hand; <sup>11</sup> and Saul threw the spear, for he said, "I will pin David even to the wall!" David escaped from his presence twice. <sup>12</sup> Saul was afraid of David, because Yahweh was with him, and had departed from Saul. <sup>13</sup> Therefore Saul removed him from his presence, and made him his captain over a thousand; and he went out and came in before the people.

<sup>14</sup> David behaved himself wisely in all his ways; and Yahweh was with him. <sup>15</sup> When Saul saw that he behaved himself very wisely, he stood in awe of him. <sup>16</sup> But all Israel and Judah loved David; for he went out and came in before them. <sup>17</sup> Saul said to David, "Behold, my elder daughter Merab, I will give her to you as wife. Only be valiant for me, and fight Yahweh's battles." For Saul said, "Don't let my hand be on him, but let the hand of the Philistines be on him." <sup>18</sup> David said to Saul, "Who am I, and what is my life, or my father's family in Israel, that I should be son-in-law to the king?"

<sup>19</sup> But at the time when Merab, Saul's daughter, should have been given to David, she was given to Adriel the Meholathite as wife. <sup>20</sup> Michal, Saul's daughter, loved David; and they told Saul, and the thing pleased him. <sup>21</sup> Saul said, I will give her to him, that she may be a snare to him, and that the hand of the Philistines may be against him. Therefore Saul said to David, "You shall today be my son-in-law a second time." <sup>22</sup> Saul commanded his servants, "Talk with David secretly, and say, 'Behold, the king has delight in you, and all his servants love you. Now therefore be the king's son-in-law.'"

<sup>23</sup> Saul's servants spoke those words in the ears of David. David said, "Does it seem to you a light thing to be the king's son-in-law, since I am a poor man, and lightly esteemed?"

<sup>25</sup> Saul said, "Tell David, 'The king desires no dowry except one hundred foreskins of the Philistines, to be avenged of the king's enemies.'" Now Saul thought he would make David fall by the hand of the Philistines. <sup>26</sup> When his servants told David these words, it pleased David well to be the king's son-in-law. Before the deadline, <sup>27</sup> David arose and went, he and his men, and killed two hundred men of the Philistines. Then David brought their foreskins, and they gave them in full number to the king, that he might be the king's son-in-law. Then Saul gave him Michal his daughter as wife. <sup>28</sup> Saul saw and knew that Yahweh was with David; and Michal, Saul's daughter, loved him. <sup>29</sup> Saul was even more afraid of David; and Saul was David's enemy continually. <sup>30</sup> Then the princes of the Philistines went out; and as often as they went out, David behaved himself more wisely than all the servants of Saul, so that his name was highly esteemed.

19

<sup>1</sup> Saul spoke to Jonathan his son, and to all his servants, that they should kill David. But Jonathan, Saul's son, greatly delighted in David. <sup>2</sup> Jonathan told David, saying, "Saul my father seeks to kill you. Now therefore, please take care of yourself in the morning, and live in a secret place, and hide yourself. <sup>3</sup> I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where you are, and I will talk with my father about you; and if I see anything, I will tell you."

<sup>4</sup> Jonathan spoke good of David to Saul his father, and said to him, "Don't let the king sin against his servant, against David; because he has not sinned against you, and because his works have been very good toward you; <sup>5</sup> for he put his life in his hand, and struck the Philistine, and Yahweh worked a great victory for all Israel. You saw it, and rejoiced. Why then will you sin against innocent blood, to kill David without a cause?"

<sup>6</sup> Saul listened to the voice of Jonathan: and Saul swore, “As Yahweh lives, he shall not be put to death.”

<sup>7</sup> Jonathan called David, and Jonathan showed him all those things. Then Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence, as before. <sup>8</sup> There was war again. David went out, and fought with the Philistines, and killed them with a great slaughter; and they fled before him.

<sup>9</sup> An evil spirit from Yahweh was on Saul, as he sat in his house with his spear in his hand; and David was playing with his hand. <sup>10</sup> Saul sought to pin David to the wall with the spear; but he slipped away out of Saul’s presence, and he stuck the spear into the wall. David fled, and escaped that night. <sup>11</sup> Saul sent messengers to David’s house, to watch him, and to kill him in the morning. Michal, David’s wife, told him, saying, “If you don’t save your life tonight, tomorrow you will be killed.” <sup>12</sup> So Michal let David down through the window. He went away, fled, and escaped. <sup>13</sup> Michal took the teraphim,<sup>t</sup> and laid it in the bed, and put a pillow of goats’ hair at its head, and covered it with clothes. <sup>14</sup> When Saul sent messengers to take David, she said, “He is sick.”

<sup>15</sup> Saul sent the messengers to see David, saying, “Bring him up to me in the bed, that I may kill him.” <sup>16</sup> When the messengers came in, behold, the teraphim was in the bed, with the pillow of goats’ hair at its head.

<sup>17</sup> Saul said to Michal, “Why have you deceived me thus, and let my enemy go, so that he is escaped?”

Michal answered Saul, “He said to me, ‘Let me go! Why should I kill you?’”

<sup>t</sup> teraphim were household idols that may have been associated with inheritance rights to the household property.

<sup>18</sup> Now David fled and escaped, and came to Samuel at Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him. He and Samuel went and lived in Naioth. <sup>19</sup> Saul was told, saying, “Behold, David is at Naioth in Ramah.”

<sup>20</sup> Saul sent messengers to seize David: and when they saw the company of the prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing as head over them, God’s Spirit came on Saul’s messengers, and they also prophesied. <sup>21</sup> When Saul was told, he sent other messengers, and they also prophesied. Saul sent messengers again the third time, and they also prophesied. <sup>22</sup> Then he also went to Ramah, and came to the great well that is in Secu: and he asked, “Where are Samuel and David?”

One said, “Behold, they are at Naioth in Ramah.”

<sup>23</sup> He went there to Naioth in Ramah. Then God’s Spirit came on him also, and he went on, and prophesied, until he came to Naioth in Ramah. <sup>24</sup> He also stripped off his clothes, and he also prophesied before Samuel, and lay down naked all that day and all that night. Therefore they say, “Is Saul also among the prophets?”

20

<sup>1</sup> David fled from Naioth in Ramah, and came and said before Jonathan, “What have I done? What is my iniquity? What is my sin before your father, that he seeks my life?”

<sup>2</sup> He said to him, “Far from it; you will not die. Behold, my father does nothing either great or small, but that he discloses it to me. Why would my father hide this thing from me? It is not so.”

<sup>3</sup> David swore moreover, and said, “Your father knows well that I have found favor in your eyes; and he says, ‘Don’t let Jonathan know this, lest he be grieved:’ but truly as Yahweh lives, and as your soul lives, there is but a step between me and death.”

<sup>4</sup> Then Jonathan said to David, “Whatever your soul desires, I will even do it for you.”

<sup>5</sup> David said to Jonathan, “Behold, tomorrow is the new moon, and I should not fail to dine with the king; but let me go, that I may hide myself in the field to the third day at evening. <sup>6</sup> If your father misses me at all, then say, ‘David earnestly asked leave of me that he might run to Bethlehem his city; for it is the yearly sacrifice there for all the family.’ <sup>7</sup> If he says, ‘It is well;’ your servant shall have peace: but if he is angry, then know that evil is determined by him. <sup>8</sup> Therefore deal kindly with your servant; for you have brought your servant into a covenant of Yahweh with you; but if there is iniquity in me, kill me yourself; for why should you bring me to your father?”

<sup>9</sup> Jonathan said, “Far be it from you; for if I should at all know that evil were determined by my father to come on you, then wouldn’t I tell you that?”

<sup>10</sup> Then David said to Jonathan, “Who will tell me if perchance your father answers you roughly?”

<sup>11</sup> Jonathan said to David, “Come, and let us go out into the field.” They both went out into the field. <sup>12</sup> Jonathan said to David, “By Yahweh, the God of Israel, when I have sounded my father about this time tomorrow, or the third day, behold, if there is good toward David, won’t I then send to you, and disclose it to you? <sup>13</sup> Yahweh do so to Jonathan, and more also, should it please my father to do you evil, if I don’t disclose it to you, and send you away, that you may go in peace. May Yahweh be with you, as he has been with my father. <sup>14</sup> You shall not only while yet I live show me the loving kindness of Yahweh, that I not die; <sup>15</sup> but you shall also not cut off your kindness from my house forever; no, not when Yahweh has cut off every one of the enemies of David from the surface of the earth.” <sup>16</sup> So Jonathan made a covenant with David’s house, saying, “Yahweh will require it at the hand of David’s enemies.” <sup>17</sup> Jonathan caused David to swear again, for the love that he had to him; for he loved him as he loved his own soul. <sup>18</sup> Then Jonathan said to him, “Tomorrow is the new moon, and you will be missed, because your seat will be empty. <sup>19</sup> When you have stayed three days, go down quickly, and come to the place where you hid yourself when this started, and remain by the stone Ezel. <sup>20</sup> I will shoot three arrows on its side, as though I shot at a mark. <sup>21</sup> Behold, I will send the boy, saying, ‘Go, find the arrows!’ If I tell the boy, ‘Behold, the arrows are on this side of you. Take them;’ then come; for there is peace to you and no danger, as Yahweh lives. <sup>22</sup> But if I say this to the boy, ‘Behold, the arrows are beyond you;’ then go your way; for Yahweh has sent you away. <sup>23</sup> Concerning the matter which you and I have spoken of, behold, Yahweh is between you and me forever.”

<sup>24</sup> So David hid himself in the field. When the new moon had come, the king sat himself down to eat food. <sup>25</sup> The king sat on his seat, as at other times, even on the seat by the wall; and Jonathan stood up, and Abner sat by Saul's side, but David's place was empty. <sup>26</sup> Nevertheless Saul didn't say anything that day, for he thought, "Something has happened to him. He is not clean. Surely he is not clean."

<sup>27</sup> On the next day after the new moon, the second day, David's place was empty. Saul said to Jonathan his son, "Why doesn't the son of Jesse come to eat, either yesterday, or today?"

<sup>28</sup> Jonathan answered Saul, "David earnestly asked permission of me to go to Bethlehem. <sup>29</sup> He said, 'Please let me go, for our family has a sacrifice in the city. My brother has commanded me to be there. Now, if I have found favor in your eyes, please let me go away and see my brothers.' Therefore he has not come to the king's table."

<sup>30</sup> Then Saul's anger burned against Jonathan, and he said to him, "You son of a perverse rebellious woman, don't I know that you have chosen the son of Jesse to your own shame, and to the shame of your mother's nakedness? <sup>31</sup> For as long as the son of Jesse lives on the earth, you will not be established, nor will your kingdom. Therefore now send and bring him to me, for he shall surely die!"

<sup>32</sup> Jonathan answered Saul his father, and said to him, "Why should he be put to death? What has he done?"

<sup>33</sup> Saul cast his spear at him to strike him. By this Jonathan knew that his father was determined to put David to death. <sup>34</sup> So Jonathan arose from the table in fierce anger, and ate no food the second day of the month; for he was grieved for David, because his father had treated him shamefully. <sup>35</sup> In the morning, Jonathan went out into the field at the time appointed with David, and a little boy with him. <sup>36</sup> He said to his boy, "Run, find now the arrows which I shoot." As the boy ran, he shot an arrow beyond him. <sup>37</sup> When the boy had come to the place of the arrow which Jonathan had shot, Jonathan cried after the boy, and said, "Isn't the arrow beyond you?" <sup>38</sup> Jonathan cried after the boy, "Go fast! Hurry! Don't delay!" Jonathan's boy gathered up the arrows, and came to his master. <sup>39</sup> But the boy didn't know anything. Only Jonathan and David knew the matter. <sup>40</sup> Jonathan gave his weapons to his boy, and said to him, "Go, carry them to the city."

<sup>41</sup> As soon as the boy was gone, David arose out of the south, and fell on his face to the ground, and bowed himself three times. They kissed one another, and wept one with another, and David wept the most. <sup>42</sup> Jonathan said to David, "Go in peace, because we have both sworn in Yahweh's name, saying, 'Yahweh is between me and you, and between my offspring<sup>u</sup> and your offspring,<sup>v</sup> forever.'" He arose and departed; and Jonathan went into the city.

<sup>1</sup> Then David came to Nob to Ahimelech the priest. Ahimelech came to meet David trembling, and said to him, "Why are you alone, and no man with you?" <sup>2</sup> David said to Ahimelech the priest, "The king has commanded me to do something, and has said to me, 'Let no one know anything about the business about which I send you, and what I have commanded you. I have sent the young men to a certain place.’<sup>3</sup> Now therefore what is under your hand? Please give me five loaves of bread in my hand, or whatever is available.”

<sup>4</sup> The priest answered David, and said, “I have no common bread, but there is holy bread; if only the young men have kept themselves from women.”

<sup>5</sup> David answered the priest, and said to him, “Truly, women have been kept from us as usual these three days. When I came out, the vessels of the young men were holy, though it was only a common journey. How much more then today shall their vessels be holy?”<sup>6</sup> So the priest gave him holy bread; for there was no bread there but the show bread that was taken from before Yahweh, to put hot bread in the day when it was taken away.

<sup>7</sup> Now a certain man of the servants of Saul was there that day, detained before Yahweh; and his name was Doeg the Edomite, the best of the herdsmen who belonged to Saul.<sup>8</sup> David said to Ahimelech, “Isn’t there here under your hand spear or sword? For I have neither brought my sword nor my weapons with me, because the king’s business required haste.”

<sup>9</sup> The priest said, “Behold, the sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom you killed in the valley of Elah, is here wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod. If you would like to take that, take it; for there is no other except that here.”

David said, “There is none like that. Give it to me.”

<sup>10</sup> David arose, and fled that day for fear of Saul, and went to Achish the king of Gath.<sup>11</sup> The servants of Achish said to him, “Isn’t this David the king of the land?

Didn’t they sing to one another about him in dances, saying, ‘Saul has slain his thousands, David his ten thousands?’”<sup>12</sup> David laid up these words in his heart, and was very afraid of Achish the king of Gath.<sup>13</sup> He changed his behavior before them, and pretended to be insane in their hands, and scribbled on the doors of the gate, and let his spittle fall down on his beard.<sup>14</sup> Then Achish said to his servants, “Look, you see the man is insane. Why then have you brought him to me?<sup>15</sup> Do I lack madmen, that you have brought this fellow to play the madman in my presence? Should this fellow come into my house?”

22

<sup>1</sup> David therefore departed from there, and escaped to the cave of Adullam. When his brothers and all his father’s house heard it, they went down there to him.<sup>2</sup> Everyone who was in distress, everyone who was in debt, and everyone who was discontented, gathered themselves to him; and he became captain over them. There were with him about four hundred men.<sup>3</sup> David went from there to Mizpeh of Moab, and he said to the king of Moab, “Please let my father and my mother come out with you, until I know what God will do for me.”<sup>4</sup> He brought them before the king of Moab; and they lived with him all the time that David was in the stronghold.<sup>5</sup> The prophet Gad said to David, “Don’t stay in the stronghold. Depart, and go into the land of Judah.”

Then David departed, and came into the forest of Hereth.<sup>6</sup> Saul heard that David was discovered, with the men who were with him. Now Saul was sitting in Gibeah, under the tamarisk tree in Ramah, with his spear in his hand, and all his servants were standing around him. <sup>7</sup> Saul said to his servants who stood around him, "Hear now, you Benjamites! Will the son of Jesse give everyone of you fields and vineyards? Will he make you all captains of thousands and captains of hundreds, <sup>8</sup> that all of you have conspired against me, and there is no one who discloses to me when my son makes a treaty with the son of Jesse, and there is none of you who is sorry for me, or discloses to me that my son has stirred up my servant against me, to lie in wait, as it is today?"

<sup>9</sup> Then Doeg the Edomite, who stood by the servants of Saul, answered and said, "I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahimelech the son of Ahitub. <sup>10</sup> He inquired of Yahweh for him, gave him food, and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine."

<sup>11</sup> Then the king sent to call Ahimelech the priest, the son of Ahitub, and all his father's house, the priests who were in Nob; and they all came to the king. <sup>12</sup> Saul said, "Hear now, you son of Ahitub."

He answered, "Here I am, my lord."

<sup>13</sup> Saul said to him, "Why have you conspired against me, you and the son of Jesse, in that you have given him bread, and a sword, and have inquired of God for him, that he should rise against me, to lie in wait, as it is today?"

<sup>14</sup> Then Ahimelech answered the king, and said, "Who among all your servants is so faithful as David, who is the king's son-in-law, and is taken into your council, and is honorable in your house? <sup>15</sup> Have I today begun to inquire of God for him? Be it far from me! Don't let the king impute anything to his servant, nor to all the house of my father; for your servant knows nothing of all this, less or more."

<sup>16</sup> The king said, "You shall surely die, Ahimelech, you, and all your father's house." <sup>17</sup> The king said to the guard who stood about him, "Turn, and kill the priests of Yahweh; because their hand also is with David, and because they knew that he fled, and didn't disclose it to me." But the servants of the king wouldn't put out their hand to fall on the priests of Yahweh.

Doeg the Edomite turned, and he attacked the priests, and he killed on that day eighty-five people who wore a linen ephod. <sup>19</sup> He struck Nob, the city of the priests, with the edge of the sword, both men and women, children and nursing babies, and cattle and donkeys and sheep, with the edge of the sword. <sup>20</sup> One of the sons of Ahimelech, the son of Ahitub, named Abiathar, escaped, and fled after David. <sup>21</sup> Abiathar told David that Saul had slain Yahweh's priests.

<sup>22</sup> David said to Abiathar, "I knew on that day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would surely tell Saul. I am responsible for the death of all the persons of your father's house. <sup>23</sup> Stay with me. Don't be afraid, for he who seeks my life seeks your life. For you will be safe with me."

<sup>2</sup> Therefore David inquired of Yahweh, saying, "Shall I go and strike these Philistines?"

Yahweh said to David, "Go strike the Philistines, and save Keilah."

<sup>3</sup> David's men said to him, "Behold, we are afraid here in Judah. How much more then if we go to Keilah against the armies of the Philistines?"

<sup>4</sup> Then David inquired of Yahweh yet again. Yahweh answered him, and said, "Arise, go down to Keilah; for I will deliver the Philistines into your hand."

<sup>5</sup> David and his men went to Keilah, and fought with the Philistines, and brought away their livestock, and killed them with a great slaughter. So David saved the inhabitants of Keilah. <sup>6</sup> When Abiathar the son of Ahimelech fled to David to Keilah, he came down with an ephod in his hand.

<sup>7</sup> Saul was told that David had come to Keilah. Saul said, "God has delivered him into my hand; for he is shut in by entering into a town that has gates and bars." <sup>8</sup> Saul summoned all the people to war, to go down to Keilah, to besiege David and his men. <sup>9</sup> David knew that Saul was devising mischief against him; and he said to Abiathar the priest, "Bring the ephod here." <sup>10</sup> Then David said, "O Yahweh, the God of Israel, your servant has surely heard that Saul seeks to come to Keilah, to destroy the city for my sake. <sup>11</sup> Will the men of Keilah deliver me up into his hand? Will Saul come down, as your servant has heard? Yahweh, the God of Israel, I beg you, tell your servant."

Yahweh said, "He will come down."

<sup>12</sup> Then David said, "Will the men of Keilah deliver me and my men into the hand of Saul?"

Yahweh said, "They will deliver you up."

<sup>13</sup> Then David and his men, who were about six hundred, arose and departed out of Keilah, and went wherever they could go. Saul was told that David was escaped from Keilah; and he gave up going there. <sup>14</sup> David stayed in the wilderness in the strongholds, and remained in the hill country in the wilderness of Ziph. Saul sought him every day, but God didn't deliver him into his hand. <sup>15</sup> David saw that Saul had come out to seek his life. David was in the wilderness of Ziph in the wood.

<sup>16</sup> Jonathan, Saul's son, arose, and went to David into the woods, and strengthened his hand in God. <sup>17</sup> He said to him, "Don't be afraid; for the hand of Saul my father won't find you; and you will be king over Israel, and I will be next to you; and Saul my father knows that also." <sup>18</sup> They both made a covenant before Yahweh. Then David stayed in the woods, and Jonathan went to his house.

<sup>19</sup> Then the Ziphites came up to Saul to Gibeah, saying, "Doesn't David hide himself with us in the strongholds in the woods, in the hill of Hachilah, which is on the south of the desert? <sup>20</sup> Now therefore, O king, come down. According to all the desire of your soul to come down; and our part will be to deliver him up into the king's hand."

<sup>21</sup> Saul said, "You are blessed by Yahweh; for you have had compassion on me. <sup>22</sup> Please go make yet more sure, and know and see his place where his haunt is, and who has seen him there; for I have been told that he deals very crafty. <sup>23</sup> See therefore, and take knowledge of all the lurking places where he hides himself, and come again to me with certainty, and I will go with you. It shall happen, if he is in the land, that I will search him out among all the thousands of Judah.”

<sup>24</sup> They arose, and went to Ziph before Saul: but David and his men were in the wilderness of Maon, in the Arabah on the south of the desert. <sup>25</sup> Saul and his men went to seek him. When David was told, he went down to the rock, and stayed in the wilderness of Maon. When Saul heard that, he pursued David in the wilderness of Maon. <sup>26</sup> Saul went on this side of the mountain, and David and his men on that side of the mountain; and David hurried to get away for fear of Saul; for Saul and his men surrounded David and his men to take them. <sup>27</sup> But a messenger came to Saul, saying, “Hurry and come; for the Philistines have made a raid on the land!” <sup>28</sup> So Saul returned from pursuing David, and went against the Philistines. Therefore they called that place Sela Hammahlekoth.<sup>w</sup> your hand, and you shall do to him as it shall seem good to you.” Then David arose, and cut off the skirt of Saul’s robe secretly. <sup>5</sup> Afterward, David’s heart struck him, because he had cut off Saul’s skirt. <sup>6</sup> He said to his men, “Yahweh forbid that I should do this thing to my lord, Yahweh’s anointed, to stretch out my hand against him, since he is Yahweh’s anointed.” <sup>7</sup> So David checked his men with these words, and didn’t allow them to rise against Saul. Saul rose up out of the cave, and went on his way. <sup>8</sup> David also arose afterward, and went out of the cave, and cried after Saul, saying, “My lord the king!”

24

When Saul looked behind him, David bowed with his face to the earth, and showed respect. <sup>9</sup> David said to Saul, “Why do you listen to men’s words, saying, ‘Behold, David seeks to harm you?’” <sup>10</sup> Behold, today your eyes have seen how Yahweh had delivered you today into my hand in the cave. Some urged me to kill you; but I spared you; and I said, I will not stretch out my hand against my lord; for he is Yahweh’s anointed. <sup>11</sup> Moreover, my father, behold, yes, see the skirt of your robe in my hand; for in that I cut off the skirt of your robe, and didn’t kill you, know and see that there is neither evil nor disobedience in my hand, and I have not sinned against you, though you hunt for my life to take it. <sup>12</sup> May Yahweh judge between me and you, and may Yahweh avenge me of you; but my hand will not be on you. <sup>13</sup> As the proverb of the ancients says, ‘Out of the wicked comes wickedness;’ but my hand will not be on you. <sup>14</sup> Against whom has the king of Israel come out? Whom do you pursue? A dead dog? A flea? <sup>15</sup> May Yahweh therefore be judge, and give sentence between me and you, and see, and plead my cause, and deliver me out of your hand.”

<sup>16</sup> It came to pass, when David had finished speaking these words to Saul, that Saul said, “Is that your voice, my son David?” Saul lifted up his voice, and wept.

<sup>17</sup> He said to David, “You are more righteous than I; for you have done good to me, whereas I have done evil to you. <sup>18</sup>

You have declared today how you have dealt well with me, because when Yahweh had delivered me up into your hand, you didn’t kill me. <sup>19</sup> For if a man finds his enemy, will he let him go away unharmed? Therefore may Yahweh reward you good for that which you have done to me today.

<sup>20</sup> Now, behold, I know that you will surely be king, and that the kingdom of Israel will be established in your hand. <sup>21</sup> Swear now therefore to me by Yahweh, that you will not cut off my offspring<sup>x</sup> after me, and that you will not destroy my name out of my father’s house.”

Then David arose, and went down to the wilderness of Paran. <sup>2</sup> There was a man in Maon, whose possessions were in Carmel; and the man was very great. He had three thousand sheep and a thousand goats; and he was shearing his sheep in Carmel. <sup>3</sup> Now the name of the man was Nabal; and the name of his wife Abigail. This woman was intelligent and had a beautiful face; but the man was surly and evil in his doings. He was of the house of Caleb. <sup>4</sup> David heard in the wilderness that Nabal was shearing his sheep. <sup>5</sup> David sent ten young men, and David said to the young men, “Go up to Carmel, and go to Nabal, and greet him in my name. <sup>6</sup> Tell him, ‘Long life to you! Peace be to you, and peace be to your house, and peace be to all that you have. <sup>7</sup> Now I have heard that you have shearers. Your shepherds have now been with us, and we didn’t harm them, neither was there anything missing from them, all the while they were in Carmel. <sup>8</sup> Ask your young men, and they will tell you. Therefore let the young men find favor in your eyes; for we come on a good day. Please give whatever comes to your hand, to your servants, and to your son David.’”

<sup>9</sup> When David’s young men came, they spoke to Nabal all those words in the name of David, and waited.

<sup>10</sup> Nabal answered David’s servants, and said, “Who is David? Who is the son of Jesse? There are many servants who break away from their masters these days. <sup>11</sup> Shall I then take my bread, my water, and my meat that I have killed for my shearers, and give it to men who I don’t know where they come from?”

<sup>12</sup> So David’s young men turned on their way, and went back, and came and told him all these words.

Every man put on his sword. David also put on his sword. About four hundred men followed David, and two hundred stayed by the baggage. <sup>14</sup> But one of the young men told Abigail, Nabal's wife, saying, "Behold, David sent messengers out of the wilderness to Greet our master; and he insulted them. <sup>15</sup> But the men were very good to us, and we were not harmed, and we didn't miss anything, as long as we went with them, when we were in the fields. <sup>16</sup> They were a wall to us both by night and by day, all the while we were with them keeping the sheep. <sup>17</sup> Now therefore know and consider what you will do; for evil is determined against our master, and against all his house; for he is such a worthless fellow that one can't speak to him."

<sup>18</sup> Then Abigail hurried and took two hundred loaves of bread, two bottles of wine, five sheep ready dressed, five seahs<sup>y</sup> of parched grain, one hundred clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs, and laid them on donkeys. <sup>19</sup> She said to her young men, "Go on before me. Behold, I am coming after you." But she didn't tell her husband, Nabal. <sup>20</sup> As she rode on her donkey, and came down by the covert of the mountain, that behold, David and his men came down toward her, and she met them.

<sup>21</sup> Now David had said, "Surely in vain have I kept all that this fellow has in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that pertained to him. He has returned me evil for good. <sup>22</sup> God do so to the enemies of David, and more also, if I leave of all that belongs to him by the morning light so much as one who urinates on a wall." <sup>z</sup>

David on her face, and bowed herself to the ground. <sup>24</sup> She fell at his feet, and said, "On me, my lord, on me be the blame! Please let your servant speak in your ears. Hear the words of your servant. <sup>25</sup> Please don't let my lord pay attention to this worthless fellow, Nabal; for as his name is, so is he. Nabal<sup>a</sup> is his name, and folly is with him; but I, your servant, didn't see my lord's young men, whom you sent. <sup>26</sup> Now therefore, my lord, as Yahweh lives, and as your soul lives, since Yahweh has withheld you from blood guiltiness, and from avenging yourself with your own hand, now therefore let your enemies, and those who seek evil to my lord, be as Nabal. <sup>27</sup> Now this present which your servant has brought to my lord, let it be given to the young men who follow my lord. <sup>28</sup> Please forgive the trespass of your servant. For Yahweh will certainly make my lord a sure house, because my lord fights Yahweh's battles. Evil will not be found in you all your days. <sup>29</sup> Though men may rise up to pursue you, and to seek your soul, yet the soul of my lord will be bound in the bundle of life with Yahweh your God. He will sling out the souls of your enemies, as from the hollow of a sling. <sup>30</sup> It will come to pass, when Yahweh has done to my lord according to all the good that he has spoken concerning you, and has appointed you prince over Israel, <sup>31</sup> that this shall be no grief to you, nor offense of heart to my lord, either that you have shed blood without cause, or that my lord has avenged himself. When Yahweh has dealt well with my lord, then remember your servant."

<sup>32</sup> David said to Abigail, "Blessed is Yahweh, the God of Israel, who sent you today to meet me! <sup>33</sup> Blessed is your discretion, and blessed are you, who have kept me today from blood guiltiness, and from avenging myself with my own hand. <sup>34</sup> For indeed, as Yahweh, the God of Israel, lives, who has withheld me from harming you, unless you had hurried and come to meet me, surely there wouldn't have been left to Nabal by the morning light so much as one who urinates on a wall.”<sup>b</sup>

<sup>35</sup> So David received from her hand that which she had brought him. Then he said to her, “Go up in peace to your house. Behold, I have listened to your voice, and have granted your request.”

<sup>36</sup> Abigail came to Nabal; and behold, he held a feast in his house, like the feast of a king. Nabal's heart was merry within him, for he was very drunk. Therefore she told him nothing, until the morning light. <sup>37</sup> In the morning, when the wine had gone out of Nabal, his wife told him these things, and his heart died within him, and he became as a stone. <sup>38</sup> About ten days later, Yahweh struck Nabal, so that he died. <sup>39</sup> When David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, “Blessed is Yahweh, who has pleaded the cause of my reproach from the hand of Nabal, and has kept back his servant from evil. Yahweh has returned the evildoing of Nabal on his own head.” David sent and spoke concerning Abigail, to take her to himself as wife. <sup>40</sup> When David's servants had come to Abigail to Carmel, they spoke to her, saying, “David has sent us to you, to take you to him as wife.”

<sup>41</sup> She arose, and bowed herself with her face to the earth, and said, “Behold, your servant is a servant to wash the feet of the servants of my lord.” <sup>42</sup> Abigail hurried, and arose, and rode on a donkey, with five ladies of hers who followed her; and she went after the messengers of David, and became his wife. <sup>43</sup> David also took Ahinoam of Jezreel; and they both became his wives. <sup>44</sup> Now Saul had given Michal his daughter, David's wife, to Palti the son of Laish, who was of Gallim.

26

<sup>6</sup> Then David answered and said to Ahimelech the Hittite, and to Abishai the son of Zeruah, brother of Joab, saying, “Who will go down with me to Saul to the camp?”

Abishai said, “I will go down with you.” <sup>7</sup> So David and Abishai came to the people by night: and, behold, Saul lay sleeping within the place of the wagons, with his spear stuck in the ground at his head; and Abner and the people lay around him. <sup>8</sup> Then Abishai said to David, "God has delivered up your enemy into your hand today. Now therefore please let me strike him with the spear to the earth at one stroke, and I will not strike him the second time."

<sup>9</sup> David said to Abishai, "Don't destroy him; for who can stretch out his hand against Yahweh's anointed, and be guiltless?" <sup>10</sup> David said, "As Yahweh lives, Yahweh will strike him; or his day shall come to die; or he shall go down into battle and perish. <sup>11</sup> Yahweh forbid that I should stretch out my hand against Yahweh's anointed; but now please take the spear that is at his head, and the jar of water, and let us go."

<sup>12</sup> So David took the spear and the jar of water from Saul's head; and they went away: and no man saw it, or knew it, nor did any awake; for they were all asleep, because a deep sleep from Yahweh was fallen on them. <sup>13</sup> Then David went over to the other side, and stood on the top of the mountain afar off; a great space being between them; <sup>14</sup> and David cried to the people, and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, "Don't you answer, Abner?"

Then Abner answered, "Who are you who cries to the king?"

<sup>15</sup> David said to Abner, "Aren't you a man? Who is like you in Israel? Why then have you not kept watch over your lord, the king? For one of the people came in to destroy the king your lord. <sup>16</sup> This thing isn't good that you have done. As Yahweh lives, you are worthy to die, because you have not kept watch over your lord, Yahweh's anointed. Now see where the king's spear is, and the jar of water that was at his head."

<sup>17</sup> Saul knew David's voice, and said, "Is this your voice, my son David?"

David said, "It is my voice, my lord, O king." <sup>18</sup> He said, "Why does my lord pursue his servant? For what have I done? What evil is in my hand? <sup>19</sup> Now therefore, please let my lord the king hear the words of his servant. If it is so that Yahweh has stirred you up against me, let him accept an offering. But if it is the children of men, they are cursed before Yahweh; for they have driven me out today that I shouldn't cling to Yahweh's inheritance, saying, 'Go, serve other gods!' <sup>20</sup> Now therefore, don't let my blood fall to the earth away from the presence of Yahweh; for the king of Israel has come out to seek a flea, as when one hunts a partridge in the mountains."

<sup>21</sup> Then Saul said, "I have sinned. Return, my son David; for I will no more do you harm, because my life was precious in your eyes today. Behold, I have played the fool, and have erred exceedingly."

<sup>25</sup> Then Saul said to David, "You are blessed, my son David. You will both do mightily, and will surely prevail." So David went his way, and Saul returned to his place.

27

<sup>1</sup> David said in his heart, "I will now perish one day by the hand of Saul. There is nothing better for me than that I should escape into the land of the Philistines; and Saul will despair of me, to seek me any more in all the borders of Israel. So shall I escape out of his hand." <sup>2</sup> David arose, and passed over, he and the six hundred men who were with him, to Achish the son of Maach, king of Gath. <sup>3</sup> David lived with Achish at Gath, he and his men, every man with his household, even David with his two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the Carmelitess, Nabal's wife. <sup>4</sup> Saul was told that David had fled to Gath: and he sought no more again for him. <sup>5</sup> David said to Achish, "If now I have found favor in your eyes, let them give me a place in one of the cities in the country, that I may dwell there. For why should your servant dwell in the royal city with you?" <sup>6</sup> Then Achish gave him Ziklag that day: therefore Ziklag belongs to the kings of Judah to this day. <sup>7</sup> The number of the days that David lived in the country of the Philistines was a full year and four months. <sup>8</sup> David and his men went up and raided the Geshurites, the Girzites, and the Amalekites; for those were the inhabitants of the land, who were of old, on the way to Shur, even to the land of Egypt. <sup>9</sup> David struck the land, and saved no man or woman alive, and took away the sheep, the cattle, the donkeys, the camels, and the clothing. Then he returned, and came to Achish.

<sup>10</sup> Achish said, "Against whom have you made a raid today?"

David said, "Against the South of Judah, against the South of the Jerahmeelites, and against the South of the Kenites." <sup>11</sup> David saved neither man nor woman alive, to bring them to Gath, saying, "Lest they should tell about us, saying, 'David did this, and this has been his way all the time he has lived in the country of the Philistines.'"

<sup>12</sup> Achish believed David, saying, "He has made his people Israel utterly to abhor him. Therefore he will be my servant forever."

28

<sup>1</sup> In those days, the Philistines gathered their armies together for warfare, to fight with Israel. Achish said to David, "Know assuredly that you will go out with me in the army, you and your men."

<sup>2</sup> David said to Achish, "Therefore you will know what your servant can do."

Achish said to David, "Therefore I will make you my bodyguard forever."

<sup>3</sup> Now Samuel was dead, and all Israel had mourned for him, and buried him in Ramah, even in his own city. Saul had put away those who had familiar spirits the wizards, out of the land. <sup>4</sup> The Philistines gathered themselves together, and came and encamped in Shunem; and Saul gathered all Israel together, and they encamped in Gilboa. <sup>5</sup> When Saul saw the army of the Philistines, he was afraid, and his heart trembled greatly. <sup>6</sup> When Saul inquired of Yahweh, Yahweh didn't answer him by dreams, by Urim, or by prophets. <sup>7</sup> Then Saul said to his servants, "Seek for me a woman who has a familiar spirit, that I may go to her, and inquire of her.”

His servants said to him, “Behold, there is a woman who has a familiar spirit at Endor.”

<sup>8</sup> Saul disguised himself and put on other clothing, and went, he and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night. Then he said, “Please consult for me by the familiar spirit, and bring me up whomever I shall name to you.”

<sup>9</sup> The woman said to him, “Behold, you know what Saul has done, how he has cut off those who have familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land. Why then do you lay a snare for my life, to cause me to die?”

<sup>10</sup> Saul swore to her by Yahweh, saying, “As Yahweh lives, no punishment will happen to you for this thing.”

<sup>11</sup> Then the woman said, “Whom shall I bring up to you?”

He said, “Bring Samuel up for me.”

<sup>12</sup> When the woman saw Samuel, she cried with a loud voice; and the woman spoke to Saul, saying, “Why have you deceived me? For you are Saul!”

<sup>13</sup> The king said to her, “Don’t be afraid! What do you see?”

The woman said to Saul, “I see a god coming up out of the earth.”

<sup>14</sup> He said to her, “What does he look like?”

She said, “An old man comes up. He is covered with a robe.” Saul perceived that it was Samuel, and he bowed with his face to the ground, and showed respect.

<sup>15</sup> Samuel said to Saul, “Why have you disturbed me, to bring me up?”

Saul answered, “I am very distressed; for the Philistines make war against me, and God has departed from me, and answers me no more, by prophets, or by dreams. Therefore I have called you, that you may make known to me what I shall do.”

<sup>16</sup> Samuel said, “Why then do you ask me, since Yahweh has departed from you and has become your adversary? <sup>17</sup> Yahweh has done to you as he spoke by me. Yahweh has torn the kingdom out of your hand, and given it to your neighbor, even to David. <sup>18</sup> Because you didn’t obey Yahweh’s voice, and didn’t execute his fierce wrath on Amalek, therefore Yahweh has done this thing to you today. <sup>19</sup> Moreover Yahweh will deliver Israel also with you into the hand of the Philistines; and tomorrow you and your sons will be with me. Yahweh will deliver the army of Israel also into the hand of the Philistines.”

<sup>20</sup> Then Saul fell immediately his full length on the earth, and was terrified, because of Samuel’s words. There was no strength in him; for he had eaten no bread all the day or all the night.

<sup>21</sup> The woman came to Saul, and saw that he was very troubled, and said to him, “Behold, your servant has listened to your voice, and I have put my life in my hand, and have listened to your words which you spoke to me. <sup>22</sup> Now therefore, please listen also to the voice of your servant, and let me set a morsel of bread before you. Eat, that you may have strength, when you go on your way.”

<sup>23</sup> But he refused, and said, “I will not eat.” But his servants, together with the woman, constrained him; and he listened to their voice. So he arose from the earth and sat on the bed. <sup>24</sup> The woman had a fattened calf in the house. She hurried and killed it; and she took flour, and kneaded it, and baked unleavened bread of it. <sup>25</sup> She brought it before Saul, and before his servants; and they ate. Then they rose up, and went away that night.

<sup>2</sup> The lords of the Philistines passed on by hundreds and by thousands; and David and his men passed on in the rear with Achish.

Achish said to the princes of the Philistines, "Isn't this David, the servant of Saul the king of Israel, who has been with me these days, or rather these years, and I have found no fault in him since he fell away to today?"

<sup>4</sup> But the princes of the Philistines were angry with him; and the princes of the Philistines said to him, "Make the man return, that he may go back to his place where you have appointed him, and let him not go down with us to battle, lest in the battle he become an adversary to us. For with what should this fellow reconcile himself to his lord? Should it not be with the heads of these men?" <sup>5</sup> Isn't this David, of whom people sang to one another in dances, saying, 'Saul has slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands?'"

<sup>6</sup> Then Achish called David, and said to him, "As Yahweh lives, you have been upright, and your going out and your coming in with me in the army is good in my sight; for I have not found evil in you since the day of your coming to me to this day. Nevertheless, the lords don't favor you. <sup>7</sup> Therefore now return, and go in peace, that you not displease the lords of the Philistines."

<sup>8</sup> David said to Achish, "But what have I done? What have you found in your servant so long as I have been before you to this day, that I may not go and fight against the enemies of my lord the king?"

<sup>9</sup> Achish answered David, "I know that you are good in my sight, as an angel of God. Notwithstanding the princes of the Philistines have said, 'He shall not go up with us to the battle.' <sup>10</sup> Therefore now rise up early in the morning with the servants of your lord who have come with you; and as soon as you are up early in the morning, and have light, depart."

<sup>11</sup> So David rose up early, he and his men, to depart in the morning, to return into the land of the Philistines, and the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

30

<sup>1</sup> When David and his men had come to Ziklag on the third day, the Amalekites had made a raid on the South, and on Ziklag, and had struck Ziklag, and burned it with fire, <sup>2</sup> and had taken captive the women and all who were in it, both small and great. They didn't kill any, but carried them off, and went their way. <sup>3</sup> When David and his men came to the city, behold, it was burned with fire; and their wives, their sons, and their daughters were taken captive. <sup>4</sup> Then David and the people who were with him lifted up their voice and wept until they had no more power to weep. <sup>5</sup> David's two wives were taken captive, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite. <sup>6</sup> David was greatly distressed; for the people spoke of stoning him, because the souls of all the people were grieved, every man for his sons and for his daughters; but David strengthened himself in Yahweh his God. <sup>7</sup> David said to Abiathar the priest, the son of Ahimelech, "Please bring the ephod here to me."

Abiathar brought the ephod to David. <sup>8</sup> David inquired of Yahweh, saying, "If I pursue after this troop, will I overtake them?"

He answered him, "Pursue; for you will surely overtake them, and will without fail recover all."

<sup>9</sup> So David went, he and the six hundred men who were with him, and came to the brook Besor, where those who were left behind stayed. <sup>10</sup> But David pursued, he and four hundred men; for two hundred stayed behind, who were so faint that they couldn't go over the brook Besor. <sup>11</sup> They found an Egyptian in the field, and brought him to David, and gave him bread, and he ate; and they gave him water to drink. <sup>12</sup> They gave him a piece of a cake of figs, and two clusters of raisins. When he had eaten, his spirit came again to him; for he had eaten no bread, and drank no water for three days and three nights. <sup>13</sup> David asked him, "To whom do you belong? Where are you from?"

He said, "I am a young man of Egypt, servant to an Amalekite; and my master left me, because three days ago I got sick. <sup>14</sup> We made a raid on the South of the Cherethites, and on that which belongs to Judah, and on the South of Caleb; and we burned Ziklag with fire."

<sup>15</sup> David said to him, "Will you bring me down to this troop?"

He said, "Swear to me by God that you will not kill me and not deliver me up into the hands of my master, and I will bring you down to this troop."

<sup>16</sup> When he had brought him down, behold, they were spread around over all the ground, eating, drinking, and dancing, because of all the great plunder that they had taken out of the land of the Philistines, and out of the land of Judah. <sup>17</sup> David struck them from the twilight even to the evening of the next day. Not a man of them escaped from there, except four hundred young men, who rode on camels and fled. <sup>18</sup> David recovered all that the Amalekites had taken; and David rescued his two wives. <sup>19</sup> There was nothing lacking to them, neither small nor great, neither sons nor daughters, neither plunder, nor anything that they had taken to them. David brought back all. <sup>20</sup> David took all the flocks and the herds, which they drove before those other livestock, and said, "This is David's plunder."

<sup>21</sup> David came to the two hundred men, who were so faint that they could not follow David, whom also they had made to stay at the brook Besor; and they went out to meet David, and to meet the people who were with him. When David came near to the people, he greeted them. <sup>22</sup> Then all the wicked men and base fellows, of those who went with David, answered and said, "Because they didn't go with us, we will not give them anything of the plunder that we have recovered, except to every man his wife and his children, that he may lead them away, and depart."

<sup>23</sup> Then David said, "Do not do so, my brothers, with that which Yahweh has given to us, who has preserved us, and delivered the troop that came against us into our hand. <sup>24</sup> Who will listen to you in this matter? For as his share is who goes down to the battle, so shall his share be who stays with the baggage. They shall share alike.” <sup>25</sup> It was so from that day forward, that he made it a statute and an ordinance for Israel to this day. <sup>26</sup> When David came to Ziklag, he sent some of the plunder to the elders of Judah, even to his friends, saying, “Behold, a present for you from the plunder of Yahweh’s enemies.” <sup>27</sup> He sent it to those who were in Bethel, to those who were in Ramoth of the South, to those who were in Jattir, <sup>28</sup> to those who were in Aroer, to those who were in Siphmoth, to those who were in Eshtemoa, <sup>29</sup> to those who were in Racal, to those who were in the cities of the Jerahmeelites, to those who were in the cities of the Kenites, <sup>30</sup> to those who were in Hormah, to those who were in Borashan, to those who were in Athach, <sup>31</sup> to those who were in Hebron, and to all the places where David himself and his men used to stay.

31

to his armor bearer, “Draw your sword, and thrust me through with it, lest these uncircumcised come and thrust me through, and abuse me!” But his armor bearer would not; for he was terrified. Therefore Saul took his sword, and fell on it. <sup>5</sup> When his armor bearer saw that Saul was dead, he likewise fell on his sword, and died with him. <sup>6</sup> So Saul died, and his three sons, and his armor bearer, and all his men, that same day together.

<sup>7</sup> When the men of Israel who were on the other side of the valley, and those who were beyond the Jordan, saw that the men of Israel fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, they abandoned the cities and fled; and the Philistines came and lived in them. <sup>8</sup> On the next day, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, they found Saul and his three sons fallen on Mount Gilboa. <sup>9</sup> They cut off his head, stripped off his armor, and sent into the land of the Philistines all around, to carry the news to the house of their idols, and to the people. <sup>10</sup> They put his armor in the house of the Ashtaroth, and they fastened his body to the wall of Beth Shan. <sup>11</sup> When the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead heard what the Philistines had done to Saul, <sup>12</sup> all the valiant men arose, went all night, and took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons from the wall of Beth Shan; and they came to Jabesh, and burned them there. <sup>13</sup> They took their bones and buried them under the tamarisk<sup>c</sup> tree in Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

1

<sup>3</sup> David said to him, “Where do you come from?”

He said to him, “I have escaped out of the camp of Israel.”

<sup>4</sup> David said to him, “How did it go? Please tell me.”

He answered, “The people have fled from the battle, and many of the people also have fallen and are dead. Saul and Jonathan his son are dead also.”

<sup>5</sup> David said to the young man who told him, “How do you know that Saul and Jonathan his son are dead?”

<sup>6</sup> The young man who told him said, “As I happened by chance on Mount Gilboa, behold, Saul was leaning on his spear; and behold, the chariots and the horsemen followed close behind him. <sup>7</sup> When he looked behind him, he saw me, and called to me. I answered, ‘Here I am.’ <sup>8</sup> He said to me, ‘Who are you?’ I answered him, ‘I am an Amalekite.’ <sup>9</sup> He said to me, ‘Please stand beside me, and kill me; for anguish has taken hold of me, because my life lingers in me.’ <sup>10</sup> So I stood beside him and killed him, because I was sure that he could not live after that he had fallen. I took the crown that was on his head and the bracelet that was on his arm, and have brought them here to my lord.”

<sup>11</sup> Then David took hold on his clothes, and tore them; and all the men who were with him did likewise. <sup>12</sup> They mourned, wept, and fasted until evening, for Saul, and for Jonathan his son, and for the people of Yahweh,<sup>b</sup> and for the house of Israel; because they had fallen by the sword. <sup>13</sup> David said to the young man who told him, “Where are you from?”

He answered, “I am the son of a foreigner, an Amalekite.”

<sup>14</sup> David said to him, “Why were you not afraid to stretch out your hand to destroy Yahweh’s anointed?” <sup>15</sup> David called one of the young men, and said, “Go near, and cut him down!” He struck him so that he died. <sup>16</sup> David said to him, “Your blood be on your head; for your mouth has testified against you, saying, ‘I have slain Yahweh’s anointed.’”

<sup>19</sup> “Your glory, Israel, was slain on your high places!

How the mighty have fallen!

Don’t publish it in the streets of Ashkelon, lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice,

- lest the daughters of the uncircumcised triumph.
- 21 You mountains of Gilboa, let there be no dew or rain on you,
and no fields of offerings;
For there the shield of the mighty was defiled and cast away,
The shield of Saul was not anointed with oil.
- 22 From the blood of the slain,
from the fat of the mighty,
Jonathan's bow didn't turn back.
Saul's sword didn't return empty.
- 23 Saul and Jonathan were lovely and pleasant in their lives.
In their death, they were not divided.
They were swifter than eagles.
They were stronger than lions.
- 24 You daughters of Israel, weep over Saul, who clothed you delicately in scarlet,
who put ornaments of gold on your clothing.
- 25 How the mighty have fallen in the middle of the battle!
Jonathan was slain on your high places.
- 26 I am distressed for you, my brother Jonathan.
You have been very pleasant to me.
Your love to me was wonderful,
passing the love of women.
- 27 How the mighty have fallen,
and the weapons of war have perished!"

<sup>1</sup> After this, David inquired of Yahweh, saying, "Shall I go up into any of the cities of Judah?"

Yahweh said to him, "Go up."

David said, "Where shall I go up?"

He said, "To Hebron."

<sup>8</sup> Now Abner the son of Ner, captain of Saul's army, had taken Ishbosheth the son of Saul, and brought him over to Mahanaim; <sup>9</sup> and he made him king over Gilead, and over the Ashurites, and over Jezreel, and over Ephraim, and over Benjamin, and over all Israel. <sup>10</sup> Ishbosheth, Saul's son, was forty years old when he began to reign over Israel, and he reigned two years. But the house of Judah followed David. <sup>11</sup> The time that David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months. <sup>12</sup> Abner the son of Ner, and the servants of Ishbosheth the son of Saul, went out from Mahanaim to Gibeon. <sup>13</sup> Joab the son of Zeruiah and David's servants went out, and met them by the pool of Gibeon; and they sat down, the one on the one side of the pool, and the other on the other side of the pool. <sup>14</sup> Abner said to Joab, "Please let the young men arise and play before us!"

Joab said, "Let them arise!" <sup>15</sup> Then they arose and went over by number: twelve for Benjamin and for Ishbosheth the son of Saul, and twelve of David's servants. <sup>16</sup> They each caught his opponent by the head, and thrust his sword in his fellow's side; so they fell down together: therefore that place in Gibeon was called Helkath Hazzurim.<sup>c</sup> <sup>17</sup> The battle was very severe that day; and Abner was beaten, and the men of Israel, before David's servants. <sup>18</sup> The three sons of Zeruiah were there, Joab, and Abishai, and Asahel: and Asahel was as light of foot as a wild gazelle. <sup>19</sup> Asahel pursued Abner; and in going he didn't turn to the right hand or to the left from following Abner. <sup>20</sup> Then Abner looked behind him, and said, "Is that you, Asahel?"

He answered, "It is."

<sup>21</sup> Abner said to him, "Turn aside to your right hand or to your left, and grab one of the young men, and take his armor." But Asahel would not turn aside from following him. <sup>22</sup> Abner said again to Asahel, "Turn aside from following me. Why should I strike you to the ground? How then could I look Joab your brother in the face?" <sup>23</sup> However he refused to turn aside.

Therefore Abner with the back end of the spear struck him in the body, so that the spear came out behind him; and he fell down there, and died in the same place. As many as came to the place where Asahel fell down and died stood still. <sup>24</sup> But Joab and Abishai pursued Abner. The sun went down when they had come to the hill of Ammah, that lies before Giah by the way of the wilderness of Gibeon. <sup>25</sup> The children of Benjamin gathered themselves together after Abner, and became one band, and stood on the top of a hill. <sup>26</sup> Then Abner called to Joab, and said, "Shall the sword devour forever? Don't you know that it will be bitterness in the latter end? How long will it be then, before you ask the people to return from following their brothers?"

<sup>27</sup> Joab said, "As God<sup>d</sup> lives, if you had not spoken, surely then in the morning the people would have gone away, and not each followed his brother." <sup>28</sup> So Joab blew the trumpet; and all the people stood still, and pursued Israel no more, and they fought no more. <sup>29</sup> Abner and his men went all that night through the Arabah; and they passed over the Jordan, and went through all Bithron, and came to Mahanaim. <sup>30</sup> Joab returned from following Abner; and when he had gathered all the people together, nineteen men of David's and Asahel were missing. <sup>31</sup> But David's servants had struck Benjamin and of Abner's men so that three hundred sixty men died. <sup>32</sup> They took up Asahel, and buried him in the tomb of his father, which was in Bethlehem. Joab and his men went all night, and the day broke on them at Hebron.

<sup>1</sup> Now there was long war between Saul's house and David's house. David grew stronger and stronger, but Saul's house grew weaker and weaker. <sup>2</sup> Sons were born to David in Hebron. His firstborn was Amnon, of Ahinoam the Jezreelitess; <sup>3</sup> and his second, Chileab, of Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite; and the third, Absalom the son of Maacah the daughter of Talmai king of Geshur; <sup>4</sup> and the fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith; and the fifth, Shephatiah the son of Abital; <sup>5</sup> and the sixth, Ithream, of Eglah, David's wife. These were born to David in Hebron.

<sup>6</sup> While there was war between Saul's house and David's house, Abner made himself strong in Saul's house. <sup>7</sup> Now Saul had a concubine, whose name was Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah; and Ishbosheth said to Abner, "Why have you gone in to my father's concubine?"

<sup>8</sup> Then Abner was very angry about Ishbosheth's words, and said, "Am I a dog's head that belongs to Judah? Today I show kindness to Saul's house your father, to his brothers, and to his friends, and have not delivered you into the hand of David; and yet you charge me today with a fault concerning this woman! <sup>9</sup> God do so to Abner, and more also, if, as Yahweh has sworn to David, I don't do even so to him; <sup>10</sup> to transfer the kingdom from Saul's house, and to set up David's throne over Israel and over Judah, from Dan even to Beersheba."

<sup>11</sup> He could not answer Abner another word, because he was afraid of him.

saying, "Make your alliance with me, and behold, my hand will be with you, to bring all Israel around to you."

<sup>13</sup> He said, "Good. I will make a treaty with you, but one thing I require of you. That is, you will not see my face unless you first bring Michal, Saul's daughter, when you come to see my face."

<sup>14</sup> David sent messengers to Ishbosheth, Saul's son, saying, "Deliver me my wife Michal, whom I was given to marry for one hundred foreskins of the Philistines."

<sup>15</sup> Ishbosheth sent and took her from her husband, even from Paltiel the son of Laish. <sup>16</sup> Her husband went with her, weeping as he went, and followed her to Bahurim. Then Abner said to him, "Go! Return!" and he returned. <sup>17</sup> Abner had communication with the elders of Israel, saying, "In times past, you sought for David to be king over you. <sup>18</sup> Now then do it; for Yahweh has spoken of David, saying, 'By the hand of my servant David, I will save my people Israel out of the hand of the Philistines, and out of the hand of all their enemies.'"

<sup>19</sup> Abner also spoke in the ears of Benjamin: and Abner went also to speak in the ears of David in Hebron all that seemed good to Israel, and to the whole house of Benjamin. <sup>20</sup> So Abner came to David to Hebron, and twenty men with him. David made Abner and the men who were with him a feast. <sup>21</sup> Abner said to David, "I will arise and go, and will gather all Israel to my lord the king, that they may make a covenant with you, and that you may reign over all that your soul desires." David sent Abner away; and he went in peace.

plunder with them; but Abner was not with David in Hebron; for he had sent him away, and he had gone in peace.<sup>23</sup> When Joab and all the army who was with him had come, they told Joab, "Abner the son of Ner came to the king, and he has sent him away, and he has gone in peace."

<sup>24</sup> Then Joab came to the king, and said, "What have you done? Behold, Abner came to you. Why is it that you have sent him away, and he is already gone?"<sup>25</sup> You know Abner the son of Ner. He came to deceive you, and to know your going out and your coming in, and to know all that you do."

<sup>26</sup> When Joab had come out from David, he sent messengers after Abner, and they brought him back from the well of Sirah; but David didn't know it.<sup>27</sup> When Abner was returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside into the middle of the gate to speak with him quietly, and struck him there in the body, so that he died, for the blood of Asahel his brother.<sup>28</sup> Afterward, when David heard it, he said, "I and my kingdom are guiltless before Yahweh forever of the blood of Abner the son of Ner.<sup>29</sup> Let it fall on the head of Joab, and on all his father's house. Let there not fail from the house of Joab one who has an issue, or who is a leper, or who leans on a staff, or who falls by the sword, or who lacks bread."<sup>30</sup> So Joab and Abishai his brother killed Abner, because he had killed their brother Asahel at Gibeon in the battle.<sup>31</sup> David said to Joab, and to all the people who were with him, "Tear your clothes, and clothe yourselves with sackcloth, and mourn in front of Abner." King David followed the bier.<sup>32</sup> They buried Abner in Hebron; and the king lifted up his voice, and wept at Abner's grave; and all the people wept.<sup>33</sup> The king lamented for Abner, and said, "Should Abner die as a fool dies?"<sup>34</sup> Your hands weren't bound, and your feet weren't put into fetters. As a man falls before the children of iniquity, so you fell."

All the people wept again over him.<sup>35</sup> All the people came to urge David to eat bread while it was yet day; but David swore, saying, "God do so to me, and more also, if I taste bread, or anything else, until the sun goes down."

<sup>36</sup> All the people took notice of it, and it pleased them; as whatever the king did pleased all the people.<sup>37</sup> So all the people and all Israel understood that day that it was not of the king to kill Abner the son of Ner.<sup>38</sup> The king said to his servants, "Don't you know that there a prince and a great man has fallen today in Israel?"<sup>39</sup> I am weak today, though anointed king. These men, the sons of Zeruiah are too hard for me. May Yahweh reward the evildoer according to his wickedness."

4

<sup>1</sup> When Saul's son heard that Abner was dead in Hebron, his hands became feeble, and all the Israelites were troubled.<sup>2</sup> Saul's son had two men who were captains of raiding bands. The name of one was Baanah, and the name of the other Rechab, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, of the children of Benjamin (for Beeroth also is counted as part of Benjamin:<sup>3</sup> and the Beerothites fled to Gittaim, and have lived as foreigners there until today).<sup>4</sup> Now Jonathan, Saul's son, had a son who was lame in his feet. He was five years old when the news came about Saul and Jonathan out of Jezreel; and his nurse picked him up and fled. As she hurried to flee, he fell and became lame. His name was Mephibosheth. <sup>5</sup> The sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah, went and came at about the heat of the day to the house of Ishbosheth, as he took his rest at noon. <sup>6</sup> They came there into the middle of the house, as though they would have fetched wheat; and they struck him in the body: and Rechab and Baanah his brother escaped. <sup>7</sup> Now when they came into the house, as he lay on his bed in his bedroom, they struck him, killed him, beheaded him, and took his head, and went by the way of the Arabah all night. <sup>8</sup> They brought the head of Ishbosheth to David to Hebron, and said to the king, "Behold, the head of Ishbosheth, the son of Saul, your enemy, who sought your life! Yahweh has avenged my lord the king today of Saul, and of his offspring.<sup>e</sup>"

<sup>9</sup> David answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and said to them, "As Yahweh lives, who has redeemed my soul out of all adversity, <sup>10</sup> when someone told me, 'Behold, Saul is dead,' thinking that he brought good news, I seized him and killed him in Ziklag, which was the reward I gave him for his news. <sup>11</sup> How much more, when wicked men have slain a righteous person in his own house on his bed, should I not now require his blood from your hand, and rid the earth of you?" <sup>12</sup> David commanded his young men, and they killed them, cut off their hands and their feet, and hanged them up beside the pool in Hebron. But they took the head of Ishbosheth, and buried it in Abner's grave in Hebron.

<sup>1</sup> Then all the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron, and spoke, saying, "Behold, we are your bone and your flesh." <sup>2</sup> In times past, when Saul was king over us, it was you who led Israel out and in. Yahweh said to you, 'You will be shepherd of my people Israel, and you will be prince over Israel.'" <sup>3</sup> So all the elders of Israel came to the king to Hebron, and king David made a covenant with them in Hebron before Yahweh; and they anointed David king over Israel.

<sup>4</sup> David was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years. <sup>5</sup> In Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months; and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty-three years over all Israel and Judah. <sup>6</sup> The king and his men went to Jerusalem against the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land, who spoke to David, saying, "The blind and the lame will keep you out of here"; thinking, "David can't come in here." <sup>7</sup> Nevertheless David took the stronghold of Zion. This is David's city. <sup>8</sup> David said on that day, "Whoever strikes the Jebusites, let him go up to the watercourse and strike the lame and the blind, who are hated by David's soul." Therefore they say, "The blind and the lame can't come into the house."

that Yahweh had established him king over Israel, and that he had exalted his kingdom for his people Israel's sake. <sup>13</sup> David took more concubines and wives for himself out of Jerusalem, after he had come from Hebron; and more sons and daughters were born to David. <sup>14</sup> These are the names of those who were born to him in Jerusalem: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon, <sup>15</sup> Ibhar, Elishua, Nepheg, Japhia, <sup>16</sup> Elishama, Eliada, and Eliphelet.

<sup>17</sup> When the Philistines heard that they had anointed David king over Israel, all the Philistines went up to seek David, but David heard about it and went down to the stronghold. <sup>18</sup> Now the Philistines had come and spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim. <sup>19</sup> David inquired of Yahweh, saying, "Shall I go up against the Philistines? Will you deliver them into my hand?"

Yahweh said to David, "Go up; for I will certainly deliver the Philistines into your hand."

<sup>20</sup> David came to Baal Perazim, and David struck them there. Then he said, "Yahweh has broken my enemies before me, like the breach of waters." Therefore he called the name of that place Baal Perazim.<sup>f</sup> <sup>21</sup> They left their images there; and David and his men took them away.

then Yahweh has gone out before you to strike the army of the Philistines."

<sup>25</sup> David did so, as Yahweh commanded him, and struck the Philistines all the way from Geba to Gezer.

6

<sup>1</sup> David again gathered together all the chosen men of Israel, thirty thousand. <sup>2</sup> David arose, and went with all the people who were with him, from Baale Judah, to bring up from there God's ark, which is called by the Name, even the name of Yahweh of Armies who sits above the cherubim. <sup>3</sup> They set God's ark on a new cart, and brought it out of Abinadab's house that was on the hill; and Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, drove the new cart. <sup>4</sup> They brought it out of Abinadab's house, which was in the hill, with God's ark; and Ahio went before the ark. <sup>5</sup> David and all the house of Israel played before Yahweh with all kinds of instruments made of cypress wood, with harps, with stringed instruments, with tambourines, with castanets, and with cymbals. <sup>6</sup> When they came to the threshing floor of Nacon, Uzzah reached for God's ark, and took hold of it; for the cattle stumbled. <sup>7</sup> Yahweh's anger burned against Uzzah; and God struck him there for his error; and he died there by God's ark. <sup>8</sup> David was displeased, because Yahweh had broken out against Uzzah; and he called that place Perez Uzzah,<sup>g</sup> to this day. <sup>9</sup> David was afraid of Yahweh that day; and he said, "How could Yahweh's ark come to me?" <sup>10</sup> So David would not move Yahweh's ark to be with him in David's city; but David carried it aside into Obed-Edom the Gittite's house.

<sup>11</sup> Yahweh's ark remained in Obed-Edom the Gittite's house three months; and Yahweh blessed Obed-Edom and all his house. <sup>12</sup> King David was told, "Yahweh has blessed the house of Obed-Edom, and all that belongs to him, because of God's ark."

So David went and brought up God's ark from the house of Obed-Edom into David's city with joy. <sup>13</sup> When those who bore Yahweh's ark had gone six paces, he sacrificed an ox and a fattened calf. <sup>14</sup> David danced before Yahweh with all his might; and David was clothed in a linen ephod. <sup>15</sup> So David and all the house of Israel brought up Yahweh's ark with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet.

<sup>16</sup> As Yahweh's ark came into David's city, Michal the daughter of Saul looked out through the window, and saw king David leaping and dancing before Yahweh; and she despised him in her heart. <sup>17</sup> They brought in Yahweh's ark, and set it in its place, in the middle of the tent that David had pitched for it; and David offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before Yahweh. <sup>18</sup> When David had finished offering the burnt offering and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of Yahweh of Armies. <sup>19</sup> He gave to all the people, even among the whole multitude of Israel, both to men and women, to everyone a portion of bread, dates, and raisins. So all the people departed, each to his own house. <sup>20</sup> Then David returned to bless his household. Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David, and said, "How glorious the king of Israel was today, who uncovered himself today in the eyes of the servants of his servants, as one of the vain fellows shamelessly uncovers himself!"

<sup>21</sup> David said to Michal, "It was before Yahweh, who chose me above your father, and above all his house, to appoint me prince over the people of Yahweh, over Israel. Therefore I will celebrate before Yahweh. <sup>22</sup> I will be yet more vile than this, and will be base in my own sight. But of the servants of whom you have spoken, they will honor me."

<sup>23</sup> Michal the daughter of Saul had no child to the day of her death.

7

<sup>3</sup> Nathan said to the king, "Go, do all that is in your heart; for Yahweh is with you."

<sup>4</sup> That same night, Yahweh's word came to Nathan, saying, <sup>5</sup> "Go and tell my servant David, 'Yahweh says, "Should you build me a house for me to dwell in? <sup>6</sup> For I have not lived in a house since the day that I brought the children of Israel up out of Egypt, even to this day, but have moved around in a tent and in a tabernacle. <sup>7</sup> In all places in which I have walked with all the children of Israel, did I say a word to any of the tribes of Israel, whom I commanded to be shepherd of my people Israel, saying, 'Why have you not built me a house of cedar?'"'" <sup>8</sup> Now therefore tell my servant David this, 'Yahweh of Armies says, "I took you from the sheep pen, from following the sheep, to be prince over my people, over Israel. <sup>9</sup> I have been with you wherever you went, and have cut off all your enemies from before you. I will make you a great name, like the name of the great ones who are in the earth. <sup>10</sup> I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in their own place, and be moved no more. The children of wickedness will not afflict them any more, as at the first, <sup>11</sup> and as from the day that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel. I will cause you to rest from all your enemies. Moreover Yahweh tells you that Yahweh will make you a house. <sup>12</sup> When your days are fulfilled, and you sleep with your fathers, I will set up your offspring<sup>h</sup> after you, who will proceed out of your body, and I will establish his kingdom. <sup>13</sup> He will build a house for my name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever. <sup>14</sup> I will be his father, and he will be my son. If he commits iniquity, I will chasten him with the rod of men, and with the stripes of the children of men; <sup>15</sup> but my loving kindness will not depart from him, as I took it from Saul, whom I put away before you. <sup>16</sup> Your house and your kingdom will be made sure forever before you. Your throne will be established forever.””” <sup>17</sup> Nathan spoke to David all these words, and according to all this vision.

<sup>18</sup> Then David the king went in, and sat before Yahweh; and he said, “Who am I, Lord<sup>i</sup> Yahweh, and what is my house, that you have brought me this far? <sup>19</sup> This was yet a small thing in your eyes, Lord Yahweh; but you have spoken also of your servant’s house for a great while to come; and this among men, Lord Yahweh! <sup>20</sup> What more can David say to you? For you know your servant, Lord Yahweh. <sup>21</sup> For your word’s sake, and according to your own heart, you have worked all this greatness, to make your servant know it. <sup>22</sup> Therefore you are great, Yahweh God. For there is no one like you, neither is there any God besides you, according to all that we have heard with our ears. <sup>23</sup> What one nation in the earth is like your people, even like Israel, whom God went to redeem to himself for a people, and to make himself a name, and to do great things for you, and awesome things for your land, before your people, whom you redeemed to yourself out of Egypt, from the nations and their gods? <sup>24</sup> You established for yourself your people Israel to be your people forever; and you, Yahweh, became their God. <sup>25</sup> Now, Yahweh God, the word that you have spoken concerning your servant, and concerning his house, confirm it forever, and do as you have spoken. <sup>26</sup> Let your name be magnified forever, saying, ‘Yahweh of Armies is God over Israel; and the house of your servant David will be established before you.’ <sup>27</sup> For you, Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, have revealed to your servant, saying, ‘I will build you a house.’ Therefore your servant has found in his heart to pray this prayer to you.

<sup>28</sup> “Now, O Lord Yahweh, you are God, and your words are truth, and you have promised this good thing to your servant. <sup>29</sup> Now therefore let it please you to bless the house of your servant, that it may continue forever before you; for you, Lord Yahweh, have spoken it. Let the house of your servant be blessed forever with your blessing.”

<sup>1</sup> After this, David struck the Philistines and subdued them; and David took the bridle of the mother city out of the hand of the Philistines. <sup>2</sup> He struck Moab, and measured them with the line, making them to lie down on the ground; and he measured two lines to put to death, and one full line to keep alive. The Moabites became servants to David, and brought tribute. <sup>3</sup> David struck also Hadadezer the son of Rehob, king of Zobah, as he went to recover his dominion at the River. <sup>4</sup> David took from him one thousand seven hundred horsemen and twenty thousand footmen. David hamstringed all the chariot horses, but reserved of them for one hundred chariots. <sup>5</sup> When the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, David struck twenty two thousand men of the Syrians. <sup>6</sup> Then David put garrisons in Syria of Damascus; and the Syrians became servants to David, and brought tribute. Yahweh gave victory to David wherever he went. <sup>7</sup> David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem. <sup>8</sup> From Bethah and from Berothai, cities of Hadadezer, king David took a great quantity of brass. <sup>9</sup> When Toi king of Hamath heard that David had struck all the army of Hadadezer, <sup>10</sup> then Toi sent Joram his son to king David, to greet him, and to bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer and struck him; for Hadadezer had wars with Toi. Joram brought with him vessels of silver, vessels of gold, and vessels of brass: <sup>11</sup>

King David also dedicated these to Yahweh, with the silver and gold that he dedicated of all the nations which he subdued; <sup>12</sup> of Syria, of Moab, of the children of Ammon, of the Philistines, of Amalek, and of the plunder of Hadadezer, son of Rehob, king of Zobah.

9

<sup>1</sup> David said, “Is there yet any who is left of Saul's house, that I may show him kindness for Jonathan's sake?” <sup>2</sup> There was of Saul's house a servant whose name was Ziba, and they called him to David; and the king said to him, “Are you Ziba?”

He said, “I am your servant.”

<sup>3</sup> The king said, “Is there not yet any of Saul's house, that I may show the kindness of God to him?”

Ziba said to the king, “Jonathan still has a son, who is lame in his feet.”

<sup>4</sup> The king said to him, “Where is he?”

Ziba said to the king, "Behold, he is in the house of Machir the son of Ammiel, in Lo Debar."

<sup>5</sup> Then king David sent, and brought him out of the house of Machir the son of Ammiel, from Lo Debar. <sup>6</sup> Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, came to David, and fell on his face, and showed respect. David said, "Mephibosheth."

He answered, "Behold, your servant!"

<sup>7</sup> David said to him, "Don't be afraid of him; for I will surely show you kindness for Jonathan your father's sake, and will restore to you all the land of Saul your father. You will eat bread at my table continually."

<sup>8</sup> He bowed down, and said, "What is your servant, that you should look at such a dead dog as I am?" <sup>9</sup> Then the king called to Ziba, Saul's servant, and said to him, "All that belonged to Saul and to all his house have I given to your master's son. <sup>10</sup> Till the land for him, you, your sons, and your servants. Bring in the harvest, that your master's son may have bread to eat; but Mephibosheth your master's son will always eat bread at my table."

Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants. <sup>11</sup> Then Ziba said to the king, "According to all that my lord the king commands his servant, so your servant will do." So Mephibosheth ate at the king's table, like one of the king's sons. <sup>12</sup> Mephibosheth had a young son, whose name was Mica. All that lived in Ziba's house were servants to Mephibosheth. <sup>13</sup> So Mephibosheth lived in Jerusalem; for he ate continually at the king's table. He was lame in both his feet.

10

<sup>1</sup> After this, the king of the children of Ammon died, and Hanun his son reigned in his place. <sup>2</sup> David said, "I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, as his father showed kindness to me." So David sent by his servants to comfort him concerning his father. David's servants came into the land of the children of Ammon.

<sup>3</sup> But the princes of the children of Ammon said to Hanun their lord, "Do you think that David honors your father, in that he has sent comforters to you? Hasn't David sent his servants to you to search the city, to spy it out, and to overthrow it?"

<sup>4</sup> So Hanun took David's servants, shaved off one half of their beards, and cut off their garments in the middle, even to their buttocks, and sent them away. <sup>5</sup> When they told David this, he sent to meet them, for the men were greatly ashamed. The king said, "Wait at Jericho until your beards have grown, and then return."

choice men of Israel, and put them in array against the Syrians. <sup>10</sup> The rest of the people he committed into the hand of Abishai his brother; and he put them in array against the children of Ammon. <sup>11</sup> He said, "If the Syrians are too strong for me, then you shall help me; but if the children of Ammon are too strong for you, then I will come and help you. <sup>12</sup> Be courageous, and let us be strong for our people, and for the cities of our God; and may Yahweh do what seems good to him." <sup>13</sup> So Joab and the people who were with him came near to the battle against the Syrians, and they fled before him. <sup>14</sup> When the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians had fled, they likewise fled before Abishai, and entered into the city. Then Joab returned from the children of Ammon, and came to Jerusalem. <sup>15</sup> When the Syrians saw that they were defeated by Israel, they gathered themselves together. <sup>16</sup> Hadadezer sent, and brought out the Syrians who were beyond the River: and they came to Helam, with Shobach the captain of the army of Hadadezer at their head. <sup>17</sup> David was told that; and he gathered all Israel together, passed over the Jordan, and came to Helam. The Syrians set themselves in array against David, and fought with him. <sup>18</sup> The Syrians fled before Israel; and David killed seven hundred charioteers of the Syrians, and forty thousand horsemen, and struck Shobach the captain of their army, so that he died there. <sup>19</sup> When all the kings who were servants to Hadadezer saw that they were defeated before Israel, they made peace with Israel, and served them. So the Syrians were afraid to help the children of Ammon any more.

<sup>4</sup> David sent messengers, and took her; and she came in to him, and he lay with her (for she was purified from her uncleanness); and she returned to her house. <sup>5</sup> The woman conceived; and she sent and told David, and said, "I am with child."

<sup>6</sup> David sent to Joab, "Send me Uriah the Hittite." Joab sent Uriah to David. <sup>7</sup> When Uriah had come to him, David asked him how Joab did, and how the people fared, and how the war prospered. <sup>8</sup> David said to Uriah, "Go down to your house and wash your feet." Uriah departed out of the king's house, and a gift from the king was sent after him. <sup>9</sup> But Uriah slept at the door of the king's house with all the servants of his lord, and didn't go down to his house. <sup>10</sup> When they had told David, saying, "Uriah didn't go down to his house," David said to Uriah, "Haven't you come from a journey? Why didn't you go down to your house?"

<sup>11</sup> Uriah said to David, "The ark, Israel, and Judah, are staying in tents; and my lord Joab and the servants of my lord, are encamped in the open field. Shall I then go into my house to eat and to drink, and to lie with my wife? As you live, and as your soul lives, I will not do this thing!”

<sup>12</sup> David said to Uriah, “Stay here today also, and tomorrow I will let you depart.” So Uriah stayed in Jerusalem that day, and the next day. <sup>13</sup> When David had called him, he ate and drink before him; and he made him drunk. At evening, he went out to lie on his bed with the servants of his lord, but didn’t go down to his house. <sup>14</sup> In the morning, David wrote a letter to Joab, and sent it by the hand of Uriah. <sup>15</sup> He wrote in the letter, saying, “Send Uriah to the forefront of the hottest battle, and retreat from him, that he may be struck, and die.”

<sup>16</sup> When Joab kept watch on the city, he assigned Uriah to the place where he knew that valiant men were. <sup>17</sup> The men of the city went out, and fought with Joab. Some of the people fell, even of David’s servants; and Uriah the Hittite died also. <sup>18</sup> Then Joab sent and told David all the things concerning the war; <sup>19</sup> and he commanded the messenger, saying, “When you have finished telling all the things concerning the war to the king, <sup>20</sup> it shall be that, if the king’s wrath arise, and he asks you, ‘Why did you go so near to the city to fight? Didn’t you know that they would shoot from the wall?’ <sup>21</sup> Who struck Abimelech the son of Jerubbesheth? Didn’t a woman cast an upper millstone on him from the wall, so that he died at Thebez? Why did you go so near the wall?’ then you shall say, ‘Your servant Uriah the Hittite is also dead.’”

<sup>22</sup> So the messenger went, and came and showed David all that Joab had sent him for. <sup>23</sup> The messenger said to David, “The men prevailed against us, and came out to us into the field, and we were on them even to the entrance of the gate. <sup>24</sup> The shooters shot at your servants from off the wall; and some of the king’s servants are dead, and your servant Uriah the Hittite is also dead.”

<sup>25</sup> Then David said to the messenger, “Tell Joab, ‘Don’t let this thing displease you, for the sword devours one as well as another. Make your battle stronger against the city, and overthrow it.’ Encourage him.”

<sup>26</sup> When Uriah’s wife heard that Uriah her husband was dead, she mourned for her husband. <sup>27</sup> When the mourning was past, David sent and took her home to his house, and she became his wife, and bore him a son. But the thing that David had done displeased Yahweh.

12

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh sent Nathan to David. He came to him, and said to him, “There were two men in one city; the one rich, and the other poor. <sup>2</sup> The rich man had very many flocks and herds, <sup>3</sup> but the poor man had nothing, except one little ewe lamb, which he had bought and raised. It grew up together with him, and with his children. It ate of his own food, drank of his own cup, and lay in his bosom, and was like a daughter to him. <sup>4</sup> A traveler came to the rich man, and he spared to take of his own flock and of his own herd, to prepare for the wayfaring man who had come to him, but took the poor man’s lamb, and prepared it for the man who had come to him.”

<sup>5</sup> David’s anger burned hot against the man, and he said to Nathan, “As Yahweh lives, the man who has done this deserves to die! <sup>6</sup> He must restore the lamb fourfold, because he did this thing, and because he had no pity!”

<sup>7</sup> Nathan said to David, “You are the man. This is what Yahweh, the God of Israel, says: ‘I anointed you king over Israel, and I delivered you out of the hand of Saul. <sup>8</sup> I gave you your master’s house, and your master’s wives into your bosom, and gave you the house of Israel and of Judah; and if that would have been too little, I would have added to you many more such things. <sup>9</sup> Why have you despised Yahweh’s word, to do that which is evil in his sight? You have struck Uriah the Hittite with the sword, and have taken his wife to be your wife, and have slain him with the sword of the children of Ammon. <sup>10</sup> Now therefore the sword will never depart from your house, because you have despised me, and have taken Uriah the Hittite’s wife to be your wife.’”

<sup>11</sup> “This is what Yahweh says: ‘Behold, I will raise up evil against you out of your own house; and I will take your wives before your eyes, and give them to your neighbor, and he will lie with your wives in the sight of this sun. <sup>12</sup> For you did this secretly, but I will do this thing before all Israel, and before the sun.’”

Nathan said to David, “Yahweh also has put away your sin. You will not die. <sup>14</sup> However, because by this deed you have given great occasion to Yahweh’s enemies to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you will surely die.” <sup>15</sup> Nathan departed to his house.

Yahweh struck the child that Uriah’s wife bore to David, and it was very sick. <sup>16</sup> David therefore begged God for the child; and David fasted, and went in, and lay all night on the ground. <sup>17</sup> The elders of his house arose beside him, to raise him up from the earth: but he would not, and he didn’t eat bread with them. <sup>18</sup> On the seventh day, the child died. David’s servants were afraid to tell him that the child was dead, for they said, “Behold, while the child was yet alive, we spoke to him, and he didn’t listen to our voice. How will he then harm himself, if we tell him that the child is dead?”

<sup>19</sup> But when David saw that his servants were whispering together, David perceived that the child was dead; and David said to his servants, “Is the child dead?”

They said, “He is dead.”

<sup>20</sup> Then David arose from the earth, and washed, and anointed himself, and changed his clothing; and he came into Yahweh’s house, and worshiped. Then he came to his own house; and when he requested, they set bread before him, and he ate. <sup>21</sup> Then his servants said to him, “What is this that you have done? You fasted and wept for the child while he was alive, but when the child was dead, you rose up and ate bread.”

<sup>22</sup> He said, “While the child was yet alive, I fasted and wept; for I said, ‘Who knows whether Yahweh will not be gracious to me, that the child may live?’ <sup>23</sup> But now he is dead, why should I fast? Can I bring him back again? I will go to him, but he will not return to me.”

<sup>24</sup> David comforted Bathsheba his wife, and went in to her, and lay with her. She bore a son, and he called his name Solomon. Yahweh loved him; <sup>25</sup> and he sent by the hand of Nathan the prophet, and he named him Jedidiah,<sup>j</sup> for Yahweh's sake.

<sup>29</sup> David gathered all the people together, and went to Rabbah, and fought against it, and took it. <sup>30</sup> He took the crown of their king from off his head; and its weight was a talent<sup>k</sup> of gold, and in it were precious stones; and it was set on David's head. He brought a great quantity of plunder out of the city. <sup>31</sup> He brought out the people who were in it, and put them under saws, under iron picks, under axes of iron, and made them pass through the brick kiln; and he did so to all the cities of the children of Ammon. Then David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

<sup>1</sup> After this, Absalom the son of David had a beautiful sister, whose name was Tamar; and Amnon the son of David loved her. <sup>2</sup> Amnon was so troubled that he became sick because of his sister Tamar; for she was a virgin; and it seemed hard to Amnon to do anything to her. <sup>3</sup> But Amnon had a friend, whose name was Jonadab, the son of Shimeah, David's brother; and Jonadab was a very subtle man. <sup>4</sup> He said to him, "Why, son of the king, are you so sad from day to day? Won't you tell me?"

Amnon said to him, "I love Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister."

<sup>5</sup> Jonadab said to him, "Lay down on your bed, and pretend to be sick. When your father comes to see you, tell him, 'Please let my sister Tamar come and give me bread to eat, and prepare the food in my sight, that I may see it, and eat it from her hand.'"

<sup>6</sup> So Amnon lay down and faked being sick. When the king came to see him, Amnon said to the king, "Please let my sister Tamar come, and make me a couple of cakes in my sight, that I may eat from her hand."

<sup>7</sup> Then David sent home to Tamar, saying, "Go now to your brother Amnon's house, and prepare food for him." <sup>8</sup> So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house; and he was lying down. She took dough, and kneaded it, made cakes in his sight, and baked the cakes. <sup>9</sup> She took the pan, and poured them out before him; but he refused to eat. Amnon said, "Have all men leave me." Then every man went out from him. <sup>10</sup> Amnon said to Tamar, "Bring the food into the room, that I may eat from your hand." Tamar took the cakes which she had made, and brought them into the room to Amnon her brother. <sup>11</sup> When she had brought them near to him to eat, he took hold of her, and said to her, "Come, lie with me, my sister!"

<sup>12</sup> She answered him, "No, my brother, do not force me! For no such thing ought to be done in Israel. Don't you do this folly. <sup>13</sup> As for me, where would I carry my shame? And as for you, you will be as one of the fools in Israel. Now therefore, please speak to the king; for he will not withhold me from you."

<sup>j</sup> "Jedidiah" means "loved by Yahweh". <sup>k</sup> A talent is about 30 kilograms or 66 pounds or 965 Troy ounces

<sup>14</sup> However he would not listen to her voice; but being stronger than she, he forced her, and lay with her. <sup>15</sup> Then Amnon hated her with exceedingly great hatred; for the hatred with which he hated her was greater than the love with which he had loved her. Amnon said to her, "Arise, be gone!"

<sup>16</sup> She said to him, "Not so, because this great wrong in sending me away is worse than the other that you did to me!"

But he would not listen to her. <sup>17</sup> Then he called his servant who ministered to him, and said, "Now put this woman out from me, and bolt the door after her."

<sup>18</sup> She had a garment of various colors on her; for the king's daughters who were virgins dressed in such robes. Then his servant brought her out and bolted the door after her. <sup>19</sup> Tamar put ashes on her head, and tore her garment of various colors that was on her; and she laid her hand on her head, and went her way, crying aloud as she went. <sup>20</sup> Absalom her brother said to her, "Has Amnon your brother been with you? But now hold your peace, my sister. He is your brother. Don't take this thing to heart."

So Tamar remained desolate in her brother Absalom's house. <sup>21</sup> But when king David heard of all these things, he was very angry. <sup>22</sup> Absalom spoke to Amnon neither good nor bad; for Absalom hated Amnon, because he had forced his sister Tamar. <sup>23</sup> After two full years, Absalom had sheep shearers in Baal Hazor, which is beside Ephraim: and Absalom invited all the king's sons. <sup>24</sup> Absalom came to the king, and said, "See now, your servant has sheep shearers. Please let the king and his servants go with your servant."

<sup>25</sup> The king said to Absalom, "No, my son, let us not all go, lest we be burdensome to you." He pressed him; however he would not go, but blessed him.

<sup>26</sup> Then Absalom said, "If not, please let my brother Amnon go with us."

The king said to him, "Why should he go with you?"

<sup>27</sup> But Absalom pressed him, and he let Amnon and all the king's sons go with him.

<sup>28</sup> Absalom commanded his servants, saying, "Mark now, when Amnon's heart is merry with wine; and when I tell you, 'Strike Amnon,' then kill him. Don't be afraid. Haven't I commanded you? Be courageous, and be valiant!"

<sup>29</sup> The servants of Absalom did to Amnon as Absalom had commanded. Then all the king's sons arose, and every man got up on his mule, and fled. <sup>30</sup> While they were on the way, the news came to David, saying, "Absalom has slain all the king's sons, and there is not one of them left!"

<sup>31</sup> Then the king arose, and tore his garments, and lay on the earth; and all his servants stood by with their clothes torn. <sup>32</sup> Jonadab, the son of Shimeah, David's brother, answered, "Don't let my lord suppose that they have killed all the young men the king's sons; for Amnon only is dead; for by the appointment of Absalom this has been determined from the day that he forced his sister Tamar. <sup>33</sup> Now therefore don't let my lord the king take the thing to his heart, to think that all the king's sons are dead; for only Amnon is dead." <sup>34</sup> But Absalom fled. The young man who kept the watch lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold, many people were coming by way of the hillside behind him. <sup>35</sup> Jonadab said to the king, "Behold, the king's sons are coming! It is as your servant said." <sup>36</sup> As soon as he had finished speaking, behold, the king's sons came, and lifted up their voice, and wept. The king also and all his servants wept bitterly. <sup>37</sup> But Absalom fled, and went to Talmai the son of Ammihur, king of Geshur. David mourned for his son every day. <sup>38</sup> So Absalom fled, and went to Geshur, and was there three years. <sup>39</sup> King David longed to go out to Absalom; for he was comforted concerning Amnon, since he was dead.

14

<sup>1</sup> Now Joab the son of Zeruah perceived that the king's heart was toward Absalom. <sup>2</sup> Joab sent to Tekoa, and brought a wise woman from there, and said to her, "Please act like a mourner, and put on mourning clothing, please, and don't anoint yourself with oil, but be as a woman who has mourned a long time for the dead. <sup>3</sup> Go in to the king, and speak like this to him." So Joab put the words in her mouth.

<sup>4</sup> When the woman of Tekoa spoke to the king, she fell on her face to the ground, showed respect, and said, "Help, O king!"

<sup>5</sup> The king said to her, "What ails you?"

She answered, "Truly I am a widow, and my husband is dead. <sup>6</sup> Your servant had two sons, and they both fought together in the field, and there was no one to part them, but the one struck the other, and killed him. <sup>7</sup> Behold, the whole family has risen against your servant, and they say, 'Deliver him who struck his brother, that we may kill him for the life of his brother whom he killed, and so destroy the heir also.' Thus they would quench my coal which is left, and would leave to my husband neither name nor remainder on the surface of the earth."

<sup>8</sup> The king said to the woman, "Go to your house, and I will give a command concerning you."

<sup>9</sup> The woman of Tekoa said to the king, "My lord, O king, may the iniquity be on me, and on my father's house; and may the king and his throne be guiltless."

<sup>10</sup> The king said, "Whoever says anything to you, bring him to me, and he will not bother you any more."

<sup>11</sup> Then she said, "Please let the king remember Yahweh your God, that the avenger of blood destroy not any more, lest they destroy my son."

He said, "As Yahweh lives, not one hair of your son shall fall to the earth."

<sup>12</sup> Then the woman said, "Please let your servant speak a word to my lord the king."

He said, "Say on."

<sup>13</sup> The woman said, "Why then have you devised such a thing against the people of God? For in speaking this word the king is as one who is guilty, in that the king does not bring home again his banished one. <sup>14</sup> For we must die, and are like water split on the ground, which can't be gathered up again; neither does God take away life, but devises means, that he who is banished not be an outcast from him. <sup>15</sup> Now therefore seeing that I have come to speak this word to my lord the king, it is because the people have made me afraid. Your servant said, 'I will now speak to the king; it may be that the king will perform the request of his servant.' <sup>16</sup> For the king will hear, to deliver his servant out of the hand of the man who would destroy me and my son together out of the inheritance of God.<sup>17</sup> Then your servant said, ‘Please let the word of my lord the king bring rest; for as an angel of God, so is my lord the king to discern good and bad. May Yahweh, your God, be with you.’”

<sup>18</sup> Then the king answered the woman, “Please don’t hide anything from me that I ask you.”

The woman said, “Let my lord the king now speak.”

<sup>19</sup> The king said, “Is the hand of Joab with you in all this?”

The woman answered, “As your soul lives, my lord the king, no one can turn to the right hand or to the left from anything that my lord the king has spoken; for your servant Joab urged me, and he put all these words in the mouth of your servant;<sup>20</sup> to change the face of the matter has your servant Joab done this thing. My lord is wise, according to the wisdom of an angel of God, to know all things that are in the earth.”

<sup>21</sup> The king said to Joab, “Behold now, I have done this thing. Go therefore, and bring the young man Absalom back.”

<sup>22</sup> Joab fell to the ground on his face, showed respect, and blessed the king. Joab said, “Today your servant knows that I have found favor in your sight, my lord, king, in that the king has performed the request of his servant.”

<sup>23</sup> So Joab arose and went to Geshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem.<sup>24</sup> The king said, “Let him return to his own house, but let him not see my face.” So Absalom returned to his own house, and didn’t see the king’s face.<sup>25</sup> Now in all Israel there was no one to be so much praised as Absalom for his beauty. From the sole of his foot even to the crown of his head there was no defect in him.<sup>26</sup> When he cut the hair of his head (now it was at every year’s end that he cut it; because it was heavy on him, therefore he cut it); he weighed the hair of his head at two hundred shekels,<sup>1</sup> after the king’s weight.<sup>27</sup> Three sons were born to Absalom, and one daughter, whose name was Tamar. She was a woman with a beautiful face.<sup>28</sup> Absalom lived two full years in Jerusalem, and he didn’t see the king’s face.<sup>29</sup> Then Absalom sent for Joab, to send him to the king, but he would not come to him. Then he sent again a second time, but he would not come.<sup>30</sup> Therefore he said to his servants, “Behold, Joab’s field is near mine, and he has barley there. Go and set it on fire.” So Absalom’s servants set the field on fire.

<sup>31</sup> Then Joab arose, and came to Absalom to his house, and said to him, “Why have your servants set my field on fire?”

<sup>32</sup> Absalom answered Joab, “Behold, I sent to you, saying, ‘Come here, that I may send you to the king, to say, “Why have I come from Geshur? It would be better for me to be there still. Now therefore let me see the king’s face, and if there is iniquity in me, let him kill me.”’”

<sup>33</sup> So Joab came to the king, and told him; and when he had called for Absalom, he came to the king, and bowed himself on his face to the ground before the king; and the king kissed Absalom.

15

<sup>1</sup> a shekel is about 10 grams or about 0.35 ounces, so 200 shekels is about 2 kilograms or about 4.4 pounds.

stood beside the way of the gate. When any man had a suit which should come to the king for judgment, then Absalom called to him, and said, "What city are you from?"

He said, "Your servant is of one of the tribes of Israel."

<sup>3</sup> Absalom said to him, "Behold, your matters are good and right; but there is no man deputed by the king to hear you." <sup>4</sup> Absalom said moreover, "Oh that I were made judge in the land, that every man who has any suit or cause might come to me, and I would do him justice!" <sup>5</sup> It was so, that when any man came near to do him obeisance, he stretched out his hand, and took hold of him, and kissed him. <sup>6</sup> Absalom did this sort of thing to all Israel who came to the king for judgment. So Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel. <sup>7</sup> At the end of forty years, Absalom said to the king, "Please let me go and pay my vow, which I have vowed to Yahweh, in Hebron. <sup>8</sup> For your servant vowed a vow while I stayed at Geshur in Syria, saying, 'If Yahweh shall indeed bring me again to Jerusalem, then I will serve Yahweh.'"

<sup>9</sup> The king said to him, "Go in peace."

So he arose, and went to Hebron. <sup>10</sup> But Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, "As soon as you hear the sound of the trumpet, then you shall say, 'Absalom is king in Hebron!'"

<sup>11</sup> Two hundred men went with Absalom out of Jerusalem, who were invited, and went in their simplicity; and they didn't know anything. <sup>12</sup> Absalom sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite, David's counselor, from his city, even from Giloh, while he was offering the sacrifices. The conspiracy was strong; for the people increased continually with Absalom. <sup>13</sup> A messenger came to David, saying, "The hearts of the men of Israel are after Absalom."

<sup>14</sup> David said to all his servants who were with him at Jerusalem, "Arise, and let us flee; or else none of us will escape from Absalom. Hurry to depart, lest he overtake us quickly, and bring down evil on us, and strike the city with the edge of the sword."

<sup>15</sup> The king's servants said to the king, "Behold, your servants are ready to do whatever my lord the king chooses."

<sup>16</sup> The king went out, and all his household after him. The king left ten women, who were concubines, to keep the house. <sup>17</sup> The king went out, and all the people after him; and they stayed in Beth Merhak. <sup>18</sup> All his servants passed on beside him; and all the Cherethites, and all the Pelethites, and all the Gittites, six hundred men who came after him from Gath, passed on before the king. <sup>19</sup> Then the king said to Ittai the Gittite, "Why do you also go with us? Return, and stay with the king; for you are a foreigner, and also an exile. Return to your own place. <sup>20</sup> Whereas you came but yesterday, should I today make you go up and down with us, since I go where I may? Return, and take back your brothers. Mercy and truth be with you."

<sup>21</sup> Ittai answered the king, and said, "As Yahweh lives, and as my lord the king lives, surely in what place my lord the king is, whether for death or for life, your servant will be there also."

<sup>22</sup> David said to Ittai, "Go and pass over." Ittai the Gittite passed over, and all his men, and all the little ones who were with him. <sup>23</sup> All the country wept with a loud voice, and all the people passed over. The king also himself passed over the brook Kidron, and all the people passed over, toward the way of the wilderness. <sup>24</sup> Behold, Zadok also came, and all the Levites with him, bearing the ark of the covenant of God; and they set down God's ark; and Abiathar went up, until all the people finished passing out of the city. <sup>25</sup> The king said to Zadok, "Carry God's ark back into the city. If I find favor in Yahweh's eyes, he will bring me again, and show me both it, and his habitation; <sup>26</sup> but if he says, 'I have no delight in you;' behold, here am I. Let him do to me as seems good to him." <sup>27</sup> The king said also to Zadok the priest, "Aren't you a seer? Return into the city in peace, and your two sons with you, Ahimaaz your son, and Jonathan the son of Abiathar. <sup>28</sup> Behold, I will stay at the fords of the wilderness, until word comes from you to inform me." <sup>29</sup> Zadok therefore and Abiathar carried God's ark to Jerusalem again; and they stayed there. <sup>30</sup> David went up by the ascent of the Mount of Olives, and wept as he went up; and he had his head covered, and went barefoot: and all the people who were with him each covered his head, and they went up, weeping as they went up.

David said, "Yahweh, please turn the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness."

<sup>32</sup> When David had come to the top, where God was worshiped, behold, Hushai the Archite came to meet him with his coat torn, and earth on his head. <sup>33</sup> David said to him, "If you pass on with me, then you will be a burden to me; <sup>34</sup> but if you return to the city, and tell Absalom, 'I will be your servant, O king. As I have been your father's servant in time past, so will I now be your servant; then will you defeat for me the counsel of Ahithophel.'" <sup>35</sup> Don't you have Zadok and Abiathar the priests there with you? Therefore whatever you hear out of the king's house, tell it to Zadok and Abiathar the priests. <sup>36</sup> Behold, they have there with them their two sons, Ahimaaz, Zadok's son, and Jonathan, Abiathar's son. Send to me everything that you shall hear by them."

16

Ziba said, "The donkeys are for the king's household to ride on; and the bread and summer fruit for the young men to eat; and the wine, that those who are faint in the wilderness may drink."

<sup>3</sup> The king said, "Where is your master's son?"

Ziba said to the king, "Behold, he is staying in Jerusalem; for he said, 'Today the house of Israel will restore me the kingdom of my father.'"

<sup>4</sup> Then the king said to Ziba, "Behold, all that belongs to Mephibosheth is yours."

Ziba said, "I bow down. Let me find favor in your sight, my lord, O king."

<sup>5</sup> When king David came to Bahurim, behold, a man of the family of Saul's house came out, whose name was Shimei, the son of Gera. He came out and cursed as he came. <sup>6</sup> He cast stones at David, and at all the servants of king David, and all the people and all the mighty men were on his right hand and on his left. <sup>7</sup> Shimei said when he cursed, "Be gone, be gone, you man of blood, and base fellow! <sup>8</sup> Yahweh has returned on you all the blood of Saul's house, in whose place you have reigned! Yahweh has delivered the kingdom into the hand of Absalom your son! Behold, you are caught by your own mischief, because you are a man of blood!"

<sup>9</sup> Then Abishai the son of Zeruiah said to the king, "Why should this dead dog curse my lord the king? Please let me go over and take off his head." <sup>10</sup> The king said, "What have I to do with you, you sons of Zeruiah? Because he curses, and because Yahweh has said to him, 'Curse David;' who then shall say, 'Why have you done so?'"

<sup>11</sup> David said to Abishai, and to all his servants, "Behold, my son, who came out of my bowels, seeks my life. How much more this Benjamite, now? Leave him alone, and let him curse; for Yahweh has invited him. <sup>12</sup> It may be that Yahweh will look on the wrong done to me, and that Yahweh will repay me good for the cursing of me today." <sup>13</sup> So David and his men went by the way; and Shimei went along on the hillside opposite him, and cursed as he went, threw stones at him, and threw dust.

<sup>14</sup> The king, and all the people who were with him, came weary; and he refreshed himself there.

<sup>15</sup> Absalom and all the people, the men of Israel, came to Jerusalem, and Ahithophel with him. <sup>16</sup> When Hushai the Archite, David's friend, had come to Absalom, Hushai said to Absalom, "Long live the king! Long live the king!"

<sup>17</sup> Absalom said to Hushai, "Is this your kindness to your friend? Why didn't you go with your friend?"

<sup>18</sup> Hushai said to Absalom, "No; but whomever Yahweh, and this people, and all the men of Israel have chosen, his will I be, and with him I will stay. <sup>19</sup> Again, whom should I serve? Shouldn't I serve in the presence of his son? As I have served in your father's presence, so will I be in your presence."

<sup>21</sup> Ahithophel said to Absalom, "Go in to your father's concubines that he has left to keep the house. Then all Israel will hear that you are abhorred by your father. Then the hands of all who are with you will be strong."

<sup>22</sup> So they spread a tent for Absalom on the top of the house, and Absalom went in to his father's concubines in the sight of all Israel. <sup>23</sup> The counsel of Ahithophel, which he gave in those days, was as if a man inquired at the inner sanctuary of God. So was all the counsel of Ahithophel both with David and with Absalom.

17

<sup>1</sup> Moreover Ahithophel said to Absalom, "Let me now choose twelve thousand men, and I will arise and pursue after David tonight. <sup>2</sup> I will come on him while he is weary and exhausted, and will make him afraid. All the people who are with him will flee. I will strike the king only, <sup>3</sup> and I will bring back all the people to you. The man whom you seek is as if all returned. All the people shall be in peace.”

<sup>4</sup> The saying pleased Absalom well, and all the elders of Israel. <sup>5</sup> Then Absalom said, “Now call Hushai the Archite also, and let us hear likewise what he says.”

<sup>6</sup> When Hushai had come to Absalom, Absalom spoke to him, saying, “Ahithophel has spoken like this. Shall we do what he says? If not, speak up.”

<sup>7</sup> Hushai said to Absalom, “The counsel that Ahithophel has given this time is not good.” <sup>8</sup> Hushai said moreover, “You know your father and his men, that they are mighty men, and they are fierce in their minds, like a bear robbed of her cubs in the field. Your father is a man of war, and will not lodge with the people. <sup>9</sup> Behold, he is now hidden in some pit, or in some other place. It will happen, when some of them have fallen at the first, that whoever hears it will say, ‘There is a slaughter among the people who follow Absalom!’ <sup>10</sup> Even he who is valiant, whose heart is as the heart of a lion, will utterly melt; for all Israel knows that your father is a mighty man, and those who are with him are valiant men. <sup>11</sup> But I counsel that all Israel be gathered together to you, from Dan even to Beersheba, as the sand that is by the sea for multitude; and that you go to battle in your own person. <sup>12</sup> So shall we come on him in some place where he shall be found, and we will light on him as the dew falls on the ground; and of him and of all the men who are with him we will not leave so much as one. <sup>13</sup> Moreover, if he has gone into a city, then shall all Israel bring ropes to that city, and we will draw it into the river, until there isn’t one small stone found there.”

<sup>14</sup> Absalom and all the men of Israel said, “The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel.” For Yahweh had ordained to defeat the good counsel of Ahithophel, to the intent that Yahweh might bring evil on Absalom. <sup>15</sup> Then Hushai said to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, “Ahithophel counseled Absalom and the elders of Israel that way; and I have counseled this way. <sup>16</sup> Now therefore send quickly, and tell David, saying, ‘Don’t lodge tonight at the fords of the wilderness, but by all means pass over; lest the king be swallowed up, and all the people who are with him.’”

<sup>17</sup> Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz were staying by En Rogel; and a female servant used to go and tell them; and they went and told king David. For they might not be seen to come into the city. <sup>18</sup> But a boy saw them, and told Absalom. Then they both went away quickly, and came to the house of a man in Bahurim, who had a well in his court; and they went down there. <sup>19</sup> The woman took and spread the covering over the well’s mouth, and spread out bruised grain on it; and nothing was known. <sup>20</sup> Absalom’s servants came to the woman to the house; and they said, “Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan?”

The woman said to them, “They have gone over the brook of water.”

When they had sought and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem. <sup>21</sup> After they had departed, they came up out of the well, and went and told king David; and they said to David, “Arise and pass quickly over the water; for thus has Ahithophel counseled against you.”

<sup>22</sup> Then David arose, and all the people who were with him, and they passed over the Jordan. By the morning light there lacked not one of them who had not gone over the Jordan. <sup>23</sup> When Ahithophel saw that his counsel was not followed, he saddled his donkey, arose, and went home, to his city, and set his house in order, and hanged himself; and he died, and was buried in the tomb of his father. <sup>24</sup> Then David came to Mahanaim. Absalom passed over the Jordan, he and all the men of Israel with him. <sup>25</sup> Absalom set Amasa over the army instead of Joab. Now Amasa was the son of a man whose name was Ithra the Israelite, who went in to Abigail the daughter of Nahash, sister to Zeruijah, Joab’s mother. <sup>26</sup> Israel and Absalom encamped in the land of Gilead. <sup>27</sup> When David had come to Mahanaim, Shobi the son of Nahash of Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and Machir the son of Ammiel of Lodebar, and Barzillai the Gileadite of Rogelim, <sup>28</sup> brought beds, basins, earthen vessels, wheat, barley, meal, parched grain, beans, lentils, roasted grain, <sup>29</sup> honey, butter, sheep, and cheese of the herd, for David, and for the people who were with him, to eat; for they said, “The people are hungry, and weary, and thirsty in the wilderness.”

18

<sup>1</sup> David numbered the people who were with him, and set captains of thousands and captains of hundreds over them. <sup>2</sup> David sent the people out, a third part under the hand of Joab, and a third part under the hand of Abishai the son of Zeruijah, Joab’s brother, and a third part under the hand of Ittai the Gittite. The king said to the people, “I will also surely go out with you myself.”

<sup>3</sup> But the people said, “You shall not go out; for if we flee away, they will not care for us; neither if half of us die, will they care for us. But you are worth ten thousand of us. Therefore now it is better that you are ready to help us out of the city.”

<sup>4</sup> The king said to them, “I will do what seems best to you.”

The king stood beside the gate, and all the people went out by hundreds and by thousands. <sup>5</sup> The king commanded Joab and Abishai and Ittai, saying, “Deal gently for my sake with the young man, even with Absalom.” All the people heard when the king commanded all the captains concerning Absalom.

<sup>6</sup> So the people went out into the field against Israel; and the battle was in the forest of Ephraim. <sup>7</sup> The people of Israel were struck there before David’s servants, and there was a great slaughter there that day of twenty thousand men. <sup>8</sup> For the battle was there spread over the surface of all the country, and the forest devoured more people that day than the sword devoured. <sup>9</sup> Absalom happened to meet David’s servants. Absalom was riding on his mule, and the mule went under the thick boughs of a great oak, and his head caught hold of the oak, and he was taken up between the sky and earth; and the mule that was under him went on. <sup>10</sup> A certain man saw it, and told Joab, and said, “Behold, I saw Absalom hanging in an oak.”

<sup>11</sup> Joab said to the man who told him, “Behold, you saw it, and why didn’t you strike him there to the ground? I would have given you ten pieces of silver, and a sash.”

<sup>12</sup> The man said to Joab, “Though I should receive a thousand pieces of silver in my hand, I still wouldn’t stretch out my hand against the king’s son; for in our hearing the king commanded you and Abishai and Ittai, saying, ‘Beware that no one touch the young man Absalom.’ <sup>13</sup> Otherwise if I had dealt falsely against his life (and there is no matter hidden from the king), then you yourself would have set yourself against me.”

<sup>14</sup> Then Joab said, “I’m not going to wait like this with you.” He took three darts in his hand, and thrust them through the heart of Absalom, while he was yet alive in the middle of the oak. <sup>15</sup> Ten young men who bore Joab’s armor surrounded and struck Absalom, and killed him. <sup>16</sup> Joab blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing after Israel; for Joab held the people back. <sup>17</sup> They took Absalom and cast him into the great pit in the forest, and raised over him a very great heap of stones. Then all Israel fled, each to his own tent. <sup>18</sup> Now Absalom in his lifetime had taken and reared up for himself the pillar which is in the king’s valley, for he said, “I have no son to keep my name in memory.” He called the pillar after his own name. It is called Absalom’s monument, to this day.

<sup>19</sup> Then Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said, “Let me now run, and carry the king news, how Yahweh has avenged him of his enemies.”

<sup>20</sup> Joab said to him, “You must not be the bearer of news today, but you must carry news another day. But today you must carry no news, because the king’s son is dead.”

<sup>21</sup> Then Joab said to the Cushite, “Go, tell the king what you have seen!” The Cushite bowed himself to Joab, and ran.

<sup>22</sup> Then Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said yet again to Joab, “But come what may, please let me also run after the Cushite.”

Joab said, “Why do you want to run, my son, since that you will have no reward for the news?”

<sup>23</sup> “But come what may,” he said, “I will run.”

He said to him, “Run!” Then Ahimaaz ran by the way of the Plain, and outran the Cushite.

<sup>24</sup> Now David was sitting between the two gates; and the watchman went up to the roof of the gate to the wall, and lifted up his eyes, and looked, and, behold, a man running alone. <sup>25</sup> The watchman cried, and told the king. The king said, “If he is alone, there is news in his mouth.” He came closer and closer.

<sup>26</sup> The watchman saw another man running; and the watchman called to the porter, and said, “Behold, a man running alone!”

The king said, “He also brings news.”

<sup>27</sup> The watchman said, “I think the running of the first one is like the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok.”

The king said, “He is a good man, and comes with good news.”

<sup>28</sup> Ahimaaz called, and said to the king, “All is well.” He bowed himself before the king with his face to the earth, and said, “Blessed is Yahweh your God, who has delivered up the men who lifted up their hand against my lord the king!”

<sup>29</sup> The king said, “Is it well with the young man Absalom?”

Ahimaaz answered, "When Joab sent the king's servant, even me your servant, I saw a great tumult, but I don't know what it was."

<sup>31</sup> Behold, the Cushite came. The Cushite said, "News for my lord the king, for Yahweh has avenged you today of all those who rose up against you."

<sup>32</sup> The king said to the Cushite, "Is it well with the young man Absalom?"

The Cushite answered, "May the enemies of my lord the king, and all who rise up against you to do you harm, be as that young man is."

<sup>33</sup> The king was much moved, and went up to the room over the gate, and wept. As he went, he said, "My son Absalom! My son, my son Absalom! I wish I had died for you, Absalom, my son, my son!"

19

<sup>1</sup> Joab was told, "Behold, the king weeps and mourns for Absalom." <sup>2</sup> The victory that day was turned into mourning among all the people; for the people heard it said that day, "The king grieves for his son."

<sup>3</sup> The people sneaked into the city that day, as people who are ashamed steal away when they flee in battle. <sup>4</sup> The king covered his face, and the king cried with a loud voice, "My son Absalom, Absalom, my son, my son!"

<sup>5</sup> Joab came into the house to the king, and said, "Today you have shamed the faces of all your servants, who today have saved your life, and the lives of your sons and of your daughters, and the lives of your wives, and the lives of your concubines; <sup>6</sup> in that you love those who hate you, and hate those who love you. For you have declared today, that princes and servants are nothing to you. For today I perceive that if Absalom had lived, and all we had died today, then it would have pleased you well. <sup>7</sup> Now therefore arise, go out, and speak to comfort your servants; for I swear by Yahweh, if you don't go out, not a man will stay with you this night. That would be worse to you than all the evil that has happened to you from your youth until now."

<sup>8</sup> Then the king arose, and sat in the gate. They told to all the people, saying, "Behold, the king is sitting in the gate." All the people came before the king. Now Israel had fled every man to his tent. <sup>9</sup> All the people were at strife throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, "The king delivered us out of the hand of our enemies, and he saved us out of the hand of the Philistines; and now he has fled out of the land from Absalom. <sup>10</sup> Absalom, whom we anointed over us, is dead in battle. Now therefore why don't you speak a word of bringing the king back?"

<sup>11</sup> King David sent to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, saying, "Speak to the elders of Judah, saying, 'Why are you the last to bring the king back to his house? Since the speech of all Israel has come to the king, to return him to his house. <sup>12</sup> You are my brothers. You are my bone and my flesh. Why then are you the last to bring back the king?' <sup>13</sup> Say to Amasa, 'Aren't you my bone and my flesh? God do so to me, and more also, if you aren't captain of the army before me continually instead of Joab.'" <sup>14</sup> He bowed the heart of all the men of Judah, even as one man; so that they sent to the king, saying, "Return, you and all your servants."

<sup>15</sup> So the king returned, and came to the Jordan. Judah came to Gilgal, to go to meet the king, to bring the king over the Jordan. <sup>16</sup> Shimei the son of Gera, the Benjamite, who was of Bahurim, hurried and came down with the men of Judah to meet king David. <sup>17</sup> There were a thousand men of Benjamin with him, and Ziba the servant of Saul's house, and his fifteen sons and his twenty servants with him; and they went through the Jordan in the presence of the king. <sup>18</sup> A ferry boat went to bring over the king's household, and to do what he thought good. Shimei the son of Gera fell down before the king, when he had come over the Jordan. <sup>19</sup> He said to the king, "Don't let my lord impute iniquity to me, or remember that which your servant did perversely the day that my lord the king went out of Jerusalem, that the king should take it to his heart. <sup>20</sup> For your servant knows that I have sinned. Therefore behold, I have come today as the first of all the house of Joseph to go down to meet my lord the king."

<sup>21</sup> But Abishai the son of Zeruiah answered, "Shouldn't Shimei be put to death for this, because he cursed Yahweh's anointed?"

<sup>22</sup> David said, "What have I to do with you, you sons of Zeruiah, that you should be adversaries to me today? Shall any man be put to death today in Israel? For don't I know that I am king over Israel today?" <sup>23</sup> The king said to Shimei, "You will not die." The king swore to him.

<sup>24</sup> Mephibosheth the son of Saul came down to meet the king; and he had neither groomed his feet, nor trimmed his beard, nor washed his clothes, from the day the king departed until the day he came home in peace. <sup>25</sup> When he had come to Jerusalem to meet the king, the king said to him, "Why didn't you go with me, Mephibosheth?"

<sup>26</sup> He answered, "My lord, O king, my servant deceived me. For your servant said, I will saddle me a donkey, that I may ride on it, and go with the king; because your servant is lame. <sup>27</sup> He has slandered your servant to my lord the king, but my lord the king is as an angel of God. Do therefore what is good in your eyes. <sup>28</sup> For all my father's house were but dead men before my lord the king; yet you set your servant among those who ate at your own table. What right therefore have I yet that I should cry any more to the king?"

<sup>29</sup> The king said to him, "Why do you speak any more of your matters? I say, you and Ziba divide the land."

<sup>30</sup> Mephibosheth said to the king, "Yes, let him take all, because my lord the king has come in peace to his own house." <sup>31</sup> Barzillai the Gileadite came down from Rogelim; and he went over the Jordan with the king, to conduct him over the Jordan. <sup>32</sup> Now Barzillai was a very aged man, even eighty years old. He had provided the king with sustenance while he stayed at Mahanaim; for he was a very great man. <sup>33</sup> The king said to Barzillai, "Come over with me, and I will sustain you with me in Jerusalem." <sup>34</sup> Barzillai said to the king, "How many are the days of the years of my life, that I should go up with the king to Jerusalem? <sup>35</sup> I am eighty years old, today. Can I discern between good and bad? Can your servant taste what I eat or what I drink? Can I hear the voice of singing men and singing women any more? Why then should your servant be a burden to my lord the king? <sup>36</sup> Your servant would but just go over the Jordan with the king. Why should the king repay me with such a reward? <sup>37</sup> Please let your servant turn back again, that I may die in my own city, by the grave of my father and my mother. But behold, your servant Chimham; let him go over with my lord the king; and do to him what shall seem good to you.”

<sup>38</sup> The king answered, “Chimham shall go over with me, and I will do to him that which shall seem good to you. Whatever you request of me, that I will do for you.”

<sup>39</sup> All the people went over the Jordan, and the king went over. Then the king kissed Barzillai, and blessed him; and he returned to his own place. <sup>40</sup> So the king went over to Gilgal, and Chimham went over with him. All the people of Judah brought the king over, and also half the people of Israel. <sup>41</sup> Behold, all the men of Israel came to the king, and said to the king, “Why have our brothers the men of Judah stolen you away, and brought the king, and his household, over the Jordan, and all David’s men with him?”

<sup>42</sup> All the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, “Because the king is a close relative to us. Why then are you angry about this matter? Have we eaten at all at the king’s cost? Or has he given us any gift?”

<sup>43</sup> The men of Israel answered the men of Judah, and said, “We have ten parts in the king, and we have also more claim to David than you. Why then did you despise us, that our advice should not be first had in bringing back our king?” The words of the men of Judah were fiercer than the words of the men of Israel.

20

<sup>1</sup> There happened to be there a base fellow, whose name was Sheba, the son of Bichri, a Benjamite; and he blew the trumpet, and said, “We have no portion in David, neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse. Every man to his tents, Israel!”

<sup>4</sup> Then the king said to Amasa, “Call me the men of Judah together within three days, and be here present.”

<sup>5</sup> So Amasa went to call the men of Judah together; but he stayed longer than the set time which he had appointed him. <sup>6</sup> David said to Abishai, “Now Sheba the son of Bichri will do us more harm than Absalom did. Take your lord’s servants, and pursue after him, lest he get himself fortified cities, and escape out of our sight.”

<sup>7</sup> Joab’s men went out after him, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites, and all the mighty men; and they went out of Jerusalem, to pursue Sheba the son of Bichri. <sup>8</sup> When they were at the great stone which is in Gibeon, Amasa came to meet them. Joab was clothed in his apparel of war that he had put on, and on it was a sash with a sword fastened on his waist in its sheath; and as he went along it fell out. <sup>9</sup> Joab said to Amasa, "Is it well with you, my brother?" Joab took Amasa by the beard with his right hand to kiss him. <sup>10</sup> But Amasa took no heed to the sword that was in Joab's hand. So he struck him with it in the body, and shed out his bowels to the ground, and didn't strike him again; and he died. Joab and Abishai his brother pursued Sheba the son of Bichri. <sup>11</sup> One of Joab's young men stood by him, and said, "He who favors Joab, and he who is for David, let him follow Joab!"

<sup>12</sup> Amasa lay wallowing in his blood in the middle of the highway. When the man saw that all the people stood still, he carried Amasa out of the highway into the field, and cast a garment over him, when he saw that everyone who came by him stood still. <sup>13</sup> When he was removed out of the highway, all the people went on after Joab, to pursue Sheba the son of Bichri. <sup>14</sup> He went through all the tribes of Israel to Abel, and to Beth Maacah, and all the Berites. They were gathered together, and went also after him. <sup>15</sup> They came and besieged him in Abel of Beth Maacah, and they cast up a mound against the city, and it stood against the rampart; and all the people who were with Joab battered the wall, to throw it down. <sup>16</sup> Then a wise woman cried out of the city, "Hear, hear! Please say to Joab, 'Come near here, that I may speak with you.'" <sup>17</sup> He came near to her; and the woman said, "Are you Joab?"

He answered, "I am."

Then she said to him, "Hear the words of your servant."

He answered, "I'm listening."

<sup>18</sup> Then she spoke, saying, "They used to say in old times, 'They shall surely ask counsel at Abel;' and so they settled a matter. <sup>19</sup> I am among those who are peaceable and faithful in Israel. You seek to destroy a city and a mother in Israel. Why will you swallow up Yahweh's inheritance?"

<sup>20</sup> Joab answered, "Far be it, far be it from me, that I should swallow up or destroy. <sup>21</sup> The matter is not so. But a man of the hill country of Ephraim, Sheba the son of Bichri by name, has lifted up his hand against the king, even against David. Just deliver him, and I will depart from the city."

The woman said to Joab, "Behold, his head will be thrown to you over the wall."

<sup>22</sup> Then the woman went to all the people in her wisdom. They cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri, and threw it out to Joab. He blew the trumpet, and they were dispersed from the city, every man to his tent. Then Joab returned to Jerusalem to the king. <sup>23</sup> Now Joab was over all the army of Israel, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and over the Pelethites, <sup>24</sup> Adoram was over the men subject to forced labor, Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was the recorder, <sup>25</sup> Sheva was scribe, and Zadok and Abiathar were priests, <sup>26</sup> and Ira the Jairite was chief minister to David.

<sup>1</sup> There was a famine in the days of David for three years, year after year; and David sought the face of Yahweh. Yahweh said, "It is for Saul, and for his bloody house, because he put the Gibeonites to death."

<sup>2</sup> The king called the Gibeonites, and said to them (now the Gibeonites were not of the children of Israel, but of the remnant of the Amorites, and the children of Israel had sworn to them; and Saul sought to kill them in his zeal for the children of Israel and Judah); <sup>3</sup> and David said to the Gibeonites, “What should I do for you? And with what should I make atonement, that you may bless Yahweh’s inheritance?”

<sup>4</sup> The Gibeonites said to him, “It is no matter of silver or gold between us and Saul, or his house; neither is it for us to put any man to death in Israel.”

He said, “Whatever you say, that I will do for you.”

<sup>5</sup> They said to the king, “The man who consumed us, and who devised against us, that we should be destroyed from remaining in any of the borders of Israel, <sup>6</sup> let seven men of his sons be delivered to us, and we will hang them up to Yahweh in Gibeah of Saul, the chosen of Yahweh.”

The king said, “I will give them.”

<sup>7</sup> But the king spared Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan the son of Saul, because of Yahweh’s oath that was between them, between David and Jonathan the son of Saul. <sup>8</sup> But the king took the two sons of Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, whom she bore to Saul, Armoni and Mephibosheth; and the five sons of Michal the daughter of Saul, whom she bore to Adriel the son of Barzillai the Meholathite. <sup>9</sup> He delivered them into the hands of the Gibeonites, and they hanged them on the mountain before Yahweh, and all seven of them fell together. They were put to death in the days of harvest, in the first days, at the beginning of barley harvest. <sup>10</sup> Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth, and spread it for herself on the rock, from the beginning of harvest until water poured on them from the sky. She allowed neither the birds of the sky to rest on them by day, nor the animals of the field by night. <sup>11</sup> David was told what Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, the concubine of Saul, had done. <sup>12</sup> So David went and took the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son from the men of Jabesh Gilead, who had stolen them from the street of Beth Shan, where the Philistines had hanged them, in the day that the Philistines killed Saul in Gilboa; <sup>13</sup> and he brought up from there the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son. They also gathered the bones of those who were hanged. <sup>14</sup> They buried the bones of Saul and Jonathan his son in the country of Benjamin in Zela, in the tomb of Kish his father: and they performed all that the king commanded. After that, God answered prayer for the land.

<sup>15</sup> The Philistines had war again with Israel; and David went down, and his servants with him, and fought against the Philistines. David grew faint; <sup>16</sup> and Ishbibenob, who was of the sons of the giant, the weight of whose spear was three hundred shekels of brass in weight, he being armed with a new sword, thought he would kill David. <sup>17</sup> But Abishai the son of Zeruiah helped him, and struck the Philistine, and killed him. Then the men of David swore to him, saying, “Don’t go out with us to battle any more, so that you don’t quench the lamp of Israel.”

<sup>18</sup> After this, that there was again war with the Philistines at Gob. Then Sibbecai the Hushathite killed Saph, who was of the sons of the giant. <sup>19</sup> There was again war with the Philistines at Gob; and Elhanan the son of Jaareoregim the Bethlehemite killed Goliath the Gittite's brother, the staff of whose spear was like a weaver's beam. <sup>20</sup> There was again war at Gath, where there was a man of great stature, who had six fingers on every hand, and six toes on every foot, twenty four in number; and he also was born to the giant. <sup>21</sup> When he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimei, David's brother, killed him. <sup>22</sup> These four were born to the giant in Gath; and they fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

22

<sup>1</sup> David spoke to Yahweh the words of this song in the day that Yahweh delivered him out of the hand of all his enemies, and out of the hand of Saul, <sup>2</sup> and he said:

“Yahweh is my rock, my fortress,
and my deliverer, even mine;

<sup>3</sup> God is my rock in whom I take refuge; my shield, and the horn of my
salvation,
my high tower, and my refuge.
My savior, you save me from violence.

<sup>4</sup> I call on Yahweh, who is worthy to be praised;
So shall I be saved from my enemies.

<sup>5</sup> For the waves of death surrounded me.
The floods of ungodliness made me afraid.

<sup>6</sup> The cords of Sheol<sup>m</sup> were around me.
The snares of death caught me.

<sup>7</sup> In my distress, I called on Yahweh.
Yes, I called to my God.

He heard my voice out of his temple.
My cry came into his ears.

<sup>8</sup> Then the earth shook and trembled.
The foundations of heaven quaked and were shaken,
because he was angry.

<sup>9</sup> Smoke went up out of his nostrils.
Consuming fire came out of his mouth.
Coals were kindled by it.

<sup>10</sup> He bowed the heavens also, and came down.

Thick darkness was under his feet.

<sup>11</sup> He rode on a cherub, and flew.
Yes, he was seen on the wings of the wind.

<sup>12</sup> He made darkness a shelter around himself:
gathering of waters, and thick clouds of the skies.

<sup>13</sup> At the brightness before him, coals of fire were kindled.

<sup>14</sup> Yahweh thundered from heaven.
The Most High uttered his voice.

<sup>15</sup> He sent out arrows, and scattered them;
lightning, and confused them.

<sup>16</sup> Then the channels of the sea appeared.
The foundations of the world were laid bare by Yahweh's rebuke, at the blast of the breath of his nostrils.

<sup>17</sup> He sent from on high and he took me.
He drew me out of many waters.

<sup>18</sup> He delivered me from my strong enemy, from those who hated me, for they were too mighty for me.

<sup>m</sup> Sheol is the place of the dead.

- 19 They came on me in the day of my calamity,
     but Yahweh was my support.
 20 He also brought me out into a large place.
     He delivered me, because he delighted in me.
 21 Yahweh rewarded me according to my righteousness.
     He rewarded me according to the cleanness of my hands.
 22 For I have kept Yahweh's ways, and have not wickedly departed from my God.
 23 For all his ordinances were before me.
     As for his statutes, I did not depart from them.
 24 I was also perfect toward him.
     I kept myself from my iniquity.
 25 Therefore Yahweh has rewarded me according to my
     righteousness,
     According to my cleanness in his eyesight.
 26 With the merciful you will show yourself merciful.
     With the perfect man you will show yourself perfect.
 27 With the pure you will show yourself pure.
     With the crooked you will show yourself shrewd.
 28 You will save the afflicted people,
     But your eyes are on the haughty, that you may bring them
     down.
 29 For you are my lamp, Yahweh.
     Yahweh will light up my darkness.
 30 For by you, I run against a troop.
     By my God, I leap over a wall.
 31 As for God, his way is perfect.
     Yahweh's word is tested.
     He is a shield to all those who take refuge in him.
 32 For who is God, besides Yahweh?
     Who is a rock, besides our God?
 33 God is my strong fortress.
     He makes my way perfect.
 34 He makes his feet like hinds' feet, and sets me on my high places.
 35 He teaches my hands to war, so that my arms bend a bow of brass.
 36 You have also given me the shield of your salvation.
     Your gentleness has made me great.
 37 You have enlarged my steps under me.
     My feet have not slipped.
 38 I have pursued my enemies and destroyed them.
     I didn't turn again until they were consumed.
 39 I have consumed them, and struck them through,
     so that they can't arise.
     Yes, they have fallen under my feet.
 40 For you have armed me with strength for the battle.
     You have subdued under me those who rose up against me.
 41 You have also made my enemies turn their backs to me, that I might cut off those who hate
     me.
 42 They looked, but there was no one to save;
     even to Yahweh, but he didn't answer them.

<sup>43</sup> Then I beat them as small as the dust of the earth.
I crushed them as the mire of the streets, and spread them abroad.
<sup>44</sup> You also have delivered me from the strivings of my people.
You have kept me to be the head of the nations.
A people whom I have not known will serve me.
<sup>45</sup> The foreigners will submit themselves to me.
As soon as they hear of me, they will obey me.
<sup>46</sup> The foreigners will fade away, and will come trembling out of their close places.
<sup>47</sup> Yahweh lives!
Blessed be my rock!
Exalted be God, the rock of my
salvation,
<sup>48</sup> even the God who executes vengeance for me, who brings down peoples under me, <sup>49</sup> who brings me away from my enemies.
Yes, you lift me up above those who rise up against me.
You deliver me from the violent man.
<sup>50</sup> Therefore I will give thanks to you, Yahweh, among the nations, and will sing praises to your name.
<sup>51</sup> He gives great deliverance to his king, and shows loving kindness to his anointed, to David and to his offspring,<sup>n</sup> forever more.”

23

<sup>1</sup> Now these are the last words of David.
David the son of Jesse says, the man who was raised on high says,
the anointed of the God of Jacob,
the sweet psalmist of Israel:
<sup>2</sup> “Yahweh’s Spirit spoke by me.
His word was on my tongue.
<sup>3</sup> The God of Israel said, the Rock of Israel spoke to me,
‘One who rules over men righteously,
who rules in the fear of God, <sup>4</sup> shall be as the light of the morning, when the sun rises,
a morning without clouds,
when the tender grass springs out of the earth,
through clear shining after rain.’
<sup>5</sup> Most certainly my house is not so with God, yet he has made with me an everlasting covenant, ordered in all things, and sure,
for it is all my salvation, and all my desire,
although he doesn’t make it grow.
<sup>6</sup> But all the ungodly will be as thorns to be thrust away,
because they can’t be taken with the hand, <sup>7</sup> But the man who touches them must be armed with iron and the staff of a spear.
They will be utterly burned with fire in their place.”
<sup>8</sup> These are the names of the mighty men whom David had: Josheb Basshebeth a

Tahchemonite, chief of the captains; the same was Adino the Eznite, against eight hundred slain at one time. <sup>9</sup> After him was Eleazar the son of Dodai the son of an Ahohite, one of the three mighty men with David, when they defied the Philistines who were there gathered together to battle, and the men of Israel had gone away. <sup>10</sup> He arose and struck the Philistines until his hand was weary, and his hand froze to the sword; and Yahweh worked a great victory that day; and the people returned after him only to take plunder. <sup>11</sup> After him was Shammah the son of Agee a Hararite. The Philistines had gathered together into a troop, where there was a plot of ground full of lentils; and the people fled from the Philistines. <sup>12</sup> But he stood in the middle of the plot and defended it, and killed the Philistines; and Yahweh worked a great victory. <sup>13</sup> Three of the thirty chief men went down, and came to David in the harvest time to the cave of Adullam; and the troop of the Philistines was encamped in the valley of Rephaim. <sup>14</sup> David was then in the stronghold; and the garrison of the Philistines was then in Bethlehem. <sup>15</sup> David longed, and said, "Oh that someone would give me water to drink from the well of Bethlehem, which is by the gate!"

<sup>16</sup> The three mighty men broke through the army of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem that was by the gate, and took it and brought it to David; but he would not drink of it, but poured it out to Yahweh. <sup>17</sup> He said, "Be it far from me, Yahweh, that I should do this! Isn't this the blood of the men who risked their lives to go?" Therefore he would not drink it. The three mighty men did these things.

<sup>18</sup> Abishai, the brother of Joab, the son of Zeruah, was chief of the three. He lifted up his spear against three hundred and killed them, and had a name among the three. <sup>19</sup> Wasn't he most honorable of the three? therefore he was made their captain. However he wasn't included as one of the three. <sup>20</sup> Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man of Kabzeel, who had done mighty deeds, killed the two sons of Ariel of Moab. He also went down and killed a lion in the middle of a pit in a time of snow. <sup>21</sup> He killed a huge Egyptian, and the Egyptian had a spear in his hand; but he went down to him with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and killed him with his own spear. <sup>22</sup> Benaiah the son of Jehoiada did these things, and had a name among the three mighty men. <sup>23</sup> He was more honorable than the thirty, but he didn't attain to the three. David set him over his guard. <sup>24</sup> Asahel the brother of Joab was one of the thirty: Elhanan the son of Dodo of Bethlehem, <sup>25</sup> Shammah the Harodite, Elikah the Harodite, <sup>26</sup> Helez the Paltite, Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite, <sup>27</sup> Abiezer the Anathothite, Mebunnai the Hushathite, <sup>28</sup> Zalmon the Ahohite, Maharai the Netophathite, <sup>29</sup> Heleb the son of Baanah the Netophathite, Ittai the son of Ribai of Gibeah of the children of Benjamin, <sup>30</sup> Benaiah a Pirathonite, Hiddai of the brooks of Gaash. <sup>31</sup> Abialbon the Arbathite, Azmaveth the Barhumite, <sup>32</sup> Eliahba the Shaalbonite, the sons of Jashen, Jonathan, <sup>33</sup> Shammah the Hararite, Ahiam the son of Sharar the Ararite, <sup>34</sup> Eliphelet the son of Ahasbai, the son of the Maacathite, Eliam the son of Ahithophel the Gilonite, <sup>35</sup> Hezro the Carmelite, Paarai the Arbite, <sup>36</sup> Igal the son of Nathan of Zobah, Bani the Gadite, <sup>37</sup> Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Beerothite, armor bearers to Joab the son of Zeruiah, <sup>38</sup> Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite, <sup>39</sup> and Uriah the Hittite: thirty-seven in all.

<sup>1</sup> Again Yahweh's anger burned against Israel, and he moved David against them, saying, "Go, number Israel and Judah." <sup>2</sup> The king said to Joab the captain of the army, who was with him, "Now go back and forth through all the tribes of Israel, from Dan even to Beersheba, and number the people, that I may know the sum of the people."

<sup>3</sup> Joab said to the king, "Now may Yahweh your God add to the people, however many they may be, one hundred times; and may the eyes of my lord the king see it. But why does my lord the king delight in this thing?"

<sup>4</sup> Notwithstanding, the king's word prevailed against Joab, and against the captains of the army. Joab and the captains of the army went out from the presence of the king to number the people of Israel. <sup>5</sup> They passed over the Jordan, and encamped in Aroer, on the right side of the city that is in the middle of the valley of Gad, and to Jazer; <sup>6</sup> then they came to Gilead, and to the land of Tahtim Hodshi; and they came to Dan Jaan, and around to Sidon, <sup>7</sup> and came to the stronghold of Tyre, and to all the cities of the Hivites, and of the Canaanites; and they went out to the south of Judah, at Beersheba. <sup>8</sup> So when they had gone back and forth through all the land, they came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days. <sup>9</sup> Joab gave up the sum of the numbering of the people to the king: and there were in Israel eight hundred thousand valiant men who drew the sword; and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand men. <sup>10</sup> David's heart struck him after he had numbered the people. David said to Yahweh, "I have sinned greatly in that which I have done. But now, Yahweh, put away, I beg you, the iniquity of your servant; for I have done very foolishly."

<sup>11</sup> When David rose up in the morning, Yahweh's word came to the prophet Gad, David's seer, saying, <sup>12</sup> "Go and speak to David, 'Yahweh says, "I offer you three things. Choose one of them, that I may do it to you.'""

<sup>13</sup> So Gad came to David, and told him, and said to him, "Shall seven years of famine come to you in your land? Or will you flee three months before your foes while they pursue you? Or shall there be three days' pestilence in your land? Now answer, and consider what answer I shall return to him who sent me."

<sup>14</sup> David said to Gad, "I am in distress. Let us fall now into Yahweh's hand; for his mercies are great. Let me not fall into man's hand."

<sup>15</sup> So Yahweh sent a pestilence on Israel from the morning even to the appointed time; and seventy thousand men died of the people from Dan even to Beersheba. <sup>16</sup> When the angel stretched out his hand toward Jerusalem to destroy it, Yahweh relented of the disaster, and said to the angel who destroyed the people, "It is enough. Now withdraw your hand."

Yahweh's angel was by the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.

<sup>17</sup> David spoke to Yahweh when he saw the angel who struck the people, and said, "Behold, I have sinned, and I have done perversely; but these sheep, what have they done? Please let your hand be against me, and against my father's house."

<sup>18</sup> Gad came that day to David, and said to him, "Go up, build an altar to Yahweh on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite."

<sup>21</sup> Araunah said, "Why has my lord the king come to his servant?"

David said, "To buy your threshing floor, to build an altar to Yahweh, that the plague may be stopped from afflicting the people."

<sup>22</sup> Araunah said to David, "Let my lord the king take and offer up what seems good to him. Behold, the cattle for the burnt offering, and the threshing instruments and the yokes of the oxen for the wood. <sup>23</sup> All this, O king, does Araunah give to the king." Araunah said to the king, "May Yahweh your God accept you."

<sup>24</sup> The king said to Araunah, "No; but I will most certainly buy it from you for a price. I will not offer burnt offerings to Yahweh my God which cost me nothing." So David bought the threshing floor and the oxen for fifty shekels<sup>o</sup> of silver. <sup>25</sup> David built an altar to Yahweh there, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. So Yahweh was entreated for the land, and the plague was removed from Israel.

<sup>o</sup> a shekel is about 10 grams or about 0.35 ounces, so 50 shekels is about 0.5 kilograms or 1.1 pounds.

The First Book of Kings

1

<sup>1</sup> Now king David was old and advanced in years; and they covered him with clothes, but he couldn't keep warm. <sup>2</sup> Therefore his servants said to him, "Let a young virgin be sought for my lord the king. Let her stand before the king, and cherish him; and let her lie in your bosom, that my lord the king may keep warm." <sup>3</sup> So they sought for a beautiful young lady throughout all the borders of Israel, and found Abishag the Shunammite, and brought her to the king. <sup>4</sup> The young lady was very beautiful; and she cherished the king, and served him; but the king didn't know her intimately.

<sup>5</sup> Then Adonijah the son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, "I will be king." Then he prepared him chariots and horsemen, and fifty men to run before him. <sup>6</sup> His father had not displeased him at any time in saying, "Why have you done so?" and he was also a very handsome man; and he was born after Absalom. <sup>7</sup> He conferred with Joab the son of Zeruah, and with Abiathar the priest; and they followed Adonijah and helped him. <sup>8</sup> But Zadok the priest, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, Nathan the prophet, Shimei, Rei, and the mighty men who belonged to David, were not with Adonijah. <sup>9</sup> Adonijah killed sheep, cattle, and fatlings by the stone of Zoheleth, which is beside En Rogel; and he called all his brothers, the king's sons, and all the men of Judah, the king's servants; <sup>10</sup> but he didn't call Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah, and the mighty men, and Solomon his brother. <sup>11</sup> Then Nathan spoke to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon, saying, "Haven't you heard that Adonijah the son of Haggith reigns, and David our lord doesn't know it? <sup>12</sup> Now therefore come, please let me give you counsel, that you may save your own life, and your son Solomon's life. <sup>13</sup> Go in to king David, and tell him, 'Didn't you, my lord, king, swear to your servant, saying, "Assuredly Solomon your son shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne?" Why then does Adonijah reign?' <sup>14</sup> Behold,<sup>a</sup> while you are still talking there with the king, I will also come in after you and confirm your words."

<sup>15</sup> Bathsheba went in to the king in his room. The king was very old; and Abishag the Shunammite was serving the king. <sup>16</sup> Bathsheba bowed, and showed respect to the king. The king said, "What would you like?"

<sup>17</sup> She said to him, "My lord, you swore by Yahweh<sup>b</sup> your God<sup>c</sup> to your servant, 'Assuredly Solomon your son shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne.' <sup>18</sup> Now, behold, Adonijah reigns; and you, my lord the king, don't know it. <sup>19</sup> He has slain cattle and fatlings and sheep in abundance, and has called all the sons of the king, Abiathar the priest, and Joab the captain of the army; but he hasn't called Solomon your servant. <sup>20</sup> You, my lord the king, the eyes of all Israel are on you, that you should tell them who will sit on the throne of my lord the king after him. <sup>21</sup>

Otherwise it will happen, when my lord the king sleeps with his fathers, that I and my son Solomon will be considered criminals.”

When he had come in before the king, he bowed himself before the king with his face to the ground. <sup>24</sup> Nathan said, “My lord, king, have you said, ‘Adonijah shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne?’ <sup>25</sup> For he has gone down today, and has slain cattle, fatlings, and sheep in abundance, and has called all the king’s sons, the captains of the army, and Abiathar the priest. Behold, they are eating and drinking before him, and saying, ‘Long live king Adonijah!’ <sup>26</sup> But he hasn’t called me, even me your servant, Zadok the priest, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and your servant Solomon. <sup>27</sup> Was this thing done by my lord the king, and you haven’t shown to your servants who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?”

<sup>28</sup> Then king David answered, “Call Bathsheba in to me.” She came into the king’s presence and stood before the king. <sup>29</sup> The king swore, and said, “As Yahweh lives, who has redeemed my soul out of all adversity, <sup>30</sup> most certainly as I swore to you by Yahweh, the God of Israel, saying, ‘Assuredly Solomon your son shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne in my place;’ I will most certainly do this today.”

<sup>31</sup> Then Bathsheba bowed with her face to the earth, and showed respect to the king, and said, “Let my lord king David live forever!”

<sup>32</sup> King David said, “Call to me Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada.” They came before the king. <sup>33</sup> The king said to them, “Take with you the servants of your lord, and cause Solomon my son to ride on my own mule, and bring him down to Gihon. <sup>34</sup> Let Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet anoint him there king over Israel. Blow the trumpet, and say, ‘Long live king Solomon!’ <sup>35</sup> Then come up after him, and he shall come and sit on my throne; for he shall be king in my place. I have appointed him to be prince over Israel and over Judah.”

<sup>36</sup> Benaiah the son of Jehoiada answered the king, and said, “Amen. May Yahweh, the God of my lord the king, say so. <sup>37</sup> As Yahweh has been with my lord the king, even so may he be with Solomon, and make his throne greater than the throne of my lord king David.”

<sup>38</sup> So Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites went down and had Solomon ride on king David’s mule, and brought him to Gihon. <sup>39</sup> Zadok the priest took the horn of oil from the Tent, and anointed Solomon. They blew the trumpet; and all the people said, “Long live king Solomon!”

<sup>40</sup> All the people came up after him, and the people piped with pipes, and rejoiced with great joy, so that the earth shook with their sound. <sup>41</sup> Adonijah and all the guests who were with him heard it as they had finished eating. When Joab heard the sound of the trumpet, he said, “Why is this noise of the city being in an uproar?”

<sup>42</sup> While he yet spoke, behold, Jonathan the son of Abiathar the priest came; and Adonijah said, "Come in; for you are a worthy man, and bring good news."

<sup>43</sup> Jonathan answered Adonijah, "Most certainly our lord king David has made Solomon king. <sup>44</sup> The king has sent with him Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and they have caused him to ride on the king's mule. <sup>45</sup> Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king in Gihon. They have come up from there rejoicing, so that the city rang again. This is the noise that you have heard. <sup>46</sup> Also, Solomon sits on the throne of the kingdom. <sup>47</sup> Moreover the king's servants came to bless our lord king David, saying, 'May your God make the name of Solomon better than your name, and make his throne greater than your throne;' and the king bowed himself on the bed. <sup>48</sup> Also thus said the king, 'Blessed be Yahweh, the God of Israel, who has given one to sit on my throne today, my eyes even seeing it.'"

<sup>53</sup> So king Solomon sent, and they brought him down from the altar. He came and bowed down to king Solomon; and Solomon said to him, "Go to your house."

2

<sup>1</sup> Now the days of David came near that he should die; and he commanded Solomon his son, saying, <sup>2</sup> "I am going the way of all the earth. You be strong therefore, and show yourself a man; <sup>3</sup> and keep the instruction of Yahweh your God, to walk in his ways, to keep his statutes, his commandments, his ordinances, and his testimonies, according to that which is written in the law of Moses, that you may prosper in all that you do, and wherever you turn yourself. <sup>4</sup> Then Yahweh may establish his word which he spoke concerning me, saying, 'If your children are careful of their way, to walk before me in truth with all their heart and with all their soul, there shall not fail you,' he said, 'a man on the throne of Israel.'

<sup>5</sup> "Moreover you know also what Joab the son of Zeruiah did to me, even what he did to the two captains of the armies of Israel, to Abner the son of Ner, and to Amasa the son of Jether, whom he killed, and shed the blood of war in peace, and put the blood of war on his sash that was around his waist, and in his shoes that were on his feet. <sup>6</sup> Do therefore according to your wisdom, and don't let his gray head go down to Sheol<sup>d</sup> in peace. <sup>7</sup> But show kindness to the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be among those who eat at your table; for so they came to me when I fled from Absalom your brother.

<sup>8</sup> “Behold, there is with you Shimei the son of Gera, the Benjamite, of Bahurim, who cursed me with a grievous curse in the day when I went to Mahanaim; but he came down to meet me at the Jordan, and I swore to him by Yahweh, saying, ‘I will not put you to death with the sword.’ <sup>9</sup> Now therefore don’t hold him guiltless, for you are a wise man; and you will know what you ought to do to him, and you shall bring his gray head down to Sheol<sup>e</sup> with blood.”

<sup>13</sup> Then Adonijah the son of Haggith came to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon. She said, “Do you come peaceably?”

He said, “Peaceably. <sup>14</sup> He said moreover, I have something to tell you.”

She said, “Say on.”

<sup>15</sup> He said, “You know that the kingdom was mine, and that all Israel set their faces on me, that I should reign. However the kingdom is turned around, and has become my brother’s; for it was his from Yahweh. <sup>16</sup> Now I ask one petition of you. Don’t deny me.”

She said to him, “Say on.” <sup>17</sup> He said, “Please speak to Solomon the king (for he will not tell you ‘no’), that he give me Abishag the Shunammite as wife.”

<sup>18</sup> Bathsheba said, “Alright. I will speak for you to the king.”

<sup>19</sup> Bathsheba therefore went to king Solomon, to speak to him for Adonijah. The king rose up to meet her, and bowed himself to her, and sat down on his throne, and caused a throne to be set for the king’s mother; and she sat on his right hand. <sup>20</sup> Then she said, “I ask one small petition of you; don’t deny me.”

The king said to her, “Ask on, my mother; for I will not deny you.”

<sup>21</sup> She said, “Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to Adonijah your brother as wife.”

<sup>22</sup> King Solomon answered his mother, “Why do you ask Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? Ask for him the kingdom also; for he is my elder brother; even for him, and for Abiathar the priest, and for Joab the son of Zeruiah.” <sup>23</sup> Then king Solomon swore by Yahweh, saying, “God do so to me, and more also, if Adonijah has not spoken this word against his own life. <sup>24</sup> Now therefore as Yahweh lives, who has established me, and set me on my father David’s throne, and who has made me a house as he promised, surely Adonijah shall be put to death today.”

<sup>25</sup> King Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he fell on him, so that he died. <sup>26</sup> To Abiathar the priest the king said, “Go to Anathoth, to your own fields; for you are worthy of death. But I will not at this time put you to death, because you bore the Lord<sup>f</sup> Yahweh’s ark before David my father, and because you were afflicted in all in which my father was afflicted.” <sup>27</sup> So Solomon thrust Abiathar out from being priest to Yahweh, that he might fulfill Yahweh’s word, which he spoke concerning the house of Eli in Shiloh.

<sup>28</sup> This news came to Joab; for Joab had followed Adonijah, although he didn’t follow Absalom. Joab fled to Yahweh’s

Tent, and held onto the horns of the altar. <sup>29</sup> King Solomon was told, “Joab has fled to Yahweh’s Tent, and behold, he is by the altar.” Then Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, “Go, fall on him.”

<sup>30</sup> Benaiah came to Yahweh’s Tent, and said to him, “Thus says the king, ‘Come out!’”

He said, “No; but I will die here.”

Benaiah brought the king word again, saying, “Thus said Joab, and thus he answered me.”

<sup>31</sup> The king said to him, “Do as he has said, and fall on him, and bury him; that you may take away the blood, which Joab shed without cause, from me and from my father’s house. <sup>32</sup> Yahweh will return his blood on his own head, because he fell on two men more righteous and better than he, and killed them with the sword, and my father David didn’t know it: Abner the son of Ner, captain of the army of Israel, and Amasa the son of Jether, captain of the army of Judah. <sup>33</sup> So their blood will return on the head of Joab, and on the head of his offspring<sup>g</sup> forever. But for David, for his offspring,<sup>h</sup> for his house, and for his throne, there will be peace forever from Yahweh.”

<sup>34</sup> Then Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up and fell on him, and killed him; and he was buried in his own house in the wilderness. <sup>35</sup> The king put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada in his place over the army; and the king put Zadok the priest in the place of Abiathar. <sup>36</sup> The king sent and called for Shimei, and said to him, “Build yourself a house in Jerusalem, and live there, and don’t go anywhere else. <sup>37</sup> For on the day you go out and pass over the brook Kidron, know for certain that you will surely die. Your blood will be on your own head.”

<sup>38</sup> Shimei said to the king, “What you say is good. As my lord the king has said, so will your servant do.” Shimei lived in Jerusalem many days.

<sup>40</sup> Shimei arose, saddled his donkey, and went to Gath to Achish, to seek his slaves; and Shimei went, and brought his slaves from Gath. <sup>41</sup> Solomon was told that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and had come again.

<sup>42</sup> The king sent and called for Shimei, and said to him, “Didn’t I adjure you by Yahweh, and warn you, saying, ‘Know for certain, that on the day you go out, and walk anywhere else, you shall surely die?’ You said to me, ‘The saying that I have heard is good.’ <sup>43</sup> Why then have you not kept the oath of Yahweh, and the commandment that I have instructed you with?” <sup>44</sup> The king said moreover to Shimei, “You know in your heart all the wickedness that you did to David my father. Therefore Yahweh will return your wickedness on your own head. <sup>45</sup> But king Solomon will be blessed, and David’s throne will be established before Yahweh forever.” <sup>46</sup> So the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he went out, and fell on him, so that he died. The kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.

3

<sup>1</sup> Solomon made an alliance with Pharaoh king of Egypt, and took Pharaoh's daughter, and brought her into David's city, until he had finished building his own house, Yahweh's house, and the wall around Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup> However the people sacrificed in the high places, because there was not yet a house built for Yahweh's name. <sup>3</sup> Solomon loved Yahweh, walking in the statutes of David his father; except that he sacrificed and burned incense in the high places. <sup>4</sup> The king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there; for that was the great high place. Solomon offered a thousand burnt offerings on that altar. <sup>5</sup> In Gibeon, Yahweh appeared to Solomon in a dream by night; and God said, "Ask for what I should give you."

<sup>6</sup> Solomon said, "You have shown to your servant David my father great loving kindness, because he walked before you in truth, in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with you. You have kept for him this great loving kindness, that you have given him a son to sit on his throne, as it is today. <sup>7</sup> Now, Yahweh my God, you have made your servant king instead of David my father. I am just a little child. I don't know how to go out or come in. <sup>8</sup> Your servant is among your people which you have chosen, a great people, that can't be numbered or counted for multitude. <sup>9</sup> Give your servant therefore an understanding heart to judge your people, that I may discern between good and evil; for who is able to judge this great people of yours?"

to him, "Because you have asked this thing, and have not asked for yourself long life, nor have you asked for riches for yourself, nor have you asked for the life of your enemies, but have asked for yourself understanding to discern justice; <sup>12</sup> behold, I have done according to your word. Behold, I have given you a wise and understanding heart; so that there has been no one like you before you, and after you none will arise like you. <sup>13</sup> I have also given you that which you have not asked, both riches and honor, so that there will not be any among the kings like you for all your days. <sup>14</sup> If you will walk in my ways, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as your father David walked, then I will lengthen your days."

<sup>15</sup> Solomon awoke; and behold, it was a dream. Then he came to Jerusalem, and stood before the ark of Yahweh's covenant, and offered up burnt offerings, offered peace offerings, and made a feast for all his servants.

<sup>16</sup> Then two women who were prostitutes came to the king, and stood before him. <sup>17</sup> The one woman said, "Oh, my lord, I and this woman dwell in one house. I delivered a child with her in the house. <sup>18</sup> The third day after I delivered, this woman delivered also. We were together. There was no stranger with us in the house, just us two in the house. <sup>19</sup> This woman's child died in the night, because she lay on it. <sup>20</sup> She arose at midnight, and took my son from beside me, while your servant slept, and laid it in her bosom, and laid her dead child in my bosom. <sup>21</sup> When I rose in the morning to nurse my child, behold, it was dead; but when I had looked at it in the morning, behold, it was not my son, whom I bore.”

<sup>22</sup> The other woman said, “No; but the living one is my son, and the dead one is your son.”

The first one said, “No; but the dead one is your son, and the living one is my son.” Thus they spoke before the king.

<sup>23</sup> Then the king said, “One says, ‘This is my son who lives, and your son is the dead;’ and the other says, ‘No; but your son is the dead one, and my son is the living one.’”

<sup>24</sup> The king said, “Get me a sword.” So they brought a sword before the king.

<sup>25</sup> The king said, “Divide the living child in two, and give half to the one, and half to the other.”

<sup>26</sup> Then the woman whose the living child was spoke to the king, for her heart yearned over her son, and she said, “Oh, my lord, give her the living child, and in no way kill him!”

But the other said, “He shall be neither mine nor yours. Divide him.”

<sup>28</sup> All Israel heard of the judgment which the king had judged; and they feared the king; for they saw that the wisdom of God was in him, to do justice.

priests; <sup>5</sup> Azariah the son of Nathan was over the officers; Zabud the son of Nathan was chief minister, the king’s friend; <sup>6</sup> Ahishar was over the household; and Adoniram the son of Abda was over the men subject to forced labor.

<sup>20</sup> Judah and Israel were numerous as the sand which is by the sea in multitude, eating and drinking and making merry. <sup>21</sup> Solomon ruled over all the kingdoms from the River to the land of the Philistines, and to the border of Egypt. They brought tribute and served Solomon all the days of his life. <sup>22</sup> Solomon's provision for one day was thirty cors<sup>i</sup> of fine flour, sixty measures of meal, <sup>23</sup> ten head of fat cattle, twenty head of cattle out of the pastures, and one hundred sheep, besides deer, and gazelles, and roebucks, and fattened fowl. <sup>24</sup> For he had dominion over all on this side the River, from Tiphseh even to Gaza, over all the kings on this side the River: and he had peace on all sides around him. <sup>25</sup> Judah and Israel lived safely, every man under his vine and under his fig tree, from Dan even to Beersheba, all the days of Solomon. <sup>26</sup> Solomon had forty thousand stalls of horses for his chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen. <sup>27</sup> Those officers provided food for king Solomon, and for all who came to king Solomon's table, every man in his month. They let nothing be lacking. <sup>28</sup> They also brought Barley and straw for the horses and swift steeds to the place where the officers were, each man according to his duty. <sup>29</sup> God gave Solomon abundant wisdom and understanding, and very great understanding, even as the sand that is on the seashore. <sup>30</sup> Solomon's wisdom excelled the wisdom of all the children of the east and all the wisdom of Egypt. <sup>31</sup> For he was wiser than all men; than Ethan the Ezrahite, Heman, Calcol, and Darda, the sons of Mahol: and his fame was in all the nations all around. <sup>32</sup> He spoke three thousand proverbs; and his songs numbered one thousand five. <sup>33</sup> He spoke of trees, from the cedar that is in Lebanon even to the hyssop that grows out of the wall; he also spoke of animals, of birds, of creeping things, and of fish. <sup>34</sup> People of all nations came to hear the wisdom of Solomon, sent by all kings of the earth, who had heard of his wisdom.

5

<sup>1</sup> Hiram king of Tyre sent his servants to Solomon; for he had heard that they had anointed him king in the place of his father, and Hiram had always loved David. <sup>2</sup> Solomon sent to Hiram, saying, <sup>3</sup> "You know that David my father could not build a house for the name of Yahweh his God because of the wars which were around him on every side, until Yahweh put his enemies under the soles of his feet. <sup>4</sup> But now Yahweh my God has given me rest on every side. There is no enemy and no evil occurrence. <sup>5</sup> Behold, I intend to build a house for the name of Yahweh my God, as Yahweh spoke to David my father, saying, 'Your son, whom I will set on your throne in your place shall build the house for my name.' <sup>6</sup> Now therefore command that cedar trees be cut for me out of Lebanon. My servants will be with your servants; and I will give you wages for your servants according to all that you say. For you know that there is nobody among us who knows how to cut timber like the Sidonians."

<sup>7</sup> When Hiram heard the words of Solomon, he rejoiced greatly, and said, "Blessed is Yahweh today, who has given to David a wise son to rule over this great people." <sup>8</sup> Hiram sent to Solomon, saying, "I have heard the message which you have sent to me. I will do all your desire concerning timber of cedar, and concerning cypress timber. <sup>9</sup> My servants will bring them down from Lebanon to the sea. I will make them into rafts to go by sea to the place that you specify to me, and will cause them to be broken up there, and you will receive them. You will accomplish my desire, in giving food for my household.”

<sup>10</sup> So Hiram gave Solomon cedar timber and cypress timber according to all his desire. <sup>11</sup> Solomon gave Hiram twenty thousand cors<sup>j</sup> of wheat for food to his household, and twenty cors<sup>k</sup> of pure oil. Solomon gave this to Hiram year by year. <sup>12</sup> Yahweh gave Solomon wisdom, as he promised him. There was peace between Hiram and Solomon, and the two of them made a treaty together. <sup>13</sup> King Solomon raised a levy out of all Israel; and the levy was thirty thousand men. <sup>14</sup> He sent them to Lebanon, ten thousand a month by courses; for a month they were in Lebanon, and two months at home; and Adoniram was over the men subject to forced labor. <sup>15</sup> Solomon had seventy thousand who bore burdens, and eighty thousand who were stone cutters in the mountains; <sup>16</sup> besides Solomon’s chief officers who were over the work, three thousand and three hundred, who ruled over the people who labored in the work. <sup>17</sup> The king commanded, and they cut out large stones, costly stones, to lay the foundation of the house with worked stone. <sup>18</sup> Solomon’s builders and Hiram’s builders and the Gebalites cut them, and prepared the timber and the stones to build the house.

6

<sup>1</sup> In the four hundred and eightieth year after the children of Israel had come out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon’s reign over Israel, in the month Ziv, which is the second month, he began to build Yahweh’s house. <sup>2</sup> The house which king Solomon built for Yahweh had a length of sixty cubits,<sup>l</sup> and its width twenty, and its height thirty cubits. <sup>3</sup> The porch in front of the temple of the house had a length of twenty cubits, which was along the width of the house. Ten cubits was its width in front of the house. <sup>4</sup> He made windows of fixed lattice work for the house. <sup>5</sup> Against the wall of the house, he built floors all around, against the walls of the house all around, both of the temple and of the inner sanctuary; and he made side rooms all around. <sup>6</sup> The lowest floor was five cubits wide, and the middle was six cubits wide, and the third was seven cubits wide; for on the outside he made offsets in the wall of the house all around, that the beams should not be inserted into the walls of the house. <sup>7</sup> The house, when it was under construction, was built of stone prepared at the quarry; and no hammer or ax or any tool of iron was heard in the house while it was under construction. <sup>8</sup> The door for the middle side rooms was in the right side of the house. They went up by winding stairs into the middle floor, and out of the middle into the third. <sup>9</sup> So he built the house, and finished it; and he covered the house with beams and planks of cedar. <sup>10</sup> He built the floors all along the house, each five cubits high; and they rested on the house with timber of cedar.

<sup>j</sup> 20,000 cors would be about 120,000 bushels or about 4.2 megaliters of wheat, which would weigh about 3,270 metric tons.

<sup>k</sup> 20 cors is about 1,100 gallons or about 4220 liters. <sup>l</sup> a cubit is the length from the tip of the middle finger to the elbow on a man’s arm, or about 18 inches or 46 centimeters.

<sup>11</sup> Yahweh's word came to Solomon, saying, <sup>12</sup> "Concerning this house which you are building, if you will walk in my statutes, and execute my ordinances, and keep all my commandments to walk in them; then I will establish my word with you, which I spoke to David your father. <sup>13</sup> I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will not forsake my people Israel."

<sup>14</sup> So Solomon built the house, and finished it. <sup>15</sup> He built the walls of the house within with boards of cedar: from the floor of the house to the walls of the ceiling, he covered them on the inside with wood; and he covered the floor of the house with cypress boards. <sup>16</sup> He built twenty cubits on the back part of the house with boards of cedar from the floor to the ceiling. He built them for it within, for an inner sanctuary, even for the most holy place. <sup>17</sup> In front of the temple sanctuary was forty cubits. <sup>18</sup> There was cedar on the house within, carved with buds and open flowers. All was cedar. No stone was visible. <sup>19</sup> He prepared an inner sanctuary in the middle of the house within, to set the ark of Yahweh's covenant there. <sup>20</sup> Within the inner sanctuary was twenty cubits in length, and twenty cubits in width, and twenty cubits in its height; and he overlaid it with pure gold; and he covered the altar with cedar. <sup>21</sup> So Solomon overlaid the house within with pure gold. He drew chains of gold across before the inner sanctuary, and he overlaid it with gold. <sup>22</sup> He overlaid the whole house with gold, until all the house was finished. He also overlaid the whole altar that belonged to the inner sanctuary with gold. <sup>23</sup> In the inner sanctuary he made two cherubim<sup>m</sup> of olive wood, each ten cubits high. <sup>24</sup> Five cubits was the one wing of the cherub, and five cubits the other wing of the cherub. From the tip of one wing to the tip of the other was ten cubits. <sup>25</sup> The other cherub was ten cubits. Both the cherubim were of one measure and one form. <sup>26</sup> One cherub was ten cubits high, and so was the other cherub. <sup>27</sup> He set the cherubim within the inner house. The wings of the cherubim were stretched out, so that the wing of the one touched the one wall, and the wing of the other cherub touched the other wall; and their wings touched one another in the middle of the house. <sup>28</sup> He overlaid the cherubim with gold. <sup>29</sup> He carved all the walls of the house around with carved figures of cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers, inside and outside. <sup>30</sup> He overlaid the floor of the house with gold, inside and outside. <sup>31</sup> For the entrance of the inner sanctuary, he made doors of olive wood. The lintel and door posts were a fifth part of the wall. <sup>32</sup> So he made two doors of olive wood; and he carved on them carvings of cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers, and overlaid them with gold. He spread the gold on the cherubim and on the palm trees. <sup>33</sup> He also did so for the entrance of the temple door posts of olive wood, out of a fourth part of the wall; <sup>34</sup> and two doors of cypress wood. The two leaves of the one door were folding, and the two leaves of the other door were folding. <sup>35</sup> He carved cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers; and he overlaid them with gold fitted on the engraved work. <sup>36</sup>

He built the inner court with three courses of cut stone and a course of cedar beams.<sup>37</sup> The foundation of Yahweh's house was laid in the fourth year, in the month Ziv.<sup>38</sup> In the eleventh year, in the month Bul, which is the eighth month, the house was finished throughout all its parts, and according to all its specifications. So he spent seven years building it.

7

coping, and so on the outside to the great court.<sup>10</sup> The foundation was of costly stones, even great stones, stones of ten cubits, and stones of eight cubits.<sup>11</sup> Above were costly stones, even cut stone, according to measure, and cedar wood.<sup>12</sup> The great court around had three courses of cut stone, and a course of cedar beams; like the inner court of Yahweh's house and the porch of the house.<sup>13</sup> King Solomon sent and brought Hiram out of Tyre.<sup>14</sup> He was the son of a widow of the tribe of Naphtali, and his father was a man of Tyre, a worker in brass; and he was filled with wisdom and understanding and skill, to work all works in brass. He came to king Solomon, and performed all his work.<sup>15</sup> For he fashioned the two pillars of brass, eighteen cubits high apiece; and a line of twelve cubits encircled either of them.<sup>16</sup> He made two capitals of molten brass, to set on the tops of the pillars. The height of the one capital was five cubits, and the height of the other capital was five cubits.<sup>17</sup> There were nets of checker work, and wreaths of chain work, for the capitals which were on the top of the pillars; seven for the one capital, and seven for the other capital.<sup>18</sup> So he made the pillars; and there were two rows around on the one network, to cover the capitals that were on the top of the pillars: and he did so for the other capital.<sup>19</sup> The capitals that were on the top of the pillars in the porch were of lily work, four cubits.<sup>20</sup> There were capitals above also on the two pillars, close by the belly which was beside the network. There were two hundred pomegranates in rows around the other capital.<sup>21</sup> He set up the pillars at the porch of the temple. He set up the right pillar, and called its name Jachin; and he set up the left pillar, and called its name Boaz.<sup>22</sup> On the top of the pillars was lily work: so the work of the pillars was finished.<sup>23</sup> He made the molten sea of ten cubits from brim to brim, round in shape. Its height was five cubits; and a line of thirty cubits encircled it.<sup>24</sup> Under its brim around there were buds which encircled it for ten cubits, encircling the sea. The buds were in two rows, cast when it was cast.<sup>25</sup> It stood on twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east; and the sea was set on them above, and all their hindquarters were inward.<sup>26</sup> It was a hand width thick. Its brim was worked like the brim of a cup, like the flower of a lily. It held two thousand baths.<sup>27</sup> He made the ten bases of brass. The length of one base was four cubits, four cubits its width, and three cubits its height.<sup>28</sup> The work of the bases was like this: they had panels; and there were panels between the ledges;<sup>29</sup> and on the panels that were between the ledges were lions, oxen, and cherubim; and on the ledges there was a pedestal above; and beneath the lions and oxen were wreaths of hanging work.<sup>30</sup> Every base had four bronze wheels, and axles of brass; and the four feet of it had supports. The supports were cast beneath the basin, with wreaths at the side of each.<sup>31</sup> Its mouth within the capital and above was a cubit. Its mouth was round after the work of a pedestal, a cubit and a half; and also on its mouth were engravings, and their panels were square, not round.<sup>32</sup> The four wheels were underneath the panels; and the axles of the wheels were in the base. The height of a wheel was a cubit and half a cubit.<sup>33</sup> The work of the wheels was like the work of a chariot wheel. Their axles, and their rims, and their spokes, and their naves, were all of cast metal.<sup>34</sup> There were four supports at the four corners of each base. Its supports were of the base itself.<sup>35</sup> In the top of the base there was a round band half a cubit high; and on the top of the base its supports and its panels were of the same.<sup>36</sup> On the plates of its supports, and on its panels, he engraved cherubim, lions, and palm trees, each in its space, with wreaths all around.<sup>37</sup> He made the ten bases in this way: all of them had one casting, one measure, and one form.<sup>38</sup> He made ten basins of brass. One basin contained forty baths;<sup>o</sup> and every basin was four cubits; and on every one of the ten bases one basin.<sup>39</sup> He set the bases, five on the right side of the house, and five on the left side of the house. He set the sea on the right side of the house eastward and toward the south.<sup>40</sup> Hiram made the basins, the shovels, and the basins. So Hiram finished doing all the work that he worked for king Solomon in Yahweh's house:<sup>41</sup> the two pillars; the two bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the pillars; the two networks to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the pillars;<sup>42</sup> the four hundred pomegranates for the two networks; two rows of pomegranates for each network, to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the pillars;<sup>43</sup> the ten bases; the ten basins on the bases;<sup>44</sup> the one sea; the twelve oxen under the sea;<sup>45</sup> the pots; the shovels; and the basins: even all these vessels, which Hiram made for king Solomon, in Yahweh's house, were of burnished brass. <sup>46</sup> The king cast them in the plain of the Jordan, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zarethan. <sup>47</sup> Solomon left all the vessels unweighed, because there were so many of them. The weight of the brass could not be determined. <sup>48</sup> Solomon made all the vessels that were in Yahweh's house: the golden altar and the table that the show bread was on, of gold; <sup>49</sup> and the lamp stands, five on the right side, and five on the left, before the inner sanctuary, of pure gold; and the flowers, the lamps, and the tongs, of gold; <sup>50</sup> the cups, the snuffers, the basins, the spoons, and the fire pans, of pure gold; and the hinges, both for the doors of the inner house, the most holy place, and for the doors of the house, of the temple, of gold. <sup>51</sup> Thus all the work that king Solomon did in Yahweh's house was finished. Solomon brought in the things which David his father had dedicated, the silver, the gold, and the vessels, and put them in the treasuries of Yahweh's house.

8

in the Tent. The priests and the Levites brought these up. <sup>5</sup> King Solomon and all the congregation of Israel, who were assembled to him, were with him before the ark, sacrificing sheep and cattle, that could not be counted or numbered for multitude. <sup>6</sup> The priests brought in the ark of Yahweh's covenant to its place, into the inner sanctuary of the house, to the most holy place, even under the cherubim's wings. <sup>7</sup> For the cherubim spread their wings out over the place of the ark, and the cherubim covered the ark and its poles above. <sup>8</sup> The poles were so long that the ends of the poles were seen from the holy place before the inner sanctuary; but they were not seen outside. They are there to this day. <sup>9</sup> There was nothing in the ark except the two stone tablets which Moses put there at Horeb, when Yahweh made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of the land of Egypt. <sup>10</sup> It came to pass, when the priests had come out of the holy place, that the cloud filled Yahweh's house, <sup>11</sup> so that the priests could not stand to minister by reason of the cloud; for Yahweh's glory filled Yahweh's house. <sup>12</sup> Then Solomon said, "Yahweh has said that he would dwell in the thick darkness. <sup>13</sup> I have surely built you a house of habitation, a place for you to dwell in forever."

<sup>14</sup> The king turned his face around, and blessed all the assembly of Israel; and all the assembly of Israel stood. <sup>15</sup> He said, "Blessed is Yahweh, the God of Israel, who spoke with his mouth to David your father, and has with his hand fulfilled it, saying, <sup>16</sup> 'Since the day that I brought my people Israel out of Egypt, I chose no city out of all the tribes of Israel to build a house, that my name might be there; but I chose David to be over my people Israel.’

<sup>17</sup> “Now it was in the heart of David my father to build a house for the name of Yahweh, the God of Israel. <sup>18</sup> But Yahweh said to David my father, ‘Whereas it was in your heart to build a house for my name, you did well that it was in your heart. <sup>19</sup> Nevertheless, you shall not build the house; but your son who shall come out of your body, he shall build the house for my name.’ <sup>20</sup> Yahweh has established his word that he spoke; for I have risen up in the place of David my father, and I sit on the throne of Israel, as Yahweh promised, and have built the house for the name of Yahweh, the God of Israel. <sup>21</sup> There I have set a place for the ark, in which is Yahweh’s covenant, which he made with our fathers, when he brought them out of the land of Egypt.”

<sup>22</sup> Solomon stood before Yahweh’s altar in the presence of all the assembly of Israel, and spread out his hands toward heaven; <sup>23</sup> and he said, “Yahweh, the God of Israel, there is no God like you, in heaven above, or on earth beneath; who keeps covenant and loving kindness with your servants, who walk before you with all their heart; <sup>24</sup> who has kept with your servant David my father that which you promised him. Yes, you spoke with your mouth, and have fulfilled it with your hand, as it is today. <sup>25</sup> Now therefore, may Yahweh, the God of Israel, keep with your servant David my father that which you have promised him, saying, ‘There shall not fail from you a man in my sight to sit on the throne of Israel, if only your children take heed to their way, to walk before me as you have walked before me.’

<sup>26</sup> “Now therefore, God of Israel, please let your word be verified, which you spoke to your servant David my father. <sup>27</sup> But will God in very deed dwell on the earth? Behold, heaven and the heaven of heavens can’t contain you; how much less this house that I have built! <sup>28</sup> Yet have respect for the prayer of your servant, and for his supplication, Yahweh my God, to listen to the cry and to the prayer which your servant prays before you today; <sup>29</sup> that your eyes may be open toward this house night and day, even toward the place of which you have said, ‘My name shall be there;’ to listen to the prayer which your servant prays toward this place. <sup>30</sup> Listen to the supplication of your servant, and of your people Israel, when they pray toward this place. Yes, hear in heaven, your dwelling place; and when you hear, forgive.

<sup>31</sup> “If a man sins against his neighbor, and an oath is laid on him to cause him to swear, and he comes and swears before your altar in this house; <sup>32</sup> then hear in heaven, and act, and judge your servants, condemning the wicked, to bring his way on his own head, and justifying the righteous, to give him according to his righteousness.

<sup>33</sup> “When your people Israel are struck down before the enemy, because they have sinned against you; if they turn again to you, and confess your name, and pray and make supplication to you in this house; <sup>34</sup> then hear in heaven, and forgive the sin of your people Israel, and bring them again to the land which you gave to their fathers.

<sup>35</sup> “When the sky is shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against you; if they pray toward this place, and confess your name, and turn from their sin, when you afflict them, <sup>36</sup> then hear in heaven, and forgive the sin of your servants, and of your people Israel, when you teach them the good way in which they should walk; and send rain on your land, which you have given to your people for an inheritance.

<sup>37</sup> “If there is famine in the land, if there is pestilence, if there is blight, mildew, locust or caterpillar; if their enemy besieges them in the land of their cities; whatever plague, whatever sickness there is; <sup>38</sup> whatever prayer and supplication is made by any man, or by all your people Israel, who shall each know the plague of his own heart, and spread out his hands toward this house, <sup>39</sup> then hear in heaven, your dwelling place, and forgive, and act, and give to every man according to all his ways, whose heart you know; (for you, even you only, know the hearts of all the children of men;) <sup>40</sup> that they may fear you all the days that they live in the land which you gave to our fathers.

<sup>41</sup> “Moreover concerning the foreigner, who is not of your people Israel, when he comes out of a far country for your name’s sake <sup>42</sup> (for they shall hear of your great name, and of your mighty hand, and of your outstretched arm); when he comes and prays toward this house; <sup>43</sup> hear in heaven, your dwelling place, and do according to all that the foreigner calls to you for; that all the peoples of the earth may know your name, to fear you, as do your people Israel, and that they may know that this house which I have built is called by your name.

<sup>44</sup> “If your people go out to battle against their enemy, by whatever way you shall send them, and they pray to Yahweh toward the city which you have chosen, and toward the house which I have built for your name; <sup>45</sup> then hear in heaven their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause. <sup>46</sup> If they sin against you (for there is no man who doesn’t sin), and you are angry with them, and deliver them to the enemy, so that they carry them away captive to the land of the enemy, far off or near; <sup>47</sup> yet if they repent in the land where they are carried captive, and turn again, and make supplication to you in the land of those who carried them captive, saying, ‘We have sinned, and have done perversely; we have dealt wickedly;’ <sup>48</sup> if they return to you with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their enemies, who carried them captive, and pray to you toward their land, which you gave to their fathers, the city which you have chosen, and the house which I have built for your name; <sup>49</sup> then hear their prayer and their supplication in heaven, your dwelling place, and maintain their cause; <sup>50</sup> and forgive your people who have sinned against you, and all their transgressions in which they have transgressed against you; and give them compassion before those who carried them captive, that they may have compassion on them <sup>51</sup> (for they are your people, and your inheritance, which you brought out of Egypt, from the middle of the iron furnace); <sup>52</sup> that your eyes may be open to the supplication of your servant, and to the supplication of your people Israel, to listen to them whenever they cry to you. <sup>53</sup> For you separated them from among all the peoples of the earth, to be your inheritance, as you spoke by Moses your servant, when you brought our fathers out of Egypt, Lord Yahweh.”

made the middle of the court holy that was before Yahweh’s house; for there he offered the burnt offering, and the meal offering, and the fat of the peace offerings, because the bronze altar that was before Yahweh was too little to receive the burnt offering, the meal offering, and the fat of the peace offerings. <sup>65</sup> So Solomon held the feast at that time, and all Israel with him, a great assembly, from the entrance of Hamath to the brook of Egypt, before Yahweh our God, seven days and seven more days, even fourteen days. <sup>66</sup> On the eighth day he sent the people away; and they blessed the king, and went to their tents joyful and glad in their hearts for all the goodness that Yahweh had shown to David his servant, and to Israel his people.

<sup>1</sup> When Solomon had finished the building of Yahweh’s house, the king’s house, and all Solomon’s desire which he was pleased to do, <sup>2</sup> Yahweh appeared to Solomon the second time, as he had appeared to him at Gibeon. <sup>3</sup> Yahweh said to him, “I have heard your prayer and your supplication, that you have made before me. I have made this house holy, which you have built, to put my name there forever; and my eyes and my heart shall be there perpetually. <sup>4</sup> As for you, if you will walk before me, as David your father walked, in integrity of heart, and in uprightness, to do according to all that I have commanded you, and will keep my statutes and my ordinances; <sup>5</sup> then I will establish the throne of your kingdom over Israel forever, as I promised to David your father, saying, ‘There shall not fail from you a man on the throne of Israel.’ <sup>6</sup> But if you turn away from following me, you or your children, and not keep my commandments and my statutes which I have set before you, but go and serve other gods, and worship them; <sup>7</sup> then I will cut off Israel out of the land which I have given them; and I will cast this house, which I have made holy for my name, out of my sight; and Israel will be a proverb and a byword among all peoples. <sup>8</sup> Though this house is so high, yet everyone who passes by it will be astonished and hiss; and they will say, ‘Why has Yahweh done this to this land, and to this house?’ <sup>9</sup> and they will answer, ‘Because they abandoned Yahweh their God, who brought their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and laid hold of other gods, and worshiped them, and served them. Therefore Yahweh has brought all this evil on them.’”

Pharaoh king of Egypt had gone up, taken Gezer, burned it with fire, killed the Canaanites who lived in the city, and given it for a wedding gift to his daughter, Solomon’s wife. <sup>17</sup> Solomon built in the land Gezer, Beth Horon the lower, <sup>18</sup> Baalath, Tamar in the wilderness, <sup>19</sup> all the storage cities that Solomon had, the cities for his chariots, the cities for his horsemen, and that which Solomon desired to build for his pleasure in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion. <sup>20</sup> As for all the people who were left of the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, who were not of the children of Israel; <sup>21</sup> their children who were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel were not able utterly to destroy, of them Solomon raised a levy of bondservants to this day. <sup>22</sup> But of the children of Israel Solomon made no bondservants; but they were the men of war, his servants, his princes, his captains, and rulers of his chariots and of his horsemen. <sup>23</sup> These were the five hundred fifty chief officers who were over Solomon’s work, who ruled over the people who labored in the work. <sup>24</sup> But Pharaoh’s daughter came up out of David’s city to her house which Solomon had built for her. Then he built Millo. <sup>25</sup> Solomon offered burnt offerings and peace offerings on the altar which he built to Yahweh three times a year, burning incense with them, on the altar that was before Yahweh. So he finished the house. <sup>26</sup> King Solomon made a fleet of ships in Ezion Geber, which is beside Eloth, on the shore of the Red Sea, in the land of Edom. <sup>27</sup> Hiram sent in the fleet his servants, sailors who had knowledge of the sea, with the servants of Solomon. <sup>28</sup> They came to Ophir, and fetched from there gold, four hundred and twenty talents,<sup>r</sup> and brought it to king Solomon.

<sup>1</sup> When the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon concerning Yahweh's name, she came to test him with hard questions. <sup>2</sup> She came to Jerusalem with a very great caravan, with camels that bore spices, very much gold, and precious stones; and when she had come to Solomon, she talked with him about all that was in her heart. <sup>3</sup> Solomon answered all her questions. There was not anything hidden from the king which he didn't tell her. <sup>4</sup> When the queen of Sheba had seen all the wisdom of Solomon, the house that he had built, <sup>5</sup> the food of his table, the sitting of his servants, the attendance of his officials, their clothing, his cup bearers, and his ascent by which he went up to Yahweh's house; there was no more spirit in her. <sup>6</sup> She said to the king, "It was a true report that I heard in my own land of your acts, and of your wisdom. <sup>7</sup> However I didn't believe the words until I came and my eyes had seen it. Behold, not even half was told me! Your wisdom and prosperity exceed the fame which I heard. <sup>8</sup> Happy are your men, happy are these your servants, who stand continually before you, who hear your wisdom. <sup>9</sup> Blessed is Yahweh your God, who delighted in you, to set you on the throne of Israel. Because Yahweh loved Israel forever, therefore he made you king, to do justice and righteousness." <sup>10</sup> She gave the king one hundred twenty talents of gold, and a very great quantity of spices, and precious stones. Never again was there such an abundance of spices as these which the queen of Sheba gave to king Solomon.

the throne, and the top of the throne was round behind; and there were armrests on either side by the place of the seat, and two lions standing beside the armrests. <sup>20</sup> Twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other on the six steps. Nothing like it was made in any kingdom. <sup>21</sup> All king Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the House of the Forest of Lebanon were of pure gold. None were of silver, because it was considered of little value in the days of Solomon. <sup>22</sup> For the king had a fleet of Tarshish at sea with Hiram's fleet. Once every three years the fleet of Tarshish came, bringing gold, silver, ivory, apes, and peacocks. <sup>23</sup> So king Solomon exceeded all the kings of the earth in riches and in wisdom. <sup>24</sup> All the earth sought the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart. <sup>25</sup> Year after year, every man brought his tribute, vessels of silver, vessels of gold, clothing, armor, spices, horses, and mules. <sup>26</sup> Solomon gathered together chariots and horsemen. He had one thousand four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, that he kept in the chariot cities and with the king at Jerusalem. <sup>27</sup> The king made silver as common as stones in Jerusalem, and cedars as common as the sycamore trees that are in the lowland. <sup>28</sup> The horses which Solomon had were brought out of Egypt. The king's merchants received them in droves, each drove at a price. <sup>29</sup> A chariot came up and went out of Egypt for six hundred shekels<sup>w</sup> of silver, and a horse for one hundred fifty shekels; and so they exported them to all the kings of the Hittites, and to the kings of Syria.

<sup>1</sup> Now king Solomon loved many foreign women, together with the daughter of Pharaoh, women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Sidonians, and Hittites; <sup>2</sup> of the nations concerning which Yahweh said to the children of Israel, "You shall not go among them, neither shall they come among you; for surely they will turn away your heart after their gods." Solomon joined to these in love. <sup>3</sup> He had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines; and his wives turned away his heart. <sup>4</sup> When Solomon was old, his wives turned away his heart after other gods; and his heart was not perfect with Yahweh his God, as the heart of David his father was. <sup>5</sup> For Solomon went after Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, and after Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites. <sup>6</sup> Solomon did that which was evil in Yahweh's sight, and didn't go fully after Yahweh, as David his father did. <sup>7</sup> Then Solomon built a high place for Chemosh the abomination of Moab, on the mountain that is before Jerusalem, and for Molech the abomination of the children of Ammon. <sup>8</sup> So he did for all his foreign wives, who burned incense and sacrificed to their gods. <sup>9</sup> Yahweh was angry with Solomon, because his heart was turned away from Yahweh, the God of Israel, who had appeared to him twice, <sup>10</sup> and had commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not go after other gods; but he didn't keep that which Yahweh commanded. <sup>11</sup> Therefore Yahweh said to Solomon, "Because this is done by you, and you have not kept my covenant and my statutes, which I have commanded you, I will surely tear the kingdom from you, and will give it to your servant. <sup>12</sup> Nevertheless, I will not do it in your days, for David your father's sake; but I will tear it out of your son's hand. <sup>13</sup> However I will not tear away all the kingdom; but I will give one tribe to your son, for David my servant's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake which I have chosen."

<sup>22</sup> Then Pharaoh said to him, "But what have you lacked with me, that behold, you seek to go to your own country?"

He answered, "Nothing, however only let me depart."

<sup>23</sup> God raised up an adversary to him, Rezon the son of Eliada, who had fled from his lord Hadadezer king of Zobah. <sup>24</sup> He gathered men to himself, and became captain over a troop, when David killed them of Zobah. They went to Damascus, and lived there, and reigned in Damascus. <sup>25</sup> He was an adversary to Israel all the days of Solomon, besides the mischief of Hadad. He abhorred Israel, and reigned over Syria.

<sup>26</sup> Jeroboam the son of Nebat, an Ephraimite of Zeredah, a servant of Solomon, whose mother's name was Zeruah, a widow, also lifted up his hand against the king. <sup>27</sup> This was the reason why he lifted up his hand against the king: Solomon built Millo, and repaired the breach of his father David's city. <sup>28</sup> The man Jeroboam was a mighty man of valor; and Solomon saw the young man that he was industrious, and he put him in charge of all the labor of the house of Joseph. <sup>29</sup> At that time, when Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite found him on the way; now Ahijah had clad himself with a new garment; and they two were alone in the field. <sup>30</sup> Ahijah laid hold of the new garment that was on him, and tore it in twelve pieces. <sup>31</sup> He said to Jeroboam, "Take ten pieces; for Yahweh, the God of Israel, says, 'Behold, I will tear the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon, and will give ten tribes to you <sup>32</sup> (but he shall have one tribe, for my servant David's sake and for Jerusalem's sake, the city which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel); <sup>33</sup> because that they have forsaken me, and have worshiped Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, Chemosh the god of Moab, and Milcom the god of the children of Ammon. They have not walked in my ways, to do that which is right in my eyes, and to keep my statutes and my ordinances, as David his father did.

<sup>34</sup> ““However I will not take the whole kingdom out of his hand; but I will make him prince all the days of his life, for David my servant’s sake whom I chose, who kept my commandments and my statutes; <sup>35</sup> but I will take the kingdom out of his son’s hand, and will give it to you, even ten tribes. <sup>36</sup> To his son will I give one tribe, that David my servant may have a lamp always before me in Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen me to put my name there. <sup>37</sup> I will take you, and you shall reign according to all that your soul desires, and shall be king over Israel. <sup>38</sup> It shall be, if you will listen to all that I command you, and will walk in my ways, and do that which is right in my eyes, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as David my servant did; that I will be with you, and will build you a sure house, as I built for David, and will give Israel to you. <sup>39</sup> I will afflict the offspring<sup>y</sup> of David for this, but not forever.””

<sup>40</sup> Therefore Solomon sought to kill Jeroboam; but Jeroboam arose, and fled into Egypt, to Shishak king of Egypt, and was in Egypt until the death of Solomon. <sup>41</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, and all that he did, and his wisdom, aren’t they written in the book of the acts of Solomon?

12

<sup>1</sup> Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all Israel had come to Shechem to make him king. <sup>2</sup> When Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard of it (for he was yet in Egypt, where he had fled from the presence of king Solomon, and Jeroboam lived in Egypt, <sup>3</sup> and they sent and called him), Jeroboam and all the assembly of Israel came, and spoke to Rehoboam, saying, <sup>4</sup> “Your father made our yoke difficult. Now therefore make the hard service of your father, and his heavy yoke which he put on us, lighter, and we will serve you.”

<sup>5</sup> He said to them, “Depart for three days, then come back to me.”

The people departed.

<sup>7</sup> They replied, “If you will be a servant to this people today, and will serve them, and answer them with good words, then they will be your servants forever.”

<sup>8</sup> But he abandoned the counsel of the old men which they had given him, and took counsel with the young men who had grown up with him, who stood before him. <sup>9</sup> He said to them, “What counsel do you give, that we may answer these people, who have spoken to me, saying, ‘Make the yoke that your father put on us lighter?’”

<sup>10</sup> The young men who had grown up with him said to him, "Tell these people who spoke to you, saying, 'Your father made our yoke heavy, but make it lighter to us;' tell them, 'My little finger is thicker than my father's waist. <sup>11</sup> Now my father burdened you with a heavy yoke, but I will add to your yoke. My father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.'"

<sup>12</sup> So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king asked, saying, "Come to me again the third day." <sup>13</sup> The king answered the people roughly, and abandoned the counsel of the old men which they had given him, <sup>14</sup> and spoke to them according to the counsel of the young men, saying, "My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to your yoke. My father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions."

<sup>15</sup> So the king didn't listen to the people; for it was a thing brought about from Yahweh, that he might establish his word, which Yahweh spoke by Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat. <sup>16</sup> When all Israel saw that the king didn't listen to them, the people answered the king, saying, "What portion have we in David? We don't have an inheritance in the son of Jesse. To your tents, Israel! Now see to your own house, David." So Israel departed to their tents.

<sup>17</sup> But as for the children of Israel who lived in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them. <sup>18</sup> Then king Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was over the men subject to forced labor; and all Israel stoned him to death with stones. King Rehoboam hurried to get himself up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem. <sup>19</sup> So Israel rebelled against David's house to this day. <sup>20</sup> When all Israel heard that Jeroboam had returned, they sent and called him to the congregation, and made him king over all Israel. There was no one who followed David's house, except for the tribe of Judah only. <sup>21</sup> When Rehoboam had come to Jerusalem, he assembled all the house of Judah and the tribe of Benjamin, a hundred and eighty thousand chosen men, who were warriors, to fight against the house of Israel, to bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam the son of Solomon. <sup>22</sup> But the word of God came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying, <sup>23</sup> "Speak to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the rest of the people, saying, <sup>24</sup> 'Yahweh says, "You shall not go up or fight against your brothers, the children of Israel. Everyone return to his house; for this thing is from me.'"" So they listened to Yahweh's word, and returned and went their way, according to Yahweh's word.

<sup>25</sup> Then Jeroboam built Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim, and lived in it; and he went out from there, and built Penuel. <sup>26</sup> Jeroboam said in his heart, "Now the kingdom will return to David's house. <sup>27</sup> If this people goes up to offer sacrifices in Yahweh's house at Jerusalem, then the heart of this people will turn again to their lord, even to Rehoboam king of Judah; and they will kill me, and return to Rehoboam king of Judah." <sup>28</sup> So the king took counsel, and made two calves of gold; and he said to them, "It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem. Look and behold your gods, Israel, which brought you up out of the land of Egypt!" <sup>29</sup> He set the one in Bethel, and the other put he in Dan. <sup>30</sup> This thing became a sin; for the people went even as far as Dan to worship before the one there. <sup>31</sup> He made houses of high places, and made priests from among all the people, who were not of the sons of Levi. <sup>32</sup> Jeroboam ordained a feast in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, like the feast that is in Judah, and he went up to the altar. He did so in Bethel, sacrificing to the calves that he had made, and he placed in Bethel the priests of the high places that he had made. <sup>33</sup> He went up to the altar which he had made in Bethel on the fifteenth day in the eighth month, even in the month which he had devised of his own heart; and he ordained a feast for the children of Israel, and went up to the altar, to burn incense.

13

<sup>1</sup> Behold, a man of God came out of Judah by Yahweh's word to Beth El; and Jeroboam was standing by the altar to burn incense. <sup>2</sup> He cried against the altar by Yahweh's word, and said, "Altar! Altar! Yahweh says: 'Behold, a son will be born to David's house, Josiah by name. On you he will sacrifice the priests of the high places who burn incense on you, and they will burn men's bones on you.'" <sup>3</sup> He gave a sign the same day, saying, "This is the sign which Yahweh has spoken: Behold, the altar will be split apart, and the ashes that are on it will be poured out."

<sup>4</sup> When the king heard the saying of the man of God, which he cried against the altar in Bethel, Jeroboam put out his hand from the altar, saying, "Seize him!" His hand, which he put out against him, dried up, so that he could not draw it back again to himself. <sup>5</sup> The altar was also split apart, and the ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign which the man of God had given by Yahweh's word. <sup>6</sup> The king answered the man of God, "Now intercede for the favor of Yahweh your God, and pray for me, that my hand may be restored me again."

The man of God interceded with Yahweh, and the king's hand was restored to him again, and became as it was before.

<sup>7</sup> The king said to the man of God, "Come home with me, and refresh yourself, and I will give you a reward."

<sup>8</sup> The man of God said to the king, "Even if you gave me half of your house, I would not go in with you, neither would I eat bread nor drink water in this place; <sup>9</sup> for so was it commanded me by Yahweh's word, saying, 'You shall eat no bread, drink no water, and don't return by the way that you came.'" <sup>10</sup> So he went another way, and didn't return by the way that he came to Bethel.

<sup>11</sup> Now an old prophet lived in Bethel, and one of his sons came and told him all the works that the man of God had done that day in Bethel. They also told their father the words which he had spoken to the king.

<sup>12</sup> Their father said to them, "Which way did he go?" Now his sons had seen which way the man of God went, who came from Judah. <sup>13</sup> He said to his sons, "Saddle the donkey for me." So they saddled the donkey for him; and he rode on it. <sup>14</sup> He went after the man of God, and found him sitting under an oak. He said to him, "Are you the man of God who came from Judah?"

He said, "I am."<sup>15</sup> Then he said to him, "Come home with me, and eat bread."

<sup>16</sup> He said, "I may not return with you, nor go in with you. I will not eat bread or drink water with you in this place. <sup>17</sup> For it was said to me by Yahweh's word, 'You shall eat no bread or drink water there, and don't turn again to go by the way that you came.'"

<sup>18</sup> He said to him, "I also am a prophet as you are; and an angel spoke to me by Yahweh's word, saying, 'Bring him back with you into your house, that he may eat bread and drink water.'" He lied to him.

<sup>19</sup> So he went back with him, ate bread in his house, and drank water. <sup>20</sup> As they sat at the table, Yahweh's word came to the prophet who brought him back; <sup>21</sup> and he cried out to the man of God who came from Judah, saying, "Yahweh says, 'Because you have been disobedient to Yahweh's mouth, and have not kept the commandment which Yahweh your God commanded you, <sup>22</sup> but came back, and have eaten bread and drank water in the place of which he said to you, "Eat no bread, and drink no water"; your body will not come to the tomb of your fathers.'"

<sup>23</sup> After he had eaten bread, and after he drank, he saddled the donkey for the prophet whom he had brought back. <sup>24</sup> When he had gone, a lion met him by the way and killed him. His body was thrown on the path, and the donkey stood by it. The lion also stood by the body. <sup>25</sup> Behold, men passed by, and saw the body thrown on the path, and the lion standing by the body; and they came and told it in the city where the old prophet lived. <sup>26</sup> When the prophet who brought him back from the way heard of it, he said, "It is the man of God who was disobedient to Yahweh's mouth. Therefore Yahweh has delivered him to the lion, which has mauled him and slain him, according to Yahweh's word, which he spoke to him."<sup>27</sup> He said to his sons, saying, "Saddle the donkey for me," and they saddled it. <sup>28</sup> He went and found his body thrown on the path, and the donkey and the lion standing by the body. The lion had not eaten the body, nor mauled the donkey. <sup>29</sup> The prophet took up the body of the man of God, and laid it on the donkey, and brought it back. He came to the city of the old prophet to mourn, and to bury him. <sup>30</sup> He laid his body in his own grave; and they mourned over him, saying, "Alas, my brother!"

<sup>31</sup> After he had buried him, he spoke to his sons, saying, "When I am dead, bury me in the tomb in which the man of God is buried. Lay my bones beside his bones. <sup>32</sup> For the saying which he cried by Yahweh's word against the altar in Bethel, and against all the houses of the high places which are in the cities of Samaria, will surely happen."

<sup>33</sup> After this thing Jeroboam didn't return from his evil way, but again made priests of the high places from among all the people. Whoever wanted to, he consecrated him, that there might be priests of the high places. <sup>34</sup> This thing became sin to the house of Jeroboam, even to cut it off, and to destroy it from off the surface of the earth.

14

<sup>1</sup> At that time Abijah the son of Jeroboam became sick. <sup>2</sup> Jeroboam said to his wife, "Please get up and disguise yourself, so that you won't be recognized as Jeroboam's wife. Go to Shiloh. Behold, Ahijah the prophet is there, who said that that I would be king over this people. <sup>3</sup> Take with you ten loaves of bread, some cakes, and a jar of honey, and go to him. He will tell you what will become of the child."

<sup>4</sup> Jeroboam's wife did so, and arose, and went to Shiloh, and came to Ahijah's house. Now Ahijah could not see; for his eyes were set by reason of his age. <sup>5</sup> Yahweh said to Ahijah, "Behold, Jeroboam's wife is coming to inquire of you concerning her son; for he is sick. Tell her such and such; for it will be, when she comes in, that she will pretend to be another woman."

<sup>6</sup> So when Ahijah heard the sound of her feet as she came in at the door, he said, "Come in, Jeroboam's wife! Why do you pretend to be another? For I am sent to you with heavy news. <sup>7</sup> Go, tell Jeroboam, 'Yahweh, the God of Israel, says: "Because I exalted you from among the people, and made you prince over my people Israel, <sup>8</sup> and tore the kingdom away from David's house, and gave it you; and yet you have not been as my servant David, who kept my commandments, and who followed me with all his heart, to do that only which was right in my eyes, <sup>9</sup> but have done evil above all who were before you, and have gone and made for yourself other gods, molten images, to provoke me to anger, and have cast me behind your back; <sup>10</sup> therefore, behold, I will bring evil on the house of Jeroboam, and will cut off from Jeroboam everyone who urinates on a wall,<sup>z</sup> he who is shut up and he who is left at large in Israel, and will utterly sweep away the house of Jeroboam, as a man sweeps away dung, until it is all gone. <sup>11</sup> The dogs will eat he who belongs to Jeroboam who dies in the city; and the birds of the sky will eat he who dies in the field: for Yahweh has spoken it.'" <sup>12</sup> Arise therefore, and go to your house. When your feet enter into the city, the child will die. <sup>13</sup> All Israel will mourn for him and bury him; for he only of Jeroboam will come to the grave, because in him there is found some good thing toward Yahweh, the God of Israel, in the house of Jeroboam. <sup>14</sup> Moreover Yahweh will raise up a king for himself over Israel, who will cut off the house of Jeroboam. This is the day! What? Even now. <sup>15</sup> For Yahweh will strike Israel, as a reed is shaken in the water; and he will root up Israel out of this good land which he gave to their fathers, and will scatter them beyond the River,<sup>a</sup> because they have made their Asherah poles, provoking Yahweh to anger. <sup>16</sup> He will give Israel up because of the sins of Jeroboam, which he has sinned, and with which he has made Israel to sin."

<sup>17</sup> Jeroboam's wife arose and departed, and came to Tirzah. As she came to the threshold of the house, the child died. <sup>18</sup> All Israel buried him and mourned for him, according to Yahweh's word, which he spoke by his servant Ahijah the prophet. <sup>19</sup> The rest of the acts of Jeroboam, how he fought, and how he reigned, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel. <sup>20</sup> The days which Jeroboam reigned were twenty two years, then he slept with his fathers, and Nadab his son reigned in his place.

<sup>21</sup> Rehoboam the son of Solomon reigned in Judah. Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which Yahweh had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there. His mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess. <sup>22</sup> Judah did that which was evil in Yahweh's sight, and they provoked him to jealousy with their sins which they committed, above all that their fathers had done. <sup>23</sup> For they also built for themselves high places, sacred pillars, and Asherah poles on every high hill and under every green tree. <sup>24</sup> There were also sodomites in the land. They did according to all the abominations of the nations which Yahweh drove out before the children of Israel. <sup>25</sup> In the fifth year of king Rehoboam, Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, <sup>26</sup> and he took away the treasures of Yahweh's house, and the treasures of the king's house. He even took away all of it, including all the gold shields which Solomon had made. <sup>27</sup> King Rehoboam made shields of brass in their place, and committed them to the hands of the captains of the guard, who kept the door of the king's house. <sup>28</sup> It was so, that as often as the king went into Yahweh's house, the guard bore them, and brought them back into the guard room.

Ammonitess. Abijam his son reigned in his place.

15

<sup>1</sup> Now in the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam the son of Nebat, Abijam began to reign over Judah. <sup>2</sup> He reigned three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Maacah the daughter of Abishalom. <sup>3</sup> He walked in all the sins of his father, which he had done before him; and his heart was not perfect with Yahweh his God, as the heart of David his father. <sup>4</sup> Nevertheless for David's sake, Yahweh his God gave him a lamp in Jerusalem, to set up his son after him, and to establish Jerusalem; <sup>5</sup> because David did that which was right in Yahweh's eyes, and didn't turn aside from anything that he commanded him all the days of his life, except only in the matter of Uriah the Hittite. <sup>6</sup> Now there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the days of his life. <sup>7</sup> The rest of the acts of Abijam, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? There was war between Abijam and Jeroboam. <sup>8</sup> Abijam slept with his fathers, and they buried him in David's city; and Asa his son reigned in his place.

<sup>9</sup> In the twentieth year of Jeroboam king of Israel, Asa began to reign over Judah. <sup>10</sup> He reigned forty-one years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Maacah the daughter of Abishalom. <sup>11</sup> Asa did that which was right in Yahweh's eyes, as David his father did. <sup>12</sup> He put away the sodomites out of the land, and removed all the idols that his fathers had made. <sup>13</sup> He also removed Maacah his mother from being queen, because she had made an abominable image for an Asherah. Asa cut down her image and burned it at the brook Kidron. <sup>14</sup> But the high places were not taken away. Nevertheless the heart of Asa was perfect with Yahweh all his days. <sup>15</sup> He brought into Yahweh's house the things that his father had dedicated, and the things that he himself had dedicated: silver, gold, and utensils. <sup>16</sup> There was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days. <sup>17</sup> Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah, and built Ramah, that he might not allow anyone to go out or come in to Asa king of Judah. <sup>18</sup> Then Asa took all the silver and the gold that was left in the treasures of Yahweh's house, and the treasures of the king's house, and delivered it into the hand of his servants. Then King Asa sent them to Ben Hadad, the son of Tabrimmon, the son of Hezion, king of Syria, who lived at Damascus, saying, <sup>19</sup> "There is a treaty between me and you, between my father and your father. Behold, I have sent to you a present of silver and gold. Go, break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me."

cities which he built, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? But in the time of his old age he was diseased in his feet. <sup>24</sup> Asa slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in his father David's city; and Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his place.

<sup>25</sup> Nadab the son of Jeroboam began to reign over Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah; and he reigned over Israel two years. <sup>26</sup> He did that which was evil in Yahweh's sight, and walked in the way of his father, and in his sin with which he made Israel to sin. <sup>27</sup> Baasha the son of Ahijah, of the house of Issachar, conspired against him; and Baasha struck him at Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines; for Nadab and all Israel were besieging Gibbethon. <sup>28</sup> Even in the third year of Asa king of Judah, Baasha killed him, and reigned in his place. <sup>29</sup> As soon as he was king, he struck all the house of Jeroboam. He didn't leave to Jeroboam any who breathed, until he had destroyed him; according to the saying of Yahweh, which he spoke by his servant Ahijah the Shilonite; <sup>30</sup> for the sins of Jeroboam which he sinned, and with which he made Israel to sin, because of his provocation with which he provoked Yahweh, the God of Israel, to anger. <sup>31</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Nadab, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>32</sup> There was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.

<sup>33</sup> In the third year of Asa king of Judah, Baasha the son of Ahijah began to reign over all Israel in Tirzah for twenty-four years. <sup>34</sup> He did that which was evil in Yahweh's sight, and walked in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin with which he made Israel to sin.

16

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh's word came to Jehu the son of Hanani against Baasha, saying, <sup>2</sup> "Because I exalted you out of the dust, and made you prince over my people Israel, and you have walked in the way of Jeroboam, and have made my people Israel to sin, to provoke me to anger with their sins; <sup>3</sup> behold, I will utterly sweep away Baasha and his house; and I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat. <sup>4</sup> The dogs will eat Baasha's descendants who die in the city; and he who dies of his in the field, the birds of the sky will eat."

<sup>5</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Baasha, and what he did, and his might, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>6</sup> Baasha slept with his fathers, and was buried in Tirzah; and Elah his son reigned in his place.

<sup>7</sup> Moreover Yahweh's word came by the prophet Jehu the son of Hanani against Baasha and against his house, both because of all the evil that he did in Yahweh's sight, to provoke him to anger with the work of his hands, in being like the house of Jeroboam, and because he struck him.

<sup>8</sup> In the twenty-sixth year of Asa king of Judah, Elah the son of Baasha began to reign over Israel in Tirzah for two years. <sup>9</sup> His servant Zimri, captain of half his chariots, conspired against him. Now he was in Tirzah, drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza, who was over the household in Tirzah; <sup>10</sup> and Zimri went in and struck him, and killed him, in the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned in his place.

<sup>11</sup> When he began to reign, as soon as he sat on his throne, he attacked all the house of Baasha. He didn't leave him a single one who urinates on a wall<sup>b</sup> among his relatives or his friends. <sup>12</sup> Thus Zimri destroyed all the house of Baasha, according to Yahweh's word, which he spoke against Baasha by Jehu the prophet, <sup>13</sup> for all the sins of Baasha, and the sins of Elah his son, which they sinned, and with which they made Israel to sin, to provoke Yahweh, the God of Israel, to anger with their vanities. <sup>14</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Elah, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>15</sup> In the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, Zimri reigned seven days in Tirzah. Now the people were encamped against Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines. <sup>16</sup> The people who were encamped heard that Zimri had conspired, and had also killed the king. Therefore all Israel made Omri, the captain of the army, king over Israel that day in the camp. <sup>17</sup> Omri went up from Gibbethon, and all Israel with him, and they besieged Tirzah. <sup>18</sup> When Zimri saw that the city was taken, he went into the fortified part of the king's house, and burned the king's house over him with fire, and died, <sup>19</sup> for his sins which he sinned in doing that which was evil in Yahweh's sight, in walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin which he did, to make Israel to sin. <sup>20</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Zimri, and his treason that he committed, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

<sup>21</sup> Then the people of Israel were divided into two parts: half of the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath, to make him king; and half followed Omri. <sup>22</sup> But the people who followed Omri prevailed against the people who followed Tibni the son of Ginath; so Tibni died, and Omri reigned. <sup>23</sup> In the thirty-first year of Asa king of Judah, Omri began to reign over Israel for twelve years. He reigned six years in Tirzah. <sup>24</sup> He bought the hill Samaria of Shemer for two talents<sup>c</sup> of silver; and he built on the hill, and called the name of the city which he built Samaria, after the name of Shemer, the owner of the hill. <sup>25</sup> Omri did that which was evil in Yahweh's sight, and dealt wickedly above all who were before him. <sup>26</sup> For he walked in all the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and in his sins with which he made Israel to sin, to provoke Yahweh, the God of Israel, to anger with their vanities. <sup>27</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Omri which he did, and his might that he showed, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>28</sup> So Omri slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria; and Ahab his son reigned in his place.

<sup>29</sup> In the thirty-eighth year of Asa king of Judah, Ahab the son of Omri began to reign over Israel. Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty-two years. <sup>30</sup> Ahab the son of Omri did that which was evil in Yahweh's sight above all that were before him. <sup>31</sup> As if it had been a light thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, he took as wife Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Sidonians, and went and served Baal, and worshiped him. <sup>32</sup> He raised up an altar for

Baal in the house of Baal, which he had built in Samaria. <sup>33</sup> Ahab made the Asherah; and Ahab did more yet to provoke Yahweh, the God of Israel, to anger than all the kings of Israel who were before him. <sup>34</sup> In his days Hiel the Bethelite built Jericho. He laid its foundation with the loss of Abiram his firstborn, and set up its gates with the loss of his youngest son Segub, according to Yahweh's word, which he spoke by Joshua the son of Nun.

17

<sup>1</sup> Elijah the Tishbite, who was one of the settlers of Gilead, said to Ahab, "As Yahweh, the God of Israel, lives, before whom I stand, there shall not be dew nor rain these years, but according to my word."

<sup>2</sup> Then Yahweh's word came to him, saying, <sup>3</sup> "Go away from here, turn eastward, and hide yourself by the brook Cherith, that is before the Jordan. <sup>4</sup> You shall drink from the brook. I have commanded the ravens to feed you there." <sup>5</sup> So he went and did according to Yahweh's word; for he went and lived by the brook Cherith that is before the Jordan. <sup>6</sup> The ravens brought him bread and meat in the morning, and bread and meat in the evening; and he drank from the brook. <sup>7</sup> After a while, the brook dried up, because there was no rain in the land.

<sup>8</sup> Yahweh's word came to him, saying, <sup>9</sup> "Arise, go to Zarephath, which belongs to Sidon, and stay there. Behold, I have commanded a widow there to sustain you."

<sup>10</sup> So he arose and went to Zarephath; and when he came to the gate of the city, behold, a widow was there gathering sticks.

He called to her, and said, "Please get me a little water in a jar, that I may drink."

<sup>11</sup> As she was going to get it, he called to her, and said, "Please bring me a morsel of bread in your hand."

<sup>12</sup> She said, "As Yahweh your God lives, I don't have a cake, but a handful of meal in a jar, and a little oil in a jar. Behold, I am gathering two sticks, that I may go in and bake it for me and my son, that we may eat it, and die."

<sup>13</sup> Elijah said to her, "Don't be afraid. Go and do as you have said; but make me a little cake from it first, and bring it out to me, and afterward make some for you and for your son. <sup>14</sup> For Yahweh, the God of Israel says, 'The jar of meal will not run out, and the jar of oil will not fail, until the day that Yahweh sends rain on the earth.'"

<sup>15</sup> She went and did according to the saying of Elijah; and she, and he, and her house, ate many days. <sup>16</sup> The jar of meal didn't run out, and the jar of oil did not fail, according to Yahweh's word, which he spoke by Elijah. <sup>17</sup> After these things, the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, became sick; and his sickness was so severe that there was no breath left in him. <sup>18</sup> She said to Elijah, "What have I to do with you, you man of God? You have come to me to bring my sin to memory, and to kill my son!"

<sup>19</sup> He said to her, "Give me your son." He took him out of her bosom, and carried him up into the room where he stayed, and laid him on his own bed. <sup>20</sup> He cried to Yahweh, and said, "Yahweh my God, have you also brought evil on the widow with whom I am staying, by killing her son?"

<sup>21</sup> He stretched himself on the child three times, and cried to Yahweh, and said, "Yahweh my God, please let this child's soul come into him again."

<sup>22</sup> Yahweh listened to the voice of Elijah; and the soul of the child came into him again, and he revived. <sup>23</sup> Elijah took the child, and brought him down out of the room into the house, and delivered him to his mother; and Elijah said, "Behold, your son lives."

<sup>24</sup> The woman said to Elijah, "Now I know that you are a man of God, and that Yahweh's word in your mouth is truth."

18

<sup>5</sup> Ahab said to Obadiah, "Go through the land, to all the springs of water, and to all the brooks. Perhaps we may find grass and save the horses and mules alive, that we not lose all the animals."

<sup>6</sup> So they divided the land between them to pass throughout it. Ahab went one way by himself, and Obadiah went another way by himself. <sup>7</sup> As Obadiah was on the way, behold, Elijah met him. He recognized him, and fell on his face, and said, "Is it you, my lord Elijah?"

<sup>8</sup> He answered him, "It is I. Go, tell your lord, 'Behold, Elijah is here!'"

<sup>9</sup> He said, "How have I sinned, that you would deliver your servant into the hand of Ahab, to kill me?" <sup>10</sup> As Yahweh your God lives, there is no nation or kingdom where my lord has not sent to seek you. When they said, 'He is not here,' he took an oath of the kingdom and nation, that they didn't find you. <sup>11</sup> Now you say, 'Go, tell your lord, "Behold, Elijah is here."' <sup>12</sup> It will happen, as soon as I leave you, that Yahweh's Spirit will carry you I don't know where; and so when I come and tell Ahab, and he can't find you, he will kill me. But I, your servant, have feared Yahweh from my youth. <sup>13</sup> Wasn't it told my lord what I did when Jezebel killed Yahweh's prophets, how I hid one hundred men of Yahweh's prophets with fifty to a cave, and fed them with bread and water? <sup>14</sup> Now you say, 'Go, tell your lord, "Behold, Elijah is here".' He will kill me."

<sup>15</sup> Elijah said, "As Yahweh of Armies lives, before whom I stand, I will surely show myself to him today." <sup>16</sup> So Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and told him; and Ahab went to meet Elijah. <sup>17</sup> When Ahab saw Elijah, Ahab said to him, "Is that you, you troubler of Israel?"

<sup>18</sup> He answered, "I have not troubled Israel; but you, and your father's house, in that you have forsaken Yahweh's commandments, and you have followed the Baals. <sup>19</sup> Now therefore send, and gather to me all Israel to Mount Carmel, and four hundred fifty of the prophets of Baal, and four hundred of the prophets of the Asherah, who eat at Jezebel's table."

<sup>20</sup> So Ahab sent to all the children of Israel, and gathered the prophets together to Mount Carmel. <sup>21</sup> Elijah came near to all the people, and said, "How long will you waver between the two sides? If Yahweh is God, follow him; but if Baal, then follow him."

The people didn't say a word.

<sup>22</sup> Then Elijah said to the people, "I, even I only, am left as a prophet of Yahweh; but Baal's prophets are four hundred fifty men. <sup>23</sup> Let them therefore give us two bulls; and let them choose one bull for themselves, and cut it in pieces, and lay it on the wood, and put no fire under; and I will dress the other bull, and lay it on the wood, and put no fire under it. <sup>24</sup> You call on the name of your god, and I will call on Yahweh's name. The God who answers by fire, let him be God."

All the people answered, "What you say is good."

<sup>25</sup> Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, "Choose one bull for yourselves, and dress it first; for you are many; and call on the name of your god, but put no fire under it."

<sup>26</sup> They took the bull which was given them, and they dressed it, and called on the name of Baal from morning even until noon, saying, "Baal, hear us!" But there was no voice, and nobody answered. They leaped about the altar which was made. <sup>27</sup> At noon, Elijah mocked them, and said, "Cry aloud; for he is a god. Either he is deep in thought, or he has gone somewhere, or he is on a journey, or perhaps he sleeps and must be awakened."

<sup>28</sup> They cried aloud, and cut themselves in their way with knives and lances, until the blood gushed out on them. <sup>29</sup> When midday was past, they prophesied until the time of the evening offering; but there was no voice, no answer, and nobody paid attention.

<sup>30</sup> Elijah said to all the people, "Come near to me!"; and all the people came near to him. He repaired Yahweh's altar that had been thrown down. <sup>31</sup> Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom Yahweh's word came, saying, "Israel shall be your name." <sup>32</sup> With the stones he built an altar in Yahweh's name. He made a trench around the altar, large enough to contain two seahs<sup>d</sup> of seed. <sup>33</sup> He put the wood in order, and cut the bull in pieces, and laid it on the wood. He said, "Fill four jars with water, and pour it on the burnt offering, and on the wood." <sup>34</sup> He said, "Do it a second time"; and they did it the second time. He said, "Do it a third time"; and they did it the third time. <sup>35</sup> The water ran around the altar; and he also filled the trench with water.

<sup>36</sup> At the time of the evening offering, Elijah the prophet came near, and said, "Yahweh, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Israel, let it be known today that you are God in Israel, and that I am your servant, and that I have done all these things at your word. <sup>37</sup> Hear me, Yahweh, hear me, that this people may know that you, Yahweh, are God, and that you have turned their heart back again."

<sup>38</sup> Then Yahweh's fire fell, and consumed the burnt offering, the wood, the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench. <sup>39</sup> When all the people saw it, they fell on their faces. They said, "Yahweh, he is God! Yahweh, he is God!"

<sup>40</sup> Elijah said to them, "Seize the prophets of Baal! Don't let one of them escape!"

They seized them; and Elijah brought them down to the brook Kishon, and killed them there. <sup>41</sup> Elijah said to Ahab, "Get up, eat and drink; for there is the sound of abundance of rain."

<sup>42</sup> So Ahab went up to eat and to drink. Elijah went up to the top of Carmel; and he bowed himself down on the earth, and put his face between his knees. <sup>43</sup> He said to his servant, "Go up now, and look toward the sea."

He went up, and looked, and said, "There is nothing."

He said, "Go again" seven times.

<sup>44</sup> On the seventh time, he said, "Behold, a small cloud, like a man's hand, is rising out of the sea."

He said, "Go up, tell Ahab, 'Get ready and go down, so that the rain doesn't stop you.'"

<sup>45</sup> In a little while, the sky grew black with clouds and wind, and there was a great rain. Ahab rode, and went to Jezreel. <sup>46</sup> Yahweh's hand was on Elijah; and he tucked his cloak into his belt and ran before Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel.

19

<sup>1</sup> Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and how he had killed all the prophets with the sword. <sup>2</sup> Then Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah, saying, "So let the gods do to me, and more also, if I don't make your life as the life of one of them by tomorrow about this time!"

<sup>3</sup> When he saw that, he arose, and ran for his life, and came to Beersheba, which belongs to Judah, and left his servant there.

<sup>d</sup> 1 seah is about 7 liters or 1.9 gallons or 0.8 pecks

<sup>4</sup> But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a juniper tree. Then he requested for himself that he might die, and said, "It is enough. Now, O Yahweh, take away my life; for I am not better than my fathers."

<sup>5</sup> He lay down and slept under a juniper tree; and behold, an angel touched him, and said to him, "Arise and eat!"

<sup>6</sup> He looked, and behold, there was at his head a cake baked on the coals, and a jar of water. He ate and drank, and lay down again. <sup>7</sup> Yahweh's angel came again the second time, and touched him, and said, "Arise and eat, because the journey is too great for you."

<sup>8</sup> He arose, and ate and drank, and went in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights to Horeb, God's Mountain. <sup>9</sup> He came to a cave there, and camped there; and behold, Yahweh's word came to him, and he said to him, "What are you doing here, Elijah?"

<sup>10</sup> He said, "I have been very jealous for Yahweh, the God of Armies; for the children of Israel have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and killed your prophets with the sword. I, even I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away."

Behold, Yahweh passed by, and a great and strong wind tore the mountains, and broke in pieces the rocks before Yahweh; but Yahweh was not in the wind. After the wind there was an earthquake; but Yahweh was not in the earthquake. <sup>12</sup> After the earthquake a fire passed; but Yahweh was not in the fire. After the fire, there was a still small voice. <sup>13</sup> When Elijah heard it, he wrapped his face in his mantle, went out, and stood in the entrance of the cave. Behold, a voice came to him, and said, "What are you doing here, Elijah?"

<sup>14</sup> He said, "I have been very jealous for Yahweh, the God of Armies; for the children of Israel have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and killed your prophets with the sword. I, even I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away."

<sup>15</sup> Yahweh said to him, "Go, return on your way to the wilderness of Damascus. When you arrive, anoint Hazael to be king over Syria. <sup>16</sup> Anoint Jehu the son of Nimshi to be king over Israel; and anoint Elisha the son of Shaphat of Abel Meholah to be prophet in your place. <sup>17</sup> He who escapes from the sword of Hazael, Jehu will kill; and he who escapes from the sword of Jehu, Elisha will kill. <sup>18</sup> Yet I reserved seven thousand in Israel, all the knees of which have not bowed to Baal, and every mouth which has not kissed him."

<sup>19</sup> So he departed from there, and found Elisha the son of Shaphat, who was plowing with twelve yoke of oxen before him, and he with the twelfth. Elijah went over to him, and put his mantle on him. <sup>20</sup> Elisha left the oxen, and ran after Elijah, and said, "Let me please kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow you."

He said to him, "Go back again; for what have I done to you?"

<sup>21</sup> He returned from following him, and took the yoke of oxen, and killed them, and boiled their flesh with the instruments of the oxen, and gave to the people, and they ate. Then he arose, and went after Elijah, and served him.

20

<sup>4</sup> The king of Israel answered, “It is according to your saying, my lord, O king. I am yours, and all that I have.”

<sup>5</sup> The messengers came again, and said, “Ben Hadad says, ‘I sent indeed to you, saying, “You shall deliver me your silver, and your gold, and your wives, and your children; <sup>6</sup> but I will send my servants to you tomorrow about this time, and they will search your house, and the houses of your servants; whatever is pleasant in your eyes, they will put it in their hand, and take it away.’””

<sup>7</sup> Then the king of Israel called all the elders of the land, and said, “Please notice how this man seeks mischief; for he sent to me for my wives, and for my children, and for my silver, and for my gold; and I didn’t deny him.”

<sup>8</sup> All the elders and all the people said to him, “Don’t listen, and don’t consent.”

<sup>9</sup> Therefore he said to the messengers of Ben Hadad, “Tell my lord the king, ‘All that you sent for to your servant at the first I will do; but this thing I cannot do.’”

The messengers departed, and brought him back the message. <sup>10</sup> Ben Hadad sent to him, and said, “The gods do so to me, and more also, if the dust of Samaria will be enough for handfuls for all the people who follow me.”

<sup>11</sup> The king of Israel answered, “Tell him, ‘Don’t let him who puts on his armor brag like he who takes it off.’”

<sup>12</sup> When Ben Hadad heard this message, as he was drinking, he and the kings, in the pavilions, he said to his servants, “Prepare to attack!” They prepared to attack the city.

<sup>13</sup> Behold, a prophet came near to Ahab king of Israel, and said, “Yahweh says, ‘Have you seen all this great multitude? Behold, I will deliver it into your hand today; and you will know that I am Yahweh.’”

<sup>14</sup> Ahab said, “By whom?”

He said, “Yahweh says, ‘By the young men of the princes of the provinces.’”

Then he said, “Who shall begin the battle?”

He answered, “You.”

<sup>15</sup> Then he mustered the young men of the princes of the provinces, and they were two hundred and thirty-two. After them, he mustered all the people, even all the children of Israel, being seven thousand. <sup>16</sup> They went out at noon. But Ben Hadad was drinking himself drunk in the pavilions, he and the kings, the thirty-two kings who helped him. <sup>17</sup> The young men of the princes of the provinces went out first; and Ben Hadad sent out, and they told him, saying, “Men are coming out from Samaria.”

<sup>18</sup> He said, “If they have come out for peace, take them alive; or if they have come out for war, take them alive.”

<sup>19</sup> So these went out of the city, the young men of the princes of the provinces, and the army which followed them. <sup>20</sup> They each killed his man. The Syrians fled, and

Israel pursued them. Ben Hadad the king of Syria escaped on a horse with horsemen.<sup>21</sup> The king of Israel went out, and struck the horses and chariots, and killed the Syrians with a great slaughter.<sup>22</sup> The prophet came near to the king of Israel, and said to him, "Go, strengthen yourself, and mark, and see what you do; for at the return of the year the king of Syria will come up against you."

<sup>23</sup> The servants of the king of Syria said to him, "Their god is a god of the hills; therefore they were stronger than we. But let us fight against them in the plain, and surely we will be stronger than they."<sup>24</sup> Do this thing: take the kings away, every man out of his place, and put captains in their place.<sup>25</sup> Muster an army, like the army that you have lost, horse for horse, and chariot for chariot. We will fight against them in the plain, and surely we will be stronger than them."

He listened to their voice, and did so.<sup>26</sup> At the return of the year, Ben Hadad mustered the Syrians, and went up to Aphek, to fight against Israel.<sup>27</sup> The children of Israel were mustered and given provisions, and went against them. The children of Israel encamped before them like two little flocks of young goats; but the Syrians filled the country.<sup>28</sup> A man of God came near and spoke to the king of Israel, and said, "Yahweh says, 'Because the Syrians have said, "Yahweh is a god of the hills, but he is not a god of the valleys"; therefore I will deliver all this great multitude into your hand, and you shall know that I am Yahweh.'"

<sup>29</sup> They encamped opposite each other for seven days. So it was, that in the seventh day the battle was joined; and the children of Israel killed one hundred thousand footmen of the Syrians in one day.<sup>30</sup> But the rest fled to Aphek, into the city; and the wall fell on twenty-seven thousand men who were left. Ben Hadad fled, and came into the city, into an inner room.<sup>31</sup> His servants said to him, "See now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings. Please let us put sackcloth on our bodies, and ropes on our heads, and go out to the king of Israel. Maybe he will save your life."

<sup>32</sup> So they put sackcloth on their bodies and ropes on their heads, and came to the king of Israel, and said, "Your servant Ben Hadad says, 'Please let me live.'"

He said, "Is he still alive? He is my brother."

<sup>33</sup> Now the men observed diligently, and hurried to take this phrase; and they said, "Your brother Ben Hadad."

Then he said, "Go, bring him."

Then Ben Hadad came out to him; and he caused him to come up into the chariot.<sup>34</sup> Ben Hadad said to him, "The cities which my father took from your father I will restore. You shall make streets for yourself in Damascus, as my father made in Samaria."

"I", said Ahab, "will let you go with this covenant." So he made a covenant with him, and let him go.

<sup>35</sup> A certain man of the sons of the prophets said to his fellow by Yahweh's word, "Please strike me!"

The man refused to strike him.<sup>36</sup> Then he said to him, "Because you have not obeyed Yahweh's voice, behold, as soon as you have departed from me, a lion will kill you." As soon as he had departed from him, a lion found him and killed him.

<sup>37</sup> Then he found another man, and said, "Please strike me."

The man struck him and wounded him. <sup>38</sup> So the prophet departed, and waited for the king by the way, and disguised himself with his headband over his eyes. <sup>39</sup> As the king passed by, he cried to the king; and he said, "Your servant went out into the middle of the battle; and behold, a man turned aside, and brought a man to me, and said, 'Guard this man! If by any means he is missing, then your life shall be for his life, or else you shall pay a talent<sup>e</sup> of silver.' <sup>40</sup> As your servant was busy here and there, he was gone."

The king of Israel said to him, "So shall your judgment be. You yourself have decided it."

<sup>41</sup> He hurried, and took the headband away from his eyes; and the king of Israel recognized that he was one of the prophets. <sup>42</sup> He said to him, "Yahweh says, 'Because you have let go out of your hand the man whom I had devoted to destruction, therefore your life will take the place of his life, and your people take the place of his people.'"

21

<sup>1</sup> After these things, Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard, which was in Jezreel, next to the palace of Ahab king of Samaria. <sup>2</sup> Ahab spoke to Naboth, saying, "Give me your vineyard, that I may have it for a garden of herbs, because it is near my house; and I will give you for it a better vineyard than it. Or, if it seems good to you, I will give you its worth in money."

<sup>3</sup> Naboth said to Ahab, "May Yahweh forbid me, that I should give the inheritance of my fathers to you!"

<sup>4</sup> Ahab came into his house sullen and angry because of the word which Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken to him; for he had said, "I will not give you the inheritance of my fathers." He laid himself down on his bed, and turned away his face, and would eat no bread. <sup>5</sup> But Jezebel his wife came to him, and said to him, "Why is your spirit so sad, that you eat no bread?"

<sup>6</sup> He said to her, "Because I spoke to Naboth the Jezreelite, and said to him, 'Give me your vineyard for money; or else, if it pleases you, I will give you another vineyard for it.' He answered, 'I will not give you my vineyard.'"

<sup>7</sup> Jezebel his wife said to him, "Do you now govern the kingdom of Israel? Arise, and eat bread, and let your heart be merry. I will give you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite." <sup>8</sup> So she wrote letters in Ahab's name, and sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters to the elders and to the nobles who were in his city, who lived with Naboth. <sup>9</sup> She wrote in the letters, saying, "Proclaim a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people. <sup>10</sup> Set two men, base fellows, before him, and let them testify against him, saying, 'You cursed God and the king!' Then carry him out, and stone him to death."

<sup>11</sup> The men of his city, even the elders and the nobles who lived in his city, did as Jezebel had instructed them in the letters which she had written and sent to them. <sup>12</sup> They proclaimed a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people. <sup>13</sup> The two men, the base fellows, came in and sat before him. The base fellows testified against him, even against Naboth, in the presence of the people, saying, "Naboth cursed God and the king!" Then they carried him out of the city and stoned him to death with stones.<sup>14</sup> Then they sent to Jezebel, saying, "Naboth has been stoned, and is dead."

<sup>15</sup> When Jezebel heard that Naboth had been stoned, and was dead, Jezebel said to Ahab, "Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to give you for money; for Naboth is not alive, but dead."

<sup>16</sup> When Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, Ahab rose up to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it.

<sup>17</sup> Yahweh's word came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,<sup>18</sup> "Arise, go down to meet Ahab king of Israel, who dwells in Samaria. Behold, he is in the vineyard of Naboth, where he has gone down to take possession of it.<sup>19</sup> You shall speak to him, saying, 'Yahweh says, "Have you killed and also taken possession?"' You shall speak to him, saying, 'Yahweh says, "In the place where dogs licked the blood of Naboth, dogs will lick your blood, even yours.'""

<sup>20</sup> Ahab said to Elijah, "Have you found me, my enemy?"

He answered, "I have found you, because you have sold yourself to do that which is evil in Yahweh's sight.<sup>21</sup> Behold, I will bring evil on you, and will utterly sweep you away and will cut off from Ahab everyone who urinates against a wall,<sup>f</sup> and him who is shut up and him who is left at large in Israel.<sup>22</sup> I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah for the provocation with which you have provoked me to anger, and have made Israel to sin."<sup>23</sup> Yahweh also spoke of Jezebel, saying, "The dogs will eat Jezebel by the rampart of Jezreel.<sup>24</sup> The dogs will eat he who dies of Ahab in the city; and the birds of the sky will eat he who dies in the field."

<sup>25</sup> But there was no one like Ahab, who sold himself to do that which was evil in Yahweh's sight, whom Jezebel his wife stirred up.<sup>26</sup> He did very abominably in following idols, according to all that the Amorites did, whom Yahweh cast out before the children of Israel.<sup>27</sup> When Ahab heard those words, he tore his clothes, and put sackcloth on his flesh, and fasted, and lay in sackcloth, and went softly.

<sup>28</sup> Yahweh's word came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,<sup>29</sup> "See how Ahab humbles himself before me? Because he humbles himself before me, I will not bring the evil in his days; but in his son's days will I bring the evil on his house."

22

<sup>1</sup> They continued three years without war between Syria and Israel.<sup>2</sup> In the third year, Jehoshaphat the king of Judah came down to the king of Israel.<sup>3</sup> The king of Israel said to his servants, "You know that Ramoth Gilead is ours, and we do nothing, and don't take it out of the hand of the king of Syria?"<sup>4</sup> He said to Jehoshaphat, "Will you go with me to battle to Ramoth Gilead?"

Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, "I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses."<sup>5</sup> Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, "Please inquire first for Yahweh's word."

<sup>6</sup> Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, about four hundred men, and said to them, "Should I go against Ramoth Gilead to battle, or should I refrain?"

They said, "Go up; for the Lord will deliver it into the hand of the king."

<sup>7</sup> But Jehoshaphat said, "Isn't there here a prophet of Yahweh, that we may inquire of him?"

<sup>8</sup> The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "There is yet one man by whom we may inquire of Yahweh, Micaiah the son of Imlah; but I hate him, for he does not prophesy good concerning me, but evil."

Jehoshaphat said, "Don't let the king say so."

<sup>9</sup> Then the king of Israel called an officer, and said, "Quickly get Micaiah the son of Imlah."

<sup>10</sup> Now the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah were sitting each on his throne, arrayed in their robes, in an open place at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets were prophesying before them. <sup>11</sup> Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made himself horns of iron, and said, "Yahweh says, 'With these you will push the Syrians, until they are consumed.'" <sup>12</sup> All the prophets prophesied so, saying, "Go up to Ramoth Gilead, and prosper; for Yahweh will deliver it into the hand of the king."

<sup>13</sup> The messenger who went to call Micaiah spoke to him, saying, "See now, the prophets declare good to the king with one mouth. Please let your word be like the word of one of them, and speak good."

<sup>14</sup> Micaiah said, "As Yahweh lives, what Yahweh says to me, that I will speak."

<sup>15</sup> When he had come to the king, the king said to him, "Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth Gilead to battle, or shall we forbear?"

He answered him, "Go up and prosper; and Yahweh will deliver it into the hand of the king." <sup>16</sup> The king said to him, "How many times do I have to adjure you that you speak to me nothing but the truth in Yahweh's name?"

<sup>17</sup> He said, "I saw all Israel scattered on the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd. Yahweh said, 'These have no master. Let them each return to his house in peace.'"

<sup>18</sup> The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "Didn't I tell you that he would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil?"

<sup>21</sup> A spirit came out and stood before Yahweh, and said, 'I will entice him.'

He said, 'I will go out and will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.'

He said, 'You will entice him, and will also prevail. Go out and do so.' <sup>23</sup> Now therefore, behold, Yahweh has put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these your prophets; and Yahweh has spoken evil concerning you."

<sup>24</sup> Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near, and struck Micaiah on the cheek, and said, "Which way did Yahweh's Spirit go from me to speak to you?"

<sup>25</sup> Micaiah said, "Behold, you will see on that day, when you go into an inner room to hide yourself."

<sup>26</sup> The king of Israel said, "Take Micaiah, and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son. <sup>27</sup> Say, 'Thus says the king, "Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I come in peace.'""

<sup>28</sup> Micaiah said, "If you return at all in peace, Yahweh has not spoken by me." He said, "Listen, all you people!"

<sup>29</sup> So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth Gilead. <sup>30</sup> The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "I will disguise myself, and go into the battle; but you put on your robes." The king of Israel disguised himself, and went into the battle.

<sup>31</sup> Now the king of Syria had commanded the thirty-two captains of his chariots, saying, "Don't fight with small nor great, except only with the king of Israel."

<sup>32</sup> When the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, they said, "Surely that is the king of Israel!" and they turned aside to fight against him. Jehoshaphat cried out. <sup>33</sup> When the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, they turned back from pursuing him. <sup>34</sup> A certain man drew his bow at random, and struck the king of Israel between the joints of the armor. Therefore he said to the driver of his chariot, "Turn your hand, and carry me out of the battle; for I am severely wounded." <sup>35</sup>

The battle increased that day. The king was propped up in his chariot facing the Syrians, and died at evening. The blood ran out of the wound into the bottom of the chariot. <sup>36</sup> A cry went throughout the army about the going down of the sun, saying, "Every man to his city, and every man to his country!"

<sup>37</sup> So the king died, and was brought to Samaria; and they buried the king in Samaria. <sup>38</sup> They washed the chariot by the pool of Samaria; and the dogs licked up his blood where the prostitutes washed themselves; according to Yahweh's word which he spoke.

<sup>39</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Ahab, and all that he did, and the ivory house which he built, and all the cities that he built, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>40</sup> So Ahab slept with his fathers; and Ahaziah his son reigned in his place.

<sup>41</sup> Jehoshaphat the son of Asa began to reign over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel. <sup>42</sup> Jehoshaphat was thirty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi. <sup>43</sup> He walked in all the way of Asa his father. He didn't turn aside from it, doing that which was right in Yahweh's eyes. However the high places were not taken away. The people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places. <sup>44</sup> Jehoshaphat made peace with the king of Israel. <sup>45</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, and his might that he showed, and how he fought, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>46</sup> The remnant of the sodomites, that remained in the days of his father Asa, he put away out of the land. <sup>47</sup> There was no king in Edom. A deputy ruled. <sup>48</sup> Jehoshaphat made ships of Tarshish to go to Ophir for gold, but they didn't go; for the ships wrecked at Ezion Geber. <sup>49</sup> Then Ahaziah the son of Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, "Let my servants go with your servants in the ships." But Jehoshaphat would not. <sup>50</sup> Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in his father David's city. Jehoram his son reigned in his place.

<sup>51</sup> Ahaziah the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria in the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and he reigned two years over Israel. <sup>52</sup> He did that which was evil in Yahweh's sight, and walked in the way of his father, and in the way of his mother, and in the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, in which he made Israel to sin. <sup>53</sup> He served Baal and worshiped him, and provoked Yahweh, the God of Israel, to anger, in all the ways that his father had done so.

The Second Book of Kings

1

<sup>1</sup> Moab rebelled against Israel after the death of Ahab. <sup>2</sup> Ahaziah fell down through the lattice in his upper room that was in Samaria, and was sick. So he sent messengers, and said to them, “Go, inquire of Baal Zebub, the god of Ekron, whether I will recover of this sickness.”

<sup>3</sup> But Yahweh’s<sup>a</sup> angel said to Elijah the Tishbite, “Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and tell them, ‘Is it because there is no God<sup>b</sup> in Israel, that you go to inquire of Baal Zebub, the god of Ekron?’ <sup>4</sup> Now therefore Yahweh says, “You will not come down from the bed where you have gone up, but you will surely die.”” Then Elijah departed.

<sup>5</sup> The messengers returned to him, and he said to them, “Why is it that you have returned?”

<sup>6</sup> They said to him, “A man came up to meet us, and said to us, ‘Go, return to the king who sent you, and tell him, “Yahweh says, ‘Is it because there is no God in Israel, that you send to inquire of Baal Zebub, the god of Ekron? Therefore you will not come down from the bed where you have gone up, but you will surely die.’”””

<sup>7</sup> He said to them, “What kind of man was he who came up to meet you, and told you these words?”

<sup>8</sup> They answered him, “He was a hairy man, and wearing a leather belt around his waist.”

He said, “It’s Elijah the Tishbite.”

<sup>9</sup> Then the king sent a captain of fifty with his fifty to him. He went up to him; and behold,<sup>c</sup> he was sitting on the top of the hill. He said to him, “Man of God, the king has said, ‘Come down!’”

<sup>10</sup> Elijah answered to the captain of fifty, “If I am a man of God, then let fire come down from the sky, and consume you and your fifty!” Then fire came down from the sky, and consumed him and his fifty.

<sup>11</sup> Again he sent to him another captain of fifty and his fifty. He answered him, “Man of God, the king has said, ‘Come down quickly!’”

<sup>12</sup> Elijah answered them, “If I am a man of God, then let fire come down from the sky, and consume you and your fifty!” Then the God’s fire came down from the sky, and consumed him and his fifty.

<sup>13</sup> Again he sent the captain of a third fifty with his fifty. The third captain of fifty went up, and came and fell on his knees before Elijah, and begged him, and said to him, “Man of God, please let my life, and the life of these fifty of your servants, be precious in your sight. <sup>14</sup> Behold, fire came down from the sky, and consumed the last two captains of fifty with their fifties. But now let my life be precious in your sight.”

<sup>15</sup> Yahweh’s angel said to Elijah, “Go down with him. Don’t be afraid of him.”

Then he arose, and went down with him to the king. <sup>16</sup> He said to him, “Yahweh says, ‘Because you have sent messengers to inquire of Baal Zebub, the god of Ekron, is it because there is no God in Israel to inquire of his word? Therefore you will not come down from the bed where you have gone up, but you will surely die.”

<sup>17</sup> So he died according to Yahweh’s word which Elijah had spoken. Jehoram began to reign in his place in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, because he had no son. <sup>18</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Ahaziah which he did, aren’t they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

<sup>1</sup> When Yahweh was about to take Elijah up by a whirlwind into heaven, Elijah went with Elisha from Gilgal. <sup>2</sup> Elijah said to Elisha, “Please wait here, for Yahweh has sent me as far as Bethel.”

Elisha said, “As Yahweh lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you.” So they went down to Bethel.

<sup>3</sup> The sons of the prophets who were at Bethel came out to Elisha, and said to him, “Do you know that Yahweh will take away your master from your head today?”

He said, “Yes, I know it. Hold your peace.”

<sup>4</sup> Elijah said to him, “Elisha, please wait here, for Yahweh has sent me to Jericho.”

He said, “As Yahweh lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you.” So they came to Jericho.

<sup>5</sup> The sons of the prophets who were at Jericho came near to Elisha, and said to him, “Do you know that Yahweh will take away your master from your head today?”

He answered, “Yes, I know it. Hold your peace.”

<sup>6</sup> Elijah said to him, “Please wait here, for Yahweh has sent me to the Jordan.”

He said, “As Yahweh lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you.” Then they both went on. <sup>7</sup> Fifty men of the sons of the prophets went, and stood opposite them at a distance; and they both stood by the Jordan.

<sup>8</sup> Elijah took his mantle, and rolled it up, and struck the waters, and they were divided here and there, so that they both went over on dry ground. <sup>9</sup> When they had gone over, Elijah said to Elisha, “Ask what I shall do for you, before I am taken from you.”

Elisha said, “Please let a double portion of your spirit be on me.”

<sup>10</sup> He said, “You have asked a hard thing. If you see me when I am taken from you, it will be so for you; but if not, it will not be so.”

<sup>11</sup> As they continued on and talked, behold, a chariot of fire and horses of fire separated them, and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven. <sup>12</sup> Elisha saw it, and he cried, “My father, my father, the chariots of Israel and its horsemen!”

He saw him no more. Then he took hold of his own clothes, and tore them in two pieces. <sup>13</sup> He also took up Elijah’s mantle that fell from him, and went back, and stood by the bank of the Jordan. <sup>14</sup> He took Elijah’s mantle that fell from him, and struck the waters, and said, “Where is Yahweh, the God of Elijah?” When he also had struck the waters, they were divided apart, and Elisha went over. <sup>15</sup> When the sons of the prophets who were at Jericho over against him saw him, they said, “The spirit of Elijah rests on Elisha.” They came to meet him, and bowed themselves to the ground before him. <sup>16</sup> They said to him, “See now, there are with your servants fifty strong men. Please let them go and seek your master. Perhaps Yahweh’s Spirit has taken him up, and put him on some mountain, or into some valley.

He said, "Don't send them."

<sup>17</sup> When they urged him until he was ashamed, he said, "Send them."

Therefore they sent fifty men; and they searched for three days, but didn't find him. <sup>18</sup> They came back to him, while he stayed at Jericho; and he said to them, "Didn't I tell you, 'Don't go?'"

<sup>19</sup> The men of the city said to Elisha, "Behold, please, the situation of this city is pleasant, as my lord sees; but the water is bad, and the land is barren."

<sup>20</sup> He said, "Bring me a new jar, and put salt in it." Then they brought it to him. <sup>21</sup> He went out to the spring of the waters, and threw salt into it, and said, "Yahweh says, 'I have healed these waters. There shall not be from there any more death or barren wasteland.'" <sup>22</sup> So the waters were healed to this day, according to Elisha's word which he spoke.

<sup>23</sup> He went up from there to Bethel. As he was going up by the way, some youths came out of the city and mocked him, and said to him, "Go up, you baldy! Go up, you baldy!" <sup>24</sup> He looked behind him and saw them, and cursed them in Yahweh's name. Then two female bears came out of the woods, and mauled forty-two of those youths. <sup>25</sup> He went from there to Mount Carmel, and from there he returned to Samaria.

3

<sup>1</sup> Now Jehoram the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria in the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned twelve years. <sup>2</sup> He did that which was evil in Yahweh's sight, but not like his father, and like his mother, for he put away the pillar of Baal that his father had made. <sup>3</sup> Nevertheless he held to the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin. He didn't depart from them. <sup>4</sup> Now Mesha king of Moab was a sheep breeder; and he supplied the king of Israel with the wool of one hundred thousand lambs, and of one hundred thousand rams. <sup>5</sup> But when Ahab was dead, the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel. <sup>6</sup> King Jehoram went out of Samaria at that time, and mustered all Israel. <sup>7</sup> He went and sent to Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, saying, "The king of Moab has rebelled against me. Will you go with me against Moab to battle?"

He said, "I will go up. I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses." <sup>8</sup> He said, "Which way shall we go up?"

He answered, "The way of the wilderness of Edom." <sup>9</sup> So the king of Israel went with the king of Judah and the king of Edom, and they marched for seven days along a circuitous route. There was no water for the army or for the animals that followed them. <sup>10</sup> The king of Israel said, "Alas! For Yahweh has called these three kings together to deliver them into the hand of Moab."

<sup>11</sup> But Jehoshaphat said, "Isn't there a prophet of Yahweh here, that we may inquire of Yahweh by him?"

One of the king of Israel's servants answered, "Elisha the son of Shaphat, who poured water on the hands of Elijah, is here."

<sup>12</sup> Jehoshaphat said, "Yahweh's word is with him." So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to him.

<sup>13</sup> Elisha said to the king of Israel, "What have I to do with you? Go to the prophets of your father, and to the prophets of your mother."

The king of Israel said to him, "No, for Yahweh has called these three kings together to deliver them into the hand of Moab." <sup>14</sup> Elisha said, "As Yahweh of Armies lives, before whom I stand, surely, were it not that I respect the presence of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, I would not look toward you, nor see you. <sup>15</sup> But now bring me a musician." When the musician played, Yahweh's hand came on him. <sup>16</sup> He said, "Yahweh says, 'Make this valley full of trenches.' <sup>17</sup> For Yahweh says, 'You will not see wind, neither will you see rain, yet that valley will be filled with water, and you will drink, both you and your livestock and your other animals. <sup>18</sup> This is an easy thing in Yahweh's sight. He will also deliver the Moabites into your hand. <sup>19</sup> You shall strike every fortified city, and every choice city, and shall fell every good tree, and stop all springs of water, and mar every good piece of land with stones.'" <sup>20</sup>

<sup>20</sup> In the morning, about the time of offering the sacrifice, behold, water came by the way of Edom, and the country was filled with water.

<sup>21</sup> Now when all the Moabites heard that the kings had come up to fight against them, they gathered themselves together, all who were able to put on armor, young and old, and stood on the border. <sup>22</sup> They rose up early in the morning, and the sun shone on the water, and the Moabites saw the water opposite them as red as blood. <sup>23</sup> They said, "This is blood. The kings are surely destroyed, and they have struck each other. Now therefore, Moab, to the plunder!"

<sup>24</sup> When they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and struck the Moabites, so that they fled before them; and they went forward into the land attacking the Moabites. <sup>25</sup> They beat down the cities; and on every good piece of land each man cast his stone, and filled it. They also stopped all the springs of water, and felled all the good trees, until in Kir Hareseth all they left was its stones; however the men armed with slings went around it, and attacked it. <sup>26</sup> When the king of Moab saw that the battle was too severe for him, he took with him seven hundred men who drew a sword, to break through to the king of Edom; but they could not. <sup>27</sup> Then he took his oldest son who would have reigned in his place, and offered him for a burnt offering on the wall. There was great wrath against Israel; and they departed from him, and returned to their own land.

<sup>1</sup> Now a certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets cried out to Elisha, saying, "Your servant my husband is dead. You know that your servant feared Yahweh. Now the creditor has come to take for himself my two children to be slaves."

<sup>2</sup> Elisha said to her, "What should I do for you? Tell me: what do you have in the house?"

She said, "Your servant has nothing in the house, except a pot of oil."

<sup>3</sup> Then he said, "Go, borrow empty containers from all your neighbors. Don't borrow just a few containers. <sup>4</sup> Go in and shut the door on you and on your sons, and pour oil into all those containers; and set aside those which are full."

<sup>5</sup> So she went from him, and shut the door on herself and on her sons. They brought the containers to her, and she poured oil. <sup>6</sup> When the containers were full, she said to her son, "Bring me another container."

He said to her, "There isn't another container." Then the oil stopped flowing.

<sup>7</sup> Then she came and told the man of God. He said, "Go, sell the oil, and pay your debt; and you and your sons live on the rest."

<sup>8</sup> One day Elisha went to Shunem, where there was a prominent woman; and she persuaded him to eat bread. So it was, that as often as he passed by, he turned in there to eat bread. <sup>9</sup> She said to her husband, "See now, I perceive that this is a holy man of God who passes by us continually. <sup>10</sup> Please let us make a little room on the roof. Let us set for him there a bed, a table, a chair, and a lamp stand. When he comes to us, he can stay there."

<sup>11</sup> One day he came there, and he went to the room and lay there. <sup>12</sup> He said to Gehazi his servant, "Call this Shunammite." When he had called her, she stood before him. <sup>13</sup> He said to her, "Say now to her, 'Behold, you have cared for us with all this care. What is to be done for you? Would you like to be spoken for to the king, or to the captain of the army?'"

She answered, "I dwell among my own people."

<sup>14</sup> He said, "What then is to be done for her?"

Gehazi answered, "Most certainly she has no son, and her husband is old."

<sup>15</sup> He said, "Call her." When he had called her, she stood in the door. <sup>16</sup> He said, "At this season, when the time comes around, you will embrace a son."

She said, "No, my lord, you man of God, do not lie to your servant."

<sup>17</sup> The woman conceived, and bore a son at that season, when the time came around, as Elisha had said to her. <sup>18</sup> When the child was grown, one day he went out to his father to the reapers. <sup>19</sup> He said to his father, "My head! My head!"

He said to his servant, "Carry him to his mother."

<sup>20</sup> When he had taken him, and brought him to his mother, he sat on her knees until noon, and then died. <sup>21</sup> She went up and laid him on the man of God's bed, and shut the door on him, and went out. <sup>22</sup> She called to her husband, and said, "Please send me one of the servants, and one of the donkeys, that I may run to the man of God, and come again."

<sup>23</sup> He said, "Why would you want to go to him today? It is not a new moon or a Sabbath."

She said, "It's alright."

<sup>24</sup> Then she saddled a donkey, and said to her servant, "Drive, and go forward! Don't slow down for me, unless I ask you to."

<sup>25</sup> So she went, and came to the man of God to Mount Carmel. When the man of God saw her afar off, he said to Gehazi his servant, "Behold, there is the Shunammite."

<sup>26</sup> Please run now to meet her, and ask her,

‘Is it well with you? Is it well with your husband? Is it well with your child?’”

She answered, “It is well.”

<sup>27</sup> When she came to the man of God to the hill, she caught hold of his feet. Gehazi came near to thrust her away; but the man of God said, “Leave her alone; for her soul is troubled within her; and Yahweh has hidden it from me, and has not told me.”

<sup>28</sup> Then she said, “Did I ask you for a son, my lord? Didn’t I say, ‘Do not deceive me?’”

<sup>29</sup> Then he said to Gehazi, “Tuck your cloak into your belt, take my staff in your hand, and go your way. If you meet any man, don’t greet him; and if anyone greets you, don’t answer him again. Then lay my staff on the child’s face.”

<sup>30</sup> The child’s mother said, “As Yahweh lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you.”

So he arose, and followed her.

<sup>31</sup> Gehazi went ahead of them, and laid the staff on the child’s face; but there was no voice and or hearing. Therefore he returned to meet him, and told him, “The child has not awakened.”

<sup>32</sup> When Elisha had come into the house, behold, the child was dead, and lying on his bed. <sup>33</sup> He went in therefore, and shut the door on them both, and prayed to Yahweh.

<sup>34</sup> He went up, and lay on the child, and put his mouth on his mouth, and his eyes on his eyes, and his hands on his hands. He stretched himself on him; and the child’s flesh grew warm. <sup>35</sup> Then he returned, and walked in the house once back and forth; and went up, and stretched himself out on him. Then the child sneezed seven times, and the child opened his eyes. <sup>36</sup> He called Gehazi, and said, “Call this Shunammite!” So he called her.

When she had come in to him, he said, “Take up your son.”

<sup>37</sup> Then she went in, fell at his feet, and bowed herself to the ground; then she picked up her son, and went out.

<sup>38</sup> Elisha came again to Gilgal. There was a famine in the land; and the sons of the prophets were sitting before him; and he said to his servant, “Get the large pot, and boil stew for the sons of the prophets.”

<sup>39</sup> One went out into the field to gather herbs, and found a wild vine, and gathered a lap full of wild gourds from it, and came and cut them up into the pot of stew; for they didn’t recognize them. <sup>40</sup> So they poured out for the men to eat. As they were eating some of the stew, they cried out, and said, “Man of God, there is death in the pot!” And they could not eat it.

<sup>41</sup> But he said, “Then bring meal.” He threw it into the pot; and he said, “Serve it to the people, that they may eat.” And there was nothing harmful in the pot.

<sup>42</sup> A man from Baal Shalishah came, and brought the man of God bread some of the first fruits: twenty loaves of barley, and fresh ears of grain in his sack. He said, “Give to the people, that they may eat.”

<sup>43</sup> His servant said, “What, should I set this before a hundred men?”

But he said, “Give the people, that they may eat; for Yahweh says, ‘They will eat, and will have some left over.’”

<sup>44</sup> So he set it before them, and they ate, and had some left over, according to Yahweh’s word.

5

<sup>1</sup> Now Naaman, captain of the army of the king of Syria, was a great man with his master, and honorable, because by him Yahweh had given victory to Syria: he was also a mighty man of valor, but he was a leper. <sup>2</sup> The Syrians had gone out in bands, and had brought away captive out of the land of Israel a little maiden; and she waited on Naaman's wife. <sup>3</sup> She said to her mistress, "I wish that my lord were with the prophet who is in Samaria! Then he would heal him of his leprosy."

<sup>4</sup> Someone went in, and told his lord, saying, "The maiden who is from the land of Israel said this."

<sup>5</sup> The king of Syria said, "Go now, and I will send a letter to the king of Israel."

He departed, and took with him ten talents<sup>d</sup> of silver, and six thousand pieces of gold, and ten changes of clothing. <sup>6</sup> He brought the letter to the king of Israel, saying, "Now when this letter has come to you, behold, I have sent Naaman my servant to you, that you may heal him of his leprosy."

<sup>7</sup> When the king of Israel had read the letter, he tore his clothes, and said, "Am I God, to kill and to make alive, that this man sends to me to heal a man of his leprosy? But please consider and see how he seeks a quarrel against me."

<sup>8</sup> It was so, when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, that he sent to the king, saying, "Why have you torn your clothes? Let him come now to me, and he shall know that there is a prophet in Israel."

<sup>9</sup> So Naaman came with his horses and with his chariots, and stood at the door of the house of Elisha. <sup>10</sup> Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, "Go and wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall come again to you, and you shall be clean."

<sup>11</sup> But Naaman was angry, and went away, and said, "Behold, I thought, 'He will surely come out to me, and stand, and call on the name of Yahweh his God, and wave his hand over the place, and heal the leper.' <sup>12</sup> Aren't Abanah and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Couldn't I wash in them, and be clean?" So he turned and went away in a rage.

<sup>13</sup> His servants came near, and spoke to him, and said, "My father, if the prophet had asked you do some great thing, wouldn't you have done it? How much rather then, when he says to you, 'Wash, and be clean?'"

<sup>14</sup> Then went he down, and dipped himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the saying of the man of God; and his flesh was restored like the flesh of a little child, and he was clean. <sup>15</sup> He returned to the man of God, he and all his company, and came, and stood before him; and he said, "See now, I know that there is no God in all the earth, but in Israel. Now therefore, please take a gift from your servant."

<sup>16</sup> But he said, "As Yahweh lives, before whom I stand, I will receive none."

He urged him to take it; but he refused. <sup>17</sup> Naaman said, "If not, then, please let two mules' burden of earth be given to your servant; for your servant will from now on offer neither burnt offering nor sacrifice to other gods, but to Yahweh. <sup>18</sup> In this thing may Yahweh pardon your servant: when my master goes into the house of Rimmon to worship there, and he leans on my hand, and I bow myself in the house of Rimmon. When I bow myself in the house of Rimmon, may Yahweh pardon your servant in this thing.”

<sup>19</sup> He said to him, “Go in peace.”

So he departed from him a little way. <sup>20</sup> But Gehazi the servant of Elisha the man of God, said, “Behold, my master has spared this Naaman the Syrian, in not receiving at his hands that which he brought. As Yahweh lives, I will run after him, and take something from him.”

<sup>21</sup> So Gehazi followed after Naaman. When Naaman saw one running after him, he came down from the chariot to meet him, and said, “Is all well?”

<sup>22</sup> He said, “All is well. My master has sent me, saying, ‘Behold, even now two young men of the sons of the prophets have come to me from the hill country of Ephraim. Please give them a talent<sup>e</sup> of silver and two changes of clothing.’”

<sup>23</sup> Naaman said, “Be pleased to take two talents.” He urged him, and bound two talents of silver in two bags, with two changes of clothing, and laid them on two of his servants; and they carried them before him. <sup>24</sup> When he came to the hill, he took them from their hand, and stored them in the house. Then he let the men go, and they departed. <sup>25</sup> But he went in, and stood before his master. Elisha said to him, “Where did you come from, Gehazi?”

He said, “Your servant went nowhere.”

<sup>26</sup> He said to him, “Didn’t my heart go with you, when the man turned from his chariot to meet you? Is it a time to receive money, and to receive garments, and olive groves and vineyards, and sheep and cattle, and male servants and female servants? <sup>27</sup> Therefore the leprosy of Naaman will cling to you and to your offspring<sup>f</sup> forever.”

He went out from his presence a leper, as white as snow.

6

<sup>1</sup> The sons of the prophets said to Elisha, “See now, the place where we live and meet with you is too small for us. <sup>2</sup> Please let us go to the Jordan, and each man take a beam from there, and let us make us a place there, where we may live.”

He answered, “Go!”

He answered, “I will go.” <sup>4</sup> So he went with them. When they came to the Jordan, they cut down wood. <sup>5</sup> But as one was cutting down a tree, the ax head fell into the water. Then he cried, and said, “Alas, my master! For it was borrowed.”

<sup>6</sup> The man of God asked, “Where did it fall?” He showed him the place. He cut down a stick, threw it in there, and made the iron float. <sup>7</sup> He said, “Take it.” So he put out his hand and took it.

<sup>8</sup> Now the king of Syria was at war against Israel; and he took counsel with his servants, saying, “My camp will be in such and such a place.”

<sup>9</sup> The man of God sent to the king of Israel, saying, “Beware that you not pass this place; for the Syrians are coming down there.” <sup>10</sup> The king of Israel sent to the place which the man of God told him and warned him of; and he saved himself there, not once or twice. <sup>11</sup> The king of Syria's heart was very troubled about this. He called his servants, and said to them, "Won't you show me which of us is for the king of Israel?"

<sup>12</sup> One of his servants said, "No, my lord, O king; but Elisha, the prophet who is in Israel, tells the king of Israel the words that you speak in your bedroom."

<sup>13</sup> He said, "Go and see where he is, that I may send and get him."

He was told, "Behold, he is in Dothan."

<sup>14</sup> Therefore he sent horses, chariots, and a great army there. They came by night, and surrounded the city. <sup>15</sup> When the servant of the man of God had risen early, and gone out, behold, an army with horses and chariots was around the city. His servant said to him, "Alas, my master! What shall we do?"

<sup>16</sup> He answered, "Don't be afraid; for those who are with us are more than those who are with them." <sup>17</sup> Elisha prayed, and said, "Yahweh, please open his eyes, that he may see." Yahweh opened the young man's eyes; and he saw: and behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire around Elisha. <sup>18</sup> When they came down to him, Elisha prayed to Yahweh, and said, "Please strike this people with blindness."

He struck them with blindness according to Elijah's word. <sup>19</sup> Elisha said to them, "This is not the way, neither is this the city. Follow me, and I will bring you to the man whom you seek." He led them to Samaria. <sup>20</sup> When they had come into Samaria, Elisha said, "Yahweh, open these men's eyes, that they may see."

Yahweh opened their eyes, and they saw; and behold, they were in the middle of Samaria. <sup>21</sup> The king of Israel said to Elisha, when he saw them, "My father, shall I strike them? Shall I strike them?"

<sup>22</sup> He answered, "You shall not strike them. Would you strike those whom you have taken captive with your sword and with your bow? Set bread and water before them, that they may eat and drink, and go to their master."

<sup>23</sup> He prepared great feast for them. When they had eaten and drunk, he sent them away, and they went to their master. So the bands of Syria stopped raiding the land of Israel.

<sup>27</sup> He said, "If Yahweh doesn't help you, where could I get help for you? From of the threshing floor, or from the wine press?" <sup>28</sup> The king said to her, "What is your problem?"

She answered, "This woman said to me, 'Give your son, that we may eat him today, and we will eat my son tomorrow.' <sup>29</sup> So we boiled my son, and ate him: and I said to her on the next day, 'Give your son, that we may eat him;' and she has hidden her son."

<sup>30</sup> When the king heard the words of the woman, he tore his clothes. Now he was

<sup>g</sup> A kab was about 2 liters, so a fourth of a kab would be about 500 milliliters or about a pint passing by on the wall, and the people looked, and behold, he had sackcloth underneath on his body. <sup>31</sup> Then he said, "God do so to me, and more also, if the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat stays on him today."

<sup>32</sup> But Elisha was sitting in his house, and the elders were sitting with him. Then the king sent a man from before him; but before the messenger came to him, he said to the elders, "Do you see how this son of a murderer has sent to take away my head? Behold, when the messenger comes, shut the door, and hold the door shut against him. Isn't the sound of his master's feet behind him?"

<sup>33</sup> While he was still talking with them, behold, the messenger came down to him. Then he said, "Behold, this evil is from Yahweh. Why should I wait for Yahweh any longer?"

7

<sup>2</sup> Then the captain on whose hand the king leaned answered the man of God, and said, "Behold, if Yahweh made windows in heaven, could this thing be?"

He said, "Behold, you will see it with your eyes, but will not eat of it."

<sup>3</sup> Now there were four leprous men at the entrance of the gate. They said to one another, "Why do we sit here until we die? <sup>4</sup> If we say, 'We will enter into the city,' then the famine is in the city, and we will die there. If we sit still here, we also die. Now therefore come, and let us surrender to the army of the Syrians. If they save us alive, we will live; and if they kill us, we will only die."

<sup>5</sup> They rose up in the twilight, to go to the camp of the Syrians. When they had come to the outermost part of the camp of the Syrians, behold, no man was there. <sup>6</sup> For the Lord<sup>j</sup> had made the army of the Syrians to hear the sound of chariots, and the sound of horses, even the noise of a great army; and they said to one another, "Behold, the king of Israel has hired against us the kings of the Hittites and the kings of the Egyptians to attack us." <sup>7</sup> Therefore they arose and fled in the twilight, and left their tents, and their horses, and their donkeys, even the camp as it was, and fled for their life. <sup>8</sup> When these lepers came to the outermost part of the camp, they went into one tent, and ate and drink, and carried away silver, gold, and clothing, and went and hid it. Then they came back, and entered into another tent, and carried things from there also, and went and hid them. <sup>9</sup> Then they said to one another, "We aren't doing right. Today is a day of good news, and we keep silent. If we wait until the morning light, punishment will overtake us. Now therefore come, let's go and tell the king's household."

<sup>10</sup> So they came and called to the city gatekeepers; and they told them, "We came to the camp of the Syrians, and, behold, there was no man there, not even a man's voice, but the horses tied, and the donkeys tied, and the tents as they were."

<sup>11</sup> He called the gatekeepers; and they told it to the king's household within. <sup>12</sup>

<sup>h</sup> 1 seah is about 7 liters or 1.9 gallons or 0.8 pecks <sup>i</sup> a shekel is about 10 grams or about 0.35 ounces. In this context, it was probably a silver coin weighing that much. <sup>j</sup> The word translated "Lord" is "Adonai."

The king arose in the night, and said to his servants, "I will now show you what the Syrians have done to us. They know that we are hungry. Therefore are they gone out of the camp to hide themselves in the field, saying, 'When they come out of the city, we shall take them alive, and get into the city.'"

<sup>14</sup> Therefore they took two chariots with horses; and the king them sent out to the Syrian army, saying, "Go and see."

<sup>15</sup> They went after them to the Jordan; and behold, all the path was full of garments and equipment which the Syrians had cast away in their haste. The messengers returned, and told the king. <sup>16</sup> The people went out and plundered the camp of the Syrians. So a seah<sup>k</sup> of fine flour was sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel,<sup>l</sup> according to Yahweh's word. <sup>17</sup> The king appointed the captain on whose hand he leaned to be in charge of the gate; and the people trampled over him in the gate, and he died as the man of God had said, who spoke when the king came down to him. <sup>18</sup> It happened as the man of God had spoken to the king, saying, "Two seahs<sup>m</sup> of barley for a shekel,<sup>n</sup> and a seah of fine flour for a shekel, shall be tomorrow about this time in the gate of Samaria"; <sup>19</sup> and that captain answered the man of God, and said, "Now, behold, if Yahweh made windows in heaven, might such a thing be?" and he said, "Behold, you will see it with your eyes, but will not eat of it." <sup>20</sup> It happened like that to him; for the people trampled over him in the gate, and he died.

8

<sup>1</sup> Now Elisha had spoken to the woman whose son he had restored to life, saying, "Arise, and go, you and your household, and stay for a while wherever you can; for Yahweh has called for a famine. It will also come on the land for seven years."

<sup>2</sup> The woman arose, and did according to the man of God's word. She went with her household, and lived in the land of the Philistines for seven years. <sup>3</sup> At the end of seven years, the woman returned from the land of the Philistines. Then she went out to beg the king for her house and for her land. <sup>4</sup> Now the king was talking with Gehazi the servant of the man of God, saying, "Please tell me all the great things that Elisha has done." <sup>5</sup> As he was telling the king how he had restored to life him who was dead, behold, the woman, whose son he had restored to life, begged the king for her house and for her land. Gehazi said, "My lord, O king, this is the woman, and this is her son, whom Elisha restored to life."

<sup>6</sup> When the king asked the woman, she told him. So the king appointed to her a certain officer, saying, "Restore all that was hers, and all the fruits of the field since the day that she left the land, even until now."

<sup>7</sup> Elisha came to Damascus; and Benhadad the king of Syria was sick. He was told, "The man of God has come here."

<sup>8</sup> The king said to Hazael, "Take a present in your hand, and go, meet the man of God, and inquire of Yahweh by him, saying, 'Will I recover from this sickness?'"

<sup>9</sup> So Hazael went to meet him, and took a present with him, even of every good thing of Damascus, forty camels' burden, and came and stood before him, and said, "Your son Benhadad king of Syria has sent me to you, saying, 'Will I recover from this sickness?'"

<sup>10</sup> Elisha said to him, "Go, tell him, 'You will surely recover;' however Yahweh has shown me that he will surely die." <sup>11</sup> He settled his gaze steadfastly on him, until he was ashamed. Then the man of God wept.

<sup>12</sup> Hazael said, "Why do you weep, my lord?"

He answered, "Because I know the evil that you will do to the children of Israel. You will set their strongholds on fire, and you will kill their young men with the sword, and will dash their little ones in pieces, and rip up their pregnant women."

<sup>13</sup> Hazael said, "But what is your servant, who is but a dog, that he could do this great thing?"

Elisha answered, "Yahweh has shown me that you will be king over Syria."

<sup>14</sup> Then he departed from Elisha, and came to his master, who said to him, "What did Elisha say to you?"

He answered, "He told me that you would surely recover."

<sup>15</sup> On the next day, he took a thick cloth, dipped it in water, and spread it on his face, so that he died. Then Hazael reigned in his place.

<sup>16</sup> In the fifth year of Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel, Jehoshaphat being king of Judah then, Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah began to reign.

<sup>17</sup> He was thirty-two years old when he began to reign. He reigned eight years in Jerusalem. <sup>18</sup> He walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as did Ahab's house; for he married Ahab's daughter. He did that which was evil in Yahweh's sight. <sup>19</sup> However Yahweh would not destroy Judah, for David his servant's sake, as he promised him to give to him a lamp for his children always.

<sup>20</sup> In his days Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and made a king over themselves. <sup>21</sup> Then Joram passed over to Zair, and all his chariots with him: and he rose up by night, and struck the Edomites who surrounded him, and the captains of the chariots; and the people fled to their tents. <sup>22</sup> So Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah to this day. Then Libnah revolted at the same time. <sup>23</sup> The rest of the acts of Joram, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>24</sup> Joram slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in David's city; and Ahaziah his son reigned in his place. <sup>25</sup> In the twelfth year of Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel, Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah began to reign. <sup>26</sup> Ahaziah was twenty-two years old when he began to reign; and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Athaliah the daughter of Omri king of Israel. <sup>27</sup> He walked in the way of Ahab's house, and did that which was evil in Yahweh's sight, as did Ahab's house; for he was the son-in-law of Ahab's house. <sup>28</sup> He went with Joram the son of Ahab to war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth Gilead, and the Syrians wounded Joram. <sup>29</sup> King Joram returned to be healed in Jezreel from the wounds which the Syrians had given him at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria. Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Joram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick.

<sup>1</sup> Elisha the prophet called one of the sons of the prophets, and said to him, "Put your belt on your waist, take this vial of oil in your hand, and go to Ramoth Gilead. <sup>2</sup> When you come there, find Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi, and go in, and make him rise up from among his brothers, and take him to an inner room. <sup>3</sup> Then take the vial of oil, and pour it on his head, and say, 'Yahweh says, "I have anointed you king over Israel."' Then open the door, flee, and don't wait."

<sup>4</sup> So the young man, even the young man, the prophet, went to Ramoth Gilead. <sup>5</sup> When he came, behold, the captains of the army were sitting. Then he said, "I have a message for you, captain."

Jehu said, "To which of us all?"

He said, "To you, O captain." <sup>6</sup> He arose, and went into the house. Then he poured the oil on his head, and said to him, "Yahweh, the God of Israel, says, 'I have anointed you king over the people of Yahweh, even over Israel. <sup>7</sup> You must strike your master Ahab's house, that I may avenge the blood of my servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of Yahweh, at the hand of Jezebel. <sup>8</sup> For the whole house of Ahab will perish. I will cut off from Ahab everyone who urinates against a wall,<sup>o</sup> both him who is shut up and him who is left at large in Israel. <sup>9</sup> I will make Ahab's house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah. <sup>10</sup> The dogs will eat Jezebel on the plot of ground of Jezreel, and there shall be no one to bury her.'" Then he opened the door and fled.

<sup>11</sup> When Jehu came out to the servants of his lord, and one said to him, "Is all well? Why did this mad fellow come to you?"

He said to them, "You know the man and how he talks." <sup>12</sup> They said, "That is a lie. Tell us now."

He said, "He said to me, 'Yahweh says, I have anointed you king over Israel.'"

<sup>13</sup> Then they hurried, and each man took his cloak, and put it under him on the top of the stairs, and blew the trumpet, saying, "Jehu is king."

<sup>14</sup> So Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi conspired against Joram. (Now Joram was keeping Ramoth Gilead, he and all Israel, because of Hazael king of Syria; <sup>15</sup> but king Joram had returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Syrians had given him, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria.) Jehu said, "If this is your thinking, then let no one escape and go out of the city, to go to tell it in Jezreel." <sup>16</sup> So Jehu rode in a chariot and went to Jezreel, for Joram lay there. Ahaziah king of Judah had come down to see Joram. <sup>17</sup> Now the watchman was standing on the tower in

Jezeel, and he spied the company of Jehu as he came, and said, "I see a company."

Joram said, "Take a horseman, and send to meet them, and let him say, 'Is it peace?'"

<sup>18</sup> So one went on horseback to meet him, and said, "Thus says the king, 'Is it peace?'"

Jehu said, "What do you have to do with peace? Fall in behind me!"

The watchman said, "The messenger came to them, but he isn't coming back."

<sup>19</sup> Then he sent out a second on horseback, who came to them, and said, "Thus says the king, 'Is it peace?'"

Jehu answered, "What do you have to do with peace? Fall in behind me!"

<sup>20</sup> The watchman said, "He came to them, and isn't coming back. The driving is like the driving of Jehu the son of Nimshi, for he drives furiously."

They got his chariot ready. Then Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah went out, each in his chariot, and they went out to meet Jehu, and found him on Naboth the Jezreelite's land. <sup>22</sup> When Joram saw Jehu, he said, "Is it peace, Jehu?"

He answered, "What peace, so long as the prostitution of your mother Jezebel and her witchcraft abound?"

<sup>23</sup> Joram turned his hands, and fled, and said to Ahaziah, "This is treason, Ahaziah!"

<sup>24</sup> Jehu drew his bow with his full strength, and struck Joram between his arms; and the arrow went out at his heart, and he sunk down in his chariot. <sup>25</sup> Then Jehu said to Bidkar his captain, "Pick him up, and throw him in the plot of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite; for remember how, when you and I rode together after Ahab his father, Yahweh laid this burden on him:

<sup>26</sup> 'Surely I have seen yesterday the blood of Naboth, and the blood of his sons,' says Yahweh; 'and I will repay you in this plot of ground,' says Yahweh. Now therefore take and cast him onto the plot of ground, according to Yahweh's word."

<sup>27</sup> But when Ahaziah the king of Judah saw this, he fled by the way of the garden house. Jehu followed after him, and said, "Strike him also in the chariot!" They struck him at the ascent of Gur, which is by Ibleam. He fled to Megiddo, and died there.

<sup>32</sup> He lifted up his face to the window, and said, "Who is on my side? Who?"

Two or three eunuchs looked out at him.

<sup>33</sup> He said, "Throw her down!"

So they threw her down; and some of her blood was sprinkled on the wall, and on the horses. Then he trampled her under foot. <sup>34</sup> When he had come in, he ate and drank. Then he said, "See now to this cursed woman, and bury her; for she is a king's daughter."

<sup>35</sup> They went to bury her, but they found no more of her than the skull, the feet, and the palms of her hands. <sup>36</sup> Therefore they came back, and told him.

He said, "This is Yahweh's word, which he spoke by his servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying, 'The dogs will eat the flesh of Jezebel on the plot of Jezreel,<sup>37</sup> and the body of Jezebel will be as dung on the face of the field on Jezreel's land, so that they won't say, 'This is Jezebel.''"

10

<sup>1</sup> Now Ahab had seventy sons in Samaria. Jehu wrote letters, and sent to Samaria, to the rulers of Jezreel, even the elders, and to those who brought up Ahab's sons, saying, <sup>2</sup> "Now as soon as this letter comes to you, since your master's sons are with you, and you have chariots and horses, a fortified city also, and armor,<sup>3</sup> Select the best and fittest of your master's sons, set him on his father's throne, and fight for your master's house."

<sup>4</sup> But they were exceedingly afraid, and said, "Behold, the two kings didn't stand before him! How then shall we stand?" <sup>5</sup> He who was over the household, and he who was over the city, the elders also, and those who raised the children, sent to Jehu, saying, "We are your servants, and will do all that you ask us. We will not make any man king. You do that which is good in your eyes."

<sup>6</sup> Then he wrote a letter the second time to them, saying, "If you are on my side, and if you will listen to my voice, take the heads of the men who are your master's sons, and come to me to Jezreel by tomorrow this time."

Now the king's sons, being seventy persons, were with the great men of the city, who brought them up.<sup>7</sup> When the letter came to them, they took the king's sons and killed them, even seventy people, and put their heads in baskets, and sent them to him to Jezreel.<sup>8</sup> A messenger came and told him, "They have brought the heads of the king's sons."

He said, "Lay them in two heaps at the entrance of the gate until the morning."<sup>9</sup> In the morning, he went out, and stood, and said to all the people, "You are righteous. Behold, I conspired against my master and killed him, but who killed all these?" <sup>10</sup> Know now that nothing will fall to the earth of Yahweh's word, which Yahweh spoke concerning Ahab's house. For Yahweh has done that which he spoke by his servant Elijah."

<sup>11</sup> So Jehu struck all that remained of Ahab's house in Jezreel, with all his great men, his familiar friends, and his priests, until he left him no one remaining.

<sup>12</sup> He arose and departed, and went to Samaria. As he was at the shearing house of the shepherds on the way,<sup>13</sup> Jehu met with the brothers of Ahaziah king of Judah, and said, "Who are you?"

They answered, "We are the brothers of Ahaziah. We are going down to greet the children of the king and the children of the queen."

<sup>14</sup> He said, "Take them alive!"

They took them alive, and killed them at the pit of the shearing house, even forty-two men. He didn't leave any of them.<sup>15</sup> When he had departed from there, he met Jehonadab the son of Rechab coming to meet him. He greeted him, and said to him, "Is your heart right, as my heart is with your heart?"

Jehonadab answered, "It is."

"If it is, give me your hand." He gave him his hand; and he took him up to him into the chariot.<sup>16</sup> He said, "Come with me, and see my zeal for Yahweh.” So they made him ride in his chariot. <sup>17</sup> When he came to Samaria, he struck all who remained to Ahab in Samaria, until he had destroyed him, according to Yahweh’s word, which he spoke to Elijah. <sup>18</sup> Jehu gathered all the people together, and said to them, “Ahab served Baal a little; but Jehu will serve him much. <sup>19</sup> Now therefore call to me all the prophets of Baal, all of his worshipers, and all of his priests. Let no one be absent; for I have a great sacrifice to Baal. Whoever is absent, he shall not live.” But Jehu did deceptively, intending to destroy the worshipers of Baal.

So they proclaimed it. <sup>21</sup> Jehu sent through all Israel; and all the worshipers of Baal came, so that there was not a man left that didn’t come. They came into the house of Baal; and the house of Baal was filled from one end to another. <sup>22</sup> He said to him who kept the wardrobe, “Bring out robes for all the worshipers of Baal!”

So he brought robes out to them. <sup>23</sup> Jehu went with Jehonadab the son of Rechab into the house of Baal. Then he said to the worshipers of Baal, “Search, and see that none of the servants of Yahweh are here with you, but only the worshipers of Baal.”

<sup>24</sup> So they went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings. Now Jehu had appointed for himself eighty men outside, and said, “If any of the men whom I bring into your hands escape, he who lets him go, his life shall be for the life of him.”

<sup>25</sup> As soon as he had finished offering the burnt offering, Jehu said to the guard and to the captains, “Go in and kill them! Let no one escape.” So they struck them with the edge of the sword. The guard and the captains threw the bodies out, and went to the inner shrine of the house of Baal. <sup>26</sup> They brought out the pillars that were in the house of Baal, and burned them. <sup>27</sup> They broke down the pillar of Baal, and broke down the house of Baal, and made it a latrine, to this day. <sup>28</sup> Thus Jehu destroyed Baal out of Israel.

<sup>29</sup> However, Jehu didn’t depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin, the golden calves that were in Bethel and that were in Dan. <sup>30</sup> Yahweh said to Jehu, “Because you have done well in executing that which is right in my eyes, and have done to Ahab’s house according to all that was in my heart, your descendants shall sit on the throne of Israel to the fourth generation.”

<sup>31</sup> But Jehu took no heed to walk in the law of Yahweh, the God of Israel, with all his heart. He didn’t depart from the sins of Jeroboam, with which he made Israel to sin. <sup>32</sup> In those days Yahweh began to cut away parts of Israel; and Hazael struck them in all the borders of Israel; <sup>33</sup> from the Jordan eastward, all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, and the Reubenites, and the Manassites, from Aroer, which is by the valley of the Arnon, even Gilead and Bashan. <sup>34</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Jehu, and all that he did, and all his might, aren’t they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>35</sup> Jehu slept with his fathers; and they buried him in Samaria. Jehoahaz his son reigned in his place. <sup>36</sup> The time that Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria was twenty-eight years.

11

<sup>1</sup> Now when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the royal offspring.<sup>P</sup>

<sup>2</sup> But Jehosheba, the daughter of king Joram, sister of Ahaziah, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him away from among the king's sons who were slain, even him and his nurse, and put them in the bedroom; and they hid him from Athaliah, so that he was not slain. <sup>3</sup> He was with her hidden in Yahweh's house six years while Athaliah reigned over the land. <sup>4</sup> In the seventh year Jehoiada sent and fetched the captains over hundreds of the Carites and of the guard, and brought them to him into Yahweh's house; and he made a covenant with them, and made a covenant with them in Yahweh's house, and showed them the king's son. <sup>5</sup> He commanded them, saying, "This is what you must do: a third of you, who come in on the Sabbath, shall be keepers of the watch of the king's house; <sup>6</sup> a third of you shall be at the gate Sur; and a third of you at the gate behind the guard. So you shall keep the watch of the house, and be a barrier. <sup>7</sup> The two companies of you, even all who go out on the Sabbath, shall keep the watch of Yahweh's house around the king. <sup>8</sup> You shall surround the king, every man with his weapons in his hand; and he who comes within the ranks, let him be slain. Be with the king when he goes out, and when he comes in."

<sup>9</sup> The captains over hundreds did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded; and they each took his men, those who were to come in on the Sabbath, with those who were to go out on the Sabbath, and came to Jehoiada the priest. <sup>10</sup> The priest delivered to the captains over hundreds the spears and shields that had been king David's, which were in Yahweh's house. <sup>11</sup> The guard stood, every man with his weapons in his hand, from the right side of the house to the left side of the house, along by the altar and the house, around the king. <sup>12</sup> Then he brought out the king's son, and put the crown on him, and gave him the covenant; and they made him king, and anointed him; and they clapped their hands, and said, "Long live the king!"

<sup>13</sup> When Athaliah heard the noise of the guard and of the people, she came to the people into Yahweh's house: <sup>14</sup> and she looked, and behold, the king stood by the pillar, as the tradition was, with the captains and the trumpets by the king; and all the people of the land rejoiced, and blew trumpets. Then Athaliah tore her clothes, and cried, "Treason! Treason!"

<sup>15</sup> Jehoiada the priest commanded the captains of hundreds who were set over the army, and said to them, "Bring her out between the ranks. Kill anyone who follows her with the sword." For the priest said, "Don't let her be slain in Yahweh's house." <sup>16</sup> So they made way for her; and she went by the way of the horses' entry to the king's house, and she was slain there. <sup>17</sup> Jehoiada made a covenant between Yahweh and the king and the people, that they should be Yahweh's people; also between the king and the people. <sup>18</sup> All the people of the land went to the house of Baal, and broke it down; his altars and his images broke they in pieces thoroughly, and killed Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. The priest appointed officers over Yahweh's house. <sup>19</sup> He took the captains over hundreds, and the Carites, and the guard, and all the people of the land; and they brought down the king from Yahweh's house, and came by the way of the gate of the guard to the king's house. He sat on the throne of the kings. <sup>20</sup> So all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet. They had slain Athaliah with the sword at the king's house. <sup>21</sup> Jehoash was seven years old when he began to reign.

12

<sup>1</sup> Jehoash began to reign in the seventh year of Jehu, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zibiah of Beersheba. <sup>2</sup> Jehoash did that which was right in Yahweh's eyes all his days in which Jehoiada the priest instructed him. <sup>3</sup> However the high places were not taken away. The people still sacrificed and burned incense in the high places. <sup>4</sup> Jehoash said to the priests, "All the money of the holy things that is brought into Yahweh's house, in current money, the money of the people for whom each man is evaluated,<sup>1</sup> and all the money that it comes into any man's heart to bring into Yahweh's house, <sup>5</sup> let the priests take it to them, each man from his donor; and they shall repair the damage to the house, wherever any damage is found."

<sup>6</sup> But it was so, that in the twenty-third year of king Jehoash the priests had not repaired the damage to the house. <sup>7</sup> Then king Jehoash called for Jehoiada the priest, and for the other priests, and said to them, "Why don't you repair the damage to the house? Now therefore take no more money from your treasurers, but deliver it for repair of the damage to the house."

<sup>8</sup> The priests consented that they should take no more money from the people, and not repair the damage to the house. <sup>9</sup> But Jehoiada the priest took a chest, and bored a hole in its lid, and set it beside the altar, on the right side as one comes into Yahweh's house; and the priests who kept the threshold put all the money that was brought into Yahweh's house into it. <sup>10</sup> When they saw that there was much money in the chest, the king's scribe and the high priest came up, and they put it in bags and counted the money that was found in Yahweh's house. <sup>11</sup> They gave the money that was weighed out into the hands of those who did the work, who had the oversight of Yahweh's house; and they paid it out to the carpenters and the builders, who worked on Yahweh's house, <sup>12</sup> and to the masons and the stone cutters, and for buying timber and cut stone to repair the damage to Yahweh's house, and for all that was laid out for the house to repair it. <sup>13</sup> But there were not made for Yahweh's house cups of silver, snuffers, basins, trumpets, any vessels of gold, or vessels of silver, of the money that was brought into Yahweh's house; <sup>14</sup> for they gave that to those who did the work, and repaired Yahweh's house with it. <sup>15</sup> Moreover they didn't demand an accounting from the men into whose hand they delivered the money to give to those who did the work; for they dealt faithfully. <sup>16</sup> The money for the trespass offerings, and the money for the sin offerings was not brought into Yahweh's house. It was the priests'.

<sup>17</sup> Then Hazael king of Syria went up, and fought against Gath, and took it; and Hazael set his face to go up to Jerusalem. <sup>18</sup> Jehoash king of Judah took all the holy things that Jehoshaphat and Jehoram and Ahaziah, his fathers, kings of Judah, had dedicated, and his own holy things, and all the gold that was found in the treasures of Yahweh's house, and of the king's house, and sent it to Hazael king of Syria; and he went away from Jerusalem. <sup>19</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>20</sup> His servants arose, and made a conspiracy, and struck Joash at the house of Millo, on the way that goes down to Silla. <sup>21</sup> For Jozacar the son of Shimeath, and Jehozabad the son of Shomer, his servants, struck him, and he died; and they buried him with his fathers in David's city; and Amaziah his son reigned in his place.

13

<sup>1</sup> In the twenty-third year of Joash the son of Ahaziah, king of Judah, Jehoahaz the son of Jehu began to reign over Israel in Samaria for seventeen years. <sup>2</sup> He did that which was evil in Yahweh's sight, and followed the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin. He didn't depart from it. <sup>3</sup> Yahweh's anger burned against Israel, and he delivered them into the hand of Hazael king of Syria, and into the hand of Benhadad the son of Hazael, continually. <sup>4</sup> Jehoahaz begged Yahweh, and Yahweh listened to him; for he saw the oppression of Israel, how the king of Syria oppressed them. <sup>5</sup> (Yahweh gave Israel a savior, so that they went out from under the hand of the Syrians; and the children of Israel lived in their tents as before. <sup>6</sup> Nevertheless they didn't depart from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, with which he made Israel to sin, but walked in them; and the Asherah also remained in Samaria.) <sup>7</sup> For he didn't leave to Jehoahaz of the people any more than fifty horsemen, and ten chariots, and ten thousand footmen; for the king of Syria destroyed them, and made them like the dust in threshing. <sup>8</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Jehoahaz, and all that he did, and his might, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>9</sup> Jehoahaz slept with his fathers; and they buried him in Samaria; and Joash his son reigned in his place.

<sup>10</sup> In the thirty-seventh year of Joash king of Judah, Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz began to reign over Israel in Samaria for sixteen years. <sup>11</sup> He did that which was evil in Yahweh's sight. He didn't depart from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin; but he walked in them. <sup>12</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, and his might with which he fought against Amaziah king of Judah, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>13</sup> Joash slept with his fathers; and Jeroboam sat on his throne. Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.

<sup>14</sup> Now Elisha became sick with the illness of which he died; and Joash the king of Israel came down to him, and wept over him, and said, "My father, my father, the chariots of Israel and its horsemen!"

<sup>15</sup> Elisha said to him, "Take bow and arrows"; and he took bow and arrows for himself. <sup>16</sup> He said to the king of Israel,

“Put your hand on the bow”; and he put his hand on it. Elisha laid his hands on the king’s hands. <sup>17</sup> He said, “Open the window eastward”; and he opened it. Then Elisha said, “Shoot!” and he shot. He said, “Yahweh’s arrow of victory, even the arrow of victory over Syria; for you will strike the Syrians in Aphek, until you have consumed them.”

<sup>18</sup> He said, “Take the arrows”; and he took them. He said to the king of Israel, “Strike the ground”; and he struck three times, and stopped. <sup>19</sup> The man of God was angry with him, and said, “You should have struck five or six times. Then you would have struck Syria until you had consumed it, whereas now you will strike Syria just three times.”

Now the bands of the Moabites invaded the land at the coming in of the year. <sup>21</sup> As they were burying a man, behold, they saw a band of raiders; and they threw the man into Elisha’s tomb. As soon as the man touched Elisha’s bones, he revived, and stood up on his feet.

<sup>22</sup> Hazael king of Syria oppressed Israel all the days of Jehoahaz. <sup>23</sup> But Yahweh was gracious to them, and had compassion on them, and had respect for them, because of his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and would not destroy them, and he didn’t cast them from his presence as yet.

<sup>24</sup> Hazael king of Syria died; and Benhadad his son reigned in his place. <sup>25</sup> Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz took again out of the hand of Benhadad the son of Hazael the cities which he had taken out of the hand of Jehoahaz his father by war. Joash struck him three times, and recovered the cities of Israel.

14

<sup>1</sup> In the second year of Joash son of Joahaz king of Israel Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah began to reign. <sup>2</sup> He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Jehoaddin of Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup> He did that which was right in Yahweh’s eyes, yet not like David his father. He did according to all that Joash his father had done. <sup>4</sup> However the high places were not taken away. The people still sacrificed and burned incense in the high places. <sup>5</sup> As soon as the kingdom was established in his hand, he killed his servants who had slain the king his father, <sup>6</sup> but the children of the murderers he didn’t put to death; according to that which is written in the book of the law of Moses, as Yahweh commanded, saying, “The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, nor the children be put to death for the fathers; but every man shall die for his own sin.”

<sup>7</sup> He killed ten thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt, and took Sela by war, and called its name Joktheel, to this day. <sup>8</sup> Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash, the son of Jehoahaz son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, “Come, let us look one another in the face.”

<sup>9</sup> Jehoash the king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, “The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, ‘Give your daughter to my son as wife. Then a wild animal that was in Lebanon passed by, and trampled down the thistle. <sup>10</sup> You have indeed struck Edom, and your heart has lifted you up. Enjoy the glory of it, and stay at home; for why should you meddle to your harm, that you fall, even you, and Judah with you?"<sup>11</sup> But Amaziah would not listen. So Jehoash king of Israel went up; and he and Amaziah king of Judah looked one another in the face at Beth Shemesh, which belongs to Judah.<sup>12</sup> Judah was defeated by Israel; and each man fled to his tent.<sup>13</sup> Jehoash king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Jehoash the son of Ahaziah, at Beth Shemesh, and came to Jerusalem, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the gate of Ephraim to the corner gate, four hundred cubits.<sup>q</sup><sup>14</sup> He took all the gold and silver, and all the vessels that were found in Yahweh's house and in the treasures of the king's house, the hostages also, and returned to Samaria.

<sup>15</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Jehoash which he did, and his might, and how he fought with Amaziah king of Judah, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>16</sup> Jehoash slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel; and Jeroboam his son reigned in his place.

<sup>21</sup> All the people of Judah took Azariah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in the place of his father Amaziah.<sup>22</sup> He built Elath, and restored it to Judah. After that the king slept with his fathers.

<sup>23</sup> In the fifteenth year of Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah, Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel began to reign in Samaria for forty-one years.<sup>24</sup> He did that which was evil in Yahweh's sight. He didn't depart from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin.<sup>25</sup> He restored the border of Israel from the entrance of Hamath to the sea of the Arabah, according to Yahweh, the God of Israel's word, which he spoke by his servant Jonah the son of Amittai, the prophet, who was from Gath Hepher.<sup>26</sup> For Yahweh saw the affliction of Israel, that it was very bitter; for all, slave and free, and there was no helper for Israel.<sup>27</sup> Yahweh didn't say that he would blot out the name of Israel from under the sky; but he saved them by the hand of Jeroboam the son of Joash.<sup>28</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, and all that he did, and his might, how he fought, and how he recovered Damascus, and Hamath, which had belonged to Judah, for Israel, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>29</sup> Jeroboam slept with his fathers, even with the kings of Israel; and Zechariah his son reigned in his place.

15

<sup>1</sup> In the twenty-seventh year of Jeroboam king of Israel, Azariah son of Amaziah king of Judah began to reign.<sup>2</sup> He was sixteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jecoliah of Jerusalem.<sup>3</sup> He did that which was right in Yahweh's eyes, according to all that his father Amaziah had done. <sup>4</sup> However the high places were not taken away. The people still sacrificed and burned incense in the high places. <sup>5</sup> Yahweh struck the king, so that he was a leper to the day of his death, and lived in a separate house. Jotham, the king's son was over the household, judging the people of the land. <sup>6</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Azariah, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>7</sup> Azariah slept with his fathers; and they buried him with his fathers in David's city: and Jotham his son reigned in his place.

<sup>8</sup> In the thirty-eighth year of Azariah king of Judah, Zechariah the son of Jeroboam reigned over Israel in Samaria six months. <sup>9</sup> He did that which was evil in Yahweh's sight, as his fathers had done. He didn't depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin. <sup>10</sup> Shallum the son of Jabesh conspired against him, and struck him before the people, and killed him, and reigned in his place. <sup>11</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Zechariah, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel. <sup>12</sup> This was Yahweh's word which he spoke to Jehu, saying, "Your sons to the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel." So it came to pass.

<sup>13</sup> Shallum the son of Jabesh began to reign in the thirty-ninth year of Uzziah king of Judah, and he reigned for a month in Samaria. <sup>14</sup> Menahem the son of Gadi went up from Tirzah, came to Samaria, struck Shallum the son of Jabesh in Samaria, killed him, and reigned in his place. <sup>15</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Shallum, and his conspiracy which he made, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

<sup>16</sup> Then Menahem attacked Tiphseh, and all who were in it, and its border areas, from Tirzah. He attacked it because they didn't open their gates to him, and he ripped up all their women who were with child. <sup>17</sup> In the thirty ninth year of Azariah king of Judah, Menahem the son of Gadi began to reign over Israel for ten years in Samaria. <sup>18</sup> He did that which was evil in Yahweh's sight. He didn't depart all his days from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin. <sup>19</sup> Pul the king of Assyria came against the land, and Menahem gave Pul one thousand talents<sup>r</sup> of silver, that his hand might be with him to confirm the kingdom in his hand. <sup>20</sup> Menahem exacted the money from Israel, even from all the mighty men of wealth, from each man fifty shekels<sup>s</sup> of silver, to give to the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria turned back, and didn't stay there in the land. <sup>21</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Menahem, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>22</sup> Menahem slept with his fathers, and Pekahiah his son reigned in his place.

<sup>23</sup> In the fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekahiah the son of Menahem began to reign over Israel in Samaria for two years. <sup>24</sup> He did that which was evil in Yahweh's sight. He didn't depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin. <sup>25</sup> Pekah the son of Remaliah, his captain, conspired against him and attacked him in Samaria, in the fortress of the king's house, with Argob and Arieah; and with him were fifty men of the Gileadites. He killed him, and reigned in his place.<sup>26</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Pekahiah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

<sup>27</sup> In the fifty-second year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekah the son of Remaliah began to reign over Israel in Samaria for twenty years.<sup>28</sup> He did that which was evil in Yahweh's sight. He didn't depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin.<sup>29</sup> In the days of Pekah king of Israel, Tiglath Pileser king of Assyria came and took Ijon, Abel Beth Maacah, Janoah, Kedesh, Hazor, Gilead, and Galilee, all the land of Naphtali; and he carried them captive to Assyria.<sup>30</sup> Hoshea the son of Elah made a conspiracy against Pekah the son of Remaliah, attacked him, killed him, and reigned in his place, in the twentieth year of Jotham the son of Uzziah.<sup>31</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Pekah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

<sup>32</sup> In the second year of Pekah the son of Remaliah king of Israel, Jotham the son of Uzziah king of Judah began to reign.<sup>33</sup> He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jerusha the daughter of Zadok.<sup>34</sup> He did that which was right in Yahweh's eyes. He did according to all that his father Uzziah had done.<sup>35</sup> However the high places were not taken away. The people still sacrificed and burned incense in the high places. He built the upper gate of Yahweh's house.<sup>36</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?<sup>37</sup> In those days, Yahweh began to send Rezin the king of Syria and Pekah the son of Remaliah against Judah.<sup>38</sup> Jotham slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in his father David's city, and Ahaz his son reigned in his place.

16

<sup>1</sup> In the seventeenth year of Pekah the son of Remaliah, Ahaz the son of Jotham king of Judah began to reign.<sup>2</sup> Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. He didn't do that which was right in Yahweh his God's eyes, like David his father.<sup>3</sup> But he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, yes, and made his son to pass through the fire, according to the abominations of the nations whom Yahweh cast out from before the children of Israel.<sup>4</sup> He sacrificed and burned incense in the high places, on the hills, and under every green tree.<sup>5</sup> Then Rezin king of Syria and Pekah son of Remaliah king of Israel came up to Jerusalem to wage war. They besieged Ahaz, but could not overcome him.<sup>6</sup> At that time Rezin king of Syria recovered Elath to Syria, and drove the Jews from Elath; and the Syrians came to Elath, and lived there, to this day.<sup>7</sup> So Ahaz sent messengers to Tiglath Pileser king of Assyria, saying, "I am your servant and your son. Come up and save me out of the hand of the king of Syria, and out of the hand of the king of Israel, who rise up against me."<sup>8</sup> Ahaz took the silver and gold that was found in Yahweh's house, and in the treasures of the king's house, and sent it for a present to the king of Assyria. <sup>9</sup> The king of Assyria listened to him; and the king of Assyria went up against Damascus, and took it, and carried its people captive to Kir, and killed Rezin. <sup>10</sup> King Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath Pileser king of Assyria, and saw the altar that was at Damascus; and king Ahaz sent to Urijah the priest a drawing of the altar and plans to build it. <sup>11</sup> Urijah the priest built an altar. According to all that king Ahaz had sent from Damascus, so Urijah the priest made it for the coming of king Ahaz from Damascus. <sup>12</sup> When the king had come from Damascus, the king saw the altar; and the king came near to the altar, and offered on it. <sup>13</sup> He burned his burnt offering and his meal offering, poured his drink offering, and sprinkled the blood of his peace offerings on the altar. <sup>14</sup> The bronze altar, which was before Yahweh, he brought from the front of the house, from between his altar and Yahweh's house, and put it on the north side of his altar. <sup>15</sup> King Ahaz commanded Urijah the priest, saying, "On the great altar burn the morning burnt offering, the evening meal offering, the king's burnt offering, his meal offering, with the burnt offering of all the people of the land, their meal offering, and their drink offerings; and sprinkle on it all the blood of the burnt offering, and all the blood of the sacrifice; but the bronze altar will be for me to inquire by." <sup>16</sup> Urijah the priest did so, according to all that king Ahaz commanded. <sup>17</sup> King Ahaz cut off the panels of the bases, and removed the basin from off them, and took down the sea from off the bronze oxen that were under it, and put it on a pavement of stone. <sup>18</sup> He removed the covered way for the Sabbath that they had built in the house, and the king's entry outside to Yahweh's house, because of the king of Assyria. <sup>19</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Ahaz which he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>20</sup> Ahaz slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in David's city, and Hezekiah his son reigned in his place.

17

<sup>1</sup> In the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah, Hoshea the son of Elah began to reign in Samaria over Israel for nine years. <sup>2</sup> He did that which was evil in Yahweh's sight, yet not as the kings of Israel who were before him. <sup>3</sup> Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against him, and Hoshea became his servant, and brought him tribute. <sup>4</sup> The king of Assyria found conspiracy in Hoshea; for he had sent messengers to So king of Egypt, and offered no tribute to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year. Therefore the king of Assyria seized him, and bound him in prison. <sup>5</sup> Then the king of Assyria came up throughout all the land, went up to Samaria, and besieged it three years. <sup>6</sup> In the ninth year of Hoshea the king of Assyria took Samaria, and carried Israel away to Assyria, and placed them in Halah, and on the Habor, the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes. <sup>7</sup> It was so because the children of Israel had sinned against Yahweh their God, who brought them up out of the land of Egypt from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and had feared other gods, <sup>8</sup> and walked in the statutes of the nations whom Yahweh cast out from before the children of Israel, and of the kings of Israel, which they made.<sup>9</sup> The children of Israel secretly did things that were not right against Yahweh their God; and they built high places for themselves in all their cities, from the tower of the watchmen to the fortified city;<sup>10</sup> and they set up for themselves pillars and Asherah poles on every high hill, and under every green tree;<sup>11</sup> and there they burned incense in all the high places, as the nations whom Yahweh carried away before them did; and they did wicked things to provoke Yahweh to anger;<sup>12</sup> and they served idols, of which Yahweh had said to them, “You shall not do this thing.”<sup>13</sup> Yet Yahweh testified to Israel, and to Judah, by every prophet, and every seer, saying, “Turn from your evil ways, and keep my commandments and my statutes, according to all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you by my servants the prophets.”<sup>14</sup> Notwithstanding, they would not listen, but hardened their neck, like the neck of their fathers, who didn’t believe in Yahweh their God.<sup>15</sup> They rejected his statutes, and his covenant that he made with their fathers, and his testimonies which he testified to them; and they followed vanity, and became vain, and followed the nations that were around them, concerning whom Yahweh had commanded them that they should not do like them.<sup>16</sup> They abandoned all the commandments of Yahweh their God, and made molten images for themselves, even two calves, and made an Asherah, and worshiped all the army of the sky, and served Baal.<sup>17</sup> They caused their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire, used divination and enchantments, and sold themselves to do that which was evil in Yahweh’s sight, to provoke him to anger.<sup>18</sup> Therefore Yahweh was very angry with Israel, and removed them out of his sight. There was none left but the tribe of Judah only.<sup>19</sup> Also Judah didn’t keep the commandments of Yahweh their God, but walked in the statutes of Israel which they made.<sup>20</sup> Yahweh rejected all the offspring<sup>t</sup> of Israel, afflicted them, and delivered them into the hands of raiders, until he had cast them out of his sight.<sup>21</sup> For he tore Israel from David’s house; and they made Jeroboam the son of Nebat king; and Jeroboam drove Israel from following Yahweh, and made them sin a great sin.<sup>22</sup> The children of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam which he did; they didn’t depart from them<sup>23</sup> until Yahweh removed Israel out of his sight, as he said by all his servants the prophets. So Israel was carried away out of their own land to Assyria to this day.

they kill them, because they don't know the law of the god of the land."

<sup>27</sup> Then the king of Assyria commanded, saying, "Carry there one of the priests whom you brought from there; and let them go and dwell there, and let him teach them the law of the god of the land."

<sup>28</sup> So one of the priests whom they had carried away from Samaria came and lived in Bethel, and taught them how they should fear Yahweh. <sup>29</sup> However every nation made gods of their own, and put them in the houses of the high places which the Samaritans had made, every nation in their cities in which they lived. <sup>30</sup> The men of Babylon made Succoth Benoth, and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Ashima, <sup>31</sup> and the Avvites made Nibhaz and Tartak; and the Sepharvites burned their children in the fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim. <sup>32</sup> So they feared Yahweh, and also made from among themselves priests of the high places for themselves, who sacrificed for them in the houses of the high places. <sup>33</sup> They feared Yahweh, and also served their own gods, after the ways of the nations from among whom they had been carried away. <sup>34</sup> To this day they do what they did before. They don't fear Yahweh, and they do not follow the statutes, or the ordinances, or the law, or the commandment which Yahweh commanded the children of Jacob, whom he named Israel; <sup>35</sup> with whom Yahweh had made a covenant, and commanded them, saying, "You shall not fear other gods, nor bow yourselves to them, nor serve them, nor sacrifice to them; <sup>36</sup> but you shall fear Yahweh, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt with great power and with an outstretched arm, and you shall bow yourselves to him, and you shall sacrifice to him. <sup>37</sup> The statutes and the ordinances, and the law and the commandment, which he wrote for you, you shall observe to do forever more. You shall not fear other gods. <sup>38</sup> You shall not forget the covenant that I have made with you. You shall not fear other gods. <sup>39</sup> But you shall fear Yahweh your God, and he will deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies." <sup>40</sup> However they did not listen, but they did what they did before. <sup>41</sup> So these nations feared Yahweh, and also served their engraved images. Their children likewise, and their children's children, as their fathers did, so they do to this day.

18

<sup>1</sup> Now in the third year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, Hezekiah the son of Ahaz king of Judah began to reign. <sup>2</sup> He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Abi the daughter of Zechariah. <sup>3</sup> He did that which was right in Yahweh's eyes, according to all that David his father had done. <sup>4</sup> He removed the high places, and broke the pillars, and cut down the Asherah. He also broke in pieces the bronze serpent that Moses had made, because in those days the children of Israel burned incense to it; and he called it Nehushtan. <sup>5</sup> He trusted in Yahweh, the God of Israel; so that after him was no one like him among all the kings of Judah, nor among them that were before him. <sup>6</sup> For he joined with Yahweh. He didn't depart from following him, but kept his commandments, which Yahweh commanded Moses.<sup>7</sup> Yahweh was with him. Wherever he went, he prospered. He rebelled against the king of Assyria, and didn't serve him.<sup>8</sup> He struck the Philistines to Gaza and its borders, from the tower of the watchmen to the fortified city.

<sup>9</sup> In the fourth year of king Hezekiah, which was the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against Samaria, and besieged it.<sup>10</sup> At the end of three years they took it. In the sixth year of Hezekiah, which was the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel, Samaria was taken.<sup>11</sup> The king of Assyria carried Israel away to Assyria, and put them in Halah, and on the Habor, the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes,<sup>12</sup> because they didn't obey Yahweh their God's voice, but transgressed his covenant, even all that Moses the servant of Yahweh commanded, and would not hear it or do it.

<sup>13</sup> Now in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the fortified cities of Judah, and took them.<sup>14</sup> Hezekiah king of Judah sent to the king of Assyria to Lachish, saying, "I have offended you. Return from me. That which you put on me, I will bear." The king of Assyria appointed to Hezekiah king of Judah three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents<sup>u</sup> of gold.<sup>15</sup> Hezekiah gave him all the silver that was found in Yahweh's house, and in the treasures of the king's house.<sup>16</sup> At that time, Hezekiah cut off the gold from the doors of Yahweh's temple, and from the pillars which Hezekiah king of Judah had overlaid, and gave it to the king of Assyria.

<sup>u</sup> A talent is about 30 kilograms or 66 pounds or 965 Troy ounces

<sup>17</sup> The king of Assyria sent Tartan and Rabsaris and Rabshakeh from Lachish to king Hezekiah with a great army to Jerusalem. They went up and came to Jerusalem. When they had come up, they came and stood by the conduit of the upper pool, which is in the highway of the fuller's field.<sup>18</sup> When they had called to the king, Eliakim the son of Hilkiyah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder came out to them.<sup>19</sup> Rabshakeh said to them, "Say now to Hezekiah, 'Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria, "What confidence is this in which you trust?<sup>20</sup> You say (but they are but vain words), 'There is counsel and strength for war.' Now on whom do you trust, that you have rebelled against me?<sup>21</sup> Now, behold, you trust in the staff of this bruised reed, even in Egypt. If a man leans on it, it will go into his hand, and pierce it. So is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who trust on him.<sup>22</sup> But if you tell me, 'We trust in Yahweh our God;' isn't that he whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah has taken away, and has said to Judah and to Jerusalem, 'You shall worship before this altar in Jerusalem?'<sup>23</sup> Now therefore, please give pledges to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able on your part to set riders on them.<sup>24</sup> How then can you turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put your trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?<sup>25</sup> Have I now come up without Yahweh against this place to destroy it? Yahweh said to me, 'Go up against this land, and destroy it.'""

<sup>26</sup> Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, Shebna, and Joah, said to Rabshakeh, "Please speak to your servants in the Syrian language, for we understand it. Don't speak with us in the Jews' language, in the hearing of the people who are on the wall."

<sup>27</sup> But Rabshakeh said to them, "Has my master sent me to your master and to you, to speak these words? Hasn't he sent me to the men who sit on the wall, to eat their own dung, and to drink their own urine with you?" <sup>28</sup> Then Rabshakeh stood, and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and spoke, saying, "Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria. <sup>29</sup> Thus says the king, 'Don't let Hezekiah deceive you; for he will not be able to deliver you out of his hand. <sup>30</sup> Don't let Hezekiah make you trust in Yahweh, saying, "Yahweh will surely deliver us, and this city shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria." <sup>31</sup> Don't listen to Hezekiah.' For thus says the king of Assyria, 'Make your peace with me, and come out to me; and everyone of you eat from his own vine, and everyone from his own fig tree, and everyone drink water from his own cistern; <sup>32</sup> until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive trees and of honey, that you may live, and not die. Don't listen to Hezekiah, when he persuades you, saying, "Yahweh will deliver us." <sup>33</sup> Has any of the gods of the nations ever delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria? <sup>34</sup> Where are the gods of Hamath, and of Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivvah? Have they delivered Samaria out of my hand? <sup>35</sup> Who are they among all the gods of the countries, that have delivered their country out of my hand, that Yahweh should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?"

<sup>36</sup> But the people stayed quiet, and answered him not a word; for the king's commandment was, "Don't answer him." <sup>37</sup> Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, came with Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes torn, and told him Rabshakeh's words.

19

<sup>1</sup> When king Hezekiah heard it, he tore his clothes, covered himself with sackcloth, and went into Yahweh's house. <sup>2</sup> He sent Eliakim, who was over the household, Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz. <sup>3</sup> They said to him, "Thus says Hezekiah, 'Today is a day of trouble, of rebuke, and of rejection; for the children have come to the point of birth, and there is no strength to deliver them. <sup>4</sup> It may be Yahweh your God will hear all the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master has sent to defy the living God, and will rebuke the words which Yahweh your God has heard. Therefore lift up your prayer for the remnant that is left.'"

<sup>5</sup> So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah. <sup>6</sup> Isaiah said to them, "Tell your master this: 'Yahweh says, "Don't be afraid of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me. <sup>7</sup> Behold, I will put a spirit in him, and he will hear news, and will return to his own land. I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.'"

<sup>8</sup> So Rabshakeh returned and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah; for he had heard that he had departed from Lachish. <sup>9</sup> When he heard it said of Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, "Behold, he has come out to fight against you, he sent messengers again to Hezekiah, saying, <sup>10</sup> 'Tell Hezekiah king of Judah this: "Don't let your God in whom you trust deceive you, saying, Jerusalem will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria. <sup>11</sup> Behold, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by destroying them utterly. Will you be delivered? <sup>12</sup> Have the gods of the nations delivered them, which my fathers have destroyed, Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the children of Eden who were in Telassar? <sup>13</sup> Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivvah?"'"

<sup>14</sup> Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers and read it. Then Hezekiah went up to Yahweh's house, and spread it before Yahweh. <sup>15</sup> Hezekiah prayed before Yahweh, and said, "Yahweh, the God of Israel, who sit above the cherubim, you are the God, even you alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made heaven and earth. <sup>16</sup> Incline your ear, Yahweh, and hear. Open your eyes, Yahweh, and see. Hear the words of Sennacherib, which he has sent to defy the living God. <sup>17</sup> Truly, Yahweh, the kings of Assyria have laid waste the nations and their lands, <sup>18</sup> and have cast their gods into the fire; for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone. Therefore they have destroyed them. <sup>19</sup> Now therefore, Yahweh our God, save us, I beg you, out of his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you, Yahweh, are God alone."

<sup>20</sup> Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, "Yahweh, the God of Israel, says 'You have prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria, and I have heard you. <sup>21</sup> This is the word that Yahweh has spoken concerning him: 'The virgin daughter of Zion has despised you and ridiculed you. The daughter of Jerusalem has shaken her head at you. <sup>22</sup> Whom have you defied and blasphemed? Against whom have you exalted your voice and lifted up your eyes on high? Against the Holy One of Israel! <sup>23</sup> By your messengers, you have defied the Lord, and have said, "With the multitude of my chariots, I have come up to the height of the mountains, to the innermost parts of Lebanon, and I will cut down its tall cedars and its choice cypress trees; and I will enter into his farthest lodging place, the forest of his fruitful field. <sup>24</sup> I have dug and drunk strange waters, and with the sole of my feet will I dry up all the rivers of Egypt." <sup>25</sup> Haven't you heard how I have done it long ago, and formed it of ancient times? Now have I brought it to pass, that it should be yours to lay waste fortified cities into ruinous heaps. <sup>26</sup> Therefore their inhabitants had little power. They were dismayed and confounded. They were like the grass of the field, and like the green herb, like the grass on the housetops, and like grain blasted before it has grown up. <sup>27</sup> But I know your sitting down, your going out, your coming in, and your raging against me. <sup>28</sup> Because of your raging against me, and because your arrogance has come up into my ears, therefore I will put my hook in your nose, and my bridle in your lips, and I will turn you back by the way by which you came.’

<sup>29</sup> “This will be the sign to you: This year, you will eat that which grows of itself, and in the second year that which springs of the same; and in the third year sow, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat its fruit. <sup>30</sup> The remnant that has escaped of the house of Judah will again take root downward, and bear fruit upward. <sup>31</sup> For out of Jerusalem a remnant will go out, and out of Mount Zion those who shall escape. Yahweh’s zeal will perform this.

<sup>32</sup> “Therefore Yahweh says concerning the king of Assyria, ‘He will not come to this city, nor shoot an arrow there. He will not come before it with shield, nor cast up a mound against it. <sup>33</sup> By the way that he came, by the same he will return, and he will not come to this city,’ says Yahweh. <sup>34</sup> ‘For I will defend this city to save it, for my own sake, and for my servant David’s sake.’”

<sup>35</sup> That night, Yahweh’s angel went out, and struck one hundred eighty-five thousand in the camp of the Assyrians. When men arose early in the morning, behold, these were all dead bodies. <sup>36</sup> So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, and went and returned, and lived at Nineveh. <sup>37</sup> As he was worshiping in the house of Nisroch his god, Adrammelech and Sharezer struck him with the sword; and they escaped into the land of Ararat. Esar Haddon his son reigned in his place.

20

<sup>1</sup> In those days Hezekiah was sick and dying. Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came to him, and said to him, “Yahweh says, ‘Set your house in order; for you will die, and not live.’”

<sup>2</sup> Then he turned his face to the wall, and prayed to Yahweh, saying, <sup>3</sup> “Remember now, Yahweh, I beg you, how I have walked before you in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in your sight.” And Hezekiah wept bitterly.

<sup>4</sup> Before Isaiah had gone out into the middle part of the city, Yahweh’s word came to him, saying, <sup>5</sup> “Turn back, and tell Hezekiah the prince of my people, ‘Yahweh, the God of David your father, says, “I have heard your prayer. I have seen your tears. Behold, I will heal you. On the third day, you will go up to Yahweh’s house. <sup>6</sup> I will add to your days fifteen years. I will deliver you and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria. I will defend this city for my own sake, and for my servant David’s sake.’””

They took and laid it on the boil, and he recovered. <sup>8</sup> Hezekiah said to Isaiah, “What will be the sign that Yahweh will heal me, and that I will go up to Yahweh’s house the third day?”

<sup>9</sup> Isaiah said, “This will be the sign to you from Yahweh, that Yahweh will do the thing that he has spoken: should the shadow go forward ten steps, or go back ten steps?”

<sup>11</sup> Isaiah the prophet cried to Yahweh; and he brought the shadow ten steps backward, by which it had gone down on the sundial of Ahaz.

<sup>12</sup> At that time Berodach Baladan the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah; for he had heard that Hezekiah had been sick. <sup>13</sup> Hezekiah listened to them, and showed them all the storehouse of his precious things, the silver, the gold, the spices, and the precious oil, and the house of his armor, and all that was found in his treasures. There was nothing in his house, or in all his dominion, that Hezekiah didn't show them.

<sup>14</sup> Then Isaiah the prophet came to king Hezekiah, and said to him, "What did these men say? From where did they come to you?"

Hezekiah said, "They have come from a far country, even from Babylon."

<sup>15</sup> He said, "What have they seen in your house?"

Hezekiah answered, "They have seen all that is in my house. There is nothing among my treasures that I have not shown them."

<sup>16</sup> Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Hear Yahweh's word. <sup>17</sup> 'Behold, the days come that all that is in your house, and that which your fathers have laid up in store to this day, will be carried to Babylon. Nothing will be left,' says Yahweh. <sup>18</sup> 'They will take away some of your sons who will issue from you, whom you will father; and they will be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.'"

<sup>19</sup> Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "Yahweh's word which you have spoken is good." He said moreover, "Isn't it so, if peace and truth will be in my days?"

<sup>20</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and all his might, and how he made the pool, and the conduit, and brought water into the city, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>21</sup> Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and Manasseh his son reigned in his place.

21

<sup>1</sup> Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hephzibah. <sup>2</sup> He did that which was evil in Yahweh's sight, after the abominations of the nations whom Yahweh cast out before the children of Israel. <sup>3</sup> For he built again the high places which Hezekiah his father had destroyed; and he raised up altars for Baal, and made an Asherah, as Ahab king of Israel did, and worshiped all the army of the sky, and served them. <sup>4</sup> He built altars in Yahweh's house, of which Yahweh said, "I will put my name in Jerusalem." <sup>5</sup> He built altars for all the army of the sky in the two courts of Yahweh's house. <sup>6</sup> He made his son to pass through the fire, practiced sorcery, used enchantments, and dealt with those who had familiar spirits, and with wizards. He did much evil in Yahweh's sight, to provoke him to anger. <sup>7</sup> He set the engraved image of Asherah that he had made in the house of which Yahweh said to David and to Solomon his son, "In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, will I put my name forever; <sup>8</sup> I will not cause the feet of Israel to wander any more out of the land which I gave their fathers, if only they will observe to do according to all that I have commanded them, and according to all the law that my servant Moses commanded them." <sup>9</sup> But they didn't listen, and Manasseh seduced them to do that which is evil more than the nations did whom Yahweh destroyed before the children of Israel. <sup>10</sup> Yahweh spoke by his servants the prophets, saying, <sup>11</sup> “Because Manasseh king of Judah has done these abominations, and has done wickedly above all that the Amorites did, who were before him, and has also made Judah to sin with his idols; <sup>12</sup> therefore Yahweh the God of Israel says, ‘Behold, I bring such evil on Jerusalem and Judah that whoever hears of it, both his ears will tingle. <sup>13</sup> I will stretch over Jerusalem the line of Samaria, and the plummet of Ahab’s house; and I will wipe Jerusalem as a man wipes a dish, wiping it and turning it upside down. <sup>14</sup> I will cast off the remnant of my inheritance, and deliver them into the hands of their enemies. They will become a prey and a plunder to all their enemies, <sup>15</sup> because they have done that which is evil in my sight, and have provoked me to anger, since the day their fathers came out of Egypt, even to this day.’”

<sup>16</sup> Moreover Manasseh shed innocent blood very much, until he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another; besides his sin with which he made Judah to sin, in doing that which was evil in Yahweh’s sight. <sup>17</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and all that he did, and his sin that he sinned, aren’t they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>18</sup> Manasseh slept with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his own house, in the garden of Uzza; and Amon his son reigned in his place.

<sup>19</sup> Amon was twenty-two years old when he began to reign; and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Meshullemeth the daughter of Haruz of Jotbah. <sup>20</sup> He did that which was evil in Yahweh’s sight, as Manasseh his father did. <sup>21</sup> He walked in all the ways that his father walked in, and served the idols that his father served, and worshiped them; <sup>22</sup> and he abandoned Yahweh, the God of his fathers, and didn’t walk in the way of Yahweh. <sup>23</sup> The servants of Amon conspired against him, and put the king to death in his own house. <sup>24</sup> But the people of the land killed all those who had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his place. <sup>25</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Amon which he did, aren’t they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>26</sup> He was buried in his tomb in the garden of Uzza, and Josiah his son reigned in his place.

22

<sup>2</sup> He did that which was right in Yahweh’s eyes, and walked in all the way of David his father, and didn’t turn aside to the right hand or to the left. <sup>3</sup> In the eighteenth year of king Josiah, the king sent Shaphan, the son of Azaliah the son of Meshullam, the scribe, to Yahweh’s house, saying, <sup>4</sup> “Go up to Hilkiah the high priest, that he may count the money which is brought into Yahweh’s house, which the keepers of the threshold have gathered of the people. <sup>5</sup> Let them deliver it into the hand of the workmen who have the oversight of Yahweh’s house; and let them give it to the workmen who are in Yahweh’s house, to repair the damage to the house, <sup>6</sup> to the carpenters, and to the builders, and to the masons, and for buying timber and cut stone to repair the house. <sup>7</sup> However there was no accounting made with them of the money that was delivered into their hand; for they dealt faithfully.”

<sup>8</sup> Hilkiyah the high priest said to Shaphan the scribe, “I have found the book of the law in Yahweh’s house.” Hilkiyah delivered the book to Shaphan, and he read it. <sup>9</sup> Shaphan the scribe came to the king, and brought the king word again, and said, “Your servants have emptied out the money that was found in the house, and have delivered it into the hands of the workmen who have the oversight of Yahweh’s house.” <sup>10</sup> Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, “Hilkiyah the priest has delivered a book to me.” Then Shaphan read it before the king.

<sup>11</sup> When the king had heard the words of the book of the law, he tore his clothes. <sup>12</sup> The king commanded Hilkiyah the priest, Ahikam the son of Shaphan, Achbor the son of Micaiah, Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah the king’s servant, saying, <sup>13</sup> “Go inquire of Yahweh for me, and for the people, and for all Judah, concerning the words of this book that is found; for great is Yahweh’s wrath that is kindled against us, because our fathers have not listened to the words of this book, to do according to all that which is written concerning us.”

<sup>14</sup> So Hilkiyah the priest, Ahikam, Achbor, Shaphan, and Asaiah, went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvah, the son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe (now she lived in Jerusalem in the second quarter); and they talked with her. <sup>15</sup> She said to them, “Yahweh the God of Israel says, ‘Tell the man who sent you to me, <sup>16</sup> ‘Yahweh says, ‘Behold, I will bring evil on this place, and on its inhabitants, even all the words of the book which the king of Judah has read. <sup>17</sup> Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense to other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the work of their hands, therefore my wrath shall be kindled against this place, and it will not be quenched.’” <sup>18</sup> But to the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of Yahweh, tell him, “Yahweh the God of Israel says, ‘Concerning the words which you have heard, <sup>19</sup> because your heart was tender, and you humbled yourself before Yahweh, when you heard what I spoke against this place, and against its inhabitants, that they should become a desolation and a curse, and have torn your clothes, and wept before me; I also have heard you,’ says Yahweh. <sup>20</sup> ‘Therefore behold, I will gather you to your fathers, and you will be gathered to your grave in peace. Your eyes will not see all the evil which I will bring on this place.’”” So they brought this message back to the king.

23

<sup>1</sup> The king sent, and they gathered to him all the elders of Judah and of Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup> The king went up to Yahweh’s house, and all the men of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him, with the priests, the prophets, and all the people, both small and great; and he read in their hearing all the words of the book of the covenant which was found in Yahweh’s house. <sup>3</sup> The king stood by the pillar, and made a covenant before Yahweh, to walk after Yahweh, and to keep his commandments, his testimonies, and his statutes, with all his heart, and all his soul, to confirm the words of this covenant that were written in this book; and all the people agreed to the covenant. <sup>4</sup> The king commanded Hilkiah the high priest, and the priests of the second order, and the keepers of the threshold, to bring out of Yahweh's temple all the vessels that were made for Baal, for the Asherah, and for all the army of the sky, and he burned them outside of Jerusalem in the fields of the Kidron, and carried their ashes to Bethel. <sup>5</sup> He got rid of the idolatrous priests, whom the kings of Judah had ordained to burn incense in the high places in the cities of Judah, and in the places around Jerusalem; those also who burned incense to Baal, to the sun, and to the moon, and to the planets, and to all the army of the sky. <sup>6</sup> He brought out the Asherah from Yahweh's house, outside of Jerusalem, to the brook Kidron, and burned it at the brook Kidron, and beat it to dust, and cast its dust on the graves of the common people. <sup>7</sup> He broke down the houses of the male shrine prostitutes that were in Yahweh's house, where the women wove hangings for the Asherah. <sup>8</sup> He brought all the priests out of the cities of Judah, and defiled the high places where the priests had burned incense, from Geba to Beersheba; and he broke down the high places of the gates that were at the entrance of the gate of Joshua the governor of the city, which were on a man's left hand at the gate of the city. <sup>9</sup> Nevertheless the priests of the high places didn't come up to Yahweh's altar in Jerusalem, but they ate unleavened bread among their brothers. <sup>10</sup> He defiled Topheth, which is in the valley of the children of Hinnom, that no man might make his son or his daughter to pass through the fire to Molech. <sup>11</sup> He took away the horses that the kings of Judah had given to the sun, at the entrance of Yahweh's house, by the room of Nathan Melech the officer, who was in the court; and he burned the chariots of the sun with fire. <sup>12</sup> The king broke down the altars that were on the roof of the upper room of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which Manasseh had made in the two courts of Yahweh's house, and beat them down from there, and cast their dust into the brook Kidron. <sup>13</sup> The king defiled the high places that were before Jerusalem, which were on the right hand of the mountain of corruption, which Solomon the king of Israel had built for Ashtoreth the abomination of the Sidonians, and for Chemosh the abomination of Moab, and for Milcom the abomination of the children of Ammon. <sup>14</sup> He broke in pieces the pillars, cut down the Asherah poles, and filled their places with men's bones. <sup>15</sup> Moreover the altar that was at Bethel, and the high place which Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, had made, even that altar and the high place he broke down; and he burned the high place and beat it to dust, and burned the Asherah. <sup>16</sup> As Josiah turned himself, he spied the tombs that were there in the mountain; and he sent, and took the bones out of the tombs, and burned them on the altar, and defiled it, according to Yahweh's word which the man of God proclaimed, who proclaimed these things. <sup>17</sup> Then he said, "What monument is that which I see?"

The men of the city told him, "It is the tomb of the man of God, who came from Judah, and proclaimed these things that you have done against the altar of Bethel.”

<sup>18</sup> He said, “Let him be! Let no one move his bones.” So they let his bones alone, with the bones of the prophet who came out of Samaria. <sup>19</sup> All the houses also of the high places that were in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to provoke Yahweh to anger, Josiah took away, and did to them according to all the acts that he had done in Bethel. <sup>20</sup> He killed all the priests of the high places that were there, on the altars, and burned men’s bones on them; and he returned to Jerusalem.

<sup>21</sup> The king commanded all the people, saying, “Keep the Passover to Yahweh your God, as it is written in this book of the covenant.” <sup>22</sup> Surely there was not kept such a Passover from the days of the judges who judged Israel, nor in all the days of the kings of Israel, nor of the kings of Judah; <sup>23</sup> but in the eighteenth year of king Josiah, this Passover was kept to Yahweh in Jerusalem. <sup>24</sup> Moreover Josiah removed those who had familiar spirits, the wizards, and the teraphim,<sup>v</sup> and the idols, and all the abominations that were seen in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, that he might confirm the words of the law which were written in the book that Hilkiyah the priest found in Yahweh’s house. <sup>25</sup> There was no king like him before him, who turned to Yahweh with all his heart, and with all his soul, and with all his might, according to all the law of Moses; and there was none like him who arose after him. <sup>26</sup> Notwithstanding, Yahweh didn’t turn from the fierceness of his great wrath, with which his anger burned against Judah, because of all the provocation with which Manasseh had provoked him. <sup>27</sup> Yahweh said, “I will also remove Judah out of my sight, as I have removed Israel, and I will cast off this city which I have chosen, even Jerusalem, and the house of which I said, ‘My name shall be there.’”

<sup>28</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and all that he did, aren’t they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>29</sup> In his days Pharaoh Necho king of Egypt went up against the king of Assyria to the river Euphrates; and king Josiah went against him; and Pharaoh Necho killed him at Megiddo, when he had seen him. <sup>30</sup> His servants carried him in a chariot dead from Megiddo, and brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his own tomb. The people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and anointed him, and made him king in his father’s place.

<sup>31</sup> Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he began to reign; and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. <sup>32</sup> He did that which was evil in Yahweh’s sight, according to all that his fathers had done. <sup>33</sup> Pharaoh Necho put him in bonds at Riblah in the land of Hamath, that he might not reign in Jerusalem; and put the land to a tribute of one hundred talents of silver, and a talent<sup>w</sup> of gold. <sup>34</sup> Pharaoh Necho made Eliakim the son of Josiah king in the place of Josiah his father, and changed his name to Jehoiakim; but he took Jehoahaz away, and he came to Egypt and died there. <sup>35</sup> Jehoiakim gave the silver and the gold to Pharaoh; but he taxed the land to give the money according to the commandment of Pharaoh. He exacted the silver and the gold of the people of the land, from everyone according to his assessment, to give it to Pharaoh Necho. <sup>36</sup> Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zebidah the daughter of Pedaiah of Rumah. <sup>37</sup> He did that which was evil in Yahweh's sight, according to all that his fathers had done.

24

<sup>7</sup> The king of Egypt didn't come out of his land any more; for the king of Babylon had taken, from the brook of Egypt to the river Euphrates, all that belonged to the king of Egypt.

<sup>8</sup> Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem three months. His mother's name was Nehushta the daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup> He did that which was evil in Yahweh's sight, according to all that his father had done. <sup>10</sup> At that time the servants of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up to Jerusalem, and the city was besieged. <sup>11</sup> Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to the city while his servants were besieging it, <sup>12</sup> and Jehoiachin the king of Judah went out to the king of Babylon, he, and his mother, and his servants, and his princes, and his officers; and the king of Babylon captured him in the eighth year of his reign. <sup>13</sup> He carried out from there all the treasures of Yahweh's house, and the treasures of the king's house, and cut in pieces all the vessels of gold, which Solomon king of Israel had made in Yahweh's temple, as Yahweh had said. <sup>14</sup> He carried away all Jerusalem, and all the princes, and all the mighty men of valor, even ten thousand captives, and all the craftsmen and the smiths. No one remained, except the poorest people of the land. <sup>15</sup> He carried away Jehoiachin to Babylon, with the king's mother, the king's wives, his officers, and the chief men of the land. He carried them into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon. <sup>16</sup> All the men of might, even seven thousand, and the craftsmen and the smiths one thousand, all of them strong and fit for war, even them the king of Babylon brought captive to Babylon. <sup>17</sup> The king of Babylon made Mattaniah, Jehoiachin's father's brother, king in his place, and changed his name to Zedekiah. <sup>18</sup> Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. <sup>19</sup> He did that which was evil in Yahweh's sight, according to all that Jehoiakim had done. <sup>20</sup> For through the anger of Yahweh, this happened in Jerusalem and Judah, until he had cast them out from his presence. Then Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

25

<sup>1</sup> In the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and encamped against it; and they built forts against it around it. <sup>2</sup> So the city was besieged until the eleventh year of king Zedekiah. <sup>3</sup> On the ninth day of the fourth month, the famine was severe in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land. <sup>4</sup> Then a breach was made in the city, and all the men of war fled by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden (now the Chaldeans were against the city around it); and the king went by the way of the Arabah. <sup>5</sup> But the Chaldean army pursued the king, and overtook him in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from him. <sup>6</sup> Then they captured the king, and carried him up to the king of Babylon to Riblah; and they passed judgment on him. <sup>7</sup> They killed Zedekiah's sons before his eyes, then put out Zedekiah's eyes, bound him in fetters, and carried him to Babylon.

<sup>8</sup> Now in the fifth month, on the seventh day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of king Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, a servant of the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup> He burned Yahweh's house, the king's house, and all the houses of Jerusalem, even every great house, he burned with fire. <sup>10</sup> All the army of the Chaldeans, who were with the captain of the guard, broke down the walls around Jerusalem. <sup>11</sup> Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive the residue of the people who were left in the city, and those who fell away, who fell to the king of Babylon, and the residue of the multitude.

<sup>12</sup> But the captain of the guard left some of the poorest of the land to work the vineyards and fields. <sup>13</sup> The Chaldeans broke up the pillars of brass that were in Yahweh's house and the bases and the bronze sea that were in Yahweh's house, and carried the brass pieces to Babylon. <sup>14</sup> They took away the pots, the shovels, the snuffers, the spoons, and all the vessels of brass with which they ministered. <sup>15</sup> The captain of the guard took away the fire pans, the basins, that which was of gold, in gold, and that which was of silver, in silver. <sup>16</sup> The two pillars, the one sea, and the bases, which Solomon had made for Yahweh's house, the brass of all these vessels was not weighed. <sup>17</sup> The height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits,<sup>x</sup> and a capital of brass was on it. The height of the capital was three cubits, with network and pomegranates on the capital around it, all of brass; and the second pillar with its network was like these.

<sup>18</sup> The captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the threshold; <sup>19</sup> and out of the city he took an officer who was set over the men of war; and five men of those who saw the king's face, who were found in the city; and the scribe, the captain of the army, who mustered the people of the land; and sixty men of the people of the land, who were found in the city. <sup>20</sup> Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah. <sup>21</sup> The king of Babylon attacked them, and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was carried away captive out of his land. <sup>22</sup> As for the people who were left in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had left, even over them he made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, governor. <sup>23</sup> Now when all the captains of the forces, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah governor, they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah the son of the Maacathite, they and their men. <sup>24</sup> Gedaliah swore to them and to their men, and said to them, "Don't be afraid because of the servants of the Chaldeans. Dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it will be well with you."

<sup>25</sup> But in the seventh month, Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the royal offspring<sup>y</sup> came, and ten men with him, and struck Gedaliah, so that he died, with the Jews and the Chaldeans that were with him at Mizpah. <sup>26</sup> All the people, both small and great, and the captains of the forces, arose, and came to Egypt; for they were afraid of the Chaldeans. <sup>27</sup> In the thirty-seventh year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, Evilmerodach king of Babylon, in the year that he began to reign, lifted up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah out of prison; <sup>28</sup> and he spoke kindly to him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings who were with him in Babylon, <sup>29</sup> and changed his prison garments. Jehoiachin ate bread before him continually all the days of his life; <sup>30</sup> and for his allowance, there was a continual allowance given him from the king, every day a portion, all the days of his life.

<sup>43</sup> Now these are the kings who reigned in the land of Edom, before any king reigned over the children of Israel: Bela the son of Beor; and the name of his city was Dinhabah. <sup>44</sup> Bela died, and Jobab the son of Zerah of Bozrah reigned in his place. <sup>45</sup>

Jobab died, and Husham of the land of the Temanites reigned in his place. <sup>46</sup> Husham died, and Hadad the son of Bedad, who struck Midian in the field of Moab, reigned in his place; and the name of his city was Avith. <sup>47</sup> Hadad died, and Samlah of Masrekah reigned in his place. <sup>48</sup> Samlah died, and Shaul of Rehoboth by the River reigned in his place. <sup>49</sup> Shaul died, and Baal Hanan the son of Achbor reigned in his place. <sup>50</sup> Baal Hanan died, and Hadad reigned in his place; and the name of his city was Pai: and his wife's name was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Mezahab. <sup>51</sup> Then Hadad died. The chiefs of Edom were: chief Timna, chief Aliah, chief Jetheth, <sup>52</sup> chief Oholibamah, chief Elah, chief Pinon, <sup>53</sup> chief Kenaz, chief Teman, chief Mibzar, <sup>54</sup> chief Magdiel, and chief Iram. These are the chiefs of Edom.

of Hezron, who were born to him: Jerahmeel, Ram, and Chelubai. <sup>10</sup> Ram became the father of Amminadab, and Amminadab became the father of Nahshon, prince of the children of Judah; <sup>11</sup> and Nahshon became the father of Salma, and Salma became the father of Boaz, <sup>12</sup> and Boaz became the father of Obed, and Obed became the father of Jesse; <sup>13</sup> and Jesse became the father of his firstborn Eliab, and Abinadab the second, and Shimea the third, <sup>14</sup> Nethanel the fourth, Raddai the fifth, <sup>15</sup> Ozem the sixth, David the seventh; <sup>16</sup> and their sisters were Zeruah and Abigail. The sons of Zeruah: Abishai, Joab, and Asahel, three. <sup>17</sup> Abigail bore Amasa; and the father of Amasa was Jether the Ishmaelite.

<sup>18</sup> Caleb the son of Hezron became the father of children of Azubah his wife, and of Jerioth; and these were her sons: Jeshur, Shobab, and Ardon. <sup>19</sup> Azubah died, and Caleb married Ephrath, who bore him Hur. <sup>20</sup> Hur became the father of Uri, and Uri became the father of Bezalel.

<sup>21</sup> Afterward Hezron went in to the daughter of Machir the father of Gilead, whom he took as wife when he was sixty years old; and she bore him Segub. <sup>22</sup> Segub became the father of Jair, who had twenty-three cities in the land of Gilead. <sup>23</sup> Geshur and Aram took the towns of Jair from them, with Kenath, and its villages, even sixty cities. All these were the sons of Machir the father of Gilead. <sup>24</sup> After Hezron died in Caleb Ephrathah, Abijah Hezron's wife bore him Ashhur the father of Tekoa. <sup>25</sup> The sons of Jerahmeel the firstborn of Hezron were Ram the firstborn,

Bunah, Oren, Ozem, and Ahijah. <sup>26</sup> Jerahmeel had another wife, whose name was Atarah. She was the mother of Onam. <sup>27</sup> The sons of Ram the firstborn of Jerahmeel were Maaz, Jamin, and Eker. <sup>28</sup> The sons of Onam were Shammai and Jada. The sons of Shammai: Nadab and Abishur. <sup>29</sup> The name of the wife of Abishur was Abihail; and she bore him Ahban and Molid. <sup>30</sup> The sons of Nadab: Seled and Appaim; but Seled died without children. <sup>31</sup> The son of Appaim: Ishi. The son of Ishi: Sheshan. The son of Sheshan: Ahlai. <sup>32</sup> The sons of Jada the brother of Shammai: Jether and Jonathan; and Jether died without children. <sup>33</sup> The sons of Jonathan: Peleth and Zaza. These were the sons of Jerahmeel. <sup>34</sup> Now Sheshan had no sons, but daughters. Sheshan had a servant, an Egyptian, whose name was Jarha. <sup>35</sup> Sheshan gave his daughter to Jarha his servant as wife; and she bore him Attai. <sup>36</sup> Attai became the father of Nathan, and Nathan became the father of Zabad, <sup>37</sup> and Zabad became the father of Ephlal, and Ephlal became the father of Obed, <sup>38</sup> and Obed became the father of Jehu, and Jehu became the father of Azariah, <sup>39</sup> and Azariah became the father of Helez, and Helez became the father of Eleasah, <sup>40</sup> and Eleasah became the father of Sismai, and Sismai became the father of Shallum, <sup>41</sup> and Shallum became the father of Jekamiah, and Jekamiah became the father of Elishama. <sup>42</sup> The sons of Caleb the brother of Jerahmeel were Mesha his firstborn, who was the father of Ziph; and the sons of Mareshah the father of Hebron. <sup>43</sup> The sons of Hebron: Korah, Tappuah, Rekem, and Shema. <sup>44</sup> Shema became the father of Raham, the father of Jorkeam; and Rekem became the father of Shammai. <sup>45</sup> The son of Shammai was Maon; and Maon was the father of Beth Zur. <sup>46</sup> Ephah, Caleb's concubine, bore Haran, Moza, and Gazez; and Haran became the father of Gazez. <sup>47</sup> The sons of Jahdai: Regem, Jothan, Geshan, Pelet, Ephah, and Shaaph. <sup>48</sup> Maacah, Caleb's concubine, bore Sheber and Tirhanah. <sup>49</sup> She bore also Shaaph the father of Madmannah, Sheva the father of Machbena, and the father of Gibeaz; and the daughter of Caleb was Achsah. <sup>50</sup> These were the sons of Caleb, the son of Hur, the firstborn of Ephrathah: Shobal the father of Kiriath Jearim, <sup>51</sup> Salma the father of Bethlehem, and Hareph the father of Beth Gader. <sup>52</sup> Shobal the father of Kiriath Jearim had sons: Haroeh, half of the Menuhoth. <sup>53</sup> The families of Kiriath Jearim: the Ithrites, the Puthites, the Shumathites, and the Mishraitites; from them came the Zorathites and the Eshtaulites. <sup>54</sup> The sons of Salma: Bethlehem, the Netophathites, Atroth Beth Joab, and half of the Manahathites, the Zorites. <sup>55</sup> The families of scribes who lived at Jabez: the Tirathites, the Shimeathites, and the Sucathites. These are the Kenites who came from Hammath, the father of the house of Rechab.

<sup>1</sup> Now these were the sons of David, who were born to him in Hebron: the firstborn, Amnon, of Ahinoam the Jezreelitess; the second, Daniel, of Abigail the Carmelitess; <sup>2</sup> the third, Absalom the son of Maacah the daughter of Talmai king of Geshur; the fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith; <sup>3</sup> the fifth, Shephatiah of Abital; the sixth, Ithream by Eglah his wife: <sup>4</sup> six were born to him in Hebron; and he reigned there seven years and six months. He reigned thirty-three years in Jerusalem; <sup>5</sup> and these were born to him in Jerusalem: Shimea, Shobab, Nathan, and Solomon, four, of Bathshua the daughter of Ammiel; <sup>6</sup> and Ibhar, Elishama, Eliphelet, <sup>7</sup> Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia, <sup>8</sup> Elishama, Eliada, and Eliphelet, nine. <sup>9</sup> All these were the sons of David, besides the sons of the concubines; and Tamar was their sister.

<sup>10</sup> Solomon's son was Rehoboam, Abijah his son, Asa his son, Jehoshaphat his son, <sup>11</sup> Joram his son, Ahaziah his son, Joash his son, <sup>12</sup> Amaziah his son, Azariah his son, Jotham his son, <sup>13</sup> Ahaz his son, Hezekiah his son, Manasseh his son, <sup>14</sup> Amon his son, and Josiah his son. <sup>15</sup> The sons of Josiah: the firstborn Johanan, the second Jehoiakim, the third Zedekiah, and the fourth Shallum. <sup>16</sup> The sons of Jehoiakim: Jeconiah his son, and Zedekiah his son. <sup>17</sup> The sons of Jeconiah, the captive: Shealtiel his son, <sup>18</sup> Malchiram, Pedaiah, Shenazzar, Jekamiah, Hoshama, and Nedabiah. <sup>19</sup> The sons of Pedaiah: Zerubbabel and Shimei. The sons of Zerubbabel: Meshullam and Hananiah; and Shelomith was their sister; <sup>20</sup> and Hashubah, Ohel, Berechiah, Hasadiah, and Jushab Hesed, five. <sup>21</sup> The sons of Hananiah: Pelatiah and Jeshaiah; the sons of Rephaiah, the sons of Arnan, the sons of Obadiah, the sons of Shecaniah. <sup>22</sup> The son of Shecaniah: Shemaiah. The sons of Shemaiah: Hattush, Igal, Bariah, Neariah,

4

<sup>1</sup> The sons of Judah: Perez, Hezron, Carmi, Hur, and Shobal. <sup>2</sup> Reaiah the son of Shobal became the father of Jahath; and Jahath became the father of Ahumai and Lahad. These are the families of the Zorathites. <sup>3</sup> These were the sons of the father of Etam: Jezreel, Ishma, and Idbash. The name of their sister was Hazzelponi. <sup>4</sup> Penuel was the father of Gedor and Ezer the father of Hushah. These are the sons of Hur, the firstborn of Ephrathah, the father of Bethlehem. <sup>5</sup> Ashhur the father of Tekoa had two wives, Helah and Naarah. <sup>6</sup> Naarah bore him Ahuzzam, Hopher, Temeni, and Haahashtari. These were the sons of Naarah. <sup>7</sup> The sons of Helah were Zereth, Izhar, and Ethnan. <sup>8</sup> Hakkoz became the father of Anub, Zobebah, and the families of Aharhel the son of Harum.

<sup>10</sup> Jabez called on the God<sup>c</sup> of Israel, saying, "Oh that you would bless me indeed, and enlarge my border! May your hand be with me, and may you keep me from evil, that I may not cause pain!"

God granted him that which he requested. <sup>11</sup> Chelub the brother of Shuhah became the father of Mehir, who was the father of Eshton. <sup>12</sup> Eshton became the father of Beth Rapha, Paseah, and Tehinnah the father of Ir Nahash. These are the men of Recah. <sup>13</sup> The sons of Kenaz: Othniel and Seraiah. The sons of Othniel: Hathath. <sup>14</sup> Meonothai became the father of Ophrah; and Seraiah became the father of Joab the father of Ge Harashim; for they were craftsmen. <sup>15</sup> The sons of Caleb the son of Jephunneh: Iru, Elah, and Naam. The son of Elah: Kenaz. <sup>16</sup> The sons of Jehallelel: Ziph, Ziphah, Tiria, and Asarel. <sup>17</sup> The sons of Ezra: Jether, Mered, Epher, and Jalon; and she bore Miriam, Shammai, and Ishbah the father of Eshtemoa. <sup>18</sup> His wife the Jewess bore Jered the father of Gedor, Heber the father of Soco, and Jekuthiel the father of Zanoah. These are the sons of Bithiah the daughter of Pharaoh, whom Mered took. <sup>19</sup> The sons of the wife of Hodia, the sister of Naham, were the father of Keilah the Garmite, and Eshtemoa the Maacathite. <sup>20</sup> The sons of Shimon: Amnon, Rinnah, Ben Hanan, and Tilon. The sons of Ishi: Zoheth, and Ben Zoheth. <sup>21</sup> The sons of Shelah the son of Judah: Er the father of Lecah, Laadah the father of Mareshah, and the families of the house of those who worked fine linen, of the house of Ashbea; <sup>22</sup> and Jokim, and the men of Cozeba, and Joash, and Saraph, who had dominion in Moab, and Jashubilehem. These records are ancient. <sup>23</sup> These were the potters, and the inhabitants of Netaim and Gederah: they lived there with the king for his work. <sup>24</sup> The sons of Simeon: Nemuel, Jamin, Jarib, Zerach, Shaul; <sup>25</sup> Shallum his son, Mibsam his son, and Mishma his son. <sup>26</sup> The sons of Mishma: Hammuel his son, Zaccur his son, Shimei his son. <sup>27</sup> Shimei had sixteen sons and six daughters; but his brothers didn't have many children, and all their family did not multiply like the children of Judah. <sup>28</sup> They lived at Beersheba, Moladah, Hazarshual, <sup>29</sup> at Bilhah, at Ezem, at Tolad, <sup>30</sup> at Bethuel, at Hormah, at Ziklag, <sup>31</sup> at Beth Marcaboth, Hazar Susim, at Beth Biri, and at Shaaraim. These were their cities until David's reign. <sup>32</sup> Their villages were Etam, Ain, Rimmon, Tochen, and Ashan, five cities; <sup>33</sup> and all their villages that were around the same cities, to Baal. These were their settlements, and they have their genealogy. <sup>34</sup> Meshobab, Jamlech, Joshah the son of Amaziah, <sup>35</sup> Joel, Jehu the son of Joshibiah, the son of Seraiah, the son of Asiel, <sup>36</sup> Elioenai, Jaakobah, Jeshohaiah, Asaiah, Adiel, Jesimiel, Benaiah, <sup>37</sup> and Ziza the son of Shiphi, the son of Allon, the son of Jedaiah, the son of Shimri, the son of Shemaiah— <sup>38</sup> these mentioned by name were princes in their families. Their fathers' houses increased greatly.

<sup>39</sup> They went to the entrance of Gedor, even to the east side of the valley, to seek pasture for their flocks. <sup>40</sup> They found fat pasture and good, and the land was wide, and quiet, and peaceful; for those who lived there before were descended from Ham. <sup>41</sup> These written by name came in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and struck their tents. The Meunim who were found there, and they destroyed them utterly to this day, and lived in their place; because there was pasture there for their flocks. <sup>42</sup> Some of them, even of the sons of Simeon, five hundred men, went to Mount Seir, having for their captains Pelatiah, Neariah, Rephaiah, and Uzziel, the sons of Ishi. <sup>43</sup> They struck the remnant of the Amalekites who escaped, and have lived there to this day.

<sup>1</sup> The sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel (for he was the firstborn; but, because he defiled his father's couch, his birthright was given to the sons of Joseph the son of Israel; and the genealogy is not to be listed according to the birthright. <sup>2</sup> For Judah prevailed above his brothers, and from him came the prince; but the birthright was Joseph's)— <sup>3</sup> the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel: Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi. <sup>4</sup> The sons of Joel: Shemaiah his son, Gog his son, Shimei his son, <sup>5</sup> Micah his son, Reaiah his son, Baal his son, <sup>6</sup> and Beerah his son, whom Tilgath Pilneser king of Assyria carried away captive. He was prince of the Reubenites. <sup>7</sup> His brothers by their families, when the genealogy of their generations was listed: the chief, Jeiel, and Zechariah, <sup>8</sup> and Bela the son of Azaz, the son of Shema, the son of Joel, who lived in Aroer, even to Nebo and Baal Meon; <sup>9</sup> and he lived eastward even to the entrance of the wilderness from the river Euphrates, because their livestock were multiplied in the land of Gilead.

<sup>10</sup> In the days of Saul, they made war with the Hagrites, who fell by their hand; and they lived in their tents throughout all the land east of Gilead. <sup>11</sup> The sons of Gad lived over against them, in the land of Bashan to Salecah: <sup>12</sup> Joel the chief, Shapham the second, Janai, and Shaphat in Bashan. <sup>13</sup> Their brothers of their fathers' houses: Michael, Meshullam, Sheba, Jorai, Jacan, Zia, and Eber, seven. <sup>14</sup> These were the sons of Abihail, the son of Huri, the son of Jaroah, the son of Gilead, the son of Michael, the son of Jeshishai, the son of Jahdo, the son of Buz; <sup>15</sup> Ahi the son of Abdiel, the son of Guni, chief of their fathers' houses. <sup>16</sup> They lived in Gilead in Bashan, and in its towns, and in all the suburbs of Sharon, as far as their borders. <sup>17</sup> All these were listed by genealogies in the days of Jotham king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam king of Israel.

<sup>18</sup> The sons of Reuben, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, of valiant men, men able to bear buckler and sword, and to shoot with bow, and skillful in war, were forty-four thousand seven hundred sixty, that were able to go out to war. <sup>19</sup> They made war with the Hagrites, with Jetur, and Naphish, and Nodab. <sup>20</sup> They were helped against them, and the Hagrites were delivered into their hand, and all who were with them; for they cried to God in the battle, and he was answered them, because they put their trust in him. <sup>21</sup> They took away their livestock; of their camels fifty thousand, and of sheep two hundred fifty thousand, and of donkeys two thousand, and of men one hundred thousand. <sup>22</sup> For many fell slain, because the war was of God. They lived in their place until the captivity. <sup>23</sup> The children of the half-tribe of Manasseh lived in the land: they increased from Bashan to Baal Hermon, Senir, and Mount Hermon. <sup>24</sup> These were the heads of their fathers' houses: even Ephraim, Ishi, Eliel, Azriel, Jeremiah, Hodaviah, and Jahdiel, mighty men of valor, famous men, heads of their fathers' houses. <sup>25</sup> They trespassed against the God of their fathers, and played the prostitute after the gods of the peoples of the land, whom God destroyed before them. <sup>26</sup> So the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of Pul king of Assyria, and the spirit of Tilgath Pilneser king of Assyria, and he carried them away, even the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, and brought them to Halah, Habor, Hara, and to the river of Gozan, to this day.

<sup>1</sup> The sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. <sup>2</sup> The sons of Kohath: Amram, Izhar, and Hebron, and Uzziel. <sup>3</sup> The children of Amram: Aaron, Moses, and Miriam. The sons of Aaron: Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. <sup>4</sup> Eleazar became the father of Phinehas, Phinehas became the father of Abishua, <sup>5</sup> Abishua became the father of Bukki. Bukki became the father of Uzzi. <sup>6</sup> Uzzi became the father of Zerachiah. Zerachiah became the father of Meraiioth. <sup>7</sup> Meraiioth became the father of Amariah. Amariah became the father of Ahitub. <sup>8</sup> Ahitub became the father of Zadok. Zadok became the father of Ahimaaz. <sup>9</sup> Ahimaaz became the father of Azariah. Azariah became the father of Johanan. <sup>10</sup> Johanan became the father of Azariah, who executed the priest's office in the house that Solomon built in Jerusalem. <sup>11</sup> Azariah became the father of Amariah. Amariah became the father of Ahitub. <sup>12</sup> Ahitub became the father of Zadok. Zadok became the father of Shallum. <sup>13</sup> Shallum became the father of Hilkiah. Hilkiah became the father of Azariah. <sup>14</sup> Azariah became the father of Seraiah. Seraiah became the father of Jehozadak. <sup>15</sup> Jehozadak went into captivity, when Yahweh carried Judah and Jerusalem away by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar.

<sup>16</sup> The sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. <sup>17</sup> These are the names of the sons of Gershon: Libni and Shimei. <sup>18</sup> The sons of Kohath were Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel. <sup>19</sup> The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. These are the families of the Levites according to their fathers' households. <sup>20</sup> Of Gershon: Libni his son, Jahath his son, Zimmah his son, <sup>21</sup> Joah his son, Iddo his son, Zerah his son, and Jeatherai his son. <sup>22</sup> The sons of Kohath: Amminadab his son, Korah his son, Assir his son, <sup>23</sup> Elkanah his son, and Ebiasaph his son, Assir his son, <sup>24</sup> Tahath his son, Uriel his son, Uzziel his son, and Shaul his son. <sup>25</sup> The sons of Elkanah: Amasai and Ahimoth. <sup>26</sup> As for Elkanah, the sons of Elkanah: Zophai his son, Nahath his son, <sup>27</sup> Eliab his son, Jeroham his son, and Elkanah his son. <sup>28</sup> The sons of Samuel: the firstborn Joel and the second Abijah. <sup>29</sup> The sons of Merari: Mahli, Libni his son, Shimei his son, Uzzah his son, <sup>30</sup> Shimea his son, Haggiah his son, Asaiah his son. <sup>31</sup> These are they whom David set over the service of song in Yahweh's house, after the ark came to rest there. <sup>32</sup> They ministered with song before the tabernacle of the Tent of Meeting, until Solomon had built Yahweh's house in Jerusalem. They performed the duties of their office according to their order. <sup>33</sup> These are those who served, and their sons. Of the sons of the Kohathites: Heman the singer, the son of Joel, the son of Samuel, <sup>34</sup> the son of Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Eliel, the son of Toah, <sup>35</sup> the son of Zuph, the son of Elkanah, the son of Mahath, the son of Amasai,<sup>36</sup> the son of Elkanah, the son of Joel, the son of Azariah, the son of Zephaniah,<sup>37</sup> the son of Tahath, the son of Assir, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah,<sup>38</sup> the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, the son of Israel.<sup>39</sup> His brother Asaph, who stood on his right hand, even Asaph the son of Berechiah, the son of Shimea,<sup>40</sup> the son of Michael, the son of Baaseiah, the son of Malchijah,<sup>41</sup> the son of Ethni, the son of Zerah, the son of Adaiah,<sup>42</sup> the son of Ethan, the son of Zimmah, the son of Shimei,<sup>43</sup> the son of Jahath, the son of Gershom, the son of Levi.<sup>44</sup> On the left hand their brothers the sons of Merari: Ethan the son of Kishi, the son of Abdi, the son of Malluch,<sup>45</sup> the son of Hashabiah, the son of Amaziah, the son of Hilkiyah,<sup>46</sup> the son of Amzi, the son of Bani, the son of Shemer,<sup>47</sup> the son of Mahli, the son of Mushi, the son of Merari, the son of Levi.<sup>48</sup> Their brothers the Levites were appointed for all the service of the tabernacle of God's house.<sup>49</sup> But Aaron and his sons offered on the altar of burnt offering, and on the altar of incense, for all the work of the most holy place, and to make atonement for Israel, according to all that Moses the servant of God had commanded.

of Aaron, of the families of the Kohathites (for theirs was the first lot),<sup>55</sup> to them they gave Hebron in the land of Judah, and its suburbs around it;<sup>56</sup> but the fields of the city, and its villages, they gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh.<sup>57</sup> To the sons of Aaron they gave the cities of refuge, Hebron; Libnah also with its suburbs, Jattir, Eshtemoa with its suburbs,<sup>58</sup> Hilen with its suburbs, Debir with its suburbs,<sup>59</sup> Ashan with its suburbs, and Beth Shemesh with its suburbs;<sup>60</sup> and out of the tribe of Benjamin, Geba with its suburbs, Allemeth with its suburbs, and Anathoth with its suburbs. All their cities throughout their families were thirteen cities.

<sup>61</sup> To the rest of the sons of Kohath were given by lot, out of the family of the tribe, out of the half-tribe, the half of Manasseh, ten cities.<sup>62</sup> To the sons of Gershom, according to their families, out of the tribe of Issachar, and out of the tribe of Asher, and out of the tribe of Naphtali, and out of the tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, thirteen cities.<sup>63</sup> To the sons of Merari were given by lot, according to their families, out of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebulun, twelve cities.<sup>64</sup> The children of Israel gave to the Levites the cities with their suburbs.<sup>65</sup> They gave by lot out of the tribe of the children of Judah, and out of the tribe of the children of Simeon, and out of the tribe of the children of Benjamin, these cities which are mentioned by name.<sup>66</sup> Some of the families of the sons of Kohath had cities of their borders out of the tribe of Ephraim.<sup>67</sup> They gave to them the cities of refuge, Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim with its suburbs; Gezer also with its suburbs, <sup>68</sup> Jokmeam with its suburbs, Beth Horon with its suburbs, <sup>69</sup> Aijalon with its suburbs, Gath Rimmon with its suburbs; <sup>70</sup> and out of the half-tribe of Manasseh, Aner with its suburbs, and Bileam with its suburbs, for the rest of the family of the sons of Kohath.

houses, of Tola; mighty men of valor in their generations. Their number in the days of David was twenty-two thousand six hundred. <sup>3</sup> The son of Uzzi: Izrahiah. The sons of Izrahiah: Michael, Obadiah, Joel, and Isshiah, five; all of them chief men. <sup>4</sup> With them, by their generations, after their fathers' houses, were bands of the army for war, thirty-six thousand; for they had many wives and sons. <sup>5</sup> Their brothers among all the families of Issachar, mighty men of valor, listed in all by genealogy, were eighty-seven thousand. <sup>6</sup> The sons of Benjamin: Bela, Becher, and Jediel, three. <sup>7</sup> The sons of Bela: Ezbon, Uzzi, Uzziel, Jerimoth, and Iri, five; heads of fathers' houses, mighty men of valor; and they were listed by genealogy twenty-two thousand thirty-four. <sup>8</sup> The sons of Becher: Zemirah, Joash, Eliezer, Elioenai, Omri, Jeremoth, Abijah, Anathoth, and Alemeth. All these were the sons of Becher. <sup>9</sup> They were listed by genealogy, after their generations, heads of their fathers' houses, mighty men of valor, twenty thousand two hundred. <sup>10</sup> The son of Jediel: Bilhan. The sons of Bilhan: Jeush, Benjamin, Ehud, Chenaanah, Zethan, Tarshish, and Ahishahar. <sup>11</sup> All these were sons of Jediel, according to the heads of their fathers' households, mighty men of valor, seventeen thousand two hundred, who were able to go out in the army for war. <sup>12</sup> So were Shuppim, Huppim, the sons of Ir, Hushim, and the sons of Aher.

a wife of Huppim and Shuppim, whose sister's name was Maacah. The name of the second was Zelophehad; and Zelophehad had daughters. <sup>16</sup> Maacah the wife of Machir bore a son, and she named him Peresh. The name of his brother was Sheresh; and his sons were Ulam and Rakem. <sup>17</sup> The sons of Ulam: Bedan. These were the sons of Gilead the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh. <sup>18</sup> His sister Hammolecheth bore Ishhod, Abiezer, and Mahlah. <sup>19</sup> The sons of Shemida were Ahian, Shechem, Likhi, and Aniam. <sup>20</sup> The sons of Ephraim: Shuthelah, Bered his son, Tahath his son, Eleadah his son, Tahath his son, <sup>21</sup> Zabad his son, Shuthelah his son, Ezer, and Elead, whom the men of Gath who were born in the land killed, because they came down to take away their livestock. <sup>22</sup> Ephraim their father mourned many days, and his brothers came to comfort him. <sup>23</sup> He went in to his wife, and she conceived, and bore a son, and he named him Beriah,<sup>d</sup> because there was trouble with his house. <sup>24</sup> His daughter was Sheerah, who built Beth Horon the lower and the upper, and Uzen Sheerah. <sup>25</sup> Rephah was his son, and Resheph, and Telah his son, Tahan his son, <sup>26</sup> Ladan his son, Ammihud his son, Elishama his son, <sup>27</sup> Nun his son, and Joshua his son. <sup>28</sup> Their possessions and settlements were Bethel and its towns, and eastward Naaran, and westward Gezer, with its towns; Shechem also and its towns, to Azzah and its towns; <sup>29</sup> and by the borders of the children of Manasseh, Beth Shean and its towns, Taanach and its towns, Megiddo and its towns, and Dor and its towns. The children of Joseph the son of Israel lived in these. <sup>30</sup> The sons of Asher: Imnah, Ishvah, Ishvi, and Beriah. Serah was their sister. <sup>31</sup> The sons of Beriah: Heber and Malchiel, who was the father of Birzaith. <sup>32</sup> Heber became the father of Japhlet, Shomer, Hotham, and Shua their sister. <sup>33</sup> The sons of Japhlet: Pasach, Bimhal, and Ashvath. These are the children of Japhlet. <sup>34</sup> The sons of Shemer: Ahi, Rohgah, Jehubbah, and Aram. <sup>35</sup> The sons of Helem his brother: Zophah, Imna, Shelesh, and Amal. <sup>36</sup> The sons of Zophah: Suah, Harnepher, Shual, Beri, Imrah, <sup>37</sup> Bezer, Hod, Shamma, Shilshah, Ithran, and Beera. <sup>38</sup> The sons of Jether: Jephunneh, Pispa, and Ara. <sup>39</sup> The sons of Ulla: Arah, Hanniel, and Rizia. <sup>40</sup> All these were the children of Asher, heads of the fathers' houses, choice and mighty men of valor, chief of the princes. The number of them listed by genealogy for service in war was twenty-six thousand men.

sent them away. Hushim and Baara were his wives. <sup>9</sup> By Hodesh his wife, he became the father of Jobab, Zibia, Mesha, Malcam, <sup>10</sup> Jeuz, Shachia, and Mirmah. These were his sons, heads of fathers' households. <sup>11</sup> By Hushim, he became the father of Abitub and Elpaal. <sup>12</sup> The sons of Elpaal: Eber, Misham, and Shemed, who built Ono and Lod, with its towns; <sup>13</sup> and Beriah, and Shema, who were heads of fathers' households of the inhabitants of Aijalon, who put to flight the inhabitants of Gath; <sup>14</sup> and Ahio, Shashak, Jeremoth, <sup>15</sup> Zebadiah, Arad, Eder, <sup>16</sup> Michael, Ishpah, Joha, the sons of Beriah, <sup>17</sup> Zebadiah, Meshullam, Hizki, Heber, <sup>18</sup> Ishmerai, Izliah, Jobab, the sons of Elpaal, <sup>19</sup> Jakim, Zichri, Zabdi, <sup>20</sup> Elienai, Zillethai, Eliel, <sup>21</sup> Adaiah, Beraiah, Shimrath, the sons of Shimei, <sup>22</sup> Ishpan, Eber, Eliel, <sup>23</sup> Abdon, Zichri, Hanan, <sup>24</sup> Hananiah, Elam, Anthothijah, <sup>25</sup> Iphdeiah, Penuel, the sons of Shashak, <sup>26</sup> Shamsherai, Shehariah, Athaliah, <sup>27</sup> Jareshiah, Elijah, Zichri, and the sons of Jeroham. <sup>28</sup> These were heads of fathers' households throughout their generations, chief men. These lived in Jerusalem. <sup>29</sup> The father of Gibeon, whose wife's name was Maacah, lived in Gibeon, <sup>30</sup> with his firstborn son Abdon, Zur, Kish, Baal, Nadab, <sup>31</sup> Gedor, Ahio, and Zecher. <sup>32</sup> Mikloth became the father of Shimeah. They also lived with their brothers in Jerusalem, near their brothers. <sup>33</sup> Ner became the father of Kish. Kish became the father of Saul. Saul became the father of Jonathan, Malchishua, Abinadab, and Eshbaal. <sup>34</sup> The son of Jonathan was Merib Baal. Merib Baal became the father of Micah. <sup>35</sup> The sons of Micah: Pithon, Melech, Tarea, and Ahaz. <sup>36</sup> Ahaz became the father of Jehoaddah. Jehoaddah became the father of Alemeth, Azmaveth, and Zimri. Zimri became the father of Moza. <sup>37</sup> Moza became the father of Binea. Raphah was his son, Eleasah his son, and Azel his son. <sup>38</sup> Azel had six sons, whose names are these: Azrikam, Bocheru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah, and Hanan. All these were the sons of Azel. <sup>39</sup> The sons of Eshek his brother: Ulam his firstborn, Jeush the second, and Eliphelet the third. <sup>40</sup> The sons of Ulam were mighty men of valor, archers, and had many sons, and sons' sons, one hundred fifty. All these were of the sons of Benjamin.

Jeroham, and Elah the son of Uzzi, the son of Michri, and Meshullam the son of Shephatiah, the son of Reuel, the son of Ibnijah; <sup>9</sup> and their brothers, according to their generations, nine hundred fifty-six. All these men were heads of fathers' households by their fathers' houses.

<sup>10</sup> Of the priests: Jedaiah, Jehoiarib, Jachin, <sup>11</sup> and Azariah the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the ruler of God's house; <sup>12</sup> and Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malchijah, and Maasai the son of Adiel, the son of Jahzerah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Meshillemith, the son of Immer; <sup>13</sup> and their brothers, heads of their fathers' houses, one thousand seven hundred sixty; very able men for the work of the service of God's house.

<sup>14</sup> Of the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, of the sons of Merari; <sup>15</sup> and Bakbakkar, Heresh, Galal, and Mattaniah the son of Mica, the son of Zichri, the son of Asaph, <sup>16</sup> and Obadiah the son of Shemaiah, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun, and Berechiah the son of Asa, the son of Elkanah, who lived in the villages of the Netophathites.

<sup>17</sup> The porters: Shallum, Akkub, Talmon, Ahiman, and their brothers (Shallum was the chief), <sup>18</sup> who previously served in the king's gate eastward. They were the porters for the camp of the children of Levi. <sup>19</sup> Shallum the son of Kore, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, and his brothers, of his father's house, the Korahites, were over the work of the service, keepers of the thresholds of the tent. Their fathers had been over Yahweh's camp, keepers of the entry. <sup>20</sup> Phinehas the son of Eleazar was ruler over them in time past, and Yahweh was with him. <sup>21</sup> Zechariah the son of Meshelemiah was porter of the door of the Tent of Meeting. <sup>22</sup> All these who were chosen to be porters in the thresholds were two hundred twelve. These were listed by genealogy in their villages, whom David and Samuel the seer ordained in their office of trust. <sup>23</sup> So they and their children had the oversight of the gates of Yahweh's house, even the house of the tent, by wards. <sup>24</sup> On the four sides were the porters, toward the east, west, north, and south. <sup>25</sup> Their brothers, in their villages, were to come in every seven days from time to time to be with them: <sup>26</sup> for the four chief porters, who were Levites, were in an office of trust, and were over the rooms and over the treasuries in God's house. <sup>27</sup> They stayed around God's house, because that duty was on them; and to their duty was its opening morning by morning. <sup>28</sup> Certain of them were in charge of the vessels of service; for these were brought in by count, and these were taken out by count. <sup>29</sup> Some of them also were appointed over the furniture, and over all the vessels of the sanctuary, over the fine flour, the wine, the oil, the frankincense, and the spices.

These are the singers, heads of fathers' households of the Levites, who lived in the rooms and were free from other service; for they were employed in their work day and night. <sup>34</sup> These were heads of fathers' households of the Levites, throughout their generations, chief men. These lived at Jerusalem. <sup>35</sup> Jeiel the father of Gibeon, whose wife's name was Maacah, lived in Gibeon with <sup>36</sup> his firstborn son Abdon, Zur, Kish, Baal, Ner, Nadab, <sup>37</sup> Gedor, Ahio, Zechariah, and Mikloth. <sup>38</sup> Mikloth became the father of Shimeam. They also lived with their brothers in Jerusalem, near their brothers. <sup>39</sup> Ner became the father of Kish. Kish became the father of Saul. Saul became the father of Jonathan, Malchishua, Abinadab, and Eshbaal. <sup>40</sup> The son of Jonathan was Merib Baal. Merib Baal became the father of Micah. <sup>41</sup> The sons of Micah: Pithon, Melech, Tahrea, and Ahaz. <sup>42</sup> Ahaz became the father of Jarah. Jarah became the father of Alemeth, Azmaveth, and Zimri. Zimri became the father of Moza. <sup>43</sup> Moza became the father of Binea; and Rephaiah his son, Eleasah his son, and Azel his son. <sup>44</sup> Azel had six sons, whose names are these: Azrikam, Bocheru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah, and Hanan. These were the sons of Azel.

Saul. <sup>3</sup> The battle went hard against Saul, and the archers overtook him; and he was distressed by reason of the archers. <sup>4</sup> Then Saul said to his armor bearer, "Draw your sword, and thrust me through with it, lest these uncircumcised come and abuse me."

But his armor bearer would not; for he was terrified. Therefore Saul took his sword, and fell on it. <sup>5</sup> When his armor bearer saw that Saul was dead, he likewise fell on his sword, and died. <sup>6</sup> So Saul died with his three sons; and all his house died together. <sup>7</sup> When all the men of Israel who were in the valley saw that they fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, they abandoned their cities, and fled; and the Philistines came and lived in them.

<sup>8</sup> On the next day, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, they found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa. <sup>9</sup> They stripped him, and took his head and his armor, and sent into the land of the Philistines all around, to carry the news to their idols, and to the people. <sup>10</sup> They put his armor in the house of their gods, and fastened his head in the house of Dagon. <sup>11</sup> When all Jabesh Gilead heard all that the Philistines had done to Saul, <sup>12</sup> all the valiant men arose, and took away the body of Saul, and the bodies of his sons, and brought them to Jabesh, and buried their bones under the oak in Jabesh, and fasted seven days. <sup>13</sup> So Saul died for his trespass which he committed against Yahweh, because of Yahweh's word, which he didn't keep; and also because he asked counsel of one who had a familiar spirit, to inquire, <sup>14</sup> and didn't inquire of Yahweh. Therefore he killed him, and turned the kingdom over to David the son of Jesse.

11

<sup>1</sup> Then all Israel gathered themselves to David to Hebron, saying, "Behold, we are your bone and your flesh." <sup>2</sup> In times past, even when Saul was king, it was you who led out and brought in Israel. Yahweh your God said to you, "You shall be shepherd of my people Israel, and you shall be prince over my people Israel."

<sup>3</sup> So all the elders of Israel came to the king to Hebron; and David made a covenant with them in Hebron before Yahweh; and they anointed David king over Israel, according to Yahweh's word by Samuel. <sup>4</sup> David and all Israel went to Jerusalem (also called Jebus); and the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land, were there. <sup>5</sup> The inhabitants of Jebus said to David, "You will not come in here." Nevertheless David took the stronghold of Zion. The same is David's city. <sup>6</sup> David said, "Whoever strikes the Jebusites first shall be chief and captain." Joab the son of Zeruah went up first, and was made chief. <sup>7</sup> David lived in the stronghold; therefore they called it David's city. <sup>8</sup> He built the city all around, from Millo even around; and Joab repaired the rest of the city. <sup>9</sup> David grew greater and greater; for Yahweh of Armies was with him. <sup>10</sup> Now these are the chief of the mighty men whom David had, who showed themselves strong with him in his kingdom, together with all Israel, to make him king, according to Yahweh's word concerning Israel.

<sup>11</sup> This is the number of the mighty men whom David had: Jashobeam, the son of a Hachmonite, the chief of the thirty; he lifted up his spear against three hundred and killed them at one time. <sup>12</sup> After him was Eleazar the son of Dodo, the Ahohite, who was one of the three mighty men. <sup>13</sup> He was with David at Pasdammim, and there the Philistines were gathered together to battle, where there was a plot of ground full of barley; and the people fled from before the Philistines. <sup>14</sup> They stood in the middle of the plot, defended it, and killed the Philistines; and Yahweh saved them by a great victory. <sup>15</sup> Three of the thirty chief men went down to the rock to David, into the cave of Adullam; and the army of the Philistines were encamped in the valley of Rephaim. <sup>16</sup> David was then in the stronghold, and the garrison of the Philistines was in Bethlehem at that time. <sup>17</sup> David longed, and said, "Oh that one would give me water to drink from the well of Bethlehem, which is by the gate!"

<sup>18</sup> The three broke through the army of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem, that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David; but David would not drink any of it, but poured it out to Yahweh, <sup>19</sup> and said, "My God forbid me, that I should do this! Shall I drink the blood of these men who have put their lives in jeopardy?" For they risked their lives to bring it. Therefore he would not drink it. The three mighty men did these things.

<sup>20</sup> Abishai, the brother of Joab, he was chief of the three; for he lifted up his spear against three hundred and killed them, and had a name among the three. <sup>21</sup> Of the three, he was more honorable than the two, and was made their captain; however he wasn't included in the three. <sup>22</sup> Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man of Kabzeel, who had done mighty deeds, killed the two sons of Ariel of Moab. He also went down and killed a lion in the middle of a pit on a snowy day. <sup>23</sup> He killed an Egyptian, a man of great stature, five cubits<sup>f</sup> high. In the Egyptian's hand was a spear like a weaver's beam; and he went down to him with a staff, plucked the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and killed him with his own spear. <sup>24</sup> Benaiah the son of Jehoiada did these things, and had a name among the three mighty men. <sup>25</sup> Behold, he was more honorable than the thirty, but he didn't attain to the three; and David set him over his guard.

Adina the son of Shiza the Reubenite, a chief of the Reubenites, and thirty with him, <sup>43</sup> Hanan the son of Maacah, and Joshaphat the Mithnite, <sup>44</sup> Uzzia the Ashterathite, Shama and Jeiel the sons of Hotham the Aroerite, <sup>45</sup> Jediel the son of Shimri, and Joha his brother, the Tizite, <sup>46</sup> Eliel the Mahavite, and Jeribai, and Joshaviah, the sons of Elnaam, and Ithmah the Moabite, <sup>47</sup> Eliel, and Obed, and Jaasiel the Mezobaite.

12

<sup>1</sup> Now these are those who came to David to Ziklag, while he was a fugitive from Saul the son of Kish. They were among the mighty men, his helpers in war. <sup>2</sup> They were armed with bows, and could use both the right hand and the left in slinging stones and in shooting arrows from the bow. They were of Saul's relatives of the tribe of Benjamin. <sup>3</sup> The chief was Ahiezer, then Joash, the sons of Shemaah the Gibeathite; Jeziel and Pelet, the sons of Azmaveth; Beracah; Jehu the Anathothite; <sup>4</sup> Ishmaiah the Gibeonite, a mighty man among the thirty and a leader of the thirty; Jeremiah; Jahaziel; Johanan; Jozabad the Gederathite; <sup>5</sup> Eluzai; Jerimoth; Bealial; Shemariah; Shephatiah the Haruphite; <sup>6</sup> Elkanah, Isshiah Azarel, Joezer, and Jashobeam, the Korahites; <sup>7</sup> and Joelah and Zebadiah, the sons of Jeroham of Gedor. <sup>8</sup> Some Gadites joined David in the stronghold in the wilderness, mighty men of valor, men trained for war, who could handle shield and spear; whose faces were like the faces of lions, and they were as swift as the gazelles on the mountains: <sup>9</sup> Ezer the chief, <sup>f</sup>a cubit is the length from the tip of the middle finger to the elbow on a man's arm, or about 18 inches or 46 centimeters. Therefore this Egyptian was about 7 feet and 6 inches or 2.28 meters tall.

Obadiah the second, Eliab the third,<sup>10</sup> Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth,<sup>11</sup> Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh,<sup>12</sup> Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth,<sup>13</sup> Jeremiah the tenth, and Machbannai the eleventh.<sup>14</sup> These of the sons of Gad were captains of the army: he who was least was equal to one hundred, and the greatest to one thousand.<sup>15</sup> These are those who went over the Jordan in the first month, when it had overflowed all its banks; and they put to flight all who lived in the valleys, both toward the east and toward the west.<sup>16</sup> Some of the children of Benjamin and Judah came to the stronghold to David.<sup>17</sup> David went out to meet them, and answered them, "If you have come peaceably to me to help me, my heart will be united with you; but if you have come to betray me to my adversaries, since there is no wrong in my hands, may the God of our fathers see this and rebuke it."<sup>18</sup> Then the Spirit came on Amasai, who was chief of the thirty, and he said, "We are yours, David, and on your side, you son of Jesse. Peace, peace be to you, and peace be to your helpers; for your God helps you." Then David received them, and made them captains of the band.<sup>19</sup> Some of Manasseh also joined David, when he came with the Philistines against Saul to battle; but they didn't help them; for the lords of the Philistines sent him away after consultation, saying, "He will desert to his master Saul to the jeopardy of our heads."

the band of rovers; for they were all mighty men of valor, and were captains in the army.<sup>22</sup> For from day to day men came to David to help him, until there was a great army, like God's army.

<sup>23</sup> These are the numbers of the heads of those who were armed for war, who came to David to Hebron, to turn the kingdom of Saul to him, according to Yahweh's word.

seven thousand one hundred.<sup>26</sup> Of the children of Levi four thousand six hundred.

three thousand: for until then, the greatest part of them had kept their allegiance to Saul's house.<sup>30</sup> Of the children of Ephraim twenty thousand eight hundred, mighty men of valor, famous men in their fathers' houses.<sup>31</sup> Of the half-tribe of Manasseh eighteen thousand, who were mentioned by name, to come and make David king.<sup>32</sup> Of the children of Issachar, men who had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do, their heads were two hundred; and all their brothers were at their command.<sup>33</sup> Of Zebulun, such as were able to go out in the army, who could set the battle in array, with all kinds of instruments of war, fifty thousand, and who could command and were not of double heart.<sup>34</sup> Of Naphtali one thousand captains, and with them with shield and spear thirty-seven thousand. <sup>35</sup> Of the Danites who could set the battle in array, twenty-eight thousand six hundred. <sup>36</sup> Of Asher, such as were able to go out in the army, who could set the battle in array, forty thousand. <sup>37</sup> On the other side of the Jordan, of the Reubenites, the Gadites, and of the half-tribe of Manasseh, with all kinds of instruments of war for the battle, one hundred twenty thousand. <sup>38</sup> All these were men of war, who could order the battle array, and came with a perfect heart to Hebron, to make David king over all Israel; and all the rest also of Israel were of one heart to make David king. <sup>39</sup> They were there with David three days, eating and drinking; for their brothers had supplied provisions for them. <sup>40</sup> Moreover those who were near to them, as far as Issachar, Zebulun, and Naphtali, brought bread on donkeys, on camels, on mules, and on oxen: supplies of flour, cakes of figs, clusters of raisins, wine, oil, cattle, and sheep in abundance; for there was joy in Israel.

13

<sup>4</sup> All the assembly said that they would do so; for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people. <sup>5</sup> So David assembled all Israel together, from the Shihor the brook of Egypt even to the entrance of Hamath, to bring God's ark from Kiriath Jearim.

<sup>6</sup> David went up with all Israel to Baalah, that is, to Kiriath Jearim, which belonged to Judah, to bring up from there God Yahweh's ark that sits above the cherubim, that is called by the Name. <sup>7</sup> They carried God's ark on a new cart, and brought it out of Abinadab's house; and Uzza and Ahio drove the cart. <sup>8</sup> David and all Israel played before God with all their might, even with songs, with harps, with stringed instruments, with tambourines, with cymbals, and with trumpets. <sup>9</sup> When they came to Chidon's threshing floor, Uzza put out his hand to hold the ark; for the oxen stumbled. <sup>10</sup> Yahweh's anger burned against Uzza, and he struck him, because he put his hand on the ark; and he died there before God. <sup>11</sup> David was displeased, because Yahweh had broken out against Uzza. He called that place Perez Uzza, to this day. <sup>12</sup> David was afraid of God that day, saying, "How can I bring God's ark home to me?" <sup>13</sup> So David didn't move the ark with him into David's city, but carried it aside into Obed-Edom the Gittite's house. <sup>14</sup> God's ark remained with the family of Obed-Edom in his house three months; and Yahweh blessed Obed-Edom's house and all that he had.

14

exalted on high, for his people Israel's sake. <sup>3</sup> David took more wives at Jerusalem, and David became the father of more sons and daughters. <sup>4</sup> These are the names of the children whom he had in Jerusalem: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon, <sup>5</sup> Ibhar, Elishua, Elpelet, <sup>6</sup> Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia, <sup>7</sup> Elishama, Beeliada, and Eliphelet.

<sup>8</sup> When the Philistines heard that David was anointed king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up to seek David; and David heard of it, and went out against them. <sup>9</sup> Now the Philistines had come and made a raid in the valley of Rephaim. <sup>10</sup> David inquired of God, saying, "Shall I go up against the Philistines? Will you deliver them into my hand?"

Yahweh said to him, "Go up; for I will deliver them into your hand."

<sup>11</sup> So they came up to Baal Perazim, and David defeated them there. David said, God has broken my enemies by my hand, like waters breaking out. Therefore they called the name of that place Baal Perazim.<sup>g</sup> <sup>12</sup> They left their gods there; and David gave a command, and they were burned with fire.

<sup>16</sup> David did as God commanded him; and they attacked the army of the Philistines from Gibeon even to Gezer. <sup>17</sup> The fame of David went out into all lands; and Yahweh brought the fear of him on all nations.

15

<sup>1</sup> David made himself houses in David's city; and he prepared a place for God's ark, and pitched a tent for it. <sup>2</sup> Then David said, "No one ought to carry God's ark but the Levites. For Yahweh has chosen them to carry God's ark, and to minister to him forever."

<sup>3</sup> David assembled all Israel at Jerusalem, to bring up Yahweh's ark to its place, which he had prepared for it. <sup>4</sup> David gathered together the sons of Aaron and the Levites: <sup>5</sup> of the sons of Kohath, Uriel the chief, and his brothers one hundred twenty; <sup>6</sup> of the sons of Merari, Asaiah the chief, and his brothers two hundred twenty; <sup>7</sup> of the sons of Gershon, Joel the chief, and his brothers one hundred thirty; <sup>8</sup> of the sons of Elizaphan, Shemaiah the chief, and his brothers two hundred; <sup>9</sup> of the sons of Hebron, Eliel the chief, and his brothers eighty; <sup>10</sup> of the sons of Uzziel, Amminadab the chief, and his brothers one hundred twelve. <sup>11</sup> David called for Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites, for Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel, and Amminadab, <sup>12</sup> and said to them, "You are the heads of the fathers' households of the Levites. Sanctify yourselves, both you and your brothers, that you may bring the ark of Yahweh, the God of Israel, up to the place that I have prepared for it. <sup>13</sup> For because you didn't carry it at first, Yahweh our God broke out in anger against us, because we didn't seek him according to the ordinance."

<sup>25</sup> So David, the elders of Israel, and the captains over thousands, went to bring the ark of Yahweh's covenant up out of the house of Obed-Edom with joy. <sup>26</sup> When God helped the Levites who bore the ark of Yahweh's covenant, they sacrificed seven bulls and seven rams. <sup>27</sup> David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, as were all the Levites who bore the ark, the singers, and Chenaniah the choir master with the singers; and David had an ephod of linen on him. <sup>28</sup> Thus all Israel brought the ark of Yahweh's covenant up with shouting, with sound of the cornet, with trumpets, and with cymbals, sounding aloud with stringed instruments and harps. <sup>29</sup> As the ark of Yahweh's covenant came to David's city, Michal the daughter of Saul looked out at the window, and saw king David dancing and playing; and she despised him in her heart.

16

<sup>1</sup> They brought in God's ark, and set it in the middle of the tent that David had pitched for it; and they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before God. <sup>2</sup> When David had finished offering the burnt offering and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in Yahweh's name. <sup>3</sup> He gave to everyone of Israel, both man and woman, to everyone a loaf of bread, a portion of meat, and a cake of raisins. <sup>4</sup> He appointed some of the Levites to minister before Yahweh's ark, and to commemorate, to thank, and to praise Yahweh, the God of Israel: <sup>5</sup> Asaph the chief, and second to him Zechariah, then Jeiel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, Benaiah, Obed-Edom, and Jeiel, with stringed instruments and with harps; and Asaph with cymbals, sounding aloud; <sup>6</sup> with Benaiah and Jahaziel the priests with trumpets continually, before the ark of the covenant of God.

<sup>7</sup> Then on that day David first ordained to give thanks to Yahweh, by the hand of Asaph and his brothers.

Call on his name.
Make what he has done known among the peoples.

<sup>9</sup> Sing to him.
Sing praises to him.
Tell of all his marvelous works.

<sup>10</sup> Glory in his holy name.
Let the heart of those who seek Yahweh rejoice.

<sup>11</sup> Seek Yahweh and his strength.
Seek his face forever more.

<sup>12</sup> Remember his marvelous works that he has done, his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth,

<sup>13</sup> you offspring<sup>h</sup> of Israel his servant, you children of Jacob, his chosen ones.

<sup>14</sup> He is Yahweh our God.
His judgments are in all the earth.

<sup>15</sup> Remember his covenant forever, the word which he commanded to a thousand generations,

<sup>16</sup> the covenant which he made with Abraham,
his oath to Isaac.

<sup>17</sup> He confirmed the same to Jacob for a statute, and to Israel for an everlasting covenant,

<sup>18</sup> saying, "I will give you the land of Canaan,

The lot of your inheritance,"

<sup>19</sup> when you were but a few men in number,
yes, very few, and foreigners were in it.

<sup>20</sup> They went about from nation to nation, from one kingdom to another people.

<sup>21</sup> He allowed no man to do them wrong.
Yes, he reprov'd kings for their sakes,

<sup>22</sup> "Don't touch my anointed ones!
Do my prophets no harm!"

<sup>23</sup> Sing to Yahweh, all the earth!
Display his salvation from day to day.

<sup>24</sup> Declare his glory among the nations, and his marvelous works among all the peoples.

<sup>25</sup> For great is Yahweh, and greatly to be praised.
He also is to be feared above all gods.

<sup>26</sup> For all the gods of the peoples are idols,
but Yahweh made the heavens.

<sup>27</sup> Honor and majesty are before him.
Strength and gladness are in his place.

<sup>28</sup> Ascribe to Yahweh, you relatives of the peoples,
ascribe to Yahweh glory and strength!

<sup>29</sup> Ascribe to Yahweh the glory due to his name.
Bring an offering, and come before him.
Worship Yahweh in holy array.

<sup>h</sup> or, seed

- <sup>30</sup> Tremble before him, all the earth.
The world also is established that it can't be moved.
- <sup>31</sup> Let the heavens be glad,
and let the earth rejoice!
Let them say among the nations,
"Yahweh reigns!"
- <sup>32</sup> Let the sea roar, and its fullness!
Let the field exult, and all that is in it!
- <sup>33</sup> Then the trees of the forest will sing for joy before Yahweh, for he comes to judge the earth.
- <sup>34</sup> Oh give thanks to Yahweh, for he is good, for his loving kindness endures
forever.
- <sup>35</sup> Say, "Save us, God of our salvation!
Gather us together and deliver us from the nations, to give thanks to your holy name, to triumph in your praise."
- <sup>36</sup> Blessed be Yahweh, the God of Israel,
from everlasting even to everlasting.

All the people said, "Amen," and praised Yahweh.

<sup>37</sup> So he left Asaph and his brothers there before the ark of Yahweh's covenant, to minister before the ark continually, as every day's work required; <sup>38</sup> and Obed-Edom with their brothers, sixty-eight; Obed-Edom also the son of Jeduthun and Hosah to be doorkeepers; <sup>39</sup> and Zadok the priest, and his brothers the priests, before Yahweh's tabernacle in the high place that was at Gibeon, <sup>40</sup> to offer burnt offerings to Yahweh on the altar of burnt offering continually morning and evening, even according to all that is written in Yahweh's law, which he commanded to Israel; <sup>41</sup> and with them Heman and Jeduthun, and the rest who were chosen, who were mentioned by name, to give thanks to Yahweh, because his loving kindness endures forever; <sup>42</sup> and with them Heman and Jeduthun with trumpets and cymbals for those that should sound aloud, and with instruments for the songs of God; and the sons of Jeduthun to be at the gate. <sup>43</sup> All the people departed, each man to his house;

and David returned to bless his house.

17

<sup>1</sup> When David lived in his house, David said to Nathan the prophet, "Behold, I dwell in a house of cedar, but the ark of Yahweh's covenant is in a tent."

<sup>2</sup> Nathan said to David, "Do all that is in your heart; for God is with you."

<sup>3</sup> That same night, the word of God came to Nathan, saying, <sup>4</sup> "Go and tell David my servant, 'Yahweh says, "You shall not build me a house to dwell in; <sup>5</sup> for I have not lived in a house since the day that I brought up Israel to this day, but have gone from tent to tent, and from one tent to another. <sup>6</sup> In all places in which I have walked with all Israel, did I speak a word with any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to be shepherd of my people, saying, 'Why have you not built me a house of cedar?'"

<sup>7</sup> "Now therefore, you shall tell my servant David, 'Yahweh of Armies says, "I took you from the sheep pen, from following the sheep, to be prince over my people Israel. <sup>8</sup> I have been with you wherever you have gone, and have cut off all your enemies from before you. I will make you a name, like the name of the great ones who are in the earth. <sup>9</sup> I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in their own place, and be moved no more. The children of wickedness will not waste them any more, as at the first, <sup>10</sup> and from the day that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel. I will subdue all your enemies. Moreover I tell you that Yahweh will build you a house. <sup>11</sup> It will happen, when your days are fulfilled that you must go to be with your fathers, that I will set up your offspring<sup>i</sup> after you, who will be of your sons; and I will establish his kingdom. <sup>12</sup> He will build me a house, and I will establish his throne forever. <sup>13</sup> I will be his father, and he will be my son. I will not take my loving kindness away from him, as I took it from him that was before you; <sup>14</sup> but I will settle him in my house and in my kingdom forever. His throne will be established forever.””” <sup>15</sup> According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so Nathan spoke to David.

<sup>16</sup> Then David the king went in, and sat before Yahweh; and he said, “Who am I, Yahweh God, and what is my house, that you have brought me this far? <sup>17</sup> This was a small thing in your eyes, God; but you have spoken of your servant’s house for a great while to come, and have respected me according to the standard of a man of high degree, Yahweh God. <sup>18</sup> What can David say yet more to you concerning the honor which is done to your servant? For you know your servant. <sup>19</sup> Yahweh, for your servant’s sake, and according to your own heart, you have done all this greatness, to make known all these great things. <sup>20</sup>

Yahweh, there is no one like you, neither is there any God besides you, according to all that we have heard with our ears. <sup>21</sup> What one nation in the earth is like your people Israel, whom God went to redeem to himself for a people, to make you a name by great and awesome things, in driving out nations from before your people, whom you redeem out of Egypt? <sup>22</sup> For you made your people Israel your own people forever; and you, Yahweh, became their God. <sup>23</sup> Now, Yahweh, let the word that you have spoken concerning your servant, and concerning his house, be established forever, and do as you have spoken. <sup>24</sup> Let your name be established and magnified forever, saying, ‘Yahweh of Armies is the God of Israel, even a God to Israel. The house of David your servant is established before you.’ <sup>25</sup> For you, my God, have revealed to your servant that you will build him a house. Therefore your servant has found courage to pray before you. <sup>26</sup> Now, Yahweh, you are God, and have promised this good thing to your servant. <sup>27</sup> Now it has pleased you to bless the house of your servant, that it may continue forever before you; for you, Yahweh, have blessed, and it is blessed forever.”

18

thousand chariots, seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen; and David hamstringed all the chariot horses, but reserved of them enough for one hundred chariots. <sup>5</sup> When the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, David struck twenty-two thousand men of the Syrians. <sup>6</sup> Then David put garrisons in Syria of Damascus; and the Syrians became servants to David, and brought tribute. Yahweh gave victory to David wherever he went. <sup>7</sup> David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem. <sup>8</sup> From Tibhath and from Cun, cities of Hadadezer, David took very much brass, with which Solomon made the bronze sea, the pillars, and the vessels of brass.

<sup>9</sup> When Tou king of Hamath heard that David had struck all the army of Hadadezer king of Zobah, <sup>10</sup> he sent Hadoram his son to king David, to Greet him, and to bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer and struck him; (for Hadadezer had wars with Tou;) and he had with him all kinds of vessels of gold and silver and brass. <sup>11</sup> King David also dedicated these to Yahweh, with the silver and the gold that he carried away from all the nations; from Edom, from Moab, from the children of Ammon, from the Philistines, and from Amalek. <sup>12</sup> Moreover Abishai the son of Zeruah struck eighteen thousand of the Edomites in the Valley of Salt. <sup>13</sup> He put garrisons in Edom; and all the Edomites became servants to David. Yahweh gave victory to David wherever he went.

<sup>14</sup> David reigned over all Israel; and he executed justice and righteousness for all his people. <sup>15</sup> Joab the son of Zeruah was over the army; Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder; <sup>16</sup> Zadok the son of Ahitub, and Abimelech the son of Abiathar, were priests; Shavsha was scribe; <sup>17</sup> and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and the sons of David were chief officials serving the king.

19

<sup>1</sup> After this, Nahash the king of the children of Ammon died, and his son reigned in his place. <sup>2</sup> David said, "I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, because his father showed kindness to me."

So David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. David's servants came into the land of the children of Ammon to Hanun, to comfort him. <sup>3</sup> But the princes of the children of Ammon said to Hanun, "Do you think that David honors your father, in that he has sent comforters to you? Haven't his servants come to you to search, to overthrow, and to spy out the land?" <sup>4</sup> So Hanun took David's servants, shaved them, and cut off their garments in the middle at their buttocks, and sent them away. <sup>5</sup> Then some people went and told David how the men were treated. He sent to meet them; for the men were greatly humiliated. The king said, "Stay at Jericho until your beards have grown, and then return."

chariots, and the king of Maacah with his people, who came and encamped near Medeba. The children of Ammon gathered themselves together from their cities, and came to battle. <sup>8</sup> When David heard of it, he sent Joab with all the army of the mighty men. <sup>9</sup> The children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array at the gate of the city; and the kings who had come were by themselves in the field. <sup>10</sup> Now when Joab saw that the battle was set against him before and behind, he chose some of all the choice men of Israel, and put them in array against the Syrians. <sup>11</sup> The rest of the people he committed into the hand of Abishai his brother; and they put themselves in array against the children of Ammon. <sup>12</sup> He said, "If the Syrians are too strong for me, then you are to help me; but if the children of Ammon are too strong for you, then I will help you. <sup>13</sup> Be courageous, and let us be strong for our people and for the cities of our God. May Yahweh do that which seems good to him."

<sup>14</sup> So Joab and the people who were with him came near to the front of the Syrians to the battle; and they fled before him. <sup>15</sup> When the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians had fled, they likewise fled before Abishai his brother, and entered into the city. Then Joab came to Jerusalem.

<sup>16</sup> When the Syrians saw that they were defeated by Israel, they sent messengers, and called out the Syrians who were beyond the River,<sup>k</sup> with Shophach the captain of the army of Hadadezer leading them. <sup>17</sup> David was told that; so he gathered all Israel together, passed over the Jordan, came to them, and set the battle in array against them. So when David had put the battle in array against the Syrians, they fought with him. <sup>18</sup> The Syrians fled before Israel; and David killed of the Syrian men seven thousand chariots, and forty thousand footmen, and also killed Shophach the captain of the army. <sup>19</sup> When the servants of Hadadezer saw that they were defeated by Israel, they made peace with David, and served him. The Syrians would not help the children of Ammon any more.

<sup>4</sup> After this, war arose at Gezer with the Philistines. Then Sibbecai the Hushathite killed Sippai, of the sons of the giant; and they were subdued.

<sup>5</sup> Again there was war with the Philistines; and Elhanan the son of Jair killed Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the staff of whose spear was like a weaver's beam. <sup>6</sup> There was again war at Gath, where there was a man of great stature, who had twenty-four fingers and toes, six on each hand, and six on each foot; and he also was born to the giant. <sup>7</sup> When he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimea David's brother killed him. <sup>8</sup> These were born to the giant in Gath; and they fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

21

<sup>1</sup> Satan stood up against Israel, and moved David to take a census of Israel. <sup>2</sup> David said to Joab and to the princes of the people, "Go, count Israel from Beersheba even to Dan; and bring me word, that I may know how many there are."

<sup>3</sup> Joab said, "May Yahweh make his people a hundred times as many as they are. But, my lord the king, aren't they all my lord's servants? Why does my lord require this thing? Why will he be a cause of guilt to Israel?"

<sup>4</sup> Nevertheless the king's word prevailed against Joab. Therefore Joab departed, and went throughout all Israel, then came to Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup> Joab gave up the sum of the census of the people to David. All those of Israel were one million one hundred thousand men who drew a sword; and in Judah were four hundred seventy thousand men who drew a sword. <sup>6</sup> But he didn't count Levi and Benjamin among them; for the king's word was abominable to Joab.

<sup>7</sup> God was displeased with this thing; therefore he struck Israel. <sup>8</sup> David said to God, "I have sinned greatly, in that I have done this thing. But now, put away, I beg you, the iniquity of your servant; for I have done very foolishly."

<sup>9</sup> Yahweh spoke to Gad, David's seer, saying, <sup>10</sup> "Go and speak to David, saying,

'Yahweh says, "I offer you three things. Choose one of them, that I may do it to you."'"

<sup>11</sup> So Gad came to David, and said to him, "Yahweh says, 'Take your choice: <sup>12</sup> either three years of famine; or three months to be consumed before your foes, while the sword of your enemies overtakes you; or else three days the sword of Yahweh, even pestilence in the land, and Yahweh's angel destroying throughout all the borders of Israel. Now therefore consider what answer I shall return to him who sent me.'"

<sup>13</sup> David said to Gad, "I am in distress. Let me fall, I pray, into Yahweh's hand; for his mercies are very great. Don't let me fall into man's hand."

<sup>14</sup> So Yahweh sent a pestilence on Israel, and seventy thousand men of Israel fell. <sup>15</sup> God sent an angel to Jerusalem to destroy it. As he was about to destroy, Yahweh saw, and he relented of the disaster, and said to the destroying angel, "It is enough. Now withdraw your hand." Yahweh's angel was standing by the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite. <sup>16</sup> David lifted up his eyes, and saw Yahweh's angel standing between earth and the sky, having a drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem.

Then David and the elders, clothed in sackcloth, fell on their faces. <sup>17</sup> David said to God, "Isn't it I who commanded the people to be counted? It is even I who have sinned and done very wickedly; but these sheep, what have they done? Please let your hand, O Yahweh my God, be against me, and against my father's house; but not against your people, that they should be plagued."

<sup>18</sup> Then Yahweh's angel commanded Gad to tell David that David should go up and raise an altar to Yahweh on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite. <sup>19</sup> David went up at the saying of Gad, which he spoke in Yahweh's name.

<sup>20</sup> Ornan turned back, and saw the angel; and his four sons who were with him hid themselves. Now Ornan was threshing wheat. <sup>21</sup> As David came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw David, and went out of the threshing floor, and bowed himself to David with his face to the ground.

<sup>22</sup> Then David said to Ornan, "Give me the place of this threshing floor, that I may build an altar to Yahweh on it. You shall sell it to me for the full price, that the plague may be stopped from afflicting the people."

<sup>23</sup> Ornan said to David, "Take it for yourself, and let my lord the king do that which is good in his eyes. Behold, I give the oxen for burnt offerings, and the threshing instruments for wood, and the wheat for the meal offering. I give it all."

<sup>24</sup> King David said to Ornan, "No; but I will most certainly buy it for the full price. For I will not take that which is yours for Yahweh, nor offer a burnt offering that costs me nothing."

<sup>25</sup> So David gave to Ornan six hundred shekels<sup>m</sup> of gold by weight for the place. <sup>26</sup> David built an altar to Yahweh there, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings, and called on Yahweh; and he answered him from the sky by fire on the altar of burnt offering.

<sup>27</sup> Then Yahweh commanded the angel, and he put his sword back into its sheath. <sup>28</sup> At that time, when David saw that Yahweh had answered him in the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite, then he sacrificed there.

<sup>29</sup> For Yahweh's tabernacle, which Moses made in the wilderness, and the altar of burnt offering, were at that time in the high place at Gibeon. <sup>30</sup> But David couldn't go before it to inquire of God; for he was afraid because of the sword of Yahweh's angel.

22

<sup>1</sup> Then David said, "This is the house of Yahweh God, and this is the altar of burnt offering for Israel." <sup>2</sup> David gave orders to gather together the foreigners who were in the land of Israel; and he set masons to cut dressed stones to build God's house. <sup>3</sup>

David prepared iron in abundance for the nails for the doors of the gates, and for the couplings; and brass in abundance without weight; <sup>4</sup> and cedar trees without number, for the Sidonians and the people of Tyre brought cedar trees in abundance to David.

<sup>5</sup> David said, "Solomon my son is young and tender, and the house that is to be built for Yahweh must be exceedingly magnificent, of fame and of glory throughout all countries. I will therefore make preparation for it." So David prepared abundantly before his death. <sup>6</sup>

Then he called for Solomon his son, and commanded him to build a house for Yahweh, the God of Israel. <sup>7</sup> David said to Solomon his son, "As for me, it was in my heart to build a house to the name of Yahweh my God. <sup>8</sup> But Yahweh's word came to me, saying, 'You have shed blood abundantly, and have made great wars. You shall not build a house to my name, because you have shed much blood on the earth in my sight. <sup>9</sup> Behold, a son shall be born to you, who shall be a man of peace. I will give him rest from all his enemies all around; for his name shall be Solomon, and I will give peace and quietness to Israel in his days. <sup>10</sup> He shall build a house for my name; and he will be my son, and I will be his father; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel for ever.’ <sup>11</sup> Now, my son, may Yahweh be with you and prosper you, and build the house of Yahweh your God, as he has spoken concerning you. <sup>12</sup> May Yahweh give you discretion and understanding, and put you in charge of Israel; that so you may keep the law of Yahweh your God. <sup>13</sup> Then you will prosper, if you observe to do the statutes and the ordinances which Yahweh gave Moses concerning Israel. Be strong and courageous. Don’t be afraid, and don’t be dismayed. <sup>14</sup> Now, behold, in my affliction I have prepared for Yahweh’s house one hundred thousand talents<sup>n</sup> of gold, one million talents<sup>o</sup> of silver, and brass and iron without weight; for it is in abundance. I have also prepared timber and stone; and you may add to them. <sup>15</sup> There are also workmen with you in abundance, cutters and workers of stone and timber, and all kinds of men who are skillful in every kind of work; <sup>16</sup> of the gold, the silver, the brass, and the iron, there is no number. Arise and be doing, and may Yahweh be with you.”

<sup>17</sup> David also commanded all the princes of Israel to help Solomon his son, saying, <sup>18</sup> “Isn’t Yahweh your God with you? Hasn’t he given you rest on every side? For he has delivered the inhabitants of the land into my hand; and the land is subdued before Yahweh, and before his people. <sup>19</sup> Now set your heart and your soul to follow Yahweh your God. Arise therefore, and build the sanctuary of Yahweh God, to bring the ark of Yahweh’s covenant and the holy vessels of God into the house that is to be built for Yahweh’s name.”

23

<sup>n</sup> A talent is about 30 kilograms or 66 pounds or 965 Troy ounces, so 100,000 talents is about 3 metric tons <sup>o</sup> about 30,000 metric tons

<sup>12</sup> The sons of Kohath: Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel, four. <sup>13</sup> The sons of Amram: Aaron and Moses; and Aaron was separated, that he should sanctify the most holy things, he and his sons, forever, to burn incense before Yahweh, to minister to him, and to bless in his name, forever. <sup>14</sup> But as for Moses the man of God, his sons were named among the tribe of Levi. <sup>15</sup> The sons of Moses: Gershom and Eliezer. <sup>16</sup> The sons of Gershom: Shebuel the chief. <sup>17</sup> The sons of Eliezer were: Rehabiah the chief; and Eliezer had no other sons; but the sons of Rehabiah were very many. <sup>18</sup> The sons of Izhar: Shelomith the chief. <sup>19</sup> The sons of Hebron: Jeriah the chief, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth. <sup>20</sup> The sons of Uzziel: Micah the chief, and Isshiah the second. <sup>21</sup> The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. The sons of Mahli: Eleazar and Kish. <sup>22</sup> Eleazar died, and had no sons, but daughters only: and their brothers the sons of Kish took them as wives. <sup>23</sup> The sons of Mushi: Mahli, Eder, and Jeremoth, three.

<sup>24</sup> These were the sons of Levi after their fathers' houses, even the heads of the fathers' houses of those who were counted individually, in the number of names by their polls, who did the work for the service of Yahweh's house, from twenty years old and upward. <sup>25</sup> For David said, "Yahweh, the God of Israel, has given rest to his people; and he dwells in Jerusalem forever. <sup>26</sup> Also the Levites will no longer need to carry the tabernacle and all its vessels for its service." <sup>27</sup> For by the last words of David the sons of Levi were numbered, from twenty years old and upward. <sup>28</sup> For their office was to wait on the sons of Aaron for the service of Yahweh's house, in the courts, and in the rooms, and in the purifying of all holy things, even the work of the service of God's house; <sup>29</sup> for the show bread also, and for the fine flour for a meal offering, whether of unleavened wafers, or of that which is baked in the pan, or of that which is soaked, and for all measurements of quantity and size; <sup>30</sup> and to stand every morning to thank and praise Yahweh, and likewise in the evening; <sup>31</sup> and to offer all burnt offerings to Yahweh, on the Sabbaths, on the new moons, and on the set feasts, in number according to the ordinance concerning them, continually before Yahweh; <sup>32</sup> and that they should keep the duty of the Tent of Meeting, the duty of the holy place, and the duty of the sons of Aaron their brothers, for the service of Yahweh's house.

sons of Ithamar. <sup>6</sup> Shemaiah the son of Nethanel the scribe, who was of the Levites, wrote them in the presence of the king, the princes, Zadok the priest, Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, and the heads of the fathers' households of the priests and of the Levites; one fathers' house being taken for Eleazar, and one taken for Ithamar. <sup>7</sup> Now the first lot came out to Jehoiarib, the second to Jedaiah, <sup>8</sup> the third to Harim, the fourth to Seorim, <sup>9</sup> the fifth to Malchijah, the sixth to Mijamin, <sup>10</sup> the seventh to Hakkoz, the eighth to Abijah, <sup>11</sup> the ninth to Jeshua, the tenth to Shecaniah, <sup>12</sup> the eleventh to Eliashib, the twelfth to Jakim, <sup>13</sup> the thirteenth to Huppah, the fourteenth to Jeshebeab, <sup>14</sup> the fifteenth to Bilgah, the sixteenth to Immer, <sup>15</sup> the seventeenth to Hezir, the eighteenth to Happizez, <sup>16</sup> the nineteenth to Pethahiah, the twentieth to Jehezkel, <sup>17</sup> the twenty-first to Jachin, the twenty-second to Gamul, <sup>18</sup> the twenty-third to Delaiah, and the twenty-fourth to Maaziah. <sup>19</sup> This was their ordering in their service, to come into Yahweh's house according to the ordinance given to them by Aaron their father, as Yahweh, the God of Israel, had commanded him.

25

<sup>1</sup> Moreover, David and the captains of the army set apart for the service certain of the sons of Asaph, and of Heman, and of Jeduthun, who were to prophesy with harps, with stringed instruments, and with cymbals. The number of those who did the work according to their service was: <sup>2</sup> of the sons of Asaph: Zaccur, Joseph, Nethaniah, and Asharelah. The sons of Asaph were under the hand of Asaph, who prophesied at the order of the king. <sup>3</sup> Of Jeduthun; the sons of Jeduthun: Gedaliah, Zeri, Jeshaiiah, Shimei, Hashabiah, and Mattithiah, six, under the hands of their father Jeduthun, who prophesied in giving thanks and praising Yahweh with the harp. <sup>4</sup> Of Heman; the sons of Heman: Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shebuel, Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, Romamti-Ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, and Mahazioth. <sup>5</sup> All these were the sons of Heman the king's seer in the words of God, to lift up the horn. God gave to Heman fourteen sons and three daughters.<sup>6</sup> All these were under the hands of their father for song in Yahweh's house, with cymbals, stringed instruments, and harps, for the service of God's house; Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman being under the order of the king.<sup>7</sup> The number of them, with their brothers who were instructed in singing to Yahweh, even all who were skillful, was two hundred eighty-eight.<sup>8</sup> They cast lots for their offices, all alike, the small as well as the great, the teacher as well as the student.

<sup>1</sup> For the divisions of the doorkeepers: of the Korahites, Meshelemiah the son of Kore, of the sons of Asaph. <sup>2</sup> Meshelemiah had sons: Zechariah the firstborn, Jediel the second, Zebadiah the third, Jathniel the fourth, <sup>3</sup> Elam the fifth, Jehohanan the sixth, and Eliehoenai the seventh. <sup>4</sup> Obed-Edom had sons: Shemaiah the firstborn, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, Sacar the fourth, Nethanel the fifth, <sup>5</sup> Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, and Peullethai the eighth; for God blessed him. <sup>6</sup> Sons were also born to Shemaiah his son, who ruled over the house of their father; for they were mighty men of valor. <sup>7</sup> The sons of Shemaiah: Othni, Rephael, Obed, and Elzabad, whose brothers were valiant men, Elihu, and Semachiah. <sup>8</sup> All these were of the sons of Obed-Edom: they and their sons and their brothers, able men in strength for the service; sixty-two of Obed-Edom. <sup>9</sup> Meshelemiah had sons and brothers, valiant men, eighteen. <sup>10</sup> Also Hosah, of the children of Merari, had sons: Shimri the chief, (for though he was not the firstborn, yet his father made him chief), <sup>11</sup> Hilkiyah

the second, Tebaliah the third, and Zechariah the fourth: all the sons and brothers of Hosah were thirteen. <sup>12</sup> Of these were the divisions of the doorkeepers, even of the chief men, having offices like their brothers, to minister in Yahweh's house. <sup>13</sup> They cast lots, the small as well as the great, according to their fathers' houses, for every gate. <sup>14</sup> The lot eastward fell to Shelemiah. Then for Zechariah his son, a wise counselor, they cast lots; and his lot came out northward. <sup>15</sup> To Obed-Edom southward; and to his sons the storehouse. <sup>16</sup> To Shuppim and Hosah westward, by the gate of Shallecheth, at the causeway that goes up, watchman opposite watchman. <sup>17</sup> Eastward were six Levites, northward four a day, southward four a day, and for the storehouse two and two. <sup>18</sup> For Parbar westward, four at the causeway, and two at Parbar. <sup>19</sup> These were the divisions of the doorkeepers; of the sons of the Korahites, and of the sons of Merari.

<sup>20</sup> Of the Levites, Ahijah was over the treasures of God's house and over the treasures of the dedicated things. <sup>21</sup> The sons of Ladan, the sons of the Gershonites belonging to Ladan, the heads of the fathers' households belonging to Ladan the Gershonite: Jehieli. <sup>22</sup> The sons of Jehieli: Zetham, and Joel his brother, over the treasures of Yahweh's house. <sup>23</sup> Of the Amramites, of the Izharites, of the Hebronites, of the Uzzielites: <sup>24</sup> and Shebuel the son of Gershom, the son of Moses, was ruler over the treasures. <sup>25</sup> His brothers: of Eliezer, Rehabiah his son, and Jeshaiiah his son, and Joram his son, and Zichri his son, and Shelomoth his son. <sup>26</sup> This Shelomoth and his brothers were over all the treasures of the dedicated things, which David the king, and the heads of the fathers' households, the captains over thousands and hundreds, and the captains of the army, had dedicated. <sup>27</sup> They dedicated some of the plunder won in battles to repair Yahweh's house. <sup>28</sup> All that Samuel the seer, and Saul the son of Kish, and Abner the son of Ner, and Joab the son of Zeruah, had dedicated, whoever had dedicated anything, it was under the hand of Shelomoth, and of his brothers. <sup>29</sup> Of the Izharites, Chenaniah and his sons were for the outward business over Israel, for officers and judges. <sup>30</sup> Of the Hebronites, Hashabiah and his brothers, men of valor, one thousand seven hundred, had the oversight of Israel beyond the Jordan westward, for all the business of Yahweh, and for the service of the king. <sup>31</sup> Of the Hebronites was Jerijah the chief, even of the Hebronites, according to their generations by fathers' households. They were sought for in the fortieth year of the reign of David, and mighty men of valor were found among them at Jazer of Gilead. <sup>32</sup> His brothers, men of valor, were two thousand seven hundred, heads of fathers' households, whom king David made overseers over the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of the Manassites, for every matter pertaining to God, and for the affairs of the king.

27

<sup>1</sup> Now the children of Israel after their number, the heads of fathers' households and the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and their officers who served the king, in any matter of the divisions which came in and went out month by month throughout all the months of the year—of every division were twenty-four thousand.<sup>2</sup> Over the first division for the first month was Jashobeam the son of Zabdiel: and in his division were twenty-four thousand.<sup>3</sup> He was of the children of Perez, the chief of all the captains of the army for the first month.<sup>4</sup> Over the division of the second month was Dodai the Ahohite, and his division; and Mikloth the ruler: and in his division were twenty-four thousand.<sup>5</sup> The third captain of the army for the third month was Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada the priest, chief: and in his division were twenty-four thousand.<sup>6</sup> This is that Benaiah who was the mighty man of the thirty, and over the thirty: and of his division was Ammizabad his son.<sup>7</sup> The fourth captain for the fourth month was Asahel the brother of Joab, and Zebadiah his son after him: and in his division were twenty-four thousand.<sup>8</sup> The fifth captain for this fifth month was Shamhuth the Izrahite: and in his division were twenty-four thousand.<sup>9</sup> The sixth captain for the sixth month was Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite: and in his division were twenty-four thousand.<sup>10</sup> The seventh captain for the seventh month was Helez the Pelonite, of the children of Ephraim: and in his division were twenty-four thousand.<sup>11</sup> The eighth captain for the eighth month was Sibbecai the Hushathite, of the Zerahites: and in his division were twenty-four thousand.<sup>12</sup> The ninth captain for the ninth month was Abiezer the Anathothite, of the Benjamites: and in his division were twenty-four thousand.<sup>13</sup> The tenth captain for the tenth month was Maharai the Netophathite, of the Zerahites: and in his division were Twenty-four thousand.<sup>14</sup> The eleventh captain for the eleventh month was Benaiah the Pirathonite, of the children of Ephraim: and in his division were twenty-four thousand.<sup>15</sup> The twelfth captain for the twelfth month was Heldai the Netophathite, of Othniel: and in his division were twenty-four thousand.<sup>16</sup> Furthermore over the tribes of Israel: of the Reubenites was Eliezer the son of Zichri the ruler; of the Simeonites, Shephatiah the son of Maacah;<sup>17</sup> of Levi, Hashabiah the son of Kemuel; of Aaron, Zadok;<sup>18</sup> of Judah, Elihu, one of the brothers of David; of Issachar, Omri the son of Michael;<sup>19</sup> of Zebulun, Ishmaiah the son of Obadiah; of Naphtali, Jeremoth the son of Azriel;<sup>20</sup> of the children of Ephraim, Hoshea the son of Azariah; of the half-tribe of Manasseh, Joel the son of Pedaiah;<sup>21</sup> of the half-tribe of Manasseh in Gilead, Iddo the son of Zechariah; of Benjamin, Jaasiel the son of Abner;<sup>22</sup> of Dan, Azarel the son of Jeroham. These were the captains of the tribes of Israel.<sup>23</sup> But David didn't take the number of them from twenty years old and under, because Yahweh had said he would increase Israel like the stars of the sky.<sup>24</sup> Joab the son of Zeruiah began to take a census, but didn't finish; and wrath came on Israel for this. The number wasn't put into the account in the chronicles of king David.

<sup>25</sup> Over the king's treasures was Azmaveth the son of Adiel: and over the treasures in the fields, in the cities, and in the villages, and in the towers, was Jonathan the son of Uziah;<sup>26</sup> Over those who did the work of the field for tillage of the ground was Ezri the son of Chelub;<sup>27</sup> and over the vineyards was Shimei the Ramathite; and over the increase of the vineyards for the wine cellars was Zabdi the Shiphmite; <sup>28</sup> and over the olive trees and the sycamore trees that were in the lowland was Baal Hanan the Gederite; and over the cellars of oil was Joash; <sup>29</sup> and over the herds that fed in Sharon was Shitrai the Sharonite; and over the herds that were in the valleys was Shaphat the son of Adlai; <sup>30</sup> and over the camels was Obil the Ishmaelite; and over the donkeys was Jehdeiah the Meronothite; and over the flocks was Jaziz the Hagrite. <sup>31</sup> All these were the rulers of the property which was king David's.

<sup>32</sup> Also Jonathan, David's uncle, was a counselor, a man of understanding, and a scribe; and Jehiel the son of Hachmoni was with the king's sons. <sup>33</sup> Ahithophel was the king's counselor: and Hushai the Archite was the king's friend. <sup>34</sup> After Ahithophel was Jehoiada the son of Benaiah, and Abiathar. Joab was the captain of the king's army.

28

<sup>1</sup> David assembled all the princes of Israel, the princes of the tribes, the captains of the companies who served the king by division, the captains of thousands, the captains of hundreds, and the rulers over all the substance and possessions of the king and of his sons, with the officers and the mighty men, even all the mighty men of valor, to Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup> Then David the king stood up on his feet, and said, "Hear me, my brothers, and my people! As for me, it was in my heart to build a house of rest for the ark of Yahweh's covenant, and for the footstool of our God; and I had prepared for the building. <sup>3</sup> But God said to me, 'You shall not build a house for my name, because you are a man of war, and have shed blood.' <sup>4</sup> However Yahweh, the God of Israel, chose me out of all the house of my father to be king over Israel forever. For he has chosen Judah to be prince; and in the house of Judah, the house of my father; and among the sons of my father he took pleasure in me to make me king over all Israel. <sup>5</sup> Of all my sons (for Yahweh has given me many sons), he has chosen Solomon my son to sit on the throne of Yahweh's kingdom over Israel. <sup>6</sup> He said to me, 'Solomon, your son, shall build my house and my courts; for I have chosen him to be my son, and I will be his father. <sup>7</sup> I will establish his kingdom forever if he continues to do my commandments and my ordinances, as it is today.'

<sup>8</sup> Now therefore, in the sight of all Israel, Yahweh's assembly, and in the audience of our God, observe and seek out all the commandments of Yahweh your God; that you may possess this good land, and leave it for an inheritance to your children after you forever. <sup>9</sup> You, Solomon my son, know the God of your father, and serve him with a perfect heart and with a willing mind; for Yahweh searches all hearts, and understands all the imaginations of the thoughts. If you seek him, he will be found by you; but if you forsake him, he will cast you off forever. <sup>10</sup> Take heed now; for Yahweh has chosen you to build a house for the sanctuary. Be strong, and do it."

<sup>11</sup> Then David gave to Solomon his son the plans for the porch of the temple, for its houses, for its treasuries, for its upper rooms, for its inner rooms, for the place of the mercy seat; <sup>12</sup> and the plans of all that he had by the Spirit, for the courts of Yahweh's house, for all the surrounding rooms, for the treasuries of God's house, and for the treasuries of the dedicated things; <sup>13</sup> also for the divisions of the priests and the Levites, for all the work of the service of Yahweh's house, and for all the vessels of service in Yahweh's house; <sup>14</sup> of gold by weight for the gold, for all vessels of every kind of service; for all the vessels of silver by weight, for all vessels of every kind of service; <sup>15</sup> by weight also for the lamp stands of gold, and for its lamps, of gold, by weight for every lamp stand and for its lamps; and for the lamp stands of silver, by weight for every lamp stand and for its lamps, according to the use of every lamp stand; <sup>16</sup> and the gold by weight for the tables of show bread, for every table; and silver for the tables of silver; <sup>17</sup> and the forks, the basins, and the cups, of pure gold; and for the golden bowls by weight for every bowl; and for the silver bowls by weight for every bowl; <sup>18</sup> and for the altar of incense refined gold by weight; and gold for the plans for the chariot, and the cherubim that spread out and cover the ark of Yahweh's covenant. <sup>19</sup> "All this", said David, "I have been made to understand in writing from Yahweh's hand, even all the works of this pattern."

<sup>20</sup> David said to Solomon his son, "Be strong and courageous, and do it. Don't be afraid, nor be dismayed; for Yahweh God, even my God, is with you. He will not fail you, nor forsake you, until all the work for the service of Yahweh's house is finished.

<sup>21</sup> Behold, there are the divisions of the priests and the Levites, for all the service of God's house. Every willing man who has skill, for any kind of service, shall be with you in all kinds of work. Also the captains and all the people will be entirely at your command."

29

<sup>1</sup> David the king said to all the assembly, "Solomon my son, whom alone God has chosen, is yet young and tender, and the work is great; for the palace is not for man, but for Yahweh God. <sup>2</sup> Now I have prepared with all my might for the house of my God the gold for the things of gold, the silver for the things of silver, the brass for the things of brass, iron for the things of iron, and wood for the things of wood; also onyx stones, stones to be set, stones for inlaid work, of various colors, all kinds of precious stones, and marble stones in abundance. <sup>3</sup> In addition, because I have set my affection on the house of my God, since I have a treasure of my own of gold and silver, I give it to the house of my God, over and above all that I have prepared for the holy house, <sup>4</sup> even three thousand talents of gold,<sup>p</sup> of the gold of Ophir, and seven thousand talents<sup>q</sup> of refined silver, with which to overlay the walls of the houses; <sup>5</sup> of gold for the things of gold, and of silver for the things of silver, and for all kinds of work to be made by the hands of artisans. Who then offers willingly to consecrate himself today to Yahweh?"

<sup>6</sup> Then the princes of the fathers' households, and the princes of the tribes of Israel, and the captains of thousands and of hundreds, with the rulers over the king's work, offered willingly; <sup>7</sup> and they gave for the service of God's house of gold five thousand talents<sup>f</sup> and ten thousand darics,<sup>s</sup> of silver ten thousand talents, of brass eighteen thousand talents, and of iron one hundred thousand talents. <sup>8</sup> People with whom precious stones were found gave them to the treasure of Yahweh's house, under the hand of Jehiel the Gershonite. <sup>9</sup> Then the people rejoiced, because they offered willingly, because with a perfect heart they offered willingly to Yahweh; and David the king also rejoiced with great joy. <sup>10</sup> Therefore David blessed Yahweh before all the assembly; and David said, "You are blessed, Yahweh, the God of Israel our father, forever and ever. <sup>11</sup> Yours, Yahweh, is the greatness, the power, the glory, the victory, and the majesty! For all that is in the heavens and in the earth is yours. Yours is the kingdom, Yahweh, and you are exalted as head above all. <sup>12</sup> Both riches and honor come from you, and you rule over all! In your hand is power and might! It is in your hand to make great, and to give strength to all! <sup>13</sup> Now therefore, our God, we thank you, and praise your glorious name. <sup>14</sup> But who am I, and what is my people, that we should be able to offer so willingly as this? For all things come from you, and of your own have we given you. <sup>15</sup> For we are strangers before you, and foreigners, as all our fathers were. Our days on the earth are as a shadow, and there is no remaining. <sup>16</sup> Yahweh our God, all this store that we have prepared to build you a house for your holy name comes from your hand, and is all your own. <sup>17</sup> I know also, my God, that you try the heart, and have pleasure in uprightness. As for me, in the uprightness of my heart I have willingly offered all these things. Now have I seen with joy your people, who are present here, offer willingly to you. <sup>18</sup> Yahweh, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Israel, our fathers, keep this desire forever in the thoughts of the heart of your people, and prepare their heart for you; <sup>19</sup> and give to Solomon my son a perfect heart, to keep your commandments, your testimonies, and your statutes, and to do all these things, and to build the palace, for which I have made provision."

<sup>20</sup> Then David said to all the assembly, "Now bless Yahweh your God!"

All the assembly blessed Yahweh, the God of their fathers, and bowed down their heads and prostrated themselves before Yahweh and the king. <sup>21</sup> They sacrificed sacrifices to Yahweh, and offered burnt offerings to Yahweh, on the next day after that day, even one thousand bulls, one thousand rams, and one thousand lambs, with their drink offerings and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel, <sup>22</sup> and ate and drank before Yahweh on that day with great gladness. They made Solomon the son of David king the second time, and anointed him before Yahweh to be prince, and Zadok to be priest.

son of Jesse reigned over all Israel. <sup>27</sup> The time that he reigned over Israel was forty years; he reigned seven years in Hebron, and he reigned thirty-three years in Jerusalem. <sup>28</sup> He died at a good old age, full of days, riches, and honor; and Solomon his son reigned in his place. <sup>29</sup>

Now the acts of David the king, first and last, behold, they are written in the history of Samuel the seer, and in the history of Nathan the prophet, and in the history of Gad the seer, <sup>30</sup> with all his reign and his might, and the times that went over him, and over Israel, and over all the kingdoms of the countries.

<sup>1</sup> Solomon the son of David was firmly established in his kingdom, and Yahweh <sup>a</sup> his God<sup>b</sup> was with him, and made him exceedingly great. <sup>2</sup> Solomon spoke to all Israel, to the captains of thousands and of hundreds, to the judges, and to every prince in all Israel, the heads of the fathers' households. <sup>3</sup> So Solomon, and all the assembly with him, went to the high place that was at Gibeon; for God's Tent of Meeting was there, which Yahweh's servant Moses had made in the wilderness. <sup>4</sup> But David had brought God's ark up from Kiriath Jearim to the place that David had prepared for it; for he had pitched a tent for it at Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup> Moreover the bronze altar that Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made was there before Yahweh's tabernacle; and Solomon and the assembly were seeking counsel there. <sup>6</sup> Solomon went up there to the bronze altar before Yahweh, which was at the Tent of Meeting, and offered one thousand burnt offerings on it.

<sup>7</sup> That night, God appeared to Solomon and said to him, "Ask for what you want me to give you."

<sup>8</sup> Solomon said to God, "You have shown great loving kindness to David my father, and have made me king in his place. <sup>9</sup> Now, Yahweh God, let your promise to David my father be established; for you have made me king over a people like the dust of the earth in multitude. <sup>10</sup> Now give me wisdom and knowledge, that I may go out and come in before this people; for who can judge this great people of yours?"

<sup>11</sup> God said to Solomon, "Because this was in your heart, and you have not asked riches, wealth, honor, or the life of those who hate you, nor yet have you asked for long life; but have asked for wisdom and knowledge for yourself, that you may judge my people, over whom I have made you king, <sup>12</sup> therefore wisdom and knowledge is granted to you. I will give you riches, wealth, and honor, such as none of the kings have had who have been before you had, and none after you will have."

<sup>13</sup> So Solomon came from the high place that was at Gibeon, from before the Tent of Meeting, to Jerusalem; and he reigned over Israel. <sup>14</sup> Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen. He had one thousand four hundred chariots and twelve thousand horsemen that he placed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem. <sup>15</sup> The king made silver and gold to be as common as stones in Jerusalem, and he made cedars to be as common as the sycamore trees that are in the lowland. <sup>16</sup> The horses which Solomon had were brought out of Egypt and from Kue. The king's merchants purchased them from Kue. <sup>17</sup> They brought up and brought out of Egypt a chariot for six hundred pieces of silver, and a horse for one hundred fifty.<sup>c</sup> They also exported them to the Hittite kings and the Syrian<sup>d</sup> kings.

<sup>1</sup> Now Solomon decided to build a house for Yahweh's name, and a house for his kingdom. <sup>2</sup> Solomon counted out seventy thousand men to bear burdens, eighty thousand men who were stone cutters in the mountains, and three thousand six hundred to oversee them. <sup>3</sup> Solomon sent to Hiram the king of Tyre, saying, "As you dealt with David my father, and sent him cedars to build him a house in which to dwell, so deal with me. <sup>4</sup> Behold,<sup>e</sup> I am about to build a house for the name of Yahweh my God, to dedicate it to him, to burn before him incense of sweet spices, for the continual show bread, and for the burnt offerings morning and evening, on the Sabbaths, on the new moons, and on the set feasts of Yahweh our God. This is an ordinance forever to Israel.

<sup>5</sup> "The house which I am building will be great; for our God is greater than all gods. <sup>6</sup> But who is able to build him a house, since heaven and the heaven of heavens can't contain him? Who am I then, that I should build him a house, except just to burn incense before him?

<sup>7</sup> "Now therefore send me a man skillful to work in gold, in silver, in brass, in iron, and in purple, crimson, and blue, and who knows how to engrave engravings, to be with the skillful men who are with me in Judah and in Jerusalem, whom David my father provided.

<sup>8</sup> "Send me also cedar trees, cypress trees, and algum trees out of Lebanon; for I know that your servants know how to cut timber in Lebanon. Behold, my servants will be with your servants, <sup>9</sup> even to prepare me timber in abundance; for the house which I am about to build will be great and wonderful. <sup>10</sup> Behold, I will give to your servants, the cutters who cut timber, twenty thousand cors<sup>f</sup> of beaten wheat, twenty thousand baths<sup>g</sup> of barley, twenty thousand baths of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oil."

<sup>11</sup> Then Hiram the king of Tyre answered in writing, which he sent to Solomon, "Because Yahweh loves his people, he has made you king over them." <sup>12</sup> Hiram continued, "Blessed be Yahweh, the God of Israel, who made heaven and earth, who has given to David the king a wise son, endowed with discretion and understanding, who would build a house for Yahweh, and a house for his kingdom.

<sup>13</sup> Now I have sent a skillful man, endowed with understanding, of Hiram my father's, <sup>14</sup> the son of a woman of the daughters of Dan; and his father was a man of Tyre, skillful to work in gold, in silver, in brass, in iron, in stone, in timber, and in purple, in blue, in fine linen, and in crimson, also to engrave any kind of engraving and to devise any device; that there may be a place appointed to him with your skillful men, and with the skillful men of my lord David your father.

<sup>15</sup> "Now therefore the wheat the barley, the oil and the wine, which my lord has spoken of, let him send to his servants; <sup>16</sup> and we will cut wood out of Lebanon, as much as you need. We will bring it to you in floats by sea to Joppa; and you shall carry it up to Jerusalem.”<sup>17</sup> Solomon counted all the foreigners who were in the land of Israel, after the census with which David his father had counted them; and they found one hundred fifty-three thousand six hundred.<sup>18</sup> He set seventy thousand of them to bear burdens, eighty thousand who were stone cutters in the mountains, and three thousand six hundred overseers to assign the people their work.

<sup>1</sup> Then Solomon began to build Yahweh’s house at Jerusalem on Mount Moriah, where Yahweh appeared to David his father, which he prepared in the place that David had appointed, on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.<sup>2</sup> He began to build in the second day of the second month, in the fourth year of his reign.<sup>3</sup> Now these are the foundations which Solomon laid for the building of God’s house. The length by cubits<sup>h</sup> after the first measure was sixty cubits, and the width twenty cubits.<sup>4</sup> The porch that was in front, its length, according to the width of the house, was twenty cubits, and the height one hundred twenty; and he overlaid it within with pure gold.<sup>5</sup> He made the larger room with a ceiling of cypress wood, which he overlaid with fine gold, and ornamented it with palm trees and chains.<sup>6</sup> He decorated the house with precious stones for beauty. The gold was gold from Parvaim.<sup>7</sup> He also overlaid the house, the beams, the thresholds, its walls, and its doors with gold; and engraved cherubim on the walls.<sup>8</sup> He made the most holy place. Its length, according to the width of the house, was twenty cubits, and its width twenty cubits; and he overlaid it with fine gold, amounting to six hundred talents.<sup>i</sup><sup>9</sup> The weight of the nails was fifty shekels<sup>j</sup> of gold. He overlaid the upper rooms with gold.<sup>10</sup> In the most holy place he made two cherubim by carving; and they overlaid them with gold.<sup>11</sup> The wings of the cherubim were twenty cubits long: the wing of the one was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house; and the other wing was five cubits, reaching to the wing of the other cherub.<sup>12</sup> The wing of the other cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house; and the other wing was five cubits, joining to the wing of the other cherub.<sup>13</sup> The wings of these cherubim spread themselves out twenty cubits. They stood on their feet, and their faces were toward the house.<sup>14</sup> He made the veil of blue, purple, crimson, and fine linen, and ornamented it with cherubim.<sup>15</sup> Also he made before the house two pillars of thirty-five cubits height, and the capital that was on the top of each of them was five cubits.<sup>16</sup> He made chains in the inner sanctuary, and put them on the tops of the pillars; and he made one hundred pomegranates, and put them on the chains.<sup>17</sup> He set up the pillars before the temple, one on the right hand, and the other on the left; and called the name of that on the right hand Jachin, and the name of that on the left Boaz.

<sup>1</sup> Then he made an altar of brass, twenty cubits<sup>k</sup> long, twenty cubits wide, and ten cubits high. <sup>2</sup> Also he made the molten sea<sup>l</sup> of ten cubits from brim to brim. It was round, five cubits high, and thirty cubits in circumference. <sup>3</sup> Under it was the likeness of oxen, which encircled it, for ten cubits, encircling the sea. The oxen were in two rows, cast when it was cast. <sup>4</sup> It stood on twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east; and the sea was set on them above, and all their hindquarters were inward. <sup>5</sup> It was a handbreadth thick; and its brim was made like the brim of a cup, like the flower of a lily. It received and held three thousand baths.<sup>m</sup> <sup>6</sup> He also made ten basins, and put five on the right hand, and five on the left, to wash in them. The things that belonged to the burnt offering were washed in them; but the sea was for the priests to wash in. <sup>7</sup> He made the ten lamp stands of gold according to the ordinance concerning them; and he set them in the temple, five on the right hand, and five on the left. <sup>8</sup> He made also ten tables, and placed them in the temple, five on the right side, and five on the left. He made one hundred basins of gold. <sup>9</sup> Furthermore he made the court of the priests, the great court, and doors for the court, and overlaid their doors with brass. <sup>10</sup> He set the sea on the right side of the house eastward, toward the south.

work that he did for king Solomon in God's house: <sup>12</sup> the two pillars, the bowls, the two capitals which were on the top of the pillars, the two networks to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the pillars, <sup>13</sup> and the four hundred pomegranates for the two networks; two rows of pomegranates for each network, to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the pillars. <sup>14</sup> He also made the bases, and he made the basins on the bases; <sup>15</sup> one sea, and the twelve oxen under it. <sup>16</sup> Hiram his father also made the pots, the shovels, the forks, and all its vessels for king Solomon for Yahweh's house of bright brass. <sup>17</sup> The king cast them in the plain of the Jordan, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zeredah. <sup>18</sup> Thus Solomon made all these vessels in great abundance; for the weight of the brass could not be determined. <sup>19</sup> Solomon made all the vessels that were in God's house, the golden altar also, and the tables with the show bread on them; <sup>20</sup> and the lamp stands with their lamps, to burn according to the ordinance before the inner sanctuary, of pure gold; <sup>21</sup> and the flowers, the lamps, and the tongs of gold that was perfect gold; <sup>22</sup> and the snuffers, the basins, the spoons, and the fire pans of pure gold. As for the entry of the house, its inner doors for the most holy place and the doors of the main hall of the temple were of gold.

5

<sup>1</sup> Thus all the work that Solomon did for Yahweh's house was finished. Solomon brought in the things that David his father had dedicated, even the silver, the gold, and all the vessels, and put them in the treasuries of God's house. <sup>2</sup> Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the princes of the fathers' households of the children of Israel, to Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of Yahweh's covenant out of David's city, which is Zion. <sup>3</sup> So all the men of Israel assembled themselves to the king at the feast, which was in the seventh month. <sup>4</sup> All the elders of Israel came. The Levites took up the ark; <sup>5</sup> and they brought up the ark, the Tent of Meeting, and all the holy vessels that were in the Tent; these the priests the Levites brought up. <sup>6</sup> King Solomon and all the congregation of Israel, who were assembled to him, were before the ark, sacrificing sheep and cattle that could not be counted or numbered for multitude. <sup>7</sup> The priests brought in the ark of Yahweh's covenant to its place, into the inner sanctuary of the house, to the most holy place, even under the wings of the cherubim. <sup>8</sup> For the cherubim spread out their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubim covered the ark and its poles above. <sup>9</sup> The poles were so long that the ends of the poles were seen from the ark in front of the inner sanctuary; but they were not seen outside; and it is there to this day. <sup>10</sup> There was nothing in the ark except the two tables which Moses put at Horeb, when Yahweh made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of Egypt. <sup>11</sup> When the priests had come out of the holy place, (for all the priests who were present had sanctified themselves, and didn't keep their divisions; <sup>12</sup> also the Levites who were the singers, all of them, even Asaph, Heman, Jeduthun, and their sons and their brothers, arrayed in fine linen, with cymbals and stringed instruments and harps, stood at the east end of the altar, and with them one hundred twenty priests sounding with trumpets) <sup>13</sup> when the trumpeters and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking Yahweh; and when they lifted up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals and instruments of music, and praised Yahweh, saying,

"For he is good;
for his loving kindness endures
forever!"

then the house was filled with a cloud, even Yahweh's house, <sup>14</sup> so that the priests could not stand to minister by reason of the cloud; for Yahweh's glory filled God's house.

6

<sup>1</sup> Then Solomon said, "Yahweh has said that he would dwell in the thick darkness. <sup>2</sup> But I have built you a house and home, a place for you to dwell in forever."

<sup>3</sup> The king turned his face, and blessed all the assembly of Israel: and all the assembly of Israel stood. <sup>4</sup> He said, "Blessed be Yahweh, the God of Israel, who spoke with his mouth to David my father, and has with his hands fulfilled it, saying, <sup>5</sup> 'Since the day that I brought my people out of the land of Egypt, I chose no city out of all the tribes of Israel to build a house in, that my name might be there and I chose no man to be prince over my people Israel; <sup>6</sup> but now I have chosen Jerusalem, that my name might be there; and I have chosen David to be over my people Israel.' <sup>7</sup> Now it was in the heart of David my father to build a house for the name of Yahweh, the God of Israel. <sup>8</sup> But Yahweh said to David my father, ‘Whereas it was in your heart to build a house for my name, you did well that it was in your heart; <sup>9</sup> nevertheless you shall not build the house; but your son who will come out of your body, he shall build the house for my name.’

<sup>10</sup> “Yahweh has performed his word that he spoke; for I have risen up in the place of David my father, and sit on the throne of Israel, as Yahweh promised, and have built the house for the name of Yahweh, the God of Israel. <sup>11</sup> There I have set the ark, in which is Yahweh’s covenant, which he made with the children of Israel.”

<sup>12</sup> He stood before Yahweh’s altar in the presence of all the assembly of Israel, and spread out his hands <sup>13</sup> (for Solomon had made a bronze scaffold, five cubits<sup>n</sup> long, and five cubits wide, and three cubits high, and had set it in the middle of the court; and he stood on it, and knelt down on his knees before all the assembly of Israel, and spread out his hands toward heaven) <sup>14</sup> and he said, “Yahweh, the God of Israel, there is no God like you in heaven or on earth; you who keep covenant and loving kindness with your servants who walk before you with all their heart; <sup>15</sup> who have kept with your servant David my father that which you promised him. Yes, you spoke with your mouth, and have fulfilled it with your hand, as it is today.

<sup>16</sup> “Now therefore, Yahweh, the God of Israel, keep with your servant David my father that which you have promised him, saying, ‘There shall not fail you a man in my sight to sit on the throne of Israel, if only your children take heed to their way, to walk in my law as you have walked before me.’ <sup>17</sup> Now therefore, Yahweh, the God of Israel, let your word be verified, which you spoke to your servant David.

<sup>18</sup> “But will God indeed dwell with men on the earth? Behold, heaven and the heaven of heavens can’t contain you; how much less this house which I have built! <sup>19</sup> Yet have respect for the prayer of your servant, and to his supplication, Yahweh my God, to listen to the cry and to the prayer which your servant prays before you; <sup>20</sup> that your eyes may be open toward this house day and night, even toward the place where you have said that you would put your name; to listen to the prayer which your servant will pray toward this place. <sup>21</sup> Listen to the petitions of your servant, and of your people Israel, when they pray toward this place. Yes, hear from your dwelling place, even from heaven; and when you hear, forgive.

<sup>22</sup> “If a man sins against his neighbor, and an oath is laid on him to cause him to swear, and he comes and swears before your altar in this house; <sup>23</sup> then hear from heaven, act, and judge your servants, bringing retribution to the wicked, to bring his way on his own head; and justifying the righteous, to give him according to his righteousness.

<sup>24</sup> “If your people Israel are struck down before the enemy because they have sinned against you, and they turn again and confess your name, and pray and make supplication before you in this house; <sup>25</sup> then hear from heaven, and forgive the sin of your people Israel, and bring them again to the land which you gave to them and to their fathers.

<sup>26</sup> “When the sky is shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against you; if they pray toward this place, and confess your name, and turn from their sin, when you afflict them; <sup>27</sup> then hear in heaven, and forgive the sin of your servants of your people Israel, when you teach them the good way in which they should walk; and send rain on your land, which you have given to your people for an inheritance.

<sup>28</sup> “If there is famine in the land, if there is pestilence, if there is blight or mildew, locust or caterpillar; if their enemies besiege them in the land of their cities; whatever plague or whatever sickness there is; <sup>29</sup> whatever prayer and supplication is made by any man, or by all your people Israel, who will each know his own plague and his own sorrow, and shall spread out his hands toward this house; <sup>30</sup> then hear from heaven your dwelling place and forgive, and render to every man according to all his ways, whose heart you know (for you, even you only, know the hearts of the children of men) <sup>31</sup> that they may fear you, to walk in your ways, so long as they live in the land which you gave to our fathers.

<sup>32</sup> “Moreover concerning the foreigner, who is not of your people Israel, when he comes from a far country for your great name’s sake, and your mighty hand, and your outstretched arm; when they come and pray toward this house; <sup>33</sup> then hear from heaven, even from your dwelling place, and do according to all that the foreigner calls to you for; that all the peoples of the earth may know your name and fear you, as do your people Israel, and that they may know that this house which I have built is called by your name.

<sup>34</sup> “If your people go out to battle against their enemies, by whatever way you send them, and they pray to you toward this city which you have chosen, and the house which I have built for your name; <sup>35</sup> then hear from heaven their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause.

<sup>36</sup> “If they sin against you (for there is no man who doesn’t sin), and you are angry with them, and deliver them to the enemy, so that they carry them away captive to a land far off or near; <sup>37</sup> yet if they come to their senses in the land where they are carried captive, and turn again, and make supplication to you in the land of their captivity, saying, ‘We have sinned, we have done perversely, and have dealt wickedly;’ <sup>38</sup> if they return to you with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their captivity, where they have carried them captive, and pray toward their land, which you gave to their fathers, and the city which you have chosen, and toward the house which I have built for your name; <sup>39</sup> then hear from heaven, even from your dwelling place, their prayer and their petitions, and maintain their cause, and forgive your people who have sinned against you.

<sup>40</sup> “Now, my God, let, I beg you, your eyes be open, and let your ears be attentive, to the prayer that is made in this place.

<sup>41</sup> “Now therefore arise, Yahweh God, into your resting place, you, and the ark of your strength. Let your priests, Yahweh God, be clothed with salvation, and let your saints rejoice in goodness.

<sup>42</sup> “Yahweh God, don’t turn away the face of your anointed. Remember your loving kindnesses to David your servant.”

7

<sup>1</sup> Now when Solomon had finished praying, fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and Yahweh’s glory filled the house. <sup>2</sup> The priests could not enter into Yahweh’s house, because Yahweh’s glory filled Yahweh’s house. <sup>3</sup> All the children of Israel looked on, when the fire came down, and Yahweh’s glory was on the house. They bowed themselves with their faces to the ground on the pavement, worshiped, and gave thanks to Yahweh, saying,

“For he is good;
for his loving kindness endures for ever.”

<sup>4</sup> Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before Yahweh. <sup>5</sup> King Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty-two thousand head of cattle and a hundred twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the people dedicated God’s house. <sup>6</sup> The priests stood, according to their positions; the Levites also with instruments of music of Yahweh, which David the king had made to give thanks to Yahweh, when David praised by their ministry, saying “For his loving kindness endures for ever.” The priests sounded trumpets before them; and all Israel stood.

<sup>7</sup> Moreover Solomon made the middle of the court that was before Yahweh’s house holy; for there he offered the burnt offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings, because the bronze altar which Solomon had made was not able to receive the burnt offering, the meal offering, and the fat. <sup>8</sup> So

Solomon held the feast at that time for seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great assembly, from the entrance of Hamath to the brook of Egypt.

<sup>9</sup> On the eighth day, they held a solemn assembly; for they kept the dedication of the altar seven days, and the feast seven days. <sup>10</sup> On the twenty-third day of the seventh month, he sent the people away to their tents, joyful and glad of heart for the goodness that Yahweh had shown to David, and to Solomon, and to Israel his people. <sup>11</sup> Thus Solomon finished Yahweh’s house and the king’s house; and he successfully completed all that came into Solomon’s heart to make in Yahweh’s house and in his own house.

<sup>12</sup> Yahweh appeared to Solomon by night, and said to him, “I have heard your prayer, and have chosen this place for myself for a house of sacrifice.

<sup>13</sup> “If I shut up the sky so that there is no rain, or if I command the locust to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among my people; <sup>14</sup> if my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves, pray, seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then I will hear from heaven, will forgive their sin, and will heal their land. <sup>15</sup> Now my eyes will be open my ears attentive to prayer that is made in this place. <sup>16</sup> For now have I chosen and made this house holy, that my name may be there forever; and my eyes and my heart will be there perpetually.

<sup>17</sup> “As for you, if you will walk before me as David your father walked, and do according to all that I have commanded you, and will keep my statutes and my ordinances; <sup>18</sup> then I will establish the throne of your kingdom, according as I covenanted with David your father, saying, 'There shall not fail you a man to be ruler in Israel.' <sup>19</sup> But if you turn away, and forsake my statutes and my commandments which I have set before you, and shall go and serve other gods, and worship them; <sup>20</sup> then I will pluck them up by the roots out of my land which I have given them; and this house, which I have made holy for my name, I will cast out of my sight, and I will make it a proverb and a byword among all peoples. <sup>21</sup> This house, which is so high, everyone who passes by it shall be astonished, and shall say, 'Why has Yahweh done this to this land and to this house?' <sup>22</sup> They shall answer, 'Because they abandoned Yahweh, the God of their fathers, who brought them out of the land of Egypt, and took other gods, worshiped them, and served them. Therefore he has brought all this evil on them.'"

the people who were left of the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, who were not of Israel; <sup>8</sup> of their children who were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel didn't consume, of them Solomon conscripted forced labor to this day. <sup>9</sup> But of the children of Israel, Solomon made no servants for his work; but they were men of war, and chief of his captains, and rulers of his chariots and of his horsemen. <sup>10</sup> These were the chief officers of king Solomon, even two-hundred fifty, who ruled over the people.

<sup>11</sup> Solomon brought up Pharaoh's daughter out of David's city to the house that he had built for her; for he said, "My wife shall not dwell in the house of David king of Israel, because the places where Yahweh's ark has come are holy."

<sup>12</sup> Then Solomon offered burnt offerings to Yahweh on Yahweh's altar, which he had built before the porch, <sup>13</sup> even as the duty of every day required, offering according to the commandment of Moses, on the Sabbaths, on the new moons, and on the set feasts, three times per year, during the feast of unleavened bread, during the feast of weeks, and during the feast of tents.<sup>o</sup> <sup>14</sup> He appointed, according to the ordinance of David his father, the divisions of the priests to their service, and the Levites to their offices, to praise and to minister before the priests, as the duty of every day required; the doorkeepers also by their divisions at every gate, for David the man of God had so commanded. <sup>15</sup> They didn't depart from the commandment of the king to the priests and Levites concerning any matter, or concerning the treasures. <sup>16</sup>

Now all the work of Solomon was prepared from the day of the foundation of Yahweh's house until it was finished. So Yahweh's house was completed.

<sup>17</sup> Then Solomon went to Ezion Geber and to Eloth, on the seashore in the land of Edom. <sup>18</sup> Hiram sent him ships and servants who had knowledge of the sea by the hands of his servants; and they came with the servants of Solomon to Ophir, and brought from there four hundred fifty talents<sup>p</sup> of gold, and brought them to king Solomon.

9

<sup>1</sup> When the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, she came to test Solomon with hard questions at Jerusalem, with a very great caravan, including camels that bore spices, gold in abundance, and precious stones. When she had come to Solomon, she talked with him about all that was in her heart. <sup>2</sup> Solomon answered all her questions. There wasn't anything hidden from Solomon which he didn't tell her. <sup>3</sup> When the queen of Sheba had seen the wisdom of Solomon, the house that he had built, <sup>4</sup> the food of his table, the seating of his servants, the attendance of his ministers, their clothing, his cup bearers also, their clothing, and his ascent by which he went up to Yahweh's house; there was no more spirit in her.<sup>q</sup>

<sup>5</sup> She said to the king, "It was a true report that I heard in my own land of your acts and of your wisdom. <sup>6</sup> However I didn't believe their words until I came, and my eyes had seen it; and behold, the half of the greatness of your wisdom was not told me. You exceed the fame that I heard! <sup>7</sup> Happy are your men, and happy are these your servants, who stand continually before you, and hear your wisdom. <sup>8</sup> Blessed be Yahweh your God, who delighted in you, to set you on his throne, to be king for Yahweh your God; because your God loved Israel, to establish them forever. Therefore made he you king over them, to do justice and righteousness."

<sup>9</sup> She gave the king one hundred and twenty talents<sup>r</sup> of gold, spices in great abundance, and precious stones. There was never before such spice as the queen of Sheba gave to king Solomon. <sup>10</sup> The servants of Hiram and the servants of Solomon, who brought gold from Ophir, also brought aljum trees<sup>s</sup> and precious stones. <sup>11</sup> The king used aljum tree wood to make terraces for Yahweh's house and for the king's house, and harps and stringed instruments for the singers. There were none like these seen before in the land of Judah. <sup>12</sup> King Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatever she asked, besides that which she had brought to the king. So she turned, and went to her own land, she and her servants. <sup>13</sup> Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred sixty-six talents<sup>t</sup> of gold, <sup>14</sup> besides that which the traders and merchants brought. All the kings of Arabia and the governors of the country brought gold and silver to Solomon. <sup>15</sup> King Solomon made two hundred bucklers of <sup>p</sup> A talent is about 30 kilograms or 66 pounds or 965 Troy ounces, so 450 talents is about 13.5 metric tons <sup>q</sup> or, she was breathless.

<sup>r</sup> A talent is about 30 kilograms or 66 pounds or 965 Troy ounces, so 120 talents is 3.6 metric tons <sup>s</sup> possibly Indian sandalwood, which has nice grain and a pleasant scent and is good for woodworking <sup>t</sup> A talent is about 30 kilograms or 66 pounds or 965 Troy ounces, so 666 talents is about 20 metric tons beaten gold. Six hundred shekels<sup>u</sup> of beaten gold went to one buckler. <sup>16</sup> He made three hundred shields of beaten gold. Three hundred shekels<sup>v</sup> of gold went to one shield. The king put them in the House of the Forest of Lebanon. <sup>17</sup> Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with pure gold. <sup>18</sup> There were six steps to the throne, with a footstool of gold, which were fastened to the throne, and armrests on either side by the place of the seat, and two lions standing beside the armrests. <sup>19</sup> Twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other on the six steps. There was nothing like it made in any other kingdom. <sup>20</sup> All king Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the House of the Forest of Lebanon were of pure gold. Silver was not considered valuable in the days of Solomon. <sup>21</sup> For the king had ships that went to Tarshish with Hiram's servants. Once every three years, the ships of Tarshish came bringing gold, silver, ivory, apes, and peacocks. <sup>22</sup> So king Solomon exceeded all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom. <sup>23</sup> All the kings of the earth sought the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart. <sup>24</sup> They each brought tribute, vessels of silver, vessels of gold, clothing, armor, spices, horses, and mules every year. <sup>25</sup> Solomon had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, that he stationed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem. <sup>26</sup> He ruled over all the kings from the River even to the land of the Philistines, and to the border of Egypt. <sup>27</sup> The king made silver as common in Jerusalem as stones, and he made cedars to be as abundant as the sycamore trees that are in the lowland. <sup>28</sup> They brought horses for Solomon out of Egypt and out of all lands.

<sup>29</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, first and last, aren't they written in the history of Nathan the prophet, and in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of Iddo the seer concerning Jeroboam the son of Nebat? <sup>30</sup> Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel forty years. <sup>31</sup> Solomon slept with his fathers, and he was buried in his father David's city: and Rehoboam his son reigned in his place.

10

<sup>1</sup> Rehoboam went to Shechem; for all Israel had come to Shechem to make him king. <sup>2</sup> When Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard of it, (for he was in Egypt, where he had fled from the presence of king Solomon), Jeroboam returned out of Egypt. <sup>3</sup> They sent and called him; and Jeroboam and all Israel came, and they spoke to Rehoboam, saying, <sup>4</sup> "Your father made our yoke grievous: now therefore make the grievous service of your father, and his heavy yoke which he put on us, lighter, and we will serve you."

<sup>5</sup> He said to them, "Come again to me after three days."

So the people departed. <sup>6</sup> King Rehoboam took counsel with the old men, who had stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, "What counsel do you give me about how to answer these people?"

<sup>u</sup> a shekel is about 10 grams or about 0.32 Troy ounces, so 600 shekels was about 6 kilograms or about 192 Troy ounces.

<sup>v</sup> a shekel is about 10 grams or about 0.32 Troy ounces, so 300 shekels was about 3 kilograms or about 96 Troy ounces.

<sup>7</sup> They spoke to him, saying, “If you are kind to these people, please them, and speak good words to them, then they will be your servants forever.”

<sup>8</sup> But he abandoned the counsel of the old men which they had given him, and took counsel with the young men who had grown up with him, who stood before him. <sup>9</sup> He said to them, “What counsel do you give, that we may give an answer to these people, who have spoken to me, saying, ‘Make the yoke that your father put on us lighter?’”

<sup>10</sup> The young men who had grown up with him spoke to him, saying, “Thus you shall tell the people who spoke to you, saying, ‘Your father made our yoke heavy, but make it lighter on us;’ thus you shall say to them, ‘My little finger is thicker than my father’s waist. <sup>11</sup> Now whereas my father burdened you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke. My father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.’”

<sup>12</sup> So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king asked, saying, “Come to me again the third day.” <sup>13</sup> The king answered them roughly; and king Rehoboam abandoned the counsel of the old men, <sup>14</sup> and spoke to them after the counsel of the young men, saying, “My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to it. My father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.”

<sup>15</sup> So the king didn’t listen to the people; for it was brought about by God, that Yahweh might establish his word, which he spoke by Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat. <sup>16</sup> When all Israel saw that the king didn’t listen to them, the people answered the king, saying, “What portion have we in David? We don’t have an inheritance in the son of Jesse! Every man to your tents, Israel! Now see to your own house, David.” So all Israel departed to their tents.

<sup>17</sup> But as for the children of Israel who lived in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them. <sup>18</sup> Then king Rehoboam sent Hadoram, who was over the men subject to forced labor; and the children of Israel stoned him to death with stones. King Rehoboam hurried to get himself up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem. <sup>19</sup> So Israel rebelled against David’s house to this day.

11

<sup>1</sup> When Rehoboam had come to Jerusalem, he assembled the house of Judah and Benjamin, one hundred eighty thousand chosen men who were warriors, to fight against Israel, to bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam. <sup>2</sup> But Yahweh’s word came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying, <sup>3</sup> “Speak to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying, <sup>4</sup> ‘Yahweh says, “You shall not go up, nor fight against your brothers! Every man return to his house; for this thing is of me.”’” So they listened to Yahweh’s words, and returned from going against Jeroboam. <sup>5</sup> Rehoboam lived in Jerusalem, and built cities for defense in Judah. <sup>6</sup> He built Bethlehem, Etam, Tekoa, <sup>7</sup> Beth Zur, Soco, Adullam, <sup>8</sup> Gath, Mareshah, Ziph, <sup>9</sup> Adoraim, Lachish, Azekah, <sup>10</sup> Zorah, Aijalon, and Hebron, which are fortified cities in Judah and in Benjamin. <sup>11</sup> He fortified the strongholds, and put captains in them, and stores of food, oil and wine. <sup>12</sup> He put shields and spears in every city, and made them exceedingly strong. Judah and Benjamin belonged to him. <sup>13</sup> The priests and the Levites who were in all Israel stood with him out of all their territory. <sup>14</sup> For the Levites left their suburbs and their possession, and came to Judah and Jerusalem; for Jeroboam and his sons cast them off, that they should not execute the priest's office to Yahweh. <sup>15</sup> He himself appointed priests for the high places, for the male goats, and for the calves which he had made. <sup>16</sup> After them, out of all the tribes of Israel, those who set their hearts to seek Yahweh, the God of Israel, came to Jerusalem to sacrifice to Yahweh, the God of their fathers. <sup>17</sup> So they strengthened the kingdom of Judah, and made Rehoboam the son of Solomon strong for three years; for they walked three years in the way of David and Solomon. <sup>18</sup> Rehoboam took a wife for himself, Mahalath the daughter of Jerimoth the son of David and of Abihail the daughter of Eliab the son of Jesse. <sup>19</sup> She bore him sons: Jeush, Shemariah, and Zaham. <sup>20</sup> After her, he took Maacah the daughter of Absalom; and she bore him Abijah, Attai, Ziza, and Shelomith. <sup>21</sup> Rehoboam loved Maacah the daughter of Absalom above all his wives and his concubines; for he took eighteen wives and sixty concubines, and became the father of twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters. <sup>22</sup> Rehoboam appointed Abijah the son of Maacah to be chief, the prince among his brothers; for he intended to make him king. <sup>23</sup> He dealt wisely, and dispersed of all his sons throughout all the lands of Judah and Benjamin, to every fortified city. He gave them food in abundance and he sought many wives for them.

12

<sup>1</sup> When the kingdom of Rehoboam was established and he was strong, he abandoned Yahweh's law, and all Israel with him. <sup>2</sup> In the fifth year of king Rehoboam, Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, because they had trespassed against Yahweh, <sup>3</sup> with twelve hundred chariots, and sixty thousand horsemen. The people were without number who came with him out of Egypt: the Lubim, the Sukkiim, and the Ethiopians. <sup>4</sup> He took the fortified cities which belonged to Judah, and came to Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup> Now Shemaiah the prophet came to Rehoboam, and to the princes of Judah, who were gathered together to Jerusalem because of Shishak, and said to them, "Yahweh says, 'You have forsaken me, therefore have I also left you in the hand of Shishak.'"

<sup>6</sup> Then the princes of Israel and the king humbled themselves; and they said, "Yahweh is righteous."

<sup>7</sup> When Yahweh saw that they humbled themselves, Yahweh's word came to Shemaiah, saying, "They have humbled themselves. I will not destroy them; but I will grant them some deliverance, and my wrath won't be poured out on Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak. <sup>8</sup> Nevertheless they will be his servants, that they may know my service, and the service of the kingdoms of the countries."

<sup>9</sup> So Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem and took away the treasures of Yahweh's house and the treasures of the king's house. He took it all away. He also took away the shields of gold which Solomon had made. <sup>10</sup> King Rehoboam madeshields of brass in their place, and committed them to the hands of the captains of the guard, who kept the door of the king's house. <sup>11</sup> As often as the king entered into Yahweh's house, the guard came and bore them, then brought them back into the guard room. <sup>12</sup> When he humbled himself, Yahweh's wrath turned from him, so as not to destroy him altogether. Moreover, there were good things found in Judah. <sup>13</sup> So king Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem and reigned; for Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which Yahweh had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel to put his name there. His mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess. <sup>14</sup> He did that which was evil, because he didn't set his heart to seek Yahweh. <sup>15</sup> Now the acts of Rehoboam, first and last, aren't they written in the histories of Shemaiah the prophet and of Iddo the seer, in the genealogies? There were wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually. <sup>16</sup> Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried in David's city; and Abijah his son reigned in his place.

13

<sup>1</sup> In the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam, Abijah began to reign over Judah. <sup>2</sup> He reigned three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Micaiah the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah. There was war between Abijah and Jeroboam. <sup>3</sup> Abijah joined battle with an army of valiant men of war, even four hundred thousand chosen me;

and Jeroboam set the battle in array against him with eight hundred thousand chosen men, who were mighty men of valor. <sup>4</sup> Abijah stood up on Mount Zemaraim, which is in the hill country of Ephraim, and said, "Hear me, Jeroboam and all Israel: <sup>5</sup> Ought you not to know that Yahweh, the God of Israel, gave the kingdom over Israel to David forever, even to him and to his sons by a covenant of salt? <sup>6</sup> Yet Jeroboam the son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon the son of David, rose up, and rebelled against his lord. <sup>7</sup> Worthless men were gathered to him, base fellows who strengthened themselves against Rehoboam the son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was young and tender hearted, and could not withstand them.

<sup>8</sup> "Now you intend to withstand the kingdom of Yahweh in the hand of the sons of David. You are a great multitude, and the golden calves which Jeroboam made you for gods are with you. <sup>9</sup> Haven't you driven out the priests of Yahweh, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and made priests for yourselves according to the ways of the peoples of other lands? Whoever comes to consecrate himself with a young bull and seven rams may be a priest of those who are no gods.

<sup>10</sup> "But as for us, Yahweh is our God, and we have not forsaken him. We have priests serving Yahweh, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites in their work; <sup>11</sup> and they burn to Yahweh every morning and every evening burnt offerings and sweet incense. They also set the show bread in order on the pure table; and the lamp stand of gold with its lamps, to burn every evening; for we keep the instruction of Yahweh our God, but you have forsaken him. <sup>12</sup> Behold, God is with us at our head, and his priests with the trumpets of alarm to sound an alarm against you. Children of Israel, don't fight against Yahweh, the God of your fathers; for you will not prosper."

<sup>13</sup> But Jeroboam caused an ambush to come about behind them; so they were before Judah, and the ambush was behind them. <sup>14</sup> When Judah looked back, behold, the battle was before and behind them; and they cried to Yahweh, and the priests sounded with the trumpets. <sup>15</sup> Then the men of Judah gave a shout. As the men of Judah shouted, God struck Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah. <sup>16</sup> The children of Israel fled before Judah, and God delivered them into their hand. <sup>17</sup> Abijah and his people killed them with a great slaughter, so five hundred thousand chosen men of Israel fell down slain. <sup>18</sup> Thus the children of Israel were brought under at that time, and the children of Judah prevailed, because they relied on Yahweh, the God of their fathers. <sup>19</sup> Abijah pursued Jeroboam, and took cities from him, Bethel with its villages, Jeshanah with its villages, and Ephron with its villages.

<sup>20</sup> Jeroboam didn't recover strength again in the days of Abijah. Yahweh struck him, and he died. <sup>21</sup> But Abijah grew mighty, and took for himself fourteen wives, and became the father of twenty-two sons, and sixteen daughters. <sup>22</sup> The rest of the acts of Abijah, his ways, and his sayings are written in the commentary of the prophet Iddo.

his son reigned in his place. In his days, the land was quiet ten years. <sup>2</sup> Asa did that which was good and right in Yahweh his God's eyes; <sup>3</sup> for he took away the foreign altars and the high places, broke down the pillars, cut down the Asherah poles, <sup>4</sup> and commanded Judah to seek Yahweh, the God of their fathers, and to obey his law and command. <sup>5</sup> Also he took away out of all the cities of Judah the high places and the sun images; and the kingdom was quiet before him. <sup>6</sup> He built fortified cities in Judah; for the land was quiet, and he had no war in those years, because Yahweh had given him rest. <sup>7</sup> For he said to Judah, "Let us build these cities, and make walls around them, with towers, gates, and bars. The land is yet before us, because we have sought Yahweh our God. We have sought him, and he has given us rest on every side." So they built and prospered.

<sup>8</sup> Asa had an army of three hundred thousand out of Judah who bore bucklers and spears, and two hundred eighty thousand out of Benjamin who bore shields and drew bows. All these were mighty men of valor. <sup>9</sup> Zerah the Ethiopian came out against them with an army of a million troops and three hundred chariots, and he came to Mareshah. <sup>10</sup> Then Asa went out to meet him, and they set the battle in array in the valley of Zephathah at Mareshah. <sup>11</sup> Asa cried to Yahweh his God, and said, "Yahweh, there is no one besides you to help, between the mighty and him who has no strength. Help us, Yahweh our God; for we rely on you, and in your name are we come against this multitude. Yahweh, you are our God. Don't let man prevail against you."

<sup>12</sup> So Yahweh struck the Ethiopians before Asa and before Judah; and the Ethiopians fled. <sup>13</sup> Asa and the people who were with him pursued them to Gerar: and so many of the Ethiopians fell that they could not recover themselves; for they were destroyed before Yahweh and before his army; and they carried away very much booty. <sup>14</sup> They struck all the cities around Gerar; for the fear of Yahweh came on them, and they plundered all the cities; for there was much plunder in them. <sup>15</sup> They also struck the tents of livestock, and carried away sheep in abundance, and camels, and returned to Jerusalem.

15

<sup>1</sup> The Spirit of God came on Azariah the son of Oded: <sup>2</sup> and he went out to meet Asa, and said to him, "Hear me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin! Yahweh is with you, while you are with him; and if you seek him, he will be found by you; but if you forsake him, he will forsake you. <sup>3</sup> Now for a long time Israel was without the true God, without a teaching priest, and without law. <sup>4</sup> But when in their distress they turned to Yahweh, the God of Israel, and sought him, he was found by them. <sup>5</sup> In those times there was no peace to him who went out, nor to him who came in; but great troubles were on all the inhabitants of the lands. <sup>6</sup> They were broken in pieces, nation against nation, and city against city; for God troubled them with all adversity. <sup>7</sup> But you be strong, and don't let your hands be slack; for your work will be rewarded."

<sup>8</sup> When Asa heard these words, and the prophecy of Oded the prophet, he took courage, and put away the abominations out of all the land of Judah and Benjamin, and out of the cities which he had taken from the hill country of Ephraim; and he renewed Yahweh's altar that was before Yahweh's porch. <sup>9</sup> He gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and those who lived with them out of Ephraim, Manasseh, and Simeon; for they came to him out of Israel in abundance when they saw that Yahweh his God was with him. <sup>10</sup> So they gathered themselves together at Jerusalem in the third month, in the fifteenth year of Asa's reign. <sup>11</sup> They sacrificed to Yahweh in that day, of the plunder which they had brought, seven hundred head of cattle and seven thousand sheep. <sup>12</sup> They entered into the covenant to seek Yahweh, the God of their fathers, with all their heart and with all their soul; <sup>13</sup> and that whoever would not seek Yahweh, the God of Israel, should be put to death, whether small or great, whether man or woman. <sup>14</sup> They swore to Yahweh with a loud voice, with shouting, with trumpets, and with cornets. <sup>15</sup> All Judah rejoiced at the oath, for they had sworn with all their heart, and sought him with their whole desire; and he was found by them. Then Yahweh gave them rest all around. <sup>16</sup> Also Maacah, the mother of Asa the king, he removed from being queen, because she had made an abominable image for an Asherah; and Asa cut down her image, and made dust of it, and burned it at the brook Kidron. <sup>17</sup> But the high places were not taken away out of Israel; nevertheless the heart of Asa was perfect all his days. <sup>18</sup> He brought the things that his father had dedicated, and that he himself had dedicated, silver, gold, and vessels into God's house. <sup>19</sup> There was no more war to the thirty-fifth year of Asa's reign.

16

<sup>1</sup> In the thirty-sixth year of Asa's reign, Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah, and built Ramah, that he might not allow anyone to go out or come in to Asa king of Judah. <sup>2</sup> Then Asa brought out silver and gold out of the treasures of Yahweh's house and of the king's house, and sent to Ben Hadad king of Syria, who lived at Damascus, saying, <sup>3</sup> "Let there be a treaty between me and you, as there was between my father and your father. Behold, I have sent you silver and gold. Go, break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me."

<sup>4</sup> Ben Hadad listened to king Asa, and sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Israel; and they struck Ijon, Dan, Abel Maim, and all the storage cities of Naphtali. <sup>5</sup> When Baasha heard of it, he stopped building Ramah, and let his work cease. <sup>6</sup> Then Asa the king took all Judah, and they carried away the stones of Rama, and its timber, with which Baasha had built; and he built Geba and Mizpah with them.

<sup>7</sup> At that time Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah, and said to him, "Because you have relied on the king of Syria, and have not relied on Yahweh your God, therefore the army of the king of Syria has escaped out of your hand. <sup>8</sup> Weren't the Ethiopians and the Lubim a huge army, with chariots and horsemen exceeding many? Yet, because you relied on Yahweh, he delivered them into your hand. <sup>9</sup> For Yahweh's eyes run back and forth throughout the whole earth, to show himself strong in the behalf of them whose heart is perfect toward him. You have done foolishly in this; for from now on you will have wars."

<sup>10</sup> Then Asa was angry with the seer, and put him in the prison; for he was in a rage with him because of this thing. Asa oppressed some of the people at the same time. <sup>11</sup> Behold, the acts of Asa, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. <sup>12</sup> In the thirty-ninth year of his reign, Asa was diseased in his feet. His disease was exceedingly great: yet in his disease he didn't seek Yahweh, but just the physicians. <sup>13</sup> Asa slept with his fathers, and died in the forty-first year of his reign. <sup>14</sup> They buried him in his own tomb, which he had dug out for himself in David's city, and laid him in the bed which was filled with sweet odors and various kinds of spices prepared by the perfumers' art; and they made a very great fire for him.

17

<sup>1</sup> Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his place, and strengthened himself against Israel. <sup>2</sup> He placed forces in all the fortified cities of Judah, and set garrisons in the land of Judah, and in the cities of Ephraim, which Asa his father had taken. <sup>3</sup> Yahweh was with Jehoshaphat, because he walked in the first ways of his father David, and didn't seek the Baals, <sup>4</sup> but sought to the God of his father, and walked in his commandments, and not in the ways of Israel. <sup>5</sup> Therefore Yahweh established the kingdom in his hand. All Judah brought tribute to Jehoshaphat, and he had riches and honor in abundance. <sup>6</sup> His heart was lifted up in the ways of Yahweh.

Furthermore, he took away the high places and the Asherah poles out of Judah. <sup>7</sup> Also in the third year of his reign he sent his princes, even Ben Hail, Obadiah, Zechariah, Nethanel, and Micaiah, to teach in the cities of Judah; <sup>8</sup> and with them the Levites, even Shemaiah, Nethaniah, Zebadiah, Asahel, Shemiramoth, Jehonathan, Adonijah, Tobijah, and Tobadonijah, the Levites; and with them Elishama and Jehoram, the priests. <sup>9</sup> They taught in Judah, having the book of Yahweh's law with them. They went about throughout all the cities of Judah and taught among the people. <sup>10</sup> The fear of Yahweh fell on all the kingdoms of the lands that were around Judah, so that they made no war against Jehoshaphat. <sup>11</sup> Some of the Philistines brought Jehoshaphat presents and silver for tribute. The Arabians also brought him flocks, seven thousand seven hundred rams, and seven thousand seven hundred male goats. <sup>12</sup> Jehoshaphat grew great exceedingly; and he built fortresses and store cities in Judah. <sup>13</sup> He had many works in the cities of Judah; and men of war, mighty men of valor, in Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup> This was the numbering of them according to their fathers' houses: From Judah, the captains of thousands: Adnah the captain, and with him three hundred thousand mighty men of valor; <sup>15</sup> and next to him Jehohanan the captain, and with him two hundred eighty thousand; <sup>16</sup> and next to him Amasiah the son of Zichri, who willingly offered himself to Yahweh, and with him two hundred thousand mighty men of valor. <sup>17</sup> From Benjamin: Eliada, a mighty man of valor, and with him two hundred thousand armed with bow and shield; <sup>18</sup> and next to him Jehozabad, and with him one hundred eighty thousand ready and prepared for war. <sup>19</sup> These were those who waited on the king, besides those whom the king put in the fortified cities throughout all Judah.

18

<sup>1</sup> Now Jehoshaphat had riches and honor in abundance; and he allied himself with Ahab. <sup>2</sup> After some years, he went down to Ahab to Samaria. Ahab killed sheep and cattle for him in abundance, and for the people who were with him, and moved him to go up with him to Ramoth Gilead. <sup>3</sup> Ahab king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat king of Judah, "Will you go with me to Ramoth Gilead?"

He answered him, "I am as you are, and my people as your people. We will be with you in the war." <sup>4</sup> Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, "Please inquire first for Yahweh's word."

<sup>5</sup> Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, four hundred men, and said to them, "Shall we go to Ramoth Gilead to battle, or shall I forbear?"

They said, "Go up; for God will deliver it into the hand of the king."

<sup>6</sup> But Jehoshaphat said, "Isn't there here a prophet of Yahweh besides, that we may inquire of him?"

<sup>7</sup> The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "There is yet one man by whom we may inquire of Yahweh; but I hate him, for he never prophesies good concerning me, but always evil. He is Micaiah the son of Imla."

Jehoshaphat said, "Don't let the king say so."

<sup>8</sup> Then the king of Israel called an officer, and said, "Get Micaiah the son of Imla quickly."

<sup>9</sup> Now the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah each sat on his throne, arrayed in their robes, and they were sitting in an open place at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets were prophesying before them. <sup>10</sup> Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made himself horns of iron, and said, "Yahweh says, 'With these you shall push the Syrians, until they are consumed.'"

<sup>11</sup> All the prophets prophesied so, saying, "Go up to Ramoth Gilead, and prosper; for Yahweh will deliver it into the hand of the king."

<sup>12</sup> The messenger who went to call Micaiah spoke to him, saying, "Behold, the words of the prophets declare good to the king with one mouth. Let your word therefore, please be like one of theirs, and speak good."

<sup>13</sup> Micaiah said, "As Yahweh lives, what my God says, that will I speak."

<sup>14</sup> When he had come to the king, the king said to him, "Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth Gilead to battle, or shall I forbear?"

He said, "Go up, and prosper. They shall be delivered into your hand."

<sup>15</sup> The king said to him, "How many times shall I adjure you that you speak to me nothing but the truth in Yahweh's name?"

<sup>16</sup> He said, "I saw all Israel scattered on the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd. Yahweh said, 'These have no master. Let them each return to his house in peace.'"

<sup>17</sup> The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "Didn't I tell you that he would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil?"

<sup>18</sup> Micaiah said, "Therefore hear Yahweh's word: I saw Yahweh sitting on his throne, and all the army of heaven standing on his right hand and on his left. <sup>19</sup> Yahweh said, 'Who will entice Ahab king of Israel, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth Gilead?' One spoke saying in this way, and another saying in that way. <sup>20</sup> A spirit came out, stood before Yahweh, and said, 'I will entice him.'

"Yahweh said to him, 'How?'"

<sup>21</sup> "He said, 'I will go, and will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.'

"He said, 'You will entice him, and will prevail also. Go and do so.'

<sup>22</sup> "Now therefore, behold, Yahweh has put a lying spirit in the mouth of these your prophets; and Yahweh has spoken evil concerning you."

<sup>23</sup> Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near, and struck Micaiah on the cheek, and said, "Which way did Yahweh's Spirit go from me to speak to you?"

<sup>24</sup> Micaiah said, "Behold, you shall see on that day, when you go into an inner room to hide yourself."

<sup>25</sup> The king of Israel said, "Take Micaiah, and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son; <sup>26</sup> and say, 'Thus says the king, "Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I return in peace.'"

<sup>27</sup> Micaiah said, "If you return at all in peace, Yahweh has not spoken by me." He said, "Listen, you people, all of you!" <sup>28</sup> So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth Gilead. <sup>29</sup> The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "I will disguise myself, and go into the battle; but you put on your robes." So the king of Israel disguised himself; and they went into the battle. <sup>30</sup> Now the king of Syria had commanded the captains of his chariots, saying, "Don't fight with small nor great, except only with the king of Israel."

<sup>31</sup> When the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, they said, "It is the king of Israel!" Therefore they turned around to fight against him. But Jehoshaphat cried out, and Yahweh helped him; and God moved them to depart from him. <sup>32</sup> When the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, they turned back from pursuing him. <sup>33</sup> A certain man drew his bow at random, and struck the king of Israel between the joints of the armor. Therefore he said to the driver of the chariot, "Turn your hand, and carry me out of the army; for I am severely wounded." <sup>34</sup> The battle increased that day. However the king of Israel propped himself up in his chariot against the Syrians until the evening; and at about sunset, he died.

19

<sup>1</sup> Jehoshaphat the king of Judah returned to his house in peace to Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup> Jehu the son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him, and said to king Jehoshaphat, "Should you help the wicked, and love those who hate Yahweh? Because of this, wrath is on you from before Yahweh. <sup>3</sup> Nevertheless there are good things found in you, in that you have put away the Asheroth out of the land, and have set your heart to seek God."

<sup>4</sup> Jehoshaphat lived at Jerusalem; and he went out again among the people from Beersheba to the hill country of Ephraim, and brought them back to Yahweh, the God of their fathers. <sup>5</sup> He set judges in the land throughout all the fortified cities of Judah, city by city, <sup>6</sup> and said to the judges, "Consider what you do, for you don't judge for man, but for Yahweh; and he is with you in the judgment. <sup>7</sup> Now therefore let the fear of Yahweh be on you. Take heed and do it; for there is no iniquity with Yahweh our God, nor respect of persons, nor taking of bribes."

<sup>8</sup> Moreover in Jerusalem Jehoshaphat appointed Levites and priests, and of the heads of the fathers' households of Israel, for the judgment of Yahweh, and for controversies. They returned to Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup> He commanded them, saying, "You shall do this in the fear of Yahweh, faithfully, and with a perfect heart. <sup>10</sup> Whenever any controversy comes to you from your brothers who dwell in their cities, between blood and blood, between law and commandment, statutes and ordinances, you must warn them, that they not be guilty towards Yahweh, and so wrath come on you and on your brothers. Do this, and you will not be guilty. <sup>11</sup> Behold, Amariah the chief priest is over you in all matters of Yahweh; and Zebadiah the son of Ishmael, the ruler of the house of Judah, in all the king's matters. Also the Levites shall be officers before you. Deal courageously, and may Yahweh be with the good."

coming against you from beyond the sea from Syria. Behold, they are in Hazazon Tamar” (that is, En Gedi).<sup>3</sup> Jehoshaphat was alarmed, and set himself to seek to Yahweh. He proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah.<sup>4</sup> Judah gathered themselves together to seek help from Yahweh. They came out of all the cities of Judah to seek Yahweh.<sup>5</sup> Jehoshaphat stood in the assembly of Judah and Jerusalem, in Yahweh’s house, before the new court;<sup>6</sup> and he said, “Yahweh, the God of our fathers, aren’t you God in heaven? Aren’t you ruler over all the kingdoms of the nations? Power and might are in your hand, so that no one is able to withstand you.<sup>7</sup> Didn’t you, our God, drive out the inhabitants of this land before your people Israel, and give it to the offspring<sup>w</sup> of Abraham your friend forever?<sup>8</sup> They lived in it, and have built you a sanctuary in it for your name, saying,<sup>9</sup> ‘If evil comes on us—the sword, judgment, pestilence, or famine—we will stand before this house, and before you, (for your name is in this house), and cry to you in our affliction, and you will hear and save.’<sup>10</sup> Now, behold, the children of Ammon and Moab and Mount Seir, whom you would not let Israel invade when they came out of the land of Egypt, but they turned aside from them, and didn’t destroy them;<sup>11</sup> behold, how they reward us, to come to cast us out of your possession, which you have given us to inherit.<sup>12</sup> Our God, will you not judge them? For we have no might against this great company that comes against us. We don’t know what to do, but our eyes are on you.”

<sup>18</sup> Jehoshaphat bowed his head with his face to the ground; and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell down before Yahweh, worshiping Yahweh.<sup>19</sup> The Levites, of the children of the Kohathites and of the children of the Korahites, stood up to praise Yahweh, the God of Israel, with an exceeding loud voice.<sup>20</sup> They rose early in the morning, and went out into the wilderness of Tekoa. As they went out, Jehoshaphat stood and said, “Listen to me, Judah, and you inhabitants of Jerusalem! Believe in Yahweh your God, so you will be established! Believe his prophets, so you will prosper.”

<sup>21</sup> When he had taken counsel with the people, he appointed those who were to sing to Yahweh, and give praise in holy array, as they went out before the army, and say, "Give thanks to Yahweh; for his loving kindness endures forever." <sup>22</sup> When they began to sing and to praise, Yahweh set ambushers against the children of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir, who had come against Judah; and they were struck. <sup>23</sup> For the children of Ammon and Moab stood up against the inhabitants of Mount Seir to utterly kill and destroy them: and when they had finished the inhabitants of Seir, everyone helped to destroy another.

<sup>24</sup> When Judah came to the place overlooking the wilderness, they looked at the multitude; and behold, they were dead bodies fallen to the earth, and there were none who escaped. <sup>25</sup> When Jehoshaphat and his people came to take their plunder, they found among them in abundance both riches and dead bodies, and precious jewels, which they stripped off for themselves, more than they could carry away. They took plunder for three days, it was so much. <sup>26</sup> On the fourth day, they assembled themselves in Beracah Valley, for there they blessed Yahweh. Therefore the name of that place was called "Beracah Valley" to this day. <sup>27</sup> Then they returned, every man of Judah and Jerusalem, with Jehoshaphat in front of them, to go again to Jerusalem with joy; for Yahweh had made them to rejoice over their enemies. <sup>28</sup> They came to Jerusalem with stringed instruments, harps, and trumpets to Yahweh's house. <sup>29</sup> The fear of God was on all the kingdoms of the countries, when they heard that Yahweh fought against the enemies of Israel. <sup>30</sup> So the realm of Jehoshaphat was quiet, for his God gave him rest all around.

<sup>31</sup> Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah. He was thirty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi. <sup>32</sup> He walked in the way of Asa his father, and didn't turn aside from it, doing that which was right in Yahweh's eyes. <sup>33</sup> However the high places were not taken away, and the people had still not set their hearts on the God of their fathers. <sup>34</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, first and last, behold, they are written in the history of Jehu the son of Hanani, which is included in the book of the kings of Israel. <sup>35</sup> After this, Jehoshaphat king of Judah joined himself with Ahaziah king of Israel. The same did very wickedly. <sup>36</sup> He joined himself with him to make ships to go to Tarshish. They made the ships in Ezion Geber. <sup>37</sup> Then Eliezer the son of Dodavahu of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, "Because you have joined yourself with Ahaziah, Yahweh has destroyed your works." The ships were wrecked, so that they were not able to go to Tarshish.

strengthened himself, he killed all his brothers with the sword, and also some of the princes of Israel. <sup>5</sup> Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem. <sup>6</sup> He walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as did Ahab's house; for he had Ahab's daughter as his wife. He did that which was evil in Yahweh's sight. <sup>7</sup> However Yahweh would not destroy David's house, because of the covenant that he had made with David, and as he promised to give a lamp to him and to his children always. <sup>8</sup> In his days Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and made a king over themselves. <sup>9</sup> Then Jehoram went there with his captains and all his chariots with him. He rose up by night and struck the Edomites who surrounded him, along with the captains of the chariots. <sup>10</sup> So Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah to this day. Then Libnah revolted at the same time from under his hand, because he had forsaken Yahweh, the God of his fathers. <sup>11</sup> Moreover he made high places in the mountains of Judah, and made the inhabitants of Jerusalem play the prostitute, and led Judah astray. <sup>12</sup> A letter came to him from Elijah the prophet, saying, "Yahweh, the God of David your father, says, 'Because you have not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat your father, nor in the ways of Asa king of Judah, <sup>13</sup> but have walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and have made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to play the prostitute like Ahab's house did, and also have slain your brothers of your father's house, who were better than yourself, <sup>14</sup> behold, Yahweh will strike your people with a great plague, including your children, your wives, and all your possessions; <sup>15</sup> and you will have great sickness with a disease of your bowels, until your bowels fall out by reason of the sickness, day by day.'"

<sup>16</sup> Yahweh stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines, and of the Arabians who are beside the Ethiopians; <sup>17</sup> and they came up against Judah, broke into it, and carried away all the possessions that were found in the king's house, including his sons and his wives; so that there was no son left him, except Jehoahaz, the youngest of his sons. <sup>18</sup> After all this Yahweh struck him in his bowels with an incurable disease. <sup>19</sup> In process of time, at the end of two years, his bowels fell out by reason of his sickness, and he died of severe diseases. His people made no burning for him, like the burning of his fathers. <sup>20</sup> He was thirty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years. He departed without being missed; and they buried him in David's city, but not in the tombs of the kings.

<sup>1</sup> The inhabitants of Jerusalem made Ahaziah his youngest son king in his place, because the band of men who came with the Arabians to the camp had slain all the oldest. So Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah reigned. <sup>2</sup> Ahaziah was forty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Athaliah the daughter of Omri. <sup>3</sup> He also walked in the ways of Ahab's house, because his mother was his counselor in acting wickedly. <sup>4</sup> He did that which was evil in Yahweh's sight, as did Ahab's house, for they were his counselors after the death of his father, to his destruction. <sup>5</sup> He also followed their counsel, and went with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth Gilead, and the Syrians wounded Joram. <sup>6</sup> He returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which they had given him at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria. Azariah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick. <sup>7</sup> Now the destruction of Ahaziah was of God, in that he went to Joram; for when he had come, he went out with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, whom Yahweh had anointed to cut off Ahab's house. <sup>8</sup> When Jehu was executing judgment on Ahab's house, he found the princes of Judah and the sons of the brothers of Ahaziah, serving Ahaziah, and killed them. <sup>9</sup> He sought Ahaziah, and they caught him (now he was hiding in Samaria), and they brought him to Jehu, and killed him; and they buried him, for they said, "He is the son of Jehoshaphat, who sought Yahweh with all his heart." The house of Ahaziah had no power to hold the kingdom.

<sup>10</sup> Now when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the royal offspring<sup>x</sup> of the house of Judah. <sup>11</sup> But Jehoshabeath, the king's daughter, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stealthily rescued him from among the king's sons who were slain, and put him and his nurse in the bedroom. So Jehoshabeath, the daughter of king Jehoram, the wife of Jehoiada the priest (for she was the sister of Ahaziah), hid him from Athaliah, so that she didn't kill him. <sup>12</sup>

He was with them hidden in God's house six years while Athaliah reigned over the land.

23

<sup>1</sup> In the seventh year, Jehoiada strengthened himself, and took the captains of hundreds, Azariah the son of Jeroham, Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, Azariah the son of Obed, Maaseiah the son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the son of Zichri, into a covenant with him. <sup>2</sup> They went around in Judah, and gathered the Levites out of all the cities of Judah, and the heads of fathers' households of Israel, and they came to Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup> All the assembly made a covenant with the king in God's house. He said to them, "Behold, the king's son must reign, as Yahweh has spoken concerning the sons of David. <sup>4</sup> This is the thing that you must do. A third part of you, who come in on the Sabbath, of the priests and of the Levites, shall be porters of the thresholds. <sup>5</sup> A third part shall be at the king's house; and a third part at the gate of the foundation. All the people will be in the courts of Yahweh's house. <sup>6</sup> But let no one come into Yahweh's house, except the priests and those who minister of the Levites. They shall come in, for they are holy, but all the people shall follow Yahweh's instructions. <sup>7</sup> The Levites shall surround the king, every man with his weapons in his hand. Whoever comes into the house, let him be slain. Be with the king when he comes in, and when he goes out."

<sup>8</sup> So the Levites and all Judah did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded: and they each took his men, those who were to come in on the Sabbath; with those who were to go out on the Sabbath; for Jehoiada the priest didn't dismiss the shift. <sup>9</sup> Jehoiada the priest delivered to the captains of hundreds the spears, and bucklers, and shields, that had been king David's, which were in God's house. <sup>10</sup> He set all the people, every man with his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the house to the left side of the house, near the altar and the house, around the king. <sup>11</sup> Then they brought out the king's son, and put the crown on him, and gave him the testimony, and made him king. Jehoiada and his sons anointed him, and they said, "Long live the king!"

<sup>12</sup> When Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she came to the people into Yahweh's house. <sup>13</sup> Then she looked, and, behold, the king stood by his pillar at the entrance, and the captains and the trumpets by the king. All the people of the land rejoiced, and blew trumpets. The singers also played musical instruments, and led the singing of praise. Then Athaliah tore her clothes, and said, "Treason! treason!"

<sup>14</sup> Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains of hundreds who were set over the army, and said to them, "Bring her out between the ranks; and whoever follows her, let him be slain with the sword." For the priest said, "Don't kill her in Yahweh's house." <sup>15</sup> So they made way for her. She went to the entrance of the horse gate to the king's house; and they killed her there.

<sup>16</sup> Jehoiada made a covenant between himself, all the people, and the king, that they should be Yahweh's people. <sup>17</sup> All the people went to the house of Baal, broke it down, broke his altars and his images in pieces, and killed Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. <sup>18</sup> Jehoiada appointed the officers of Yahweh's house under the hand of the priests the Levites, whom David had distributed in Yahweh's house, to offer the burnt offerings of Yahweh, as it is written in the law of Moses, with rejoicing and with singing, as David had ordered. <sup>19</sup> He set the porters at the gates of Yahweh's house, that no one who was unclean in anything should enter in. <sup>20</sup> He took the captains of hundreds, the nobles, the governors of the people, and all the people of the land, and brought the king down from Yahweh's house. They came through the upper gate to the king's house, and set the king on the throne of the kingdom. <sup>21</sup> So all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet. They had slain Athaliah with the sword.

24

<sup>1</sup> Joash was seven years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zibiah, of Beersheba. <sup>2</sup> Joash did that which was right in Yahweh's eyes all the days of Jehoiada the priest. <sup>3</sup> Jehoiada took for him two wives, and he became the father of sons and daughters. <sup>4</sup> After this, Joash intended to restore Yahweh's house. <sup>5</sup> He gathered together the priests and the Levites, and said to them, "Go out to the cities of Judah, and gather money to repair the house of your God from all Israel from year to year. See that you expedite this matter." However the Levites didn't do it right away. <sup>6</sup> The king called for Jehoiada the chief, and said to him, "Why haven't you required of the Levites to bring in the tax of Moses the servant of Yahweh, and of the assembly of Israel, out of Judah and out of Jerusalem, for the Tent of the Testimony?"<sup>7</sup> For the sons of Athaliah, that wicked woman, had broken up God's house; and they also gave all the dedicated things of Yahweh's house to the Baals.<sup>8</sup> So the king commanded, and they made a chest, and set it outside at the gate of Yahweh's house.<sup>9</sup> They made a proclamation through Judah and Jerusalem, to bring in for Yahweh the tax that Moses the servant of God laid on Israel in the wilderness.<sup>10</sup> All the princes and all the people rejoiced, and brought in, and cast into the chest, until they had filled it.<sup>11</sup> Whenever the chest was brought to the king's officers by the hand of the Levites, and when they saw that there was much money, the king's scribe and the chief priest's officer came and emptied the chest, and took it, and carried it to its place again. Thus they did day by day, and gathered money in abundance.<sup>12</sup> The king and Jehoiada gave it to those who did the work of the service of Yahweh's house. They hired masons and carpenters to restore Yahweh's house, and also those who worked iron and brass to repair Yahweh's house.<sup>13</sup> So the workmen worked, and the work of repairing went forward in their hands. They set up God's house as it was designed, and strengthened it.<sup>14</sup> When they had finished, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada, from which were made vessels for Yahweh's house, even vessels with which to minister and to offer, including spoons and vessels of gold and silver. They offered burnt offerings in Yahweh's house continually all the days of Jehoiada.<sup>15</sup> But Jehoiada grew old and was full of days, and he died. He was one hundred thirty years old when he died.<sup>16</sup> They buried him in David's city among the kings, because he had done good in Israel, and toward God and his house.

<sup>17</sup> Now after the death of Jehoiada, the princes of Judah came, and bowed down to the king. Then the king listened to them.<sup>18</sup> They abandoned the house of Yahweh, the God of their fathers, and served the Asherah poles and the idols, so wrath came on Judah and Jerusalem for this their guiltiness.<sup>19</sup> Yet he sent prophets to them, to bring them again to Yahweh, and they testified against them; but they would not listen.<sup>20</sup> The Spirit of God came on Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest; and he stood above the people, and said to them, "Thus says God, 'Why do you disobey Yahweh's commandments, so that you can't prosper? Because you have forsaken Yahweh, he has also forsaken you.'"

<sup>21</sup> They conspired against him, and stoned him with stones at the commandment of the king in the court of Yahweh's house.<sup>22</sup> Thus Joash the king didn't remember the kindness which Jehoiada his father had done to him, but killed his son. When he died, he said, "May Yahweh look at it, and repay it."

<sup>23</sup> At the end of the year, the army of the Syrians came up against him: and they came to Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the princes of the people from among the people, and sent all their plunder to the king of Damascus.<sup>24</sup> For the army of the Syrians came with a small company of men; and Yahweh delivered a very great army into their hand, because they had forsaken Yahweh, the God of their fathers. So they executed judgment on Joash. <sup>25</sup> When they had departed for him (for they left him very sick), his own servants conspired against him for the blood of the sons of Jehoiada the priest, and killed him on his bed, and he died. They buried him in David's city, but they didn't bury him in the tombs of the kings. <sup>26</sup> These are those who conspired against him: Zabad the son of Shimeath the Ammonitess and Jehozabad the son of Shimrith the Moabitess. <sup>27</sup> Now concerning his sons, the greatness of the burdens laid on him, and the rebuilding of God's house, behold, they are written in the commentary of the book of the kings. Amaziah his son reigned in his place.

25

<sup>1</sup> Amaziah was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jehoaddan, of Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup> He did that which was right in Yahweh's eyes, but not with a perfect heart. <sup>3</sup> Now when the kingdom was established to him, he killed his servants who had killed his father the king. <sup>4</sup> But he didn't put their children to death, but did according to that which is written in the law in the book of Moses, as Yahweh commanded, saying, "The fathers shall not die for the children, neither shall the children die for the fathers; but every man shall die for his own sin." <sup>5</sup> Moreover Amaziah gathered Judah together, and ordered them according to their fathers' houses, under captains of thousands and captains of hundreds, even all Judah and

Benjamin. He counted them from twenty years old and upward, and found that there were three hundred thousand chosen men, able to go out to war, who could handle spear and shield. <sup>6</sup> He also hired one hundred thousand mighty men of valor out of Israel for one hundred talents<sup>y</sup> of silver. <sup>7</sup> A man of God came to him, saying, "O king, don't let the army of Israel go with you, for Yahweh is not with Israel, with all the children of Ephraim. <sup>8</sup> But if you will go, take action, and be strong for the battle. God will overthrow you before the enemy; for God has power to help, and to overthrow."

<sup>9</sup> Amaziah said to the man of God, "But what shall we do for the hundred talents<sup>z</sup> which I have given to the army of Israel?"

The man of God answered, "Yahweh is able to give you much more than this."

<sup>10</sup> Then Amaziah separated them, the army that had come to him out of Ephraim, to go home again. Therefore their anger was greatly kindled against Judah, and they returned home in fierce anger. <sup>11</sup> Amaziah took courage, and led his people out, and went to the Valley of Salt, and struck ten thousand of the children of Seir. <sup>12</sup> The children of Judah carried away ten thousand alive, and brought them to the top of the rock, and threw them down from the top of the rock, so that they all were broken in pieces. <sup>13</sup> But the men of the army whom Amaziah sent back, that they should not go with him to battle, fell on the cities of Judah, from Samaria even to Beth Horon, and struck of them three thousand, and took much plunder.

<sup>14</sup> Now after Amaziah had come from the slaughter of the Edomites, he brought the gods of the children of Seir, and set them up to be his gods, and bowed down himself before them, and burned incense to them.<sup>15</sup> Therefore Yahweh's anger burned against Amaziah, and he sent to him a prophet, who said to him, "Why have you sought after the gods of the people, which have not delivered their own people out of your hand?"

<sup>16</sup> As he talked with him, the king said to him, "Have we made you one of the king's counselors? Stop! Why should you be struck down?"

Then the prophet stopped, and said, "I know that God has determined to destroy you, because you have done this, and have not listened to my counsel."

<sup>17</sup> Then Amaziah king of Judah consulted his advisers, and sent to Joash, the son of Jehoahaz the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, "Come, let us look one another in the face."

<sup>18</sup> Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, "The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, 'Give your daughter to my son as his wife. Then a wild animal that was in Lebanon passed by, and trampled down the thistle.'<sup>19</sup> You say to yourself that you have struck Edom; and your heart lifts you up to boast. Now stay at home. Why should you meddle with trouble, that you should fall, even you, and Judah with you?"

<sup>20</sup> But Amaziah would not listen; for it was of God, that he might deliver them into the hand of their enemies, because they had sought after the gods of Edom.<sup>21</sup> So Joash king of Israel went up, and he and Amaziah king of Judah looked one another in the face at Beth Shemesh, which belongs to Judah.<sup>22</sup> Judah was defeated by Israel; and they every man fled to his tent.

<sup>23</sup> Joash king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash the son of Jehoahaz, at Beth Shemesh, and brought him to Jerusalem, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the gate of Ephraim to the corner gate, four hundred cubits.<sup>a</sup><sup>24</sup> He took all the gold and silver, and all the vessels that were found in God's house with Obed-Edom, and the treasures of the king's house, the hostages also, and returned to Samaria.<sup>25</sup> Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah lived for fifteen years after the death of Joash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel.<sup>26</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, first and last, behold, aren't they written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel?<sup>27</sup> Now from the time that Amaziah turned away from following Yahweh, they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem. He fled to Lachish, but they sent after him to Lachish, and killed him there.<sup>28</sup> They brought him on horses, and buried him with his fathers in the City of Judah.

<sup>1</sup> All the people of Judah took Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in the place of his father Amaziah.<sup>2</sup> He built Eloth, and restored it to Judah, after that the king slept with his fathers.<sup>3</sup> Uzziah was sixteen years old when he began to reign; and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jechiliah, of Jerusalem.<sup>4</sup> He did that which was right in Yahweh's eyes, according to all that his father Amaziah had done. <sup>5</sup> He set himself to seek God in the days of Zechariah, who had understanding in the vision of God; and as long as he sought Yahweh, God made him prosper. <sup>6</sup> He went out and fought against the Philistines, and broke down the wall of Gath, the wall of Jabneh, and the wall of Ashdod; and he built cities in the country of Ashdod, and among the Philistines. <sup>7</sup> God helped him against the Philistines, and against the Arabians who lived in Gur Baal, and the Meunim. <sup>8</sup> The Ammonites gave tribute to Uzziah. His name spread abroad even to the entrance of Egypt; for he grew exceedingly strong. <sup>9</sup> Moreover Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the corner gate, at the valley gate, and at the turning of the wall, and fortified them. <sup>10</sup> He built towers in the wilderness, and dug out many cisterns, for he had much livestock; in the lowland also, and in the plain. He had farmers and vineyard keepers in the mountains and in the fruitful fields, for he loved farming. <sup>11</sup> Moreover Uzziah had an army of fighting men, who went out to war by bands, according to the number of their reckoning made by Jeiel the scribe and Maaseiah the officer, under the hand of Hananiah, one of the king's captains. <sup>12</sup> The whole number of the heads of fathers' households, even the mighty men of valor, was two thousand six hundred. <sup>13</sup> Under their hand was an army, three hundred seven thousand five hundred, who made war with mighty power, to help the king against the enemy. <sup>14</sup> Uzziah prepared for them, even for all the army, shields, spears, helmets, coats of mail, bows, and stones for slinging. <sup>15</sup> In Jerusalem, he made devices, invented by skillful men, to be on the towers and on the battlements, with which to shoot arrows and great stones. His name spread far abroad, because he was marvelously helped until he was strong.

<sup>16</sup> But when he was strong, his heart was lifted up, so that he did corruptly, and he trespassed against Yahweh his God; for he went into Yahweh's temple to burn incense on the altar of incense. <sup>17</sup> Azariah the priest went in after him, and with him eighty priests of Yahweh, who were valiant men. <sup>18</sup> They resisted Uzziah the king, and said to him, "It isn't for you, Uzziah, to burn incense to Yahweh, but for the priests the sons of Aaron, who are consecrated to burn incense. Go out of the sanctuary, for you have trespassed. It will not be for your honor from Yahweh God."

<sup>19</sup> Then Uzziah was angry. He had a censer in his hand to burn incense, and while he was angry with the priests, the leprosy broke out on his forehead before the priests in Yahweh's house, beside the altar of incense. <sup>20</sup> Azariah the chief priest, and all the priests, looked at him, and behold, he was leprous in his forehead, and they thrust him out quickly from there. Yes, he himself also hurried to go out, because Yahweh had struck him. <sup>21</sup> Uzziah the king was a leper to the day of his death, and lived in a separate house, being a leper; for he was cut off from Yahweh's house. Jotham his son was over the king's house, judging the people of the land. <sup>22</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Uzziah, first and last, Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, wrote. <sup>23</sup> So Uzziah slept with his fathers; and they buried him with his fathers in the field of burial which belonged to the kings, for they said, "He is a leper." Jotham his son reigned in his place.

27

<sup>1</sup> Jotham was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jerushah the daughter of Zadok. <sup>2</sup> He did that which was right in Yahweh's eyes, according to all that his father Uzziah had done. However he didn't enter into Yahweh's temple. The people still acted corruptly. <sup>3</sup> He built the upper gate of Yahweh's house, and he built much on the wall of Ophel. <sup>4</sup> Moreover he built cities in the hill country of Judah, and in the forests he built fortresses and towers. <sup>5</sup> He also fought with the king of the children of Ammon, and prevailed against them. The children of Ammon gave him the same year one hundred talents<sup>b</sup> of silver, ten thousand cors<sup>c</sup> of wheat, and ten thousand cors of barley.<sup>d</sup> The children of Ammon also gave that much to him in the second year, and in the third. <sup>6</sup> So Jotham became mighty, because he ordered his ways before Yahweh his God. <sup>7</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all his wars, and his ways, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. <sup>8</sup> He was five and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup> Jotham slept with his fathers, and they buried him in David's city; and Ahaz his son reigned in his place.

28

<sup>1</sup> Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. He didn't do that which was right in Yahweh's eyes, like David his father, <sup>2</sup> but he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and also made molten images for the Baals. <sup>3</sup> Moreover he burned incense in the valley of the son of Hinnom, and burned his children in the fire, according to the abominations of the nations whom Yahweh cast out before the children of Israel. <sup>4</sup> He sacrificed and burned incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree. <sup>5</sup> Therefore Yahweh his God delivered him into the hand of the king of Syria. They struck him, and carried away from him a great multitude of captives, and brought them to Damascus. He was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, who struck him with a great slaughter. <sup>6</sup> For Pekah the son of Remaliah killed in Judah one hundred twenty thousand in one day, all of them valiant men, because they had forsaken Yahweh, the God of their fathers. <sup>7</sup> Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, killed Maaseiah the king's son, Azrikam the ruler of the house, and Elkanah who was next to the king. <sup>8</sup> The children of Israel carried away captive of their brothers two hundred thousand, women, sons, and daughters, and took also away much plunder from them, and brought the plunder to Samaria. <sup>9</sup> But a prophet of Yahweh was there, whose name was Oded; and he went out to meet the army that came to Samaria, and said to them, "Behold, because Yahweh, the God of your fathers, was angry with Judah, he has delivered them into your hand, and you have slain them in a rage which has reached up to heaven. <sup>10</sup> Now you intend to degrade the children of Judah and Jerusalem as male and female slaves for yourselves. Aren't there even with you trespasses of your own against Yahweh your God? <sup>11</sup> Now hear me therefore, and send back the captives that you have taken captive from your brothers, for the fierce wrath of Yahweh is on you." <sup>12</sup> Then some of the heads of the children of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against those who came from the war, <sup>13</sup> and said to them, "You must not bring in the captives here, for you intend that which will bring on us a trespass against Yahweh, to add to our sins and to our guilt; for our guilt is great, and there is fierce wrath against Israel."

<sup>14</sup> So the armed men left the captives and the plunder before the princes and all the assembly. <sup>15</sup> The men who have been mentioned by name rose up and took the captives, and with the plunder clothed all who were naked among them, dressed them, gave them sandals, and gave them something to eat and to drink, anointed them, carried all the feeble of them on donkeys, and brought them to Jericho, the city of palm trees, to their brothers. Then they returned to Samaria.

<sup>16</sup> At that time king Ahaz sent to the kings of Assyria to help him. <sup>17</sup> For again the Edomites had come and struck Judah, and carried away captives. <sup>18</sup> The Philistines also had invaded the cities of the lowland, and of the South of Judah, and had taken Beth Shemesh, Aijalon, Gederoth, Soco with its villages, Timnah with its villages, and also Gimzo and its villages; and they lived there. <sup>19</sup> For Yahweh brought Judah low because of Ahaz king of Israel, because he acted without restraint in Judah and trespassed severely against Yahweh. <sup>20</sup> Tilgath Pilneser king of Assyria came to him, and gave him trouble, but didn't strengthen him. <sup>21</sup> For Ahaz took away a portion out of Yahweh's house, and out of the house of the king and of the princes, and gave it to the king of Assyria; but it didn't help him. <sup>22</sup> In the time of his distress, he trespassed yet more against Yahweh, this same king Ahaz. <sup>23</sup> For he sacrificed to the gods of Damascus, which struck him. He said, "Because the gods of the kings of Syria helped them, so I will sacrifice to them, that they may help me." But they were the ruin of him, and of all Israel. <sup>24</sup> Ahaz gathered together the vessels of God's house, and cut the vessels of God's house in pieces, and shut up the doors of Yahweh's house; and he made himself altars in every corner of Jerusalem. <sup>25</sup> In every city of Judah he made high places to burn incense to other gods, and provoked Yahweh, the God of his fathers, to anger.

<sup>26</sup> Now the rest of his acts, and all his ways, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

<sup>27</sup> Ahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, even in Jerusalem, because they didn't bring him into the tombs of the kings of Israel; and Hezekiah his son reigned in his place.

29

<sup>1</sup> Hezekiah began to reign when he was twenty-five years old, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Abijah, the daughter of Zechariah. <sup>2</sup> He did that which was right in

Yahweh's eyes, according to all that David his father had done. <sup>3</sup> He in the first year of his reign, in the first month, opened the doors of Yahweh's house, and repaired them. <sup>4</sup> He brought in the priests and the Levites, and gathered them together into the wide place on the east, <sup>5</sup> and said to them, "Listen to me, you Levites! Now sanctify yourselves, and sanctify Yahweh, the God of your fathers' house, and carry the filthiness out of the holy place. <sup>6</sup> For our fathers were unfaithful, and have done that which was evil in Yahweh our God's sight, and have forsaken him, and have turned away their faces from the habitation of Yahweh, and turned their backs. <sup>7</sup> Also they have shut up the doors of the porch, and put out the lamps, and have not burned incense nor offered burnt offerings in the holy place to the God of Israel. <sup>8</sup> Therefore Yahweh's wrath was on Judah and Jerusalem, and he has delivered them to be tossed back and forth, to be an astonishment, and a hissing, as you see with your eyes. <sup>9</sup> For, behold, our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons and our daughters and our wives are in captivity for this. <sup>10</sup> Now it is in my heart to make a covenant with Yahweh, the God of Israel, that his fierce anger may turn away from us. <sup>11</sup> My sons, don't be negligent now; for Yahweh has chosen you to stand before him, to minister to him, and that you should be his ministers, and burn incense."

<sup>12</sup> Then the Levites arose, Mahath, the son of Amasai, and Joel the son of Azariah, of the sons of the Kohathites; and of the sons of Merari, Kish the son of Abdi, and Azariah the son of Jehallelel; and of the Gershonites, Joah the son of Zimmah, and Eden the son of Joah; <sup>13</sup> and of the sons of Elizaphan, Shimri and Jeuel; and of the sons of Asaph, Zechariah and Mattaniah; <sup>14</sup> and of the sons of Heman, Jehuel and Shimei; and of the sons of Jeduthun, Shemaiah and Uzziel. <sup>15</sup> They gathered their brothers, sanctified themselves, and went in, according to the commandment of the king by Yahweh's words, to cleanse Yahweh's house. <sup>16</sup> The priests went into the inner part of Yahweh's house to cleanse it, and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in Yahweh's temple into the court of Yahweh's house. The Levites took it from there to carry it out to the brook Kidron. <sup>17</sup> Now they began on the first day of the first month to sanctify, and on the eighth day of the month they came to Yahweh's porch. They sanctified Yahweh's house in eight days, and on the sixteenth day of the first month they finished. <sup>18</sup> Then they went in to Hezekiah the king within the palace, and said, "We have cleansed all Yahweh's house, including the altar of burnt offering with all its vessels, and the table of show bread with all its vessels. <sup>19</sup> Moreover all the vessels, which king Ahaz in his reign threw away when he was unfaithful, have we prepared and sanctified. Behold, they are before Yahweh's altar."

<sup>20</sup> Then Hezekiah the king arose early, gathered the princes of the city, and went up to Yahweh's house. <sup>21</sup> They brought seven bulls, seven rams, seven lambs, and seven male goats, for a sin offering for the kingdom, for the sanctuary, and for Judah. He commanded the priests the sons of Aaron to offer them on Yahweh's altar. <sup>22</sup> So they killed the bulls, and the priests received the blood, and sprinkled it on the altar. They killed the rams, and sprinkled the blood on the altar. They also killed the lambs, and sprinkled the blood on the altar. <sup>23</sup> They brought near the male goats for the sin offering before the king and the assembly; and they laid their hands on them. <sup>24</sup> Then the priests killed them, and they made a sin offering with their blood on the altar, to make atonement for all Israel; for the king commanded that the burnt offering and the sin offering should be made for all Israel. <sup>25</sup> He set the Levites in Yahweh's house with cymbals, with stringed instruments, and with harps, according to the commandment of David, of Gad the king's seer, and Nathan the prophet; for the commandment was from Yahweh by his prophets. <sup>26</sup> The Levites stood with David's instruments, and the priests with the trumpets. <sup>27</sup> Hezekiah commanded them to offer the burnt offering on the altar. When the burnt offering began, Yahweh's song also began, along with the trumpets and David king of Israel's instruments. <sup>28</sup> All the assembly worshiped, the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded. All this continued until the burnt offering was finished. <sup>29</sup> When they had finished offering, the king and all who were present with him bowed themselves and worshiped. <sup>30</sup> Moreover Hezekiah the king and the princes commanded the Levites to sing praises to Yahweh with the words of David, and of Asaph the seer. They sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshiped.

<sup>31</sup> Then Hezekiah answered, "Now you have consecrated yourselves to Yahweh. Come near and bring sacrifices and thank offerings into Yahweh's house." The assembly brought in sacrifices and thank offerings, and as many as were of a willing heart brought burnt offerings. <sup>32</sup> The number of the burnt offerings which the assembly brought was seventy bulls, one hundred rams, and two hundred lambs. All these were for a burnt offering to Yahweh. <sup>33</sup> The consecrated things were six hundred head of cattle and three thousand sheep. <sup>34</sup> But the priests were too few, so that they could not flay all the burnt offerings. Therefore their brothers the Levites helped them, until the work was ended, and until the priests had sanctified themselves; for the Levites were more upright in heart to sanctify themselves than the priests. <sup>35</sup> Also the burnt offerings were in abundance, with the fat of the peace offerings, and with the drink offerings for every burnt offering. So the service of Yahweh's house was set in order. <sup>36</sup> Hezekiah and all the people rejoiced, because of that which God had prepared for the people; for the thing was done suddenly.

30

<sup>1</sup> Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and wrote letters also to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to Yahweh's house at Jerusalem, to keep the Passover to Yahweh, the God of Israel. <sup>2</sup> For the king had taken counsel with his princes and all the assembly in Jerusalem to keep the Passover in the second month. <sup>3</sup> For they could not keep it at that time, because the priests had not sanctified themselves in sufficient number, and the people had not gathered themselves together to Jerusalem. <sup>4</sup> The thing was right in the eyes of the king and of all the assembly. <sup>5</sup> So they established a decree to make proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beersheba even to Dan, that they should come to keep the Passover to Yahweh, the God of Israel, at Jerusalem, for they had not kept it in great numbers in the way it is written.

<sup>6</sup> So the couriers went with the letters from the king and his princes throughout all Israel and Judah, and according to the commandment of the king, saying, "You children of Israel, turn again to Yahweh, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, that he may return to the remnant of you that have escaped out of the hand of the kings of Assyria. <sup>7</sup> Don't be like your fathers and like your brothers, who trespassed against Yahweh, the God of their fathers, so that he gave them up to desolation, as you see. <sup>8</sup> Now don't be stiff-necked, as your fathers were, but yield yourselves to Yahweh, and enter into his sanctuary, which he has sanctified forever, and serve Yahweh your God, that his fierce anger may turn away from you. <sup>9</sup> For if you turn again to Yahweh, your brothers and your children will find compassion before those who led them captive, and will come again into this land, because Yahweh your God is gracious and merciful, and will not turn away his face from you, if you return to him."

<sup>10</sup> So the couriers passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh, even to Zebulun, but people ridiculed them and mocked them. <sup>11</sup> Nevertheless some men of Asher and Manasseh and of Zebulun humbled themselves, and came to Jerusalem. <sup>12</sup> Also the hand of God came on Judah to give them one heart, to do the commandment of the king and of the princes by Yahweh's word. <sup>13</sup> Many people assembled at Jerusalem to keep the feast of unleavened bread in the second month, a very great assembly. <sup>14</sup> They arose and took away the altars that were in Jerusalem, and they took away all the altars for incense, and threw them into the brook Kidron. <sup>15</sup> Then they killed the Passover on the fourteenth day of the second month. The priests and the Levites were ashamed, and sanctified themselves, and brought burnt offerings into Yahweh's house. <sup>16</sup> They stood in their place after their order, according to the law of Moses the man of God. The priests sprinkled the blood which they received of the hand of the Levites. <sup>17</sup> For there were many in the assembly who had not sanctified themselves: therefore the Levites were in charge of killing the Passovers for everyone who was not clean, to sanctify them to Yahweh. <sup>18</sup> For a multitude of the people, even many of Ephraim, Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, yet they ate the Passover other than the way it is written. For Hezekiah had prayed for them, saying, "May the good Yahweh pardon everyone <sup>19</sup> who sets his heart to seek God, Yahweh, the God of his fathers, even if they aren't clean according to the purification of the sanctuary."

<sup>20</sup> Yahweh listened to Hezekiah, and healed the people. <sup>21</sup> The children of Israel who were present at Jerusalem kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with great gladness. The Levites and the priests praised Yahweh day by day, singing with loud instruments to Yahweh. <sup>22</sup> Hezekiah spoke encouragingly to all the Levites who had good understanding in the service of Yahweh. So they ate throughout the feast for the seven days, offering sacrifices of peace offerings, and making confession to Yahweh, the God of their fathers. <sup>23</sup> The whole assembly took counsel to keep another seven days, and they kept another seven days with gladness. <sup>24</sup> For Hezekiah king of Judah gave to the assembly for offerings one thousand bulls and seven thousand sheep; and the princes gave to the assembly a thousand bulls and ten thousand sheep: and a great number of priests sanctified themselves. <sup>25</sup> All the assembly of Judah, with the priests and the Levites, and all the assembly who came out of Israel, and the foreigners who came out of the land of Israel, and who lived in Judah, rejoiced. <sup>26</sup> So there was great joy in Jerusalem; for since the time of Solomon the son of David king of Israel there was nothing like this in Jerusalem. <sup>27</sup> Then the priests the Levites arose and blessed the people. Their voice was heard, and their prayer came up to his holy habitation, even to heaven.

31

<sup>1</sup> Now when all this was finished, all Israel who were present went out to the cities of Judah, and broke the pillars in pieces, cut down the Asherah poles, and broke down the high places and the altars out of all Judah and Benjamin, also in Ephraim and Manasseh, until they had destroyed them all. Then all the children of Israel returned, every man to his possession, into their own cities. <sup>2</sup> Hezekiah appointed the divisions of the priests and the Levites after their divisions, every man according to his service, both the priests and the Levites, for burnt offerings and for peace offerings, to minister, to give thanks, and to praise in the gates of Yahweh's camp. <sup>3</sup> He also appointed the king's portion of his possessions for the burnt offerings, for the morning and evening burnt offerings, and the burnt offerings for the Sabbaths, for the new moons, and for the set feasts, as it is written in Yahweh's law. <sup>4</sup> Moreover he commanded the people who lived in Jerusalem to give the portion of the priests and the Levites, that they might give themselves to Yahweh's law. <sup>5</sup> As soon as the commandment went out, the children of Israel gave in abundance the first fruits of grain, new wine, oil, honey, and of all the increase of the field; and they brought in the tithe of all things abundantly. <sup>6</sup> The children of Israel and Judah, who lived in the cities of Judah, also brought in the tithe of cattle and sheep, and the tithe of dedicated things which were consecrated to Yahweh their God, and laid them in heaps.

<sup>7</sup> In the third month they began to lay the foundation of the heaps, and finished them in the seventh month. <sup>8</sup> When Hezekiah and the princes came and saw the heaps, they blessed Yahweh and his people Israel. <sup>9</sup> Then Hezekiah questioned the priests and the Levites about the heaps. <sup>10</sup> Azariah the chief priest, of the house of Zadok, answered him and said, "Since people began to bring the offerings into Yahweh's house, we have eaten and had enough, and have plenty left over, for Yahweh has blessed his people; and that which is left is this great store." <sup>11</sup> Then Hezekiah commanded them to prepare rooms in Yahweh's house, and they prepared them. <sup>12</sup> They brought in the offerings, the tithes, and the dedicated things faithfully. Conaniah the Levite was ruler over them, and Shimei his brother was second. <sup>13</sup> Jehiel, Azariah, Nahath, Asahel, Jerimoth, Jozabad, Eliel, Ismachiah, Mahath, and Benaiah were overseers under the hand of Conaniah and Shimei his brother, by the appointment of Hezekiah the king and Azariah the ruler of God's house. <sup>14</sup> Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, the porter at the east gate, was over the freewill offerings of God, to distribute Yahweh's offerings and the most holy things. <sup>15</sup> Under him were Eden, Miniamin, Jeshua, Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah, in the cities of the priests, in their office of trust, to give to their brothers by divisions, to the great as well as to the small; <sup>16</sup> besides those who were listed by genealogy of males, from three years old and upward, even everyone who entered into Yahweh's house, as the duty of every day required, for their service in their offices according to their divisions; <sup>17</sup> and those who were listed by genealogy of the priests by their fathers' houses, and the Levites from twenty years old and upward, in their offices by their divisions; <sup>18</sup> and those who were listed by genealogy of all their little ones, their wives, their sons, and their daughters, through all the congregation; for in their office of trust they sanctified themselves in holiness. <sup>19</sup> Also for the sons of Aaron the priests, who were in the fields of the suburbs of their cities, in every city, there were men who were mentioned by name, to give portions to all the males among the priests, and to all who were listed by genealogy among the Levites. <sup>20</sup> Hezekiah did so throughout all Judah; and he did that which was good, right, and faithful before Yahweh his God. <sup>21</sup> In every work that he began in the service of God's house, in the law, and in the commandments, to seek his God, he did it with all his heart, and prospered.

32

<sup>1</sup> After these things and this faithfulness, Sennacherib king of Assyria came, entered into Judah, and encamped against the fortified cities, and intended to win them for himself. <sup>2</sup> When Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib had come, and that he was planning to fight against Jerusalem, <sup>3</sup> he took counsel with his princes and his mighty men to stop the waters of the springs which were outside of the city, and they helped him. <sup>4</sup> So, many people gathered together and they stopped all the springs and the brook that flowed through the middle of the land, saying, "Why should the kings of Assyria come, and find abundant water?"

<sup>5</sup> He took courage, built up all the wall that was broken down, and raised it up to the towers, with the other wall outside, and strengthened Millo in David's city, and made weapons and shields in abundance. <sup>6</sup> He set captains of war over the people, and gathered them together to him in the wide place at the gate of the city, and spoke encouragingly to them, saying, <sup>7</sup> "Be strong and courageous. Don't be afraid or dismayed because of the king of Assyria, nor for all the multitude who is with him; for there is a greater one with us than with him. <sup>8</sup> An arm of flesh is with him, but Yahweh our God is with us to help us and to fight our battles." The people rested themselves on the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

<sup>9</sup> After this, Sennacherib king of Assyria sent his servants to Jerusalem, (now he was before Lachish, and all his power with him), to Hezekiah king of Judah, and to all Judah who were at Jerusalem, saying, <sup>10</sup> Thus says Sennacherib king of Assyria, “In whom do you trust, that you remain under siege in Jerusalem? <sup>11</sup> Doesn’t Hezekiah persuade you, to give you over to die by famine and by thirst, saying, ‘Yahweh our God will deliver us out of the hand of the king of Assyria?’ <sup>12</sup> Hasn’t the same Hezekiah taken away his high places and his altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, saying, ‘You shall worship before one altar, and you shall burn incense on it?’ <sup>13</sup> Don’t you know what I and my fathers have done to all the peoples of the lands? Were the gods of the nations of the lands in any way able to deliver their land out of my hand? <sup>14</sup> Who was there among all the gods of those nations which my fathers utterly destroyed, that could deliver his people out of my hand, that your God should be able to deliver you out of my hand? <sup>15</sup> Now therefore don’t let Hezekiah deceive you, nor persuade you in this way. Don’t believe him, for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people out of my hand, and out of the hand of my fathers. How much less will your God deliver you out of my hand?”

<sup>16</sup> His servants spoke yet more against Yahweh God, and against his servant Hezekiah. <sup>17</sup> He also wrote letters insulting Yahweh, the God of Israel, and speaking against him, saying, “As the gods of the nations of the lands, which have not delivered their people out of my hand, so shall the God of Hezekiah not deliver his people out of my hand.” <sup>18</sup> They called out with a loud voice in the Jews’ language to the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall, to frighten them, and to trouble them; that they might take the city. <sup>19</sup> They spoke of the God of Jerusalem as of the gods of the peoples of the earth, which are the work of men’s hands.

<sup>20</sup> Hezekiah the king and Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz, prayed because of this, and cried to heaven.

<sup>21</sup> Yahweh sent an angel, who cut off all the mighty men of valor, and the leaders and captains, in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned with shame of face to his own land. When he had come into the house of his god, those who came out of his own bowels<sup>e</sup> killed him there with the sword. <sup>22</sup> Thus Yahweh saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria and from the hand of all others, and guided them on every side. <sup>23</sup> Many brought gifts to Yahweh to Jerusalem, and precious things to Hezekiah king of Judah; so that he was exalted in the sight of all nations from then on. <sup>24</sup> In those days Hezekiah was terminally ill, and he prayed to Yahweh; and he spoke to him, and gave him a sign. <sup>25</sup> But Hezekiah didn’t reciprocate appropriate to the benefit done for him, because his heart was lifted up. Therefore there was wrath on him, and on Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>26</sup> Notwithstanding Hezekiah humbled himself for the pride of his heart, both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that Yahweh’s wrath didn’t come on them in the days of Hezekiah. <sup>27</sup> Hezekiah had exceedingly much riches and honor. He provided himself with treasuries for silver, for gold, for precious stones, for spices, for shields, and for all kinds of valuable vessels; <sup>28</sup> also storehouses for the increase of grain, new wine, and oil; and stalls for all kinds of animals, and flocks in folds. <sup>29</sup> Moreover he provided for himself cities, and possessions of flocks and herds in abundance; for God had given him abundant possessions. <sup>30</sup> This same Hezekiah also stopped the upper spring of the waters of Gihon, and brought them straight down on the west side of David's city. Hezekiah prospered in all his works.

<sup>31</sup> However concerning the ambassadors of the princes of Babylon, who sent to him to inquire of the wonder that was done in the land, God left him, to try him, that he might know all that was in his heart. <sup>32</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and his good deeds, behold, they are written in the vision of Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz, in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. <sup>33</sup> Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the ascent of the tombs of the sons of David. All Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem honored him at his death. Manasseh his son reigned in his place.

33

<sup>1</sup> Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup> He did that which was evil in Yahweh's sight, after the abominations of the nations whom Yahweh cast out before the children of Israel. <sup>3</sup> For he built again the high places which Hezekiah his father had broken down; and he raised up altars for the Baals, made Asheroth, and worshiped all the army of the sky, and served them. <sup>4</sup> He built altars in Yahweh's house, of which Yahweh said, "My name shall be in Jerusalem forever." <sup>5</sup>

He built altars for all the army of the sky in the two courts of Yahweh's house. <sup>6</sup> He also made his children to pass through the fire in the valley of the son of Hinnom. He practiced sorcery, divination, and witchcraft, and dealt with those who had familiar spirits, and with wizards. He did much evil in Yahweh's sight, to provoke him to anger. <sup>7</sup> He set the engraved image of the idol, which he had made, in God's house, of which God said to David and to Solomon his son, "In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, will I put my name forever. <sup>8</sup> I will not any more remove the foot of Israel from off the land which I have appointed for your fathers, if only they will observe to do all that I have commanded them, even all the law, the statutes, and the ordinances given by Moses." <sup>9</sup> Manasseh seduced Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that they did more evil than the nations whom Yahweh destroyed before the children of Israel did. <sup>10</sup> Yahweh spoke to Manasseh, and to his people; but they didn't listen. <sup>11</sup> Therefore Yahweh brought on them the captains of the army of the king of Assyria, who took Manasseh in chains, bound him with fetters, and carried him to Babylon.

<sup>12</sup> When he was in distress, he begged Yahweh his God, and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers. <sup>13</sup> He prayed to him; and he was entreated by him, and heard his supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that Yahweh was God.

<sup>14</sup> Now after this, he built an outer wall to David's city, on the west side of Gihon, in the valley, even to the entrance at the fish gate. He encircled Ophel with it, and raised it up to a very great height; and he put valiant captains in all the fortified cities of Judah. <sup>15</sup> He took away the foreign gods, and the idol out of Yahweh's house, and all the altars that he had built in the mountain of Yahweh's house, and in Jerusalem, and cast them out of the city. <sup>16</sup> He built up Yahweh's altar, and offered sacrifices of peace offerings and of thanksgiving on it, and commanded Judah to serve Yahweh, the God of Israel. <sup>17</sup> Nevertheless the people sacrificed still in the high places, but only to Yahweh their God. <sup>18</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and his prayer to his God, and the words of the seers who spoke to him in the name of Yahweh, the God of Israel, behold, they are written among the acts of the kings of Israel. <sup>19</sup> His prayer also, and how God was entreated of him, and all his sin and his trespass, and the places in which he built high places, and set up the Asherah poles and the engraved images, before he humbled himself: behold, they are written in the history of Hozai. <sup>20</sup> So Manasseh slept with his fathers, and they buried him in his own house; and Amon his son reigned in his place.

<sup>21</sup> Amon was twenty-two years old when he began to reign; and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. <sup>22</sup> He did that which was evil in Yahweh's sight, as did Manasseh his father; and Amon sacrificed to all the engraved images which Manasseh his father had made, and served them. <sup>23</sup> He didn't humble himself before Yahweh, as Manasseh his father had humbled himself; but this same Amon trespassed more and more. <sup>24</sup> His servants conspired against him, and put him to death in his own house.

<sup>25</sup> But the people of the land killed all those who had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his place.

34

<sup>1</sup> Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup> He did that which was right in Yahweh's eyes, and walked in the ways of David his father, and didn't turn aside to the right hand or to the left. <sup>3</sup> For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet young, he began to seek after the God of David his father; and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, the Asherah poles, the engraved images, and the molten images. <sup>4</sup> They broke down the altars of the Baals in his presence; and he cut down the incense altars that were on high above them. He broke the Asherah poles, the engraved images, and the molten images in pieces, made dust of them, and scattered it on the graves of those who had sacrificed to them. <sup>5</sup> He burned the bones of the priests on their altars, and purged Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>6</sup> He did this in the cities of Manasseh, Ephraim, and Simeon, even to Naphtali, around in their ruins. <sup>7</sup> He broke down the altars, and beat the Asherah poles and the engraved images into powder, and cut down all the incense altars throughout all the land of Israel, then returned to Jerusalem.

<sup>8</sup> Now in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land and the house, he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, and Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the recorder, to repair Yahweh his God's house. <sup>9</sup> They came to Hilkiah the high priest, and delivered the money that was brought into God's house, which the Levites, the keepers of the threshold, had gathered from the hands of Manasseh, Ephraim, of all the remnant of Israel, of all Judah and Benjamin, and of the inhabitants of Jerusalem. <sup>10</sup> They delivered it into the hands of the workmen who had the oversight of Yahweh's house; and the workmen who labored in Yahweh's house gave it to mend and repair the house. <sup>11</sup> They gave it to the carpenters and to the builders, to buy cut stone and timber for couplings, and to make beams for the houses which the kings of Judah had destroyed. <sup>12</sup> The men did the work faithfully. Their overseers were Jahath and Obadiah, the Levites, of the sons of Merari; and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, to give direction; and others of the Levites, who were all skillful with musical instruments. <sup>13</sup> Also they were over the bearers of burdens, and directed all who did the work in every kind of service. Of the Levites, there were scribes, officials, and porters. <sup>14</sup> When they brought out the money that was brought into Yahweh's house, Hilkiah the priest found the book of Yahweh's law given by Moses. <sup>15</sup> Hilkiah answered Shaphan the scribe, "I have found the book of the law in Yahweh's house." So Hilkiah delivered the book to Shaphan.

<sup>16</sup> Shaphan carried the book to the king, and moreover brought back word to the king, saying, "All that was committed to your servants, they are doing. <sup>17</sup> They have emptied out the money that was found in Yahweh's house, and have delivered it into the hand of the overseers, and into the hand of the workmen." <sup>18</sup> Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, "Hilkiah the priest has delivered me a book." Shaphan read from it to the king.

<sup>19</sup> When the king had heard the words of the law, he tore his clothes. <sup>20</sup> The king commanded Hilkiah, Ahikam the son of Shaphan, Abdon the son of Micah, Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah the king's servant, saying, <sup>21</sup> "Go inquire of Yahweh for me, and for those who are left in Israel and in Judah, concerning the words of the book that is found; for great is Yahweh's wrath that is poured out on us, because our fathers have not kept Yahweh's word, to do according to all that is written in this book."

<sup>22</sup> So Hilkiah, and they whom the king had commanded, went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tokhath, the son of Hasrah, keeper of the wardrobe (now she lived in Jerusalem in the second quarter) and they spoke to her to that effect.

<sup>23</sup> She said to them, "Yahweh, the God of Israel says: 'Tell the man who sent you to me, <sup>24</sup> "Yahweh says, 'Behold, I will bring evil on this place, and on its inhabitants, even all the curses that are written in the book which they have read before the king of Judah. <sup>25</sup> Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense to other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore my wrath is poured out on this place, and it will not be quenched.'"<sup>26</sup> But to the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of Yahweh, you shall tell him this, 'Yahweh, the God of Israel says: "About the words which you have heard, <sup>27</sup> because your heart was tender, and you humbled yourself before God, when you heard his words against this place, and against its inhabitants, and have humbled yourself before me, and have torn your clothes, and wept before me, I also have heard you,” says Yahweh. <sup>28</sup> “Behold, I will gather you to your fathers, and you will be gathered to your grave in peace. Your eyes won’t see all the evil that I will bring on this place and on its inhabitants.””

They brought back word to the king. <sup>29</sup> Then the king sent and gathered together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>30</sup> The king went up to Yahweh’s house, with all the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the priests, the Levites, and all the people, both great and small; and he read in their hearing all the words of the book of the covenant that was found in Yahweh’s house. <sup>31</sup> The king stood in his place, and made a covenant before Yahweh, to walk after Yahweh, and to keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all his heart, and with all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant that were written in this book. <sup>32</sup> He caused all who were found in Jerusalem and Benjamin to stand. The inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers. <sup>33</sup> Josiah took away all the abominations out of all the countries that belonged to the children of Israel, and made all who were found in Israel to serve, even to serve Yahweh their God. All his days they didn’t depart from following Yahweh, the God of their fathers.

35

fourteenth day of the first month. <sup>2</sup> He set the priests in their offices, and encouraged them in the service of Yahweh’s house. <sup>3</sup> He said to the Levites who taught all Israel, who were holy to Yahweh, “Put the holy ark in the house which Solomon the son of David king of Israel built. It will no longer be a burden on your shoulders. Now serve Yahweh your God, and his people Israel. <sup>4</sup> Prepare yourselves after your fathers’ houses by your divisions, according to the writing of David king of Israel, and according to the writing of Solomon his son. <sup>5</sup> Stand in the holy place according to the divisions of the fathers’ houses of your brothers the children of the people, and let there be for each a portion of a fathers’ house of the Levites. <sup>6</sup> Kill the Passover, sanctify yourselves, and prepare for your brothers, to do according to Yahweh’s word by Moses.”

<sup>7</sup> Josiah gave to the children of the people, of the flock, lambs and young goats, all of them for the Passover offerings, to all who were present, to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bulls. These were of the king’s substance. <sup>8</sup> His princes gave for a freewill offering to the people, to the priests, and to the Levites. Hilkiyah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, the rulers of God’s house, gave to the priests for the Passover offerings two thousand six hundred small livestock, and three hundred head of cattle. <sup>9</sup> Conaniah also, and Shemaiah and Nethanel, his brothers, and Hashabiah, Jeiel, and Jozabad, the chiefs of the Levites, gave to the Levites for the Passover offerings five thousand small livestock and five hundred head of cattle.

<sup>10</sup> So the service was prepared, and the priests stood in their place, and the Levites by their divisions, according to the king's commandment. <sup>11</sup> They killed the Passover, and the priests sprinkled the blood which they received of their hand, and the Levites flayed them. <sup>12</sup> They removed the burnt offerings, that they might give them according to the divisions of the fathers' houses of the children of the people, to offer to Yahweh, as it is written in the book of Moses. They did the same with the cattle. <sup>13</sup> They roasted the Passover with fire according to the ordinance. They boiled the holy offerings in pots, in cauldrons, and in pans, and carried them quickly to all the children of the people. <sup>14</sup> Afterward they prepared for themselves and for the priests, because the priests the sons of Aaron were busy with offering the burnt offerings and the fat until night. Therefore the Levites prepared for themselves and for the priests the sons of Aaron. <sup>15</sup> The singers the sons of Asaph were in their place, according to the commandment of David, Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer; and the porters were at every gate. They didn't need to depart from their service, because their brothers the Levites prepared for them. <sup>16</sup> So all the service of Yahweh was prepared the same day, to keep the Passover, and to offer burnt offerings on Yahweh's altar, according to the commandment of king Josiah. <sup>17</sup> The children of Israel who were present kept the Passover at that time, and the feast of unleavened bread seven days. <sup>18</sup> There was no Passover like that kept in Israel from the days of Samuel the prophet, nor did any of the kings of Israel keep such a Passover as Josiah kept, with the priests, the Levites, and all Judah and Israel who were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. <sup>19</sup> This passover was kept in the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah. <sup>20</sup> After all this, when Josiah had prepared the temple, Neco king of Egypt went up to fight against Carchemish by the Euphrates, and Josiah went out against him. <sup>21</sup> But he sent ambassadors to him, saying, "What have I to do with you, you king of Judah? I come not against you today, but against the house with which I have war. God has commanded me to make haste. Beware that it is God who is with me, that he not destroy you."

<sup>22</sup> Nevertheless Josiah would not turn his face from him, but disguised himself, that he might fight with him, and didn't listen to the words of Neco from the mouth of God, and came to fight in the valley of Megiddo. <sup>23</sup> The archers shot at king Josiah; and the king said to his servants, "Take me away, because I am seriously wounded!"

<sup>24</sup> So his servants took him out of the chariot, and put him in the second chariot that he had, and brought him to Jerusalem; and he died, and was buried in the tombs of his fathers. All Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah. <sup>25</sup> Jeremiah lamented for Josiah, and all the singing men and singing women spoke of Josiah in their lamentations to this day; and they made them an ordinance in Israel. Behold, they are written in the lamentations. <sup>26</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and his good deeds, according to that which is written in Yahweh's law, <sup>27</sup> and his acts, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

36

<sup>1</sup> Then the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and made him king in his father's place in Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup> Joahaz was twenty-three years old when he began to reign; and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup> The king of Egypt removed him from office at Jerusalem, and fined the land one hundred talents of silver and a talent<sup>f</sup> of gold. <sup>4</sup> The king of Egypt made Eliakim his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. Neco took Joahaz his brother, and carried him to Egypt.

<sup>5</sup> Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. He did that which was evil in Yahweh his God's sight. <sup>6</sup> Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up against him, and bound him in fetters to carry him to Babylon. <sup>7</sup> Nebuchadnezzar also carried some of the vessels of Yahweh's house to Babylon, and put them in his temple at Babylon. <sup>8</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and his abominations which he did, and that which was found in him, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah; and Jehoiachin his son reigned in his place.

<sup>9</sup> Jehoiachin was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem. He did that which was evil in Yahweh's sight. <sup>10</sup> At the return of the year, king Nebuchadnezzar sent and brought him to Babylon, with the valuable vessels of Yahweh's house, and made Zedekiah his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem.

<sup>11</sup> Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. <sup>12</sup> He did that which was evil in Yahweh his God's sight. He didn't humble himself before Jeremiah the prophet speaking from Yahweh's mouth. <sup>13</sup> He also rebelled against king Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear by God; but he stiffened his neck, and hardened his heart against turning to Yahweh, the God of Israel. <sup>14</sup> Moreover all the chiefs of the priests, and the people, trespassed very greatly after all the abominations of the nations; and they polluted Yahweh's house which he had made holy in Jerusalem. <sup>15</sup> Yahweh, the God of their fathers, sent to them by his messengers, rising up early and sending, because he had compassion on his people, and on his dwelling place; <sup>16</sup> but they mocked the messengers of God, and despised his words, and scoffed at his prophets, until Yahweh's wrath arose against his people, until there was no remedy. <sup>17</sup> Therefore he brought on them the king of the Chaldeans, who killed their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion on young man or virgin, old man or gray-headed. He gave them all into his hand. <sup>18</sup> All the vessels of God's house, great and small, and the treasures of Yahweh's house, and the treasures of the king, and of his princes, all these he brought to Babylon. <sup>19</sup> They burned God's house, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem, and burned all its palaces with fire, and destroyed all of its valuable vessels. <sup>20</sup> He carried those who had escaped from the sword away to Babylon, and they were servants to him and his sons until the reign of the kingdom of Persia, <sup>21</sup> to fulfill Yahweh's word by Jeremiah's mouth, until the land had enjoyed its Sabbaths. As long as it lay desolate, it kept Sabbath, to fulfill seventy years.

<sup>22</sup> Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that Yahweh's word by the mouth of Jeremiah might be accomplished, Yahweh stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, so that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying, <sup>23</sup> "Thus says Cyrus king of Persia, 'Yahweh, the God of heaven, has given all the kingdoms of the earth to me; and he has commanded me to build him a house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Whoever there is among you of all his people, Yahweh his God be with him, and let him go up.'"

<sup>1</sup> AND <sup>1</sup> Josias held the passover in Jerusalem to his Lord, and offered the passover the fourteenth day of the first month; <sup>2</sup> having set the priests according to their daily courses, being arrayed in their vestments, in the temple of the Lord. <sup>3</sup> And he spoke to the Levites, <sup>a</sup> the temple-servants of Israel, that they should hallow themselves to the Lord, to set the holy ark of the Lord in the house that King Solomon the son of David had built: <sup>4</sup> and said, You<sup>23</sup> shall no more have need to bear it upon your shoulders: now therefore serve the Lord your God, and minister to his people Israel, and prepare you after your fathers' houses and kindred, <sup>5</sup> according to the writing of David king of Israel, and according to the magnificence of Solomon his son: and standing in the holy place according to the several divisions of the families of you the Levites, who minister in the presence of your brethren the children of Israel, <sup>6</sup> offer the passover in order, and make ready the sacrifices for your brethren, and keep the passover according to the commandment of the Lord, which was given to Moses. <sup>7</sup> And to the people which were present Josias gave thirty thousand lambs and kids, and three thousand calves: these things were given of the king's substance, according as he promised, to the people, and to the priests and Levites. <sup>8</sup> And Helkias, and Zacharias, and <sup>b</sup> Esyelus, the rulers of the temple, gave to the priests for the passover two thousand and six hundred sheep, and three hundred calves. <sup>9</sup> And Jeconias, and Samaias and Nathanael his brother, and Sabias, and Ochielus, and Joram, captains over thousands, gave to the Levites for the passover five thousand sheep, and seven hundred calves. <sup>10</sup> And when these things were done, the priests and Levites, having the unleavened bread, stood in comely order according to the kindred, <sup>11</sup> and according to the several divisions by fathers' houses, before the people, to offer to the Lord, as it is written in the book of Moses: and thus did they in the morning. <sup>12</sup> And they roasted the passover with fire, as appertains: and the sacrifices they sod in the brazen vessels and caldrons with a good savor, <sup>13</sup> and set them before all the people: and afterward they prepared for themselves, and for the priests their brethren, the sons of Aaron. <sup>14</sup> For the priests offered the fat until night: and the Levites prepared for themselves, and for the priests their brethren, the sons of Aaron. <sup>15</sup> The holy singers also, the sons of Asaph, were in their order, according to the appointment of David, to wit, Asaph, Zacharias, and Eddinus, who <sup>c</sup> was of the king's retinue. <sup>16</sup> Moreover the porters were at every gate; none had need to depart from his daily course: for their brethren the Levites prepared for them. <sup>17</sup> Thus were the things that belonged to the sacrifices of the Lord accomplished in that day, in holding the passover, <sup>18</sup> and offering sacrifices upon the altar of the Lord, according to the commandment of King Josias. <sup>19</sup> So the children of Israel which were present at that time held the passover, and the feast of unleavened bread seven days. <sup>20</sup> And such a passover was not held in Israel since the time of the prophet Samuel. <sup>21</sup> Yes, all the kings of Israel held not such a passover as Josias, and the priests, and the Levites, and the Jews, held with all Israel that were present in their dwelling place at Jerusalem. <sup>22</sup> In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josias was this passover held. <sup>23</sup> And the works of Josias were upright before his Lord with a heart full of godliness. <sup>24</sup> Moreover the things that came to pass in his days have been written in times past, concerning those that sinned, and did wickedly against the Lord above every people and kingdom, and how they grieved him <sup>d</sup> exceedingly, so that the words of the Lord were confirmed against Israel.

<sup>25</sup> <sup>2</sup> Now after all these acts of Josias it came to pass, that Pharaoh the king of Egypt came to raise war at Carchemish upon Euphrates: and Josias went out against him. <sup>26</sup> But the king of Egypt sent to him, saying, What have I to do with you, O king of Judaea? <sup>27</sup> I am not sent out from the Lord God against you; for my war is upon Euphrates: and now the Lord is with me, yes, the Lord is with me hasting me forward: depart from me, and be not against the Lord. <sup>28</sup> Howbeit Josias did not turn back <sup>e</sup> to his chariot, but undertook to fight with him, not regarding the words of the prophet Jeremy spoken by the mouth of the Lord: <sup>29</sup> but joined battle with him in the plain of Megiddo, and the princes came down against King Josias. <sup>30</sup> Then said the king to his servants, Carry me away out of the battle; for I am very weak. And immediately his servants carried him away out of the host. <sup>31</sup> Then got he up upon his second chariot; and being brought back to Jerusalem he died, and was buried in the sepulchre of his fathers. <sup>32</sup> And in all Jewry they mourned for Josias; and Jeremy the prophet lamented for Josias, and the chief men with the women made lamentation for him, to this day: and this was given out for an ordinance to be done continually in all the nation of Israel. <sup>33</sup> These things are written in the book of the histories of the kings of Judea, and every one of the acts that Josias did, and his glory, and his understanding in the law of the Lord, and the things that he had done before, and the things now recited, are reported in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

<sup>34</sup> <sup>3</sup> And the people took <sup>f</sup> Joachaz the son of Josias, and made him king instead of Josias his father, when he was twenty and three years old. <sup>35</sup> And he reigned in <sup>g</sup> Judah and in Jerusalem three months: and then the king of Egypt deposed him from reigning in Jerusalem. <sup>36</sup> And he set a tax upon the people of a hundred talents of silver and one talent of gold. <sup>37</sup> The king of Egypt also made King Joakim his brother king of Judaea and Jerusalem. <sup>38</sup> And Joakim bound the nobles: but Zarakes his brother he apprehended, and brought him up out of Egypt. <sup>39</sup> Five and twenty years old was <sup>4</sup> Joakim when he began to reign in Judaea and Jerusalem; and he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord. <sup>40</sup> And against him Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon came up, and bound him with a chain of brass, and carried him to Babylon.

<sup>41</sup> Nabuchodonosor also took of the holy vessels of the Lord, and carried them away, and set them up in his own temple at Babylon. <sup>42</sup> But those things that are reported of him, and of his uncleanness and impiety, are written in the chronicles of the kings. <sup>43</sup> And Joakim his son reigned in his stead: for when he was made king he was <sup>h</sup> eighteen years old; <sup>44</sup> and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem; and did that which was evil before the Lord.

<sup>45</sup> So after a year Nabuchodonosor sent and caused him to be brought to Babylon with the holy vessels of the Lord; <sup>46</sup> and made Sedekias king of Judaea and Jerusalem, when he was one and twenty years old; and he reigned eleven years: <sup>47</sup> and he also did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord, and cared not for the words that were spoken by Jeremy the prophet from the mouth of the Lord. <sup>48</sup> And after that king Nabuchodonosor had made him to swear by the name of the Lord, he forswore himself, and rebelled; and hardening his neck, and his heart, he transgressed the laws of the Lord, the God of Israel. <sup>49</sup> Moreover the governors of the people and of the priests did many things wickedly, <sup>i</sup> and passed all the pollutions of all nations, and defiled the temple of the Lord, which was sanctified in Jerusalem. <sup>50</sup> And the God of their fathers sent by his messenger to call them back, because he had compassion on them and on his dwelling place. <sup>51</sup> But they mocked his messengers; and in the day when the Lord spoke to them, they scoffed at his prophets: <sup>52</sup> so far forth, that he, being angry with his people for their great ungodliness, commanded to bring up the kings of the Chaldeans against them; <sup>53</sup> who killed their young men with the sword, round about their holy temple, and spared neither young man nor maid, old man nor child; but he delivered all into their hands. <sup>54</sup> And they took all the holy vessels of the Lord, both great and small, with <sup>j</sup> the vessels of the ark of the Lord, and the king's treasures, and carried them away to Babylon. <sup>55</sup> And they burned the house of the Lord, and brake down the walls of Jerusalem, and burned the towers thereof with fire: <sup>56</sup> and as for her glorious things, they never ceased till they had brought them all to nothing: and the people that were not slain with the sword he carried to Babylon: <sup>57</sup> and they were servants to him and to his children, till the Persians reigned, to fulfil the word of the Lord by the mouth of Jeremy: <sup>58</sup> Until the land has enjoyed her Sabbaths, the whole time of her desolation shall she keep Sabbath, to fulfil threescore and ten years.

with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem that is in Judaea, and build the house of the Lord of Israel: he is the Lord that dwells in Jerusalem. <sup>6</sup> Of such therefore as dwell in various places, let them that are in his own place help each one with gold, and with silver, <sup>7</sup> with gifts, with horses also and cattle, beside the other things which have been added by vow for the temple of the Lord which is in Jerusalem.

<sup>8</sup> Then the chief of the families of Judah and of the tribe of Benjamin stood up; the priests also, and the Levites, and all they whose spirit the Lord had stirred to go up, to build the house for the Lord which is in Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup> And they that lived round about them helped them in all things with silver and gold, with horses and cattle, and with very many gifts that were vowed of a great number whose minds were stirred up thereto. <sup>10</sup> King Cyrus also brought forth the holy vessels of the Lord, which Nabuchodonosor had carried away from Jerusalem, and had set up in his temple of idols. <sup>11</sup> Now when Cyrus king of the Persians had brought them forth, he delivered them to Mithradates his treasurer, <sup>12</sup> and by him they were delivered to <sup>1</sup> Sanabassar the governor of Judaea. <sup>13</sup> And this was the number of them: A thousand golden cups, a thousand cups of silver, censers of silver twenty nine, vials of gold thirty, and of silver two thousand four hundred and ten, and other vessels a thousand. <sup>14</sup> So all the vessels of gold and of silver were brought up, even five thousand four hundred threescore and nine, <sup>15</sup> and were carried back by Sanabassar, together with them of the captivity, from Babylon to Jerusalem.

<sup>16</sup> <sup>2</sup> But in the time of Artaxerxes king of the Persians Belemus, and Mithradates, and Tabellius, and <sup>m</sup> Rathumus, and Beeltethmus, and <sup>n</sup> Samellius the scribe, with the others that were in commission with them, dwelling in Samaria and other places, wrote to him against them that lived in Judaea and Jerusalem the letter following: <sup>17</sup> To king Artaxerxes our Lord, Your servants, Rathumus the <sup>o</sup> storywriter, and Samellius the scribe, and the rest of their council, and the judges that are in Coelesyria and Phoenicia. <sup>18</sup> Be it now known to our lord the king, that the Jews that are come up from you to us, being come to Jerusalem, do build that rebellious and wicked city, and do repair the marketplaces and the walls of it, and do lay the foundation of a temple. <sup>19</sup> Now if this city be builded and the walls thereof be finished, they will not only refuse to give tribute, but will even stand up against kings. <sup>20</sup> And forasmuch as the things pertaining to the temple are now in hand, we think it meet not to neglect such a matter, <sup>21</sup> but to speak to our lord the king, to the intent that, if it be your pleasure, search may be made in the books of your fathers: <sup>22</sup> and you shall find in the chronicles what is written concerning these things, and shall understand that that city was rebellious, troubling both kings and cities: <sup>23</sup> and that the Jews were rebellious, and raised always wars therein of old time; for the which cause even this city was laid waste. <sup>24</sup> Wherefore now we do declare to you, O lord the king, that if this city be builded again, and the walls thereof set up anew, you shall from henceforth have no passage into Coelesyria and Phoenicia. <sup>25</sup>

Then the king wrote back again to Rathumus the storywriter, and Beeltethmus, and Samellius the scribe, and to the rest that were in commission, and lived in Samaria and Syria and Phoenicia, after this manner: <sup>26</sup> I have read the epistle which you<sup>23</sup> have sent to me: therefore I commanded to make search, and it has been found that that city of old time has made insurrection against kings; <sup>27</sup> and the men were given to rebellion and war therein: and that mighty kings and fierce were in Jerusalem, who reigned and exacted tribute in Coelesyria and Phoenicia. <sup>28</sup> Now therefore I have commanded to hinder those men from building the city, and heed to be taken that there be nothing done contrary to this order; <sup>29</sup> and that those wicked doings proceed no further to the annoyance of kings. <sup>30</sup> Then king Artaxerxes his letters being read, Rathumus, and Samellius the scribe, and the rest that were in commission with them, removing in haste to Jerusalem with horsemen and a multitude of people in battle array, began to hinder the builders; and the building of the temple in Jerusalem ceased until the second year of the reign of Darius king of the Persians.

3

<sup>1</sup> Now king Darius made a great feast to all his subjects, and to all that were born in his house, and to all the princes of Media and of Persia, <sup>2</sup> and to all the satraps and captains and governors that were under him, from India to Ethiopia, in the hundred twenty and seven provinces. <sup>3</sup> And when they had eaten and drunken, and being satisfied were gone home, then Darius the king went into his bedchamber, and slept, and awaked out of his sleep.

<sup>4</sup> Then the three young men of the body-guard, that kept the king's person, spoke one to another: <sup>5</sup> Let every one of us say one thing which shall be strongest: and he whose sentence shall seem wiser than the others, to him shall Darius the king give great gifts, and great honors in token of victory: <sup>6</sup> as, to be clothed in purple, to drink in gold, and to sleep upon gold, and a chariot with bridles of gold, and a headtire of fine linen, and a chain about his neck: <sup>7</sup> and he shall sit next to Darius because of his wisdom, and shall be called Darius his cousin. <sup>8</sup> And then they wrote every one his sentence, and set to their seals, and laid the writing under king Darius his pillow, <sup>9</sup> and said, When the king is risen, some shall give him the writing; and of whose side the king and the three princes of Persia shall judge that his sentence is the wisest, to him shall the victory be given, as it is written. <sup>10</sup> The first wrote, Wine is the strongest. <sup>11</sup> The second wrote, The king is strongest. <sup>12</sup> The third wrote, Women are strongest: but above all things Truth bears away the victory.

<sup>13</sup> Now when the king was risen up, they took the writing, and gave it to him, and so he read it: <sup>14</sup> and sending forth he called all the princes of Persia and of Media, and the satraps, and the captains, and the governors, and the chief officers; <sup>15</sup> and sat him down in the royal seat of judgment; and the writing was read before them. <sup>16</sup> And he said, Call the young men, and they shall explain their own sentences. So they were called, and came in. <sup>17</sup> And they said to them, Declare to us your mind concerning the things you<sup>23</sup> have written.

Then began the first, who had spoken of the strength of wine, <sup>18</sup> and said thus, O sirs, how exceeding strong is wine! it causes all men to err that drink it: <sup>19</sup> it makes the mind of the king and of the fatherless child to be all one; of the bondman and of the freeman, of the poor man and of the rich: <sup>20</sup> it turns also every thought into jollity and mirth, so that a man remembers neither sorrow nor debt: <sup>21</sup> and it makes every heart rich, so that a man remembers neither king nor satrap; and it makes to speak all things by talents: <sup>22</sup> and when they are in their cups, they forget their love both to friends and brethren, and a little after draw their swords: <sup>23</sup> but when they awake from their wine, they remember not what they have done. <sup>24</sup> O sirs, is not wine the strongest, seeing that it enforces to do thus? And when he had so spoken, he held his peace.

4

<sup>1</sup> Then the second, that had spoken of the strength of the king, began to say, <sup>2</sup> O sirs, do not men excel in strength, that bear rule over the sea and land, and all things in them? <sup>3</sup> But yet is the king stronger: and he is their lord, and has dominion over them; and in whatever he commands them they obey him. <sup>4</sup> If he bid them make war the one against the other, they do it: and if he send them out against the enemies, they go, and overcome mountains, walls, and towers. <sup>5</sup> They kill and are slain, and transgress not the king's commandment: if they get the victory, they bring all to the king, as well the spoil, as all things else. <sup>6</sup>

Likewise for those that are no soldiers, and have not to do with wars, but use husbandry, when they have reaped again that which they had sown, they bring it to the king, and compel one another to pay tribute to the king. <sup>7</sup> And he is <sup>p</sup> but one man: if he command to kill, they kill; if he command to spare, they spare; <sup>8</sup> if he command to strike, they strike; if he command to make desolate, they make desolate; if he command to build, they build; <sup>9</sup> if he command to cut down, they cut down; if he command to plant, they plant. <sup>10</sup> So all his people and his armies obey him: furthermore he lies down, he eats and drinks, and takes his rest: <sup>11</sup> and these keep watch round about him, neither may any one depart, and do his own business, neither disobey they him in anything. <sup>12</sup> O sirs, how should not the king be strongest, seeing that in such sort he is obeyed? And he held his peace.

<sup>13</sup> Then the third, who had spoken of women, and of truth, (this was Zorobabel) began to speak. <sup>14</sup> O sirs, is not the king great, and men are many, and wine is strong? who is it then that rules them, or has the lordship over them? are they not women? <sup>15</sup> Women have borne the king and all the people that bear rule by sea and land. <sup>16</sup> Even of them came they: and they nourished them up that planted the vineyards, from whence the wine comes. <sup>17</sup> These also make garments for men; these bring glory to men; and without women can't men be. <sup>18</sup> Yes, and if men have gathered together gold and silver and any other goodly thing, <sup>q</sup> and see a woman which is comely in favor and beauty, <sup>19</sup> they let all those things go, and gape after her, and even with open mouth fix their eyes fast on her; and have all more desire to her than to gold or silver, or any goodly thing whatever. <sup>20</sup> A man leaves his own father that brought him up, and his own country, and cleaves to his wife. <sup>21</sup> And with his wife he ends his days, and remembers neither father, nor mother, nor country. <sup>22</sup> By this also you<sup>33</sup> must know that women have dominion over you: do you<sup>33</sup> not labor and toil, and give and bring all to women? <sup>23</sup> Yes, a man takes his sword, and goes forth to make outroads, and to rob and to steal, and to sail upon the sea and upon rivers; <sup>24</sup> and looks upon a lion, and walks in the darkness; and when he has stolen, spoiled, and robbed, he brings it to his love. <sup>25</sup> Wherefore a man loves his wife better than father or mother. <sup>26</sup> Yes, many there be that have run out of their wits for women, and become bondmen for their sakes. <sup>27</sup> Many also have perished, have stumbled, and sinned, for women. <sup>28</sup> And now do you<sup>33</sup> not believe me? is not the king great in his power? do not all regions fear to touch him? <sup>29</sup> Yet did I see him and Apame the king's concubine, the daughter of the illustrious Barticus, sitting at the right hand of the king, <sup>30</sup> and taking the crown from the king's head, and setting it upon her own head; yes, she struck the king with her left hand: <sup>31</sup> and therewithal the king gaped and gazed upon her with open mouth: if she laughed upon him, he laughed also: but if she took any displeasure at him, he was fain to flatter, that she might be reconciled to him again. <sup>32</sup> O sirs, how can it be but women should be strong, seeing they do thus?

<sup>33</sup> Then the king and the nobles looked one upon another: so he began to speak concerning truth. <sup>34</sup> O sirs, are not women strong? great is the earth, high is the heaven, swift is the sun in his course, for he encircles the heavens round about, and fetches his course again to his own place in one day. <sup>35</sup> Is he not great that makes these things? therefore great is truth, and stronger than all things. <sup>36</sup> All the earth calls upon truth, and the heaven blesses her: all works shake and tremble, but with <sup>r</sup> her is no unrighteous thing. <sup>37</sup> Wine is unrighteous, the king is unrighteous, women are unrighteous, all the children of men are unrighteous, and unrighteous are all such their works; and there is no truth in them; in their unrighteousness also they shall perish. <sup>38</sup> But truth remains, and is strong forever; she lives and conquers forevermore. <sup>39</sup> With her there is no accepting of persons or rewards; but she does the things that are just, and refrains from all unrighteous and wicked things; and all men do well like of her works. <sup>40</sup> Neither in her judgment is any unrighteousness; and she is the strength, and the kingdom, and the power, and the majesty, of all ages. Blessed be the God of truth. <sup>41</sup> And with that he held his tongue. And all the people then shouted, and said, Great is truth, and strong above all things.

<sup>42</sup> Then said the king to him, Ask what you will more than is appointed in writing, and we will give it you, inasmuch as you are found wisest; and you shall sit next me, and shall be called my cousin. <sup>43</sup> Then said he to the king, Remember your vow, which you did vow to build Jerusalem, in the day when you came to your kingdom, <sup>44</sup> and to send away all the vessels that were taken out of Jerusalem, which Cyrus set apart, when he vowed to destroy Babylon, and vowed to send them again there. <sup>45</sup> You did also vow to build up the temple, which the Edomites burned when Judaea was made desolate by the Chaldeans. <sup>46</sup> And now, O lord the king, this is that which I require, and which I desire of you, and this is the princely liberality that shall proceed from you: I pray therefore that you make good the vow, the performance whereof you have vowed to the King of heaven with your own mouth.

<sup>47</sup> Then Darius the king stood up, and kissed him, and wrote letters for him to all the treasurers and governors and captains and satraps, that they should safely bring on their way both him, and all those that should go up with him to build Jerusalem. <sup>48</sup> He wrote letters also to all the governors that were in Coelesyria and Phoenicia, and to them in Libanus, that they should bring cedar wood from Libanus to Jerusalem, and that they should build the city with him. <sup>49</sup> Moreover he wrote for all the Jews that should go out of his realm up into Jewry, concerning their freedom, that no officer, no governor, no satrap, nor treasurer, should forcibly enter into their doors; <sup>50</sup> and that all the country which they occupied should be free to them without tribute; and that the Edomites should give over the villages of the Jews which then they held: <sup>51</sup> and that there should be yearly given twenty talents to the building of the temple, until the time that it were built; <sup>52</sup> and other ten talents yearly, for burnt offerings to be presented upon the altar every day, as they had a commandment to offer seventeen: <sup>53</sup> and that all they that should come from Babylonia to build the city should have their freedom, as well they as their posterity, and all the priests that came. <sup>54</sup> He wrote also to give them their charges, and the priests' vestments wherein they minister; <sup>55</sup> and for the Levites he wrote that their charges should be given them until the day that the house were finished, and Jerusalem builded up. <sup>56</sup> And he commanded to give to all that kept the city lands and wages. <sup>57</sup> He sent away also all the vessels from Babylon, that Cyrus had set apart; and all that Cyrus had given in commandment, the same charged he also to be done, and sent to Jerusalem.

<sup>58</sup> Now when this young man was gone forth, he lifted up his face to heaven toward Jerusalem, and praised the King of heaven, <sup>59</sup> and said, From you comes victory, from you comes wisdom, and your is the glory, and I am your servant. <sup>60</sup> Blessed are you, who have given me wisdom: and to you I give thanks, O Lord of our fathers. <sup>61</sup> And so he took the letters, and went out, and came to Babylon, and told it all his brethren. <sup>62</sup> And they praised the God of their fathers, because he had given them freedom and liberty <sup>63</sup> to go up, and to build Jerusalem, and the temple which is called by his name: and they feasted with instruments of music and gladness seven days.

found, they were removed from executing the office of the priesthood: <sup>40</sup> for to them said Nehemias and Attharias, that they should not be partakers of the holy things, till there arose up a high priest wearing <sup>1</sup> Urim and Thummim. <sup>41</sup> So all they of Israel, from twelve years old and upward, beside menservants and women servants, were in number forty and two thousand three hundred and sixty. <sup>42</sup> Their menservants and handmaids were seven thousand three hundred thirty and seven: the minstrels and singers, two hundred forty and five: <sup>43</sup> four hundred thirty and five camels, seven <sup>m</sup> thousand thirty and six horses, two hundred forty and five mules, five thousand five hundred twenty and five beasts of burden. <sup>44</sup> And certain of the chief men of their families, when they came to the temple of God that is in Jerusalem, vowed to set up the house again in its own place according to their ability, <sup>45</sup> and to give into the holy treasury of the works a thousand pounds of gold, five thousand of silver, and a hundred priestly vestments. <sup>46</sup> And the priests and the Levites and they that were of the people lived in Jerusalem and the country; the holy singers also and the porters and all Israel in their villages.

<sup>47</sup> But when the seventh month was at hand, and when the children of Israel were every man in his own place, they came all together with one consent into the broad place before the first porch which is toward the east. <sup>48</sup> Then stood up Jesus the son of Josedek, and his brethren the priests, and Zorobabel the son of Salathiel, and his brethren, and made ready the altar of the God of Israel, <sup>49</sup> to offer burned sacrifices upon it, according as it is expressly commanded in the book of Moses the man of God. <sup>50</sup> And certain were gathered to them out of the other nations of the land, and they erected the altar upon its own place, because all the nations of the land were at enmity with them, and oppressed them; and they offered sacrifices according to the time, and burnt offerings to the Lord both morning and evening. <sup>51</sup> Also they held the feast of tabernacles, as it is commanded in the law, and offered sacrifices daily, as was meet: <sup>52</sup> and after that, the continual oblations, and the sacrifices of the Sabbaths, and of the new moons, and of all the consecrated feasts. <sup>53</sup> And all they that had made any vow to God began to offer sacrifices to God from the new moon of the <sup>n</sup> seventh month, although the temple of God was not yet built. <sup>54</sup> And they gave money to the masons and carpenters; and meat and drink, <sup>55</sup> and cars to them of Sidon and Tyre, that they should bring cedar trees from Libanus, and convey them in floats to the haven of Joppa, according to the commandment which was written for them by Cyrus king of the Persians. <sup>56</sup> And in the second year after his coming to the temple of God at Jerusalem, in the second month, began Zorobabel the son of Salathiel, and Jesus the son of Josedek, and their brethren, and the priests the Levites, and all they that were come to Jerusalem out of the captivity: <sup>57</sup> and they laid the foundation of the temple of God on the new moon of the second month, in the second year after they were come to Jewry and Jerusalem. <sup>58</sup> <sup>2</sup> And they appointed the Levites from twenty years old over the works of the Lord. Then stood up Jesus, and his sons and brethren, and Kadmiel his brother, and the sons of Jesus, Emadabun, and the sons of Joda the son of Iliadun, and their sons and brethren, all the Levites, with one accord setters forward of the business, laboring to advance the works in the house of God. So the builders builded the temple of the Lord. <sup>59</sup> And the priests stood arrayed in their vestments with musical instruments and trumpets, and the Levites the sons of Asaph with their cymbals, <sup>60</sup> singing songs of thanksgiving, and praising the Lord, after the order of David king of Israel. <sup>61</sup> And they sang aloud, praising the Lord in songs of thanksgiving, because his goodness and his glory are forever in all Israel. <sup>62</sup> And all the people sounded trumpets, and shouted with a loud voice, singing songs of thanksgiving to the Lord for the rearing up of the house of the Lord. <sup>63</sup> <sup>3</sup> Also of the priests the Levites, and of the heads of their families, the ancients who had seen the former house came to the building of this with lamentation and great weeping. <sup>64</sup> But many with trumpets and joy shouted with loud voice, <sup>65</sup> insomuch that the people heard not the trumpets for the weeping of the people: for the multitude sounded marvelously, so that it was heard afar off.

<sup>66</sup> <sup>4</sup> Wherefore when the enemies of the tribe of Judah and Benjamin heard it, they came to know what that noise of trumpets should mean. <sup>67</sup> And they perceived that they that were of the captivity did build the temple to the Lord, the God of Israel. <sup>68</sup> So they went to zorobabel and Jesus, and to the chief men of the families, and said to them, we will build together with you. <sup>69</sup> For we likewise, as you<sup>63</sup>, do obey your Lord, and do sacrifice to him from the days of ° Asbasareth the king of the Assyrians, who brought us hither. <sup>70</sup> Then Zorobabel and Jesus and the chief men of the families of Israel said to them, It is not <sup>p</sup> for you to build the house to the Lord our God. <sup>71</sup> We ourselves alone will build to the Lord of Israel, according as Cyrus the king of the Persians has commanded us. <sup>72</sup> But the heathen of the land lying heavy upon the inhabitants of Judaea, and <sup>q</sup> holding them strait, hindered their building; <sup>73</sup> and <sup>r</sup> by their secret plots, and popular persuasions and commotions, they hindered the finishing of the building all the time that King Cyrus lived: so they were hindered from building for the space of two years, until the reign of Darius.

<sup>1</sup> Now <sup>1</sup> in the second year of the reign of Darius, Aggaeus and Zacharius the son of <sup>s</sup> Addo, the prophets, prophesied to the Jews in Jewry and Jerusalem; in the name of the Lord, the God of Israel, prophesied they to them. <sup>2</sup> Then stood up Zorobabel the son of Salathiel, and Jesus the son of Josedek, and began to build the house of the Lord at Jerusalem, the prophets of the Lord being with them, and helping them. <sup>3</sup> <sup>2</sup> At the same time came to them <sup>t</sup> Sisinnes the governor of Syria and Phoenicia, with <sup>u</sup> Sathrabuzanes and his companions, and said to them, <sup>4</sup> By whose appointment do you<sup>63</sup> build this house and this roof, and perform all the other things? and who are the builders that perform these things? <sup>5</sup> Nevertheless the elders of the Jews obtained favor, because the Lord had visited the captivity; <sup>6</sup> and they were not hindered from building, until such time as communication was made to Darius concerning them, and his answer signified.

<sup>7</sup> The copy of the letter which Sisinnes, governor of Syria and Phoenicia, and Sathrabuzanes, with their companions, the rulers in Syria and Phoenicia, wrote and sent to Darius; <sup>8</sup> To king Darius, greeting: Let all things be known to our lord the king, that being come into the country of Judaea, and entered into the city of Jerusalem, we found in the city of Jerusalem the elders of the Jews that were of the captivity <sup>9</sup> building a house to the Lord, great and new, of hewn and costly stones, with timber laid in the walls. <sup>10</sup> And those works are done with great speed, and the work goes on prosperously in their hands, and with all glory and diligence it is accomplished. <sup>11</sup> Then asked we these elders, saying, By whose commandment build you <sup>12</sup> this house, and lay the foundations of these works? <sup>12</sup> Therefore, to the intent that we might give knowledge to you by writing who were the chief doers, we questioned them, and we required of them the names in writing of their principal men. <sup>13</sup> So they gave us this answer, We are the servants of the Lord which made heaven and earth. <sup>14</sup> And as for this house, it was builded many years ago by a king of Israel great and strong, and was finished. <sup>15</sup> But when our fathers sinned against the Lord of Israel which is in heaven, and provoked him to wrath, he gave them over into the hands of Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon, king of the Chaldeans; <sup>16</sup> and they pulled down the house, and burned it, and carried away the people captives to Babylon. <sup>17</sup> But in the first year that Cyrus reigned over the country of Babylon, king Cyrus wrote to build up this house. <sup>18</sup> And the holy vessels of gold and of silver, that Nabuchodonosor had carried away out of the house at Jerusalem, and had set up in his own temple, those Cyrus the king brought forth again out of the temple in Babylonia, and they were delivered to Zorobabel and to <sup>v</sup> Sanabassarus the governor, <sup>19</sup> with commandment that he should carry away <sup>w</sup> all these vessels, and put them in the temple at Jerusalem; and that the temple of the Lord should be built in its place. <sup>20</sup> Then Sanabassarus, being come here, laid the foundations of the house of the Lord which is in Jerusalem; and from that time to this being still a building, it is not yet fully ended. <sup>21</sup> Now therefore, if it seem good, O king, let search be made among the royal archives of our lord the king that are in Babylon: <sup>22</sup> and if it be found that the building of the house of the Lord which is in Jerusalem has been done with the consent of king Cyrus, and it seem good to our lord the king, let him signify to us thereof.

<sup>23</sup> <sup>3</sup> Then commanded King Darius to seek among the archives that were laid up at Babylon: and so at Ekbatana the palace, which is in the country of Media, there was found a <sup>x</sup> roll wherin these things were recorded. <sup>24</sup> In the first year of the reign of Cyrus king Cyrus commanded to build up the house of the Lord which is in Jerusalem, where they do sacrifice with continual fire: <sup>25</sup> whose height shall be sixty cubits, and the breadth sixty cubits, with three rows of hewn stones, and one row of new wood of that country; and the expenses therof to be given out of the house of king Cyrus: <sup>26</sup> and that the holy vessels of the house of the Lord, both gold and silver, that Nabuchodonosor took out of the house at Jerusalem, and carried away to Babylon, should be restored to the house at Jerusalem, and be set in the place where they were before. <sup>27</sup> And also he commanded that Sisinnes the governor of Syria and Phoenicia, and Sathrabuzanes, and their companions, and those which were appointed rulers in Syria and Phoenicia, should be careful not to meddle with the place, but suffer Zorobabel, the servant of the Lord, and governor of Judaea, and the elders of the Jews, to build that house of the Lord in its place. <sup>28</sup> And I also do command to have it built up whole again; and that they look diligently to help those that be of the captivity of Judaea, till the house of the Lord be finished: <sup>29</sup> and that out of the tribute of Coelesyria and Phoenicia a portion be carefully given these men for the sacrifices of the Lord, that is, to Zorobabel the governor, for bullocks, and rams, and lambs; <sup>30</sup> and also corn, salt, wine and oil, and that continually every year without further question, according as the priests that be in Jerusalem shall signify to be daily spent: <sup>31</sup> that drink offerings may be made to the Most High God for the king and for his children, and that they may pray for their lives. <sup>32</sup> And that commandment be given that whoever shall transgress, yes, or neglect anything <sup>y</sup> herein written, out of his own house shall a tree be taken, and he thereon be hanged, and all his goods seized for the king. <sup>33</sup> The Lord therefore, whose name is there called upon, utterly destroy every king and nation, that shall stretch out his hand to hinder or endamage that house of the Lord in Jerusalem. <sup>34</sup> I Darius the king have ordained that according to these things it be done with diligence.

<sup>1</sup> Then <sup>1</sup> Sisinnes the governor of Coelesyria and Phoenicia, and Sathrabuzanes, with their companions, following the commandments of king Darius, <sup>2</sup> did very carefully oversee the holy works, assisting the elders of the Jews and rulers of the temple. <sup>3</sup> And so the holy works prospered, while Aggaeus and Zacharias the prophets prophesied. <sup>4</sup> And they finished these things by the commandment of the Lord, the God of Israel, and with the consent of Cyrus, Darius, and Artaxerxes, kings of the Persians. <sup>5</sup> And thus was <sup>z</sup> the house finished by the three and twentieth day of the month Adar, in the sixth year of king Darius. <sup>6</sup> And the children of Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the other that were of the captivity, that were added to them, did according to the things written in the book of Moses. <sup>7</sup> And to the dedication of the temple of the Lord they offered a hundred bullocks, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs; <sup>8</sup> and twelve he-goats for the sin of all Israel, according to the number of the twelve <sup>a</sup> princes of the tribes of Israel. <sup>9</sup> The priests also and the Levites stood arrayed in their vestments, according to their kindred, for the services of the Lord, the God of Israel, according to the book of Moses: and the porters at every gate.

<sup>10</sup> And the children of Israel that came out of the captivity held the passover the fourteenth day of the first month, when the priests and the Levites were sanctified together, <sup>11</sup> <sup>b</sup> and all they that were of the captivity; for they were sanctified. For the Levites were all sanctified together, <sup>12</sup> and they offered the passover for all them of the captivity, and for their brethren the priests, and for themselves. <sup>13</sup> And the children of Israel that came out of the captivity did eat, even all they that had separated themselves from the abominations of the heathen of the land, and sought the Lord. <sup>14</sup> And they kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days, making merry before the Lord, <sup>15</sup> for that he had turned the counsel of the king of Assyria toward them, to strengthen their hands in the works of the Lord, the God of Israel.

<sup>1</sup> <sup>1</sup> And after these things, when Artaxerxes the king of the Persians reigned, came Ezdras the son of Azaraias, the son of Zechrias, the son of Helkias, the son of Salem, <sup>2</sup> the son of Sadduk, the son of Ahitob, the son of Amarias, the son of Ozias, <sup>c</sup> the son of Memeroth, the son of Zariaas, the son of Savias, the son of Boccas, the son of Abisne, the son of Phinees, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, the chief priest. <sup>3</sup> This Esdras went up from Babylon, as being a ready scribe in the law of Moses, that was given by the God of Israel. <sup>4</sup> And the king did him honor: for he found grace in hid sight in all his requests. <sup>5</sup> There went up with him also certain of the children of Israel, and of the priests, and Levites, and holy singers, and porters, and <sup>d</sup> temple servants, to Jerusalem, <sup>6</sup> in the seventh year of the reign of Artaxerxes, in the fifth month, this was the king's seventh year; for they went from Babylon on the new moon of the first month, and came to Jerusalem, according to the prosperous journey which the Lord gave them <sup>e</sup> for his sake. <sup>7</sup> For Esdras had very great skill, so that he omitted nothing of the law and commandments of the Lord, but taught all Israel the ordinances and judgments.

<sup>8</sup> Now the commission, which was written from Artaxerxes the king, came to Esdras the priest and reader of the law of the Lord, whereof this that follows is a copy; <sup>9</sup> King Artaxerxes to Esdras the priest and reader of the law of the Lord, greeting: <sup>10</sup> Having determined to deal graciously, I have given order, that such of the nation of the Jews, and of the priests and Levites, <sup>f</sup> and of those within our realm, as are willing and desirous, should go with you to Jerusalem. <sup>11</sup> As many therefore as have a mind thereto, let them depart with you, as it has seemed good both to me and my seven friends the counselors; <sup>12</sup> that they may look to the affairs of Judaea and Jerusalem, agreeably to that which is in the law of the Lord, <sup>13</sup> and carry the gifts to the Lord of Israel to Jerusalem, which I and my friends have vowed; and that all the gold and silver that can be found in the country of Babylonia for the Lord in Jerusalem, <sup>14</sup> with that also which is given of the people for the temple of the Lord their God that is at Jerusalem, be collected: even the gold and silver for bullocks, rams, and lambs, and things thereto appertaining; <sup>15</sup> to the end that they may offer sacrifices to the Lord upon the altar of the Lord their God, which is in Jerusalem. <sup>16</sup> And whatever you and your brethren are minded to do with gold and silver, that perform, according to the will of your God. <sup>17</sup> And the holy vessels of the Lord, which are given you for the use of the temple of your God, which is in Jerusalem: <sup>18</sup> and whatever thing else you shall remember for the use of the temple of your God, you shall give it out of the king's treasury. <sup>19</sup> And I king Artaxerxes have also commanded the keepers of the treasures in Syria and Phoenicia, that whatever Esdras the priest and reader of the law of the Most High God shall send for, they should give it him with all diligence, <sup>20</sup> to the sum of a hundred talents of silver, likewise also of wheat even to a hundred <sup>g</sup> measures, and a hundred firkins of wine, and <sup>h</sup> salt in abundance. <sup>21</sup> Let all things be performed after the law of God diligently to the most high God, that wrath come not upon the kingdom of the king and his sons. <sup>22</sup> I command you also, that no tax, nor any other imposition, be laid upon any of the priests, or Levites, or holy singers, or porters, or temple servants, or any that have employment in this temple, and that no man have authority to impose anything upon them. <sup>23</sup> And you, Esdras, according to the wisdom of God ordain judges and justices, that they may judge in all Syria and Phoenicia all those that know the law of your God; and those that know it not you shall teach. <sup>24</sup> And whoever shall transgress the law of your God, and of the king, shall be punished diligently, whether it be by death, or other punishment, by penalty of money, or by <sup>i</sup> imprisonment.

<sup>25</sup> Then said Esdras the scribe, Blessed be the only Lord, the God of my fathers, who has put these things into the heart of the king, to glorify his house that is in Jerusalem: <sup>26</sup> and has honored me in the sight of the king, and his counselors, and all his friends and nobles. <sup>27</sup> Therefore was I encouraged by the help of the Lord my God, and gathered together out of Israel men to go up with me. <sup>28</sup> And these are the chief according to their families and the several divisions thereof, that went up with me from Babylon in the reign of king Artaxerxes: <sup>29</sup> of the sons of Phinees, Gerson: of the sons of Ithamar, Gamael: of the sons of David, <sup>j</sup> Attus <sup>k</sup> the son of Sechenias: <sup>30</sup> of the sons of Phoros, Zacharais; and with him were counted a hundred and fifty men: <sup>31</sup> of the sons of Phaath Moab, Eliaonias the son of <sup>l</sup> Zaraias, and with him two hundred men: <sup>32</sup> <sup>m</sup> of the sons of Zathoes, Sechenias the son of Jezelus, and with him <sup>n</sup> three hundred men: of the sons of Adin, Obeth the son of Jonathan, and with him two hundred and fifty men: <sup>33</sup> of the sons of Elam, Jesias son of Athaliah. <sup>41</sup> And I gathered them together to the river called Theras; and there we pitched our tents three days, and I surveyed them. <sup>42</sup> But when I had found there none of the priests and Levites, <sup>43</sup> then sent I to Eleazar, and Ariel Iduel, and Maasmas, <sup>44</sup> and Elnathan, and Samaias, and Jarib Joribus, Nathan, Ennatan, Zacharias, and Mosollamus, principal men and men of understanding. <sup>45</sup> And I bade them that they should go to Iddo Loddeus the captain, who was in the place of Casiphia, the treasury: <sup>46</sup> and commanded them that they should speak to Loddeus, and to his brethren, and to the treasurers in that place, to send us such men as might execute the priests' office in the house of our Lord. <sup>47</sup> And by the mighty hand of our Lord they brought to us <sup>p</sup> men of understanding of the sons of <sup>q</sup> Mooli the son of Levi, the son of Israel, <sup>r</sup> Asebebias, and his sons, and his brethren, who were eighteen, <sup>48</sup> and <sup>s</sup> Asebias, and Annuus, and Osaias his brother, of the sons of Chanuneus, and their sons were twenty men; <sup>49</sup> and of the temple-servants whom David and the principal men had appointed for the servants of the Levites, two hundred and twenty temple-servants, the catalogue of all their names was showed. <sup>50</sup> And there I vowed a fast for the young men before our Lord, to desire of him a prosperous journey both for us and for our children and cattle that were with us: <sup>51</sup> for I was ashamed to ask of the king footmen, and horsemen, and conduct for safeguard against our adversaries. <sup>52</sup> For we had said to the king, that the power of our Lord would be with them that seek him, to support them in all ways. <sup>53</sup> And again we implored our lord as touching these things, and found him favourable to us. <sup>54</sup> Then I separated twelve men of the chiefs of the priests, <sup>t</sup> Eserebias, and Assamias, and ten men of their brethren with them: <sup>55</sup> and I weighed them the silver, and the gold, and the holy vessels of the house of our Lord, which the king, and his counselors, and the nobles, and all Israel, had given. <sup>56</sup> And when I had weighed it, I delivered to them six hundred and fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels of a hundred talents, and a hundred talents of gold, <sup>57</sup> and twenty golden vessels, and twelve vessels of brass, even of fine brass, glittering like gold. <sup>58</sup> And I said to them, Both you<sup>u</sup> are holy to the Lord, <sup>u</sup> and the vessels are holy, and the gold and the silver are a vow to the Lord, the Lord of our fathers. <sup>59</sup> Watch you<sup>v</sup>, and keep them till you<sup>v</sup> deliver them to the chiefs of the priests and Levites, and to the principal men of the families of Israel, in Jerusalem, in the chambers of the house of our Lord. <sup>60</sup> So the priests and the Levites, who received the silver and the gold and the vessels which were in Jerusalem, brought them into the temple of the Lord.

<sup>61</sup> And from the river Theras we departed the twelfth day of the first month, until we came to Jerusalem, by the mighty hand of our Lord which was upon us: and the Lord delivered us from assault by the way, from every enemy, and so we came to Jerusalem. <sup>62</sup> And when we had been there three days, the silver and gold was weighed and delivered in the house of our Lord on the fourth day to <sup>v</sup> Marmoth the priest the son of <sup>w</sup> Urias. <sup>63</sup> And with him was Eleazar the son of Phinees, and with them were Josabodus the son of Jesus and <sup>x</sup> Moeth the son of Sabannus, the Levites: all was delivered them by number and weight. <sup>64</sup> And all the weight of them was written up the same hour. <sup>65</sup> Moreover they that were come out of the captivity offered sacrifices to the Lord, the God of Israel, even twelve bullocks for all Israel, fourscore and sixteen rams, <sup>66</sup> threescore and twelve lambs, goats for a peace offering, twelve; all of them a sacrifice to the Lord. <sup>67</sup> And they delivered the king's commandments to the king's stewards, and to the governors of Coelesyria and Phoenicia; and they honored the people and the temple of the Lord.

<sup>68</sup> Now when these things were done, the principal men came to me, and said, <sup>69</sup> The nation of Israel, and the princes, and the priests and the Levites, have not put away from them the strange people of the land, <sup>y</sup> nor the uncleannesses of the Gentiles, to wit, of the Canaanites, Hittites, Pherezites, Jebusites, and the Moabites, Egyptians, and Edomites. <sup>70</sup> For both they and their sons have married with their daughters, and the holy seed is mixed with the strange people of the land; and from the beginning of this matter the rulers and the nobles have been partakers of this iniquity. <sup>71</sup> And as soon as I had heard these things, I tore my clothes, and my holy garment, and plucked the hair from off my head and beard, and sat me down sad and full of heaviness. <sup>72</sup> So all they that were moved at the word of the Lord, the God of Israel, assembled to me, while I mourned for the iniquity: but I sat still full of heaviness until the evening sacrifice. <sup>73</sup> Then rising up from the fast with my clothes and my holy garment tore, and bowing my knees, and stretching forth my hands to the Lord, <sup>74</sup> I said, O Lord, I am ashamed and confounded before your face; <sup>75</sup> for our sins are multiplied above our heads, and our errors have reached up to heaven, <sup>76</sup> ever since the time of our fathers; and we are in great sin, even to this day. <sup>77</sup> And for our sins and our fathers' we with our brethren and our kings and our priests were given up to the kings of the earth, to the sword, and to captivity, and for a prey with shame, to this day. <sup>78</sup> And now in some measure has mercy been showed to us from you, O Lord, that there should be left us a root and a name in the place of your sanctuary; <sup>79</sup> and to discover to us a light in the house of the Lord our God, and to give us food in the time of our servitude. <sup>80</sup> Yes, when we were in bondage, we were not forsaken of our Lord; but he made us gracious before the kings of Persia, so that they gave us food, <sup>81</sup> and glorified the temple of our Lord, and raised up the desolate Sion, to give us a sure dwelling in Jewry and Jerusalem. <sup>82</sup> And now, O Lord, what shall we say, having these things? For we have transgressed your commandments, which you gave by the hand of your servants the prophets, saying, <sup>83</sup> That the land, which you<sup>23</sup> enter into to possess as a heritage, is a land polluted with the pollutions of the strangers of the land, and they have filled it with their uncleanness. <sup>84</sup> Therefore now shall you<sup>23</sup> not join your daughters to their sons, neither shall you<sup>23</sup> take their daughters to your sons. <sup>85</sup> Neither shall you<sup>23</sup> seek to have peace with them for ever, that you<sup>23</sup> may be strong, and eat the good things of the land, and that you<sup>23</sup> may leave it for an inheritance to your children for evermore. <sup>86</sup> And all that is befallen is done to us for our wicked works and great sins: for you, O Lord, did make our sins light, <sup>87</sup> and did give to us such a root: but we have turned back again to transgress your law, in mingling ourselves with the uncleanness of the heathen of the land. <sup>88</sup> <sup>z</sup> You was not angry with us to destroy us, till you had left us neither root, seed, nor name. <sup>89</sup> O Lord of Israel, you are true: for we are left a root this day. <sup>90</sup> Behold, now are we before you in our iniquities, for we can't stand any longer before you by reason of these things.

<sup>91</sup> <sup>2</sup> And as Esdras in his prayer made his confession, weeping, and lying flat upon the ground before the temple, there gathered to him from Jerusalem a very great throng of men and women and children: for there was great weeping among the multitude. <sup>92</sup> Then Jechonias the son of Jeelus, one of the sons of Israel, called out, and said, O Esdras, we have sinned against the Lord God, we have married strange women of the heathen of the land, and now is all Israel <sup>a</sup> aloft. <sup>93</sup> Let us make an oath to the Lord herein, that we will put away all our wives, which we have taken of the strangers, with their children, <sup>94</sup> like as seems good to you, and to as many as do obey the Law of the Lord. <sup>95</sup> Arise, and put in execution: for to you does this matter appertain, and we will be with you to do valiantly. <sup>96</sup> So Esdras arose, and took an oath of the chief of the priests and Levites of all Israel to do after these things; and so they sware.

<sup>1</sup> <sup>1</sup> Then Esdras rising from the court of the temple went to the chamber of Jonas the son of Eliasib, <sup>2</sup> and lodged there, and did eat no bread nor drink water, mourning for the great iniquities of the multitude. <sup>3</sup> And there was made proclamation in all Jewry and Jerusalem to all them that were of the captivity, that they should be gathered together at Jerusalem: <sup>4</sup> and that whoever met not there within two or three days, according as the elders that bare rule appointed, their cattle should be seized to the use of the temple, and himself cast out from the multitude of them that were of the captivity.

<sup>5</sup> And in three days were all they of the tribe of Judah and Benjamin gathered together at Jerusalem: this was the ninth month, on the twentieth day of the month. <sup>6</sup> And all the multitude sat together trembling in the broad place before the temple because of the present foul weather. <sup>7</sup> So Esdras arose up and said to them, you<sup>23</sup> have transgressed the law and married strange wives, thereby to increase the sins of Israel. <sup>8</sup> And now make confession and give glory to the Lord, the God of our fathers, <sup>9</sup> and do his will, and separate yourselves from the heathen of the land, and from the strange women. <sup>10</sup> Then cried the whole multitude, and said with a loud voice, Like as you have spoken, so will we do. <sup>11</sup> But forasmuch as the multitude is great, and it is foul weather, so that we can't stand without, and this is not a work of one day or two, seeing our sin in these things is spread far: <sup>12</sup> therefore let the rulers of the multitude stay, and let all them of our habitations that have strange wives come at the time appointed, <sup>13</sup> and with them the rulers and judges of every place, till we turn away the wrath of the Lord from us for this matter. <sup>14</sup> Then Jonathan the son of Azael and <sup>b</sup> Ezekias the son of Thocanus accordingly took the matter upon them: and Mosollamus and Levis and Sabbateus were assessors to them. <sup>15</sup> And they that were of the captivity did according to all these things.

<sup>16</sup> And Esdras the priest chose to him principal men of their families, all by name: and on the new moon of the tenth month they were shut in together to examine the matter. <sup>17</sup> So their cause that held strange wives was brought to an end by the new moon of the first month. <sup>18</sup> And of the priests that were come together, and had strange wives, there were found; <sup>19</sup> of the sons of Jesus the son of Josedek, and his brethren; <sup>c</sup> Mathelas, and Eleazar, and <sup>d</sup> Joribus, and <sup>e</sup> Joadanus. <sup>20</sup> And they gave their hands to put away their wives, and to offer rams to make reconcilment for their error. <sup>21</sup> And of the sons of Emmer; Ananias, and Zabdeus, and <sup>f</sup> Manes, and <sup>g</sup> Sameus, and <sup>h</sup> Hiereel, and <sup>i</sup> Azarias. <sup>22</sup> And of the sons of <sup>j</sup> Phaisur; Elionas, Massias, Ismael, and Nathanael, and <sup>k</sup> Ocidelus, and <sup>l</sup> Saloas. <sup>23</sup> And of the Levites; Jozabdu, and Semeis, and <sup>m</sup> Colius, who was called <sup>n</sup> Calitas, and <sup>o</sup> Patheus, and Judas, and Jonas. <sup>24</sup> Of the holy singers; <sup>p</sup> Eliasibus, Bacchurus. <sup>25</sup> Of the porters: Sallumus, and <sup>q</sup> Tolbanes. <sup>26</sup> Of Israel, of the sons of <sup>r</sup> Phoros; <sup>s</sup> Hiermas, and <sup>t</sup> Ieddias, and Melchias, and <sup>u</sup> Maelus, and Eleazar, and <sup>v</sup> Asibas, and Banneas. <sup>27</sup> Of the sons of Ela; Matthanias, Zacharias, and <sup>w</sup> Jezrielus, and Oabdius, and Hieremoth, and <sup>x</sup> Aedias. <sup>28</sup> And of the sons of <sup>y</sup> Zamoth; <sup>z</sup> Eliadas, <sup>a</sup> Eliasimus, <sup>b</sup> Othonias, Jarimoth, and <sup>c</sup> Sabathus, and <sup>d</sup> Zardeus. <sup>29</sup> Of the sons of Bebai; Joannes, and Ananias, and <sup>e</sup> Jozabdu, and <sup>f</sup> Ematheis. <sup>30</sup> Of the sons of <sup>g</sup> Mani; <sup>h</sup> Olamus, <sup>i</sup> Mamuchus, <sup>j</sup> Jedeus, Jasubas, and <sup>k</sup> Jasaelus, and Hieremoth. <sup>31</sup> And of the sons of Addi; Naathus, and Moossias, Laccunus, and Naidus, and Matthanias, and Sesthel, Balnuus, and Manasseas. <sup>32</sup> And of the sons of Annas; Elionas, and Aseas, and Melchias, and Sabbeus, and Simon Chosameus. <sup>33</sup> And of the sons of Asom; <sup>l</sup> Maltanneus, and <sup>m</sup> Mattathias, and <sup>n</sup> Sabanneus, Eliphalat, and Manasses, and Semei. <sup>34</sup> And of the sons of Baani;

Jeremias, Momdis, Ismaerus, Juel, Mamdai, and Pedias, and Anos, Carabasion, and Enasibus, and Mamnitamenus, Eliasis, Bannus, Eliali, Someis, Selemias, Nathanias: and of the sons of Ezora; Sesis, Ezril, Azaelus, Samatus, Zambri, Josephus. <sup>35</sup> And of the sons of Nooma; Mazitias, Zabadeas, Edos, Juel, Banaias. <sup>36</sup> All these had taken strange wives, and they put them away with their children. <sup>37</sup> And the priests and Levites, and they that were of Israel, lived in Jerusalem, and in the country, on the new moon of the seventh month, and the children of Israel in their habitations.

<sup>38</sup> <sup>2</sup> And the whole multitude were gathered together with one accord into the broad place before the porch of the temple toward the east: <sup>39</sup> and they said to Esdras the priest and reader, Bring the law of Moses, that was given of the Lord, the God of Israel. <sup>40</sup> So Esdras the chief priest brought the law to the whole multitude both of men and women, and to all the priests, to hear the law on the new moon of the seventh month. <sup>41</sup> And he read in the broad place before the porch of the temple from morning to mid-day, before both men and women; and <sup>o</sup> all the multitude gave heed to the law. <sup>42</sup> And Esdras the priest and reader of the law stood up upon the pulpit of wood, which was made for that purpose. <sup>43</sup> And there stood up by him Mattathias, Sammus, Ananias, Azarias, Urias, <sup>p</sup> Ezekias, Baalsamus, upon the right hand: <sup>44</sup> and upon his left hand, <sup>q</sup> Phaldeus, Misael, Melchias, <sup>r</sup> Lothasubus, Nabarias, Zacharias. <sup>45</sup> Then took Esdras the book of the law before the multitude, and sat honorably in the first place before all. <sup>46</sup> And when he opened the law, they stood all straight up. So Esdras blessed the Lord God Most High, the God of hosts, Almighty. <sup>47</sup> And all the people answered, Amen; and lifting up their hands they fell to the ground, and worshipped the Lord. <sup>48</sup> Also Jesus, Annus, Sarabias, Iadinus, Jacobus, Sabateus, <sup>s</sup> Auteas, Maiannas, and Calitas, Azarias, and Jozabdus, and Ananias, Phalias, the Levites, taught the law of the Lord, <sup>t</sup> and read to the multitude the law of the Lord, making them withal to understand it. <sup>49</sup> Then said Attharates to Esdras the chief priest and reader, and to the Levites that taught the multitude, even to all, <sup>50</sup> This day is holy to the Lord; (now they all wept when they heard the law:) <sup>51</sup> go then, and eat the fat, and drink the sweet, and send portions to them that have nothing; <sup>52</sup> for the day is holy to the Lord: and be not sorrowful; for the Lord will bring you to honor. <sup>53</sup> So the Levites published all things to the people, saying, This day is holy; be not sorrowful. <sup>54</sup> Then they went their way, every one to eat and drink, and make merry, and to give portions to them that had nothing, and to make great cheer; <sup>55</sup> because they <sup>u</sup> understood the words wherein they were instructed, and for the which they had been assembled.

2 ESDRAS

1

<sup>1</sup> THE second book of the prophet Esdras, Saraias, the son of Azaraias, the son of Helkias, the son of Salemas, the son of Sadoe, the son of Ahitob, <sup>2</sup> the son of Achias, the son of Phinees, the son of Heli, the son of Amarias, the son of Aziei, the son of Marimoth, the son of Arna, the son of Ozias, the son of Borith, the son of Abissei, the son of Phinees, the son of Eleazar, <sup>3</sup> the son of Aaron, of the tribe of Levi; which was captive in the land of the Medes, in the reign of Artaxerxes king of the Persians.

<sup>4</sup> And the word of the Lord came to me, saying, <sup>5</sup> Go your way, and show my people their sinful deeds, and their children their wickedness which they have done against me; that they may tell their children's children: <sup>6</sup> because the sins of their fathers are increased in them: for they have forgotten me, and have done sacrifice to strange gods. <sup>7</sup> Did I not bring them out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage? but they have provoked me to wrath, and have despised my counsels. <sup>8</sup> Shake you then the hair of your head, and cast all evils upon them, for they have not been obedient to my law, but it is a rebellious people. <sup>9</sup> How long shall I forbear them, to whom I have done so much good? <sup>10</sup> Many kings have I overthrown for their sakes; Pharaoh with his servants and all his host have I struck down. <sup>11</sup> All the nations have I destroyed before them, and in the east I have scattered the people of two provinces, even of Tyre and Sidon, and have slain all their adversaries. <sup>12</sup> Speak you therefore to them, saying, <sup>13</sup> Thus says the Lord, of a truth I brought you through the sea, and where there was no path I made for you highways; I gave you Moses for a leader, and Aaron for a priest. <sup>14</sup> I gave you light in a pillar of fire, and great wonders have I done among you; yet have you forgotten me, says the Lord.

<sup>15</sup> Thus says the Lord Almighty, The quails were for a token to you; I gave you a camp for your safeguard, nevertheless you murmured there: <sup>16</sup> and you triumphed not in my name for the destruction of your enemies, but ever to this day do you yet murmur. <sup>17</sup> Where are the benefits that I have done for you? when you were hungry and thirsty in the wilderness, did you not cry to me, <sup>18</sup> saying, Why have you brought us into this wilderness to kill us? it had been better for us to have served the Egyptians, than to die in this wilderness. <sup>19</sup> I had pity upon your mournings, and gave you manna for food; you did eat angels' bread. <sup>20</sup> When you were thirsty, did I not cleave the rock, and waters flowed out to your fill? for the heat I covered you with the leaves of the trees. <sup>21</sup> I divided among you fruitful lands; I cast out the Canaanites, the Pherezites, and the Philistines, before you: what shall I yet do more for you? says the Lord.

<sup>22</sup> Thus says the Lord Almighty, When you were in the wilderness, at the bitter river, being thirsty, and blaspheming my name, <sup>23</sup> I gave you not fire for your blasphemies, but cast a tree in the water, and made the river sweet. <sup>24</sup> What shall I do to you, O Jacob? you, Judah, would not obey me: I will turn me to other nations, and to them will I give my name, that they may keep my statutes. <sup>25</sup> Seeing you<sup>23</sup> have forsaken me, I also will forsake you; when you<sup>23</sup> ask me to be merciful to you, I will have no mercy upon you. <sup>26</sup> Whenever you<sup>23</sup> shall call upon me, I will not hear you: for you<sup>23</sup> have defiled your hands with blood, and your feet are swift to commit manslaughter. <sup>27</sup> You<sup>23</sup> have not as it were forsaken me, but your own selves, says the Lord.

<sup>28</sup> Thus says the Lord Almighty, Have I not prayed you as a father his sons, as a mother her daughters, and a nurse her young babes, <sup>29</sup> that you<sup>23</sup> would be my people, and I should be your God; that you<sup>23</sup> would be my children, and I should be your father? <sup>30</sup> I gathered you together, as a hen gathers her chickens under her wings: but now, what shall I do to you? I will cast you out from my presence. <sup>31</sup> When you<sup>23</sup> offer oblations to me, I will turn my face from you: for your solemn feast days, your new moons, and your circumcisions of the flesh, have I rejected. <sup>32</sup> I sent to you my servants the prophets, whom you<sup>23</sup> have taken and slain, and torn their bodies in pieces, whose blood I will require of your hands, says the Lord.

<sup>33</sup> Thus says the Lord Almighty, Your house is desolate, I will cast you out as the wind does stubble. <sup>34</sup> And your children shall not be fruitful; for they have neglected my commandment <sup>a</sup> to you, and done that which is evil before me. <sup>35</sup> Your houses will I give to a people that shall come; which not having heard of me yet believe me; they to whom I have showed no signs shall do that which I have commanded. <sup>36</sup> They have seen no prophets, yet they shall call their former estate to remembrance. <sup>37</sup> I take to witness the grace of the people that shall come, whose little ones rejoice with gladness: and though they see me not with bodily eyes, yet in spirit they shall believe the thing that I say.

<sup>38</sup> And now, O father, behold with glory; and see the people that come from the east: <sup>39</sup> to whom I will give for leaders, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, Oseas, Amos, and Micheas, Joel, Abdias, and Jonas, Nahum, and Abacuc, Sophonias, Aggaeus, Zachary, and Malachy, which is called also the angel of the Lord.

2

<sup>1</sup> Thus says the Lord, I brought this people out of bondage, and I gave them my commandments by my servants the prophets; whom they would not hear, but set my counsels at nothing. <sup>2</sup> The mother that bare them says to them, go your way, O my children; for I am a widow and forsaken. <sup>3</sup> I brought you up with gladness, and with sorrow and heaviness have I lost you: for you<sup>23</sup> have sinned before the Lord God, and done that which is evil before me. <sup>4</sup> But what shall I now do to you? for I am a widow and forsaken: go your way, O my children, and ask mercy of the Lord. <sup>5</sup> As for me, O father, I call upon you for a witness over the mother of these children, because they would not keep my covenant, <sup>6</sup> that you bring them to confusion, and their mother to a spoil, that there may be no offspring of them. <sup>7</sup> Let them be scattered abroad among the heathen, let their names be blotted out of the earth: for they have despised my <sup>b</sup> covenant. <sup>8</sup> Woe to you, Assur, you that hide the unrighteous with you! O you wicked nation, remember what I did to Sodom and Gomorrah; <sup>9</sup> whose land lies in clods of pitch and heaps of ashes: even so also will I do to them that have not hearkened to me, says the Lord Almighty.

<sup>10</sup> Thus says the Lord to Esdras, Tell my people that I will give them the kingdom of Jerusalem, which I would have given to Israel. <sup>11</sup> Their glory also will I take to me, and give these the everlasting tabernacles, which I had prepared for them. <sup>12</sup> They shall have the tree of life for an ointment of sweet savor; they shall neither labor, nor be weary. <sup>13</sup> <sup>c</sup> Ask, and you  shall receive: pray for few days to you, that they may be shortened: the kingdom is already prepared for you: watch. <sup>14</sup> Take heaven and earth to witness, take them to witness; for I have given up the evil, and created the good: for I live, says the Lord.

<sup>15</sup> Mother, embrace your children; I will bring them out with gladness like a dove; establish their feet; for I have chosen you, says the Lord. <sup>16</sup> And those that be dead will I raise up again from their places, and bring them out from their tombs: for I <sup>d</sup> have known my name in them. <sup>17</sup> Fear not, you mother of the children: for I have chosen you, says the Lord. <sup>18</sup> For your help will I send my servants Esaias and Jeremy, after whose counsel I have sanctified and prepared for you twelve trees laden with various fruits, <sup>19</sup> and as many fountains flowing with milk and honey, and seven mighty mountains, whereupon there grow roses and lilies, whereby I will fill your children with joy. <sup>20</sup> Do right to the widow, judge the fatherless, give to the poor, defend the orphan, clothe the naked, <sup>21</sup> heal the broken and the weak, laugh not a lame man to scorn, defend the maimed, and let the blind man come to the sight of my glory. <sup>22</sup> Keep the old and young within your walls. <sup>23</sup> Wherever you find the dead, set a sign upon them and commit them to the grave, and I will give you the first place in my resurrection. <sup>24</sup> Abide still, O my people, and take your rest, for your quietness shall come. <sup>25</sup> Nourish your children, O you good nurse, and establish their feet. <sup>26</sup> As for the servants whom I have given you, there shall not one of them perish; for I will require them from among your number. <sup>27</sup> Be not careful overmuch: for when the day of tribulation and anguish comes, others shall weep and be sorrowful, but you shall be merry and have abundance. <sup>28</sup> The nations shall envy you, but they shall be able to do nothing against you, says the Lord. <sup>29</sup> My hands shall cover you, so that your children see not <sup>e</sup> hell. <sup>30</sup> Be joyful, O you mother, with your children; for I will deliver you, says the Lord. <sup>31</sup> Remember your children that sleep, for I shall bring them out of the secret places of the earth, and show mercy to them: for I am merciful, says the Lord Almighty. <sup>32</sup> Embrace your children until I come, and proclaim mercy to them: for my wells run over, and my grace shall not fail.

<sup>33</sup> I Esdras received a charge from the Lord upon the mount Horeb, that I should go to Israel; but when I came to them, they would none of me, and rejected the commandment of the Lord..<sup>34</sup> And therefore I say to you, O you<sup>23</sup> nations, that hear and understand, look for your shepherd, he shall give you everlasting rest; for he is near at hand, that shall come in the end of the world.<sup>35</sup> Be ready to the rewards of the kingdom, for the everlasting light shall shine upon you for evermore.<sup>36</sup> Flee the shadow of this world, receive the joyfulness of your glory: I call to witness my savior openly.<sup>37</sup> O receive that which is given you of the Lord, and be joyful, giving thanks to him that has called you to heavenly kingdoms.<sup>38</sup> Arise up and stand, and behold the number of those that be sealed in the feast of the Lord;<sup>39</sup> they that withdrew them from the shadow of the world have received glorious garments of the Lord.<sup>40</sup> <sup>f</sup> Look upon your number, O Sion, and make up the reckoning of those of your that are clothed in white, which have fulfilled the law of the Lord.<sup>41</sup> The number of your children, whom you longest for, is fulfilled: beseech the power of the Lord, that your people, which have been called from the beginning, may be hallowed.

<sup>42</sup> I Esdras saw upon the mount Sion a great multitude, whom I could not number, and they all praised the Lord with songs.<sup>43</sup> And in the midst of them there was a young man of a high stature, taller than all the rest, and upon every one of their heads he set crowns, and was more exalted; whereat I marveled greatly.<sup>44</sup> So I asked the angel, and said, What are these, my Lord? <sup>45</sup> He answered and said to me, These be they that have put off the mortal clothing, and put on the immortal, and have confessed the name of God: now are they crowned, and receive palms.<sup>46</sup> Then said I to the angel, What young man is he that sets crowns upon them, and gives them palms in their hands? <sup>47</sup> So he answered and said to me, It is the Son of God, whom they have confessed in the world. Then began I greatly to commend them that stood so stiffly for the name of the Lord.<sup>48</sup> Then the angel said to me, Go your way, and tell my people what manner of things, and how great wonders of the Lord God you have seen.

3

<sup>1</sup> In the thirties year after the ruin of the city, I Salathiel (the same is Esdras) was in Babylon, and lay troubled upon my bed, and my thoughts came up over my heart: <sup>2</sup> for I saw the desolation of Sion, and the wealth of them that lived at Babylon. <sup>3</sup> And my spirit was sore moved, so that I began to speak words full of fear to the Most High, and said, <sup>4</sup> O Lord that bear rule, did you not not speak at the beginning, when you did fashion the earth, and that yourself alone, and command the <sup>g</sup> dust. <sup>5</sup> and it <sup>h</sup> gave you Adam, a body without a soul? yet it was the workmanship of your hands, and you did breathe into him the breath of life, and he was made living before you. <sup>6</sup> And you led him into paradise, which your right hand did plant, before ever the earth came forward. <sup>7</sup> And to him you gave your one commandment: which he transgressed, and immediately you appointed death for him and in his generations; and there were born of him nations and tribes, peoples and kindred, out of number. <sup>8</sup> And every nation walked after their own will, and did ungodly things before you, and despised your commandments, and you did not forbid them. <sup>9</sup> Nevertheless again in process of time you brought the flood upon those that lived in the world, and destroyed them. <sup>10</sup> And it came to pass that the same hap befell them; like as death was to Adam, so was the flood to these. <sup>11</sup> Nevertheless one of them you left, Noah with his household, even all the righteous men that came of him. <sup>12</sup> And it came to pass, that when they that lived upon the earth began to multiply, they multiplied also children, and peoples, and many nations, and began again to be more ungodly than the first. <sup>13</sup> And it came to pass, when they did wickedly before you, you did choose you one from among them, whose name was Abraham; <sup>14</sup> and him you loved, and to him only you showed the end of the times secretly by night: <sup>15</sup> and made an everlasting covenant with him, promising him that you would never forsake his seed. <sup>16</sup> And to him you gave Isaac, and to Isaac you gave Jacob and Esau. And you did set apart Jacob for yourself, but did put by Esau: and Jacob became a great multitude. <sup>17</sup> And it came to pass, that when you led his seed out of Egypt, you brought them up to the mount Sinai. <sup>18</sup> You bowed the heavens also, and did <sup>i</sup> shake the earth, and movedst the whole world, and made the depths to tremble, and troubled the course of that age. <sup>19</sup> And your glory went through four gates, of fire, and of earthquake, and of wind, and of cold; that you might give the law to the seed of Jacob, and the commandment to the generation of Israel. <sup>20</sup> And yet took you not away from them their <sup>j</sup> wicked heart, that your law might bring forth fruit in them. <sup>21</sup> For the first Adam bearing a <sup>k</sup> wicked heart transgressed, and was overcome; and not he only, but all they also that are born of him. <sup>22</sup> Thus disease was made permanent; and the law was in the heart of the people along with the <sup>l</sup> wickedness of the root; so the good departed away, and that which was <sup>m</sup> wicked abode still. <sup>23</sup> So the times passed away, and the years were brought to an end: then did you raise you up a servant, called David, <sup>24</sup> whom you commanded to build a city to your name, and to offer oblations to you therein of your own. <sup>25</sup> When this was done many years, then they that inhabited the city did evil, <sup>26</sup> in all things doing even as Adam and all his generations had done: for they also bare a <sup>n</sup> wicked heart: <sup>27</sup> and so you gave your city over into the hands of your enemies. <sup>28</sup> And I said then in mine heart, are their deeds any better that inhabit Babylon? and has she therefore dominion over Sion? <sup>29</sup> For it came to pass when I came hither, that I saw also impieties without number, and my soul saw many evil-doers in this thirties year, so that my heart failed me. <sup>30</sup> For I have seen how you suffer them sinning, and have spared the ungodly doers, and have destroyed your people, and have preserved your enemies; and you have not signified <sup>31</sup> to any <sup>o</sup> how your way may be comprehended. Are the deeds of Babylon better than those of Sion? <sup>32</sup> Or is there any other nation that knows you beside Israel? or what tribes have so believed your covenants as these tribes of Jacob? <sup>33</sup> And yet their reward appears not, and their labor has no fruit: for I have gone hither and there through the nations, and I see that they abound in wealth, and think not upon your commandments. <sup>34</sup> Weigh you therefore our iniquities now in the balance, and theirs also that dwell in the world; and so shall it be found which way the scale inclines. <sup>35</sup> Or when was it that they which dwell upon the earth have not sinned in your sight? or what nation has so kept your commandments? <sup>36</sup> You shall find that men who may be reckoned by name have kept your precepts; but nations you shall not find.

<sup>1</sup> And the angel that was sent to me, whose name was Uriel, gave me an answer, <sup>2</sup> and said to me, your heart has utterly failed you in regarding this world, and think you to comprehend the way of the Most High?

<sup>3</sup> Then said I, Yes my Lord.

And he answered me, and said, I am sent to show you three ways, and to set forth three similitudes before you: <sup>4</sup> whereof if you can declare me one, I also will show you the way that you desire to see, and I will teach you wherefore the heart is <sup>p</sup> wicked.

<sup>5</sup> And I said, say on, my Lord.

Then said he to me, Go to, weigh me a weight of fire, or measure me a <sup>q</sup> measure of wind, or call me again the day that is past.

<sup>6</sup> Then answered I and said, who of the sons of men is able to do this, that you should ask me of such things?

<sup>7</sup> And he said to me, If I had asked you, saying, How many dwellings are there in the heart of the sea? or how many springs are there at the fountain head of the deep? or how many <sup>r</sup> ways are above the firmament? or which are the outgoings <sup>s</sup> of hell? or which are the paths of paradise? <sup>8</sup> perhaps you would say to me, I never went down into the deep, nor as yet into hell, neither did I ever climb up into heaven. <sup>9</sup> Nevertheless now have I asked you but only of the fire and wind, and of the day, things wherethrough you have passed, and <sup>t</sup> without which you can not be, and yet have you given me no answer of them.

<sup>10</sup> He said moreover to me, Your own things, that are grown up with you, can you not know; <sup>11</sup> how then can your vessel comprehend the way of the Most High? and how can he that is already worn out with the corrupted world understand <sup>u</sup> incorruption?

<sup>12</sup> <sup>v</sup> And when I heard these things I fell upon my face, and said to him, It were better that we were not here at all, than that we should come here and live in the midst of ungodliness, and suffer, and not know wherefore.

<sup>13</sup> He answered me, and said, <sup>w</sup> The woods of the trees of the field went forth, and took counsel together, <sup>14</sup> and said, Come, let us go and make war against the sea, that it may depart away before us, and that we may make us more woods. <sup>15</sup> The waves of the sea also in like manner took counsel together, and said, Come, let us go up and subdue the wood of the plain, that there also we may make us another country. <sup>16</sup> The counsel of the wood was in vain, for the fire came and consumed it: <sup>17</sup> likewise also the counsel of the waves of the sea, for the sand stood up and stopped them. <sup>18</sup> If you were judge now between these two, whom would you justify, or whom condemn?

<sup>19</sup> I answered and said, it is a foolish counsel that they both have taken, for the ground is given to the wood, and the place of the sea is given to bear his waves.

<sup>20</sup> Then answered he me, and said, You have given a right judgement, and why judge you not in your own case? <sup>21</sup> For like as the ground is given to the wood, and the sea to his waves, even so they that dwell upon the earth may understand nothing but that which is upon the earth: and he only that dwells above the heavens may understand the things that are above the height of the heavens.

<sup>22</sup> Then answered I and said, I beseech you, O Lord, <sup>x</sup> wherefore is the power of understanding given to me? <sup>23</sup> For it was not in my mind to be curious of the ways above, but of such things as pass by us daily; because Israel is given up as a reproach to the heathen, and the people whom you have loved is given over to ungodly nations, and the law of our forefathers is made of none effect, and the written covenants are nowhere regarded, <sup>24</sup> and we pass away out of the world as grasshoppers, and our life is as a <sup>y</sup> vapor, neither are we worthy to obtain mercy. <sup>25</sup> What will he then do for his name whereby we are called? Of these things have I asked.
